Successful Kennel Management — $5.00 postpaid. By Mark Taynton.

A "business" book on how to make money breeding and boarding dogs. Even hobbyists who want to keep solvent will find this book a godsend. The writer has had twenty-five years' experience.

A New Book on the Shetland Sheepdog— by Mark Taynton, an "old-timer" in Shelties. Just off the press. $1.25 per copy. $10.00 per dozen to breeders.

Send $5.00 for both books today, to Beech Tree Farm, Dept. C, Falls Church, Virginia.

A DOG'S LIFE CAN BE BEAUTIFUL

NEW DIET SUPPLEMENT
Maintains Healthy Hair and Skin
Stimulates Appetite
Aids Breeding Performance

Compounded since 1945 for professional use by veterinarians only, LECIPET is now being made available to kennels and individual dog owners.

For the past ten years LECIPET has been used in the treatment of canine eczema resulting from nutritional deficiency or imbalance. Many such cases occur in spite of the fact that the diet is apparently adequate. It has also been used successfully to stimulate appetite, improve breeding performance, and as a tonic for older animals.

This new diet supplement functions by promoting the assimilation of fats in the normal diet, so that mysterious rashes, dull coat, and falling hair are relieved and their recurrence averted.

The Department of Animal Care of a well known College of Medicine in the New York area reported on its tests of LECIPET as follows: "The results which we obtained . . . during the past three years in the treatment of eczematoid conditions and other skin disorders . . . are very encouraging . . . Usually four weeks supplementation . . . was sufficient to bring about a marked improvement in over 85% of the cases treated . . . The supplement produced favorable changes in the skin and coat during lactation, when many of our females showed evidence of dry skin, dull coat, and slight alopecia (falling hair)."

After using LECIPET, the owner of a Manchester Terrier wrote us, ". . . he was in bad shape . . . bloated in the neck and body. His hair was off in a V shape on his back where he could reach it to bite at it, also in round spots on his belly and flanks . . . Now his hair is all back and has a gloss . . . He has slimmed out so he looks like a dog again . . . This is the result of your product. I am sure as I have tried every diet and ointment I heard of before, with no results . . ."

If you are unable to obtain LECIPET from your dealer, simply send in the attached order form.

LETTERS

If you have any suggestions, any comments or constructive criticism to make concerning articles or other items contained in this magazine, or with regard to shows, your opinion of what is happening to various breeds with regard to size, colour, coat, etc., write a brief letter to the Editor. We must reserve the right, however, to edit same.

WHAT ABOUT WHITE BOXERS?

. . . There are a number of contradictory views about white Boxers being promoted here, and I would like to clarify my own mind at least, by asking a few questions.

(1) Are all white Boxers albinos?

(2) Is there a tendency for white Boxers to go deaf, all of them? At what age?

(3) Do white Boxers tend to go blind? All of them? At what age?

(4) Can white Boxers be shown in CKC approved shows?

(5) Can white Boxers be registered in Canada?

In order to promote a better understanding and appreciation of high standards for dog breeding and care, I should like to use some of the articles that appear in your magazine. What is your policy on this? For example, could the local paper print part, or all, or a condensed version of the article Suggestions for Novice Breeders by Edna M. Dubuis in your February '56 issue? With Miss Dubuis' name as the author?

I must say that your magazine is a most commendable one. It is improving all the time. And we plan to put on something of a campaign to get subscriptions for you.

HORACE D. BEACH
28 Raleigh St.,
St. John's, Nfld.

Mr. Beach's letter has been answered under separate cover. Any reliable publication is more than welcome to reprint any article in whole or in part which appears in this magazine, provided a credit line mentioning Dogs In Canada magazine accompanies the material, and where a byline appears, the name of the author as well.

Regarding white Boxers, have any Boxer breeders had experience with this colouring? The CKC ruling is being forwarded to Mr. Beach.—Ed.

WHAT, NO BEEF?

. . . I have been wondering what became of the Beef Ring you started in this column. It was a good place to get things out in the open. I'm not mad about anything myself, but would like to see some good arguments. Could this be started again?

J. M. B.

Melville, Sask.

It certainly could and will be, but in recent months little good controversial material has come to hand. Since we have yet to meet a 100% happy citizen of the dog world, some healthy discussions obviously are being kept under wraps. It's housecleaning time anyway — let's bring them out in the open and have at them! —Ed.

CORRESPONDENTS WANTED

. . . In the capacity of a passionate breeder of your wonderful Newfoundlands, I am anxious to start an exchange of letters with a breeder in the country of their origin.

I shall be very pleased if you could name a breeder interested in such an exchange of views and opinions, especially with regard to the position in Germany.

WALTER HALSIG

Would any Newfoundland enthusiasts and breeders like to write Mr. Halsig?—Ed.

BULLMASTIFF FANCIER

. . . Enclosed please find a money order to renew my subscription to Dogs in Canada. There has been a vast improvement in the magazine: especially enjoyed last October's edition, the picture cover and the article on the Bullmastiff was most interesting. Being the owner of a female Bullmastiff, I'm more than satisfied with my pet.

MRS. G. H. ALDIS

GERMAN SHEPHERDS ON TV

. . . Ed. Edna was recently on CFPL-TV to give a run down on the German Shepherd. Ed spoke on the origin of the dog and the breed. We had two of the older dogs on and two pups seven weeks old. Edna spoke on the feeding of puppies; how many meals and vitamins they should have. She also gave a rundown of the 20 dogs at home in the kennel.

Ed showed the lovely certificate given them just two days before by the German Shepherd Club of Canada, also many trophies, ribbons and rosettes. We had a C.K.C. Champion Certificate and told how they are won under C.K.C. Shows. All in all it was a very nice show, judging by the large number of phone calls. Most people told us how nice the dogs looked.

FIRST ANNIVERSARY

. . . We are pleased to forward our congratulations on the occasion of your first anniversary as Editors of Dogs In Canada. The many improvements in the magazine might be simply stated as more interesting material presented in a more interesting manner.

Best wishes for your continued success.

ON BASSET HOUNDS

. . . I am enclosing a stamped addressed envelope for information on Basset Hounds. Will these dogs run fox and rabbits, and if so where could they be purchased in Canada?

MRS. M. TRENHOLM
Bayfield, W. Co., N.B.

Basset Hounds are not only particularly good for hunting rabbits, foxes and pheasants, but can be quickly trained to hunt raccoons, and for trailing, flushing, and securing wounded game birds. They are accurate and steady on the trail and rate second only to the Bloodhound in scenting ability. Several names have been sent Mrs. Trenholm.—Ed.

FUTURE BREEDER

. . . Would you have a booklet or such, with coloured pictures of the different types of dogs. Our dog was killed by a car, so we would like to get a new one.

Also other animals such as cats, cows, horses, pigs and so on.

Our 11 year-old son plans to be a big farmer, so hope you can help us decide on a dog.

MRS. SAM JOSEPH
Goulais River, Ont.

We have mailed you a copy of Dogs In Canada magazine and a booklet showing how to train various types of dogs. Sorry we cannot help you out on the other animals, but suggest you write some of the farm magazines.—Ed.

FROM OUR READERS

. . . My husband and I would like to congratulate you on the wonderful improvement you have made in Dogs in Canada. Having received it since 1934, we really see a great difference.

. . . After looking through the March issue I found it was very interesting. I enclose subscription cheque, and am sure I will always be a monthly reader of Dogs in Canada.

DONALD ERASMUSON

BEEF RING

. . . For many years, the Kennel Clubs of the Maritimes have been using many judges from Western Canada, particularly from Ontario, but not once, to my knowledge, has a Maritime judge ever been invited to judge a show west of the Maritime Provinces. I wonder if someone could advise me why.

We have, down this way, some very fine judges who could do, in my estimation, equally as good a job as the Western Canadian Judges, but for some known reason they must limit their judging to this district of Canada.

If any Club is interested in the names of our Maritimes judges I would be happy to submit a list. I know their fees would be reasonable and I am certain their decisions would be met with as much approval as any judge, regardless of where they come from.

So, dog club members, give the Maritimers a break!

It Could Happen to Yours

Many dog owners have always had purebreds in the family and now own one or two. But, they tell us, if anything happened to their dogs, they would be hard put to immediately replace them. Financially, that is. We are now happy to tell them that sound, reliable insurance coverage is at last available in Canada for dogs, through Jordan D. Straus Associates, 110 Spadina Ave., Toronto, Ont. Members of Specialty and other Clubs are eligible for special privileges.

In the Doghouse

A time-saving, easy to set up doghouse is made by J. A. Duval of Montmagny, Que. It is prefabricated, ships easily, and measures 24 x 36 x 30 inches in height. Mr. Duval would undoubtedly make up other sizes on request.

Crate Question

Do your crates fit your car or station wagon? Are they too snug, or do your dogs bounce around like marbles? Are they in good condition, or do you feel ashamed to take them to Shows? J. W. Haggerty, 340 Dawson St., Port Arthur, Ont., not only makes comfortable, safe crates but designs or custom builds them to your specifications.

MEMO FROM THE EDITOR

Nothing sets our collective teeth on edge so much as the pronouncement of a city council that stray dogs may be shot on sight. Dogs on the loose are a problem, but shooting seems an easy, senseless way out.

Failing co-operation by careless citizens, and change in by-law, couldn't dog-loving, public-spirited people get together to take care of strays and at least try to find their owner or a good home. Many lives would be enriched by the companionship of a dog, particularly where families cannot afford the price of a pure-bred.

If a sound solution to this problem has been found in your community, why not write Dogs in Canada so that helpful ideas may be passed on.

Time has ticked away so quickly we can barely believe it is a year since we began publishing Dogs in Canada. In the 12 months which have passed since our first issue, we have learned a great deal, weathered much, and have made many wonderful friends, many of whom we still look forward to meeting in person.

Each week brings letters bearing kind comments and notes of encouragement, every one of which is deeply appreciated. Do keep writing, and do feel free to tell us what you would like to read in Dogs in Canada.

Why are some dogs mentioned so frequently in our columns? The question was asked at a recent club meeting, and this was the answer: some dogs, like people, continually make news with their accomplishments. Further, their owners are prompt in forwarding the news. Other dogs are just as worthy of mention, but their owners neglect to pass on the information. Much as we'd like to cover everything, everywhere, it is impossible – we'd never get the magazine to press! So please, whenever your dog does something newsworthy, be sure to write or telephone immediately.

Because junior showmanship competition is so important, Dogs in Canada offers a prize of one year's subscription for boys and one for girls in each competition. If the Club secretary will notify this office well ahead of time, a form of certificate will be mailed promptly.

A neat ash try reposes on our desk bearing a blue Newfoundland head. It is a promotional piece put out by the Newfoundland Club, a gift of Mrs. N. Navin. Not costly, but a good way of promoting a Specialty Club. Just one idea on how to create interest in your Club and favourite breed. Watch for more in a forthcoming article.

YOUR PRESIDENT

New interest and new vitality have been brought to The Canadian Kennel Club with the election of Mrs. M. Eileen McEachren as president. She is, as far as can be ascertained, the only woman currently holding the office of president of a kennel club anywhere in the world.

To this chair, Mrs. McEachren brings new ideas, prestige and dignity. She is a capable executive, and in her few months of office has not only abbreviated the previously lengthy meetings but, working well together, the Board has accomplished a great deal of heavy business in the shorter periods.

One of the major innovations is holding national directors meetings in cities other than Toronto to facilitate attendance. Another is the brief resume of C.K.C. affairs (inaugurated with this issue) so that readers other than members, who receive detailed minutes, may have some idea of the Club's activities on their behalf.

As a person, Mrs. McEachren is one of Canada's busiest individuals. She is a capable businesswoman who works hard and well in any responsibility she takes on. Underneath a seeming aloofness and reserve is warmth and kindness itself. A nice sense of humour appears at unexpected moments. We have yet to hear her speak unkindly of anyone. A certain shyness may account for a good deal of the reserve.

The President, a very talented person, might well have made a name on the stage. Her aptitudes have included painting, dancing, ballet in particular and acting. Although it is difficult to obtain much detail about these talents (she'd much rather talk about dogs) we did learn that she has made numerous stage appearances. An accomplished sportswoman, who began showing aptitude at the age of six, she had a handicap of one in golf. But dogs and horses have always been her major interest. She will be well remembered for her appearances in the ring and in hunts. A severe spinal injury has prevented her riding in recent years. Formerly noted for her wire-haired Fox Terriers, she has become famous for her Kerry Blues in the past 20 years, and for her contribution to the development of the breed.

Her home at Todmorden, Ont., near Toronto, is beautifully appointed, but is not run, as might be expected, by a household staff. Her help is primarily concentrated on her Tailteann Kerry Blue Kennels, which are outstanding for planning, layout and efficiency.

The president works closely with her staff, however, and on their days off personally feeds and grooms from 20 to 60 puppies and adults. The dogs are thoroughly exercised, including a daily two-mile hike as part of their routine. But to give them something of home life and love, Mrs. McEachren plays with them in the evening. She really loves those Kerries! The health and happiness of her dogs is the first concern of this noted breeder. When one of the brood females is about to whelp, she sweats it through and neither sleeps nor eats until "mother and babies are doing fine". Speaking of families, Mrs. McEachren has three grown children and is the proud grandmother of six youngsters.

RABIES RETREATING

Good news about the rabies situation is that the present epidemic, worst in ten years, has passed, according to Dominion officials.

"Whether it will flare up again next fall, we don't know," states Dr. W. A. Moynihan of the Federal Health of Animals Division. Much of the credit for the halting of the scourge is due to tireless laboratory work and to the crews of veterinarians who were moved into the northern sections to vaccinate dogs and attempt to control the spread.

Ontario was hardest hit of all the provinces, with 137 of the 183 cases reported in Canada during the last year. Twenty-five cases were found in Alberta, 11 in Manitoba, five in the Northwest Territories, and one each in British Columbia and Saskatchewan. The worst previous outbreak was in 1946, when 360 cases were brought to light.

BENCH MANNERS

Many avid dog lovers can't resist petting dogs, particularly at Dog Shows. At times we find it almost irresistable ourselves, and to conquer the temptation either keep our hands in our coat pocket, or behind our back.

Any number of dogs do not respond well to being benched as a result of passing crowds and noise, all of which forms a Dog Show. At one time or another, even the best-tempered dogs may feel a bit snappish.

There are several ways of dealing with this problem. One is to place a polite, neatly printed sign on the rear wall of your bench, conveying the idea that "we love you to love our dogs, but please don't touch them." Because the benches are fairly standard, we offer another suggestion that exhibitors affix a low fencing or gate across the front so that the dogs may be seen, but not so readily handled.

We have seen exhibitors wear an almost desperate look as passersby ruffle up the coats just after they have been carefully show-groomed. And if the nervous dog does nip a probing hand, who gets blamed?

DOGS WILL HELP IN SUMMER WATERFOWL BANDING OPERATIONS

Trained retrievers will be used this year in the summer waterfowl banding operations in Canada announces J. B. Gallop, Saskatchewan regional representative of the Fish and Wildlife Service.

This is the first year that special dog crews will be used by the Service, although individual members of Service banding crews and technicians from the Dominion Wildlife Service have used them successfully in past years. Experimental use of dogs has proven that they are more economical than other techniques for capturing immature birds.

The dogs will be used primarily on young mallards because of the tendency of that bird to leave the water when frightened and scurry to any available brush cover. One man and a dog will catch, band, and release between 20 and 50 birds a day, depending upon conditions.

According to present plans, four or five retrievers will be used. The dogs will be selected for their ability to perform properly, which means that they must be able to handle the birds without injury to them and to obey commands without hesitation.

The young mallard is the main target for the banding crews because of its importance to all four flyways. Other ducks to be banded will include the pintail, bluewinged teal, gadwall and baldpate. Some Canada geese will also be banded this year. The banding provides data important in the preparation of regulations on waterfowl hunting and management. Between 12 and 15 per cent of the banded birds are recovered during the fall hunting season.

While most of the mallards are taken on land the other young birds are usually drive-trapped in the water. This process consists of placing the trap, or enclosure with side wings, in the end of the pond and gently herding the young birds into it. The brood hens are taken at the same time since the hen refuses to leave her young.

About 50 persons will participate in the banding. Of these about 35 will be Fish and Wildlife Service technicians and personnel from State game departments. The Canadian Wildlife Service, game departments of the Provinces and private organizations interested in the waterfowl program also contribute workers. Usually between 27,000 and 30,000 birds are banded each year.

The banding program is carried out in connection with the summer waterfowl breeding ground surveys. Banding will begin in the latter part of June.

BEAGLING IN CANADA

The introduction to this background of Beagling in Canada has been contributed by Dr. Ray Lawson, a noted enthusiast.

It may come as a surprise to many that Canada has played a very vital role in the recent fantastic wave of popularity of the Beagle. There is probably no leading field champion beagle in North America to-day whose pedigree does not contain the names of at least several Canadian hounds. In tracing the history of Canadian Beagling many difficulties are encountered. Prior to the establishment of the Canadian and American Kennel Clubs, few authentic records were kept, and few beagle owners actually concerned themselves with careful selective breeding programs.

It has been handed down to us by word of mouth from old timers, that prior to 1875, the dog known as the beagle was a long bodied, crooked legged, black and tan animal, with a snipey muzzle and short ear. Remarkable improvement has taken place in recent years.

In the late '70's, dog shows began to make their appearance, and finally in 1884 the American English Beagle Club was formed, and drew up certain physical standards. The senior American beagler, General Rowatt of Carlinsville, Illinois, gave the breed a major boost in 1875 by importing high quality hounds from England. Daniel O'Shea of London, Ontario, managed to get some of this blood and became famous with his hounds at various dog shows. He guarded his strain very jealously, and seldom sold any puppies. However, O'Shea's famous champion Rattler, was used at stud to some extent, and Rattler's influence was carried on into that most famous of all North American beagle strains – the Elora Blue Caps of Hiram Card. O'Shea was a charter member of the American English Beagle Club, which is now known as the National Beagle Club. Last November it had its 65th annual field trials in Aldie, Virginia.

Hiram Card was a real hound man who lived near Galt, Ontario, and raised fox hounds early in his life. He moved to a farm near Elora, and bought a beagle called Card's Blue Cap, from William Asheton of Virginia. The parents of his first beagle were Blue Cap and Blue Belle, and had been imported from the English kennels of Sir Arthur Ashburnham. Card started breeding operations with various dams descended from the Rowatt blood, and also descendants of other imported stock derived from breeders in Maryland.

Hiram Card had very definite ideas as to quality, and conducted a remarkable programme of selective in-breeding. His hounds were noted not only for their good looks and voices, but for their tremendous stamina and desire to hunt. He was considered by many to be a crank, and certainly much of his writing in the early issues of Hounds & Hunting magazine would bear this out. He seemed to delight in caustic criticism of his rival American breeders, and was constantly engaged in argument on the relative points of hound quality. He seldom exposed his beagles to field trial competition, but much of his stock distinguished itself in leading American trials. His active breeding operations covered the era from 1885 to 1930. He lived to a ripe old age and has been gone less than 20 years. Many contemporary Canadian beaglers remember him well.

Card's breeding ideas paralleled those of the late Yellow Creek Watson, and much of the foundation stock of this master breeder in Missouri was the result of Card's earlier work with beagles.

The Blue Cap beagle had a ready market in the United States, and it was there that they really made their mark. However, there was a gradual dissemination of his blood lines in the surrounding farm country, and early beagling in Canada really radiated out in ever increasing circles from Hiram Card's territory.

There has been an upsurge of beagling interest in Nova Scotia with the formation of two clubs. Earl Corish is establishing a top-flight blood line in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, and Dr. Tyhurst of British Columbia has been collecting high grade foundation stock. However, in several large areas yet, the breed is a curiosity, but Canadian beagle breeders now are getting enquiries from every province.

The very nature of the animal inspires a fierce devotion on the part of their owners if they share the beagle's instinct for a love of the chase. Humans with hunting instincts will always be adequately numerous to maintain a high degree of quality in the hounds they breed. Thus their breeding operations are sure to prevent the sad spectacle of deterioration which has occurred in so many other breeds during the past 30 years, when dogs have been bred for purposes other than that for which the breed was developed and intended.

Canada is suited ideally for the full fruition of the functions of the Beagle, and the future prosperity of the breed is assured here.

In 1913 the Canadian National Beagle Club was formed, and held its first trial near Objibway, Ontario. Three years later, these trials were licensed by the American Kennel Club. About this time the Haigmeier brothers took up the breeding of beagles. After graduating in medicine, and settling near Preston, Ontario. Dr. Gordon Haigmeier enthusiastically took up scientific line breeding and by careful selection developed one of the finest blood lines in North America. His female, Haig's Trap, was the top winning field trial hound for the year 1924, and was one of the first international field champions. His ultimate attainment in beagledom was represented in a hound called Haig's Traveller, and several noted American beaglers publicly stated that this was the finest performing hound they had ever seen.

The late Jack Shaw of Forest, bred many good ones, and some have left their mark on the best United States strains. Shawanoo Flirt, Bess and Sally were famous in their day.

There are a great number of living Canadians who have been active beaglers for over 30 years, and it is quite impossible to mention them all. However, Lloyd Courtice of Oshawa has been internationally famous as a field trial judge for 25 years, and Hardie Brown of London, Ontario, has created an enviable reputation, not only as a judge, but as a skillful breeder during the past 18 years.

Following is a quotation from the concluding chapter of Bradford Turpin's "The Beagle", first American book on the breed, published in 1900. It is wonderfully descriptive and a sincere appreciation

"AS a pet he is handsome, affectionate and intelligent, and as a hunting dog he is active and strong, with the keenest nose and the sweetest voice of any of the hound family. His patience and perseverance in seeking his game are tireless, and his energy and courage in pursuit of it unbounded. At home or afield he is always a gentleman and an agreeable companion.

The sportsman who is wedded to his pointers and setters, who believes there is no sport worth following outside the whirr of the grouse or quail, usually looks with little interest upon the tiny pack and regards the humble rabbit as far beneath his notice. But on some clear, still October morning, when there is a suspicion of frost in the air, and the woods are gorgeous with the hues of autumn, he is persuaded to go out with the beagles for the first time.

The hounds are ordered into a promising swamp and all is quiet. The tyro in rabbit hunting is bored. He thinks it a pity to waste a day, and is planning to slip away home for a shot at the quail, when the musical voice of Millard breaks the silence. The other Beagles hark to him, and first one and then another adds his tongue as the cold trail becomes warmer. Suddenly the pack breaks into full cry, and the short, quick notes of the little hounds tell that the rabbit is up.

With a rush the chase dashes away through the thickets, and our friend becomes a bit interested, in spite of himself. Fainter and fainter in the distance grows the music till it dies away into silence, and the race apparently comes to an end. But wait a moment. The keen hounds have not yet lost their quarry. The rabbit turns back, and with the flying pack at his heels runs directly towards the quail shooter, the crack shot who prides himself upon his skill. He resolves to bag the game. Just then a grey streak flashes through the brush; he fires one barrel, then the other, and as the echo rolls away he catches a glimpse of the despised cottontail disappearing over the ridge.

His miss makes him a trifle angry. He determines to get that rabbit. He is bored no longer, but hastens from one point of vantage to another in the attempt to get a shot. At last his opportunity comes, but once more he fails, and this time turns the rabbit sharply back. The little hounds, driving like a whirlwind, overrun the trail. The music ceases and the eager Beagles cast far and near for the lost line. Our friend becomes as much interested in watching the tiny pack as he was in getting a shot at the rabbit. The dash and excitement of the Beagles charm him, and when at last Scorcher hits the track, when Laddie and June and Belle and all the others hark in and the chase is on once more, he is almost ready to throw his hat in the air with a cheer and declare there is no sport like it.

As the day wears on the tyro learns that the lowly cottontail is not by any means such a fool as he looks. He knows more than one trick to throw off his swift pursuers. He is an adept at twisting and turning and back tracking, till his trail is nothing but a complicated snarl; he knows enough to run the sandy road or the burnt ground, where scent refuses to lie, and if necessary he will dash through the wet swamp or even swim the narrow river to escape from the miniature pack.

Our friend learns too that it is not so easy to bag him as he bounds through the thickets, that he is not game for a pottering shot, but one that must shoot quick and true to stop him in full headway.

Before the day ends our amateur looks upon the rabbit with some little respect, and the Beagles rise rapidly in his estimation. He admires their courage, their endurance, their love of the chase, and when at last the setting sun marks the end of the hunt, the bored sportsman of the morning has become the enthusiast of the party. The charm of the chase has made him a devotee.

The Beagle is particularly adapted to the sport, which is to be found in the more thickly settled portions of the country. He is quiet, well behaved and rarely quarrelsome. He lives at peace with his mates, and the pack, be it large or small, can be kept together in the kennel yard without danger of disturbance. His diminutive size makes it possible to stow a half a dozen of the little fellows away under the seat of the hunting wagon. It costs but little to feed him, and his game is at home in every thicket and swamp.

The grouse and quail may have disappeared as completely as the auk, and ducks and plover may be nothing but a tradition, but the humble rabbit will still be at hand to enliven a day afield.

In the North is found the white hare. He inhabits the swamps in great numbers, and no matter how hard he is pressed by the pack, he never goes to earth. He runs much like a fox, and frequently takes the pack out of hearing. Farther South is found the coney, cottontail or gray rabbit, as he is variously called. In a rocky country this little fellow usually goes to earth after a short run, but in some sections of Massachusetts and farther south he is a bold runner, and depends more on his heels than on burrows for his safety. In an open country he is frequently run down and killed on the ground by the Beagles.

The sport to be obtained in such a region is without doubt the best seen in this country with the little hounds. Some of the packs of Maryland are noted rabbit killers, and among the best are the packs of Mr. C. Staley Daub and the Redland beagles. The hounds of the late Mr. Dorsey were also frequently hunted without the gun, and were as good as the best. On a day when scent lies well it is not unusual for these packs to account for every rabbit started. Most of the chase is in the open fields, the hounds are followed on foot and a good runner can see the hunt from start to finish.

Those Beagles that are accustomed to run their game to a kill drive with a dash and speed that is rarely seen in packs that are hunted to the gun. They seem to appreciate the fact that there is not a moment to lose, and from jump to kill there is wonderful fire and snap to their work.

The novice who desires to form a pack of Beagles should not begin the undertaking with the idea that it can be done in a month or season. To get together a pack in which one can take pride is often the work of years. The hounds must be equal in speed; they must hark to one another quickly; they must work independently before the game is found, and after it is up they must drive at an even pace with a free tongue. They must be under the control of their master, hunt where he desires and come quickly to the horn. To secure a dozen or more hounds that will answer these requirements is no easy task, but when once they have been got together and are well in hand, one has in them a constant source of pleasure for himself and friends.

Unless the amateur is willing to pay fancy prices for trained Beagles, he can perhaps do no better in making up his pack than to buy a number of youngsters from the best of hunting and bench stock. Let them be strong, rugged puppies, with thick coats, round feet, cobby bodies and typical heads. Bring them up together, take them into the woods constantly, and at a surprisingly early age they will begin to hunt. With a little help from their owner, their improvement will be rapid, and in them, with ordinary good fortune, the novice will have the nucleus of a pack.

Weed out the poor ones, keep only those that do honest work and that drive well packed. Get rid of the babblers and those that are too fast or too slow. Take pride in the hounds, train them carefully, treat them well; never use a whip. Do not get discouraged by misfortune or seeming failure, and in time one will have a pack in which he can justly take pride.

The fascination of hunting with Beagles is unending. One can take his pack afield every day from the beginning to the close of the hunting season and not tire of the sport. He may become weary of shooting, and willingly leave his gun at home, but never will he tire of watching the work of the hounds, and never will he hear sweeter music than that of the driving pack. Nor will his pleasure end with the beginning of the close season. The still moonlight nights of summer have an added charm when one loiters in the woods and listens to the clear notes of the Beagles as they follow their timid quarry from cover to cover. Now near, now far, the sweet chorus rises and falls and weaves a spell which makes the hours fly by all too fast. In summer or winter, at home or afield, the well bred, well trained Beagle is a constant source of pleasure and pride."

BEAGLING AT THE FIELD TRIALS

If you've never run with Beagles, you'll find new excitement in a centuries-old sport, says James H. Moffat, President, Club de Beagles, Ta-I-O, de Montreal, and contributor of this insight on Beagle Trials.

Fun in the sun-friendly spirit of comradeship, past triumphs of favourite beagles, and praise of present ones by fond owners and breeders, appraisal of various hounds for future breeding, testing your hounds in competition to see how they compare—these are the things making up our beagle field trials.

To those who have run with beagles, one of the great thrills is to listen to the hound music as they run their game over hill and dale. To listen to a pack in full cry is to listen to one of nature's greatest symphonies.

There are two types of trials, one on the Cottontail, the other on Hare, and both are run and judged differently, with somewhat different rules for each kind of game.

Spectators and owners at all field trials are known as the "gallery". In charge of the gallery are two, three, or more Field Marshalls, who also act as liaison men between judges and gallery.

Hounds are always run in four classes, one for 13" Females, one for 13" Males, one for 15" Females, and one for 15" Males.

Cottontail

At cottontail trials, hounds are always run in pairs or "braces", second and third series usually being made up of top placing hounds from first series.

The Gallery, under Marshall supervision, walk the running grounds until the cottontail is put up. On the cry of "Tally-ho", Judges and brace owners place their hounds where the rabbit was jumped, or started. The hounds then trail the game, followed by the Judges, who give points for the best checks, runs, use of brains; and demerits for babbling, mute running, backtracking, straying from the scent line, lack of brains, etc. These runs last from ten minutes to one half hour, when the brace is ordered up by the judges, and another brace started from the Tally-ho. Usually the winners show fine scenting power (nose), exceptional check work (brains) etc.

Winners are announced, and ribbons and trophies presented at the conclusion of the various classes.

Hare

At Hare trials, the hounds in each class bear a painted number on their sides to distinguish them to the judges while run in packs. These packs vary according to the number of entries in each class, usually from 5 to 25. Two judges may judge up to 25 hounds running at one time, while over 25 entries calls for additional judges.

All hounds are released at the same time and must first search and put up game (Hare). They are followed only by the judges and the judges' Marshall. The gallery must stay a distance behind under command of the gallery Marshalls, so as not to interfere with the pack running. Usually the Marshall tries to let the gallery drift sufficiently as to hear the hounds in full cry, and if possible to see some of the work.

A Hare stake must last at least three hours running time. During that time many beagles will be scratched for babbling, backtracking, quitting, rioting, and generally poor work. In the later stages of the run the pack will perform more smoothly and with fewer losses, once the inferior hounds are withdrawn. Then they are judged for first, second, third, etc. on results of their drive, stamina, brains, check work, etc. At the conclusion of the runs, the judges compare scores and award placings.

Summary

You will observe from the foregoing there is quite some difference in testing hounds at cottontail and hare trials. In the first instance (cottontail) they are tested for close, clean work for short periods of time, while at hare trials the hounds must exhibit searching ability, drive, steadiness, and stamina.

Hounds which can and do win in competition in both Cottontail and Hare Trials, are really to be treasured.

Beagle trials commonly take up entire week-ends. Usually on Saturday nights the owners, visitors, and club members celebrate with banquets and various programs for amusement.

This has been a bare outline only of what to expect at a field trial, and has been written for those who wish some understanding of the sport. I strongly urge each of you who love the outdoors, hounds, and hunting, to attend one of the many Field Trials held throughout the year.

CANADIAN NATIONAL SPORTSMEN'S SHOWS

FIRST SHOW

Three important shows comprised the competition at this year's Sportsmen's Show, held May 14, 15, 16 and 17. The latter dates were combined in the Third Show. Best in Show and Group winners are portrayed on this and the following two pages, with the identification of the dog, and the owner's name in brackets. One of the excellent features of these shows was the fact that the benching area was some distance from the ring, which helped diminish confusion. The excellent commentating and announcing assisted greatly in helping spectators understand the activities. All photographs in this picture story are the work of Miss Elizabeth Frey.

Altogether 1,685 dogs competed, with entries from many American States: New York, Michigan, Oregon, Massachussetts, Ohio, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Connecticut, Florida, Washington, D.C., and from the Canadian West Coast. Sportsmen's Show officials acclaim the 1956 Shows as drawing the best quality of dog at any Canadian Dog Show.

MORE ABOUT THE SHOWS

The three Sportsmen's Shows offered competition other than the usual prizes for the best decorated benches, and the 11 specialty shows brought out some of the finest competition seen anywhere. Two special feature presentations were the First Annual International Beagle Show and the Third Annual English Foxhound Show. The judges were outstanding, all carefully hand-picked, and trophies were of an unusually high calibre.

GROUP 6—l. to r.—Alfonco Von Der Goldensen Kette (Pennyworth and Clairedale Kennels); Fircoth Ballerine of Maryland (Seafren Kennels); Purswick Christopher Robin, (Mrs. A. J. Purse); Selby's Phantom Lady (Mrs. Virginia B. Selby).

Fircoth Ballerine of Maryland, owned by Seafren Kennels of Devon, Pa., took Best in Show in the Third Sportsmen's Show.

THIRD SHOW

Attendance, which was somewhat lower than was anticipated, picked up for the Third Show. The rabies scare was at its height, which decreased the number of spectators, despite the fact that purebred dogs, and particularly show dogs are least likely to pick up the disease. Weather, which played havoc with attendance at many functions early this Spring, also affected the Shows. A howling east wind (only twice in the past nine years of the Sportsmen's Show has similar weather been encountered) made adequate heating of the benching area almost impossible. Next year's Shows will be held at a later date, officials state.

News Bits

The following is an extraction from the March Newsletter of the Vancouver Dog Obedience Training Club:

"It is with the greatest pride that we announce that for the second year running a member of our Club came home with the Highest Scoring Dog Trophy from the very large 85 dog trials of the Seattle Kennel Club held this year February 25th and 26th.

Miss Marjorie Cummings and her young 15 months old shetland sheepdog Hi-Hope's Merry Macduff, Can. C.D.X. were the victorious pair. The score was 198 earned in Novice B. Our heartiest congratulations, Duffy! Our club entered disappointingly few dogs in this trial, but we are more than grateful that Miss Cummings and Duffy so well upheld our reputation."

Our congratulations to you Miss Cummings, and to Duffy! You have indeed brought much honour to your Club and to Canada, and of course to yourself and your dog. Keep up the good work.

ED.

The Vancouver Club also announces that arrangements have been made for Miss Blanche Saunders to return to Vancouver later on this year. Miss Saunders will conduct clinics and classes on obedience training for the Club, and for all other interested obedience people.

ED

The Hamilton Obedience Club report that they have been very busy this past Winter giving Obedience Demonstrations to the Scout Troops. As many as five demonstrations in one week were given. This is certainly a wonderful way to further the interest in obedience training.

ED

We were indeed sorry to get news direct from Bermuda that the proposed obedience trial could not be held there in April. Sorry to hear this, Bermuda, but we hope that you will have one before too long. Hope your dog show was successful.

Letters of Interest

Mrs. Mary E. Southcott, well-known dog obedience trainer and judge writes to us as follows: Thank you very much Mrs. Southcott, for furnishing us with some of the history behind our present day obedience training and trials. I am sure our readers will be interested in the contents of your letter.

We congratulate you and the German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada for having included in your training program classes for all breeds of pure-bred dogs, in order to stimulate and further obedience training.

"First, may I congratulate you on your fine Column on Obedience now appearing each month in Dogs in Canada. It is most gratifying to see this particular phase of the "dog game" becoming so increasingly popular and at long last taking its rightful place in the limelight.

3.	Retrieving: article to be thrown a minimum distance of fifteen yards. Speed and method of delivery to count	15 "

6.	Lying down, advancing, and lying down again, etc., on inaudible signal from guide	25 "
7.	Standing for examination	20 "

MANNER OF PERFORMANCE

1. When walking, the dog shall take position at left side with head close to left knee; the dog's shoulders not to advance ahead of guide's body. When trotting more leeway is given as regards position, but dog shall never be in advance of guide. Right and left turns to be executed as directed by the judge. When guide stops, the dog shall stop instantly and sit at heel without command and advance when guide proceeds.
2. To be repeated three (3) times. Guide must be at least ten (10) feet from dog; dog must "sit", lie "down" and "sit" again on first command for each position. Guide must stand fast and make no forward or any other intimidating motion toward his dog.
3. To be performed twice. Article to be thrown a minimum distance of fifteen yards. Dog should sit at heel, and on signal from judge, guide commands his dog to fetch, when he should depart at a fast gait and pick up the article without pawing or playing with it, and return to his guide at a quick pace. The dog must then sit in front of guide, hold the object without chewing or playing with it until ordered by the guide, on signal from judge to give it up; after which the dog must resume the heel-sit position without command.
4. Dog sits at heel and at signal from judge, guide gives command to jump. Dog should take all three jumps one after the other; pick up dumbell (previously left for that purpose) and return over all three jumps, finishing with dumbell in mouth in front of guide; upon the command to give the dog releases the dumbell and goes to heel position.
   If elected to jump each obstacle singly, the dumbell may be thrown over and retrieved over the jump finishing in the same manner.
   In each case, two starts allowed.
   Special Notice: These three jumps represent a wooden fence, a wire fence, and a hedge. They are 4 feet high and 4 feet in length. For dogs under 17 inches, they will be adjusted to 30 inches.
5. Dog is given an object by the guide, which object must be carried in the dog's mouth throughout the entire test. Dog heeling off leash, guide orders or signals "down", when dog should drop to a prone position;

Primrose Patch, Reg., Lake Placid, N.Y. has recently finished two Canadian Champions (subject to approval), Primrosepatch Lady Gold, bred by Mrs. Smith-Rewse and imported from England, and Primrose Patch Barney, also bred by Mrs. Smith-Rewse.

An interesting note about Primrose Patch Kennels is that whenever a new litter of Miniature Longhaired Dachshunds arrives the puppies are cared for not only by their mothers but by one of seven devoted Irish Wolfhounds and a six-pound Pekingese—an odd but happy assortment.

The beautiful representatives of Primrose Patch shown in the February issue of Dogs in Canada, incidentally, are all Can. and Am. Champions.

The striking Afghans which appeared in Dogs in Canada last month (page 13) have worked in another movie, owner Virginia Mika of West Covina, Calif., tells us. They appeared in the film It's a Dog's Life (Dogs, January, 1956) and have also appeared in television shows, and modelled for photographers. Miss Mika's Afghans have shown aptitude for Obedience work, as have Mrs. Mary Matchett's. Her Kismi Khan has one leg on her C.D., Ch. Kisu Khan, C.D. is about ready for her C.D.X., and Ch. The fact that they were wearing rubber overshoes is credited with preventing Margaret Ronalds 10, and Linda Carlburg, 8, of Listowel, Ont., from suffering the same fate as the Collie pup with whom they were playing. The pup became entangled with a live 110-volt wire and was instantly killed. A nearby contractor warned the girls, who were attempting to remove the body. Police and Hydro officers were notified.

"They've started taking me for granted again . . . . I guess it's about time to run away for a few days."

Can. Ch. SECRETARYS' REPORT

At the annual meeting of the Board of Directors, the President suggested that a quarterly report be published in 'Dogs in Canada' with a view of acquainting the membership at large with events of interest dealt with by the Board of Directors. The President's recommendation having been approved, this is the first of the reports to be made by the Secretary quarterly. It is understood that these reports are not intended to be a substitute for the minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors. These minutes will continue to be published as before.

ANNUAL MEETING OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Kennel Club was held at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, on February 6th, 8th, 9th and 10th and was attended by members of the Board from all the various electoral zones in Canada. There follows a brief summary of some of the items of business transacted by the Board at this meeting:

The following were named the Club's representatives to the Canadian National Live Stock Records Board, whose annual meeting was held at Toronto on March 20th: Mrs. M. E. McEachren, Walter Brown, J. W. McCallum, Mrs. N. T. Smith and W. J. Monaghan.

Mrs. N. T. Smith was re-appointed Chairman of a Committee to consider and report on her proposal regarding the holding of an annual convention. The Committee was authorized to prepare for publication in 'Dogs in Canada' an article seeking the views of the membership at large on this proposal.

The President, the Vice-President and the Secretary were appointed a committee to review the few remaining unpaid accounts owing 'Dogs in Canada' before it was transferred to the new publishing company.

The Board received a report signed by J. J. Farmer and J. Neill Malcolm who were appointed a Committee to study the Club's investments and submit a report with recommendations to the Board. Following discussion, it was decided that a list of the Club's secureties would be placed in the hands of one of the bond and trust companies with a view to the Club being advised from time to time of changing market values. The President, the Vice-President and the Secretary-Treasurer were appointed a Committee authorized to invest the Club's funds to the best advantage. The Board decided that when the schedule of investments is published quarterly that all necessary information would be given.

It was agreed that the Club should pay the expenses of the Club's representatives on the Board of Directors of Apex Publishers & Publicity Ltd. The Board recommended at the annual general meeting the appointment of Mr. Peter Wright, Q.C. and Mr. W. J. Monaghan as the Club's representatives on the Board of Directors of Apex Publishers & Publicity Ltd.

It was decided that a Long Range Plan Committee be appointed for the purpose of: (a) evolving ways and means of better achieving the objects of the Club; (b) drafting an integrated overall club policy; (c) formulating a comprehensive plan of breed research; (d) suggesting suitable preparations for the observance of the 75th Anniversary of the Club in 1963; (e) considering and recommending other plans, projects, ideas and suggestions deemed likely to promote the progress of the Club; the Committee to report regularly to the Board. Mr. W. J. Monaghan was named Chairman of the Committee with Committee members being Walter Brown and V. W. Williams.

Mrs. Pamela Mack was appointed Chairman of the Standing Committee for Obedience with power to add to the Committee as she sees fit. The appointed obedience representatives in the various provinces are automatically members of this Committee.

Dr. H. L. Watson, Chairman of a Committee on the Revision of Schedule of Chmpionship Point Ratings, presented a report to the Board of Directors, and after discussion the Secretary was instructed to prepare statistics on breed competition for the past three years and present a recommendation to the Board in connection with a revision of the presnt schedule of point ratings for championship shows.

The Board examined artists' sketches of a proposed button for those having a long period of membership in the Club. They decided what they considered to be the most attractive button. In the original consideration of this question, the button was described as being for "Old Guard" members, but these words were changed to "Long Service" members. The Secretary was authorized to arrange for these buttons to be ordered and where possible the buttons will be distributed by the local Directors. To qualify for a button, a person or partnership must be a paid-up member in 1956 and must have had 20 or more years of continuous membership or 25 years of membership not necessarily continuous. Any member eligible for one of these buttons should write the Secretary as soon as possible, naming the years in which he was a member.

For some years, the Club has not issued membership cards, however, the Board decided that this practice would again be instituted, and all those who are paid-up members in 1956 will receive a membership card. It was also decided that when mailing this card, the members would be furnished with an up-to-date copy of the Club's By-laws. These are now in the process of being printed and the cards and copies of the By-laws will be distributed.

The Board decided that funds donated to the "Emergency Fund" should be expended only for the partial replacement of breeding stock lost through a catastrophe. The Secretary was instructed to transfer the donations to this fund from the Clubs' accounts into a special bank account and arrangements will be made for the trustees to distribute the funds judicially.

The Board studied a report submitted by Mr. W. J. Monaghan in connection witth a pension plan for the members of the staff. The approval of such a plan was not considered advisable at this time.

In connection with a proposal that the Lhasa Apsos be transferred from Group #4 to Group #6, the Board directed the Secretary to arrange for the publication of a notice in 'Dogs in Canada' regarding this proposal seeking the views of those for or against such a transfer. Such notice was published in the March issue of 'Dogs in Canada' and any replies received will be considered by the Board of Directors at its meeting in May. The breed has been transferred from Group #4 to Group #6 in the United States. The Board, by resolution, authorized the transfer of the Rhodesian Ridgeback from Group #1 to Group #2. This new arrangement is effective immediately.

Mr. Peter Wright, Q.C., of the firm of Wright & McTaggart, was named as the Club's solicitor for 1956. Dr. Alan Secord was named as the Club's Honorary Veterinarian. Mr. J. A. H. Irving was re-appointed Chairman of the several Amendments Committees.

Lt. Comm. Malcolm McDougall was appointed Chairman of a Committee to co-operate with the Civil Defence authorities throughout Canada with regard to dogs for civil defence rescue work. Mr. McDougall was given power to add to the Committee.

The Secretary was authorized to make arrangements to meet with the officials of the International Foxhunter's Stud Book at Lexington, Kentucky, with a view to resolving any outstanding problems in connection with the registration of American Foxhounds, which has been done.

The Secretary was instructed to convey to Mr. Wm. H. Pym of Vancouver the Board's deepest sympathy on the loss of his mother. The Secretary was instructed to convey to Dr. J. A. Campbell, for many years Honorary Veterinarian of the Club, and to Mrs. P. A. Margeson, for a number of years, Maritime Director of the Club, the Board's best wishes for a full recovery from illness.

The Secretary was instructed to convey to the Hamilton Kennel Club the Board's appreciation of its kindness in providing the ribbons which are used to identify paid-up members entering the Club's annual general meeting.

The Board having regard for the increased volume of business now requiring the attention of the Secretary-Treasurer, realized the necessity of engaging a trained assistant who could carry on in the absence of the Secretary. The Secretary was given the power so to do.

The Secretary was authorized to visit the offices of the American Kennel Club.

Mrs. J. Gove, Director for the province of Manitoba, was appointed as obedience trial representative for Manitoba and for the purpose of furthering the interests of obedience in the Lakehead area of Ontario, she was asked to serve as obedience trial representative in that area also.

A visit to the Department of External Affairs in Ottawa re border crossings of dogs for shows and trials is being arranged.

The Secretary was authorized to make provision in the 1956 annual statements for the anticipated expenditure of approximately $3600.00 for the printing of the Stud Book for 1952.

The Board authorized the printing of stud books for 1955 and 1956, and authority was given the Secretary to provide for an estimated expenditure of $3600.00 for the cost of publishing the 1955 stud book.

The Board appointed a Shows and Trials Committee who would: (a) deal with all matters concerning shows and trials referred to the Committee by the Secretary, except complaints which might require disciplinary action; (b) do such other acts and things as may be calculated to improve shows and trials and assist show and trial giving clubs; (c) review, brief and make reports and recommendations in writing to the Board from time to time. Mrs. N. T. Smith was named as Chairman of the Committee with Mr. J. W. MacCallum, Mr. A. H. Loveridge and the Secretary as members of the Committee.

It was decided that the 1957 annual general meeting of the Club would be held at Montreal on Thursday, February 7th, and that the annual meeting of the Board of Directors would precede the annual general meeting and be held on February 4th, 5th and 6th. It was also decided that a semi-annual meeting of the Board of Directors would be held at Winnipeg on June 11th and 12th, 1956.

Mr. J. A. H. Irving was reappointed Chairman of the Several Amendments Committees, and also Chairman of the Standing Resolutions Committee.

A complaints committee was formed. The Vice-President, Mr. Walter Brown, and Director R. T. Lawrence were named as members of this Committee, the Chairman to have power to add to the Committee as he thinks necessary.

A Property Committee was appointed for the purpose of making a survey of the Club's needs in the way of office accommodation, considering whether the Club should build or buy an office building or should continue to rent, and consider any other ideas and suggestions, the Committee to submit a report with recommendations to the Board of Directors. Mr. Daniell-Jenkins was named Chairman of this Committee with power to add to the Committee.

The Board confirmed an earlier decision of the Board that meetings of committees should not be held in the Club's offices out of regular office hours.

The Board decided that the same medals which the Club had offered in 1953 and 1954 and 1955 be again offered in 1956. One medal is to be offered to the member of the Club whose dog wins the most Best in Show awards during 1956 at all-breed championship shows held under the Club's rules; the other to be given to the member of the Club whose dog wins the most Best Canadian-bred in Show awards at all-breed championship shows held under the Club's rules during 1956. It is understood that one member could not receive both medals, the second medal to go to the next highest dog in the case where the records showed that both medals would ordinarily be received by the same member.

It was decided that the application for registration form for individual dogs should be amended to permit of the applicant showing second or third choices in connection with proposed names of dogs whose registration is applied for.

It was decided that applications for associate membership submitted by clubs or associations would not be approved until such time as the Board of Directors had formulated the qualifications for election of clubs or associations as associate members.

The minutes of the annual meeting of the Board of Directors will be published.

STATISTICAL INFORMATION

The following statistical information is based on reports received from the Canadian National Live Stock Records.

During the first eight months of 1955, there was held under the Club's rules 64 championship shows, 19 licensed field trials and 35 licensed obedience trials. Although the full schedule of shows and trials to be held during the first eight months of the current year is not yet complete, there has been approved the applications for 63 championship shows, 35 licensed obedience trials and 12 licensed field trials.

CHANGES IN THE BY-LAWS

In the February issue of 'Dogs in Canada' it was reported that a majority affirmative vote had been registered, in the last referendum ballot, on a number of proposed amendments to the By-laws and other Rules of the Club.

On February 21st the Minister of Agriculture for Canada approved four amendments to the By-laws of the Club, these being proposed amendments #1, 3, 7, & 9 in the Referendum Ballot. In this section of the Secretary's report we shall explain the changes made.

Amendment No. 1: The vote on this amendment was as follows: In favour - 574; Against - 55.

This amendment adds to the Objects of the Club the following: "the encouragement and development of pure-bred dogs in Canada by: (h) assisting, in all ways possible, any activity, involving dogs, intended to further and/or protect the property and interests of the country and its inhabitants; (i) assisting any activity where those interested in pure-bred dogs desire to associate with those interested in other pure-bred live stock for the purpose of furthering the interests of their respective breeds or species". The first of these sections has in mind the Club assisting the civil defence authorities in Canada where dogs may be used for civil defence and rescue purposes; the second addition has in mind the Club working with other associations in such activities as the 4-H clubs.

Amendment No. 3: The vote on this amendment was as follows: In favour - 435; Against - 202.

This amendment adds to the existing classes of members a new class known as "Associate" members. The initial membership fee for an Associate member will be $9.00; the renewal fee, $7.50. Associate members will have the same membership privileges as ordinary members except that they may not stand for election, vote in an election, or vote at any general meeting of the Club. A person or partnership admitted to membership as an Associate member, and all who are admitted to membership after March 31st will be Associate members, must be an Associate member for a period of not less than three continuous years before he or it may apply for ordinary membership. A member in 1955 may continue his ordinary membership by renewing his membership in 1956, but any ordinary member in 1955 failing to renew membership in 1956 will automatically come under the provisions of Associate membership should he or it re-apply for membership in 1957 or later. The initial and renewal membership fees for ordinary members remains unchanged at $6.00 and $5.00 respectively.

Amendment No. 7: The vote on this amendment was as follows: In favour - 454; Against - 109.

The improvement of stock being an important factor in the advancement of the breeding and registration of pure-bred dogs, the Club's By-laws contain an Article outlining various powers of the Club designed to permit of the taking of action to realize or give effect to this important objective. The amending of this Article was considered necessary to carry out, in this important Article in the Club's By-laws, the added objects of the Club referred to in "Amendment No. 1" above.

Amendment No. 9: The vote on this amendment was as follows: In favour - 494; Against - 130.

Heretofore any five members of the Club, regardless of their period of membership in the Club, could propose an amendment to the Club's By-laws or its various rules. This amendment now provides that before any ordinary member may be one of the five sponsors required in connection with a proposed amendment to the By-laws or rules, he must have had not less than three years' of continuous membership in the Club. Associate members may not sponsor proposed amendments; that privilege is reserved to ordinary members having the required period of membership.

CHANGES IN THE DOG SHOW RULES

(Effective April 7, 1956)

Amendment No. 15: A vote on this amendment was as follows: In favour - 359; Against - 199.

This amendment to Chapter 9, Section 3, requires that where a Club has priority rights on a given date, it must submit its formal application for permission to hold a show on that date not less than six months before the date. The previous rule allowed a show giving Club having priority rights on a particular date to submit its formal application up to within three months of that date. As a Club without priority rights must submit its application for show date not less than four months before its proposed show, the result was when a show giving Club having priority rights on a particular date failed to hold a show on that date the date was no longer available to any other club. The change in the rule would mean that there would be a period of two months during which a Club without priority rights on a show date would have an opportunity of applying for a date vacated by a Club having priority rights.

Amendment No. 17: A vote on this amendment was as follows: In favour - 424; Against - 123.

Heretofore, any dog entered in an unofficial class, in order to be entered into such class, had to be entered in an of-

Calgary Kennel and Obedience Club
by Agness Hammond

March has been a particularly busy month for our Club. All members are working hard doing their share in the necessary preparation for the May shows and trial.

Dog Nights are well attended with members bringing their young dogs, to accustom them to other dogs and people. It is most gratifying to the Club to see the progress made in this respect by the canine members. Our thanks go to Donnie Brooks for his help to us all on these nights.

Graduation night, for our first Obedience School, was held April 3. Mrs. Aileen Fraser presented the diplomas, and has promised us any further help she can give, especially to those dogs that plan to enter the trials. Mr. Ray Koskinen gave an interesting display of field work, with the help of his Labrador Perky and his Chesapeake Ruffy. Their intelligence and obedience gave us all a goal to aim for. Many thanks to Mr. Koskinen.

The Canadian Chesapeake Club
by Ed. Bolander

The Canadian Chesapeake Club was formed at a meeting held in Edmonton, Alberta, January 24, 1956. The Club is protected by a Provincial as well as Dominion Charter.

Its object is to encourage, foster and develop among its members and others an interest in dogs in general and in Chesapeake Bay Retrievers in particular.

To promote, organize, conduct and manage field trials, obedience tests, etc. To encourage selective breeding with the highest qualities of bench and field in mind. To help breeders dispose of their surplus stock to desirable buyers.

The Club was very fortunate in securing convenient grounds for training and holding of field trials. The grounds provide both catering and housing service.

The inauguration will consist of an open field retriever trial to be held on the Club grounds at the end of May, 1956.

The meeting elected the following Officers: Pres., Jas. Bell; Vice-Pres., W. Slocombe; Secy. Treas., Ed. Bolander. Directors: Frank Cockrall, A. F. Belyea, P. Silk, A. Guns, Jas. Riddell. Field Trials: Pat St. Peter, A. F. Belyea, P. Silk, S. Webb, W. Slocombe, A. Baker.

The Club was organized with a membership of 17. It welcomes membership from any Chesapeake owner in Canada.

The Central Ontario Beagle Club
by Philip B. Jacobi

The club held their annual meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sinclair at Meadowvale, March 23. Despite inclement weather we had an excellent turnout of our regular members and also 25 new enthusiasts showed up. There was discussion of plans for the Annual Specialty which this year will

Collie and Shetland Sheepdog Club of Canada
by Don Taylor

On April 10 our meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Fossey of Highland Creek. It was with regret that we were forced to accept the resignation of our secretary, Mrs. Betty Drewe. I am sure our members feel that Betty has done a very commendable job over the past years. Although a Collie owner, Betty did not show or breed dogs, however she certainly made her contribution to the promotion and advancement of our breeds. Our treasurer Mrs. Gladys Taylor was elected to fill the vacancy, as there are numerous items to be dealt with in connection with our Specialty Show held last month, the additional work will require much of her time. Our May meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Taylor, Richmond Hill.

Dachshund Club of America

by Jean M. Bodemer

The Club held its meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Kerr of Wallaceburg. It was wonderful to see so many at our meeting and to welcome some new members from the surrounding district.

Much correspondence was dealt with –letters from across Canada showing the Dachshund breeders are interested in our Club.

To top the meeting a very interesting talk was given by our vice president, Dr. Fred Bridgeman, of Burlington. The topic was rabies. We are all interested in how we can prevent our dogs getting a disease and Dr. Bridgeman told us, as well as many more things to help us protect our dogs. The club is hoping to have more talks of interest to the members.

May 6 is our next meeting at the home of Mrs. Havlicek of Jerseyville.

At the closing of the meeting lunch was served by Mrs. Kerr.

Dog Lovers' Association

by Geoffrey White

It might well be that April's report will be due for a fair amout of censoring. At our April meeting we had a visit from one of the editors of Dogs in Canada and as we feel like being quite complimentary to the "boss lady" we are wondering whether her sense of modesty will override the instinct that editors have for accurate reporting.

Miss Kaye Peer, the editor in question, outlined some of the ideas the magazine has for future development from a production angle and also discussed plans for increasing its circulation. We would like it to go on record that after meeting Miss Peer and hearing her plans and witnessing her enthusiasm we all feel that we have complete confidence in the future of Dogs in Canada.

One of the things that particularly struck us was Miss Peer's sincere invitation of constructive criticism. It was explained to us how difficult it is for an editor to know just how to build up a magazine if the readers do not say what they like and do not like. And that makes sense.

We were quite surprised to learn of the number of enquiries received in the magazine's office from people looking for certain breeds. Miss Peer told us that, naturally, the enquiries are passed on to those who advertise in Dogs in Canada. And that makes sense, too. It is not suggested for one moment that our speaker had the selling of advertising space in mind but we feel sure that that is just what happened.

Sincerely, Miss Peer made a very fine impression on us in Barrie and we all wish "more power to her elbow".

The German Shepherd Dog Breeders Assoc. Inc.

by Paul Firman

Our regular monthly meeting was held on Tuesday, April 3 at the home of our president, Mr. Spencer Weller, with a wonderful turnout of members. The 12 point program outlined by our president at the beginning of the year has been a great success so far due to the enthusiasm of the whole membership. Mrs. Mary Hart, our capable and hard-working Show Secretary, reported that all arrangements have been made for our 4th Annual All Breed Show at the Scarboro Arena, Kingston Rd. and Birchmount on June 16 next. Each member has been allotted certain duties in regard to the show and all signs point to our most successful show yet.

Our weekly training program received an auspicious start on Sunday, April 8, in front of the Coliseum at the C.N.E. Lots of dogs in all breeds with their enthusiastic owners, in spite of anything but Spring-like weather.

Old-time breeders and novices alike are thoroughly enjoying our monthly lecture on the German Shepherd, followed by a question-and-answer period after which refreshments are served. Last month about 40 members and old friends enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Anderson's hospitality while improving their knowledge of the breed. Our next get-together will be held at the Wellers' on April 21.

Many of our breeders report the arrival of some very fine litters and the development of their younger dogs so the competition looks to be keener than ever this year.

German Shepherd Dog Club of Western Ontario

by Ed Summerfield

The annual meeting was held January 17, with a fine turnout of members. Ed Summerfield was again returned to office for his third year. Mr. George Carpenter, Vice-president and Alice Cook, secretary. Recording Secretary, Gordon Brackett. Directors: Paul Stoper, Milt Chapman, Kay Wimbush, and Bill Cook.

Everything seems to be moving along well, with the 2nd Annual Dog Show coming up in May, with the Forest City Kennel Club. Mr. Lloyd Brackett of Long-Worth fame will pass on the German Shepherds. Edna tells me she has a lovely trophy list. Training will start soon again in Queen's Park. All that is needed is nice weather.

cryptorchidism, and finished by giving us what information they had been able to obtain on that much-discussed subject of subluxation.

March ushered in the first big dog show of the year for the district, and many of our members did extremely well with their Shepherds at the Sportsmen's Shows. The nicest win was undoubtedly the one made by Doug Ames' Ch. Burma at the third show, when she went from Best of Breed to place 2nd in the Working Group and then on to Best Canadian Bred in Show. Several of our members' Shepherds gave a good account of themselves in the Obedience Trials also, but had better look to their laurels, since highest score in the Trial which I judged went to a marvellous little Papillon. Again this year our Club was asked to put on a demonstration of obedience training in the Sporting Area of the Sportsmen's Show, and upon three evenings our group gave a very commendable performance for the public and were enthusiastically received.

March 11 brought to a close the second obedience training course of the season sponsored by our Club at Fort York Armories in Toronto, and George Lucas and myself judged the graduating classes after which silver cups were handed out to the winners. The last course prior to the summer vacation commenced on March 18 with another large enrollment, over half of which are again German Shepherds.

March 25 was the occasion of a General Meeting of the Club members, and it was very gratifying indeed to see such a fine attendance at both the meeting and the dinner which followed. At this time the remaining certificates for the members being the breeders of Shepherds having obtained their Championships during the past year were distributed, the draws were made for the prizes offered to those contributing donations during our "Games Week", and two cakes were raffled off — proceeds again going to the Seeing-Eye Dog fund.

The Irish Setter Club of Canada

by Evelyn Howe

Our February 23 meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Marshall, Agincourt, was addressed by Mr. Anderson of the S.P.C.A. who described that organization's activities. We learned, among other things, that most unclaimed dogs are not destroyed, but placed in new homes; that circus animals receive good care and are trained without cruelty; that round-the clock inspection prevents cruelty at the stock yards and that the junk man's cart is usually pulled by a sound horse.

Our March 17 Specialty at the Canadian National Sportsmen's Show was attractively presented and well-attended. Hearty congratulations were accorded Ernie and Ethel McGowan whose Kingarvie Terrence Red went from the classes to Best of Breed, with Ethel McGowan handling. Mart Kenny Jr., with Inniscara Katherine Torrie, also from the classes went to Best of Opposite Sex, Art Burden handling. Our St. Patrick's Day Parade of Champions drew an appreciative audience with extra applause to Mr. and Mrs. John Royston's gallant old (12 yrs.) Champion Rory of Browside, oldest dog in the line, and to Mr. and Mrs. Ken Honsberger's Champion Toni of Kenten who was born on St. Patrick's Day. The concluding portion of our specialty show was filmed for television and it is hoped that members and others will be able to see it.

Among the many who worked hard to make our specialty a success, all will agree that Mrs. Wes Ionson's outstanding contribution deserves special mention. With eight dogs (4 Irish, 4 Papillons) to prepare for show, she found time and energy to work on bench decorations and handled, where possible, her entire entry.

Following the show, on March 18, President Roy and Mrs. Dafoe entertained Irish Setter exhibitors at a buffet supper in their home at Port Nelson. Special supper guest was Mr. George E. Brodie, Jr., well-known U.S. Irish Setter breeder (Seaforth Kennels) of North Easton, Mass. Holding a B.Sc. in agriculture, majoring in animal husbandry and physiology with a later year and a half of research in dog nutrition, Mr. Brodie gave generously from his wide knowledge, several suggestions that would enable our group to produce the best Irish Setters in North America. Chief of these was a careful co-operative plan of breeding that is now impossible in the U.S. The discussion was good, the guests loath to leave, and thus ended our 1956 specialty.

The Lakehead Kennel Club
by J. W. Haggerty

The response to our Obedience venture has been very inspiring to the members who were responsible for starting the training classes. We have three training classes behind us now and although we are not fully organized we can already count some of the benefits of Obedience training in a club: more interest, more members, more publicity and more dogs.

Our "All-Breed" shows will be held in new surroundings this year. We could not get the accommodation which we consider necessary for a show of high calibre and wide drawing power from the Lakehead Exhibition. We will announce our dates very soon—see you all come September.

Purebred dogs will be on parade each evening at the local Sportsman's Show in the Lakehead. Bill Kelly is heading a committee to glamourize the presentation.

A hearty welcome to all the new members and their dogs. We will meet you at the Obedience classes and in September we will have a demonstration ready to prove our results.

A male Pom, Kavilla Sugar and Spice, bought from Mrs. Muntz of Sacramento, Calif., has joined a new owner, Eva Ross. A male Peke puppy from Mille-Marr Kennels has been introduced to a new owner, Irene Brooks.

London Canine Association
by Mildred Dark

Our regular monthly meeting was held in the Club rooms on March 21 with President Mr. Cooper presiding with a good turnout of members.

A hearty welcome was extended to the new members present. Much enthusiasm prevailed over the plans for our Fall Show. We are happy to report that Mr. Hessel is slowly improving. Still confined to Hospital, we hope he soon will be back with us.

We are very pleased to report the exceptional wins of Betty and Alex Dickson's three Samoyed puppies at the Samoyed Specialty Show at the Sportsman Show in Toronto. There were 34 entries including American Champions and Buck, the latest import of the Dicksons, captured top honors. All three puppies were top winners and it was their first time in the ring. They also received many beautiful trophies.

Our Club had the pleasure of meeting with Beagle Club and the German Shepherd as the guest of the Forest City Club on April 4 in the Duchess of Kent Club rooms, Dundas St. Mrs. N. T. Smith of Hamilton was guest speaker and gave a very interesting address dealing with the rules of the Canadian Kennel Club and the benefits available to breeders. We are looking forward to more such meetings.

The Club is very pleased to announce that the star attraction at our trials, May 26 and 27 will be the fox-hounds of the Lake of Two Mountains Hunt. Many have requested a repeat of the wonderful exhibition of three years ago by the hounds. Through the kind courtesy of the Joint-Masters of the Hunt, Air Vice-Marshal Adelard Raymond and Mr. H. J. O'Connell, the Huntsman, Raymond Cottier, will again parade the hounds assisted by two mounted "Whippers-in".

In March, at the invitation of Mr. Alfred Rohrbach, who is organizing an obedience school, seven members and their dogs travelled to Three Rivers, Quebec, to demonstrate Obedience. To the delight of the capacity crowd, Mrs. Lorna Casgrain, the commentator, switched to French when told that over 85% of the spectators were French-speaking.

The Sanction Obedience Trial held by M.C.O.C. on April 7 was a huge success. Coming as it did before the Spring shows it provided an excellent opportunity for handlers to see the strong and weak points of their dogs. Entries totalled 39 with only 5 absentees. The Open class, judged by Mr. W. R. Newcombe of Montreal Dog Obedience Training Club, produced the highest score for the day, a brilliant performance by the parti-colour Am. Cocker, Susie, owned by Kay Harrison of MDOTC, score 198. Next was Cairn Terrier, Scone, owned by Jean Ferrabee of MCOC, score 193. Utility, judged by Mrs. Newcombe, was also won by Susie, thus providing the oddity of the same dog winning both highest and second highest scores in trial! Novice, judged by L. Nygren, was won by silver Min. Poodle, Tuppence, owned by member Connie Smyth, score 177. A young English Setter, "Coin", owned by Pat Detmold of MDOTC was next with a score of 174½. In the Beginners Novice class, white Min. Poodle, Tom Noddy, owned by member Valerie Reid was placed first with score 153 out of a possible 155 points by judge, L. Nygren. Second was Boxer, Duke, with owner Gerry Bradley, score 152.

The new Club pins have arrived and are in great demand. Eighteen were distributed at the first training session after they were received.

This is definitely the banner year for Obedience in Montreal. An amazing total of 77 dogs are registered for Mrs. Alex Casgrain's classes this spring alone. The Advanced class has 19 dogs attending regularly. Though as usual, many may drop by the wayside, the graduation of this class should set a new record for the city.

Ontario County Kennel Club
by Mrs. H. F. Porter

The March meeting of the Club was cancelled at the last moment, due to the illness of several members. This was disappointing as entertainment and refreshments had been arranged. However, it is hoped the invalids have all recovered by now and that they will be out in full strength for the April meeting.

Plans for our annual All Breed Championship Show, which is being held on June 23, at the Whitby Community Arena, are well in hand, and the Trophy Secretary, Mrs. Joan Souch, reports good results for her efforts. It was unfortunate that the Show had to be postponed from April 21 and the Show Secretary, Mrs. H. F. Porter, hopes intending exhibitors have become acquainted with the change of date, and that they have not been inconvenienced too much. The Judges are the same as previously advertised, and it is hoped there will be a good entry. The Premium List and Entry forms will be mailed out in good time.

The Progressive Kennel Club of Canada Inc.
Gertrude W. Drew

The April meeting was given over mostly to the selection of judges for the September show. Several Judges were discussed and it was felt that owing to the club's financial commitments for this year it was necessary to curtail expenses as much as possible. In view of this it seemed expedient to choose all Canadian Judges with lesser fees, due, of course, to lack of travelling expenses. It was decided to use a panel of all Canadian judges.

The Bulldog Club are to hold a booster show, anyone wishing information in this regard may contact the Pres., Mr. Roy Dewsbury, Locust Hill, Ont. The show will be held in Scarboro Arena Gardens. Don't forget the date, June 2.

The May meeting will be held at the home of Clarence and Martha Stevens, 1698 Gerrard St. East. The club would like everyone to make a special effort to attend this meeting as the final arrangements for the June show must be made then.

Rhodesian Ridgeback Club
by Ann King

A meeting was called on the evening of April 12 to form a Rhodesian Ridgeback Club, and it is very gratifying to report that the attendance was beyond expectation.

The highlight of the evening was the unexpected and thoughtful cable from Mr. Paddy Green, vice chairman of the South African Ridgeback Club, and well-known judge on several continents.

The cable read: "As Vice-Chairman and member of the South African Rhodesian Ridgeback Club, I wish the Ridgeback Club best for future on its inaugural meeting." Mr. Green judged the Crufts this year, and is one of the pillars of the breed.

Mr. John Daniell-Jenkins chaired the meeting until the acting officers were elected, in handing over to the acting president, Mrs. Hager Heatherington. The other acting officers; vice-president, Mrs. J. H. Daniell-Jenkins, secretary, Mrs. D. F. W. King, treasurer, Mrs. R. Richards.

The president appointed a constitutional committee and ordered them to report at the next meeting, called for May 16.

Having dealt with the business on the agenda, we are very proud to report that the sole aim and object of those attending the meeting transpired to be that of furthering the Rhodesian Ridgeback in Canada. We trust that subsequent to the meeting of May 16 we will be in a position to give a more full report for the benefit of those interested in the breed.

Would anyone wishing to join the Club, or those who are interested in the breed through South African contacts please get in touch with secretary, Kobje Kennels, Reg., Rouge Hills P.O., Ont.

The Toy Dog Breeders Association of Canada
by Doris Green

The Club held its well attended April meeting on Tuesday, April 3, at 14 Delaware Ave. The President, Mrs. Yan Paul presided.

Members were gratified with the response to our Specialty Show. We wish to thank all the kind contributors to the trophy list; and all the exhibitors who helped make our show a success. The raffle for the Toy Poodle created interest and raised a goodly amount, thanks to the efforts of our chief ticket booster, Mrs. M. Sheahan.

Members of our club feel that to promote good sportsmanship, they will undertake to discipline themselves should any member show discourtesy at dog shows. A member found guilty of such an act will be suspended from the club, and the suspension made known in this column.

Members are at present busy working on plans to hold a Spring Rummage Sale under the direction of Mrs. M. Seymour.

guide continues advancing and having proceeded a minimum of ten (10) paces but still advancing orders or signals dog "to heel", when dog should come to heel without further command. This test to be repeated several times.

6. Dog to lie down, guide to move off as far as possible in the ring. On inaudible signals from guide, dog must advance, lie down, advance, etc., etc.
7. Dog in standing position — allows stranger to handle feet, body, head and tail without resentment. Guide then drops back six (6) paces with judge; dog remains standing in good position and attention.
8. In all cases no leashes are allowed from the commencement of the test.

SPECIAL NOTICE — OPTIONAL ENTRY FEES OBEDIENCE CLASS

As entrance in one of the regular C.K.C. classes is compulsory in order to enter the Obedience Class, entrants may pay full entry fees ($3.00) and ($1.00) and be entitled to all prizes they win OR they may pay full fee ($3.00) in the regular class and twenty-five (25c) cents only in the Obedience Class and be entitled to compete for Specials only in the C.K.C. class, but are eligible for specials and cash prizes in the Obedience Class.

Since it was not until 1936 that the A.K.C. adopted rules and regulations governing Obedience Test Field Trials (as they were known at that time), this Obedience Class, held in conjunction with the C.N.E. Dog Show nearly twenty-one years ago, will probably be interesting to the many obedience enthusiasts to-day.

Of further interest may be the fact that the German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada started obedience training well over thirty years ago. At that time "Field Trials" as they were then known, were held for competition of German Shepherd Dogs only. Rules and regulations for three separate classes were drawn up by the Club and approved by the Canadian Kennel Club. Titles of F.T.C. (Field Trial Companion), F.T. S.D. (Field Trial Service Dog) and F.T.Ch. (Field Trial Champion) were awarded to dogs obtaining the required points, and these were recognized by the C.K.C. The tests, or exercises, were much more complicated and involved than those of today's Obedience Trials. It was only natural that as the owners of many other Breeds became interested in obedience training exercises had to be adapted to all Breeds. It is to be hoped that the ideas and plans now in the nucleus stage for the inception of a Service Dog Class will be realized. I might mention that for the past two or three years the German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada have included in their training program classes for all Breeds of pure-bred dogs. This was done in order to further obedience in general, and has proven highly successful. Classes are held weekly, and the average enrollment for each ten-week course is in the fifties.

With every good wish for the continued success of your column, and kindest regards,

Why GAINES is the answer to the dog breeder's nutrition problems

Here's the Problem. It is no secret to dog breeders and veterinarians that many commercial dog foods vary considerably in their nutritional value—frequently from feeding to feeding. This state of affairs has led to a problem in the correct feeding of dogs — where, as these experts well know, a completely balanced diet is essential.

And Here's the Answer. The unique homogenization process, developed and used exclusively by Gaines, GUARANTEES THE DOG UNIFORM NOURISHMENT. In Homogenized Gaines Meal, all ingredients are blended into nuggets, each containing a balanced amount of ALL the food elements that the dog needs to build and maintain health and strength. Nutritional values thus cannot vary from feeding to feeding.

The Proof of the Pudding . . . ! Homogenized Gaines Meal is the result of many years of research by Gaines Research & Control Laboratories (and by the famous Gaines Research Kennels). Every step of this research has been carefully checked by ACTUAL FEEDING TESTS, carried out on generations of dogs at the Gaines Kennels.

Economical in Use. Gaines Meal contains balanced quantities of carbohydrates, fats, vitamins and minerals —plus more meat and fish proteins—all derived from natural foods. However, in spite of its high nutritional value it is by no means expensive. Cheaper, inferior meals require supplements if the dogs are to receive all the food elements they need. Gaines does not. It should be remembered also that a 25 lb. bag of Gaines contains all the food values of 75 lbs. of canned dog food!

Considering these factors, it is easy to see why Gaines is the world's largest selling dog meal. Be sure that the next consignment of food you order is Homogenized Gaines Meal.
