PURINA RESEARCH WORKER - Sally

For nearly a quarter-century, Purina research workers have been busy in laboratory and kennel, seeking ways to make a better Dog Chow. In that time, more than 2,250 dogs have "assisted", at the Purina Research Farm—ancestors of many of the current crop of puppies have eaten nothing but Dog Chow for 16 or 17 generations. Incidentally, that's strong proof of the completeness and balance of Purina Dog Chow, isn't it?

The photo above shows one of these canine research workers in characteristic pose — surrounded by her pups. Before retiring, Sally whelped 99 puppies, and raised 94 . . . a record which stood until her daughter, Sally 2nd, broke it with her lifetime reproduction of 101, raising 95.

Yes — Dog Chow has a solid background of testing and achievement!

RALSTON PURINA CO. - Woodstock - Toronto - Montreal

● No effort has been spared to build a Dog Chow which will do an outstanding job — and many leading breeders will tell you that it does it! Have you given it a fair trial? Maybe it's just the final touch you need.

Purina Dog Chow comes in two forms — Meal, to be mixed to hamburger consistency with water, milk, broth, or gravy — Checkers, to be fed dry. You'll find both forms at your Purina dealer's Store with the Checkerboard Sign, in bags of various handy sizes. (If you do not know the name of your nearest dealer, a note to Ralston Purina Co., Woodstock, Ont., will bring it to you.)

OUR COVER

The merry little beagle is becoming a great favorite at the dog shows. International Champion Jacobi's Judge, bred and owned by Philip Jacobi, has demonstrated his usefulness not only on the show bench but also in the field. Out of five times shown he won his breed and the hound group twice, and placed second and third in the group at the other shows. Completing his championship at the age of thirteen months, he was sent to the United States, where he won five 3 point shows within a month—amongst these being the great Sky Crest Beagle Specialty Show held at Erie, Pa.

Sired by International Champion Thornridge Wrinkles and out of Burri's Charmaine, this great little dog is now in training for the Field Trials in 1949.

The Importance of the Show Secretary

By Lilah Lymburner

WE well remember a time when we were simply one of a number of people at a show known as "exhibitors of dogs." We mailed our entry form, often on the very last mail allowed for acceptance, and the next two weeks concentrated on prettying up our entry for the show. On the morning of the show, we arrived in a more or less peaceful frame of mind, ascertained that our breed was not to be judged for several hours and proceeded to look up our friends with every expectation of having a pleasant day.

Along with our friends we looked at the catalogue only to have one of our neighbours come charging up to point out that his dog had been entered in the Open Dogs Class, when he had distinctly indicated that it was to be entered in the Canadian Bred Class. We saw him under full sail make a line for the secretary's office. Just what transpired we could not hear, but with an abashed look we saw him leave by a circuitous route, and later in the day he just might have admitted that he had failed to fill in the space designated for classes. But we just shrugged the whole business off and put it down as one of those things that help to turn the exhibitors' hair grey, and somewhere along the way we heard the exhibitor say, "Well, she could have looked it up in the catalogue from 'such-and-such' a show—I've always entered my dog in the Canadian Bred Class."

Since then, we have assumed the duties for several all breed shows, as well as specialty shows and in addition, several field trials, under the designation, "Show Secretary". As we have stated upon other occasions, it is the best job we know of to guarantee an education whether for good or ill we are not too sure, but certainly as to the waywardness of human nature and particularly that part known as dog show exhibitors.

There are a number of officials at every dog show each of whom is important, from the judge down to the ticket seller at the door; they have a specific job to do, but not so the secretary for the show. Without exaggeration, it can be said that upon the shoulders of the secretary rests the responsibility of putting the show together, keeping it in that condition and finally, winding up all the post-details which involve literally hundreds of things to be done of which the exhibitors, including members of the show-giving club, know nothing. She is expected to know the Dog Show Rules as laid down by the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc.; she must have a vast amount of tact and diplomacy, unending energy and a like amount of patience; something of the powers of a detective in order to ferret out information which exhibitors fail to give out on their entry forms, clerical skill and a knowledge of how to set up and retain a filing system in good order and above all she almost requires a thirty-hour day for the month previous to a show.

The secretary will when instructed, make application to the Canadian Kennel Club for a license to hold a show on a specific date at a given place, and having received this will contact those persons whom the show-giving club may have suggested as judges. Following the receipt of this information the names will be submitted by the secretary to the Canadian Kennel Club for acceptance. In the following weeks (or months) she will have as her sole reading material Dog Show catalogues through which she will go in order to keep her mailing list in a healthy state, weeding out all the dead wood and adding new names of those who are consistently exhibiting that season.

In the meantime, she will also have work to do in connection with the premium list, assisting wherever necessary to cover as many breeds as possible with specials, trophies and awards, and upon the completion of the list will prepare the entire premium list adding any special rules for this particular show which the committee may have set up. Two copies will be mailed to the secretary-treasurer of the Canadian Kennel Club for ratification and upon receiving this she will order from the printers a sufficient number of copies to cover the mailing list, plus an extra amount to take care of emergencies.

She probably will be expected to carry on the correspondence with manufacturers who will place advertising in the dog show catalogue, and if she is wise she will do all of these things well in advance of the time when the entries should go out.

With the entry forms printed and the premium lists arranged for, she can then settle down to several days of pounding away at a typewriter addressing anywhere from 600 to a thousand envelopes depending on the size of the show expected. If she is fortunate, she may have several young friends who will not be averse to a special treat of ice cream and pop in return for putting the postage on the envelopes—otherwise, she will spend precious time doing the job herself. Following this, in order to make certain that no errors have been made, she will check through the envelopes against the card index system. With entry forms safe in the care of His Majesty's mail one might think there would be a respite. But no!

Judges must be contacted in order that they may know what breeds they will judge and arrangements made for accommodation once the time of their arrival is ascertained. Possibly arrangements will also need to be made to have them met at an airport or station at some distance.

Entries will begin to trickle in and then begins a complicated system of bookkeeping, for a record of the entry fees paid must be kept for the treasurer and as well, the secretary must have some idea of the dogs entered in the various breeds, and always the name of the owner must be entered in the entry sheets. Of course, the deluge always comes in the final two or three days making it necessary for the secretary to work at top speed the next few days in order to set up the classes with entries properly numbered before copy can be prepared for the printers who will do the catalogue. In the meantime, the printers will have received all the advertising material in order that they may have that part already to go when the final copy arrives. The arranging of the classes is a piece of work requiring knowledge of the breeds and the groups in which they are included, and when dogs are divided as to weight or height as well as to sex, the secretary is confronted with work which often presents its problems.

Once the catalogue is out of the way, and usually it is not ready for the printers earlier than ten days before the show, the secretary must have figured the necessary ribbons needed for the show and will have ordered them with a plea that they will be delivered not later than two days before the event, since she will have to place each ribbon along with any class cash to be won in envelopes properly marked for each class and breed. All this takes time. At about this point she will begin to check up to see that all the trophies set forth in the premium list have been forwarded either to her or to the trophy secretary, since the set of cards she places in the envelopes for specials must correspond with the cards placed on the trophies.

A conference will be held with the show superintendent in order to set up a judging schedule and the chief ring steward will also be consulted at this time. Following this, each ring steward and the judges will be forwarded a copy of the schedule in order that they may know at what time they must be on hand. Stewards will be notified as to the judge under whom they will steward and the number of the ring in which they will work. Somewhere in between, the secretary will take her carbon copy of entries for the show and fill in and address the identification cards to be mailed to exhibitors in order that they may know their entries have been accepted.

Finally, in preparation for the show, she will prepare the judges' books and those to be used by the ring stewards. This is a piece of work which requires the greatest care since errors can create time-wasting and useless argument. With these books ready, the envelope containing all the envelopes with ribbons, cash awards and so on may be prepared for each ring steward and it is well to mark the outer envelope very plainly with the number of the ring, the presiding judge, the breeds to be judged, as well as the schedule for judging.

When the judging of the breeds has been finished, the secretary will make up the judges' book for the groups and best in show and make arrangements with the chief ring steward and the superintendent for the final judging of the show.

Following the show she will mark catalogues, compute the fees to be forwarded to the Canadian Kennel Club covering those dogs which were listed, and mail the judges' books, the catalogues and all entry forms along with certain other items required by the office of the secretary-treasurer and the cheque for fees as quickly as possible.

She will also mail to those publications devoted to the fancy, marked catalogues in order that they may carry the results for the show in the earliest possible edition.

All of the foregoing just barely cover the duties of the secretary. None of this takes into account all the hundreds of things she is expected to do for exhibitors and for the good of her club. There are the requests from exhibitors for reservations to be made at hotels; other requests for information which exhibitors may require, all of which she is glad to do since she is anxious that everyone will want to return to her club's show. Nor does it take into consideration those things over which the secretary has no control, such as failure of delivery of identification cards to exhibitors even though she has mailed them well in advance of the show, failure of the ribbons to arrive from the manufacturer until the night before or even the morning of the show, requests (perfectly legitimate ones too) from exhibitors to scratch their entries just before the catalogue is to be set up necessitating the change of benching numbers as well as other details, failure of exhibitors to include exact amount of entry fees making it necessary to either refund, or later, collect outstanding amounts, printers who breathe fire and forecast dire consequences if copy is not on hand at a stated time, stewards who must be replaced at the last moment because of illness or any one of a number of other reasons. Nor does it allow for the appearance of a prospective buyer at the secretary's kennels on the final day of preparing the copy for the printer, a situation which can really wear her down, particularly if the buyer is one with whom a sale is important and she wants to make him feel that he is getting every attention and consideration when all the while she is in a panic over the myriad things which should be done before the day is over. It does not allow for the curls of dust which collect under beds nor the cobwebs which hang from the corners while she is valiantly struggling to get over the last minute details which simply cannot be arranged far in advance since most of them are totally unexpected, nor does it account for an irate family wanting to know when buttons will be sewn on. It does not allow for much social grace when friends call and must needs be told that she just cannot take off time to go calling on mutual friends or even for some other pleasant affair which would be a welcome break in days and days of concentrated effort.

But when the show is over and if it has gone well there is a great satisfaction in having been a part of an organization which staged a show that satisfied at least the majority of exhibitors.

THE MERRY LITTLE HOUND

By F. Rushton D.V.M.

In England

Though the exact meaning of the word "beagle" is open to question, there is no doubt but that the hound we know today by that name dates back to the dawn of English history. Writers mention there being packs of small hounds in England before the time of the Roman invasion. Pwyll, a prince in Wales at the time of King Arthur, was said to be owner of a pack of light-coloured hounds of great ability. Even in modern times, the hounds of Wales tend to retain this light colouring.

By the 17th century, hounds had been separated into two general classes—the large buck hound and the smaller variety designated as "beagle". The modern foxhound probably owes its development to the crossing of these two older types of hounds, while the harrier is thought to have been developed from the smaller representatives of the buckhound type.

By 1750, beagles had reached some degree of uniformity in northern England and were described by an unknown author of that period as follows:

"Beagles, rough or smooth, have their admirers; their tongues are musical, and they go faster than the Southern hounds, but toil much. They run so close to the ground as to enjoy the scent better than taller dogs, especially when the atmosphere lies low. In an enclosed country they do best, as they are good at trailing or default, and for hedgerows; . . . are commonly deep lung, thick lipped, with large nostrils, but often so soft and bad quartered as to be shoulder shook and crippled the first season they hunt; crooked legs, like the Both turn-spit, are frequently seen among them, after two hours running many of them are disabled, and the huntsman may proceed to hunt the hare himself for he will never receive any assistance from the greater part of them, their form and shape sufficiently denote them not designed for hard work".

The fox supplanted the hare as the fashionable object of the chase during the latter part of the 18th century, and the larger hounds gained favour to such an extent that the beagle was in danger of extinction. However, a few of the better packs were kept for rabbit hunting and to satisfy the Englishman's inherent desire for a subject on which to practice type improvement.

By 1850, the type had been improved so greatly that Somerville was prompted to write:

" . . . his rush-grown tail
O'er his broad back bends in an ample arch;

On shoulders clean, upright and firm he stands;

His round cat foot, straight hams,
and wide-spread thighs,

And his low dropping chest, confess his speed.

His strength, his wind, or on the steepy hill,

Or for extended plain; in ev'ry part
So well proportioned, that the nicer skill

Of Phidias himself can't blame thy choice".

Parson Honeywood is the one man to whom every dog lover of the very little hound is indebted. About the middle of the 19th century he gathered together a pack of beagles of the present day. The engraving of his pack entitled "The Merry Beaglers" is a classic in sporting literature.

By 1875 or thereabouts, the beagle again came into public favour, and by 1887 eighteen packs had been established. Though the packs ranged in height from ten to about twenty-two inches, hounds of fourteen to sixteen inches proved most popular.

To discourage or prevent the further infusion of foxhound blood into harrier and beagle packs, the Association of Masters of Harriers and Beagles was instituted on March 25, 1891 and provided for the registration of dogs and the holding of a show known as the Peterborough Hound Show. All packs said to be beagles were given the privilege of entering and the books closed, leaving the future to develop a type. For beagles, the maximum height was set at sixteen inches. This measurement still stands.

This is one of the few cases in which the Canadian Kennel Club does not follow the English Kennel Club's standard for a breed developed in that country, but instead has adopted the American Kennel Club standard of fifteen inches as the maximum height.

In the United States

An Englishman emigrated to the New World during the 18th or 19th century. The beagle accompanied his sport-loving owner and was started on a meteoric rise to popularity. This increase in popularity is largely due to the dog being used informally for rabbit hunting in ones and twos rather than formally run in packs on hare as in England.

Though they were known as beagles, their type had suffered due to the inbreeding mainly brought about by the isolation of the individual owner. The American beagles of a century ago are described by Turpin as "long bodied, crooked legged dogs, usually black and tan in colour, with snipy muzzles and rather short ears".

As dog shows became popular and various breed clubs came into being and established standards for their breeds, the necessity for like action among beagle fanciers became obvious. Accordingly, in 1884, the American-English Beagle Club was formed and a standard for the breed drawn up. Sixteen years later, the National Beagle Club of America was formed in February of 1900 and the beagle put on a firm footing. The standard of the latter club differed only in minor respects from the standard adopted by the American-English Club and is the standard still in effect in both the United States and Canada.

Breeders now began trying to breed to the standard, and enterprising owners quickly realized the necessity of returning to the present stock for new blood, and so the importation of English hounds began. This had a markedly beneficial effect on the beagles seen at the shows and, to a lesser extent, on those competing in field trials.

As the quality of the American hounds increased, the need for importations became less. The beagles in England, being owned by a few men each having a lot instead of a lot of men each having a few, as in America, have not kept their initial advantage, and as a result the American beagle of today is considered to be the equal in both type and ability of his Old Country cousin.

In Canada

One of the oldest breeders of beagles in North America was the late Hiram Card of Elora, Ontario. His strain, established long before 1900, was known as Blue Caps, due to the blue-ticked colour which Mr. Card considered to be the only true hound colour when combined with black markings and tan trimmings. The foundation of this strain, said by Mr. H. W. Prentice to be noted for their field ability as well as their type, were Blue Cap and Blue Bell, both imported from England by a beagle fancier of Virginia.

This breeding is found in the pedigrees of many of the top field trial hounds of today and is said to be carried on with a minimum of outcrossing by breeders in the locality in which Mr. Card resided.

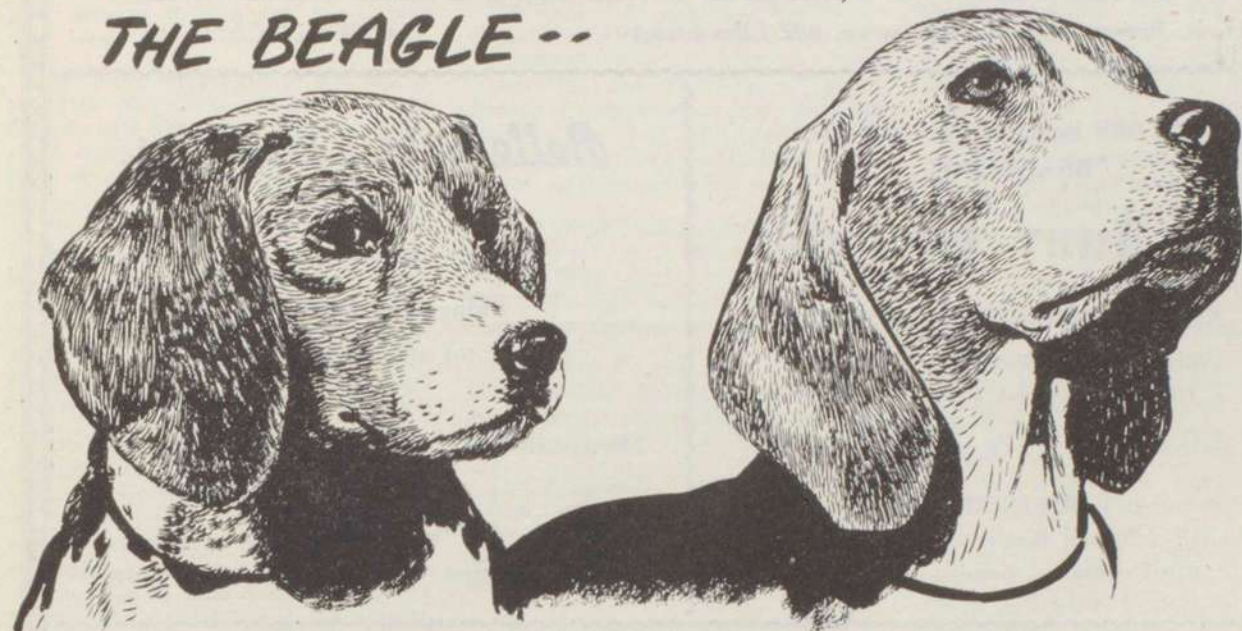

Though their number is small compared to the number of breeders in the United States, most of the larger shows and field trials in North America have been won by dogs bred in Canada.

THE BEAGLE --

The actual origin of the Beagle is lost amongst the dim mists of ancient days and no research can ever bring the true history to light.

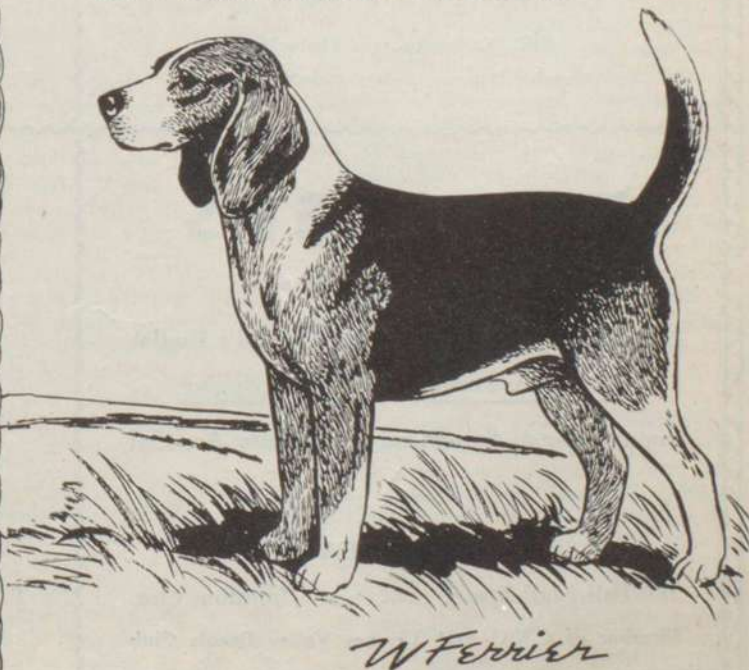

According to Xenophon there were hounds that hunted by scent in his day and the Romans acquired many of the sports of ancient Greece. There were, however, in England, packs of hounds before the time of the Romans and it is on record that Pwyll, Prince of Wales, a contemporary of King Arthur, had a special breed of white hounds of great excellence. By the time of good Queen Bess nearly every gentleman in England kept a pack of hounds.

The large sort were called "Buck Hounds" and hunted the deer, and the smaller variety were called "Beagles" from the French "Begle" and were hunted on hare.

In the middle of the nineteenth century, Parson Honeywood got together a very good pack and showed some excellent sport in Essex. The coloured engraving "THE MERRY BEAGLERS" is as familiar to American sportsmen as it is to anyone in England and will preserve for all time the name of the Rev. Philip Honeywood.

General Appearance: A miniature fox-hound, solid and big for his inches, with the wear-and-tear look of the hound that can last in the chase and follow his quarry to the death.

Height: Height not to exceed 15 inches, measured across the shoulders at the highest point, the hound standing in a natural position with his feet well under him.

BEAGLE FIELD TRIALS

THE beagle in this country was developed as a pack dog by the relatively few men rich enough to support a pack, and influential enough to obtain permission from neighbouring land owners to run the pack over their land.

Englishmen emigrating to America in the 17th and 18th centuries brought hounds with them and found that the same restrictions did not apply in the New World. Sportsmen, recognizing the value of the little hound as an aid in obtaining meat for the pot, turned to the beagle and the lowly rabbit as larger game became scarce. Consequently, except for the proprietors of the large kennels who formed the National Beagle Club, ownership became on a more individual basis and beagles were run singly and in pairs.

This has resulted in beaglers in America and Canada giving more attention to individual hound work. As ability was increased and the owners' pride kept pace, a spirit of competition sprang up and resulted in the holding of field trials where one hound's ability could be compared with another's. Beside satisfying the beaglers' craving for sporting competition, it had a pronounced influence on the breed. The results of these early trials were used as a yardstick for future breeding operations.

The first trial in North America was sponsored by the National Beagle Club in 1890. Annual trials were held from then on. The next clubs to hold trials were the Northwestern Beagle Club and the New England Beagle Club in 1893, the Central Beagle Club of Pennsylvania in 1896, the Hoosier in 1897, the Monongahela Valley in 1898 and the Northwestern in 1901.

No trials were run in Canada until 1916 when the Canadian National Field Trial Club held a trial on cottontails at Ojibway on November 7, 1916. This club has held an annual trial every year since that date, except in 1947 when the scarcity of rabbits in the vicinity of Forest forced cancellation of the trial for that year.

The Central Ontario Beagle Club was formed in 1923 and ran its first trial at Mono Road, near Brampton, from October 9th to 12th in that year. Trials were held regularly until the depression of the thirties forced the curtailment of all unnecessary spending. The club never became totally inactive, but it was not until 1948 that it was found possible for the members to hold another trial. Annual trials will be held in the future.

The Hamilton Beagle Club was formed about 1927 and has held trials regularly since that date. Trials are held annually on cottontails at Hagersville.

The Oshawa Beagle Club commenced holding trials early in the thirties and have established an enviable reputation as hosts to visiting beaglers.

The Ta-I-O of Montreal was established about 1937 and probably gets the largest entry of American dogs, except for the Canadian National. Though a long distance from the other beagle clubs, it is well supported by beaglers from the New England States as well as from Ontario.

The Thames Valley Beagle Club, with headquarters at London, commenced holding trials on cottontails about 1939. This is the only club in Ontario to hold classes for derbies in the autumn.

The Brant County Beagle Club was formed during the war years and share the same running grounds as the Hamilton Beagle Club at Hagersville.

The Annapolis Valley Beagle Club is also a new club, having been founded and commenced holding trials since the war. Trials are run on hare in the famed "Apple Valley" of Nova Scotia.

The Halifax Beagle Club held its first licensed trial on hare within the last two or three years. Though a new club, it is backed by experienced beaglers.

The Kawartha Lake Club held a trial for the first time in 1948, ably assisted by the energetic members of the Oshawa Club. Held near Peterborough, it shows promise of developing into a strong club.

As will be seen by the foregoing, beagle clubs in Canada now number ten, each holding an annual trial licensed by the Canadian Kennel Club. Four clubs—the National, Thames Valley, Hamilton and Brantford—hold their trials on cottontails, while the other six hold trials on hare. The species of game pursued is largely governed by availability, though one club has selected hare in the belief that it is a better animal on which to judge the merit of a beagle, rather than the shorter runs encountered on cottontails in which stamina plays a minor part.

At a trial, the beagles are divided by sex and by height, giving four classes—13" dogs, 13" bitches, 15" dogs and 15" bitches. An entry form is made out for each, and the dog measured to make sure it is entered in the proper class.

In cottontail trials the dogs are run in pairs, the pairing or bracing being done by picking numbers from a hat or by selecting entry forms at random from the pile. The spectators, called the gallery, are directed by a field marshal and walk line abreast through the cover until a rabbit is put up. The gallery stands there while the brace called, endeavours to follow the twisting, weaving trail of the rabbit in the most accurate way possible, and in the shortest time. Judges, usually two in number, look over each brace in action and call back for further competition hounds doing the best work. Dogs are paired by the judges in the second and subsequent series and not drawn by lot as at the start. Places are announced when the judges are satisfied they have seen enough of each hound's work, and providing the first and second place hounds have competed against each other.

In hare trials, each class is run as a pack for three hours. Some beaglers prefer this method as it eliminates a dog lacking in constitution and staying power, which the cottontail trial, each heat only lasting for a few minutes, does not do. Dogs must also find their own game, rather than have it found for them as in cottontail trials. However, it is becoming more obvious that these differences are more theoretical than actual. In recent years, the same hounds have won both hare and cottontail trials.

Four places are given, rather than the three as was the fashion previous to about 1920. Each of these place hounds are allowed a number of points toward a field trial championship. The number of points are computed by dividing the total number of starters by a place obtained. For example, in a class of twenty the winner is given 20 points, the dog placing second gets ten, the third gets six (note that all fractions are dropped) and the fourth gets five.

After a hound obtains the number of points set by the Canadian Kennel Club, and providing at least one place won is a first, the owner is awarded a field trial championship certificate for the dog, and it is usually retired from further competition. No law insists on this withdrawal from competition, but sportsmanship has set the fashion.

On rare occasions a place hound has been subsequently disqualified and so, to allow for this happening, the hound placing fifth in order of merit is declared to be the "Reserve" hound. This is not a place and carries no points or ribbons.

The number of points required for a championship varies according to the average number of entries and the location of the trial. The scale in effect in Ontario and Quebec at present is:

- 13" dogs — 35 points.
- 13" bitches — 50 points.
- 15" dogs — 50 points.
- 15" bitches — 35 points.

Field Trial Beagles as Gun Dogs

By Archie Steels

A GREAT many hunters are of the opinion that Field Trial Beagles make poor gun dogs. In one way they are partly right. Due to the conditions we are obliged to run our trials under today, hounds are not made to search, as is expected of the gun dog.

At our cottontail trials the hounds are generally kept on leash until a rabbit is started. This is not because the hounds do not have the ability to start their game, but because of the danger of picking up either, deer, fox or Jack rabbit. When this happens the hounds are gone for some time. This in turn interrupts the schedule of the trial as good hounds are not always easy gotten off a hot line, sometimes resulting in a long delay before proceeding with the trial.

Through this common procedure at trials a great many beaglers do not always make the hounds search their own game while in training. They proceed to help the hound find game by jumping brush heaps and wading through long grass and berry bushes. I can well remember a very thorough scolding I got from an old hunter the first time I went hunting with hounds. Each year he had promised to take me as soon as I was old enough. Eventually, this happened, and how thrilled I was to be able to go shooting with the hounds. As soon as we got into the swamp I proceeded to dash through bushes and jump brush heaps to find rabbits. Right there is where this old hunter took over. He explained to me the object of making the hounds do all the searching is that in the future they in turn will not look for any assistance.

This was proved to me many times during the coming years we enjoyed hunting together. Looking back, this hound man surely got results from his hounds. As soon as one rabbit was shot they would immediately go in search of another. They would not give up until another rabbit was started, even if it meant hours.

At hare trials, hounds are not kept on leash but all released at the same time. Hounds that do not search and pack quickly are, therefore, not top hare trial hounds.

Another reason some field trial hounds are not top gun dogs is the fact they are not subjected to the test of gun fire. This in turn allows a few highly nervous hounds to run at trials. If the gun fire test were used the hounds that run at most of our trials today, especially here, would be the very best of gun dogs. A hound that is not energetic, quick at his checks and ready to break away fast after picking that check simply does not get very far with our judges. Closeness at check is also given large credit. He must also be true with his tongue, and not open unless he is on the line.

These rigid requirements of the field hound, therefore, make him the ideal gun dog. A great many gun hounds drive a lot of game in any old fashion. Their owners simply do not pay any attention to the finer points. As long as he starts his game and makes a lot of noise in driving it they consider him a top gun dog.

This was driven home to me very clearly this fall while deer hunting. We were hunting with a large hound on this particular morning. We started a deer but seemed unable to put it out of a large cedar swamp, and eventually lost it. When he gave up, the handler went back to camp and got two of the beagles. One of these was a 15½" male of Fish Creek breeding; the other was a small female. Both these beagles were trained for field trials, but unfortunately, the male grew too large and could not be measured in the 15" class. They had not been in the swamp long when they lifted the deer and the other hound then joined in. From then on it was a different story. The beagles simply stayed so close on the line that the deer could not shake them. It was a great thrill to hear them coming and see the deer forced out of the cedar swamp. I was fortunate enough to kill him, but not before he had made a very sharp turn heading back towards the swamp. When the hounds came out, true, the large one was leading, but at the check it was different. The field trained hounds simply grabbed that check fast and were at the deer first. What a sight it was! The deer proved to be a wise old buck of two hundred and twenty pounds.

Our hounds of today are far different to the first little 12" male I was hunting with as a boy, just thirty-six years ago.

In conclusion, I would say that a good gun hound is not necessarily a good field trial hound, but a good field trial hound with gunning experience is tops.

An Open Letter to Beaglers

Dear Mr. Beagler:

The American Kennel Club does not consist of individual members as does the Canadian Kennel Club, but is composed of Specialty Clubs of the different breeds. The member clubs, through their delegates, select the officers of the A.K.C. itself, these officers thereupon administering the affairs of the organization. The oldest Specialty Club in any breed is recognized and stands as the parent club of that breed. Later-formed clubs desiring to hold shows or trials must first obtain the sanction of the parent club before permission will be granted by the A.K.C. The same procedure (i.e. approval by the parent club) must be followed if the new club wishes to join the A.K.C.

Due to the restrictive effect of this set-up, a Beagle Advisory Committee has lately been set up to help new clubs to get started. However, before a club will be granted the privilege of running a licensed trial it must prove to the A.K.C. that it can satisfactorily conduct several sanctioned trials and obtain more than the minimum number of entries required. Each member club pays an annual fee to the American Kennel Club.

Outstanding Field Trial Beagles of 1948

By HARDIE R. BROWN

SOME of the most outstanding beagles that I have seen or judged at the 1948 Trials were: Silvertone Goldie, Middle-Stone Roxie, Cataract Tinker, Emperor of Sky Crest, Salter's Duke, Larry of Four Oaks, Phil Bill Brownie, Fricks Gladiator, Swingalong Careful, Senorita Carmencita, Middle-Stone Judy, Bun's Brush, Hyde Park Roy and Grand River Ginger.

This may not be in their proper order but just as they come to my mind. Some were tops in both Cottontail and Hare Trials; some showed up better in the brace classes on Cottontails and others were outstanding on Hare in packs.

I believe my top hound was Silvertone Goldie without a doubt; certainly the best seen in the five trials that I attended. I say this because she took top honours at four trials, two on Cottontails and two on Hare. Although just 13¼ inches high, she is very fast, close at her checks, can get right down and walk them out from the tough checks, very quick to harp to brace mate or pack, and absolutely true with her tongue. Her First place wins at the Canadian National, Thames Valley, Central Ontario and Oshawa certainly entitles her to her Field Championships. She is a real topnotch bitch.

My second hound, I believe, would be Cataract Tinker, although I only watched his work at the Thames Valley, but if he runs like that every day he is a very good little hound. His Firsts at the Canadian National, over 47 little dogs, many of these the pick of their class in the United States, Thames Valley and Hamilton, entitles Tinker to an International Championship.

Middle-Stone Roxie is a very good little bitch running second to Goldie at two trials, one on Cottontail and the other on Hare, proving she was good for a short run with a brace mate or had the stamina for a three hour stretch. Roxie also finished her championship as she has been a very consistent hound for the past three years.

Phil Bill Brownie and Frick's Gladiator, the latter an A.K.C. Field Champion, were very good going hounds, doing their work in the approved manner, both being very close and clean in their works. One judge picked Gladiator as the best hound he had seen run this fall, yet he did not get a First.

Other 15 inch hounds that were outstanding in their department were Salter's Duke and Larry of Four Oaks. These two were very fast, hard drivers that could take command of a pack on Hare and still do a real job. For the speed they had they stayed fairly close to their checks, and if they did overrun were smart enough to get back to the check to beat the rest of the packs. Personally, I like a fast hound if they can do their work in the right manner. Not too many fast hounds can, but when you get one that can do this I love to watch them run, whether it be to gun over them or trials, or just for fun. The faster they can carry the line the better I like them. This does not at any time give a hound an excuse to swing or slash the line.

In the 13 inch dog class, Emperor of Sky Crest, Bun's Brush and Hyde Park Roy were very consistent running hounds, Emperor finishing his championship, Brush must be almost finished and Roy being just a Derby placed ten out of eleven trials, which is outstanding for consistency if nothing else.

The 13 inch bitch class seemed to be a little weak on outstanding hounds this fall, but the best of them seemed to be Grand River Ginger with her field championship from two wins on Cottontail. Swingalong Careful, Middle-Stone Judy and Senorita Carmencita showed the way in the Hare Trials. Careful, I believe, topped these three with a First, Second and Third. When she got on a Hare in front of the pack she was a very hard old bitch to try and dislodge or rattle in any way. The other, Judy, was exceptionally good in one trial, but faltered in the next, but I believe she placed at the Peterborough Trial, which I did not see.

Carmencita only ran in one trial here, being from Vermont, but was good enough to top her class on her work.

There may have been other beagles that were as outstanding as these few and maybe the odd one better which I did not see, but from the ones that I judged or have seen run at five of the Canadian trials they were the pick of the lot in their classes. Some of these were outstanding in one phase of their work but I believe that my top hound, Silvertone Goldie was the best all around hound of the lot, both in her work and on her record.

Beagle Field

In addition to licensed trials, which are open to all beagles registered in or eligible for registration in the Canadian Kennel Club, and which are usually held in the Fall, some clubs hold sanction trials for derbies in the Spring. A derby, though not defined in the C.K.C. rules, has been acknowledged to be any dog born during the present or previous calendar year. Thus, if the derby trial were held in 1948, all dogs born in 1947 or 1948 would be eligible, providing they comply with the rule regarding registration as previously mentioned.

The winners of the individual club derbies are eligible to enter the derby finals or winners stake. A win at this stake carries no championship points as it is only a sanction trial, not a licensed one. However, honours won at the derby finals are highly treasured and play a large part in deciding the beagler's future breeding programme.

Dog fanciers and sportsmen who have not attended a beagle field trial have missed an enjoyable and relatively inexpensive form of entertainment. Spectators are always welcome and made to feel at home.

Why not come to the ones next Fall and help pick out a rabbit?

An Open Letter to Beaglers

As a sharp contrast, the Canadian Kennel Club is composed of individual members, not of clubs. Any club having sufficient members belonging to the Canadian Kennel Club can apply to the Board of Directors for permission to hold a licensed trial. The parent club idea being unacceptable in Canada, the sanction of another beagle club is not required, nor is the successful holding of preliminary sanction trials demanded in this country.

In the United States, the rules and regulations are passed by the representatives of the member clubs. In general, regulations applying specifically to one breed are looked after by Specialty Clubs of that breed, as long as the proposals fit into the general policy of the American Kennel Club. Beagle affairs are run nearly entirely by beagle clubs.

Canada, not having this system of membership by clubs, is governed by the vote of the individual members present at the annual meeting. A majority vote, even though none of the voters are owners of the breed concerned, can set up or change the regulations governing the holding of beagle trials or shows. As an example, there are more terrier breeders in Toronto who belong to the Canadian Kennel Club than there are beagle breeders in the whole of Canada.

Beagle breeders are also split up into two other groups—those who are interested primarily in shows and those who are interested only in the field trials. Beaglers breeding show hounds have taken an active interest in the activities of the Canadian Kennel Club. Such is not the case among those raising field trial hounds. Until recently, one club did not have enough members belonging to the C.K.C. to contribute the amount of money spent in purchasing stamps to answer their application for permission to hold a licensed field trial.

Even though we have ten beagle clubs in Canada—the Canadian National, the Central Ontario, the Oshawa, the Hamilton, the Thames Valley, the Brantford, the Tai-I-O of Montreal, the Kawartha Lakes, the Annapolis Valley and the Halifax Beagle Clubs—we have only fifty beaglers who are members of the Canadian Kennel Club. After deducting the names of those who are known to belong to the C.K.C. but not to any one of the beagle clubs, it is found that the average club has only three C.K.C. members. Under these circumstances, it is not surprising that beagle field trials receive little assistance from the Kennel Club.

Let's all be "Georges" and get things done.

Let's all join the Canadian Kennel Club.

Let's all attend the Annual Meeting of the C.K.C.

Let's all make DOGS IN CANADA of more interest to hound men everywhere, whether they be beaglers or lovers of the more plebian types!

Yours for better beagles,

F. Rushton, D.V.M., D.V.P.H.

Secretary,

Central Ontario Beagle Club.

What is Wrong with Beagling

By Hardie R. Brown

WHAT is wrong with beagling? There is nothing wrong with beagling; it is some of the beaglers who have the wrong attitude or slant on this great sporting game. We are very lucky that they are a very small minority of the real sportsmen whom you meet at the Trials.

When you have just finished judging a class of hounds and you are on the receiving end of some very nasty looks and cutting remarks, it is a thrill to have a gentleman walk up to you, shake your hand and say, "Thanks, boys. You did a good job. Win, lose or draw, it is O.K. with me. I love to run my hounds". Then you know that you have been talking to a real sportsman, and you will meet many of them in this game of beagling.

What is beagling? What are Field Trials and how are they run? What benefit is it to hound owners and what do you get out of it? These are some of the questions asked by men who have hunted their hounds for years; who have the best hounds in the country, but have never attended a Field Trial.

So, let us take these questions and give them the correct answers. First, what is beagling? It is a sport where hound men with beagles can gather together and run their hounds together in braces, packs, or just run a few hounds for fun in the evenings or in their spare time.

Second, what are Field Trials, and how are they run? A Field Trial is where the hounds are gathered together and run in braces or packs with two or more men to follow them and judge them on their merits,—how they do their work, use their mouth or tongue, stay close to the line of scent, or do they slash, swing, cut in ahead, etc. Are they mouthy or noisy, tight or sneakers, or do they give tongue only when they have the scent and moving ahead on the line? How do they work their checks; can they work it out from where they got the last bit of scent? Or do they just swing and cast, hoping to catch it by mere luck?

On cottontails, the beagles are run in braces or pairs until all hounds in the class have been run, then the judges bring back their highest scored hounds to run in braces again for second series to get the correct placement for them. This may run into three, four or even five series before it is all through, until each hound placed has defeated the hound placed under it.

In Beagling Trials, the places are first, second, third, fourth and Reserve. Reserve is not a place, but the next best hound in the class which will move up to fourth place if any of the first four hounds should be disqualified for any reason.

PROVINCIAL NOTES

B. C. Mainland News

By Jean Fletcher

WELL, here we are in a brand new year! "Happy New Year to All", and I sure hope you had a swell Christmas and New Year's Day.

Let us try to make this column interesting by each and every one of you sending in news of interest. If you send in a good, clear picture, enlarged if possible, and pay for the cut, ($4.50 for one column cut, or $7.00 per two column cut), the editor will print it.

Visitors to British Columbia lately were Pat and Alec Randall of Saskatoon. Pat is a well known handler, breeder and past director of our Canadian Kennel Club. The Randalls very definitely didn't like our weather (rain), so left here for sunny California. Mr. Anderson of Calgary also dropped in to see our Dachshund family and talk dog.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Hepburn brought Mr. Walter Pym to visit us after the Victoria show, at which he judged part of the all breed show with Frank Creasey. Mr. Pym, of Regina, is also a past director of the C.K.C. We did like his visit, and naturally, it was dog talk. Mr. Pym is seriously thinking of moving to the coast.

Sorry to miss the two shows in Victoria. I hear they were very good, but will leave details to the Island correspondent.

Bob Waters is home again from judging the Fort Garry Show in Winnipeg along with Hughie Allan. Bob brought a very nice Labrador youngster which I understand went Best Canadian Bred puppy in Victoria.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Williams. The stork delivered a bouncing baby girl the same day as Britain's young prince came. Grandpa "Vic" Williams is handing out cigars.

Congratulations again to Mr. and Mrs. Pieter Tjebbes on winning the B.C. Potato Championship. This is not the first time the Tjebbes of Grand Forks have won. In 1946 it was the World Championship they got, and don't forget their farm was all flooded this past spring.

Mrs. Roberts of Abbotsford has a newly imported English cocker, Troubadour of Hawes, a son of Trenerry Treetops Tournament ex Blissful Lady, a grand son of the famous Padlock of Ware imported from Miss E. M. Alford of Sandhurst, England.

Mrs. Ralph Barrie of Maplewood, B.C., well known Welsh Corgi fancier, has bred Ch. Far Away Maggie Goch to Ch. Tormentor of Andely owned by Mrs. Fallas, Cross River, New York. The Barries couldn't wait to hear if Maggie had been mated, so 'phoned New York and were thrilled to talk to Mrs. Fallas. Rador's Clover Girl, now owned by the D.A. in 'Frisco, has had many wins at California shows since leaving Maplewood.

Saskatchewan Notes

By Burnice Heaven

IT IS with intermingled feelings of anticipation and trepidation that we greet the New Year but before bidding the old goodbye it might be wise to tuck away all loose ends and leave the slate clean for a fresh start. With this end in view your writer will endeavour to catch up with all dog news left hanging in the balance.

Mrs. Mary Miller reports that Mille-Marr Kennels, Moose Jaw have had a very successful year with their Pekingese. Sales have been good with puppies and grown stock. At the moment they have two very good male pups out of a Dovercourt bred female sired by Su-Roi's Rol-Ling. Chu-Anne of Wangza a very nice female, who now resides at Mille-Marr, presented the Millers with a fine litter early in November.

Mr. Jack L. Johnson is very proud of the new addition to his kennel, a very beautiful English Setter bitch "Peg of Redgold" out of Ch. Redstone Rumney of Fair Glen x Sportsman's Blue Nell bred by John C. Webster of Saskatoon.

The experts all tell us that Life Begins at Forty—but don't you believe it! Now, you take Mr. R. G. Boughton, owner of Boughton's Ideal Boston Kennels, Moose Jaw—here is a man seventy (yes, 70 years young) who has put paid to this much over-rated fallacy. Last year Bob Boughton did much towards promoting interest in Bostons by contributing large entries in every show on the Prairies and personally attended every show except one (due to illness). He made the prairie circuit by car and trailer which in itself is quite a feat for one younger in years. It is gratifying to report that his great unwavering faith in the breed was richly rewarded as his dogs swept the shows bringing home top honours. Not content to rest on his laurels Mr. Boughton is already planning on this year's breeding operations and preparing contestants for the coming shows having purchased 3 young females out of Ch. Paver's Case of Judgment from G. C. Foster of Brooks, Alta., a male from the Barkeen Kennels, Port Arthur, sired by Ch. Visitors Gallant Flash out of Ch. Nifty Lady of Barkeen; and another young female from Mrs. Ella Smith of MacGregor, Man., out of her champion bitch Ella's Hubba Hubba. He has retained 3 top males and 2 females of his own breeding, and so it seems that here is a man to be reckoned with as my guess is that Bob intends to be in there pitching with top dogs of both sexes. Personally, I think that the spirit of this grand old gentleman speaks well for those in the Fancy and should do much towards encouraging the beginner.

No other news besides this, and may I tactfully express the hope that, with the election of a new Saskatchewan director, another (and more capable) columnist be appointed.

Manitoba Notes

By Suzanne Borse

I WOULD like to take this opportunity to thank again our many friends east and west who so generously helped to support the Fort Garry Kennel Club show in November. The trophies and "specials" donated, as well as the many entries, were very much appreciated and went a long way towards making our show a success. The results of the show you will find elsewhere in this issue, so I won't dwell on this in detail.

Cliff Biggar tells me of his female Keeshond, Conwold Christabel, finished her championship at the last show. You should have seen him mop his brow when he took the Non-sporting Group. You'd think a body had to work hard to take top honors in a group (as if one didn't)! He said his eleven-year-old daughter, Diane, got the biggest thrill out of winning the trophy, but if you ask me it was a draw.

Carl Tangstad, another exhibitor of long standing, showed much pleasure when his German Shepherd placed first in the working group.

Mrs. J. D. Wade, of Winnipeg, bought a female Scottish Terrier from W. Naimsmith, Scotland. She brought this dog home with her, took Best of Breed, and also placed second in the Terrier group. Mrs. Wade travelled by air to Scotland. It rained every day of the two months she spent there. She said she would not like to go back, conditions are very bad with everything scarce and rationed. In spite of everything, however, Mrs. Wade had a nice holiday, and spent her time visiting most interesting places with her four sisters and friends.

These are just some of the places she stopped at—Whitehaven, Carlisle, Liverpool, Preston, Manchester, Lancaster, Chester, Towlchester, Coventry, Edinburgh, Glasgow. She took the ferry at Liverpool and crossed the Mersey to North Wales. Homeward bound, Mrs. Wade boarded the plane at Prestwick, Scotland, stopped at Iceland for lunch, then on to Greenland, Goosebay and Montreal. From there she went on to Winnipeg, making 13 hours in all in the air, which is a long time. I hope this has been of interest to our readers, as Mrs. J. D. Wade is one of our oldest members. She is 76 years of age, and prefers to travel by air. This is her second trip to Scotland, the first being in 1915 by boat.

We mourn the loss of a beautiful St. Bernard owned by Ross Calder of East St. Paul. This dog placed third in the working group at our recent show.

Congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. J. Garry Herald of Winnipeg, who were married November 10th. Mrs. Herald is the former E. d'Arcis Gunn, and Garry is the young man you see in the ring with that nice Doberman Pinscher.

Mrs. G. Clements reports that a very enjoyable and successful meeting was held at her home on Valour Road. The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Fort Garry Kennel Club completed their plans prior to the dog show on November 5th and 6th.

The Greater Winnipeg Kennel Club held their annual banquet at the St. Charles Hotel on November 12th. Mrs. J. Crombie was convener, with Mr. T. Smith, President, and Mrs. R. Simpson, Secretary. In spite of the fact that people were tired after the dog show, they had a very good attendance. After dinner was served and all were in good spirits, Mr. Smith cut short the usual speeches and formalities and soon had the music and dancing in full swing. In our midst was Mrs. C. Jopling and Mr. H. Baker, each celebrating a birthday. This called for a singsong with Mr. Smith leading. Giving out with very appropriate variations we sang, "Happy Birthday to You." All in all, I would say a very enjoyable evening was had by every one.

Nineteen hundred and forty-eight has been a sad year for Manitoba. We have lost through death four of our very well known members—Mr. R. (Bob) Simpson, Mr. G. R. Paulley, Mr. E. O. Whiteside, all of Winnipeg, and Mr. C. C. Plummer of Flin Flon, one of our Provincial Committee. Dogdom will sadly feel the loss of these enthusiastic fanciers.

I hope I have not exceeded my space, but in closing I would like to ask dog fanciers in Manitoba to write me any news of interest.

Maritime Notes

WHEN these notes reach my readers, 1948 will have become but a memory, it would be futile to say that I hope that it will have proven one of happy memories for all, young and old, for during the year many notable figures in the Dog world have passed on. To their relatives and friends the birth of a New Year must inevitably bring sad thoughts, and they have our most sincere sympathy. But those of us who have not been called upon to endure one of those sad, but inevitable periods will be able to look back, in spite of all its uncertainties and hardships, upon 1948 as a happy and very profitable year, and may I express the hope that 1949 will be, for all of you, one that will bring to you ever increasing happiness, prosperity and joy.

The Cape Breton Kennel Club held its first Club Banquet on Nov. 25th, a most fitting climax to their first season, which has been one of which the enthusiastic and untiring workers of this most progressive Club. I regret that I was unable to accept the Club's kind invitation to be present, but Mrs. Trivett, the charming Editor of the Club publication, very kindly furnished me with a very graphic account of the proceedings. The popular President of the Club was in the chair, and both as chairman of the banquet and throughout the year, Dr. M. J. Macaulay has been a tower of strength to the Club. In his after dinner speech he congratulated the members upon their enthusiasm and co-operation, he outlined a most interesting and ambitious program for the coming year, and promised that there would be a number of improvements on their last show and that next year's event would be bigger and better than ever. The rest of the evening was given over to music and community singing, and a panel discussion with Const. Tefft, Dogmaster of the R.C. M.P., assisted by Mrs. Fred MacDonald and Messrs. Chas. Webster and Bob Wilson. During the evening an interesting presentation was made to Const. Tefft. A truly fitting finish to a most successful season of a new Club.

The Charlottetown Kennel Club, Inc., held their Annual Meeting recently and were able to look back upon a most successful season both from a Bench Show and a Field Trial standpoint. The President, Stewart G. Ives, brought before the Club a very interesting program, which had, among other items, the formation of a Junior Kennel Club for youngsters between the ages of 12 and 18. The young members will elect their own officers and, under the supervision of a senior member, will run their own meetings and affairs generally. This would appear to be an excellent idea and was most enthusiastically received by a large group of teen-agers who were present at the meeting. A lengthy discussion was held in protest against a most inhumane and iniquitous law that is now in force in P.E.I. It is a provincial law which permits a farmer to shoot any dog in sight that he sees running at large outside the city limits. On account of this law, many valuable sporting dogs have been either killed or maimed. Mr. W. A. Reddin, barrister at law, pointed out that this law was in direct conflict with the Dominion law upon the same subject and that, under Sec. 537 of the Criminal Code, the shooting of a dog, ordinarily confined, was a very serious offense. It was decided that very strong representation should be made to the Provincial Government in an effort to have this barbarous law repealed. Mrs. J. O. C. Campbell and Messrs. Art Hogan and Wally Rodd were elected directors for a period of three years, the remaining officer will be elected at a later date. After the meeting delicious refreshments were served and a very pleasant social hour was spent.

The members of the Halifax Club who reside in the busy town of Dartmouth, across the harbor from Halifax, staged what this writer would describe as the best arranged and smoothly run Sanction Show he has ever been privileged to attend. The show was staged for the benefit of the Public Library of Dartmouth and a very handsome sum was realized. Around 65 dogs faced the judge, Mrs. P. A. Margeson of Kentville, who gave her usual finished and pleasing example of judging, finding her Best in Show in a very nice black Cocker, Ambition of Brookside, owned by P. S. Sawler and bred by Brookside Kennels in Dartmouth. The runner-up was a smart Doberman Pinscher owned by Ald. Burgess of Halifax. The committee, who is to be most heartily congratulated, was made up of the following ladies and gentlemen: Chairman, Mr. A. C. Short; Secretary, Mrs. E. J. R. MacNeill; Treasurer, Harold Sawler, with the following as members; Owen Sawler, Fred Baker, Edison R. MacNeill, Mrs. Meisner, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McInnis, Frank Pugh and C. W. Moffatt. It was a grand effort.

I hear that wedding bells will ring in Toronto this month that will cause much interest in Nova Scotia. The bride, Miss A. M. Hollis of Toronto, was stationed in Halifax as an officer in the R.C.A.M.C., and she made herself very popular with all who were privileged to meet her. She attended all shows and exhibited the first Saluki in these parts, which she afterwards was able to make the first champion of that breed in Canada. I understand that she and her husband, Dr. John Laurie, are to make their home in Cape Breton, at a suburb of Sydney. I am sure that all fanciers will join me in wishing the happy couple every possible happiness, and assure them and their kennel a very hearty welcome to Nova Scotia.

CLUB ACTIVITIES

Notes from Quebec Province

By Mrs. G. S. B. Mack

ON the 10th of November I had the honour and very great pleasure of attending the annual oyster party given in Montreal by the Ta-I-O Beagle Club. This club which was founded in 1932 by Recorder Amidee Thouin has a membership of about four hundred and each year hold their Beagle trials at St. Johns with entries from many provinces and also the States. The President Dr. L. O. Geoffrion has been in office for six years and has done a great deal towards making the club an active concern and bringing the members together in many friendly functions. Mr. Robitaille, the hard working secretary for the last eight years is also one of the leading lights and can be counted on to always be present wherever there is a gathering of dog fanciers in Montreal.

The oyster party was a most enjoyable affair with about three hundred and fifty guests, a very enjoyable evening was had by all, and the abundance of oysters and good fellowship left a very pleasant memory.

It is indeed an excellent idea for members and their friends to get together for a social gathering of this kind as it certainly helps to bring a feeling of friendship and good will into the club. May I wish continued success to the Ta-I-O Club and hope for further invitations to their future parties.

News comes from the Upperton Corgi Kennels that their new Corgi Stormy Morn from Sheil is due any day from England, and from her pedigree they have great hopes for her in the show ring. Good luck and we shall look forward to seeing her soon safely installed at Upperton.

More news of imports, this time from Mrs. Adams of Talisker Skyes who has just received a dog from England, Merrymount Silver Chum by Wonder of Merrymount out of Ch. Silver Merrymount and as the prefix notes bred by Lady Marcia Miles. Mrs. Adams' other import is also a puppy, this one a bitch from Mr. Smith, Taliskers Cassels Lady by Chummies Heir of Talisker, out of Taliskers Little Meg. The parents were bought from Mrs. Adams as foundation stock for Mr. Smith's kennel so Mrs. Adams is very pleased to get a puppy from his kennel.

The Ladies kennel Club of Canada Inc. and Junior group are holding an all breed Sanction show in Montreal on Sunday Dec. 5th, and from all accounts there should be a very good entry. Mr. Sparkes is coming from Toronto to judge the variety classes and Best in Show so all the exhibitors will be trotting out their best puppies and young dogs. The Junior Group of this club are taking a very active interest in this show and will gain valuable experience as already they have made the posters, mailed the entry forms and wrapped the prizes, and at the show will be stewarding in the ring, and generally helping to run the show. This is valuable experience for young exhibitors and in time they will be a great asset to any adult club they are connected with.

There is not much other news, so will end by thanking our Editor for her many kindnesses and cooperation during the past year and Wishing all members and their dogs a very happy New Year and lots of wins at the 1949 shows.

Hull & District, Quebec News

By Fred Blatch

AND so 1948 has gone and another New Year is with us with the usual resolutions and all the joys they will bring, if kept. So, here's wishing all our members, everywhere, that 1949 will be a most successful and happy year for all. Let us all get together and co-operate with our C.K.C. Officers, and, give our directors, no matter who they will be, our confidence and all the help we can. Try to ease the work of our genial editor by sending in the news well in advance of the "dead" line and thereby help ourselves also. Remember, "DOGS IN CANADA" is not only the official organ of the C.K.C. but also the instrument through which Canadian dogdom is sold to the rest of the dog world.

My good friend, Omer Pilon and I, travelled out over the Mountain Road to "Skyridge", about five miles from Hull—just seven miles from Ottawa—the other day, to visit Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lynch and their son Eugene. Several years ago Mr. and Mrs. Lynch purchased 100 acres of scenic beauty high on the Gatineau Hills on the Mountain Road and here they built a picturesque log type lodge which nestles against a natural background of lovely pine. Among other hobbies they founded the "Skyridge" Kennel of Afghan hounds with the best ground stock money could buy; such strains as "Rudike", and two imported strains—"Royal Irish" and Turkuman". Imported from England were a beautiful bitch "Sarawan of Barukhzy" and a grand stud dog "Barukhzy Tarimani" who was sired by "Champion Kohistan Shahudin" ex "Zuieka of Sharaz". Three litters were raised last summer from these imports and Mrs. Lynch says they all impressed one with their great show possibilities. Most all of them have been sold to the U.S.A. The kennels themselves are located in a belt of pine trees with up-to-date spacious runs in which these sleek creatures can indulge in an abundance of good healthy exercise. At one time over 30 Afghans romped these runs, but, to-day, only eight remain to winter and get ready for spring breeding. After our visit to the kennels we were escorted by our gracious hostess to the lodge where we had the pleasure of meeting her son, Eugene, who, by the way, is a veteran of World War II, having been a pilot flying fighter-bombers over N. Africa and Malta. After returning from the wars, Eugene discovered that he had outstanding talent for wood-carving. His first attempt was the head study of an Afghan Hound, a most difficult piece of work, and when you look at it you cannot help but marvel at the accuracy of detail, a perfect image of the dog in the photograph from which it was carved. Another masterpiece he showed us was the head study of one of Mrs. Hyslop's Great Danes.

Albert Normand, well known Hull sportsman, who owns an outstanding young Labrador Retriever, is organizing the gun-dog men around these parts, the idea being to institute some field trials closer to home this year. This should be a great help in stimulating interest in dogdom in this western part of Quebec. More power to you, Albert!

Mac McLean is a busy man these days getting some of his Toy Manchesters, and his Dad's Standard Manchesters, ready for the big show at Westminster this year. Last year, due to the limit placed on the number of entries, Mac was left out in the cold. This year he is determined to get in under the wire so has made an early start to be fully prepared. Atta boy, Mac!

I received a phone call from Mrs. T. Harold Dell of the Experimental Farm, Ottawa, who is specializing in the breeding of White Collies. Mrs. Dell tells me that one of her bitches has just presented her with a litter of seven, five of them pure white. She wants me to go out and look this litter over for her. This I will do in the near future. In the meantime, congratulations, Mrs. Dell!

Lakehead Kennel Club News

THE Lakehead Kennel Club held its annual meeting on December 2nd in the Port Arthur Council Chambers. Election of officers for 1949 was held and resulted in the return by acclamation of Jim Booth to the President's chair. Past President is C. J. Boyle. The remaining officers are: Vice-President, Mrs. Eva Ross; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Cora Fairbridge; Managing and Show Committee (Port Arthur Section), Mrs. L. Koski, Mrs. I. Grimshaw, Vergne Bell, T. Grimshaw; (Fort William Section), Wilf. Wright, Mrs. A. Lalonde, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Young; Auditors, Miss Phyllis Mitchell, T. Grimshaw. The report of the retiring secretary, Mrs. E. Ross, showed the club to be in sound financial condition, and the paid-up membership of the club now stands at fifty-five. New members are accepted at practically every meeting, and dog-breeding at the Lakehead is hitting a new high mark with new breeders taking up their favorite breeds, and some of the older breeders branching out into a second or third breed.

Mrs. E. Ross of Keneva Kennels is now at a new location and has given up the airedales entirely, concentrating on high-class poms only. The youthful June Koski, who has been raising some grand German Shepherds, is now taking on the Japanese Spaniel. She recently brought in a male from south of the border and is at present searching for a suitable female. Shawhaven Kennels have had a disastrous year in raising pups, but are all set for a strong come-back in the early spring.

A few Lakehead fanciers journeyed to the Fort Garry show at Winnipeg in November and some of them brought home the bacon. Point-winners were Miss Margaret Flanagan in collies, Les Logan in samoyedes, and Frank Przybyski in boxers.

This club would like to extend the season's greetings to all those in east and west who have been visiting here for the annual show. Our friends are legion, and we are told that our method of looking after exhibitors from time of stepping off train, entertaining them, etc., brings them back year after year.

The Chow Chow Club of Canada (Reg'd)

By Isabel Charter

HELLO folks. Now that the winter season has started, we would like to make an interesting program at our monthly meetings. We are ready to accept any new members and are open for your suggestions for the coming season.

Our meetings are held once a month at the Bloor Hotel unless otherwise stated, in which case you are given ample notice. Please try and make an effort to turn out. At our last meeting, on Nov. 22, 1948, we discussed the importance of the bone and the showing of the breed.

We are hoping to have a Puppy Match some time in the near future, so get your puppies ready up to nine months of age. Our President, Don Paul, has been trying to get some sort of film for the benefit of our breed. I would be very pleased to hear from any of our out-of-town members. News is what we need, so come on, folks, let's get busy and put our dogs and club on top.

Kitchener-Waterloo Kennel Club

By William E. James

THE Club held the annual election of officers for 1949 with the following results: President, W. E. Jamès; 1st Vice-President, Lewis Jenkins; 2nd Vice-President, Arthur Meyer; Secretary, Genevieve James; Treasurer, Arthur Rozell; Directors, Albert Weber, Jack Simpson, Harold Sutton, Douglas Riedel, G. Dietrich, H. Graf.

Over fifty members were present and attended the dinner where the guest speaker was Mr. W. P. Gudgeon, who gave a talk on his travels to foreign parts. A highlight of the dinner was the presentation of the Dog World Award for meritorious services to Mr. Douglas Riedel. Mrs. Riedel and Mrs. W. P. Gudgeon were the recipients of lovely corsages.

The enthusiasm shown by the members was such as to give us renewed hope for a most successful year in 1949. We extend our wish for the Happiest of New Years to all those who have so generously supported our shows, and hope you will visit us again.

The Collie and Shetland Sheep-Dog Club of Canada

By Mrs. Y. Tomlin

HELLO, fellow fanciers, and a Prosperous 1949! The Collie and Shetland Sheep-Dog Club concluded 1948 with a very successful Sanction Show. As is customary at our shows, a general atmosphere of goodwill prevailed, and everyone pitched in to make it a grand show, despite an oversized crowd in undersized quarters!

Many thanks to all who contributed in any way—judges, stewards, entry takers and donors of specials.

Best in Show went to Mrs. Bough's Boston puppy Haggerty's Sweet Magic. Mr. Hull's tri Collie Trigger of Elstow was reserve best.

1949 promises to be an interesting year for us, with two Specialty Shows planned, so you'll be hearing more from us, and until then, "Good Winning!"

The German Shepherd Dog Breeders Association Toronto

By Beth Hendry

THE regular meeting of the Club was held on November 2nd with a full attendance of members. This is most gratifying and speaks well for the interest shown in the Club.

On December 2nd, we held a dance in Kimbourn Hall, the orchestra being conducted by our Vice-President, Paul Firman, the well-known orchestra leader.

Our drill team put on a fine exhibition of precision work at the Progressive Kennel Club Show on November 11th. Mr. Spencer Weller, the President of our Club, judged the working group and from all accounts his placings were well received.

Mrs. Mary Weller, who gave such splendid assistance on our Rochester trip, suffered a heavy loss when Gus of Tammalar, who was stricken in her absence, died shortly after her return.

Our Club would like to take this opportunity to thank the Editor of Does in Canada for making it possible for the activities of our club to be published in the magazine which we feel is now one of the best available in the dog field.

In wishing a Happy New Year to all, let us hope that 1949 will bring peace on earth and goodwill to all men.

The German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada

By W. O. Flink, Secretary,
130 Heward Ave., Toronto 8.

THE Annual General Meeting and Dinner of the German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada was held in the Roof Garden, Royal York Hotel, Saturday, December 4th, 1948, with about 55 members in attendance.

The election of officers for the year 1949 resulted as follows: President, G. Coles; Vice-President, G. A. Corser; Secretary, W. O. Flink; Treasurer, E. Noble. Directors: W. Hammerton, A. E. Jackes, Dr. N. Bludgell, B. R. Stitt, Mrs. J. B. Southcott, H. McDowell.

Through the generosity of the Club and some of the members, the sum of $25.00 was raised to buy additional worm medicine for German Shepherd dog breeders in Germany.

Our Club has been selected by the Sportsmen's Club to put on the Obedience Trials and the Specialty of our Breed at their show in March.

Our Bench Show Chairman, Mr. A. L. Gooderham, spoke of the success of our Specialty Show in September, and Mr. Hayman, Chairman of the Field Trial Committee, also spoke of the splendid Obedience Trial Show held at Manor Farms in October.

... DOTS AND DASHES ...

As the year 1948 slowly merges into 1949 a new vista opens before us and we can look back on the Diamond Jubilee year of the Canadian Kennel Club as a year of progress.

The hundreds of letters from breeders and dog lovers recording their pleasure with the initial improvements can serve but one purpose, and that is to spur us on to greater efforts in 1949.

At this, the first issue of the year, may we extend the sincere wish that you may have the happiest and most successful year, and once again thanks for your support of DOGS IN CANADA.

"So You Want to be a Show Secretary?" — to paraphrase a well known air show. Try it—it's the best education in the world. If just a very small percentage of those satisfied exhibitors were thoughtful enough to tell the secretary of their satisfaction, then there is an extra glow to make up to some extent for the responsibilities and worries involved — even though they may have taken a good three months of her time which very possibly could have been spent in another fashion, and have added lines to her face and grey hairs to her head!

As remarked in the beginning of Mrs. Lymburne's article page — 2 being a show secretary involves a great deal of work, much of it requiring a certain amount of skill, but it also serves to add to the individual's education and will achieve one of two ends—either a more tolerant attitude toward the vagaries and mannerisms of human nature or an individual who looks upon all the world with a warped point of view, for coupled with a measure of wisdom, the show secretary needs a sense of humour as well.

A sad note crept into the holiday spirit today, December 14th, when we heard of the sudden death this morning of G. Percy Brown of Toronto. Mr. Brown has been a familiar figure at the dog shows for many years, being show secretary of the Toronto Kennel Club. He was also an officer in the All Terrier Club, a breed in which he was interested both in England and in Canada.

The sympathy of the members of the Canadian Kennel Club and all dog fanciers is extended to his widow, the former Isabel Hardy, who took part with Mr. Brown in his activities.

Next month we will feature working dogs. This is the largest of the breed groups, and coming just before the Annual Meeting it will be doubly interesting. As usual, we will welcome news, photographs, or anything which will help to make it an outstanding issue.

* * *

A great dog died recently. His name was Buddy the 2nd, and for ten years he was the eyes of Morris S. Frank, Vice-President of the Seeing Eye League. This dog accompanied his master throughout the United States and Canada demonstrating the value of the dog as an aid to those who have lost their eyesight.

The life of a Seeing Eye dog is one of service. He cannot run and play like other dogs, but must be on the alert at all times, yet you could not find a happier dog than the one who is giving this service to mankind.

H. I. Phillips has written a beautiful poem as a tribute to Buddy which was published in the Sun Dial, "New York Sun", the last verse of which reads:

The Good Book knew no greater love;
I think that dogs like thee
Shall know the hills of Bethlehem

And romp in Galilee;
I have a notion you shall play
In green fields bathed in sun
And wag your tail and flash your eyes
To these two words

"WELL DONE!"

Your attention is drawn to the article on the licensing of judges in the American Kennel Club. With our Annual Meeting so close upon us, it might be well to study the system now in effect in the United States in the hopes that we can remedy the judging situation in this country.

* * *

Do not forget your entry for the Westminster Kennel Club show. Many Canadians had their entries returned last year, as being too late. The demand for space far exceeds the amount available, and the books will close definitely when the number of dogs which can be comfortably accommodated are entered.

Our thanks to Emerson Robertson, who has been breeding and showing beagles for thirty-four years, Dr. Frank Rushton, Dr. W. J. Langmaid, P. Jacobi, A. T. Steels, and the members of the Thames Valley Beagle Club, for supporting the January issue on such short notice.

We would like to see more beagle fanciers members of the Canadian Kennel Club, and hope they will join with us in assisting the growth of the organization.

Ontario Bird Dog Association Field Trials

By W. Findlay

SETTERS were top dogs when the Ontario Bird Dog Association held its annual Fall Field Trials in October. The long-hairs won 3 firsts in the 5 events run; made 7 placements out of 14 and captured 2 out of the 3 senior stakes.

Drum's Victory Belle, white and orange setter bitch, owned and handled by Bruce Baltzer, Harrow, Ont., 1947 winner of The Ontario Championship, again carried off the premier even in a field of 10 entries which included 4 pointers and 4 setters. Ariel Spunky Girl (Penny), owned and handled by Dr. Alan C. Secord, Toronto, was named runner-up. So close was the contest put up by these two contenders that the judges required two re-runs by this brace before awarding the trophy to the bitch from down Windsor way.

Fred C. Lister's Lady Cecilia of Garlohead (Skeet) carried off the Shooting Dog Stake for the fifth time against 7 competitors.

Trials this year were held in the Toronto area, the course being located on John Bryne's Farm, Altona Road, north of the Rouge River in Pickering Township. The course provided an excellent test for the dogs and, while rain both days made conditions unfavourable for spectators, a good gallery was in attendance both days. Scenting was good and excellent work was witnessed from the excellent quality of dogs which competed in the two day event.

An enjoyable feature of the meet was the dinner on Saturday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Harry Graham entertained the members of the association at their suburban home.

One course trials were run in all events, for which pheasants were released by courtesy of the Wild Life Division of the Department of Lands and Forests.

What is Wrong With Beagling

In Hare Trials, all the hounds in the class are run together in a pack with numbers painted on their sides so that the judges can get the number of the hounds as they drive the hare through the bush or swamp where they are run. The places are the same as in Cottontail Trials.

Third, what benefit is it to hound owners, and what do you get out of it? Trials are a great benefit to owners and breeders if they are conscientious about their breeding programme. The Trials bring out the good points in the hounds, and if an owner has his eyes open he can spot the hounds or bloodlines that are producing the desired qualities in their pups. Also, your hound, if it does its work in the right manner and gets a place, keeps accumulating points until it has the required number for a championship. What a kick you get out of putting one of your hounds over the top!

Besides this, you have the opportunity of meeting and associating with one of the best groups of sportsmen that you could hope to find anywhere in the world. So again I say there is nothing wrong with beagling in any form, whether it be at Cottontail Trials, Hare Trials, gunning over your beagles, or just running for fun. It is a great sport.

Attention Sportsmen and Game Conservation Clubs

SPORTSMEN across Canada are being contacted in an effort to have the following obnoxious section of the Criminal Code of Canada amended. You can do your part by bringing it to the attention of your Federal M.P., and your local Game Conservation Club. The following resolution has been submitted by the B.C. Gun Dog Club, Inc., to the B.C. Fish and Game Protective Association. We ask that all sportsmen do their part in bringing this matter before their local and Provincial Fish and Game Associations.

WHEREAS it is desirable, in the interest of the conservation of game birds, that hunting dogs be efficiently and properly trained to retrieve birds in order that more dead and crippled birds be brought to bag;

AND WHEREAS Section 542, Subsection (f) of the Criminal Code of Canada reads as follows:

"promotes, arranges, conducts, assists in, receives money for, or takes part in any meeting, competition, exhibition, pastime, practice, display, or in any event whatever, at or in the course of which captive birds are liberated by trap, contrivance or other means, for the purpose of being shot at the time of their liberation, or who being the owner or occupier, or persons in charge of any premises, permits the same, or any part thereof, to be used for any such purpose."

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that Section 542, Subsection (f) of the Criminal Code of Canada be amended by adding the following words thereto:

"Except that the shooting of such liberated birds shall be permissible for the purpose of conducting organized Field Trials, or the training of hunting dogs, providing such trials and training are under the supervision of the Game Department, or other Department administering the Game Laws of any Province."

Please address all communications dealing with this matter to:

The Licensing of Judges in the American Kennel Club

A NEW system for the licensing of a dog show judge has been adopted by the American Kennel Club. It becomes effective January 1st, 1949, and the facilities for putting the new system into effect already are being set up.

The new plan calls for the cancellation of all present judging licenses and adoption of a policy to license judges only for specific shows. It also involves the elimination of references or sponsors for judging applicants and it sets up an apprenticeship system for new judges.

Present licenses are to be cancelled as of December 31st, 1948. Thereafter, all judges will be licensed for each engagement. This major policy change is expected to keep the capability of each judge under more constant observation and review. In the past, after licenses were granted, there was a presumption by many of a continuous right to judge. This view persisted despite the fact that judging applications have clearly pointed out that the license to judge was a privilege, not a right, and that it could be cancelled at any time without redress or explanation.

In actual practice, the new program will not be as revolutionary as it may appear. All presently licensed persons will be considered as eligible to be licensed, after January 1st, for any and all shows. Of course, they will be eligible only for the breeds in which they are now licensed. New plans have been formulated for the granting of additional breeds to present judges and for the licensing of those who have never judged.

Judges will not be required to file an application for each show which they wish to judge. One application form will cover the future. Then when a show-giving club submits its list of proposed judges, each name will be considered for licensing for that single event. The presently licensed judges will form the pool from which show-giving clubs may choose their prospective judges.

The net result will be two-fold; First, no judge can consider that he has vested right to judge dog shows—his license is terminated automatically with the completion of each judging engagement. Second, it will be necessary for the American Kennel Club to review the record of each judge in his previous engagement before licensing him for the show under consideration. If the record isn't good, the show-giving club will be asked to submit another name to be licensed for its show.

Before the end of the year, new application forms will be mailed to each of the nearly five thousand judges on the American Kennel Club's present list. When the signed forms are returned, there will be no further red tape so far as the judges are concerned.

A new system also is to be adopted covering new applications, whether they come from persons already qualified to judge some breeds or from those who have never judged. In the past, applicants have been required to supply the names of references who can speak for their experience and trustworthiness. This practice has been subject to much criticism and is being discontinued. Critics have said that all too often the reference had something to gain by granting of a license to the applicant. The American Kennel Club has found the system faulty because references are reluctant to say anything but good about the applicant.

A new form of application has been prepared to meet this problem. It is much more extensive than the old form and will reveal a great deal about the applicant's knowledge, experience and personal history. A careful examination of these applications is expected to supply the American Kennel Club with far more information than it has ever possessed—even including that which in the past came from the applicant's endorsers.

The club may verify or clarify any questionable part of an application by obtaining information from outside sources—not from the applicant's own endorsers.

Once the Kennel Club is satisfied with its information, the application will be marked "tentatively approved" and the name of the applicant and the breeds he seeks will be published in the American Kennel Gazette. This will put some responsibility squarely on exhibitors and breeders. They will be expected to communicate with the American Kennel Club if they know any reason why the applicant should not be approved.

Hearing no objections, the applications will at this point fall into two groups—those who have previously judged and those who have never judged. Those who have judged any breed before the adoption of the new system will become immediately available to be licensed to judge the new breed or breeds at any show.

Those who have never judged will be classified as apprentice judges in the breed or breeds for which their applications have been approved.

Before an apprentice judge can actually be licensed to judge a breed for which he has been approved, it will be necessary for him to serve as a ring-attendant for that breed under at least three different licensed judges. He will retain the rank of apprentice for at least six months after approval of his application. Only after the passing of the six-month interval and the completion of the three apprentice assignments will the applicant be licensed to judge a show.

A person who becomes licensed to judge a breed following an apprenticeship will be required to file a report of his first three actual judging engagements giving his reasons for the placing of winners dog, winners bitch and best of breed.

After completing this routine in four different breeds, a judge may be licensed for additional breeds without serving apprenticeships.

An apprentice may apply for more than one breed at a time and, of course, will become eligible for licensing in each breed immediately upon completion of his apprenticeship in that particular breed, provided six months have elapsed since the approval of his application.

The new system also calls for more rigid requirements for the judging groups of best to show.

The apprentice system is expected to receive popular approval. Kennel Club officials point out that apprentices will in no sense pass upon the entries. They will make their own arrangements with scheduled judges to serve under them. They are expected to be in the ring throughout the judging assignment and they are to follow the direction of the judge. They may examine dogs and ask questions of the judge so long as they do not interfere with the judge's work or delay the orderly completion of a class. At no time are they to advise a judge or question his placings. Of course, they are not to mark the judge's book.

Judges, in turn, will be expected to honor the request of an apprentice whenever it is clear that their judging duties will not suffer by the additional responsibility. Judges may be asked to report their impressions of apprentices who serve under them. Only the apprentice may serve in a ring at one time.

Kennel Club officials do not believe that the new plan will solve all of the problems of dog show judging. They do believe that the new plan marks a big step forward.

Many people have responded to the repeated invitations for ideas which have appeared in the American Kennel Gazette. All proposals have been considered. Some meritorious plans have not been adopted because of the difficulty of administering them. Others were not adopted because they conflicted with the Club's fundamental view that it is a representative organization and that show-giving clubs must assume considerable responsibility for their own show.

The Kennel Club approached this problem with the view that the new system should be as nearly automatic as practicable. The license department staff is being expanded to handle the great increase in record-keeping and correspondence. Policies covering all foreseeable problems have been laid down for the guidance of the department.

Even so, it is recognized that unexpected and unusual problems will arise. Furthermore, it is expected that once the system starts operating some refinements and changes will be needed. To meet all hardship cases and special problems, the Board of Directors is prepared to consider all cases which are referred to it—even to making exceptions in the carefully defined policies if it is convinced that greater good can be accomplished by such exceptions.

CORRECTION

The report of the Pacific National Exhibition Dog Show held on September 3rd and 4th, 1948, as it appeared in the November issue of DOGS IN CANADA, should have indicated that the Boston Terrier, TRUITTS RINGMASTER LIPS KAYE was awarded winners Dogs and not TRUITTS RINGMASTER LIPS KAYE 2ND, as previously reported.

The report of the Toronto Kennel Club Show, held on September 4th, indicated that the English Springer Spaniel LAMBETH DUBONNET had been awarded first in Canadian-bred Females Class and Reserve Winners. This dog did not have an opportunity of competing against the female awarded Winners at this show and so that her record will not indicate a defeat at the Toronto Kennel Club show her wins at that show have been cancelled.

"SIX-FOLD" DOG CONDITIONING

To keep dogs on top of their form—eyes bright; lots of vitality; good temper; fine coat—most experts agree on regular conditioning. But it should be a conditioning that covers all six important points:
Blood; Nerves and Muscles; Glands;
Organs of digestion and elimination;
Skin; Bones. To do that, there is nothing quite like Karswood Dog Powders. "Karswoods" reach all, and help all these 6 vital points in a dog's system. They are preferred by dog experts and dog breeders all over the world. You can bank on Karswood Dog Powders as a tonic and conditioner for all breeds of dogs.

1168 (1132). DOGS IN CANADA

REPORT: The Secretary read the following report of the DOGS IN CANADA Committee (composed of Reg. P. Sparkes, Chairman, W. G. Kenyon and H. S. Weller):

"Pursuant to your wishes, the DOGS IN CANADA Committee met on Friday, October 22, 1948, for the purpose of considering:

- The matter of the Managing Editor's salary; and
- The matter of allocations of revenue and expenditures to DOGS IN CANADA in order that the auditors can prepare the annual financial statement for the current year.

Salary of Managing Editor

This Committee is of the opinion that when the Managing Editor was hired last March at a salary of $50.00 per week, it was not intended that this salary would be permanent, but would be adjusted at the Board's discretion in the light of the work done by the Editor and the results of her efforts as shown by the issues published under her direction. This Committee is now of the opinion that the Editor's present salary is not commensurate with the excellent progress that has been made in the publication over the period of the past few months. It is known that the Editor has willingly used her car on the magazine's business at her own expense and without recompense, an arrangement that can hardly be considered fair.

It is therefore this Committee's recommendation that:

- The Managing Editor's salary be increased to $65.00 per week; and

- (b) A car allowance of $20.00 per month be made for the Editor's use of her car and purchase of gasoline.

Originally this Committee recommended that no contract be made with the Editor of DOGS IN CANADA, but it is now felt that if advertisers, particularly advertising agencies handling the advertising of national advertisers, are to have some assurance that advertising contracts placed now will continue during the present excellent management by the Managing Editor, then a contract with the Editor is indicated, and it should run to the end of 1949. We so recommend to the Board of Directors.

Allocations of Revenue & Expenditures

While your Committee is cognizant of the policy followed in this regard over the period of the past few years, it has nevertheless gone into this aspect of the magazine's operations thoroughly in order to make recommendations which would be eminently fair to the Club and its magazine.

For some years past it has apparently been the policy, when determining the amount to be credited to the magazine for the publication of official business of the Club, to base the allocation solely on the actual printing costs per page in the magazine. It is the opinion of this Committee that this arrangement is not fair since it does not take in account the time spent by the Editor in the handling of such material nor does it allow for costs (handling, mailing, postage, envelopes) which the Club would be called upon to bear were such material distributed to the members independent of the magazine. Your Committee is therefore of the opinion that the magazine should be credited with the following revenue from the printing of official business in DOGS IN CANADA:

- (a) Official announcements (such as the advertisements for stud books, office manager, etc.) at regular advertising rates;
- (b) All other material at the rate of $35.00 per page.

This Committee is of the opinion that no change should be made in the allocation of $1.00 per member out of membership fees, but it is of the opinion that the magazine should be credited, at the rate of 20 cents per copy, for extra copies required by the Club for distribution to new members, back issues to members, and copies for those enquiring for lists of breeders.

This Committee has reviewed the allocations of expenditures to the magazine and recommends the following allocations:

- (a) The following salaries:
Editor's stenographer: 100%
Bookkeeper: 33-1/3%.
- (b) Rent: 10%
- (c) Light: 10%
- (d) Telephone: 33-1/3% (increased from last year's 20%).
- (e) Total costs on mailing the monthly issue (post office statements) plus 20% of the total postage in the Club's postage account after the mailing charges on minutes sent out independent of the magazine are removed from the total showing in the Club's account.

- (f) Telegraph: 10%.

These allocations are, with the exception of telephone charges, the same as those made last year.

Subscription Rates

While reviewing the allocations referred to above, this Committee noted that the actual printing cost per copy of the magazine is far in excess of the charge (20c) made for a single copy. Anyone familiar with printing costs over the past few years is aware of the very substantial increase in that connection and this Committee feels that it would be unbusinesslike to continue subscription rates at a figure far below the actual cost to provide subscription copies. It therefore recommends that the Board authorize the following charges for single copies and subscriptions:

Single copy .....	35c
Subscriptions .....	$3.00 per one year; $5.00 for two years."

RESOLUTION: Following discussion, it was regularly moved by Vice-President Brown, seconded by Director Davies:

"THAT, the report of the DOGS IN CANADA Committee be endorsed and that an allowance of $20 a month, retroactive for six months, be paid the Managing Editor towards the use of her car and purchase of gasoline." Motion carried.

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from the Garden City Press Co-Operative, stating that due to substantially increased wage rates to all mechanics in the printing trade, the Garden City Press Co-Operative had found it necessary to review its printing price schedules, and that as of October 31st, 1948, its price for the printing of DOGS IN CANADA would be increased by 10%.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Second Vice-President Lerch, seconded by Director Davies:

"THAT, the Secretary acknowledge receipt of the communication and confirm the new printing price of DOGS IN CANADA." Motion carried.

SUBJECT: Director Kenyon stated that from information received regarding advertising rates of publication with less circulation than DOGS IN CANADA, it appeared that the advertising rates of DOGS IN CANADA were quite low, and in view of increased printing costs, consideration should be given the matter of advertising rates in the publication.

ACTION: It was agreed that this matter should be referred to the DOGS IN CANADA Committee, and its report on this subject should be presented to the next annual meeting of the Board of Directors for its consideration.

1169. INSURANCE

SUBJECT: The Secretary referred to the capital expenditure made during the current year in respect to additions to the office equipment and furniture and the setting up of the club's new office, and suggested that consideration be given to increasing the insurance held by the club on its office furniture and fixtures.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Weller, seconded by Director Riedel:

"THAT, the Secretary-Treasurer arrange for adequate insurance on the club's office furniture and fixtures and leasehold improvements." Motion carried.

1170 (1140). NEW CONSTITUTION

SUBJECT: The President suggested that the club's solicitor be asked to communicate with Mr. A. P. MacVannel, Chief Registration Officer of the Department of Agriculture, and ascertain the Department's reasons for withholding approval of the Constitution adopted at the last annual general meeting of the club.

ACTION: The President's suggestion was endorsed and the Secretary was directed to be governed accordingly.

1171. ADJOURNMENT

On motion by Vice-President Brown, duly seconded and carried, this meeting of the Board of Directors adjourned at 3.40 p.m.

Meeting of the Board of Directors

1172. The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club Inc. was held in the Club's offices, 667 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ontario, on December 1st, 1948, commencing at 10.30 a.m. The President, Reg. P. Sparkes, presided. Officers and Directors present at the commencement of the meeting included: D. J. Lerch, Group Captain W. E. Baker, G. P. Davies, W. G. Kenyon and Douglas Riedel.

1173. MINUTES

SUBJECT: The Secretary tabled Minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors held on November 1st, 1948.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Riedel, seconded by Director Kenyon:

"THAT, the Minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors held on November 1st, 1948, as prepared by the Secretary, be adopted." Motion carried.

1174 (1156). REPORTS AND CORRESPONDENCE RE SHOWS AND TRIALS

REPORTS: The Secretary tabled the C.K.C. Representative's Reports on the following: The English Springer Spaniel Club of Canada—Spaniel Trial held on October 30th; Fort Garry Kennel Club Championship Shows, held on November 5th and 6th; Progressive Kennel Club of Canada Sanction Show, held on November 11th; Kerry Blue Terrier Club of Canada Sanction Show, held on November 19th.

ACTION: The Secretary was directed to provide the C.K.C. Representative with a supply of blank Charge forms for possible use when he attends Shows or Trials.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Second Vice President Lerch, seconded by Director Weller:

"THAT, the C.K.C. Representative's reports be received and filed." Motion carried.

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from the Guelph Kennel Club, which reported that the Guelph Kennel Club, at its annual meeting, had gone on record as disapproving of the President or Directors judging at All Breed Championship Shows, and that the Club is definitely opposed to Shows whose duration is longer than one day.

RESOLUTION: The Board agreeing that no action need be taken in respect to this communication, it was regularly moved by Director Riedel, seconded by Director Davies:

"THAT, this communication be filed." Motion carried.

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from Mrs. C. Bloomfield, Secretary-Treasurer of the Vancouver Island Dog Fanciers' Association, reporting on the Association's decision to refuse the entries of Mrs. Lillian Miller in connection with its Championship Shows held in November. The Secretary read a letter from Director V. W. Williams who expressed the view that the continued refusal of Mrs. Miller's entry should not be condoned.

DISCUSSION: The Board agreed that so long as a Club complied with Chapter 16, section 15, of the Dog Show Rules, no action should be taken in respect to its refusal of entries, save that the Board of Directors, at a later meeting, could withhold approval of that Club's application for permission to hold Championship Shows or other activities under the rules adopted by the Canadian Kennel Club, but such action would be up to the Board of Directors then in office.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Second Vice President Lerch, seconded by Director Baker:

"THAT, the Vancouver Dog Fanciers' Association be informed that the Board of Directors has no objection to their refusing the entries of Mrs. Lillian Miller, but it must be distinctly understood that the Canadian Kennel Club accepts no responsibility whatever for any actions that may result from their continuing to refuse Mrs. Miller's entries." Motion carried.

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from Mrs. Pat Taylor, handler of the Springer Spaniel LAMBETH DUBONNET, entered at the Toronto Kennel Club Show held on September 4th, 1948. Mrs. Taylor pointed out that while the entry of this dog was properly published in the catalogue of the show, its entry had apparently been omitted from the judge's book with the result that while the dog was ready to be shown in the class in which it was entered, judging of the other Springer Spaniel Female classes and Winners Female was proceeded with before LAMBETH DUBONNET had had an opportunity of appearing in the ring. When this matter was drawn to the attention of the judge, the dog was evidently allowed to be brought into the ring where it was awarded a First ribbon and Reserve Winners, although it had not at any time, at this show, competed against the female awarded Winners.

DISCUSSION: In discussing the matter, the Board agreed that since the show-giving club had refunded the entry fee for this dog, and in view of the developments regarding this dog at this show, it agreed that this dog should not be reported as having been defeated by the Winners Female, that the wins credited to this dog should be cancelled, and a correction published in DOGS IN CANADA.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Kenyon, seconded by Director Davies:

"THAT, the reference to the awards to LAMBETH DUBONNET at the Toronto Kennel Club Show held on September 4th, 1948, be stricken from the records, and that a correction be published in DOGS IN CANADA, with an explanation that this action had been taken due to the fact that this dog did not have an opportunity of competing for the Winners award at this show." Motion carried.

ACTION: The Secretary was directed to inform Mrs. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Morrison of the action that had been taken in respect to this matter.

SUBJECT: The Secretary reported that the registered Labrador Retriever BLONDIE OF NORTH STAR (248686) was properly entered as a Labrador Retriever at the Moose Jaw Kennel Club Show held on September 3rd, 1948, yet the dog appeared as a Golden Retriever in the catalogue of the show and also in the judge's book where the judge evidently awarded it First in 3 classes, Winners and Best of Breed, notwithstanding the fact that other Labrador Retriever Females were entered at the show under their proper breed classification. A letter from the Show Secretary was read accepting responsibility for incorrectly designating it as a Golden Retriever, and a letter was read from the judge who stated that the error was noted at the time and that he was under the impression that action had been taken to correct the judge's book.

DISCUSSION: In discussing the matter, the Board agreed that a dog registered as a Labrador Retriever could hardly receive awards as a Golden Retriever, and, therefore, all awards earned by this dog at this show must be cancelled.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Kenyon, seconded by Director Davies:

"THAT, the win awarded to the Labrador Retriever BLONDIE OF NORTH STAR (248686) at the Moose Jaw Kennel Club Show, held September 3rd, 1948, be cancelled." Motion carried.

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from Mr. Hugh H. Allen demanding an explanation of that section of the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors, published in the November issue of DOGS IN CANADA, relative to the Fort Garry Kennel Club's selection of Mr. Allen as judge at one of its November shows and the reference to the C.K.C. Representative's report on Mr. Allen's judging at the Brandon and Fort William shows. The Secretary read letters from Director C. G. Biggar, Mr. Mark Gordon, President of the Fort Garry Kennel Club and Mr. Reg. Poole, Secretary-Treasurer of the Brandon Kennel Club, also in respect to this matter.

Vice-President Walter Brown entered the meeting.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Weller, seconded by Director Kenyon:

"THAT, Mr. Hugh H. Allen be informed that nothing appeared in the minutes published in DOGS IN CANADA which reflected on his ability as a judge or on his honesty or integrity." Motion unanimously carried.

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from the Fort Garry Kennel Club to which was attached copies of letters addressed to Mr. Robert Waters and Mr. H. H. Allen, indicating the Fort Garry Kennel Club's satisfaction with their judging at the Fort Garry Kennel Club shows held in November.

ACTION: No action was considered necessary.

SUBJECT: For his guidance in answering inquiries, the Secretary asked for a ruling as to whether the entry of litters and spayed females at Sanction shows is permissible.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Kenyon, seconded by Director Riedel:

"THAT litters are eligible for entry at Sanction Shows provided that they are properly entered, but spayed females shall not be eligible for entry at Sanction Shows." Motion carried.

SUBJECT: The Secretary referred to an occasion where a dog, holding an American C.D. title, has been erroneously entered in the Open Class at an Obedience Trial held in Canada, and when it was drawn to the attention of the owner of this dog that in order to compete in the Open Class at a Canadian Trial a dog must hold a Canadian C.D. title, arrangements had been made for the dog's transference to the Novice Class at the Obedience Trial at which the dog had been entered in the Open Class. It was pointed out that while the Dog Show Rules specifically prohibit the transference of entry after entries close, no such rule existed in the Obedience Trial regulations or rules.

DISCUSSION: In discussing the matter, the Board agreed that no action could be taken in respect to the transference of the entry referred to by the Secretary, but that action should be taken to amend the Obedience Trial Rules to prohibit a recurrence of such a transfer.

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from Mr. George Donaldson, in respect to the judging of Pointers at the Vancouver Island Dog Fanciers' Association shows held on November 24th and 25th.

ACTION: No action was considered necessary.

1176 (1101). A LETTER FROM SASKATOON FIELD TRIALS CLUB

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from the Saskatoon Field Trials Club, proposing alterations in the scale of Championship points for Pointer and Setter Trials, and recommending the recognition of established Stakes by the inclusion of specific rules in the Field Trial Rules outlining the dogs eligible for entry in such established Stakes.

DISCUSSION: The Board reviewed earlier decisions made by the Board in respect to rules for the Pointing breeds, and particularly noted the decision of the Board at the Regina meeting which indicated that rules relating to Trials for the Pointing breeds were to be reviewed in their entirety at the next annual meeting of the Board.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Vice-President Brown, seconded by Director Baker:

"THAT, the letters received from the Saskatoon Field Trial Club be placed on the agenda of the next annual meeting of the Board of Directors." Motion carried.

1181. LETTERS FROM DIRECTOR W. W. ROONEY

SUBJECT: The Secretary read letters received from Director W. W. Rooney with regard to thirteen specific matters all of which were considered fully by the Board.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Baker, seconded by Director Davies:

"THAT, these letters from Director Rooney be referred to the next annual meeting of the Board of Directors." Motion carried.

(iii) Suggesting to show officials how they may best carry out their duties and responsibilities;

(iv) By suggesting to show officials or show committees the procedure to be followed in dealing with any disputes or irregularities occurring prior to or during its championship show;

(v) And by doing such other things as the Board of Directors may deem necessary to ensure a smooth running show free from dispute or infraction of the Dog Show Rules.

SECTION 3. The C.K.C. Representative, in the performance of his duties, shall not supercede the duties and powers of the Dog Show Superintendent, but the Dog Show Superintendent is expected to be governed as far as possible by any recommendations or suggestions advanced by the C.K.C. Representative.

SECTION 4. The C.K.C. Representative shall submit a full report to the Board of Directors on all phases of a championship show which he attends, and the Board of Directors shall have the power to take such action as it deems fit and necessary so that full benefit may be realized from the attendance of the C.K.C. Representative at a championship show.

SECTION 5. In the event the Board of Directors does not see fit to authorize the attendance of a Canadian Kennel Club Representative at a show, it may appoint a member of the Board to act as C.K.C. Representative, and in such event the appointed member of the Board of Directors shall have the same duties, powers and responsibilities as a C.K.C. Representative.

9. Chapter 3, Section 8 be amended by the addition of the following words to follow "Shall not exceed one day"; "but the Board of Directors shall have the power to approve championship shows or more than one days duration when it feels that it is in the interests of Dog Shows that such approval be extended."

DISCUSSION: The Board discussed the proposals as drafted by the Secretary and agreed that changing the rules as drafted by the Secretary was not necessary since the Board's interest in having the Rules prepared was simply to enable consideration of these matters by the members at the next annual general meeting. It was agreed that these proposed amendments should also include an amendment to that section of the Dog Show Rules relating to the duration of championship shows.

ACTION: The Secretary was directed to arrange for these proposed Dog Show Rules to be sponsored by two members of the Board so that they could be placed on the agenda of the next annual general meeting.

1191. NOMINATIONS

SUBJECT: The Secretary reported that Mrs. A. R. Caruso had been nominated in the required manner for the election to the office of Director for the province of Manitoba and that Mrs. Caruso's acceptance of the nomination had been received before the deadline set forth in the Constitution. He further reported that on November 25th a telegram had been received requesting the deletion of Mrs. Caruso's name from the "nomination" list. The matter had been referred to the Club's Solicitor who had advised that it would be very difficult to definitely establish that Mrs. Caruso was responsible for the telegraphic message, and that if the request was acted upon by the removal of Mrs. Caruso's name from the Manitoba ballots, a precedent would be set which would enable any other member nominated for office to ask for and expect removal of his name from the ballots even after the ballots were printed. The Secretary reported that he had then discussed the matter with the President with the result that no action was taken to remove Mrs. Caruso's name from the Manitoba ballots.

DISCUSSION: In discussing the matter the Board agreed with the advice received from the Club's Solicitor, but it felt that action should be taken to amend the Constitution to specifically prohibit the withdrawal of an acceptance of a nomination after the deadline for the acceptances.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Kenyon, seconded by Director Weller:

"THAT, the action of the President and Secretary-Treasurer in respect to this matter, be endorsed." Motion carried.

1194 (768). CHRISTMAS BONUSES

SUBJECT: The President asked the Secretary-Treasurer to leave the meeting, and then referred to the matter of Christmas bonuses customarily decided upon by the Board of Directors at its last regular meeting in the year.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Davies, seconded by Director Weller:

"THAT, each regular member of the staff be given one week's salary as a Christmas bonus, and that $10.00 be given to Miss Jay (temporary stenographer) and $10.00 to Mr. L. Wilson (caretaker)." Motion carried.

ACTION: The Secretary was directed to convey to each member of the staff, the Board's appreciation for the services they had rendered during the past year.

1195. ADJOURNMENT

DISCUSSION: Director Kenyon stated that before the meeting adjourned he would like to pay tribute to the chairmanship of the President during the past year and stated how much he had enjoyed the past year as a member of the Board. Similar sentiments were expressed by other members of the Board present. The President in reply stated that throughout the year he had been governed by what he believed would be in the best interests of the Club, by what he believed would be the members' desires and by his own conscience and that he regarded the post of President as an honour and a privilege of serving the interests of the Club and its members.

RESOLUTION: On motion of Director Kenyon, duly seconded and carried this meeting of the Board of Directors adjourned at 4:15 p.m.

(NOTE: These minutes are subject to correction when presented for adoption at the next meeting of the Board of Directors.)
