MRS. A. F. COOPER PASSES

It is with sincere regret that we report in this issue the passing at Toronto of Mrs. A. F. Cooper. Born at Kingston, Ontario, Mrs. Cooper spent the greater part of her early life at Barrie, where she received her education, graduating from Barrie Collegiate. Until her marriage at Barrie in 1895 to Mr. Cooper, Mrs. Cooper taught school in Ontario. Until recent years Mr. and Mrs. Cooper lived at Longford, Ontario, where three sons and one daughter were born — Mrs. Philip Han, Old Greenwich, Conn.; Charles of New York, a well known dress designer; Orlo of South River, Ontario, and Sgt. E. F. Cooper, at present overseas. One grandchild, Garnet Han, is a member of the Art Students League of New York City.

During the last war, Mrs. Cooper organized a branch of the Red Cross in Longford and for her work during the flu epidemic of 1918 was made a life member of the Canadian Red Cross. Mrs. Cooper was keenly disappointed when illness and poor health made it impossible for her to take an active part in Red Cross activities during the present war, however, she took it upon herself to see that six of our boys overseas were properly taken care of.

Many Ontario fanciers and showing clubs will testify to Mrs. Cooper's consistent generosity in supporting whenever and however possible shows held in this province. Her kennel name, O'Dolina is well known both in Canada and the United States, and many of her Borzois have made their mark at the dog shows. Among these are Champions Kado Nalya O'Dolina, Kado Nikita O'Dolina, Kado Strelka O'Dolina and Kado Beloff O'Dolina; the latter an American champion also.

The service was conducted at her home by the Rev. Mr. Robinson of Pickering, Ont., for whom Mrs. Cooper was Sunday School Superintendent at Longford, where Mr. Robinson was Rector for a number of years. To Mr. Cooper and the other members of the family we extend at this time our deepest sympathy.
