GUARD DOG

. . . I would like to get a real guard dog for my daughter, as we live in constant fear of her being kidnapped. Also there is a river nearby and it is almost impossible to keep a child away from the water. I understand that the German Shepherd would not only guard my little girl but would keep her from wandering away from home. As the winters up here are very severe, it would need to be a hardy dog.

FAY FRENCH.

New Liskeard, Ont.

Does anyone have a German Shepherd who would fill the bill?—Ed.

RING SHY

. . . I have a friend who imported a German short-haired pointer, a very good show dog. For some unexplainable reason the dog refuses to be led while in the ring and objects strongly to being examined by the judge. I have judged in practically every country, but this extreme nervousness is beyond my comprehension. Outside of the show and in the hunting field the same dog is superb. Anything you can suggest will be gratefully appreciated.

HARRY P. SAUNDERS.

Calgary, Alta.

There are many reasons why dogs become ring-shy, and it will be necessary to trace back any incidents just prior to the dog's first signs of neurosis. Try entering him for exhibition only for a couple of shows and walk him around when there is no noise or confusion. It is possible this dog prefers to do the work for which nature intended him, i.e. hunting in the field, and is confused in the show ring. A little patience on your part will work wonders.—Ed.

BORDER COLLIE

. . . . While attending the C.N.E. Show I overheard someone say that the Border Collie might be recognized in Canada for registration purposes. Please give me what information you have on the subject.

H. B. VEMEY.

Willowdale, Ont.

The subject of registering Border Collies is now being considered by the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club. We would welcome information on this breed from interested parties.—Ed.

. . . I know it is wrong to keep a white boxer, but this one was so beautiful we kept him. However he appears to be very hard of hearing. Is there anything we can do to assist him?

MRS. J. J. B.

Ottawa, Ont.

White boxers or danes are known as albinos, and therefore hard of hearing. We have heard of a hearing aid being used on dogs who became deaf. Ordinarily a dog will shake its head violently if anything touches the ear, and we doubt very much if a strong healthy boxer would tolerate the addition to its head. However you might try it.—Ed.

A ROAMER

. . . We have a collie who leaves home for three to six hours a day. We tie him up off and on for a week at a time but as soon as he is let loose he runs away. Each time he returns home we pat him and let him know how pleased we are to see him. He is very intelligent, as it has been quite easy to teach him obedience.

MRS. WILMOT SINCLAIR

Kenora, Ont.

If I were your dog and received such a warm welcome on my return I would continue to roam. Admonishment might solve your problem. Dogs do not like to be confined and when given the opportunity will run until the energy is released. If he always returns, why deprive him of the pleasure of running.—Ed.

OUR APOLOGIES

. . . In your March issue of Dogs in Canada you list what you claim to be a complete summary of Canadian winners at the Westminster Show, recently held at Madison Square Gardens in New York City.

The undersigned exhibited two nice senior poodle puppies at the Westminster one of which, Barlanark Brigitte Braun, although she had come into season the morning of the show, was placed second in a group of nine.

BARKING PROBLEM

. . . My grandfather bought me a dog for Christmas. It barks continuously and my mother says if it cannot be cured I will have to send it away. This dog is all that I have got and he really understands me.

LARRY WALDMAN.

Toronto, Ont.

Some dogs like to hear the sound of their own voice. Or it could be that your dog is so happy to be with you that he wants all the world to know. Probably you have spoiled him and rather than have the dog sent away try training him each time he starts to bark. Suggest you secure a book on training dogs. Make the dog useful to both you and your parents, and they will not mind a little noise for the pleasure the dog gives them.—Ed.

• • •

. . . I have bought a pure bred Springer spaniel and I am very pleased with it except for one reason. His eyes are running most of the time. Can you tell me if it is a characteristic of the spaniel to have trouble with their eyes?

28 Young St. N. HARRY LANTHIER.

Sudbury, Ont.

I would suggest that you take your dog to the Veterinarian in Sudbury as it could be an inverted eyelid. A quite simple operation will cure this. Your Veterinarian will prescribe an ointment if there is a weakness in the tear duct.—Ed.

HELP WANTED

. . . If you can give me the slightest hint about how to understand my dog the entire male population of my district will be grateful to you, including the police department, the post office employees, the gas company, the public utilities and every man rash enough to attempt to ring my front doorbell. This dog is a fine, lovable collie in the home, but he hates men.

I believe he has been trained by someone and I get his signals all mixed up. He understands our property line quite well. When any man crosses it, he rushes at him and puts on a terrific offensive. He does not touch the man unless he goes to pat him or raises his hand or kicks. During this time I stand helplessly by, hollering "Come here, Butch!" In fact, the instant he hears my voice he changes from a silent watchfulness into a raging tornado. My best plan is to say nothing and this brings on the accusation that I am responsible for the dog's behaviour. When he's already barking and I call him he seems to think I am egging him on.

My husband mastered him by grabbing him by the throat, throwing him down on the ground and sitting on him until he gave up the struggle. I am not strong enough to do this even though I surmise there must be a simpler way. Butch loves all women and hates all strange men, especially honest men. I sometimes think he must have been trained by a crook. My back yard in the summer keeps me supplied with onions, apples, tomatoes and cucumbers which all our near neighbours' children throw at the dog. I have no garden and the dog is good at dodging.

We are on the outskirts of the city, and I often think our section has been described in the famous underworld escape system outlined in a book by a Hamilton ex-convict, whereby anyone having to leave certain Ontario cities in a hurry is given direct and specific routing. Once policemen conducted a chase over the neighboring fields toward the Hamilton highway, shooting as they went, but I am sure the one that got away ran between our two neighbourhood houses and up to the Kitchener highway.

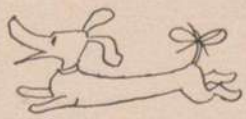

Our dog is in the right place and I intend to keep him. Only, I wish I could get him to come to me when called.

MRS. J. J. S.

Galt, Ont.

Any helpful suggestions from our readers would be appreciated!—Ed.

MEMO FROM THE EDITOR

Few vocations and avocations provide as much interest as the dog world. It encompasses fashion, scientific and patient experimentation and competition, not to mention plain hard work and responsibility. On the other side of the scale is all the fun and joy of companionship, pride in the progress of pure bred dogs on their way to top honours.

Your publishers are making every effort to make DOGS IN CANADA a magazine in which an exchange of ideas keeps interest fresh and keen, a publication to which all dog owners may turn for pleasure and information and through which breeders may best merchandise their kennel stock.

To this end we have inaugurated a new department under the heading of Letters. Your comments and queries are invited. If there are any ideas you'd like incorporated take a moment to put them on paper and we'll discuss them at our next editorial meeting.

Know any good dog stories . . . or articles concerning dogs in the news for bravery or other interesting reasons? The brand new department Dogs and People invites items of interest concerning owners and canine members of their family.

Introducing Elizabeth Frey, official photographer for DOGS IN CANADA. Miss Frey is an outstanding young camera-woman who has made a name for herself since coming to Canada from Berlin a few years ago. In a short time she has photographed Canada from many aspects and has done much to promote this country in Europe. Her innate kindness and sense of humour have won many friends in all walks of life, and are characteristics which undoubtedly go a long way in her successful portrayal of photography of dogs. You will see many of her photographs in the ensuing pages.

And speaking of innovations, we'd like to hear of more club activities. In order to accommodate the influx (we hope) of Club Notes, they should be confined to one typewritten double-spaced page. If your club news must of necessity be longer, please let us know in good time so that it can be included. . . . And in order to get to press on time, the closing date for both editorial and advertising copy has been moved up to the fifth instead of the tenth of the preceding month.

SPORTSMEN'S SHOW

Dog history was made at the recent Canadian National Sportsmen's Dog Shows when over 1800 entries of pure bred dogs competed for top awards in one of the oldest sports in the world. American dogs accounted for one-third of the entries with the three best in show a different American dog each show. The three Obedience Trials were instrumental in creating a record for paid admissions to any dog show in Canada.

For four days—March 16, 17, 18 and 19—Toronto played hostess to America's finest in dogdom. The event was the sixth annual Canadian National Sportsmen's All-Breed Championship Dog Shows which set an all-time entry record—1,802—in Canadian dog show history. Three shows were held, two of one day's duration and one a two-day event. Enthusiastic dog lovers also set their own record for paid admission.

HISTORY OF THE SHOW

The Canadian National Sportsmen's Show (sponsored by the Toronto Anglers and Hunters Association) is relatively new in the field of Canadian shows but since its inception in 1949 it has snowballed into a position of prominence. Today, to enter and win with a dog in this Show represents a major achievement.

All profits derived from the Sportsmen's Show are used for the promotion of conservation of our natural resources of forest, field and stream. Over 200,000 attended this year's show from all parts of Canada and the United States. Registration of dealers was more than 1,900, which figure does not include the hundreds who attended without the formality of registering. Each year there is a casting pool where daily casting competitions are held and an international tournament draws entries in this particular sport from all parts of the world. A sports administration area with a seating capacity of approximately 1,500 people is dedicated to demonstrations and the promotion of golf, tennis, roller skating, archery, wrestling and baseball.

A popular phase of the Show is a gigantic stage and water revue which attracts 10,000 people. A team of dogs, demonstrating not only the work of the dog in the field and water but also obedience training is a regular feature each year and is aimed at emphasizing to the spectators the value of owning pure bred dogs.

SPORTSMANSHIP PREVAILED

Throughout the entire show the theme is a spirit of sportsmanship in which the dog shows play a leading role. The size and quality of the dogs from the United States were remarkable and surprisingly reminiscent of the Westminster Kennel Club Show held at Madison Square Gardens in New York City. Of particular interest was the fact that the judging rings were placed away from the benching, allowing ample space for the paying public to walk around the benches and talk with the owners of the dogs then move out into the judging rings where they could follow ring procedure without the usual noise and confusion associated with a show where the judging and benching rings are confined to a single space. This innovation allowed 13 specialty shows to be held in conjunction with the all breed show. The obedience trial rings were segregated during the entire show, relieving the management of the necessity of disinfecting the ring as frequently as is done at similar shows.

OBEDIENCE

The three obedience trials were exceptionally well attended and while the trials were in progress the ringside was crowded some ten people deep. Unique trophies in the form of silver tankards were given as prizes, on which was attached the crest of the Toronto Anglers' and Hunters' Association. So that a complete collection for the rumpus room can be collected these tankards will become a part of the show for several years.

ACCOMMODATION

Luxurious motels located in the immediate vicinity of the colorful Coliseum which housed the Show provided ample accommodation for the hundreds of exhibitors, and simplified the transportation of dog crates from car to motel room.

Seth Campbell, popular American handler, puts the finishing touches to Travella Allure who completed her Can. Ch. at this show.

American and Canadian handlers were well represented at the shows although Canadian handlers suffer the disadvantage of not presently being recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club. The handler's job appears deceptively simple until you consider the skill required in projecting to a judge the good points of a dog while concealing the weak points. They must try for the best position in the lineup and work continuously to hold it in anticipation of the moment when the judge's eyes glance back to compare that particular dog's anatomy with the one he is inspecting.

It is not necessary for a handler to wear any distinctive badge or clothing for the spectators to identify him when he enters the ring. There is a sureness in the manner of walking and gaiting the dog, a nonchalant method of showing the dog to its best advantage that is peculiar to all top handlers.

The handlers' crates were a constant source of curiousity to interested spectators who witnessed in amazement the involved, tedious conditioning of the dogs for the show ring.

BEST IN SHOW

Top to bottom: English Setter, Ben Dar's Advance Notice, owner Wm. Sears, Port Huron, Mich. West Highland White Terrier, Edgerstoune Valley Belle, owner Mrs. W. J. Worcester, Little Falls, N.J. Yorkshire Terrier, Star Twilight of Clu-Mar, owner Mrs. Leslie Gordon, Glenview, Ill., an off- the record shot before grooming.

Chairman of the Dog Show Committee was Mr. H. V. P. Lewis, more familiarly known to the fancy as "Bumpy" Lewis whose calm and efficient supervision lent much to the success of the show.

Shown for the first time in Canada was an addition to the hound group by the pair of Drevers which Dr. Alan Secord and C. H. D. Clarke imported from the Scandinavian countries recently. Aside from the large hound ears their resemblance to the Welsh Corgi Pembroke is quite pronounced and caused considerable comment.

The final awards for the three shows are contained in another section of this issue but it is interesting to note the relative absence of duplications in the principal awards at the three shows. Although the same dogs competed, the best in show was a different dog each day and from three different groups.

On March 16th the English Setter, Ben-Dar's Advance Notice, owned by William C. and Duska Sears, won the award. On March 17th the Yorkshire Terrier, Ch. Star Twilight of Clu-Mar, owned by Mrs. Leslie Gordon Jr., was top dog. This dog was featured amongst the Westminster group winners in the March issue of DOGS IN CANADA. On March 18th and 19th the West Highland White Terrier, Am. Ch. Edgerstoune Valley Belle, owned by Mrs. William J. Worcester, took the highest honours.

For the best Canadian-bred in show the Scottish Terrier, Rear Admiral of Seaglen, owned by Anthony Stamm, won the first and second show while the third was won by the Labrador Retriever, Ch. Blyth's Ace of Spades, owned by Robert L. Blyth.

For best Canadian-bred puppy there were three separate awards made. At the first show the Dalmatian, Willowmount Truly Fair, owned by Kay Robinson, took the award. At the second show the Kerry Blue Terrier, Tailteann's Rare Gem, owned by Mrs. M. Eileen McEachern was awarded best puppy in show and in the third the Beagle, Glen Willow Solo, owned by A. E. Beamont, took top honors.

The only dog to win three group awards at the three shows was in the non-sporting group when the Standard Poodle, Etude's Image En Noire, owned by Mrs. George Ward, carried off that distinction.

Two hound groups were won by the Smooth-haired Dachshund, Ch. Tag-A-Long Fritzie, owned by John R. Clapp, and the Pug, Pugville's Maybe Stupendous, owned by the Pugville Kennels, placed second in the toy group at each show.

To the individual interested in owning pure bred dogs attendance at such a magnificent show is a thrilling experience and a direct challenge.

CANINE CARAVAN

Straining every well-trained muscle, prize hunting dogs flash over prairie grass in pursuit of wild fowl and an international championship

Tractor-drawn dog wagons cart the caged hunters from their kennel trucks to the trial course. It's a popular place for spectators to

by PHIL CARSCALLEN

Two weeks each year dog food is at a premium in Frobisher, Saskatchewan, with 200 hungry hunting dogs in town seeking international honors.

Less than 20 miles from the U.S. border and about 60 from the Manitoba boundary, Frobisher normally has a population of about 200 people and 50 dogs. During September the census jumps to 300 people and some 250 dogs.

The sudden–and vocal–increase in canine population heralds the beginning of one of the continent's top hunting dog trials –the border International Field Trials–which start on Labor Day and continue for about two weeks.

The dogs–mostly from Georgia and Alabama–include some of the finest pointers and English setters anywhere.

The trials are big business, not only in Frobisher but in international dogdom; first prize money can run to $1,800 or better. They are held around Frobisher because its flat, gently rolling countryside is ideal for hunting prairie chicken. There is little brush and not too many fences.

The Sunday before Labor Day a weird assortment of trucks, some big, some small, but all fitted with dogs cages, starts to arrive in Frobisher. By five o'clock that night the town is in an uproar.

The 50 town dogs come out to howl, yip and bark a welcome to the 200 caged visitors, who yap right back. Trainers, handlers and scouts, some of them with their families, crowd the small hotel lobby and overflow on to the board walk of the main street. "Bud" Hassard, his 14-room hotel bursting at the seams, marshals the townspeople to take care of the overflow. The hotel lobby and the dining room are headquarters for the dog men. It's dog talk for breakfast; dog talk for dinner; dog talk all the time–all in southern accents and drawls. A Canadian in the crowd sounds like a foreigner.

The trials are important to dog owners because they prove the worth of the dog and the trainer. Let's say you are one of the 50-odd Americans who has a training camp in southern Manitoba or Saskatchewan where you bring your dogs every July, August and September because it's too doggone hot to train dogs down south. You have a very expensive dog–perhaps worth as much as $5,000–with a fancy name like Satilla Wahoo Pete. You've trained him since he was a pup and he's ready for the all-age stakes. You enter him and the owner pays the shot, $30. If it were a championship the entry fee would be $50.

The Sunday night before Labor Day you crowd into Frobisher's Canadian Legion Hall with all the other trainers for the draw. All the dogs' names are put into a hat, and are then drawns in pairs. The dogs run in pairs or braces. Pete's name is in the hat. You sit there just a-prayin' that he will be paired off with a good dog and that Pete will get one of the good courses. You were at the Border International last year and know which courses have lots of birds and which haven't.

You're lucky. Pete's name is drawn along with that of another good dog. The course is one of the best. Now all you have to worry about is weather, deer, rabbits, porcupines, and hope that Pete feels like working and not "just rattling his bones."

The 15 or more trial courses, each three-quarters of a mile wide and two miles long, are arranged by the Canadian Legion which sponsors the Border International. The Legion also supplies the marshal to guide the party and the dog wagon to follow the "gallery" with the dogs for the succeeding runs. It hires saddle horses for spectators and looks after the judges' expenses.

To a professional a dog trial makes sense; to the uninitiated it's confusing. It looks to be about 49 percent trucks, 49 percent horses and 2 percent dogs. Trucks carry the horses and dogs to the courses; they follow the runs by driving along the side roads; they're never out of sight. Everyone following the dogs is on horseback. So there are lots of trucks and horses. But the only dogs in evidence are the two running in the brace. The rest are cooped up in cages on the dog wagon or the trucks.

The trials start at 7 a.m. To see the first brace run you have to rise with the sun, the trainers, scouts and judges at 5:30. Breakfast is on the run. The first course is six miles south of town and the small cavalcade is there by 6:30. Horses are saddled and the dogs are readied.

Saturn Sponsor, a 1953 winner, demonstrates a perfect point

At 7:00 the first two dogs are let loose. Behind them, riding like rodeo cowboys, are the two trainers and their scouts. Each trainer controls his dog by yelling and blowing a whistle. When he isn't doing that he's bellowing a chant that sounds as though it originated in darkest Africa. This is so the dog "will know whar he's at."

Following behind at a more leisurely pace comes the gallery, all mounted; the marshal, the two judges, other trainers and scouts who will follow on the next two or three courses, and any souls who are brave enough or interested enough to follow the run. The dog wagon, sometimes pulled by a tractor, brings up the rear.

The leash is slipped and the dogs streak away like twin bullets

The dogs range back and forth at the commands of the trainer looking for prairie chicken. When one scents a bird or a covey he comes to a point. Then there's action! The trainer, the scout and anyone else who is handy, raises his cap in the air and yells, "Point! Point!" The judges and the gallery gallop up. The judges look the dog over, make notes and then nod to the trainer to flush the birds to prove that one of these smart dogs isn't trying to pull a fast one. Then off the dog goes again, looking for more birds.

The dogs are judged for knowing what to do; for their bird work, finding and pointing birds; on class, for the way they carry themselves, speed and stance in pointing and for handling, the way they will range but still obey the trainers' commands. The dog has 30 minutes to show his stuff in a stake and an hour in a championship event.

By the time the fourth or fifth brace is on the run it's 9 a.m. and the less hardy have arrived. The horse gallery has grown to quite a size and the truck gallery is in full array. There is no standard design for the trucks; they are of all shapes, sizes, makes and vintages. Some have the trainers' and scouts' horses up front and the dog cages behind. Others have the horses at the back and the cages up front. And there's still room for the dog food and hay. Some are just pick-ups with portable kennels in back. Trainers, their dogs and horses, range the continent in these odd-looking vehicles, covering dog trial after dog trial from Frobisher to Texas, to Georgia to New York from September to April.

There's one thing missing at the dog trials—the dog owners. A few come, maybe half a dozen out of 160. They are the incongruity in the business. They own the dog, paying sometimes as high as $5,000 for him. They pay the training fee of $50 a month, plus an extra $50 for the three months in Canada. They pay the entry fees for the stake trials and championships. In return they get no cash whatever. All prize money goes to the trainers.

If he's lucky the owner might be allowed to shoot over the dog, if he comes to the trainer's camp and lets the trainer supervise the shooting. The best he can hope for is his name in the blue book of sporting dogs, The American Field, or perhaps a trophy to keep for a year and the prestige of owning a champion. They must consider that's reward enough, for the next year the dogs will be back and Frobisher will once again echo to dog barks which sho' nuf sound like "bow-wow you-all".

Up at dawn, the marshal and judges see first trial at 7:00 a.m.

THE GREAT DANE

Apollo of dogs, spirited and courageous, friendly and dependent, the Great Dane has a physical and mental combination which gives it a majesty possessed by no other breed.

CELEBRATED for hunting and fighting feats from earliest times, the Great Dane further distinguished itself by being the first animal considered of sufficient importance that the death of one of its breed was cabled around the world. The dog was Tyras, the close companion and guardian of Chancellor Bismarck.

Tyras was present at most conferences, in fact rarely left his master's side, and as a result many historical incidents concerning the German ruler include mention of the great dog. Bismarck was not averse to the psychological assistance of Tyras in forcing an issue. One of the favourite tales concerns the visit of the Russian Prime Minister Gortsschakoff who made the mistake of derisively waving his arms during an argument. He was suddenly confronted by an indignant Tyras who, in the belief that Bismarck was in danger, bowled Gortsschakoff over and sat squarely on top of the nobleman. Needless to say, Bismarck won his point.

The Great Dane played a prominent part in the making of the history of the world from at least as early as 3,000 B.C. Ancient hieroglyphics show the dog with cropped ears, bearing out the theory that the cropping was a necessity rather than a decorative feature. In early times the Great Dane was used for hunting wild boar in the dark forests, where its long ears would become torn in the thickets. The cartilage of a dog's ear will not knit once torn, to say nothing of the profuse bleeding of the large blood vessels entailed. Removal of a portion of the ear eliminated much of the hazard and is the solution used today with the hounds in hunting packs.

An indication of the fearlessness of these dogs is recorded in early Roman history when this breed was used for baiting lions in the arena. Their agility and size, even in those days, was such that they could be used for throwing wolves, tearing down wild cattle and stags. During the frequent wars they formed the first rank of the army when going into battle.

Contrary to general opinion, the appellation "Great Dane" is not an indication that Denmark established the breed. The Germans, by careful breeding and selection, assisted the dog through the lengthy transition period.

As civilization progressed and the dog was no longer needed for aggression, the temperament of this breed changed to the tractable, obedient and lovable dog known today. Although the Mollossian hound of Ireland is credited by some historians as the progenitor of the Great Dane, there is greater inclination to the theory that the evolution belongs to Germany, and that the proper name should be that of its native land, "Deutche Dogge".

In England the Dane led a peaceful and honored life as the pet of wealthy noblemen who delighted in having the graceful animal gallop before the carriages. The Harlequin Dane, so named for its white background with patches, was the dog most favoured for this purpose. The Dalmatian, also white with black spots but smaller in stature, was the attendant of the servants who rode on horseback behind the retinue.

The Great Dane is fully entitled to the high rank it holds in the world today. Its noble stature, combining strength with an unexpected grace and agility for so large an animal, readily adapts it to both city and country life.

Its temperament is splendid, notwithstanding an inherent alertness to guard those whom it considers its personal pride and joy. In fact, this alertness is often mistaken for bad disposition. A strong natural desire for human companionship and efforts to please make it a reliable asset to family life.

In Hamble, England, a seven-year-old dachshund named Jenny went rabbit hunting towing her hindquarters in a tiny two-wheeled car. Jenny's owner devised the cart after the dog sprained her back and paralyzed her hind legs on a hunt almost a year ago. The veterinary suggested a return to hunting to give Jenny "an interest in life."

Died — at the age of 81, at his home on Wellesley St. E., Toronto, Charles Frederick Bulmer, who owned the Cedar Valley Kennels of collies for many years. Mr. Bulmer was held in such high esteem at Queen's Park where he had been a civil servant for over 60 years that the flag over the Ontario Provincial Government Building was flown at half mast the day of his funeral. Mr. Bulmer was custodian of all Ontario Records and Orders-in-Council, and also administered the oath of office to many chief justices.

He was one of two civil servants presented to the late King George VI and Queen Elizabeth when they visited Canada before World War II and was decorated with the Imperial Service Order. He is survived by his widow, two daughters and a son.

We noticed a gentleman strolling through the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, accompanied by a big ten-gallon hat. The owner proved to be Mr. Malen Wilkins, of Jarvis, Ont., who had just been elected second vice-president of the Ontario Plowman's Association, a busy organization with 70 branches throughout Canada.

Royal Air Force dogs, flown from Iraq and the Suez Canal zone, played an important role in guarding RAF installations on the isle of Cyprus in recent weeks when anti-British terrorists set off new explosions on this British Mediterranean colony. Police patrols were stiffened in every town and the dogs augmented the necessarily wide-spread reinforcements.

You never know who your next patient will be in a day's emergencies at an outpost hospital. Beryl Price, answering a banging on the door of her tiny Red Cross hospital, found a man in a state of anxiety.

The nurse hurried out, prepared to treat a badly mauled child. Instead she found a pointer pup that had come out second best in a fight. No vet, she cleaned out the pup's wounds and both dog and owner went away happier.

For the third time in five years Sheila, a six-year-old collie, has saved the lives of members of the family of Fred Haines of Bradford, Ont. Recently she was responsible for the rescue of Joanne, 5, when fire broke out in their home. Mrs. Haines, who had just stepped out to shop rushed back into the house. She heard the child crying but could not find her until Sheila led her to where Joanne was crouched under a bed.

Two years previously the collie rescued Joanne when she tumbled into the Holland River. And five years ago the heroic dog found Mrs. Haines who had fainted while separated from a picnic party. Sheila stood over her, barking, until Mr. Haines located them.

A Toronto puppy was standing by the breakfast table with such a hungry expression his master suggested he ought to be fed immediately.

Whereupon the dog trotted to the door and scratched to be let out. In a few minutes he returned bearing an unopened bag of kibble, the type he was customarily fed. He was given his breakfast at once.

On three later occasions when the family was not sufficiently prompt in serving the kibble he produced his own. Neighborhood stores and dog owners have been questioned, but no one admits to missing any supplies.

✦ ✦ ✦

Three members of the Canadian dog fancy are judging shows thousands of miles from home. Mrs. Eileen McEachern is judging an all-breed dog show in Bermuda. Mr. Alf. Loveridge judges in Caracas, Venezuela, May 7 and 8, and Mrs. Alva McColl will judge at the Boston Terrier Specialty show in London, England, July 6.

King Arthur had delegated one of his Crusaders to deliver a special message. The knight returned in dismay.

"Sire," he said, "the stables are empty. There is nought to ride but a Great Dane."

"Then stay, I pray thee," the king said graciously. "I would not send a knight out on a dog like this."

CLUB NOTES

Irish Setter Club of Canada

By Doris Dafoe

The Irish Setter Club of Canada Specialty Show, held in conjunction with the Canadian National Sportsmen's Show, saw a large entry of some 28 Irish Setters. Even Direct of Aragon, owned by Dr. Robert De Salvo, won from the classes through to Best of Breed, and Best of Opposite Sex was won by Wildair Visionary Hour, owned by Mrs. Gertrude Drew.

We would like to thank all those who assisted in making our show a success, and for the marvelous manner in which the benches were decorated.

We would also like to congratulate the winners of Irish Setters who are winning consistently in obedience trials. Coronation Princess had a high score of 199 out of a possible 200 points. There were four dogs who made a qualifying score at the trials. It is encouraging to see the Irish Setter doing so well in this phase of the dog game.

There were 154 Irish Setters benched at Cruft's, London, England, this year.

The Junior Kennel Club of Vancouver

By Mrs. Elsie Murray

An innovation amongst the Junior Kennel Club members was a written examination on the Breed Standards and Show Awards, the winner being Kathleen Bennett who won top honours in the exam and was awarded a black Cocker Spaniel puppy by the Flo-Bob Kennels of Portland, Oregon.

The Junior Kennel Club is now planning a rummage sale combined with a sale of home cooking and an afternoon tea to raise money for the winning contestant at the All Breed Shows to be held later this year.

Boxer Club of Canada

By Mrs. B. P. Salt

The Boxer Specialty Show, held in conjunction with the Canadian National Sportsmen's Show, saw a Canadian-bred Boxer place best of breed for the first time in the eight years the Boxer Specialty Show has been held. The 16 month old dog, which went best of breed was Gedong Rameh Buti, owned by Mrs. Mona Belton. In the group Buti placed second and was best Canadian-bred in group. The judge was Mrs. Mary Cousins, so we all feel very proud of our Canadian-bred Boxer.

Hub City Kennel Club

By Mrs. Nellie Peters

It has been some time since the Hub City Kennel Club in Saskatoon sent in news to the magazine. However, we would like to commence again and hope that the members will enjoy our little chats.

We have been having much fun with the television shows, which are only too happy to feature pure bred dogs, and Lloyd Heimbecker and Pat Randall conduct a very good program.

Entries for our big show are coming in very well, and we hope it will be the most successful show that Saskatoon has ever had.

The German Shepherd Dog Breeders' Association Inc.

By Mary Hart

The training classes open to any German Shepherd owner are once again being held in front of the Coliseum at the C.N.E. grounds in Toronto at 2 p.m. every Sunday. An average of 20 dogs have been attending and it is the intention of our Training Master, Reg Scott, to form a Drill Team for demonstration purposes. To date the dogs attending regularly have shown splendid progress with the training programme.

A recent movie, "The Iron Fence", shown at Sheas' Theatre featured Champion Heathcliffe of Briardale and Jennifer of Briardale, owned by our President, Spencer Weller, and his wife. Along these lines a movie is soon to be released, "The Little Canadian", features Champion Duke Fredrick of Willow-bank, a son of Champion Erich of Marimere, owned by club member, Mary Hart.

At the recent Chatham Show, Winners Dog and Best Opposite Sex in German Shepherds went to Karl of Sun Valley, owned by Mr. & Mrs. Ted Macklem. Unfortunately, due to adverse weather conditions, Karl and his handler, Mary Hart, arrived at the Windsor Show too late for the judging, as did so many other dogs that day.

Sympathy is extended from the club to Ellen and Bob Gibbs, Barrimor Kennels, on the loss of their famous Champion Steel of Barrimor and Bonnie (Yeta of Sandorea). These dogs were the foundation of their kennels.

The German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada

By Mary E. Southcott

Once again the Club will sponsor its Annual Specialty Show in the baseball park, Canadian National Exhibition grounds. This show, which is held in the fall, attracts entries from all parts of the continent. The Club is continuing its courses in obedience training, and will probably carry them through the summer.

It is an acknowledged fact that successful breeding of quality stock entails careful study of the quality of the ancestral lineage of both male and female.

Having found two bloodlines representing desirable quality, it is sound reasoning to pick an outstanding male and female, truly representative of the best in each bloodline.

We sincerely believe that the mating of Can. Ch. Minonamee Eugenie and Am. Ch. Nashcrest Golden Note truly meets these requirements.

This litter is due in mid-April, and we will gladly answer any enquiries from those interested in securing the very best in Sheltie bloodlines.

As advertised in the April issue of Dogs in Canada, our two All Breed Championship Shows and Obedience Trials will be held on July 23rd and 24th at Leamington, Ontario. Leamington is offering every facility to make the holiday weekend an extra special one for exhibitors, and we look forward to a most successful show.

New Brunswick Notes and News

By Robert B. Laskey

The New Brunswick Kennel Club will make its 1955 show the Anniversary Show as the first show held by this Club was in the year 1885 in St. John, New Brunswick. It is believed that this was the first licensed show in Canada, and it was held under the sponsorship of the American Kennel Club, as the Canadian Kennel Club was not formed until 1887. This show will tie in with the five-show circuit being held in New Brunswick commencing August 20th, and ending in St. John on August 26th.

We regret to report that the Alhambra Kennels, owned by L. McC. Ritchie, Q.C., will be closed, as Mr. Ritchie has been appointed to the Executor Court in Ottawa. This will be a serious loss, as Mr. Ritchie was very generous with his good dogs, the two most recent ones to hit the news being the international champions, Bombaway and Alhambra Kingfish.

The Collie and Shetland Sheepdog Club of Canada

By Mrs. R. D. Smuck

Forty-one Collies and twenty-three Shetland Sheep Dogs were entered in our Specialty Show held in conjunction with the Canadian National Sportsmen's Show.

Mrs. Betty Drewe, Mr. and Mrs. Bailie and Mrs. Hewson made a fine showing of the trophy table, and we would like to give them our grateful thanks.

Anyone interested in the promotion of Collies and Shetland Sheep Dogs is invited to contact us through the Canadian Kennel Club.

Mountain City Obedience Club

By Jennifer Chandler

We regret exceedingly the news regarding Mrs. Lorna Casgrain, who has been hospitalized and who most probably will have to wear a cast until June. All plans, including the judging assignment which Mrs. Casgrain was supposed to do for the Poodle Club of America Show, had to be cancelled.

Our dogs from the obedience classes are making regular appearances on television and Mrs. Bryson, together with Mrs. Ferrabee, gave a poodle exhibition at the Hadassah Fashion Show in Montreal with their poodles.

Aurora and District Kennel Club Inc.

By Florence Sullivan

We are holding our 5th Annual Dog show in the Aurora Arena on Saturday, May 28, 1955 and we are pleased to announce the names of our judges. We were fortunate in obtaining the services of Mr. E. T. Adair of Pittsburgh who will judge Breeds in Groups 1 - 2 - 6. Also, Mr. Wm. McDermott of Collingwood who will judge Group 3 - 4 - 5, except German Shepherds which will be judged by noted German Shepherd Breeder, Mr. Ed. Summerfield of London, Ont.

The Honourable Company of Bullmastiffs Fanciers in Canada have done us the honour of holding their Specialty Show in conjunction with the Aurora and District Kennel Club Show. Plans for our Show are well under way for a bigger and better Show.

Golf club secretary: It is a pleasure to tell you, Mr. H., that you have won the club's monthly medal. But, sir, you look distressed. Anything wrong?

Mr. H.: No--oh, no. Matter of precedence. I was wondering if I wear it before or after my dog show medal.

OBEDIENCE

As a forward-thinking magazine we recognize the value of Obedience Trials in the promotion of pure bred dogs.

Commencing next month Mr. Alan Sharp, 235 Metcalf Ave., Westmount, Montreal, Que., will be in charge of this department. Notices and correspondence should be sent to Mr. Sharp who must receive them on or before the 5th of each month.

The wave of enthusiasm for obedience training of dogs which has swept the United States and Canada in recent years is now making itself felt on the Canadian prairies. Edmonton leads the way in the west as the site of the first licensed Obedience Trial held on the prairies. The trial will be staged in conjunction with the Edmonton Kennel Club All Breed Show on May 6, and will possibly be a semi-annual affair in the future.

Weekly training classes have been conducted under the sponsorship of Edmonton Kennel Club for the past two years. These classes have produced trainers and dogs capable of rising to great heights in obedience work. Most of the credit goes to Chief Trainer Munroe Coleman and his assistants.

Classes are being held in Calgary and competitive interest is anticipated between these and other Western centres.

Great credit is due the Obedience Club of Hamilton, Ont. Of the four dogs entered at the Trials of the Canadian National Sportsmen's Show three received qualifying scores and two of these took the high honours. Hamilton is one of the five Obedience Clubs in Canada and since its inception in December, 1952, 285 dogs have been trained in the classes.

To the chihuahua owned by Mrs. Jessie Carr goes the highest honours, having won its Companion Dog title both in Canada and in the United States, the first of its breed to do so. The oldest trainer was Mrs. Cole who has had remarkable success with her cocker spaniel Duke.

The dog providing the most human interest in the classes was an Irish Setter owned by Bob Allen. This dog was so neurotic that Mr. Allen sent her to his veterinarian to have her painlessly put to sleep. The veterinarian persuaded him to try a course in Obedience Training, with the result she finished in three of the four trials, scoring as high as 198 points out of 200.

The Club has held five trials and plans are now under way for two trials in June.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

MARCH 8, 1955

3060. A special meeting of the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club was held in the Club's offices, 667 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ontario on Tuesday, March 8th, 1955, commencing at 10.30 a.m. with the President, Mrs. Alva McColl, in the Chair, and the following members present: Mrs. M. E. McEachren, J. H. Daniell-Jenkins, J. W. MacCallum, J. Neill Malcolm, W. J. Monaghan and Mrs. N. T. Smith.

In calling the meeting to order, the President said:

"First, the main reason for calling this meeting is to discuss "DOGS IN CANADA". Now, in order that there may be no misunderstanding about that part of my letter to the Board wherein I suggested that every member of the Board should submit his or her written views on this subect before this meeting, I wish to make it clear that I did so for the reason that I feel that on such an important issue as this it is not fair to those members of the Board who are not present and who have to submit their views in writing, that they should be at a disadvantage in that respect. They have no opportunity to discuss this important matter with their fellow members of the Board, are obliged to individually reach a conclusion on the material sent to them and to submit a written opinion which is recorded. Surely then all members of the Board should be prepared to do the same and it is for that reason I expressed the view that every voting member of the Board should submit his or her written views for the record."

3061. "DOGS IN CANADA"

The President reported that on February 26th there had been forwarded to all members of the Board the following:

1. The report of the Chairman (W. J. Monaghan) of the Negotiations Committee on developments with regard to the magazine since the time of the annual meeting of the Board;
2. A report of the negotiations between representatives of the Club (Peter Wright, Q.C., W. J. Monaghan and the Secretary) and representatives of the Key Publications Co. (E. Macaulay Dillon, Q.C., and Misses Elizabeth Dunn and Kaye Peer) which took place on February 25th;
3. A copy of Mr. Wright's analysis of the proposal outlined in Mr. Dillon's letter of February 25th (copy forwarded to the Board) and Mr. Wright's unqualified recommendation that this proposal be accepted;
4. The terms of a proposed arrangement between the Club and Key Publications as drafted by the Chairman of the Negotiations Committee prior to the negotiations which took place on February 25th.
5. A covering letter from the President asking that all members of the Board submit written views on the proposal, such views to be received by the Secretary not later than March 7th, advice as to whether each member of the Board was in favour of accepting the Club's solicitors' recommendations with regard to the proposal, also requesting that each member of the Board submit the names of those whom they felt should be appointed the Club's directors on the Board of Directors of the new company should the proposal be approved by a majority vote of the Board.

The President reported that letters had been received, in response to this material, from twelve members of the Board, and asked Mr. Daniell-Jenkins whether he would care to express his views before the replies received from members of the Board were read.

Mr. Daniell-Jenkins stated that had the President's reasons for requesting written views been expressed as clearly as at the commencement of this meeting he should have submitted his written views, however, there were one or two things which he wished to take up with the Board before giving an answer, and he was prepared to submit his views in writing for the record after the meeting if that was desired.

. . . The Vice President, Mrs. McEachren, took the Chair at the President's request.

The Secretary read letters from the following members of the Board who indicated their approval of the proposal as outlined in the letter, dated February 25th, addressed to the Club's solicitors by the solicitors for Key Publications Co., Mrs. M. E. McEachren, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. Monaghan, Mrs. Mack, Dr. Watson, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Kominskey, Miss Hammond and Mrs. Gove. The Secretary read a night letter from Mr. Irving dated March 2nd seeking particulars regarding the proposal, his reply of March 3rd to Mr. Irving, and Mr. Irving's subsequent letter wherein Mr. Irving stated that apart from the $3,000.00 to be paid in advance for copies to be sent to members during the first year of the proposed arrangement, he was favourably inclined to the proposal when he had seen the actual set-up of the new company and the contract, that he would be ready to support it if he thought the Club had safe-guarded itself for any possible eventuality, but indicated his refusal to support the proposal until he had seen all terms set forth in writing. The Secretary read a letter from Mr. Williams stating that he was not in favour of accepting the solicitor's recommendation with regard to the proposal, enquired why no consideration had been given to the suggestion, an alternative outlined in the Publication Committee's report considered at the annual meeting of the Board, that the Secretary's duties be re-arranged and that he undertake to publish the magazine, and stated that he would like to see the magazine operated outside the Club's offices, under capable management not in any way associated with the Directorate of the Canadian Kennel Club.

The Secretary reported that the Club's solicitors had seen all the letters received and read at this meeting of the Board, that the solicitors had seen all of the stenographic notes of proceedings at the annual meeting of the Board with regard to the magazine, and that Mr. Wright felt that nothing was done in the course of negotiations contrary to the Board's desires. He further reported that during the course of the conference with Mr. Wright, the question had been raised whether or not an approach should be made to the Department of Agriculture, with a view to determining whether the Department had any objection to the proposed new arrangements with regard to the publication of the magazine.

Following discussion, it was regularly moved by Mr. MacCallum, seconded by Mrs. Smith:

"THAT, the Club's solicitors and W. J. Monaghan be authorized to approach the Department of Agriculture for the purpose of informing them of the details of the application for incorporation of the new company and to ascertain whether or not there are any objections."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. Malcolm and Mrs. Smith.

ABSTAINED: Mr. Monaghan (being named in the motion).

Motion carried.

In the discussion which followed, it was agreed that in view of the expressed views of the majority of the Board, and in the event that the Department did not indicate any objection to the proposed new arrangement, that provision should be made to complete the transaction as outlined in Mr. Dillon's letter of February 25th, 1955.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Malcolm, seconded by Mrs. McEachren:

"THAT, the Secretary-Treasurer of the Club be instructed to authorize the Club's solicitor to inform E. Macaulay Dillon, Q.C., that the Club is willing to complete the transaction with regard to "Dogs in Canada" as outlined in Mr. Dillon's letter of February 25, 1955, details to be satisfactory to our solicitors."

Motion carried.

It was then regularly moved by Mr. Malcolm, seconded by Mr. Daniell-Jenkins:

"THAT, a vote of thanks be conveyed to Mr. Peter Wright, Mr. MacCallum and Mr. Monaghan for their very, very hard work in connection with "Dogs in Canada."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. Malcolm and Mrs. Smith.

ABSTAINED: Mr. MacCallum and Mr. Monaghan (being named in the motion). Motion carried.

. . . The President resumed the Chair.

A discussion followed in connection with the appointment of the Club's representatives on the Board of Directors of the proposed new company. Mr. Daniell-Jenkins suggested that the election of the Club's representatives (two in number) should be made by members of the Club. Mr. Monaghan stated that if the Board appoints the Directors, the Board then has control in its hands and could rescind the appointments at any time, whereas if the two directors were elected, the persons elected would have to be allowed to serve out the term of their office even if they were doing a poor job. The necessity for immediate action on selecting the two directors and of polling the entire Board was discussed.

Mr. MacCallum and Mr. Daniell-Jenkins stated that they did not wish to accept a nomination as director of the proposed new company. It was agreed that an effort be made to contact Mr. Irving by telephone with a view to determining whether or not he would accept nomination, but Mr. Irving could not be reached by telephone. It was agreed, therefore, that his name would be put forward subject to his willingness to accept the nomination.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Malcolm, seconded by Mr. MacCallum:

"THAT, the results of the nominations be communicated to members of the Board not here present, and they be requested to vote in writing for two nominees, and that their written replies be posted in sufficient time to reach Canadian Kennel Club by March 14th."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

AGAINST THE MOTION: Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, "on the grounds that I believe the election of directors to the company should be made by the members of the Club and not the Board".

Motion carried.

The Secretary was instructed to forward to each member of the Board a copy of all communications received in reply to the letter which the President had adressed to members of the Board on February 26th in connection with the magazine.

3062. HEATING OF OFFICES

The President reported that there had been continuous difficulty in connection with adequate heating of the offices rented by the Club, and suggested that the matter be referred to the Club's solicitors with an instruction that the landlords be approached with a view to ensuring adequate heating of the offices.

After discussion it was regularly moved by Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, seconded by Mrs. McEachren:

"THAT, the solicitor be instructed to approach the landlords with a view to obtaining an adequate supply of heat for the Club's offices."

Motion carried.

. . . The Board recessed for lunch and reconvened at 2.30 p.m. with the President in the Chair and the following present: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

3063. LETTER RE. RELIEF FUND SHOW AT LONDON

The President read a letter from Mrs. Mildred Dark, Show Secretary of the show jointly sponsored last November by the London Canine Association and Forest City Kennel Club in aid of the Club's Hurricane Hazel Relief Fund, who stated that the show-giving clubs had been given to understand that the Canadian Kennel Club would forego usual recording and listing fees in order that the entire proceeds of the show could be donated to the Fund.

The President and Secretary stated that at no time had they stated that the Canadian Kennel Club would forgo such fees for neither had the authority to decide that fees, called for by the Dog Show Rules, would not be payable for any show or trial regardless of the purpose of the event.

Mr. Malcolm enquired whether the Board of Directors had any authority to remit fees which are prescribed by the Dog Show Rules. The President was of the opinion that while the Board has the power to apportion money for charitable purposes if it so desired, nothing appeared in the By-laws giving the Board the right to remit fees called for by the Rules.

It was agreed that the Secretary would inform Mrs. Dark that while the Board deeply appreciated the joint effort of the London Canine Association and Forest City Kennel Club on behalf of the Club's Hurricane Hazel Relief Fund, the Board does not have the power to decide that the usual recording and listing fees would not be payable in connection with the show held on November 27th in aid of this Fund.

3065. MEETINGS AT C.K.C. OFFICES

The President reported that during a recent visit to the office, Mr. Walter Brown had enquired whether the Club's offices may be used as a meeting place for the investigation to be conducted by a committee set up at the annual general meeting.

After discussion it was agreed that except for a committee meeting (re. obedience) which had been previously arranged for the evening of March 10, and except for meetings of the Board of Directors, no other meetings may be held in the club's offices.

3066. "DOGS IN CANADA"

The President pointed out that the new arrangements with regard to the publication of "Dogs in Canada" were to commence with the publication of the May issue of the magazine, and asked the Board what arrangements did it wish to make with regard to the publication of the April issue.

. . . The President left the meeting and the Vice President took the Chair.

Mr. MacCallum stated that at the annual meeting of the Board, when he was then Chairman of the Publications Committee, he had presented certain statistical information in connection with the magazine, and reported that as a member of the Board he had since obtained further information as follows:

Mr. MacCallum stated that he had estimated that since Mr. McNeish had left the Club's employ on October 23rd and Mr. Hanslowe on November 19th, the cost of salaries for the magazine had decreased some $1800 to $2000 because of the President having undertaken to publish the magazine in the absence of an Editor.

Mr. MacCallum referred to the views expressed by Mr. Wright at the annual meeting of the Board, regarding payment of expenses to members of the Board, and reported that not being entirely clear on the solicitors' opinion he had telephoned Mr. Wright with a view to determining whether the President's position on the Board, or her eligibility for election to the Board in the future, would be affected if the Board authorized the payment of actual and reasonable out-of-pocket expenses to the President when such expenses were incurred by the President while handling "Dogs in Canada" for the Club in the absence of an Editor and Advertising Manager, and stated that the solicitor was of the opinion that such expenses could be authorized and paid, without affecting such eligibility, in view of the provisions of Article XII, Section 1 of the By-laws reading in part as follows: "reimbursement of travelling or other expenses incurred by elected officials or other authorizfied persons on the business of the Club excepted."

Mr. Malcolm stated that the President might be asked to submit an itemized expense account to be examined by the Club's solicitors, and then submitted to the entire Board.

Mrs. Smith stated that the Canadian Women's Press Club was tripping members to Europe and enquired whether the President could be sent as a representative. Mr. Monaghan enquired whether the Club would be justified in so doing particularly as no President of the Club had ever visited the Kennel Club or the dog fancy in England officially, although a previous President of the Club had made what was more or less a personal visit. Mr. Monaghan pointed out that in his report to the Board of February 26th he had stated that it was manifestly unfair and unjust to expect the President to carry on any longer unless some concrete financial arrangement is made with the President, and Mr. Irving had expressed his agreement with this observation. Mr. Monaghan further reported that the President had, on the morning of February 26th, cancelled a reservation which she had made to take the Press Club tour of Europe, a reservation which probably could be reinstated.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, seconded by Mr. Malcolm:

"THAT, Mrs. Alva McColl be asked to submit a statement of her actual and reasonable out-of-pocket expenses since October 23rd, 1954, in connection with the editorship and publication of "Dogs in Canada"; Mr. MacCallum to be appointed a committee of one to see that this is done; and that Mr. MacCallum be authorizfied to consult the Club's solicitors."

FOR THE MOTION: Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

ABSTAINED FROM VOTING: Mr. MacCallum (being named in the motion). Motion carried.

It was then regularly moved by Mrs. Smith, seconded by Mr. Monaghan:

"THAT, it is in the interests of the Canadian Kennel Club that our President, Mrs. Alva McColl, take advantage of her membership in the Canadian Women's Press Club in order to take part in the said tour, visit the Kennel Club and other governing bodies recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club; and that the Canadian Kennel Club defray her expenses in this respect not exceeding the sum of twelve hundred dollars."

After due consideration no vote was taken but it was agreed that this be referred to the National Board for an expression of opinion and vote; such vote to be recorded at the next meeting of the Board.

Mrs. McEachren suggested that the President be asked to return to the meeting and the two motions be read to the President, and the President be informed that it is the Board's hope that she will carry on with the magazine until the April issue is published.

. . . The President returned to the meeting, the Vice President remaining in the Chair.

At the Vice-President's request the Secretary read the two motions set out immediately above.

The Vice-President enquired of the President whether she would be kind enough to handle the magazine for one more month.

The President thanked the members of the Board for their kind consideration of what she had done for the Club, and assured them that she would carry on with the magazine until the finalization of the new arrangements with regard to the publication of the official organ. (applause)

. . . The President resumed the Chair.

3067. LETTER FROM THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB (re Export duplicates)

The Secretary read a letter from the American Kennel Club who proposed that the Canadian National Live Stock Records discontinue providing them with a copy of Canadian certificates issued for dogs transferred to residents of the United States, it being their policy to require, when dealing with the application for registration of a Canadian-born dog, that the person applying for registration submit the original Canadian certificate and also photostat copies thereof for their permanent files.

The Secretary was instructed to seek the views of the Canadian National Live Stock Records, and refer the matter to the next meeting of the Board.

3069. LETTER FROM DR. H. L. WATSON (Re Annual Meetings)

The President placed before the meeting a letter received from Director Dr. H. L. Watson in which Dr. Watson set forth his views regarding the recent annual meetings.

The Secretary was instructed to send a copy of the letter to all members of the Board and to place the letter on the agenda of the next meeting of the Board.

3070. "DOGS IN CANADA"

It was regularly moved by Mrs. McEachren, seconded by Mr. Monaghan:

"THAT, our President, Mrs. Alva McColl, be most heartily thanked for her work on behalf of the Club in carrying on as Editor of the official organ "Dogs in Canada" during the past several months while the magazine was without the services of a paid Editor."

. . . Mr. McCallum took the Chair.

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

ABSTAINED FROM VOTING: Mrs. McColl. Motion Carried.

. . . The President resumed the Chair.

3071. ADJOURNMENT

At 5.55 p.m., on motion by Mr. MacCallum, duly seconded and carried, this meeting of the Board of Directors adjourned.

Memo to the Members from the President:

Few things can be as encouraging to those responsible for the well-being of an organization such as ours as to know that it is showing progress from a financial point of view. The following financial statements for the first quarter of the current calendar year indicate that your organization is continuing on the road to its former strong and healthy financial position. It must be remembered that the bulk of the Club's membership fees are received in the first three months of the year; nonetheless, a continuation of our present trend must eventually bring about a realization of the planned effort to put the Club back on its feet financially.

For the benefit of those members who do not have the 1954 first quarter statements handy for reference, the following comparative figures will prove interesting.

Overall profit on the Club's operations for the first quarter of 1954 amounted to $4525.33 as compared with $8724.22 for the first quarter of 1955, however in the 1955 statement we have set aside one-quarter of the estimated cost ($3600.00) of publishing the 1954 stud book; no similar allowance was made in the financial statements for the first quarter of 1954.

Loss on the operation of "Dogs in Canada" for the first quarter of 1954 amounted to $185.12, as compared with a profit of $1383.02 in the same period of 1955.

Revenue at the Live Stock Records office in the first quarter of this year amounted to $25,764.97 as compared with $22,616.81 in 1954. It might be interesting to point out that in the first quarter of this year the Live Stock Records office processed 3894 individual registrations as compared with 2986 in the same period last year, and transfers processed in the first quarter of this year totaled 4017 as compared with 2950 in the same period of last year.

I am happy to present this financial report to you, on behalf of the Board, realizing that your interest and activities make such a report possible.

Alva McColl

Puppy Guard

A wide orange coloured reel on a standard caught our eye in a sports shop. It proved to be a guard for puppies or children, allowing them to meander within a specific limit, and firmly reeling them in again by degrees. The manufacturer is Benjamin Reel Products Inc., Cleveland 5, Ohio.

Something always happens en route to a dog show. Take our friend who got stranded in a one-store town. She asked the baggage man where to find a hotel.

"No hotel in this berg, mam, but you could sleep with the station agent."

"I'll have you know I'm a lady," suggested our outraged friend.

IRISH SETTER

Coronation Princess C. D.

Owned and Trained by Mrs. Bev. Morehen

CONLINS RD. HIGHLAND CREEK ONTARIO

Princess completed her title at the recent Sportsmen's Show by obtaining the highest score in Novice A under Mrs. A. McColl with a 199. Possibly the only Irish Setter ever to win two trials with an average of 195½ for a C.D. degree. Royally bred, Princess is the granddaughter of two great Show Champions; Am. Ch. Kleightlight of Aragon on her sire's side and Am. Ch. Charles River Color Sargent on her dam's.

The breed first found favour in Canada in the early thirties and in a comparatively short time has established itself not only in public esteem but as a prominent contender for the best in show honours.

The strong influence of the very prepotent sires obtained from the top kennels in Germany and the quality of the imported dams brought to the breed many marked advancements, among them greater style, lovelier heads and longer necks. A great improvement in soundness and movement gives this grand breed promise of further renown.

A complete breakdown of the description and standard of points of the Great Dane is given in The Complete Dog Book, from which a brief excerpt follows:

(a) General Appearance—The Great Dane combines in its distinguished appearance dignity, strength and elegance with great size and a powerful, well-formed, smoothly muscled body. He is one of the giant breeds, but is unique in that his general conformation must be so well-balanced that he never appears clumsy and is always a unit—the Apollo of dogs. He must be spirited and courageous—never timid. He is friendly and dependable. This physical and mental combination is the characteristic which gives the Great Dean the majesty possessed by the other breed. It is particularly true of this breed that there is an impression of great masculinity in dogs as compared to an impression of feminity in bitches. The male should appear more massive throughout than the bitch, with larger frame and heavier bone. In the ratio between length and height, the Great Dane should appear as square as possible. In bitches, a somewhat longer body is permissible. Faults: Lack of unity; timidity; bitchy dogs; poor musculature; poor bone development; out of condition; rickets; doggy bitches.

(b) Color and Markings—(i)—Color: Brindle Danes, Base color ranging from light golden yellow to deep golden yellow always brindled with strong black cross stripes. The more intensive the base color and the more intensive the brindling, the more attractive will be the color. Small white marks at the chest and toes are not desirable. Faults: Brindle with too dark a base color; silver-blue and grayish-blue base color; dull (faded) brindling; white tail tip.

(ii) Fawn Danes. Golden yellow up to deep golden yellow color with a deep black mask. The golden deep-yellow color must always be given the preference. Small white spots at the chest and toes are not desirable. Faults: Yellowish-gray, bluish-yellow, grayish-blue, dirty yellow color (drab color), lack of black mask.

(iii) Blue Danes. The color must be a pure steel blue as far as possible without any tinge of yellow, black or mouse gray. Faults: Any deviation from a pure steel-blue coloration.

(iv) Black Danes. Glossy black. Faults: Yellow black, brown black or blue-black. White markings, such as stripes on the chest, speckled chest and markings on the paws are permitted but not desirable.

(v) Harlequin Danes. Base color: pure white with black torn patches irregularly and well-distributed over the entire body; pure white neck preferred. The black patches should never be large enough to give the appearance of a blanket nor so small as to give a stippled or dappled effect. (Eligible but less desirable are a few small gray spots, also pointings where instead of a pure white base with black spots there is a white base with single black hairs showing through which tend to give a salt and pepper or dirty effect.) Faults: White base color with a few large spots; bluish-gray pointed background.

(c) Size—The male should not be less than 30 inches at the shoulders, but it is preferable that he be 32 inches or more, providing he is well proportioned to his height. The female should not be less than 28 inches at the shoulders, but it is preferable that she be 30 inches or more, providing she is well proportioned to her height.

DISQUALIFICATIONS

Deaf Danes. Danes under minimum height. Without visible scrotum. Spayed bitches. Monorchids. White Danes without any black marks (albinos). Merles, a solid mouse-gray color or a mouse-gray base with black or white or both color spots or white base with mouse-gray spots. Harlequins and solid-colored Danes in which a large spot extends coat-like over the entire body so that only the legs, neck and the point of the tail are white. Brindle, fawn blue and black Danes with white forehead line, white collars, high white stockings and white bellies. Danes with predominantly blue, gray, yellow or also brindled spots. Docked tails. Split noses.

Finally she took a deep breath and burst out, "When thee gets home to thy kennels tonight, I hope thy mother bites thee."

How do you pick a Dog Food?

Here's one expert's answer!

"First I choose a brand made by a manufacturer whose experience, facilities and reputation assure me that his food will supply my dogs with the best scientific nourishment.

"Next, I make the food selected the greater part of their diet for at least 30 days, keeping a close watch on coat, condition and general health. If I'm not satisfied, I give another brand a fair trial.

"I have found that you just can't beat a top quality dog meal for value. It costs much less than canned dog food. And a good quality meal is actually less expensive to feed than cheaper, inferior meals that require supplements. Incidentally, when buying a good dog meal, I find it pays to purchase the large economy package."

And Here's How Homogenized Gaines Meal Measures Up!

- It has been developed in laboratories and research kennels that are unmatched in their facilities and scope.
- Gaines Meal has been tested and proven through actual feeding to generation after generation of dogs.
- Gaines Meal contains meat, milk and fish protein plus every vitamin and mineral a dog is known to need.
- Gaines exclusive homogenization process guarantees uniform nourishment in every mouthful of every feeding.
- Gaines reputation is so outstanding that it is the world's largest selling dog meal.
