LETTERS

CURE UNSURE

. . . In the August issue of "Dogs in Canada" in the article "Kennel Construction and Management" it is stated that a one per cent solution of chlordan is used for the control of fleas and lice. Following an unfortunate experience with it I would like you to give your breeders a grave warning against its use.

It was brought to my attention by a fellow breeder who was finding it very effective and brought me some he had used to try out. I used it on some of my older dogs and found it certainly got rid of external parasites and left the coats soft and clean with a very nice fresh odor. I then used it on a very good litter of pups and nearly lost them. One (of course it would be the best) I did not think would possibly survive, and it was only that luckily I spotted it at once, and it had eaten a large meal which it vomitted completely, that I saved it.

Since then my vet has told me it is a particularly dangerous poison. There is no known antidote, and it causes a nervous paralysis. Prompt action, i.e., washing the dog (rubbing with soap for at least 20 minutes) and keeping warm and quiet is all that can be done. It does not seem to have had a harmful effect on my older dogs, but I would certainly never again take the risk of losing or maiming my dogs.

W. K. BALSHEN
Merryway Kennels
Kleinburg, Ont.

This type of thoughtful letter is most welcome. Have any other breeders had a reaction with the chlordan solution?

. . . I would like to take this opportunity to compliment you on a very fine magazine. We have just recently joined The Canadian Kennel Club and I have just received my second issue of "Dogs in Canada". I raise Collies and was quite pleased on receiving my first issue to find that swell article on the Collie. I think your magazine certainly compares very favorably to any dog publication I've ever read and [illegible] looking forward to receiving it for a [illegible] me to come.

Mount Pearl Park, Nfld.

. . . I want to take the opportunity to congratulate you on the magnificent job you are doing on our magazine. The feature articles are all excellently written and most informative, and the news items about Canadian dogs are always appreciated and enjoyed by their owners, as well as by other readers.

TOLLING DOG

. . . For Mr. David Brown of Niagara Falls . . . I imagine the farmers of Nova Scotia can give more information on them than I can . . . but they were from Newfoundland and Labrador type and bred with the red cocker for the red colour. They are used on the farms till duck season opens and then are used for that purpose. I hope this letter helps.

MRS. LILLIAN V. ALLEN
Brantford, Ont.

VIXENS NEED FIXIN'

. . . I find "Dogs in Canada" a very interesting and instructive magazine for the dog lover. . . . I have bred several breeds of dogs in the past, but for several reasons prefer the little Dachshund. A grand little pet, beautiful clean house dog, a sporty little hunter, but just today I am wishing he had the size of a Great Dane and could shake the stuffin' out of the foxes who are raiding my turkeys. Keep up the good work.

MRS. BLANCHE STORRING
Tamworth, Ont.

Will inform you of any fox-hunting Dachs.—Ed.

. . . Do think you "missed the boat" not having your "Dogs in Canada" on display at our Maritime (7 shows) in August where we had so many American exhibitors, many who never see our Canadian magazine. . . . I did hope too your Department could have arranged for an official photog. . . . Your address does not appear often or prominently enough for your readers. . . Anyway, keep up the good work.

BOB LASKEY
Saint John, N.B.

Reader Laskey has some good points. (1) We may have to miss a few boats until we can get our fleet fitted out. (2) When we cannot arrange to have an official photographer at a show, Clubs can help themselves get coverage by having a local press photographer or a member adept with lens and shutter take pictures of winners. (3) Suggestion noted and action taken.—Ed.

CLOWNS UNFUNNY IN RING

. . . Your announcement concerning a forthcoming page containing articles for and about children who are interested in showing and training dogs implies that our magazine is being read by the youngsters.

I am glad to say that "Dogs in Canada" has shown a continued improvement and I believe a page for the future exhibitors will be very appropriate. I wonder if the importance of interesting the youngsters in the art of training and showing dogs could not be impressed on some of the adults who are connected with organizing and judging children's handling classes at a number of our Canadian dog shows.

I have attended twelve shows this summer and I have watched the children's handling classes being judged. Most of the events were judged with the proper decorum but a number of handling classes could easily be called a joke. The announcement of the children's handling class appeared to be the signal for a couple of clowns to enter the ring. One case in point which I thoroughly detected actually destroyed the dignity of two dogs. . . . While all the clowning was going on the children in the ring were seriously trying to set up their respective dogs and I did not see a smile on any child's face.

As I understand, the reason for a children's handling class is to develop future showmen and dog fanciers. Youngsters are very impressionable, often their parents have taught them the procedure to expect in the ring, and when a clown drops in like a bomb the youngsters are understandably non-plussed. . . . Keep the clowns out of the Dog Show ring or we may discourage more children than we attract to the game.

. . . May I say that "Dogs in Canada" is eagerly looked for here, especially your smart covers and general appearance the last few months.

. . . Thank you for your work on the magazine. Am enjoying it very much, and am glad once again to see pictures of our winning dogs —any breed. All the best to you.

THE YOUNGER SET

The conventional method of judging a dog by his pedigree is discarded throughout the summer months when the Dr. Ballard Mutt Shows are held from coast to coast in Canada. From Newfoundland to British Columbia more than 300 shows were held during the past spring and summer.

The shows are put on in conjunction with all the principal exhibitions and fall fairs, and also in connection with chain store and other promotions.

Audrey Nielson, Roches Point, Ont., trains her dog Victor for the C.N.E. Mutt Show sponsored by Dr. Ballard's. Victor was a winner in the best trick class.

The shows draw tremendous audiences wherever they are held and at the largest show of the year—the Canadian National Exhibition—more than 500 dogs and children paraded in the seven classes competing for $500 in cash prizes.

Huskies and Chesapeakes, Pekes, Spaniels, Setters, and a variety of hounds of doubtful breed compete in such classes as the largest dog of the show, the smallest dog, the dog with the longest tail, the dog with the longest ears, the best trick dog, the best dressed dog and, of course, the class for the Grand Champion Mutt of each community.

There are no entry forms required for these shows and the only regulation which must be strictly adhered to is that every dog must be on a leash and all contestants must be under 16 years of age.

In many places such as Ottawa, Sault Ste. Marie and London the show is preceded by a parade, headed by Dr. Ballard's Children's Zoo with the mutts and moppets falling in behind.

MEMO FROM THE EDITOR

Gaines Research Center, Toronto, announces a new film entitled "With Dog and Gun", a thrilling presentation of the way in which the various types of gun dogs work in the field. Emphasizing the value of the gun dog in conservation of game as well as adding pleasure to a day afield, this exceptional film "covers the country" from quail shooting on a Florida plantation to a quest for sharp-tailed grouse in Saskatchewan. The film is 16 mm, sound and color, and has a screening time of 27 minutes. Enquiries for bookings on this film, "Way of a Field Champion" or "Every Dog a Gentleman" should be directed to the Gaines Research Center, 330 University Avenue, Toronto, Ont.

Jack Larkin, a keen man with a shutter, made the report-by-picture of the three big C.N.E. Shows in this issue. Prints are available and may be ordered by writing Mr. Larkin at 14 Rhine Avenue, London, Ont. Well worth having him "do" your dogs when they're groomed for exhibition.

One of the nicest things we saw at the C.N.E. Shows was the prompt manner in which Stan Whitmore shook hands with close competitor Mrs. Robert Ackland when one of the Ackland Boxers out-stepped a product of the Haviland Kennels. This is the sort of sportsmanship that makes for tremendously good Show atmosphere and competition.

Heard at the Labor Day Show, "They're animals, after all!"

The column for the "Younger Set" initiated with this issue, we'd like to hear from young owners and handlers, say 16 years and under. Letters of interest to dog enthusiasts of the same age will be printed. Tell us about your handling or grooming experiences, anything very special about your dog or dogs, or what other young owners are doing in your community.

Speaking of letters, many readers, professional and otherwise, tell us they have a lot of ideas, to say nothing of "beefs" they'd like to get off their minds. We will set aside a special space under our usual column Letters for "The Beef Ring" in which letters containing a legitimate criticism of various aspects of the dog world will be printed. The letters must be signed, although the name will be withheld on request. The editors reserve the right to refuse any letters bearing personal rancor or derogatory comment.

THE BULLMASTIFF

The gamekeeper's guardian and the poacher's dread in early days, the Bullmastiff is a totally fearless animal, used even now for bringing down lions in Africa and hunting cougars in the wilds of northern British Columbia.

A powerful animal, not handsome as compared to many breeds, but arresting because of his stern appearance softened by kindly eyes, the Bullmastiff has been steadily making friends over the past century.

The breed stems, as do so many of the guard dogs, from England's Mastiff—the proportion is, in fact, 60% Mastiff and 40% Bulldog.

His active history as a Bullmastiff goes back to the 1830's when gamekeepers in England were beset by reckless poachers who preferred to shoot it out with the law rather than pay the severe penalties. When laws failed to protect either property or guards, the gamekeepers took their protection in their own hands and turned to man's best friend. They cared little for appearance but required speed and strength. When the Mastiff proved powerful and fearless but too slow because of his great weight, the Bulldog was tried.

The breed of that day little resembled today's show type. He was too ferocious, although small. The gamekeepers longed for dogs that would keep perfectly quiet while stalking the thieves, thereby covering the movement of the stalker, but would attack on command. Further, they wanted the poachers downed and held, but not necessarily chewed to pieces. By breeding the Mastiff and the Bulldog, the answer was found.

As interest grew in this new working dog, competitions were held. It was many years, however, before the dogs were shown for conformation. Their prowess was the point of interest. The competitions were held against men, with the Bullmastiff muzzled and the men armed with a club which met certain restrictions as to size and weight. In these contests, no human was ever able to stay on his feet against a dog of any worth.

Known as the Gamekeeper's Night Dog, the breed at first was predominantly a dark brindle, which made him almost invisible at night. Later, as this requirement grew less essential, the fawn coat became more popular.

With poaching problems now handled in a different manner, the Bullmastiff has for many years been employed in guarding estates, for police work, protection of diamond mines in South Africa, and for big game hunting as well as household guardians and pets.

A powerful, symmetrical but not cumbersome dog, he is alert, high spirited and reliable. A faithful companion for adults and children, an even disposition and short hair make him welcome in the home.

Size and weight: Dogs should be 25 to 27 inches at the shoulder, and about 115 pounds in weight. Bitches, 24 to 26 inches at the shoulder, and about 100 pounds in weight.

COVER STORY

Consistently winning Bullmastiffs of the year are the distinctive red Canadian breds owned by Kennels of the Rouge, Reg'd.

Pictured on the cover with Judge R. Lee Twitty at Morris and Essex, 1955, Am. & Can. Ch. Rodmar's Lady Faye (WB, 4 points and B.O.S.) completed her U.S. Championship with three points to spare, having the previous week taken Best of Breed and Best Canadian Bred at the 5th Annual Specialty of the Honourable Company of Bullmastiff Fanciers in Canada at Aurora, Ont. Other wins include 3rd in Group at Buffalo, N.Y., 4th in Group at the Sportsmen's Show, Toronto, W.B. (3 points) and Best of Winners at Westminster KC. Bred by Rodney Hull, whelped March 1952 (by Am. & Can. Ch. Rouge of Eldona out of Am. & Can. Ch. Rodmar's Lady Margaret.

Ch. Stentor of the Rouge (W.D. and Best of Winners at Morris and Essex) completed his Canadian title at the Specialty at Aurora (W.D., B. of W., 5 points and B.O.S.). Since then he has placed 3rd in Group at Tonawanda Valley KC, Batavia, N.Y., 2nd in Group at Winnipeg, 2nd in Group at Ottawa, 4th in Group at Hull, 2nd in Group and Best Canadian Bred in Group at the 3rd Canadian National Exhibition Show, Toronto, Sept. 5-6. He is ownerbred, whelped Jan. 1953, by Ch. Shah of Samdielane out of Bulstaff Tapestry (a brindle daughter of the noted brindle Eng. Ch. Chips of Harbex).

The eight-year-old Am. & Can. Ch. Robin of the Rouge, still siring top quality stock, was retired from showing in September 1951, after winning Best in Show, All Breeds at Dixie, Ont. (To date he is still the only Bullmastiff in North America to have achieved a BIS). His get and descendants include numerous American and Canadian Champions and two C.D.'s in the United States.

At least a measure of Obedience Training is routine for all Bullmastiffs of the Rouge, as emphasis is laid on the working and companionship qualities of this breed.

DOGS IN CANADA!

As many readers know, Nigel Aubrey-Jones, noted Pekingese breeder and fancier, is an out-spoken young man. He writes as he speaks, and we publish the following brief article unedited and unabridged, with appreciation for the nice gesture, knowing at the same time no punches will be pulled if the ebullient Welshman's opinion differs strongly with those expressed in this publication.

Dogs in Canada! What about dogs in Canada? If you really want to know visit any dog show. What do you see? Young enthusiastic breeders and exhibitors eager to learn and eager to show the world what they can breed.

Dogs in Canada as a magazine, most of us have grown to think is a re-hash of English and American magazines. Politics? Who cares? Who is really interested? Not the breeders and exhibitors—they are too busy getting on with their job. Dogs in Canada is in new hands. Clean hands, even though we might think inexperienced hands. Just for one minute think of two young girls interested in publications. A dog magazine! What could they do with it. The world is milk and honey and how well we know the dog world is not an easy field for the experienced, let alone the new and inexperienced. As a publisher in this field I full well know the snags, the disappointments and heart aches of the job.

As a dog fancy we need a magazine of our own. Something to give us a picture of our fancy right across our vast country. What is Mr. A doing in Vancouver? Mrs. B in Halifax wants to know. Miss C in Toronto met Mr. D. from Winnipeg and he could tell her but Mr. E of Montreal is like Mrs. B. He didn't know.

Each and every one of us can help this magazine to be of use to us. Coming from another publisher this might seem odd, but most things in the dog game are odd. It's the oddities we want to hear about. Ninety-nine per cent of the readers of this paper are dog people. They breed, show or train dogs. Each and every one is gaining experience—this experience is valuable to those that are eager to learn.

I am all for written judges' reports on each show—but without the judges' cooperation this isn't possible. What about it, some of you judges? If you have the courage to get into the ring you should have the courage to explain your placings and that is what your exhibitors have paid their entries for. Your opinion.

Here are two young girls, eager to give the dog fancy a service it needs, but without your help and mine they are helpless. It is we that make Dogs in Canada and let us see it through in the right manner. Get your pen to paper and write your experiences and your ideas of the dog game. Dogs in Canada as a fancy depends on you so lets get on with the job.

HUNTING TO HOUNDS

Capt. John Hundevad is a noted horseman who lives and hunts in the vicinity of Aylmer, Que. He is editor and general manager of the Legionary, a lively magazine for veterans. He is shown here mounted on "Greyling" and surrounded by some of the foxhounds of the Ottawa Valley Hunt. Each of the hounds is depicted true to life and can be recognized by anyone who knows the pack. From a painting by Pamela Edwards of Ste. Adele, P.Q.

These golden autumn days the fields and woods in the neighbourhood of Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa and London resound to the eager cry of foxhounds, the rhythmic hoofbeats of galloping horses and the melodious notes of the huntsman's horn as scarlet-coated riders hunt the wiley fox or "drag."

This exhilarating pastime, frequently called the "King of Sports", has been popular in Britain for several hundred years and in the United States since the days of George Washington. In Canada, however, it has only been known since the early days of the last century and only six Canadian hunts are in existence today—the Toronto and North York Hunt, the Eglinton Hunt, the Montreal Hunt, the Lake of Two Mountains Hunt at Hudson, P.Q.; the Ottawa Valley Hunt and the London, Ont., Hunt.

Hunting, almost more than any other form of sport, lends itself to the development of personal qualities such as courage and initiative, patience and consideration for others, and gives an opportunity for pleasant social intercourse. Less than any other sport, perhaps, is hunting capable of being demoralized by the spirit of professionalism or "spectatoritis." Even those who "hunt to ride" instead of "ride to hunt" must follow the hounds actively wherever the fox or "drag" scent takes them.

To the true hound lover, three parts of the pleasure of hunting is watching a pack of foxhounds work. A really fine working hound is one of the most extraordinary of all domestic animals. He must have prodigious endurance, the best nose of all sporting dogs, speed, agility, a good cry, and brains so that he, with perhaps 15 or 20 other "couples", can understand and obey the signals and orders of the mounted huntsman. No other domestic animal used for sport is called upon for all the qualities that must be found in a good foxhound.

In Canada both English and American fox hounds are used for hunting, the latter being developed from the imported English strain and bred to meet the somewhat rougher hunting conditions of the New World. A typical English dog hound is about 24 inches in height while an American is somewhat smaller but usually faster. In colour, both breeds range from the familiar black, white and tan to almost pure white, but while uniformity of colour is desirable in a pack it is not considered the most important quality in a good hound. Far more important is ability to find the quarry, work a cold line when necessary, hunt at speed and account for foxes under difficult conditions of scent and going such as are frequently met with in the dry climate of Canada. Such hounds are able to "stay" for hours and negotiate with speed and drive the roughest terrain.

The type of hound that can do all this carries as little superfluous weight as a high-class thoroughbred or trotting horse, yet has sufficient bone on which to hang ample muscle. Such hounds have strength and substance without lumber. They are well moulded and knit to stand wear and tear. In no sense are they weedy, nor yet so large, overboned or clumsy as to be unable to negotiate timber or wire fences. The fox-like feet of such hounds, similar in their strength and spring to those of the greyhound, are singularly able to withstand lameness. As in the thoroughbred horse, the outward quality seems to denote the nervous energy within. The appearance of such hounds is well illustrated by the photograph accompanying this article.

ONTARIO PHEASANT DOG FUTURITY SELECTS FIELD TRIAL GROUNDS

by W. H. Morris

The Peninsula branch of the Ontario Bird Dog And Conservation Association has concluded a lease with the Department of Transport and The Ontario Hydro Commission on a tract of land containing approximately 817 acres which are admirably suited for wildlife habitat. The land will be used primarily as a Field Trial and Conservation Area, and is located near Allenburg, Ont.

Early in the spring the members gathered on several weekends to work up the ground for the planting of feed strips. Subsequently, patches of sedan grass, corn, buckwheat, sunflower and multiflora rose were planted with excellent results. Recently, the local conservation officer, Mr. Roy Arbuthnot, inspected the grounds with the committee and was immensly pleased with the progress which has been accomplished in such short time.

Comments from some of our New York State visitors lead us to believe that our grounds are second only to those at Baldwinsville. Plans are now afoot to release a quantity of pheasant, quail, Hungarian and chukar partridge.

It will be over these grounds that the First running of "The Ontario Pheasant Dog Futurity" will be held. Nominations of Dams closed July 1st and as will be the custom in subsequent "Futurities" the complete list of dams nominated will be published in Dogs in Canada.

Here is a listing of the dams nominated in the First Ontario Pheasant Dog Futurity:

Brittany Spaniels: Dutchess of Mooredale, by Ch. Duke of Cornean-Sherry of Clarksdale, bred by Walter C. Gendron, Penetang, Ont., to Pierre of Span-Haven.

Ch. Lady Penn of Pen, by Clinton's Happy Captain-Dutchess of Mooredale. Bred by Walter C. Gendron, Penetang, Ont. to Pierre of Pen-Haven.

Ginger of Clearview, by Rocailleux de Klemanor—La Fram Cookie, bred by O. T. Graves, St. Catharines, Ont., to Major of Brithaven.

English Setters: Zev's Peerless Trixie, by Attrige's Mississippi Zev Attrige's Ghost Pep, bred by C. M. Brennan, Toronto, Ont., to Retinoscope.

Victorious Vicky, by Peerless Blazer—Drums Victory Belle, bred by L. La Framboise, River Canard, Ont., to Skip Selkirk.

English Pointers: Mistress Prettybones, by Garrison Hill Bombardier, N.Y. Tick Thomee bred by Dr. John Powers, Cooperstown, (nominated by R. F. Papa).

Ramblers Slaperina #463595 Breeding not given, to Tyson's Skyhills Flash (nominated by R. F. Papa).

Log Cabin Light, by Finger Lakes Sam-Log Cabin Mit, bred by H. H. Hawkins, Rochester, N.Y. to Tyson's Skyhills Flash. (nominated by R. F. Papa).

These matings have produced approximately sixty puppies and we hope to have at least 50% entered and started in the running.

The Ontario Pheasant Dog Futurity was organized one year ago to promote discriminate breeding for the improvement of pointing breeds and to work toward the development of the highest possible type of pheasant dog. Complete particulars of the Futurity may be obtained from W. H. Morris, R.R.1, Beamsville, Ont., Secretary-Treasurer of the Association, but briefly, the operation is this:

Each stake carries a cash purse to be distributed between breeders and owners. Each Futurity is open to females of a recognized pointing breed which are bred on or after October 30 of any year. Females born in Canada, or imported into Canada, must be registered with the Canadian Kennel Club.

The trial is held on pheasants at a time and place determined by the Association. Notice of the date and location of the trial is announced at least 30 days before its commencement. Nominations and entries are made on forms furnished free of charge by the Association.

Nomination of Dams

Nomination of female must be made within 30 days after the female has been bred, and a fee of $3.00 must accompany nomination. Second stage of the nomination shall be made, accompanied by a fee of $3.00, within 30 days after whelping of litter. This enrollment of litter entitles each puppy in a litter to be entered in the Futurity. Nomination of dams may be made on or after October 30 of any year, and nominations close July 1 of the year following. If the female fails to whelp, or gives birth to a dead litter, her nominator has the privilege of refund or a credit on a nomination of any succeeding year, provided the nominator gives notice within ten days after the time the female should have normally produced. If notification is not made the first nomination fee is forfeited.

Entering Dogs

Entries for each Futurity close on July 15. On or before that date anyone expecting to start a dog in the Futurity must register each dog (dog must be registered with The Canadian Kennel Club if born in Canada) and make entry in the Futurity on entry blank provided by the Association. Entry fee of $5.00 must accompany entry. A starting fee of $10.00 must be paid before the drawing, which takes place the day before the date announced for the trial to be run.

Value and Division of Purse

The purse is 70% of all entry and starting fees, and is divided into six divisions, as follows:

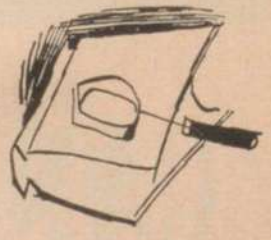

40% to be paid to the breeders, divided 50%, 30% and 20% to the first three dogs placed;

60% to be paid to owners of winners divided 50%, 30% and 20% to the first three dogs placed.

An engraved certificate is also given to the breeder and owner of each winning dog.

BOOK REVIEW

Elias Vail Trains Gun Dogs . . .
by Ella B. Moffit, $4.50

Just to give you an idea of the care that went into this small but comprehensive volume, Mrs. Moffit, author of "The Cocker Spaniel", worked on the material for three years.

Elias Vail, one of this continent's foremost breeders, has developed such fame, first as trainer of Pointers and Setters, then of Spaniels and Retrievers, that a Vail-trained dog sets a gun-dog enthusiast to wishful thinking.

The book, which covers the work and training of Pointing breeds, Spaniels and non-slip Retrievers, deals with the many facets of gun dogs and their work, with a clarity and simplicity which is remarkable.

Mr. Vail's training is so thoroughly worked out that even in training the puppy, no waste motion of either animal or trainer is involved. The system is described in such a manner it can be followed for home training. Other details include field trials, judges, game raising, etc.

SPORTING and HOUND BREEDS IN CANADA

WIRE-HAIRED POINTING GRIFFON

This somewhat rare breed, was developed by E. K. Korthals, the son of a wealthy banker in Holland. In the blending of blood to produce a new breed, it is believed that the patriarches carried setter, spaniel and otterhound blood. A dog of medium size, fairly shortbacked, somewhat low on his legs, but strongly limbed. Coat is harsh and short, rough like that of the long-haired Griffon. His qualities are intelligence, strength and vigor. Color is steel grey with chestnut splashes, grey white with chestnut splashes, chestnut, or dirty white mixed with chestnut.

GERMAN SHORT-HAIRED POINTER

A natural retriever on land or water, he quickly learns to work for fur or feather on command. Easily controlled, slightly stolid, very methodical, works closely and is noted for great powers of endurance. Conformation and markings are attractive, generally liver on white, running from light ticking to solid lines.

Katrin Radbach Von Lindenwald, a 5-months old Von Lindenwald Puppy. Owned by Mrs. Margaret Thomas, 'Lynnewood', R.R. 1, Richmond Hill, Ont.

(Ch. Kristin Radbach Von Lindenwald has become the Kennel's 7th Champion in six years of breeding. Gained 10 points from visits to the United States, 3 majors and a placement at Morris and Essex. Puppies from her winning bench and field dog in U.S.A. this Fall. Inquiries invited.)

LABRADOR RETRIEVER

Regarded as the easiest of all sporting dogs to teach and the quickest to come under dependable control, the Labrador Retriever is the most popular of all the retrieving breeds. The origin stems from Newfoundland, rather than Labrador. He is a hard-driving, willing worker, level-headed, accepts direction promptly, and is enjoyed for his excellent disposition. An extremely active dog, he is strongly built, a great swimmer, marks falls properly, and has a highly developed scenting faculty. Coat: close, short and thick, free from feather. The color is generally black.

RHODESIAN RIDGEBACK

Called the Lion-Dog, this fearless hunter is now being bred in Canada for the first time. His long history goes back to the Hottentots of South Africa. The peculiarity of this breed is the ridge on the back, formed by the hair growing in the opposite direction to the rest of the coat. The Ridgeback is a strong, muscular and active dog, symmetrical in outline and capable of great endurance and speed. Used in South Africa for bringing down lions, the breed is nevertheless a gentle home dog. His short coat makes him a very clean, domestic animal.

Rookzie Zanzie, male, born of South African parents, imported to England, exported from England to Canada as a five-month-old pup. Kopje, Registered. Owned by Mr. & Mrs. Dennis King, Toronto, Ont.

BRITTANY SPANIEL

Is outstanding as the only Spaniel which may be expected to point. Of ancient lineage, it is not a tall dog, but "leggy" enough for speed. Whether or not he should be termed a Spaniel is frequently argued because the dog works like a setter. Not a timid animal, the Brittany must nevertheless be handled with kindness and patience. Inclined to be a one-man dog, he makes a fine retriever on land or water. Compact, short-eared, his appearance resembles a small English setter.. White and orange or white and liver colouring, some ticking, with coat dense, flat or wavy.

ENGLISH SPRINGER SPANIEL

While most sporting dogs are "specialists" the English Springer Spaniel is a remarkably versatile dog. Born with an intense desire to hunt, usually a natural retriever, he has an extremely keen nose. Rarely does the hunter accompanied by this eager Spaniel lose a wounded bird, for one of his talents is in trailing down crippled game. An excellent rabbit dog, and good with grouse and woodcock. He is an amiable fellow, makes a fine house pet and requires little space, especially in a car. Color is attractive, generally liver and white, black and white, usually with tickings in either color. Sturdily built, he has a dense gently waved coat, long ears set at eye level, and a docked tail.

WEIMARANER

Known as the "Gray Ghost" for his faculty of blending with the twilight, the German-bred Weimaraner is famed for his ability in the field for training, pointing and retrieving. He has further proven a faithful family friend and a one-man dog. An individualist in his work, he is nevertheless a quick student in Obedience Training. Stories of his bravery and powers of scent have bordered on the fantastic, but nevertheless this gun-dog has located quarry after bloodhounds had failed. Colouring ranges from silver-gray to a dark gray known as silver taupe.

AFGHAN HOUND

One of the most graceful of all dogs, the Afghan's long silky coat, and aloof demeanor mark him for attention wherever he appears. One of the oldest known breeds (documents take his history back to 3,000 to 4,000 B.C.) he was bred in the mountainous areas of Afghanistan and can stand severe winters. Although in structure he is somewhat unusual, it is his very broad foot pads and heavy featherings which allow him to travel easily and rapidly over rough waste areas and deserts. He hunts by sight, and no other breed can best him as a hurdle racer. A splendid all round dog in addition to hunting talent, he also makes a good showing in Obedience work.

THE BEAGLE . . . Currently tops in popularity in the United States, the Beagle is gaining rapidly in the Canadian rating. A general favourite for many reasons, he is a pure-bred dog the average family can afford.

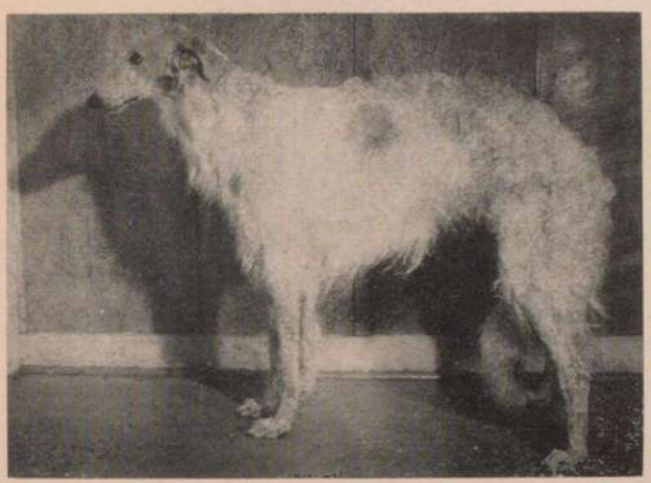

A merry little fellow about the house, he is the darling of the family. Outdoors he becomes the buddy of the master, loves rough and tumble hunting, and can take care of himself. He asks only kind treatment and affection, which he returns generously.

Said to be the result of a cross breeding between the harrier and the southern hound of England, the first beagles to be brought to this continent were owned and bred by General Richard Rowett, of Carlinville, Ohio.

Interestingly enough, he very much resembles a foxhound in both color and general conformation. The true hound color is correct for the beagle color, although the usual combination is black, white and tan.

It would be hard to challenge his prowess as a top rabbit hunter or cottontail trailer, but readily learns to trail any ground game. As a pheasant hunter he is quick and sure.

BORZOI (RUSSIAN WOLFHOUND)

A famous ancient breed, popular in Russia several centuries ago. Although his exact origin is clouded, he served well in Russia in hunting wolves. More recently he has been used in the West and Southwest of this continent in hunting coyotes as well as wolves. An unusually handsome dog, his coat is dense, soft and silky, with the fairly long hair. Colouring is varied, with white predominating, marked with lemon, brindle, tan, gray or black. He is a graceful animal, with qualities of rare speed and courage, and a strength unexpected in his slim, trim, racy appearance.

CH. Kuban Kuzma, owned by Mrs. M. M. Martinson, Tiree Kennels, Marysville, N.B.

BLACK AND TAN COONHOUND

A specialist at coon hunting, this long-time favorite is an excellent dog on any type of furred game, especially where an exceedingly keen nose is required. His manner of working is to stick strictly to foot-scent, and travels somewhat slower than the foxhound. He follows the quarry to its tree and waits for the hunter to catch up, guiding him by continuous eager barking in a deep musical voice. The original foundation stock is conceded to have come from the old Virginia foxhound known there as the "black and tan". He works his trail like a bloodhound, and there is no doubt that a great deal of bloodhound blood was used in the outcrosses.

DACHSHUND—SMOOTH-HAIRED

Deriving its name from the sport of badger-hunting, he is one of the most interesting of all dogs, not only for his build of long body and short legs, but his gameness and love of clowning. One of the most sought-after house pets, he is unusually clean and has virtually no "doggy odour". Despite his low-slung carriage, he can cover ground with amazing speed.

Ch. Tag-A-Long's Fritzi, Canada's top winning Dachshund in 1954 and 1955. Owned by John R. Clapp and handled by Art Burden, both of Toronto.

Record: 1954—Two times Best Can. Bred in Show, 21 times Best of Breed, 10 times 1st in Group, 6 times 2nd in Group, 3 times 3rd in Group. 1955: Two times Best Can. Bred in Show, 19 times Best of Breed, 9 times 1st in Group, 6 times 2nd in Group, 4 times 3rd in Group.

DACHSHUNDS; LONG-HAIRED

With all characteristics similar to the Smooth-haired variety, the long-haired Dachshund is believed to have been the result of out-crossing with spaniel types for protection against cold water. Once the coats were obtained, it is thought that all traces of the spaniel were then bred out. The hair is soft, and glistening, sometimes slightly wavy. A good coat is similar to that of the Irish Setter. The tail is carried gracefully, with the hair at its greatest length here, to form a flag.

The Yclept Russett Long-haired Family, owned and hunted by Dr. & Mrs. Clementi, Suffield Experimental Station, Ralston, Alta.

Incorporating the top German, British and American bloodlines—bred for bone, temperament and complete hardiness.

MINIATURE LONG-HAIRED DACHSHUNDS

Miniature Dachshunds appear in all three coats, with the long-haired miniatures of special appeal. Not one of the three types of miniatures can be considered under-size or underdeveloped types of the full-sized Dachshunds. They were produced purposely to go after quarry in burrows smaller than could be entered by the larger members of the family. These tiny hunters are absolutely fearless. On a smaller scale, a symmetrical adherence to the general Dachshund conformation, plus mental and physical vitality are the outstanding characteristics. The Dachshund is sometimes fondly described as "half-a-dog high and a dog-and-a-half long."

ITALIAN GREYHOUNDS

Mr. Charles Gilbert was invited to be represented on this page as a well known breeder of Sporting Dogs. Shown here is an Italian Greyhound, a miniature English Greyhound. The breed has existed in its present form for over 2,000 years, and obviously stems from the large Greyhound, with characteristics that have been varied, but not greatly changed. The form and elegance may appeal to many who cannot afford an English racing Greyhound. The Italian Greyhound, which measures up to 15 inches in height, is much less costly to purchase and raise.

NORWEGIAN ELKHOUND

As the name implies, this breed originates in Norway. In their native land these dogs were, and are used to hunt Elk, and to some extent as sled dogs. In North America the breed has won extensive favour as a family pet. Although only of medium size they are extremely powerful, with a solid, compact body. The Elkhound is of a friendly and happy disposition. Quick and willing to learn, he is easily trained for hunting and obedience work.

A.K.C. DECISION ON MONORCHIDS AND CRYPTORCHIDS

In a recent issue of Dogs in Canada, the Canadian viewpoint on Monorchidism and Crytorchidism was discussed. So many comments have been received on this important question we now publish the report of the American Kennel Club. From January 1, 1956 the conditions will make a dog ineligible to compete at any AKC-approved Dog Show.

At the regular quarterly meeting of the American Kennel Club on June 14, 1955, the delegates, by an overwhelming vote, adopted the proposed amendment to Chapter 16, Section 9 of the Dog Show Rules, adding "monorchidism" and 'cryptorchidism" to the list of conditions such as lameness, blindness and deafness, which have for many years been listed in this section as making a dog ineligible to compete at any dog show. By vote of the delegates, this amendment will take effect on January 1, 1956.

The directors of the American Kennel Club have been concerned about this problem for some time. Every few months in recent years another breed parent club has submitted for approval a change in the standard for its breed dealing with this problem. While the wording of these changes has differed widely, they all showed a growing concern and indicated that these conditions had already reached serious proportions in many breeds.

The directors believed that monorchidism and cryptorchidism were basic physical conditions like blindness or deafness, which should be treated similarly for all breeds. At the regular delegates' meeting on December 14, 1954, President William E. Buckley discussed the problem and called for an informal expression of opinion on the question of amending the Dog Show Rules as has now been done. The delegates discussed the subject pro and con and finally, with very few dissenters, indicated their approval at that time, provided authorities in the veterinary and genetics fields supported the conclusion that these conditions were inimical to breed improvement.

The directors, who had already accumulated a great deal of data and studied much of the published literature on the subject, consulted a number of the leading authorities in the veterinary and genetics fields, including the Roscoe B. Jackson Memorial Laboratory in Bar Harbor, Maine, and Cornell University. They found that extensive research on the subject has been done on goats, cattle and swine, although no comparable project has been undertaken in connection with dogs, probably because of the special problems involved in collecting reliable data over an extended period of time.

One authority has said that all or nearly all the States which license stallions standing for public use, list cryptorchidism or monorchidism as hereditary unsoundness. Another authority stated that in other breeds of animals, notably horses, cattle, sheep and swine, breeders do not exhibit cryptorchids and judges make a practice of not giving prizes to monorchids at all because these faults have been recognized as hereditary for at least two centuries.

The authorities consider monorchidism and cryptorchidism to be the same condition, the difference being only one of degree. The same influence which produces a partial effect in one individual may be stronger in another individual, may effect that individual at an earlier age or over a longer period of time, and may allow full expression of the characteristic.

All of the authorities agree that the defect in dogs and other animals is hereditary, and almost all are of the opinion that it is a recessive characteristic, which means that it will not appear in the progeny unless both parents carry the genes for this particular factor. This fact has apparently not been understood by those breeders who cite monorchid studs which have sired large numbers of normal male puppies. The exact mode of inheritance has not been established, but most of those who have studied the subject are of the opinion that it is complex, involving more than one easily identified factor. While it frequently skips one or more generations, we are told that practically all geneticists and physiologists believe that when it appears again in later generations, it is likely to be more firmly established. If this is true, the elimination of monorchidism from any breed is going to be a slow and tedious process. Its increase within a breed, on the other hand, could proceed with disturbing rapidity if its seriousness is not realized and steps are not taken to eliminate it.

Some of the authorities think that this fault may be associated in inheritance with other basic abnormalities and malformations related to retarded development. There is much evidence of a tendency to cancer in retained testicles, and many veterinarians recommend castration in such cases. Monorchidism and cryptorchidism are prevalent in some of the toy breeds, but there is no scientific evidence that these defects are more likely to appear in toy dogs in general than in the larger breeds.

Some breeders feel that only cryptorchids should be ineligible to compete at dog shows, and that monorchids should not be barred. On the other hand, many people are of the opinion that all attention should be concentrated on the monorchids which constitute the real danger because of their power to reproduce, while the cryptorchids being sterile take care of their own problem.

The thought has been advanced that the adoption of the new rule is but the forerunner of registration restrictions against dogs so afflicted. It should be pointed out that registration is primarily the official recording of a dog's ancestry. The chief purpose of the stud book's maintenance is to provide accurate pedigree information. The American Kennel Club does not refuse registration to any pure-bred dog of registered parentage simply because it has a physical defect which, indeed, might be so serious as to bar it from show competition. The purpose of dog shows, on the other hand, is to encourage the production of better and better dogs which in turn should raise the general quality level of dogs that are registered. It would be contrary to the basic concept of the stud book to restrict registration privileges on the basis of individual dog quality.

In proposing this amendment, the American Kennel Club was fully aware that it would not completely eliminate these defects, any more than any other fault, which makes a dog ineligible to compete at dog shows or which disqualifies it under the standard of its breed, has been completely eliminated. As with other similar provisions in the Dog Show Rules and in the individual breed standards, the intention is to discourage the use of such dogs in breeding and reduce the incidence of these defects. It was fully recognized that the factor can be transmitted through the dam as well as through the sire, but it was not felt that the fact that bitches carrying the factor could not be detected constituted any sound reasons for not barring dogs in which the condition was obvious. In any case, the male with a serious hereditary defect whose show record causes him to be used frequently at stud, constitutes a far greater danger to any breed than a bitch with similar characteristics because of his ability to beget many more puppies during his lifetime.

SCIENTIFIC DOG FEEDING

by DR. H. E. ROBINSON

Director of Laboratories, Swift & Company, Chicago

During the last twenty-five years, the need for the "by guess and by gosh" of dog feeding has disappeared. The requirements of dogs for various types of food have been accurately determined at dog nutrition research centers in universities and industrial research laboratories where every detail of the dog's diet is considered. In such laboratories, earlier research with white rats, mice, hamsters and guinea pigs is used in conjunction with the feeding of dogs and has speeded up the attainment of balanced diets. As a result of this research, most dogs today can enjoy nutritious, palatable foods that would have been the envy of their "forefathers".

Diet research which has led to the modern dog foods has gone through several phases. Originally, emphasis was placed upon vitamins; then proteins, minerals, carbohydrates and fats were investigated thoroughly. During this time, several "panacea" foods—special foods that were going to give the dog just what he needed—appeared and disappeared owing to the fact that their formulation had not been scientifically attained. Quality dog foods which have incorporated the findings of research have continually improved and at the present time offer better nutrition for dogs than owners can provide with table scraps of leftovers.

Nutrients that are important for proper dog nutrition are present in the correct proportions in the modern, "balanced" dog food. Proof that these balanced diets are superior comes through life-cycle testing. Thus, dogs will grow to maturity, reproduce, nourish their young, and maintain their vigor into old age (for a dog) all on a single balanced food. Under the rigorous conditions of testing through several life cycles, any defects in diets will show up as poor growth, smaller than normal litters or inadequate milk production.

Commercial preparation and packaging of dog foods followed closely upon the demonstration of the merit of these products. In these studies the amount of various foods actually available to the dog has been determined as well as the amounts in the food. It has been realized by the research workers that certain nutrients in foods are not available to the dog because they have been destroyed during the processing necessary to make a thoroughly safe canned product, or a stable packaged product, or because of the inherent indigestibility of a foodstuff. For example—the iron present in grains, such as wheat and oats, is not utilized as well as that present in certain iron salts and some animal tissues.

The relative amount of the various foodstuffs in the diet is also important. The dog needs calcium — one of the important minerals—but he can't utilize it without phosphorous, he will excrete the calcium and suffer a deficiency. Moreover, if he gets too much phosphorus for the amount of calcium, the phosphorus will interfere with absorption and again, he will have a deficiency. Better quality dog foods are carefully formulated to take into account the inter-relations between the various nutrients.

Proteins are particularly important and they must be of such a nature that they will supply a balanced grouping of the amino acids. The amino acids are the "building blocks" from which proteins are made. There are more than 20 of these. Animal proteins contain well-balanced assortments of these amino acids; vegetable proteins frequently do not. But, if you supplement vegetable protein with animal protein of the proper type, the mixture can be completely utilized.

Fat is also needed in dog foods. Dogs need the fatty acids and they love the characteristic flavor. But if they receive too much fat, they do not eat enough other foods to supply their protein, vitamin and mineral needs.

Obviously then, research on dog foods includes not only the nutritive requirements of the animals, but other factors such as convenience to the purchaser and stability of the product. Early efforts to produce meal-type dog foods that were completely adequate nutritionally were unsatisfactory. Fats were necessary to assure nutritional adequacy and palatability. A difficulty encountered was that fats became rancid in time.

However, scientific research developed an antioxidant that prevented rancidity. This substance is so safe and successful that it had been used in foods such as potato chips and in shortenings. You can now keep these products on your pantry shelf without refrigeration. It has also enabled production of dry dog foods on which generations of canines could live without eating any other foods.

New ingredients and new combinations of familiar ingredients are being tested continuously in nutritional research kennels. All over the world scientific workers in nutrition, both human and animal, keep announcing new discoveries. As they do, their theories and experiments are evaluated and after further testing, these improvements are incorporated into formulas.

A ten-year-old dog known as Darky saved the life of his 23-year-old owner in a half-hour fight with a big black bear in the thick bush 55 miles north of Hull, Que. Percy Haney, confined to hospital with badly mauled arms and legs, reported that twice his dog dashed in and distracted the bear. Finally he managed to pull himself aside as the bear and dog fought. The bear tossed the dog aside and went for the farmer again, but for some reason stopped. Haney was able to run for his car, and call the dog as the two animals began another fight. Both escaped.

Judy (Ce-gren's Blue Champagne) a Kerry Blue Terrier owned by Mrs. A. R. Winter, Willowdale, Ont., who at 15 months was busy with her own litter, found time and affection for three deserted coons found by Bruce Winter and a chum. The boys brought the babies home and tried to feed them the formula for the Kerry puppies.

Judy, impatient with the procedure, leaped from her box into the coons' carton and began to lick and feed the four-day-old youngsters. During the next days, the maternal Kerry would leave her own babies to protect the coons whenever anyone approached the boxes.

They thrived on the canine food and care until they were independent and restless. Judy fretted nervously recently when she noticed the coon box was empty. She herself failed to return from her exercise, which in turn caused her owner some concern.

After a long search Mrs. Winters found Judy guarding the coons in a ditch. She picked up the female which patted her face and clucked away hippily while the two males and Judy trotted along beside her.

Reports Mrs. Winter: the return home was uneventful except for a speeding car which suddenly went into reverse and stopped beside the little group.

"I don't believe it," the driver muttered. "I've been out all night, but I haven't had a drink!"

The unsuccessful fight for life of a small mongrel, following shooting by a Riviere des Prairies, Que. police officer, resulted in a flood of sympathy and indignation from Montreal and suburb animal lovers.

Ti-Boule, a little but game dog of indiscriminate ancestry was seized for nonpayment of the town's license fee. Because the gas chamber was out of order, Constable Raymond Branchaud was ordered to destroy the animal. After shooting it on the town dump he left it for dead. Three days later the barely living victim of man's inhumanity reached home, bleeding profusely. SPCA officials immediately took the dog to Dr, L. Desmarais for treatment.

Police stated it was the tenth time the Moreau family had been warned about getting a license and controlling the dog. The owner claimed he could not afford the $3 and that the dog became surly if tied up.

A strong "suggestion" from the SPCA recommended Riviere des Prairies police find more humane means when extermination of an animal becomes legally required.

"BUCKSBURN'S CORTY"

Born October 24, 1942
Died August 17, 1955

The space she leaves in my heart and home will never be quite filled again, although I am so much richer today with my memories of a true and loving friend than never to have known a heart so full of love and devotion.

A grand old lady, thirteen years of age, jet black and chipper as a two year old, wise beyond human conception in all her ways, sensitive to my every mood.

Personality that built "Bucksburn" to what it is today.

Kindness that had no ending.

Humor that was so keen our many visitors laughed with her, never, never at her, as her scorn was as sharp as her wit and could wither you with one cold glance if the occasion arose.

Loyalty such as is hard to find today, she had to spare.

Love boundless and a heart so true for one so small.

Mother of seven Champions, Grandmother and Greatgrandmother of countless more.

All this made up a little Black Cocker.

"My Beloved Corty".

CLUB NOTES

Labrador Retriever Club of Ontario

by Charles Croft

On June 18 and 19 the Labrador Club held its eighth licenced trial. This was, without a doubt, the best effort we have had to date. Bob Cowan, Vic Joyce, and Dick Moore performed a job of judging that defies description, as did Fred Moss and Dave Cowan in their roles of Field Trial Marshalls.

The weather was blistering hot, the gallery was large but co-operative, and to all the people who worked to make this trial a fabulous success the President and Directors extend their thanks.

Jim Barr, who won the open, also won the gratitude of the Club for the sterling banquet he put on at the Guild Inn.

Open All Age consisted of five excellent series. It bears mentioning that the two judges proved that it does not take trick tests to separate the dogs. They set up straight hunting tests and had no difficulty in finding the four top dogs at the end of the day.

First Series—23 starters:

A wide double on land with a dog honouring. Scenting conditions were not good throughout the day and only two dogs failed this test.

Second Series—

Over and under on water, first bird thrown in rushes at water's edge, second bird in the water about thirty yards from shore. Most dogs did a splendid job but two failed and were consequently not carried to the third Series.

Third Series—

A land blind, approximately 100 yards. Dogs had to go through wire fence to pick up birds. Interesting to see the difficulty some handlers had in getting their dogs through the fence. Five dogs were dropped.

Fourth Series—

Water blind. The dogs were started from a section of shoreline that was completely void of cover. Immediately to the handler's left was a point, running out from shore. The shore of this point or long strip of land was covered in tulles. The bird was placed in the open water at the end of the point and was not visible to handlers or dog. This retrieve was about a hundred yards and the handlers were instructed that if their dogs entered the tulles on the shore, they would be severely penalized. The reasoning here was that once the dog got into the rushes he would not be visible to the handler and therefore any degree of success attained would be purely luck. All but six dogs qualified to go on to the next Series.

Subject to errors and omissions, the list of eligible members appearing elsewhere in this issue of DOGS IN CANADA comprises the members eligible to participate in the election.

Any member noting an error or omission in the list is asked to communicate promptly with the Secretary.

NOTE: Article VI, Section 5 of the By-laws reads in part as follows: "Any partnership or company that is a member of the Club may exercise any of the foregoing privileges to which it is entitled only through its authorized representative named in such partnership's or company's application or through his successor duly appointed by such partnership or company, written notification of which appointment has been delivered to the Secretary."

A MEMO FROM THE PRESIDENT

For those who guided the operations of the Club during the period when its financial position was anything but strong, for those whose foresight has enabled the taking of action to place the Club on a better financial basis, and for those who participate in the various activities coming within the scope of the Club's operations, the continued improvement in the Club's financial position, as reflected in the accompanying financial statements, will be very encouraging. At December 31st, 1952, the Club's surplus account—(total assets less total liabilities) showed a balance of less than $15,000.00, the lowest in the Club's financial history since 1923. In the past 2½ year period the Club's net worth has increased to $39,000.00. The salient feature of this improvement in our financial position is that it has been accomplished despite the fact that our income has not kept pace with the expanded volume of business and increased operating costs.

Sound management can help protect an organization's financial position, but that kind of management is of little avail without the support of those whose activities in connection with pure-bred dogs provides the funds necessary to carry on successfully. We are, therefore, most optimistic of the future.

This year, we will come very close to the previous record of total number of championship shows held under the Club's rules in a single calendar year, and we will see new records set for the number of licensed obedience trials and licensed field trials held this year. A further indication of the continuous growth in the volume of our business may be seen from the following statistics obtained from the Canadian National Live Stock Records:

EIGHT MONTHS PERIOD ENDING AUGUST 31st.

( Statistics not available).

Members will note that Dominion and Provincial bonds held by the Club at June 30th totalled $2,000 less than at the end of March. This is accounted for by the fact the Federal Government recalled bonds held by the Club having a par value of $2,000. The proceeds from the redemption of these bonds were deposited in the Club's bank account. Since June 30th, and by virtue of authority given by the Board, our Finance Committee arranged for the purchase of $8,000 Dominion of Canada bonds; thus our investments at this date (not including our shares in Apex Publishers and Publicity Limited) total $30,000. The following is the list of our investments at June 30th:

| | | Par Value | Cost |

Fifth Series—

A short water triple in extremely heavy rushes. A severe marking test and a chance for the judges to see the willingness and courage each dog possessed.

Our trial has tentatively been scheduled for the week end of October 22 and 23.

The Working Dog Association of B.C.

by Mrs. Elsie Murray

Although this Club was very recently formed, we have a number of very enthusiastic and energetic members. Our elected officers are: President D. Loveless; First Vice-President, J. D. Lightfoot; Secretary, Elsie Murray; Treasurer, J. D. Lightfoot. There is a Breed Chairman for most of the breeds, who acts as a delegate to represent the breed on the executive.

We have an extensive program laid out and the principal object set forth in our constitution is to further the betterment of Working Dogs. We plan to discuss a different breed of the Working Group at each of our monthly meetings and to study its Standard.

Our first effort was a Sanction Show for Working Dogs only in Ambleside Park, West Vancouver, on August 14. Miss Joan Railton judged and the weather was ideal. Members and their friends made a basket picnic affair on the ocean shore after the Show. Coffee was provided by the Club. The Junior Kennel Club members sold soft drinks, splitting the proceeds evenly with our Club and their travel fund. The Junior Kennel Club gave their Precision Drill display, which was very neatly executed. Great credit is due them, and their instructors, for the work and time spent in drilling.

After the Sanction Show, a Handling Contest was staged for the members of the Junior Kennel Club, judged by Mrs. Courtney Malchers, Mr. J. A. H. Irving and Mr. J. Lightfoot. The trophy for the best handler was won by Rickey Hughes. The best dog in the Sanction Show was a Boxer "Flarecrest Fiddle Faddle" owned by Mrs. Klinck and shown by Mr. Barker, and it also took Best Puppy in Show. The dog placing second for the Best in Show, was a German Shepherd "Aska", owned by Mr. J. D. Lightfoot. A Sheltie "Mac", owned by Mrs. Dorts of White Rock, placed Third, and Mr. Huggins' Corgi "Minty" was fourth.

The Club is busy planning for late Fall Shows. Applications have been filed to hold a Championship Show November 11 for dogs in the Working Group only, and an Obedience Trial, and an All-Breed Championship Show on the 12th.

Junior Kennel Club Notes
Vancouver, B.C.

by Mrs. Elsie Murray

During the summer months, interest in the Junior Kennel Club activities has been keen, and in spite of summer holiday trips the attendance at both Tuesday night Handling Classes in the park, and monthly meetings, have been good. Every week new members are enrolled.

The Club members have presented their Precision Drill and Handling Display at two Sanction Outdoor Shows. The Precision squad looked very smart in their blue and white outfits. Plans are now being made for one colour uniforms for winter use, and arrangements are in full swing for a concert in October. It is hoped the fanciers of B.C. will turn out and support this first entertainment.

At the Western Canada Boxer Sanction Show, Anne Tripp was the best girl handler, and Bruce Nelson the best boy. At the Outdoor Sanction Show held by the Working Dog Association, Rickey Hughes was the best boy handler and Mercia Tripp was the best girl.

Marion Powell, a member of the Club, was very successful at the Obedience Trials held in Renton, Wash. Her Peke 'Ming' was the third highest scoring dog with 190½. Congratulations, Marion, from the Club.

Western Canada Boxer Club

by Mrs. Elsie Murray

The Club held a very successful All-Breed Sanction Show on August 7 in Memorial Park, South Vancouver.

Mr. Joe O'Connor judged the Working Dogs and the Hounds, Mr. Jack Kingston, balance of the Show.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roberts' English Cocker "Nicholas", was awarded the best dog in the Sanction Show. Mrs. J. Klinck's Boxer "Flarecrest Fiddle Faddle" won the best puppy in the Sanction. Best Novice went to a miniature Poodle "Fiesta" owned by Mrs. Courtenay Melchers of North Vancouver.

There was a very nice entry and an enjoyable afternoon was spent by the ringside. The Junior Kennel Club put on their Precision Drill which was followed by a handling competition judged by Mrs. Dolly Wall; Mr. J. O'Connor, and Mr. Kingston.

The Collie and Shetland Sheepdog Club of Canada

by Donald Taylor

Our annual general meeting was held Sept. 14 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Taylor, Richmond Hill. First on the agenda was the election of officers, the results of which are as follows:

President, Mrs. Laura Getty. Vice-Pres., Mr. Don Taylor. Secretary, Mrs. Betty Drewe. Treasurer, Mrs. Gladys Taylor. Executive Committee, Mr. Ace Bailie, Mrs. Violet Bailie, Mr. Jack Hewson and Mrs. R. D. Smuck. Publicity Director, Mr. Don Taylor.

German Shepherd Dog Club of Western Ontario

by Edna Summerfield

It was decided at our September meeting to hold a matinee show on September 25 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Bird, Stratford. Following the show there will be a wiener roast. With the cooler weather we are hoping for a much better attendance at our October meeting so let's see all members out to help plan interesting entertainment for the winter months.

The Bulldog Club of Central Canada

By Mrs. G. M. McKenzie

Our Puppy Match on August 7, held by the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. A. Farrell at 95 Sandown Avenue, Toronto, proved highly successful with an entry of several fine and promising youngsters. The day turned out comfortably cool for the puppies, judged by our good friend. Mr. Ken Ellis.

Following the match a turkey plate supper served in the garden was enjoyed by those who stayed on—thank you Mrs. Farrel, that turkey was wonderful.

Our next Social event will be the Wiener Roast on Sunday, Sept. 18 at Mr. and Mrs. Blair's, 116 Beechglove Drive, Westhill, Ont.

AROUND THE OBEDIENCE RING

by Alan Sharp

Letters of Interest

The following letter comes to us from our good friends south of the border:

"We would appreciate your placing the following information, of interest to all Obedience People, in the next issue of your publication:

The Southern Michigan Obedience Training Club will play host to obedience people from both the United States and Canada at their 7th Annual All-Breed Obedience Trial with the Motor City Specialty Clubs Association on Sunday, November 13th at the Detroit Artillery Armory on West 8 Mile Road. The judges will be Mary Southcott of Toronto for Novice A, J. J. Wodisky for Novice B and Open A, and Alma Rosser for Utility, Open B and Graduate Novice. When you write to A. Wilson Bow, 4461 W. Jefferson Avenue, Detroit 9, Michigan, for your premium list, you will find an impressive array of trophies and cash prizes as well as many Special Prizes."

—D. M. Carson, Publicity Chairman Southern Michigan Obedience Training Club.

This letter represents another "first" for this column — it is the first one received from the United States and we sincerely hope that it is the forerunner of many more to follow. It is very nice to know that our American friends read Dogs in Canada and especially our Obedience column. We are pleased to receive obedience information of interest and hope that you will continue to keep us informed of activities in your district. Here's hoping that your 7th Trial on November 13th is a huge success. Ed.

Miss Reba Graham reports as follows on the trial held at Oshawa, Ont., on August 20th last and run by the Ontario Obedience Association (Oshawa Branch):

"Before starting, may I take this opportunity to congratulate you on your fine work in organizing and editing the Obedience Section of Dogs in Canada. However, on reading your latest report in the September issue, I "winced" at your first paragraph, re correspondence, and so am forwarding you this letter describing our recent trial, judged by Mr. O'Brien of Canfield.

As you probably know, this Obedience Trial was held in conjunction with the Oshawa Fair in Oshawa, under the name of the Ontario Obedience Association (Oshawa Branch). "Oshawa Branch" consists of a few young people who belong to the Oshawa Obedience Training Class and who, although not breeders on a large scale, are keenly interested in promoting "well-behaved" dogs. It is only with the help of these people and the invaluable assistance of the Obedience Association and judge, that this Trial was possible.

Fortunately, August 20th was a beautiful day in Oshawa and although the sun was shining, a shaded spot was available for the ring. The Trial was over early, permitting exhibitors to wander through the Fair Grounds and get an early start home. Several reporters were present at the Ringside and photographs were taken by Mr. Warren Parkinson of Toronto. One of these was inserted on the front page of our local paper and many comments were received as a result.

Highest Qualifying Score of this Trial was a German Shepherd owned by Mr. Peter Timmons, 265 Waterley Road, Toronto, with a score of 198 out of 200. Second was a Miniature Poodle owned by Miss M. Parkinson.

Reba Graham,
R.R. #1, Oshawa, Ontario.

Thanks very much for taking our plea for obedience information to heart and furnishing us with the above interesting report on your recent Trial. From all accounts it was a success, so congratulations. It is interesting to note that the "Oshawa Branch" consists of young people who are interest in the promotion of obedience training. Keep up the good work. Ed.

Here and There

The week-end of September 17th-18th marked another success for the Montreal Dog Obedience Training Club. This Club held its 12th and 13th Obedience Trials in the open at Lee Side Farm, Ste. Adele, Quebec, in the beautiful Laurentian Mountains.

A large entry of 100 dogs with over 30 from the United States were put through their paces over the well kept lawns of Lee Side Farm. They were judged by the well known American judges, Miss Edna Sheehy, Mr. F. C. Sidney and Mr. Jack Baird. Mrs. Eileen P. Larkin of Allenton, Rhode Island, with her Lakeland Terrier, Belwings Supreme Riot, won The Cochand Trophy for receiving the highest combined score of both trials in any one class with 398 out of a possible 400 points. Mrs. Larkin with her Lakeland Terrier, also won the House of Seagram Trophy for the highest score in the 12th Trial with the amazing score of 199½ out of 200 points.

The highest scoring dog in the 13th Trial was a poodle handled by Mrs. Nan Young of Rye, New York. With a score of 199 out of 200, Mrs. Young was presented with the Lord Calvert Trophy. In the 12th Trial, Mrs. R. W. Tyner of Senneville, P.Q. with her Standard Poodle, Amanda of Merrychance, won the highest combined score in Open B and Utility with 394 Points. Mrs. Alex Casgrain of Westmount, P.Q., handling her Standard Poodle, Petitcote Becky, earned 198½ in the 12th Trial to win the Ladies' Kennel Club prize for the highest score by a member of the Ladies' Kennel Club. A Miniature Poodle, Barlanark La Petite Coquette, handled by Mrs. W. A. Newcombe, won the highest combined score in Open B and Utility in the 13th Trial with 395 points, as well as the prize donated by the Ladies' Kennel Club of Canada for the highest score by a member of that Club, with 198½ points.

On Sunday, the Club held its second Tracking Test with a full entry of ten dogs. As a matter of interest, this was the second Test held in Canada. Each dog worked over a separate track laid by the track layer, James Yelland, under the guidance of the chief steward, George Wegg and the judges. After each dog and handler had worked over their own rugged course, judges Jack Baird and yours truly awarded four qualifying ribbons. These went to Mrs. R. W. Tyner with her Standard Poodle Amanda of Merrychance, Mrs. Alex Casgrain with Itou of Saguenay, a Standard Poodle, Mrs. W. A. Newcombe and her Miniature Poodle, Barlanark La Petite Coquette and Miss C. Harrison with an American Cocker Spaniel, Dolly Vardon's Spotty.

Congratulations are due Mr. Frank H. Mingie, Chairman and Show Superintendent, and those who worked on his committee for a job well done. Here's looking forward to next Fall in the Laurentians . Many thanks are due Miss Myrtle Cook of the Montreal Star for covering the event in a very efficient way.

CORRECTIONS

At the recent Richmond Lions Retriever Club, held on May 22nd, 1955, in the Open All Age Stake Class third winner should be Golden Retriever, "Walker's Kim" owned by A. C. Taylor and not "Walkers Rhett" as reported in the August Issue of Dogs in Canada.

The Miniature Poodle "Barlanark Joseff Noir", entered for Specials Only at the Progression Kennel Club of Canada, held on June 4th, and the Kingston & District Kennel Club, held on June 11th, did not compete in this class as it was absent and not in competition as reported in the August Issue of Dogs in Canada.

CORRECTION

In the September (1955) issue of "Dogs in Canada" the Wire Fox Terrier FIRE FLINT OF TYNEDALE (305727) was reported as a Champion. This was an error and the dog which should have been reported as a Champion was FIRE FLINT OF TYNEDALE 2nd (311244), owned by Joseph Dodds, Vancouver, B.C.

Rastus: Yessur, I done found out that honesty is the best policy.
Sam: How come?
Rastus: Remember dat dawg I stole last week? I tried to sell him for two whole days and nobody would give me more than a dollar for him, so I took him back to the owner and collected the reward. She gave me five dollars.

TERMINOLOGY APPROVED BY CKC POLICY

These suggestions come from a director of The Canadian Kennel Club, and we pass them on for use of readers in their advertising or editorial copy.

Contrary to popular use, the word "International," or its abbreviation "Int." is frowned upon by The Canadian Kennel Club. Correct usage is Canadian and American Champion, or Canadian, American and British, or whatever the case may be. Also unacceptable, is the use of "Winners Dog". To conform with CKC policy, "Winners Male" is correct. Another unacceptable word is "pedigreed". Properly, "Winners Female" should be used, rather than "Winners Bitch". And in the matter of colour, we should mention that while Golden Retriever is correct, the counterpart in colour in the Labrador is yellow.

What is the answer to the need for a higher standard of dog nutrition?

HERE'S THE PROBLEM YOU FACE!

Dog breeders and veterinarians have long realized that commercial dog foods vary considerably in nourishment and palatability. Even in individual brands these factors may vary from feeding to feeding.

What could be done about it? Gaines Research Kennels instituted a long range project for the study of this problem. The expense was justified because they came up with a practical answer.

THIS IS GAINES ANSWER—HOMOGENIZED DOG MEAL

Gaines developed a special homogenization process which combines the ingredients of Gaines formula into uniform, appetizing granules. This uniformity of nourishment is guaranteed in every package, every feeding, every mouthful! This is unique—Gaines Dog Meal is the only dog food you can buy which has this feature.

Each crunchy nugget of Gaines Dog Meal contains uniform amounts of every food element dogs are known to need. And this exclusive homogenization process makes it more readily absorbed, more palatable and easier to feed.

Homogenized Gaines Meal is our answer to the need for a higher standard of dog nutrition. It is an answer that has been endorsed by breeders and veterinarians whose recommendations have helped to make Gaines the largest-selling dog meal in the world.

We hope it is your answer, too.
