. . . A NEW TROPHY

A new trophy will make its appearance at Canadian Championship Dog Shows this year: The Lord Calvert Trophy for the Best Canadian-Bred in Show. These trophies, which are being donated by Calvert Distillers Limited, will be made available for competition at shows recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club, Inc.

It is sincerely hoped that The Lord Calvert Trophies will provide an added incentive to Canadian owners and breeders to compete in local and national dog shows . . . and that they will be a factor in maintaining and improving standards of Canadian-bred dogs.

BOOK REVIEW

PURE BREDS, by Morgan Dennis, 84 pp., illustrated; published by the John C. Winston Co. and obtainable through Dogs in Canada; $3.50.

For over twenty years the author has drawn and studied dogs. In "Pure Breds", which he illustrates himself with drawings of each breed and a representative puppy, he gives brief histories and identifying characteristics of the more than one hundred pure-bred dogs recognized by the American Kennel Club. His language is simple and concise; his drawings expertly executed. The book is essentially a popular volume, with sufficient descriptions of the chief characteristics of each breed to suit anyone desiring a general knowledge of pure-bred dogs.

On Parade . . .

DOG SHOWS are possibly one of the most intriguing of all places to study nature, both in the canines and in the humans, and more particularly the humans. One sees human nature at its brightest and very best. One also sees it in varying stages down and down the darksome way to the depths of unhappy, querulous pettiness. Fortunately for the future well-being of dogdom the latter are an extremely small and quite elastic minority.

Probably there is nothing original in the idea, but it would seem to be good for the healthy growth of dogdom if some enterprising show-giving Club would enlarge their prize awards to include "The Best Sport", or "The Most Gentlemanly or Gentlewomanly Exhibitor"; the one, in short, who could be most closely associated with best-mannered, healthy pure-bred dogs.

We have such awards in hockey; the Lady Byng Trophy. We have it in other sports. And surely exhibiting at dog shows, with the paying general public in attendance, must be essentially considered a sport. If we are not real sports-minded, then it is doubtful if we should have any place in the dog business.

Such awards would surely tend to make the more fractious exhibitor smother his or her petty gripes. It would also make shows more enjoyable for everyone concerned; including the dogs.

We do not lose sight of the important fact that Dog Shows are the scene of strong competitive efforts and that winning is an essential part of successful business. But we cannot, surely, have these as a one-aim mania. The sporting instinct must be uppermost.

Perhaps someone has constructive thoughts on this subject? We would merely venture the added personal thought that should "Best Sport" awards be made, they would not go to those who talk most of being good sports. A real good sport is too modest to boast about himself.

THE somewhat sudden passing of Mr. William C. Baldwin of Ottawa, on top of the recently deceased Jack McNaughton, Frank Creasey, and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Simpson, leaves further wide gaps in the Canadian sporting scene of dogdom that will be difficult to fill. Like the others, Mr. Baldwin was internationally known and respected. He was a judge, breeder, a good sport and a good citizen. When most of us were struggling with the three R's, Mr. Baldwin was judging dog shows in New York. Memories linger on for all who knew any one of the above, and the world is surely richer in more than one way for their having been with us here.

IT is always a pleasant interlude to chronicle any worthy effort made by those who promote the best interests of dogdom, and more particularly when the effort makes the useful service rendered by the Canadian Kennel Club more widely known and respected across the Dominion. As we go to press, and your president, Mrs. Alva McColl, is helping to promote dogdom somewhere in the Prairies, news comes of a big public relations job done by your president that will be seen by countless Canadians from coast to coast. The current issue of a national weekly, 'Week-End carries a lengthy illustrated article on your president, and through your president reflects on the good work of the C.K.C.

THE question has come to our desk more than once as to the identity of the model in the picture of the German Shepherd dog in The Lord Calvert advertisement in our April issue. Of course, in search for a Champion German Shepherd the artist could probably have gone to any one of several kennels. Why Am. and Can. Ch. Minka-V-Steglich, of Samuel Back's DeGrassi Kennels in Toronto, was chosen we won't pretend to know. But it was probably much more than accidental. Minka-V-Steglich is the German Shepherd bitch that won the William H. Pym medal for the most Best of Show awards in Canada during 1952. She had 5 Best of Show, 20 Best of Breed, 7 First in Working Group, 7 Second in Working Group and 3 Fourth in Working Group in less than a year.

The brindle Boxer, Ch. Malabar's Cold Cash, owned by Mr. S. W. Scarpa of Malabar's Kennels, Point Fortune, Que., was model for The Lord Calvert advertisement in the present issue.

IN BRIEF . . . Calvert Distillers are doing a big public relations job for Canadian pure-bred dogs at the 1954 Canadian International Trade Fair in Toronto. Each day a different Canadian Champion is shown, either framed in their elegant booth, or parading around to the interest and amusement of visitors from the four corners of the World. . . . The recent Canadian National Sportsmen's Dog Show in Toronto is reported to have had a deficit of $722. . . . The win by Jean Grant's "Painted Besom of Blossomlea" at Victoria, B.C. is believed to be the first time a Canadian Bred by Exhibitor Boxer Bitch won a Best in Show in Canada. . . . Lorna Jackson is taking time out from her busy handling chores to start another monthly series, "It's the Dog-Gonedest Life", in Dogs in Canada. Judging from past comments on Lorna's entertaining writings this feature should be popular with the great mass of our readers. . . . What Dr. Hector L. Watson, the eminent Regina medico and Saskatchewan director of the C.K.C., has to say about dogs and dogdom is always worthy of our fullest attention. He has two highly constructive articles in this issue on Dog Shows that should stimulate considerable interest. . . . Gertrude M. Drew of Toronto has carried out some considerable research work and has had many years practical experience with Setters. She can also write entertainingly. You will find her article on Setters of fascinating interest. . . . We are deeply grateful to the contributors who share their good stories, constructive ideas, studies and experiences among readers. It all helps so much in furthering our one big aim of promoting the best interests of pure bred dogs and of good, clean, safe sportsmanship.

Hints on

Housebreaking and Training Puppies

AT the outset of his career the healthy puppy, like a healthy child, is a supreme egoist. His spirit is high. "The world is his oyster," a special plaything designed for him alone; and men and women were made solely as his playmates. It loves to be petted and fussed over; and in his cheerful and insolent individualism he knows no restrictions nor recognizes any laws. The only law he knows is his own right to do what he pleases when, where and as he pleases.

Such characteristics constitute most of the appeal of a puppy. Without them he would not be half so attractive. But if the puppy is allowed to continue in this mode of living, uncurbed and a perfect autocrat about the house, he will develop into a dog that is not only an unpleasant companion, but a constant source of worry to his master. Hence the necessity of training.

If the pup is to develop into a decent canine citizen of whom his master can be proud and his friends fond, his outlook on life must be altered. He must be brought within the restrictions of discipline and educated to a proper understanding of his relations with his master and the rest of mankind. And all this must be done without breaking the spirit that characterizes him as a puppy.

The training necessary to develop an irresponsible puppy into a dog that is both a gentleman in the house and a loyal, obedient companion outside is not difficult. It takes a great deal of patience, considerable time, and a thorough understanding of the procedure. But first, there are a few fundamental principles to be digested before even a start is made.

Mental Development

First, keep in mind the theory that your dog is primarily interested in pleasing you. Actually, he wants to do only what you want him to. And your job is to develop his mind to a point where he understands your wishes. From the very beginning you must gain the confidence of the puppy, letting him feel that you are the master, but kindly and just. He will then take pleasure in your company and will be anxious to please you. When he does wrong, rebuke him; never whip him. If you have his confidence, he will recognize your displeasure from the tone of your voice and be thoroughly ashamed of himself. In some cases, rebuke is not enough. Then smack him on the hindquarters with a folded newspaper. The noise will scare him more than the blow will hurt him; but the same purpose is served.

For larger breeds, a whip is a handy thing to have—if it is not used. If all else fails, the gentlest flick with the whip will emphasize your meaning, but it must never be hard enough to hurt. One hint of pain, at the hands of his master, destroys a dog's confidence and instills fear in its place.

When training, go off into a familiar place or room where nothing can distract his attention. If you lose his attention in the middle of a lesson, you must start all over again.

The dog must be literally a one-man dog during the training period. Let nobody else feed or care for the pup or even drop him a tidbit as a treat. His interest and affection must be centred on one person only at all times.

Simple Vocabulary

Be consistent in the words you use. Remember that dogs understand sounds and not words; their training evolves around the association of certain actions with certain sounds. For instance, do not use "fetch" one time and "bring" the next.

Teach a pup one thing at a time and make sure he has mastered one thing before going on to the next. Put him through all his early paces at the beginning and end of each later lesson.

Be confident. A dog, like a horse, senses lack of confidence and will note instantly any uncertainty in your manner.

Except in housebreaking, always have your dog on a leash for the early lessons—until you feel he has learned his lesson well enough to do it without your control.

Remember, there is no place in a dog's training for anger.

The procedure for housebreaking is more a matter of common sense than training routine. It requires a great deal of patience and careful watching, but a persistent effort should show results in a very short time. Let the dog outside first thing in the morning, last thing at night and after every meal. Those are the times when he is most likely to misbehave. Go with him, when you can, to some secluded part of the garden, wait for him, and then pet him and play with him if he relieves himself. In between times, a young puppy should be watched closely. The first signs of an intended mis-

To a Litter of Puppies

Cute little blue-eyed rascals, bundles of woolly fur,
Tumblin' over each other, lookin' for somethin' to stir;
Clumsy, awkward, an' wobbly, uncertain of gait or feet,
Waggin' yer tails so friendly, at everythin' that y' meet.

Now is life's golden play-time, nothin' t' do but play,
Chewin' yer faithful mother's ear when she tells y' t' obey.
Chasin' yer brother's tail tip, makin' him angry quite,
Growls like a grizzly bear cub, ends in a friendly fight.

Tugs o' war with a blanket, buryin' bones in the straw,
Fallin' into the feed dish, stepped on by mother's paw;
Stalkin' a bug on the doorsill, playin' wild games o' tag,
Then all curled up in a ball there, too tired even to wag.

Dear little baby doggies, golden an' snowy white,
Fat little paws all folded, dark little noses bright,
Never a care or worry, life's but a game at best,
Warm and quite contented, snug in your strawy nest.

Soon you'll go out in the big world, to find your masters new,
I reckon you'll never find one that loves you like I do.
But I hope you'll all find someone, a master true and kind,
That'll cherish you, and love you, the friend of all mankind.

Candid Comments

Notes on Dog Show

Although the author centres his comments on his home Province of Saskatchewan they should be read with interest, and profit in all provinces.

Hector L. Watson, M.D., C.M.

SPRING appears to have arrived at last in Saskatchewan, belatedly it is true, but the sun once more shines warmly, the trees are in leaf, and the sound of farm machinery fills all the prairie days and much of the nights. The onset of Spring and Summer also heralds the arrival of dog shows on the Prairies. Already Moose Jaw has concluded a most successful three one-day effort, with good entries from out of the Province. Regina is next on the list, at the end of July, and Saskatoon follows late in August or early in September.

Timing of Shows

Reflection on the timing of these three shows would not come amiss.

There are many reasons why each city applies for dates at these particular times. Moose Jaw, for instance, always likes to get on the Spring Prairie Circuit. Regina, on the other hand, prefers to hold its shows during the Provincial Exhibition; while Saskatoon, newly reorganized, is returning to the show arena after an absence, and hopes to tie in with the Fall Circuit.

It seems a pity that the three major points in Saskatchewan could not get together and arrange their shows to follow one another. Surely three sets of shows within the Province would attract more out-of-province entries than do isolated shows in three different centres at widely spaced intervals.

Each Club, as I said, has what appears to them to be good and sufficient reasons for timing their shows as they do. But are we quite certain the reasons are adequate when weighed against the obvious advantages of getting together on dates, and holding a Prairie Circuit, or even a Saskatchewan Circuit? Certainly, from the point of view of the exhibitor, this plan would be of inestimable value, especially when we remember that most of us in the fancy are working full time at other jobs, and under a set-up such as this could arrange holiday time to coincide with the Show Circuit.

Profit in Co-operation

Of course, to do this would require some sacrifice on the part of each Club, and—here's the catch—real co-operation between the Clubs.

Co-operation between one club and another could easily bring us advantages far beyond the obvious benefits to be derived from consecutive show dates.

Dr. Watson is a medical doctor in Regina and also Saskatchewan Director of the Canadian Kennel Club.

The problem of proper fees for judges, the problem of adequate benching, catalogues, premium lists and advertising are all very real and pressing problems. When dealt with co-operatively, considerable savings could be gained by each Club. What we would require is a willingness on the part of all the clubs to work together, to make small individual sacrifices for the greater good of all. It will be immediately apparent that it is both economically and practically possible to carry out our shows this way. It will be just as apparent that we shall have to work together in order to achieve it. Co-operate!

Individual Co-operation

Of course we cannot hope to see this kind of co-operation in action between the Clubs if we cannot manage to foster individual co-operation.

I have never had any real regard for the person who, to speak slangily, lets himself be "put upon". On the other hand, there is no room in any endeavour, from a rummage sale to a dog show, for the continual griper, the inveterate sore-head.

Too often show-giving Clubs are obliged to bear with the type of person who stands on his rights even to the detriment of the rest of the exhibitors. We see him (and even her) demanding this, that, or the other thing of the show-giving Club, invariably first to complain if he or she thinks someone else is getting more than their due. This is the type, the bane of every Secretary and Superintendent's life, who breaks the rules and excuses their guilt by claiming some infraction of rules by the Club or a fellow-exhibitor. This is the type who fills the Complaint Box with grievances about the Superintendent not doing his job, even as he, the complainant, breaks rules and demands favours. This is NOT co-operation.

I do not mean to suggest that when things are obviously wrong at shows we should condone the fault by allowing it to continue without comment. I do suggest that courtesy and co-operation would demand an exhibitor mention the fault to the Superintendent and give him an opportunity to correct it before raising a fuss. There is an old, trite and true saying about two wrongs never making a right. This is just as true at dog shows as elsewhere. No person ever corrected an error at a dog show by falling into another error. That is not co-operation. It is not even good sense.

Sensible Appreciation of Show

Have you ever thought that those of us who use dog shows to exhibit our wares to the public, to gain points for our dogs which make them more readily saleable at better prices, might stop occasionally to appreciate that Shows do something for us, and pause to ask what we do for them? None of us is showing dogs out of the kindness of our hearts, or because we like the Show Secretary. Not really. We are showing because we want to, or because we find it pays us; perhaps both. This being so, it is surely up to us to do a little something more than paying our entry fee and getting our dogs to the Show. We will rarely be asked to give any material assistance. We will always be asked to co-operate. Can we not do this much?

Limitations in Dog Show Rules

All of us on the Prairies who have attended shows, and particularly those among us who have attempted to run shows, know the difficulties involved. The Dog Show rules are set up and devised to cover as many contingencies as possible. There are always going to be occasions when something arises which cannot, in fairness, be dealt with strictly according to the letter of the rules.

When you know the Club has been nearly frantic trying to find a building to house their show, can you be too carping in your criticism of the accommodation?

When you know that the whole show

Tasty Tomatoes

IT'S the law in many places to keep your dog chained during the so-called summer months. The other day a gang of canines got together again for a rare old time—racing through fields. They finally ended up in a green house filled with tomato plants.

P.S.—The shipping crates bore the inscription:

"—Hot House Tomatoes
The only Tomatoes boasting the New —Rich — Rare Flavour".

It's in the Mind

DOROTHY ILES of Turnerville, Ont., tells us that at the recent Hull, Que. Show, two ladies were walking by the Chihuahua benches. Stopping in front of the cages, one exclaimed, "Oh, look at that tiny wee mite. Aren't you ever afraid you'll step on him?" "Shush", replied the owner. "Don't let him hear you. He doesn't dream he's so little".

A Good Deed

FIVE grubby little boys stood patiently beside Bob Steele's dog accessory booth at the recent Trenton, N.J. Show. People came and went and the little fellows waited quietly, occasionally holding a conference among themselves. Looking closer you saw the boys were about seven years of age. The one standing closest to the booth, had a visible dollar clutched in his hand, while one further away had both arms wrapped tightly around a small, happy, brown and white puppy.

Finally the spokesman for the little gang approached Mrs. Steele and politely asked for a collar and a leash.

After showing the solemn little fellow all her wares, he finally picked on a raw-hide show lead, worth $1.50.

The lead was put on the little dog and the puppy lowered to the ground. Proudly the little fellow produced the dollar. It was all he had.

Mrs. Steele smiled and said "Okay, fellows", and the proud little gang went parading their puppy around the benches and show grounds. The puppy went on the lead like an old veteran and the children; well, they were a mighty proud little troupe.

Once I was glad I was a dog,
Things were simple that way;
But now I'm not sure I like the life
That's been coming 'round my way.

I used to run around and play
And guard my master's house;
But now I'm treated like a doll,
Am I a dog — or mouse?

My mistress buys me fancy clothes,
Mink coats and hats to wear;
A pair of beaded booties
And a pearl clip for my hair.

Now I have to wear pajamas
When I go to bed;
And this will really kill you,
. . . A night cap on my head!

My pasterns now sport bracelets
My toes a diamond ring;
Every day, I'm clipped, or groomed,
And perfumed . . . what a thing!

No longer can I roam around
And play like dogs once did.
So, if you think you'd like this life
Just tabulate your kid.

Fashion Notes

DEAH me! dogs are getting just too, too, these days.

New York's East Side boast the Canine Couturier, where snooty pooches can really "put on the dog" for a certain high consideration, of course.

Studded cocktail collars $23.50 to $30.00, with matching velvet leads $13.50 up. Of course, mink, persian lamb and ermine collars are available at a much higher cost.

Dog tailors are on hand to custom make the canine clothes—cloth and fur coats a specialty.

Pajamas and nighties, silk or satin, with or without fur collars, are such a buy at $35.00 and UP.

And my deah . . . those red velvet lounging robes with doggies' initials, are just a mere $47.50 UP.

Mink capes can be bought for only $50.00 to $95.00; and hats, specially designed by a well known milliner, start at $35.00.

"Gay Dog" scarves are all the fashion and owner-dog sets will soon be on sale; as will dog tights, Toreador style.

Of course, bracelets, pearl clips, rings and necklaces are being created for the pups who are partial to jewelry. And no dog should be without the unique perfume, Kennel No. 9—which smells, so they say, like new mown hay. (How many social-minded Great Danes have you?)

Grosse Pointe, Michigan, too boasts "Poodle Paradise", a must for the Society dogs. Besides the doggy wardrobes and accessories, especially designed cocktail collars and leashes of very ultra and individual design, and a complete "new look" at the beauty parlor (oil shampoos, and manicure included) for the social "do's" of the doggy ships. A grey canine may become anything from a shrimp pink, to a sea green, with a matching ensemble.

Montreal, Que., not to be out-done, blooms forth with the Dog Studio. There, expert hands make the doggy beautiful. One can purchase everything from nasal sprays to canine umbrellas, not to mention pantaloons, bonnets, jumpers and, of course, booties.

Just to be different, most of these puppy dream-ups are imported from England.

Must say I am a little surprised no one has come up with a Canine Luggage Shop. How can one travel without jewel boxes, hat boxes, suitcases, train-cases, shoe-boxes and a wardrobe trunk . . . just for Fido?

Setters—

English, Irish and Gordon

Sidelights into the Romantic History of these popular Sporting Dogs

By GERTRUDE W. DREW
Toronto, Ont.

IN THIS short article it is not possible to devote a great deal of space to the history of Setters. Their development is so involved and their advent into prominence dating back so many centuries, it would require a large volume to adequately tell the story.

Yet at this time, when the breed has reached such a high standard of perfection, and has risen to such heights of popularity, it is but appropriate that an outline of the evolution of this special group be recalled, together with due tribute to its developers.

Particularly apropos is such a resumé in view of confusion in the minds of new fanciers as to Setter origin. This, however, is quite pardonable, for, even among breeders, there exists a variance of opinion as to the exact derivation, due to the absence of authenticated data, which breeding pioneers unfortunately did not leave to posterity.

Also, the distinctions of the various strains of setters are not familiarly understood by some of the newer generation of sporting dog fanciers. In this country, as in other countries where Setters are popular, there appears to be difficulty in disciminating the degree of difference or relationship between Laveracks, Llewellyns, Gordons, English, Irish and Beltons.

Antiquity of Setter

The antiquity of the Setter is unquestioned, and although definite proof is lacking, it is generally accepted that the origin of the Setter dates back to the 14th century, or about the time of the reign of Edward III.

How long before the 14th century these dogs existed no one knows, but in the "Master of Game", written in 1410, Edward Plantagenet, 2nd Duke of York, expressed as his opinion "these dogs were called Spaniels, because they came from Spain". They were used for flushing feathered game to falcons; falcony then being the sport of royalty.

Netting

When the demand for game as food increased, it was necessary to find a quicker way of procuring it. It was at the end of that century and the beginning of the 15th, that a device known as "the net" was introduced. These same dogs were then used to drive the birds towards the extended net and were taught to "crouch" or "set", allowing the fowler to draw it over the dog as well as the birds.

Reference to the innovation of netting is made in Edward Ash's "Dogs and Their History", when he quotes from a 14th century manuscript. The writer, Joseph Strutt, speaking of that dog, wrote: "Hys crafte is for the perdriche, or partridge, and the quaile; and when taught to crouch, he is very servicable for those who take these birds with nets".

Later in the 15th century we find more support of the belief that the Setter is of ancient descent, from a canvas by Albrecht Durer, a Flemish painter, who died in 1528. In one corner of his picture, the "Patron St. Hubert", is a dog almost identical with tri-coloured Setter of the eighteenth century.

In the 16th century, a painter named Oudry also depicted Setters, and a writer of about the same period makes mention of "the quick scent of an excellent setting dog."

In the 17th century there was published a small work on dogs in which interesting notes on the Setter were given. The author is quoted as saying: "The setting dog which is most familiar with us, is spotted with liver colour and white, the use of him is to range the field and set partridges; he is of the Spaniel kind and of middling size, has a very tender nose and will quarter a field in a little time."

Throughout this century other writers elaborate on this high ranging dog, which they term a Spaniel. Much more evidence could be produced to link this phantom dog with the Setter of later years.

Setting Spaniel

Taking cognizance of the foregoing facts, it is quite clear that these olden writers of sports and sporting dogs were all referring to the same dog, and that dog was a Spaniel or a so-called Spaniel. In all probability it was the large Spaniel which came originally from Spain, and on account of his being taught to "set" he was dubbed the "Setting Spaniel" or, in short, the "Setter".

English Spaniels

The 18th century heralded the genesis of our great Setters and, while there were various kinds of dogs so designated on account of their appropriation into that service, the only ones entitled to classification under the appellation "Setter" were those known as "English Spaniels".

Thus this vague history which comes to us from out the fogs of antiquity is but supposition, or theory. It is, therefore, upon presumption that we accept the Spaniel as the foundation dog of the Setter.

Laverack

Edward Laverack, reputed to be the greatest authority on Setters of all time, began what would appear to be the first authentic record of the English Setter. His description of a typical specimen was that it resembled a "strongly built Spaniel". While he attempted no theory on the Setters' origin, he stated he could personally trace the breed back for a period of 75 years.

Mr. Laverack's advent into pubilc notice, which was to revolutionize all preconceived ideas on breeding, came about following his appearance at a bench show for sporting dogs. These shows, which had been held from shortly before 1860, saw all Setters competing together, with "black and tans", usually winning major awards. At one of these shows Mr. Laverack attended with a few dogs, and much to the amazement of well-known sportsmen of the day, won everything.

Inbreeding

But the furore occasioned by his wins and the admiration his dogs elicited was nothing compared to the consternation he created when he stated his Setters were the product of 40 years of breeding from two basic dogs. Publication of his pedigrees showed an unbelievable amount of in-breeding, which was diametrically opposed to all recognized rules then in vogue. So scientific had been his programme that no signs of degeneration were in evidence, but rather dogs of superior quality bearing all the desirable physical attributes requisite to the progression of the breed.

In 1825 Mr. Laverack purchased his foundation dogs, "Old Moll" and "Ponto" from the Rev. A. Harrison, of Carlisle, and it was from this pair that he established his famous kennel. "Old Moll" and "Ponto" are described as "blue Beltons", so named by Mr. Laverack after a village in Northumberland and, from these two dogs he perpetuated a strain which, to the present day, bears his name and from which all Laverack dogs descended.

The name "Laverack" does not denote any special type or colour, but merely derive their name from their breeder.

Llewellyn and Gordon

Without detracting from the wonderful achievements of Edward Laverack, without whose contribution the evolution of the present day Setter would have been impossible, equal credit must be shared with two other pioneer breeders. Foremost of these was R. L. Purcell Llewellyn, of Tregwynt, Pembrokeshire, South-Western Wales, who did more for securing perfection in the Setter than any man of past or present generation. The other was the Duke of Gordon, to whom all credit must go for the development of Scotland's national gun dog, the Gordon Setter.

Llewellyn

Mr. Llewellyn, a country gentleman and shooting enthusiast, began with black and tan Setters. He had also experimented with Irish Setters and had produced fine dogs. It was but natural when the Laverack dogs made their appearance that they should capture his interest. Realizing their possibilities he acquired one of the best specimen of that strain, "Countess", a pure Laverack, and later, his famous "Nellie", "Prince" and "Daisy", and other dogs of that breed.

He also stood in defence of Laverack whose rise to prominence had incurred the enmity of many breeders who foresaw their own prestige waning should his dogs succeed in eclipsing their own black and tans. Mr. Llewellyn promptly challenged Rev. T. Pearce, who wrote on the subject in the press under the pen name of "Idstone" to a match with a brace of his Gordons against a pair of Mr. Llewellyn's Laveracks. Needless to say the challenge was not accepted.

Although "Countess" was acknowledged a bitch without rival, and the Laverack dogs possessed indomitable spirit, high powers of scent and unprecedented beauty and grace, Mr. Llewellyn was not blinded to their defects, and to this discernment and ambition to produce an even greater gundog, the true Setter lover still pays tribute.

Despite their wonderful accomplishments, Mr. Llewellyn recognized that if defects manifest in the field were not corrected, their practical utility would be lost. He found that in-breeding had taken its toll in the matter of reliability, which made their control by voice or whistle at times impossible. His task was obviously a difficult one; to retain the highly desirable and eliminate the objectionable with but the uncertain prospects of that day to work with.

Cross-Breeding

Yet Mr. Llewellyn did succeed, and on his first attempt, when he made his first cross with a big heavy-boned dog named "Dan", which he purchased from Mr. Thomas Statter. In 1871, "Dan" and a litter brother named "Dick", appeared at the Field Trials and were such a revelation that Mr. Llewellyn lost no time in contacting their owner. In order to get Dan, he was forced to purchase the brace at a price of $1,500. "Dick" and "Dan" had a pedigree going back some 40 years and were the product of Mr. Statter's "Rhoebe" and a dog named "Duke", belonging to Edward Armstrong. They were described as a south Esk and Gordon cross and were black, white and tan.

The result of this and later matings with a litter sister "Dora", afterwards purchased, were fine bold dogs exceeding expectations in the field. To his kennels he later added the blood of out-crosses of the same strain. And from these out-crosses he evolved two families of Setters, allied in blood, though not closely connected, viz: the "Windems" and the "Bondhus".

Canada Gets First Llewellyn Setter

In 1868 Mr. Llewellyn began to export his surplus Windems to America and, let it be said, Canada has the distinction of owning the first Llewellyn Setter. Mr. L. H. Smith of Strathroy, Ont., brought over to America a bitch named "Dart". A short time later Mr. Dan Luther, of Boston, imported two.

For many years the Llewellyns had to fight their way in America. A great deal of jealousy was aroused over their success at field trials, and owners of native dogs were reluctant to admit

Dog Shows:

Entertainment and Hazards

The need for Re-Assessment of Values and Necessity for Safeguarding Children.

Hector L. Watson, M.D., C.M.
Saskatchewan Director
Canadian Kennel Club

FROM time to time the dog fancy appears to awaken to the urgent necessity for making our dog shows more entertaining to the average onlooker, to those who buy tickets at the gate, probably don't know one breed from another, but just "like dogs". None of us need any convincing that in order to make our dog shows a success we need "a good gate". This is particularly important in the Western provinces, where entries are, for many reasons, smaller than in most Eastern shows, and gate receipts make up the difference between showing a modest profit or an embarrassing deficit.

Out in the Prairies it is often almost impossible to stage any entertainment at a dog show, apart from the actual judging. Obviously, this is not sufficient to attract and hold onlookers. People do not want to pay to see eighty to a hundred dogs in what must seem to them interminable and incomprehensible posing and gaiting in a ring. Horse show promoters acknowledge this demand and stage some kind of equestrian demonstration during their evening performances. In the East, and on the West Coast, the clubs have Obedience Trials in conjunction with their shows. Again, for many reasons, even this is not always feasible in the Prairies.

The question remains, what can be done to attract the dog lover into our shows in the Prairies, and keep him coming back?

I have noticed at many Prairie shows that the event drawing the best crowd is usually the children's handling classes; and it has always seemed to me to be a shame that this class was not given the position of importance which it deserves.

Surely it shouldn't be necessary to point out that if we do not encourage the children to handle and show dogs we will shortly have few newcomers upon whom to call; to say nothing of potential judging material for the future. Yet too often do we find the children's handling classes prefaced by a mad and hectic fifteen minutes of dashing about, supplying children with dogs utterly strange to them, supplying leads, and then thrusting some unwilling innocent into the ring to make an unholy show of himself, the dog and the dog show, all at one fell swoop.

Need For Re-assessment

I think it is high time we re-assessed this class in the show.

First of all, I think it deserves some more important name than "Children's Handlers". I like the term, "Junior Showmanship", which the American Kennel Club appears to have adopted.

Next, I would like to see the adult exhibitors encouraged to make themselves responsible for an entry in that class, finding a suitable child, supplying the child with a suitable dog, showing the child the rudiments of ring manners, making sure the child knows what will be required in the ring and, finally, having the child at the ring-side, complete with dog on lead, at the time the class is called.

I would like to see the prizes made worthwhile, and awarded strictly on merit; with no more of this donating to the smallest child or the cutest. Let us run beauty contests or baby contests apart, if these are to be our requirements.

I would like to see it mandatory that the class be judged by some person with real knowledge of the requirements of handling; preferably a judge or professional handler. It has been my experience that a good professional handler makes an excellent judge of this class, probably because such a judge remains totally unimpressed by anything other than the participants' skill, or otherwise, in handling.

Safety of Children

At this point I want to stress the urgent question of the safety of the children.

As a medical man, as well as a person with some experience of dogs, it always horrifies me to watch a children's class when the children are asked to switch dogs. One of these days something really catastrophic is going to happen, and the club responsible will find itself with a tremendous damages action; if nothing worse.

True Story

"ON GUARD"

15-weeks Vigil for a Faithful old Dog

Contributed by
Mrs. JAMES CLARK
Frenchman's Bay, Ontario

THIS dog will go down in the history of sheepdogs as one of the most devoted and wonderful of them all, said a solicitor at an inquest at Hope, Derbyshire, England, on March 29.

Throughout Derbyshire, and indeed throughout Britain, the same sentiments were being expressed about "Tip," the 11-year-old sheepdog bitch who disappeared on the wild moors above the Derwent Dams early in December with her 86-year-old master, Mr. Joseph Tagg, of Yorkshire Bridge, Bamford. On Saturday afternoon of March 27 the body of Mr. Tagg was found on the moors—with faithful Tip still alive and still on guard over the remains of her master.

"Tip's" 15-week vigil ended when a Water Board employee saw the dog lying asleep on the moor. He recognised the dog at once. He called its name. It came to him, obviously pleased to see him, and very friendly. Within five yards of the sleeping animal were the remains of Joseph Tagg, a man who lived and died on the desolate Derbyshire moorland.

The weak dog was brought down to the village of Bamford. Where the ground was rough, Tip had to be carried. Very soon Tip was back home at Bamford, where she used to live with Mr. Tagg and his niece. By Monday Tip showed little sign of what she must have endured during the long winter months on the bleak lands above the 1,500 feet contour. Since she and her master disappeared on Dec. 12, 1953, there had been heavy snows and biting winds on the hills that lead to the Peak.

Continuous Search

The efforts taken to locate Mr. Tagg and his dog were recounted two days later in the Loxley Hall, Hope, where the District Coroner conducted an inquest on Mr. Tagg. A police sergeant told how search parties went out on Dec. 12 when Mr. Tagg failed to return home after going out to visit sheep, which he kept on the moors after his "official" retirement. He told of searches until Dec. 20, and how on that date, 200 people combed the moors in an endeavour to find the shepherd and his dog. R.A.F. Mountain Rescue squads, equipped with radio, police with dogs, ramblers, shepherds, and gamekeepers were all willingly recruited into the hunt.

The last person to see Mr Tagg alive was a forestry worker. He told the Coroner that he saw Mr. Tagg walking in the direction of Howden about 1.20 p.m. on Dec. 12.

No witnesses could fill in the gap between that time and the discovery of Tip and her dead master about three hours' walk from where they were last seen.

Mr. Tagg had left home with his dog at half-past-nine on the Saturday morning, taking with him some sandwiches. He had always been a shepherd and was active for his age.

A doctor gave evidence of examining the bones found on the moor, which he said, were those of an old man. There were not sufficient remains, he said, to ascertain the cause of death.

The discovery of the dog and the human remains at the West End moor was described by the Water Works employee, who said he marked the spot and went down to the village for a police constable, with whom he returned to the scene.

The constable said that near the remains of Mr. Tagg were a pair of boots, the laces undone as if they had been taken off.

Mr. Tagg's doctor gave evidence that Mr. Tagg did not suffer from any illness.

Summing up, the Coroner said that the contents of the pockets and the presence of the dog left little doubt as to the identity of the remains. Addressing the jury he said: "You have heard his age, you have heard his medical history. He was an old man and he probably should not have been doing such strenuous exercise as walking about the moors. But there it is: he did do such heavy exercise. It has been suggested, and perhaps it is a reasonable theory, that he sat down and removed his boots, jacket, and waist-coat, but in actual fact we have had no definite evidence as to what happened. I feel on the actual cause of death we have no direct evidence whatsoever. I can only advise you to bring in an open verdict."

The jury returned a verdict of "Death from natural causes", adding there was

NOTES and NEWS
Provincial and Club

Aurora and District Kennel Club

By FLORENCE SULLIVAN

THE regular monthly meeting of the Club was held at the Aurora Club rooms, with final preparations for the Show of 1954.

Visitors from Toronto and Wilcox Lake turned the meeting into a very enjoyable evening, with many willing hands to help the show.

Coffee and lunch at a local restaurant brought the meeting to a close.

Edmonton Kennel Club

By MRS. G. B. KILGANNON

THE Club members are now enjoying a brief rest after staging two successful All-Breed Shows, May 6 and 7. Both judges, H. P. Saunders of Calgary, and W. D. Nixon of Winnipeg, were unanimous in their choice for Best in Show, giving the honour to the 10 month old, fawn and white Boxer, 'Janacee's Aristocrat' owned by A. H. M. Campbell, Janacee Farms, Port Coquitlam, B.C.

Two special trophies given by the Edmonton Sporting Dog Club for the Best Retriever owned by a member of that Club created a great deal of local interest. Two black Labradors captured this award. On May 6 it was 'Valentine Jet' owned by Mr. & Mrs. W. E. Madge, and on May 7 an imported female, 'Jane of Hillgreen', owned by W. G. Slocombe, received the nod.

A highlight of the Show Friday evening was the presentation of the Dog World Award for Outstanding Service to Mrs. M. D. Gardner by our President, Mr. J. Kilgannon.

The Club has just completed its first series of classes in Obedience Training and is planning to start another course this month. We hope to have an Obedience Trial in conjunction with our Fall Shows.

The dog fancy lost one of its staunchest supporters last week in the passing of Mr. M. B. "Red" McColl. Mr. McColl along with his wife were valued executive members of this Club for a number of years. His helpful hand and cheery smile will be sadly missed by all dog lovers who knew him.

"switched to pervinal and glad of it"

Ch. Sogo Slipper and her litter

these healthy, romping beagle puppies from Clinton Callahan's kennel are typical of a Pervinal-raised litter. Pervinal was fed with the daily ration to the sire and brood matron prior to studding, to the bitch throughout pregnancy and whelping, and to the puppies since they were weaned.

"Yes, I switched to
about ten years ago," says Clinton Callahan, President of the Professional Dog Handlers' Association, "and I'm still glad of it...

"Twenty-two years' experience in breeding and handling champions has taught me that good nutrition with Pervinal makes a world of difference in a dog's coat, eyes, skin, growth, bones, teeth, ability to reproduce, muscular coordination, digestion and elimination, vitality and ability to resist infections and illness. That's why I insist on Pervinal for all dogs.

"Pervinal saves time and money too. No need to buy, store and mix several preparations. Now, all-in-one Pervinal provides vitamins A and D (as in cod liver oil), vitamin B complex (as in liver and yeast), vitamin E (as in wheat germ), calcium, phosphorus, iron (as in bone meal), new vitamin B_{12}, and trace minerals."

Edmonton Sporting Dog Club

By JEANETTE MADGE

THE Club was away to a flying start for 1954 when it presented its Second Annual Sportsman's Night to an overflow audience of approximately one thousand sports-minded persons. Appropriate films were shown, including the second showing by the Club of the Jas. Lamb free film, 'The Way of a Champion', and demonstrations of field trial training were given by Mr. F. Cockrall, the Club President, and his F.T. Ch. Oil City Ted, and by Mr. W. E. Madge and his Labrador pup, Jet.

This special event was followed by the Club conducting free field trial training classes for five Sunday afternoons, and there was an encouraging response to these classes. So through these two endeavours the Club gained much advertising and goodwill and, more important, increased its membership.

Now it is looking forward to its Club Amateur and Shooting Dog stakes, to be followed by the regular licensed trial for Puppy, Junior, Non-Winner and Open All-Age stakes. And there should be lots of competition at both these events, for Edmonton is becoming more and more field trial conscious and there are many young dogs in training. The very unusual spring weather played a slightly upsetting part in the plans for these trials, and due to the fact that the ice was still holding firm at the first of May, the dates had to be postponed to May 30 for the Club event, and to June 12 and 13 for the licensed trial. However, that might even work out all for the best. Here's hoping!

The German Shepherd Dog Breeders' Association

By MARY HART

THE attention of the Association is focussed on our second all-breed championship show on June 19 in Scarboro Arena Gardens, Toronto. It is an excellent location for a dog show with no parking problems, and ample room for large rings and wide aisle space for exhibitors, so the club is looking forward to a large entry.

Now that summer weather is on its way, we are planning Sunday Matinee Shows. The first one of the year will be held on May 30 at the home of Reg and Sadie Scott, East Woodlands, near Pickering. Mary Hart will judge Conformation (in case of absence, Paul Firman) with Ken Bowen as student judge. Mary Weller will judge Obedience. This matinee will also be the occasion for a baby shower for the Bob Andersons, and a celebration for Lee Cappellazzo who is to be married in July.

Bob and Ellen Gibbs, former club members, have very kindly offered their home on Midland Ave., Scarboro Junction, for our second matinee show on June 27. This is not only for club members, but for anyone interested in German Shepherds and their training. The judge for Conformation will be

The German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada

By MARY E. SOUTHCOTT

NEWS is scarce this month, there being a short lull in between the winter and summer activities. However, much is planned for the near future and the next few months should prove to be busy ones for Club members.

The Obedience Training Classes for all breeds sponsored by our Club will be holding Graduation Night for the dogs now participating in the present course, on the evening of June 13, after which future classes will be postponed during the summer vacation months. Training courses will commence again in the Fall. The response, interest and enthusiasm shown over these Classes has been remarkable, and many a dog starting to our school completely unmanageable, has left behaving at least like a lady or gentleman.

Several of our Club members are exhibiting at the Buffalo Show in both the Obedience Trials and Bench. We wish them every succes at this excellent show.

It is indeed most gratifying to see that many of the show-giving Clubs holding All-Breed Championship Shows are obtaining Specialists to judge German Shepherds. This Breed has, for some time now, been dominating the number of entries at the shows, and the fact that more and more Clubs are beginning to give the exhibitors of German Shepherds more consideration when choosing judges is greatly appreciated.

Windsor Kennel Club

By HAROLD WELLWOOD, JR.

WE received a phone call from Kit Nichol, the jet propelled Secretary of the Windsor K.C. Although other duties called us away from the Club over a year and half ago, Kit wanted to know if we wouldn't mind getting back into harness again to tell the folks about their show, now just a memory.

We're afraid those who exhibited in Windsor on that beautiful sun-shiny Sunday of April 11 have already spread the good word.

We saw one of the most clean, attractive and fast moving shows seen in Canada in a long, long while. With an entry crowding close to the 300 mark, the Windsor Market Building by 8.30 p.m. that Sunday evening was again just a hollow shell. Nothing, not even the benching was around to suggest that a little more than a half hour before, a proud English setter, Int. Ch. Ludar of Blue Bar, handled by Horace Holland, had stood basking in his now familiar Best-In-Show Spotlight.

There were many highlights at this Show—"sharp" benching, attractive floral arrangements, smooth and efficient ring stewarding, co-operative exhibitors, speedy judging, that started the groups shortly after 5 p.m., and Joe McCarthy keeping things moving, but the one highlight that impressed us most was the one supplied by Ken Ellis who did the ring-side announcing for the groups. As each group contestant was gaited, he named the breed of dog and its origin, and we know that many an exhibitor, as well as the spectators, profited by this course in canine history.

From Tom Nicholls, President of the Club, we learn that plans have already got under way for next year's show—plans that call for even bigger attractions. Already the W.K.C. have given the rest of the show-giving clubs in Ontario something to shoot at, and if their ambitious plans for next year materialize, then the Windsor Kennel Club's annual show will move into the spot towards becoming Canada's Westminster or Morris-and-Essex. That awarding of Best-In-Show before 8 p.m., if continued, certainly will be an entry attraction alone, and a real treat after the many midnight finishes that seem to be habit-catching.

Twenty-four years ago in a little Windsor home a group of people were summoned by a man and his wife, who were exceptionally well known Collie breeders and exhibitors. The purpose of the meeting was to form a Kennel Club which was to bear the name of the city of its origin. In February of this year, after a lengthy illness, that man's wife passed away in Windsor's Hotel Dieu Hospital. Seldom in their married life had they been separated. Where you found one, you were sure to find the other, for they shared the same interests and worked towards the same goal. In every sense of the word, they were partners, and to keep that partnership going, on May 3rd, John E. Simpson, age 78, co-founder of the Windsor Kennel Club, was laid to rest beside his wife, who was also a co-founder of the W.K.C. Even in death, John kept his association with the Collie alive, for on his left lapel, there was placed a pin with the figurine of a proud Collie. May all those who knew the Simpsons, raise their voices heavenly, to say—"Requiem in Pace".

Collie and Shetland Sheepdog Club of Canada

By MRS. R. D. SMUCK

IT was open house for all Collie and Sheltie lovers on May 11, at the home of Mrs. Gordon Drewe, with eight new members enrolled. Our President, Mrs. George Getty, opened the meeting with a short talk on "How and When the Club was formed."

Our Guest Speaker for the evening was Dr. Alan Christie of Streetsville and his subject was "Caring for your brood bitch before and after whelping." He also touched lightly on Diseases in General and Genetics. There was a question period after the talk, and we all gained a great deal of help and knowledge from this very interesting subject.

We have decided to have, at our next meeting, "Preparing your dog for the show ring," when this writer will endeavor to trim a dog and give a short talk.

Our next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Gladys Taylor, R.R. 1, Richmond Hill, on June 8. All lovers of the breeds are welcome and anyone wishing to attend please contact Mrs. George Getty at Baldwin 1-9200.

The Irish Setter Club of Canada

By JEAN HONSBERGER

OUR Night of Fun held on April 10, 1954 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Ionson, of Clarkson, Ontario, was again a huge success. It is regretted that members outside the local area cannot attend some of our Social Evenings as we never seem to fail to have a grand and glorious time. The best news of all was the addition of approximately $70.00 to our treasury.

A well rounded evening of fun, with Mr. K. Honsberger as Master of Ceremonies, started out with films, followed by a Dog Game written by Mrs. G. Drew and won by Mr. J. Royston. Mr. W. Ionson, auctioneer for our White Elephants, was as always, good for many chuckles. The sale of box lunches ended a most enjoyable evening. The lucky draw for the T.V. lamp was won by Mrs. Ida Berry.

It was very nice to see Miss J. Ionson home again after a lengthy stay across the border.

A most unexpected and welcome visit was received from Mr. H. A. Klinck of Roseland by Mr. and Mrs. R. Dafoe of Port Nelson. A very lively discussion on "Irish" took place and we very much hope it won't be the last visit of one of our out-of-town members.

London Canine Association

By MILDRED DARK

THE April meeting of the Association was held in the Club rooms at 555 Dundas Street, with President Mike Nielsen presiding. Thirty members were present, and five new members were enrolled.

A number of members reported having attended and received good winnings at the Windsor and Chatham Shows.

Dr. Comfort of North Dale Clinic was guest speaker. He gave a most interesting talk on Hepatitis, a subject that all breeders are anxious to know more about.

Plans are well underway for our July all-breed Dog Show, and all indications point to the Show being the very best on our record of excellent Shows.

THE May meeting was held in the club rooms with President Mike Nielsen in the chair. There was a good attendance of members. The show committee reported good progress. Final plans were made for the July 3rd show. President Mike Nielsen was appointed Show Superintendent. He will be assisted by R. E. Smith.

Mr. Ed. Summerfield reported that a German Shepherd Club had been formed in London, and that in the near future it was hoped to form a class to train members for obedience judges. Three members have been successful in making champions. They are: Mr. and Mrs. Mike Nielsen, a Wire-haired Terrier; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dark, a Boston Terrier; and Mrs. Pamela Sims, an English Cocker Spaniel. We regret to report that Mr. Fred Manning, a veteran member, is confined to hospital.

New Retriever Club Formed in Calgary

By G. A. PARSONS

A NEW Retriever Club has been formed in Calgary, Alberta, under the name of the Calgary Retriever Club.

The purpose of the Club is to further the use of the Retrieving gun dog as one of our greatest conservationists.

The Club will sponsor Retriever Trials under C.K.C. rules; these Trials will as closely assimilate hunting conditions in Alberta as possible.

Sept. 5 and 6 are the dates applied for to hold their first point Trial.

The Club also intends to encourage the members to bench their dogs if at all possible.

A member must own a registered recognized Retriever breed or one eligible for registration. It is possible for a prospective owner of a Retriever to become an associate member.

W. C. (Dude) Baldwin Dies at Ottawa

WILLIAM CHARLES (Dude) BALDWIN, internationally known breeder and judge, died on May 11 at his home in Ottawa, Ont., after a short illness. He was 77.

Mr. Baldwin was a director of the Ottawa Kennel Club for many years and was closely connected with the Central Canada Exhibition.

In his younger days he was a member of the world champion Capital Lacrosse team of Ottawa, and once held the quarter-mile track championship of Canada.

In more recent years he was an enthusiast for hockey, baseball and football. He was also recognized for many years as an all-breed dog judge who was much in demand to judge at dog shows in Canada and the United States.

A prominent breeder of foxhounds, Mr. Baldwin exhibited at many shows in North America. Possibly his best known dog was Am. and Can. Ch. Baldwin's Heffwin, rated to be the only American and Canadian foxhound champion. Mr. Baldwin was active in breeding up to the time he became ill, in the latter half of April. He had planned on exhibiting at a Dog Show in the U.S.A. His many friends feel the loss of Mr. Baldwin very keenly.

THE Chinese, according to a report of half a century ago, notwithstanding the fact that they eat the flesh of the dog, and esteem it a great delicacy, honor their dogs more highly and take better care of them than any other race of people.

In every large Chinese city there is a work-man whose sole trade is that of making coffins for departed canines. We in Canada have a better way. We neither eat the flesh nor enclose our defunct canines in a useless coffin, but we quietly plant old Tray beneath our favorite grape vine, and in after years we eat the grapes.

enter in and make the Dog Show good fun.

Or here we can stand on our rights, make demands the Club cannot possibly meet, and put the Club out of the Dog Show business for years. Suspiciously like cutting off one's nose to spite one's face wouldn't you say?

Dog Shows Can Be Fun

There are still times when it pays better to be kind than to be right. Show time on the Prairies is likely to offer many opportunities to be one or the other. Dog Shows CAN be fun. If they are not—if they lose that sense of camaraderie and good sportsmanship which was their major attraction to most of us—then I maintain that it is our fault. It is no use to look about you and saying, "Well, when he starts co-operating so shall I". "He" is probably waiting on you. Instead, let each one of us resolve to begin now, at once, at our local meetings, at our shows, when speaking to (or of!) other doggy folk, to co-operate by being kind rather than trying to be clever; helpful rather than complaining, and above all to enjoy ourselves instead of spoiling our own fun, and the fun of everyone else, by carrying around a gripe. It is easier to be happy, once you get the hang of it.

And who knows—if we all try hard enough—one of these days we shall have a Saskatchewan Circuit of Shows to which the fancy will flock; because we will have the reputation of holding the best, the most enjoyable and the most rewarding dog shows in the country. And all it needs is you, and you, and me working together.

Hazards

Strange children should not be asked to pose and gait a dozen strange dogs. It is demanding too much, both of the dog and of the child.

This practice should stop now, at once, before some child is seriously injured. Let us have an end to this indiscriminate scrambling of kids and dogs in the ring. And while we are at it, let us stop this business of allowing such as a four-year-old to enter the ring "in charge" of something the approximate size and strength of a Great Dane. The ignorant says, "How SWEET!" And the initiate sit and shudder, thinking what would happen if a neighboring dog in the ring took a sudden dislike to the Great Dane. Injury to a child in one of our dog show rings is not to be thought of. We must act now to see that all possible hazards are removed.

We might, as we consider these two practices, also consider the futility and danger of too large an entry in this class.

What about a better age-breakdown, which would eliminate both possible overlooking of some worthy effort through overcrowding, and the danger inherent in too many dogs in too close proximity while under insufficient control?

These are a few of the changes I would like to see at our dog shows. I think all of them might add merit to a sadly neglected class and, at the same time, add entertainment value to the show itself.

I would like to see a C.K.C. rule that there be no changing of dogs among children handlers, because I think such a rule is essential to their safety.

In the meantime, I would like to see Club exercise its good judgment by asking the judge of a children's class not to adopt the practice. I would like to see the class itself approached and judged seriously and conscientiously with a real evaluation of its great merit to dog shows. I would like to see proper awards given properly for good performances.

And finally, I would like to see all of us adult members of the C.K.C. giving the whole subject of junior exhibitors and junior handlers real study and consideration, because, if we do not begin to treat the subject seriously, will you tell me where in all the wide world we are to expect to find the breeders, exhibitors, the handers and the judges of the future?

demeanor will be when he runs around with short, hurried steps, sniffing for a location for his act. Stop him with a fairly loud, sharp command, preferably "No, no". Then take him very ceremoniously outside, wait for him to relieve himself, and then make a fuss of him.

Vigilance

If you should relax your vigilance long enough for him to make a mistake, then he must be shown the spot and the evidence and severely scolded. Then put him out. Eventually he will come to understand the connection between the urge and the outside. Then he is housebroken.

At night, leave a shallow pan of sawdust or spread newspapers for him. He cannot be blamed if he does not understand the purpose of these, but it is likely that he will

Odours

It is important that all odour be removed immediately from a spot where he has made a mistake. A remaining odour is simply an invitation to repeat the performance. Vinegar in water is a good deodorizer, or most pet supply stores sell a prepared deodorant for this purpose.

Commands

The second essential lesson to a family dog is to lie down and stay there upon command. Regardless of a dog's popularity, there are times when he is not wanted anywhere but in his own place. To get him to lie down, get a small rug or a mat; pat it and pull puppy toward it with a leash, at the same time repeating "Lie down!". When he gets on the mat, force him to lie down, and then pat him and soothe him, saying "That's right, good dog, lie down". The more often you repeat the command, the sooner he will associate it with the action.

Once he is lying down, walk away from him, apparently ignoring him. He will, of course, get up. Say "No, no", and force him back again. With a repetition of this procedure a few times, he will soon learn what is wanted of him. In the same way, teach him the meaning of "Stay there!".

Once the pup has been taught proper house manners, he can be taken outside for further training. To teach him to come when called, use a training rope. Fasten it around his middle, tight enough that it will not slip off but not so tight that it will hurt him. Then let him run off until about 30 or 40 feet of rope separate you and the dog. Then call him in as pleasant a voice as you can. Or whistle, if you would rather have him recognize a whistle. But be sure that the call is a pleasant one. If he does not come, pull him in on the rope, calling or whistling all the time. When he reaches you, pet him and praise him, using the same words of praise that you have used before. Then repeat the procedure.

If he tries to pull away further when you call, give the rope a strong tug. The pull will hurt him a little and he will come running to you for sympathy. Before very long, he will know what you mean and will come at your call without the leash.

Never call him to you to punish or scold him, because he will probably understand that you are punishing him for coming rather than for his misdemeanor.

Heeling

Proper "heeling" at all times is the sign of a well-trained dog. By heeling is meant that the dog walks on the left side of his master with his head level with his master's legs, and sits

MEETING OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

MARCH 23rd, 1954

2751. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club was held in the Club's offices, 667 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ontario, on Tuesday, March 23rd, 1954, commencing at 9.30 a.m., with the President, Mrs. Alva McColl, in the Chair, and the following present: Mrs. M. Eileen McEachren, J. H. Daniell-Jenkins, J. W. MacCallum, W. H. MacKendrick, W. J. Monaghan and Mrs. N. T. Smith.

The President stated that she wished to be recorded as thanking all members of the Board for their fine co-operation and support during the Club's recent annual meetings, and suggested that inasmuch as five members of the Board and the Secretary were to attend the Live Stock Records Board luncheon and meeting commencing at 12.30 p.m., that the Board confine its attention to those matters requiring immediate attention, and, if time permitted, to those items which had been referred to the national Board for consideration.

2752 (2692). MINUTES.

The President stated that all members of the Board had not had full opportunity to thoroughly study the minutes of the annual meeting of the Board, and suggested, for the Board's consideration, a procedure intended to give all members of the Board an opportunity of suggesting any necessary corrections in the minutes and of voting on all proposed corrections.

Following discussion it was regularly moved by Mr. MacKendrick, seconded by Mrs. McEachren:

"THAT, the minutes of the annual meeting of the Board of Directors held on February 1st, 2nd and 4th, 1954, as prepared by the Secretary, be received; that every member of the Board be given a period of ten days in which to submit to the Secretary and specified corrections which he or she feels should be made; that following the expiration of the ten day period, the Secretary shall poll all members of the Board on each individual proposed correction, and the Secretary be governed by the majority vote of the entire Board on each proposed correction when preparing the minutes for publication in 'Dogs in Canada'; all corrections approved by a majority vote of the entire Board to be confirmed at the May meeting of the Board."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried unanimously.

The President suggested that the entire Board be consulted regarding any proposed deletions apart from those deletions which the Club's solicitors indicate should be made.

Following discussion it was regularly moved by Mr. MacCallum, seconded by Mrs. Smith:

"THAT, the President be and is hereby authorized to suggest to the entire Board those deletions which she feels should be made when the minutes are published in 'Dogs in Canada', each member of the Board to have an opportunity of voting for or against each proposed deletion, the Secretary to be governed by the majority vote of the entire Board on each proposed deletion when preparing the minutes for publication in 'Dogs in Canada'.

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried unanimously.

2753. DELIVERY OF CERTIFICATES OF REGISTRATION.

The President reported that in dealing with complaints concerning alleged non-delivery of certificates by sellers of pure-bred dogs, it was not infrequently found that the sellers were withholding certificates pending full payment by the purchasers, and suggested that the Club's position in dealing with these complaints should be clarified. The President reported that the matter had been taken up with the Chief Registration Officer of the Department of Agriculture, who was of the opinion that the difficulty could be eliminated by a written agreement at the time of sale that the certificate would be transferred by the seller on completion of full payment, but in the absence of such an agreement the seller would have no alternative but to furnish the certificate at the time of sale.

The President reported that she had written the Board on the question of whether a notice should be published in 'Dogs in Canada' advising members and others of the steps which they should take, to protect their interests, where full payment is not received at time of sale.

The Secretary reported that Directors Mr. Taylor, Mrs. Smith, Dr. Watson, Mr. Irving, Mrs. Gove, Mrs. Mack and Miss Hammond had approved her suggestion regarding a notice in the magazine, and Director Mr. Monaghan had suggested that the Club's solicitors be consulted before any action was taken.

Following discussion it was regularly moved by Mrs. Smith, seconded by Mr. Daniell-Jenkins:

"THAT, we receive the President's report, and this matter be referred to our Club's solicitors, who, if they are of the opinion that a form of agreement along the lines suggested is consistent with the Live Stock Pedigree Act and the By-laws of the Club, be asked to draft a suitable notice to appear in 'Dogs in Canada' and a suggested form of agreement for the guidance of sellers of pure-bred dogs."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried unanimously.

2754 (2707). ADDRESSES ON CERTIFICATES OF REGISTRATION. — EXPORTED DOGS.

The President reported that she had arranged with the Director of Canadian National Live Stock Records office for the Records Office to record, on certificates of registration for individual dogs, the full addresses of new owners except in the case of known breeders and except where sellers fail to record the full address on applications for transfer of ownership. The President also reported that this additional information would be recorded on notices of transfer of ownership forwarded by the Records Office to the Club's office.

The President stated that the co-operation of the Records Office was sought in this connection primarily for two purposes: First, in order that an approach could be made to the Bureau of Animal Industry with a view to arranging for Canadian Kennel Club certificates of registration for dogs exported to the United States to be returned direct to the American importer, not presently possible because the certificate lacks the full address of the importer; and secondly, with information as to the full addresses of purchasers of dogs the Club's head office could undertake a promotional campaign for new members and subscribers to the official organ.

The Secretary reported that Directors Mr. Irving, Dr. Watson, Mrs. Smith, Mr. Taylor, Mrs. Gove, Mrs. Mack and Miss Hammond had approved the President's suggestion that an approach be made to the Bureau of Animal Industry with regard to the Bureau forwarding C.K.C. certificates direct to American importers, and Director Mr. Monaghan had raised the question of whether it would be better for such an approach to be made either by the Director of Canadian National Live Stock Records or a high official in the Department of Agriculture.

Following discussion, it was regularly moved by Mrs. McEachren, seconded by Mr. MacKendrick:

"THAT, an approach be made to the Bureau of Animal Industry as suggested by the President, and the Chief Registration Officer of the Department of Agriculture be asked to make the approach on behalf of the Club."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried unanimously.

2755. REPORTING SHOW AWARDS IN "DOGS IN CANADA".

The Secretary reported that the entire Board had been written with regard to a proposed new method of reporting show awards in 'Dogs in Canada', and reported that letters received indicated that Mr. Monaghan, Mrs. Smith, Mr. Taylor, and Miss Hammond approved the new proposed system, that Mr. Williams, Dr. Watson, Mrs. Gove and Mrs. Mack did not approve, and Mr. Irving felt that the suggested system had a lot of merit but was seeking the views of others before otherwise commenting on it.

In a discussion which folowed Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum and Mr. MacKendrick indicated their approval of the proposed new system.

It was regularly moved by Mr. MacKendrick, seconded by Mr. MacCallum:

"THAT, we approve the system of reporting show awards as outlined in the Secretary's letter to the Board of March 10th."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried unanimously.

2756. SUGGESTION BOX AT SHOWS.

The President reported that:

(a) During the course of an address to the members of the Hamilton Kennel Club she had mentioned the possibility that arrangements might be made to have placed in each dog show a "suggestion box" wherein exhibitors could place their suggestions and observations regarding the show;

(b) Resulting from her remarks in this connection the officials of two then forthcoming shows had requested that the box be placed in their shows;

(c) Inasmuch as time did not permit of the Board being consulted before the two shows in question, the box had been placed in the shows on a trial basis, and in due course a report would be made to the Board regarding the suggestions and observations placed in the box at each show;

(d) The question of whether the Board wishes to endorse the Suggestion Box, and if so, whether it should be applied on a national basis, had since been referred to the Board with the following replies: Mr. Taylor, Mrs. Smith, Dr. Watson, Mr. Monaghan, Mr. Williams, Mrs. Mack and Miss Hammond approved the suggestion, Mr. Irving felt that it could be tried on an experimental basis, and Mrs. Gove in approving the idea suggested that in provinces other than Ontario the contents of the box be examined and reported on by the local Director and Provincial Committee.

Following discussion it was unanimously agreed that the President's suggestion be endorsed, that the procedure with regard to handling the contents of the suggestion box, as outlined in the President's message to exhibitors at the two shows in which the box was placed, be followed, and that the "Suggestion Box" be placed only in shows where the clubs staging the shows voluntarily requested that the box be placed in their shows.

2757 (2717). KENNEL NAMES.

The Secretary reported that:

(a) In June, 1953, M. Patricia Greene and Mrs. Kenneth A. Greene had applied for the registration of the kennel name DUNROBIN;

(b) The application had been erroneously read as DUNROLIN when the list of kennel names applied for had been published in the September issue, and certificate of approval had been issued on that name.

The Secretary reported that the applicants for DUNROBIN desired that a correction be made, and the entire Board had been written having in mind the policy adopted at the annual meeting of the Board in February, regarding kennel names. The Secretary reported the following views received from members of the Board: Mr. Williams and Dr. Watson did not believe that a precedent should be created by departing from the policy agreed upon at the annual meeting; Mrs. Gove pointed out that the policy agreed upon at the annual meeting of the Board was not mandatory in all cases because of the use of the word "may" in the resolution; Mrs. Mack was not prepared to approve any change in view of the policy agreed upon and because of the previously registered kennel names of DUNROAMEN and DUNROVIN; Mr. Irving did not feel that the fact that DUNROVIN was a registered kennel name had any bearing on the question, the registered owner of that name having failed to submit an objection, however, expressed the opinion that DUN ROBIN (two words) should not be approved because that is the kennel prefix of the Duke of Sutherland, a breeder of Scottish Terriers; Miss Hammond was prepared to approve the change; Mr. Taylor was prepared to abide by the majority opinion of the Board.

Mr. Monaghan pointed out that "Dunrobin" is merely a corners (confirmed by letter from Director of the Records Office), and that the applicants did not live at the place so named.

In the discussion which followed, it was unanimously agreed that had the application been properly read when first received and notice published in 'Dogs in Canada', the name would have been approved under the procedures followed at the time the application was first received, and because of this it would be unfair to the applicants to now refuse their request for a correction.

It was regularly moved by Mrs. McEachren, seconded by Mr. Monaghan:

"THAT, the application of Miss Patricia Greene and Mrs. Kenneth A. Greene for registration of the kennel name DUNROBIN be and is hereby approved, and the necessary correction be made in the records."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried unanimously.

2759 (2712). APPOINTMENT OF FIELD TRIAL REPRESENTATIVES AND ADVISORY COMMITTEES.

The Secretary reported that in accordance with the Board's instruction (Item No. 2712), field trial clubs in Ontario had been asked to submit recommendations with regard to the appointment of Field Trial Representatives for the various branches of field trial activity in the province, and in connection with the appointment of a representative for Beagles, three different members had been nominated.

Following discussion it was unanimously agreed that the Secretary would place on a ballot paper the names of the three members nominated, each Beagle Club in Ontario to have one vote, the member receiving the highest number of votes to be confirmed as Field Trial Representative for Beagles at the next meeting of the Board.

The Secretary reported on the one nomination received for the office of Field Trial Representative for the Pointing breeds, and it was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. MacKendrick:

"THAT, W. W. Gibbons be and is hereby appointed as Field Trial Representative for the Pointing breeds for the current year in Ontario."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried unanimously.

The Secretary reported on the two nominations received for the office of Field Trial Representative in Ontario for Spaniels, and after discussion, it was regularly moved by Mr. MacKendrick, seconded by Mrs. Smith:

"THAT, Andrew Dunn be and is hereby appointed as Field Trial Representative for Spaniels for the current year in Ontario."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried unanimously.

The Secretary reported on the two nominations received for the office of Field Trial Representative in Ontario for the Retrieving breeds, and after discussion it was regularly moved by Mrs. Smith, seconded by Mr. MacCallum:

"THAT, Robert L. Blyth be and is hereby appointed as Field Trial Representative for the Retrieving breeds for the current year in Ontario."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried unanimously.

The Secretary reported that Director Miss Hammond had recommended the appointment of W. E. Madge, Edmonton, as Field Trial Representative for the retrieving breeds in Alberta for the current year.

It was regularly moved by Mrs. McEachren, seconded by Mr. Daniell-Jenkins:

"THAT, W. E. Madge be and is hereby appointed the Field Trial Representative for the retrieving breeds in Alberta for the current year."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried unanimously.

The Secretary reported on correspondence with Director Mrs. Gove with regard to a change and addition in personnel of the Manitoba Advisory Provincial Committee.

It was regularly moved by Mr. MacKendrick, seconded by Mr. MacCallum:

"THAT, Mrs. Gove's recommendations be endorsed, and the following be and are hereby named the personnel of the Manitoba Advisory Provincial Committee: Mrs. T. Eamens, D. W. McIntyre, J. H. Reid, F. H. B. White, and C. P. Montague Francis."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried unanimously.

Acting on the recommendation of Director Miss Hammond, it was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mrs. McEachren:

"THAT, J. C. Anderson, Vic Grainger, John S. Grant, and J. Kilgannon, be and are hereby appointed the personnel of the Alberta Advisory Provincial Committee for the current year."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried unanimously.

The Secretary reported that the opinion of the Club's solicitors had been sought as instructed by the Board (Item 2712), and read a letter from the solicitors who were of the opinion that it would be proper "if the Board sees fit to appoint more than one Advisory Provincial Committee in any province, provided that on every such Committee the Provincial Director and the Field Trial Representative should serve." With regard to the appointment of Obedience Trial Representatives, the solicitors were of the opinion that the wording of Section 11 of Article XIII sugested that there should be but one Obedience Trial Representative appointed in each electoral zone. The Secretary was directed to forward copy of the solicitors' letter to Directors Mr. Irving and Mr. Taylor for their guidance in submitting the names of those members whom they recommend be appointed to the Advisory Provincial Committees and Obedience Trial Representative.

2760 (2677). PRINTING OF DOG SHOW RULES

The President pointed out that:

(a) At the January meeting of the Board the question had been raised whether Chapter 7 of the Dog Show Rules should be printed in its entirety when the Dog Show Rules are printed; and the Board at that time had decided to include Chapter 7, in its entirety, in the printed Rules;

(b) At the session of the annual meeting of the Board on February 1st, prior to the annual general meeting, the Board had approved the minutes of the meeting of the January meeting;

(c) At the annual general meeting a proposal to delete Chapter 7 from the Dog Show Rules and substitute a new section had received considerable support.

The President reported having in mind the possibility that Chapter 7 may be revised following the next referendum ballot, and having in mind a possible saving on printing costs, she had consulted the entire Board on whether, when the Dog Show Rules are printed, the lengthy Chapter 7 be deleted in its entirety, and a brief note be substituted to the effect that information regarding the approval of judges may be obtained by writing the Canadian Kennel Club.

The Secretary reported that on the question taken up with members of the Board by the President, the following had unconditionally approved the President's suggesion: Mrs. McEachren, Mrs. Mack, Miss Hammond, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. Taylor, Dr. Watson, Mrs. Gove and Mr. MacCallum.

The Secretary reported that Mr. Irving had conditionally approved the suggestion, and that Mrs. Smith had pointed out that the Board in January had unanimously agreed that the Dog Show Rules should be reprinted in their entirety (Item No. 2677). The Board interpreted Mr. Daniell-Jenkins' reply to be a negative vote on the proposal.

The Secretary reported that Mr. Monaghan had stated that Chapter 7 was submitted to the general membership by way of referendum ballot in the Fall of 1952, that it received a favourable majority vote in each of the seven electoral zones, and in view of this approval, and since we are a Board, must abide by the wishes of the members as so expressed, he was of the opinion that the Board does not possess the right to subvert the expressed wishes of the majority who voted by deleting this Chapter from the Dog Show Rules about to be printed, and that the Board would be "derelict in its duty to the members if it does not take immediate steps to implement the provisions of this Chapter".

The President suggested that a committee be appointed to thoroughly study the present Dog Show Rules with a view to locating any conflictions in the Rules or any rules which were not consistent with other sections of the Rules in order that any necessary amendments may be brought forward before the next specified deadline for receipt of proposed amendments.

Following discussion, it was regularly moved by Mr. MacKendrick, seconded by Mr. MacCallum:

"THAT, the President be and is hereby empowered to appoint a committee, of which Mr. Monaghan is to be a member, to review the Dog Show Rules as suggested by the President."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. MacKendrick, and Mrs. Smith.

ABSTAINED FROM VOTING: Mr. Monaghan (having been named in the motion).

Motion carried.

Following discussion it was regularly moved by Mr. MacKendrick, seconded by Mr. Daniell-Jenkins:

"THAT, in view of the lack of unanimity and incomplete vote on the question, and in view of the appointment of a committee to study the Dog Show Rules, it is considered advisable, and so ordered, that the Dog Show Rules be printed in their entirety."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried unanimously.

2761 (2744). DATES, JUDGES, SHOW & TRIAL MATTERS

The Secretry reported that on February 17th an official of a show-giving club had indicated orally that the club of which he was an officer wished to hold a show on a specified date (not covered by priority rights), had left the required date fee as a deposit for that date, and had taken away the formal aplications to be completed by the signing officers of the club; that before the formal applications had been received on March 22nd another club had submitted formal application with date fee for the same date. The Secretary sought a ruling on whether the original oral application with fee, later confirmed by the formal application, constituted a bona fide application within the meaning of the Dog Show Rules.

Following discussion it was unanimously agreed that the original oral application with date fee deposit confirmed by subsequent formal application constituted a bona fide application, however, it was unanimously agreed that in future the Secretary should require that an oral application be confirmed by way of formal application within a stated period of time.

The Secretary reported that on March 5th an application, in the form of a letter with accompanying date fees, was received from a show-giving club at Winnipeg seeking permission to hold championship shows at Winnipeg on August 13th and 14th, and shortly thereafter the Lakehead Kennel Club applied for permission to hold shows on the same dates at Fort William.

The Board noted that the Lakehead Kennel Club had held their shows, for many years, about the same time each year, in conjunction with the Lakehead Exhibition, and the Lakehead Kennel Club was, therefore, obliged to work on "fixed dates" if their shows were to be held in conjunction with the exhibition at Fort William. It was unanimously agreed that under the circumstances the Lakehead Kennel Club's applications should be approved.

The Secretary reported that the present system of priority rights on show dates presented problems to show-giving clubs, both to those clubs having priority rights and those without, and it was unanimously agreed that the entire subject of show dates would be considered by the Board at its next meeting with a view to resolving, for the consideration of the entire Board, a policy and formula for granting show dates commencing in 1955.

The President reported that the Secretary had prepared a proposed message and schedule for the guidance of show-giving clubs, obedience trial giving clubs, and judges, in order to better implement a policy designed to prevent the same judge being approved to judge the same breed or breeds (or obedience trial classes) within specified geographical areas and times.

The Secretary reported that the following members of the Board had approved the message and schedule: Mrs. Mack, Miss Hammond, Dr. Watson, Mrs. Gove, Mr. MacKendrick, and Mrs. Smith. Following discussion it was unanimously agreed that those responsible for the approval of judges for championship shows and obedience trials would be governed by the message and schedule when approving judges for these events.

The President reported that the Board had been consulted on the question of whether or not it would be sufficient to require that only the President and Secretary of a club holding a championship show, licensed field trial or licensed obedience trial need be members of the Canadian Kennel Club. A poll of the Board indicated the following supporting the proposal that only the President and Secretary need be members: Dr. Watson, Mr. Taylor, Mrs. Mack, Miss Hammond and Mr. Irving, the remaining members of the Board having voted against the proposal, largely on the grounds that the Field Trial Rules specifically require that the President, all Vice-Presidents, Secretary and Treasurer must be members of the Canadian Kennel Club, and to confine the proposal to shows and obedience trial-giving clubs would not be fair to field trial clubs.

The matter was ordered referred to the special committee on rules referred to above.

Mr. Daniell-Jenkins reported that the Club's representatives to the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair Association (Mrs. Martha Stevens and himself) would be attending the annual meeting of the Association on March 24th, and enquired whether it was the wish of the Board that the Club's representatives submit any representations should the question of a dog show at the Winter Fair come before the meeting. It was unanimously agreed that the members of the Club would desire that the Club's representatives to the Association strongly press for a continuation of a dog show in conjunction with the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair.

2762 (2723). ADDITION TO STANDARD OF AMERICAN COCKER SPANIEL (RE BLACK & TANS)

The Secretary read a letter from the Cocker Spaniel Club of Central Ontario Inc. recording objection to the addition to the standard of the American Cocker Spaniel of a special section setting out the required colours and markings for Black and Tan American Cocker Spaniels. The Board noted that the Club had not recorded any objection when notice of the proposed addition was published in the July (1952) issue of 'Dogs in Canada' and had not recorded any objection when asked, by letter dated August 31st, 1953, to submit their views on the proposed addition.

Following discussion it was unanimously agreed that no action be taken to reconsider the action taken by the Board at its recent annual meeting in this connection.

2763. STATISTICS FROM THE LIVE STOCK RECORDS

Mr. Monaghan pointed out that the monthly report received by the Club from the Live Stock Records office did not provide any statistics on the number of litters registered, and suggested that this information, along with the other statistical information provided in such monthly reports, would enable the Board to better estimate the increase, or decrease, of the Club's volume of business during the year.

It was unanimously agreed that the Secretary would request the Live Stock Records office to include this information in their monthly reports.

2764. ADJOURNMENT

At 12.15 p.m., on motion by Mr. MacCallum, duly seconded and carried, this meeting of the Board of Directors adjourned.

Proposed Amendments to the By-laws

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 1

PROPOSAL: To amend Article VI, PRIVILEGES, Section 5, in order to permit a partnership to enjoy membership rates on registrations, transfer, etc., when all persons forming such partnership are paid-up members of the C.K.C. Partnership memberships are not effected by this proposed amendment.

REASON FOR PROPOSAL: At the present time the members' scale for registrations, transfers, et. fees does not apply to a partnership even though all persons in the partnership have individual paid-up membership in the C.K.C. To enjoy membership rates the partnership would have to take out a partnership membership.

VOTING ON PROPOSAL: FOR, 41; AGAINST, 16.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 2

PROPOSAL: To set up an additional class of memberships in the C.K.C., namely clubs or associations operating in Canada, and to provide for the exercising of membership privileges through the Secretary of the member club or association. Membership of a club would not entitle members of said member club or association to membership privileges in the C.K.C., nor would a club be automatically considered a member club even if all its members are paid-up members of the C.K.C. This proposed amendment did not provide for member clubs or associations to have any right to participate in the election of C.K.C. officers and directors, nor to attend and vote at general meetings of the C.K.C. (See comment below with regard to proposed amendments No. 3, No. 5, No. 16, and No. 18).

REASON FOR PROPOSAL: The present Dog Show, Field Trial and Obedience Trial rules require the officers (presently interpreted to mean the Pesident, all Vice-Presidents, Secretary and Treasurer) to be members of the C.K.C. if the show or trial club is to be permitted to hold a show or trial under C.K.C. rules, and the purpose of this amendment (along with associated amendments No. 3, No. 5, No. 16 and No. 18) is to allow show and trial clubs an alternative to this requirement—either the club must be a member club of the C.K.C. OR its officers must be C.K.C. members.

DISCUSSION FOR: The existing rules required persons to become members of the C.K.C. although such persons were not, in every instance, breeders or otherwise desirous of receiving membership privileges; that in not a few instances the membeship fees were paid by the show or trial clubs in order to retain the services of these persons as officers of the show or trial club.

DISCUSSION AGAINST: The alternative would mean a loss of revenue to the C.K.C.; that it could lead to control of the C.K.C. by organizations; that if the existing rules requiring officers of show or trial clubs was proving detrimental an amendment to delete the requirement would be peferable.

VOTING ON PROPOSAL: FOR, 4; AGAINST, 42.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 3

PROPOSAL: To set a member club or association fee at $15.00 per club or association (see amendment No. 2 above).

VOTING: By consent, it was agreed that the vote on this proposed amendment would be regarded as the same as on proposed amendment No .2 (FOR, 4; AGAINST, 42).

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 4

PROPOSAL: To limit a registered kennel name to twelve letter spaces although this limitation would not apply to kennel names registered prior to December 31, 1954.

REASON FOR PROPOSAL: An excessively long kennel name restricted the breeder to a lesser number of spaces for other suitable names to be used with his kennel name, and not infrequently realized his error in registering a kennel name of undue length until it is too late to change it for another name without additional expense.

DISCUSSION AGAINST: All breeders were subject to the existing By-law which limited the full name of a dog to 30 letter spaces, therefore if the breeder selected a long kennel name he was voluntarily submitting himself to the restriction as to the available number of spaces which could be used for the balance of the name of the dog.

VOTING ON PROPOSAL: FOR, 9; AGAINST, 40.

Proposed Amendments to the Dog Show Rules

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 5

PROPOSAL: To amend the Dog Show Rules in order that where the club holding the show is a member-club of the C.K.C. its officers need not be members of the C.K.C. (See proposed amendment No. 2 above).

VOTING ON PROPOSAL: By consent, it was agreed that the vote on proposed amendment No .2 would apply to this proposed amendment (FOR: 4; AGAINST, 42).

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 6

PROPOSAL: To amend the Dog Show Rules to permit a dog, entered for "Exhibition Only", to be entered in any of the unofficial classes provided for in the classification of a show, an arrangement not presently permitted under the existing Dog Show Rules (Chapter 4, Section 4 (g)).

REASON FOR PROPOSAL: Under the present Dog Show Rules an exhibitor could not enter a dog in the brace class, team class, or other unofficial classes such as veteran dogs class, stud dog and progeny class, brood female and progeny class, etc. unless such dog was also entered for competition in one of the regular classes or for "Specials Only", and this resulted in a loss of entries in such instances where exhibitors wished to enter dogs in unofficial classes but not in regular competition.

DISCUSSION AGAINST: Allowing dogs to compete in unofficial classes without requiring them to enter regular competition may prove detrimental to the breed.

VOTING ON PROPOSAL: FOR, 4; AGAINST, 57.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 7

PROPOSAL: To delete from the Dog Show Rules the present specifications with regard to size, content, etc., of dog show ribbons and rosettes, and to leave it to the Board of Directors to prescribe the size, content, etc., of ribbons and rosettes.

REASON FOR PROPOSAL: The present requirements with regard to ribbons and rosettes not infrequently resulted in many wasted ribbons because the requirements called for the year of the show to be stated on the ribbons, and many clubs were compelled to order ribbons in advance of their shows without an accurate knowledge of the exact number of ribbons that would be required, hence a tendency to over-order. The proposal was to enable the Board to consider alternative forms of ribbons which it was anticipated would eliminate this wastage and thus decrease ribbon costs.

DISCUSSION FOR: This proposal would not prohibit show-giving clubs continuing to use the same style ribbons and rosettes where such show-giving clubs wished to do so. Clubs could order additional ribbons without resultant wastage if the show-giving clubs were permitted to attach a card to the back of the ribbon, the card to indicate the date of the show. Suggested that the Canadian Kennel Club order ribbons with the year of the show but omitting the name of the show-giving club, the club ordering from the C.K.C. to attach a small ribbon on the front of the regular ribbon with the name of the show-giving club and the date of the show on the small ribbon.

DISCUSSION AGAINST: Where show-giving clubs close entries sufficient well in advance of their show (for instance, two weeks) it should be possible to order the exact number of ribbons required, subject to small wastage through dogs entered but absent from the show.

VOTING ON PROPOSAL: FOR, 68; AGAINST, 0.

On a separate vote, 51 members indicated their approval of a proposal that clubs holding sanction show may use either ribbons or cards; 9 indicated their disapproval of this proposal.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 8

PROPOSAL: That the present Section 7 (Examination and Certification of Judges) be deleted from the Dog Show Rules and another Chapter be substituted therefor.

REASONS FOR PROPOSAL: That certain of the present provisions would eliminate as judges certain of the present judges of long and well-known standing; that the present provisions are too restrictive and laborious; that the present Chapter would prevent anybody from judging who has not passed the required examination; that many judges while having no objection to an examination on standards and show procedure, would not be prepared to go through the examination procedure provided for in the present Chapter; that the proposed revision is intended to simplify the examination of judges with a Board having power to add to the requirements.

DISCUSSION AGAINST THE PROPOSAL IN GENERAL: That many of the professions (doctors, dentists, etc.) require that a person who qualifies to practice is first a trained person, is then examined, and then licensed; that in other branches of live stock judging schools are held where, before any person is allowed to judge, he must meet certain minimum requirements and has to be educated, that such an arrangement is practical in the case of judging dogs, and would-be judges would be examined by a board of judges who would determine the applicant's ability to judge.

The proposed new Chapter was then discussed and voted upon section by section, as follows:

SECTION 1, Paragraph 1: Proposed that the selection of judges be left to the discretion of show-giving clubs, that any person in good standing with the C.K.C. and otherwise eligible and selected by a show-giving club to judge their show be immediately given a permit to judge that particular show only.

DISCUSSION FOR: A good idea to start off the approval programme and issue licenses only for breeds and ultimately for groups; that judges will learn by actual experience in the show ring.

DISCUSSION AGAINST: That this proposed section did not differ in intent from the present provisions of Chapter 7 until such time as other judges could be prepared who might be capable and be selected by show-giving clubs.

NOTICE TO C.K.C. MEMBERS

In this issue of "Dogs in Canada" there appears a resume of the discussion at the last Annual General Meeting of the Club on those proposed amendments to the By-laws, Dog Show Rules, Field Trial Rules and Regulations, and Obedience Trial Regulations and Rules which were published in the December issue of the magazine.

This resume includes a brief outline of the reason or reasons stated at the annual general meeting for the proposed amendment having been submitted, statements made in support of the amendment ("Discussion for") and statements made in opposition to the proposed amendment ("Discussion against"). In some instances alternative suggestions were advanced at the meeting, or changes in the proposed amendments were suggested. An indication of whether the members attending the general meeting were in favour or opposed to the original proposed amendment, or the altered proposed amendment, is indicated by the record on voting.

All members are invited to submit their written opinions with regard to the original proposed amendments and any changes suggested at the annual general meeting, and such written opinions should be submitted so as to be received by the Secretary not later than June 30th, 1954.

After June 30th all written opinions received from members will be referred to the Amendments Committee for consideration along with the original proposed amendment, and a copy of the verbatim minutes of the Annual General Meeting.

The original proposed amendments will be found in the December (1953) issue of "Dogs in Canada", and members not in possession of a copy of that issue will be provided with a copy of the proposed amendments if a request is addressed to the Secretary.

When submitting your written opinion about any amendment, or any suggested changes in the amendment, please identify each amendment according to the number by which it is identified in this issue.

Your written views are welcomed—but please remember that the deadline for written opinions is June 30th.

N. F. BROWN,
Secretary-Treasurer.

VOTING ON PROPOSED SECTION 1, PARAGRPH 1: FOR 51; AGAINST 7.

SECTION 1, Paragraph 2: Proposed that holders of licenses issued by the C.K.C and other governing kennel clubs affiliated with the C.K.C. may be approved without regard to the temporary one-show permit arrangement referred to in paragraph 1 of this Section.

DISCUSSION FOR: This is intended to permit any person who may be licensed by the C.K.C. to judge, or any person licensed by the American Kennel Club, or Kennel Club (England) to judge without examination.

DISCUSSION AGAINST: At the present time no one is licensed by the Canadian Kennel Club and the American Kennel Club does not license judges.

PROPOSAL AMENDED: In the discussion it was proposed that the proposed paragraph be amended to provide that persons licensed by the C.K.C. to judge, persons approved to judge by the A.K.C., the Kennel Club (England) or other persons qualified to judge in their own country may, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, be approved to judge the breeds for which they have been approved to judge in their own country.

VOTING ON THE AMENDED PROPOSAL: FOR, 52; AGAINST, 3.

SECTION 2: Proposed that permanent licenses to judge dogs under C.K.C. rules shall be issued upon application to those who can qualify and the basis for qualification shall be (a) having previously judged a dog show held under C.K.C. dog show rules (b) licensed to judge dogs by any other governing Kennel Club affiliated with the C.K.C.

PROPOSAL AMENDED: By the deletion of the word "permanent".

VOTING ON AMENDED PROPOSAL: FOR, 49; AGAINST, 5.

SECTION 3: Proposed that the application form shall require the applicant to give in addition to personal particulars and experience, an undertaking to give a practical demonstration of judging and submit to an oral examination of his knowledge of the standards of the breeds which the applicant wishes to judge, and his knowledge of judging procedure and show rules in connection with those duties, the Board to have power to add to the requirements of an application as it sees fit.

DISCUSSION FOR: That experience is the best teacher and this section is a good start to provide for licensing of judges who do not otherwise qualify; that this section would provide for an examination and licensing of persons without previous judging experience and who are not qualified and approved to judge under the provisions of Section 2.

DISCUSSION AGAINST: That this section is not fair in that a person who has not previously judged, or is not approved to judge by a kennel club in another country, must meet the requirements of this section, while those who have previously judged, or are approved to judge in another country, are not required to do so.

VOTING ON PROPOSAL: FOR, 39; AGAINST, 14.

SECTION 4: Proposed that applications for judges license shall be dealt with by the provincial committee of the province in which the applicant resides; that applications for judges' license for persons resident in Ontario be dealt with direct by the Board of Directors and/or committees in various areas appointed for this purpose; applications received from non-residents of Canada to be dealt with by the Board in the same manner.

DISCUSSION AGAINST: That provincial committees are appointed by provincial Directors who change from time to time, that as the personnel of the committees are appointed on the basis of the recommendation of the local director there may be varying standards of qualifying judges; that the personnel of the committees are selected not specifically for the purpose of examining and qualifying judges but rather to advise the local Director on many matters not necessarily connected with judges.

Following discussion this proposed section was amended to provide that applications received from residents of provinces other than Ontario shall be dealt with by a provincial examination committee appointed by the Board of Directors on the recommendation of the provincial Director of the province in which the applicant resides, the provincial Director to be ex-officio a member of such provincial committee.

VOTING ON AMENDED PROPOSAL: FOR, 46, AGAINST, 2.

SECTION 5: Proposed that an applicant who is dissatisfied with the decision of the examining committee may appeal to the Board of Directors.

In the discussion which followed it was understood that any appeal submitted by an application would be referred to ALL members of the Board for consideration.

VOTING ON THE PROPOSAL: No vote recorded.

SECTION 6. Proposed that the fee for a judging license be set from time to time by the Board of Directors.

VOTING ON THE PROPOSAL: 62 members voted for the deletion of this Section; 3 for its retention.

SECTION 7: Proposed that a license may be revoked for awarding winners to dogs that are unworthy specimens of their respective breeds, for placing an award upon any dog that has been tampered with contrary to the Dog Show Rules, for placing an award upon any dog that he has owned, handled, or boarded within one year of the show, or for any other reason which the Directors may see fit. It further proposed that where a judge has placed an award contrary to the Dog Show Rules, notice of same must be filed with the Secretary of the show-giving club prior to closing the show, a committee to investigate such charges and if substantiated, full particulars to be filed with the Secretary of the C.K.C. for the Board to consider and to take such action as they deemed fit.

SUGGESTED CHANGES: After words "tampered with contrary to the Dog Show Rules" add the words "or breed standard"; change words "or for any other reason which the Directors may see fit" to read "or for sufficient reason".

VOTING ON THE PROPOSAL: No vote recorded.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 9

PROPOSAL: To require the inclusion of a statement in every premium list and catalogue to the effect that a judge officiating at a show shall not be subjected to indignities of any kind during the progress of the show, it being the duty of the show-giving club to effectively enforce this rule. The amendment calls for the Show Superintendent to report all violations of this rule to the C.K.C. and the Board of Directors may then take such action as it sees fit.

VOTING ON PROPOSAL: FOR, 67; AGAINST, 0.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 10

PROPOSAL: To amend the Dog Show Rules (Chapter 15, Section 9) to delete the present Section 9 and insert a new section allowing a show-giving club to depart from the present mandatory system of rotating judging of breeds and groups, by groups, at its discretion, but otherwise requiring the schedule of judging, as published in the premium list, to be adhered to except where, in the opinion of the Show Superintendent, a change of schedule is imperative.

REASON FOR PROPOSAL: That the present rule is "hard and fast", and does not allow of changes which, if made, may allow judging to be completed at an earlier time.

DISCUSSION FOR: Suggested that the amendment be approved except that it be amended to require one hour's notice of any change of schedule.

DISCUSSION AGAINST: In fairness to exhibitors in all groups the present mandatory system of rotating by groups be continued; that the present rule does not prevent a Show Superintendent from making any necessary changes, in exceptional circumstances, particularly with the consent of the exhibitors concerned.

VOTING ON PROPOSAL: FOR, 3; AGAINST, 53.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 11

PROPOSAL: To amend the Dog Show Rules (Chapter 16, Section 2) to increase the listing fee on each non-Canadian-bred dog from 25c to 50c, the listing fee to remain at 25c for a Canadian-bred dog.

REASON FOR PROPOSAL: Because of the greater time and labour involved in recording the wins of unregistered (listed) dogs, and the higher percentage of other than Canadian-bred dogs which are not registered after appearing in competition as listed dogs.

DISCUSSION FOR: Stated that the unit cost for recording the wins of a listed dog at a single show was $1.00.

DISCUSSION AGAINST: That there should not be any difference in the listing fee for a Canadian-bred dog and one not a Canadian-bred.

ALTERNATIVE SUGGESTIONS: If there should be a higher fee, apply it only to dogs not owned by residents of Canada. That the fee remain at 25c per show per dog for three shows, after which the higher fee apply. That the listing fee remain at .25c but all wins of a listed dog be cancelled if the dog is not registered with the C.K.C. within six months after it was first shown as a listed dog.

VOTING: After discussion the members voted on a proposal that the listing fee be $1.00 per dog per show. For this proposal, 40; against, 20.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 12

PROPOSAL: To delete from the Dog Show Rules (Chapter 18, Section 5), the rule which prohibits any title being shown in a catalogue except those granted by the C.K.C.

REASON FOR PROPOSAL: That those who had dogs having title other than those granted by the C.K.C. should have every right to show their titles when entering dogs in shows held under C.K.C. rules.

VOTING ON PROPOSAL: FOR, 67; AGAINST, 1.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 13

PROPOSAL: That Chapter 21, Section 1 of the Dog Show Rules be amended in order that the pointing rating for all varieties of Poodles, at shows in B.C., would have the same rating as for "all other breeds".

REASON FOR PROPOSAL: That when the present system of point ratings was adopted some years ago it was understood that special ratings would be given to certain areas based on the approximate entries at shows in that area; that when the special rating for Poodles was voted on through the last referendum ballot, the western provinces voted against the proposal to change the rating for all varieties of Poodles, and it was the wish of fanciers in B.C. that the Poodle ratings be altered as proposed.

DISCUSSION FOR: Exhibitors attending shows in the western provinces had greater distances to travel to attend a comparable number of shows staged in Ontario.

DISCUSSION AGAINST: The present rating for Poodles did not occasion any "suffering" as far as B.C. Poodle fanciers were concerned, the average entry for Poodles per show being 8.1 in Ontario and 6.7 in British Columbia; that the entries in Poodles in B.C. had doubled in 1953 as compared with 1952, and lowering the rating would result in less entries.

VOTING: After discussion it was proposed that the amendment be changed to include all provinces except Ontario and Quebec. The amended proposed amendment was voted upon with the following results: For, 26; against, 19.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 14

PROPOSAL: To amend Chapter 21, Section 1 to provide that a dog awarded Winners but the only one of its sex in class competition in the breed may be credited with one championship point.

REASON FOR PROPOSAL: To correct an inadvertent error in the preamble to the ratings in Section 1 of Chapter 21 to conform to the principle adopted in 1934 and followed since that time of crediting a dog awarded Winners with one point although it was only one of its sex in class competition in the breed.

VOTING ON THE PROPOSAL: FOR, 43; AGAINST, 7.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 15

PROPOSAL: Being a proposal to amend Chapter 21, Section 1, schedule of championship point ratings to require two dogs of the same sex in class competition in order that the male or female awarded Winners may be credited with one championship point.

REASON FOR PROPOSAL: To increase the value of a championship by requiring that a dog must defeat a specimen of its own sex in being awarded Winners in order to earn one championship point.

DISCUSSION AGAINST: Of 80 championship shows reported in the 1953 issues of "Dogs in Canada" there were 937 occasions when a breed was represented by a single dog in competition, and of these dogs 423 placed in the group and 23 won one or more of the major awards (Best in Show, Best Canadian-bred in Show, and Best Canadian-bred Puppy in Show), an indication that these single entry dogs did not lack for quality.

VOTING ON THE PROPOSAL: For, 8; AGAINST, 41.

Proposed Amendments to the Field Trial Rules

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 16

PROPOSAL: To amend the Field Trial Rules in order that where the club holding the trial is a member-club of the C.K.C. its officers need not be members of the C.K.C. (See proposed amendment No. 2 above).

VOTING ON PROPOSAL: By consent, it was agreed that the vote on proposed amendment No. 2 would apply to this proposed amendment (For, 4; against, 42).

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 17

PROPOSAL: To amend Chapter 10, Section 21, with regard to the National Championship Retriever Stake to provide for the inclusion, as an Appendix, in the Field Trial Rules the Special Regulations, approved b ythe Board of Directors, governing the Stake.

REASON FOR PROPOSAL: The Special Regulations were the results of four years experience in the staging of the Stake of Canada, the Special Regulations governing the Stake suited the Retriever people who wished to see these Special Regulations included in the Field Trial Rules. For, 33; against, 1.

Proposed Amendments to the Obedience Trial Regulations

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 18

PROPOSAL: To amend the Obedience Trial Regulations in order that where the club holding the trial is a member-club of the C.K.C. its officers need not be members of the C.K.C. (See proposed amendment No. 2 above).

VOTING ON PROPOSAL: By consent, it was agreed that the vote on proposed amendment No. 2 would apply to this proposed amendment (for, 4; against, 42).

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 19

PROPOSAL: To amend the provisions of Chapter 1, Section 1, re Novice A Class, so as to prohibit entry in this class of any dog which had won a C.D. (Companion Dog) title in any other country.

REASON FOR PROPOSAL: American-owned dogs, which had earned their U.D. title in the United States, are required to commence their obedience trial competition in Canada in the Novice Class in their quest for C.K.C. obedience titles, and these dogs, because of their previous obedience experience, should be required to be entered in Novice B Class rather than Novice A Class.

ALTERNATIVE PROPOSAL: That an American-owned dog having its C.D. title in the United States be permitted to compete in the Novice Class in Canada, that an American-owned dog having its C.D.X. title in the United States be required to enter in an Open Class in Canada, that an American-owned dog having its U.D. title in the United States be required to enter the Open B and/or Utility Class in Canada; this would not prevent an American-owned dog from competing for all Canadian obedience titles provided it is eligible according to the foregoing conditions of entry.

VOTING ON THE ORIGINAL AMENDMENT: FOR, 19; AGAINST, 15.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 20

PROPOSAL: To amend the provisions of Chapter 1, Section 2, re Novice B Class, entry in this class to be for any pure-bred dog which has not won the title of C.D. IN CANADA; a dog which has won the title of C.D. in another country to be eligible for entry in this class.

VOTING ON PROPOSAL: By consent, it was agreed that the vote on this proposed amendment would be regarded as the same on proposed amendment No. 19:

FOR, 19; AGAINST, 15.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 21

PROPOSAL: To amend the provisions of Chapter 1, Section 6, re Open A Class, to require entry in this class be confined to dogs which have won the title of C.D. in Canada, and to prohibit entry in the class of any dog that has won the title of C.D.X. in any country.

VOTING ON PROPOSAL: Regarded as the same as for amendment No. 19:

FOR ,19; AGAINST, 15.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 22

PROPOSAL: To amend the provisions of Chapter 1, Section 7, re Open B Class, to require entry in this class be confined to dogs which have won the title of C.D. in Canada, and to allow entry in this class of any dog which has won the title of C.D.X. in another country.

VOTING ON PROPOSAL: Regarded as the same as for amendment No. 19:

FOR, 19; AGAINST, 15.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 23

PROPOSAL: To amend the provisions of Chapter 1, Section 12, re Utility Class, to require entry in this class to be confined to dogs which have won the title of C.D.X. in Canada.

VOTING ON PROPOSAL: Regarded as the same as for amendment No. 19:

FOR, 19; AGAINST, 15.

down promptly when the master stops. To teach your dog to heel, first accustom him to a collar, and then arrange the training rope about his body. Command him to "Heel", and start off at a brisk walk. If he pulls ahead, tap him lightly on the nose or chest with a light cane or a roll of paper and say, "No, no, heel". At the same time pull him back with the rope. If he lags behind, pull him up with a sharp jerk, and command, "Come on; heel". When he is at your side again, say, "Good dog, heel", and walk on.

When the dog is heeling properly, stop walking and, while holding his head up with the rope, command him to "Sit". If he does not respond, force him into a sitting position and then praise him. Repeat this until he thoroughly understands that he is to sit down at your heels every time you stop walking. Now abandon the training rope and try him with an ordinary collar and leash. If he appears to have learned his lesson, command him to "Go", and give him to understand that he is at liberty to run and play. At the same time, give him a few feet of leash to run on. When he is at the end of the leash you have paid out, command him to "Heel". If he returns to the exact position, he has learned his lesson and will probably give you no trouble if you try him without the leash.

These few lessons are the bare essentials of a well-trained dog. From here you can go on to other valuable teaching, each one of which will improve the valuable teaching, each one of which will improve the value of your pet to you.

Peculiarities

Some dogs have individual peculiarities that must be curbed and, while the cure varies with the fault, we can only recommend a few solutions to problems experienced by the majority of dog owners. If your pup likes strangers as well as you, and wants to be friendly with everyone, arrange with a neighbour on another street to be outside when you take your pup for a walk past his house. Have him call the dog, and then smack him hard with a folded newspaper. The pup will come running to you for sympathy and, eventually, develop that distrust of all strangers, necessary to a good watchdog.

Chasing Cars

Another bad habit that seems almost natural to some dogs is that of chasing cars. The best cure is to arrange with a friend to drive past your house when the dog is outside. A second person should be in the car, armed with a water gun, loaded with a weak solution of ammonia. As the dog gets abreast of the car, the second person should shoot the solution square in the dog's face. It will do him no permanent harm, but will sting momentarily just enough to cure him of the habit.

Jumping on People

Some dogs, particularly the larger breeds, make themselves objectionable by jumping up on people. The most effective care is to raise your knee the moment he starts to jump, so that he simply bumps his chest against it. If he is too fast for you and manages to get his paws on your chest, step lightly on one of the back feet remaining on the ground.

their superiority. In 1879, at the Memphis trials, they won eight out of ten places, competing not only against all other breeds of Setters but Pointers as well. So thoroughly had they beaten the native American Setter, the Irish, the Gordon and the Pointers that their supremacy in the field became undisputed, and it was apparent that those who ran dogs against Llewellyns would henceforth be doomed to defeat.

Foremost Sporting Dog

Time brings about many changes and while the Llewellyns suffered much envy and criticism, their prowess in the field finally endeared them to the heart of every American sportsman and, in due time, they were accepted as the foremost sporting dog.

In appreciation of Mr. Llewellyn's work the Americans gave the name "Llewellyn" to the strain, under which designation it is still remembered.

Like many another successful man, Mr. Llewellyn did not escape the attacks of his rivals. Nevertheless, he lived to see the strain of the English Setter he had devoted his life's work to establish come to be recognized and valued as indispensable. He died in September 1925.

Gordon Setter

Many opinions are offered as to the age and origin of the Gordon Setter. From the name it is usually believed that Gordon Castle, the home of the Dukes of Richmond and Gordon, is where they originated, although England records a black and tan Setter, particularly the Laverack.

Later, a new lot of black and tans were produced, and these are said to have been by a bloodhound cross. It was also rumoured that the Collie was used to lighten the over-heavy frame.

Another supposition is that the black and tans at Gordon Castle were produced by selection and for a specific purpose; that of hunting on the moors when the season was advanced; a dog of subdued colour being preferable to a flashy one.

Whether the strain originated at Gordon Castle or not, they were the first introduced to the public from there, and Gordon Castle dogs were highly regarded because of their "blue-blood" and purity of strain.

As the national gun dog of Scotland the Gordon Setters, bred by the Duke of Gordon, were brought to America by George W. Blunt. These were white with black-and-tan markings. In the middle '80's a lighter more finely built Gordon Setter arrived in the United States. These were coal black marked with tan, such as we see today.

Irish Setter

The beautiful Irish Setter, at present the most popular of the three varieties, is an entirely typical representative of the Emerald Isle. They are of such mysterious origin that writers on dogs have always been perplexed and to this day have never succeeded in determining their exact descent.

There is no record other than conjectural that the all red Setter existed before the 19th century, although the Irish Setter is mentioned (without reference to colour) as far back as 1803. Another author writes that their origin dates back much earlier. In corroboration of the latter statement, contributory evidence is afforded in an original painting by Samuel Alken, in 1780, in which he depicts an Irish Setter. Still another picture of much more ancient date shows Henry VI (1503), hunting to falcons while a red and white Irish Setter ambles by the side of his horse and is used for flushing the birds.

The theory was at one time advanced that the Irish red Setter was produced from an old Springer-Spaniel-Bloodhound cross. This however, is without proof.

The development of the red Irish Setter from the red and white Spaniel, or red and white Setter, can be followed from old pictures. In some, these ancient progenitors are shown with legs quite as long as those of the Setter.

From the many early references made to Irish Setters one is safe in concluding that these dogs were not solid red. The all red dog seems to have made his appearance around 1820. From then until about 1900 he went through many stages of experimentation and improvement. It is lamentable indeed that no records were kept concerning his transformation.

It is an interesting observation however, that the Irish Red Setter made his appearance at a time synchronous with the origin of the flat coated Retriever, a solid black dog.

The theory has been generally accepted that the red Irish Setter owes its origin to its white and red compatriot and would account for the occasional appearance of white on our modern Setters. But this does not explain how the all-red Setter came by his distinct all-red colouring.

It is certain that at some stage in the evolution of the red Setter a black breed was employed. The standard calls for "no trace of black" although, in the red and white Setter, black was conspicuously absent.

The red and white Setter was not notable as a retriever. The red Setter, on the contrary, shows a marked aptitude for retrieving and working in water and on marshy land. He has a tender mouth and his delivery is good. It is believed that the red and white Setter was crossed with the flat coated Retriever from which cross he gets these faculties and which would also account for the appearance of black in the coats of early specimens.

In detail the red and white Setter differed from the all red Setter. They were longer and more powerfully built; the head was very similar in type with the same square muzzle, the skull was broader and the accipit more prominent. The ear was short and wide and set higher on the head. A further difference was in the coat and feather, the coat being very thick and short and the feather profuse and inclined to curl. The tail is described as "cushy" and was set high up.

The red and white Setter was preserved for many years at Rossmore Castle and among certain sporting men in Ireland they are still spoken of as "Rossmore Setters". The last of this famous strain died in 1923. There were however, other strains and some of these are still in existence. Only a few years ago classes were again opened at shows for this old breed.

Just where the Irish red and white Setter came from and how he got into Ireland is a matter of presumption. Some think he was brought in from Spain, others that he crossed over from England, and still another strong theory is that he came from France. This latter theory is substantiated by the fact that, while this worthy species was becoming obsolete in Ireland, French sportsmen were glorifying in a precisely similar type. He was commonly known as the French Spaniel, although when exhibited at dog shows he appeared under the caption "Setters Ecossais", or Scottish Setter.

Mr. S. Smale, noted Sportsman and Judge, claims these dogs were shown up until 1908, and that year, and for several years previously he officiated as judge of sporting dogs.

Mr. Smale states that these white and red Setters were quite good specimens and without the shadow of a doubt identical to the ones bred in Ireland. So it is possible, and very probable, that the old red and white Setter did come from France. Transportation between these countries was quite accessible in those days.

Although there is undeniable similarity to both the English and Gordon, the Irish Setter, with his distinctive red colouring, is not closely related, and many believe he is a distinct breed with distinct ancestry. However, one cannot overlook the fact that all Setters claim relationship to the setting Spaniel who hailed originally from Spain. This claim however was never proven, although the theory is feasible and has been sustained by many.

It is strange too that of all Setters, the Irish is furthest removed in appearance and build from the Spaniel.

In conclusion, one cannot feel too bitter towards Irish sportsmen for their remissness in not recording the history of the breed. The fact remains that they did produce the all-red dog and in spite of strong opposition from supporters of the old red and white type they finally won recognition both on the bench and in the field.

For many years he has been acclaimed the national gun dog of Ireland, and at bench shows he is always a contender for top honours.

Deeply Moved

The solicitor representing Mr. Tagg's family expressed the family's thanks to all those who had taken part in the exhaustive searches and "had made valiant efforts in the severe wintry weather of the last few months in endeavouring to trace this aged shepherd and his dog."

He went on: "I am sure that they are as deeply moved as I was to learn that his faithful sheepdog was still alive after having watched over the body of her master for nearly 15 weeks.

"Greater devotion is surely beyond imagination.

"Mr. Tagg had many wonderful sheepdogs during his life, many of which had won trophies and prizes at sheepdog trials throughout the country.

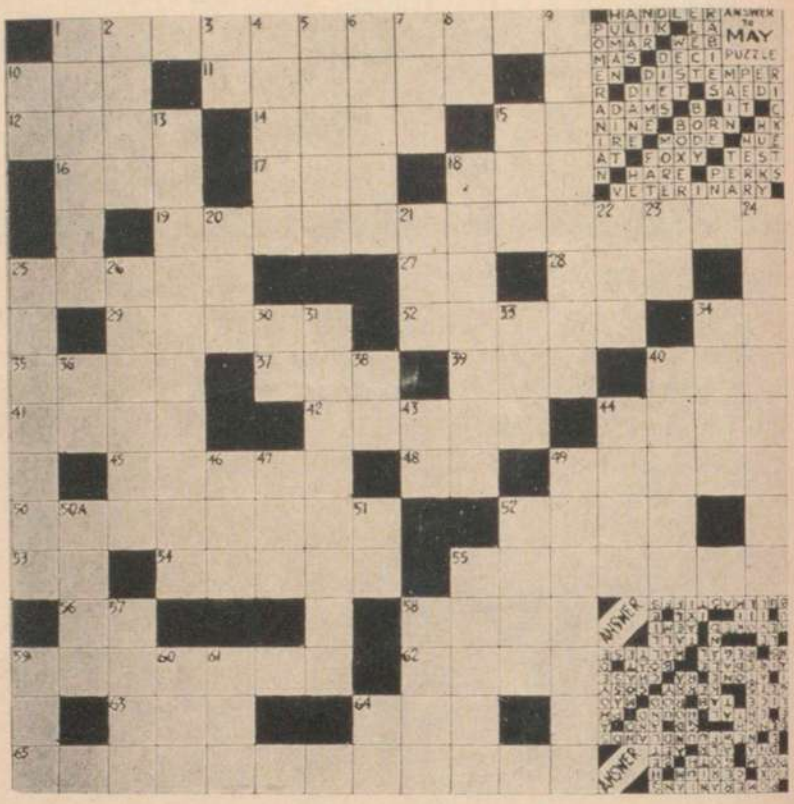

"Although this dog has neither trophy nor award it will surely go down in the history of sheepdogs as one of the most devoted and wonderful of them all."

"Tip", the valiant little dog is to have an award. The National Canine Defence League has announced that she will receive the League's Bronze Medal "for devotion and fidelity."

From The Editor's SCRAP BOOK....

The Dog Forgot

Victim—Confound your dog, madam! It's nearly bitten a piece out of my leg.

Owner (with a look of distress)—I am truly sorry, sir. Naughty little Daphne! After all my efforts to make Wednesday our meatless day.

All a Mistake

ROM Sacramento, California, comes news that a man was hailed into court the other day and charged with having his dog run carefree in the streets. He pleaded that it was all a mistake, that the dog was normally kept in the house. He added that he kept his wife at home also to ensure that the dog would never get astray.

A Solomon Judgment

SOME twenty years ago two Negroes in Monroe, Louisianna, were quarrelling over the ownership of a little "yaller dog". Their dispute landed them in court.

Judge W. M. Harper told them, "You boys will have to quit making so much racket about this dog. I order that it be forfeited to the City, and further, that it be put to death."

One Negro sat back and smiled smugly.

The second Negro paled. Then he blurted out, "No, Sir, Judge. Doan you do dat. Give it to dis other Negro, but please, sir, don't kill it."

Judge Harper ruled, "It's your dog to keep and cherish forever."

The little "yaller dog" wagged its tail.

Faking at Shows

BACK in 1932 the problem of faking at Dog Shows was arousing the ire of Popular Dogs. It was reported that at one of the large shows on the Mid-Western circuit a contender for Best in Show was so drugged that for a time he was unable to stand. At length he was resuscitated sufficiently to be taken into the ring for the final judging. It was evident to those present that an overdose of some drug had been administered. This was later substantiated by the attending veterinarian, who diagnosed the case as one of poisoning from dope. "This is only one of the flagrant examples of faking perpetrated within recent weeks, "wrote Popular Dogs. "Fanciers who persist in the practice are hanging ropes around their own necks."

The Towsy Tyke

I ken the Terrier o' the North,
I ken the towsy tyke;
Ye'll search frae Tweed to Sussex shore,
But never find his like.

For pluck and pith, and paw and teeth,
And hair like heather cowes,
Wi' body long, and low, and strang,
At hame in cairns or "knowes".

He'll face a foumert, draw a brock,
Kill rats and whiterits by the score;
He'll bang tod-towrie frae his hole,
Or stay him at his door.

He'll range for days, and ne'er be tired,
O'er mountain, moor or fell;
Fair play, I'll back the brave, wee chap,
To fecht the deil himsel'.

And yet beneath his rugged coat,
A heart beats warm and true;
He'll help to herd the sheep and kye,
And mind the lammies too.

Then see him at the ingleside,
With bairns round him lauchin';
Was ever dog so pleased as he,
Sae fond o' fun and daffin'?

But gie's your hand, my Hielan' maid,
Guid faith we mauna sever,
Then, "Here's to Scotia's best o' dogs,
Our towsy tyke forever."

Dr. Gordon Stables

Florence Nightingale

FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE, who so nobly gave of her life in a foreign cholera-stricken land that others may live, got her incentive for nursing, it is said, by fomenting a dog's leg.

Attack Leash Law

DOWN in Mobile, Alabama, the local municipal body recently attempted to pass a law requiring all dogs to be on a leash. There was an immediate reaction. It became an election issue, and more votes were cast than for the election of the local government, with the pro-dog enthusiasts winning out by about 20 per cent majority.

Highly Intelligent German Shepherd Pup

By ELSIE BARNES

I HAD the "dream" of a dog breeder realized the other day when I received a telephone call from a stranger. He wanted information on how and where to go for more knowledge of his breed and the breeders of same.

This gentleman went on to tell me of the three-month-old pup he had owned just one month and of all it could do. His story of the pup sounded almost fantastic. But I tried to sound as though I believed his dog-story when I said, "Well, he must be a very intelligent pup." Mr. Clark then invited me to come and see his pup. I did. And believe me, if I doubted what I had been told on the telephone I was worse off when I came home from that visit, for then I doubted what I had actually seen.

I had seen a three-month old pup "heel," "stay", "figure eight", "guard", "disarm," distinguish between articles scented by two different persons, deliver a message to a person away off in another part of a big home who knew nothing of what was going on downstairs and return with a different message to his master. What really floored me was when Mr. Clark said, "I have trained him to answer the telephone. It is not always convenient for me." He dialled the 'phone, hung up the receiver and commanded the dog, "Answer!" The pup immediately jumped up to the telephone, took off the receiver, laid it on the floor and barked into it.

I think any German Shepherd breeder would be interested in both Mr. Clark and his dog. It is really amazing to find an owner of just one dog take so much interest in his dog and make it a credit to the breed. Mr. Clark would be happy to meet others interested in the breed, from those interested in training, show his wonderful little pup to anyone, and receive any good suggestions. He is also interested in having another good dog to train, preferably a female. Mr. N. A. Clark's telephone number in Toronto, Ontario, is WA. 4-1785.
