Rules For Use Of Hunting Dogs

HERE are some regulations governing the use of dogs while hunting in Ontario which nimrods should take time out to read.

NEED LICENSE

According to the Game and Fisheries Act (1953) no person shall use or be accompanied by a dog (bitch) while hunting deer or moose, except with a license.

While hunting deer or moose, no person shall be accompanied by a dog if alone, but a party of two or more, four or more, six or more or eight or more, may use and be accompanied by one, two, three or four dogs, respectively.

While hunting deer or moose, no person shall be accompanied by a dog, commonly known as a police dog or any cross-breed thereof.

A dog found running deer, moose or caribou during the closed season in that locality shall be deemed to be at large with the leave of the owner and may be killed on sight by an officer without being liable for damages to any other person or to a penalty.

A person who loses a dog while used in the hunting of deer or moose and is unable to find it at the end of the hunt shall immediately report the loss to the Department in writing giving a description of the dog and locality in which it was lost.

No owner of a dog shall use it or allow it to be used in any manner for the hunting, taking or killing of any mink, beaver, otter or muskrat.

No owner of a dog commonly known as a greyhound, or any crossbreed thereof, shall allow it to pursue game or run at large on Sunday in any area which game usually inhabits or in which game is usually found. In this section "owner" includes any person having a dog in his possession or charge or under his control.

No owner of a dog shall allow it to molest or follow upon the track of any wild game-bird or disturb its nest during the months of April, May, June and July in any year, except in a field trial approved by the Department.

No person with any sporting implement or fishing rod or tackle in his possession, shall enter or allow any dog to enter into any growing or standing grain or any other crop, whether of the same kind or not, without the permission of the owner.

Team Spirit Foremost

By PATRICK

NEVER is true team spirit more apparent than in the close partnership of a dog and his master when the scent of adventure pervades the air and the hunting season begins.

CONSTANT COMPANION

It has been said that "a man's best friend is his horse", but surely his nearest and most constant companion is his dog. Every bird hunter knows the invaluable qualities of good dogs and after months of preparation and training to harden and sharpen their responses in the skillful art of retrieving or pointing, this close communion becomes almost, one might say, a mental telepathy in which a good dog can instinctively interpret his masters wishes.

Gun dogs fall into three main categories—Retrievers, all species; Spaniels, with the exception of Irish Water and Brittany, and the pointing breeds which include Pointers, Setters and Brittany Spaniels. All these breeds display emotional and excitable tendencies which, while sharpening their reactions, can be an irritating disadvantage if the dog has not been properly trained, and the unpredictable results have spoiled many an otherwise good day's sport.

Often the average dog owner lacks patience and time, so he sends the dog to a bird dog training school at the rate of $25-$35 per month for tuition, board and lodging. This can have disadvantages if the good habits are not continued and the owner cannot, or is not, capable of co-operating with the system on which the training is based. And every trainer has his own peculiar system.

This is where many good dogs fall down and the owner is usually the last person to admit or even realize that the fault is his and not that of the trainer, and the dog like a child, who is subjected to many differences of opinion, draws the inevitable conclusion that everyone is "stoopid" and, therefore, pursues even more consistently his own sweet way.

The hunting season is short and somewhat dependent on the prophecies of the meteorological department which heralds in winter with the same unconcernedness as it sends out prospective picnickers with the promise of sun and then shrugs indifferently when they come home wet.

The season for Hungarian partridge began in Ontario on September 19 and ends October 12. The birds are still relatively rare and on one occasion were practically wiped out by severe ice storms. But about five years ago, farmers around Winchester, Ontario, the district where the Partridges are most frequent, reported seeing occasional coveys of birds, some running from 35 to 50. Skilled hunters claim that this province now has the best Hungarian partridge shooting east of the Dakotas. It is recommended that hunters take dogs with them because the birds are hard to find in the coarse stubble and in corn and grain fields. If wounded, they may disappear in the shelter and are almost impossible to locate without retrievers.

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS

American sportsmen planning trips to Canada this fall to hunt ducks, geese and other migratory game birds must comply with certain requirements when taking such birds back into the United States, U.S. Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay has announced. "Migratory game birds brought or shipped from Canada," he says, "if dressed, must have the head, head plumage, and feet attached. Shipments from Canada must be accompanied by tags or permits if required by provincial or Dominion law."

Duck hunters in Ontario this year will be governed by the same regulations as in 1952 as to shooting methods, weapons, etc., though the season will be three days longer. Daily bag limit is eight ducks, not including mergansers, and may include not more than one wood duck. It is forbidden to place flocks of decoys within 100 yds. of each other or to set blinds or decoys more than 200 yds. from shore.

It is also illegal to place blinds or decoys more than 200 yds. from a natural rush bed thick enough to conceal a boat or from a waterline fronting private property. No one may use more than one flock of decoys and not more than 50 in the flock will be permitted.

So now if you still have the inclination, the dog and the gun, fire ahead . . . but remember there may be a gamekeeper around!

Baka won his Am. points in four shows — two 5, one 4 and one 2 point show, under 4 different judges, placing 2nd and 3rd in the groups at two of them. He also was reserve winner's dog at his first Am. Specialty, Rye, N.Y., in an entry of 42. This rich red, flashily marked dog is at stud to approved bitches. Service fee $100.00.

Should View Dogs With Balanced Eye

By MACDONALD DALY

HOW one applauds the opinions of H. S. Lloyd when he talks of judges who are apt not to see the forest for the trees, who will leave out a dog which in general appearance licks the lot but fails in one tiny particular anyone can see.

Continental judges, in my experience, are more inclined to be guilty of this failing than any, though one finds it in all countries where study of the theory of dog-showing occupies more time than the actual practice of it.

I have known overseas judges who measured the exhibits with a handkerchief to find if the muzzle really was in proper proportion to the skull; who left out an otherwise beautiful animal because they found him short of a back-tooth, or because he was a couple of centimetres bigger than the standard sought as ideal; who could see a gay tail and nothing else.

Don't imagine that there are not British judges also who are guilty of this "fetishism." But in the main our strength, and our continued success, lies in the capacity of our judges and our experienced breeders to view an animal with a balanced eye, and to take the dog as a whole, handicapped but not disqualified by the obvious-though-often-not-material faults which loom so large in some other eyes.

Faddism about some particular, when its preacher can convince enough disciples, can go a long way to ruining a breed—as more and more people tend, to use the words of Mr. Lloyd again, to miss the forest for the trees, the whole for the part.

Jim Anderson, veteran Scottish-American judge who died a few years ago, told a good story illustrative of over-emphasis on one point. He was showing (in the States) under a Pointer man who was, he knew, a stickler for good feet. So he showed a bitch with feet which were a joy to behold, though the rest of her was not up to a great deal. He got nothing.

"I thought," he said to the judge in the hotel that evening, "that you liked good feet." "Sure, I like good feet," said the judge. "But come here a minute."

He led Jim Anderson to a window. "See out there," he said. "The best pair o' feet you ever did see. But they're on a mule."

HAVE you ever experienced that inner glow of exhiliration when the peel of the huntsman's horn echoes across the valley on a clear crisp Autumn morning? Flagrant schemers and gossip-writers would have it that a certain number of people hunt because it is the thing to do, but is there such a man who can combine these unique qualities and still remain a sportsman?

OLD STANDBYS

First, there is the old family whose members have for generations been the standby of the local hunt, and many of them will tell you that they are definitely hunting for the last season, but as the Fall draws on you will find them in the field again. There are the foot followers who see as much, if not more, than any mounted follower, and whose valuable advice is often sought by the huntsman.

There is the hunting parson (who finds the exercise an excellent prelude to the Sunday sermon), the local vet and the doctor snatching half a day. And finally there are the hound men, in whose number many of the former may well be included. They come well or poorly mounted, or on their feet, but they can always tell you the name of the hound to which the others ran in convert, and could, if prevailed upon, draw a map of the way the hounds ran.

These are the foxhunters who arrive home soaking wet and who, having taken off their boots, and before settling down to a boiled egg and a cup of tea, are looking through the pedigree and records to account for the remarkable performance of a particular hound.

In his immortal field book Peter Beckford said "Gentlemen who hunt for the sake of a ride, who are indifferent about the hounds and know little of the business, if they do no harm, fulfill as much as we have reason to expect from them; whilst those of a contrary disposition do good, and have much greater pleasure." I suppose no sentence in Peter Beckford's book will ever date less than that one. Let there be no doubt about it, it is the hound men who have sustained hunting and who will keep it going, and it is to their efforts that the desperate riders, the show jumpers and half the classes in the show ring will remain indebted.

By the year 1853 there had been many able hound breeders, and many of our present day hounds trace back to hounds bred by them. For example, in 1702 in England, a Mr. Richard Orlebar formed a pack of foxhounds. In due course he bred Tipler '17 and Shifter '19, and in 1722 these hounds were given to the Duke of Grafton. According to the late Earl Bathurst, their blood "can be traced not only to the present Grafton Kennel, but to practically every kennel in England."

IN TWO PARTS

Cryptorchidism

By EDNA M. DuBUIS

Roscoe B. Jackson Memorial Laboratory

(Reprinted from Popular Dogs, April and May 1953 editions)

(CONCLUSION)

(The first part of this article appeared in the September, 1953, issue and copies may be obtained from DOGS IN CANADA, 35c.)

In an excessive study of the inheritance of cryptorchidism in goats at the Texas Agricultural Station, which includes a study of the breeding records of the goats born at the station over a period of thirteen years. Lush, Jones and Dameron (13) found the condition is inherited beyond a doubt, although the exact mode of inheritance was not determined. The authors conclude that the mode of inheritance, while recessive, is complex, and that at least two (possibly more) Mendelian factors must be involved. (Simple inheritance refers to easily identified genes [hereditary factors], such as a single pair of genes responsible for coat color, while complex inheritance is applied in cases where the genes involved, usually several pairs, cannot be easily separated and identified.)

Lush, et al, offer practical recommendations which include culling from the breeding program all cryptorchid males, sires which have cryptorchid brothers or half-brothers, and males and females who have a record of having produced cryptorchid offspring. Warwick (14) agrees with these investigators that cryptorchidism in goats is recessive and that at least two pairs of genetic factors are involved.

In 1935, Koch (1) noted that cryptorchidism is hereditary in many breeds of dogs, and found the manner of inheritance to be a simple recessive in breeds having pronounced head shortening and screw tail, the defect being caused, apparently, by lack of sex hormone from the anterior pituitary. Whitney (5) agrees the condition is beyond a doubt hereditary in dogs, but considers the exact mode of inheritance as yet undetermined.

McPhee and Buckley (15) found cryptorchidism inherited as a sex-limited recessive in pigs, and concluded the condition is probably determined by a single factor.

A variety of intersexual conditions occur in all degrees in humans, and many of them are inherited, usually as a recessive from normal parents (16). Corbus and O'Conor (17) have described the familial occurrence of cryptorchidism in humans.

Van Lone (18) reports sexual hypogenesis (defective growth or development of the reproductive organs) in the guinea pig, a condition which is inherited as a simple recessive. Cryptorchidism occurs in the male and lack of ovulation in the female, resulting in sterility in both sexes.

That cryptorchidism in horses is generally believed to be hereditary is shown by the fact that all or nearly all states which license stallions standing for public use, list cryptorchidism as an hereditary unsoundness. Numerous other references to the hereditary nature of cryptorchidism could be cited.

Breeders who favor the theory that cryptorchidism is not hereditary, state, in support of their arguments, the fact that partially affected studs (monorchids) do not consistently produce cryptorchidism. In view of the above evidence, which indicates a recessive manner of inheritance, there is no reason why an affected stud should be expected to consistently produce affected offspring unless he is consistently bred to bitches which also carry the defective genes.

Recessive genes must be handed down by BOTH parents in order for the characteristic they represent to be expressed in the offspring. If an affected stud is bred to a bitch which does not carry the factors for cryptorchidism, the resulting offspring will be normal, because the factors for normalcy, transmitted by the bitch, "override" or dominate the factors for cryptorchidism transmitted by the stud.

By the same principle, cryptorchidism may occur as the result of mating together related animals or unrelated animals, or it may not occur as the result of either of these breeding methods, depending again on whether or not both of the particular animals selected for mating carry the defective genes. It is a well-known truth that recessive characteristics can be handed down, unchanged, through countless generations. As long as the animals carrying the recessive factors are bred to animals which do not carry these factors, the characteristics which the recessive factors represent will remain hidden. It is only when a recessive factor meets a "like partner," as the result of a particular mating, that the characteristic will be allowed expression in the offspring.

We have seen that a number of studies of cryptorchidism in various types of animals, including dogs, have been made, and that this defect has been found to be hereditary in these animals. However, it must not be assumed that heredity is invariably responsible or that environmental factors may not play a part in the production of cryptorchidism. In considering anything as highly complex as the growth and development of an animal, heredity and environment cannot be separated, for the one interacts constantly with the other, and where the influences of the one begin and the other end is often difficult to determine.

Although two individuals may have the same heredity (identical twins), the environment of any two individuals is never exactly the same. Even twins must necessarily occupy different positions in the uterus, and one position may be more favorable for proper growth and development than the other. Each individual provides an "internal environment" for the genes acting within him, and it is known that even minor environmental differences may determine whether or not particular inherited factors are allowed expression and to what degree. This applies especially to hereditary factors which affect the growth and development of an organism.

While some environmental factors are not clearly understood and are still being investigated, a number of others have been analyzed and their effects on growth and development are known. For instance, it was shown many years ago that size of the litter and age of the mother are important factors in determining birth weight and early growth, and Reed (19) found a significant correlation between both litter size and age of the mother and the expression of hereditary cleft palate in mice.

A particular part of an individual may fail to develop completely or normally because that individual's internal environment, or its mother's internal environment, was unfavorable for the proper development of the individual during either (or both) the pre-natal or post-natal stage of growth. The environment may be adverse because of functional peculiarities of the complex and delicately balanced endocrine system of the mother, or the individual's own endocrine system may secrete an inadequate or excessive amount of hormones during a critical period of growth. Malfunctioning of the endocrine system may be caused by disease or hereditary factors. Thus, there is a constant interplay between heredity and environment—the action of heredity may be modified or changed by environmental factors which, in turn, may be influenced by heredity.

When cryptorchidism or other examples of retarded growth occurs with some degree of regularity within a particular family or breed of dogs, the breeder must assume that the primary cause is heredity. However, when an isolated example appears in a breed in which abnormalities of this sort are not known to occur regularly, it is probable that such an example is simply a "developmental accident"—i.e., something happened which disturbed the growth and development of that individual. In this case, the abnormality may be entirely the result of an environmental mishap. If the factors which adversely affect an individual in such a case are not controlled by heredity, the malformation will not be transmissible.

Is cryptorchidism in dogs inherited in the same manner in all breeds? There are several reasons why the answer to this question is not known. A particular characteristic may not only be inherited in a different manner in one species than it is in another but it may be inherited in different ways within the same species. As an example, a red Cocker Spaniel and a red Irish Terrier are both red dogs. Although the red coloring in these two breeds may be visibly identical, the genetic factors responsible for its occurrence in the one breed may be entirely different from those in the other breed, or the genetic factors in both breeds may be the same.

In a study of heredity in living things, large numbers of individuals are necessary before accurate and complete conclusions can be drawn. This is especially true if the character being studied is complex in nature, such as an anatomical defect, rather than one which is inherited in a relatively simple manner, such as coat color. (Reed (19) studied 11,000 mice in his experiment which showed that the complex character, cleft palate, is inherited in mice in a manner nearly identical to the way in which this malformation is inherited in man.)

The breeding of animals for research is very costly, and the larger the animal, the more expensive it is to maintain. One of the reasons why mice, rats and other rodents are used in laboratories all over the world for genetic research is that these animals can be produced in large numbers at relatively small cost. In contrast, the cost of maintaining cattle, sheep, goats, swine or dogs for the purpose of working out complex genetic problems is almost prohibitive.

In spite of the handicap of expense, great strides have been made toward the understanding of heredity in farm animals and in applying this knowledge to practical breeding. This progress is due largely to the fact that a nation's economy is based on its farm animals, and the necessary research has therefore been supported almost entirely by state and federal agricultural departments. Additional help has been received from various breed-improvement associations.

The science of genetics is still young, and there is much to learn about inheritance in all animals. As dogs are not classed as livestock, the research which is so greatly needed in the field of canine genetics will be undertaken only at the demand of breeders who want to obtain, in the least possible time, more knowledge applicable to the breeding of better dogs. The full support, cooperation and encouragement of the breeders themselves is necessary.

Training Stud Dogs to Breed

By ALANDALE HASSEL

THERE is nothing more frustrating than to have a dog one considers of value to a breed and not be able to get him to breed.

There is a period in most young dogs' lives when they are extremely keen sexually. This is usually between nine and eleven months when they are in their first youthful bloom. The youthful enthusiast should be trained to breed during this time. Extreme care should be used not to put him off.

At Alandale, we have used stud dogs as young as 7½ months, the age ALANDALE PARADER, who sired some 26 champions, was started.

The young stud should be used twice about three days apart the first time, then once a month, varying this as need dictates but he must NOT be used frequently. His enthusiasm usually recedes when he casts his first coat and if he does not get a bitch until later, especially if it be later than two years, difficulty will be encountered.

Do not kennel him near bitches in season and this applies to most studs but not all. With some it helps and others have such confidence in us that they accept the fact that we know best.

No effort should be spared to get the young stud trained. To get him started, an experienced bitch eager to breed can be obtained.

Even if they breed naturally it is well to carefully approach the bitch, pet her and the dog and show him that you heartily approve. This gives him confidence all through his life that you and he co-operate and that where breeding is concerned you both agree. Aim at getting your stud accustomed to having you near a bitch ready to breed and eventually actually want you to assist him if necessary. I cannot too strongly stress the value of this mutual confidence and aim. When you have a difficult bitch it pays off.

If the bitch is at all awkward pet and encourage her and the dog. Encourage her to stand and him to mount. I have found that you can handle the bitch and compel her to perform to an extent far greater than you can with the dog. If she turns, tries to get away or lie down when you stand her for breeding, an assistant, preferably someone she loves, is necessary to hold her head. Holding her tight or tying her mouth should be avoided if possible as anything that makes her dislike the proceeding is detrimental to its success.

Kneel to one side of the bitch and with the hand nearest her tail hold the very tips of the last hairs to pull the tail to your side and close to her body. If the dog bends the bitch's tail, especially near the roots, as he mounts it will hurt her and the effort will fail.

Place your other arm around the front of the bitch's back leg, under her, and hold her vulva open between your fore and middle fingers. Encourage the dog to mount. When he does so and begins to work you can feel where his penis is and move the vulva up or down to it as necessary. Sometimes the dog and/or the bitch will realize what it is all about at this time and cooperate. When the dog has mounted firmly and you are sure the bitch's tail is out of the way you can gently let go of it and have that hand ready to assist the dog.

It is our belief that the bitch MUST back up to the dog before a successful copulation can come about. The dog is a gentleman and will not go right into a bitch unless she does back to him. This is nature's reason for the backward and forward motion of the dog. . . . When his penis touches her vulva it stimulates her and makes her want to back up towards him. If you are sufficiently sensitive to the feel of the bitch you can feel when she tends to back. If at that moment you place your free hand on the dog's rear and push him just a little further in you can often effect a tie that otherwise would not be brought about. When the dog swells inside the bitch it hurts her and she should NOT be held tight unless she is dangerous to dog or operators.

Stimulating the dog by masturbation we have found of no use. Once he gets confidence your aims are mutual you can usually do as you wish with the bitch. Treat him with rare gentleness and respect until he gets that confidence. If he touches your arm as he mounts he will usually dismount. Everything must be just right.

We have seen some extremely awkward bitches but we have almost without exception succeeded in getting them bred, often after others have tried and failed. We have had experienced bitches who, realizing what a strain and chore puppies can be did everything they could to prevent getting bred. They have run into their kennel and hid when they even glimpsed the dog, flopped on their backs and got very angry only to give in when they learned we meant business.

Often the intelligence and coopera--tion of the dog showed amazing understanding to an inspiring and rewarding extent. Maiden bitches can also be very trying.

Unless we are satisfied that the bitch is normal we would not allow the dog to move his leg over her quarters and stand back to back in the characteristic pose. This is often hard to tell. Sometimes after pushing the dog in he would swell before he got right there and when we were afraid that we would not get them together again we have held him in with the swelling outside the bitch, kept our arms locked around his rear and the front of her back legs for 15 minutes and got a litter.

At other times, though a dog went right home he did not swell, and holding him on produced a litter. We have also worked for two exhausting hours and finally got a bitch bred after others present had been long ready to quit, thinking it not possible.

We believe that the bitch will give in and take the dog when she realizes you really mean it and don't intend to weaken. We would not think of forcing a bitch that we did not KNOW was ready . . . that is her time was right. Also we would be certain she SHOULD have a litter, that she had been properly fed, not overbred, etc.

If bitches come in season before the 10th month we usually miss them. We generally breed them if they come into breeding condition after that age. Having puppies takes a lot out of a bitch, especially big litters. We do not exhibit bitches until they put on their second coat after a litter.

Owners of breeding stock should carefully watch for breeding symptoms, every day without fail. They should KNOW when the bitch showed the first sign of menstruation. To hold a bitch for a dog that is sexually precocious is very cruel.

A bitch usually ovulates, that is the egg leaves the ovary and is ready for fertilization, on the 14th to 15th day after the very first sign of blood. Conception takes place when the live sperm from the dog enters the egg. The bitch will normally move her tail around the 11th to 13th day but if a dog breeds her then his sperm must live inside her for 48 hours before the egg appears to be fertilized. Forty-eight hours is the normal time live sperm will live inside the bitch and all that time it is getting weaker. Therefore the ideal time to breed would be right at copulation . . . on the 14th or 15th day.

A very successful breeder of Wire Haired Fox Terriers told me he always breeds his bitches on the 11th day after the very first sign of blood . . . so the length of mating cycle may vary in different breeds or strains of a breed.

A bitch will normally attract dogs for a day or two before she starts the menstruation flow which will continue red for 13 days then gradually lose color. During this time the vulva will swell and get distended and hard. . . . At around the 13th day it will soften and the bitch should NOT be bred until the parts are soft . . . completely soft. This is the best indication of all when she is ready.

We have had bitches that have not bled but swelled, others that bled but did not outwardly swell, some had very short cycles, one we remember that would only take the dog on one day. All had litters.

When things are normal, we breed on the 14th, 16th and 18th days—three times, varying this a day or giving only two services if the dog is otherwise engaged. Our experience shows that three breedings are better than one.

We do not exhaust a dog except under unusual circumstances—CHAMPION ALANDALE AENEID bred five bitches in four days, then after 48 hours rest he repeated on three of them in five days and they all had big litters. He was none the worse. Artificial insemination has never been successful for us when done by a veterinary or ourselves.

Unbenched Shows Successful in B.C.

By JEAN FLETCHER

WEST COAST dog exhibitors were treated to a different kind of show fare in July when the Nor-West Kennel Club of B.C. held two shows at Mahon Park, North Vancouver. Both proved very successful and popular with the exhibitors who were able to turn up with their dogs just one hour before the scheduled judging time and leave when their competition was completed.

Best in Show first day went to Joe Dodd's Wire Fox Terrier, Drumadoon Delegate, and top choice the second day was the Baileys' black Cocker, Can. and Am. Ch. Land O' Trail Blazer.

The German Shepherd Dog Club of B.C. held its second annual specialty in conjunction with the show and Best of Breed went to Luck V. Dyck, a Portland, Oregon, dog. Official results are reported in the Show and Trials section of DOGS IN CANADA.

Former Director Dies in Vancouver

A FORMER director of the Canadian Kennel Club in British Columbia and a Sheltie breeder, Magistrate Mackenzie Matheson of Vancouver died last month. He was the West Coast city's senior magistrate and a man whose deep and often courageous understanding of human nature, mingled with a poignant sense of humor, placed him in high esteem.

He was admitted to hospital Sept. 2 and died two weeks later. Only a few years ago, he was wished "a thousand years of good health" by a group of men he had sentenced. It was typical of the esteem in which he was held by good citizens and lawbreakers alike.

Asks Universal Rule

(The following article was written for DOGS IN CANADA by the well-known American dog judge, Frank Foster Davis, 125 North Derby Ave., Ventnor, New Jersey. In the article, Mr. Davis comments on some of the problems facing dog judges today and offers suggestions for overcoming them. He invites letters on the suggestions to the above address—ED.)

By FRANK FOSTER DAVIS

BEING in full accordance with recent, timely legislation enacted by the CKC, the writer notes with appreciation how the CKC put a concrete suggestion into effect without undue delay when it was properly presented.

Naturally, we are all under the impression that our own ideas are best and unless adopted we are inclined to question the negative reception on the part of those in office. However, each and every angle presented must be so screened as to whether it would prove practical in operation. Unquestionably, many good ideas are rejected each year due to red tape and keeping of records that such an organization as the CKC would find it necessary to double the floor space or instal rubber walls for the building.

At present the AKC is in the throes of 'nailing down' the 'Bred By Exhibitor Class'. Some are advocating limiting this to the entry being personally handled by the exhibitor. It is questionable whether a more unwise procedure could be taken as to considering such action. As I do not exhibit dogs or have I for some years past, it is quite evident that I am in no way affected.

However, in all good faith, an exhibitor makes such an entry and at the last minute is unable to make a personal appearance. The entry would be scratched under the suggested 'string' on the class. The entry money is forfeited. But even of more importance, the points (championship) are lost to the Winner Dog or Bitch, as Bred By Exhibitor is now a Regular Class, and the points are affected through such absenteeism. Even though the registered owner could be represented by an immediate member of the family the win or entry would be necessarily cancelled.

Imagine the necessary additional recordings and correspondence required. It behooves the CKC and the AKC directors to simplify to the best of their ability the operations of each department, not to place additional burdens in the form of added rules and regulations which but makes it necessary to call for further file systems.

With all of the above in mind I have a suggestion to make which though it is without bearing on the mentioned subject, at the same time I feel is worthy of consideration by fanciers of all breeds. This in respect to the adoption of legislation by various breed clubs in respect to penalty for monorchids or disqualification for cryptorchids. The same should apply to all breeds alike if it is considered a fault in some. In no way do I wish to establish my personal opinion in this other than that each and every breed should have or adopt the same rule on this point.

It is most difficult for any judge, licensed to pass upon numerous breeds, to bear in mind the status quo in this respect as a breed club may adopt this angle and without the slightest notification the judge may enter the ring the following day. Why not get it over with once and for all and make it universal? If a breed is not subjected to these faults there should be no objection on the part of the breeders of such dogs. If other breeders feel it is of grave importance why should anyone object to making a decided effort in weeding this out.

In the meantime confusion is the result in judging circles and this condition is due to a needless hardship on all judges. I recall awarding Best of Breed to a "crypt" at Ottawa a year or so ago. I did it with full knowledge of the condition. My attention was called to this after the show. Right the contention was but as I told the party: "Show me wherein the Standard even mentions this." I have always felt that I am judging dogs as strictly as possible to the 'Printed Standard' or at least to my conception of same. Many times I have placed a dog to top honors which I would not take home as a gift and have turned down one I would be most happy to own. This being due to my lack of agreement as to some points or claims in the printed standard of the breed but I contend that those in charge of the breed in question are the ones to determine what they consider proper and in no way is any judge to set up his own ideas over that which has been arrived at by the governing board of a parent organization.

Would it be asking too much for all fanciers to arrive at a complete understanding as to orchidism? We have castration and spaying as disqualifications for all breeds. Would it not be a simple matter to arrive at some firm conclusion on the other issue? Please consider my suggestion as being offered in all sincerity and I hope it will in no way be considered officiousness on my part.

Pacific National Draws Large Crowd

By JEAN FLETCHER

THE two Pacific National Exhibition dog shows this year attracted large spectator crowds, especially the show on Labor Day. The throng was so thick at the second show that it was difficult to move from the benching to the rings.

The superintendent, W. H. Pym, had everything moving smoothly, however, and the shows were a great success.

Highlight was the Coronation touch which adorned the beautiful trophies and spoons. Each trophy had a crown and the spoons were of special Coronation design. New plastic arm bands added to the attraction.

Best in Show for the opening event went to Springer Spaniel, Am. Ch. Melilatus Argonaut, owned by Mrs. E. A. Klokke of a Pasadena, Calif. The second show's top dog was the silver Miniature Poodle, Am. Ch. Sherrode Silver Rocket from Arizona. Other results are officially reported in the Show and Trials section of DOGS IN IN CANADA.

A sidelight was the pleasure of Bob Carrier finishing his German Shorthair Pointer, subject to CKC confirmation, which he rescued from a pound a year ago. On finding the purebred there, Mr. Carrier talked the former owner into releasing the dog to him, including the papers.

Regina Dog Shows Impress Easterner

By BAY MEYERS

IT'S true. I didn't believe it until I went to Regina. But there, I went to three dog shows and did not hear a single gripe! Not one. Plenty of disagreements, yes, but all good natured. Not a whine, not a complaint, nothing to mar the pleasant friendly atmosphere. It was the original Dog-Show-With-A-Difference.

They had other good things there, too. The benching was in one cattle barn at the fair grounds, the show ring in another. All the smaller breeds were benched in large wire fox pens on platforms built across the partitions of the stalls.

This had several advantages. The crowd could get a good view of the dogs but could not handle them. The dogs were cooler and more comfortable and were easy for handlers to get at. The platforms were set far enough back so that there was plenty of room in the front of the stalls for chairs and grooming tables without obstructing the public's view.

And the public seemed content to look at the dogs from the aisles rather than to crowd into the stalls.

Another wonderful idea was having Boy Scouts. The show-giving club made an arrangement — mutually profitable — with a Boy Scout troop and they were on duty 24 hours a day. If you wanted your dog fed, watered, cleaned. exercised — or anything else, for that matter — you just sat still and called "SCOUT!" It was rather like having an Aladdin's lamp.

In the barn where the dogs were shown, things were once again made easy for the exhibitors. The general public was not allowed near the door where the dogs were brought in, and there was plenty of room with plenty of benches for exhibitors to sit down and wait with their dogs until they were needed in the ring. One corner of the barn was partitioned off into an exhibitors' lounge, with thick carpets on the floor (what bliss for the feet!) and chesterfields and easy chairs in which to relax.

And all this was done by a dog show committee of whom only two had even SEEN a dog show! One of these two was the show secretary who took the job knowing precisely nothing of what should be done. But helped by the secretary of the CKC in Toronto (I can just imagine the frantic appeals for information, help and what-have-you winging their way Toronto-wards!) she put on a first class show. The club made its own ribbons and very elegant they were too, all in cellophane envelopes so that they arrived home still looking like ribbons instead of something scruffy and indistinguishable at the bottom of the dog show suitcase.

But more than anything else, it was the warm friendly atmosphere that appealed, and the complete absence of complaint in any form. It is a long drive from Toronto but if anyone asks me my three favorite dog shows now, I rate them (1) Regina; (2) Regina; (3) Regina.

Fungus Picked Up By Dog From Grass

Long coated dogs suffer intensely from fungus growths which take away the hair and appear as wet, sticky patches on the skin. The dog usually picks up the fungus in long grass and it gets down to the skin where it is protected with the long hair until it has developed into a sore spot.

Talcum or surgical dressing powders are best to apply to these areas and should be patted well in. This treatment should be kept up continuously and the owner whose dog is afflicted should remember that skin conditions take several weeks to clear up. Treatment must be continual during this period.

Naturally your veterinarian is the best one to determine just what is wrong. It is wise to first check with him as the skin trouble might be a more serious affliction.

Why Dogs Wag Tails

A DOG'S tail is truly full of eloquence, for he wags it furiously when he is happy or pleased; puts it between his legs when reprimanded or chased; stiffens it when in serious mood, puzzled, or intensely interested in some strange smell or, in the case of pointing breeds, when actually pointing game. He will, when aroused or really angry or closely following the scent of some fleeing animal, often cock it straight up in the air.

FORM OF EXPRESSION

Actually the psychology of tail-wagging has more to it than first appears, for a dog expresses all or nearly all of his emotions by the medium of his tail. However, there are few people who may have stopped to consider just how this form of the expression of canine feelings came into being. Let's take the wagging tail to signify happiness and pleasure, for example.

Both primitive man and his one or more wild dogs were inseparable companions when the world was young, both working in complete harmony with the sole object of securing the simple necessities of life—food and clothing. As the dog worked to help secure food he wagged his tail in anticipation and the closer he got to the scent of his quarry the faster it wagged. This, of course, was an indication to his master and to the rest of the pack that game was near, for a fast wagging tail would help to attract attention.

Most hunting dogs, even wolves, dingos and coyotes, although normally carrying their tail out straight behind them will raise it aloft to make it more conspicuous directly the scent of game is found. Hounds in particular give a signal by raising their tails aloft as an indication to the rest of the pack that game is close, and if one watches a good pack of hounds hunting it will be noticed that they habitually watch the tails of those in front when drawing cover.

While the dog generally is a hunting breed, in its wild state it was very often hunted. Although fleet of foot there were times when the pursuer was close upon its tail. It was only natural that this was the part of the dog's anatomy that would likely be seized, so the only sensible thing to do to keep it out of harm's way was to tuck it between his legs.

Co-operation Need In Dog Club Life

By M. L. WOOD

WHAT is a club? Is it not a group of people joined together in a common purpose? The value of co-operation in any phase of study or production has been well established.

The foundation of a good club is the loyalty, interest and co-operation of its members. The function is to better, if possible, all branches of its many programs, and, through suggestions, questions, constructive criticism and general knowledge, endeavor to find and assist those who might use its facilities. These facilities may in turn be beneficial to either the experienced or the novice.

The waste of time, energy and money that is expended by the individual through lack of proper guidance in trying to develop some idea that may be either good or bad, is very often discouraging. Through club discussions, these discouragements may be avoided if club members co-operate in sharing their knowledge with the less experienced.

Primarily, a club should, if possible, concentrate on its own field but many items are of general value and a discussion by all may help form the first step in laying the ground work in animal knowledge for each member. There is also the chance that a new line of thought may be developed and, while it would seem that all phases have been covered many times, there is still a great deal that may be learned.

One problem confronting clubs is the lack of participation on the part of the membership and only through the interest and enthusiasm of every member can a club be a success.

Two things to be avoided in every club are cliques and jealousies. The former is often unintentional and is caused by the more active members seeking further enlightenment on some special subject. Success by individuals should be enthusiastically received by the whole membership as an honor to the club.

Pettiness and jealousy are not conducive to the betterment of any organization. There should be instead plenty of informal discussions, interest, good fellowship and an abundance of enthusiasm to assure us a successful club life.

B.C. OLDTIMERS DIE

Funeral services for two oldtime British Columbia exhibitors were held on successive days, July 30, 31, in Vancouver. They were Mrs. Minnie Frances Pickford, prominent Cocker Spaniel breeder for more than 25 years and George Tyson, one of the most extensive importers, breeders and exhibitors of Wire-Haired Fox Terriers. Both will be long remembered as pillars of the dog game.

A Dog's (and Cats) Life

By JOHN CALDWELL

SO much has been written and said about cats and dogs being natural enemies. Residents in one district of Memphis, Tennessee, would certainly dispute any such statements. The two pets of all the neighborhood children go well together—in name and nature—Mickey Finn, a cat, runs around with Gin Rickey, a dog.

Dogs love to chase cats, but did you ever see a dog catch a cat and injure it? The flooding of the Red River at Winnipeg brought to light an incident that gives a clear insight into dog-and-cat relationships. This particular dog, a bulldog, regularly chased cats but there was a particular one that he seemed to take delight in putting to flight. His bark seemed to be most fierce when he encountered this member of the species.

But came the day the neighborhood was flooded and the cat was washed into the river and going down stream. Once again the bulldog was after the cat. This time, though, he jumped into the river and dragged her out and tenderly carried her back home to her master.

In a week or so the cat had completely recovered from the ordeal and the dog sighted her on the street. What happened? He began to bark fiercely and took off after the cat as had been his habit before. It wasn't a matter of animosity towards the cat. Chasing it was just Buster's favorite sport.

Often dog lovers have a dislike, or even hatred for cats. Possibly the comic strips have overdone the "throwing - shoes - at - the - cat - on - the-fence" situation, but who is there who hasn't at some time wondered why cats insist upon holding their meetings at three in the morning? To enlighten those bewildered souls, here is a simple explanation.

The matter is one of profound religious content. Cats are simple souls and since the dawn of Christianity they have never failed to meet and wail about the horrifying truth that, while the dog is mentioned eighteen times in the Bible, they are not referred to even once.

Sheepdogs in Movies

ONE of the most interesting of "doggy" movies to appear in Canada in many years is a British "short" —"Sheepdogs." It ably depicts the work of real sheepdogs in their nature setting.

Stars, and only characters, are Tom Jones, a Welsh shepherd, his three dogs—Guide, Scott and Skip—and his pony.

Tom Jones is a real person and his 30 acres of rugged land where thousands of sheep graze is hilly, rocky and dangerous with patches of bog and steep precipices. Over this land the man, pony and dogs roam each day, seeing no harm comes to the flocks.

Righthand man is Scott who has a human understanding of matters. It is Scott who takes care of the pony when Tom dismounts. He slips in between the reins and carries them in his mouth, leading the pony around the bog and over the rocks to where Tom has finally stopped.

Guide and Skip are the shepherds, they round up the flock and drive them wherever Tom signals they should put them. Scott helps with the final placing of the sheep.

There are two extremely impressionable scenes which should leave a lasting memory of the amazing qualities of the sheepdog.

One is when the excited dogs awake Tom in the middle of the night, letting him know a killer dog is among the sheep. With calm accuracy Guide and Skip "herd" the killer toward the rock where Tom is waiting with his rifle. A single shot removes danger from the flock—but not before the killer has taken his toll.

It is well known that once a dog has killed a sheep he goes on and on and must be destroyed.

The other scene concerns Scott. Because he must have an extra job he gets a ride home (behind Tom) from the day's rounds. Then he is given a baby's bottle, filled with warm milk and wrapped around with strips of cotton. He dashes off to the hills and drops into a rocky depression where Tom had deposited a tiny lamb for safety until a foster mother could be found.

Here he feeds the lamb, then scurries home for his supper.

This is truly a film to see. It is a British Films release.

MAY BE SHEDDING

Not all dogs shed in the spring. If your pet starts shedding during summer heat, you can help him by brushing, first against the lay of the coat and then with it, plucking out the dead hair with your hands.

If your dog has a long coat it may be advisable to comb it before you start brushing.

Your dog's scratching on hot days may be merely due to shedding. The dead skin is itchy. However, there are many other skin irritants during hot weather, so don't let scratching go uninvestigated. If in doubt, call your veterinarian.

CORRECTION

The English Cocker Spaniel, TWIN SHOT CANADA GOOSE, was 2nd, in the GROUP at the Ontario County Kennel Club Show, on June 20th, and not Ch. Edward of Mulberry Hill, as reported in Dogs In Canada September issue.

B.C. MATCH SUCCESS

By JEAN FLETCHER

THE Associated Kennel Club, a new organization in British Columbia, sponsored a highly successful outdoor puppy match under CKC rules, Aug. 9 at Connaught Park, Vancouver.

The idea came from Mrs. Elsie Murray and was designed for specialty breed clubs. The idea grew and grew until it was finally adopted by the Assoc. Kennel Club.

Best in Show went to Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert's English Cocker and every breed winner was given a similar cup. Judges were Mr. O'Connor, Mrs. Hayes, Miss Railton, Mrs. Wall, Mrs. Balshaw. Mr. Moffit and the writer.

Barrie Kennel Club

By GEOFFREY WHITE

THE annual meeting of the Barrie Kennel Club in July saw a complete change of the club's executive brought about by the move of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kaye to Unionville.

New president is G. M. Boynton, with Mrs. Boynton as secretary-treasurer. Vice-president is Geoffrey White.

The bench show committee, under the chairmanship of Major N. N. Brimstin, includes Mrs. Childs, Mrs. O'Brien Saint, Wally Freeman and Mr. White.

By confining the club's business at monthly open meetings to committee reports and essential matters only, it is planned to hold a series of attractions to interest new members. A start has been made by holding handling classes and interest shown has been most gratifying to the club.

Believed to be the first Basenji to win both Canadian and American championships, Abakaru of Blue Nile, owned by Mrs. Roberta C. Jenkins of Oak Ridges, Ont., recently finished his U.S. title at the Niagara Falls, N.Y. show. He was 2nd in the hound group with a five-point win.

Mrs. Jean Fletcher of Vancouver recently judged Dachshunds at the Olympic Kennel Club's show at Renton, Wash., and her "longhair" choice later went Best in Show.

Montreal Dog Obedience Training Club

By BLANCHE B. NEWCOMBE

M.D.O.T.C. sixth obedience trial, to be held in newly renovated club quarters in Westmount, P.Q., is announced elsewhere in this issue. Frederic C. Sidney of Glasonbury, Conn., will judge all obedience classes.

Mr. Sidney officiated at several trials this year in the U.S.

During summer months M.D.O.T.C. members met once a week for tracking training. This brought out real co-operation among members, as it was necessary to lay tracks for one another, rather than to work to advance any particular dog.

This fall training classes are at full capacity largely as result of work of President Frank Mingie and his executives. Mrs. C. F. McCullough is again directoress of training, and the greatest season in club history is anticipated with the large increase in membership.

The Irish Setter Club of Canada

By GERTRUDE DREW

THIS Club has resumed monthly meetings Sept. 24 with an abundance of new business.

There will not be a specialty show this fall. At the June meeting, it was decided that due to the number of members who intended to breed their dogs there would not be sufficient dogs in show condition to fill the classes. The prospect of a show next spring was more appealing.

Irish Setter entries have been small at the local shows. Many of the members have been away for the summer and others found their animals too young for mature competition. It is thought, and in many cases proven, that this breed is not mature until upwards of three years and should not be shown seriously until then.

Ontario County Kennel Club

By REBA GRAHAM

THE busy fall and winter season for the club is underway with the club holding its first autumn meeting recently.

During the summer members of the Oshawa Obedience Training Class were busy preparing for the successful trial held Aug. 22. It was most successful with Mrs. Roy Wilson directing the smooth operation. Results are listed officially.

Collies and Shetland Sheepdog Club

By BERNARD YOUNG

FIRST meeting of the 1953-54 season, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Getty, Newtonbrook, Ont., Sept. 10 featured the annual election of officers. Last year's slate was returned with the exception of the vice-president who is succeeded by Jack Hewson.

Officers are: W. Ormiston Roy, honorary president; Mrs. Laura Getty, president; Jack Hewson, vice-president; Mrs. Betty Drewe, secretary; Mrs. Gladys Taylor, treasurer; Mrs. Mary Hewson, social convener.

A series of instruction especially for novice breeders is planned for both Collies and Shelties. Dogs will be brought to the meetings and will be judged according to the standards' specifications. It is felt this will steer new breeders in the right direction.

Alberta Kennel Club

By AGNESS HAMMOND

ONCE again the Alberta Kennel Club has held two very successful shows. Best in Show Aug. 31 was the platinum Miniature Poodle, Panorama Foolish Flirt, owned by E. Krucker of Tucson, Arizona. Best Can. Bred went to the well-known Boxer, Edmar's Caesar Augustus, owned by Jane Campbell of Port Coquitlam, B.C.

On Sept. 1, Best in Show went to the Pomeranian, Sungold's Wee Desire, owned by Anna La Fortune of San Diego, Calif. Best Can. Bred was Stra'ven Lois, a Wire-Haired Terrier, owned by Wm. Semple of Regina. Other wins are officially reported in the Show and Trials section.

Vistors from Kalso, B.C., were Col. and Mrs. Cowan and their six Great Danes which they brought by automobile. It is the Cowans 50th year of showing and breeding.

Forest City Kennel Club

By BILL ROW

DOG show to be held Saturday, October 3rd, in Queen's Park, London, Ont., was the main topic of the September meeting of the Forest City Kennel Club. The show will be held in the Manufacturers' building.

At the meeting final plans were laid for the show.

This will be the 10th International All-Breed Dog Show and Obedience Trial for the Club.

German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada

By MARY E. SOUTHCOTT

THE club's directors decided at their September meeting that the October meeting would be a general one with entertainment and refreshments.

The Special Activities Committee plans a rummage sale this fall, the proceeds to go to a worthy cause.

With the coming of fall, training sessions become a serious business again. At the club's final matinee show at Doug Ames' Highland Creek farm, Best of Breed went to Vince and Ethel Bradley's Brisa of Cara Mia. Edna Lucas did a commendable job of judging despite a wrenched back. Mr. Ames judged obedience with the highest score going to Mrs. Norman Davies' Hooey's Elite, C.D.X.

Two members lost fine Shepherds within a week, victims of hit-and-run drivers. Mitzi Frohle and Carol Richards lost Arno of Cara Mia C.D. and Freyda v. Kurtbrunn respectively. Arno had made quite a name in obedience circles and Freyda showed like promise.

Western Canada Boxer Club

By T. J. BRAAMS

TWENTY-EIGHT puppies were entered in the annual Boxer Puppy Match staged by the Western Canada Boxer Club August 30 at Burnaby, B.C. Six came from the U.S.

Proceeds were in aid of The Orphan's Picnic Fund.

Judge was J. Kingston who picked Barmeres April Showers owned by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Barker, Vancouver, as the Best American bred and Mr. Slattery's Ginger, five - months - old fawn bitch as Best Canadian Bred.

The German Shepherd Dog Breeders Association

By MARY HART

CLUB activities were curtailed during the summer but a number of members faithfully attended the shows. Several members' dogs have come up with fine wins, reported officially in the Show and Trials section.

At the Sept. meeting in Toronto, a letter of resignation was read from the Show Secretary, Mary Weller, who resigned because of ill-health. The club wished her speedy recovery. Mrs. Alva McColl was welcomed as a new member.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Brown, seconded by Mr. Daniell-Jenkins:

"THAT, the condensed minutes be printed in DOGS IN CANADA as ordered at this meeting."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

The Secretary was ordered to condense the minutes of the special meeting of the Board held on April 9th and 16th, and publish said condensed minutes in the next issue of DOGS IN CANADA.

2531 (2502). FINANCIAL MATTERS

The Secretary placed before the Board the auditors' financial statements for the first-quarter of 1953.

The President pointed out that since the practice of audited quarterly statements commenced in 1951, the following results were noted:

(a) The first quarterly statement showed a substantial excess of revenue over expenditures due largely to the fact that approximately two-thirds of the total revenue from membership fees were received in the first quarter;

(b) The second and third quarterly statements continued to show an operating profit, gradually decreasing, brought about largely because the bulk of recording and listing fees were paid in the months of April to September inclusive;

(c) The financial statements for the entire year, which included the revenue and expenditures in the last quarter, showed a vastly different picture resulting from the relatively small revenue from membership, recording and listing fees in the last quarter, and because of extra expenditures such as election expenses and the large number of show reports published in the last quarter.

The President suggested that the Secretary be authorized to discuss with the Club's auditors the possibility of amortizing certain anticipated annual expenditures (such as election expenses) over the entire year, and of any other adjustments that could reasonably be expected to give a clearer indication of the Club's likely financial position at the end of the year.

The Secretary was authorized to take this matter up with the Club's auditors, and present a report to the Board. It was agreed that the first quarterly statement be published in the July issue of "Dogs in Canada", this in order not to delay mailing of the June (Coronation) issue.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Brown, seconded by Mr. Monaghan:

"THAT, we adopt the auditor's statements for the first quarter ending March 31st, 1953."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

A discussion then took place on the amount set aside, in the first quarterly statement, for advertising commissions payable to the Editor. The Secretary reported that this amount was based on the quotas that had been set for each of the four quarters, that the amount was the maximum required to be set aside subject to full payment of all advertising in the three issues in the first quarter, but was subject to downward revision depending on the extent of advertising in the remaining three quarters of the year.

The Board noted that advertising commissions payable to the Editor was based on 15% of advertising in excess of $12,000 for the calendar year, payable only on paid advertising. Discussion then took place on the possibility of making periodic payments of advertising commissions based on paid advertising in excess of established quota totals, any such payments to be subject to revision as indicated by future quarterly statements.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Back, seconded by Mr. Daniell-Jenkins:

"THAT, Mr. McIntosh be paid monthly for subscription commissions due to him, and where, in any quarter, advertising for the quarter is in excess of the established advertising quota for that quarter, advertising commissions be paid monthly as advertising is paid for, all such paid advertising commissions to be subject to such adjustments as may later be indicated by subsequent financial statements for 1953."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

(SECRETARY'S NOTE: Subject to such revision as may be ordered by the Board, the following quarterly quotas have been set based on advertising in each of the four quarters of 1951: First quarter, $2,879.98; second quarter, $2,958.15; third quarter, $2,833.77; fourth quarter, $3,328.10—Total $12,000.00.)

The Secretary pointed out that a separate section for the Show & Trials Department had not been included in the first quarterly statements for two reasons: First, because of difficulty in arranging for certain of the allocations; and secondly, because of the possibility that the Board would order a new policy with regard to allocations to that department. The Board ordered held over for discussion at a later meeting the matter of revising the allocations to be made, in the financial statements, of revenues and expenditures effecting the show and trials department.

2532 (2519). "DOGS IN CANADA"

Mr. Back, as Chairman of the "Dogs in Canada" Committee, presented a report on behalf of the Committee. The report indicated an anticipated higher excess of revenue over expenditures at the end of June this year as compared with the same period last year, that the long range plan which had caused a large part of the operating deficit on the magazine in 1952 was bringing the anticipated financial returns, that advertisers are again expressing confidence in the magazine and their investment in its wider distribution, that publication costs would be considerably lower than in 1952, and that every effort would be made to keep general operating costs to a minimum as far as it would be possible to do so.

Mr. Back, in his report, made reference to the car allowance for the Editor which was discussed at the annual meeting of the Board, and outlined why he felt the Board should now authorize a $5.00 weekly car allowance payable to the Editor from the time of the Board's consideration of the Editor's request at its annual meeting.

The President stated that he felt it incumbent on his office to draw to the attention of the Board the fact that the Club is paying the Editor as much as any previous Editor had been paid in addition to which the terms of his employment called for the payment of advertising and subscription commissions, and in his view an increase in overhead costs by way of a car allowance was not consistent with the Board's economy programme.

Following discussion it was regularly moved by Mr. Back, seconded by Mr. Monaghan:

"THAT, the report of the "Dogs in Canada" Committee be adopted, and the request for a $5.00 weekly car allowance to the Editor be approved and effective from February 1st, 1953."

Mr. Brown moved and Mr. Davies seconded the following amendment to the foregoing resolution:

"THAT, the car allowance of $5.00 weekly be paid to the Editor commencing from April 1st, 1953."

FOR THIS MOTION: Mr. Brown, Mr. Davies.

AGAINST THE MOTION: Mr. Back, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. Monaghan.

Motion lost.

The Board then voted on the first of the above-stated resolutions.

FOR THE MOTION: Mr. Back, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. Monaghan.

AGAINST THE MOTION: Mr. Brown, Mr. Davies.

Motion carried.

The meeting adjourned for lunch and later reconvened with the President in the Chair and the same members of the Board present.

2533 (2456). STANDARD CERTIFICATES AND APPLICATIONS

The Secretary read a communication received from the Director of the Canadian National Live Stock Records, this being in answer to the several points raised by the Board at its annual meeting and communicated to the Live Stock Records on the subject of the proposed new form of applications for registration and transfer and the new proposed standard certificate.

The Secretary pointed out that after examining the colour descriptions given in the first 4,000 registrations appearing in the last published stud book, and also the colour descriptions set forth in the "Complete Dog Book" (breed standards), he had prepared and submitted to the Live Stock Records for consideration a proposed colour code intended to comply with the limitation of 12-letter spaces necessary to fit in with the production of certificates by IBM punch card equipment. The Board noted the advice received from the Records Office that the proposed colour coding system is not considered practical unless it could be limited to a maximum of 10 abbreviations.

Following discussion, it was agreed that the matter of a suitable colour code be held over for further consideration.

The Board noted the reply received from the Records Office with regard to the certification of owner of dam of a litter at the time of mating, and unanimously agreed that there must be on record at the Live Stock Records office some form of certification on the part of the owner of the dam at time of mating certifying to the service that resulted in the litter being registered.

The Board noted the comments received from the Records Office with regard to the information to appear on the certificates with regard to tattoo markings, and agreed that in order to facilitate the recording of such markings on standard certificates, the markings placed on any individual dog must be all in the same location, and not divided into two locations.

The Board noted that in accordance with its suggestions, provision would be made for an application for transfer of ownership form to appear on the back of the application for registration of an individual dog, that provision would be made for the required signature of the applicant where a dog has been imported or is owned in another country, and that provision would be made for the full address of the applicant for mailing purposes.

The Board noted the advice received from the Live Stock Records office on the difficulty of coding titles, also the Secretary's suggestion that where the name of a dog permitted (length under 30 letter spaces), any titles earned be shown in the regular position. The Secretary was instructed to seek an instruction from the Board in this connection.

2534 (2527). SPECIAL REFERENDUM BALLOT

The Secretary placed before the Board a proof of the proposed special referendum ballot on the proposed amendment to Article XXXV. In the discussion which followed it was unanimously agreed that instead of showing, on the ballot, the entire schedule of fees in Section 3 of Article XXXV, it would be preferable to show only those fees where increases were proposed. The Secretary was directed to delete the entire schedule to be set out in the revised Article XXXV, and substitute the resolution adopted at the annual general meeting on February 4th, said resolution indicating only those fees where increases were proposed.

The Secretary placed before the Board a printer's proof of the proposed message to accompany the ballot. A letter from Director Mr. Irving in connection with this message was read. Following discussion the proposed message was confirmed, and the Secretary was directed to add a statement to the effect that the message was addressed to the members at the order of the Board, this statement to be followed by names of all members of the Board including Mr. Pratt.

The Secretary was directed to arrange for the ballots to be identified according to the electoral zones into which the ballots are to be mailed, this in order that the Election Committee may later report on the results of the voting by electoral zones.

The Secretary referred to that part of Section 16 of Article XXXVIII (Amendments) reading "All ordinary members in good standing at the date of the mailing of the referendum ballots shall be entitled to vote.", and sought an instruction with regard to mailing ballots to new applicants for membership whose applications had not been referred to the entire Board. The Secretary was directed to arrange for ballots to be mailed to all those whose applications for membership are received up to and including the day on which the ballots are to be mailed.

2535 (2531). FINANCIAL MATTERS (ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE—DOGS IN CANADA)

The Secretary made a detailed report on the standing of the Accounts Receivable ledger of "Dogs in Canada", this report indicating the following balances owing:

Account incurred	Balance owing at Dec. 31/52	Balance owing at May 12/52
Prior to Dec. 31/51	$579.25	$485.85

The Secretary reported that of total accounts receivable for "Dogs in Canada" for the first quarter of 1953 amounting to $4,339.10, the balance owing at the date of this meeting amounted to $622.38.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Back, seconded by Mr. Daniell-Jenkins:

"THAT, the Secretary's report on Accounts Receivable for "Dogs in Canada" be received, and a further report be made at the next meeting of the Board."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

2537 (2470). COMMITTEE ON OBEDIENCE TRIAL JUDGES (PROCEDURE)

The Secretary reported that a further report had not been received from this Committee. No action taken.

2538. LETTER FROM W. W. PRATT

The Secretary read a letter from Mr. W. W. Pratt, Alberta Director, who stated that for health reasons he found it necessary to submit his resignation as Alberta Director. In a subsequent letter to the Secretary, Mr. Pratt recommended the appointment of Miss Agness Hammond to fill the vacancy created by his resignation.

The President reported that whilst in Edmonton judging at a championship show he had been approached by a number of members who had advised him that they intended to submit, for the Board's consideration, the name of a member in the Edmonton area; such members also stated that with the number of members in the Edmonton area and having in mind the rabies situation in Northern Alberta, they considered appointment of a member in the Edmonton area as advisable. The President enquired whether any communications along this line had been received, and the Secretary replied that none had been received up to the time of this meeting.

Following discussion it was regularly moved by Mr. Back, seconded by Mr. Daniell-Jenkins:

"THAT, we accept Mr. Pratt's recommendation, and Miss Agness Hammond be and is hereby appointed to fill the office of Alberta Director for the balance of 1953."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

2539. LETTER FROM MRS. ZELDA EDEN

The Secretary read a letter addressed to the Board by Mrs. Zelda Eden, Toronto, with regard to statements, attributed to the President, appearing in an American canine publication on the subject of CKC policies.

The President stated that the statements attributed to him in the March issue of "Dog World" were purely a misquotation, that he did not seek an interview with Mr. Judy, that no authority was given to publish any statement, that at no time had he suggested that "Dogs in Canada" be abolished, and that he was as loyal to the Club as any member.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Back, seconded by Mr. Davies:

"THAT, we accept the President's explanation of the matter."

FOR THE MOTION: All present, the motion having been put to vote by Mr. Brown, the Second Vice-President.

Motion unanimously carried.

The Secretary was directed to address a letter to Mrs. Eden to the effect that the subject matter of her communication had been discussed by the Board, that the Board had received an explanation from the President to their satisfaction, that the remarks referred to in her letter were a misquotation, and further expressed confidence in the integrity and loyalty of the President.

Mr. Monaghan enquired whether any good purpose would be served by writing Mr. Judy with a view to having a correcting statement published. The President stated that it was his intention to call on Mr. Judy on his way home to Vancouver, and if that were not possible, he would write him.

2540. OBEDIENCE TRIAL REGULATIONS & RULES (INTERPRETATIONS)

The Secretary read letters received from Mrs. J. M. Lyle, Secretary of the Vancouver Dog Obedience Training Club, on the subject of interpretation and enforcement of Section 24 of Chapter 1 of the Obedience Trial Rules. Mr. Monaghan expressed the view that the onus of complying with this Section 24 rests on the owner of the dog, and that it is the responsibility of the owner (or agent) to refrain from entering a dog where an entry in a particular class or obedience trial would be a violation of this rule.

The President suggested that obedience clubs could be required to prominently set forth this rule in their premium lists.

The President further suggested that these communications be acknowledged, that appreciation be expressed for the points put forward, that it be stated that the Board is aware of the interpretation as stipulated and will definitely adhere to the rule, that any qualifying score and/or prize earned by a dog entered in violation of this rule will be cancelled, and that a copy of the Obedience Trial Regulations and Rules will be forwarded to clubs holding licensed obedience trials under CKC Rules and to judges approved to judge said trials.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Back:

"THAT, the President's suggestion with regard to letter to be addressed to the Vancouver Dog Obedience Training Club be carried out, also his suggestion with regard to mailing of rules to obedience clubs and approved judges."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

The Secretary read a letter from Mr. F. H. Mingie, Vice President of the Montreal Dog Obedience Training Club, who sought a ruling on whether, under Section 13 of Chapter 2 of the Obedience Trial Rules, the jump should be lowered six inches on a hard surface regardless of height of the competing dog or whether this applied only in connecteion with those breeds where the maximum height would apply on a soft surface. A memo from the Vancouver Dog Obedience Training Club on this subject was read, the memo pointing out that to apply this rule to all breeds would mean that in the very small breeds dogs would be required to jump less than their own height.

Following discussion it was unanimously agreed that it be suggested that where a trial is held on a hard surface a suitable matting be provided for this test in order to eliminate the necessity for lowering the jump for any breed, and that it be further suggested that those interested in having this rule identical to the AKC rule arrange for a proposed amendment to be submitted for the next referendum ballot.

2541. LETER FROM HON. HAROLD MACPHERSON

The Secretary read a letter received from the Hon. Harold

Macpherson, St. John's, Newfoundland, to which was attached newspaper clippings reporting discussion in the House of Commons on the subject of identification of dogs.

Following discussion it was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Davies:

"THAT, the Secretary inform Mr. Macpherson that the Canadian Kennel Club is incorporated under the Live Stock Pedigree Act Section 5 of which requires that the By-laws of an association shall set forth or provide for "a practical and effective system of identification", that in compliance with the Act the Club has selected nose-printing and tattooing as being a practical and effective system of identification, that the Minister of Agriculture was asked to approve these methods of identification and the Minister has granted his approval to them."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

2542 (2519). "DOGS IN CANADA"

The Secretary read the motion, proposed by Mr. Hedley Hull, adopted at the annual general meeting with regard to the appointment of a Committee to discuss and bring in recommendations, at the second quarterly meeting of the Board, on the subject of "Dogs in Canada".

The President pointed out that the motion called for "the Chair" to appoint the committee, and he had considered it advisable to seek the opinion of the Club's solicitors on whether the motion with regard to the committee coming from the annual general meeting should take precedence over the committee appointed by the Board following the annual general meeting, and also whether the word "business men" could be interpreted as inclusive of business women.

The President read the reply received from the Club's solicitors who were of the opinion that:

(a) The resolution passed at the annual meeting of members was not in accordance with Article XIII (2) because it did not comply with the emphatic words in that By-law that the members in general meeting assembled to appoint a special committee "must in all cases name the member who shall be the presiding officer";

(b) The power to appoint committees held by the Board of Directors and held by the members in general meeting assembled is the same power and one does not take precedence over the other so far as appointment is concerned;

(c) The work of the committees, however appointed, is subject to the approval of the Board of Directors;

(d) The phrase "business men members of the Club in the City of Toronto" includes business women members of the Club in the City of Toronto.

Following discussion it was agreed that, in view of the opinion received from the Club's solicitors, it would be inadvisable for the President to name the committee, but in order to give effect to the wishes of the members who voted for Mr. Hull's motion, that the Board now proceed to appoint the committee.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Back:

"THAT, in view of the solicitors' opinion that instead of complying with the motion of the annual general meeting this Board appoint the Committee."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

It was then regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Back:

"THAT, the following members be appointed to the Committee: Mr. J. H. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. J. Neill Malcolm, Mr. Rodney Hull, Mrs. Mary Fix, and Mr. W. Gottschalk, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins to be Chairman of the Committee."

FOR THE MOTION: All present, except Mr. Daniell-Jenkins who abstained from voting having been named in the motion.

Motion carried.

2543. SALARIES

Mr. Loveridge was admitted to the meeting at his request and advised the Board that one member of his staff was leaving the Club's employ, and he asked that consideration be given to an increase in salary of other female members of the staff. After thorough discussion and unanimous agreement it was regularly moved by Mr. Brown, seconded by Mr. Back:

"THAT, a $5.00 per week increase in salary be granted to each of the following members of the staff: Mrs. Newing, Miss Locke, and Mrs. Barnett."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

2544. BUSINESS ARISING OUT OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The Secretary read the resolutions adopted at the annual general meeting on the subject of the Past President's report and the Report of the Committee on Judges (Procedure).

It was unanimously agreed that no action be taken with regard to publication of these items.

On the matter of the Report of the Committee on Judges (Procedure) it was decided that the resolution would be published in "Dogs in Canada". On the matter of the Past President's report, it was decided that it be not published. Mr. Monaghan then asked how it was intended to explain or justify compliance with the resolution of the annual meeting in one case and non-compliance in the other case. Mr. Walter Brown then expressed the view that in the interests of harmony and economy neither should be published. It was unanimously agreed that no action be taken with regard to publication of these items.

2545 (2548). STUD BOOKS

After a brief discussion, the subject of stud books was ordered tabled.

2546 (2510-2511). AMENDMENTS TO THE DOG SHOW RULES

The Secretary reported that in accordance with the Board's direction the opinion of the Club's solicitors had been obtained with regard to the two conflicting amendments regarding the Reserve Best in Show award, both amendments having been approved by a majority affirmative vote on the last referendum ballot.

The Secretary reported that the solicitors were of the opinion that the proper course would be to give effect to proposed amendment No. 24 which proposed that this award be deleted from the Dog Show Rules.

The Secretary reported that a copy of the solicitors' opinion had been forwarded to all members of the Board and the following members of the Board had expressed the view that the opinion given by the solicitors should be followed: Mr. Williams, Mr. Monaghan, Mr. Pratt, Mr. Brown, Mr. Irving, Mr. Back, Mr. Davies, and Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, while both Mrs. Margeson and Mrs. Mack had indicated a desire that the award be retained in the rules.

A majority of the Board having voted to confirm the opinion given by the Club's solicitors, the Secretary was directed to proceed accordingly. It was unanimously agreed that any prizes offered by clubs for this award be allowed to stand where the premium lists for the shows had been approved prior to the date when the Secretary knew that a majority of the Board felt that the award could no longer remain a part of the Dog Show Rules.

The Secretary reported that the opinion of the Club's solicitors had been sought with regard to the resolution, adopted by the Board at its last annual meeting, re the application of the amendment (No. 30 in last referendum ballot) altering the point ratings for Poodles. The Secretary read the opinion received from the Club's solicitors who felt that the vote of the membership on the ballot must prevail and that the Directors have no power to vary such an amendment.

Following discussion it was unanimously agreed that the opinion of the solicitors must be followed, the action taken at the annual meeting of the Board being subject to the solicitors' opinion.

The Secretary pointed out that when the solicitors had rendered their opinion on the subject of point ratings for Poodles, the solicitors had referred to the interpretation which the Club had placed on the preamble preceding the schedule of championship point ratings appearing in Section 1 of Chapter 21 of the Dog Show Rules.

Following discussion it was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Danielll-Jenkins:

"THAT, we continue to interpret this part of Section 1 of Chapter 21 of the Dog Show Rules as we have since this method of allocating championships points was adopted by the Club, i.e. that a dog award Winners will be credited with one championship point (except in Poodles) even though it may be the only dog in the show of its sex and breed."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

The Secretary reported that as a result of an enquiry from the Hub City Kennel Club of Saskatoon, all members of the Board had been asked to express their opinion as to whether show-giving clubs should now be allowed to publish, in the regular place in their show catalogues, the names of handlers and agents, having in mind the fact that licensing of handlers and agents had been abolished, but also bearing in mind the provisions of Section 6 of Chapter 18 of the Dog Show Rules.

The Secretary reported that Mr. Irving, Mr. Pratt, Dr. Watson, Mr. Brown and Mr. Davies had indicated their opinion that it be left to the show-giving clubs to determine whether names of handlers and agents be published, while Mr. Monaghan had expressed the view that the above-mentioned rule must be observed.

Following discussion it was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Daniell-Jenkins:

"THAT, Section 16 of Chapter 18 of the Dog Show Rules must be observed, and names of handlers and agents must not be published in the regular part of the show catalogue."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

The meeting adjourned for dinner and later reconvened with the President in the Chair and the same members of the Board present.

The Secretary referred to Section 3 of Article X of the Club's By-laws relating to payment of travelling expenses to members of the Board attending Board meetings, and sought an instruction with regard to payment of such expenses.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Back, seconded by Mr. Davies:

"THAT, travelling expenses in connection with meetings of the Board of Directors (other than the annual meeting of the Board) be paid to members of the Board residing in the Province of Ontario."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

2549 (2543-2535). FINANCIAL MATTERS

The Secretary sought approval of the expenditures made during the first three months of the year. It was unanimously agreed that the Board's adoption of the financial statements submitted by the auditors for the first quarter of 1953 constituted approval of the expenditures reported in said statements.

2550 (2482). APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

The Secretary placed before the Board lists of applicants for membership (dated February 23rd, March 5th, March 13th, March 17th, March 27th, April 1st, April 8th, April 15th, April 27th, April 30th), said lists having been mailed to the Board.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Brown, seconded by Mr. Monaghan:

"THAT, the approval granted these applications for membership be and are hereby confirmed."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

Mr. Brown stated that under the practice now in effect where new applicants for membership are concerned, in many cases it was three weeks to a month before the applicant received his membership card, and in the meantime many applicants were holding back applications for registration pending receipt of a membership card. He suggested that the present practice of periodically sending lists of applications for membership to the Board and awaiting ten days before issuing cards be dispensed with, and the Secretary be authorized to promptly issue cards except in such cases where he believed the Board may wish to withhold approval.

Following discussion it was regularly moved by Mr. Brown, seconded by Mr. Davies:

"THAT, we reconsider the procedure followed in respect of new applications for membership."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Brown, seconded by Mr. Back:

"THAT, we discontinue the practice of waiting ten days before mailing membership cards to new applicants for membership, and the Secretary be and is hereby authorized to promptly issue membership cards except in any cases where he believes the Board's prior consideration is advisable in connection with any particular application or applications."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

The Secretary was directed to inform members of the Board not present why it was considered advisable to alter the practice confirmed at the annual meeting of the Board.

2551 (2521). KENNEL NAMES

The Secretary sought confirmation of the approval granted the following applications for registration of kennel names: BRAEVIEW, DOMINO, HENRY KAY, KASSANDRA, WOODCOCK, BARROGILL, COQUET DALE, DINAH MITE, GLENEAGLES, GLEN ECHO, GOLDEN CIRCLE, HIGHVIEW, HI-GLOW, LAWN-DALE, MERMAC, NIPISSING, PATTY'S, ROBINSWOOD, SHERWOOD, TECKELHAVEN, WYNFIELD, COPPER, ERIE BREEZE, GOLDEN ARROW, HALLMARK, KIRK'S, MACON, SEIGNIORY, URBANE, VALMAX, WHITEHART, and WYCLIFFE.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Back, seconded by Mr. Davies:

"THAT, the applications for registration of kennel names reported by the Secretary be and are hereby approved."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

The Secretary read a letter from Director Mrs. Margeson with regard to the names CRANMORE and CANMORE. The Secretary was directed to obtain information to be forwarded to Mrs. Margeson and Mr. Laskey.

2552 (2520). SHOW & TRIAL MATTERS

The Secretary reported that information received from The American Kennel Club indicated that the American Kennel Club did not have any special regulations for unbenched shows. The Secretary was directed to so inform Mr. Irving (see Item No. 2479).

The Secretary reported that in order to save printing costs the Dog Show Rules had not been printed since 1951, and the present practice was to forward, wherever necessary, a copy of the 1951 rules together with a mimeographed copy of the amendments that have come into effect since 1951. He reported that while every care was being exercised in connection with distribution of copies of the rules, present indications were that it would be necessary to reprint the rules before the end of the year.

The Secretary was authorized to have the revised rules re printed if that should be necessary.

2553. APPOINTMENT OF MANITOBA DIRECTOR

The Board considered the action to be taken to fill the vacancy in the office of Director for the Province of Manitoba, said vacancy having been created through the passing of Mrs J. F. Kerr.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Brown, seconded by Mr Back:

"THAT, we proceed to fill the vacancy in the office of Director for the Province of Manitoba."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

After discussion and noting that Mr. Alec Gostick had been a former Director of the Club, it was regularly moved by Mr Davies, seconded by Mr. Back:

"THAT, Mr. Alec Gostick be and is hereby appointed Director for the Province of Manitoba for the balance of 1953, said appointment to be subject to Mr. Gostick's acceptance of the appointment."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

2554. COPIES OF MINUTES OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The Secretary sought an instruction in connection with filling any requests for copies of minutes of the last annual general meeting.

Following discussion it was unanimously agreed that the charge for a copy of the minutes of the last annual general meeting be the same as the price to be quoted by the chartered stenographer who recorded the minutes of said meeting (price to be obtained by the Secretary).

2555. BREED STANDARDS

The Secretary reported that occasionally a request is received for a copy of the standard of a particular breed, and sought an instruction with regard to filling such requests.

Following discussion the Secretary was directed to inform any person requesting a copy of a breed standard that a copy of the standard may be obtained by purchasing a copy of "The Complete Dog Book", available through "Dogs in Canada".

2556 (2506). HANDLERS

The Secretary sought an instruction regarding the policy to be followed in connection with an American handler whose handler's license had been suspended by the American Kennel Club but who had not otherwise been suspended or disqualified by the American Kennel Club.

The Secretary reported that he had discussed the matter with the Club's solicitors who had expressed the opinion that until such time as the American Kennel Club officially notifies the Canadian Kennel Club that a particular person has been suspended, expelled, or disqualified by The American Kennel Club, the provisions of Chapter 25 (Participation in Dog Show) of the Dog Show Rules (and similar rules in Field Trial Rules and Obedience Trial Rules and Regulations) would not apply.

Following discussion it was unanimously agreed that the Secretary be governed according to the opinion obtained from the Club's solicitors.

2558. HONORARY PRESIDENT AND HONORARY VICE-PRESIDENT

The Board noted that with the passing of Col. J. N. MacRae, the office of Honorary President was now vacant.

Following discussion it was regularly moved by Mr. Brown, seconded by Mr. Davies:

"THAT, subject to his acceptance of the appointment, Dr. J. A. Campbell be and is hereby appointed Honorary President of the Club."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

Mr. Monaghan pointed out that the Board had previously appointed a resident of eastern Canada as an Honorary Vice-President of the Club, and suggested that a similar appointment be made for western Canada. Mr. Monaghan suggested that Mr. John Milner, Winnipeg, be appointed an Honorary Vice-President.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Back:

"THAT, subject to his acceptance of the appointment, Mr. John Milner, Winnipeg, be and is hereby appointed an Honorary Vice-President of the Club."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

2560. BENEFIT SHOWS

The President read a letter addressed to him by W. W. Laskey, Fredericton, and his reply thereto, on the subject of raising funds for the benefit of the Canadian Kennel Club.

Following discussion the Secretary was directed to inform Mr. Laskey that his letter had been placed before the Board of Directors, to inform Mr. Laskey of the opinion received from the Club's solicitors regarding the holding of shows by the Canadian Kennel Club, and to advise Mr. Laskey that his offer of a donation had been turned over to Mr. Walter Brown, President of the Ascot Kennel Club.

The President stated that on his return to Vancouver it was his intention to hold a rally of members of the Club in British Columbia for the purpose of discussing ways and means of raising funds for the benefit of the Canadian Kennel Club. The President sought the Board's approval of the proposed rally.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Davies:

"THAT, the President be authorized to call a rally of Canadian Kennel Club members in British Columbia for the purpose of discussing ways and means to augment the funds of the Canadian Kennel Club through benefit shows."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

2561 (2515). REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EXAMINATION & CERTIFICATION OF JUDGES

Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, on behalf of the Committee composed of Mr. Davies, Mr. Monaghan and himself, reported on the progress being made by the Committee appointed by the Board to consider and submit recommendations to the Board on the setting up of the necessary machinery to carry out the new Dog Show Rules on the examination and certification of judges for championship shows. Mr. Daniell-Jenkins stated that the Committee anticipates that its initial recommendations will be available for the Board's consideration at its next meeting.

2562. OFFICIAL PEDIGREES FOR IMPORTED DOGS

Mr. Monaghan pointed out that for many years the importer of a dog to be registered in the Club's records has been required (except in case of Dogs imported from the United States) to supply the Live Stock Records office with a certified three generation pedigree. He suggested that the Live Stock Records Office should have on file, before registration is granted, a certified three generation pedigree for any imported dog, said pedigree certificate to be issued by the recognized kennel club in the country from which the dog was imported to Canada.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Daniell-Jenkins:

"THAT, the Canadian National Live Stock Records office be instructed that before an imported dog is registered in the Club's records, a three-generation certified pedigree of the imported dog must be filed at their office."

FOR THE MOTION: All present.

Motion unanimously carried.

2563. PREPAID MEMBERSHIP FEES

Mr. Monaghan pointed out that towards the end of the calendar year quite a number of members pay their membership fees for the following year, but that it is the practice of the Live Stock Records office to promptly deposit such fees and credit the fees to the year in which the fees were actually received. He suggested that the Live Stock Records Office be asked to continue to deposit such fees promptly, but to arrange to tabulate such payments in order that the Club could properly credit the fees to the year for which the fees were actually paid.

Following discussion the Secretary was ordered to place this matter on the agenda of the next annual meeting of the Board.

2564. CERTIFICATES FOR EXPORTED DOGS

The President reported on correspondence with Mr. E. Chevrier, Winnipeg, on the difficulties experienced by American importers of dogs in obtaining return of Canadian Kennel Club certificates issued for dogs exported to the United States. Following discussion it was unanimously agreed that the Secretary write a letter to the Bureau suggesting that the certificates be returned direct to the American importers rather than to the express companies handling the shipments.

2565. ADJOURNMENT

At 10.09 p.m., on motion by Mr. Back, duly seconded and carried, this meeting of the Board of Directors adjourned.
