Championship Food for Champion Dogs!

For over eighty years Spratt's entire efforts have been devoted to the preparation of better foods for healthier, happier pets. No other organization has done more for the breeder . . . the owner . . . in this important field.

To keep teeth and gums healthy . . . to properly stimulate digestion . . . dogs need food they can tear, break and crush. So always keep their meals as dry as possible.

Spratt's IS a "properly prepared" dry food. It is CRISP-BAKED so it can't be wolfed down. It must be chewed.

Besides being a natural food, SPRATT'S is a complete food . . . assures strong healthy dogs . . . sturdy limbs, thick glossy coats.

Spratt's Dog Meal too is excellent for breeders. It has been produced through many years of experience for which Spratt's are famous.

TAKE MY WORD
FOR IT. DOGS HAVE PREFERRED SPRATT'S

OUR COVER

Our Cover this month is of that sensational Great Dane, Champion Fingard's Count, shown winning Best of Breed at The Progressive Kennel Club of Canada Inc. show. The judge is George P. Davies of York Mills, Ontario, one of the world's foremost authorities on Great Danes, and the Handler is Malcolm Bell of Millgrove, Ontario, noted handler and judge. In addition to winning Best in Show all breeds—at Brantford, Ontario, and Saint John, New Brunswick, respectively—Champion Fingard's Count has added another Best in Show by taking that award at the Quebec City Kennel Club Show held in that city on May 27th under Judge J. Whitely. This marks the third occasion that this dog has won Best in Show all breeds, which is believed to be a world's record for the breed. A Canadian bred Great Dane has won Best in Show All Breeds only five times in the history of the Canadian Kennel Club. Champion Fingard's Count has accounted for three of these awards; another was won by a daughter of Champion Fingard's Odin, brother to Champion Fingard's Count.

That Fingard's Count comes from a line of illustrious champions is borne out by his sire's pedigree, which includes Champion Duke of Roxdane (Best of Breed at Madison Square Gardens, New York City, in 1940), Champion Steinbachers King, Champion Wiskow Kadow of Brae Tarn, and Champion Peer Gynt's Erl-king.

His dam is Fingard's Champion Wischers Duley. Not only was she a great winner, herself, in the show ring, but she comes from such noted breeding as Champion Muldoon (Best of Breed at Madison Square Gardens, New York City, 1942), Champion Randolph Hexengold, Champion Nero Hexengold, Champion Gunar von Hollergarten of Walnut Hall, Champion Allure of Brae Tarn, one of the greatest of the great producers in Great Dane history, and that outstanding pillar of the breed from Germany, Champion Odin Von Birkenhof, the sire of Champion King Von Loenhart, who holds the world's record for awards in the show ring for the breed.

Fingard's Count was bred and is owned by David Fingard, who is believed to have bred more Great Dane Champions who in turn have produced champions, than any other breeder of Great Danes in Canada.

Not only is Champion Fingard's Count a great winner in the show ring but he is producing puppies of extraordinary quality, and they, too, are winning in the show ring today.

The Professional Handler

by C. E. Harbison

FUNDAMENTALLY, it is perhaps the universal urge to dab into another man's art—or better still, the American's newly found enjoyment of leisure—that has made men and women turn in annually increasing numbers to the fascinating sport of owning, breeding and showing pure-bred dogs. The vast majority of these novices have a meagre knowledge of the dog game, as we are pleased to call it, of its complexities and its practices. It is to the professional handler, a man skilled and experienced in every canine detail, that they must look sooner or later for assistance in furthering their understanding of dogs and the many aspects and phases of the game itself.

That is as it should be. For the true story of the dog will never be completely written until it has a full and comprehensive chapter on the men and women whose business is wrapped up so tightly with our dogs. It is they who so often spot the potential champion; they who, because of their ability and experience, give the puppy poise and beauty and assurance. In a word, it is they who oil and keep the wheels of dogdom going on the right track.

For handling is both an art and a profession. It requires keen intelligence and much experience coupled with an ability to do things with the hand co-ordinating with the mind. It can be done only by those who have a natural talent for it. It is just like painting or music or writing or any of the other arts in which an inherent aptitude is needed. But above all, there must always be present an innate love of dogs and a desire to see them in top form regardless of time, energy or anything else. It is these qualities that are found in the successful professional handler.

Handling is just as much a profession as is doctoring or the law or business, and its members know more about dogs than any other body of men in the dog world today. They give their lives to it and they live by it. The financial gains from professional handling have often been discussed. The top-notchers, during the course of a year, earn a fair salary but it cannot quite compensate for the long years of arduous apprenticeship they've spent in some high-class kennel, learning their trade and their dogs. At the start, the handler's pay was nothing; his hours stretched from one end of the year to the other; but it was training. He spent weeks in learning how to pose a dog; how to groom it successfully and how, by almost the very touch of his hands, to size up the good and bad points of a particular dog. In his work, he acquired a pretty good knowledge of medicine and many professional handlers today know, from a practical standpoint, how to give necessary first aid to a dog.

In short, the professional handler is what the name implies; a man or woman who has become perfected in all branches of the sport of dogs. The handler is one jump ahead of the expert private fancier perhaps because he has more at stake—his reputation and his livelihood depend upon his knowing everything about dogs! And he's many jumps ahead of the novice exhibitor because he has served his own novitiate with a more serious purpose in view. I have heard it said that a successful handler has to sleep with one eye open all the time. For while he does have his day mapped out and planned from the moment he rises at five or six in the morning, there is always the unexpected element in caring for dogs that is bound to crop up at a moment's notice.

We will dwell upon the part played by the professional handler in the care of the pet dog later in this article, but let us now take some concrete instances of where he can be of use to the novice exhibitor.

Mr. Smith (that is always a safe name) decides to buy some dogs after he has visited a number of kennels in England one summer. He makes his purchases; the dogs, grand specimens of their breed arrive in America in tip-top shape. Mr. Smith's business takes a great deal of his time; he can't spend too many hours on his dogs, and so the gardener or the butler or the chauffeur is delegated to the task of caring for the dogs, which represent, let us say, an investment of some $3,000 to Mr. Smith. The dogs are fed anything at any time; they grow listless, the coats lose their gloss, but Mr. Smith takes the string to the next show, full of anticipation and with an eye to the blue rosette. He knows nothing about showing, only what he's observed from attending a few shows before. It looks easy. He does a clumsy job in the ring, the dogs are beaten, and in a minute the dog game looks crooked and sour to Mr. Smith.

Mr. Jones, on the other hand, buys dogs of the same calibre as did Mr. Smith, but upon his return to America, he consults a well-known professional handler. After their many talks together, he realizes that, although he's had dogs all his life, he knows absolutely nothing about the art of showing or, more important still, of getting a dog ready for judging. His dogs are sent to the kennels of the handler, to whose care they are entrusted. They are kenneled in light, airy pens; exercised regularly and trained to show. They gain every day in poise and condition, and Jones was never so excited as when the puppy took the blue ribbon. He's an enthusiastic rooter for his professional handler. He admits he doesn't know an awful lot about the dog game, but he's learning. What is more, the value of his initial investment has increased—people want to breed their dogs to his stock, and he's opened up for himself an exciting and fascinating hobby, which he can't measure in a tangible way.

The professional handler will take care of each dog in his kennels as his own. It is here that his years of experience in the grooming and conditioning of show dogs come into play and work to the advantage of both the owner and the dog. You can have your dog's coat plucked in the proper way; his nails trimmed and the dog put in top form generally. In most cases, the successful professional handler will know instinctively what is wrong with your dog, why he is listless or thin or too fat, and, by the same token, he knows the cause of the trouble, and how to correct it. His kennel facilities are of the best; as a matter of fact, many professional handlers are installing air-conditioning and radiant heating in their kennels.

You need have no fear for a moment that your dog will be returned to you in anything but better condition than he was before. For he will be fed and exercised regularly and well. In addition, a stay at a professional handler's kennels will solve the problem of what to do with the female dog when she comes in season. In this way, you will not only banish the fear of mismating, but the grooming and conditioning she will get will make her a livelier, happier and better companion.

On the other hand, many dogs get out of condition when they are about three or four years old. First of all, their coats fall out; there's a general apathy about them, and it isn't long before they look like anything but the smart, healthy little puppies they once were. It may be due to improper feeding methods, lack of grooming or indifference on the part of the owner. Here is a made-to-order job for the professional handler, for with a change of scenery and a concentration on their diets and grooming, the dogs gain immeasurably in health and condition.

First, last, and always, remember that it is the professional handler who knows all the intricacies of the art of grooming, stripping and conditioning. You don't find the exhibitor trusting his winners to amateurs or to those who do these things as a sideline, and neither should the family pet owner. Feel absolutely confident that the job the professional handler will do will be the best in the world and will show years of experience in the proper technique of grooming, stripping and conditioning. You'll have no regrets and you'll leave his kennels with the assurance that your dog is in top form.

When it comes to the question of training, the professional handler is, by experience and natural ability, a good trainer. He realizes that dog training can never be reduced to a system of arbitrary rules; that there is always an unknown and variable quantity which governs the application of the training—namely, the disposition and intelligence of the dog. Again, his experience comes into play, for he can quickly and correctly diagnose the faults and capabilities of his charges. He knows how to eliminate those faults and to make the most of those capabilities.

No doubt the reason for the present success and the prominence of the professional handler may be attributed to the association which binds these men together, a self-regulated association which has jurisdiction over all its members, and one which countenances no wrong doing, no inexperience and no dodging of responsibilities. A man wearing the PHA insignia has won his place as an accepted member in good standing and to him the fancier who needs someone to take his dogs out and win, as well as the individual owner whose dog is in need of conditioning or grooming or training, can turn in every confidence. The professional handler is the mainstay and backbone of the sport of dogs; breeders and exhibitors often overlook this, but his part and his contribution to the betterment of dogs can never be measured by any tangible yardstick.

Let the Buyer Beware

by Douglas L. Hunt

MY two greatest interests have always been books and dogs. I would almost rather read than go to a dog show. When it has been possible to combine reading with dogs, I have been especially happy. So I think I have done about as much reading about dogs as almost anyone, and ever since I have owned a dog, which is about as far back as I can remember, I have read the dog magazines avidly. I have, I think, read them all at one time or another and most of them all the time. And that statement means that I read the advertisements as carefully as I do the news columns.

So I think I have a right to speak of advertising copy and how it sounds to me. Most of it is uninspired, I find, but very little of it is intended to be misleading. And of the little that might mislead a prospective purchaser, I am sure that ninety-nine per cent of it is the result of ignorance rather than intended viciousness.

I especially would warn the prospective puppy buyer against the ad that claims perfection.

A Perfect Ad, or a Perfect Dog? . . .

The other day I received through the mail an advertising brochure of a kennel specializing in Boxers. I have followed Boxer breeding for more than fifteen years, and this kennel was unknown to me. I believe it must be fairly new and that its owners are novices. The material I have come unsolicited to me through the mail and it is, I must say, extremely attractively gotten up. It sings the praises of a stud dog who may, for all I know, be all that his enthusiastic owners claim for him. But I was repelled rather than attracted to the claims made for him.

This dog, says the advertisement, is one of the greatest Boxers ever bred. Indeed, says the brochure, when visitors come to the kennel they have no hesitation in saying that he is the "greatest" Boxer they have ever seen.

Perhaps he is. Maybe he is the greatest Boxer ever bred. The ascendancy of a great new star is always looked for by eager breeders. But maybe those who acclaim him as the best ever bred have not seen many of the good ones of today or of yesterday. This is a young dog, still under two years of age. I take it he has never been shown, for every month I have read the Boxer placings in the A.K.C. Gazette and I have never noted his name among the winners or the also-rans.

The dog's pedigree is given for five generations on the enclosed stud card. It's a good pedigree. It has in it Utz and Lustig and Sigurd and Dorian and some of the present-day winners. But it is no better than that of dozens of other stud dogs now before the public and probably dozens more who are only house pets and never publicly offered. And, as every breeder should know, there are a lot of dogs with good pedigrees to which no serious breeder would want to breed.

Stud Judged by Offspring . . .

So I object to the advertising which claims greatness without a record to back it up. Let the dog be widely shown. Let him be studded to many bitches of widely differing qualities and be judged by the quality of his offspring. If he is prepotently great, he will mark the pups, as, for instance, Merry Monarch has done. But to hold him in a kennel and not show him and yet to claim that he is the "greatest" ever is to bring ridicule on the owner from all serious students of the breed.

Furthermore, this advertising brochure says that he is at the stud only to maiden bitches, for it claims that bitches which have had one or two or three litters already are not capable of passing on the good qualities inherent in them. Does that mean that all those good qualities are expended in one litter only—the first out of a bitch? Breeding principles simply do not uphold any such contention. Frankly, it is nonsense, as anyone knows who owns a bitch who consistently through four or five or six litters produces better-than-average puppies.

A "Proven" Stud . . .

Often one sees ads for "proven" studs. What does that mean? It ought to mean more than the dog simply gets the bitch in whelp or that she bears live pups. It should mean that the pups sired by a given stud dog have grown up and been shown and done winning in the show rings. Only then is he proven. And if he is not prepotent, he is not a good stud, no matter how fine a specimen he may be himself. Some of the best show dogs have been mediocre sires and some with not much to commend them in the ring have consistently produced good stock, stock better than either sire or dam, stock that wins over and over again wherever shown under a variety of judges.

I Answer a Puppy Ad . . .

The other day I saw an advertisement for a litter of pups by a sire of note out of a dam of a breeding I have always admired. I thought I might want one of them, and I answered the ad. I explained to the advertiser for what I was looking and asked him to describe what he had. Specifically I said I did not care whether the pup I wanted was fawn or brindle. What are its qualities? is the question I asked.

The reply came in due time. I gathered from the letter that this was the world's greatest litter. All the pups were perfect, but some of them were perfect plus. The letter was a long one. It described every puppy in minutest detail down to the last hair on the end of the tail exactly what color it was, with all the markings. Not a word about conformation. Were the pups long or short in body? How were their muzzles? What about bone structure and substance? Not a word; all were perfect specimens. I guess I could have told from the statement. I should have known that all would grow to be potential Brandys, Mr. Tutts, or Galantrys.

Can You Find This Man in the Mirror? . . .

About a decade ago a wealthy Midwesterner spent a large sum of money in building a modern and efficient kennel layout, spent a good deal more buying stock, seven or eight bitches, most of them pretty good, and one stud dog. Then set about breeding the "perfect" Boxer. I imagine a lot of you can remember that kennel's advertising. It was, I think, unethical. It said that if you bought from them you'd get a puppy that aped the standard in every particular. It claimed never to have bred a dog with light eyes or one with a bad rear end. It claimed near perfection in head qualities. What happened? I watched that kennel's show record. It never bred a champion (so far as I can remember) and its prices for pups were murderous. After a while, however, the owner tired of paying the bills on his outlay; he sold his stock and got out of the game. The last I heard the kennel buildings were standing vacant.

I believe most of his trouble was the result of a bad advertising campaign. Frankly, nobody believed what he said.

All of which goes to prove that folks should put more thought in their advertising copy. Statements must not be misleading. Let's tell buyers what we ourselves would want to know if we were buying a dog.

Check Monorchidism Now

by T. M. Corbett

THE problem has come to the forefront in Boxers recently as the result of the visit of Dr. R. C. Harris, from California. He discovered no fewer than five (at least) that were monorchids at the Leeds ch. show. So far as I am concerned it is not a problem peculiar to Boxers, for monorchidism is growing in a great many breeds. Furthermore it is a physical defect that must be considered seriously sooner or later—the sooner the better.

Dr. Harris told me that had the monorchids present at the show been exhibited in America they would have been discarded. In other words—in America breeding comes first; or, judgment is based upon values for breeding rather than upon pure visual beauty. In my view, with some slight knowledge of the causes and eventual effects of monorchidism, I am wholly in agreement with that conjecture. I know that so far in Britain monorchidism is looked upon as an unfortunate circumstance upon which the affected dog is to be pitied, but upon which no judge should pass severe judgment. Whether that is correct or a tenable argument it is not for me to say.

The fact is that the Kennel Club, from the judging point of view, does not countenance its existence. Not in so many words, perhaps, but in fact. That, on the face of it, would give rise to the belief that the exhibition of dogs in Britain is primarily one of beauty—of visual attraction rather than a contest to discover which of the dogs present is physically the most capable of improving the breed and maintaining the highest standard of excellence from a reproductive point of view.

Against that, I know, will arise the cry that monorchids are not necessarily incapable of proving useful and prolific as sires—a perfectly sound claim; and I do not want to injure any monorchids that are fulfilling the aims of their owners.

Imperfection to Be Penalized

Monorchidism, however, is an imperfection. That imperfection is something capable of being repeated. One only needs to look around in many breeds to obtain credence for that. If, then, some imperfection exists that is capable of being repeated, even developed, surely, from a competitive point of view, that imperfection should be penalized. It is correct to penalize light eyes, bad movement each of which is capable not only of being repeated but also of being eliminated. Why, then, relieve the monorchid of penalization for its imperfection? The exhibitors are armed with the knowledge that they cannot be faulted for monorchidism and are frequently frank about the inability of the judge to enforce any penalty. They are fore-armed with the knowledge that the dog has sired puppies. A judge must accept that. It is true that many can and do sire puppies. It is true, too, that occasionally a dog furnished en toto does not prove fertile; but neither argument is worthy of consideration in any breed in my opinion. Nature does not build a tree, a fish or a mammal possessed of limbs or what you will that have no part to play in the development of that life. Imperfections such as monorchidism do not assist in Nature's plan. That being so why should its existence totally be disregarded when in the show ring, the shop window of dogdom?

Granted that there can be degrees of monorchidism, but is the judge in the main so versed in physiology as to be able to recognize such detail? Even if he or she were so versed, is one expected to become a physiologist and a biologist in the show ring? One must take what is obvious and, being obvious, what denotes a retrogression in species. Is it not clear that the presence of monorchidism should be regarded in the light of a defect and as such faulted? That, at any rate, is the short route to the production of better stock.

Problem Children

It is true that monorchids can and do sire puppies; that puppies so bred can be perfect in construction; that monorchids can eventuate in the first and even later litters; that the bitch may be so dominant that the defect in the male can be effectively ousted. That, however, doesn't alter the main point, which is that monorchidism is a structural fault; is capable of development and is not something to desire or perpetuate.

Monorchidism is, in my opinion, a stage to cryptorchidism. If anyone disagrees with that argument then let us ask (without delving into science) whence comes the increase in monorchidism. Pure accident? I think not. Let us face the facts. Let us halt the progress of monorchidism and breed better dogs—not "problem children."

Many people are satisfied with the prevalent belief that the missing testicle is lodged above the scrotum and is quite operative in the process of reproduction. Scientific fact belies such a contention and even if it were so there would still exist an imperfection.

Monorchidism is on the increase. It must be retarded. Toward this end the Americans have something to teach us. We should not be above learning.

One word of warning. Do not of necessity castigate every dog known to be a monorchid. Some may have an important part to play for their respective breeds. From a genetic point of view they may be valuable where a bitch definitely is known to be dominant in certain respects and requires elements in which the dog is genetically strong, then a mating may prove of vital importance; not in the first generation, perhaps, but, taking the long view—the correct view—in subsequent development. All the same, generations, in my view, would be necessary before the possibility of the reappearance of monorchidism could be totally eliminated.

DESCRIPTION AND STANDARD OF POINTS

THE PULI

(As approved by AKC, 1936)

GENERAL APPEARANCE AND CHARACTERISTICS—Medium size, very alert, courageous, intelligent, and extremely active. The Puli is a dog accustomed to but one person and is aggressive with and suspicious of strangers.

The coat is long, of fine hair which often mats, giving his coat a somewhat corded appearance. He looks larger than he really is due to the profuse coat on head, neck and quarters.

HEAD—Should be in proportion to the body, not coarse, skull rather narrow and somewhat domed. Distinct stop, neither dished nor downfaced and strong muzzle of medium length ending in a nose of good size. Teeth are strong and large for the size of the dog.

Flaws should be tight and color black as should the nose on white dogs. On dogs of other colors, flaws and nose should be harmonious with the color of the coat.

EARS—Profusely coated, medium large, V shaped, carried flat to the side of the head. On some dogs the upper part of the ear extends out somewhat with main ear flat to the side of the head.

EYES—Deep set, close together and medium large in size. Eyelids should be black or harmonizing with the color of the nose. Dark brown eyes preferred, but lighter color is not a serious fault.

NECK AND SHOULDERS—Neck should be free from throatiness, strong, muscular and of medium length running into clean-cut sloping shoulders with elbows set close to the chest.

CHEST—Should be fairly broad and deep, not so wide as to interfere with free action of front legs nor yet narrow. Ribs well sprung and deep.

BODY—Back not broad, straight, long and tucked up. Rump is slightly sloping and rather long.

TAIL—Of medium length or occasionally natural bob-tails. The tail is carried low with the end curling up. When excited, tail may even curl over the back to some extent.

FORELEGS—Strong and muscular, very straight when viewed from any angle, with strong, round compact feet with hard pads and strong nails. Dewclaws sometimes occur and are not a serious fault.

HINDQUARTERS—Well developed, moderately broad through the stifle, which is well bent and muscular. Hocks well developed.

COAT—Definitely long, profuse and of rather fine hair. Coat mats easily, giving a somewhat corded appearance in some dogs. The coat is especially profuse on head and face, stifle and tail. Hair may be straight, wavy or curly, medium length to long. Short hair is a bad fault.

COLOR—All colors are permissible. Those most preferred are white, shades of grey or cream with darker ears, and black.

HEIGHT—Seventeen to twenty inches. Females may be slightly smaller.

FAULTS—Either over or under-shot mouth. Parti-colored nose. Short or thin coat.

THE PULI

Height: 17" to 20". Females may be slightly smaller.

Colour: All colours are permissible. Those most preferred are white, shades of grey or cream with darker ears, and black.

Know Your Breed... By Alva McColl

THE origin of many dogs can be traced to invasions made by warriors several centuries ago. The Puli was known to Asiatic warriors during the time of the invasion of Central Eastern Europe, and in Brahm's "Tierleben" the breed is thoroughly discussed with marked attention to its exceptional intelligence. This quality makes it an ideal herding dog, due to its responsiveness to training. In appearance, it looks not unlike a small Old English Sheep Dog, but its ancestry belies its connection with that breed, for it is a specialized breed from Hungary, of Nordic origin. Unlike the Sheep Dog, also, it carries a natural, long tail, giving no truth to the old adage that heavy-coated dogs and sheep must be shorn of their tails if they are to thrive.

The Puli's coat is very dense with a fine, silky texture and inclined to form cords. Some enthusiasts insist that the coat must be matted in order to appear natural, but the Pulis seen in the United States do not lose any of their beauty by being well groomed.

When herding sheep, these dogs have a peculiar characteristic of their own. This is instinctive and is used by no other breed. They control the sheep by running over their backs, and runways are stopped by the dog jumping on the sheep's back and digging its claws into the wool until the sheep becomes tired and returns peacefully to the flock. Tests made by the Hungarian people have proved that the Puli—also known as the "Hungarian Water Dog"—is just as versatile for rabbit and duck hunting as in herding sheep. The Hungarian shepherds hoarded their dogs knowing that once their intelligence and usefulness was discovered they would be exploited out of the country. For that reason they have not become numerous on the North American continent. It is inclined to be known as a "one man dog", is suspicious of strangers and, when necessary, can be most aggressive.

... DOTS AND DASHES - - -

A letter from T. W. Hogarth, D.V.M., who is practising in Swanbourne, Western Australia, advises us of the death of Mr. Norman McConnell, for many years a resident of Vancouver, who was a well-known breeder of English Setters and prominent in the judging field. Mr. McConnell went to Australia to judge at the Melbourne Royal Show, one of the biggest in that part of the world, and he liked the country so well that he remained there.

Dr. Hogarth is anxious to contact Mr. McConnell's relatives or any person who might know his next of kin. As sea mail takes such a long time, an air mail letter addressed to Dr. T. W. Hogarth, 4 Devon Road, Swanbourne, Western Australia, will be of great assistance. We are sorry to hear Mr. McConnell has passed away, as he was highly regarded both here and in Australia and did much to make friends for Canada.

For many years, a bright and newsy column appeared in "Mayfair", one of Canada's outstanding publications, under the authorship of Glory Merritt. Miss Merritt was devoted to dogs and her column being widely read did much to further the breeding of purebred dogs in Canada. It was with deep regret, then, that we heard of her untimely death, recently. We have lost not only a very close friend but also a loyal supporter of our cause.

We are indebted to the June 12th issue of "Time" magazine for the following story:

"In the fall of 1946, husky Charlie Bunker, a Warner Bay logging camp superintendent, paid $75 for a Golden Retriever pup. A thoroughbred with the tony name of Oakcreek's Van Cleve, the dog soon became his master's inseparable pet. Said one of Charlie's children: 'Dad would rather sell his skin than sell Van Cleve.'"

"Van Cleve had spunk, brains and a jaunty way of doing things. Charlie had never trained a dog for anything more than hunting and companionship, but he suspected his pet might be a champion. He began to train Van Cleve for field trials. The program included simple back-yard exercises, romping after canvas dummies decked with goose and turkey feathers, eventually worked up to a performance in the field under a gun. For higher education, Charlie turned Van Cleve over to a professional North Vancouver dog handler.

"Van Cleve learned his lessons well; for the past year and a half, he has been top Retriever in Canada, winning seven open trials. Recently two

KEYAL'S MR. SLUGGER, A.K.C., N27912

Bought by E. P. Tuson, who will be returning from Whitehorse, Yukon Territory, to Alberta for the Fall Shows, the above heavyweight English Bulldog was Best of Winners at California. His sire is Santa Fe Warrior; his dam by American Champion Morningside Mosaic.

In "The Bulldog," June 1949, the well-known writer, William Lawlor, says of Slugger, "He is a dark brindle full of Bulldog character, short back, well-sprung ribs, good shoulders, good skull, small ears and extra broad well turned up underjaw. His expression is good, and I look to see this fine youngster go to the top and complete his title when he is a bit older and more developed."

Slugger will be shown and handled by his new owner at the Canadian Fall Shows.

Adv.

Spokane auto dealers offered to buy Van Cleve; they wanted to groom the dog for even higher honors, the Golden Retriever Club of America Specialty Trial and National Retriever Championship Field Trial. Last week Charlie Bunker closed the deal. He sold Van Cleve to the Americans for $5,500, one of the highest prices ever paid for a Retriever."

This is the dog which we reported last month as being a Golden Labrador, an unintentional error for which we apologize.

West Highland White Terrier Fanciers will be delighted to hear that Best of Breed at the Morris and Essex Kennel Club Show was won by the Canadian bred International Champion Highland Ursa Major; Winners Dogs and Best of Winners was Canadian Champion Highland Arturus bred by Miss Edith Humby, of Victoria, B.C. This is the dog which won Best in Show All Breeds at Victoria, B.C. in April this year.

The many friends of Mrs. Kenneth D. Marlatt, well-known Terrier judge of Oakville, Ontario, were shocked to hear that her oldest son, Flying Officer Kenneth D. Marlatt of the Royal Canadian Air Force, was killed while on active service last month. "Young Kenneth", as he was known to the fanciers in Ontario, was a keen Terrier enthusiast.

The sympathy of all the members goes to Mrs. Marlatt and family in their great loss, and to his grandfather, Mr. A. A. MacDonald, a Director of the Canadian National Exhibition, and one of the oldest active Terrier fanciers in the country.

Amongst the new breeds to come to Canada is the Sussex Spaniel which Mr. Hugh Warburton imported recently—a lovely female. This is believed to be the first Sussex Spaniel imported into Canada. At least, we cannot find any record of the breed being registered in this country.

When the question of identification of dogs came up recently in the House of Parliament, Dr. Blair mentioned that a Canadian dog owned by a member in his constituency had won Best in Show All Breeds at Madison Square Gardens, New York City. In reply to the many enquiries as to which dog was referred to by Dr. Blair, it is quite possible that this was the Bull Terrier, Champion Haymarket Faultless, bred and owned by the late Elliot Humphrey, of Ottawa, Ontario. His dog is the only Canadian bred or owned dog to win that high honour at the Westminster Kennel Club, and this feat was accomplished in 1918. The Old English Sheep Dog "Ideal Weather" won Best in Show All Breeds at Morris and Essex, Madison, N.J., in 1938. He was owned by Mrs. Len Collins, of Toronto, who imported him from England.

The ranks of Bull Terrier fanciers have been greatly depleted by death, of late. It is not so long ago that we mentioned the passing of Fred Smith; then the Honorable Mr. Justice Frank McFarland, and now comes the sad news that Fred W. Coles has passed away.

Mr. Coles joined the Canadian Kennel Club on April 21st, 1908, and our last record of him showing a dog was at the Royal Winter Fair in 1946.

A beautiful buff male Cocker Spaniel has been lost in the vicinity of Lambton Mills on the outskirts of Toronto. Just eighteen months old, the dog is show trimmed and possesses extremely heavy feathering. A large reward is offered for information leading to the return of this dog. Any information sent to Dogs in Canada will be held strictly confidential.

INFORMATION ON NOSE-PRINTING

The following information is provided for the guidance of those wishing to use this method of identification for registration purposes.

How To Take Nose-Prints

1. Since a dog's nose may be in one of many degrees of cleanliness besides being either too wet or too dry, we suggest the following: Wet a piece of cheesecloth or any other type of absorbent material (the cloth should be but slightly wetted). Now wipe the dog's nose with this cloth. This procedure will remove any excessive moisture from the nose, or it will add enough moisture to soften a dry nose.
2. Holding the dog's nose UP, touch ink pad to the frontal part of the nose, once or twice, depending on amount of ink on pad. The dog's mouth should be held by the fingers of the left hand, while the right hand is devoted to the inking and taking of nose-print. DO NOT release the dog's mouth between the inking and the taking of the print.
3. Immediately thereafter, touch official nose-print form to the nose, exerting a slight pressure to insure contact with as much of the frontal part of the nose as is possible without smudging the print.

In making the print, place the nose-print form in such a manner that the top part of the nose is first contacted and with one rolling downward movement (with equal pressure throughout) the entire front part of the nose makes contact with the form. As an alternative, start from one side of the dog's nose and by exerting equal pressure throughout, roll the nose-print form once to the other side of the nose. If properly done you should obtain a clear print where the ink markings shown on the form are uniform throughout.

4. A good print is one that shows the small island details clearly outlined, and is free from smudges or blots of any kind. (See illustrations at the bottom of page 17 of the March 1950 issue of DOGS IN CANADA). Your co-operation in submitting only good nose-prints will remove the necessity of applications being returned with a request for other prints.
5. Persons using the "Wheel Ink Plate" pad will find that the top of the pad (which is removable) will serve as a firm base in which to place the nose-print forms for the taking of prints.

General Information

1. TWO nose-prints, on official numbered forms, will be required with the application for registration of a single dog identified, for registration purposes, by this method.
2. New applications for registration are now being printed. The reverse side of these forms will provide a section where the applicant for registration is to insert the numbers appearing on the official nose-print forms for the dog covered by the application for registration.
3. Applicants using the old style application for registration forms should place the following information, IN INK, at the left hand side of the form (turn form on its side to do this):
"Nose-prints No. — and No. — enclosed with this application". This should also be done with applications previously submitted to the Canadian National Live Stock Records, which were returned for further identification, and the registration fee in effect at the time the application was first received at the Records office will apply. It is not necessary to make out new applications for registration providing the originals are in order.
4. The two nose-prints for each dog need not necessarily bear consecutive numbers. For example the nose-prints for a dog may be No. A25 and No. A32. (DO NOT forget to indicate the letter appearing with the numbers on the nose-print form). DO NOT place more than one nose-print on a single nose-print form. It is not necessary to account for unused or spoiled nose-print forms. Spoiled nose-print forms should be promptly destroyed.
5. DO NOT attach or adhere nose-print forms to the application for registration form or to any other enclosure being forwarded to the Live Stock Records office. DO NOT write or typewrite on the nose-print forms.
6. It is strongly recommended that persons using this method of identification experiment, on plain paper, in the taking of prints in order that they may obtain experience before turning to the use of the official forms.

Nose-Printing Equipment And Supplies

We suggest the use of a "Wheel Ink Plate" stamp pad for best results. This pad provides a thin film of ink on a flat surface which may be considered best for the placing of ink on the dog's nose. This pad, together with 30 individual nose-print forms, can be obtained by forwarding money order for $2.00 to the Canadian Kennel Club, 667 Yonge Street, Toronto. Additional nose-print forms can be obtained at 30 for 25c. (all orders to be sent to the Canadian Kennel Club at Toronto).

Only nose-prints taken on official "identification nose-print" forms obtainable from the Canadian Kennel Club will be acceptable for registration purposes.

PROVINCIAL NOTES

Manitoba Notes

By Suzanne Borse

CONGRATULATIONS to Brandon Kennel Club on the success of their recent show. It was well supported by entries from Saskatchewan, including Moose Jaw, Regina, Lake Valley, with the usual exhibitors from Winnipeg and surrounding towns. I am told there was a definite "air" of improvement at the show, this year, with the addition of four large exhaust fans.

Mr. Mac. Bell's choice for Best in Show was a Doberman Pinscher, American Champion Kloveldt Kristan, owned by Mr. Charles A. Kane, of Massachusetts. Reserve went to Mr. C. Biggar's Boston Terrier, Int. Champion Personality's I'm the Emperor; Best Canadian Bred in Show was won by our Pekingese, Champion Su-Roi's Fu-Ling. Mr. Frank Creasey's choice for Best in Show and Best Canadian Bred in Show was Champion Bon-acre's Victoria of Killoran, a Collie owned by Mr. John Low, of Winnipeg. Reserve went to the Doberman above.

Best of luck to Mrs. J. Floyde, of McCreary, Man., who has added a lovely new Collie to her Kennel. She is a grand supporter of the dog shows, always returning with three or four entries, win or lose.

I was pleased to make the acquaintance of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Farmer, of Ottawa. They were returning home from Banff and had stopped off at Winnipeg. With them was Mrs. Pat Randall, of Saskatoon, Sask. Mr. C. Biggar was escorting the visitors through the flooded area.

Mrs. J. Currie wishes to convey her thanks to Anderson's Animal Hospital for their kindness in looking after her dogs during the flood while she was in the hospital.

Fredericton Kennel Club

By Melvin B. Moore

THE final meeting of the Fredericton Kennel Club took the form of a picnic which proved to be an exciting climax to a happy year. The members were guests of Premier John B. McNair, the Club's Honorary President, at his lodge, "Gordon Vale", at Parker's Ridge, on Sunday, June 18th. The members motored to Boiestown, where they met and proceeded to "Gordon Vale" in a group.

The demonstration of Border Collies at work with the sheep was a wonderful thing to watch. Dick Levic made the story of the Cheviot breed of sheep most interesting and at one point it appeared that some of the members were rapidly becoming more "sheepy" than "doggy". The youngest lamb, one month old, stole the show from its prize-winning older relatives.

Lunch was eaten in the Premier's lodge, where the "dinner music" was

NOTICE REGARDING LISTED DOGS

Because of the situation that existed in respect to identification, Chapter 16, Section 2 of the Dog Show Rules (which provides that a dog may only be shown as a listed dog at three shows held under Canadian Kennel Club rules), was not fully enforced.

Now that the identification issue has been clarified, this Dog Show Rule will be fully enforced, and exhibitors are therefore advised to conform fully to its requirements.

Those exhibitors who have entered a dog at more than three shows as a listed dog but who have withheld applying for registration pending settlement of the identification situation must promptly apply for the registration of any dog listed at more than three shows. Failure to do so will result in cancellation of wins earned at the fourth and later shows at which a dog was entered as a listed dog.

As a result of arrangements made with the Department of Agriculture on June 28th two methods of identification are now available to those desirous of registering dogs in the records of The Canadian Kennel Club.

It is permissible to enter a dog, as a listed dog, at more than three shows held under Canadian Kennel Club rules providing the application for registration of such dog properly identified in accordance with regulations, reaches the Canadian National Live Stock Records, Ottawa, Ontario, before the dog appears in competition at the fourth show at which it was entered as a listed dog.

supplied by James Campbell, our Vice-President and a member of the Fredericton St. Andrew's Society Pipe Band. The Scots let the music get into their blood, and the Grieve o'Gordonvale, Jock Strachan, demonstrated how Scottish dances should be done. During the lunch period, the Premier made a presentation to the writer on behalf of the club.

It wouldn't be right to miss telling you of the May meeting when the Boston Terrier "pack" turned out in force. Jim Campbell, Bill Laskey and Mrs. Rowan upheld their respective Scottish Terriers, Pomeranians and Pekingese at previous meetings with no assistance at all. Not the Boston fanciers!! Three of them combined forces in an attempt to sell their breed to every member in the Club. Len Griesbach gave an interesting introduction to the history of the breed which was presented in detail by John Savage. Then Lawrence Garvie, using the biggest Christmas present of his lifetime, his fine dog, Bobby, discussed the standard for the breed. We have to admit that the boys gave us a fine meeting.

The year has been marked by fine meetings. We have had splendid instruction, and at the end of the year there is no doubt that our happy, friendly Club is a better one than ever.

Now we must concentrate our efforts on our one big project—our two one-day Championship Shows to be held in the Armouries on September 14th and 15th. It is regrettable that our advertising has not been as good as it should have been, but we hope that the success of our past shows will serve instead. We are determined to make this year's shows as fine as our past ones. New Brunswick is beautiful in mid-September; our roads are good, accommodations in the city are good, and the atmosphere of our shows is the very best. Ours are the last two of five shows to be held in the three New Brunswick cities in one week. We are looking forward to renewing friendships established at previous shows and to making many new friends, too.

I regret that I shall not be writing any more newsnotes, since I shall be on leave of absence from the Club for one year. It has been fun to write an occasional story for the Club, and I hope that someone will continue the job. We need to see more and more club notes in Dogs in Canada.

Halifax Kennel Club

By Barbara Edwards

'MIDST the applause of an approving crowd, Mrs. Marie Meyer Nolan, of Milford, Ohio, chose a Beagle, "Burnside Banjo", for top honours at the Halifax Kennel Club's Eighth Annual Point Show held on July 1st. The result of local breeding, this stylish little Beagle which was also Best Canadian Bred in Show was handled by its owner, Mr. Frank Pugh, of Burnside. "Banjo" has seventeen points including a first towards his Field Championship, an interesting factor since to the best of the writer's knowledge there are no Dual Champion Beagles in Canada and there haven't been any for some time past.

"Alandale Lissom Lady", a Collie owned by Ernest Robb, Shubenacadie, was Reserve Best in Show, while a Wire-Hair Fox Terrier, "Maritime Supreme Lady", owned by W. G. Smith, of Halifax, was chosen Best Canadian Bred Puppy in Show.

The show progressed smoothly under the energetic sponsorship of the Halifax Lions Club, and Mrs. Nolan's brisk yet thoroughly capable performance added greatly to the punctuality of the classes. The show drew the largest attendance of any dog show held in Halifax.

Breeders were pleased to note the number of Maritime bred dogs which placed up in their respective classes.

CLUB NOTES

The Labrador Retriever Association of Ontario

By Jeanne White

LABRADOR Retrievers really came into their own at the York Retriever Field Trial Club's Third and Fourth Spring Trials held at Don-Alda Farm, owned by Mr. D. M. Dunlap, President of the York Retriever Field Trial Club and a member of this Association.

The setting was perfect; the hospitality most enjoyable and you should have seen the Labradors in action! Against a background reminiscent of Old England, the top Retrievers of Canada, Great Britain and the United States competed for prizes worthy of their efforts.

The Field Trials were a great success and proved conclusively that a well-trained dog is not only a boon to the hunter but also a great conservator of nature.

The type of meeting initiated in May will be followed for the summer months. The June meeting took the form of a "mock" Field Trial at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. George Doherty, Pickering. A good time was enjoyed by all—including the Labradors! The July meeting will be held at the home of our Secretary-Treasurer, York Mills. We hope all members will attend with their Labs., so that we can put into practice many new training schemes we have learned during the past months.

We are looking forward to Fall Field Trials and Bench Shows, and are confident that the Labrador Retrievers will prove to the general public that they are top hunting, Field Trial, bench, working, home and companion dog. Labradors may not be the "Glamour Kids" of the canine world—but they are "all-dog"!

OUR Spring Championship shows have met with such wonderful success that we are now planning a Fall show. We were fortunate in securing what we consider to be the most ideal building for a dog show that we have seen to date. It is the new Arena at Dixie, Ontario, a short drive from Toronto. As usual, we are endeavouring to secure top judges who will make it worth your while to exhibit. We would like to take this opportunity to thank the exhibitors for their wonderful support at our past shows and hope that they will continue that support which has justified us in this new venture. Obedience Trials are now a big feature at our show and will be included at Dixie. Top prizes, efficient judging and enthusiastic exhibitors are ready for

GOOD news, indeed, for our breed is the forthcoming Specialty Show to be held in conjunction with the Canadian National Exhibition. The enthusiasm of our members has reached a new high, so look for extra special prizes and trophies at this gala event. Entries are made out on the C.N.E. forms the same as for the All Breed show. Do not hesitate to write for more entry forms from either the C.N.E. or your Secretary. We would like to see at least seventy-five Kerry Blues at this most important show.

We certainly enjoyed the garden party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D'Eath. The arrangements were perfect and the games provided entertainment for both old and young alike. Events like this are an excellent antidote for that tired feeling which we all have during the summer.

The date has been set and the hall secured for our Fall Sanction Show which will be on October 2nd, one week before Thanksgiving Day. This will give you an excellent opportunity to groom those youngsters for the official shows.

The Eastern Ontario Collie Club

By Alma Harwood

I READ with sincere interest the article "Buddies Incorporated" by C. B. Trinket, in the July issue of Dogs in Canada, regarding training dogs for blind children in the New York Institute for the Education of the Blind. I remember sitting and watching a blind person exhibit a Collie in the show ring at a Toronto show two years ago. It was at that time that I wondered if fanciers could be reminded that our everyday competition for "quality" in the show ring looked very small in comparison to the "character" of that Collie which had no thought of being on parade but only remembered that its life was one already dedicated—to its blind owner. Collie organizations, especially, should remember, too, that the Collie should serve humanity.

Last year there were many inquiries, particularly from the States, asking if it was our intention to have Obedience Trials in conjunction with our Specialty Show. These persons largely were the owners of Shelties, and I am told these small dogs are, perhaps, the most easily trained breed. Our friends will be happy to learn that we are holding the Trials for all breeds this year. As our Coliseum is spacious, a separate ring and private benching quarters will lend itself conclusively to the comfort of exhibitor and their entry alike.

Collie friends here in Ottawa were happy to have the opportunity of seeing Mr. and Mrs. William Powell and daughter, Judy, when they visited the Capital City. It is well known to the fancy that Mr. Powell is particularly interested in the English bloodlines, so an enjoyable time was spent with Mrs. A. Sarazin of Fridoro Kennels, who owns two English-line Collies that were bred locally from original Bonacres stock. One of these, Rushbrook Brigadier, placed Best in Show under Mr. George Getty at the Sanction match held by this Club last month.

Perhaps the news of the month is the acceptance of the revised Collie Standard by the Collie Club of America. This thirteen-sectioned work

Secretary-Treasurer

NORMAN F. BROWN
667 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ont.

JUNE 7th, 1950

1609. A regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club Inc. was held in the Club's offices, 667 Yonge Street, Toronto, on Wednesday, June 7th, 1950, commencing at 11.00 a.m. The President being in New York, the Vice-President, Douglas Riedel, presided. Directors present at the commencement of the meeting included Mrs. Ellen Brown, J. J. Farmer, T. Bruce McRae and C. S. Spratt.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director McRae, seconded by Director Mrs. Brown:

"THAT, before the minutes of a Board meeting are turned over to DOGS IN CANADA for publication a copy of such minutes be sent to each member of the Board present at such meeting, and if any member of the Board present at such meeting questions any section of the minutes prepared by the Secretary such section shall not be published in DOGS IN CANADA until such time as the Board has an opportunity of approving or correcting such section."

SUBJECT: Director McRae pointed out that while the minutes do not indicate that fact, he was present at both the morning and evening sessions of the Board on March 28th.

ACTION: The Secretary was directed to make the necessary corrections in the minutes.

1611 (1595). IDENTIFICATION

REPORT: The Secretary:

- Read a letter from Director Mrs. Pat Randall who: (1) Protested the adoption of nose printing as the sole means of identification, (2) Pointed out that at the annual meeting of the Board it was agreed to submit tattooing and nose printing as the two optional methods of identification and to delete colors and markings if that should be necessary, (3) Pointed out that many members had purchased tattooing equipment in the belief that regardless of any other approved methods, tattoo markings would be accepted as positive identification;

- Read a letter, dated May 18th, from Dr. J. G. Taggart, Deputy Minister of Agriculture;
- Read Director J. J. Farmer's letter, dated May 18th, in which Director Farmer stated that at the conference with the Minister of Agriculture on May 4th, the Minister stated that if the Constitution provided for more than one method of identification and if the Constitution clearly indicated that the choice of any method rested with the person applying for registration, then neither the Chief Registration Officer or Director of Live Stock Records could do anything about it;
- Read the President's letter to the Deputy Minister of Agriculture, dated May 25th;
- Read the Deputy Minister's letter, dated May 27th, to the President;
- Read the President's letter, dated May 30th, to the Deputy Minister;
- Reported that every member of the Board had been provided with: (1) A copy of Dr. Taggart's letter, dated May 18th, (2) A copy of the President's letter to Dr. Taggart, dated May 25th, (3) A copy of the proposed regulations on tattooing and nose printing which the President has sent to Dr. Taggart with his letter of May 25th;
- Outlined a possible procedure to be followed by those registering dogs identified by the nose printing method, and how such procedure could be followed through the Records office.

DISCUSSION: Director Farmer drew attention to the preamble to identification in the by-laws adopted at the annual general meeting, this preamble providing the Chief Registration Officer with certain powers. Director Farmer stated that he had discussed the matter with the Deputy Minister and that it was the Deputy's opinion that if more than one method of identification is provided then the method to be used should be the applicant's choice and there should be laid down specific requirements for each method. Director Farmer stated that at the May 4th conference with the Minister the Deputy had clearly indicated that the Department was waiting for the submission of the by-laws adopted at the 1950 annual general meeting. Vice-President Riedel stated that the President had done much work in connection with identification and the 1950 by-laws and he would not care to see any decision reached or action taken in respect to such by-laws without prior consultation with the President. Following discussion it was agreed that application for approval of tattooing and nose printing should be submitted to the Minister, the choice of identification methods to rest with the applicant. The Board endorsed the regulations submitted to the Deputy Minister with the President's letter of May 25th.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Spratt, seconded by Director Mrs. Brown:

"THAT, the resolution (moved by Mr. Spratt, seconded by Mrs. Brown, and adopted at the meeting of the Board of Directors held on May 10th, 1950) in respect to identification by nose printing only be amended to read as follows:

"THAT, Sections 1 and 2 of Article 24, IDENTIFICATION, of the Constitution be deleted in their entirety, and the following substituted therefor:

"1. In order to be eligible for registration a dog must be identified by one of the two methods outlined in Section 2 of this Article so that the certificate of registration issued for the dog will make it possible to distinguish it from any other dog of the same breed. A breeder or owner shall have, in each instance, the choice of the methods outlined in this Article.

2. (a) TATTOO MARKINGS. On application to the recording office the breeder or owner will be allotted identification letters for his exclusive use in tattoo marking dogs for identification and registration purposes. Tattoo markings will be accepted as a means of identification only if the rules and regulations in respect to tattoo markings, as adopted by the Board of Directors from time to time, are fully observed.

(b) NOSE PRINTS. A breeder or owner may use the method of identification known as nose printing for identification and registration purposes providing the rules and regulations, as adopted by the Board of Directors from time to time, are fully observed."

Motion carried.
DISCUSSION: The Board discussed the advisability of having a committee meet with Deputy Minister for the purpose of having this amendment approved by the Department. Director McRae suggested that the Committee be composed of the President, Director Farmer and the Secretary.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director McRae, seconded by Director Mrs. Brown:

"THAT, a Committee composed of the President, Director J. J. Farmer and the Secretary-Treasurer make representations to the Deputy Minister with respect to identification and our By-Laws."

ACTION: It was agreed that the Secretary would consult the President immediately on his return from New York, and arrangements for the conference with the Deputy Minister would be left to Director Farmer.

The Board adjourned for lunch and later reconvened with the same members of the Board present.

1613 (1451). LETTER FROM AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB RE KENNEL NAMES

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from the American Kennel Club seeking authority to change the name of a West Highland White Terrier registered as HIGHLAND ARCHURUS (260174) to HIGHLAND ARCTURUS OF WIREHART.

DISCUSSION: The Board, in discussing the matter, noted that this dog had been registered more than sixty days and agreed that no change in the registered name of the dog should be made in the records of the Canadian Kennel Club.

ACTION: The Secretary was directed to inform the American Kennel Club:

- That the Canadian Kennel Club had no objection to the addition of the American importer's kennel name to the registered name of this dog providing the first owner of the dog gave her permission for such addition to be made;
- If such addition is made when the dog is registered by the American Kennel Club, notification of such addition should be addressed both to the Canadian National Live Stock Records and the Canadian Kennel Club so that note may be made in the records maintained in Ottawa and at Toronto.

1614 (1599). ACCOUNTS AND FINANCIAL MATTERS

REPORT: The Secretary reported on the following expenditures for the month of May:

Editor's car allowance	20.00
	$2,264.76

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Farmer, seconded by Director McRae:

"THAT, the expenditures be approved." Motion carried.

REPORT: The Secretary reported that up to the end of May (1950) deposits of fees (membership, registration, transfer, etc.) at the Canadian National Live Stock Records amounted to $23,161.64 as compared with $30,693.74 for the same period in 1949, a decrease of $7,532.10.

DISCUSSION: Director Farmer suggested that in view of the decrease in revenue the services of one female member of the staff should be dispensed with. The Secretary reported that as a result of adjustments made in 1949, he now had one stenographer instead of two as previously. Mr. Loveridge, who was asked to enter the meeting, stated that he had dispensed with the services of one typist, and that it would be exceedingly difficult to carry on with less than the two girls now working on show and trial records and reports. Director Farmer moved a resolution (not seconded) calling for the services of one female member of the staff to be dispensed with.

ACTION: No action was taken.

SUBJECT: The Secretary read his letter to the Club's solicitor dated May 12th (see Item No. 1585) regarding the recording fee of 50c set by the Board and other charges set by the Board at its meeting on May 2nd. The Secretary reported that he was awaiting the solicitor's opinion as to whether or not the Board had the power to levy such fees.

DISCUSSION: Director Farmer expressed the view that the Dog Show Rules do not compel the Canadian Kennel Club to record championship points earned at shows held under its Rules, and if there should be any doubt about the Board's power to impose a recording fee then the Board might consider giving show and trial clubs the choice of paying the recording fee of 50c on each dog entered in competition in order that points recorded at its show and trial may be recorded by the Canadian Kennel Club, or of not paying the recording fee if it did not wish the Canadian Kennel Club to record championship points.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Farmer, seconded by Director Mrs. Brown:

"THAT, show and field trial clubs, whose premium lists have not yet been approved, be informed that if it is their wish that championship points earned at their shows or trials be recorded by the Canadian Kennel Club then a non-refundable recording fee of 50c for each dog entered in competition must be paid to the Canadian Kennel Club, otherwise the Canadian Kennel Club cannot assume the responsibility of recording championship points."

For the motion: Mr. Farmer, Mrs. Brown, Mr. McRae (Mr. Spratt did not vote). Motion carried.

ACTION: It was agreed that this recording fee of 50c, if paid, includes the 25c recording fee referred to in Chapter 16, Section 2 of the Dog Show Rules.

Director Paddy Boughs entered the meeting.

DISCUSSION: The Board discussed its earlier action on the 50c recording fee. Director McRae stated that he wished to go on record as being against the resolution adopted on May 2nd because of the short notice to clubs which were then scheduled to hold shows and trials in the immediate future.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Farmer, seconded by Director Mrs. Brown:

"THAT, championship points earned at shows and trials held up to this time be recorded in the usual way, and clubs which have collected the recording fee set by the Board be asked to forward such fees to the Canadian Kennel Club immediately."

FOR the motion: Mr. Farmer, Mrs. Brown, Mr. Spratt; AGAINST the motion: Mr. McRae. Motion carried.

ACTION: The Secretary was directed, when writing clubs about the recording fee, to request that they indicate who paid the 50c recording fees, and for what dogs.

REPORT: The Secretary reported that he had, as directed by the Board, written Director W. W. Pratt regarding his statement of expenses in attending a meeting of members held at Edmonton on May 9th. The Secretary then read Director Pratt's letter explaining that it is the custom of the Alberta Director to meet with the members in the northern part of the province at least once a year, and the members in that area wished to have a first-hand report of developments at the annual general meeting.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Farmer, seconded by Director Spratt:

"THAT, Director W. W. Motion carried.

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter received from the Club's solicitor in answer to the Secretary's enquiry regarding the amendment, adopted at the last annual general meeting, regarding the 25c supervisory fee.

ACTION: This matter was ordered held over for further consideration after the general meeting to be held on July 10th.

DISCUSSION: The Secretary referred to the Dog Show Rule which requires that the "officers" of a club holding a show be members of the Canadian Kennel Club, and enquired whether the requirements of this rule would be met if, instead of the President of an exhibition association being a member in good standing, the exhibition association were to apply for and be admitted to membership. The Board agreed that this arrangement would be satisfactory.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Farmer, seconded by Director McRae:

"THAT, the applicants for membership be received as members."

1616 (1601). APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION OF KENNEL NAMES

"THAT, the applications for registration of kennel names reported by the Secretary be approved." Motion carried.

REPORT: The Secretary reported that H. D. Rowley, Whitby, Ont., had originally applied for the registration of the kennel name KILMARNOCK, but as that name had been granted to E. K. Dallimore, the Board had approved Mr. Rowley's second choice (Dundee), and since Mr. Rowley had been informed of the Board's decision Mr. Rowley had indicated that he desired his third choice (LOCH RAHNOCK) rather than DUNDEE.

ACTION: Inasmuch as there had been no objection to LOCH RAHNOCK the Board approved the change from DUNDEE to LACH RAHNOCK.

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from Mrs. Robert Gibbs, Scarborough, Ont., requesting the Board to reconsider its decision on her objection to the application for registration of the kennel name BRAEMORE.

- (3) A letter from H. D. Bixby, Executive Vice-President of the American Kennel Club, stating that the American Kennel Club had recently adopted a ruling to the effect that they had discontinued the licensing, as handlers, of nationals of another country. Mr. Bixby stated that this new policy would not mean that a Canadian handler would be prohibited from showing Canadian-owned dogs in the United States, but it would prevent him from going to the United States and showing, for a fee, dogs owned in the United States.

RESOLUTION: Following discussion, it was regularly moved by Director Spratt, seconded by Director Boughs:

"THAT, as of today the same conditions apply in connection with handlers' licenses issued to residents of the United States, and the following words appear on license cards issued after this date to residents of the United States: 'This license is good only for American-owned dogs to be shown in Canada at shows held under Canadian Kennel Club Rules.'" DISCUSSION: In discussing these applications the Board noted that the Sportsmen's Kennel Club's earlier shows had been held in conjunction with the Canadian National Sportsmen's Show.

ACTION: The Secretary was directed to:

- (a) Enquire of The Sportsmen's Kennel Club as to where it proposed holding its shows in the event its applications were approved by the Board;
- (b) Enquire of the Canadian National Sportsmen's Show whether any arrangements have been entered into between the Show and The Sportsmen's Kennel Club regarding the holding of dog shows in connection with its 1951 Sportsmen's Show.

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from the President of the Vancouver Island Dog Fanciers' Association regarding assets of the Association said to be in the possession of the former Secretary-Treasurer of the Association.

ACTION: Following discussion the Secretary was directed to inform the Vancouver Island Dog Fanciers' Association that the Board had agreed that the subject matter referred to in its letter did not come within the jurisdiction of the Canadian Kennel Club and that no action should be taken by the Canadian Kennel Club on these matters.

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from Mrs. C. Bloomfield, Secretary-Treasurer of the Capital City Specialty Club of Victoria and formerly Secretary-Treasurer of the Vancouver Island Dog Fanciers' Association, regarding the action taken by the Vancouver Island Dog Fancier's Association to claim benching which she claimed was her personal property.

- (a) The date fee submitted by the Elgin County Beagle Club should be refunded and directed the Secretary accordingly;
- (b) Henceforth no application for date was required from any Beagle Club holding a "fun" trial.

ACTION: The official returns for this show not having yet reached the Canadian Kennel Club, the matter was ordered held over for the Board's consideration at its next meeting.

SUBJECT: Director McRae pointed out that while provision had been made for the awarding of Best of Variety awards in American Cocker Spaniels, no provision had been made for special ribbons for these awards.

ACTION: Following discussion it was agreed that, pending clarification of the Dog Show Rules, a blue and white ribbon should be provided by show-giving clubs for each Best of Variety award.

REPORT: The Secretary reported that as directed by the Board, he had consulted the Club's solicitor regarding the Board's wish to be advised whether or not it was within the power of the Board to delay placing into effect the amendment, adopted at the annual general meeting, regarding the activities of the C.K.C. Representative and the supervisory fee.

The Secretary read the solicitor's letter of June 7th in which Mr. Wilkinson expressed the opinion "that the Board has discretion as to whether this rule should be placed into effect immediately and that the Board has power to postpone the date on which the rule may come into effect."

ACTION: The matter was ordered held over for consideration after the general meeting on July 10th.

1619 (1596). DOGS IN CANADA

1621. DEMAND FOR GENERAL MEETING

SUBJECT: The Secretary placed before the Board a letter, dated May 25th, received from David Fingard, Toronto; and a petition, which accompanied Mr. Fingard's letter, demanding that a general meeting of the Club be called for purposes outlined in the petition. The Secretary reported on the action that had been taken and the correspondence which followed receipt of this petition.

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director McRae, seconded by Director Mrs. Brown:

Motion carried.

Director Pratt also stated that Alberta members do not agree that nose-printing should be the only method of identification;

- (c) A day letter from Director Mrs. G. O. Alsen stating that at a meeting of members in Vancouver on June 5th, it was resolved "that it is imperative for the Board of Directors" "to invite representatives Director Alsen and Vice President Williams to attend the July general meeting at Canadian Kennel Club expense."

SUBJECT: The Secretary asked whether or not the Board's decision in respect to a charge for each championship certificate included championships completed at shows held prior to the Board's decision.

DISCUSSION: In discussing this the Board agreed that while the Dog Show Rules required that a championship certificate be provided for each championship completed, the Rules did not require a certificate of the kind that has been distributed by the Club for many years.

ACTION: Following discussion it was agreed that the Secretary arrange for a less expensive certificate, and anyone desirous of obtaining a certificate of the kind used in the past would be required to pay $1.50 for each such certificate.

Director Spratt left the meeting at this time.

1624 (1604). STAFFORDSHIRE TERRIERS AND STAFFORDSHIRE BULL TERRIERS

SUBJECT: The Secretary referred to the Board's earlier discussions on correspondence received from Robert N. Phillips, Toronto, who recommended that the Staffordshire Bull Terrier should be recognized as a breed separate and distinct from the Staffordshire Terrier. The Secretary read a letter addressed to Mr. Phillips by the American Kennel Club on October 6th, 1949, which indicated their view that the Staffordshire Terrier is an American development from the Bull and Terrier and is not the same dog as the Staffordshire Bull Terrier (the latter a breed recognized under that name by the Kennel Club in England).

RESOLUTION: It was regularly moved by Director Mrs. Brown, seconded by Director Boughs:

"THAT, we recognize the Staffordshire Bull Terrier as a separate breed (distinct from Staffordshire Terriers) for registration and show purposes, and any dogs imported from Great Britain which had been registered in the records of the Club as Staffordshire Terriers be reregistered as Staffordshire Bull Terriers."

Motion carried.

1625. ADJOURNMENT

At 7:41 p.m., on motion by Director Mrs. Brown, duly seconded and carried, this meeting of the Board adjourned to reconvene at the call of the President should the President deem it advisable for the Board to meet again before its next regular monthly meeting.

(NOTE: These minutes are subject to correction when presented to the Board for adoption.)

REGISTRATION and IDENTIFICATION

Before a dog may be registered individually in the records of the Canadian Kennel Club, the dog must be identified by one of the two recognized methods of identification set forth in the Club's Constitution. The two recognized methods are: (1) Tattoo markings; (2) Nose-prints. A copy of the new regulations on identification is available by writing the Canadian Kennel Club, 667 Yonge St., Toronto, Ont.

These identification requirements apply to ALL unregistered dogs regardless of where or when they were born, or by whom they are owned.

If a dog has been tattoo marked, in accordance with the regulations on tattoo markings, then the application for registration form must clearly indicate the tattoo markings that have been placed on the dog.

If a dog has been nose-printed, in accordance with regulations on nose-printing, then two nose-prints, on official nose-print forms obtainable from the Canadian Kennel Club, must accompany the application for registration.

All applications and fees must be submitted direct to the Canadian National Live Stock Records, Ottawa, Ontario.

Information on tattoo marking or nose-printing of dogs for registration and identification purposes may be obtained by writing the Canadian Kennel Club, 667 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ont.

Dogs that have been registered individually in the records of the Canadian Kennel Club do not have to be re-registered.

IN MEMORIAM

BULL-MASTIFF

Kennels of The Rouge

Reg'd

(R.R. 2, Pickering, Ont.)

Pays a last tribute to an outstanding young dog, and regretfully records the loss to the breed of a promising sire.

CH. RAVAGER MAJFERN OF THE ROUGE
"JOCK"

Died of heat prostration at Brewster, N.Y., June 10th, 1950.

This promising young Canadian-bred dog, sired by INT. CH. ROBIN OF THE ROUGE, out of Mrs. M. E. Lawton's Mimico Marionette, and grandson of Robin Hood of Le Tassyl, and of Rhodian (two of the best-known English stud dogs of recent years) was born on December 25th, 1948, and completed his Canadian Championship in 6 shows, at the age of 8½ months. At the time of his death, he had 5 points towards his U.S. title. The following are some of his awards at Canadian and U.S. Shows: Best of Winners (3 points) Halifax, N.S.; Best of Winners (3 points) Cape Breton Kennel Club, N.S.; Best of Winners and Best of Breed (3 points) Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, 1949; Winners Dog (2 points) Kanasaga Kennel Club, Geneva, N.Y.; Reserve Winners Dogs and Bitches (5 points) Westminster Kennel Club, New York, 1950; Winners dog, International Kennel Club of Chicago; Best of Winners (3 points) and Best of Breed, Rock Island, Illinois; Reserve Winners (3 points) Greenwich Kennel Club, Armonk, N.Y., June 10th, 1950.

"Jock" is buried at the Hartsdale Canine Cemetery, near White Plains, N.Y.

Our thanks are also due to The Bull-Mastiff Club of America and its Secretary, Mr. Robert L. Twitty, for their kindness and practical assistance in time of trouble.

carried a favourable average vote of approximately seventy per cent. Colour, gait and size are no longer left to the imagination of any individual. Many American and Canadian fanciers regard this acceptance as a definite step forward in the advancement of the breed.

In closing, a welcome across the page to Mr. Bill Clark, new writer for the Collie and Shetland Sheep Dog Club of Canada. No criticisms as you invited, Bill. Just keep writing.

I would like to use this column to carry a salute to the Collie and Shetland Sheep Dog Club of Canada for the effort made by them at their recent Specialty Show held in Guelph. Collie quality ran very high and was highly commendable from an observer's point of view, in the fact that a great deal of the entry was owned by members of the organization. It was a personal pleasure to be with the Club members and say "Hello" once again. The opportunity is so rare but:

There is always a smile in someone's eyes.

There is a little counsel, sometimes wise,

Always fun and a little jest;

Very little time in which to rest.

But there is kindness here and there

That makes the Dog Game easier to bear.

Collie and Shetland Sheep Dog News

By Bill Clark

THE Annual Picnic was held on Saturday, July 8th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Bottrill. Those who were unable to attend certainly missed a good time. Your Committee overlooked nothing. Two clowns, in the persons of your President, Mr. Edwards and myself, enlivened proceedings. Mrs. Tomlin did a grand job with the small fry and their races. George Getty was at home at the fishing pool, giving out prizes to the winners and smiling like he was having more fun than the children, themselves. The ladies were rushing the fortune teller, and they certainly seemed to come out well pleased with what the future held for them. A lovely dinner was served, the finishing touch being a big dish of strawberries and cream. Not a dull moment from start to finish—horns, whistles, balloons, hats, ice cream, soft drinks, etc. Yes, Sir-ree! Ask Junior! Congratulations to everybody who helped to make this event such a success.

Arrangements are now in progress to run an Obedience class. The class will be limited to fifteen dogs. Priority will be given to members, and anyone desiring to take advantage of this opportunity should send all enquiries to Bill Hayden. Full details will be made known through the Club Bulletin. Anyone who has not received their Collie plaque may get it by contacting the Club Secretary.

Another Collie goes Best in Show at Brandon, Manitoba, the proud owners being Mr. and Mrs. John Low. We hear that Shadyholme Kennels has increased its numbers with a lovely female imported from England.

Don't forget the corn roast and puppy match to be held around September. Members will be notified in the Club Bulletin. A big turnout is anticipated for the Annual Meeting in September. Supper will be served, and the Election of Officers will be followed by a dance with cards for those who care to play. Make this a BIG NITE, folks. Meet your old friends and new members and see the CLUB GROW.

The hot weather is really here, now, so don't forget lots of fresh water and good shade for the dogs in the runs, if you want to show them next year. Their sire and dam may have their Crowns, but their progeny need this good care.

Don't forget, we are still open for comments, suggestions and news pertaining to the Club and its members. See you all at the Annual Meeting.

Morris and Essex has Sunny Weather and an Ideal Show

By Alf. Loveridge

IT was with a great deal of pleasure that I received another invitation from Mrs. Geraldine Dodge to attend the one-day outdoor show of the Morris and Essex Kennel Club at Madison, N.J. again as her guest, as I always meet so many of my old friends there.

Again, this gracious lady, President of the Club, is to be congratulated on presenting to the American and Canadian dog fanciers a well-managed, colourful dog show with an entry of 2,587 dogs, totalling 45 breeds. Technically, this show, held on Saturday, May 27th, is not an all breeds show.

Mr. Dodge, who was kept busy with his many friends, is a tremendous help with the show. Mr. Patterson was, seemingly, everywhere at once all day, taking care of exhibitors, seeing that no one wanted for anything and that everything went off like clockwork.

There were quite a number of Canadian exhibitors present. I am sorry I cannot give you their winnings, but I do not have a marked catalogue. A special feature at this show was that every guest and judge was presented with a catalogue with his or her name printed on the front cover.

One needs to view this show to appreciate the beauty of its landscape setting on the polo field of Mrs. Dodge's Giralda Farms estate. Eleven large tents had a footage of 160,000 square feet of canvas. Each of the six groups was benched in its own tent. In addition, there were available first aid station with ambulance, press room, four washrooms, four parking fields, two tents for handlers only and approximately forty rings, each with its wide-spreading shade umbrella in the Giralda colours of purple and gold.

First came the Non-sporting Group. Judge Goodwin found his winner in the black Standard Poodle, Puttencove K'S Ch. P. Halla's Hugo.

The Toy Group had five breeds. Judge Mrs. Mary C. Dilks gave the blue to the English bred Pekingese, Ch. Bon Ray Fo Yu of Orchard Hill, a Champion of four countries, owned by Mrs. Richard Quigley.

The Hound Group was interesting—eight dogs, five breeds—Bloodhound, three Dachshunds, two Beagles, a white Borzoi and an Elkhound. First went to the Beagle, Ch. Liseter Flyer, handled by owner Mrs. Jean DuPont.

Judge William Kendrick surprised the ringside with the choice of best Working in the much winning buff Dane female, Ch. Senta, owned by Mrs. Herta Schroeder. Judge Ed. McQuown did not surprise the crowd when he chose Mrs. Winant's great Scottie, Ch. Winning Trick, for best Terrier, after winning ten Best in Shows in succession.

Out of the West, from Tipton, Ia., came the red Setter, Ch. Tyrone Farm Clancy, handled by his owner Jack Spears, to win his fifteenth Best in Show at America's largest dog show.

The vast ringside was hushed as the California judge, Mr. Hugh Lewis, entered the ring at 7:00 p.m. and put the six finalists through their paces. He worked rapidly, and his decision went to the Irish Setter amid surprised and loud applause. He said, later, that the Irishman won over the Scotchman in gait and showmanship.

I, personally, enjoyed this show. It brought back to me some pleasant memories, and I was delighted when Captain Judy of "Dog World", who was standing at my side when the top placing was made, asked me if I was thinking of the year 1938 when Leonard Collins' Old English Sheep Dog, Ch. Ideal Weather, was piloted to Best in Show by myself; and, of course, I was!

GIVE YOUR DOG THIS

SOLID

NOURISHMENT!

GRO-PUP is a solid food—not 70% water like most canned dog foods. You add the water.

Crunchy bite-size Gro-Pup cubes are the kind of chewing food dogs go for at once. They help to keep teeth clean—gums firm and strong.

Many famous breeders feed Gro-Pup. It's a hearty, nourishing diet that contains every vitamin and mineral dogs are known to need. Easy to digest, too.

And Gro-Pup is thrifty to feed—you save more than half over most canned dog foods! Your grocer has Gro-Pup now in both cubes and meal form. Feed both for variety.

In cube form: 2 lb. and 25 lb. sizes

In meal form: 2 lb., 5 lb. and 25 lb. sizes

CHAMPIONS

Walter J. Martin of Martindale Kennels has Three Dozen to His Credit!

MYROY ABOVE ALL

This 3-year-old Cocker has already sired two champions, and two more well on their way to qualify. Sire—Champion Myroy Rocket Knight. Grandsire—Champion Stockdale Red Rocket.

Walter J. Martin, Martindale Kennels, R.R. 1, London, Ont., handles dogs for other people as well as for himself; and he certainly knows how to bring them on! Last Winter he had "finished" 36 champions. We haven't checked up on him since then, but no doubt he has more by now.

Mr. Martin has been handling dogs professionally for 8 years. In that time he has exhibited 7 Best of Show. He specializes in Cockers and Spaniels, but handles other breeds too . . . and regardless of breed, he seems to do very well with them.

After trying out Dog Chow thoroughly, Mr. Martin switched his whole kennel to Purina more than two years ago. It's the only so-called "cereal" these champions and prospective champions get. We think that is a real tribute to the value of Dog Chow.

Top—Walter J. Martin at his desk . . . there's always "paper work" to be done! Below—Part of the interior of Martindale Kennels—clean and orderly. In background, Mr. Martin and neighbor breeder D. J. Lerch.

PURINA IS THEIR CHOICE

Check with top breeders and handlers, and you'll probably be surprised at the number who have chosen Dog Chow as the feed to match their top breeding and management. They look for economy, palatability, ease of feeding and nutritional results — and they've found them all in one Checkerboard Bag.

Then check prices with your Purina dealer, at his Store with the Checkerboard Sign. You'll probably be surprised to find how very reasonably Dog Chow is priced.

If you buy Dog Chow in any substantial quantity, the Purina Courtesy Card offers you a substantial saving. Ask about it.
