We Are Booking Space for DOGS IN CANADA Christmas Number

IT is our desire again to demonstrate to the world that our motto is "Carry On Canada" — that we are a united community with one common object—the maintenance of canine culture and the quality of our dogs until the war is won and on into the days of peace.

Dog lovers supported our Christmas number of 1942 splendidly. We invite them to give similar patronage to that of 1943 and make "Dogs In Canada" their shop window.

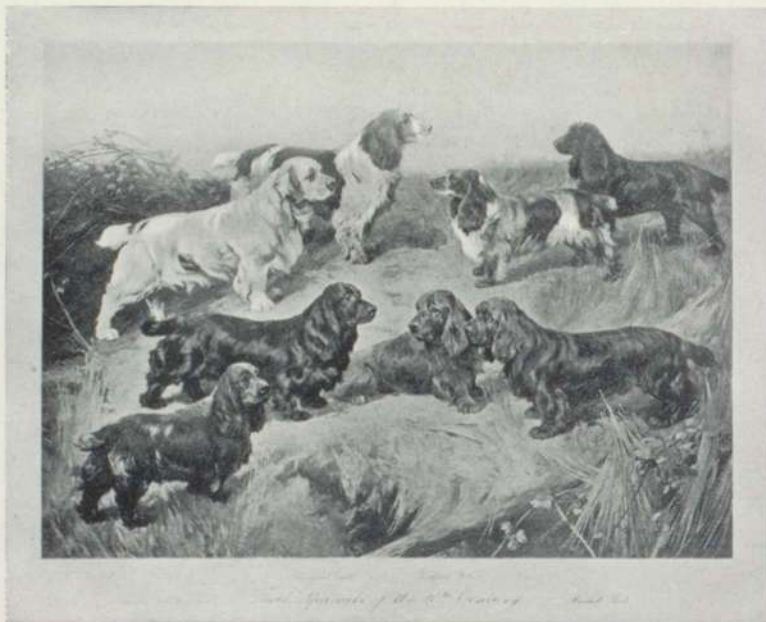

Now that shows are so much curtailed and so few and far between, "Dogs In Canada" becomes the chief dog market, and with our ever increasing circulation from coast to coast as well as in the United changed, is reflected in the hundreds of unsolicited eulogistic testimonials we have received from our readers all over Canada and the U.S. and from Great Britain.

States and Great Britain, it is THE medium for putting your goods

Although we are fighting the most terrible war the world has ever known and so many businesses are so badly hit—yet we find them continuing to advertise. Let the dog people take a lesson from various manufacturers who, with superb courage, confidence and foresight, continue to advertise, for they have learned well the lessons which have made and maintained the British Empire as the world's greatest trader.

The Record Breaking International Champion "SAINTS REST DOUBLE ACE"

This Boston Terrier's career for the International title was one of unusual brilliancy, for he was awarded the required number of points in Canada and the United States in the very short period of 3½ months, figured consecutively from the date of his first Winners award. This constituted a new all-time record for the Boston Breed, and the records still stands.

Furthermore, the necessary 10 points in Canada and 15 points in the United States were gained at Major shows, all having 3 points or more in Bostons, and totalling eight shows. The records have been carefully searched to find another Boston that has equalled this show record on the way to an International title.

Acknowledged experts of the breed consider him to have the most perfect head of any Boston alive today.

His sire, the late "Easter Parade", was also owned by the Schellings, and Easter Parade's dam, the mother of U.S. Ch. "Royal Easter Parade", is still alive in their kennels.

Two half-sisters of Double Ace, both sired by Easter Parade, are the well-known U.S. Ch. "Dawn Of Shore Meadow", and the recent C.K.C. Ch., "Saints Rest Highland Queen".

Another outstanding product of Saints Rest is U.S. Ch. "Saints Rest Mischief", Best of Breed at Westminster in 1941.

Boston Terriers sired by Saints Rest studs, or out of Saints Rest broods, have acquired over 130 Championship Points in Canada and the United States during the past four years. A truly remarkable record.

The kennels take the name "Saints Rest" from the Schellings' lovely summer estate located on the Niagara River Blvd., about four miles downstream from Fort Erie, Ont.

WHY I'M GLAD I'M A COLLIE

By Kerrin

Hello, Canadian friends! My mistress says she cannot say why she prefers a Collie, so I'll tell you why I'm glad I am one. Would like to give you a brief history of our breed and some of mine.

The origin of the Collie is not definitely known but it is supposed that he descended directly from the wild dog, or that he came across Europe and found Scotland and England so to his liking that he stayed there tending the sheep. These sheep most frequently raised had black faces and the Anglo-Saxon word for black was "coll". The sheep were known as "colley sheep" and as the prevailing color of the original dog now called "Collie" was black, it became known as the "colley dog" and tended the "colley sheep". The word was pronounced "coalie" and in Scotland is still pronounced that way.

The Collie was and is a hard worker, faithful and intelligent. He still has all these qualities and must be racily built, have good shoulders, legs and feet, also strong loins and quarters, so that he can travel, gallop or trot for hours without exhaustion. His head should be long, (blunt wedged shaped) to enable the dog more readily to nip the cattle or sheep. As he works by sight and sound, he should have small intelligent eyes, dark in color, and small semi-erect ears. A profuse coat is necessary to keep him warm in winter and cool in summer. There are four colors of Collies, tri (black, white and tan), sable and white (sable is brown) blue merle (greyish blue body coat, mottled with black) and white, (tri head, or sable, body spots are allowed but not over 20 per cent other color than white). No dog is more adaptable to existing conditions than the Collie. He is at home in a house and thoroughly enjoys himself in a small yard. All he asks is a reasonable chance to get a daily supply of fresh air, food and water and to be with those he loves. Most Collies of to-day are not farm dogs, but have learned to transfer their working habits to protecting and guarding their loved ones and their homes in the cities. Many heroic deeds are told of the Collie in life saving and courageous feats, and many today are in Dogs for Defense.

My own origin is not so important, I had a nice mother and a nice father and was the usual fluffy, cuddly puppy, the only unusual thing about me was that I'm all white except my head which is sable. I lived the usual life of a puppy until my mistress took me into her home and then I really started a "dog's life". Coddled and spoiled and petted. That was swell until my folks decided I needed a mate. They got me one, Thea Bride of Kerrin, and we proceeded to set up housekeeping. Our family came all at once, one day we were two and the next day twelve. This was a little bit too much for the house so it was decided to build a kennel to house us, as the folks couldn't part with any of the children.

The puppies were then trained, they weren't going to be the "spoiled brats" that I had been, so when they were six months old they were acting as veterans about a show and started on their careers. Out of this family we had two champions, I am very proud for I am the first white sire of any champion and I had two. Ch. Kerrin-Layle, my first born is the first and only white champion in the world, and his sister Avril, you may remember seeing in Canada, oh she is a beauty, won the group at Chatham a few years ago. She now is the proud possessor of fine titles, Int. Ch. Avril of Kerrin C. D. (Companion Dog) and I'm now the proud grandpa of her five new squirmies, crying babies, but they are lovely.

We went on from there, had many more children Thea and I, and they have made names for themselves too, too many for me to tell you all about. Needless to say, however, that I'm still the boss of this ranch, I still stay in the house and let it be known that I resent all the others coming in, their place is not with me, but sometimes I have to stand it. I'm a good watch dog, yes sir; no one can get in our car when I'm alone in it, nor can any one come in the house until I know they are O.K., when they are, then I sit down and give my paw in welcome. We are not aggressive dogs for fighting, we are friendly with other dogs until they decide they want to fight and then we will, can and do, but most of the time we are peace loving, law-abiding dog citizens.

My mistress likes to get all the Kerrin families together, and now that I'm a great, great grandfather, you know how many there would be. The year of 1939 we had 37. She likes to have all of them shown too, remember a few years ago, there were 31 Kerrin Collies in the Detroit show, and 16 of us in Chicago. Yes, it's nice being a Collie and getting to so many different cities to look over the other dogs.

Guess you know now, why I'm glad I'm a Collie and by this time guess my mistress knows why she likes the Collies too, she must for she is always writing and talking about us and interesting all she can in getting one of our breed. She says folks don't know the Collie well enough as city dogs, we love the city, the noise doesn't bother us. The yards are big enough for we don't like to roam the country but to be close to our home all the time. When our folks come out and play with us that's the time we like to romp and run, otherwise stick right around under their feet. I'm like all proud papas and want to show you pictures of my children,

Avridon of Kerrin, son of Avril and nearly a Champion (taken at seven months)

so if we have space will show you some of my famous family. Thanks for reading about me and the Collies, 'bye now, Kerrin. (My mistress had to write this for me, she is Avis Wiethoff of Kerrin Kennels, Clarence, N.Y.)

MASCOT OF "WINNIPEG" BURIED IN U.S.— BODY WASHED ASHORE

Identified by a photograph published in The Globe and Mail, Ordinary Mascot Lucky of the Royal Canadian Navy has been given a decent burial in United States soil after drowning in Lake Erie.

Lucky, a six-weeks-old Cocker Spaniel puppy, went overboard on an August night from the quarterdeck of H.M.C.S. Winnipeg, then on its maiden voyage from Port Arthur shipbuilding yards to the sea. Lucky just "packed up," as the sailors put it. He disappeared without trace, and he was listed as "missing at sea and presumed lost."

Word that the body had been found and that Lucky had been given a decent burial was received at Winnipeg by Mayor Garnet Coulter from D. Donaldson, a Detroit resident.

Mr. Donaldson wrote that he found the limp body along the lakeshore several days after H.M.C.S. Winnipeg had passed down the lakes. He didn't know then that the puppy was a war casualty, but he found out later when he saw a picture of the mascot in The Globe and Mail.

Had he known a few days earlier, Mr. Donaldson said in his letter, he would have given the Cocker "full naval honors."

Lucky, the pride of the ship's company, was a gift to the Winnipeg from George Kynoch, dog breeder and judge of Winnipeg, and he was worth $50 if puppy love can be measured in monetary terms. But Mr. Kynoch took the tragedy in good part and immediately donated a half-brother to the sailors. He's called Luckier, and "he hasn't been seasick yet," according to a letter received from one of the officers, Lieut. J. E. Gardiner of Windsor, who is now "somewhere off the east coast." — Toronto Globe and Mail.

AN AMERICAN'S IMPRESSION OF CANADIANS AND CANADIAN DOG SHOWS

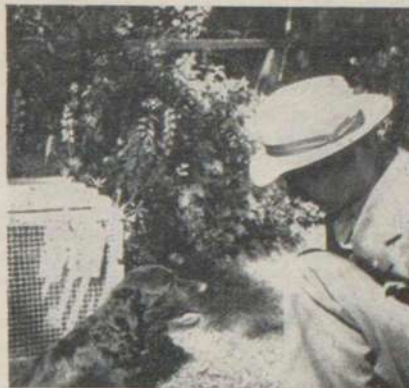

We have received the following from Mr. John H. Morrison, of the West Virginia State Police, a very enthusiastic Doberman fancier:

"Very sorry I was unable to get back to Canada and have the pleasure of attending another of your wonderful shows as well as to again meet you and all the other splendid people of Canada. Am very happy, however, that my Jackie (Gessner's Happy Jack) is now a Champion, even though I was unable to show him in that wonderful moment or to see him win his final laurels which, after all, is the main thing. Another gratifying thing is that he finished in amateur hands of my wife, who had never shown a dog before in her life and after making the long trip by herself and Jackie as guardian, she took him straight through to the coveted title."

"She asked to mention to you that there was a bit of confusion at the Hamilton show relative to a mixup in numbers on the arm band and it appeared Jackie was being judged as a bitch. While she is of the opinion this matter was straightened up at the show, in order to make sure would you kindly check for sure?"

"Disregarding any wins, losses, judging or anything with respect to your shows, I would like to comment a bit entirely with respect to the manner in which your shows are held and the wonderful hospitality extended us as 'foreign' exhibitors or shall we just say out-of-town exhibitors. I cannot find words of sufficient praise for the hospitality shown us as visitors to your lovely country Canada and I would take this means of personally thanking each and every one with whom I came in contact there as well as the officials of show giving clubs to whom my entries were made for their supreme efforts to not only make us feel at home but for their every effort to assist us whenever possible. Indeed, the officials at the border made everything as pleasant for us and extended every courtesy possible making us feel that we wanted to come back again and again."

"My wife, during her trips to the last shows by herself, was so kindly assisted in every way possible by all with whom she came in contact and not only was permitted to stop over and rest at the border but the officials treated her with every courtesy and helped her with the dogs, something from the bottom of my heart I deeply appreciate. Let me add for one and all, I thank you; my wife thanks you, and our dogs most certainly offer their doggy barks of happiness and thanks."

Miss E. In the last issue of Dogs In Canada "Merryman" was reported as having been placed Best of Win-

DOG SHOW JUDGES

By GEORGE F. FOLEY

In view of the many letters which have appeared recently in our columns about Canadian judges we think this article which is reproduced by courtesy of Popular Dogs will be of interest to our readers—Act. Editor.

In going back over forty years of dog shows, first as an exhibitor and then as a show superintendent, I am struck by the similarity between the complaints today and those heard around the shows at the turn of the century. While dog shows have changed considerably, while we are holding many more shows now, judging complaints are still "the same old stories." And if anything, they are more vociferous this season than ever before. You hear them whether you go to shows in the East, in the Midwest or in California.

It is true that some of these are justified; others are not. But aside from the initial aggravation, nothing of a concrete nature has been attempted to improve dog judging. Hundreds of complaints are accepted as a matter of course or as parts of show procedure. Yet, if we review the increases in the number of shows and the number of dogs exhibited during the past ten years and compare these figures with the efforts made to improve and clarify the judging system, it is obvious that our present methods are outmoded, that they lag far behind and that they could stand revision.

It is quite possible that some exhibitors do not want a true approximation of their dogs. Many, it would seem, are content, regardless of a judge's knowledge or lack of it. The temper of exhibitors is changing, however. More and more are asking for "better judges". We know this to be so. Some months ago Popular Dogs made a survey to find out if kennels were breeding as much this year as previously; if they had difficulties in procuring dog foods; if they planned to go to shows. No mention was made of judging, but from the replies, it would appear that good judging is a more paramount issue than breeding or feeding.

The American Kennel Club has been criticized for not offering a tangible course whereby an appreciable improvement would be made. I have been asked for a solution many times, and I feel that through the work at the training schools established by the Armed Forces for war dogs, we may be approaching the answer. Being a Director of Dogs For Defense and closely associated with the training of dogs for the Services, I have been astounded at the progress made in training thousands of men and dogs.

The establishment of schools, where men and women who would be judges might learn from authorities all phases of dog show judging is, I believe, the answer. Here fundamentals would be taught well; pupils would have to pass periodic examinations and from these schools would come the country's supply of judges for all dog shows.

The idea is not new. Unlike other plans, such as the one the German Shepherd Club of America tried for some seasons, this should be national in scope. It should be under the jurisdiction of the American Kennel Club, and its operation would automatically cancel the licenses of the more than two thousand judges who today carry A. K. C. judging permits. The plan would start from the beginning to build up a body of knowing amateurs and professionals qualified to pass on the country's show dogs.

You will note that I have used the phrase, "learn from authorities". "Who are the authorities?" you will ask. "Have we any?" Let us see. Might not the Board of Directors of the Kennel Club appoint a committee from all branches of the dog world to select these authorities? This committee to be made up as follows: two members of the Board of Directors; two members of the Professional Handlers Association; two professional judges; two dog show superintendents; two breeders. This committee would not only establish methods of teaching, but it would also serve as a Board to guide permanently these judging academies.

The teachers or authorities selected their standards might be improved and clarified.

If we are to have good judging, we must have a more widespread knowledge of standards. Judging should be done according to the standards and by comparison. I am of the opinion that scoring will never be a success. I recall that a Boston Terrier club asked ten well-known judges to score a dog at a meeting some time ago. The scores varied from eighty to a hundred and ten. You can score working ability, but in judging the scoring system does not seem a particularly satisfactory one.

There is no profession or business that is entirely self-taught. The doctors, lawyers, accountants must study for years before they are capable of going out and performing well the duties of their professions. The boy who starts in business is not entrusted with important work at the outset. He must learn. At the present time there are very few would be paid out of fees which students would be charged for the courses. Teachers would instruct, grade and suggest suitable judges to the American Kennel Club. The school might be established in various show centres—New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Chicago, San Francisco, Cleveland, St. Louis, Los Angeles. I mention these cities only as examples. To be a qualified dog show judge, it would be necessary for a man or woman, regardless of the length of time they had spent previously in judging dogs or where they had officiated, to be "graduated" from one of these schools.

Briefly, the curriculum might be as follows: 1. Fundamentals (obligatory to all). 2. Sporting Dogs. 3. Hounds. 4. Working Dogs. 5. Terriers. 6. Toys. 7. Non-Sporting. Those wishing to judge only one or two varieties would not be obligated to take the complete course, but would concentrate on the groups in which they were interested. Should they wish, at a later date, to take up more breeds, then it would be necessary to return to school for further instruction. The classes would be set for a certain day or evening; be of a specified period of duration and those not attending regularly would be dismissed.

In discussing the subject of judging we must also take into consideration the fact that the standards of many breeds, as they are now written, are ambiguous. In these schools, where the standards would form the basis of all teaching, the instructors would be in a position to suggest to breed specialty clubs how judges who could answer such questions as: What constitutes general condition in the breed you are judging? Explain the conformation of the breed. What is the correct movement? Should an eight-months old exceptionally good puppy be penalized because it has not shown? There are many other questions, also, that might be asked; questions that judges should be able to answer easily, but which, under the present system, they are vague or evasive about, simply because they have never been taught by a competent authority.

I do not feel that these schools would still the talent for judging which is innate in a few. Rather, I believe, the curriculum would serve to make this talent more pronounced, to guide it in proper channels. By the same token, there are many who will never make a good judge—"an eye for a dog" can't be taught—and these, a school could sift out quickly.

Our American judging system is ready for changes. We must be willing to accept inconveniences until we have established a workable method for schooling dog show judges.

WHY YOU SHOULD SUPPORT THE CHRISTMAS NUMBER

Let Us Have Your Copy Early

We should like to remind you all that Dec. 1st will see the Christmas issue of Dogs in Canada published we hope. We add the latter two words because everything depends on our supporters sending in early copy. Printers are short of hands these days and those who send in early copy get more time spent over the make-up of their announcements than those who leave everything to the last when in the hurry and rush of going to press mistakes are apt to occur.

Don't overlook the fact that a large number of dogs are sold as Christmas presents and as the Christmas Number will be out in good time—remember the slogan "Make Dogs in Canada your Shop Window." We have dozens of folks who write, call and phone about dogs for all ages and naturally we always recommend them to our advertisers.

Advertising is recognized as "a vital cog in our free enterprise system and a potent medium for distributing information to the people at a time when the need for accurate information is greatest"—to quote a book recently issued by the Department of Commerce at Washington, D.C., under the title "Advertising and Its Role in War and Peace" and it is dedicated to "those who short-sightedly" view advertising as an economic waste in wartime and informs them that the Government "strongly disagrees with this attitude."

The Christmas Number should really be a book of reference for the year—an encyclopaedia of dogdom and in reality a "Who's Who". Wise breeders look ahead and plan breeding operations so that they have a supply of puppies when the market is "ripe" just as any good business man plans ahead for successful results. We want the forthcoming Christmas number to be an even greater success than the last, and appeal to all our readers to help us make it a record issue.

In sending us an order for a space which she says she wishes could be bigger—one client writes, "You are doing your part and it is up to us to do ours."

That's the real spirit. So send us along your order accompanied by cuts and particulars and get your share in the many Christmas gift sales.

FORTHCOMING SHOWS

Here's a bit of pleasant news. The Hamilton Kennel Club, that very live body is putting on a Christmas show on Dec. 10th, when Mr. Alf Loveridge will judge all breeds. Jot the date down in your diaries and make all the entries you can because the show will be in aid of charity. With such a popular judge, the event should be a big success. By the way, we hear that at the show held on Sept. 25 on the Race Track some 700 people passed through the turnstiles—this shows how much the public appreciate the Hamilton K.C.'s efforts.

CONGRATULATIONS to E. S. Jones on completing the championship of his good black dog "Kappa Son of Surprise", in three five-point shows.

OUR FRONTISPIECE

I am very proud of the beautiful picture on this month's front cover and Canadians will feel honoured that for the first time a dog which is doing his bit to defeat the enemy, appears on our frontispiece.

The enthusiastic ladies who own Ch. Arno of San Miguel Miss Joan R. Michler and Miss Brundred, are working full time for Dogs For Defence and Red Cross—so have had little time for showing this year. About two years ago they joined the San Diego Chapter of the American Red Cross Motor Corps and latterly the work has increased at such a rate that dog shows have had to take a back seat, however, breeding is going on in the Kennel in a quiet way and a good number of puppies have been raised as there is a great demand for the fine San Miguel stock. Both the charming ladies who own these kennels have in the past been working hard training their dogs in obedience work and with great success, I may add. Miss Michler showed Ch. Arno for the first time in the Obedience Trials at the big Long Beach Show, where he won Novice A class with the fine score of 96½ and received the judge's prize for having made the best score in either Novice A or B. A further honour was winning a final prize for having made the best score in any of the Obedience classes.

Arno's sister, Ch. Anne of St. Miguel is now ready to compete in the Obedience Trials, as is also a half brother of his, Miss Michler and Miss Brundred's Ch. Boris of San Miguel and there are several other dogs half way through their training. The 1940 Grand Victor, Ch. Cotswold of Cosalta is now in the San Miguel Kennels having finished his C. D. last year with Miss Marie Lary, the famous amateur trainer. Says Miss Michler, "I have almost lost track myself of how many times he has been back and forth across the continent."

In our lovely picture Ch. Arno is shown whilst on guard with a sentry in a heavily guarded area on the shores of the Pacific and not far from Chula Vista.

NOTICE TO OUR READERS

In answer to the hundreds of enquiries by letter, telephone and verbally, as to the reason for the late publishing of the October issue of "Dogs in Canada", we wish to state that this was owing to the large amount of official matter which had to be printed. The editorial side of the paper was ready to time but owing to the above and the printers being short handed when the issue went to press, the delay was occasioned, which we regret.

WESTMINSTER SHOW

The Westminster Kennel Club announces the substitution of Joseph P. Sims, of Philadelphia, as Judge for the Terrier Group, in place of the late G. L. L. Davis, at their 1944 Dog Show. Mr. Davis passed away recently as the result of an accident at his plant, the Scullin Steel Company, in Saint Louis, Missouri.

The show will be held at Madison Square Garden on February 11th and 12th for the benefit of Dogs for Defense, Inc., official procurement agency for dogs for our armed forces.

DOGS' EARS

There is almost as great a variety in canine aural appendages as in dogs themselves. Consider the "rose" ear of the Bulldog; the V-shaped, drooping ear of the Fox Terrier; the erect ear of the Scottie and the Bull Terrier; the pendant ear of the Spaniel and the Hound family; then consider the varied size of dogs' ears, the colouring and texture of their hair, and you have dozens of totally different types of ear. One can, in fact, tell almost any breed of dog by the shape of his ear alone.

Incidentally the dog does not always "hear" through his ears. The sensitivity of his body to vibrations conveyed through the ground or floor often tells him of the approach of a person or vehicle before it is within earshot. In this way some dogs that are completely deaf as far as their auditory organs are concerned sometimes convey to an observer the impression that their hearing must be normal—in fact this strange gift of "hearing" through their bodies often enables them to perform a watch-dog's duties just as efficiently as a dog with normal hearing.

Some breeds, especially white-coated ones, are prone to deafness. The Bull Terrier was a notable example, but thanks to the determination of reputable breeders to refrain from breeding from deaf specimens the fault has been practically eliminated from the breed.

Deafness in dogs is, of course, not always congenital, but may be due to some aural disease or even merely to the accumulation of wax on the drum. This can be easily determined by a visit to a veterinary surgeon or canine clinic.

Interesting Items About Doggy Folk

GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP

Popular Mr. "Sandy" Palmer, of Toronto, was muchly impressed by the good sportsmanship of the American Irish Terrier fanciers at the recent Chicago Show. His dog did not arrive on time, so judging was postponed till after lunch to give his dog a chance to compete. When it got to 1 p.m. and there was still no dog, he asked for judging to be commenced. Later on at 2.30, the dog arrived and the exhibitors expressed their regret that judging had not been held back later so that Mr. Palmer could have competed. Truly a fine sporting spirit. Incidentally, we must congratulate Mrs. S. A. Spiker, of Hamilton, upon her triumphs at the same show for she won Winners male with her well-known Kenmare Commander, the Kerry Blue which was so successful on the Maritime Circuit.

NAME, PLEASE

It is reported on good authority (by a Lancashire man) that one of the highlights of the recent German Shepherd Club dinner at the Queen Elizabeth Lodge, was a Yorkshireman, a director of the C.K.C., singing the Star Spangled Banner with a definitely Yorkshire accent, in deference to the American Exhibitors and guests. What was more, he knew the words and "led" our American friends, who did not!

A RACONTEUR

How pleased Mr. W. W. Rooney's many friends were to see him judging at Hamilton Show. Our Montreal Director was right on his toes and did a swell job. On the subject of whether there would be a show in Montreal he was mum—but ask him to tell a yarn! Oh, boy! out would come the little book and then there was never a dull moment. We met him out in the evening and what a raconteur he is—and how we laughed—next time you see him ask him to tell you the one about the pup and the cat in church. It fairly brought down the house. How good it is to meet a man who can make a whole room full of people roar with laughter these days.

A COLLIE MASCOT

The No. 18 Company of the Canadian Women's Army stationed in Toronto has a new mascot, namely, "Quarry Brae Mary Churchill". The 2-months-old Collie is of the finest breeding and was presented to the Army girls by Mr. George Getty of Toronto, the well-known and popular Collie fancier. Mr. Getty's father and sister were bombed out of their home in Belfast, Ireland, during a heavy raid two years ago. He refused to accept payment for "Brae" and gave her on behalf of his family.

ALASKAN NATIVES

We have received a most attractive picture from Mrs. Helen Margery Lewis of the Merriedip O.E. Sheepdogs, who is in Alaska, in which she says: "Have been doing a bit of travelling for a few days. It is very much like Mass. and Maine. Saw a kennel of sled dogs. It is all like seeing a movie come to life. I like it very much." Mrs. Lewis is doing a grand job of work in Alaska acting as hostess in one of the U.S. army camps and is tremendously popular with all the "boys". The picture she sent shows "Six little Arctic natives" and depicts three Alaskan children with three sled dog puppies.

DID THIS LITTLE PIG GO TO MARKET?

Miss Miriam Hall of the Cartlane Poodle Kennels, whose interesting article appeared in our July issue, tells us of a visit she recently paid to Mrs. C. H. Fallass' famous Andely Kennel of Smooth Fox Terriers and Welsh Corgis, where she went to purchase pigs for a friend.

"It was the first time I had been any place since the shows stopped, so we felt like we were on a real tour. We came back with the pigs and 24 cement blocks for floor of pig-house, in back of the friends car, with the pigs squealing like anything! What farmers we are." That must have been some sight.

FELICITATIONS

Congratulations to Mrs. R. C. Bondy of the Wildoaks Wire Fox Terrier Kennels upon the arrival of another granddaughter—the third. The happy mother is Mrs. Philip Bondy and we hear she is "simply fine and so is the baby, a most beautiful little girl."

"LITTLE MAN, YOU'LL HAVE A BUSY DAY"

Our genial President, Mr. W. J. (Bill) Risewick has been figuring in the headlines of the Toronto Evening Telegram which announces "Bill Risewick joins Ravina Hockey League." We pricked up our ears when we read this and had visions of the one and only Bill skimming the ice twice a week in a hockey match and made a mental note to have a look see. But it now appears he has been appointed to the position of Vice-President of the Metropolitan Hockey Association operating at Ravina Gardens on Wednesday and Saturday nights with a five-team grouping. Along with the President and Secretary, Mr. Risewick will control the business management of the loop. Like all busy people who can always find time to add to their duties, Mr. Risewick will certainly not find time hanging on his hands what with his race horses, his Kennel Club duties and his business activities and this new interest, guess he will not be able to make any bricks in his spare time.

TO INDIA FOR THE WEEK-END!

How this war has wiped out distances was brought home to us recently in a letter from Mrs. Percy Adams, the Sky Terrier expert of Montreal. She was in a store when a flying officer looked over her shoulder at some photos she had been having developed and said, "long-haired Dachshunds?" "No," she said, "all drop-eared Skyes in poor coat." The questioner turned out to be Mr. W. E. Greenwood, a well-known and popular Dalmatian judge from England who promises to pay Mrs. Adams a visit later on. Meanwhile, he went "to India for the week-end".

GET BETTER QUICKLY—PLEASE

The sympathies of his very many friends will go out to Mr. Norman Brown, Secretary and Treasurer of the Kennel Club for the past few years, and now in the R.C.A.F., who is at present ill in Christie Street Hospital, Toronto. We wish him a speedy convalescence.

Brevities from Britain

By PHYLLIS ROBSON

A very important case on the subject of newspaper criticism has just been fought in the Law Courts in London. It appears two radio artists objected to a criticism in a letter in the Daily Telegraph on one of their broadcasts which was described as "an insult to British intelligence", and said "we must be a race of lunatics to permit such a waste of money".

They brought an action for libel against the paper. In giving his verdict for the newspaper, Lord Justice Scott said the comment in the letter represented the newspaper's honest opinion and made this pronouncement—"The more freedom newspapers have in criticism, the better for the welfare of the public."

There was another very interesting aspect of the case inasmuch as the criticism appeared in a letter written to the editor and signed, "A. Winslow, The Vicarage, Wallington Road, Winchester". This address was later found to be fictitious. In giving judgment, Lord Justice Scott said, "I cannot accept the submission that there is a general rule of law making it the duty of every newspaper to verify the signature and address of a writer before publishing a letter. On public grounds it is desirable, as far as practicable, that a newspaper should do so. But to hold that the absence of such verification destroys the plea of fair comment would put too great a burden on newspapers. It would be a burden so deterrent in practice as very much to reduce the valuable contribution to public discussion of correspondence in the Press."

Lord Justice Scott's decision is of vital interest to newspaper owners and writers all over the British Empire.

I get three daily papers from England plus three Sunday papers so I keep well in touch with the other side. One of the dailies is The Sketch, London's best illustrated paper and it is interesting to note that though it is now cut down to only eight pages, every day the best part of a page is devoted to letters to the editor which are regarded as one of its most attractive features.

It was a triumph for journalism that in a court of law a judge upheld a newspaper's rights to criticize which is in accordance with British traditions—the spirit of justice and freedom—for which we are all fighting for our very existence these days.

How a rescued pet saved an owner's life is reported by Inspector Winn of the R.S.P.C.A. A young girl, desperately injured, was rescued from a bombed house. She called ceaselessly for her dog.

The matron of the hospital appealed to Inspector Winn. "Although no one would have believed that any animal could still be alive under that heap of rubble that had once been a house, I went to work tunnelling in the debris.

"Then the sirens went again. At last, under a crater in the basement I caught sight of the glint of a dog's eyes.

"The German planes were machine-gunning, and the dog was so terrified that I had a hard job getting it out.

When at last I did, I found that except for fright it was unharmed."

The news that her pet was safe helped a great deal towards the girl's recovery.

Farmer: "Well, Pat, have ye counted all the sheep?"

Pat: "Yes, all except one, but he ran about so much I couldn't count him."

Chum, five months old cross-bred dog, of the Hope and Anchor Inn, Bridgewater, Somerset, sits outside his master's house by the River Parrett and catches fish; recently he snapped up a 10 lb. salmon and 1½ lb. eel.

When a party of W.R.N.S. recently moved into a building in a North-East town the usual formal notice board was hoisted: "Admiralty.—No admission."

A few hours later a wag chalked the following addition: "Wrens nesting".

Fox Terrier lovers will be interested to learn that I have just received from England the copy of the Fox Terrier Club Annual and Stud Book. Mr. Neville Dawson, the Secretary, in sending it to me says: "I have a few spare copies available for non-members at 5/6 post free". If anyone wishes a copy, the address is Bevis Marks House, London, E.C.3. The book is full of interest with lots of pictures of both coats and some reports of leading shows written by the different judges, always such a good feature of the English papers. I never can see why people object to have their dogs criticized on this side of the Atlantic. At the Fox Terrier Clubs open show, Mr. J. R. Hunt judged and in writing of Maiden dogs, he says: "Produced 13 entries, and here the Duchess of Newcastle introduced a white dog, Call Back of Notts, and won easily. He owns the best body, bone, feet, neck and shoulders possible, and a very sound mover! Given a shade more length and quality of head, he would be unbeatable." I know the Duchess very well, a grander sport doesn't exist. Do you think she would object to that criticism? Not on your life. To my mind, these critiques are one of the best features of our papers.

An English farmer offered £100 for a good Scottish collie at the recent sheep dog trials at Greenock. Mr. T. Bonella, a farmer of Kinross, purchaser of a collie who had won four trials, said that he had never seen such a scarcity in the breed.

"With the shortage of shepherds the need for trained sheep dogs is greater than ever," Mr. Bonella added.

Many collies have been conscripted and are helping to guard ammunition dumps and other vital points. At one Scottish dump a mother and son guard a section themselves every night.

A friend writes me: "I have just been shown a letter from an applicant for the place of office girl. The young lady, who gives her age as 15½, ends thus: 'I am employed as a Civil Servant, but wish to better myself.'"

James L. Wilson of Innerleithen, Scotland, got his three dogs to drive ducks instead of sheep at a Moffat agricultural show.

A seven-year-old Airedale Terrier Gupta, the inseparable companion of Mr. T. H. Hiles, owner of the Nelson Hotel, Carmarthen, was led to safety when the hotel caught fire.

Not seeing his master, who was fighting the flames, Gupta rushed back up the burning stairway in search of him. Firemen later found the dog suffocated in one of the rooms. Mr. Hiles was slightly burned.

A Dutchman and a German passed in an Amsterdam street the other day. Said the German: "Heil Hitler".

The Dutchman replied: "Heil Rembrandt".

Whereon the German was annoyed and asked the meaning of this strange greeting.

"Well," said the Dutchman, "he's our best painter."

Little Susan had just been tucked up in bed for the night and her mother was tiptoeing from the room when a small voice stopped her.

"Mummy, when I die, will I go to Heaven?"

"Yes, dear."

"And when pussy dies, will she go to Heaven, too, mummy?"

"I suppose so, dear."

Similar questions about the dog and chickens were answered, but when the child asked about the cow, the exasperated mother replied, "No."

She had just reached the door when the same little voice said:

"Mummy, we'll have to go to Hell for the milk."

EXPERT ADVICE

By H. C. Peake

I've been raising dogs for at least a year, so I feel that I am perfectly qualified to give some of you older fellows a few tips. I know you'll appreciate it. That's one thing I like about dog breeders. They just love to have some young guy who's read all the books come along and give them the works on how to run their kennels.

Well, it's all perfectly simple. The first thing is to provide yourself with a good bitch. Some of the more timid breeders prefer to use the word female, but not me. I like that word bitch. It has a fine salty flavor, and you can roll it around your tongue in such a satisfying manner. Anyhow, as I was saying, provide yourself with a good—bitch.

There are several ways to do this. Of course, if you have no imagination, you can go to another breeder and lay good money on the line, but that is not necessary. All you have to do is find the house where the female of your choice resides. Then go to the nearest butcher shop and get a pound of hamburger. I don't care how you get it. Buy it if you have to. It'll cost you a coupon or two if you're not smart, but think of the fun you'll have! Then stand in front of the house.

Pretty soon the door will open, and maybe one, maybe two bitches will come out. (But you're only interested in the one with the fur coat. It's summer, so they won't both be wearing them.) Stroll sedately down the street, and the hamburger will do the rest. No bitch, blonde or brunette, long haired or short, could resist the smell of a meat coupon these days.

That's the first step. You're well on your way now. Your only worry is to find a suitable mate, and that's easy, like rolling off a log. If you live in a city, select a promising hydrant, if in the country, a spreading tree with an interesting trunk. Within a couple of hours all the dogs in the borough will have passed by your point of vantage, and you can take your pick.

That's all there is to it. I'm not going to give you any tips about mating. Love will find a way!

Of course, all expectant mothers and fathers go through a period of acute worry, and during this time the layette is the chief concern. When breeding pups it is awfully difficult to decide whether to have pink or blue, so it's best to compromise. I have found that a very serviceable layette may be obtained from the local newspaper. That is, if you save them long enough in advance. During the period of expectancy I always purchase both the Morning Yelp and the Evening Denouncer. Their motto is "Look at this. It smells."

They're right, at that. At least it does after a night on the bottom of the Pups' Pulman. Of course, this is strictly in confidence. I'd hate to have the local editors know just why I always give in to their requests to be allowed to deliver their literary efforts to my address for two short periods in the year.

The pups are walking by this time, and you begin to count the dollars you'll be able to bank before long. Of course, some of you old timers may prefer to keep the youngsters out in the kennel, but that's an old fashioned idea. They grow much faster if you keep them in the kitchen, and all you will need is a pair of stout seaboots and a strong mop—It'll be strong after a week's use, anyhow!

Sometimes you may run into a little difficulty with the presiding genius of culinary department, but you should be able to talk your way out if she doesn't catch you feeding the babies in her muffin tins. That seems to be a capital offence in the eyes of some women.

About the end of the fourth week you line the family up and decide which are going to be flyers. I have a litter of eight playing around my feet right at this moment, and of these, five will, I am sure, take their championships. That's about the usual percentage. If you have anything less than that you should take your bitch out in the country and lose her and start all over again.

Anyhow, now that you've picked the flyers, you sell the scrubs at once before their faults become too apparent. I know one guy who bought a cute little cocker pup, but when it grew up it weighed sixty-five pounds. Sell 'em young, I say, and tell the buyer that you won't be responsible for any bars sinister in their family heraldry.

So the shows approach, and you take your hopes and your dogs into the ring and parade them before that eagle-eyed old so-and-so standing off in a corner, and here is where technique comes in. I know one worthy burgher—In case of

CH. CAIRO OF JOYCE

Daughter of Ch. Metta of Mayndale. Cai won her Ch. in a week, going B.B. at Toronto K.C. Exhibition and Hamilton. She took in last year's Maritime Circuit and won B.B. at the seven shows and twice Best Canadian-bred bitch. She is the dam of Ch. Suben of Joyce and Sphinx of Joyce. Her other daughter, Hathor of Joyce, has won three pts. Cairo is the property of Mrs. Joyce Osterdahl.

recognition of this character, please note the spelling used!—who stalks into the ring like a rather obese Roman senator, dragging a poor, trembling little dog after him on the end of a chain. His very manner seems to say: "Here I come, and here's the dog. If you don't like him, to hell with you!"

That's very poor technique, and if it wasn't that he often manages to pull a fast one on some judge who has forgotten to bring his bifocals to the show, I would advise against it. But it does seem to work for him. Of course, it might not be the technique which does it. His dogs might be better than the others. There's that possibility.

However, to show off your dog you must exert yourself somewhat like a kangaroo. This makes the judge wonder which of you is on exhibition, and by the time he has decided, the ring steward has given the ribbon to somebody else, but anyhow, you do your stuff. While the old man looks in the coming champion's mouth to see that he isn't wearing tile teeth, you gambol around at the rear end, cranking his tail. This puts him on his mettle—if it doesn't make him bite the judge.

The old fellow will then totter around to the other end, and you grab your hound by the head and stretch his neck out as though it was a piece of elastic. Why? Don't ask me. They all do it.

It doesn't matter, anyhow. By this time you know the old fool doesn't know a thing about dogs. So you take your candidate for beauty's crown and retire, beaten but unconvinced, to get hot and bothered all over again about the same time next year.

ENGLAND SUCCESSFULLY INVADED

AN overworked and stout official somewhere on the South Coast saw a French soldier leading a large, fierce-looking Alsatian. "Whose dog is that?" he asked. The soldier indicated an officer. The officer, with a charming smile, explained. "I find him in Lille. He march and fight with us all the way to Dunkirk. The regimental mascot, you understand. I bring him over on the boat. He stay with me, I think?"

The official, the police, all the elaborate machinery for turning back or quarantining invading dogs were defeated.

The Alsatian stayed.

THE WAVY-COAT RETRIEVER

For all his bulk, this big Retriever is the most convinced believer He's a lap-dog . . . chill reception Merely inflates his self-deception.

If you won't have him on your knee The worse for you, because then he Will lay his massive head, the fool, On your defenseless frock . . . and drool.

Those amber eyes, such pools of love Can be a bore. Give him a shove . . . Eventually he'll realize That floors are right for dogs his size.

As big as ponies . . . meek as lambs, They're always getting into jams! One happy wag of that long tail . . . The room looks like a rummage-sale!

As bird-dogs these are sans-pareil. They'll follow you whate'er the way. They're rather delicate and rare. So, if you own one, take good care.

ALBERTA NOTES

By H. P. Saunders

Dissolution of a partnership sometimes brings a happy feeling and a blessed relief, and sometimes it is very much the contrary, the later was just such an occasion when the old firm of Webster & Webster discontinued business, to be more explicit, Charlie Webster, a dog trainer deluxe, had a handy old mare that had served her day and generation nobly, these were the days when the horse and buggy were quite the thing, and when horses were very much afraid of the gas buggy and often cocked their tail over their back and cut the mustard everytime they encountered such a contraption on the roads or trails. Well, Charlie's old mare lived to be a ripe old age, and when she was twenty-nine, she passed on but left behind a very promising youngster which from the very first was the apple of Charlie's eye. He used this youngster while training Pointers and Setters, and never even had to saddle or bridle her, she even surpassed her noted mother in everything, which tended to make the passing of the old mare easier to bear. Charlie and this colt were together in many a field trial, and she always knew every move that was required of her, and never failed her master once, she was never far from where her master had left her when he was compelled to kick out birds in front of the point made by any of his dogs. Everyone marvelled at the sagacity of the horse and the team work displayed with her owner in everything they did, the horse seemed to get as much of a thrill out of the working of a good dog as did Charlie. Well, the partnership lasted almost as long as did the one between her mother and her owner, but after just twenty-seven years together, last week end Charlie was down by the fence talking to a neighbor, and the old mare deliberately walked up and nuzzled her owner in the back and then walked away in a straight line to about 200 yards and fell dead. The neighbor and Charlie both kept their eyes on the mare after the strange salutation she had given her owner, and saw her drop, by the time they reached her, death had claimed her; and, needless to say, a big lump comes up in Charlie's mouth when he tells the many wonderful things the mare had done and how strange it was that she deliberately bid him good bye and passed out.

The Calgary Retriever Club held a most successful meet on Labor Day near Calgary, the spot selected by the Field Marshall and his assistants was on the banks of the Chestermere Irrigation ditch, where there had been quite an overflow, making the location ideal for water work, and the banks skirted fields heavy with the growth of weeds which made excellent cover, making the dogs work to find game. Mr. Joe Rhudolph and Jim Louthier did the judging in a very capable manner. Mr. Andy Lund was field marshal. Andy has the knack of dressing and the good looks that compel people to look at him; he has really got Clark Gable beat a mile.

In the Retriever class, first went to the black Labrador Westhaver Pride, owned and handled by Bill Fisher, one of Canada's most popular sports. The performance of this dog drew the admiration of every member of the large crowd present. Second prize was awarded to Victorious of Roedare a Golden Retriever, owned by S. F. D. Roe, this dog certainly showed marked ability to handle game and also made a sensational hit with everybody. His owner lives at Red Deer, Alberta, many dogs from his kennel are making fame in Retriever trials.

Another outstanding performer in this event was the Yellow Lab., J. F. Chum, owned by J. F. and Mrs. Harvie, there was very little difference between the performance of these three dogs which seemed to keep the crowd intensely interested all the time. There were fourteen contestants in this classic and not one of them made a poor showing, so we look ahead to next year's event with no small amount of interest.

The all-age stake for Spaniels only drew eight entries and they all made marvellous showing; their obedience and quick manner handling game did surprise a lot of people, especially those who discounted the ability of a Spaniel to do sufficient work to make things interesting. Gladholme Punch of Avondale, the English Cocker owned, trained and handled by Doral Pilling, the Javelin thrower, covered himself with glory, and Billy Hammond with two of Mr. Henry Massie's Great Danes.

It will be remembered that Billy Hammond was the rootin' tootin' rodeo star at the Fair for Britain held in Toronto last August. He appeared with his famed $10,000 Palomino Stallion, coming direct from Hollywood—he has proved his ability at scores of rodeos in North America and is a fast-rising movie star in "house operas". Billy is Hollywood's newest popular screen star and is quite a Dane fancier and owns a beautiful brindle from the famous kennels of Clark Gable. In this picture he is shown with Mr. Henry Massie's brace, Val Nor of Cairndania who will be 2 years old on Nov. 15, and was bred by Mrs. Hyslop, and Goldie Girl of Lyn Lee—born May 20, 1941, and bred by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jernigan. The former took winners dog at Brampton, London and Woodbine, Toronto.

demonstrated to all and sundry that Cockers had the punch. Gladholme Flash, the English Cocker Spaniel owned by Don Kenney, made the winner extend himself all the way, she possesses marvellous speed and sagacity, and, no doubt, will be heard from again.

In the puppy class the English Cocker, Ness of Avondale, owned by Vic. Grainger, made a great hit, winning her event. She was bred by the first man in Canada to introduce Retriever trials, and the man who has imported more high-class dogs than any other man on this continent E. Chevril of Winnipeg, Manitoba. Second prize went to an outstanding performer, Major, a Springer owned, trained and handled by N. G. Goddinton, this is also a very high class dog and will be heard from every time in competition.

In another class, Gladholme Punch of Avondale went winners with Tex, an English Cocker owned and handled by V. B. Ferguson, a close second. Bill Hedley had some very classy English Cockers in these events and his stuff made the going hard all the way. Bill possesses the ability to get the very best out of his dogs either in water or land trials. His Pointers and Setters are always top performers, so the art of training was not new to Bill, watch his stock next time.

Others whose dogs made grand showing were Wm. Toole, M. Connacher and the old Maestro, Dave Blacklock, Jack Bishop, F. O. Galbraith, Fred Currie, John Breckinridge, F. E. Mitchell, Thomas Cook and W. G. Brown.

Tomorrow the season opens on pheasants and many hunters are already on their way to the different happy hunting grounds. I wish them each and every one good luck and may they all get their limit and not leave a bird that is shot, this can only be accomplished with a good retriever. Last year the game officials estimate there were over two thousand birds killed and left to waste in the different fields near Brooks, Alberta. That is the chief reason the Retriever is coming into prominence.

A word to the wise is sufficient.

PACIFIC NEWS

The British Columbia Gun Dog Club held one of its best Retriever Trials under Canadian Kennel Club Rule's at its fall meet, held on the North Vancouver foreshore of Burrard Inlet.

Here was found ample cover for the land test, and a running tide which made the water retrieves very difficult.

Labradors, Golden Retrievers, and Chesapeake competed against each other for the honors and the Championship points awarded by Judges Billy Oates and Robt. Reid. It was the Chesapeake, "Cariboo Mick", owned by Oliver Krog that led the field in the open all age stake. Western Higbie's Labrador Victor Goldenrod was second. S. S. Magoffin's Golden Retriever Rockhaven Patricia was third. These three dogs gave fine performances and demonstrated their ability to respond to hand signals when on blind retrieves.

The Derby Stake was won by Mr. Higby's Goldenrod, and Oliver Krog's Chesapeake puppy accounted for the puppy stake.

Mr. and Mrs. Higby entertained the judges, contestants, and spectators at the conclusion of the trial at their marvelous mountain home.

To complete the list I gave you last month of the Club Members who carried off silverware at the show. Fred O'Connell won the trophy for the best Novice Parti-Color Cocker, with a particularly smart one of his own breeding, Tailor Maid of Gorsebrook (no, I didn't spell that incorrectly). Capt. and Mrs. Peake won the trophy for Best Puppy in Show, with a most promising Parti in "Chief Cherokee of Timberlea", bred in their own kennels at Glen Haven.

As I predicted earlier in the year, we had a very large turnout of the increasingly popular Welsh Terrier. The Hon. L. D. Currie's recent importation was Best of Breed, and I predict for this youngster a brilliant future. Very wisely, L. D. did not send him on the Circuit, preferring to be

Mrs. Madden did some very nice winning with her string of Welshies, a bitch of her own breeding, "Dawn of Glendower", going winners Bitch, her dog, "Tidal River's Ajax", who was bred by that enthusiast, Tom Fitzpatrick, winning well here and even better throughout the Circuit. A most pleasing feature of the Welsh entry was the number of Novice exhibitors.

Our President, as usual, carried all before him, both here and through the Circuit, with his Labradors (I heard them called "Chimney Sweeps" recently). In Saint John he made a very popular win on the "Robt. Orr" Trophy, his third, making the cup his own. My informant tells me the award was the signal for much applause and he also told me that, the suave "Dinty" blushed like a schoolgirl, however that may be, it is so long since I saw one blush that I have forgotten. Our very popular Billy Smith also did well on the Circuit with his good little Bitch "Fairmount's Little Lady". Our new member, W. M. Saulnier, did exceedingly well with his 15-months-old Beagle. Here is an instance of a Novice exhibitor and a Novice Dog going through his classes, to Best of Breed.

At the time of the evacuation of children from London, a certain very wealthy spinster living in the North of England volunteered to give some of them a home for the duration. In due course, the billetting officer of the district called at her home to inform her that certain children had been allotted to her. On that day, however, the lady was unfortunately confined to her room with a slight indisposition, so her maid received the information from the officer, and, running upstairs, she delivered it to her mistress thusly: "PLEASE MA'M, YOU'VE GOT TO HAVE TWO BABIES, AND THE MAN'S DOWNSTAIRS."

It is with very great pleasure that I have to inform you of the formation of two new Kennel Clubs, with the possibility of a third, in these Maritime Provinces, one in Kentville to be known as The Valley Kennel Club, and one in Charlottetown, P.E.I. The officers of the Valley Club are: President, Mr. James Hamilton-Catty, of Kentville; vice-president, Dr. Bethune of Berwick, and Dr. P. G. Webster of Kentville as secretary-treasurer. I cannot, at present, give you the officers of the P.E.I. Club, with the exception of the secretary, who is Mr. R. E. Hyndman of Charlottetown. The other Club, the third, I understand, is in process of formation in Amherst. The best of luck to them all, the more the merrier.

During the past week I have received letters from two gentlemen, whose names are names to conjure with in the world of dogs.

Wm. H. Pym of Vancouver, B.C., writes, and I quote:

"You have a group of fine fellows in your city and if you keep on as you are at present, you will readily find yourselves in possession of one of the best Clubs in Canada."

Capt. Will Judy, Editor of Dog World, Chicago, writes, and again I quote:

"The Maritime Circuit is beginning to attract attention and your plans should be to go ahead full steam next year."

The new Curate was visiting his parishoners for the first time, and he called upon an elderly spinster who lived alone. He said to her on being admitted: "I understand that you live all alone." "Yes," said the lady, "I am an old maid and I live all by myself, my daughter wants me to go and live with her, but I prefer to stay here." "Er, I beg your pardon," said the Curate, "did I understand you to say you were an old maid?" "Yes, you did," replied the lady; "but I didn't say I WAS A FUSSY OLD MAID."

SASKATCHEWAN NEWS

By Lyla Semple

"Saskatchewan News" has been an absentee for a number of months, but I hope, in the future, to help in bringing a section of western news each month to dog fanciers all over Canada and especially to those in adjoining provinces, where we all meet periodically at shows.

Regina's exhibition show was a great success both financially and in points, although the entry was small and the members worked at a great disadvantage due to military priorities.

The most enthusiastic show this year was an all Cocker show (sanctioned), sponsored by the Regina K.C. on Labour Day. All the exhibitor handlers were amateurs, who

Speaking of BOSTON TERRIER Records —

We cheerfully call to your attention, that at the recent Specialty Show of the Boston Terrier Club of Toronto, Winners Male and Winners Female were a son and a daughter of Saints Rest OWN breeding stock.

Although Canada's largest Boston show of the year, it is still but one show. So let us consider ALL the shows in Eastern Canada for 1943. Out of a total of 14 shows, sons and daughters of Saints Rest's OWN studs or broods were awarded 7 Winners, 7 Reserves, 2 Best of Winners, 2 Best of Opposite Sex, and 1 Non-Sporting Group. C.K.C. Championship points acquired by these same Bostons totaled 21. (Complete tabulation of U.S. points is not yet available.)

Let us go further. In the past 4 years, Bostons by our OWN studs or our OWN broods, have been awarded over 130 Championship points in Canada and the United States. During that same period they have had 1 International Champion, 3 U.S. Champions, 1 Canadian Champion, and have 6 others well on their way in Canada or the U.S.

Remember, these were all sired or whelped by Saints Rest OWN stock.

braved the cold, drizzling, windy day with their dogs, puppies and children.

Mr. William Semple acted as judge. It's the first show, in fact, from which I saw a satisfied crowd emerge with smiles. I don't know whether it was the good judging or lack of knowledge of the exhibitor, but I am afraid it may have been the latter. Fifteen dollars was collected for the Chinese Relief Fund. We hope to see these new exhibitors at future point shows.

Regina's City Council has again taken issue with kennels within the city limits. The trouble being stirred by controversy between boarding kennels. We hope the City Council will deal fairly with kennels of registered dogs and their fanciers, who are interested only in perfecting their breed and promoting shows. I am certain that if these aldermen, by whom all canines are so severely condemned, could be made to understand that many of the dogs that have been making a nuisance of themselves are not stock from registered kennels but the stock from kennels that sell a miscellaneous assortment from fifty cents and up, which in many cases grow into enormous-sized animals. These flood the city in the spring and usually end their short period of life in the fall.

I have been wondering what Mr. Baldwin's (Ardagh Kennels) Setter would do if these aldermen were dead ducks. Whether the Setter would retrieve them or whether she would settle cross pawed and drink her bottle of beer, letting them float away with the breeze.

We are pleased to hear about Mr. James Strachan's recovery. Saskatchewan members extend their good wishes and hope he will soon be his old self again.

MEETINGS HELD

A meeting of the Cocker Club of Central Ontario was held at the Bloor Hotel, Toronto, on Oct. 12th. Mr. Alroy Butler, the President, took the chair.

A letter was read from the Canadian K.C. stating that at the moment the Directors were not in a position to say as to whether a general meeting would be held or not and this matter would receive the attention of the Board at the next meeting. It was carried unanimously that a letter be sent to the President of the C.K.C. to say that a motion had been passed that a general meeting of the C.K.C. be held as usual next February.

It was carried unanimously that a letter be sent to the President of the C.K.C. protesting at the action of the Board of Directors in throttling "The Voice of the People", i.e., members of the C.K.C., by their action in deciding to discontinue the feature "The Voice of the People".

It was decided that a letter be sent to Mr. Borthwick saying the Club will give support to a proposed show to be held in December under the auspices of the Lion's Club in aid of charity.

Carried unanimously that a Point show be held late in January, 1944, and that a date be applied for to the C.K.C., and that Mr. Broley contact certain American judges to see if they would officiate.

A vote of thanks to the Chairman concluded the meeting.

BREED NOTES

SPORTING DOGS

Mr. McKay of the Kirkpatrick Kennels is placing at stud his famous Irish Setter, Ch. Sugaun of Shaunavon, which dog was brought to this country by Mr. R. Ray McLaughlin in July, 1939, and was bred by Miss H. Moorhouse of England. Mr. McKay is particularly proud of having three generations in his kennel. Sugaun has been used by Mr. McLaughlin for breeding purposes for the last two years and has produced some wonderful fine dogs, who in turn have had no difficulty in finishing their championships. Mr. McKay's Ch. Lady Shella of Kirkpatrick is one of Sugaun's offspring. In telling us the news, Mr. McKay says: "For the past couple of years I have been very interested in Sugaun on account of his type and wonderful disposition and I really believe that he is without doubt the best-known Irish Setter sire in Canada, and I am indeed very happy to own him and after having the dog in my possession for some time he is in wonderful shape and I intend to still use him as a stud dog for the reason that he is in wonderful breeding shape and I would be very pleased to have any Irish Setter owner that would be interested, to see him."

Mr. Harry C. Peake of Halifax Co., N.S., writes: "Speaking of shows, when do you suppose the powers that be will decide whether the Cocker Spaniel is a sporting dog or a toy? You know, it's a bit disgusting to put in a dog who is beautifully gaited and in perfect condition and then be beaten by a dog with a gait like a lumber wagon, and who had been taken out of a dusty city backyard and benched without even being bathed. God knows, I don't mind being beaten when there's competition, but it's bad for the game to have a tramp put up simply because the judge likes them small. If Cockers have to be toys to catch the judge's eye, let's take them out of the sporting group."

Congratulations are due to Mr. Alroy Butler, the popular Cocker Spaniel fancier upon winning Best of Breed at London and Hamilton and best dog owned by a member of the Canine Breeders' Association at Toronto (Woodbine) shows with his lovely bitch, Ch. Cito Frisco of Marjolear.

Mr. E. S. Jones, in writing to tell us to continue the advertisement of the Dunbar Cocker Kennels, says: "I must congratulate you on the great improvement that you have made in this magazine and I feel sure that it will continue to improve under your supervision."

Mr. Fred Jackson tells us how much he regretted not being at Hamilton Show, owing to his wife having to undergo a very serious operation which has happily been successful, but his joy at winning the sporting group with his Springer, Int. Ch. Frejux Lord Byng, was very great and the fine trophy which went with the award pleased him greatly. In sending his order for the Xmas number, Mr. Jackson says: "Our son, Norman, is a naval aviation cadet, stationed at Iowa City, we are very proud of him, he has just been made Cadet Batt. Comm'der, the highest honor a cadet can receive. Its the English in him." A good pup from the Fryjux Kennels has recently gone to St. John, N.B., and the new owner writes how pleased he is with his purchase.

From Mr. Harry Dean of the Ardee Kennels, we hear that he has sold his well-known Irish Setter Ch. Elmcraft Red Ace, winner of the All-Age Open Ch. Field Trial Stake to Mr. R. Manning, Kenogami Kennels, Port Arthur, Ont. The price paid was $1,000 and the contract provides that the dog may not be sold, and includes a free service to any dog owned by the Ardee Kennels. We wish Mr. Manning all the best of good luck with his new purchase.

There is great joy in the Glen Mar Cocker Kennels for Glen-Mar Firefly has just had a litter of 8 by Ch. Auratum. These are the first puppies sired by "Big Boy" since he came to Canada so, naturally, Mr. Lacey is very thrilled. Four are like poppa; 2 like momma, and 2 are black and whites. Here's hoping they will "follow in father's footsteps".

Amongst our C.K.C. new champions will be found a picture of Mrs. J. P. Sheridan's Cocker, Ch. Hiawatha, a son of Ch. Trycob's Candidate ex Peg O' My Heart, born on May 1st, 1942, and bred by Ray Wilcox of Greensboro, North Carolina. His record to date is as follows: Shown in Halifax, N.S., as a Novice (his first show), won all his classes through to Best of Breed. New Glasgow Show, Aug. 30th. Winners and Best of Breed Moncton, Sept. 1st - Winners and Best of Breed, Saint John, Sept. 3rd - Winners and Best of Breed, Saint John, Sept. 4th - Winners and Best of Breed.

A grand total of 23 championship points in eight days and in five shows. A pretty good record for a sixteen-month-old.

There is sadness and rejoicing in the famous Canaline Springer Kennels. Mr. and Mrs. Eric Gudgeon have lost Canaline Creation. Creation was very successful on the show bench and was many times res. winners and was the apple of her owners eyes. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Gudgeon are rejoicing in a litter from Ch. Dove Valley Benefactress, who was imported from Miss Williamson of England, there are 2 females and one male and the proud sire is Int. Ch. White Light and the babies are most promising.

HOUNDS

An amusing letter is to hand from Mrs. Matchett of the Myla Afghan Kennels, who says: "Well! another good day's work has been spoiled by the arrival of Dogs In Canada. I do enjoy it, it's grand, personal and friendly, just what we need to hold us together during these worrisome days."

Mrs. O'Connor of the Conwood Keeshonden Kennels, Victoria, B.C., tells us the Wrens stationed near her have been looking for a mascot and they decided a "large dog"—as they are called in Holland—would be very suitable, so Mrs. O'Connor has given them a cream male. He will have a good home. Mrs. O'Connor was very pleased at winning 1st and Best of Breed at the recent B.C. Show with her Conwood William, 11-months old, and reserve to him an elder brother, who got 1st Open dogs. One of the females she sold as a pup got Winners bitch. This is the first occasion on which 6 Keeshonds have competed, so, naturally, Mrs. O'Connor was very pleased.

Another who is rejoicing is Mrs. Osterdahl of Dachshund fame, who won Best of Breed at Hamilton with her "grandmother" Ch. Metta of Maydale, "who has done nothing but act like a pup ever since, she simply adores going to a dog show". Sphinx is now a Ch. and his litter sister picked up 2 points, when she finishes this will make 3 Chs. in one litter. Good going.

HO. 4944

Mrs. Cluxtons famous Glenwild Borzois enter the Breeders' Register this month and this popular exhibitor sends us a new subscriber to Dogs In Canada, which she describes as "now a magazine that we are all proud of".

From Mrs. Florsheim of Afghan fame we hear that seven of her hounds from the Five Mile Kennels have been enrolled under the War Dog Fund in Dogs for Defense: Int. Ch. Rana of Chamon was one of the charter members and serves as a General in the Army. Int. Ch. Rudiki of Pride's Hill is the first member to honor a new branch of the Forces, namely, the Women's Auxiliary Ferry Command (in which Mrs. Florsheim served until recently). He is enrolled as Flight Commander of the W.A.F.S. W.A.F.S. Pilots are: Ch. Rudika of Blakeen, Ch. Maharane Kohibaba, and three youngsters—Asri Havid II, Yenghiz Kahn, and Elmio Zabu.

By the way, Ch. Rana of Chamon won the Hound Group recently at Dayton and his score is now 5 Hound Groups in a month.

WORKING DOGS

Mrs. Woods of the Melita Kennels is advertising some golden Great Dane puppies for disposal.

From Mrs. C. H. Quereaux we have received the Bulletin of the Samoyed Club of America—a most interesting magazine and full of matter of use to breeders of this fascinating dog. If any of our readers who breed Sams don't possess the Bulletin and would like it, we will gladly lend it to them if they will drop us a line and pay the postage.

Strange how "Sams" are not more popular in Canada. Incidentally, in the States the breed is making a great war effort by helping with its wool to make all sorts of attractive garments, such as sweaters, pullovers and socks.

In sending us an advertisement wanting a German Shepherd puppy Mrs. Macmorine encloses a greeting for the Xmas issue and adds, "You are doing your part and it is up to us to do ours." Sentiments we greatly appreciate. Mrs. Macmorine continues "Dogs in Canada this month is well worth waiting for." Thanks again.

Mr. S. Ackland is advertising for sale a magnificent six month's puppy of superb breeding. This youngster's brother, Ackland Monty, won Best of Breed at the Progressive K. C. Show recently.

In sending us his entry for the Coronet Collies in the Breeders' Register, Gunner Harvey, who is now at Petawawa Camp, sends us a most interesting letter and takes up the cudgels on behalf of the handlers in view of the complaints published in the "Voice of the People" anent empty benches. We regret we are unable to publish Gunner Harvey's letter.

TERRIERS

One of the busiest of women these days is popular Miss Alice O'Brien of Halifax, whose kennel of Sealyhams is so successful. She is running a farm so is fully occupied but managed to get to Halifax Show and tells us some puppies are expected the end of this month. The last importation she made from England, from the Kennels of Mrs. Charters, has come along well though he has been slow in developing. Miss O'Brien is very complimentary about Dogs In Canada which, she says: "has greatly improved, so be sure and keep it up."

Mr. Tom Fitzgerald writes: "I think some sort of a record was established at the show in Halifax where eight Welsh Terriers were benched out of nine entries. I doubt if there have ever been as many shown in Canada at one show. No, I did not take best of breed, but I believe the BEST DOG won." [Bravo, Mr. Fitzgerald, you're a good sport!—Act. Ed.]

Mrs. McEachrin is advertising a well-bred Kerry puppy for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Minet notify us they have just imported from the famous Sirarno Kerry Blue Kennels in Rye, N.Y., Sirarno's Carefree Lady, a 5-months-old bitch out of Sirarno's Inspector ex Lady Colleen of Rob-Ett. Incidentally, she is the granddaughter of the 2 famous American Chs. Sirarno's Sophisticated Lady and Colleen of Kenmare. "We have great hopes of this young bitch in forthcoming shows and have been exhibiting Keries for some time," adds Mrs. Minet, to whom we wish all the best of luck with the new purchase.

Mrs. Adams of the Talisker Skyes tells us Lady Fay is nursing 3 girls and 3 boys—lovely puppies and 2 already spoken for, one to go to U.S.A., and there is an enquiry for a pair from Mississippi. Mrs. Ole Lindland of Lowell, Oregon, has purchased the beautiful Dame Fortune of Talisker, now 2 years old, which Mrs. Adams had hoped to take to Westminster.

Mrs. Batt of the Haldon Scottish Terrier Kennels has recently purchased from the Diehard Kennels of Mr. W. McBain, a young stud, Diehard Lochinvar, his sire, Diehard Fashion, was Best of Breed at Madison Square Gardens in 1942 and his grandsire Ch. Cabrach Calibar completed his U.S. Championship at the Garden. Mrs. Batt has lots of good puppies at present of various strains. Mrs. Batt says: "I have many enquiries for various breeds from motorists and always give them the breeders' addresses from the Register". Incidentally, Mrs. Batt tells us, much to her joy, she is now a regular blood donor. Bravo!

Mr. Roger E. Parks of the Quinteside Kennel of Cairns at Belleville writes us: "You will know the writer has been working on 'Cairn Terrier Records' for nearly 5 years and had hoped to publish same during 1943 but pressure of work made it likely that this book would not be printed until next year. However, the date will have to be changed again due to the writer having very recently lost the sight of an eye and the different specialists consulted have all ordered the easing up of work. This may mean a further delay of another year and possibly, even two. While I regret this change, I have no alternative, so the 'Records' must wait. Maybe Dogs In Canada might like to make this change in publication generally known to Cairn breeders as I have been receiving enquiries both from Canadians and Americans as to when the 'Records' will be available. I think I should take the opportunity to say that I am greatly enjoying Dogs In Canada and wish it every success."

Mr. Park's friends and fellow Cairn lovers will sympathize with him deeply over his misfortune.

Mr. H. Gibson of the Greenburn Kennels which enter our Breeders' Register this month, is rejoicing over a fine litter of Alredales by Rockley Robin Hood ex Rockley Bess, who is a daughter of Ch. Warland Warboy, the dog now carrying all before him in the States, where he was sold by Mr. Sid Perkins. The latest litter of 9—there were 10—is most promising and Mr. Gibson owns 2 out of a former litter, the same way bred which he hopes to bring out on the show bench when there is a handy fixture—living at Pickering, the gasoline question is acute and prevents attendance at evening shows.

In sending us the picture of her latest Cairn Kilmet, Mrs. Hyslop says: "I believe he is the 13th or 14th for Cairndania. I have some grand puppies, both Cairns and Danes, and several have left for their new homes already, whilst the others are waiting till they get old enough." Mrs. Hyslop has not been to a show since she went to Rye last June, and continues: "My Tam's Grey Girl of Cairndania, who won down there, whelped a litter of 2 females and 1 male by my Int. Ch. Chunk of Crockshad that are my best yet, they will be ready for next Westminster and if they turn out as well as I think they will, they will do O.K."

Mr. H. S. Burrows is placing at stud his well-known Irish Terrier, Culbann Come-hither.

Mrs. Arnold Rose of the Sirarno Kerry Blue Kennels is altering her advertisement this month. Lady Colleen recently finished her Ch. and so did her sister, Lady Marilyn, and now there are great hopes placed on Sirarno's Notorious Lady, she is a litter sister to Interpreter, the puppy Mrs. Rose is advertising in this issue.

TOYS

Mrs. Ross of the Rosbar Kennel of Toy Poodles in Kansas City, sends us a line of two very successful shows held there recently: "Mr. Walter Reeves was one of our judges and everyone seemed to be pleased with his placings." Mrs. Ross is "very thrilled over a litter of puppies which are the 5th generation of Rosbar blood, we feel like how we have produced a definite type in our white toys and are going to stick to them, some of the breeders are interbreeding now with miniatures". Mrs. Ross was very delighted that at the recent Rye show Mrs. James Austin went best of breed with Rosbar Princess Zenadie, who has been placed thus at her only four shows. Mrs. Ross continues: "I enjoy Dogs In Canada very much and like the personal touch, and was pleased to read the announcement of Mr. Pym's grandchild. Mr. Pym placed Pop Eye 3rd in the Group the first time I showed him, I knew nothing whatever about it and was sweating blood but it gave me confidence and I have had lots of pleasure showing my dogs since, I feel that he is responsible for it."

Mrs. Ita M. Maguire of Napanee is offering for sale a grand Griffon dog puppy as well as some Pekingese puppies.

Mrs. F. Luke, in sending her entry for her Pekingese to the Breeders' Register, sends us quite a budget of news. First of all, her well-known Stocktonian Mar Jar Rie had a litter of 6 last March and another of 4 in September—10 pups in 6 months and all living is good going. She is from Ch. stock, her dam being Ch. Stocktonian Pride of Pekin and her sire Stocktonian Wendie Boi, whose grandsire was Ch. Michie of Toytown. She herself went Best of Winners at Westminster, 1941, when 7½ months old in good company and she has not been beaten yet, and was Best of Winners, 1942, Hamilton. As Mrs. Luke truly says: "You can't always have a female ready for every show but she is working overtime between pups and shows." Mrs. Luke continues: "I would like to say a word or two about Pekingese and shows. What has become of all the breeders, not only in Toronto but outside as well? You can travel all over Canada—I see by Dogs In Canada magazine—and only find one or two at most one male one female. I have followed the reports for the last year or more, no competition."

This is what it is like going to a dog show with your Pekingese. After you have travelled miles, sometimes at last you arrive to find one more Peke. You waste all day looking around. If you could see your own breed you would be interested. At last they call Pekingese in the ring, you walk in with your dog, the judge looks at you, and waits; then says: "Bring your Pekes in, please." You say they are in. A moment later he pushes a ribbon in your hand and looks disgusted. You know you get one point without competition and you feel disgusted.

I remember when Pekingese were the largest entry in show; there must be a reason for their absence. I hope some of the doggie-minded will see this, and take notice."

THREE BUNDLES OF MISCHIEF

Wire Fox Terrier puppies, bred and owned by Mrs. H. G. D. Shute, of Willowdale, Ontario, whose kennel has just made two more champions.

Miss Daisy Miller, in writing nice things about Dogs in Canada tells us she is sending 100 copies of her Chihuahua page which appeared in our last issue to the members of the Interstate Chihuahua Club. Miss Miller also promises to write us a Toy Poodle article soon and says: "The July A.K.C. ruling, having all Poodles registered as Poodles, and shown as Toy if under 10 ins., or Miniature if under 15 ins., and as Standard above that figure, legitimizes what we have been doing in anticipation of being allowed to register pups, the offspring of Toy bred to Miniature."

"I have a Toy Poodle, 2nd generation of such interbreeding, and saw every color of the standards at the place I got mine. One Miniature went to the most famous Toy Poodle breeder on the coast, and people from various sections now dicker for small black miniatures to be bred to their toys."

"You know, of course, the standard for Toy Poodles specified all colors, but—we had nothing but whites in this country. In a few months you will see the colored ones. Mine is 10 days too young for the Progressive (all-Toy) Dog Club show, Nov. 14."

Mr. and Mrs. Kidd of the King Keady Kennel of Toy Manchesters enter our Breeders' Register this month. They are rejoicing in a good litter of 4 by King Keady, a son of Ch. Black Knight, who have all recently been sold through Dogs in Canada and now have another litter of 4—3 females and 1 dog—by the same sire which are most promising. Mr. and Mrs. Kidd are very enthusiastic about the breed and started in it 2 years ago with stock purchased from Mr. McLean and now own 7 dogs.

In sending us her entry for the Breeders' Register, Mrs. Doniphan says: "The October issue of Dogs in Canada is interesting from front to back cover. 'Brevities from Britain' I always read first, hoping to find some news of Mrs. Ashton Cross and Miss Elsie Brunne, who were both located in the London area. We are so snug and peaceful here that somehow it does not seem fair that the English breeders should have to carry on under such difficulties. I know that their courage and cheerfulness will carry them through and I hope that Mrs. Ashton Cross, her wonderful Pekes and Miss Brunne and her lovely Toy Spaniels are well, also many other breeders whom I have had the pleasure to meet."

We regret to relate that Mrs. Ashton Cross died recently, aged 81, and all Pekingese mourns her passing—Act. Editor.

We are glad to hear the Wangza Pekes are flourishing and Ch. Wun Lung of Wanza is nearing his 11th birthday and romps about like a two-year-old. Mrs. Doniphan continues, "My pride of this year's breeding is a double grand-daughter of Eng Ch. Yu-Fuh of Alderbourne and line breeding along those lines has given very satisfactory results and after we have finished winning this terrible war I will surely have more leisure to roam around as of yore."

Boucherville has become quite a Pekingese centre. Mrs. Olive Ramsay already has the nucleus of a most promising kennel and Mrs. G. Mattice recently purchased two very good females from John B. Royce. We often meet in the evenings and daily chat away on the telephone. We have party lines and I often wonder what mental pictures the villagers who listen in draw from hearing such an array of "un-Christian names."

Please do not let the Directors cancel "The Voice of the People" it is a very interesting page."

NON-SPORTING

Mr. Charles Hansell of the R.C.A.F., who is now stationed at Saskatoon, sends us a line to say that the last bull bitch he owned when he left home has died whelping a litter of puppies. This is indeed hard lines, as she had half her points towards her Ch. and was everyone's favourite. Says Mr. Hansell: "I hope to replace her as soon as I am able to settle down again at home in Guelph."

A cheery letter from Miss Miriam Hall of the Cartlane Poodle Kennels, U.S.A., tells us how pleased she was to win the non-sporting group at the National Capital Show in Washington with her gorgeous Poodle, Caprice, who will be portrayed in our Christmas number. There are busy times ahead in the Cartlane Kennels, as "we are just due for a series of whelpings beginning on Nov. 1st that will keep us busy, as there are already 11 miniature puppies here." Miss Hall is looking forward to attending the Buffalo shows.

Mrs. O'Connor of the Conwood Kennels, Victoria, B.C., tells me that she has recently sold 6 Keeshonds to the Oakcrest Kennels. "I am now importing a bred female from the Holdernere Kennels at Chillicothe, Ohio, and I have now a young female and a very nice young male, also two males for disposal. I recently had Mr. Clarence Kolwyck, a Kees breeder from Tennessee, here. He says my young male is one of the best he has seen. I wish the Keeshonders would get a little more publicity in Canada, they are quite the nicest breed I've ever had anything to do with and I've grown up with dogs, so have had most varieties." Mrs. O'Connor enters our Breeders' Register this month.

Mr. Reg. P. Sparkes enters our Breeders' Register this week with his famous Kamel

Bulldogs, and in sending his entry along writes: "I note that the directors have given instructions to the Editor to suspend 'The Voice of the People', and in my humble opinion they have made a grave mistake, and this opinion is voiced by a great many members and readers."

In sending us his order for the Xmas number of his bulldogs, Mr. Albert Farrell tells us he arrived at Hamilton show just as the Best in Show was being judged and it was the happiest half-hour of his life when he saw his dog in the ring and everyone congratulated him upon Nugget My Valet being in the last six. Immediately upon the closing of the show the bulldog fanciers, like the good sports they are telephoned Mrs. Farrell to tell her the good news and send their congratulations. Since then the telephone calls and cards have poured in and Mr. and Mrs. Farrell wish to thank their many friends and hope to be able to reply personally in the near future. They also desire to express their appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Alf Loveridge who have handled My Valet. Business is good in the Nugget Kennels and there is a tremendous demand for puppies, in fact, "more than we can produce." Certainly a very satisfactory state of affairs.

Mr. Wm. Downs is advertising a couple of Bulldogs by Ch. Kamel White Knight.

CORRECTION

In the report for the London Kennel Club Show published in the October issue, an omission was made in awards to Chow Chows. Mrs. Gordon McIlwain's Nana of Chalfont was placed first in Open Bitches and Winners. Mrs. Gwendolin Kenyon's Kylin of Chalfont was placed first in Open Dogs, Best of Winners and Best of Breed.

"A faithful dog," says Kipling, "is a free thing, tied to you so strictly by love that without you he will not stir or exercise; a patient, temperate, humorous, wise soul, who knows your moods before you know them yourself."

When the body that lived at your single will,

When the whimper of welcome is stilled (how still!)

When the spirit that answered your every mood,

Is gone — wherever it goes — for good,
You will discover how much you care,
But — — — you've given your heart to a dog to tear.

At the last meeting of the Hamilton Kennel Club, a resolution was passed expressing sincere appreciation to all exhibitors and workers who did so much to make the recent show such a huge success, and the President was instructed to extend thanks of the Directors and Members to all concerned.

Harry Dean.

At a meeting of the Directors held on October 21st, the Board rescinded the decision to cancel "The Voice of the People". It was decided that in future all correspondents must sign their contributions to this section, agreeing to become legally responsible for any action that may arise as a result of their publication.

"When October Dogs In Canada was sent to me, I thought it was an American magazine judging by the weight and size of it before I unwrapped it. Here's hoping its outgrown its pants and takes the leadership of all dog magazines."
Gunner Haroey, S.D.
Petawawa Camp, Ont.

DID YOU KNOW

THAT not a single case of rabies was found in Canada for the year ending March 31st, 1942.

THAT the Pottawatomes believed that in the moon there was an old woman making a basket, and that when it was finished the world would come to an end, but that a dog ruined her work at intervals, causing the eclipses.

THAT in many European countries it was believed that if a dog was held close to the abdomen of a patient, the fever passed into the dog.

THAT in ancient folklore it is related that the Tunguses drank the blood of a dog in taking an oath.

THAT in Hanawar's "Animal Folklore" it is said that "once upon a time when the world was young, to each and every kind of animal, a duty was assigned. The dog and cat were relieved of menial duty because of the faithfulness of the one and the cleanliness of the other, and a written document was given them in attestation thereof, and the dog took charge of it. He buried it where he kept his stock of old bones, ox, that they bribed the rat to burrow but this privilege of exemption so roused the envy of the horse, ass, and underground and destroy the charter. Since the loss of this document, the dog has been liable on account of his carelessness, to be tied or chained up by his master and the cat has never forgiven him."

THAT by the laws of Canada it is a criminal offence to:

(a) knowingly and with intent to deceive, sign or present or cause or procure to be signed or presented to the recording officer of The Canadian Kennel Club or to the person in charge of the Canadian National Live Stock Records, any declaration or any application for registration or any transfer of ownership respecting any dog containing any material false statement or representation, or

(b) falsely hold out any certificate of registration as applying to a dog other than the one in respect of which it was issued, or

(c) wilfully commits any act in contravention of the rules promulgated by The Canadian Kennel Club or Canadian National Live Stock Records, or

(d) as owner sells or contracts to sell a pure-bred dog without furnishing or agreeing as an integral part of the contract of sale to furnish the certificate of pedigree registration together with the duly recorded transfer of ownership thereof to the actual buyer.

Anyone convicted of any of these offences is liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars and costs and not less than one hundred dollars and costs, and in default of payment to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two months.

THAT in some parts of England it was once believed that an excellent cure for a cough was to put a hair of the patient's head between two slices of buttered bread and give the sandwich to a dog.

THAT it is said that Noah's ark was so full that the dog had to stand at the door with its nose poked out. For forty days and nights it rained on his nose and then it froze, and that is why the dog's nose is cold.

THAT it is a Turkish saying, "to prevent dogs going mad in summer, beat them thoroughly in February".

The Hamilton K.C. certainly made a wise move in holding their fall show on the grounds of the Hamilton Jockey Club and thus lived up to their reputation of "Canada's finest one-day show". Whoever thought to take the show out to such a lovely venue, certainly had a happy thought, and the day was gloriously fine. The rings and benches were under the grand stand and as most of the side of the building was open, the glorious sunshine was very acceptable indeed, some of the breeds were judged in the open. The officers comprised: Hon. president, J. N. Dalley; president, W. P. Gudgeon; secretary-treasurer, G. Lawless; hon. vice-president, T. H. Ross, M.P.; vice-president, F. Patrick; assistant secretary, Mrs. T. H. McGuire. We should certainly term Mr. Gudgeon "a working president", as he was here, there and everywhere, always looking to see where he could give a helping hand.

The Show Committee were: W. P. Gudgeon, T. Frankland, F. Lock, T. Donnelly, F. Birch, W. Foster, Mrs. G. Lawless, Mrs. W. P. Gudgeon, Mrs. M. Stevens, Mr. C. M. Stevens, Mrs. T. H. McGuire, A. Turnbull, Mrs. N. Springstead, C. M. Smith. Show superintendent, T. Frankland. Ring stewards: A. Roberts, W. Foster, A. Turnbull, C. M. Stevens, Mrs. W. P. Gudgeon, R. H. D. Sim, Geo. Potts. Trophy Committee: Mrs. G. Lawless, Mrs. N. Springstead, Mrs. T. H. McGuire, Mrs. M. Stevens, Mrs. Donnelly. Veterinarians: Dr. W. J. Rumney, Veterinarian-in-charge; Dr. T. McCrae Mathews and Dr. H. R. McLean.

Judging was carried on most expeditiously by the five adjudicators and we award a basket of orchids to Mr. Gudgeon and Mr. Lawless for having Best in Show judged to schedule by 7 p.m. So that everyone was able to get away in good time and before the light failed. Mr. E. C. Westcott from Detroit, who judged Group 1, the Sporting Dogs, had a big lot of Cockers to go over and certainly was most painstaking. Mr. Ed Sayers, usually alluded to as "Pop", had also made the trip up from the States to judge the Terriers and received a great welcome from his many friends. From Montreal came the C.K.C. director, Mr. W. W. Rooney, who seemed very happy to be amongst his Toronto friends, and the two local judges were Mr. Unthank and Capt. H. D. Waters. To the latter was allotted the pleasant task of awarding Best in Show, and it must have been very gratifying to him to hear the applause which greeted his choice of Mrs. Marion Florsheim's superb Afghan hound, Int. Ch. Rudiki of Prides Hill, perfectly handled by Mr. Alf Loveridge. Mrs. Florsheim thus won the gorgeous clock offered for Best in Show by Mr. W. J. Risewick. The show was splendidly managed and no fault could be found with any of the arrangements. Mr. Lawless, the secretary-treasurer, asks that a line of thanks and appreciation from all the members of the Hamilton Kennel Club be given to all the exhibitors and supporters of the show.

BENCH CHAMPION IRISH SETTER WINS OPEN ALL AGE STAKE AT SASKATOON FIELD TRIALS

By Arthur G. Goddard

The newly formed field trial branch of the Saskatoon K.C., held its first field trial for Pointers and Setters, under Canadian K.C. rules, on September 5th and 6th. Ernie Howe, of Baldwin, Sask., and Arthur Goddard of Saskatoon, being the official judges.

Very little harvesting had been done. Many fields of grain being still uncut, making it necessary to run the dogs over grass-covered courses, dotted with poplar and willow bluffs. Birds were quite plentiful on some courses, and very scarce on others; so that the luck of the draw played its part in some of the decisions. We missed the vast stretches of rolling prairie, carpeted with yellow stubble, over which Saskatchewan trials are usually run. We missed, too, the brilliant sunshine of the prairie, and the tang of the air in the fall; as showers of cold wind-driven rain beat down upon us at intervals, to be followed by bursts of sunshine.

Judging was carried on through shower and sunshine, even lunch was eaten on the fly; a lady from the gallery very thoughtfully providing the judges with drumsticks of delicious cold chicken. One pause was made in the running of the Open All Age Stake, when a flock of about two hundred snow geese, or waxies, appeared from the Northwest. Judges, handlers, and gallery alike reined in their horses to watch them in flight as they winged their way Eastward, silhouetted against the dark, low-hanging clouds.

Hughie McKay handled his Pointer bitch, "Tuffy's Snooks", from the saddle of a magnificent palamino, and in typical cowboy fashion gave a display of horsemanship that added a touch of real Western flavor to the atmosphere. "Snooks" started out well, but Jackrabbits proved to be her weakness. Hughie disappeared over a rise to the north, galloping madly along in a vain effort to head off a Jack that was leading Snooks a merry chase. Hughie arrived back, however, in time to hear the winners of the derby announced, after which he dryly remarked: "I never for one moment expected Snooks to get into the money, but I do think the other competitors should at least give me credit for chasing all the rabbits off the course."

Members of the club should consider themselves fortunate in having as president such an enthusiastic lover of the field trial game as Mr. R. L. Orge. His main objective was to put this trial over in a big way, and the success of this, his initial venture, must have been very gratifying. A wrinkle appeared upon his brow, when Ernie Howe phoned to say he had run into a regular cloud-burst enroute, and would be late in arriving. It disappeared just as quickly, when that very versatile lady, Mrs. Pat. Randall, our C.K.C. director, yielded to persuasion, filled the vacant saddle, and very ably assisted the writer in judging the puppy, and shooting stakes which were scheduled as the first events on the program.

The secretary, Newton C. MacGregor, together with other members of the executive, co-operated whole heartedly with the president; all lovers of the pointing dogs, their ambitions for the future are to make this annual event second to none held in Western Canada.

THE RUNNING

The open all-age stake, with eleven entries, was won by Ch. Elmcroft Red Ace, Irish Setter dog, owned and handled by H. Dean, of Waldheim, Sask. Harry received many congratulations as he was presented with the large silver cup emblematic of his dogs splendid achievement. This big, handsome red dog, put down with the fleet-footed Pointer, Wascana Buddy, ran a splendid race. He appeared a bit slow to get going at the commencement of the heat, which was started in a downpour of rain, but improved fast as the rain ceased and he warmed to his work. His casts were made with purpose, taking in all the "birdy" spots. In the closing minutes he had two finds in quick succession on Hungarian partridge, which he handled in good style. Time was called soon after, however "Ace" wasn't through yet. Nellie's Queen, English Setter bitch, owned and handled by N. C. MacGregor, had put up an excellent performance, when running as a bye, earlier in the day. She was put down with "Ace" after the Irish Setter had been given a rest. In the overtime session, the stylish son of Ch. Sagan of Shunavon, and Ch. Elmcroft Molly; again proved his ability as a birdfinder by snapping into point on another bevey of "Huns".

Soon after this, as there appeared to be no more birds in the vicinity, the dogs were ordered up.

Mr. Dean's ambition is to breed and raise Irish Setters that can give a good account of themselves on the bench and in the field against all comers. Harry is only a young man yet, and we wish him every success in his worthy undertaking. "Queen", the sweet little lemon Belton Setter, was in there punching all the time. She had two finds the first time down, and proved steady as the gun was fired. She did not run as wide, and her points were less stylish than the first place dog; however, she was a worthy winner of second place. Third place went to Wascana Buddy, owned by A. C. Barbour, and handled by R. L. Orge. Buddy proved to be one of the widest ranging dogs seen in action at the trial. Running with the Irish Setter, he was credited with one find. He came to point some distance to the rear of "Ace", on what appeared to be a perfect back, however, as Dean flushed a large covey of Hungarian partridge ahead of his Setter, a single prairie chicken arose from behind, and to the left of the latter. Buddy's head was turned directly in line with the spot from where the chicken flushed, so was therefore credited with the find.

THE DERBY

With thirteen dogs competing, this stake saw some of the best run, and most keenly contested races of the day, however, space forbids but a brief summary of the running. "Buster", a rangy liver and white Pointer, owned by Mrs. T. M. Guytar, and handled by Mr. Guytar, took first place. This dog had plenty of style and a fast, yet easy-going way of covering the ground. He showed plenty of bird sense; searched the likely places, and was bird-hunting at all times. Buster had two finds on prairie chicken, being very stylish on point, and handled them like a veteran. Just before being ordered up he backed his brace mate on a find of Hungarians, in the most approved manner. "Wascana Buddy", another liver and white Pointer took 2nd place. This dog ran a most heart-breaking race; making wide casts, taking in all the available country. Evidently this wasn't Buddy's day, as he failed to connect with birds. Given the opportunity this dog should go far. Both these dogs are sired by Rip Rap's Duke, and are products of the kennel of R. L. Orge. Another owner-handled Pointer, J. H. Van Impe's Seaview Jerry, placed third. Johnny may well feel proud of this promising young bitch. She had one stop to flush on a lone Hun, that got up wild, and was really going places as the heat ended. To win a place in such fast company was indeed an honor. The quality of the dogs in this stake was of a general high order.

AMATEUR ALL AGE

Mendal's Soda, liver and white Pointer bitch, owned by F. Mendal, and handled by Hughie McKay took this event. "Soda" had one find, showed style on point, and was steady. Seaview Jerry placed 2nd while 3rd went to a black and white ticked English Setter dog, "Colonel Blue Boy", owned and handled by L.A.C. Howard. This dog was close up to the Derby winners, required more work and experience. A fast, stylish dog.

SHOOTING DOG STAKE

English Setters captured the first three places. 1st going to Usher's Nell. E. L. Usher owner and handler. This seasoned performer was wise to all the tricks of the trade; handled her two finds in good style, steady as the proverbial rock. 2nd to Nellie's Queen, 3rd to Prof. A. Anstenson's bitch Skipky. Black and white English Setter, handled by T. Strand. The Jr. Puppy stake was won by H. McKay's Pointer, Rockey's Bobby.

It was indeed a pleasure for me to be associated with such a well-known authority on sporting dogs, as Mr. Howe. With eighteen brace scheduled to run on the second day, the task that confronted us was not an easy one. Had time permitted, we would have preferred to see more of some of the dogs that came before us, but this was impossible.

The final winners were announced just before sundown. This was followed by the presentation of handsome silver cups, and other valuable prizes to the winners, by Mr. D. C. "Donnie" Samson, president of the Saskatoon K.C. The members of the Field Trial Club greatly appreciated the generosity of Mr. Mendal, who supplied a number of first-class saddle horses. A final windup was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orge, whose kindness enabled all to join in bringing the trials to a most successful conclusion.

Five a.m. to three a.m., what a day. Bedtime came at last, yet even as I slept, I seemed to still hear the boys calling "POINT", while prairie chicken, and partidge continued to flush in all directions.

ALBERTA FIELD TRIALS CLUB

The Alberta Field Trials Club held their first licensed trial for Retrievers and Spaniels, on September 6th, at Calgary. The judges were Messrs. Joseph Rudolph and James Lowther of Calgary.

In the All-Age Stake for Spaniels, eight entries were made, with Gladholme Punch of Avandale, an English Cocker Spaniel, owned and handled by D. Pilling, placed first. Second place went to the English Cocker, Gladholme Flash, owned and handled by Donald Kenny, with third to the Springer Spaniel, Ace, owned and handled by J. A. Bishop.

With eleven entries in the Open All-Age Stake for Retrievers, Westhaven Pride, a Labrador, owned and handled by William C. Fisher was placed first and Victorious of Roedare, a Golden Retriever, owned and handled by S. F. D. Roe, second.

THE DOG

*I've never known a dog to wag
His tail in glee he did not feel,
Nor quit his old-time friend to tag
At some more influential heel.
The yellowest cur I ever knew
Was to the dog who loved him true.*

*I've never known a dog to show
Halfway devotion to his friend:
To seek a kinder man to know,
Or richer; but unto the end
The humblest dog I ever knew
Was to the man that loved him true.*

*I've never known a dog to fake
Affection for a present gain
A false display of love to make
Some little favor to attain.
I've never known a Prince or Spot
That seemed to be what he was not.*

*And I have known a dog to bear
Starvation's pangs from day to day
With him who had been glad to share
His bread and meat along the way
No dog however mean or rude,
Is guilty of ingratitude. Anonymous.*

THE JUDGE'S IMPRESSIONS AT THE TORONTO BOSTON TERRIER SHOW

By CLAUDE J. FITZGERALD

At the Thanksgiving Day Show at Toronto, there were many things of interest while meeting our grand neighbors and friends that worked so hard for the Boston Terrier and the show.

One can learn so much visiting with such youngsters as Mr. Jackson, Dr. Campbell, Mrs. Firman, and others that were present twenty-five years ago at the conception of the club, and studying the dogs brought in. Strong resemblance was noticeable in puppies to older stock. Both having mostly the same faults. This would be corrected, if breeders would change bloodlines more often.

In the males there were three puppies that showed a lot of promise. One, a real stud type sound, with no outstanding faults. The other two were more of the show type, which, with proper handling and training should make their presence felt in any ring.

There was one older male that was good in body and had a head that was a masterpiece. He had one fault almost to a disqualification, which I believe can be corrected. In my belief it is wrong to show this dog until something is done with him first.

My winners male and my reserve were very close, with the winners male being superbly handled, getting every bit of good from his dog possible. I watched this fellow very close for a fault that I thought he had, and could not find, but did later in Best of Winners, which brings us to females.

As in the States, I would say the females are better than the males. At least there were more of a higher quality. This may be a healthy condition for the breed, because the better the females used for breeding, the better the Bostons we are going to have, as it is wrong to expect a good male to do more than his share.

There is no question but that my winners female class if ever they come together again may be reversed, as I had two females in that class that were simply gorgeous, and were handled as well as anyone could do on that day. It was regrettable that this had to be their off day, but when a handler pulls a dog across the ring and has to carry them back, a judge cannot carry them to the top. Although the livelier received Reserve Winners, had they shown properly, either could have been Winners and Reserve. My Winner Female was full of life, sound as a dollar, and was certainly deserving of this award.

My Best of Breed was a dog that any judge would enjoy working with and is hard to beat.

You may use any of this information as you wish, as these remarks are meant only as constructive and hope no one will take them otherwise.

With many thanks to the club members, exhibitors, Mr. Reggie Sparks, and yourself. I sincerely wish you loads of luck, and hope for an early victory overseas.

The Boston Terrier Club of Toronto, the oldest Specialty Club in Canada held its Silver Jubilee Show on Thanksgiving Day when an extra large entry was obtained. The officers were as follows:

Honorary president, H. H. Jackson; President, Mrs. M. Firman; 1st vice-president, Mrs. B. W. Hamilton; Show Secretary, F.

Cayley; Secretary-treasurer, W. Blum; Trophy Secretary, Mrs. B. W. Hamilton; Executive Committee, Mrs. F. Cayley, Mrs. J. Wiggins, Mrs. H. Corbett, Mrs. A. Carley, Mrs. M. Taylor, Mr. Lorne Anderson; Bench Show Committee, H. W. Hosty, C. J. McGarry, Mrs. C. J. McGarry; Official Ring Steward, Reg. Sparkes; Asst. Ring Steward, Mr. Lorne Anderson; Show Superintendent, F. A. Cayley; Hon. Veterinary, J. A. Campbell, V.S., B.V.Sc.; Show Secretary, F. A. Cayley, 97 Milverton Blvd., HA. 8750.

The show was held in aid of the British War Victims Fund and the venue, the Maloney Gallery on Grenville St., was an excellent place in which to hold a show.

A United States entry carried off top honors. Best dog in show was the int. ch. High Hat's Ringside Show Boy, owned by Mrs. George A. Allen, of Niagara Falls, N.Y. Saint's Rest Tiny Ace, owned by Robert Shelling of Fort Erie, was adjudged best female in the show.

Entries came from Toronto, Hamilton, Fort Erie, Dundas, Niagara Falls, N.Y., Kenmore, N.Y., and Lancaster, N.Y.

Best local dog was High Hat Show Boy Ace, owned by Norman G. Gorrie; best local female, Abetees Victory Bound, owned by Mrs. Audrey Firman Carley; best Canadian-bred, McGarry's Little Condy, owned by C. J. McGarry of Toronto. This dog won the Charles M. Firman Memorial Trophy awarded annually for Canadian-breds.

Two of the original officials of the club present to mark its quarter-century were Mrs. Charles Firman, its president, and H. M. Jackson, its first president. Show superintendent was F. A. Cayley.

We must award a special bouquet to Mr. Reg Sparkes who not only donated a $50.00 War Saving Certificate for best in show but acted as ring steward and microphone announcer—at both jobs he was tops.

Held at Toronto, Ont., on October 11th.
Judge: Claude Fitzgerald, Wyandotte, Michigan.

THE PROGRESSIVE KENNEL CLUB OF CANADA

A very successful sanction show was held on Oct. 15th at the Veterans' Hall, Toronto, where there was a splendid entry and a large attendance despite an appalling night on which the heavens literally opened to give farmers the much needed rain. The show was opened promptly to time by Mr. W. J. Risewick, the President of the C.K.C., who made a charming speech—making everyone welcome and wishing the Club the best of good luck. The judges were Mr. Alf. Love-ridge, Miss Mildred Dagger, Mr. J. Waggett, who divided up the breeds, and Mrs. Phyllis Robson, who judged the ladies' and gentlemen's and children's handling classes.

Never have we seen a finer array of special prizes—how hard the promoters of the show must have worked to get the long table filled with all sorts of valuable trophies. Indeed, as one successful exhibitor remarked, "the prizes here are far better than at many of the point shows." The Show Secretary was Mr. Fred Andrews and Mr. Geo. Potts, a very live wire was the President, with Mr. and Mrs. Stevens as trophy secretaries.

Every one worked with a will and gave their services gratis, and the show was held in aid of the Evening Telegram British War Victims Fund, which will benefit to the tune of some $80.

A raffle was held for a magnificent basket of apples, generously sent in by Miss Elsie Mayhew, and this was won by Mrs. Hamilton. The Cocker fancier, who has an orchard—talk of sending coals to Newcastle—however, she said that her apples were nothing like Miss Mayhew's beautiful produce, and she in turn brought a leg of lamb which was put up to auction and made quite a goodly sum.

The winner of Best in Show was Mr. Walter Kenyon with his lovely home-bred Chow puppy—a tremendously popular win, and when the huge vase filled with autumn leaves which went with the award was handed to him, it did one good to see the joy on his face.

THE VOICE THAT WAS MUFFED

My letter which appeared in part only on page 20 of the October issue of Dogs In Canada, under the heading, "The Voice of the People", was blue-pencilled by the acting editor in such a way as to lose its clarity, it was also sandwiched in between a letter of one "Kruger" of Montreal (and showing no separating line) and the expression of the acting editor's statement, "I would be surprised, etc.", and because of those disconcerting circumstances, I feel duty bound to make a clarifying statement now, not so much on my own behalf as in the interests of the many influential co-workers associated with me in the recent campaign of the Irish Terrier Fanciers Association, whereby we were able to add well over $3,000.00 to the British War Victims' Fund with the approval of the Citizens' Committee for Troops in Training, Permit No. 33954, therefore, perfectly legal, quite irrespective of the of the ill-advised declaration of their illegality. Truly, a little knowledge can be a dangerous thing.

Here then is the paragraph that ran foul of the blue pencil: "No one should know better than our acting editor the great need of the British War Victims' Fund. No one should know better the standing and integrity of those sponsoring the campaign. No one should have stepped quicker to their defense." and I will now add, "No one should know better than our acting editor that the unfair, untruthful, warped statements should not have been published as they were in W. N. Steggall's letter. To say that "The Editor will not be responsible, etc.", is not sufficient when contributions are incorrect in their content. Dogs In Canada was not built on this policy.

I also expressed my opinion that the space allotted to the W. N. Steggall's incorrect viewpoint could have been used to better advantage in boosting the many shows held recently, prior to their being held.

While over $3,000.00 were raised in the Irish Terrier Fanciers campaign, this flattering amount might well have been increased substantially if the fixture had been properly supported by Dogs In Canada.

The acting editor has published the statement that she has had a number of expressions of approval on W. N. Steggall's views.

Allright, here are two specific wagers which should bring out the truth: If I cannot produce 500 names of those who actually helped, for every single letter expressing disapproval of the work that the acting editor can produce, dated before the 20th of September, I will hand over to her $25 to be given to the British War Victims' Fund.

Let me say this in respect to the Kruger letter which appeared in the September issue. If Kruger received a book of bonds from the Irish Terrier Association and if he sold all or part of the bonds as suggested in our letter which accompanied the book when it was mailed, he or she certainly received a letter of acknowledgement and thanks together with the autographed bond cover with a tear sheet from the Evening Telegram giving a full report of the show.

If Kruger can prove the statements made and if it is has reference to the Irish Terrier Fanciers recent fixture, I will hand over $25 to the British War Victims' Fund, and in default I will be happy to hand over $25 by Kruger.

The dice would appear to be loaded here, as both our acting editor and Kruger have made their contributions. Nevertheless, these wagers are offered and are based on my confidence of dog fanciers in general. The splendid support given so freely and so wholeheartedly in our recent campaign to raise funds for the War Victims of the Motherland, and the thousands who shared in the wonderful opportunity represent the cream of Irish, American and Canadian fanciers and they are certainly not deserving of the unfair and unjust criticisms which have been published in Dogs In Canada.

Here is a real headliner taken from the Quebec notes under the name of Veva Robson, and just as they appeared in the official organ:

"There will not be a show in Montreal this Fall. Why, because no one will work or can't work. I believe several meetings were held but ended in a lot of hope, but getting nowhere. At one meeting there were about 25 people attended and when volunteers to work were asked to raise their hands, not a hand came up."

Can it be possible, Steggall or Kruger, that one or both of you were present at this meeting? Here we find 45 people on your doorstep looking for leadership. Why don't you busy yourselves on their behalf, get busy and start something that will end in a show that will be a credit to your province, and we down in this neck of the woods will give you all the help possible to make any show you sponsor a real top notcher.

This space is being paid for at the regular advertising rates.

Letter from Wm. H. Pym (Position of Provincial Committee re Judges)

A letter was received from Mr. Wm. H. Pym re the approval of proposed judges and the position of the Provincial Committees in this regard, as was also the resolution in respect to this matter which was adopted at the meeting of the Board of Directors held on May 16th, 1940.

After hearing the resolution the Board was of the opinion that the resolution had not been properly worded and that it was probably not Mr. Pym's intention or the intention of the Board of Directors, that the resolution should convey the idea that the selection of judges for shows to be held outside the Province of Ontario had to be referred to the Chairman of the Provincial Committee for his approval, but rather that his knowledge of the judges selected would be made available to the Board of Directors.
