CONGRATULATIONS, BARRIE

. . . We have taken in many dog shows this past year or two, but the Barrie Kennel Club Show was by far the most orderly, clean and thoughtful. The minor niceties made available to all exhibitors certainly will be long remembered . . . We think even the dogs appreciated this show and their unusual quietness showed their thankfulness. Here's hoping more shows will copy some of your ideas.

Reluctant Romeos

Cupid Chaser is the interesting name of a liquid repellant which permits females to be kept at home while in season, and exercised on the street without annoyance from males. Should be applied just before the female comes in season, but if she is to be mated, the liquid should simply be washed off the day before. Full directions are given with the bottle. Made by Pierpont Products Co., Boston, Mass.

Flea Paralyzer

An easy but highly effective method of keeping your dog from scratching is the Ace Fleacollar which is effective up to 6 weeks, 24 hours a day. A simple, light woven collar, its chemical reaction paralyzes the flea as it travels up toward the animal's head for moisture about the eyes, ears and mouth.

When a flea touches the fleacollar it is only a matter of minutes before paralysis sets in through the nerve system and the pest falls off and dies. If after six weeks the dog is troubled by fresh contingents of fleas, the collar should be cut off and replaced with a new one. The small cost makes the collar expendable. Veterinarians recommend the simple remedy, company states.

Note: Fleacollars, either standard or special, are shipped by the manufacturer free of charge to any seeing-eye dog anywhere in the world. If you know a blind person who could use free collars write Selbest Specialty Co., 362 Old Weston Rd., Toronto, Ont.

MEMO FROM THE EDITOR

An incredible number of enquiries reach this office daily, with reference to breeds of almost every recognized type. Since it is the policy to refer enquirers to the advertising columns of "Dogs in Canada" it is vital to have your kennels represented, whether or not you have stock at the present time. The phrase "puppies usually for sale" or dates litters are expected indicates kennel activity.

Anent Club Notes: Keep them coming, and keep them short! We will have room for more club activities if they are confined to one double-spaced typewritten sheet – unless your group has something especially newsworthy. Franklin D. Roosevelt insisted there were virtually no reports that could not be boiled down to one page – and proved it!

Coming: Weimeraners, known as the "Grey Ghosts" are earning themselves a place on this continent for the exceptional combination of characteristics – as a sporting dog, guard and house pet. This unusual canine, with his twilight colouring and yellow eyes, will be featured on the cover of the August issue of "Dogs in Canada". A special article will bring to light its background and development . . . . Also in the August issue—a valuable article on scientific kennel construction.

The old saw, you can't teach an old dogs new tricks, is going by the boards. Owners of wayward pets have found the human and canine temperaments improving with trained co-operation on both ends of the leash. The Obedience department "Around the Obedience Ring", edited by Mr. Alan Sharp, is drawing interested readers from across the country. If any obedience news comes to your attention, it would be appreciated if you would pass it on to Mr. Sharp at 469 Lansdowne Avenue, Westmount, Montreal, P.Q.

Mr. Sharp, incidentally, will be judging at the Essex County Kennel Club Obedience Trials which are being held July 23 and 24 at Leamington, Ont.

COLLIE

Favored by royalty, celebrated in novels, movies and television, the Collie has earned fame by simply being himself: hard-working, intelligent, loving and loyal – and handsome.

Lithe and handsome, the Collie exudes an aura of glamour. And although the word glamour connotes a sort of flashy superficiality, the Collie possesses the most desirable attributes of any dog–kind, exceptionally intelligent, a good companion, and possibly one of the "workingest" of all working dogs. He serves not only as a guard, but in his job of shepherding has the responsibility of selection, tracking and returning strayed sheep, as well as going to the rescue of injured animals.

Of all the sheep-dogs in the world, the Collie is probably the best-known and best loved in the English-speaking countries. The physical structure, while improved in later years, retains much of the conformation of the earliest dogs, is graceful, yet with a remarkable strength and stamina.

The Collie is primarily Scottish, and was introduced into England when shepherds brought their flocks across the border. But it was his appearance and characteristics which drew the attention of dog fanciers. Wealthy families were glad to pay well to have a guard which was also a great companion.

Hours could be spent conjecturing on the origin of the name Collie. Possibly it stems from the Gaelic cuilean, cuilein, meaning a whelp, puppy or cub. In English literature Chaucer refers to "Coll our dog." One suggestion is that Coll was the earliest name, meaning black, with the "ie" merely added as a diminutive. Another is that the black refers to a type of sheep.

Early writers recommend black as the colour for sheep dogs because the canine guardian would appear more ferocious to thieves in daylight, and would create terror by night because of being virtually invisible. It was suggested that if any other colouring appeared in the dog, he should be blackened with soot.

Some historians maintain the shepherd dog, of which the Collie is one of the most outstanding breeds, was the original or primitive type from which all varieties descended.

Almost all the early sheep-dogs in the British Isles had bob-tails, until the drovers agreed among themselves that a short-tailed dog could not whirl nearly as quickly as a long-tailed one, and by the same token would be less likely to mingle with the flock than to run around it, as the work required.

During Queen Victoria's reign an effort was made to produce a specific breed type. Four varieties of Collie somewhat tangled the issue. There were the rough-coated, smooth-coated, border and bearded sheep-dogs, as well as Shetland sheep-dogs. Some of the groupings still pertain, although the rough-coated type is by far the most popular.

The smooth-coated Collie, now a rarity, has approximately the same length of back, but its clean-cut lines, unhidden by a long coat appear more pronounced. The bearded Collie very much resembles the Old English Sheep-dog, and possibly played a part in its ancestry. The breed is scarce even in Scotland and is on the way to being extinct. This is unfortunate because the breed, with all the fine qualities of its race, has a dense coat and can withstand almost any type of severe mountain weather.

The breed has had several noted enthusiasts, among them Queen

Victoria who, as an animal lover, was impressed by the handsome appearance as well as intelligence. On her return from a visit to Scotland she brought several Collies with her which immediately aroused interest in the type.

Just as Collie breeders were congratulating themselves on new-found recognition, after a slow, and at first unsuccessful beginning, and colours, such as black-and-tan, black-white-and-tan, black-and-white as well as Sables were making their appearance, a ripple of alarm was felt, which emanated from the Royal kennels. Queen Victoria accepted the gift of a beautiful white Collie. It was predicted that white Collies would immediately be in demand. This fear never materialized, however, and the specimen is as rare now as then.

Novelist Albert Payson Terhune's stories about his dogs, notably his "Sunnybank Collies," did much to immortalize the breed. Many people, however, do not know that Terhune bred and exhibited Collies successfully and showed several through championships.

Lassie, heroine of Eric Knight's novel and subsequently of movies, has, of course, been brought to life in a number of excellent movies by Hollywood breeder and trainer Rudd Weatherwax. The name has achieved current fame through weekly television shows.

The Collie, bred to tend sheep, will work well with other livestock. About 75 years ago a novel experiment was made in Cape Colony when J. B. Evans, a noted breeder of Angora goats and ostriches, used Collies in driving the strange birds from camp to kraal for plucking. Although the ostriches are known to attack a man or a horse, for some reason they showed respect for the Collies and behaved as docilely as sheep. Mr. Evans also found that his Collies could distinguish a full-grown kid from a small goat-ewe more quickly and accurately than could a man. In a kraal containing up to 1,000 goat-ewes with their kids, one man and one dog could do the work of several by separating them when it was time for the goat-ewes to leave for the morning feeding grounds.

In their "profession" the Collies were and still are particularly valuable in the winter when sheep easily become lost in the snow and become almost indistinguishable in the drifts. The Collies' nimble-footed lightness enables them to race over the snowdrifts with the same agility with which they skim over the backs of the sheep in a shortcut to head off a straggler.

James Hogg, known as the Ettrick Shepherd, who wrote at length of the Collies and their masters, paid high tribute to Collies and their sagacious work. "Neither hunger, fatigue, nor the worst of treatment will drive him from (the shepherd's) side; he will follow him through fire and water, as the saying is, and through every hardship without murmur or repining, till he literally falls down dead at his foot."

There are many stories of the faithfulness and intelligence of the breed, including the absurd tale of the Collie whose flock was intercepted at a toll-gate. His Scottish blood boiling, the sheep-dog is said to have jumped on the "toll-wife's" back, pinned her arms to her side with his crossed paws, and held her until his flock had passed through the gate.

THE SHETLAND SHEEPDOG

The original Shetland Sheepdogs showed little resemblance to the princelings we know today. They were small attractive working dogs used by the poor crofters to drive away any stray cattle, ponies or sheep in times when pastureland was scarce and every blade was zealously tended.

These little dogs suddenly acquired monetary value, however, when tourists first showed a liking for them. From then on the miniature collies were bred for sale as well as guard purposes. It is thought the early settlers from the mainland brought with them the Scotch Collie, which left its mark in the breed. The trend toward the animal as we now know it began when serious breeders aimed toward a small, graceful miniature Collie, but workmanlike, and by no means a toy.

The first Shetland Sheepdog Club was formed at Lerwick in 1908, with the Scottish Shetland and Sheepdog Club founded a year later. In 1909 the Kennel Club (England) recognized the breed, setting the standard as that of the Collie in miniature. The height was first set at 12 inches, then changed to 13½ inches. In recent years, however, the "Sheltie" is gaining in height, and may now be shown with a shoulder measurement of up to 15 inches, but 13½ inches remains ideal.

The first challenge certificate issued by the English Club in 1915 was won by a female, and throughout the history of Sheltie winners the female has been notably in the fore.

LASSIE — an interview with this handsome star reveals an arresting personality

While many of Lassie's fans are somewhat startled on learning this star is not a female, they may be pleased to know he is a gentleman in every sense of the word. Having interviewed any number of stage and screen celebrities in our day, it is safe to say this particular question and answer session was the most interesting.

In one sense Lassie's visit to Toronto, Ont., a few weeks ago was history-making from the standpoint of inflexible rules being generously flexed. Lassie and his step-brother Laddie were the first dogs to have been permitted above the first floor of the Royal York Hotel. This rule, in the past, has been so strenuously kept that even Barbara Ann Scott was requested to descend to the main floor for the presentation of her poodle.

Rudd Weatherwax, Lassie's owner and trainer, however, had insisted the dogs not only share his accommodation but must be permitted to sleep on the bed. The dogs had had a strenuous program of flights, appearances and hospital visits and had to be assured proper rest. Furthermore, he would take no chances with draughts on the broadloom.

These concessions, however, were not the only ones made by the hotel management. On departing or returning to their suite the Collies used a private elevator. Not one, but two waiters solemnly brought in their ground beef and chopped lettuce on generous-sized plates. Two security officers guarded the valuable animals, and from time to time the manager personally dropped in to make sure the canine guests were comfortable.

The present Lassie is a three-year-old with the deep brown almond shaped eyes, alert and kindly, the triangular shaped head, and the great rough coat of the true Collie. His six-year-old half-brother Laddie, similarly courteous in manner, has a slightly shorter nose. He is a star in his own right, but naturally comes second to Lassie in attention. Rudd Weatherwax replied negatively to our query as to whether jealousy, professional or otherwise, existed between the two actors. We could not help but notice a little wistfulness in Laddie's eyes, however, and gave him a share of our attention. Laddie's performances have won him the Humane Society's Patsy, canine equivalent to Hollywood's Oscar.

Both dogs sport handsome blue velvet coats, outlined with white sequins, with their names flashing in white sequins as well.

Of all the 80 or more dogs in Rudd Weatherwax's kennels, and in spite of the qualities of the present TV and movie star, it is plain to see the original Lassie is the apple of the trainer's eye. Looking at his present star he says, "This dog is just like the Old Man." In fact he refers frequently to the Old Man who is now retired on his 2½-acre place just outside of Hollywood, where visitors are invited.

Lassie I, now a venerable 14 years of age, made a steady movie career of seven pictures in seven years. In between he made a number of tours and was a frequent visitor to hospitals, cheering patients of every age. When he was making the picture "Son of Lassie" in British Columbia in 1943, Rudd took him to the Sick Children's Hospital. Of all the patients, the dog chose to comfort a lad who was dying. The child lived only a matter of hours, but the beatific look which flitted over his face showed his pleased recognition of the visitor.

In a veteran's hospital Lassie stood near an old soldier who had been hopelessly paralyzed for years. Nurses and doctors stared in amazement as the withered hand inched slowly toward the dog's head.

A kindly man in his forties, Weatherwax began training dogs for movie work in 1931, when he was 16. As a child actor he had observed that canine members of the cast always received a bigger hand. That set him to thinking his role in the movie business might well lie in providing trained dogs of all kinds. Many of his students have become singularly famous. Movie-goers will recall the wire fox terrier Asta who played in many pictures with Myrna Loy and William Powell. Asta, after a long and busy career, we learned, is no longer living.

The Weatherwax students are not necessarily trained for movie work, but may be given straight training in good behaviour.

Why, we asked the famous trainer, is Lassie not a female? The explanation is that the female coat is not consistently good, particularly in warm weather, when much of the camera work is done, while that of a male is usually dependable. Sometimes 4 or 5 litters are bred before the famous white flash again makes its appearance.

In the matter of training, Rudd Weatherwax upholds the principle that most good trainers follow—keep it a game. When the exercise becomes work instead of entertainment, stop for a while. Always give a tidbit as a reward for good work. Lassie, besides being able to snap into a pose and hold it, must appear ferocious before a camera, but remain gentle as a kitten. He has learned countless tricks, and can shred the clothes off the back of a man without damaging his skin.

As for dogs who don't work well before a camera, "I don't think a dog is stubborn in making pictures," says Rudd. "I think they get confused." A dog actor can't be nervous, although he is highly trained, and in these days of gun action, can't be gun-shy.

Lassie, who is currently making another series of television shows, will be a guest star at the Canadian National Exhibition this summer.

Lassie obligingly cooperates as Mrs. McColl, C.K.C. president, records a famous noseprint with Rudd Weatherwax and a happy little fan the interested spectators.

JUDGING A DO

Number 2 in a series: Somewhat mystifying to dog show audiences is the position of the judge. King-pin of the hour, his authority is bound by many restrictions. Veterinarians, on the other hand, may appear pretty much in the background but also have a responsible and exhausting role. Next in the series, handling and showing a dog to best advantage.

Would you like to judge dogs? Does the assured manner in which top judges make their decisions intrigue you? To qualify under The Canadian Kennel Club rules stringent requirements must be met.

The Canadian Kennel Club Rules

Application must be made to The Canadian Kennel Club for a special form containing approximately 30 pertinent questions, the answers to which afford a reasonably comprehensive insight into the background of the applicant. The candidate must also give assurance of his willingness to undergo a practical demonstration in ring procedure, marking of the judge's book, judging dogs by comparison, and also submit to an oral examination of his knowledge of breed standards and those sections of the Dog Show Rules relating to the position of a judge. An examining committee appointed by The Canadian Kennel Club then sends a report to the Club's head office to be processed. Should the applicant not be satisfied with the committee's decision an appeal may be made for reconsideration by means of a second examination. In the United States the American Kennel Club requires that a form very similar to ours be completed and sent to their committee for perusal. A system presently in effect in the United States allows an applicant to apprentice under three different judges during a dog show, after which the committee decides if permission should be granted to judge.

Judges from Other Countries

A judge approved by the country in which he resides must complete an application form provided by the C.K.C. if interested in judging in Canada. If the answers prove to be satisfactory to the Board of Directors permission is readily given. This does not apply in the United States where only 5 all-breed Canadian judges are allowed to judge all breeds. With five times as many shows held in the United States as in Canada it is interesting to note that there are only 58 American all-breed judges against Canada's 44. Seven women are included in Canada's total while only four American women are so privileged.

How a Judge is Selected

The Club or Association wishing to engage the services of a judge submits its choice to The Canadian Kennel Club for approval. If given, it relates to one show only.

Canada is divided into zones. A judge may not act more than once in any one zone, or in the circuit shows, within a three month period. In all provinces, other than Ontario, the Director for the province concerned must approve the application before the judge is given permission to act.

Under present Dog Show rules persons ineligible to judge are the superintendent, show secretary, veterinarian and any other person acting in an official capacity at the show involved.

Only one judge may officiate in a breed, group or Best in Show. If, however, the entry is so large that time will not allow proper consideration of the dogs one judge may be engaged to pass on the males and another the females. Only a person with approval to judge all breeds may award the Best in Show and General Specials. In the United States an individual approved to judge a group is also qualified to judge Best in Show. It is the opinion in Canada, however, that if a person is not qualified to judge dogs in each breed or group his ability to judge the quality of the six top dogs might justifiably be questioned.

What a Judge Can Do

A judge is responsible for everything that occurs in his ring. He may excuse dogs for being improperly entered or for unruly deportment. When, in his opinion, a dog is not a worthy specimen of the breed the award is withheld and a notation to that effect is entered in his book. This may apply where there is but one entry in a class. It is, therefore, an awarded win when a dog places first in a class of one.

The judge's opinion is final in all cases respecting the merits of the dog and once he has marked the awards in his book they cannot be changed. No other person is allowed to write in this book. Refusal to delay a class if a dog is not present when called into the ring is also his perogative. If any person approaches the judge to favour his entry, orally or otherwise, such action must be reported to The Canadian Kennel Club which will take disciplinary action against the offender. If, in the judge's opinion, a dog's appearance has been altered by surgery or other means, if there is any sign of viciousness, or if the dog refuses to be touched and becomes unmanageable it is mandatory that the dog be disqualified from competition.

Each judge is supplied with an official book in which is entered the number of each dog in its respective class and breed. There is no method by which a judge may ascertain the identity of the dogs as all such material is barred from the ring. If a competent ring steward is assigned the job of judging is much easier, but nevertheless a judge must be prepared to know the show rules thoroughly and obey them implicity.

What a Judge Cannot Do

There are certain restrictions limiting the powers of the judge. A judge, of course, cannot exhibit his dogs or take any dogs owned by another person into the ring of a show at which he is officiating.

Although judging imposes a severe strain on an individual, a judge must not smoke while in the ring. He must not discuss a dog's merits or demerits with any person either in or out of the ring, although he may, if he wishes, discuss the reason for his awards with an exhibitor at the completion of his task.

It is considered a serious offence for a judge to travel to a show in the company of a show participant, nor can the judge share accommodation with a participant during the duration of the show.

What a Judge Must Know

With 115 breeds presently recognized for show purposes the judge must have some rule book to follow. The Standards are a guide to the physical, structural and mobility requirements of each breed. Dogs are typed according to the purpose for which they were bred and at present there are six classifications—the sporting dogs who point or retrieve; the hounds who hunt by scent or speed; the workers used for herding or draught; the terriers for destruction of rodents; the toy dogs for companions and guards; and the non-sporting which have a variety of uses. It is, therefore, necessary for a judge to have a knowledge of the work for which the dog he is judging was developed, and compare that with the type as set out in the standard.

Protection for the Judge

As in all sports, exhibitors are prone to voice disappointment in no uncertain manner. To ensure the judge being given the respect due him and to avoid his being subjected to indignities of any kind during a show The Canadian Kennel Club is quick to act on any lapse in common courtesy.

Flashbacks

When The Canadian Kennel Club was formed in September of 1888 dog shows were conducted according to American rules and the judging situation was considered of great importance by the newly formed C.K.C. By December, 1889 the C.K.C. had a membership of 70 and at an executive meeting held that month 27 Canadians were appointed as judges for future shows.

VETERINARIANS — and the Show

by Toronto Academy of Veterinary Medicine

The Canadian Kennel Club rules require the examination of all dogs entering a point show by a licenced veterinarian, and that a licenced veterinarian be either in attendance or on call throughout the show.

The main functions of the veterinarian are to screen out, in so far as possible, infectious diseases, to give an opinion as to whether certain physical traits are artificial or natural, such as tail docking in those breeds where it is prohibited, and to provide emergency service for such things as heat prostration and fight wounds.

In the metropolitan Toronto district, veterinary supervision is provided by the Toronto Academy of Veterinary Medicine. The members of this organization are all practising veterinarians in the district. The individual veterinarians are not reimbursed directly. Any fees for dog shows are paid to the secretary of the Academy. These fees have, in the past, been extremely low compared to the number of veterinarian-hours expended. For example, shows have been supervised where the fee collected amounted to less than two dollars per veterinarian-hour. Negotiations are under way at present to correct this.

Certain sacrifices are made by each veterinarian in order that he may take his turn at a show. Appointments must be rearranged or cancelled, emergency cases referred to colleagues and extra hospital hours put in so that hospitalized patients may receive attention prior to the veterinarian's going on dog show duty.

At the show each dog must be treated impersonally, even if the dog being examined belongs to a friend or good client. If the dog is suffering from an infectious skin disease it should not be allowed to enter. The veterinarian on duty often suggests that an exhibitor consult his own veterinarian after the show regarding treatment of some non-infectious condition such as some form of dermatitis, but still allows the dog to enter the show.

By and large, the public cooperates well with the attending veterinarians. The cases of misinformed people trying to bring an animal known to be diseased are few and far between. The embarrassment of being refused admission and the knowledge that a sick dog shows poorly deters most people.

Certain of the do's and don'ts which are applicable to those organizing dog shows, and to those who show the dogs are:

1. Do have adequate table space, pans, towels, water, disinfectants, etc.
2. Do open your dog's mouth so that his teeth and gums are exposed. After the veterinarian has checked these, pull down his lower eyelid.
3. Do take your turn in the examining line. If your dog is in a crate, remove him so that he can be examined.
4. Do have your examining slip ready in order that it may be readily checked and stamped by the veterinarian.
5. Don't show a dog if you have had a recent outbreak of any infectious disease in your kennel.
6. Don't tempt fate by showing non-vaccinated dogs.
7. Don't allow your dog enough leash so that he can fight with his neighbour.
8. Don't think up excuses to take your dog home once it has been benched.
9. Don't expect free advice on problems unrelated to the show. That is not the reason for which the veterinarian is there.

DOGS and PEOPLE

While showing her Welsh Corgis in the Obedience Ring at the Westwood, Mass. Show on June 4, Mrs. Pamela Mack of Montreal, a director of The Canadian Kennel Club, was informed that her home, kennels, dogs and all her possessions had been destroyed by fire.

Shawn, her youngest son, awakened by intense heat and finding the home a mass of flame, escaped to the roof and was rescued by a passing motorist. Before assistance could be obtained the buildings collapsed. No alarm was raised by the dogs because heat destroyed the oxygen and they slept away. The fire had apparently been caused by a wiring defect in the basement.

Twenty-three Welsh Corgis, ten Skye Terriers, many of them champions, and a litter of Cocker Spaniels were among the victims. The only surviving dogs are the three Corgis and a Skye Terrier which had accompanied Mrs. Mack.

The Mackson Kennel Corgis had made an exceptional record at the Morris and Essex Show at Madison, N.J. in May, when Can. Ch. Macksons Golden Sceptre and Can. Ch. Macksons Coronet, a litter brother and sister, won between them Winners Dogs, Winners Females, Best of Winners and Best of Breed in a large entry of Pembroke Welsh Corgis. The Best of Breed Trophy was donated by Mrs. Hartley Dodge in memory of the late Mrs. Kay Duncan who had assisted Mrs. Mack in her breeding program. Having set this precedent, Mrs. Mack attended the Obedience Trials of the Ladies' Dog Club at Westwood the following Saturday with Can. and Am. Champion Furnace Brook Eniwetok and won the qualifying score. This Corgi is the only living dog of his breed to win the Companion Dog Excellent title in two countries.

A trophy presented at the Aurora Kennel Club Show in memory of Mr. Thomas C. Brown in 1953 was awarded Ch. Parader's Tawny at Quarrybrae, owned by Mrs. G. Getty, Willowdale, Ont. The Collie tried for and won the cup again in 1954, and repeated the performance at the same show on May 28 of this year.

The search for the nation's outstanding canine hero of 1955 is underway in the United States, announces Frank Warton, vice-president of the Ken-L-Products division of The Quaker Oats Company, Chicago. More than 30 states have dog heroes eligible for the second annual national award.

Last year Tang, a Denison, Texas, Collie, credited with saving the lives of four small children, was presented with the first national award. At the banquet held in his honor he was presented with a gold medal, a gold collar and chain, a plaque, and a year's supply of dog food. His owners were given a $1,000 government bond.

Similar arrangements and awards will be made for the national Dog Hero of Heroes of 1955. He will be chosen from the ranks of dog heroes, all over the States, with prominent judges from the dog world making the selection. The decision will be announced in early August.

A Toronto, Ont. woman who forgot to take in her washing discovered the clothes missing the next morning and blamed a strong wind. She found the underwear caught on a nearby tree, rewashed and hung it again. Once more it was missing and this time the wind could not be blamed. Patiently she hunted, washed and hung the items up again, while her husband tied a heavy stick in a position to waken them if anyone tampered with the line. The strategy worked. At midnight they saw a large dog making off with the laundry. Later they learned he couldn't resist trekking home with anything hanging on a line.

Canadian Winners in U.S.A.

Termed by Show Secretary W. T. Fahey as the most spectacular win in the recent Kitchener-Waterloo Kennel Club show, Beauchamp de la Fontaine, a miniature poodle owned by Mrs. J. A.

Law of Kitchener, Ont., and bred by Mrs. Bobbie Ellis of De La Fontaine Poodles, Regd., Woodbridge, Ont., scored five points. The one-year-old dog scored its win over two competing American champions, then with other representatives of the De La Fontaine Poodles made news at the Poodle Club of America Specialty at Long Island, N.Y. Competition was unusually keen, with a record entry of 283 Poodles. Beauchamp De La Fontaine handled by Mrs. Ellis, went 1st in Novice Class and Le Premier De La Fontaine, owned by Mrs. Ellis went 1st in Bred by Exhibitor.

At the Ladies Kennel Club of America the following day a home bred Toy Poodle, Heidi De La Fontaine, won her Junior Puppy Class and went through to Reserve Winners Bitch at seven months. Champion Chriswin Dandy Boy, owned by the same kennel, went Winners Dog at the Great Lakes Poodle Specialty held at the Chicago International in April.

Laddie, a Beagle Hound who accompanied his owner W. V. Minor, Niagara Falls, to Hagersville, Ont., stalked a quarry so intently he became lost.

In the meantime Inspector James Smith of the Welland Humane Society discovered a confused young Beagle in a maze of traffic and delivered him to the Island shelter. On examination he discovered a registration number tattooed inside the dog's ear and took him to the Welland Animal Hospital for a shave to make the numbers more legible. A letter despatched to The Canadian Kennel Club via Ottawa showed identification as Minor's Little Lad and gave his owner's name and address.

Shortly after the wanderer's return another Beagle Hound was missing from the kennels. Although this Beagle is also tattooed (L.C.H.-16), he had not been located at the time of going to press.

Writes Mr. Minor: "I think it would be of interest to your readers to know the importance of registering and tatooing of dogs and of the work . . . the Humane Society and The Canadian Kennel Club put in . . . in locating the owners of lost or stolen dogs."

This message marks a dog's grave in ancient Greece: "Thou who passest on this path, if haply thou dost mark this monument, laugh not, I pray thee, though it is a dog's grave. Tears fell for me, and the dust was heaped above me by a master's hand, who likewise engraved these words on my tomb."

Around the Obedience Ring

by ALAN SHARP

Prior to her departure for Europe CKC President Mrs. Alva McColl was given a "doggy" send-off when Mrs. Martinson, Mrs. McCullough, Mrs. Mack and Mrs. Birch arrived at Dorval Airport with their obedience trained dogs. Mrs. McColl is shown surrounded by the dogs; courtesy the Montreal Star and Staff Writer Myrtle Cook.

In the June issue of Dogs in Canada, I asked for obedience items of interest to be sent to me for publication in this column. This is the only way we can build up a column which will prove of general interest to all obedience minded people. Once again, may I ask you to please send me your items at 469 Lansdowne Avenue, Westmount, Montreal, P.Q.

Mrs. R. D. McLelland, well known in obedience circles in Montreal, submits the following interesting information about her Puli (Hungarian Sheepdog):

"In January 1948, I brought my Puli Adolar von der Herlingsburg to Canada. Up to then, this breed was comparatively unknown in this country. However, after submitting sufficient authoritative information to the Canadian Kennel Club, the Board authorized the addition of the Puli to their list of recognized breeds, in November 1948.

My Puli attended the obedience classes offered by the S.P.C.A. of Montreal and graduated from the advanced class in June 1948. My dog first appeared in an official obedience trial at the Ladies Kennel Show in May 1949, and received his first two legs towards a CD degree at that show under Mr. Jack Baird of New York and Miss Frances Pierce, New Briton, Conn. He completed his CD in March 1950 in a Montreal trial under Mrs. Alva McColl. He earned his first leg towards a CDX title in Montreal in May 1950 with the well known Miss Blanche Saunders judging. Then in October of 1950, Miss Edith Hall of Boston presented him with his second leg at the Ottawa trial and in March 1951 he qualified for his CDX title, making him the first Puli in Canada to have both CD and CDX titles. His son, Csikos, is now trying to follow in his father's footsteps.

I would like to say that the puli is fairly easy to train. Once they learn an exercise, they never forget. I had the pleasure to receive a letter from Mr. & Mrs. R. de Wardener, North Stonington, Conn. who wrote me that their Puli took the prize for the second highest score in the obedience trials held in Oakville and Toronto, Ontario, in 1954."

It was sad to hear that Mrs. C. F. McCullough's Ch. Welsh Corgi, Bracken of Ballybentra, C.D. recently passed away. Bracken was six years old when Mrs. McCullough acquired him and within a year had won his C.D. title. He was working towards his C.D.X. degree when he took sick with dropsy and had to stop training. Bracken was a litter brother of Int. Ch. Broome of Ballybentra, one of the most famous Corgis in England.

The Mountain City Obedience Club held their 5th and 6th Obedience Trials at Cmdr. & Mrs. F. W. R. Angus's Estate at Senneville, Quebec, on May 28th and 29th, 1955. The trials were held outdoors under ideal weather conditions and drew a large following on both days. A total of 133 entries were judged during the two days by Mr. L. E. Caffall, Armonk Village, New York and Mr. J. B. Behrend, New York City.

As an added attraction, each day Canada Packers Co. Ltd. presented the Carl H. Bradford family from Wooster, Ohio, with their famous trained Border Collies, in a demonstration of sheep and duck herding skill. It was certainly an eye-opener to see these dogs working under absolute control at all times. Needless to say, the demonstrations were a great success.

All dog lovers will be horrified to hear of the tragedy that struck at Mrs. Pam Mack on Saturday, June 4th last when her home at Dorval, P.Q. burned to the ground. Mrs. Mack is well known in dog circles and has been a director of the C.K.C. for the past seven years and is also Co-Chairman of the Standing Obedience Committee of the C.K.C. She is a Director and First Vice-President of the Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada and is a well known handler in both the breed and obedience rings. Luckily, the main kennel was not touched by the fire or the death toll might have been much larger. See "Dogs and People" for further details.

The Progressive Kennel Club Inc.

by Gertrude W. Drew

This Club has the happy faculty of putting on a good show. The secret of their success may be summed up in a few short phases; experienced management, cooperative club work, proper preparation plus a definite program.

This year's show, held in Scarboro Arena Gardens on June 4, exemplified these qualifications. In the writer's opinion this was one of the finest shows so far this year. Many exhibitors were of the same opinion and readily expressed their praise and satisfaction to the management.

Many factors contributed to this success. The weatherman obliged with a perfect day; there were ample and efficient ring stewards; and the judging, which seemed on a rather high scale, was expedited with alacrity. The building was conspicuously clean; there was an excellent lunch counter with delicious homemade food for all present and the usual caterers to the all important dog generously dispensed buckets of chow.

Perhaps I should add that the management of this club, being old in experience, are well versed in the art of diplomacy. Keeping trouble out of their shows is their chief concern and they do it without causing antagonism. There was definitely an absence of idle talk and happily there were no ringside judges. Without these disturbances the show was low in trouble-making incidents.

The exhibitors who were not required to stay for groups were permitted to leave at 8 p.m. and the entire show was over well before ten o'clock.

German Shepherd Dog Club of Western Ontario

by Edna Summerfield

The regular monthly meeting was held May 10. Plans were made for the first matinee show to be held May 29 at the home of Mr. & Mrs. W. Cook with the second one on June 26 at Mr. & Mrs. Ed Summerfield's.

With club business over, members enjoyed films on the training of dogs for sheep herding and a film on the training of the German Shepherd by the R.A.F. which was a wonderful film.

Our club membership is now over 60.

The training class got off to a good start with 31 dogs out with our training master Mr. G. Brackett in charge.

Oakville & District Kennel Club News

by Joyce Yarde

At the Board Meeting of the Oakville Trafalgar Memorial Hospital on Tuesday, May 31, the President of the Oakville & District Kennel Club, Mr. William Allan, presented a pledge for $1,000 to be used to furnish a room in the new addition to the Hospital. In making the presentation, Mr. Allan said that it was with a great deal of pleasure the Kennel Club of Oakville made this pledge, since it represented a contribution to a project that was very near to the heart of everyone in Oakville at the present time. Although the Kennel Club has always contributed part of the net proceeds from its Annual Shows to local charities, he felt that this particular item would be an enduring memento to the Club's activities in the town, and would represent a small return to the friends and neighbours who had so generously supported the Kennel Club's Shows during the past years. A suitable plaque will be placed on the door of the room and it is hoped to place two "doggy" pictures on the walls to further identify the room with the Kennel Club.

During the past six weeks, Obedience Training classes have been held in Oakville under the leadership of Mrs. Mary Southcott, with fifteen dogs entered. Considerable progress has been made with the training, and it is hoped to hold "graduation" exercises about the first week in July.

Plans are in full swing for the Club's 5th Annual Show, to be held at Oakville Arena on September 24. The following committee chairmen have been chosen:—Judges—Col. M. H. A. Drury; Reception—Mr. W. G. N. Allan; Benching—Mr. R. Smuck; Trophy—Miss Joyce Yarde; Publicity—Mrs. V. Cochrane; Advertising—Mr. S. Ware. We are very fortunate in again having Mrs. Marie Hamilton as our Show Secretary for the second consecutive year.

Since the walls of the Oakville Arena cannot be stretched, the Benching Committee is very busy these days trying to figure out where to put those extra few dogs who always turn up after the maximum number of dogs has been reached and as all signs point to a record number (even more than last year when we had over 400 entries) this is a major problem. However, even if we have to put in "double bunks", we will try to see that no one is disappointed.

The German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada

by Mary E. Southcott

June 5 saw the graduation of the last classes, for the season, in Obedience Training sponsored by our club in Fort York Armouries, and it proved to be the most successful one to date with many dogs obtaining qualifying scores. Classes will resume the first part of October.

Plans for our 33rd Annual Specialty Show being held on September 17 are in full swing and we predict it will be a huge success in every way. Our judge is tops, our location is ideal, the prizes will be as numerous and beautiful as ever and we are going all out to make this Specialty one of the finest and most popular on the Continent.

Our first Matinee Show of the season, held at Schmocker's farm in Cooksville in May was outstanding and one of the best we have ever held. The hospitality of the Schmocker family would be hard to outdo, and their interest in the Breed and our Club is profound. We are all looking forward to the June Matinee Show being held at the home of Max and Mitzi Frohle, and a more ideal spot for holding a show on a warm June day would be hard to find, their home being situated on the banks of the Humber River.

At long last our Club is going to start compiling a library which will be available for reading by members, and at the last meeting of the Directors the list was begun.

A class has been formed for the study of the Standard, and many interesting and highly informative lectures and demonstrations are being planned.

New members continue to join our Club, and we bid them all a hearty welcome and hope that they will find the association both pleasant and beneficial. We understand that an enthusiastic group of Shepherd fanciers out in British Columbia are forming a Breed Club out there, and we wish them every success and offer to them any assistance we are capable of giving.

Congratulations to member P. G. McDonald who recently made his Zelma von Liebestraum a Champion and also to members Ed and Edna Summerfield Whose Nina of Sussex-Leigh added Champion to her name. Several other members have Shepherds on the way toward their titles and we wish them every success in achieving this award at the shows in the near future.

Edmonton Sporting Dog Club Inc.

By M. B. Draper

The Edmonton Sporting Dog Club has had an active season since the election of its new slate of officers early last January. The popular new president, Bruce Whittaker, and his officers have seen to it that the club has been busy.

April 26 and 27 saw the club put on their Third Annual Sportsman's night, which included talks on dog-handling, fly-tying, gun-handling and several excellent movies on field dogs and dog training. Members of the Edmonton Kennel Club helped out with a parade and demonstration of several of the various breeds of sporting dogs, illustrating the various characteristics of each breed.

For the second year in succession the club has conducted training classes for the benefit of all those interested in the fundamentals of Gun Dog Training. The classes were supervised by Munro Coleman, prominent local trainer and handler, and a large number of novice trainers attended.

Two field trials are planned for Edmonton again this year. The Spring Trial for June 11-12 and the fall trial for September 24 and 25.

Dog Lovers Association

by Geoffrey White

Our luck held good for the April meeting — we had Don FitzGerald and Faye Fox spend an evening with us and give us a little insight into the realms of the professional handler. It was certainly a token of good sportsmanship that two people such as Don and Faye, who have gained their experience through years of hard work and effort, should put their knowledge at our disposal—freely and cheerfully. Don followed a varied and most informative talk with films of his own making. Some twenty-five members enjoyed every minute of the meeting.

With the better weather we have got down quite seriously to the training of this year's show prospects and it certainly looks to be a worthwhile effort. Once or twice a week we meet with our dogs and put them through their paces, simulating as near as possible the conditions the dogs will meet in a show ring. Cooperative criticisms are made of the behaviour of both dogs and handlers and corrective measures taken.

In closing, may we say that of the show put on this year by our kindred organization, The Barrie Kennel Club, we have heard nothing but the highest praise. Our congratulations for a very fine effort.

Irish Setter Club of Canada

By Doris Dafoe

Our May meeting was held at the home of Mrs. A. W. Forrest, Port Nelson.

Field Trial Representative reported the Committee had had a little difficulty in securing a field for training purposes but hoped to have training underway shortly.

As our Obedience Representative resigned, it was necessary to fill this position. Mr. G. Howe was nominated. It is expected all members will report any Irish Setter activity in Obedience at shows in their vicinity, as this is becoming quite an active branch of our Club.

It was suggested the Annual Awards be enlarged to include Obedience Awards based on highest average of three qualifying trials for C.D., C.D.X., U.D., and U.D.T. This idea is to be worked on by the Executive and a concrete plan presented at the next meeting.

It was the opinion of the Members that we should shorten business discussions and have more educational programmes. This type of meeting will commence with the June meeting when we will have a film on Field Trials through the courtesy of the Purina Company.

Mountain City Obedience Club
(Montreal)

By Lorna Casgrain

Our trial committee can now have a well earned rest. A deep bow to Chairman Gladys Burns and her helpers,—they did a magnificent job; and to our generous hosts, Cmdr. and Mrs. Angus, who go to so much trouble on our behalf.

Threatened rain held off both days, and the special exhibition of sheep and duck-herding by Mr. Carl Bradford and his Border Collies drew large crowds: an estimated 500 were on hand Sunday. The special Beginners' class proved popular, and brought the total high entry to 70 for one day. We enjoyed having Mr. Behrend and Mr. Caffall as Judges.

Fifty-five members and guests attended an after-the-show dinner on Saturday. A delightful surprise for members whose dogs had completed titles since the Club's inception was the presentation of engraved silver coasters. This practice will be continued in future. Suitably engraved sterling silver coasters were presented at the dinner to Cmdr. and Mrs. Angus in appreciation of their hospitality.

President Dorothy Budge made a third trip to Kingston, Ont. recently; this time to judge the second graduating class of the Kingston Club's Obedience classes. Other club activities have been an exhibition of Obedience, including Tracking, prior to a League baseball game; graduation of the Club's Obedience class for Guides and Scouts with their dogs, instructed by Assistant Trainer Lea Herranen, who will also conduct an outdoor training class this summer for the Club; graduation of about 45 dogs from my Spring training class. Thanks to Jean Ferrabee and Lea for doing a grand job of instructing while I was incapacitated.

The first issue of the Mountain City Obedience Club's Obedience News-letter, "Pooches' Papers", proved most successful. Deadline for the Summer issue is July 15th. Send your news to Miss Connie Smyth, 1321 Sherbrooke St. W., Apt. E-101, Montreal; and let us know is you would like a copy—they're free!

Judging Dogs in South America

By Alf Loveridge

It was indeed a great pleasure for me to receive an invitation to judge All Breeds at the Associacion Canina de Caracas at Caracas, Venezuela. After a non-stop flight from New York and over the Caribbean Sea to Caracas via a Super Constellation, I was met by the President and Vice President Senors Haas and Neumann. After a seige with the Customs and Immigration I was driven to the Hotel Tamanaco, 25 miles inland. The judging took place outdoors at the Casablanca Tennis Club on May 7 and 8.

The dogs as a whole at this show were very much the same as you would find at our Canadians shows, and I would venture to say that all six group winners would make a name for themselves in Canada and the U.S.

The weather in Caracas is very hot, hovering around the 100 mark in the shade, which makes it terribly hard on the dogs and their coats. However, they tell me that the rainy season, which was about to commence while I was there, makes it much better for the dog's condition.

The Association Canina de Caracas have their own Stud Book and points are awarded to the dogs by the judge who is officiating at their shows, which will range from 1 to 5 points, depending on the quality of the dogs.

Although there are quite a few people who speak English the majority there speak Spanish. I had the assistance of an interpreter, Mr. Joe Gutierrez, and I must say he was a great help to me in instructing the exhibitors in what I wanted them to do in regard to showing their dogs.

Note: Forty different breeds were represented in the 200 entries. Best in Show selected by Mr. Loveridge was Ebony del Caribe, a two-year-old dark brindle Boxer with flashy white markings. This sensational dog won several other distinctive honors in this show and was awarded Best Dog Bred in Venezuela as well as finishing for his Venezuelan championship with 15 points. He was the first Venezuela bred dog to acquire the Best in Show Award.

All previous Best in Show honors have been awarded imported dogs. This home-bred win marks a distinct progress in the breeding of pure bred dogs in Venezuela and provides an added incentive. Mr. Loveridge awarded a Cocker Spaniel Reserve Best in Show.

Outstanding quality of prizes is indicated in the photograph below.

SUMMER CARE FOR DOGS

by Members of the Toronto Academy of Veterinary Medicine

Before discussing some of the common conditions seen in dogs during summer months it should be pointed out that diagnosis of and, more particularly, differential diagnosis between the conditions, is a matter for the veterinarian. This will ensure proper therapy being undertaken and followed through.

The most difficult thing to comprehend is that many of the summer ailments of dogs are a result of a complex of varying subclinical facts and that heat and high environmental temperature are merely the overbalancing factors. For proper treatment, therefore, all predisposing causes must also be considered.

Nutritional

Those animals not particularly bothered by the heat who "never miss a meal" probably do not require any additional feed supplement during hot weather. But those dogs who feel it is just too hot to eat may require feeding supplements of the essential carbohydrate, protein, fat, minerals and vitamins.

A high environmental temperature causes the metabolic processes within the body to be somewhat speeded up. As a result, the required nutrients of an animal must be present in slightly greater quantity than at other times of the year. If the picky eater during hot weather does not have this additional requirement satisfied, then predisposition is present for skin conditions, eye, ear, nose and throat trouble, and even distemper in the susceptible animal.

Parasitism

It is common knowledge among the majority of dog owners that external parasites abound during summer months because the environment is suitable for their propagation.

The flea acts as intermediate host for certain species of tapeworm and also causes the dog to scratch continually, creating a purely mechanical type of dermatitis.

Lice and ticks are, in most cases, blood sucking parasites. When present in large numbers they can cause anemia due to blood loss resulting in predisposition to many ailments.

Internal parasites propagate as well during winter months as summer. However, because of the prevalence of fleas (from which a dog can get tapeworm cysts) and because during summer a dog is more apt to frequent the places where other dogs may have deposited the eggs of roundworms, whipworms or hookworms, infestations with these parasites may become much more common during this period of the year.

The damage done by internal parasites of the intestinal tract is insurmountable. It can range from a mild intermittent enteritis to a severe dietary deficiency. This dietary deficiency appears even when an adequate diet is being fed because of hinderance to the absorption of the required nutrients.

Ear Conditions

Inflammation of the outer ear is also more common during summer. The main reason for this is the small amount of water which remains in a dog's ear after swimming which he tries to remove by shaking or constant scratching.

A second cause could be the extreme heat which develops between the ear and the ear flap in long-eared dogs. The result is a slight swelling and accompanying discomfort which the dog attempts to relieve by scratching, shaking or rubbing.

Thirdly, a rise in external environmental temperature produces moisture in the ear which offers an excellent media for the propagation of what might have been a subclinical infestation of ear mites.

Heat Prostration

Heat exhaustion or collapse is evident when an animal is completely fatigued although his body temperature may not be elevated and the heat regulatory mechanism is still functional.

True heat stroke or sun stroke is seen when the heat regulatory mechanism within the body has ceased to function and body temperature is greatly elevated.

Both the above cases are caused by the animal's inability to loose heat generated within the body by greatly increased metabolism because of extremely high environmental temperature. In many instances immediate first aid in the form of a cool saline enema or a cool bath is essential although such measures are rather drastic when cardiac and respiratory stimulants are not used.

Heat cramps or muscle spasms can be caused by a salt inbalance within the body brought about by excessive loss due to heat. This condition is best rectified by sodium chloride and water administered by a stomach tube.

Skin Conditions

The cause of a dermatitis is, in numerous cases, very obscure and complex. Heat is most often the overbalancing factor but diet, parasitism (both internal and external), irritating substances and even dead hair are the initial causes.

Although not mentioned before, parasitic fungus infections of the skin abound at this time of year and are often difficult to treat. Here, as with all skin conditions, the ability of the veterinarian to overcome them is enhanced by an early diagnosis and induction of therapy.

Good grooming and cleanliness may play a large part in prevention of skin conditions. Dead hair and dirt, when coupled with summer heat, can definitely irritate a dog to the extent that it will chew itself and cause raw, running skin lesions.

It is true, however, that not all skin conditions are complex. Simple allergy, hormone inbalance and other singular conditions can instigate a dermatitis which may be corrected by known, specific therapy.

Mme. Schaeffer

An interesting story
from Mrs. Donald Lyle, Vancouver

ABOUT three years ago, there appeared in Vancouver dog circles a very interesting woman, with a very interesting dog. Although she has left, there is much to remember about Mme. Nellie Schaeffer, formerly of the staff of the French Consulate, and her prize winning Wire Haired Pointing Griffon female, Fanne Dora Nimrodska.

During the war, Mme. Schaeffer was caught behind the iron curtain in Yugo Slavia where she was on duty for France.

Fanne was a very choice specimen of a breed which is comparatively rare in Canada and the United States. Unlike many American specimens she had the true wiry, non-fluffy coat called for by the standard. Her grey and liver markings, as well as her general conformation, were considered extremely good by European judges.

Fanne began her training in Europe and as her trainer had instructed her to heel on the right, in the European fashion, this caused slight consternation when Mme. Schaeffer and Fanne appeared in Canadian obedience rings. The judges, however, took a lenient view of this when the circumstances were explained. She left Canada bearing the proud titles, Can. Ch. Fanne Dora Nimrodska, Can. C. D. X. Obedience training was as natural to her as hunting.

Fanne's efforts were not confined to show ring and obedience work. Mme. Schaeffer bred her twice during her stay in Canada and she produced a total of a dozen fine puppies. One of these puppies, Gypsy d'Argent, was kept by the French Consul and trained by Mme. Schaeffer. Gypsy equalled her mother's record in the obedience ring, winning several Highest Scoring Dog In Trial awards when shown. Gypsy recently was bred to Bomber, a Wire Haired Pointing Griffon male in Vancouver and a short time before Mme. Schaeffer received a posting to another country Gypsy gave birth to a magnificent litter of nine which was reluctantly left behind in Vancouver when Fanne and Gypsy entrained for France.

Several of Fanne's daughters, other than Gypsy, have gone to people interested in the breed who have subsequently bred litters so, while this heretofore rare breed in Vancouver can scarcely be considered numerous, still one does see a few griffons about town and in the hunting fields.

The keenest of the new owners, perhaps, was Mr. Arthur Spowage who obtained a male out of the original litter when Fanne was bred to Beaucoup d'Argent, a Montanna dog. This puppy, Sport d'Argent, is now a Canadian champion. It was the first Griffon in either the U.S. or Canada to win a C. D. degree, and later a C. D. X. degree. Sport has now been joined by his litter sister Belle d'Argent, plus some nieces and nephews and sons and daughters. Mr. Spowage steadfastly disclaims any desire to become a breeder but it is improbable that the breeding of these fine dogs in Vancouver will entirely cease as there are now too many enthusiasts.

Shortly after Mme. Schaeffer began showing in Vancouver she became an officer of the Vancouver Dog Obedience Training Club and continued in this capacity until her departure. She proved of invaluable assistance in upholding the finest traditions of dog training. During her last year in Vancouver she assisted greatly in helping other people train their dogs.

It was with great sadness that the members of the Vancouver Dog Obedience Training Club met on April 13, 1955, at a farewell dinner for Mme. Schaeffer and for M. Radenac, the French Consul who had received a posting to Johannesburg, South Africa. It is sincerely hoped that Mme. Schaeffer's desire to return to Vancouver upon her retirement will be realized.

The Secretary reported that this change, if effected, would mean a saving of approximately $325.00 annually based on the present number of titles being posted annually.

3091 (3086). OFFICE SURVEYS

The Secretary pointed out that at the annual meeting of the Board and while future arrangements with regard to the publication of "Dogs in Canada" were still uncertain the Board had authorized the Secretary to hire or promote some one to the post of office manager, and enquired whether the Board wished him to pursue that instruction further in the light of the new arrangements made with regard to the magazine.

Following discussion it was agreed that the Secretary would explore the matter further and present a report and analysis to the Board for its consideration.

The Secretary reported that:

(1) For the past two months a Sonograph dictaphone machine had been installed on a trial basis and it had been found that such a machine had made a considerable time saving both to himself and to the stenographer handling most of the correspondence, and recommended the purchase of the machine;

(2) None of the typewriters in the office had been replaced for at least eight years, and recommended the purchase of two machines to replace obsolete machines.

It was regularly moved by Mrs. McEachren, seconded by Mrs. Smith:

"THAT, in accordance with the Secretary's recommendation, the Secretary be authorized to purchase one Sonograph machine, with the necessary attachments, at a cost of $530.00, and two new typewritters at a cost of $240.00 each."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried.

3092 (2975). REGISTRATION OF DOGS (BERMUDA)

Mrs. McEachren reported that she had judged a dog show of 95 dogs held in Bermuda in April and had found the dogs to be of high quality; that at a luncheon following the show she had met with many fanciers and found much enthusiasm for the revival of the Bermuda Kennel Club and for the registration of dogs with the Canadian Kennel Club.

The Secretary recommended that the Board approve the following special regulations with regard to the registration of dogs imported into Bermuda, or born in Bermuda:

(1) A pure-bred dog imported into Bermuda from any country other than Canada, of a breed recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club, is eligible for registration in the records of the Club provided the person importing the dog into Bermuda follows the same procedures and complies with the same requirements as would a resident of Canada seeking to register in the Club's records a dog imported into Canada, the dog to have been previously registered in a stud book or record recognized by the Club;

(2) A litter of pure-bred dogs born in Bermuda, of a breed recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club, to be eligible for registration in the Club's records provided the owner of the litter at birth follows the same procedures and complies with the same requirements as would a resident of Canada registering a litter, born in Canada, in the Club's records; both sire and dam of litter must be registered individually in the Club's records except that if the sire of the litter is owned in any country other than Canada or Bermuda, it must be registered in a stud book or record recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club;

(3) An individual pure-bred dog, born in Bermuda and of a breed recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club, to be eligible for registration provided its owner at birth follows the same procedures and complies with the same requirements as would a resident of Canada registering a dog born in Canada.

Following discussion it was agreed that the Secretary would seek the approval of the Chief Registration Officer of the Department of Agriculture on the foregoing special regulations.

It was regularly moved by Mrs. McEachren, seconded by Mr. Malcolm:

"THAT, Mr. Gordon R. Groves, Director of the Bermuda Department of Agriculture, be the Chairman of the Advisory Committe for Bermuda with power to add to the Committee as he sees fit, the Committee to work with the Canadian Kennel Club on registrations and all other matters relating to pure-bred dogs."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried.

It was agreed that all members of the Committee must be members of the Canadian Kennel Club.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Malcolm, seconded by Mr. MacCallum:

"THAT, Mrs. McEachren be thanked for the work she has done, and continue as a liaison between the Club and the dog fanciers in Bermuda."

FOR THE MOTION: Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

ABSTAINED FROM VOTING: Mrs. McEachren (being named in the motion).

Motion carried.

3093 (3049). MEDALS

Mrs. McEachren reported that as Chairman of the Public Relations Committee and in accordance with the request directed to the Committee at the annual meeting of the Board, she had given consideration to the question of medals, and recommended that the Board authorize the instituting of two new medals, as distinct from those previously offered by the Club, each medal to bear the crest of the Club in blue and white enamel (following style of CKC crest placed on CKC trophies offered some years ago), each medal to be offered annually for the following:

(1) To the dog, owned by a member of the Canadian Kennel Club, winning the most Best in Show awards at all-breed championship shows held under CKC rules during the calendar year;

(2) To the dog, owned by a member of the Canadian Kennel Club, winning the most Best Canadian-bred in Show awards at all-breed championship shows held under CKC rules during the calendar year.

Following discussion it was regularly moved by Mrs. Smith, seconded by Mr. Daniell-Jenkins:

"THAT, Mrs. McEachren be thanked for her report, and that we carry out her suggestion for 1954 and 1955 regarding medals."

FOR THE MOTION: Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

ABSTAINED FROM VOTING: Mrs. McEachren (being named in the motion).

Motion carried.

It was agreed that one member may not win both medals in the same year, and that where any one member qualified for both medals, the second medal would be awarded to the member whose dog had won the next highest number of Best Canadian-bred in Show awards in the year.

3094 (2994). REVISION OF BY-LAWS RE "DISCIPLINE"

Mrs. McEachren, as Chairman of the Committee set up to revise the present By-law on Discipline, reported that she had discussed the matter with her solicitors, and read a letter from her solicitors on the subject.

Following discussion the Secretary was instructed to look up the article on Discipline which Mr. Peter Wright, then acting as a member, had presented at an annual meeting some years ago, this article to be referred to the Committee for its consideration.

3095 (2981). HANDBOOKS COMMITTEE

Mr. MacCallum, Chairman of the Committee, reported progress on behalf of the Committee.

3096 (3007). DISTRESS FUND

The disposition of the remaining funds in the C.K.C. Hurricane Hazel Relief Fund was left in the hands of the President and Secretary following a discussion on this question.

The President referred to the recent disastrous flooding of parts of Saskatchewan and Manitoba, and after discussion the Secretary was instructed to seek the views of the Directors for Saskatchewan and Manitoba about a proposed notice in the next issue of "Dogs in Canada" seeking information about any losses which members in these areas may have sustained by reason of the flood conditions.

3097 (3059). STUD BOOK COMMITTEE (ADVERTISING)

Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Chairman of the Committee, reported that receipts for advertising in the 1953 Stud Book totalled $761.00, and the Committee appointed at the recent annual meeting of the Board would re-commence its work, in connection with the volume for 1954, in the near future.

3098 (3048). OBEDIENCE MATTERS

Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Chairman of the Standing Committee for Obedience, reported that the Committee had considered the advisability of there being an official interpretation of the word "trainer" as such word appears in Section 6, Subsections 1 and 4, of the Obedience Trial Regulations, and reported that the Committee unanimously recommended that the Board approve the following definition:

"A "trainer" shall be any person who conducts a dog obedience training class or assists in said training class, or any person who has trained another person's dog or other persons' dogs."

Following discussion it was regularly moved by Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, seconded by Mrs. Smith:

"THAT, in the opinion of this Board, acting on the unanimous recommendation of the Standing Committee for Obedience ,the word "trainer" where it appears in Regulations for Obedience Trials means any person who conducts a dog obedience training class or assists in said training class, or any person who has trained another person's dog or other persons' dogs."

The Secretary was instructed to poll the entire Board on this motion, the Secretary to be governed by the majority vote of the Board, all votes to be received by June 10th and recorded in the minutes of the next meeting of the Board of Directors.

Mr. Daniell-Jenkins reported on the style of badges desired for the Club's Obedience Trial Representatives, and after discussion the Secretary was authorized to purchase such badges.

Following discussion it was agreed that the Secretary would not approve the application of any club to hold a licensed obedience trial until:

(1) The trial-giving club gives proper assurance that it has the required equipment for an obedience trial, or names the person or organization with whom it has made arrangements for the necessary equipment to be available at the trial; and
(2) The trial-giving club gives proper assurance that a proper ring, of the required dimensions, will be available for the trial; and
(3) The trial-giving club has furnished the Secretary with the name and address of the Obedience Trial Chairman for its trial.

Following discussion it was agreed that all reports received from Obedience Trial Representatives are to be referred to the Standing Committee for Obedience, and in the event of an unfavourable report regarding any trial the comments of the Representatives and the recommendations of the Committee are to be forwarded to the trial-giving club.

3102. LETTER FROM RAYMOND E. OLSON (RE "AFFENPINSCHERS")

The Secretary read a letter from Raymond E. Olson, Plymouth, Michigan, who indicated a desire to exhibit "Affenpinschers" at shows held under Canadian Kennel Club rules, the Affenpinscher being a breed recognized by the American Kennel Club for show and registration purposes.

Following discussion it was agreed that the Affenpinscher would be placed on the list of breeds recognized by the Club provided Mr. Olson complied with the registration requirements outlined in Item #3016.

3104 (3077-2989). APPOINTMENTS

The Secretary reported that the Board, at its annual meeting, had deferred the appointment of a Field Trial Representative (Beagles) for Ontario for the current year. The Board considered the recommendations previously placed before the Board (Item #2989).

It was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mrs. McEachren:

"THAT, Mr. Joe F. Tiede be appointed the Ontario Field Trial Representative (Beagles) for 1955."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried.

3105 (2983). PROPOSED TRANSFER OF RHODESIAN RIDGEBACK TO GROUP TWO

The Secretary:

(1) Pointed out that the Board at its annual meeting had ordered tabled, until more evidence received, the proposal that the Rhodesian Ridgeback be transferred from Group 1 to Group 2;
(2) Read letters received from Miss Agness Hammond, a breeder and exhibitor of Dachshunds, and Robert L. MacKillop, of the Merr-I-Mac Beagle Kennels, protesting the proposed transfer.

The matter was left over for further consideration.

3106 (3044). REGULATIONS REGARDING ARTIFICIAL INSEMINATION

The Secretary pointed out that the Board at its annual meeting had ordered deferred for further consideration and study the proposed regulations on artificial insemination which he had prepared at the Board's instruction.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. MacCallum:

"THAT, the draft regulations on artificial insemination be forwarded to the Chief Registration Officer of the Department of Agriculture with the Board's recommendation for his approval."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried.

3107 (3083). LONG RANGE PLAN

The President recommended that the subject of a long range plan be placed in the hands of a committee for study and report.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, seconded by Mrs. Smith:

"THAT, Mr. Monaghan be named Chairman of a Committee to deal with the question of a long range plan, with power to add to the committee as he sees fit."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. Malcolm, and Mrs. Smith.

ABSTAINED FROM VOTING: Mr. Monaghan (being named in the motion).

Motion carried.

3108 (2916). PRINTING OF 1953 STUD BOOK

The Secretary reported on correspondence with Richardson, Bond & Wright who had advised that the inclusion of the Breeders' and Owners' Index in the 1953 volume would mean that the volume would be subject to the usual sales tax, however the Director of Canadian National Live Stock Records was to discuss this question with officials of the Department of National Revenue.

Following discussion the Secretary was authorized to instruct Richardson, Bond and Wright to proceed with the printing of the volume with the Breeders' & Owners' index included, and report to the Board on the outcome of the Director's discussion with the Department of National Revenue.

The Secretary was instructed to obtain quotations from other printers, capable of printing the stud book by the photo-repro method, on the printing of the volume for 1954.

3109 (2927). COMPOSITE PICTURE OR BOARD

The Secretary reported that only four members of the Board had responded to the request for suitable photograph to be used in making up a composite picture of the Board.

After discussion it was agreed that there should be two composite pictures, one of the 1954 Board, the other of the present Board.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. MacCallum:

"THAT, the Secretary request members of the Board to supply photograph for the purpose of making composite pictures."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

Motion carried.

3112. REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

On the recommendation of the President it was agreed that all Committee Chairmen would be asked to have their reports in the hands of the Secretary not less than ten days before the date of any meeting of the Board at which such reports are to be considered, and not less than six weeks in the case of reports to be considered by the Board at its annual meeting.

3115 (3089-3076). "DOGS IN CANADA"

Mr. Monaghan, as Chairman of the Negotiations Committee, reported that:

(1) A copy of the proposed agreements relating to the future publication of the official organ had been forwarded to all members of the Board, and any views which any members of the Board had conveyed to the Secretary in connection with these proposed agreements had been forwarded to the Club's solicitors for consideration;
(2) Members of the Board who had submitted comments had since been provided with a copy of the opinion received from the Club's solicitors regarding their comments;
(3) The agreements, as finally revised by the solicitors concerned, had been signed by the President and Secretary on behalf of the Club;
(4) There would be a meeting of the Board of Directors of the new company on the day following this meeting of the Board.

The President reported that a number of questions had arisen in connection with the magazine, and it was agreed that all outstanding questions would be held in abeyance pending a further report from the Club's representatives on the Board of Directors of the new company.

The Secretary was instructed to forward a copy of the signed agreements to all members of the Board.

Following discussion it was regularly moved by Mr. Malcolm, seconded by Mrs. McEachren:

"THAT, the members here present having received copies of the May issue, compliment of the new management upon it, wish them every success in the future, and assure them of our interest and full co-operation."

Motion carried.

3116 (2975-2948). "LITTER KITS"

The Secretary pointed out that the Registration Committee had recommended that the Board consider the advisability of instituting the litter kit arrangements recently adopted by the American Kennel Club, and that after a brief discussion on this subject with Mr. Hodgkin at the annual meeting of the Board, the subject had been deferred for later consideration.

Following discussion the Secretary was instructed to forward a sample of the litter kit to the Director of Canadian National Live Stock Records and seek his comments and recommendations.

3117 (3032). DEFENSE AND RESCUE DOGS

Mr. Daniell-Jenkins reported that under the leadership of Mr. McDougall a number of members of the Club had met with officials of the Department of National Defense in Ottawa, and Mr. McDougall would be submitting his report to the Board.

The matter was held over for further report.

3118. OFFICIAL MEASURER

It was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Malcolm:

"THAT, Mr. J. W. MacCallum be appointed the official measurer of the Club."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

ABSTAINED FROM VOTING: Mr. MacCallum (being named in the motion).

Motion carried.

3119 (3078). SHOW AND TRIAL MATTERS

The Secretary read a letter from Mr. Samuel Back, Toronto, who indicated his willingness, subject to the Board's approval, to provide a suitable trophy to the owner of the dog that had been awarded the most Best in Show awards during 1954 and also a trophy to the owner of the dog having won the most Best Canadian-bred in Show awards in the same year.

The Board noted that it had previously arranged for suitable recognition in this connection, and directed the Secretary to inform Mr. Back that it would be prepared to give its consideration to some other type of award if Mr. Back is interested.

The President reported that clubs are repeatedly seeking a list of approved judges for references purposes, and after discussion the Secretary was instructed to prepare a list of all persons who had officiated at championship shows and obedience trials held under the Club's rules during the past five years, such list to indicate in each instance the breed or breeds which such persons had judged.

The Secretary placed before the Board a list of all persons approved to judge at championship shows and obedience trials, to date, for the current year, and enquired whether the Board desired future reports of approved judges to be in the form now presented (alphabetically by judge's name with all assignments listed for each judge), or in the form in which such reports had been previously forwarded to the Board. It was agreed that the previous method of reporting approved judges was preferred.

The Secretary reported that the Forest City Kennel Club had applied for priority rights on the dates of May 12th, 1956, and May 11th, 1957, and recommended approval of the application. The application was ordered approved.

The Secretary reported that the London Canine Association had applied for priority rights on the dates of October 1st, 1955, October 6th, 1956, and October 5th, 1957, and recommended approval of the application. The application was ordered approved.

The Secretary reported that Mr. Irving had suggested that the Board consider a seperate form of application for approval to judge when residents of the United States are selected to judge in Canada. Following discussion it was agreed that no change be made in the present application at this time.

3120 (2991). KENNEL NAMES

The Secretary reported that:

(1) Laura and George Getty, Willowdale, Ont. (kennel name QUARRYBRAE) had submitted an objection to Mrs. Ernest A. Wark's application for registration of the kennel name BONNIE BRAE;

(2) Mr. & Mrs. Sidney Taylor, Richmond Hill, Ont. (kennel name GLEN-E1-TEE) had submitted an objection to Thomas A. Whitefield's application for registration of the kennel name GLEN ISLE.

Following discussing it was agreed that there was sufficient difference between the registered kennel names and the names applied for to justify approval of the applications, and the Secretary was directed to proceed accordingly.

3121. ENTRY OF DOGS INTO CANADA (CUSTOMS)

Mr. Monaghan reported that at the request of the President he had taken up with the Department of National Revenue at Ottawa the matter of deposits requested of American exhibitors who had entered dogs at the recent Windsor Kennel Club show, and reported that such a request had resulted from the failure of many exhibitors to inform Canadian Customs when returning dogs to the United States which had entered Canada via the E-29 form.

Mr. Monaghan suggested, and it was agreed, that in connection with future shows in the Windsor area the Secretary would ask the show-giving club to insert the following notice in its show catalogue:

AMERICAN EXHIBITORS

You are requested to co-operate with Canadian Customs in reporting your dog or dogs outwards after the show. Please be sure to ask the Customs officer to cancel your form E-29; this in order that the privilege of free entry will not be denied you and other exhibitors seeking entry into Canada for subsequent shows.

3122. NEXT MEETING OF THE BOARD

It was agreed that the regular meeting of the Board for the month of June would only be held if called by the President or any four members of the Board.

3123. ADJOURNMENT

At 11.10 P.M., on motion by Mrs. McEachren, duly seconded and carried, this meeting of the Board of Directors adjourned.

(NOTE: These minutes are subject to correction when presented to the Board of Directors for adoption).

NOTICE RE WINDSOR AND CHATHAM SHOW REPORTS

Exhibitors in many breeds at the Windsor Kennel Club and Kent Kennel Club championship shows held in March may well have been puzzled by the reports of awards at these shows as reported in the June issue. It is now evident that in the printing of the reports for these shows the awards in a number of breeds were transferred from one show report to the other, and vice versa.

Readers of "Dogs in Canada" interested in having correct reports on awards at these shows should note the following:

Page 24—All Kent Kennel Club awards as reported;

Page 25—All Windsor Kennel Club awards except for Basenjis;

Page 26—All Windsor Kennel Club awards except starting (in column 1) with "Kingston Penny" to end of Schipperkes belong in Kent Kennel Club report;

Page 27—All Kent Kennel Club awards with exception of first four dogs in column 1 which belong in Windsor Kennel Club report;

Page 28—Pomeranian awards belong in Kent Kennel Club report; remaining awards in column 1 starting with Pinschers (Miniature) and ending with Schipperkes belong in Windsor Kennel Club report.

How do you pick a Dog Food?

Here's one expert's answer!

"First I choose a brand made by a manufacturer whose experience, facilities and reputation assure me that his food will supply my dogs with the best scientific nourishment.

"Next, I make the food selected the greater part of their diet for at least 30 days, keeping a close watch on coat, condition and general health. If I'm not satisfied, I give another brand a fair trial.

"I have found that you just can't beat a top quality dog meal for value. It costs much less than canned dog food. And a good quality meal is actually less expensive to feed than cheaper, inferior meals that require supplements. Incidentally, when buying a good dog meal, I find it pays to purchase the large economy package."

And Here's How Homogenized Gaines Meal Measures Up!

- It has been developed in laboratories and research kennels that are unmatched in their facilities and scope.
- Gaines Meal has been tested and proven through actual feeding to generation after generation of dogs.
- Gaines Meal contains meat, milk and fish protein plus every vitamin and mineral a dog is known to need.
- Gaines exclusive homogenization process guarantees uniform nourishment in every mouthful of every feeding.
- Gaines reputation is so outstanding that it is the world's largest selling dog meal.
