CONCERNING JUDGES

. . . There appears to be a situation rampant in the Dog Show field in Canada, or should I say the part of it I am familiar with, namely Ontario. This situation has caused me many a chuckle, and also quite a few moments that were not so pleasant.

I refer, of course, to the present system of judging at our shows. Surely there is not a person who has shown a dog, who has not heard that familiar cry, you can't beat so and so under so and so. I would hate to guess how many people, including myself, who will not show under a certain judge for the above reason. And certainly I have seen some decisions handed down in my own breed that certainly have made me wonder.

That this has had an adverse effect on the number of entries at various shows is beyond question. I personally know of several breeders who refuse to show their dogs under certain judges.

For some time I have had an idea in my mind that I feel sure would go a long way toward overcoming this condition, be it real or fancied. Briefly here is the set-up I would like to see tried out, and through your columns I would be most interested in reading the opinion of others, especially the small breeder or one-dog owner who without doubt provide the bulk of the entries at any show.

1. Any person desiring to judge a certain group or groups must first of all qualify to the entire satisfaction of the C.K.C. as to his or her ability to properly do so.

2. The fees paid for a judging assignment shall be the same for all qualified judges and set by the C.K.C.

3. No person who is a licensed judge or any member of his immediate family shall themselves handle any breed at any show, whether they own the dog or not.

4. The judges for each show approved by the C.K.C. shall be appointed by a duly authorized committee of the C.K.C.

5. The actual names of the judges shall not be made known to any person, including officers of the show-giving club or any other person, and will present themselves with proper credentials at the appointed time and show, and only then shall they be known.

The above procedure could be carried out along the general lines as affecting referees at professional hockey games, or baseball umpires, etc. They would be paid by the C.K.C., who would in turn be reimbursed by the club concerned.

Under this set-up an exhibitor would not know who was judging, and if he wanted to show a dog would have to enter with, I suspect, a consequent general increase in entries. Also it would effectively squash any fancied or real collusion between an exhibitor and a judge, as under the present system the judges are known several weeks in advance, and without suggestiing for a moment that this does happen, it must be freely admitted that it could happen.

The present rule requiring that a dog, to finish his championship must win under three different judges could be scrapped, as the reason for its being would be eliminated.

This, then is a rough outline, and admittedly some polishing would be necessary, but again, I repeat I would like the reaction of others, particularly the little fellows like myself.

"RE-FEENED"

. . . In the October issue of "Dogs in Canada" is an article purported to be approved by the C.K.C. on terminology.

Why, oh why, must the C.K.C. be so "re-feened" in wanting a dog who has won points referred to as a "winners male"—it's a dog, so why not call it such. Also let's call a bitch "a bitch" and stop being so nice about the whole business.

If dog breeders are to be so particular, imagine the results if breeders of other animals should follow suit. How idiotic it would look to have a dairy farm show refer to its cattle placings as male and female instead of bull and cow?

Anyhow, thanks for bringing this nonsense to light. Keep up the good work.

MRS. VALERIE H. McMILLIN

Thanks to Reader McMillin for these outspoken words. Other comments welcome.—Ed.

. . . Your mention re terminology approved by the C.K.C. How naive does your Director think the dog world is? All I can say is, I think it's too bad when a man cannot call a bitch a bitch! Also the title for a champion in the British Isles is English Champion. In Ireland, Irish Champion. All this is so petty, and frankly I was amazed that you should give in Memo from the Editor such publicity to an exhibitor shaking hands with another. In England this is the rule, and not the exception. Maybe you've hit the nail on the head as to what is wrong with Canadian Dog Showing.

. . . Re "Terminology Approved by C.K.C. Policy" as mentioned in the October issue of "Dogs in Canada", if it is not correct to denote "Winners Bitch" how is it the majority of the shows, which are under the jurisdiction of The Canadian Kennel Club use it continually? Just what is wrong with the word Bitch?

. . . I obtained a subscription to "Dogs in Canada" in June and since then have looked forward eagerly to its arrival each month. I find it extremely interesting and informative. My one complaint is that you never have any articles about Shetland Sheep dogs. I realize that in your Collie issue you had a very short column on Shelties, but I do not feel that this is enough. . . . I do feel that if they were given a little more publicity they could become a leader in popularity, but so few people even know what a Shetland Sheepdog is. How about an issue on the Shelties?

. . . May I pass on congratulations with regards to "Dogs in Canada". I have found the recent issues very interesting and informative. CHALLENGING BOSTON BREEDERS

. . . A year ago last March we attended the Sportsman's Show in Toronto. While we had been trying to buy a Boston Terrier female for some time, we at last saw what we wanted, and bought one. We had her approximately three months, then bred her to Int. Champion Puffner's Ace of Perfection. First litter, born July 12, 1954, six puppies. Second litter, born January 6, 1955, seven puppies. Third litter, born June 25, 1955, six puppies. All have whelped, all registered with the Canadian Kennel Club, all sired by Puffer's Ace.

We would be very interested to hear from some other Boston Terrier Breeders that had 19 puppies in 348 days from one female.

. . . Comments are numerous and most flattering, with regard to the decided improvement in "Dogs in Canada". Given time, I know you will make this publication the equal—perhaps even better—than the American dog magazines. Good luck.

THE YOUNGER SET

Keeping pace with Rin-Tin-Tin and Strong-Heart, courageous canine heroes of the screen, Canada has her own daring star in Duke, a German Shepherd Dog owned by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beedell of Willow-Bank Kennels Reg'd., Battersea, Ont.

Duke, whose full name is Ch. Fredrick of Willow-Bank, C.D., has had an exciting, versatile life since he was a pup.

Apart from his screen career, he won his championship at 23 months in three shows as Senior Puppy, Best Canadian, Best of Breed, and Best Canadian Bred in the Working Group. To date he has won seven Best Canadian, four Best of Breed, as well as his trials for his C.D.

His first film, "The Little Canadian" is now being shown in theatres across Canada, and is living proof of what a dog can do with proper Obedience Training. Directed by Mel Turner of the St. Lawrence Pictures Corp., Duke has had the opportunity to show the traits of the true German Shepherd. Sequences bring out the nobility, character, and guarding instinct, as well as mental and physical agility. These qualities were used to advantage throughout the story.

The film was made in colour last year at Abbey Dawn, near Kingston. During the filming Mrs. Beedell worked along with Duke, and reports that he quickly adapted himself to all the conditions, many of which required exceptional patience during standing, sitting and staying, without fussing. In the boat scene he stayed two hours without any ado. Before long he became friends with all the cast and guarded them as zealously as his own family. During the world premiere he accepted the adoration of adults and children with the same ease. He attended children's matinees in Kingston, Trenton, Peterborough, Brockville, Belleville and Gananoque. With calm recognition of the hero worship, he enjoyed shaking hands, being patted and hugged. The latter adulation proved excellent for his coat!

Duke is now working for his C.D.X., which will assist him further in his next movie, entitled "The Phantom of the North". Acting with him will be Bob Agar and Gary Shortliffe.

Canada's Wonder Dog not only acts, but lives his role of hero. Last Halloween while Mrs. Beedell and Duke were working on the set of "The Little Canadian" they returned home to find hoodlums had removed the gates. Neighbours, Mr. and Mrs. Weir, stood guard to prevent the kennel's pups from breaking out. Later Mr. Weir left to check his own home for damage, accompanied by Duke. After a lengthy absence, Mrs. Beedell and Mrs. Weir became anxious. Finally a scratching at the door revealed Duke wet, muddy and bloody. Instead of entering the open door he headed for the front gate, begging with his eyes to be followed without delay. In a matter of minutes a truck stopped bearing Mr. Weir, who was suffering from a fractured leg. The truck, it was learned, was needlessly dragging a large farm gate over a narrow bridge and struck both Duke and Mr. Weir. Duke had turned somersaults in order to get clear of the gate, which had caused the gashes on his legs and tail. His owners were particularly proud of him because his first thought was to get help for Mr. Weir, without concern for his own painful wounds.

JUST OFF THE PRESS

Copydog in India . . . by Stringfellow Barr.

The MacMillan Company of Canada Limited. $3.00

Louise de Coudrai de la Falaise, a sensitive gray poodle less formally known as Suzette and affectionately dubbed by her owners Copydog, because she was so intensely interested in people, had an intense desire for education.

Because she had heard there is more to learn in India than anywhere else, she left her pleasant home in Virginia and before long found herself on board a plane bound for Bombay. Just as she most longed to say a few words to the pilot, she discovered she could actually converse in English. Copydog was as amazed as the pilot, but being a lady of fine French descent, recovered herself quickly by remarking "It is no more amazing for a poodle to talk than for a man to fly."

From that point on, nothing was impossible. In her journeying to meet a wise man, she learns much through hardship before she even reaches her destination—patience from the water buffalo, humbleness from the donkey, dignity from the elephant, and she herself imparts a little wisdom to the white camel who was off-key with the rest of the world.

Copydog, whose one bitter pill at home was the fact that she could not read, not only learned to speak Hindustani but to read it as well.

If you don't believe there is such a poodle as Copydog, she certainly does exist. She is at home in Virginia with the author, and just as the book went to press, she was nursing four little black Copypups named Switches, Bicky, Muffin and Red.

The book is delightfully illustrated by Kurt Wiese.

MEMO FROM THE EDITOR

Puppies are so exciting and endearing that sentiment can easily run away with sense when it comes to selecting one of these animated balls of fluff. In a timely article in this issue, Percy Roberts, noted dog authority and all-breed judge outlines the points to look for in the majority of breeds. These very observations make good selling points for breeders.

Dogs Go (Goes) to a party! The release of the new film "Wildfire" was celebrated in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer building in Toronto with a number of dogs invited to a private screening. They were permitted to bring their owners, as a special treat. Watch for a picture report in the December issue.

Features in the Future: December: a Gallery of Terrier Breeds with a representative of each member of the terrier group illustrated and briefly described, as in the October Sporting Dog and Sporting Hound issue. The Kerry Blue will be the cover dog. January: The Irish Setter. February: The Dachshund. Also Champions of 1955, containing A Gallery of 1955 Best in Show Winners, A Gallery of 1955 Champions, A Gallery of 1955 Field Trial Champions, and a Gallery of 1955 Obedience Title Winners. March: The Cocker Spaniel.

Some of the members of The Canadian Kennel Club have stated they feel more or less in the dark as to the extent of the sale of Dogs in Canada to your publishers.

Borrowing the title of the play these members would find "The Dark is Light Enough" by reading details of the transaction and of the forming of Apex Publishers and Publicity Limited in the minutes of the CKC which appeared in the insert in the April, 1955 issue. Proportionately 51% of the shares were purchased outright and solely by your publishers and 49% are owned by the CKC.

Advertising and editorial matters with the exception of Coming Events, Show and Trial Results and official business of the CKC are the responsibility of your publishers. Neither editorial nor advertising content is "censored" by the Board of Directors of the CKC, individually or otherwise.

While many of the Club secretaries send items of interest about their Club activities with commendable regularity, we hear nary a word from others. Dogs would like to hear more about happenings in the West and in the Maritimes. What's going on . . . any special training activities . . . any member in the limelight . . . anyone purchasing an exceptional dog . . . new plans for shows and trials . . . any rare breeds in your Club . . . any records set by animals or owners? Please tell all — in 300 words preferably, but more if the news warrants it.

WORKING BORDER COLLIES FEATURED AT OBEDIENCE TRIALS

by Lorna Casgrain

Appearing in Canada for the first time, Carl Bradford and his Border Collies scored a smash hit at the Mountain City Obedience Club's outdoor trials on May 28th and 29th in Senneville, just outside Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradford, who hail from Wooster, Ohio, arrived complete with trailer containing four dogs, five sheep and five ducks. Judging was suspended each day while Mr. Bradford treated the crowds to an exhibition of herding skill with his dogs.

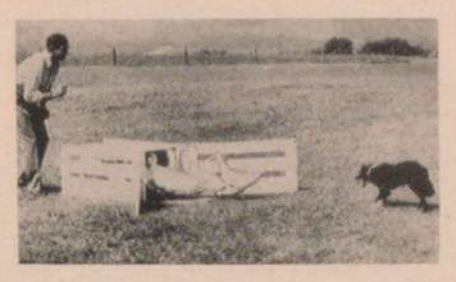
First the sheep were turned loose on the spacious lawn. Two of the dogs, eight year old Towser and young Mirk, took over; guided by Mr. Bradford's short, sharp whistles and arm signals, they kept the animals bunched, and turned them in whatever direction was desired. Some of our Obedience dogs could learn a lesson in Drop on Recall from these Collies! They drop in their tracks, like stones, in answer to Mr. Bradford's whistle. In his explanation to the spectators, Mr. Bradford pointed out that each dog knows and obeys his own special set of whistles. There is a subtle difference in pitch and tone: this was demonstrated when Towser was left on a "down-stay" while Mirk worked the sheep to some distance away; Towser ignored all commands until, at a certain signal, he joined Mirk at top speed to help.

It was fascinating to watch the dogs creep step by step when caution was necessary; or, when speed was needed, to see them stretch out and appear to float over the ground — truly a beautiful sight. Once or twice the sheep managed to scatter, but it wasn't long before they were rounded up by the two dogs who displayed amazing intelligence and teamwork. On Saturday one animal broke away and was later located in the ladies' rest room — much to the disgust of the Collie who cornered it there!

With patience and skill, the dogs then drove the sheep through gates and into pens, and finally back into the trailer. Then Nan and old Meg who is nearly twelve, worked the ducks, managing to persuade them to enter a pen, and even mount a ramp.

Mr. Bradford showed us how his dogs not only obey commands, but use their own initiative as well. They seem to anticipate their charges' every move, and do not hesitate to act quickly when necessary. Without commands they keep the sheep between their master and themselves; if one breaks away, no word is needed to send the nearest dog after it full tilt. The dogs are absolutely devoted to their job. The crowd, the strange dogs, the unfamiliar surroundings — nothing distracted them one iota in this exhibition.

The command "Bear away" sends the dog out from his handler, much as in our "Directed Go" in Utility, and the direction is indicated by arm signal. At the word "Walk", the trained Collie instantly crouches and performs the amazing creep described above. When told to lie down, he does not relax; he lies tensed, ready to spring into action, eyes riveted on his charges.



Mr. Bradford, who does research work on sheep, has a kennel of about 25 dogs, which he trains. Some are imported from England and Scotland, others are home-bred. A fully trained Border Collie sells for $500 to $1,000. Mr. Bradford says there is a big demand for puppies to train for Obedience work. He has exhibited his dogs for over 20 years, performing before audiences in many large cities, and lately in Madison Square Garden. His dogs can work in almost any size area — even a stage — but they are at their best in a large outdoor space. In their native Highlands they can handle hundreds of sheep. Mr. Bradford explained that new sheep are used for every exhibition. He and his son Carl Jr., who also handles the dogs, have travelled extensively in the Old Country, attending Trials, buying Border Collies and studying training methods.

Border Collies are born with a strong herding instinct. Each puppy is trained individually at first, at six months to a year; later the dogs vie with each other for a chance to work. There are occasional squabbles due to jealousy, but all this is forgotten once they are in action, when they work as a team and their one idea is to get the job done, and done well. In every sense a working dog, intelligence, speed, agility, initiative and herding ability are what count in Border Collies as far as sheep herders are concerned, and these are the characteristics for which they breed. The fine points of physical makeup mean little, although a strong, sound dog with plenty of stamina is essential. Medium sized, the coat is profuse, and the predominant colouring black and white.

Altogether it was a most wonderful show, and a rare opportunity for many people to view something that few get to see in a lifetime. Mr. and Mrs. Bradford we found completely charming, and good company at our Club's dinner party on Saturday evening. The Mountain City Obedience Club is proud to have acted as hosts to this amazing unit on its first visit to Canada. Our thanks to Canada Packers, makers of "Chum" dog food, who sponsored their trip; and to Cmdr. and Mrs. Angus for permission to use their beautiful grounds for this exhibition and our two Trials.

An excellent example of a German Shepherd Dog is Am. Ch. Ingo vom Burgunderhort, recently purchased by P. G. McDonald of Waterdown, Ont.

THE GERMAN SHEPHERD

Originally bred for utility alone, the German Shepherd Dog has become a joy to behold. He is alert mentally and physically, and expects his master to be the same.

As in the case of so many breeds, Germany claims fame as the originator of the German Shepherd. The French also put in a bid as the home on the grounds that the breed had its origin in Alsace, the proud little province belonging to France before the war of 1870-71, taken over by Germany for a number of decades, and now once more under French colours. The English still call the breed the Alsatian, while the French and Belgians refer to it as "Chien de Berger d'Alsace." The name "police dog" has stuck like the proverbial burr, principally because of the noteworthy work the Shepherds have done with the arm of the law in many countries.

The breed known as the German Shepherd has been recognized as such little more than fifty years. Until the turn of the century any dog which aided shepherds in rounding up their undisciplined charges was considered a shepherd dog. It is quite possible the wolf was introduced into the dog sphere to add strength and speed, but on the other hand, the introduction could have been unintentional.

Late in the 19th century, when knowledge of dogs of other countries was increased through new means of travel and communication, interest in other types of breeds grew into experimentation, particularly with an eye to improving sheep herding methods.

The efforts were mostly unsystematic until 1899, when the Verein fur Deutsche Schaferhunde SV was formed. The man at the head of this group was both maligned and revered for his almost fanatic approach to developing the Shepherd. Capt. Max von Stephanitz, who outdid even the most thorough and exacting of his fellow Germans, almost completely controlled the Verein within a few years of its inception. His domination in matters of selection and in breeding wrought out of the heterogenous mass of herding dogs one of the most beautiful and valuable animals known today.

Utility and intelligence were demanded by Stephanitz, merits he insisted made for beauty. Any other efforts toward appearance for its sake alone were minimized. However, the quality of beauty did appear and certainly, on this side of the Atlantic, was encouraged.

Working such control over the breed confined it to Germany for many years. But this very control meant that when this continent did finally receive the animal, it was a model of efficiency. Working from this high standard, and without dictation, the breed developed even further, but not without complications.

Few breeds have ridden on the crest of popularity, descended sharply into disfavour, then soared into the limelight within a comparatively short period.

During the first World War, virtually anything pertaining to Germany became repugnant, and the dogs were no exception. Even the name was changed to Shepherd Dog. With the signing of the Armistice the picture was changed. Soldiers returning from Europe brought stories of the amazing wisdom, intelligence and handsomeness of the dogs.

Two movies played a further part in stimulating interest—Rin-Tin-Tin and Strong Heart developed sentiment toward the dog, and the full name was again in use. By the time the Second World War broke out, thinking was different to the extent that dogs of German origin did not suffer from international feeling.

In the interim, however, two completely different barriers prevented any lasting popularity in the 1920's. One was the extreme cost of the top dogs. The other was a demand that defeated itself. All kinds of second-rate dogs were loaded on the eager American market until the good dogs were few and far between. Added to that, the depression made big dogs a genuine burden for many owners from the standpoint of feeding.

But a good thing can't stay in the background too long, and the breed through sheer superiority in its outstanding qualities has once more gained the place it deserves.

One of the interesting points about the German Shepherd is that while many breeds are purchased with showing primarily in mind, the innate qualities of this breed are usually uppermost in the buyer's mind—intelligence, loyalty, character, and capability in performing the services for which he has been trained, and finally conformation.

By the same token, where many other breeds can be raised in groups, the mentality of the Shepherd is such that he must have human companionship and interest. Briefly, the dog is no slouch and anticipates his owner will be bright and lively. Most of the qualities of the breed must be drawn upon. Human indifference or neglect will react in the dog, and can frequently be traced as the cause of such temperaments as shyness, sharpness or unseeming nervousness. Naturally some dogs will respond to interest and training more rapidly than others, but generally almost any young German Shepherd will react well to instruction on routine duties and provide wonderful companionship as well.

On the subject of conformation, however alert and capable the mind, a sound body is essential to complement the mentality. Watch a correctly proportioned Shepherd in action and you will see a fine example of the elimination of unnecessary motion.

His gait is a pleasurable thing to see, which brings up a point. From our own and other observations, the German Shepherd and other large dogs should not be shown in a ring adequate for smaller breeds. If necessary, a strip could be temporarily cleared for this particular class so that a space of at least 100 feet long could be given over to properly showing the long smooth stride. It is almost impossible for a judge to evaluate one of the greatest assets of the breed in an ordinary ring.

Because the Standard is so detailed, it is impossible to reproduce it in the available space. It may be found, however, in The Complete Dog Book.

GERMAN SHEPHERD TEMPERAMENT

by Nellie A. Corser

Temperament – we use the word so lightly. I wonder how many of us know how to truly apply the word to our German Shepherds. Many years ago, temperament meant only one thing, a dog that was not shy. But after spending over twenty-five years studying my own Shepherds and others left in my care, I am beginning to realize 'just how much do I know about Shepherds?' One never does know all about them.

Temperament to me now means friendliness to a reserved degree, aggressive but never mean. We now come to the much talked of word "shyness". From observations I have made over the years I feel that shyness can be detected from the eyes. You will rarely find a sound German Shepherd with wild restless eyes. It is the embodiment of shyness when a Shepherd's eyes are wild and restless, and the dog itself scrambling under furniture to get out of the way of humans.

I would like to quote three instances that I know to be perfectly true. A gorgeous male Shepherd, who was sound as a bell for years, underwent a terrifying experience in a catastrophic thunder and wind storm, with large trees crashing, one across the house, lightning blazing and thunder crashing, for a whole night long. Ever after that no amount of soothing and petting could comfort this beautiful creature when a storm was on. He had the good sense to be terrified of something terrible. It was indelibly stamped on his mind forever. If he had not been frightened of something which terrified humans, he would, to my mind, have been lacking in intelligence.

The second instance was a dog of my own, Tarzan. I hope you will excuse personalities, but his case points up just what can happen to a young dog. Those of you who knew Tarzan know he was sound as a bell, with temperament plus. Many people say if a dog is frightened of firecrackers, and similar noises, he is shy. I feel this is entirely unfounded. I live in an area where there is a fireworks factory and where much Governmental work is done on explosives. On Tarzan's first 24th of May there was a terrific bombardment of high explosive sky rockets across the road from my home by persons living there who worked in this plant. Many of the rockets fell around my kennel. My dogs, especially Tarzan, were pitifully frightened. Even my family were jumpy at the explosions, and they knew what it was all about. It took a year of comforting, staying with Tarzan during war testing and soothing under any similar circumstances. We finally won in replacing his shattered confidence and from then on no amount of explosives or guns have bothered him. He learned, after about a year, that when we told him 'all right' that it was, and he was once again the sound dog he had been.

RHODESIAN RIDGEBACK

For the first time, the Rhodesian Ridgeback, famous for fearlessness in baiting lions and for the unique crown on his back, is being bred in Canada.

Causing quite a stir in canine circles is the Rhodesian Ridgeback, native of Africa, and now being bred in Canada for the first time.

Anne and Dennis King, who live in the vicinity of Toronto, Ont., are virtually making history with their work with this breed.

Our first introduction to this rare species was Rookzie Zanzie who was born of South African parents, imported to England, then exported to Canada as a 5-month-old youngster to Kopje Kennels, Reg'd. Zanzie, along with other members of the family compels attention with the unusual marking along the spine, caused by hair growing in reverse.

A native of Southern Africa, the Ridgeback is the only pure-bred canine to have its origin on the sub-continent.

The Chinese Phu Quoc, an ancient breed also bearing the strange ridge, is thought to be a forebear. When Europeans first arrived in South Africa they discovered these animals accompanying the Hottentots. Which opened another avenue of questions—where did the Hottentot get his dog? One theory is the natives' ancestors came from the Far East. Another is that that a restless Phu Quoc made an attempt at freedom from a merchantman travelling along the South African Coast, say during the 15th Century.

However, the Hottentots found the dogs useful and they gained the white man's interest in 1875 when a missionary journeyed from the Cape into Rhodesia. The two Hottentot dogs which had been presented to him en route caught the attention of the big game hunter Van Rooyen, who sensed their excellent hunting ability. He began breeding a pack of the species as hunters and found his theory correct.

The animal proved absolutely fearless in baiting lions until the hunters arrived on the spot, thereby gaining the admiring appellation of Lion Dog. Since that time the dogs have been bred on an extensive scale in Rhodesia.

They first gained official recognition in South Africa in 1926, and ten years later in England. They were recognized in Canada after the War, when some pilots brought several back from South Africa. Although they are not on the official books in the United States, the status is in process.

The ridge, of course, is the flag of the breed, which, starting immediately behind the shoulders and continuing up to a point between the prominence of the hips, should contain two identical crowns opposite each other. Briefly, other points of the standard include a long, deep muzzle, and powerful jaws; eyes, round, bright and sparkling, ears set rather high.

The chest is fairly wide, very deep and capacious; the forelegs straight, strong and heavy, the feet compact. Coat should be short and dense, sleek and glossy; colour ranges from light wheaten to red wheaten. Dogs should be 25 to 27 inches in height, females 24 to 25 inches.

A peculiarity of the breed is that it is prone to cysts, the origin of which has not been established, but would appear to be hereditary. One cause is attributed to an inverted hair folicle which attaches itself to the spinal cord with fatal results to the dog.

"When a litter is born," explains Mrs. King, "this is the first thing that should be looked for, and without exception any cysts found should be put down, because there is no known operation or cure. When buying pups people should be careful to ask for the history of cysts in the sire and dam and they should also minutely examine their prospective pup to see that the skin down the ridge does not adhere at any point—in other words, make sure that it is absolutely loose.

CHOOSING THE CHRISTMAS PUPPY

by Percy Roberts

Whether a puppy is being selected as a pet or a show prospect, temperament and personality should be the first requisites. Four-fifths of dogs purchased as puppies are kept as pets and every precaution should be taken that the new member of the family will prove a pleasure and not a headache.

The shy and diffident puppy should not be considered, even though one's sympathy may be touched by the one in the litter that doesn't appear to be having as good a time as the others. Standing back from the pen and observing the pups at play is usually a good way to determine the happy ones. After about ten minutes spent watching the pups it is advisable to walk up slowly and notice those which come close to be petted or spoken to. A friendly disposition at an early age signifies that all will be well as the puppy grows older. A happy-go-lucky pup is also a sure sign of a healthy pup. Nothing is more disheartening to own than a sickly puppy. If he does not thrive in his home surroundings, it can be taken for granted that he will not thrive in a strange environment.

No shy dog will ever make a good show dog no matter how nearly perfect he is on show points. An even temperament bespeaks the confidence which is as desirable in the show ring as elsewhere and every care should be taken during the training period that the spirit of the dog is not spoiled. Most well-bred animals have an air about them that appeals to onlookers and judge alike.

To explain briefly what to look for when purchasing a show prospect:

The short-faced breeds, such as Bulldogs (English and French), Pugs, Pekingese and Japanese Spaniels, should have large heads with short, square faces. All but the Japanese Spaniel should show plenty of wrinkles about the head. There should be good width between the eyes, and the eyes should be dark in color. Bulldogs and Pekingese should be very low to the ground, with wide chests but all should have short, thick bodies with good bone. It is well to handle the puppy underneath the body. Some Pekingese have concave chests which are undesirable.

Considering Boxers and Boston Terriers, while the type and size of the two breeds differ, the make and shape appear much the same. They should have short, sturdy bodies with straight legs. The skin about the head and throat should be clean and dry (tight), the eyes dark and not showing excessive haw (second eyelid in bottom inside corner). Clean, even white markings on head, neck and chest is a requirement in a Boston. Solid colors such as brindle and red are permissible in Boxers though many prefer the ones that are marked similar to Boston Terriers, as it gives them a bit more flash in general appearance.

The English Toy Spaniel is another short-faced breed but here the skull should be domed, rising directly above the eyes which should be large, lustrous and dark. The legs should be straight and body short. The Brussels Griffon should be on similar lines, not so lofty in skull, with a harsh wire coat, and in color the deep red is preferable. In all Toy dogs diminutiveness combined with robustness is desired. Toy Manchester Terriers should have a long, lean head, a short body, dark eyes and a tail tapering to a fine point. Markings are important but not always discernible at an early age. Italian Greyhounds should be of similar description with the exception of a more distinct arch over the loin with tail slightly longer.

The chief point to look for in a Pomeranian is smallness, short back, fine bone, small ears carried straight up, full thick coat. The Papillon has the same basic requirements as the Pomeranian except that the coat does not stand off as much, and the ears should stand from the side of the head. The Maltese and Yorkshire Terriers are somewhat similar in bodily pattern though the Yorkshire is much smaller and different in color. The Maltese has a profuse white coat while the Yorkshire, until about 12 months old, is usually black and tan, afterwards breaking to a steel blue. In both breeds the coat should be of fine silky texture.

The Terrier breeds can be classified in three groups. These are the longer-legged breeds such as Airedales, Fox-terriers (Smooth and Wire Haired), Irish Terriers, Kerry Blue, Lakeland and Welsh Terriers. The points to look for in selecting any of these breeds are: a level head with long, strong foreface, lean skull, small dark eyes, neat V-shaped ears that drop towards the eyes, clean neck, short thick body, straight forelegs and strong hindquarters. The same description covers the Kerry Blue with the exception of coat which should be of any one of several shades of blue. It should be dense though much softer to the touch than the former breeds. Nearly all Kerry puppies are born black and in most instances only start changing color at about the 12th month. The breeds such as Bull Terriers and Staffordshire Terriers are quite a different pattern. What one should look for in a Bull Terrier is a long, powerful head with a well-filled foreface so that when looking at the head sideways it should look like an egg. The body should be deep and thick set and the tail short. Small obliquely-set eyes are most desirable. The puppy should be all-white in color, black ticks on body are most objectionable although small markings about the head are not. In the colored variety the physical requirements are the same but the color brindle and white, red and white or tricolor.

Staffordshires are not the same type. Although somewhat similar in pattern the head is decidedly different. It should be a powerful head with a distinct stop at the eyes. Any accepted Bull breeds' color is correct.

The Border is squarely built with a head shaped like that of an Otter, the tail natural, short and thick, and a rough, wiry coat. Bedlingtons are quite different, being very racy in build with the long head showing white top knot, the tail thin and rat like.

Dandie Dinmont Terriers should be proportionally long and low in body, shaped somewhat similar to a weasel. The head is large for the size of dog with full expressive eyes, preferably dark. This breed comes in two colors termed pepper and mustard, the former is blue with tan legs and the latter red-wheaten, the top knot of lighter shade.

The Manchester Terrier is a larger edition of the Toy Manchester, weighing about 16 pounds at maturity. Skye Terriers should be long and low. The head should be of good length with strong foreface and dark eyes. Look for heavy bone and a long, profuse coat. The Sealyham is low to the ground with heavy bone, powerful head and a body of moderate length. The Scottish Terrier should be all-of-a-heap sort of dog having a long, powerful head on the shortest possible back. The bone should be heavy and the tail short and thick. Cairn and White West Highland Terriers are similar in pattern although the Cairn is lighter in build and not so short of back . The Norwich Terrier is the smallest of the Terriers, weighing approximately 12 pounds when full grown. It is built on the order of the West Highland with a docked tail and carries a red, harsh coat.

Giant, Standard and Miniature Schnauzers should all be the same type, which is best described as absolutely square in build. The Giant Schnauzer is usually black in color but in the Standard and Miniature a grey or pepper and salt is preferred. The placement of the eyes in this breed is important. They should not be set too close together and must be dark in color. Collies and Shetland Sheepdogs follow the same pattern, differing in size only. The head should be long, eyes dark, ears semi-prick. Clean, hard bone and heavy coat of good texture should be looked for. Old English Sheep-dogs are one of the heavier breeds being somewhat square in build with a strong, powerful head. The texture and color of coat is quite important. The preferable color is a nice slate blue with white on head, neck and legs. Length of coat is desirable but texture is more important.

German Shepherds should have a long head, dark eyes and erect ears. Great bone, a body deep and rather long in proportion to height is important. The tail should be thick and fairly long in keeping with the length of body.

Samoyeds should be square of build, short and compact with good bone. A wedge-shaped head, small ears and dark eyes are to be looked for. Keeshonden are on similar lines and the same points should be looked for with the exception of color, which is usually grey with black shading.

In Great Danes at about three months, look for a great size, long telescopic head, deep, square muzzle, small deep set eye, short strong body with deep chest. Forelegs should be straight and bone heavy. The same applies to the Mastiff with the exception of the head which should be short and massive, with a big, well-shaped skull and deep square muzzle.

The Great Pyrenees should have a large, wedge-shaped head, deep chest, heavy bone and close feet with double dew claws on hind legs. The coat should be thick and dense, all white color preferred.

Newfoundlands need to be of great size with a moderately long head and good depth of face. They should be big but short of body on rather short legs, with enormous bone and a thick, dense coat. In color, black or white and black agreeably distributed.

St. Bernards are another breed where immense size is to advantage. The head should be of medium length with deep, square muzzle, the body short and deep with appearance of growing tall. The color is of rich orange with white blaze, dark shadings and white collar. The roughs show more coat as puppies than do the smooths. The eyes show haw.

The Dalmatian should be of medium size combined with symmetry, with firm limbs and distinctness of spots in either liver or black, free from patches. In the black spotted variety dark eyes are preferred.

In Poodles there are the same requirements in all varieties, size being the only difference. Toy Poodles never exceed 10 inches and Miniatures must be under 15 inches when full grown. Standard Poodles, when full grown, are between 22 and 24 inches in height. The chief points are good length of head, a narow skull, dark eyes, short back, clean neck and shoulders with straight forelegs with light, elegant movement. Solid colors are preferred.

The Welsh Corgi Cardigan should have plenty of width between the ears, a tapering but strong muzzle and, preferably, dark eyes. Other requirements are a slightly bowed but sound front, fair length of body with deep, well-sprung ribs, a fairly long tail not carried too gaily, and erect ears.

The Pembroke Corgi is similar but usually not quite as heavy in build, with docked tail. The Schipperke should have a foxy head, dark eyes, small erect ears, short back and fine bone covered with a dense coat.

The Lhasa Apso should have a strong body, longer than its height. The head should be straight in the foreface with a narow skull which falls away slightly behind the eyes. The eyes should be dark and of medium size. The coat is heavy and straight and rather harsh to the touch. It may be either solid or parti-colored but golden is preferred.

In the English Cocker, English Springer and Welsh Springer Spaniels one can look for similar physical attributes in puppies such as well-balanced head with distinct stop, a square muzzle, dark eyes, short compact body, well-balanced in proportion to length of leg, and a flat coat.

Sussex Spaniels should be more massive in head with defined stop, lengthy body with short, powerful legs, flat coat of very deep golden leaning toward a light liver, and with a down carried tail.

The Clumber is very massive in head with somewhat of a frown. The body should be moderately long, with great bone with rather short legs, the tail carried down. The color should be white with very light lemon markings. The Irish Water Spaniel in make and shape has no similarity to other Spaniels, being higher on the leg and more square in build with a big, sturdy body and a short whip tail. The head is long, ears low set and eyes dark. The coat should be close and thick showing a tendency to curl.

Setters call for slight variations in type and size but follow a similar pattern as puppies. The English Setter should be white with lemon or blue markings or white, blue and tan or white with tan and blue ticks. The Irish should be a deep mahogany red and the Gordon, black with tan points. It should be remembered that the Irish is the more racy of the three varieties, with the English the happy medium, and the Gordon the larger and heaviest of the three. All should have long heads, square muzzles, dark eyes, straight front legs with bodies in proportion to size, and a straight tail.

The Pointer should possess good length of head with a well-pronounced stop, inclined to appear dish-faced with a fairly wide skull. The eyes should be expressive, the neck clean and strong, forelegs straight, well-turned hind quarters and short, thick tail that tapers fine toward the end. The colors are white with lemon, liver or black markings.

In the Retriever family the Golden should be of symmetrical and powerful build but not clumsy, in color not red or mahogany but a rich golden. A few white hairs on the chest are permissible. The Flat Coated Retriever should follow the same pattern but is not as heavy in build and is black in color. The Curly Retriever should have a short, curly coat of black or liver. The Chesapeake Bay

HUNGARIAN SHEEPDOGS

Two authorities on the Hungarian Sheepdogs have contributed this article. Mrs. R. D. McLellan of Montreal, who brought the first Puli to Canada, deals with the Puli, Pumi and Komondor. The section on the Kuvasz was written by Mrs. Nicholas DeLorenzo, owner of one of the outstanding Kuvasz Kennels in the United States.

Anyone who has not seen the great Hungarian Plains would find it difficult to realize the expanse of these great steppes, which, even today, belong to horses, cattle and sheep each with their shepherds, each with their special dogs.

When the Magyares took possession of Hungary in 895-896 they brought their sheepdogs with them. In the loneliness of the almost endless Hungarian steppes, the shepherds were very dependent on the reliability and courage of their dogs against the threatening dangers from wild animals and gangs of robbers. Thus, for over a thousand years Hungarian sheepdogs have been developed, trained and associated with the shepherds, and their sheep, cattle and horses, which are basic and pre-eminent to the Hungarian economy.

The Puli is the most popular Hungarian sheepdog. This shaggy-haired canine is a pure Asiatic dog and the same kind and breed, which is still found today in Tibet and in England is bred as "Lhassa Terrier". The Puli is the extended arm of the shepherd. He is at his best as a herder of sheep and those who have seen the Puli actively engaged in this work are amazed by his adroit footwork and balance. Perhaps the most unusual thing about these dogs is one of the methods they use in herding. Often they run across the backs of the sheep and stop runaways by digging their claws into the wool and hanging on until the sheep is tired from carrying his rider and is then herded gently back to the flock.

In Hungary and other European countries this breed was originally bred in all colours and spottings. But little by little stricter control of colour was practised. As the Hungarians were also breeding a large sized Puli, standing 20 to 25 inches white was rejected in the Puli to avoid confusion with the white Komondor, a larger dog (25 inches and more) much similar to the Puli in appearance. Since 1934 brown is also inadmissible and today only reddish-black and all graduations of grey are the recognized colours for the Puli. Most Puli when born are black and remind one of a black poodle. Up to a year and a half the colour remains black, then it becomes dull and the coat becomes mixed with grey. This is partly caused by the sprouting of long irregularly distributed whitegrey to white beard hairs. Through inheritance from earlier time, white spots may appear on the chest or paws in many Puli litters. Such dogs should not be accepted for breeding purposes.

The same colour restrictions apply for the Pumi, the second Hungarian sheepdog, similar but slightly bigger than the Puli. Both are vigorous dogs of intelligent and amiable expression. In the beginning the long, shaggy hair makes them perhaps appear rough, but on closer acquaintance they become very pleasant. The Puli has a quiet temperament and his faithfulness is proverbial. Both the Puli and Pumi, due to their vigilance, are excellent guarddogs, and they can be trained for everything. Both are unassuming by nature and they bear fatigue well. The Pumi is more lively, active and playful. Due to his inclination to bite, he is preferred as a cattle or swine herder. He is very vigilant and his frequent barking makes him more noisy than the Puli.

The head of the Puli is fairly short– (can be slightly longer on the Pumi) and the skull in proportion to the muzzle is not too broad. The stop is slight, nose not too pointed. The head is covered with long hair, and the muzzle with a long, thick beard. The ears, covered with long hair, look larger than they are. They are high set and V-shaped. The Puli has hanging – the Pumi tipped ears. The eyes are of dark brown colour and covered by bushy eyebrows. The Puli's eyebrows are thick and cover the eyes completely, but the dog sees through this curtain and nothing escapes him. The nose is blunt and always completely black. The nose of the Pumi can be slightly pointed. The neck is short, more muscular on the Puli, more elegant on the Pumi. The back is straight, slightly sloping towards the tail. Broad, but not barrel-shaped chest. Body well tucked up. The tail is bushy, hanging or curled over the back. Usually one shortens the tail of the Pumi—perhaps 2/3—normally not the Puli's. Inborn stumptails are found in both breeds. The forelegs are columnar, not high, well boned, muscular and covered with shaggy hair. The hindquarters are also muscular and covered with long hair. The feet are closed tight. Claws black.

The striking breed characteristic of the Puli (and the white Komondor) is their unusual but typical coat of matted hair. This is the result of hundreds of years of natural development and is adapted to outdoor living and extreme climates. The heavy coat covers the whole body, must be soft like wool and not shiny. It protects the dog from the burning sun and icy cold (probably like the Arab's burnoose). The very dense and soft hair, if of good quality, naturally tangles in thick tufts into long, stringy mats, which is not the result of defective care or uncleanness but the sign of good hair quality. The matting becomes distinctly visible when the dog is about one and a half years old and takes about three years to spread over all the body. From then the matts lengthen and in course of time reach the ground. The coat should never be fine combed as this would deprive the dog of his normal coat. The coarser mats should be split and a wire (massage) brush will then take complete care of the coat. The upstanding, thick coat makes the dogs look much bigger than they really are. In older times this thickly matted coat served a further essential purpose, which is also useful today. It protected the dog against serious bite-wounds in his fights with wild animals. The choking mass of hair prevented the teeth from reaching vital areas. The hair of the Pumi is somewhat tighter and shorter. Consequently it is less shaggy. The height of the male Puli is 16-18 inches, female 14-16 inches. The Pumi is usually somewhat larger and more elegant.

Faults: Short, open hair; long, narrow head; hare foot; spotting.

The Komondor, the third Hungarian sheepdog, is characterized by imposing strength, courageous demeanour and pleasing confirmation. In general he is a big, muscular dog with plenty of bone and substance. As a houseguard as well as a guardian of herds he is, when grown up, an earnest, courageous and very faithful dog. The young dog, however, is just as playful as any other puppy. He is devoted to his master and will defend him against attack by any stranger. On account of this trait he is not used for driving the herds, but only for guarding them. His special task is to protect the herds which live in the open plains during the greater part of the year. He shows great courage and intrepidity against strange dogs and wild animals.

The head of the Komondor is covered with long, shaggy hair and looks somewhat short in comparison to the muzzle. The Stop is slight, the Muzzle somewhat shorter than the length of the skull, and fairly square and covered with long hair. The top line of the muzzle is straight and about parallel with the line of the top of the skull. The lips cover the teeth closely and are black. The teeth are level and close together evenly. As the head, through the rich growth of hair, appears very high the medium sized ears seem rather low set. They hang along the side but are slightly offset from the skull. They are covered with long hair. The nostrils are wide. The colour of the nose is black. Komondors with flesh-coloured noses must absolutely be excluded from breeding. Grey or dark-brown noses are undesirable but may however be accepted for breeding purposes. The eyes express fidelity. They are medium-sized and almond shaped. Not too deeply set and surrounded by shaggy hair. The colour of the eyes is coffee-brown or darker. Light colour is not desirable. Blue-white eyes are disqualifying. The eyelids are black. As the neck of the Komondor is covered with long hair, he appears short, but is strong and of medium length. Head erect. No dewlap. The body is characterized chiefly by the powerful deep chest, which is muscular and proportionately wide. The shoulders slope into the neck without apparent protusion. The straight back is moderately long. Back and loins are wide. The rump is wide, muscular, moderately sloping towards the root of the tail. The body should be somewhat drawn up at the rear but not grey-hound like. The tail is a straight continuation of the rump-line and reaches down to the hocks, slightly curved upwards at its end. It is covered in its full length with long hair, which, when the dog is at ease, almost touches the ground. When the dog is excited the tail is raised up to the level of the back. The tail should not be docked. Komondors born with short tails should be excluded for breeding purposes. The forelegs

The Kuvasz is adaptable to almost any climate, and circumstances, and can even be trained as a Seeing-eye Dog.

The Komondor, which resembles the Pulik, is exceptionally strong and courageous, and a wonderful house guard.

DOGS and PEOPLE

As mentioned briefly in the October issue, Ch. Caversham Ko-Ko of Shanruss, (shown here) owned by Nigel Aubrey-Jones and R. William Taylor of Montreal, went Best in Show at the important Westchester Show. This exciting win by a Canadian entry in one of the largest one-day shows in the States (2,294 dogs) is nothing short of spectacular. The show is also considered as the summer specialty of the Pekingese Club of America. The noted Pekingese breeder and exhibitor, Mrs. Nathan S. Wise, who judged the show, had one of the largest entries in Pekingese for some time.

Mr. Aubrey-Jones' Ch. St. Aubrey Kai Lo of Raymede was Reserve Winners to Ko-Ko, and Mr. Taylor's Ch. Elsdon Matilda of Calartha was Reserve Winners Bitch.

An English import Ko-Ko made his American debut at Rockingham Valley, Mass., where he gained the Toy Group under Mr. John B. Royce. His Canadian debut was at Hull, Que., where he also won the Toy Group.

St. Aubrey Kai Lo of Raymede gained his title and won first place in the Toy Group at Ottawa.

Marko Radbach Von Lindenwald, German Short-Haired Pointer bred by Mrs. Margaret Thomas of Von Lindenwald Regd., Richmond Hill, Ont., and now owned by Stanley Chiras of Niagara Falls, N.Y., recently entered his first Field Trial at the tender age of six months, and went first in the Puppy Stake. Matched up with older entries (Puppy Stake includes competitors up to 15 months, with 6 months the youngest permitted to enter) the puppy hunted exceptionally well, found his birds, and had them shot over him. The Field Trial was staged the first weekend in October near Niagara Falls, by the Western New York Shorthair Club.

Gaylady of Elstow, bred, handled and owned by H. E. Hull, "Of Elstow" Reg'd., Collie Kennels, Beeton, Ont., daughter of Am. Ch. Gaylords Mr. Scalawag, now 15 months of age, went Winners at both C.N.E. Shows under Judges Williams and Mitten. She is now a champion, subject to CKC confirmation. Other points were gained at Leamington under Judge Hackett and at Kingston under Judge Pickhardt. She is the only daughter of Scalawag in Canada and will not be shown in Canada until the Collie Specialty in 1956 states Mr. Hull.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Sears, 6820 So. Oglesby, Chicago, Illinois announce the retirement of Int. Ch. Ludar of Blue Bar, who on September 24 at Oakville, Ont., won his 27th Best in Show.

Ludar, in three years, has compiled an enviable record in show competition of 118 Best of Breeds in 131 times shown, 64 Sporting Group wins and 27 Best in Shows. During his show career he was out of the ribbons only 7 times in group competition to take his well deserved place among the top winning setters of the past and present.

The kennels of the K-W Humane Society are much more comfortable than the Kitchener, Ont. police cells are for prisoners, stated Magistrate Kirkpatrick, in discussing plans for a new shelter.

Animals in the present shelter are better off, he claims, because they have more privacy, are fed through a catering service and have exercising privileges.

While he is in favor of the new quarters, he hoped that prisoners would be given similar consideration. Bowls of food are placed in the kennels, which for larger dogs are four feet wide, eight feet long and six feet high, while prisoners sit on cramped bunks to eat meals policemen have procured from nearby restaurants.

Trading accommodation doesn't seem to be the solution either.

P. N. E. SHOWS

Best Dog in Show at the September 2 Pacific National Exhibition Shows was a Keeshonden, Eng. & Am. Ch. Wrocky of Wistoria, owned by Flakkee Kennels, Beverly Hills, Calif. Shown top, with Mr. D. H. Callister, Vice-President of the P.N.E., and Judge Mr. Reginald H. Livsey of Milwaukee, Ore.

Bottom: Best Dog in Show at the September 3 P.N.E. Show was an Afghan, Crown Crest of Taejmahal, owned by Mrs. T. W. Stewart of Horseshoe Bay, B.C. The trophy was presented by Mrs. D. H. Callister, while Dr. Frank Porter, Los Angeles, Calif., holds rosette.

Died: William (Bill) McCord, one of the original members of the Barrie Kennel Club, after a lengthy illness. One of the leading breeders of Irish Terriers in Canada over the past 35 years, he was well known as a judge of Terrier shows in Canada and the United States until 1948 when ill health forced him to curtail his activities.

Although her husband is unemployed, Mrs. Dora Pavich of Hamilton, Ont., refused an offer of $5,000 for her dogs from a New York television agent. She has trained her toy pomeranians, Dolly and Babee, to perform in costume with such success the agent found the act irresistible. Mrs. Pavich, however, says she won't part with her dogs even if she gets down to her last cent.

Hard-pad, a disease involuntarily brought over from England, is causing a good deal of concern this month. This disease tends to strike puppies rather than older dogs. The illness, its cause, prevention and treatment, will be dealt with in a forthcoming issue. The most important method of prevention is to keep the puppy off the ground when in contact with groups of other dogs.

Supporting the contention of Mrs. Mary D. Hart of Pickering, Ont. that Canadian German Shepherds are superior to their American competitors, Canadian entries swept the board clean at the show held October 16 by the German Shepherd Dog Club of Rochester. The eight Canadian exhibitors are all members of the German Shepherd Club of Canada. Grant Mann judged the entry of 67 Shepherds.

First in the Working Group and Best of Breed went to Ch. Beckgold's Ingo von Burgunderhort, an American import recently purchased by P. G. McDonald of Waterdown, Ont. Winners Bitch, Best of Winners and Best of Opposite Sex went to Dusk of Cara Mia, bred and owned by Mrs. Mary E. Southcott of Cooksville, Ont., Winners Dog, won by Erol von Lutherwald, A German import owned by Henry Freihs of Copetown, Ont. Second in Bred by Exhibitor Bitches, Glen Stewart Cheri owned by Doug. Ames, Highland Creek, Ont. Fourth in Novice Bitches (an entry of 9) Glen Stewart Babette, owned by Verna Shepherd, Highland Creek, Ont. In the Obedience Trials, two prizes, a trophy for the Highest Scoring Dog in each class, and another for the Highest Scoring German Shepherd (20 entries in Novice A) went to Cleo of Elmsdale, owned by Reg and Helen Scott of Cooksville, Ont.

The Edmonton Sporting Dog Club

by M. B. Draper

Our annual Fall Trials were held in the vicinity of Edmonton Beach on September 24 and 25 and we were fortunate in having wonderful weather for these tests. There was a large entry of competitors and both the handlers and dogs gave excellent performances.

Cutbank Bobolink, Yellow Labrador owned by Mrs. James Paton and handled by Mr. Paton, won the Open All-Age Stake at the 10th annual Edmonton Sporting Dog Club Retreiver Trials.

One of the highlights of the weekend were the two social gatherings immediately following the trials on each day when handlers and spectators enjoyed a corn and weiner roast and a social get-together. This was the first time this type of activity has been scheduled and it turned out very well. Another highlight of the Trials was the presentation of a special trophy by the Edmonton Kennel Club for the best retreiver conforming to Canadian Kennel Club standards. These trials wound up the Fall Trials of 1955 for the year but the Club is scheduling some social activities for later in the season.

Scottish Terrier Club of Canada

by Mrs. Harry Fraser

All activities have started again for the Club. We hope we shall have another good year. Our first meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fraser. We were all sorry to hear that Lt. Col. H. Stothers has been ill in hospital and wish him a speedy recovery.

At our meeting Mr. Fraser presided and the minutes of our previous meeting were read by the secretary. The treasurer gave a report showing a substantial bank balance. A special vote of thanks was asked to be sent to Mr. Treleaven for the wonderful buffet supper supplied to the club members and friends after the show held on Mr.

The Dachshund Club of Canada

by John Mahon

The Club held its October meeting in London, Ontario, at the home of Mrs. E. McKenzie.

The Club was proud to learn that a Smooth Dachshund was awarded Best Canadian Bred Dog in Show at the London Canine Association's All-Breed Dog Show on October 1: Steinheim's Candida owned by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bodemer.

The Progressive Kennel Club, Inc.

by Gertrude W. Drew

Due to rainy weather the October meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Stevens was not as well attended as usual. It may be noted that when attendance is low, interest is usually at low ebb, too. This is quite understandable. Let's have a bumper turnout for the November meeting.

Final arrangements were made for the forthcoming Sanction Show at which Mr. J. W. MacCallum, a C.K.C. director, will judge Best in Show.

The big item on the agenda was a discussion on Judges for the June 1956 point show. There will be further talks on this at subsequent meetings.

We are very happy to report that Mrs. Sheehan, who was painfully hurt in an auto accident coming home from the London Show is progressing favourably and it is hoped will soon be her old self again.

It is the intention of the Club to put on a series of interesting programs for the benefit of the Club members. These programs will in all probability begin next year. The subjects will be announced at a later date.

The necessity of a new and permanent meeting place is being considered. It is hoped the November meeting will initiate the new locale.

The German Shepherd Dog Breeders' Association Incorporated

by Mary Hart

At the October meeting of the German Shepherd Dog Breeders' Association, Inc., held at the Danforth Hotel Tuesday, October 4, the Club welcomed seven new members. Our secretary-treasurer, Jean Bowen, read a letter of resignation for herself and her husband Ken, as they are leaving to resume life in England. Jean and Ken have been with us for only two years, but they had become a very vital part of our organization and endeared themselves to all the members, especially our Show Committee, of which they were both members this past year. Jean was our hard-working and faithful Show Secretary and just how much her willingness to work and her happy disposition will be missed is very difficult to express.

The position of Secretary-Treasurer was filled by one of our new members, Miss Beverley Macklem, who has been a frequent visitor at dog shows with her parents, Doris and Ted Macklem, so that she will be a valuable addition to our Club and our Show Committee.

Speaking of Shows, our fourth All-Breed Show will be held as usual on the third Saturday of June, 1956. We are already working on a panel of judges which we hope will bring an even larger number of exhibitors than last year from Canada and the United States. We laughed last year when our President, Spencer Weller, made us a goal of 400 dogs, but when we topped that number we were overjoyed, even though it brought us additional headaches with benching. May I take this opportunity to thank Earl Rudd of the Guelph Kennel Club, who loaned us the additional benching we needed. A helping hand from another Club is certainly appreciated at a time like that.

A most enjoyable corn roast was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Gerigs in Pickering on Saturday, October 1.

We are hoping for a larger attendance at our training classes in the coming months. These classes are held for pure-bred German Shepherds only, and anyone wanting information about the classes may contact our training master, Reg Scott, at Pickering 287W12.

The Club held a very pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. Ella Drage, 861 Lansdowne Ave. Plans were made for the Sanction Show to be held November 7 at the West End Veteran's Hall, College and Crawford Sts.

The annual trophy (Paddy Boughs Memorial Trophy) for the Boston Terrier (Canadian Bred) winning most Best of Breed at 3 pt. or better shows in 1953 was won by Ch. Floods Little Jewell II, owned by George Flood. This award was changed in 1954 to the Boston Terrior owned by a member of

Forest City Kennel Club
by George A. Astles

The October meeting of the Forest City Kennel Club was held Wednesday, October 5, in the Duchess of Kent Clubrooms. This was the Annual Meeting of the Club with the Election of Officers for the next club year being the main order of business.

Mr. George A. Astles was elected as President for his second term, with Mr. Ed. Summerfield being elected First Vice-President and Mr. John Mahon, Second Vice-President. Mrs. Alex. Atkinson is the new Secretary and Mrs. Mary Boug will take over the duties of Treasurer. Mrs. Ruth Mahon will fill the office of Recording-Secretary with Mr. Archie Steels, Mr. Roy Boug, Mr. Sam Taylor and Mrs. Bea Chappell as Directors.

The Club is looking forward to another successful year of operation and is making plans for interesting events for its coming monthly meetings.

Irish Setter Club of Canada
by Doris Dafoe

First meeting of the Fall was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lake, Weston, Ontario.

It was decided to hold a "Day in the Field" on October 23, at Mr. Crang's farm, Malvern, Ontario. It is then expected those seriously interested in field work will commence training classes with the hope of eventually being able to enter regular pointing breed trials.

A tentative date of December 10 was set aside for our annual Christmas Get-Together and dinner and it is hoped all members will plan to be present and also bring along their friends.

Our guest speaker of the evening was Mr. Broley. Mr. Broley has been in the "Dog Game" for 40 years and gave us a very interesting talk on line breeding and the procedure to follow in starting your breeding programme. He advocated line-breeding and gave us many instances of where this has proved itself in his years of breeding Cockers.

The Club has again decided to hold its Annual Specialty in connection with The Canadian National Sportsmen's Show in March, 1956.

Dog Lovers' Association
by Geoffrey White

With the majority of the 1955 shows now behind us the members of our association can feel that the little extra trouble we took to get together and train our dogs was well worthwhile. For this year our members have been bringing home the bacon in considerable quantity and no doubt the help we have given one another has been greatly responsible.

In August we got together for our usual annual picnic. We chose the end of a long, rainless period for the date, a period when everybody had been longing for rain. Our picnic evening saw the end of the dry spell. However, we were granted time enough to eat a good lunch and spend an hour talking about you know what.

Our September meeting brought a visit from Dr. Beardall of the Ontario Agricultural College. A closely listened-to talk on distemper, the way it is spread, its dangers and methods of prevention was followed by some very interesting films on canine surgery. We are most grateful to Mrs. Beasley for the use of her beautiful home for the meeting.

Oakville & District Kennel Club News

by Joyce Yarde

The most successful show in the history of the Oakville & District Kennel Club closed its doors late Saturday night with the presentation of the Town of Oakville's Best in Show trophy by Mayor Lachlan MacArthur to the dog judged best in Show. Ch. Ludar of Blue Bar, an English Setter owned by Mr. and Mrs. William Sears of Chicago, Ill. Since this dog was not Canadian Bred, the trophy for Best Canadian Bred, donated by the Calvert Distillers Ltd., and presented at the Show by Mr. Tom Chisholm, Chairman of the Oakville Trafalgar Hospital Board to Mrs. M. Eileen McEachren with her Kerry Blue Terrier —Int. Ch. Tailteann's Miss Gaiety. Mr. Chisholm made mention of the fact that the Oakville Club had pledged $1,000 to the Hospital expansion programme, to be met from the proceeds of the Club's shows. The Best Canadian Bred Puppy in Show award, donated by Dr. Ballard's Dog Foods was judged to be Mrs. Betty Hyslop's Cairngorm Clansman—a Cairn Terrier.

This was the biggest championship show to be held in Canada this year under the sponsorship of an all-breed Club with 469 dogs benched and a total entry of 492 entries. The United States entries amounted to 76 dogs with some coming as far away as Colorado and Miami, Florida.

The Obedience Trial had 43 entries with the highest score of the day being held by the Miniature Poodle Hollycourt Begette owned by Julian Willson of Williamsville, N.Y., and the second highest score of the day being obtained by the Samoyed Torie's Snow Peter owned by Mr. Norman J. Leach of Toronto.

Five Best of Breed awards were won by members of the Oakville Kennel Club, in the Collies—Mr. and Mrs. R. Smuck's Ch. Storm's Flash and the Norwegian Elkhound their Braeburn's Guy. In the Shetland Sheepdogs Mr. J. J. Staples Ch. Minonamee Majestic, in the German Shepherds Mrs. Mary Southcott's Ch. Dust of Cara Mia, and in the Sealyham Terriers Mrs. Sally Furlong's Carvaun Chalice. Mr. John Broeders showed his Doberman Pinscher in the Obedience

Alberta Kennel Club

by H. Gordon Spohn

Two very successful Dog Shows were held by the Alberta Kennel Club on Sept. 5 and 6 at the Victoria Pavilion, Calgary. The judge for the first show, the Diamond Jubilee of the Club, was Mrs. Alva McColl, who judged the Bench Show on Sept. 5 and the Obedience Trials on Sept. 6, and Mr. William Nixon, of St. James, Man., who judged all breeds on Sept. 6. Show Superintendents for the shows, were Dennis D. Litchfield and James McLellan. Mr. McLellan is first vice-president of the Club and Mr. Litchfield is a member of the Executive Committee and both acted in a voluntary, unpaid capacity and did an unusually fine job.

Alberta's Golden Jubilee was honored in Calgary by Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent (who acted in his official capacity and unofficially sneaked in a visit to the dog shows), Lieut. Gov. J. J. Bowden, Premier E. C. Manning, Calgary's Mayor, Donald MacKay. Mrs. McColl, who was presented, on behalf of the Alberta Kennel Club, with one of Calgary's famous White Ten Gallon hats by the Mayor, gave the Best in Show to a Labrador, English Ch. Vanoylands Jilly, owned by Munro J. Coleman, of Edmonton, and handled by J. Kilgannon of that city.

The Sept. 6 show saw some interesting reversals in awards. Best In Show went to the winner of Group 3, the Shetland Sheepdog Ch. Tayside Bonnie Prince, owned and handled by Bert Forest of Calgary. It is the first time a Sheltie has taken top honors in the West and was a popular win.

In Group 1, which started the reversals, the American Cocker, Am. Ch. Las Trampas Cotati Chieftain, owned by Gladys M. Short of California and handled by Rex Kane, took the top honors. He was in good coat, well put down and in top notch shape. Group 2 carried on with the upsets, the smart moving Dachshund, Del Rey Trinketina, owned by Miss Agnes Hammond of Calgary, placed first. Group 3 saw the Shetland Sheepdog win again while Group 4 found the White Bull terrier, Ch. Coolyn Susie Sunshine, make a repeat win for Best Terrier. In Group 5 the Miniature Pinscher, King's Count Von Lorenz topped the entry again, but in Group 6 the Miniature Poodle, Hollycourt Achilles, owned by Mr. & Mrs. W. E. Shuholm of El Cerrito, Cal. moved into top spot.

Both shows drew fairly good entries numerically, but the quality of the dogs entered was far better than average. Spectator attendance was below par, but even dog shows suffer when vieing with the Prime Minister, a Jubilee celebration, the Lord Mayor of London, England, and our Lieutenant-Governor.

The Obedience Trials were the first ever staged in Calgary, but the universal approval given by exhibitors and spectators alike was ample evidence that it must not be the last. It was a most interesting trial and the wonder was that without previous experience so much was done by the owners and handlers. Edmonton provided most of the entries and it is a great credit to the Edmonton Club that they have done so much in a comparatively short time.

The Shetland Sheepdog, Roxann of Holly, owned by E. G. Staniforth, took top honors with an almost perfect display of training and intelligence. The other entries pressed closely and many won extremely high scores. We were much interested in the showing made by several Boston Terriers, a breed which we did not quite visualize as being Obedience Trial dogs, but which measured up in grand style. With the good job done at the Edmonton show in this direction last spring and the very fine job done here at Calgary we can safely look forward to the keenest of competition in Obedience Trials in the future, for it is an event that will do much to enhance the progress of pure bred dogs in Canada.

The Hamilton Obedience Club

by Mrs. Ray H. Davis

The Hamilton Obedience Club is almost three years old! It was organized in December, 1952, with a membership of seven, and now has a membership of 54.

Early in January, 1953, the Club commenced operations by holding its first dog obedience training class. The enthusiasm of this first group spread so that enrollment in subsequent classes progressively increased. Now we are proud to be able to say that a total of approximately three hundred dogs has undergone training in our classes. The C.D. degree has been awarded to twenty of our dogs—9 Shepherds, 4 Cockers, 1 Collie, 1 Welsh Terrier, 1 Poodle, 2 Irish Setters, 1 Labrador, and 1 Chihuahua. (The latter mentioned dog, Jessie Carr's Chihuahua, has also been awarded an Am. C.D.) Many others have earned either one, or two, qualifying scores in C.D. work. Very special congratulations go to Don Kerns whose German Shepherd, Bryce, is the first of those trained in our classes to receive the C.D.X. degree.

The Hamilton Obedience Club has held six licensed Obedience Trials. Trial #1 was held in January, 1954; Trial #2 in June, 1954; Trials # 3 and #4 on June 26, 1955; and Trials #5 and #6 on September 4, 1955. Our 1955 Trials were held in historic LaSalle Park on the shore of Hamilton Bay. Visiting entrants enthused over the picturesque setting . . . Hamilton's skyline backed by the beautiful Niagara escarpment.

On a number of occasions last season, our enterprising Secretary, Mrs. Phyllis Smith, appeared on Hamilton's CHCH-TV in the interests of dog obedience training, when dogs trained at the Hamilton Obedience Club were used to demonstrate various exercises. Mrs. Smith will appear on CHCH-TV again this season in an endeavour to further educate the public concerning the various breeds, as well as obedience training. Phyllis tells us she has obedience dogs scheduled to appear on November 15, 1955.

The most enthusiastic of those original 7 members who founded The Hamilton Obedience Club was Mrs. Dorothy Petch. Some of you from outside the Club may remember Dorothy—red-headed, blue-eyed, vivacious! Dorothy worked tirelessly in the interests of the Club—first by procuring a hall in which to hold the classes, and then in building enrollment in the classes. She trained her own two collies and was, at the same time, equally interested in the progress of all other handlers, praising and encouraging them in her own friendly way. Following her death in August, 1954, the Club arranged for a Memorial Trophy in memory of Dorothy Petch to be given at every subsequent licensed obedience trial held by the Club to the member of The Hamilton Obedience Club having the highest score in the trial. Winners of the Memorial Trophies in the June Trials, Mrs. H. Cole and Mr. Howard Ward, repeated their wins in the September Trials.

Edmonton Kennel Club

by Mrs. G. B. Kilgannon

Several months have slipped by since our last report, but the Club has by no means been idle during the summer months.

Our Spring Shows and Obedience Trial held in May proved to be a success from all angles with the judges passing their opinions on one of the largest entries to be shown here for some time.

The Fall Shows and Obedience Trial held August 29 and 30 were also successful although the entry was smaller. An interesting sidelight of this Show was the exhibiting of six German Shepherds from a litter sired by Rodnick of San Miguel ex Ch. Ilsa of San Miguel, bred by Glenn Hepner of this city. One of these pups 'Prince of Elgee' owned by yours truly and husband won Best of Breed, 1st in Working Group and Best C.B. Puppy in Show on August 29 and Best of Winners on August 30, being beaten by his mother for Best of Breed.

Two other pups from this same litter have won distinction for themselves and their owner Mrs. Natalie Maydanski of Thor Kennels, one of our newer and most enthusiastic members. Her young female 'Thor's Terra of Elgee' completed her bench championship and obtained her C.D. this fall at the age of 10½ months. Is this a record? 'Terra's' litter brother 'Thor's Trojan of Elgee' walked away with a perfect score of 200 points at Calgary's first Licensed Obedience Trial under Judge Alva McColl on September 6.

Congratulations go out to Munro Coleman for picking up three Best in Show wins this year with his imported (English) black Labradors. His male, Ch. Broomeroyde Sweep won out over stiff competition here on May 5 and his female Eng. & Can. Ch. Sandylands Jilly impressed the judges here on August 29 and in Calgary, September 5.

Probably the biggest news in the Club this year has been the purchase of a building to be used as a Club house. The availability of our own Club house is enabling the Obedience Committee to hold classes three evenings a week.

Club members were honored and pleased to be able to entertain the C.K.C. President, Mrs. Alva McColl, at a banquet when she visited us this Fall.

A new sport has caught the fancy of some of our members, namely coyote hunting with hounds. The crack of dawn finds these rugged souls out in the fields with their hounds looking for and sometimes catching the elusive coyotes.

Dog fanciers here were saddened by the news of the death of Mr. John S. Grant last month. Mr. and Mrs. Grant are well known for their Seafield English Cocker Spaniels and for their many years of hard work on behalf of the dog fancy. Our deepest sympathy goes out to Mrs. Grant and Bobby.

The German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada

by Mary E. Southcott

September 17 dawned sunny and warm for the German Shepherd Classic of Canada—our 33rd Annual Specialty Championship Show—enabling the judging to take place in a beautiful location in Exhibition Park, Toronto. The setting looked most attractive with an immense expanse of short green grass roped off in red and white, each of the four bright yellow placing markers decorated with a huge bouquet of lovely flowers, small evergreens spotted around outside of the ring, and the beautiful trophies arranged on tables covered in red velvet glittered and shone like a Tiffany show window. The entry for the Specialty ran over the hundred mark, with Shepherds entered from not only all over Ontario and Quebec, but also from New York, Connecticut, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, California and British Columbia. It is a fact that no place else in Canada, and rarely even in the States, will you see so many fine specimens of the Breed all in one place at the same time as are entered in the German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada Annual Specialty Shows.

We were most fortunate in having the renowned judge and breeder, Captain William Goldbecker of New Haven, Connecticut, come to Toronto to do the honours for us this year. We understand that he turned down the opportunity to go to Germany and judge the Young Sieger Show over there in favour of our invitation, and so we are more than grateful to him for this. It certainly was no easy task, but he gave each and every exhibit a fair chance and every opportunity. For a change, the dogs were shown naturally, on loose leads, very little posing and lots of gaiting. The handlers were almost ready to collapse from much continuous fast-walking and trotting, but no-one minded, for it really showed up both the virtues as well as the faults in each Shepherd. The surprise of the day was the "dark horse", brought all the way from Vancouver, B.C., especially for exhibiting in our Specialty. Vali vom Sieghaus, a German import owned by Mrs. Josephine Taschener of Vancouver, was completely unknown to all at the Show. Just standing outside of the ring he was not a dog to catch the eye, but from the minute he entered the judging area and started to gait he was a stand-out. To quote Wm. Goldbecker, "had a glass of water been placed on his back, not a drop would have been spilled". Jock Paterson, one of our Club members from Vancouver, thought so highly of the dog, that he flew all the way across the continent just to handle him in the ring, and when Vali went from 1st Open Dog to Winners Dog, then Best of Winners and finally Best of Breed, I doubt that there was a happier man alive that day. Best of Opposite Sex, who also went up from the Classes, was a very lovely female from Illinois, Am. Ch. Alfa vom Wormser Weg, most capably handled by her owner Mrs. George Collins of Farmer City. She too is a German import, who, since coming to this continent, has done much winning in the United States.

Best Canadian Bred in Show was a home-bred, Ch. Edlyn's Christel, an attractive and showy young female owned by the well-known trainer, Ed O'Brien of Canfield, Ont., while the Best Canadian Bred Puppy, also home-bred, was a promising seven months old female Beau Ridge Anita, owned by Edgar and Doris Wilson of Bronte, Ont. Reserve Winners Dog was Kondor vom Rickrather Schloss, another German import owned by Jerry Kulaja of Grosse Pointe Shores, and nicely handled by Stewart Bryant, also from Michigan. Reserve Winners female, and 1st in a large Canadian Bred Class, was Christine of Cara Mia, an almost jet black female with a beautiful gait, effortless and untiring. She is owned by Doug Ames of Highland Creek, Ont.

The Speciality ended just in nice time to allow a goodly number of people to get ready for the dinner and cocktail party held at the Dutch Sisters Inn on Lakeshore Road in Humber Bay. Captain Goldbecker graciously answered any questions put to him.

The following weekend saw an Obedience Trial Specialty sponsored by the German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada, held in the spacious Fort York Armouries in Toronto. We had the pleasure of seeing Fred Schwalk of Detroit judge the Open Classes and the Utility Class in a highly competent manner, while George Taylor of Cooksville did the Novice Classes very capably. A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

In this issue there appears the Club's financial statements for the nine-months period ending September 30th, and as these statements appear in a different form from those previously published, an explanation is hereby provided.

To enable the members to readily make comparisons with previous years, without the necessity of referring to previous issues of the official organ, the revenue and expenditure statements include information taken from the statements for the years 1953 and 1954 covering the same period.

For purposes of affording a truer comparison, adjustments have been made in the nine-months statements for 1953 and 1954, although these adjustments in no way affect the final statements for those years. These adjustments have been made on the basis of information which was on hand when the final statements for those years were prepared but which was not available at the time the original nine-months statements were prepared by the auditors.

Monthly throughout the year the Club pays the Live Stock Records office (which processes our registrations) an amount which is set at the beginning of the year. At the end of the year there is a refund to the Club if we have overpaid on our account, or there is an additional levy if we have underpaid. There has been such an increase in the volume of our business at the Live Stock Records office this year that a reserve of $3,000 has been set aside for budget control purposes as will be seen in the accompanying Balance Sheet. It is estimated that the cost of our 1954 Stud Book will be about $3600.00, and we have therefore reserved three-quarters of that amount in our current statement. Members comparing the current statement with those published for the same periods in 1953 and 1954 will not find similar reserves.

While these precautions have been taken the financial statements for the first nine-months of this year continue to show that the Club is rapidly regaining its former strong financial position.

We are prepared at all times to assist the members, and those who may desire further explanations should not hesitate to make their wishes known to us.

Mrs. Alva McColl,
President.

3134 (2989). AMENDMENTS COMMITTEE.

The Secretary reported that the votes received from the members of the four Amendments Committees were being tabulated, and he believed it was the intention of Mr. Irving, Chairman of the Committees, to present a final report when he was informed of the results of the voting.

Mr. Monaghan expressed the view that the Chairman, having already devoted much time to this work, should not now be required to submit a further report, and suggested that instead the Secretary proceed to deal further with the proposed amendments and in so doing regard the voting by committee members as being the report of each Committee. This suggestion was approved and the Secretary authorized to proceed accordingly.

Mr. Monaghan suggested that in connection with each and every proposed amendment appearing on the next referendum ballot the voting of the Committee members be reported. This suggestion was approved and the Secretary authorized to proceed accordingly.

3135 (3115). NEGOTIATIONS COMMITTEE (RE "DOGS IN CANADA").

The Secretary read a letter (dated September 8th) from Mr. Peter Wright, Q.C., one of the Club's two representatives on the Board of Directors of Apex Publishers & Publicity Ltd. (publishers of "Dogs in Canada") with regard to certain matters concerning the publication of the magazine and matters of mutual interest to the Club and the Company.

Following discussion, it was regularly moved by Mrs. McEachren, seconded by Mrs. Smith:

"THAT, we vote confidence in the publishers of "Dogs in Canada" and congratulate them in their efforts and wish them every success."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

MOTION CARRIED.

It was then regularly moved by Mrs. McEachren, seconded by Mr. Malcolm:

"THAT, (a) we acknowledge Mr. Wright's letter of September 8th with thanks; (b) send him a copy of the previous vote of confidence and wish him and his colleagues on the Board of Apex every success; (c) inform him that the Board is so impressed by his letter that a copy has been sent to every member of the Board."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

MOTION CARRIED.

Mr. Monaghan reported that there had been some discussions, during negotiations, on certain equipment which would be turned over or loaned to the publishers of "Dogs in Canada", and suggested that pending further consideration of this question the Secretary arrange to have inventories made of: (a) Equipment, etc. turned over on a permanent basis to Apex; (b) Equipment, etc. loaned to Apex; (c) engravings and pictures turned over to Apex, this inventory to be in two parts: Those the property of the magazine; and those the property of other persons to whom such items would be returned on request. It was left in the hands of the Secretary to have such inventories made at the earliest convenient date.

The Secretary reported that in an earlier letter dealing with the agreements between the Club and Apex, Mr. Wright had indicated that if the Board so wished he was prepared to include the solicitors' services in connection with negotiation and completion of contracts with their regular retainer, however, he felt it would be appropriate to the special and extensive work involved to charge separately for their services in connection with this specific matter, and if the solicitors were to render a bill it would be in the sum of $350.00.

The Secretary stated that when arrangements were made for the Club's solicitors to work on a retainer basis, it was not intended that such retainer would cover special work of the nature involved in the negotiations and subsequent contracts regarding the official organ.

It was regularly moved by Mrs. McEachren, seconded by Mr. Malcolm:

"THAT, in consideration of the very large amount of work which Mr. Wright has done for the Negotiations Committee, that he be paid the sum of $350.00 which, according to his opinion, would be a fair remuneration for this extra work."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith

MOTION CARRIED.

3136 (3097). STUD BOOK (ADVERTISING) COMMITTEE.

Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Chairman of the Committee, stated that the original Committee, which had solicited advertising for the volume recently published, would be re-activated, and would proceed with the solicitation of advertising for the next volume.

It was suggested that the Chairman of the Committee arrange for a letter to be addressed to each show and trial club regarding advertising in the next volume, such letter to be read at meetings of these clubs.

3137 (3085). PENSION PLAN COMMITTEE.

Mr. Monaghan, Chairman of the Committee, reported that in view of changes in personnel of the Club's office staff, it would be advisable to obtain new quotations, that he had requested several companies to submit proposals for a plan to come into effect on April 1, 1956, (if approved by the Board), and that he would prepare a report to be placed in the hands of the Secretary in order that this matter may be placed before the Board at its next annual meeting.

3138 (3099). COMMITTEE RE DOG FOODS.

The Secretary read a letter from Mr. Monaghan, Chairman of the Committee, who reported developments to date and pointed out that in order to proceed further he required details of any losses of dogs through food poisoning. The Secretary read points raised by Dr. Watson who wondered whether an appeal for information through the magazine would be feasible or advisable, and who expressed the thought that if the co-operation of one of the leading dog food companies was obtained the desired results may be obtained.

The matter was held over for a further report from the Chairman of the Committee.

3139 (2978). ANNUAL CONVENTION COMMITTEE.

Mrs. Smith, Chairman of the Committee, reported that this question had been discussed with a number of members and it was apparent that before any further concrete action is taken it would be advisable to determine the extent of interest in such a project. Mrs. Smith suggested that a questionnaire be included in the magazine or the next referendum ballot asking members to indicate whether they are interested or not.

The President stated that in other organizations it is customary to use the questionnaire method to determine whether members are intersted in a particular project which has been suggested.

3140 (3095). HANDBOOKS COMMITTEE.

Mr. MacCallum, Chairman of the Committee, reported that work was progressing on the preparation of a handbook to guide show-giving officials, and reported that it was the intention of the Committee to consult experienced show officials with a view to preparing information on those subjects where it is felt that information is most essential.

3141 (3094). REVISION OF BY-LAWS (DISCIPLINE) COMMITTEE.

Mrs. McEachren, Chairman of the Committee, stated that an effort would be made to have the Committee's further report available for the consideration of the Board at its next meeting.

3142 (3107). LONG RANGE PLAN COMMITTEE.

Mr. Monagahn, Chairman of the Committee, expressed the view that early amendment of certain sections of the Club's By-laws should be undertaken so as to streamline procedures, to enable the Board to deal with other business matters, and to serve as the basis in the development of a long-range plan.

Following discussion, it was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. MacCallum:

"THAT, the Board has determined a pressing necessity exists which requires early amendment of the By-laws in regard to Discipline, Amendments and Improvement of Stock."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

ABSTAINED FROM VOTING: Mr. Malcolm (absent from meeting while this subject was discussed).

MOTION CARRRIED.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. MacCallum:

"THAT, subject to the approval of the entire Board, the Board sponsor the proposed amendments outlined in the Long Range Plan Committee reports, as revised by the Club's solicitors, and the revised proposed amendment to Article XXXVIII and seek the views of the annual general meeting on the advisability of asking the ordinary members in good standing on March 31, 1956, to vote on these proposals and any other proposed amendments approved by the annual general meeting in a special referendum in April 1956."

In discussing this motion, it was agreed that:

(1) The Secretary would provide Mr. Monaghan with a copy of the letters received from members of the Board with regard to Mr. Monaghan's earlier communications re the long range plan;
(2) Mr. Monaghan would redraft, where he considered advisable, his earlier proposals regarding proposed amendments to the By-laws;
(3) The Secretary would provide all members of the Board with a copy of any revised or new material submitted by Mr. Monaghan and request the views of the members of the Board with regard to said material;
(4) All members of the Board would be polled on this motion regarding members of the Board sponsoring the proposed amendments outlined by Mr. Monaghan.

Mr. Monaghan suggested that in order to expedite the transaction of business at the annual meeting of the Board, and also to give each member a fair share of responsibility to carry, that "select" committees be appointed and sit during a two-hour daily recess of the annual meeting. Mr. Monaghan outlined a series of proposed committees and the nature of their work.

The Secretary was instructed to forward a copy of Mr. Monaghan's proposals to all members of the Board for study and comment.

3143 (3009). RECOGNITION OF LONG-TIME MEMBERS COMMITTEE.

The Secretary reported that a report received from Mr. R. B. Laskey, Chairman of the Committee, together with a copy of the sketch of an "Old Guard Member" button proposed by the Committee, had been forwarded to all members of the Board.

The Secretary reported that Dr. Watson very much liked the design of the button proposed by the Committee and in particular the Committee's careful abstention from using any particular breed but instead substituting a paw mark.

The question was raised as to whether the inclusion of a paw mark would be an infringement on the trade-mark rights of any company, and it was agreed that Mr. Malcolm and Mr. Monaghan would make enquiries in that connection.

The President suggested that in order to eliminate the necessity for much research, that when a final decision is reached regarding the proposed button a notice be published in the official organ regarding the button and requesting that all those believing they would have a right to wear such a button should write to the Club and state the years during which they were members of the Club.

3144 (3007). FOUNDATION FUND COMMITTEE.

Mr. Malcolm, Chairman of the Committee, reported that he had discussed this subject with members, and would make a further report at a later meeting of the Board.

3145 (3047). REVISION OF CHAMPIONSHIP POINT RATINGS COMMITTEE.

The Secretary read a message from Dr. Watson, Chairman of the Committee, who reported that the report of the Committee is not yet complete but a report would be submitted within a short time.

The Vice-President, Mrs. McEachren, took the Chair on the President's request.

3148 (3117-3065). LETTER FROM WALTER BROWN.

The Secretary read a letter received from Mr. Walter Brown, Chairman of a special committee appointed at the last annual general meeting, advising that in view of the contents of a letter received from Mr. Reg. P. Sparkes, the committee is no longer necessary and he had dissolved the committee.

The Secretary read a letter from Dr. Watson reiterating his opposition to the Board's decision not to allow the committee to use the Club's offices, and recommending that Mr. Brown be tendered "our hearty thanks for his work in this extremely difficult circumstance".

It was regularly moved by Mr. Malcolm, seconded by Mrs. Mack:

"THAT, Mr. Brown's letter be received and he be paid his out-of-pocket expenses in connection with the Committee, amounting to $3.88."

FOR THE MOTION: Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

ABSTAINED FROM VOTING: Mrs. McColl.

MOTION CARRIED.

The Secretary was instructed to thank Mr. Brown and his Committee for their efforts.

The President returned to the Chair.

MEETING OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SEPTEMBER 14, 1955

3124. A regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club was held in the Club's offices, 667 Yonge Street, Toronto, on Wednesday, September 14, 1955, commencing at 10:10 A.M. with the President, Mrs. Alva McColl, in the Chair, and the following members of the Board present: Mrs. M. Eileen McEachren, J. W. MacCallum, Mrs. Pamela Mack, J. N. Malcolm, W. J. Monaghan and Mrs. N. T. Smith.

3125 (3089). MINUTES.

The Secretary placed before the Board the minutes which he had prepared of the meeting of the Board of Directors held on May 11th, 1955, and read a letter from Mr. Monaghan with regard to certain suggested corrections in the minutes.

Following discussion the following corrections were ordered:
(Corrections incorporated in published minutes).

It was regularly moved by Mrs. Smith, seconded by Mrs. McEachren:
"THAT, the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors held on May 11, 1955, as corrected, be adopted."
FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. MacCallum, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

MOTION CARRIED.

3126 (3076). PRESIDENT'S REPORT

The President placed before the Board the following report on her recent trip to Europe, a copy of the report having been forwarded to all members of the Board on August 30th:

"In view of the large amount of correspondence now before the Board, I will confine my report on my recent trip to Europe, authorized by the Board, to the salient features of the trip. If any members of the Board wish me to enlarge on any subject, I shall be most happy to do so.

"I endeavoured to attend as many shows and visit kennels as was possible in the short time available after having visited the Kennel Clubs in the various countries through which I passed. I brought back to the Canadian Kennel Club rules and regulations of the various activities sponsored by the Clubs in Europe and these are now on file in the head office.

"In order that I could have a clearer understanding of conditions existing not only in Canada but also in the United States regarding the several matters which I proposed to discuss with authorities in Europe, I visited the offices of the American Kennel Club before proceeding overseas.

"STUD BOOK OF THE INTERNATIONAL SHEEP DOG SOCIETY—Before leaving Canada, I had corresponded with T. H. Halsall, the Secretary-Treasurer of the International Sheep Dog Society and keeper of their stud book, who is located at Southport, England, about an hour's ride from Blackpool.

Information received from Mr. Crawford the Secretary of the Scottish Club Mr. Buckley the Secretary of the Kennel Club (Eng.) and other persons familiar with the working sheepdog indicated that registrations of sheepdogs in the records of the society is based more on working ability than on recorded ancestry. I may add that before leaving England, I sought to arrange another meeting with Mr. Halsall, but my letter to him in this connection was not answered. Mr. Neff of the American Kennel Club told me of an organization known as the American Sheepdog Society with headquarters at Wooster, Ohio. We have since learned of another organization known as the North American Sheepdog Society, whose headquarters are located at Pinckneyville, Illinois. This latter Society also apparently bases its registrations more on working ability than on recorded ancestry. In view of the situation which appears to exist in other countries regarding the registration of working sheepdogs, it would be my recommendation that before we consider the matter further, we ascertain the views of the Department of Agriculture. I suggest that for the reason that heretofore our recognition of other stud books has been based on their breeding records of recorded ancestry. In Switzerland, while herding dogs are classified according to their working ability, great importance is placed on the recorded ancestry for registration.

"RECIPROCITY AGREEMENT WITH THE KENNEL CLUB—The Kennel Club (England) feels that there ought to be some form of written agreement between their organization and ours, and are prepared to receive and consider any form of amended agreement which our solicitors may draft. They have been unable to locate the original agreement referred to in their minutes of 1906 and conclude that reciprocity understanding was reached by correspondence rather than by a formal agreement. It is my feeling then that we could carry on with a more or less gentleman's understanding that we will work with one another as far as respective By-laws, rules and policies permit, just as we do with the American Kennel Club.

"INTERBREEDING OF DACHSHUNDS OF VARIOUS COATS—Owing to illness, I was not able to meet with the Secretary of the Central German organization, and as Mr. Irving, our Director for British Columbia, had discussed this subject with Mr. Otto Borner of that organization, I believe he would be better able to explain the situation as regards Germany. The other countries on the Continent appear to be against the mixing of the coats in breeding Dachshunds, and according to Colonel Nicolle of the French Kennel Club and Mr. Wittwer of the Swiss Kennel Club, these organizations will not register the progeny of interbreeding of the coats. I found they were also against the registration of the progeny of certain colours where they felt that the mixing of the colours would produce parti-colours (i.e. Poodles). It is only recently that the Brown Poodle has been accepted for registration.

"CRYPTORCHISM and MONORCHISM—Discussing this subject with Mr. Neff, he informed me that the question would be on the agenda for the delegates' meeting the day after my visit, and he was considerate enough to send me the results of that meeting to London. It is now a rule of the American Kennel Club, effective on January 1st next, that cryptorchids and monorchids are not eligible for entry at a show held under their rules. Discussing this subject with Mr. Buckley, he informed me that they were not desirous about doing anything about this condition in England, but after I told him of the American Kennel Club's new policy, he said he would arrange for the British Veterinary Society to write an article about the subject. This appeared recently in the English dog magazines. On the Continent, these conditions are frowned upon and in most countries, are considered a disqualification under dog show rules. I have arranged for translated copies of their rules to be sent to the Canadian Kennel Club.

"These were the four most important questions which I was requested to take up while I was in Europe.

"Regarding the registration of dogs born in other countries, I found that the Swiss and the French Kennel Clubs do not accept applications from any other but their own country.

"The Federation Cynologique Internationale is composed of the various European clubs and they desire to have a uniform set of rules which would be applicable in each country. For this reason, a world congress will take place on May 8th, 1956, at Dortmund, Germany. It might be well for the Canadian Kennel Club to clearly indicate to the congress what it expects for registration purposes in connection with dogs imported to Canada from Europe.

"The Swiss Kennel Club maintains a system very simi'ar to that of the American Kennel Club. Founded in 1884, it consists of 98 local clubs and 38 breed specialty clubs, with a membership of about 16,000. It is governed by a Board of Directors, formed by 15 members who are in charge of all the current work. This Board is elected every three years by the delegates from the various clubs at the general meeting. Fifty-four stud books have been printed with a registration total of approximately 160,000 dogs. There are 11 special committees who prepare and discuss problems and submit them to the Board of Directors. These committees are for the various obedience, police, army, hunting, field trials and draught dogs. There are approximately 250 approved judges who must attend courses relating to their work.

"I also visited the White City Greyhound Track and brought back all information and photographs relating to their activities.

"To sum up briefly, I found that the Canadian Kennel Club, while respected, is very little known in Europe for its work in the field of pure-bred dogs. Might I suggest that we endeavour to publicize our dogs in other countries just as they do in ours. In conclusion, I feel that the Canadian Kennel Club will derive much benefit from my visit and while there was much other work done, this report is condensed to just the information which is needed at the moment for our Board meeting."

The President further reported that during the course of a recent visit to Calgary the Mayor of that city had presented her with a Stetson hat, a form of presentation made by that city to distinguished visitors.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Malcolm, seconded by Mrs. Smith:
"THAT, the President's report be received and she be complimented on the honour bestowed on the Canadian Kennel Club through her by the Mayor of Calgary."

With the Vice-President in the Chair, the following vote was recorded: FOR THE MOTION: Mr. MacCallum, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

MOTION CARRIED.

3127 (3091). EXECUTIVE MANAGER'S REPORT.

The Secretary placed before the Board a copy of the Executive Manager's Memorandum to the Board dated September 6th with regard to office surveys and office organization.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Malcolm, seconded by Mr. McEachren:
"THAT, the Executive Manager's report be received."
FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. MacCallum, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

MOTION CARRIED.

The Secretary read a letter from Mrs. Gove who stated that she wished more time to study the Executive Manager's report, and would comment on it at a later date.

Following discussion, it was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mrs. Smith:
"THAT, (a) the Executive Manager's report dated September 6th, the three office survey reports and the report presented to the 1954 annual meeting by the retiring President be referred to Mr. V. W. Williams, Second Vice-President, and he be asked if he would be kind enough to present a report and recommendations to the Board through the Secretary for consideration at its meeting on November 9th; (b) that all members of the Board be invited to submit their thoughts, comments and suggestions direct to Mr. Williams, with all reasonable despatch and in any event to reach him by October 15th."
FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. MacCallum, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

MOTION CARRIED.

——J. H. Daniell-Jenkins (Director) entered the meeting.

3128 (3090). FINANCIAL MATTERS.

The Treasurer placed before the Board the financial statements for the six months' period ending June 30th, the memorandum which he had addressed to the Board on August 25th, and read letters from Dr. Watson and Mr. Monaghan seeking information with regard to certain accounts.

It was regularly moved by Mrs. Smith, seconded by Mr. Malcolm:
"THAT, the report of the Treasurer be received and considered in conjunction with the report of the Finance Committee."
FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

MOTION CARRIED.

In view of certain financial matters to come before the Board of concern to the President and Vice-President, the President asked Mr. Malcolm to take the Chair.

——Mr. Malcolm in the Chair.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, seconded by Mr. MacCallum:
"THAT, the Treasurer's report be accepted."

Following a discussion, it was agreed that:

(1) The Treasurer would seek an explanation from the auditors concerning the amount showing in the "Accrued Interest" account;
(2) The Treasurer would include an explanatory footnote, when publishing the financial statements, concerning the sale of $2,000 Dominion of Canada bonds which had been redeemed;
(3) The Treasurer would consult the Club's auditors with a view to determining whether it would be possible to include in the Balance Sheet, as an asset, the full amount of the par value of the preferred shares held by the Club in the Apex Publishers and Publicity Ltd., an arrangement which may require an adjustment in the "Surplus Account"; it was also agreed that both preferred and common shares held by that Club in that company would be listed in a schedule of investments to accompany the statements when published;
(4) Arrangements be made for the setting up of a Standing Resolution with regard to the Club's representatives on the Board of Directors of the Apex Publishers and Publicity Ltd. requesting a declaration of dividends by that company not less than biennially;
(5) The Treasurer would include, in the financial statements to be published in the October issue, a footnote concerning refund of the Post Office Deposit of $120.00.

(6) The Treasurer would arrange for a daily deposit of receipts at the Head office of the Club;

(7) The Treasurer would seek to make arrangements with the banks at Toronto at which current accounts are maintained by the Club with a view to decreasing bank charges for exchange on cheques received by the Club;

(8) All members of the Board be provided with analysis of the two General Expense accounts;

(9) The Treasurer would draft and present for the Board's consideration a proposed Standing Resolution regarding the amount of petty cash to be carried in the head office;

(10) The President and Treasurer would arrange for the distribution of the remaining funds in the Flood Relief Fund.

Mr. Monaghan referred to an amount of $749.25, included in the General Expense Account of "Dogs in Canada", paid to the President for out-of-pocket expenses incurred while the President was acting Managing Editor for the magazine, and contended that this was a matter on which the entire Board should have been consulted before payment was made. The Vice-President read a prepared statement signed by herself, Mr. MacCallum and Secretary-Treasurer reporting developments on this subject since the President had submitted a detailed statement of out-of-pocket expenses on June 9th and the subsequent payment of the account following consultation, by telephone, with the members of the Board in Ontario. The statement pointed out that the members of the Board in Ontario, at its meeting on March 8th, had decided that the President be asked to submit a statement of out-of-pocket expenses, and enquired whether it would be fair to ask the remaining members of the Board to share responsibility in approving any statement submitted by the President.

Following discussion an amendment was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mrs. Smith:

"THAT, in conformity with Item #2825 (June 1954 meeting) the payment of expenses to Mrs. McColl in the sum of $749.25 be referred to the entire Board for vote before the financial statement is accepted."

FOR THE MOTION: Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

AGAINST THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum and Mrs. Mack.

ABSTAINED FROM VOTING: Mrs. McColl.

MOTION LOST.

The President took no part on the discussion on this subject.

Mr. Monaghan reported that he had inspected the vouchers for long-distance telephone calls and telegrams, and suggested that the Board, by Standing Resolution, adopt a policy which would govern long distance telephone calls and use of telegraph services. The Chairman suggested that Mr. Monaghan draft a proposed Standing Resolution for the Board's consideration at a future meeting of the Board.

The discussion on the financial statements having concluded, the Chairman called for a vote on the previously stated motion reading:

"THAT, the Treasurer's report be accepted."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, and Mrs. Mack.

AGAINST THE MOTION: Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

MOTION CARRIED.

Mrs. McEachren, as Chairman of the Finance Committee, reported that in accordance with the wishes of the Board (Item #3090) the Committee had considered the question of investing $8,000 of the Club's funds in bonds, and had decided on the purchase of $8,000 Dominion of Canada 2% bonds due May 1, 1958, at a cost of $8,000. The report presented by Mrs. McEachren outlined why the Committee had decided on short term bonds and outlined developments in the bond market which appeared to justify the action taken.

Mr. Monaghan complimented the Chairman of the Finance Committee on her report, pointed out the need for an investment policy as a guide for the future, and suggested that when changes in or additions to the Club's present investments are considered those responsible might consider the advisability of buying guaranteed Investment Certificates of the Toronto General Trusts Corporation (or some other trust company), issued under the authority of the provincial statute which prescribes the manner of investing funds, to run for five years at the guaranteed interest rate of 3½% per annum, which is payable every six months (no brokerage fees).

It was regularly moved by Mrs. Smith, seconded by Mrs. Mack:

"THAT, the report of the Finance Committee be accepted with thanks."

FOR THE MOTION: Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

ABSTAINED FROM VOTING: Mrs. McEachren (being Chairman of the Committee).

MOTION CARRIED.

It was agreed that the Finance Committee would carry on by keeping a watch on the bond market and presenting reports and recommendations to the Board, from time to time, as it considered advisable.

The Secretary presented the following up-to-date report on the standing of the "Accounts Receivable" of "Dogs in Canada":

Period	Balance due
Before 1952	$ 82.40
1952	1.50
1953	74.30
1954	223.48
1955 (to April 30th)	357.65

Following discussion, it was regularly moved by Mrs. Mack, seconded by Mrs. McEachren:

"THAT, the President and Secretary review the accounts receivable and take such further action as may appear appropriate with a view to collection."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

ABSTAINED FROM VOTING: Mrs. McColl (being named in the motion).

MOTION CARRIED.

It was agreed that the attention of members with overdue accounts would be drawn to Article VII, Section 2(c) of the Club's By-laws.

———The President resumed the Chair.

3129 (2970). REGISTRATION COMMITTEE.

The President, as Chairman of the Registration Committee, read the following report submitted by the Committee for the Board's consideration:

"REPORT OF REGISTRATION COMMITTEE TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

"At the January meeting of the Board of Directors, there was a resolution moved by Mr. Malcolm, seconded by Mrs. Mack, that the Board consider ways and means of adding a distinguishing letter to the registration number or inserting a distinguishing letter in the registration number of a dog which is sold under contract or under agreement that it is not eligible to be shown or used for breeding purposes. This question was ordered referred to the Registration Committee, on the understanding that there would be a report to the annual meeting of the Board. Unfortunately, there was not sufficient time between the meetings to develop this subject at that time.

"The Registration Committee has noted that in introducing this motion, Mr. Malcolm suggested that consideration be given to ways and means of facilitating the registration of pet dogs, and his suggestion that it might be possible to decrease the registration fees a little for these dogs in order to encourage their registration in the records of the Club.

"In considering this matter further at a meeting of the Committee held on September 13th, the Registration Committee is of the opinion that we ought to provide in our By-laws for two classes of registration, class A for dogs which may be used for breeding purposes at the discretion of the owner, and class B for dogs which are sold on the definite understanding that such dogs will not be used for breeding purposes and that their progeny, if such dogs are used for breeding purposes in violation of this understanding, shall not be eligible for registration. Your Committee is of the opinion that before any steps are taken to implement such a policy, assuming that the Board are favourably disposed to it, that it would be advisable to ascertain the views of the Department of Agriculture, more particularly on the question of whether such a policy is consistent with the provisions of the Live Stock Pedigree Act.

"Your Committee is also of the opinion that we should amend our By-laws by deleting that section which permits the sale of a dog without a certificate of registration."

Following discussion, it was regularly moved by Mr. Malcolm, seconded by Mrs. Mack:

"THAT, (a) the Registration Committee's report be received with thanks and that the views of the Department of Agriculture be obtained; (b) that if the Department concurs in principle, that the report be referred to the entire Board for their views, suggestions and comments, if any."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan, and Mrs. Smith.

MOTION CARRIED.

The President reported that there were still two outstanding problems in connection with the production of certificates of registration (for purebred dogs) by the I.B.M. punch card method, namely, how to show titles and color or colours on certificates of registration produced by this method, and reported that it was the suggestion of the Registration Committee that the two members of the Board residing in Ottawa (Mr. Malcolm and Mr. Monaghan) serve as a liaison between the Secretary and the Live Stock Records office in further attempts to resolve these problems. The suggestion of the Committee was approved.

3130 (3098). STANDING COMMITTEE FOR OBEDIENCE.

Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Chairman of the Standing Committee for Obedience, briefly reviewed activities of the Committee since its appointment at the annual meeting of the Board, and reported that a formal report from the Committee would be presented at the next meeting of the Board.

Mr. Monaghan referred to the definition of the word "trainer" as referred to in item #3098 and the Committee Chairman's report that this definition had been unanimously recommended by the Committee, and enquired whether all members of the Standing Committee, including the Obedience Trial Representatives, had voted in favour of the interpretation.

Mr. Daniell-Jenkins stated that all members of the Committee had been consulted on the question of the interpretation referred to, that not all members of the Committee had recorded a vote, and in the absence of any negative vote those who had not recorded a vote were, by reason of their silence on the question, regarded as being in agreement with the interpretation referred to them for vote, hence the reference to "unanimous".

3131 (3046). STANDING RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE.

The Secretary read a letter from Mr. J. A. H. Irving, Chairman of the Committee, who reported that considerable headway has been made in the study of the situation, and he hoped to have completed a draft, ready to be distributed to the 1956 Board of Directors before they attend the next annual meeting of the Board, in order that the Board may then discuss possible changes.

It was regularly moved by Mrs. McEachren, seconded by Mr. Malcolm:

"THAT, we accept the Chairman's report dated August 23rd."

FOR THE MOTION: Mrs. McEachren, Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

MOTION CARRIED.

3132 (3093). PUBLIC RELATIONS COMMITTEE.

Mrs. McEachren, Chairman of the Committee, reported that a quotation had been received on the manufacture of the medals referred to in Item #3093. The Secretary reported that there had been a delay in obtaining this quotation because the retail firm, from whom the Club had, some years ago, ordered the trophies bearing the Club's crest which is to appear on the new medals, had gone out of business and it was necessary to trace the original manufacturer who had the dies from which the crests were made. The matter was left in the Secretary's hands for further action.

The Secretary reported that a son of the late Hon. Mr. Justice McFarland, former President of the Club and one of the three trustees of the Norman K. Swire Memorial Fund, had brought to the office a file which included vouchers, correspondence, bank pass book, and a $500 bond which had matured in 1941, the bond being registered in the name of the three trustees, two of whom were now deceased.

Following discussion, it was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Malcolm:

"THAT, the matter of Norman K. Swire Memorial Medals be referred to the Public Relations Committee for consideration, recommendation and report."

FOR THE MOTION: Mr. Daniell-Jenkins, Mr. MacCallum, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Malcolm, Mr. Monaghan and Mrs. Smith.

ABSTAINED FROM VOTING: Mrs. McEachren (being Chairman of the Committee).

MOTION CARRIED.

The Secretary was instructed to consult the Club's solicitors with regard to the matured bond registered in the name of the trustees of the Fund.

3133 (3092). REGISTRATION OF BERMUDA DOGS. BERMUDA KENNEL CLUB.

Mrs. McEachren reported that on July 20th the President, the Secretary, and herself had met with Mr. Gordon R. Groves, Chief of

A lovely little black female was sold to what her breeder thought was a kind home. At her first season she was tied in the back yard with no protective fence. Her new mistress sat on her front porch and saw a part white Shepherd and part Doberman go down her yard, yet did not trouble to bring her female in. At the finish of the breeding the master of the female came down the yard, saw what had happened and took a shovel and beat the little female. A few hours before she had her puppies he drove her down the highway for miles and put her out of the car about half a mile from where her breeder lived. The poor little dog wandered into the yard of a kindly woman who saw her plight and that she was about to have her puppies. She called the breeder to ask if any of her dogs were loose. Upon questioning, the breeder realized that it was the female she had sold. By the time she got there, she was having her puppies. This was a sound female, formerly, but can she ever again have faith in humans? Her breeder, a true lover of dogs, is spending a great deal of time and giving her much love to overcome whatever may remain in her mind from this very unfortunate experience. I feel she will win out. But in the meantime, if she evinces any distrust of humans, persons not aware of what she had been through would so glibly brand her as shy.

When we are prone to so lightly brand a dog as shy, lacking in temperament, let us ask ourselves "has something happened in that dog's life that his doggy mind can't fathom?"

Our Shepherds are near-humans, and even we humans have found there are things we are nervous of, and we know the meaning of most things — our dogs do not. Why then, must our dogs never display any nervousness over anything? So what if your pet hates the sizzling of the pressure cooker. I hate the sound of guns, and I do not think I am shy. If people are so senseless as to crash-bang tins, set off fireworks, and take a sadistic delight in making a dog cringe, we will always have shy dogs with us.

Let us really try to place 'shyness' and 'temperament' in the category to which they belong, not in the category of a dog's natural dislikes. I feel that the owner who is too temperament-conscious creates a tense atmosphere for his dog which reflects on the animal.

I am not in any way taking up the cudgels for truly shy dogs and I know many people will disagree with me but please, before we brand a dog as shy, which can literally finish his Show career, let us satisfy ourselves he really is shy and has been from birth—or let us go further back than his birth—did his dam undergo an experience like the aforementioned one? Or can we prove that such an experience would have no effect on the puppies.

Temperament is something so big in our Shepherds' lives that we can study it for a lifetime, and then realize how little we know about it.

"While what is commonly known as a 'Dudley' in the Bullmastiff and other breeds" she adds, "is acceptable in the Rhodesian Ridgeback providing the liver mask is accompanied with amber eyes, this we do not like, for the simple reason that the head is ruined by lack of expression.

The breed is notoriously faithful as a guard dog and family friend.

by John Daniel-Jenkins

The Rhodesian Ridgeback Hound or Lion Dog has at last won official recognition from the American Kennel Club. Our active and enthusiastic Canadian fanciers have helped their friends across the border to gain this status. For some years now they have shown and publicised this unusual and attractive breed from sea to sea in our country—and now Dogs in Canada is featuring the Ridgeback for Canadian readers.

My wife, who is South African born, and I who spent much of my youth in that country, wish to congratulate the Ridgeback breeders of this continent on their achievement. We also wish to commend this breed to the most favorable consideration of Canadian dog lovers in general.

Ridgebacks are in general use as hunting dogs, guards and pets over the southern two-thirds of Africa; an area containing almost as many variations of climate and terrain as does that of our own country. They are swift, hardy and courageous, as was proved by the famous hunter, Cornelius Van Rooyen and the many others who used them considerably to assist in hunting lions. The main feature of this breed, the ridge of reverse hair, excites comment and interest wherever their owners may take the dogs.

From the recent rapid increase in number and the growing interest in Rhodesian Ridgebacks, a great future in North America may confidently be prophesied for these hounds.

CHOOSING THE XMAS PUPPY

Retriever has a wavy coat of "dead grass" color. The Labrador should be solidly built, the head rather broad in skull with a well defined stop. The chest should be deep and wide, the loin and hindquarters strong and the coat thick with dense undercoat, the tail reaching hock joint and thick, well covered with a dense growth of hair. The color can be black or a light golden-tan.

In the three varieties of Dachshunds, the Smooth Coated, Long Coated and Wire Haired the same anatomical description applies. One should look for a long head, with dark eyes, short legs set well back under the forechest and a body of good length with well-sprung ribs. The tail should taper nicely to a point at the end. The long-coated variety should possess a nice flat coat with feather on the ears, legs and tail. The Wire Haired coat should be harsh to the touch and lie close to the body but with furnishing on the face and legs. The preferred colors are rich red and black and tan, the latter seldom seen on the Wire Coated variety where it often appears as a sable.

Fox Hounds, Harriers and Beagles can be described along the same lines They require a fairly long, evenly-balanced head, big nostrils with square muzzle, a short strong body with deep chest. Basset Hounds should have a long head with narrow skull, the eyes showing haw in the inner corner. The ears should be long and folding, the forelegs short and slightly crooked at the knee, the body long and heavy with well developed hind quarters and long, thick tail.

Borzois, Greyhounds, Deerhounds, and Irish Wolfhounds should have immense size but be withal, symmetrical; a very long head, big body, deep chest and well-developed hindquarters. The Borzoi should have a very long head with narrow skull, slightly domed, and small oblique eyes. It should be rather narrow in the shoulders with a long, graceful neck, straight legs, deep chest, the body nicely arched giving a graceful outline. The coat is long and silky with a slight wave.

The Scottish Deerhound should have a long, level head, dark eyes, long neck and great bone with deep chest and big hindquarters. The coat is slightly shaggy with no white marking, dark blue or blue grey color preferred. The Greyhound should be built on similar lines to the Deerhound but in this breed the coat is smooth and color markings are immaterial.

Whippets follow the same pattern as the Greyhound although they are much smaller, the height at shoulder being about 18 to 19 inches when full grown. As in Greyhounds, color is immaterial. Salukis follow a similar pattern to the other coursing breeds but have a flat, silky body coat with feather on ears, legs and tail. Color is optional.

Afghan Hounds should have long head, deep chest, straight legs, big quarters and a flexible body denoting great speed. The coat should be long and of very fine texture with ears well-coated, the tail set on low with ring at end.

In Bloodhounds one should look for great length of head, a narrow skull, great depth and squareness of foreface, eyes showing haw, big nostrils, long, low set folding ears, great bone, straight legs and a big body with tail carried high.

The Otter Hound will follow the same pattern as the Bloodhound, although this breed has a dense rough coat and eyes showing no haw. Elkhounds should be sturdy in build with head broad between the ears and tapering towards the nose. The eyes should be dark and not prominent and ears set high and firm, the legs straight and powerful and tail set high and carried over the back.

CLUB NOTES

scoring dog of the Trial was an adorable little Miniature Poodle from across the border. High scoring German Shepherd was Prince of Flowertown, owned, bred, and shown by his owner and a Club member, Fred Pfeifle of Acton, Ont.

One of our members was chosen to judge German Shepherds at the big Oakville & District Kennel Club Show on September 24. Toni Kleinjohann has been in Canada from Germany less than a year and a half, but has made many friends through his love of the Breed. He has bred and shown Shepherds for many years and has done some judging in his native land, but this was his first Canadian assignment. The Oakville Show drew such a large entry of dogs that space and time were at a premium, and consequently permission was granted for the Shepherds to be judged outside of the arena. A huge ring was set up on the grounds where the dogs could be shown and gaited to full advantage, and Mr. Kleinjohann spent several hours carefully choosing the winners, and giving every exhibit consideration. Joe Sheppard did a good job of showing Mr. P. G. McDonald's recent purchase from the United States, Am. Ch. Ingo vom Burgunderhort, a German import, through to Winners Dog and Best of Winners, while Doug Ames' attractive young home-bred, Glen Stewart Cherie came through as Winners female. Mary Southcott's home-bred, Ch. Dusk of Cara Mia, made her very proud and happy by taking Best of Breed and then placing 3rd in a good Working Group. As has happened at the majority of Shows for some time, German Shepherds had the largest individual breed entry once again.

should be straight, well boned and muscular. Viewed from any side the legs are like vertical columns. The upper arm joins the body closely without loose elbows. The legs are covered all around by long hair. Strong, well muscular hindquarters, covered also with long thick matted hair, should be straight when viewed from the rear. Stifles well bent. The feet should be strong, rather large — particularly the hind feet and covered with long hair. Black or slate-grey nails. The pads are hard, elastic and black. The whole body of the Komondor is covered with a long woolly dense hair of different lengths on the different parts of the body, with inclination to entanglement and shagginess. The longer and the more matted the coat is the better, though as above stated the length of the hair varies on the different parts of the body. The longer hair begins on the head and ears and lengthens gradually on the body being longest on the tail. Too curly hair is undesirable. The colour of the hair is white. No other colour permitted. The bigger the Komondor the better. A minimum height of 25½ inches at top of shoulders for males, 23½ inches for females is required.

Faults:—Light or flesh-coloured nose; albino or blue eyes, highly set and small ears; straight hair on head and legs; strongly curled tail; colour other than white.

Kuvasz

Kuvasz:—The fourth and largest Hungarian Sheepdog, is also pure white. One of the least excitable of all dogs, as well as one of the most intrinsically peaceful, the Kuvasz adjusts admirably to all conditions and climates. Affectionate and particularly fond of children, he will take a lot of mauling from them. He takes a lot of rough play from adults too and knows when to stop instead of working himself up to a high pitch and biting, as some dogs do. The Kuvasz can be trained easily for anything the owner wishes, even for seeing-eye dogs. His origin is not really known but the popular belief is that his ancestors came from Tibet, found their way into Russia and were brought to Central Europe from the Russian Steppes by the Huns. The Hungarians were the first to breed them seriously and recognize their true worth. King Matthias I, who reigned from 1458 to 1490 was especially fond of them. A suspicious king, he placed far more reliance upon his Kuvasz than he did upon human body-guards. He personally supervised their breeding and raised a pack which he used for hunting deer, bear and wild boar. The surplus pups he would give only to nobles and dignitaries. Long after his reign they eventually got into the hands of the commoners who also recognized their true worth. They became so famous that people of other countries became interested and adopted this breed. Now there are very few Kuvasz Kennels in Hungary due to the second world war and certain restrictions. Germany now has the largest number of Kuvasz as well as Pulis and Komondors, but there are at least about a hundred to a hundred and twenty Kuvasz in America.

The Kuvasz stands from 25 to 29 inches high from the shoulders when full grown. Sturdily built, he gives a definite impression of the strength and speed he possesses; he has a pleasing conformation and appearance. His characteristics are courage and trust. He is used for herding, guardian and companion. Protects and defends livestock from wild animals. His head is rather long, covered with short fine hair. The skull is broad and flat with not too decided a stop. Muzzle should be clean cut; rather square in shape and covered with short fine hair. Lips should be close to the jaw and cover the closed mouth completely. Colour of the lips should be black. The ears are high set, medium-sized, V-shaped but slightly offset from the skull. Tips of ears should not touch the head. The ears are covered with short fine hair. The eyes are medium-sized, dark brown. Eyelids pitch black. Eyes should close rather tight. They show trust and confidence. The nose is black with well developed nostrils. Neck is muscular of medium length and covered with rather long hair. No dewlap is allowed. The body should be well ribbed, chest broad and deep reaching the elbow. The back should be broad and straight, sloping slightly towards the tail. The deep set tail is of moderate length, reaching a little below the hocks and covered with thick fairly long hair. The tip of the tail should turn up slightly. At attention tail is carried straight with back or higher. The forelegs are perfectly straight, shoulders and elbows should be in but well let down. Hindquarters are strong boned, well shaped and well muscular. The paws are compact like a cat's paw with black or at least steel gray nails. Head, front and side of legs are covered with short fine hair. All other parts have long and wavy hair. On account of the length the hair appears very close. The hair on the thighs should be long and feathery. The colour of the Kuvasz is pure white. Older dogs ivory is permitted.

Faults:—Skull too decidely rounded and a strong stop. Unruly hairs. Albino and glass eyes. Open eyes, broken pigment. Pendant flews. Hare foot. Long and kinky hair on head. Long hair on front and side of forelegs. Yellow colouring or yellow markings.

Ch. La Paloma's Dream Boy. A constant winner at the C.N.E. Shows this is a real outstanding dog owned by Mr. John I. Florence of 318 Stewart St., Ottawa, Ontario.

The Complete German Shepherd . . .
by Milo G. Denlinger, $4.75.

An exceptional amount of research has gone into this detailed outline of the German Shepherd. In order to know the background of the breed, particularly in the case of imports, it might be well not only to understand the description and commands used in Germany, but also the abbreviations and letters pertaining to his evaluation. This Denlinger has set forth concisely.

The book also gives explicit details on preliminary general training, care and feeding, general health, diseases which may be anticipated in this, as in other breeds, care and rearing of puppies, etc.

A highly valuable volume for both breeders and owners of the single German Shepherd.

This is the German Shepherd . . .
by Captain William Goldbecker and Ernest H. Hart. $3.95
(Subject to change in Canada)

Here is another extremely well-done book on the Shepherd, written most sympathetically and instructively by the famous breeder and judge, who, incidentally, judged at the recent 33rd Annual Specialty Championship Show held by The German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada.

Mrs. Mary D. Hart, one of Canada's most enthusiastic breeders and exponents of the Shepherd, sends among others, the following excerpts:

"In the final analysis, the future of the German Shepherd Dog is up to you, the owners and breeders. You must carry the responsibility for molding the future of the breed. New theories, new techniques, new discoveries are constantly being made in the many fields of scientific endeavour. Never-ending research uncovers new concepts in canine medicine, nutrition, physiology, psychology and genetics. . . . We must face this future with open minds and with tolerance. We must learn to understand new concepts. . . . It is then, our job to take the new tools we have been given to work with and use them well.

"In you, the breeder, is vested the power to fashion heredity, to mold life, in this Shepherd breed. . . . To do so, you must be aware of the power you have, and have intelligence to use it well."

This Litter Won 68 Prizes for ANNWYN KENNELS
at 1955 Canadian National Exhibition

Above — Annwyn Chadrow, Best Puppy in Breed, Sporting Group, and show at C.N.E. A full sister, Annwyn Western Fern, took 5 Firsts and a Reserve Championship—she had already won Best Puppy in Sporting Group at Guelph. To look at them you'd not suspect that because of a cold-weather setback they had to be taken from their mother at 10 days and fed baby food—Dog Chow being gradually substituted until it was their complete ration.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Jones of Anten Mills, Ont., have good reason to be proud of this "family group". Pups from this one litter of Labrador Retrievers, of their own breeding, won 68 prizes at the C.N.E Shows—including Best Puppy in Show, Two Best Puppy in both Breed and Sporting Group, one Reserve Champion, 18 Firsts, 22 Seconds.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones bought their first Labrador, a male, as a pet, 6 years ago. They liked him so well they bought him a mate, the mother of this litter.

"We took the advice of Roy Black of Milroy's Kennels, Barrie, on breeding and management," they told us. "Three years ago we decided to take his advice on feeding, too—he has fed Purina for 17 years, and considers it 'tops'. So do we, now. We feed all our home-breds and boarding kennel guests Dog Chow. Nothing could possibly do as good a job unless it cost a lot more money!"

Have you looked into the economies possible under the Purina Courtesy Card Plan? Talk it over with your Purina dealer—that puts you under no obligation.

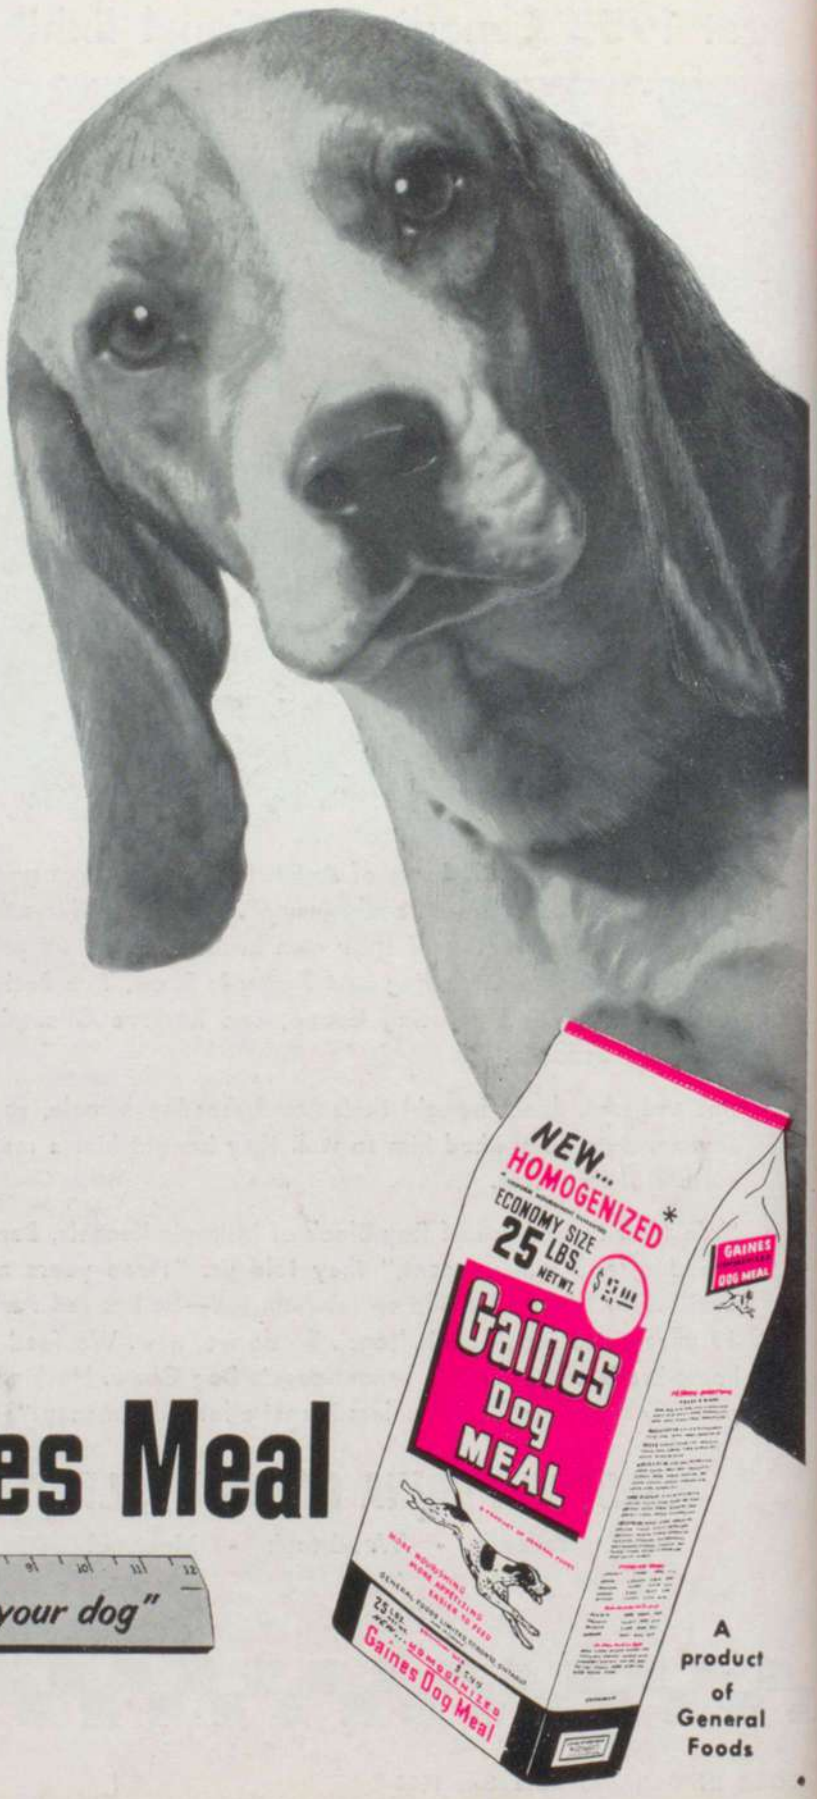
How do you pick a Dog Food?



Here's one expert's answer!

"First I choose a brand made by a manufacturer whose experience, facilities and reputation assure me that his food will supply my dogs with the best scientific nourishment.

"Next, I make the food selected the greater part of their diet for at least 30 days, keeping a close watch on coat, condition and general health. If I'm not satisfied, I give another brand a fair trial.

"I have found that you just can't beat a top quality dog meal for value. It costs much less than canned dog food. And a good quality meal is actually less expensive to feed than cheaper, inferior meals that require supplements. Incidentally, when buying a good dog meal, I find it pays to purchase the large economy package."

And Here's How Homogenized Gaines Meal Measures Up!

- It has been developed in laboratories and research kennels that are unmatched in their facilities and scope.
- Gaines Meal has been tested and proven through actual feeding to generation after generation of dogs.
- Gaines Meal contains meat, milk and fish protein plus every vitamin and mineral a dog is known to need.
- Gaines exclusive homogenization process guarantees uniform nourishment in every mouthful of every feeding.
- Gaines reputation is so outstanding that it is the world's largest selling dog meal.
