Do We Want Point Judging?

By JASPER DANIELS

Ed. NOTE.—Mr. Daniels gives us a preview of a Dog Show of the future.

My next door neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Bryce, have just purchased a puppy and the breeder told them he would make a good show specimen. They asked me to look at him and give an opinion, but I told them the best way would be to take him to a dog show and get the opinion of judges with far more experience than I and who would be more capable of doing it. Mrs. Bryce said that they had always been interested in dogs and had once gone to a dog show thinking they would find some good and enlightening entertainment, but came home very much disappointed. It seems all they saw and heard at the ringside was whispered criticism of the judge's placings and some of the people even whispered that the judge was judging the animal on the wrong end of the lead. The Bryces came home at the noon recess and have never been near a dog show since.

I told them that times had changed since 1944 and that we now held dog shows which were not only entertaining and educational to customers who paid their 50 cents each to see the show, but that under this new method an exhibitor could, with a reasonable amount of certainty, ascertain the true value of his dog in one or two shows.

The local newspapers for some time past had been giving considerable comment on a dog show which was to be held a month hence. The Bryces said they would like to go along with us and show their dog and also watch the children's judging class because my young grandson, Jerry, of whom they seemed especially fond, would be competing.

When the day arrived, we were at the dog show building at 8:30 a.m. Most of the dogs were already benched and the vets., three of which were working at tables arranged just inside the entrance, seemed to be examining the dogs, and more especially the younger ones, very carefully and in most cases taking their temperatures. At the entrance to the large room where the dogs were benched, one of the show officials was stationed and after looking at the card on which the vet. had stamped his approval, directed the Bryces to the aisle containing the bench which had been allotted to their dog. Most of the benches had been attractively decorated with backgrounds in contrast to the color of the dogs' coats, in order to show them to the best advantage.

It was nearly nine o'clock and as it had been announced that the judging would start promptly at nine, we made our way to the judging ring which was in an adjoining room. The ring was surrounded on three sides by rows of comfortable seats rising each row a little higher from front to back so that all could get a view of the entire ring. Covering almost the entire wall at the end of the ring was a large blackboard, similar to that used in a stock broker's office. The board was painted into oblong squares each about four by eight inches and at the left side of each the squares were numbered from one to two hundred and fifty. That being the entire number of dogs entered in the show. Thus each dog shown in the catalogue had his own private square on the board coinciding with his or her catalogue number. Three judges were inside the ring. When we asked why there were three judges it was explained that the dogs would be judged on a point system. The judges had previously taken a short course in the anatomy of the dog as well as studying the standard of each breed, and had taken both a written and an oral examination and had passed marks sufficiently high to obtain a certificate from the examining committee of the Canadian Kennel Club, entitling them to judge dogs by this system anywhere in Canada.

As the first dog, number one dog in the catalogue, entered the ring each judge was handed a card, on the back of which was printed a condensed standard of the breed, just in case he might want to turn it over and refresh his memory on some point. On the front was printed points possible for each section of the dog's anatomy as well as points dog earned. The dog was gaited and temperament. One hundred possible points if the dog were perfect, which, of course, could rarely occur.

Blank spaces were left for the judges' opinion as to the number of points the dog earned. The dog was gaited and gone over by the three judges, each filling in his card which they handed to the steward in exchange for cards No. 2, as the second dog entered the ring and the judges started on him, and so on. The steward handed card No. 1 to an official operating a calculating machine which added up the total points the judges had allowed on each card. When they arrived at the average of points in their opinions, which in this first case had been 72 points out of a possible 100, 72 was then chalked in the square on the blackboard belonging to dog No. 1. One of the spectators, or was it the owner of the dog? —gasped, "Ah! that can't be true, why he was best in the show in Blank City last year."

"Maybe so," said someone sitting quite close, "but this is the opinion of three duly qualified judges and anyway, you can try again and if your dog should again go that low you should be convinced that six instead of three judges can not be so far wrong and that you really have a 72 per cent dog.

The best thing you can do is to breed a better one and try again."

We sat and watched the judging of some 40 dogs which constituted the first group. When they were finished we had only to consult the numbers on the blackboard to find all of our winners, best of winners, best of breed and the group winner. No two dogs had ever been in the ring at one time. Another group was finished before the lunch intermission. The Bryce dog was in this group and only made a possible 60 points, but they were not disheartened because he was only an undeveloped puppy and promised to develop into something very good and they would try again. The show was adjourned from 12 o'clock to 1 o'clock, at which hour the judging again started promptly.

At that time the special features show started in ring No. 2, which was much larger than the judging ring. The show in this ring lasted for one hour, then an adjournment of one hour to allow the patrons a stretch or to patronize the refreshment booth or to wander through the bench room and perhaps choose their future dog or just to admire.

The show with intermissions in the ring No. 2 continued throughout the day until the last dog was judged in ring No. 1, and the best of breeds, best of groups and at last the best dog in show was paraded into ring No. 2 for all to feast their eyes upon. One did not have to understand the fine points of dog exhibiting to enjoy the show in ring No. 2 throughout the day.

There were obedience tests, judged by two well-known trainers and judged on points. There was a parade of dogs of many nations each led by a person attired in the native costume of the country from which the dog originated. There were demonstrations and short lectures on handling, grooming, clipping, etc.

We nearly forgot to tell you of the children's judging and handling classes. The parading of bench champions, field trial champions, some dogs who had distinguished themselves in the war zones and other dog heroes were featured. Some of the features which appealed most to the audience were repeated at intervals throughout the day.

The day following the show I had an interview with the show superintendent. Having myself been an exhibitor in past years I had many questions to ask. I wanted to know what made this show tick. First I asked him, was this method of judging too slow? His answer was, "No, not if they started promptly and got on with it and selected men to judge who did not have to sleep over each decision." He said that if they were fortunate in securing a very large entry it would warrant a two-day show. From the breeder-exhibitor's point of view it all tied in nicely because the larger the gate the greater would be the selling power and that most of the exhibitors he knew were very interested in sales.

Would exhibitors of dogs getting low marks be discouraged and discontinue showing?

Answer.—A few would, but the majority of dyed-in-the-wool fanciers would try to improve their stock. It would be a great remedy for KENNEL BLINDNESS. Also there are always the young dogs coming up and with the combined bench show and entertainment a lot of new blood was bound to be drawn into the game. Taken largely, the show entries should show an increase.

What about the gate?

Answer.—We are able to attract more people and also double the price of admission. In the old days a lot of these same people thought they were being robbed when they paid 25 cents admission, and so they were, because it was all so complicated to them. They would say: "We went to a dog show and all we saw was a bunch of dogs being led around a ring. That got monotonous, so we went home and listened to the radio. It was more exciting."

Why do you give the boys and girls judging classes so much attention?

Answer.—"Ah!" said he, "that is the well from which we draw our future judges and exhibitors. With the education children are getting along these lines it will be only a decade until these youngsters will be calling us by our correct titles, i.e., 'old fogies' who did things in a mighty sloppy way and took many, many generations to improve the dog game to the extent that we improve it in one generation. We need these kids."

Have you anything to say about the financial aspect?

Answer.—Because of this new system, dog shows are becoming much more popular with the public. We are able to double our admission fee and treble the number of those attending. This enables us to procure better benching, and make the quality and quantity of prizes something worth striving for, which in turn brings us a larger entry. Eventually we could, through co-operation of all clubs in each city, build our own show building.

You have cut out all class judging. What about that?

Answer.—Class judging never was very important to anyone except the novice exhibitor. True, a first ribbon was an incentive to keep trying, but class judging slowed down the show and caused more work at the show, and more bookkeeping right down the line than it was worth. Under this new method championship points are awarded just as they were before. The records are all on the board and in the recording book the moment the last dog is judged. All then that the show committee has to do is to put out the cat and turn out the light. The records can be forwarded to Toronto by the next mail.

ANNOUNCE PRIZE FOR BEST WAR DOG MEMORIAL DESIGN

An award of $500 awaits the person who suggests the most acceptable design for a memorial to be raised in honor of the dogs that will have fought and died in World War II it is announced by Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City.

A committee of prominent dog people, now in process of selection, will pass on the design.

Merit of the submitted idea will count for more than artistic execution of the finished sketch, it is stated. To qualify for the award ideas or sketches must be submitted prior to April 30, 1945, to the committee in care of Harry Miller, Executive Secretary, Gaines Dog Research Center, 250 Park Avenue, New York 17, New York.

It is hoped to raise the K-9 memorial in front of the Pentagon Building which houses the War Department in Washington, D.C., or some similar appropriate site. Later, funds for the actual construction of the memorial will come by subscription from interested individuals and groups.

CANADIAN DOG TRAINING CLUB NOTES

By Walter O. Flink
Secretary-Treasurer

The Canadian Dog Training Club held its third C.K.C. Obedience Show in conjunction with the Progressive Kennel Club, in the Veteran's Hall, Toronto, Friday, December 8th. The show was held before the regular Sanction Show, 7.00 to 9.00 p.m., and everyone came early to watch these tests. Judge for these tests was Mrs. Alva McColl, and the results were as follows:

Novice Class "A"

First—CARLA OF BRIARDALE, handled by George Ross, 96 points. (German Shepherd).

Second — SERGEI OF GLENWILD, handled by Mrs. Cluxton, Guelph, 94 points. (Borzo).

Third—MIDGE, handled by T. Simpson, 68 points. (German Shepherd).

Fourth—BLACK MAGIC OF ROSE-MERE, handled by W. O. Flink, 66½ points. (German Shepherd).

Fifth—LASSIE O'ARKEN, handled by W. G. Walsh, 50 points. (Collie).

Sixth—SUSAN OF FAIRACRES, handled by F. R. Walker, 42 points, (German Shepherd).

Seventh—NUGGET LADY O'GOLD, handled by A. Farrell, 35 points. (Bulldog).

Novice Class "B"

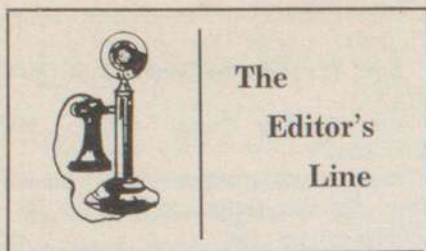

First — INT. CH. WESTPHALIA'S RAMESES, C.D.X., handled by Geo. Wade, 96 points. (Doberman Pinscher).

Second—SULTAN OF NEBRIC, handled by E. Hayman, 93 points. (German Shepherd).

Our club, although only five months old, finished three "C.D." dogs at this show, namely CARLA OF BRIARDALE, INT. CH. WESTPHALIA'S RAMESES, and SULTAN OF NEBRIC. This, we believe, is pretty fair going for a young club such as ours.

Congratulations to the owners of these new Canadian "C.D." Dogs.

We are endeavoring to locate a spot indoors where we can do our training throughout the winter months, but to date a suitable location has not been found.

The Editor's Line

Thoughts of exhibitors and dog lovers turn annually to the big event at Madison Square Gardens in early February.

Mr. D'Arcy Hinds, who retired some six years ago from his position at Os-Goode Hall, Toronto, was a great dog lover and a story is told about him in legal halls to the effect that his winter holiday often coincided very happily with the Madison Square Show. On one occasion a gentleman kept calling Os-Goode Hall every hour or so to ask for Mr. Hinds and was told that he was not in. Finally becoming impatient, he said, "Well, when WILL he be in?" A woman's voice answered, "I am sorry, Sir, but Mr. Hinds is in New York." The enquirer shot back the remark, "Oh, gone down to the Bowery, has he?" The woman's voice came back sweetly with the reply, "No, Sir, if you really want the truth, I think he has gone down to the Bow-wow-ry."

CIVIL RE-ESTABLISHMENT

Dog breeders and handlers may well give some thought to the employment possibilities which breeding, handling and showing might offer to young men and young women who have completed their duties in the Armed Services.

A great many of these young men and young women have received a certain amount of business training in the keeping of records, accounts, and in stenographic and typists' duties. In cases where their training is combined with an interest in dogs and a love of animals, it becomes apparent that here would be excellent material for a kennel business manager, an assistant show handler or, in cases where training was not so advanced, kennel help might be found.

In England the occupation of kennel man or kennel maid is taken seriously and becomes an occupation of dignity commanding good remuneration. Several young people about to be discharged from the Armed Services discussed the matter recently and seemed enthusiastic.

How many of our breeders would be interested in taking kennel maids or men?

- (a) With business experience.
- (b) Without business experience.

How many professional handlers would be interested in assistants for the grooming and showing of dogs?

- (a) With business training.
- (b) Without business training.

This information would be gladly passed on to employment and rehabilitation authorities.

Canadian dog fanciers will be grieved to learn that Augustus Hilary Hartnett, better known as Harry Hartnett, managing director of the Gaines Research Kennels, Ridgefield, Conn., and one of the best known figures in the American dog fancy, died at Danbury Hospital on Saturday, December 2nd, of a cerebral hemorrhage suffered two days previously.

Mr. Hartnett was a former president of the Eastern Irish Setter Association, and an official of the Irish Setter Club in America, the English Setter Association. The American Boxer Club and other dog groups.

The 28th Annual Specialty Show of the American Spaniel Club is expected to be an important event at the Hotel Roosevelt, New York City, January 6th and 7th.

Mr. William A. Price will judge the American Cocker Spaniel Futurity Stake and the club expects the largest entry in its history. The judging of the Futurity Stake will be on Saturday, January 6th, and on Sunday, January 7th, Mr. Price will judge the regular classes of the American Cocker Spaniel.

We have just received word from Mr. W. C. Burns that the Great Dane Club of America, Inc., will hold its annual dinner on the regular February meeting date—the 5th, due to the fact that exhibitors going to Westminster would find that date more convenient than the regular dinner date.

Owing to labor shortages it is necessary to have all advertising and other material intended for publication in "Dogs In Canada" in the hands of the Editor on the 8th of the month previous to publication.

The Gaines Dog Research Centre reports a growing sentiment in many sections of the country for use of present dog license fees in a manner directly beneficial to the dog. Considerable resentment is being expressed in some communities against the practice of using dog tax funds for building and maintenance of highways and other general non-dog purposes never anticipated by those who put dog licenses on the statute books, it is stated.

FRONTISPIECE FOR JANUARY COVER

Happy Holiday Season to the Canadian Dog Fancy

From Marion and Harry Florsheim

Wins of the 5 top champions at Five Mile Kennels total: 155 Best Breed; 143 Placed Group; 82 Best Hound and 18 Best in Show.

There are some 24 Afghans at the Florsheim kennels, though they are planning on greatly cutting down their stock due to shortage of help and renewed aviation activities on the part of Marion Florsheim who formerly served in the 319th A.A.F. as Army Pilot.

There are three litters at the kennels now. One litter is five months old, sire Ch. Yenghiz Khan of Five Mile (Rana's son) dam Shireen of Ainsdard.

Int. Ch. Rudiki has a nice litter; dam, Lasca Klana (Ch. Rudiki's mother). There is also a litter sired by El Mio Zabu of Five Mile, the 22 months' old youngster who was Res. Winners Dog at Westminster last year when only 11 months old. In Zabu's litter are three black masked reds, two creams and one beautiful white male. Their dam is "Rea", a cream bitch bred by Q. A. Shaw McKean, American's early great breeder. Rea is a litter sister of Int. Ch. Rudiki of Prides Hill.

Marion Florsheim has been showing her own dogs in the East this season and found it a great thrill, though she admits grooming, feeding, exhibiting all together form a hard pattern and leave little time for relaxation.

SHEPHERD DOG CLUB

Well kennelmates, the regular monthly meeting of the Club was held at the Royal York, on Friday evening, December 1st. Those present were: R. A. Moll, chairman; Messrs. McDowell, Jackes, Stitt, Perry, Gilmore, Hayman, Coles, and Weller. Our guests were Mrs. Levack and Mr. Southcott. The meeting was called to order at 8.30 p.m. and after the reading of the minutes of previous meeting which were adopted as read, the financial report showing a bank balance of $140.54 was presented and accepted. As chairman of the Bench Show Committee Ben Stitt said there was nothing to report other than he hoped the Club would run a number of matinee shows and parties during the winter months. This was enthusiastically received and if adopted will present a departure from the custom of doing nothing until spring. Your scribe has a little suggestion in this connection which occurred to him while writing this report. It will be presented at the annual meeting.

"Jake" Hayman, Chairman of the Field Trial Committee reported that an obedience class was held on December 8th with Mrs. Alva McColl judging. We do not have the results of this meet nor do we have a report on the meet held at the Canine Breeders' Show, November 20th. In another section of the column we are giving the results of the first obedience meet of the Canadian Dog Training Club held under C.K.C. rules on November 12th, 1944.

(Ed. Note: Both November shows reported in December Dogs in Canada, the December 8th show appears in this issue.)

Gordon Coles, chairman of the entertainment reported that the reservations for the annual general meeting and dinner were made with the Royal York for January 6th, 1945.

There were five applications for membership presented and accepted: Mr. Fred Sturgess, 16721 West Parkway, Detroit 19, Michigan; Mrs. Fred Sturgess, 16721 West Parkway, Detroit 19, Detroit; Mr. C. D. MacGregor, 511 Victoria Ave., Chatham, Ontario; Mr. Thos. Simpson, 670 Old Weston Rd., Toronto, Ont.; Mr. Bryan W. Newkirk, R.R. 1, Pickering, Ontario.

We bid these new members welcome to our Club and look forward to seeing them all at our shows and parties. We are specially desirous of having our new members enter into the activities of the Club. If you have any particular talents please let us know. We'll find a place where you can do the most good for the Club.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

We had many, many beautiful days during the fall; in fact we had one of the loveliest autumns in our ken, but it had to be the wettest, coldest and dreariest day of the year on which to hold the All Breed Show of the Canine Breeders' Association on Nov. 20th.

Mrs. Elsie Coles was invited to judge the Shepherds at this show. (Ed. Note:

Results are shown in the full report of the show in this issue.)

HAPPY NEW YEAR THERE'LL ALWAYS BE AN ENGLAND!

So long. See you in the snowbanks!

GOD SAVE THE KING!

(Ed. Note: This Club seems to have a thoroughly good time. Happy New Year to you and good appetite for your annual dinner, Shepherd Dog Club!)

BUSTER

By Harry Mead

Buster is dead—crushed to death on the highway by the giant wheels of a great truck.

I was introduced to Buster this summer by a friend who had invited me to spend a week-end with him at his summer cottage at Barrie, Ontario.

Buster was a shaggy dog, of no particular breed, intelligent, likeable, and—blind.

Each spring when my friend and his family arrived at the cottage, Buster knew at once the sound of their car and came bounding over to their place. Deliriously happy he ran from one to the other, barking and jumping around in his ecstasy.

Buster lived nearby with an elderly couple, whose boy, Buster's master, had gone overseas and the parents were keeping the boy's dog until his return.

My friend and his family were busy, hard-working, kind-hearted people, who liked and appreciated Buster and his visits, but somehow one got the impression the dog was wondering what had become of that boy. Poor Buster!

When I first tweaked Buster's ear and talked to him, he knew he had found another pal, and he and the house pet dog went for walks with me.

Although blind, Buster was amazingly accurate in locating gates, doors and so on. While out for a walk with me, he got into difficulty only once. We had crossed the railroad tracks, and on our return had difficulty locating in the Page wire fence a right size gap to crawl through. He did not hesitate to let me know of the difficulty, until I returned and gave him the required assistance. Now I have just received word that Buster was killed the other day on the highway.

There had been some repairing done on the road, and Buster was apparently puzzled by the different sounds made by the cars travelling that road, and although he had no trouble previously keeping out of the way of the traffic, this time he stood undecided in the middle of the road, and the truck hit him.

The boy's father came and picked up what was left of Buster, and carried him home on his shoulders, weeping as he went. And he wasn't the only one who wept.

KEEP DOGS WELL !

When your dog is listless—doesn't want to eat or play—he's out of condition and needs DISTEMPOUT (On-The-Nose). Just a dab on his nose—he licks it all off, and soon (often the same day) is all set to go again. Dog and cat lovers have used Distempout (On-The-Nose) successfully for over 23 years. Don't be without it. A large tube costs only $1.00 and lasts a long time. It's a true friend when danger strikes.

OTHER "TESTED" PRODUCTS

NOSE LAX—a companion product, is a mild Laxative given by the famous On-The-Nose method. Avoid muss and bother of giving oils, powders or pills. In handy tube, only 50c.

BALSA-PERU aids healing, either fresh, or old stubborn cuts or bites. Made of Balsam of Peru, Lanolin, etc. It soothes, relieves pain and smarting, and starts nature's healing processes. Also good for Humans. In handy tubes, only 50c. Ask your Dealer or order direct.

PROVINCIAL NOTES

A Happy New Year

THE RIOMES

Wellesley Park

Moose Jaw

Saskatchewan

INTRODUCING THE NEW SASKATCHEWAN DIRECTOR

Walter W. Riome received an acclamation in Saskatchewan. Several years ago he did a considerable amount of breeding and exhibiting of Wires and Irish Terriers. More recently his interests have centred in Sporting Dogs and Field Trial work. He has a Cocker Kennel and the "Mutual" prefix is well known.

Mr. Riome has been interested in dogs since early boyhood and was an exhibitor in the old country. He has always been partial to Spaniels, Setters and Pointers. His home is situated in the Wellesley Park and he cannot keep many dogs with him, but has quite a number of good ones farmed out. He is a member of the Regina Kennel Club. Mr. Riome's interests does not stop at dogs. He is also an ardent horticulturist. The picture above shows a garden in which the word Victory covers seventy-five feet with letters seven feet high in blue lobelia on a white ground of Sweet Alyssum. 1,250 plants were required, all of which were grown and set out by Mr. Riome himself. He is a past president of the Moose Jaw Horticultural Society and has won many prizes for house and grounds at the annual fairs and shows. Mr. Riome is a member of the Board of Session of the United Church. He and his wife have been members for forty-five years of the Church Choir.

Aside from these interests Mr. Riome is a practical business man who has served the City of Moose Jaw as an Alderman and as a past Chairman of the Board of Governors of the Moose Jaw City Hospital. He is also a past President of the Moose Jaw Association and the Provincial Association of the Canadian Association of Stationary Engineers. He is at present President of the Moose Jaw Humane Society and Director of the Moose Jaw Exhibition Board and of the Saskatchewan Provincial Poultry Association.

The Riome's have three sons. Two in the Air Force and one now in the Active Army Overseas.

ALBERTA NOTES

By H. P. Saunders

Now that the upland game season closes we blow the smoke out of the barrels, oil the gun and put it away until next fall. Albertans enjoyed the very best shooting season yet, for the Game Guardians report that 100,000 pheasants alone were shot in the Brooks area, and hunters returning say that there are plenty left to produce an abundance for the coming season. The ducks and geese were never so plentiful, and they left these parts in the very best condition, so when they arrive south they should be in good shape, for the northern birds fed here on their way down, and did the sports take advantage of this! But let me tell you geese and ducks are not the easiest thing to bag. Hungarian Partridge seem to have moved their location. When I want information as to their whereabouts I call up Austin deB. Winter, Frank Harvie and Dave Johnston, they can tell you where to go to get them and their information is always correct—the birds were south and east and they also were plentiful.

The gasoline and shell situation just favored the game birds so when our boys return from the war, they will find good shooting in the old locations everywhere in Alberta.

Many thanks to Ducks Unlimited, and to the influence of our good friend, Bill Fisher, much has been done and is being done to improve the breeding grounds of Game Birds.

Much also is being done to persuade the hunter to have a trained retriever, so that the wastage will be negligible consequently the bag limit is reached sooner.

There were a few reports of wild-headed people packing guns and firing at anything that moved, and some hunters were wounded and some dogs shot, mistaken for birds. I say that any person so ruthless should have his permission to carry a gun taken away for life.

As usual, sportsmen from all over the U.S.A. visited our shooting grounds and all were delighted, and expressed their desire to return. I am looking ahead to having my two sons accompany me on my hunting trips next fall (both are in the service and have been since they graduated from university).

It is a pleasure to announce that Tommy Thomas is well on the way to a complete recovery after three serious, major operations. Mr. Thomas is a Sporting Dog enthusiast, and has broken and developed some sensational Pointers and Setters, and lately has added Cocker to his string of dogs. His latest purchase was a black English Cocker female that has all the ear-marks of a flyer, just watch this one perform! She was bred at the Seafeld Kennels of John S. and Mrs. Grant, Edmonton, Alberta, where so many of the good ones come from. A pallor of gloom swept the town of Castor, in fact all of Alberta, when word was flashed around that E. V. (Swede) Johnson had been struck down. "Swede" as usual was busy at work Friday morning and while on his way along Main Street took ill and fell to the sidewalk. The doctor was hurriedly summoned, but Mr. Johnson appeared to revive rapidly. On his way to the hospital, another attack came on and from this he did not recover. This world is a little richer because he passed through. These words express the thoughts that are on the minds of all who knew him, and who mourn him. Born in the U.S.A. on the thirtieth day of July, 1887, he came to Western Canada and settled at Castor in 1906, and helped in the building of Stettler, Alberta. Two years later he took up a homestead, and from then on it can be truthfully said he did more than any other person in the building of the town he grew to love, respect and which valued him as its outstanding citizen. The story of Swede with its hardships, its fun, its pathos, and its joviality is the history of Castor. The character that only pioneer frontiers seem to build was personified in all its brilliance in this lovable, gruff and kindly man. As long as we of this generation live, the memories of him and his works, will take on a greater lustre and appreciation—Swede Johnson was a master builder. Consulted by all, his advice was considered the last word in construction and all had unshaken confidence that if Swede built it—it was built.

Dogs and Swede were synonymous. Wherever he was, one was sure to find a collection of dogs. His knowledge of raising and training bird dogs was legend. Men came from all over the west and even from as far as New York prominent writers consulted him on the possibility of coming to this section of the country for bird hunting.

"SWEDE"

There's a missing step on the main street
Known to all and wide,
There's a missing man, a missing gem,
Gone home on that ebbing tide.

Wise and kind and gentle,
Gruff, hot tempered and rough,
Yet he never knew an enemy,
A man molded of genuine stuff.

There's a shot that will ever be silent
In the dusk at the edge of Lane's Lake
And there's Don and there's Chief and the others,
As they run on the street morn and late.

There's a void in the rink of the curlers,
The empty bread sack in the store,
Herschel and Tom have lost a dear
buddy,
And the kennels will know him no more.

A man who never asked favors,
Yet a kind hand helping each one,
Not destroying, but building this country,
A challenge to those yet to come.

Let your eyes take a glance along Main street,
Each building his trade mark you'll see;
No other can ever replace him,
A master builder was he.

Yes, there's a missing man on the main street,
I'll cherish that friendship I won,
Dear God—with his dogs just accept him
Now that his race has been run.
In appreciation of a friend,
W. G. BROWN.

Once again it's a pleasure to renew
"Auld Acquaintance", and be wishing all the seasons joy to you—With another wish for a happy New Year.

MESSAGE FROM AUSTRALIA

Mr. W. W. Rooney, our Quebec Director, recently received a very interesting letter from Mr. William Bruce of Sydney, Australia, and has kindly passed the letter on so that our members may enjoy hearing from this distant part of the Empire.

Mr. Bruce was prompted to write Mr. Rooney as he had been browsing through some old copies of dog periodicals and had come across an article by Mr. Rooney regarding "The Sanction Show" as a proving ground for novice exhibitors and judges. A portion of the letter concerns the formation of the Kennel Club of Australia and is well worth quoting:

"Until about 1941 (when the Kennel Club was formed), we had no worthwhile controlling body. Efforts had been made over very many years to stabilize such a body without success. Under these circumstances, therefore, you can imagine what conditions were like. Every Show a "Championship" Show; each Club or body issuing its own "Championship" certificate, etc.; novice judges officiating at these Championship Shows, many of which accepted gate entries.

However, these conditions do not exist today (except in minor instances). All worthwhile Specialist and All-Breed Clubs have affiliated with the K.C., which is composed of representatives elected by the Fancy and administered under the aegis of the Royal Agricultural Society, whose able Secretary, Col. G. C. Somerville, acts as Secretary of the K.C.

With the ban on interstate travel it is impossible to visit interstate Shows, nevertheless, the dog world is expanding. Quite a few dogs are leaving here, their purchasers being Americans.

I was very sorry to read of the death of Mr. J. D. Strachan, who had relatives here.

With very best wishes to you and the Canadian K.C., and hoping that we shall be closer together in the future.

Yours sincerely,

William Bruce."

NORTHERN ALBERTA NOTES

By Leonard H. Horncastle

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Gardner were hosts to the members of Edmonton Dog Fanciers' Club and their friends on Armistice evening, when a very enjoyable time was had, enlivened considerably by a three-piece orchestra.

The December meeting of the Edmonton Dog Fanciers' Club was the annual meeting, when the officers for the ensuing year were elected, A. E. Figg being re-elected president; Mrs. A. Ayerst and C. H. Morton filling the positions of first and second vice-presidents, respectively, and Mrs. M. D. Gardner again doing the arduous duties of secretary. An important change in the constitution of the club was the change of the name of the club to the Edmonton Kennel Club. A feature of the evening was a presentation to Mrs. M. D. Gardner as a small expression of appreciation for her untiring efforts on behalf of the club; accompanying the presentation was a card with the following verse inscribed thereon:

"It's hard to put it into words,
We'll just say, 'Thanks a lot',
For the splendid job you've done for us
Will never be forgot."

"Dogs may come and dogs may go
And no one cares a damn,
But we'll always hold in high esteem
The 'House of Sealyham'."

Plans are already afoot for the Edmonton spring dog show, and indications point to this affair bidding well to outdo any previous show in magnitude. Easter Monday, April 2nd, is the date selected, and besides an all-breed show there will be specialty shows, one sponsored by the English Cocker Club of Alberta—an all-Cocker show embodying both breeds of Cockers, and a Bulldog specialty show, under the direction of a club in formation by provincial followers of this breed. This will make a three-ring show, and exhibitors of these three breeds will be afforded an opportunity to annex double points of this affair, a roster of three judges being planned.

Following the annual meeting of the Edmonton Kennel Club, those present and a few friends adjourned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Figg for a "chill supper" and a social evening, a very pleasant evening being reported by those present.

Christmas sales of pups in the northern section of the province are reported to be far behind those enjoyed last year, and it may be taken for granted that the highest sales point has been passed, although the increased sales transacted with the American residents last season was perhaps the main contributory factor for the healthy demand last year; this also stimulated breeders into producing more pups in expectation of a repetition, with a result that more pups were available than the demand called for.

The writer recently secured a promising male Pekingese pup from the Wangza Kennels at Montreal and a young Pug female from the Dobie Kennels at Minneapolis. Mrs. Arno's imported Pekingese "Chieftain's Wee Chu 2nd" is contributing considerably to the improvement of this breed locally, and with renewed interest in Pekingese we may look for a considerable increase in entries at future shows, with a marked improvement in quality. Joe Caswell intends adding Wire Fox Terriers to his kennels, having purchased A. Farmer's female as a starter. Squadron Leader Frank Chesters, stationed with the Northwest Staging route, has a Bull Terrier pup, recently brought back from England, which will make his debut at the Easter show. Barney Falconer has moved to his new kennel location on the Cooking Lake highway, where he has made a start for his proposed sporting dogs training kennel. W. Quilley contemplates taking advantage of his superannuation from the railway company within the next few months, and plans the construction of a boarding kennel. The Country Club Kennels made extensive additions to their boarding kennels' plant this year, having considerable accommodation.

PACIFIC NOTES

By Dollie Wall

Now that the election of officers for the year 1945 is over and all those who have been elected are taking stock of their positions and what is expected of them we hope to get down to real honest to goodness doggy business and get this thing up on its feet and in good running order so that in years to come we can look back on the year 1945 with pleasant memories as one of the greatest years in the annals of the Canadian Kennel Club.

November 25th saw a Sanction Show in Vancouver sponsored by the Kiwanis Club and held in the Legion Hall at Kerrisdale. A large crowd attended and five judges dispensed with an equally large entry of dogs. Wally Willgress well known to all by his "Shiplake Setters" acted as one of the judges, Mrs. Corkett one of our well known Peke fanciers and breeders was another. Mr. Bamford who we have not had the pleasure of meeting before attended to the Terriers and others, Mrs. H. E. Fletcher of Dachshund fame also acted upon this occasion as did your writer. The Irish Setter "Kinvara Kermit", owned by Mr. Keur and handled by Chas. McCaughy was placed Best in Show.

Mrs. H. E. Fletcher tells me she has a new "Dacksie" female "Goldie of Sunnieholme", purchased from Mrs.

Lily Turner, Ontario. "Goldie" is now in whelp to the owners (Imp.) "Flet von Schroth". Two new Boxers are among the latest arrivals from the Old Country. One, a four-months-old puppy and now owned by Mrs. Donald Kerlin, West Vancouver, and the other is owned by Mrs. G. R. Whitelaw also of West Vancouver. A little Cairn Terrier is also among the ranks of importations, this youngster traveled from the well known Cherryfield Kennels, of Dublin, Eire, its new owners name at time of writing is not at hand.

Our sympathies are extended to Western Higbie in loss of his beautiful Brittany "Bonnie's Diane Avono" died in whelping, one of her puppies is now on a foster mother and we hope it survives. A litter brother of "Dianes" has just won first in a class of 46 at the Cleveland, Ohio, Show.

Prospects for several shows in Vancouver in the near future look very bright. The Capilano Dog Breeders' Association have all plans well in hand and will very soon be making announcements.

December 6th saw another Sanction Show, this one in Victoria, put on by the Vancouver Island Dog Fanciers' Association, they also had a very large attendance. W. T. "Billy" Oates judging all breeds and awarding Best in Show to Gladys Creasey's Peke "Fiesal of Fernray."

TORTURED by an Itchy Skin!

Don't let your dog suffer the cruel agony and writhing torture of an itchy, scaly skin. Instead, add a few drops of Rex Wheat Germ Oil to his food daily. Rex Oil is the richest natural source of the unsaturated fats (skin vitamins) so essential to skin health. Enthusiastic owners and breeders report that after only a few days treatment, sluggish, unhappy dogs, worried with irritating skin troubles, turn into active happy pets with healthy skins and sleek, glossy coats free from dandruff or scale.

A four ounce bottle of Rex Oil costs only $1.25 and will last six months. Sold by pet or drug stores or order direct. Try it today.

The Canadian Kennel Club, Incorporated

From the office of the Secretary-Treasurer

The annual general meeting of the Canadian Kennel Club, Incorporated will take place on Thursday, February 8th, 1945, at the Royal York Hotel, Parlour D, Toronto, Ontario, at two p.m.

The regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club which was to be held in the Club's Board Room, on December 14th had to be postponed to December 21st owing to storm conditions in Toronto. The minutes of the meeting will therefore be reported in our February issue.

It will be noted that a great many of the amendments which appear in the December issue and the present issue of Dogs in Canada are very much alike in their tenor. No doubt when the various interested parties have an opportunity to consult, the business of the meeting will be considerably curtailed. However, it is particularly requested that members be strictly on time as there is a rather lengthy programme.

Amendment:

That Dog Show Rule 17 be amended by an addition known as subsection 17B and the present subsection 17B to be known as subsection 17C, as follows:

Chapter 15, Section 17B. The Dogs and their Exhibitors, to read after the words "fraudulent act"—

A show giving club sponsoring shows under Canadian Kennel Club Rules, must not suspend or expel a member from the club for any action arising from a show under Canadian Kennel Club Rules, without first laying the charge for such suspension, with full particulars of complaint, before the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club. The person charged with an offense must be notified in writing ten days before the case is heard by the Board of Directors.

Chapter 15, Section 17C to replace present Section 17B.

A Happy New Year

Keep 'em fed right

HELP DEVELOP STURDY BONES WITH THE VITAMINS IN GAINES!

Gaines is a fine source of food essentials that help promote strong, sturdy bones. It contains Vitamin D, Calcium, Phosphorus, and all other food factors known to be needed for good body development, posture and gait.

Let your dogs enjoy these important benefits—every day. Feed 'em Gaines—every meal. Gaines is a COMPLETE diet for dogs. In addition to promoting the growth of sound bones, it offers dogs all other nutritional elements known to be necessary—including Vitamins A, B₁, B₂(G), B₆, E, Niacin and Pantothenate.

TASTES SWELL!

Taste appeal makes for ease of feeding—and dogs like Gaines from the start. Indeed, 9 out of 10 dogs go for Gaines the first time they taste it, according to actual survey results. Not much chance for "off-and-on feeding" when you offer a food like that!

Gaines Food is made in two forms—Meal, which you mix with warm water—and Krunchon, which is the same product as Meal but pressed into pellet shape which you feed to the dogs just as it comes in the bag. Both available in 2-lb., 5-lb., and 25-lb. bags.

Int. Ch. Kurram El Myia, bred and owned by El Myia Afghan Kennels, West Hill, Ontario, Canada. Fed Gaines Food since weaning!

In terms of everyday foods, here are the equivalent food values your dog receives in every pound of Gaines.

Proteins in 1½ lbs. fresh raw beef
Carbohydrates in 2 qts. cooked oatmeal
Fats in 1 oz. butter
Minerals in 1¾ lbs. cheese
Iron in ¾ lb. beef liver
Vitamin A in 5 eggs
Thiamin (B₁) in 1 lb. whole-wheat bread
Riboflavin (B₂) in 1 qt. milk
Niacin in ½ lb. fresh mackerel

... and all other members of the B-complex which normally accompany thiamin, riboflavin and niacin.
