OUR COVER

Our Cover, this month, presents the beautiful Pointer Field Trial Champion "Ariel Spunky Girl" owned and trained by Dr. Alan Secord, B.V.Sc., M.Sc., D.V.Sc., of Toronto.

We are naturally very proud of this dog, as she has not only set a record in Canada for Field Trial work, but has proven beyond a doubt that ability to work is inherited, which when followed through by proper training produces the ultimate in sporting dogs.

"Ariel Spunky Girl" is not just a Field Trial dog. Her owner believes in a dog being useful at all times and, therefore, in addition to the training which he has given her for Field Trial work, he uses her as a personal Gun Dog on his shooting expeditions.

Her granddam is Dual Champion "Sally of Moydrum", who was bred by Dr. C. A. Temple of Unionville, Ontario, and given as a puppy to Dr. Secord. "Sally of Moydrum" was sent to the United States to be bred to "Spunky Creek Boy", who holds the world's record as the sire of Field Trial Champions. His sire, in turn, "Village Boy", had held that record previously to his son taking over. From this mating came the great Field Trial winning litter, which included "Sally's Spunky Cherokee", "Saddle", "Spunky", and "Spunky Creek Chocolate", all top field dogs. Cherokee was sent to be bred to "Marvellous", a son of the great "Ariel" and "Amazon's Village Girl", the latter a litter sister to "Spunky Creek Boy".

"Ariel" had won six National Field Trial Championships at the time of his death, which occurred while he was still a young dog, so few of his progeny are alive today. In Field Trial Champion "Ariel Spunky Girl" we have, then a concentration of the best bloodlines available for Field Trial work. That this breeding leads to success is evidenced by the fact that our Cover Girl won the award for Best Derby Stake winner of the year, and won her Field Trial Championship by taking two Firsts and one Second in the Open All Age Stake.

Dr. Alan Secord is one of the most active members in Field Trial Sport. He personally trains his dogs and is a familiar figure at Field Trials throughout the United States and Canada. As President of the Ontario Bird Dog Association, (Provincial), he has done a great deal to further Field Trial Sports in Canada.

The York Retriever Field Trials

WITH an entry of the most outstanding performers in Retriever Field Trials from the United States, the York Retriever Field Trial Club held its first licensed trials at Don Alda Farms, Todmorden, Ontario, on Saturday and Sunday, July 2nd and 3rd.

The weather was unbearably hot, but the beautiful fields and the shaded waters of the Don River provided sufficient cover to make the Trials the most successful ever staged in this part of Canada.

Amongst the many outstanding Labrador Retrievers were the American Field Trial Champions "Black Panther" and "Mully Gully Goo", International Champion "Miss Dela Winn" and the bench Champion "Stowaway at Deer Creek". In Golden Retrievers, American Field Trial Champion "Ready Always of Marianhill" led the entry of eight. In addition to these there was a good entry of potential Field Trial Champions including the Chesapeake Bay Retriever, "Deerwood Trigger".

Three of America's most eminent Field Trial Judges, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Merritt of St. Charles, Illinois and Paul Bakewell, III, of St. Louis, Missouri, judged both days.

Accompanying the American entry were two of the outstanding Field Trial trainers, Orin Benson and William Wunderlich.

There were two Open All-Age Stakes for the following competitions.

1ST DAY—OPEN ALL AGE

1st Series Land (17 starters) Marked double.

Dead pheasant thrown 40 yds. to left of line. Live unshackled wing-clipped duck thrown 20 yds. to right. Two dogs failed to complete.

2nd Series Water (15 dogs back)

1st bird thrown from boat 60 yds. in front of blind into marsh grass and shallow water. 2nd bird thrown in decoys. All dogs completed.

3rd Series Land (15 dogs back) Dogs worked singly.

1st bird thrown 100 yds. in front of line over a high thick cedar hedge. 2nd bird, diversionary, thrown 10 yds. to left front of line. One dog broke.

4th Series Water (14 dogs back)

Blind 40 yds. across pond and to left of decoys 50 yds. Handlers were expected to send dog through decoys, turn him, and direct dog to blind by water. One dog failed.

5th Series Land (13 dogs back)

Blind 100 yds. in heavy oats field at edge of ploughed ground down a steep hill. Two shots were fired as a diversion 40 yds. to right of line.

6th Series Water (6 dogs back)

Triple Mark. 1st duck thrown in water to right of blind 30 yds. 2nd duck thrown in decoys. 3rd duck thrown in water 100 yds. across the pond with marsh grass in between.

7th Series Water (Extra series for "Ready Always of Marionhill" and "Cliff's Patrick")

Double blind shore birds 50 and 30 yds. respectively. Both dogs completed.

8th Series Water (Extra series for "Ready Always of Marionhill" and "Cliff's Patrick")

Blind in tall bullrushes 125 yds. across pond and 45° right from line—dog had to be directed entirely by water. Both dogs completed.

2ND DAY—OPEN ALL AGE

1st Series Land (17 starters) Two dog walk-up.

1st bird (dead pheasant) thrown 40 yds. to left front of line. 2nd bird (unshackled wing-clipped duck) thrown in heavy cover 30 yds. to right of line. All dogs completed.

2nd Series Water (17 dogs back) Triple mark on water.

1st bird thrown far out in water 50 yds. to left of blind. 2nd bird thrown 10 yds. to right of blind a few feet from the shore into water. 3rd bird thrown in front of blind into water between the decoys and shore. Two guns only were used. The second gun firing for the right bird and the bird short of the decoys. All dogs completed.

3rd Series Land (17 dogs back)

Dogs worked singly from inside area of heavy cedar boxed hedge. 1st bird (dead pheasant) thrown over hedge 20 yds. to left of dog. 2nd bird (dead pheasant) thrown over hedge directly in front of dog 20 yds. away. One dog only failed to complete.

4th Series Water (16 dogs back)

Blind on point in heavy bullrushes 60 yds. to left of line. Dogs were expected to be sent entire way by water.

5th Series Water and Land (9 dogs back) Double Mark in opposite directions.

1st bird (duck) thrown from boat in water 70 yds. with heavy marsh grass and catstails between fall and dog. 2nd bird (pheasant) thrown 100 yds. in opposite direction in extremely heavy dry marsh cover. One dog failed to complete.

6th Series Land (8 dogs back)

Double blind in line in reasonably heavy cover. Far bird 100 yds. out and directly in front of line. Short bird 40 yds. out. Dogs were expected to retrieve the far bird first. All 8 dogs completed.

While the Labradors had the strongest entry, numerically, it was the Golden Retrievers which attracted most applause from the gallery. As stated before, it was extremely hot, but the dogs paid no heed to the weather and worked with a willingness which kept the attention of the crowd throughout the Trial.

The outstanding performance on both days was that given by the Golden Retriever American Field Trial Champion, "Ready Always of Marianhill", owned by Mahlon B. Wallace of St. Louis, Missouri and handled by William Wunderlich. This dog was a very steady performer, allowing nothing to distract his attention from his handler and showing at all times a readiness to seek and obey directions. He was closely pushed by the very clever Labrador "Cliff's Patrick", owned by Gerald M. Livingston, of Huntington, Long Island, New York, and handled by David D. Elliot. Two extra series were required before the Judges were able to separate these two dogs, and the steadiness of the Golden Retriever got the nod from the Judges. David Elliot, who trained and handled the Labrador, "Cliff's Patrick", also trained dogs for the Canine Corps during World War II. In the course of his duties he was with every American invasion group that invaded the islands held by the Japanese.

Third at this first day's Trial was, perhaps, the fastest worker of the day, American Field Trial Champion "Mully Gully Goo", owned by John Sturtevant, of Wausau, Wisconsin, and handled by Orin Benson. Fourth was the Golden Retriever, "Goldwood Frisco", owned by Ambrose Lund of White Bear Lake, Minnesota and handled by William Wunderlich.

The Certificate of Merit was awarded to American Field Trial Champion, "Black Panther", owned by Carl W. Carlson, of Helena, Montana, and handled by Orin Benson. This dog's work on the fifth series—land—was most remarkable.

On the second day, the dogs appeared to have become more familiar with their surroundings, with the result that four qualified for the Certificate of Merit in addition to the Winners, where again the outstanding work of the Golden Retriever, American Field Trial Champion "Ready Always of Marianhill" gained him first place and sufficient points for his Canadian Field Trial Champion Certificate. The second place went to another Golden Retriever, "Goldwood Frisco", who had placed fourth at the first day's Trial. Third was the Labrador Retriever "Kingsdale's Inkspot", owned by W. Fiske Marshall, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, and handled by William Wunderlich. Fourth was "Cliff's Patrick", who had placed second in the first day's Trial.

Certificates of Merit were won by the Labrador Retriever, American Field Trial Champion "Black Panther", and the Golden Retriever, "Harbor City Boots", owned and handled by G. D. Alt, of Wayzata, Minnesota. Two Canadians, also won Certificates of Merit. They were the Labrador Retrievers, "Pitch Dark of Kingswere", owned and handled by D. M. Dunlap, of Toronto, and "Mark of Greeymar", bred, owned and handled by S. M. Greey, of Toronto.

"Pitch Dark of Kingswere" was very impressive in his work and would probably have placed in the first four had he not been over sharp. When on

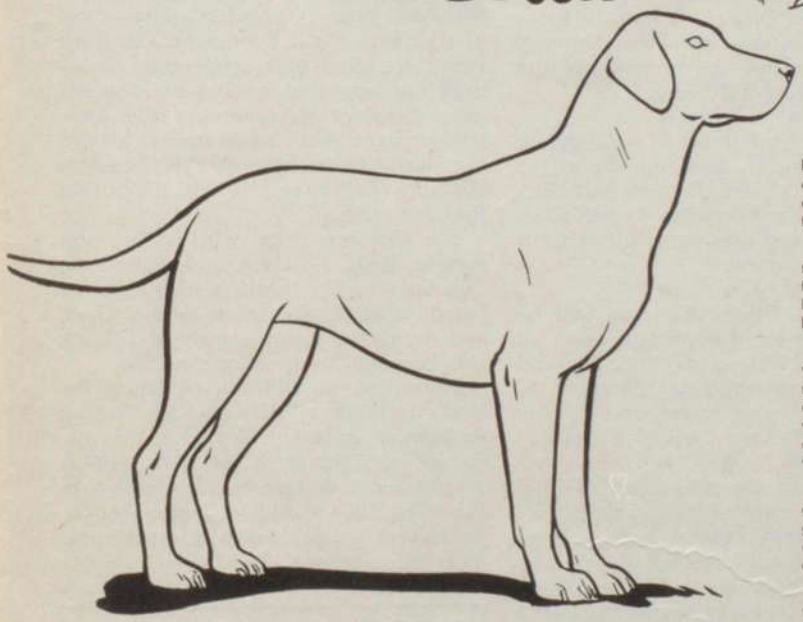
The LABRADOR RETRIEVER

Know Your Breed ...

By Alva McColl



The Labrador Retriever, originally known as the "St. John's" breed of water dog, is a strongly built, short coupled, very active dog. The coat is close, short, dense and spurns water like oil.

Height at shoulders: Dogs, 22½ inches to 24½ inches; females, 21½ inches to 23½ inches.

Weight: Approximate weights when in working condition— Dogs, 60 to 75 pounds; females, 55 to 70 pounds.

In the Labrador Retriever we have another truly Canadian dog, for this breed originated in Newfoundland. Many believe that it is a smaller edition of the Newfoundland which, when crossed with the French Poodle brought over from France by the Basque fishermen, evolved a breed which was ideal for retrieving from the water.

The heavy dog tax and lack of food curtailed the breeding of this new species by the Newfoundland people. The sporting men of England had, fortunately, imported quite a number of them, and when the Quarantine Law prevented further importations into England, the Labradors were inter-bred with other types of Retrievers and the black Pointer.

From the Poodle, the Labrador inherited a happy, co-operative spirit which endeared it to everyone. The patience and fortitude which it displays so perfectly at a Field Trial comes, no doubt, from its Newfoundland ancestry and its natural retrieving instinct comes from the Retriever and Pointer breeds with which it was inter-bred. While the Labrador was evolved with the desire to produce a dog for its working ability, it is doubtful if the breeders visualized the marvellous disposition which would also result.

One of the most distinctive features of the breed is its tail, which is commonly described as the "otter" tail. It is very thick towards the base, gradually tapering towards the tip, which gives a peculiarly rounded appearance. This tail acts as a perfect rudder when the dog is swimming. This characteristic was probably brought down from its Poodle ancestry.

That the Labrador is superb in the Retriever field is evidenced by the fact that in the Retriever Trials in which all types of Retrievers compete, the Labrador more than doubles those of other breeds placed in open competition.

The popularity of the breed is also shown in that they now rank amongst the first ten in registrations in Canada. This is probably due to the fact that it is not only the cleverest of all dogs in Field work, but is also an ideal companion and guard for the home.

In reply to the many requests regarding the shipping of dogs by Air the following advice may help to simplify this manner of transporting dogs.

T.C.A.'s Aircargo service makes the advantages of speedy transportation available for the shipment of pedigreed breeding and show dogs. Fast aircargo service which reduces time in transit, ensures arrival at destination in prime condition. This is a factor of first importance whether the dog is being moved for breeding purposes or is about to step into the show ring. In addition, reduction in time in transit makes possible the extension of the itinerary of a prize dog whether the itinerary has been arranged for breeding or show purposes.

Shipments of live aircargo may be handled on a pre-arranged basis as protected live aircargo. If 48 hours' advance notice of movement is given, T.C.A. will undertake to reserve space from point of origin to point of destination. This ensures a minimum of delay in the transporting of the animal.

The instructions below have been prepared for the guidance of shippers who wish to utilize this new, fast transportation service.

Crating: Container should be constructed of wood, aluminum or materials comparable in strength; corrugated paper or fibre board construction is inadequate. The container should be large enough to enable the dog to stand up and turn around with ease, but must not exceed 20 x 24 x 44 inches. It is desirable that the door or opening be strongly secured with hasp and lock or other suitable fastener and if lock is employed that key be attached to crate so that door may be opened without delay. Bottom of crate must be leak proof with an absorbent cushion of pine shavings, sawdust, peat moss or other material. The sides at the bottom of the crate should be at least 4 to 6 inches in height.

Due to larger aircraft being utilized on some scheduled flights, crates up to 30 x 40 x 67 inches can sometimes be accepted. This information is obtainable on request from any T.C.A. representative.

Feeding: The crate must include a container to enable watering and feeding en route. Food should be placed in a separate container attached to the outside of the crate with care being taken to ensure that sufficient food is provided for use in case of unavoidable interruption in service. Feeding instructions are to be clearly marked on the Airbill under "Instructions to Carrier". The name of the dog or any other pertinent information as to the characteristics of the dog would be helpful to the Carrier if included on the Airbill under "Description of Pieces and Contents."

General: A leash or similar article should be attached to crate for exercising purposes in case of service interruption. If any odor is notable the carrier has the right to refuse to accept the dog for transportation. The inclusion of the consignee's telephone number on the Airbill and the address label will facilitate prompt notification on arrival at destination.

It is always a good idea to have a small dog in the Kennel of a large breed and so Mrs. Alfred Roberts of the Ascot Collie Kennels has acquired a Miniature Schnauzer, American Champion Rani of Kenhoff. This beautiful little female is expecting a litter by American Champion Dorem Display, so we will not be surprised to see Mrs. Roberts exhibiting some flashy young Schnauzers at the Shows next year.

Much has been written, lately, regarding the registration of litters and individual registrations. Breeders of purebred dogs are asked if they will send applications for individual registrations at the same time as they send their litter registrations, then all can be processed together, saving considerable time and trouble. It is not necessary to wait until the litter registration is returned from Ottawa to send in individual registrations. Whether the dog is sold or remains the property of the owner makes no difference.

It is said that there are almost three hundred and fifty different breeds of dogs recognized by individual names in the world at the present time. From Japan, we now have a new breed which will probably be called "Gunjo", as that is the district in Central Japan where this breed is being developed. It is a short, hunchbacked dog only 17" in length with a face very like that of a bulldog but much more grotesque. The development of this dog has created great interest in academic circles. One wonders from what part of the evolution of a dog did this spring!

A regular visitor to our office is "Scoop", a beautiful Miniature French Poodle owned by Miss Barbara Ann Scott, the Olympic Skating Champion. Miss Scott is the only woman member of the Toronto Men's Press Club and this year the Toronto Men's and Women's Press Club, through the courtesy of Mrs. Sherman Hoyt, presented her with "Scoop", whose official name is "Blakeen Innocence Abroad". "Scoop" will accompany the talented Barbara Ann on her tour through Western Canada this coming winter, so if her show is booked in your vicinity just call around and say "Hello" to both Barbara Ann and her dog.

Every day we receive a voluminous amount of mail enquiring as to where purebred dogs may be purchased. The telephone enquiries are also very numerous. To these enquiries the reply is given that the prospective purchasers must secure the information desired through the pages of DOGS IN CANADA. It is a wonderful selling market and our Fall programme would indicate that an advertisement in our magazine will prove of great benefit to the advertiser.

The September issue of DOGS IN CANADA will feature the German Shepherd dog. A beautiful photograph of that breed will appear on the front cover, the first time a German Shepherd has appeared in that position for some considerabe time. As the September issue will be featured at all the big shows being held at the Canadian National Exhibition, it will be a big drawing card.

The October issue will feature the Poodle, both Standard and Miniature. This issue will contain also the list of members of the Canadian Kennel Club, and as many of the awards of the big shows as can be prepared in time.

December, in addition to being the best medium in Canada for selling Christmas puppies, will also feature the Parade of Champions for 1949. Photographs for this parade must arrive in this office by the 30th of September, in order that we can make this feature a most pleasing one.

Show Dogs in the Nursery Stage

By Alice Rosenthal

THE mature show dog's physical fitness, and indeed much of his real quality will depend largely on the care which he receives as a very young puppy, particularly during that all-important period just following weaning. Prior to this time nature provides an abundance of nourishment containing all of the elements essential to the proper development of the puppy. His food has been taken in a highly assimilable form. He has been fed frequently and in small quantities as befits all young, growing animals.

Now that the weaning time has come the owner must exercise real care and foresight to see that Nature's good work is intelligently carried on. You cannot take a puppy from his mother and begin to feed him just as you would a grown dog, or even a half grown one. The young puppy's stomach is small, suited only to small amounts of food. For this reason, during the first few weeks following weaning, a puppy should be fed small amounts, but he should be fed often. A good strong puppy that is thriving can possibly get along with four meals a day, but for the first few weeks following weaning, five are better. What you feed during these first few weeks is of paramount importance.

Meat and milk should figure prominently in the diet of these young weanlings. Occasionally one finds a puppy that does not relish milk, but in the main they thrive on it. The fact that cows' milk differs from bitches' milk should be borne in mind, and all milk should be whole milk, or better still should have cream added to it. Raw meat should be fed the tiny puppy—good lean beef, scraped with a knife and in this pasty form fed in small quantities each and every day. Milk can be used alone or with dry toast, well-cooked cereals, or puppy meal. It can also be beaten up with a raw egg which is an excellent food. Buttermilk, too, is valuable in the diet.

Cod liver oil should be given daily to the young puppy, the dosage of course depending on the size of the breed. Quite gradually other foods can be added to the puppy's diet—vegetables, at first mashed up fine or strained; soups and gravies which are not too rich. As maturity comes the quality of the puppy's food must change, for teeth are intended to be used and with the coming of teeth the puppy must have a much dryer, more bulky form of diet. Then a stew made by cooking beef or lamb and vegetables together, forms an excellent meal. The broth from the stew should be soaked up with a handful of broken dog biscuits so that the entire mass will be of a dry consistency. Several feedings a week should consist of raw, lean beef. Good beef bones should form part of the growing puppy's diet, which should be varied by using different vegetables; by substituting liver and other glandular organs occasionally for beef, etc. The cod liver oil should be continued and the older puppy should still be encouraged to drink milk or buttermilk. The latter provides splendid nourishment and contains valuable elements for the aid of digestion and elimination.

Aside from proper nourishment, the well raised puppy must receive his daily quota of exercise—by all means out of doors if the weather is at all permissable. Sunshine is essential to proper growth, and exercise taken on the ground, or on a cinder run will do much to harden and strengthen puppy feet. Poor feet are almost always a heritage from puppyhood and usually trace back to improper nourishment or to lack of exercise.

It seems unnecessary to mention that the quarters in which a puppy are housed should be weather-tight, have an abundance of sunshine and be kept as spick and span as possible. Bedding—and straw or cedar shavings are ideal—should at all times be fresh and dry. This covers the out-of-door puppy, but the same general rule applies to the household pet who all too frequently is banished to the cellar when night time comes. A damp cellar is no place for any puppy which you expect to grow up to be strong and healthy. In fact, only the very exceptional basement, accessible to plenty of light and sunshine, is fit for a dog. The kitchen is really the ideal spot for the house dog—be it a puppy or a full grown specimen. Here he is under the watchful eye of the housewife; here he is sure to grow up amid healthy surroundings where his food and water will not be forgotten and where any irregularities in his health will be quickly noticed.

The young puppy must of course be wormed, probably several times during his first year. Any standard worm remedy will give you full directions, or if you are dubious about doing it yourself, the veterinarian will attend to it at a very small charge. Above all things do not expect a puppy, that has not been wormed, to be healthy.

Early in life your puppy should be introduced to strange people and strange surroundings—to unusual sights and sounds. He must realize that life may be hectic but that in the main it is friendly.

It may require a bit of additional thought and care to raise a puppy properly, but a well-balanced diet, correct surroundings, and intelligent care and training will go a long way toward, eventually, getting your puppy in the Winner's Class.

Hiccuppy Hiram, C. D.

By Alva McColl

A FAMOUS dog passed away recently —famous not only in the show ring and in Obedience Trials, but as an individualist.

Hiccuppy Hiram was born during the war, in England, and spent two years in the heart of London with his owner, Miss V. E. Meyers ("Bay") of Toronto, who was engaged in war work at the time. "Hiram", as he was affectionately known, was a Staffordshire Terrier, a grandson of the famous Ch. Gentleman Jim. Like many other dogs, Hiram knew when the raids were coming long before the sirens blew the danger signal and he took these raids very seriously. Down in the tubes were frightened little children huddled with their mothers while the bombs burst overhead. Hiram would go from group to group amusing the children with a never-failing bag of tricks. As soon as the "All Clear" signal sounded, he once more became a dignified dog and went back to his mistress with not a hint of playfulness in him.

When the first V2 bomb struck, Hiram sensed danger and tried to get his mistress out of their sixth-floor apartment. Not knowing what the dog wanted, she scolded him with the words "Hiram, WILL YOU lie down." At that moment, the walls, doors and windows crashed inwards, and from that day until his death those few words made Hiram hesitate in whatever he was doing and he would lie only in the centre of the room when that command was given.

He was shipped to Canada on a cattle boat, the only means of transportation available in those difficult days. In order to avoid "U" boats, the trip took several weeks, and Hiram arrived in Toronto so emaciated that he weighed but twelve pounds. During a violent storm at sea, the cattle broke loose from their stalls and stampeded, and although noises did not frighten Hiram, later, the sight of a cow in a field would cause him to tremble with fear. One night, his mistress played a record recorded at the height of one of the bombing raids over London. Hiram was sleeping in the corner of the room and at the wail of the siren he moved to the centre of the room and lay down. He looked around, walked over to the gramophone, sensed it was only a recording and barked his defiance, then went back into the corner and lay down again.

He needed but one point for his Canadian Championship and won a three point show in the United States the only time shown there. He needed but one more win for his Companion Dog Excellent title. During his Show and Obedience Trial career he remained a dignified Staffordshire Terrier until he heard the cry of a child. He would then strain at his leash and, if allowed, would go to the crying child and put on one of his acts such as chasing his tail, like he had done for the little children in the air raid shelters in London.

He was the kind of dog which makes the world happier through his having been a part of it. There will be many other good Staffordshire Terriers in Canada but if the love for a breed can promote the development of purebred dogs, then Hiccuppy Hiram played his part in winning many admirers for his breed in this country.

The Hong Kong Kennel Club Dog Show

"THE catalogue and 1949 Year Book of the Hong Kong Kennel Club is one of the finest published in the annals of the dog game.

To celebrate the First Anniversary of their club, an All Breed show was held in Hong Kong, China, recently. The judges were Stanley Hunt, F.Z.S., of Ottershaw, Surrey, England, and Mrs. Beryl Darge, President of the Malayan Kennel Club.

236 dogs were shown, with German Shepherds having the largest entry of 33. The second largest entry was Cocker Spaniels, with 26; third largest was Dachshunds (Smooth) with 18. Bull Terriers led the Terriers with a high mark of 16, and Airedales followed with 8. The only dog entered which was not familiar to us was the Chinese Fighting dog which is registered as No. 1584. The colour is given as fawn and the breeder as Chinese: sire and dam are unknown. Apparently, this is another new breed of dog of which we will hear more later.

In addition to the Dog Show catalogue and Year Book, the complete list of registrations in the Stud Book is given, making the volume of great interest. This book is well illustrated with many interesting stories and descriptions of breeds.

In return for a $15.00 membership fee ($15 for a single person and $20 for a married couple) the members receive the following advantages: Free entry to the Annual Dog Show; reduced fees for the registration of dogs, litters, etc.; a copy of the Constitution and Rules, and a book on the preparation of dogs for competition; medallions at cost for fastening to a dog's collar for identification purposes; privilege of attending the meetings of members; free advice and assistance on any matters in connection with dogs and their pedigrees, and the use of the Club Library.

In addition to publishing the Show regulations in the catalogue, the Hong Kong Kennel Club publishes instructions as to the duties of the stewards. An item of note is the fact that the travelling expenses for the two judges was $2,914.84 (American) and the Government deducted a tax of $1,546.00. The popularity of the Show can best be ascertained from the fact that the income from the Show alone was $20,242.20, and after paying all expenses, such as building benches, etc., the club was able to contribute $2,000 to the S.P.C.A.

And this was at a one-day Dog Show.

PROVINCIAL NOTES

B.C. Mainland News

By Jean Fletcher

FRANK and Gladys Creasey are moving over to the Mainland in September.

The Lions Club in Victoria turned in a sizable cheque to buy equipment for Esquimault playground. This represented the proceeds of their May Show.

Was sorry to learn that Mrs. Oates broke her leg, but glad to know she is well on the road to recovery, as is dear old George Busby, who has been very ill.

Hilda Balshaw's dressing gown caught fire and Hilda was severely burned before the gown could be removed.

I hear rumors that the British Columbia Fox Terrier Club is going to operate again. Anyone interested should see Joe Dodds for particulars.

Once again the Kiwanis Club of Point Grey held their Dog Show. It really is the show of the year. Held in the lovely Armouries which were spotlessly clean, everything ran like a Swiss watch—no waiting, no late hours. Two exceptionally fine and well-known Judges donned the Ermine. Walter Reeves, who is known throughout Canada and United States, and Chris. Shuttleworth of California, surely need no introduction. Both Judges went over—and I do mean over—their dogs in a business-like manner. The display of trophies was like visiting a jewellery store. They were all silver, and I really think the finest we've ever had. How these Kiwanians must have worked! Out-of-door pens were in evidence—although we prefer the open ground to exercise on—but it is the wish of the City Fathers that dog shows do not allow dogs to muss up their boulevards, etc.

Three trained Collies from California did some tricks and they were good. Mrs. McEachren's much-shown "Kenmare Tailteann" was unfortunate enough to get garden lime on his whiskers—thence into his tummy. "Rudy", as he is known at home, has been a very sick dog but is now out of danger.

Mrs. G. O. Alsen is feeling better after her nasty fall at the show. W. N. Pym will judge some breeds at the next Garden show in New York. How the crowd pulled for Mrs. Kelly's little girl showing that good Maltese.

Don't forget those two shows at Kelowna, the P.N.E. shows in Vancouver, and Nanaimo and Victoria again.

Forgot to say that Best in Show under Walter Reeves was the Peke Int. Ch. Khan-Du of Jalna, owned by Zara Smith and shown by Frank Creasey. Chris. Shuttleworth found his Best in Show in Kenmare Masterpiece, owned by Eileen McEachren.

The All Toy and Boston Terrier Association held their first All Breed Show following the Kiwanis shows. The girls really did fix up the old building—nice benching, spotless and clean with the use of disinfectant, lots of flowers, clean powder room, etc. What we need, and badly, is one good building so that all Clubs can use it for shows at small rent.

Best in Show, both days, went to an Irish Setter, Int. Ch. Peter Patrick, shown by Vic. Reynolds.

The Judges were well-known Joe Dodds and Dr. Frank Porter Millar of California. The shows were over at an early hour, as also were the Kiwanis shows.

Vancouver Island Notes

By Gladys McGee

NEWS is a little scarce this month, with vacations so near, but will hope to do better next month.

I have just heard that the Creasy's of the H'in San Pekingese Kennels are removing to Vancouver to live. Our loss is Vancouver's gain and we will still hope to see them at our shows.

The J. F. O. Woods of Quandalla Kennels are feeling very proud these days. Their English Cocker "Quandalla Showmaster" played a leading role recently in a theatrical production, "The Barrets of Wimpole Street", and was a huge success, I understand. The Spaniel was trained by Mr. Wood, himself, and all who saw the play agreed that the dog was definitely stage minded and did a good job.

I would like to remind readers that this is your column, and if you don't send me your news I can't send it in. There are many new Fanciers on the Island. Why not drop me a line to tell of your doggy doings? What about all you Up Island Fanciers? Come on. Let us have your news.

On July 10th we are holding Retriever Trials at Goldstream. I will give the results in my next effort. This is the second in a series of Trials put on by the Victoria Club to encourage local owners to develop their dogs.

Saskatchewan Notes

By Burnice Heaven

THIS seems to be the time of year for my old friends, the show heebie-jeebies, to return in spades and I find tempers being worn as short as a navy haircut.

It is my firm conviction that children have a remarkable knack for acquiring money which, alas, all too often escapes us in the process of growing up. Nearly two years ago, seven year old Lucy-Clare LaBrish (better known to her friends as Tuppence) began saving the nickels, dimes and quarters raised by various means known to childhood for a horse. However, being a lover of the canine race, the horse has literally gone to the dogs; and I mean just that!

After due consideration our tiny friend decided to invest her savings in a dog—not just any dog, mind you, but a Show Dog. Although the Piggie Bank has lost its jingle, Tuppence is indeed a very happy girl with her recently imported Chow "Fu King's Hung Wong Tai" from Waterton, Wisconsin. Congratulations are definitely in order as I believe Tuppence sets a record for being the youngest Dog Fancier and Exhibitor in Canada by merit of her own endeavour to select and pay all expenses including air express for a dog of her own.

Mr. Bishopric, the owner of the Sodium Plant and other interests, is going all out in his efforts to popularize the Chesapeake Retriever. Puppies are raised and trained on his ranch at Buffalo Lake before being turned over to top sportsmen. This splendid breed is undoubtedly the peer of all sporting dogs for duck retrieving, as no matter how icy cold the waters the Chesapeake knows his duty and performs it accordingly.

The latest Moose Jaw news informs me that Mr. & Mrs. Rideout are leaving for the Coast where they will reside. Due to the sudden change in plans Mrs. Mary Miller has consented to take over the duties of the Show Secretary. Moose Jaw has well earned its title of the Friendly City, as it is one place where all dog fanciers are royally welcomed and rule as kings for the day. Your entries are looked for, so let's all shake out a dog or two and help to make the Moose Jaw Show this year a bigger success than in the past.

Edmonton Kennel Club

By G. Wells

THE Edmonton Kennel Club held a Matinee Show on the spacious grounds of Government House, Sunday, June 26th. The purpose of the Show was fully realized by the number of new dogs entered. Of the 58 dogs entered only six had been in the ring before. If these dogs are entered in our Fall Show competition will be increased.

Best of Breed received cash prizes, Best of Group and Best in Show received attractive trophies.

Sporting Group won by Judy, English Cocker, owned by Miss M. Dodds: Sporting Dogs judged by Mrs. Grant.

Sporting Hounds judged by our good friend from Calgary, Joe Fleming. He did such a nice job we hope to see him in the ring again. Sporting Hounds won by the Dachshund Felix, owned by Mrs. McClean. Working Dogs also judged by Fleming, winner German Shepherd, Faust of Normandy.

The Terrier Group was judged by Bill Quilley. In this group he gave the nod to the Airedale Terrier, Danny of Redlane, owned by J. Kilgannon.

Toy group judged by T. Quilley, won by Miss A. H. Smith's Pom, Artistic Little Tim's Sunwink. Tommy also judged Non-Sporting, the nod in this group going to Beecheys' Peter, a Bulldog.

CHOICE PREMIUMS FOR EACH SHOW

Bill Quilley did the Best in Show, giving the trophy to the Pom owned by Miss Smith.

We have lost one of our more active members due to a posting by the Air Force. F/L Aitchison and his Dobes should prove a welcome addition to whatever club he joins in the East. George's kennel name is VON WINTERBURG, so watch for him.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith of Fidalta are busy finishing the paper work prior to shipping a pair of American Cockers via C.P.A. to Hong Kong. Edmonton dog fanciers are proud that Fidalta Kennels have been chosen to supply these dogs. Here again the saying "Edmonton, Crossroads of the World" is borne out.

We are busy preparing for our Fall Show and if things continue in the way they have started it should be the best Show to date. Watch for our premium list in the near future and plan on making Edmonton one of your stops on the Fall circuit.

Manitoba Notes

By Suzanne Borse

A MEETING and demonstration for sporting dog owners and people interested in Retrieving breeds of dogs was held at Fort Whyte and was well attended. There were not the number of dogs hoped for, but the ones that did turn out in spite of the wet weather conditions gave a good showing and interest was keen.

The reason for the demonstration was to create, stimulate and increase the interest of owners of sporting dogs among the younger or novice owners, and to assist in their training by suggestions and examples; also by comparing various methods of training. It was noted that the owners of the better trained dogs were only too glad to offer constructive ideas and make suggestions as to arriving at their objective. From the remarks heard the first objective is to know what you want in your finished dog. The second objective is to know your dog, which means you must be able to know what is going on in his mind and anticipate what he is going to do next. The third objective, which, if you have not already arrived at it, is to "reach" your dog, means you are a god to your dog and his love for you is only second to the love of a mother. With these three objectives reached it is only a matter of your own ability and intelligence to convey to your dog in an understandable way what you want him to do. Kindness, patience and perseverence will gradually give you what you have hoped for—a trained dog. A dog you have trained yourself is ever a source of pride and joy and no small accomplishment.

It is hoped more of these meetings will be held regularly and that there will be enough owners of trained dogs to enable a Retriever Club to be formed and Retriever Trials held in the near future.

Mrs. H. Smith of Redboine Kennels tells me of unusual life-saving instinct in a St. Bernard only 4 months old which she sold to a couple as companion to their children. This pup was genuinely concerned about the safety of the little girl who was in swimming and was continuously pulling her out of the water. Ordinarily one would not expect to see so strong an evidence of life-saving instinct in a dog so young, but Mountie repeated this performance with a certainty that left no doubt of his intentions.

Mrs. R. Simpson, past secretary of the Greater Winnipeg Kennel Club, left for Scotland where she will spend the summer visiting her friends and relatives.

Mrs. C. Jopling, another one of our dog fanciers of long standing, left by plane for England to spend a few weeks holiday.

There is something brewing folks—the executive committee members of our three clubs here are getting together on some new ideas and plans on dog shows for next year. Let's keep our fingers crossed and hope for bigger and better shows for Manitoba for next spring.

The Fredericton Kennel Club

By Melvin B. Moore

THE Fredericton Kennel Club of Fredericton, N.B., is now two years old. It was on April 24, 1947, that fourteen people, all of whom were interested in dogs, met in the Chamber of Commerce building to discuss the possibility of forming a Kennel Club in Fredericton. The result of this meeting, which was conducted by M. D. Earle, of Saint John, was the formation of the Fredericton Kennel Club, with Dr. L. Reed as President, John Savage as Treasurer, and Paul Burden as Secretary. The annual membership fee was set at one dollar, and all present at this first meeting paid the membership. Hence our formation as a Club.

The second meeting was held on May 8th, and at this meeting the sum of fifty-five dollars in membership fees was received. While this would indicate that many people interested in dogs wished to become members of the Fredericton Kennel Club, many "paid-up" members have not taken any active part in Club activities. Our membership is good in the sense that we do have a very fair "paid-up" membership. Attendance at our regular monthly meetings averages 18 members. We think this is fair but it is not good, certainly.

At the second meeting of the Club many matters re Constitution were discussed and, as a result, a Constitution was adopted.

From the beginning one great handicap was the lack of a suitable meeting place. We have this matter nicely settled now; we joined the Community "Y" as a Club and have a fine room where we can show moving pictures and, in addition, we have access to the kitchen facilities. We feel that the tea or coffee, sandwiches and cakes, served at the end of each meeting, is a real addition. The friendly atmosphere so created adds to the enjoyment of the pleasant, informal companionship of our members.

Officers for 1947 were:

President, Dr. L. H. Reed (Boston Terriers and Boxers); Vice-President, W. W. Laskey (Pomeranian); Secretary, Paul Burden (Dachshunds); Treasurer, John Savage (Boston Terriers).

Officers for 1948 were:

President, Mrs. A. A. Rowan (Pekingese); Vice-President, W. W. Laskey; Secretary, George Pitt (Doberman Pinscher); Treasurer, John Savage; Directors, Paul Burden and Melvin Moore.

Officers for 1949 are:

President, Mrs. A. A. Rowan; Vice-President, Robert Little (Border Collies); Secretary, Allan Theriault (Wire-haired Fox Terrier); Treasurer, Vernon Saunders (Cocker Spaniel); Directors, William W. Laskey and Melvin Moore.

In June, last year, the Club held two one-day Shows. It is interesting to note that these Shows were the first in Fredericton in exactly twenty-five years. Naturally no one in our Club, with the exception of William Laskey, had had any experience with running a Show. Several of our members had had Show experience as exhibitors, but the real business of the Show was entirely new. With help, particularly from members of the New Brunswick Kennel Club of Saint John, we did get through those two one-day Shows, and had so much fun and excitement, plenty of which was not the least bit funny, that we are planning two one-day Shows again this year. As a result of last year's experience we hope to be able to give our exhibitors and spectators two very pleasant days.

Our greatest problem is that of raising sufficient funds to carry on. It may be true that all young Clubs have little money; it is true of our Club in any case. The women members and wives of the men in the Club held a very successful food sale in the winter, and it is planned to investigate the possibility of a rummage sale this autumn. We need more money in order to be able to carry out a more valuable program of meetings.

line he was so keen he broke before his number was called. Time will give him more steadiness. He has a promising future in Field Trial work.

Another Canadian entry which looked like a sure winner was "Moongate Nicholas" owned by R. A. Laidlaw and H. V. P. Lewis, of Toronto. "Nick" had the series well in hand when his handler, Mr. Lewis, misunderstood the Judge's command, and "Nick", true to his training, retrieved when his name was called instead of remaining at heel.

The lessons learned by the Canadians when confronted by top Judges and competitors will give added impetus to their endeavours in the future.

The Americans will be back next year, as is evidenced by the following letter received from Minneapolis, Minnesota.

"If participation in Field Trials will enable me to meet as many attractive people as I met in Toronto last weekend, I should be perfectly satisfied with the poor performance of my dogs. In twelve years of Field Trials, I have never attended a Trial which I thoroughly enjoyed as much as yours. I think your grounds are exceptionally fine; the mechanics of running the Trial were excellent and the hospitality was very unusual. Those of us who attended the Trial will certainly be anxious to return next year.

"I think you should be pleased with an initial entry of 18 dogs. It was only seven years ago that we were content with 12 or 13 dogs in the Open Stakes, in spite of the fact that at that time Trials had been held for five years in the Middle West.

"Thank you again for all the courtesies that you extended to me over the weekend."

CLUB NOTES

The German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada

By Walter O. Flink

OUR Club is forging ahead and plans are now definitely settled for the Annual Specialty Show to be held in September. An advertisement to this effect is published in this issue of DOGS IN CANADA.

We are, also, planning our Annual Obedience Trials, which according to a programme already set forth will be one of the finest in Canada. We are continuing to hold our classes on Wednesday evenings where the dogs are being trained in preparation for this Trial.

The Club had its ranks severely depleted recently with the sudden death of George Corser of Dixie, Ontario, and Cecil Corry of Toronto. Both were comparatively young men and their sudden demise was a shock to all of us. We will certainly miss their valuable assistance in our work.

Another valued member, and one who was such a charming hostess at our social functions, was Mrs. Edison Hayman, wife of our Vice-President (more familiarly known to most of us as "Jake" Hayman). The sympathy of the Club members and all German Shepherd lovers is extended to their families in their loss.

The German Shepherd Dog Breeders Association

By Beth Hendry

AT the monthly meeting held on June 7th, a record attendance of membership gave us great encouragement.

We are going ahead with our plans for an All Obedience Trial to be held on Sunday, September 18th, at Sandorea, Scarborough Bluffs, the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hendry.

On June 21st, the Club held a meeting for the purpose of discussing the standards of our breed and plans are now made for meetings to be held on the third Tuesday of each month to follow up the studies of the breed and to educate young judges for future shows.

Our precision drill team continues to give pleasure at all the shows it attends. We would like to take this opportunity of thanking the Junior Chamber of Commerce at St. Catherines, and the Niagara Frontier Kennel Club, for the hospitality extended to us when we attended their show recently.

Montreal Obedience Club

By R. D. McLellan

THE first obedience trained dogs ever shown in Quebec's capital city created such intense interest at the recent C.K.C. Show there that Obedience Classes are definitely planned for autumn. At the invitation of the Quebec Kennel Club, members of the Montreal Dog Obedience Training Club journeyed to Quebec to show the actual results and advantages of obedience training. Showing twice daily both days, the Montreal club's members worked first with show (but untrained) dogs to demonstrate both the need and the technique of obedience procedure. Then, with their own dogs, the Montrealers showed that obedience training results in added pleasure and comradeship as well for the dog as the owner. Quebeckers seemed particularly impressed with the working and steadiness of the dogs off leash, and their enjoyment of the group exercises which the Montreal club has developed.

The hospitality of the Quebec Kennel Club was enjoyed by Miss Dorothy Budge's Cocker "Pal" (C.D.), Mrs. R. H. Bryson's and Mrs. Alex. Chase-Casgrain's Standard Poodles "Bonzer" and "Itou of Saquenay" (C.D.X.) (International C.D.) and Mrs. R. D. McLellan's Hungarian Sheep Dog (Puli) "Pooch".

The S.P.C.A. recently graduated 43 owners and dogs from their Spring Training Course, including a group organized by residents of the Lakeshore Communities. Diplomas and prizes were presented, including a Special Children's Handling prize.

It is gratifying to note that interest in obedience training continues to increase throughout Montreal and its suburban communities, with both additional and larger classes planning operations for the fall and winter months.

Collie and Shetland Sheep Dog Club News

By Wm. Powell

YOUR humble scribe has been elected to write the news for the Club. At the last meeting the Club closed down for the Summer vacation, but not before laying plans for a wonderful Fall Programme; more about this in September issue.

A little bit of reminiscing would not be out of place. At the first Cruft's show held in 1889, Queen Victoria entered a Collie that she purchased while visiting in Scotland, and three Poms purchased in France. The judge, on finding that the Queen had these entries, hurried to Mr. Croft and said: "Her Majesty has these entries, how will I judge them?" Mr. Croft replied: "Judge them as dogs." The Queen received best of breed with her Collie, but the Poms didn't get anywhere. From then on the Collie became one of the most popular breeds.

Just ran into a new wrinkle for flies on the ears. Last year I used citronella and castor oil. The year before last I used a tar ointment. This year I am using ordinary cup grease that I got from the garage. It seems a success, the flies light on it and fly off and it only needs to be replaced once a week.

Last year when I motored 1200 miles in the United States, visiting Collie kennels, I noticed a different type of collie on the Atalntic Seaboard to that bred in the Mid-west. Since then, I have also noticed that Mid-west Judges prefer their particular type and the Atlantic Seaboard Judges have their preference also. Remember this when you are showing.

Some of the members are reporting large litters. George Getty had two with 14 and 15—another breeder had 16. Glad to hear that they did not expect their bitch to be a milk factory and destroyed some. Remember it is much better to have one good pup than 12 runts.

Third Annual Specialty Show English Springer Spaniel Club of Canada

WITH the beautiful grounds of Birchwood Hall, the lovely estate of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Gudgeon at Bronte, for a background, the Third Annual Specialty Show held by the English Springer Spaniel Club of Canada lacked but one thing and that was the presence of the host and hostess. Unfortunately, they had been called abroad by illness in the family, but insisted that the "Show should go on", and in their absence, Hazel Mell made a charming hostess. Lovely weather, good dogs, a good judge and fine sportsmanship all worked together to make for a fine day; and for the winners there were beautiful trophies and generous money prizes as well as a goodly number of points.

Andrew H. Dunn, Port Credit, long-time breeder of English Springer and English Cocker Spaniels, passed on the dogs with the entry including some top-winning ones from both Ontario and New York State. The American and Canadian Champion, Walpride Sandeman, added one more sprig to his laurels by taking top honors. Owned by Robert J. Walgate of Buffalo, this black and white has been consistently winning in the past year. Following close behind his sire was the puppy, Covington Nim-Beau owned by Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Lymburner of Humberstone. The Puppy won the Sweepstake and went on to Reserve Best in Show taking Best of Winners, Best Canadian-bred Puppy and Best Canadian-bred in the Show along the way, after having won the Senior Puppy Class. The points winner in the bitches was a tri-color, black, white and tan, Walpride Sensation, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Walgate. Ridgecroft Rosa, owned by Edgar Langlois of Thorold was best Field Trial Bitch.

The sweepstake was an innovation this year bringing out a nice entry. In the males, Covington Nim-Beau was first with his litter brother, Covington Ace Reporter II. Third place went to A. J. Gibbon's Barillia Park Rambler. Robert J. Parker's Ginger Girl of Parker's took the honors in the bitches in the sweep.

Following the judging of the dogs, exhibitors and spectators gathered informally about the grounds and later, a dinner for thirty-five was held at the New Murray Hotel at Oakville. Fred Stickel, Welland, president of the club welcomed guests and remarked on the fine support which had been given by exhibitors from across the border and expressed the hope that the fine relationship would continue.

W. G. Pietz, Humberstone, was ring steward for the show with G. D. Lawless, Hamilton, superintendent. Mrs. J. T. Brown of Port Nelson was in charge of the beautifully arranged trophy table.

The Forum

On page 8, June issue of DOGS IN CANADA, there is an article, "The Origin, Spreading and Combat of Cryptorchism". It would be interesting to know that if a Monorchidism dog or a Cryptorchism can be rewarded in a Show.

Is a Cryptorched a vice susceptible for an annulment of sale, as is it not a hidden defect?

J. A. Robitaille,
Montreal.

Answer:

Your first question—According to the Dog Show Rules the judge's decision is final as regards the merits of a dog. Therefore, in the majority of cases it is for the judge to decide if Monorchidism or Cryptorchism typifies a sound dog. If he should decide to the contrary, he must call a veterinarian for consultation and if it is proven that the dog has physical defects which do not warrant awarding a prize, then the award may be withheld, but a written certificate to that effect must be signed by the judge and sent to the Canadian Kennel Club, together with the judge's books.

As the Canadian Kennel Club recognizes the standard of purebred dogs issued by the American Kennel Club, we in Canada must be guided thereby. The breeds which state Monorchidism and Cryptorchism as disqualifications can be found in the standards of the breeds as published in "The Complete Dog Book". For instance, in the German Shepherd breed the standard covering that section reads as follows:

Disqualifying faults—Albino characteristics; cropped ears; hanging ears (as in a hound); docked tails; monorchidism; cryptorchidism.

Answering your second question:

A dog, according to law, is a chattel within the meaning of the sale of Goods Act and contracts for the sale of dogs are governed by the relevent section of that Act.

One can hardly call cryptorchidism a vice for an annulment of sale unless the goods which form the subject of a contract of sale are in existence at the time of the contract or are goods which are to be manufactured or acquired by the seller after the making of the contract. The latter are known as "future goods" and are subject of an agreement to sell only. For instance, if a dog is purchased for breeding purposes it would be necessary to state in the contract for sale that the dog is capable of siring pups, then if the dog was proven sterile the purchaser would have recourse through the courts. A contract, according to English law, that purports to effect an actual sale of "future goods" operates as though it was an agreement to sell.

BOOK REVIEW

CARE AND TRAINING OF DOGS. By Arthur Frederick Jones. Published by Prentice-Hall, Inc., New York, U.S.A.

Whether it's a sporting dog or a working dog, a hound, terrier or toy, this is a handbook that will help every dog lover choose, raise and train a good dog. Here besides are histories, descriptions and appraisals of every one of the 111 purebred dogs recognized by the American Kennel Club. In addition to that, there is an accurate pen and ink drawing of every breed. Arthur Frederick Jones, widely conceded to be America's number one expert on dogs, here brings you the equivalent of long years of experience in handling breeds of every type. His advice on how to go about selecting, raising and training your dogs bears the stamp of absolute authority.

Big or little, male or female, long-haired or smooth-coated, gentle or fierce, there is a whole world of dogs to choose from and each dog can be as much of an individual as any human. Better think carefully before deciding which dog you will allow to adopt you. A big dog may eat his way through your budget and a little dog may not be as good with children. But the right dog for you will give years of loyal companionship that will far outweigh considerations of original cost and daily care.

Whatever dog you like, the author tells you how to make sure you get a good example of a recognized breed—a pup which is registered, healthy, inoculated against distemper and has been properly raised from birth. Beware the gift pup and the pet shop dog of dubious antecedents—ill-health and bad traits are almost sure to crop out.

The proper food and a balanced diet are most important. The author furnishes menus for giant and toy, puppy and full grown, travelling or working or just loafing at home—with reasonable latitude for individual likes and dislikes. Training and grooming are fully discussed—training from housebreaking to obedience trials and grooming from pet standards to champion show dog form. Shows aside, trained dogs play their useful parts in the armed services, in hunting, in pulling sleds, in guarding children and property, in guiding the blind, in rehabilitating the injured and sick and in dozens of other ways. Good training should be good fun for man and dog alike, and the author tells you how to combine your patience with the dog's intelligence to achieve the best results and the most fun.

There is a section on home medicine that will get the dog owner through all the minor ailments his dog can develop—from fleas and mange to worms and fits. The book contains a wealth of information pointed up with wonderful stories from the author's lifelong experience with dogs of all sorts. It is a book that every dog lover will read with joy and keep for reference as long as he has a dog around.

The Dog Writers' Association refer to this book as follows: "Care and Training of Dogs, by Arthur Frederick Jones, is very much appreciated by the members of the association. It is receiving favorable comment everywhere, and should become a standard reference work. Art's quiet humor and good nature are very evident throughout the volume".

OUR DOGS. A Text-book on the Feeding, Training and Care of all Breeds. By C. E. Harbison. Published by Orange Judd Publishing Co., New York, U.S.A.

This book is the outgrowth of many years of research and experience and gives instruction invaluable to all dog fanciers, in addition to its telling how a dog should be trained, fed and kept in condition. The volume also describes the causes and symptoms of the diseases of dogs, as well as their remedies and treatment, also instructions covering injuries, poisoning, etc.

The present edition has been revised and brought up to date. In several instances the text matter has been somewhat rearranged and new chapters have been added. A number of the illustrations have been changed and new illustrative material added which will greatly enhance the value of the text.

Everything that a dog owner should know for his dog's well being is here presented in plain, easy to understand, non-technical language.

Mr. C. E. Harbison, recent Editor of Ken-L-Bits, is one of our foremost authorities on dogs. Not only has he given untiringly of his vast knowledge of dogs, but he has devoted his life to their cause. This new book is a text-book on the feeding, training and care of all breeds and is written in a simple, effective manner which will help the breeders of but one or two dogs as well as the owner of extensive kennels. Of the vast army of books confined to dogs now on the market, OUR DOGS rates a definite place in each dog owner's library.

MEETINGS

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors will be held on the third Wednesday of each month.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
MAY 18th-June 1st, 1949

The meeting of the Board of Directors, which commenced on May 18th, 1949, reconvened in the offices of the Canadian Kennel Club, 667 Yonge Street, Toronto, on Wednesday, June 1st, 1949, at 5 p.m. The President, W. J. Risewick, presided. Officers and Directors present included Walter Brown, Paddy Boughs, George P. Davies, A. Roberts and D. Riedel.

1349 (1313). FINANCIAL MATTERS

SUBJECT: The President pointed out that the Board had, at its last meeting, discussed briefly the fact that while revenue directly attributable to the Club's activities in respect of shows and trials was very little, its financial obligations and costs were quite substantial. He explained that the purpose of this further discussion was to analyze the financial structure of the Club with a view to devising ways and means of more properly assessing the charges, so that the bulk of the costs may not be borne by breeder-members as is now the case.

DISCUSSION: In discussing figures produced by the President, the Board noted that:

1. The revenue from shows and trials in 1948 amounted to less than $1,600, yet known costs in that connection amounted to over $21,000, without any allowance being made from overhead costs.
2. While the average membership fee paid in 1948 amounted to $4.22 known costs in connection with each member (exclusive of overhead costs) amounted to $5.29.
3. Revenue produced by registrations and transfers amounted to $48,761.30 yet costs for handling these items at the Canadian National Live Stock Records totalled $16,480.97 which meant that the balance of $32,000.00 was used to subsidize the Club's operations in respect of members, dog shows and field trials, etc.
4. Regardless of whether a dog is owned by a member or not, the same show and field trial records are maintained and the same facilities provided in the way of certificates, etc.

Consideration was given the following possble way of achieveing a more equitable distribution of charges:

1. The show-giving club to be charged a license fee for a show, this fee to be based on the importance of the show, its duration, and the number of dogs entered.
2. A set license fee for each field trial and obedience trial held under the rules of the club.
3. A charge for services rendered non-members of the Club show dogs are entered at Championship shows and field trials.
4. The setting up of two classes of memberships, one to pay a higher fee and to enjoy all the privileges of the Club, the second class to pay a lower membership fee and to enjoy all privileges of the Club except the right to vote, be elected to office and receive the Stud Book free of charge.

The President suggested that consideration might be given to naming the sire and dam only on certificates of registration with an additional charge for certified 3 generation pedgree if desired by the breeder or owner. He pointed out that no great financial saving could be realized on following this procedure so long as the Club maintains its records at the Canadian National Live Stock Records, since there would be a per-transaction charge per registration regardless of the information appearing on the certificate of registration.

ACTION: It was agreed that the members should be informed through DOGS IN CANADA of the present unfair distribution of charges arising out of the present inequitable system of assessing fees. It was left in the hands of the President and Secretary to prepare this message to the members, which would, at the same time, invite their views on what should be done to correct the situation and prevent further operational losses on the Club's over-all operations.

1350 (1313). LETTERS RE C.K.C. REPRESENTATIVE

REPORT: The President reported that he had, following the last session of the Board, addressed letters to all members of the Board outside the Province of Ontario, seeking their views with regard to the future activities of the C.K.C. Representative, particularly in view of the letters received requestng his services.

Letters were read from Second Vice-President Williams and Directors Mrs. Alsen, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Moore, Mrs. Riome and Mr. Pratt—these indicated a consensus of opinion that while the Club could not financially afford to resume the policy in effect last year, the services of the Representative could be made available providing Clubs seeking and obtaining such services were prepared to pay travelling and other expenses incurred by the Representative in attending shows or trials.

DISCUSSION: In discussing arrangements which would make it possible for the Representative's services to be made available on request, the Board noted that the contract with the Representative called for a five-day week, and that the Representative is therefore entitled to days away from the office equal to the week-end days (Saturdays and Sundays) on which he attends and travels to or from shows or trials. The Board also noted that since the Representative is presently engaged in office duties when not attending shows or trials, it would be necessary to make arrangements for other personnel to discharge such duties in the absence of the Representative, and this would result in increased cost for salaries.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Riedel, seconded by Director Roberts:

"THAT, Clubs holding shows and trials before December 31st, 1949, be informed that the services of the C.K.C. Representative are available on the following conditions:

1. A charge of $12.00 per day for each day of the show or trial.
2. The show or trial giving club to pay the C.K.C. Representative's travelling and out-of-pocket expenses in attending its show or trial.
3. Payment of the per-day charge for travelling and out-of-pocket expenses to be made direct to the Canadian Kennel Club following the billing of the show or trial club by the Canadian Kennel Club.
4. Any expenses incurred by a show-giving club in respect of these arrangements shall not be passed on to exhibitors in the way of increased entry fees or other charges."

Motion carried.

ACTION: The Secretary was directed to inform clubs scheduled to hold trials and shows before the end of the year of the terms of the above Resolution, and to point out that these charges will not be sufficient to cover the CanadianlKennel Cub's expenses for the services of the Representative made available for the Canadian Kennel Club would be losing the services of the Representative while he is attending a show or trial, travelling to a show or trial, as well as for such free time as he is entitled to by virtue of his contract.

1354. PRINTING OF THE CONSTITUTION

SUBJECT: The Secretary reported that the supply of the printed copies of the Constitution was exhausted.

DISCUSSION: In discussing the advisability of having the constitution re-printed and distributed to members, the Board agreed that it would be advisable to hold the matter in abeyance since it appeared highly likely that the new Live Stock Pedigree Act, considered by Parliament before the House was dissolved, may be introduced to the House when it next convenes.

1354. LETTER TO MR. R. G. T. HITCHMAN

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from Mr. Hitchman in respect of payment of incidental expenses having to do with the Canadian Kennel Club only, and suggested that a small Petty Cash fund be set up in the Live Stock Records office to take care of such items.

ACTION: The Secretary was directed to provide the Canadian National Live Stock Records with the sum of $10.00, and request that itemized statement of expenses paid be furnished periodically for auditing purposes.

REPORT: The Secretary reported on the following applications for dates:

Sept. 3rd, 4th and 5th—Saskatoon Field Trial Club (field trial for all pointing breeds);
Sept. 14th and 15th—New Brunswick Kennel Club.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Riedel, seconded by Vice-President Brown:

"THAT, the applications for dates reported on by the Secretary be approved conditional that such applications meet the requirements of the Rules." Motion carried.

REPORT: The Secretary reported that due to the inability of Mr. W. H. Pym to keep a judging engagement at the Victoria Lions Club show held on May 28th, the Victoria Lions Club had selected Mrs. Mary D. Gardner, Edmonton, to substitute for Mr. Pym, and since this arrangement had the approval of the B.C. Director, Mrs. G. O. Alsen, the show-giving Club had been informed that the change of judge had been approved.

ACTION: The Secretary's action was endorsed.

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a reply received from Mr. H. D. Bixby, Executive Vice-President of The American Kennel Club, in answer to the enquiry addressed to the American Kennel Club regarding the Brant Kennel Club's selection of Mr. Lee S. Wade, Cleveland, Ohio (an American professional handler) as judge of all breeds in Groups 1 and 2 (except all Cockers) at its show to be held on August 6th, and an enquiry received regarding the eligibility of Mr. Bert Heath to judge in Canada.

The Secretary reported that after consultation with the local members of the Board, he had asked the Brant Kennel Club to submit an alternative selection, and the name of Mr. Oscar C. Pierson, Cainsville, Ont., had been submitted as a substitute for the judging of the breeds previously assigned to Mr. Wade.

ACTION: The Secretary was directed to include the name of Mr. Pierson in the list of those previously approved to judge at the Brant Kennel Club show.

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from the Brant Kennel Club requesting permission to hold an Obedience Trial in connection with its championship show on August 6th, with Mr. B. R. Stitt as judge of the Obedience Trial Classes.

1358. LETTER FROM HEDLEY E. HULL

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from Hedley E. Hull, Dorchester, Ont., who alleged that a part of the advertisement placed in the May (1949) issue of DOGS IN CANADA by William Powell, Toronto, Ont., created an erroneous impression as to wins made by the dog referred to in the advertisement. Mr. Hull stated that advertising copy should be checked "for facts" before being set in type.

ACTION: The Secretary was directed to:

(a) Inform Mr. Hull that the Board of Directors is of the opinion that the Managing Editor cannot be expected to check on the accuracy of statements contained in advertisements submitted for publication in DOGS IN CANADA, and official reports of awards made at championship shows are published in the magazine for the benefit of those interested in obtaining such information;
(b) Refer Mr. Hull's communication to the Managing Editor with a recommendation that Mr. Powell's attention be drawn to the fact that a letter has been received questioning the accuracy of that part of Mr. Powell's advertisement referred to in Mr. Hull's communication.

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from E. Summerfield, London, Ont., who complained that the judge of German Shepherd Dogs (Dr. T. D. DISCUSSION: In discussing Mr. Summerfield's communication, the Board agreed that regardless of any oral statements made by the Judge, his awards as marked in the judge's book must be considered final so long as such awards were consistent with the ribbons handed out by the judge in the ring.

DSCUSSION: It was suggested that in offering the medals, it should be made clear that the two medals are not to be won by a dog or dogs owned by the same person or persons.
It was agreed that the offering should indicate that if a member whose dog won THE W. H. PYM MEDAL also earned the most Best Canadian-bred in Show awards, then THE JAMES D. STRACHAN MEMORIAL MEDAL would be awarded to the member whose dog won the next highest number of Best Canadian-bred in Show awards.

1376 (1374). DATES

A delegation representing the Sportsmen's Kennel Club entered the meeting, the delegation consisting of Mr. H. W. Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. FitzGerald, and Miss Faye Fox.

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from the Sportsmen's Kennel Club requesting that a delegation from the Club be permitted to appear before the Board of Directors to speak on its application for permission to hold two two-day championship shows on March 22nd, 23rd, 24th and 25th, 1950.

DISCUSSION: The delegation submitted that:
(a) In order to obtain the services of outstanding judges it is necessary to make plans months in advance of a show, but such arrangements could only be made if the show-giving club was certain that it could hold a show or shows on a given date or dates;
(b) The number of dogs entered at each of the last two shows held by the Sportsmen's Kennel Club clearly indicated that they could not expect to have judging completed at a reasonable hour;
(c) Costs for a large championship show are such that in order to ensure a profitable show a minimum of two days is essential so that other costs can be redeemed from gate receipts.

The President pointed out that the Board of Directors had given much thought to the financial structure of the Canadian Kennel Club, and was satisfied that because of the high costs to the Club because of its operations in respect of shows and trials, it appeared to the Board that some arrangements would be necessary to obtain revenue from shows and trials since breeders were now subsidizing every branch of the Club's operations to an extent that could not be considered fair.
While indicating that he did not altogether agree with the statements indicating costs to the CKC re shows and trials, Mr. Cowan agreed in principle with contention that part of the profits on a show or trial should be turned over to the Canadian Kennel Club. Mr. Cowan stated that a show-giving club could supply the Canadian Kennel Club with a balance sheet and statement of revenue and expenses and these statements could form the basis of arriving at some form of acceptable arrangement in keeping with the principle referred to. He indicated that the Sportsmen's Kennel Club would be willing to do so.
The Delegation then left the meeting on being assured that it would be promptly informed of the Board's decision in respect of its application for dates.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Boughs, seconded by Director Riedel:
"THAT, the applications of the Sportsmen's Kennel Club for permission to hold two two-day championship shows on March 22nd, 23rd, 24th and 25th, 1950, be approved subject to the rules, regulations and conditions existing at the time of these shows." Motion carried.

NOTE: Director Roberts asked to be recorded as having voted against the resolution.

1379 (1349). FINANCIAL MATTERS

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a message, drafted by the President and himself, to appear in the July issue of DOGS IN CANADA.

DISCUSSION: The Board agreed with the message as prepared but also agreed that some reference should be made to the effect that while the business of the Club had increased substantially over the period of the past few years, the staff in Toronto office had not increased over the period of the past two years and is not considered adequate to provide the services which the Board feels should be provided.

ACTION: The message was ordered amended as agreed upon by the Board, and was ordered passed to the Managing Editor for publication in the July issue of DOGS IN CANADA.

"It is the Kennel owner's answer to rising costs"

. . . says Rev. Alfred A. Maloney

"Your Kibbled Meal is the kennel owner's answer to rising costs," Rev. Alfred A. Maloney, of Brantford, Ont., well-known breeder and exhibitor of Cocker Spaniels, tells us. (Here is a sample of the kind of dog he breeds, and feeds.)

Here's what Mr. Maloney thinks of Dog Chow, in his own words: "It is not only reasonably priced, but economical to use . . . more satisfying. Our dogs are now in better condition than ever before, and without the use of additional meats.

"We have produced and shown winning Cocker Spaniels for some time, but never have we been able to condition a specimen for show as quickly as we do now on Dog Chow. It produces both the luxuriant coat and good bone so desirable in a show dog. I have found it all that can be desired in dog food."

PURINA DOG CHOW IS THEIR CHOICE

Real economy. Real results. There are the twin reasons why you find more and more leading kennels depending on Purina Dog Chow for nutrition.

There's a reason for those results . . . 55 years of experience in the manufacture of animal feeds, 23 years of research into the special nutritional needs of dogs. There's a reason for the economy in feeding Dog Chow, too — in fact, several reasons: First, it's a dry food . . . you don't pay for water! Second, experience and research tell its makers how to build and balance it for effective and complete nutrition, reducing waste and the quantity it's necessary to feed. And third, it's most reasonably priced.

If you buy in any substantial quantity, the Purina Courtesy Card plan will cut your cost still lower. See your Purina dealer, at his Store with the Checkerboard Sign — ask him about the Courtesy Card.
