COVER STORY

The toy Poodle Ch. Fieldstreams Valentine, this month's cover dog, is a coal black son of Ch. Fieldstreams Bojangles (who is also black) out of the brown Ch. Chaman Grouse, purchased in Scotland.

Bojangles was Best Toy at the Poodle Club Specialty in 1957 and 1958. Valentine took over the title from his father in 1959 and was also Best of Variety at Westminster and Best American Bred in the Toy Group that year.

The home of his owner, Mrs. Harvey F. Kelch, is Fieldstreams, located in a pleasant rural locale near Peekskill, 50 miles north of New York City. For several years Mrs. Kelch raised German Shepherds, then switched to Toy Poodles in 1948 with the purchase of litter sisters—daughters of Ch. Gremlin—one silver and one brown. She also bought Leicester's Eudoron, a tiny blue, as mate for these females. Mrs. Kelch's interest in Poodles has developed into a famous kennel of approximately 75 dogs in all colors. Her endeavour now is to achieve color regularity along with size, she informs Dogs.

Mrs. Kelch's efforts on behalf of Poodles have extended well beyond her own kennels. She has served actively for some years in the Poodle Club of America, with a term as president about to conclude.

During the past ten years amazing strides have been achieved in Toy Poodles, she observes. "The 'toy head' has been practically eliminated but we need to pay more attention to color lines and give up mixing 'rainbow hues.'

"Too many people are breeding a few Toys indiscriminately and are all heading in different directions," she adds. "We need more good-sized planned kennels dedicated to the Toy variety."

Memo FROM THE EDITOR

READING the book review in Time magazine being one of our habitual pastimes, we bit innocently enough into a dissertation on Kingsley Amis' appraisal of the science-fiction situation under the title of "New Maps of Hell."

It reads: "Are science-fiction addicts still to be classed with such pariahs as matchbook collectors, astrologers, dog breeders, philatelists, health foodists and canasta bugs? Or have they gained the social level of horse players ($50 and $100 windows), opera lovers, physicists, bridge careerists and sportscar nuts?"

A brief consultation with Webster's dictionary confirmed to a letter the reviewer's use and intent of the word pariah; "any outcast; someone despised or rejected by others".

Why are collectors of matchbooks disdained by some – any more than bridge players and sportscar "nuts"? Why are dog breeders not in the social category of the horse players ($50 and $100 windows)? Horse shows, horse races, dog shows and trials all have the same end purpose – and breeders of both horses and dogs attend them for the same basic purpose – for the comparison and betterment of the breed.

Throughout the centuries, from thousands of years before Christ, the dog in many countries was held in highest esteem and in some regarded as sacred. In England, where certain breeds had long been respected for their work as shepherds and hunters, dogdom gradually came into its own; specifically when the first modern show was held in Newcastle in 1859. From that time on a portion of the public began to appreciate the grace and beauty of many breeds. At the same time fanciers strove to improve and eventually to standardize their breed. As in equine competition, dog shows were sponsored by the leaders of the community, usually titled persons or "landed gentry". Their social strata was unquestionably the highest and their "doggy' activities rated respect.

For a number of centuries ownership of some breeds was restricted to court circles only. Other breeds, previously confined to their native country, became known in England and Europe through the interest of titled people.

It would seem then, that purebred dogdom was at one time on a par with the "sport of kings". Was the change in the public's attitude a sudden one or a slow metamorphosis? What were the influences? Perhaps it had its inception when the industrial revolution in the early 19th Century made it possible for more people to own property and enjoy a greater share of this world's luxuries. With the growth of urban areas succeeding generations found they could afford a purebred dog from an ever-widening variety of breeds. They could select a breed compatible with their desire, accommodation and pocketbook. At the close of World Wars I and II more varieties became established on this continent as dog-loving servicemen returned from far corners of the world with breeding stock. And so the ripple spread. So much for the progression of purebreds from royal to everyday households.

But what of the dog breeders themselves? The wholesale disparagement of the Time reviewer we feel, is unjust. But on what ground would he take such liberty? In any field of endeavour, we all know there are a few "bad apples" which do nothing to enhance the "barrel". When did the downgrade of public respect begin? Was it in the last half century? We have not been in the sphere of dogs long enough to adequately contemplate this possibility. Perhaps some of our older breeders, through their experience and that of their families before them, can throw some light on the quandry.

Be that as it may, no one person stands alone in his vocation or avocation. There are a few who are careless of their appearance or deportment. These types are conspicuous to the detriment of the majority who are conscious of their responsibility and who not only command respect for their dogs but for themselves. Their personal standard of behavior at home and on the road speaks well for breeders as a whole.

Breeders are seen by the general public in two places. Their reputation and that of the field as a whole falls or stands at shows and at their own kennels where prospective buyers are either delighted or repulsed. Who has not heard the remark of a potential customer: "Their dogs are beautiful – but you should see their kennels!"

The early shining days of dogdom did not become established overnight. Nor did the gradual decline. No one person can elevate the whole sphere of dogdom any more than a single person can cast a shadow on it. At the time of writing Financial Post has just released an article to the effect that mongrels are losing out to the purebred, that the registered purebred dog population has grown 100% since 1950. With this upsurge the time is ripe to make Canadian dogdom an enviable sport and hobby. The book reviewers' appelation becomes a challenge to us all to make his reference entirely unwarranted and inaccurate.

FIRST OBEDIENCE CONVENTION

. . . On Sunday, May 8, the Obedience Association (Ontario) sponsored what we believe to be the first obedience convention in Canada, held at Burlington, Ont. This meeting of obedience-minded people resulted in a clearer knowledge on such subjects as Judging, Stewarding, Tracking, Exhibiting and many other features including formation of clubs and training classes. The able instructors cleared up numerous bothersome problems.

This type of gathering, we understand, will be an annual undertaking by the Association and we as a participating club at the 1960 convention heartily recommend you plan to attend in future years.

Congratulations should go to Mrs. N. T. Smith, originator of the convention idea, to all members who participated and especially to the members of the Burlington KC who were convention hosts.

FINE BASENJIS LOST

. . . I expect you heard about our great loss from fire of my three fine male Basenjis on that dreadful stormy night of February 26. . . I had so often heard of dogs being lost in kennel fires but never thought it would happen to me. We feel sure it was caused from a downdraft on the space heater in the kennel, as the winds were so terrific that night. Everyone assures me that the dogs would not have suffered as the dense smoke from these burners would have taken them immediately.

I lost my fine showdog, Ch. Beau Dandy of Blue Nile, also Ch. Baka's Legacy and Fine Fella . . . I considered Dandy the finest Basenji I had bred; since gaining his championship he only lost the Best of Breed award once and that to his litter sister, Ch. Canadiana. He was a great favorite with people and judges alike, as he was such a bubbly, friendly little fellow, possessing great showmanship. In 1958 he ranked fifth in group placings of all Basenjis shown in USA and Canada and was only shown six times that year. Dear old Abakaru (nearly 12 years old) being our housepet, was saved and fortunately Maggie (Ch. Glenairley Lucky Magnolia) happened to be in Quebec Province.

DON'T RISK BY GUESSING

. . . I have just had a seven-year-old female Golden Retriever operated on for pyometritis. At the time of writing she is in the balance. For a week, due to her being bloated and subject to constipation periodically, I treated her for constipation. While giving her an enema which took almost a full hot water bottle, I started to realize that this bloatedness must be more than constipation, especially when she started to hemorrhage at the uterus. This fluid had an odor similar to that of a half-incubated chicken, very sickening. I immediately rushed her to the hopital, where little hope was given. The doctor has just informed me that so far the operation has been successful.

I would like to suggest to all other would-be practitioners that no matter how much you think you know, like myself, something always stumps us. It is far better to consult your veterinarian rather than have the heartache which my wife and I had to succumb to.

PENALTY vs. DISQUALIFICATION

I have read with interest Mr. MacKendrick's letter in the May issue in reply to my recent article on changing of standards. Mr. MacKendrick refers in his letter to the present proposal to end disqualification of Miniature Schnauzers over 14 inches and to replace the disqualification by a "severe penalty." Justification for such a move, as I read the letter, would be the fact that there are oversize Miniature Schnauzers which have a contribution to make to conformation and that the size gene is recessive so that the probability of like begetting like is decreased.

I agree that oversize Miniature Schnauzers may have a great deal to contribute to conformation.

Similarly:

A Boxer, more than one-third white, may have much to contribute to the Boxer breed, but Boxer breeders recognize this as most undesirable because it also passes on the white. Therefore, the dog with this fault is disqualified, not merely severely penalized.

A German Shepherd that is shy or vicious may be gorgeous in conformation, but in addition to his good qualities he may transmit that uncertain disposition. So German Shepherd breeders, in their wisdom and seriously wanting to eliminate shyness and viciousness, disqualify such dogs. They do not merely penalize.

A black Chesapeake Bay Retriever may have many desirable qualities. But in addition to these desirable qualities he may transmit also the black heritage, completely undesirable, so a black Chesapeake is disqualified — not severely penalized.

I have seen monorchids of many breeds, far finer specimens of their breeds than those winning in the ring today. But the membership of The Canadian Kennel Club, by a majority vote, decided that monorchidism was so undesirable that the dog carrying it should be disqualified in the show ring despite other admirable qualities it could transmit.

I have no hesitation in stating that in my opinion oversize in a Miniature Schnauzer is as undesirable as too much white in a Boxer, viciousness in a German Shepherd or black in a Chesapeake. While it may pass on the desirable qualities it will definitely pass on to a proportion of progeny the undesirable quality of oversize. And the within the standard progeny may also pass on oversize, despite recessiveness.

Indeed Mr. MacKendrick himself appears to recognize this for he admits it is a serious fault through the proposal that it be so recognized and severely penalized in the ring.

Indeed if Miniature Schnauzers over 14 inches are eligible for show, then it's going to be difficult to separate the large Miniature from the minimum Standard Schnauzer, eligible to compete from 17 inches up. Three inches is not too much.

I for one have no desire to take into the ring a dog that the Judge must fault severely before it is even brought before him. However, if the majority of Miniature Schnauzer breeders and exhibitors take pride in exhibiting a specimen of their breed that is the possessor of a major fault it is their business and if by their votes they change the standard that is democracy at work. The wish of the majority must govern.

However, I would point out one thing. The Miniature Schnauzer over 14 inches will continue to be disqualified in the United States. There is no desire there to change the standard.

As a Canadian I have no desire to have dogs which cannot compete in the show rings of their own country come up to Canada and return to the U.S. as representative Canadian champions.

Too many U.S. exhibitors already have little regard for a Canadian title. Let's try to hold for it, in the U.S., what little prestige still remains.

The kennel itself is bright and attractive, built on a cement block, with raised wooden beds in the boxes and individual cement runs. Boxes, floors and runs are disinfected every day and sprayed. The finest boarding kennel is only as good as its feed. My feeding formula consists of meat, liver, beef fat and wheat germ to which I add a small amount of Gaines meal. ON SHEPHERD GAITING

. . . I want to express my appreciation to you of recent articles in your publication written by Mrs. Geraldine Dodge and Col. Frank Foster Davis re the excessive gaiting of German Shepherds. Both are very excellent and coming from the pens of long-time experts in the breed should be read with proper attention by all interested.

MRS. JAMES A. COLE

Dornwald, Reg.,

. . . The Board of Directors meeting of May 3, 1960, made the following unanimous resolutions, regarding the gaiting question:

That we deplore the sensational verbal attacks on the very pillars of Shepherdom, by the Kentucky Colonel (reference to Kentucky Colonel, Dog World, August, 1959, page 8) Frank Davis as being unsporting, untrue and in very poor taste. To quote April Dogs "These sadists who insist on other humans running themselves into the ground, while they stand still,"—the Oxford dictionary defines a sadist as "a sexual pervert with a marked love of cruelty".

Resolved: that we whole-heartedly stand behind Specialty judges who practice sufficient gaiting in large rings, i.e. Mr. Reginald Cleveland, Miss Marie Leary, and others. That the gaiting problem today is not too much gaiting of German Shepherds, but too little in too small a ring, as carried out at the many all-breed shows.

DACHSHUND RETRIEVES PIGGY

. . . I breed Dachshunds and find them highly intelligent and lovable . . . Last Fall one of our weanling pigs took off to the bush. I had given it up for lost as it was getting dark. However, I decided to take my male Dachs out with instructions to find "piggy". He tracked it down immediately, then returned for me to follow him. He then took me to its hiding place and upon instructions put his nose to its tail and prodded it right back to the barn. He hasn't been trained for such work as he is a pet, but he just loves weanling pigs.

THE OLD TIMER

"If people were as nice as their dogs we'd have the finest sport in the world," observed the Old Timer," for "surely the dog game is a sport."

The Old Timer was glancing through the minutes of the last meeting of the Board of Directors of the CKC when I walked into the tack room. The sun was shining brightly through spotless windows. There wasn't a hair on the floor and the whole kennel had an odor of hospital cleanliness. It was obvious how he'd been spending his morning, but not surprising, for the Old Timer believed firmly that good dogs did not come from dirty kennels.

"Just got finished cleaning up," he said "and I was taking a look at what the directors have been doing."

"Anything interesting?" I asked, for I admit that too often the minutes of the directors' meetings is something to which I give a miss.

"Well, as usual they've been busy little bees," he said "and working long hours. But they've got one proposal that I think is a good one — if they can make it work — and that's a thing that I doubt."

"What's that?" I asked.

I knew the Old Timer was going to let me have it both barrels when he reached for his pipe. I knew that I wouldn't get an answer to my question until he had it filled and drawing easily, so I wandered out into the kennels to take a look at his young stock while he was making ready. When I returned he was settled back in his chair blowing clouds of smoke into the tack room.

"All right," I began again. "What's interesting and what don't you think will work?"

"This proposal aimed at double handling," he said.

"Okay," I said, "I didn't read the minutes and what is double handling?"

There was pity in the look the Old Timer gave me.

"You've been around dog shows as long as you have and you don't know what double handling is?" he asked. "Well it's simply two people showing the dog at the same time."

"Now wait a minute," I said. "It's true that I've been around dog shows four or five years, but I've never yet seen two people in the ring both handling the same dog at the same time. Isn't it against the rules?"

I got another pitying look.

"There aren't two people in the ring at the same time," the Old Timer said. "One goes into the ring with the dog. He sets the dog up. The other stays outside the ring, but close to where the dog is being shown, and makes peculiar little noises to attract the dog's attention and to keep it looking alert."

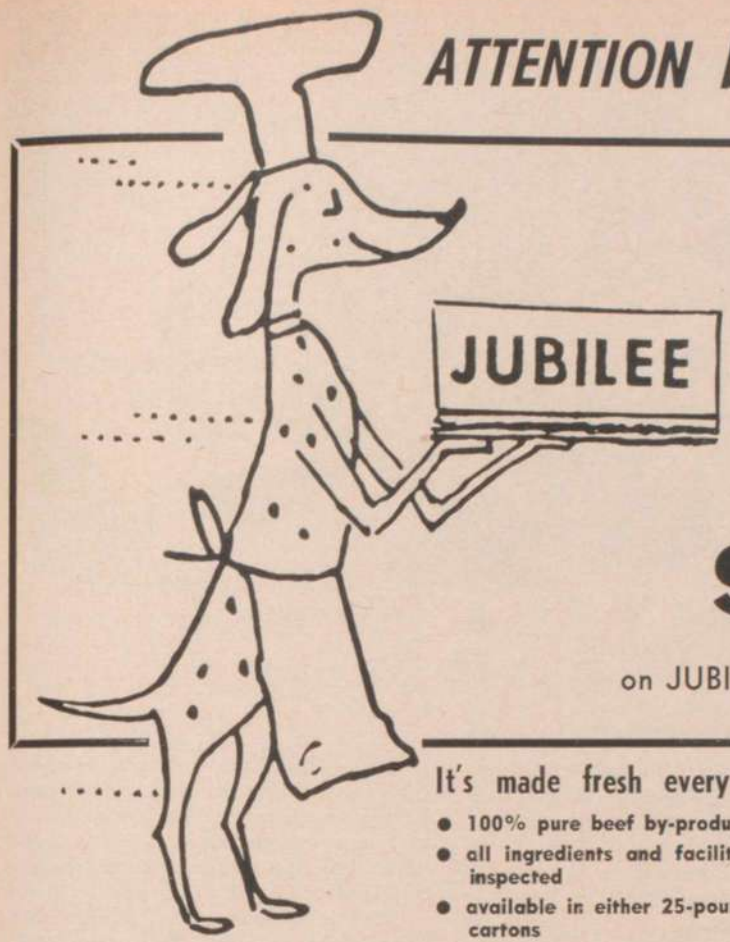

"Anything wrong with that?" I asked. "It's all part of showing the dog."

"Perhaps nothing serious, as far as that particular dog is concerned, " the Old Timer answered. "Trouble is other dogs in the ring don't recognize that particular whistle, or squeaker, or tweet tweet. They are apt to be distracted and not keep their mind on their work, with the result that the double-handled dog has a definite advantage."

"So what does the board of directors intend to do about it?" I asked.

"The proposal seems to be that the person either inside the ring or outside it, who interferes with the normal process of showing a dog, is to be penalized. Now I don't complain too much about those enthusiastic owners outside the ring who "tweet tweet" to their dog to draw its attention, but I do have a deep seated scunner against those handlers inside the ring—and by handlers I include everybody showing a dog—whose dog showing is based on everything's fair in love, war and the dog ring."

"But what can somebody with a dog of their own do in the ring to spoil your dog's chances?" I asked.

This time there was real pity in the Old Timer's look.

"Ever have your dog set up perfectly," the Old Timer asked "and just as the judge was coming up to examine him did the handler next to you suddenly drop a comb, or a brush or a piece of liver that rolled right in front of your dog's nose?"

I admitted that had happened.

"And what happened to your dog?" the Old Timer asked.

The answer, of course, was that the dog had moved or turned round to see the source of the noise or get that piece of liver.

So the result was that when the judge turned to look at your dog he found, not a perfectly posed, alert looking specimen, but a fidgeting dog, with the owner working frantically to get him under control again," said the Old Timer.

I agreed that was the situation.

"And did you ever have a handler come into the ring, with an aggressive dog on an unusually long lead, and suddenly he'd let the lead slip so his dog could lunge towards the next one and come up just inches short of actually starting a dog fight?"

I agreed I'd seen that happen too.

"And believe me, that's no accident," said the Old Timer. "Usually it's a contending dog that nearly gets attacked and too often that dog shows with all its attention on the possible source of danger from then on. That doesn't help its chances."

"Any more examples?" I asked.

"Dozens of them," said the Old Timer. "but just one more at the moment. Ever had a handler of the dog next to you gradually edge forward until his dog is crowding you and he's standing between your dog and the judge?"

That had happened to me too, and I admitted it.

"So it might well be a case of out of sight, out of mind," said the Old Timer, "but that's an old, old dodge and most handlers and most judges are on the lookout for it."

"But why do you think this proposal to penalize people who do that sort of thing won't work," I asked.

"How are you going to prove it's deliberate? A person outside the ring makes a noise. How do you prove they weren't merely clearing their throat or trying to attract the attention of a friend? A handler drops a comb or brush or a piece of liver. Who's to say it wasn't an accident? Or a lead slips through a handler's hand and his dog almost succeeds in nipping the one next to him. Can it be established that the slipping was on purpose? I doubt it, and after all it's against all principles of justice to convict a person on suspicion. You've got to be able to prove the crime to make the penalty stick."

"Then what is the answer?" I asked.

"Surely the answer lies with the people themselves," said the Old Timer. "Surely the dog game is a sport and the be-all and the end-all isn't who gets the blue ribbon."

The Old Timer pulled out a match. He relighted the old briar. He drew two or three satisfying puffs, then pointed the stem of the pipe in my direction.

"A favorite saying of mine has always been, that if people were as nice as their dogs we'd have the finest sport in the world," he said. "Trouble is too many of them aren't. With too many it's a case of win—fairly if you can—but win. With animals as fine as dogs that, to me, just doesn't seem good enough."

DOGS AFIELD

by DAVID BLAKE

There's the story of the protégé of the country doctor, who returned to visit the old doc upon completion of his medical course and internship.

"Now, what do you plan to do, John?" asked the old timer after they had exchanged greetings.

"I think I'll specialize, Doc," John replied.

"What in?" asked the old G.P.

"Well," said John, "there are eye, ear, nose and throat specialists. I think I'll specialize in the nose."

"Which nostril?" was the old medic's reply.

What has this to do with dogs? I was thinking that, with the exception of a few mutiple purpose dogs and some dual purpose breeds, our sporting dogs are specialists. The pointing dogs have been bred to intensify certain instincts so they will stand game when it is located. Spaniels are usually natural retrievers and specialize in quartering likely cover to flush game to the gun — and so on. But there are more specific specialists whose particular inclinations or abilities have been adapted to very narrow specialities. They reminded me of the story.

A few months back, while a guest on Ray Heatherton's charming radio interview show, which originated from Leone's famous restaurant in New York, Papa Leone (no one thinks of calling Mamma or Papa Leone anything else) introduced the subject of the truffle dog. He had imported one from Italy. These dogs which locate and dig for the luscious edible fungi that so delight the gourmet are examples of the specific specializing. I am told that there are areas where truffles can thrive on this continent, but hunting them requires a desire to indulge in this profitable pastime which has not caught on in a land where people find it easier to buy delicacies than to seek them.

Tolling dogs, trained to trot back and forth along the shore with their plumed tails bobbing above the tulles to arouse the curiosity of rafts of ducks or geese, have gone the way of the bow and arrow as a means of putting roast duck on the table. The magnum has spelled the doom of this specific specialist.

The Catahoula hog dog has been mentioned here and there in canine media. Perhaps all our readers do not know just what this specialist is. This is a functional name — not a breed. These dogs are used to capture wild hogs or hogs that have been released to feed on the mast and other food in the forest and, you can be sure, have become as ornery as the wildest.

How does a Catahoula hog dog operate? A corral is built (perhaps it has been standing in the woods for years, but always with its gate open). There is an escape route through or over which the dog can go which the dog is shown until he is familiar with it. The dog proceeds to locate and harass the hogs, which will charge him, and he repeatedly retreats — but always in the direction of the corral. Finally the hogs chase him right into the enclosure, whereupon the gates are closed and the dog takes the escape route to safety. This operation can be repeated as long as there are hogs in the neighborhood. "Hogs are smart," you say, "and wouldn't let this happen to them — certainly not a second time" That's where the merits of a good hog dog come in. A good one can so aggravate the hog and so tantalize it by the method of his escape that the hogs forget all else in their anger.

The turkey dog is a specific specialist. Oftentimes a setter or other type of hunting dog is taught to aid in turkey hunting. The idea is to locate a flock of these gregarious birds, which usually flush much too wild for gunning. It is the dog's job to scatter them to the four winds. A blind is then built in the locality and, especially toward evening, the birds will endeavor to recongregate.

The dog lies quietly in the blind with the hunter, who may use a call or depend upon the calling birds to bring them within gunshot as they stride warily across the forest floor responding to the call of other members of the flock – or the imitator.

Thus in dogs, too, we have to coin a phrase, specific specialists.

COCKER SPANIEL CLUB OF CENTRAL ONTARIO

by Bruce McRae

Our 18th Annual Specialty is now history but a complete success.

The Judges, Mrs. Lilah Lymburner, Port Colborne, Ont. (Sweepstake) and Mr. David R. Poling, Youngstown, Ohio, (Classes), did an excellent job and most certainly checked each entrant to the nth degree.

The winner of the Puppy Sweepstake was awarded to the flashy R/W male puppy "Marbruken's We Like Mike."

In the English Cockers, the Winners Dog was Silver Legend of Ware and Winners Female turned up in Carroll Vision.

The breed award went to Ch. Carroll Red Flame and this dog has an amazing number of bests of breed.

In Black and Tans Ch. Leelons On Parade won the Variety while Gold Tip took Winners Dog and Royal Shahs Choctaw gained the female award.

In the A.S.C.O.B. variety Mikeion Boy of Lakeview went all the way and Grindale's Blonde Heiress picked up the points in the females.

Willhall Will Travel took the Part I Variety and the puppy Marbruken's Miss Madcap picked up points from the girls.

Winners Dog Black was awarded to Royal Shah's Challenger and the sensational female Bougholme Bangles won over the females and went on through to Best in Show.

This was certainly a wonderful win for the owner, Mr. Roy Boug. Bangles never quit and most certainly deserved the win.

Best Canadian Bred Puppy went to our own Marbruken's Miss Madcap.

I take this opportunity to thank the judges for a fine job and the many exhibitors who helped make the show an outstanding success.

After winning over the females Bougholme Bangles went through to Best in Show. Owner is Mr. Roy Boug of London, Ont. Handled by Walter Martin.

Dogs benefit more from high-quality foods

Breeders and owners know the importance of high-quality foods and their relation to a dog's health. In hundreds of systematic tests conducted in Dr. Ballard's Kennels and in private homes, the majority of dogs showed a preference for Dr. Ballard's Dog Food.

Dr. Ballard's provides complete, balanced nourishment

Dogs benefit more from Dr. Ballard's because every can contains scientifically-balanced nutrition—all the known nutrients they need to keep them in peak condition every active minute of the day. Dr. Ballard's animal nutrition specialists precisely control the proteins, vitamins, minerals and carbohydrates to assure the correct nutritional balance and constant, uniform quality.

Dogs love variety in their meals

It's a good idea to alternate dry dog meal with wet foods. For variety, feed Dr. Ballard's new Burgerbits. It provides twice the nourishment of prime beef hamburger—at half the price. Easy to prepare, Burgerbits mixes instantly with water, milk or soup.

Bonnes nouvelles

Nous inaugurons aujourd'hui une colonne en français dans la revue Dogs in Canada et ceci grâce à l'amabilité des éditeurs: Melles E. Dunn et K. Peer. Dès ce premier numéro, nous les en remercions sincèrement.

Cette colonne est évidemment à l'intention des lecteurs de langue française. Elle sera leur colonne. Il faudra donc qu'ils l'alimentent eux-mêmes. Elle durera aussi longtemps qu'ils y seront intéressés, et leur intérêt se manifestera par la part active qu'ils prendront de sa rédaction. Donc s'ils veulent qu'elle dure, il faut absolument qu'ils envoient des articles.

S'ils n'envoient pas d'articles, au moins qu'ils nous disent la sorte d'articles, les sujets qu'ils aimeraient à voir traiter, et de quelle façon. Tout ceci dépendra de vos suggestions. Ecrivez-donc et donnez-nous des suggestions nombreuses. Autrement cette colonne demeurerait l'affaire d'une seule personne et saurait difficilement plaire à tous les lecteurs. Je le répète, à moins qu'un grand nombre d'entre vous ne nous écrive, on jugera qu'il n'y a pas assez de gens intéressés et on discontinuera cette rubrique.

Difficultés particulières

Il y a certes beaucoup de difficultés de traduction de l'anglais au français, surtout pour certains mots techniques. Nous avons depuis longtemps adopté ces termes anglais que nous comprenons bien, sans nous soucier à les traduire en français. Avez-vous déjà en français, par exemple, "Kennel Club", "pedigree", "standard of breeds" ou encore "field trial" et que d'autres. Pourtant il faudra les traduire et le faire d'une façon fort reconnaissable, simple, et assez facile d'emploi pour qu'ils puissent être employés au besoin comme termes techniques.

Et pour commencer, comment traduire: "The Canadian Kennel Club"? Une suggestion a déjà été faite: "Le Cercle Canadien du Chenil". Peut-on suggérer une autre traduction: "Le Club des Chenils Canadiens". Qu'en pensez-vous? Que suggérez-vous?

Parlons maintenant de cette Association. Vous savez sans doute qu'elle a pour but d'encourager et de développer l'élevage des chiens de race au Canada par différents moyens:

10: par la tenue de dossiers et l'émission de certificats d'enregistrement de toutes les races reconnues de chiens de race;

20: en amassant, préservant et publiant toutes sortes d'informations et de documents au sujet de chiens de race;

30: en ayant un système d'enregistrement satisfaisant les membres de cette association;

40: par l'établissement des standards des différentes races;

50: en adoptant et mettant en vigueur des règlements gouvernant les expositions, courses, tests d'obéissance et toutes les activités concernant les chiens de race organisés par des clubs ou associations tenant ces évènements sous les règlements de cette Associations;

60: par l'adoption de moyens pour encourager et venir en aide aux personnes engagées dans les activités ci-haut mentionnées;

70: par la compilation de statistiques et en fournissant des informations authentiques et officielles au sujet de chiens de race;

80: en aidant, de toutes les façons possibles, toute activité concernant les chiens afin de promouvoir et de protéger la propriété et les intérêts du pays et de ses habitants;

90: en aidant toute activité où ceux qui sont intéressés dans les chiens de race désirent s'associer à d'autres intéressés dans d'autres animaux de race afin de promouvoir leurs intérêts dans leurs races ou espèces respectives;

100: et enfin encourager, guider et aider l'avancement du bien-être des chiens de race et leurs propriétaires par tout autre moyen permis par l'acte du "Live Stock Pedigree" de 1949.

Je vous remercie de votre bienveillante attenion et espère vous lire bientôt.

ANNE HONE ROGERS, author of this timely article, is probably one of the youngest celebrities in any field to have been singled out for an interview in the New Yorker's avidly read "Profile". Her services are much sought after not only as a handler, but for her fine hand in conditioning and presenting her charges.

CLIPPING THE POODLE

WITH your dog sitting securely on a firm table, begin with the front feet, clipping up to where the dew claw is or was, using a .00 blade. Put a finger underneath the toe to spread the foot. When the feet are neat and clean in between the pads, underneath as well as on the top, use an electric buffer to shorten the nails. If the buffer is also used between grooming sessions, the nails will be kept short and neat without need for drastic measures.

Next do the front legs to just below the elbow with a No. 15 blade, leaving the elbow joint covered. The size of the front puff should come just a little bit higher than the bend of the pastern.

Now do the belly, also with a No. 15 blade, and then the back feet to balance the front. Now clip the tail. Leave as much of the tail bone as possible in the pompom to give it body and firmness. Clip towards the body to about where the depts of the pack is going to be.

Before beginning the pattern, get someone to set up the dog while you back off to get an over-all picture while you decide on the proper proportions for perfect balance. From now on the individual interpretation of the Standard will apply.

There was a time when the mane started at the third rib, but I believe this makes a dog look long in body. Try the mane beginning at the last rib. The line between the pack and rib on the dog's side is best done with scissors and should be 1/4 inch wide. Now, with a No. 30 clipper blade, place the straight edge on this line and make a half circle. Make a clean sweep on both sides before you comb and scissor and straighten out the future pack. A mistake on one side might just as well be made on the other, but keep your dog steady to avoid an error if possible!

On a long backed dog, a short circle makes him look shorter. Squaring off the top of the pack will make the dog have greater continuity. The pack meets the mane on top without a line. This top line should be straight and level to give a put-together appearance. Let the judge discover whether or not the dog has a slightly hollowed top line as suggested by the Standard. This will also make the dog's tail look properly set, especially if the tail is not clipped precisely to the base.

If you are one-sided, do the most difficult side first!

Before beginning the bracelets, locate the sharp little bone on the outside of the dog's thigh. The top band should be centered on that bone in a medium-sized dog. On a short-legged dog, make the bone the top of the bracelet; on a long legged dog make the bone the bottom of the bracelet. Again use the scissors rather than the clippers to set the bracelets. The larger the dog, the bigger the band should be. On a Toy the scissors are sufficient, for the more the hair the better will be the result.

The bottom bracelet in a Miniature should be 1/2 inch above the hock, sloping it regardless of the need for angulation. Correct the angulation by the trimming of the lower bracelet. Now before you do the finishing touches, put the dog in the run and watch him move.

Watch your dog carefully for a week or so before you begin again. Consider how he moves and carries himself. Your problem is to build the dog up to your ideal of the perfect Poodle. The dog should be put in pattern at least two or three, or better still, even five or six weeks before the show to make him look as he should. Remember that fashions in grooming change with the times. What is acceptable today may look very odd tomorrow!

Many dogs are shown with their packs cut so high that their middle bracelet is too long, making the dog look awkward and out of balance. Comb the pack down, comb the bracelets up and out; let the hair set before you snip. Remember that you will need more pack on a thin dog than on a heavy one. When you comb the pack up and scissor, after the dog shakes the pack goes down and there are holes. So, comb it down to begin with!

There is a running argument on curly packs versus the brushed out pack. The brushed out pack seems prettier to me, and the curlier pack is harder to show. Use a carding comb on the pack. Scissor the pack closely at the rear end under the tail, for hair there just adds length in body. Keep in mind that the less mane coat there is, the less pack you will want in order to give the illusion of greater length to the mane.

If you prefer the Continental pattern, remember that it is at a disadvantage in the show ring against the English Saddle.

Make sure your dog is strictly clean or your scissoring will be uneven. If you have time before setting your pattern, put your dog in a Continental clip and let the rear end grow in all in one piece—this will remedy thin or soft hair. The new coat will trim better. Leave bottom bracelets on all four legs, for your dog will look much prettier running around the kennels while the pack is growing out.

Tails can be a problem. A longer tail is more graceful than a shorter one, but a long tail can have a snag in it, too! Especially if it tends to curl over the back, which requires particular trimming.

The front bracelets should be fairly round. Taper them at the bottom, but not as much at the top. As your mane comes down in length, drop the front bracelets, but to begin with have them fairly deep.

The length of coat differs with the variety. Too much coat on a Standard makes them look cloddy and awkward, while a Miniature and Toy can carry more length of coat proportionately.

The bracelets should be fluffy, for the hair is of a different quality than the pack or the mane. Do not hold out the hair with your fingers while you scissor, else you will have holes when you are done.

Wrapping the ears and top knots protects them against crate rubbing, food, etc. Either waxed paper or Saran wrap may be used, but I prefer waxed paper. Take the ears down at least twice a week and re-wrap or you will get mats where the waxed paper stops. Remember that a top knot that is too long looks awkward and should be trimmed to frame the head.

For a Saturday or Sunday show, clip the face on a Wednesday or Thursday. Use a No. 15 blade on the face, and a No. 00 blade on the front of the face. A No. 00 blade is finer than a No. 30 and will not skin them or make them look pink, but a 000 blade is too fine. One inch to one and one-half inches below the Adam's apple on a Standard or Miniature is low enough to give an illusion of neck. Cheat a little for fly-

What I Want In The Ring

by Miss Jane Lane

Miss Lane is the founder of the famous English line of Nunsoe Standard Poodles and is a world-renowned judge. Noted for her well-founded opinions on Poodles, she will have a book published soon.

First and foremost, I must have soundness, and an over-all proportionately balanced dog, for without this a good Poodle, as laid down in the Standard, cannot be arrived at. I want the Poodle who comes into the ring with complete self-assurance, and that wonderful fire and arrogance, that makes the Poodle. Far too many lack this to-day, and in its place we have lethargic "couldn't care less" dogs, or dogs with soft gentle expressions which is not the true Poodle expression or temperament. I want the Poodle who comes into the ring right on his toes, indifferent to everything except his own importance. I want a balanced conformation, pronounced angulation, with powerful well muscled hindquarter which when in action produces a sound action and a strong hind drive.

I want one with good length of neck carrying a long lean well chiselled head, with big broad nose and no sign or tendency to snipiness. A head that has low set long wide ear leathers, eyes correctly placed with good width between them and have that keen fiery expression. Such a head, set on a long well arched neck, will then, and only then, give that glorious Poodle head carriage, and the desired arrogant appearance. I want a powerful short back with great depth of chest, and pronounced spring of rib, one which at a glance shows that length of head and neck will balance into length of back. Particularly do I require small strong padded, well arched feet, that balance proportionately with the dog, and having this I want to see the feet when the dog is standing and when he is moving, in short far smaller well trimmed cuffs or "bracelets" which will show the feet and pasterns to advantage. I want good bone, again proportionate with no coarseness, with well muscled forearm, tight elbows coming from well placed shoulders, and here again I want to see the forelegs, and not have to lift a heavy curtaining of coat which to-day, in many cases, almost obliterates the front legs altogether since the mane reaches down to join almost completely with the cuffs. I want the Poodle with denseness and the correct textured coat, pronounced density to come before length of coat, and to have this coat so trimmed as to suit each individual dog and above all to be in balance with the general conformation of the dog.

I feel that breeders today are now so coat conscious that with the fantastic coat grown on Poodles, and the reluctance to part with one hair, all sense of proportion to the dog has been obliterated by coat. This also applies to the cuffs or bracelets, and how often, if ever, do we see a tail pompom balancing with the size of these cuffs or in proportion to these huge manes? Coat coverage today has reached such fantastic proportion that all balance has gone. The very nature of the Poodles' presentation in the ring demands careful, imaginative preparations where the contour and conformation of the dog has been studied carefully, and then carried out to:

(a) Suit the individual dog itself.
(b) Trimmed to enhance the dog's bests points and help the lesser good points.

Today Poodles appear in the ring looking like a mass production of articles turned out to a specified formula from which one must not stray. To me this is bad presentation as the exhibitor does not make the best of his exhibit while having the great advantage with this breed which allows so much freedom to make the very best of his dog. These tremendous coats with the thick covering of straight plush-like upholstered quarters, give the impression of coarsness, shortness of leg, and long backs, most marked in miniatures and toys. Obviously if the coat is cut back tight to the hind part of the dog, he would immediately be shortened in back by inches.

There are Poodles who do still appear in the ring to-day with superb coats possessing the right texture and the desired density, but with a difference. They have been trimmed to produce an overall balance to the height, size, and comformation of the dog itself, and it is these dogs when presented like this, that catch the eye the minute they come into the ring.

Of one thing I am certain, if Poodles had their coat cut back and regularly trimmed, with length of coat all over to come along gradually, texture would immediately improve and the curl return. Tightly trimmed hindquarters would immediately see the return of the astrakhan covered quarters, which seem to have almost disappeared to-day.

I do not think on the whole the Poodle itself has deteriorated; in fact, I would say they have improved immensely. It is ring presentation that has deterioraed. Why? Could it be the speed we all, and our dogs, have to contend with these days? My last plea is, where are the ribbon bows on heads now? To my mind the finishing touch to perfect ring presentation. After all Poodles really are the Buttons and Bows of dogdom.

Have We Lost The Poodle?

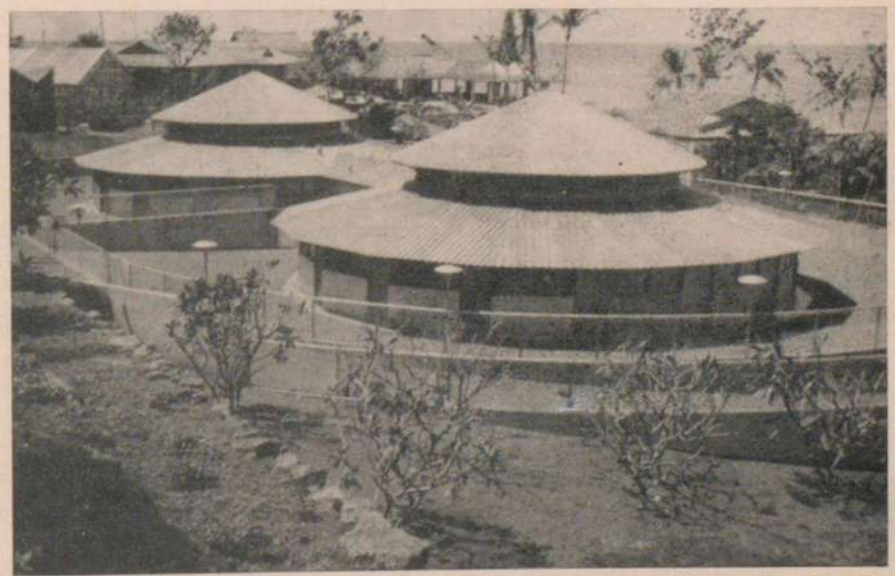

by Mrs. Jean Lyle

The Poodle has reached popularity's peak because of his distinctive mental attributes — quick mind, flattering devotion, almost-human curiosity about the world, dramatic sense of humour, aloofness to strangers combined with admirable tolerance of them, and impressive dignity.

Today we see many Poodles quite devoid of these charming characteristics. On one hand we find Poodles which are dependent, timid, hysterical, biting horrors; on the other, caricatures of Poodles which are boisterous, indifferent, aggressive, with no sense of the appropriate. Either type make exhausting, unrewarding companions.

My experience has proved it dangerous to breed any Poodle of imperfect temperament. Every litter has in it some puppies with parental faults exaggerated —either too sensitive or too "slap-happy". Rigid culling of breeding stock for temperament is essential if the production of Poodles unsatisfactory as companions is to be prevented.

Pictured here are the unique circular kennels designed by Mrs. Ale Kaiser, Alekai Kennels, Honolulu, Hawaii. Mrs. Kaiser is the owner of the white Standard Poodle, Am. Ch. Tambourine de la Fontaine who took BIS and BCB in Show at the Poodle Club of Quebec Specialty and both days at the recent Montreal shows.

The second important thing in a Poodle is his distinctive outline and style! This comes from high carriage of head and long neck, short back, perky tail and properly placed strong legs. Too many Poodles lack the skeleton creating this silhouette — they have short necks, low carried heads because of steep shoulders, long backs either roaching or sagging, and their steeply set hip bones force tails to droop and hind legs to slink under the bodies.

Correct skeletal structure is inheritable. Without correct parent stock, puppies with correct silhouettes cannot be bred. Too many breeders and judges do not know how to check the correct Poodle skeleton. This can be spotted only by watching the animal in motion, and by looking at him in a natural unposed stance. Since it takes generations to breed out skeletal faults, it is quicker, cheaper, surer to acquire a quality bitch at the outset of any breeding plans.

I cull show and breeding stock for the following faults:—(1) steep shoulders (2) short thick necks (3) long backs (4) hip bones set at more than 30° from the horizontal (5) too little or too much angulation of hock and stifle (there should be enough and only enough rear angulation to match the forehand angulation if the dog's vital "balance" and typical springy trot is not to be lost), (6) cow or "sickle" hocks.

The last vital thing in a Poodle is what gives it "type" — the proper head. Even before we have completely erradicated the ugly old-fashioned coarse short head with its bulging round eye, today's Poodles are endangered by a new threat, the narrow, weak, arrow-like head with no stop, no chiselling, no chin, no strength, beady eye and an expression similar to a Collie's. I conclude that this new head defect is appearing because fanciers and judges read the standard incorrectly. Though it is important that a Poodle head have flat cheek bones and muscles, it is far more important that it have the several other head qualities demanded by the standard (1) moderately rounded skull (2) stop, slight but definite (3) long, straight, fine, strong muzzle (4) slight under-eye chiselling (5) definite chin (6) no snipeyness (7) no lippiness.

Why do we see Andy Gump heads (no chins), so many thin short pointed muzzles (snipey), so many non-stop heads (with hair fluffed to resemble a stop), so many beady eyes on side of head (because of lack of stop and under-eye chiselling), Collie-like expressions? Because breeders are not sufficiently critical of their stock and judges lack understanding of the "standard"! Each is responsible for the disappearance of correct Poodle heads and expressions. Unless each assumes responsibility for not exhibiting, breeding from, or "putting up" Poodles with heads possessing only the flat cheeks demanded by the standard, correct Poodle heads undoubtedly will be lost.

Much has been written of the frightening situation resulting from mixed color breeding. Today's serious breeder will not breed from stock of mixed color background, nor mix colors himself! We need re-establishment of the pure colors, for almost extinct are sparkling whites, rich browns, and jet blacks!

Texture also is neglected Because we have developed artificial techniques for making poor coats look glamorous, we neglect breeding for coat. This is the only way to get it. If we do not, we are not only fooling the judges and winning with inferior Poodles, but we are cheating posterity by losing proper coat forever!

Poodles are wonderful. Every Poodle owner should resolve that, in spite of his personal affection for any Poodle, he will never breed it unless it is of such quality that it will raise Poodle quality. If such resolution is not made, tomorrow's Poodle will be quite different from and inferior to the best of yesterday's and today's Poodles.

There's Good Reason, Says The Author, Why The Poodle is

THE NATION'S No. 1 DOG

by Gordon Hill Grahame

THE Poodle is a clown — an affectionate, roguish and sparkling mountebank. He is intelligent, elegant and courageous. He is all dogs wrapped up in one warm bundle of affection. He is of ancient lineage and, though popularly (and erroneously) known as a French Poodle, he is of German origin. The French raise excellent horses but they are not a "doggy" race like the Germans and the English who, between them, have developed a major portion of all the outstanding breeds. The Poodle's very name is derived from the German word "pudel" which means, literally, water-dog. But whether today's Poodle is descended from the water-dog of long ago is a debatable question.

What other breed can offer the prospective buyer the choice of three different models, nine or ten different styles and at least eight different colors? There is no turning in of a used poodle on a new model—because there are no new models. They come in the same old sizes: Standards—anything 15 inches or over at the shoulder; Miniature—over 10 inches and under 15. The Toy must be ten inches or less at shoulder height. The styles are the various clips and hair-do's which are called Continental, Saddle, Puppy, Dutch, etc. and your pup may be black, white, brown, blue, grey, silver or even one of the pastel mutations of these basic colors such as apricot, pearl, cream and even pink! Mismarks (contrasting patches of different color in the coat) debar a dog from competition. The so-called 'phantom', a poodle marked somewhat like an Airedale terrier, is also ineligible and should not be bred. It is claimed by some that the phantom is a throwback to the original Poodle. There are breeders who specialize in phantom miniatures and who get a fancy price for these highly intelligent and sometimes very handsome little dogs. Silver Poodles, by the way, are generally born black and gradually clear until, in early adulthood, they are one solid color.

Breeders are almost unanimous in their preference of the Saddle clip above all others. Poodle owners, on the other hand, are overwhelmingly partial to the Royal Dutch clip, in spite of the fact that they cannot enter their dogs in shows while trimmed in this unorthodox style. Breeders consider the Dutch a hodge-podge of a clip. The clamorous demand from some Poodle owners that this clip be recognized authoritatively by the kennel clubs and that dogs so clipped should be permitted in the judging ring have breeders, handlers and judges for once entirely in agreement.

In the Dutch clip the Poodle is trimmed so that he resembles a mechanical toy. His legs are pantalooned and attached, without harmony, to a bare or short-clipped torso. The tail is tufted and the face shaven save for a fuzzy, Griffon-like beard and moustache. Ears are shaved except for a tufted fringe at the bottom. The skull is covered with a heavy rounded cap of hair. The whole effect is as cute as all get out, but the points by which a show Poodle is judged are so hidden or distorted by the droll coiffure as to make that task exceedingly difficult.

As a breeder I am often asked the reason for the bizarre lion-like clip which is the breed's most distinctive

POODLE INTEREST KEEN IN QUEBEC

On April 29, 1960 dog show history was made in the Province of Quebec when, as far as is known, the Poodle Club of Quebec sponsored the first championship Specialty Show ever held in the province for any single breed. The entry of 39 dogs, with only three absentees, was judged by Mr. Alfred W. Barrett of Roadcoach Kennels, Dover, Mass. Mr. Barrett remarked that the quality and number of Poodles at the show compared most favorably with those in the United States. That the Best in Show winner, as well as two of the three Best of Breed winners, was Canadian bred is remarkable evidence of the outstanding progress that Canadian Poodle breeders have made in the past few years.

The Show Committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. W. G. Krauser, left nothing to chance with the result that the show ran smoothly and easily from start to finish. The trophy table, under the supervision of Miss Joan Kyle and Mrs. R. S. Fraser, held a magnificent display of prizes and was beautifully arranged and decorated. Show Superintendent Mrs. Pamela Mack, Ring Steward Mrs. E. Allman, and club officials all worked harmoniously and conscientiously to ensure the complete success of the show.

An informal get together was held at the nearby Trois Canards restaurant following the show where exhibitors, members, and friends were able to relax and enjoy a superb dinner. Official hostess, Mrs. Nicholas Tsadilas, introduced Mr. Barrett and presented him and Mrs. Mack with gifts as a small token of the club's appreciation for their services.

The Poodle Club of Quebec was formed in September, 1958 with a charter membership of seven local breeders who felt that there was sufficient interest among Quebec Poodle enthusiasts to support a specialty club. The club's first undertaking was to sponsor a booster show at the National All-Pets Association show in October, 1958. This proved most successful and was followed in the spring of 1959 by our first Sanction Show. An entry of close to 60 Poodles paraded before judge Edith Henderson and, while there were several classes for Poodles in "other than show clip, we were encouraged to note that the class boasting the largest entry was that for Miniature Open Dogs in show clip. Spectators were treated to an interesting display of obedience training under the direction of Mrs. A. M. Birch, and featuring several of the district's top winning Poodles.

The club was formed for the purposes of creating and promoting interest in Poodles by encouraging their breeding in accordance with the breed standard; to encourage the exhibition of Poodles at breed shows and obedience trials, and to hold shows under The Canadian Kennel Club rules. As a small club, at present membership totals about 15, we are endeavoring to carry out these aims to the best of our knowledge and ability. The present executive of the club are: President, Miss Valerie Reid; Vice-President, Mrs. J. Dempster; Secretary, Mrs. E. A. Chandler; Treasurer, Miss Joan Kyle; Show Chairman, Mrs. W. G. Krauser; Assistant Chairman, Mrs. F. A. Price; Publicity Director, Mrs. N. Tsadilas.

The Poodle Club of Quebec would be pleased to hear from prospective members, or anyone else interested in knowing more about the club. Our future plans call for more movie nights; we have already booked the Gaines "Westminster 1960" film for showing this month; plus another series of show training classes which have proved most successful in the past. Needless to say plans are already being formulated for next year's Specialty Show which we hope will be even more successful than this year's.

characteristic and I tell my questioner, despite popular belief to the contrary, that in my heretical opinion the Poodle is clipped that way because he is a buffoon, a waggish merry-andrew, the ages-old foil to court jesters and itinerant mummers with whom he has so long been associated. Everything about the poodle suggests the gay abandon of medieval strolling players and it is not difficult to associate the befrilled and pomponned comedian with Pierrot and Pierrette.

The commonly accepted theory of the Saddle clip and its very similar counterpart, the Continental, is that the animal is thus shorn and patterned to facilitate his progress through the water in the pursuit of game. The massive ruff, the pomponned joints, the bare hindquarters, the shaven feet and the short tail with the plume at the end were designed to make him a better hunter of waterfowl and, by some unfathomable reasoning, to make it easier for the animal to retrieve his prey. Furthermore, claim the conformists, all this mass of ruff and pompons protects the dog from the chilling water, the waving tuft at the end of his tail makes it easier to keep track of his progress as he swims.

It is just as logical to assume that the soggy wad of saturated wool which covers the front of the swimming animal tends to increase its speed as it would be to presume that a mess of overcoats, wrapped around the bow of a racing scull, would make the craft invincible at Poughkeepsie or Henley. The tiny feet of the Poodle would afford slightly greater propulsive power if the natural hair were left on. The bobbing tail might be discernible in a jungle of reeds and bulrushes, but it sure would scare the daylights out of the apprehensive coot and tern sojourning therein.

The sodden bundle of dog which emerges from the icy water to the chill of a late October afternoon now shakes himself, but he can't dry the clinging blobs of dripping fur which envelope his chest nor the sodden muffs of frigid moisture which cover his leg joints. The ordinary dog, 'unprotected' by the ruff and the pompons has probably shaken himself dry by the time the hunter starts his journey home. But only by going over the Poodle with three or four large absorbent bath towels and then completing the job by using a hot electrical dryer will the animal be in fit condition to sit on those nice new slip covers with-

The De La Fontaine Success Story

This special Poodle issue affords an appropriate opportunity to offer congratulations to a Canadian Kennel that is bringing world-wide recognition to Canadian bred stock. Ken and Bobbie Ellis of the De La Fontaine Kennels, Streetsville, Ont. have bred some of today's top-winning Standard Poodles, a highly competitive breed and at the recent Westminster Show Standards carrying the De La Fontaine prefix took top honours. This kennel has also, for many years, been noted as one of the prominent producers of winning Miniatures.

Can. & Am. Ch. Chenue de la Fontaine, pictured above with her breeder, Mrs. Bobbie Ellis of Streetsville, Ont.

Can. & Am. Ch. Chenue de la Fontaine is Canada's leading white Standard Poodle with the greatest winning record both in Canada and the United States. "Chenue" is a daughter of Ch. Tangerine de la Fontaine and granddaughter of Rockvale Cream Puff, the original English Standard Poodle which started the de la Fontaine line 15 years ago. Known as "Zouki" by so many people in England and on this continent, this fabulous old prima donna is still alive and ruling the roost. Her breeder, Mrs. Edwards of England, should be very proud to have bred a specimen who was able to give so much to the breed.

We must congratulate the great sires used to combine this line who have proven themselves to be such outstanding producers . . . . Am. Ch. Ensarr Glace, the white stud who was such a loss to Mrs. French Githens and the breed but stamped his mark so well—his son, Can. Ch. Dominoe Pavanne Capistrano, owned in Canada by the Dominoe Kennels and who is Ch. Cillette and Int. Ch. Chenue's father — and finally, Can. & Am. Ch. Puttencove Promise, the stud chosen for Cillette de la Fontaine who are the producers of, in one litter:

Can. & Am. Ch. Tambourine De La Fontaine — owned by Mrs. Henry J. Kaiser, Hawaii. Shown in Canada five times; Best in Show Poodle Club of Quebec, Best in Show at both Ladies Kennel Club Shows, 1960. "Tambourine" made her American title by going Best of Breed every time from the classes and finished her title going 3rd in the Group and Best of Breed at Westminster, 1960 and has since won several groups in the United States.

Ch. Sincerely De La Fontaine — owned by Mrs. R. Tourtillotte, Don Mills, Toronto. BB—Detroit Kennel Club—1960; BOS—Westminster Kennel Club—1960; BOS—Chicago International; WD—Great Lakes Poodle Specialty. (All from the classes).

"Sincerely" won his Canadian championship as a puppy, including three Best Puppy in Show. He is now two points short of his American championship.

Ch. Amo De La Fontaine — owned by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Durber, Waterdown. "Amo" won his Canadian championship in five shows. He was winner of the Non-Sporting Group and Best Canadian Bred in show at the Canadian National Exhibition, 1960 from the classes.

Loyal Pledge De La Fontaine — owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ken Ellis, Streetsville, Ont. The first time shown, at the Poodle Club of Quebec show, "Loyal" went Winners Dog and was beaten only by his sister, "Tambourine".

The above litter is only 18 months old.

Their aunt, Can. & Am. Ch. Chenue De La Fontaine, owned by Dr. and Mrs. Antoine Stehr, Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. won her Canadian championship in 48 hours at the Poodle Specialty, Toronto and Sportsmen's Show, 1958. She was Best in Show at the Central Canada Exhibition Association, Ottawa, and National All Pets Association's second and third show, 1959. Her American record includes Best of Breed, Rhode Island and 3rd in the Group; Best of Breed, Saw Mill River; 1st in the Group and Best of Breed, Teanack, N.J.; BOS Great Lake Poodle Specialty; Best of Breed, Chicago International. These wins were all from the classes.

Show Talk

The April 30-May 1 shows of The Ladies Kennel Club of Canada marked their 40th and 41st annual events with one of the most outstandingly handsome trophy tables a show could desire. Held in the Town of Mount Royal Skating Arena (Montreal) the shows were noteworthy for their change of venue as well. The first day drew 303 dogs and the second 314. These shows were further remarked for the unusually fine type of entry. As in previous years, a donation of a percentage of the net profits from these shows is earmarked toward the purchase of a guide dog for a blind person resident in the Province of Quebec. Competition was heavy between Quebec and Ontario, with the added spice of kennel representation from a number of American states, British Columbia, New Brunswick and as far distant as Honolulu. The three well-known judges were Messrs. George Owen who judged BIS April 30, James W. Trullinger who assessed BIS May 1 and Virgil Johnson. American Cocker Spaniels and Miniature Poodles vied for the largest number of entries, with Collies, Smooth Standard Dachshunds, Boxers, German Shepherds, Doberman Pinschers and Toy Poodles numerically close.

This was a well-liked, extremely well-run show, under the supervision of Mr. Hudson Kalloch. The trophies, all silver, were purchased by the trophy committee by way of cash donations, rather than the usual individual purchases.

Best in show both days was the white Standard Poodle, Am. Ch. Tambourine de la Fontaine, owned by Alekai Kennels, Honolulu, and handled by Wendeli Sammett.

Many of the entrants at Montreal showed at the Ottawa Kennel Club shows May 6 and 7 at Lansdowne Park. Exhibitors commented on the fresh appearance and sturdiness of the benches. An average of 270 entrants was noted, with a strong entry in obedience. Again, Ontario and Quebec vied strongly.

Judges were Messrs. Louis Murr, R. G. E. Sharp and Maxwell Riddle. Mr. Louis Parent of Oldcastle, Ont. judged all obedience classes.

Best in Show May 6 was Ch. Trogalo Bridey Murphy, Great Dane owned by Mrs. Betty Hyslop, Brockville, Ont. The Beagle, Can. and Am. Ch. Beau A Black Bomber, owned by Allan E. Beaumont of Toronto and handled by Mrs. Beaumont, took top honors the second day.

DOGS AND PEOPLE

Died: Raymond L. Patterson, at Giralda Farms, Madison, N.J., 72, an outstanding authority on dogs and prominent breeder and judge on this continent and in Europe for many years. He was a close associate of Mrs. Geraldine M. Dodge, Giralda Farms, and her husband, Hartley M. Dodge, for 48 years. Mr. Patterson had been general manager of the famous Morris and Essex Dog Show for ten years prior to its discontinuance in 1957. Many Canadian exhibitors will remember him as a man who did "big things" but kept the small exhibitor and breeder as his first consideration. He was chairman of the Morris and Essex for a number of shows, and spectacularly in 1939 when nearly 5,000 dogs were benched, thereby setting an all-time world record for a one-day outdoor show. Dogs played a vital part in "Pat's" life. With Mrs. Dodge he helped found the humane animal society, St. Hubert's of Giralda. He was an avid hunter and raised field trial pointers and setters at a North Carolina retreat. He was a charter member of the German Short-Haired Dog Club of America and a delegate to the American Kennel Club. On almost equal par was his love for baseball. A sister, Mrs. Stephen Salmon, survives . . . Sympathy is extended to Beagle fancier Andrew Cumming, Toronto, in the loss of his father, William Cumming. Mr. Cumming, a much-travelled man, particularly throughout Europe, died following a brief illness. He was also the owner of a Beagle.

Among others in the American dog fancy who have died in recent months: Townsend Scudder, 94, Cocker Spaniels; Lillian Leonard, English "Alsatianist"; Hazel Weidner of Iowa, Pekingese breeder; Judge Frank Downing; Mrs. Sidney J. Heckert, Jr., California German Shepherd breeder; Mrs. Louise Disselhorst of Chicago, Pekingese fancier; William Ehrler, Michigan German Shorthair fancier; Chow fancier Claire K. Dixon of Long Island; Mrs. Virginia Selby of Florida, Boston Terrier fancier; Delbert Findley and Arthur Alexander, Collie breeders; Paul Posey, handler; also W. W. Elder, William M. McKelvey and Louis Regnal.

H. V. P. (Bumpy) Lewis, Toronto, has collaborated with author William Wunderlich in compiling a brochure, "Retriever Tips." Mr. Wunderlich has trained and handled retrievers for 24 years. Copies may be obtained by writing to General Foods Ltd., Rally Dog Food Department, 44 Eglinton West, Toronto . . . Journalist Arnold Running, husband of Pamela Running (Runwyre Kennels), Brampton, Ont., is the author of a new fast-selling book, "Stay But Till Tomorrow'. It is a dramatic, suspenseful story based around a lonesome ranch high in the winter-bound foothills of Alberta.

Canadian dogs are to be found the world over. Two bred by Mrs. Ita M. Maguire, Pekin Inn Kennels, Napanee, Ont., now live in a beautiful home in Japan with their owners, Capt. and Mrs. J. R. Kettinger. Mrs. Kettinger has faithfully recorded their trip over by ship, where they were a minor sensation, through the family's first experience with an on-coming typhoon and their gradual settling in as supplies, from automobile to silver and hi-fi set arrived.

Tiny travellers Soo Lee and Moy Ling bask in the sun on shipboard en route to Japan.

The Pekes, Soo and Moy, proved able travellers through all sorts of circumstances prior to their destination at Okinawa, where they are the only members of their breed on the Island. These are the fourth Pekingese sold to Mrs. Kettinger's family; the first sale was to her mother about 20 years ago.

Travellers: Visiting a number of shows in Eastern Canada is Mrs. W. Wartnow of North Surrey, B.C., breeder of Miniature Pinschers . . . Mrs. Jean Lyle (Wycliffe Kennels), Vancouver, B.C., noted breeder of conformation and obedience title-winning Standard Poodles, visited with Miss Blanche Saunders, Bedford Village, N.Y., author and obedience trainer. Among Mrs. Lyle's recent judging assignments: Obedience for the German Shepherd Club of Washington State in Seattle and for the Yakima Kennel Club in Washington. She judges the Spokane Dog Training Club Specialty June 12. . . . Mr. T. E. (Ted) Gundersen, Ottawa, has been invited to judge at the first dog show ever held at Cali, Colombia, S.A. This show is held under the sponsorship of the Club Canine Colombiano, Bogota, Colombia. He assessed all breeds at Havanna, Cuba May 15, and will judge about 125 Boxers at the Boxer Specialty in Cincinnati. He will also judge at the Bermuda KC Show in Bermuda this Fall and at Miami in March, 1961. . . . Mr. Stan Whitmore was one of the judges at the recent Spring Bermuda KC show.

Died: Mr. Emerson Robertson (Vermont Park Beagles), Streetsville, Ont. Active in Beagles for the past 50 years, Mr. Robertson was considered by many as a "dean of Beaglers." Just recently he was made an honorary member of the Central Ontario Beagle Club which he and several other fanciers founded in 1922. He also set up the Specialty Show of the Central Ontario Beagle Club. He has long been respected for his sound ideas, high standards and good stock. It was his pride that his show Beagles could work well on rabbits. Sympathy is extended to his wife, Edna.

Injured: Miss Bay Meyers in an automobile accident while turning, after giving full signal, into her own driveway at Paragon Kennels, Milliken, Ont. She suffered a fractured arm and severe head injuries.

Wins in American Shows: Mrs. Pamela Sims, Manotick, Ont., recently showed her English Cocker Spaniel, Taraholm Gold Piece, to three awards in the English Cocker Spaniel Club of America Specialty in Wilmington, Del. This youngster took Best Male in the Sweepstakes open to all dogs under 18 months, placed first in the Junior Puppy class and won a third prize in the Bred by Exhibitor Class. Mrs. Sims is his breeder,-owner-handler.

Import: The Viszla, Ari-Nora, who reported as "twice-winner" and was first in her class in the field and show in the Hungarian National Dog Show not long ago, has been imported by Mr. A. G. Gerle of Montreal.

Asta, a German Shepherd owned by Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Masuch of Erickson, B.C. is currently mothering a little bear cub much the same size as her own two babies. The mother bear was injured when a bulldozer was inadvertently driven into the den up in the hills near Russell Creek. Mr. Masuch and Lawrence Bilcik, having of necessity put the mother out of pain, discovered the babies and each volunteered to raise one. Gailinga's Asta II, the foster mother, is from the kennels of Mrs. R. Koski, Port Arthur, Ont.

The German Shepherd, Gailinga's Asta II generously mothers an orphan bear cub following the death of its own mother.

Although listed in the CKC Show and Trial results as entered and completed for Specials Only in the March 19 Canadian National Sportsmen's Show, the well-known Samoyed, Ch. Snowland Ziska Buck was duly reported absent, owner Mrs. Betty Dickson tells Dogs. The reason: Although ready for the show,

As mentioned in the May issue of Dogs The Canadian General Council of The Boys Scouts Association has considered the care and handling of dogs so important they have established a Dog Handler Proficiency Badge. To earn this coveted badge a Scout must (i) Own and give proper care to a dog for a period of not less than six months; or have responsibility for the care of his family's dog for not less than six months. (ii) Present a record showing the care he has given to his dog during a period of six months, including such items as feeding hours, and kinds of food; housing; training; exercise; grooming and bathing; care for the dog's habits and health, including precautions to keep dog in good condition. (iii) Report the approximate cost of feeding and caring for his dog for a six months' period. (iv) Explain the symptoms and first aid treatment for at least one illness and one accident common to dogs. (v) Explain proper methods of training dogs to do the following: (a) Obey simple instructions such as "come here", "stop barking", etc. (b) Walk to heel; (c) Carry and retrieve objects. (vi) Know the provincial laws and town or municipal ordinances (if any) involving dogs, including ownership, control and humane treatment.

Girl Guides Become Runners

Twelve Town of Mount Royal (Que.) Girl Guides assisted a group of teen-agers from the Lakeshore, who have made a name for themselves as runners, at the local All-breed Championship dog shows.

It is the duty of these youngsters to find the exhibitors and warn them they will soon be needed with their dogs in the ring. Over the past few years these runners have been gaining more knowledge of judging procedure and of the various breeds of dogs and it will not be long before they are qualified to act as ring stewards.

Just prior to the recent Ladies KC Show the Girl Guides were initiated into the fine art of calling a Poodle, Collie or Spaniel owner to the ringside at precisely the right moment. It doesn't take these teen-agers long to learn to differentiate between the novice exhibitor who needs more time and more warning and the professional handler to whom a dog show is no mystery.

The runners work as assistants to the ring stewards who in turn serve as first lieutenant to the judge. Together the ring stewards and runners are largely responsible for the smooth and efficient progress of the judging schedule.

These Guides from the Town of Mount Royal gave their time as their contribution toward the work of The Ladies' Kennel Club who hope to be able to supply the funds to buy another guide dog for a blind Montrealer.

Chief runner Donna Harrison had her first try at ring-stewarding the weekend of May 7 and also showed a dog.

As a tribute to the many years she has devoted to training young dog fanciers in proper show procedure and manners Mrs. Elsie Murray was presented with a framed award made by "Dog World". Pam Stephenson, right, makes the presentation on behalf of the Junior KC of Vancouver, B.C.

OBEDIENCE CONVENTION

The first such event was held in the Burlington Arena by the Obedience Association (Ontario) on Sunday May 8.

Attending the various forums and clinics were obedience fanciers from Detroit, Montreal, Kingston, Windsor, Peterborough, London and nearby localities. Those present gained a fountain of knowledge from the classes conducted as outlined in the program appearing in the May issue of Dogs in Canada.

A delicious luncheon, prepared and served by the Burlington & District Kennel Club, was a high spot of the day where Mr. Frank Grant, Detroit, the first A.K.C. licensed obedience judge, painted a word picture of the origin and growth of obedience in the States. His closing remarks of caution "to keep obedience as a sport" were well taken.

At the conclusion of the dinner Mary Southcott, C.K.C. Obedience Chairman, spoke on "The Growth of Obedience in Canada". With these two speakers a very good insight into the origin and growth of this sport was well covered.

An interesting feature of the Convention was a booth called "The Country Store" where one could purchase, at bargain prices, anything from tools to jewels, home-made bread, lead pencils or raspberry canes. Name it and they had it. The store-keeper, attired in Prince Albert coat and hat, barked his wares and invited all to buy.

The only dogs in evidence were a few brought to the Exhibitors Clinic for advice from Mr. E. W. Averill on the various problems. Each was helped individually and the entire assembly received benefit when Mr. Averill returned to the mike to repeat his thoughts on the cure. The old bug-a-boo of the handlers not moving fast enough and not giving enough praise was emphasized over and over again.

As the writer substituted for Miss Meyers as moderator for this class, very little can be said on the Trainers Clinic held at the same time in the upstairs hall, conducted by Rudy Buckmann. Except that those attending felt that they had gained a great deal and had many problems solved. The same applies to the Tracking Forum conducted by Mr. Frank Grant, who trained and handled the first U.D.T. dog in the States.

The Stewards Clinic, where Mrs. Phyl Smith subbed for Bay Meyers, was well attended and should help to improve the stewarding at trials in the future.

The Judges Forum, again held at the same time, upstairs, was conducted by the three eminent American gentlemen. Audrey Langford, who was their moderator, reports that it was a most successful forum and everyone regretted the call to lunch for it could have gone on and on.

All in all those who travelled by plane, train or drove felt that it had been a day well spent and left hoping it would be repeated another year.

by Mrs. N. T. Smith.

AID TO VETERINARIANS

The first issue of Radiographic Aids for the Veterinary Practitioner, a service of The Quaker Oats Company's Pet Food Division, has been acclaimed by thousands of veterinarians.

The first series consists of four booklets of radiographs depicting normals of both the dog and cat. The first issue deals with a canine pelvis, lumbar and hind leg (mid portion).

The second is comprised of radiographs of a canine hind leg (distal portion), thorax, thoracic and abdominal region (young dog), and fore leg (proximal and distal portion).

Issue number three contains various views of a canine head, neck region and thorax. The fourth will be devoted entirely to radiographs of the cat. All told, sixteen radiographs will be utilized in the first series.

The idea was conceived by Dr. C. W. Schulz, Manager of Veterinary Services, The Quaker Oats Company, and Dr. W. C. Banks, Professor of Veterinary Radiology, Texas A & M College, College Station, Texas.

Shown left is Dr. C. W. Schulz, manager, Veterinary Services, The Quaker Oats Company and right, Dr. W. C. Banks, Professor of Veterinary Radiology, Texas A and M College.

Owners of listed dogs are urged to obtain registration of their dogs with The Canadian Kennel Club, within the time limit provided in the rules, in order to avoid cancellation of awards, championship points, qualifying scores, and prizes.

It was regularly moved by Mr. McDerment, seconded by Mrs. Dery:

(#204-60) "THAT, an enquiry be made of the Federation Cynologique Internationale, Verband fur das

Following discussion it was regularly moved by Mrs. Southcott, seconded by Mr. Blyth:

7 R 27. DACHSHUNDS

"THAT, having regard for the voting on the questionnaire the Board of Directors be asked to take such action as may be necessary to have the "off-coated" puppies in a litter resulting from the mating of two Dachshunds of the same coat eligible for registration, without prejudice to any future action as may be taken by the Committee.";
(2) reported that all members of the Board had been informed of the results of the questionnaire and of the resolution adopted by the Committee,
(3) read letters received from Mr. Irving, Mr. Dawson, and Mr. Little; Mr. Dawson and Mr. Little having stated their disagreement with any policy which would permit of inter-coat breeding; Mr. Dawson having stated his concurrence with the Committee's recommendation as set forth in the resolution reported to the Board;
(4) reported that on the instruction of the Committee a supplementary questionnaire had been distributed to about 200 Dachshund fanciers who had not responded to the original questionnaire, the supplementary questionnaire dealing solely with the question of inter-coat breeding;
(5) reported that further consideration was being given to the question of permissible weight in connection with Miniature Dachshunds.

Following discussion it was agreed that having regard for the present provisions of the Club's By-laws, prior discussion of the questions with officials of the Department of Agriculture would be necessary before the Board would be in a position to determine the steps necessary to carry out the Committee's recommendations.

Mr. Monaghan stated that if furnished with a memorandum setting out the facts of the matter, he would be prepared to deliver the memorandum and discuss its contents with appropriate officials of the Department.

It was regularly moved by Mrs. Southcott, seconded by Mr. MacKendrick:
(#206-60) "THAT, a memorandum be prepared and presented to the Minister."
FOR THE MOTION: Mr. MacCallum, Mr. Blyth, Mrs. Dery, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. McDerment, Mr. Monaghan, Mrs. Southcott.
Motion carried.

In a discussion which followed it was agreed that regardless of any special dispensation which the Minister may allow at this time in connection with the registration of Dachshunds, it would be necessary for the Board, following receipt of the Committee's final report, to arrange for one or more proposed amendments to the By-laws to be included in the next referendum ballot.

Mrs. Southcott suggested that when such amendments are included in the ballot there should be a notice requesting voting members to abstain from voting on these amendments unless directly interested in Dachshunds, and gave notice that at the semi-annual meeting of the Board she would propose that the Board authorize the inclusion, in each referendum ballot, of a request to voting members to refrain from voting on any amendment that is not of direct concern to them.

COMPLAINTS, CHARGES & PROTESTS

8 C 10. COMPLAINTS COMMITTEE (SPECIFIC CASES)

The Secretary placed before the Board the report and recommendations (dated March 30, 1960) of an Advisory Committee which had been appointed by the Complaints Committee to investigate and report on several complaints against an individual who had been a member in 1959 but who had not renewed membership in 1960.

After considering the report and recommendations the Board resolved to deprive the individual in question of all the privileges of The Canadian Kennel Club and the file to be referred to the Registration Committee; this resolution to be implemented when and if not less than nine members of the Board vote for or express themselves in writing in favour of the penalty recommended by the Advisory Committee.

Following discussion it was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. McDerment:
(#213-60) "THAT, it be suggested to the solicitor that he ask the Department of the Secretary of State to communicate direct with the Secretary of The Canadian Kennel Club, and the matter be then referred to the Club's solicitor for suitable reply."

MEMBERSHIP MATTERS

10 MM 2. APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

The Secretary reported on an application for associate membership of a person against whom there had been an outstanding complaint, and also reported that the complaint had been resolved. The application was duly approved by the Board.

The Secretary reported on the application for associate membership submitted by an individual who volunteered information to the effect that for some years she had been breeding unregistered "spaniels". The application was ordered held in abeyance pending receipt of a reply to a letter addressed to her on April 4th.

The Secretary sought confirmation of the approval given on lists #10 to #16 forwarded to members of the Board.

10 MM 30. QUESTIONS REGARDING MEMBERSHIP

The Secretary:
(1) reported that Mr. Edward J. Hughes, Willowdale, Ontario, had paid associate membership fees in 1957, 1958 and 1959, and therefore qualified to apply for ordinary membership in 1960;
(2) reported that when applying for ordinary membership Mr. Hughes had submitted the application in the name of Mr. & Mrs. Hughes, and in accordance with policy set by the Board Mr. Hughes had been informed that the change from individual to partnership membership would necessitate a further three years of associate membership;
(3) read a letter from Mr. Hughes who advised that having married in January (1960) this had occasioned his desire to alter his membership.

In the discussion which followed it was agreed that this was an unusual situation and the customary policy set by the Board should not be applied.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. MacKendrick:
(#218-60) "THAT, the change of membership from Mr. Edward J. Hughes to Mr. & Mrs. Edward J. Hughes be permitted and the application be approved."

DOG SHOWS

11 D 1. JUDGES

The Secretary reported that:
(1) as requested by Mr. Monaghan the President had polled the national Board on Mr. Monaghan's notice that at this meeting he would move for the rescinding of resolution #538-58;
(2) the results of the poll were as follows:
IN FAVOUR OF RESCINDING RESOLUTION #538-58: Mr. Monaghan, AGAINST RESCINDING: Mr. MacCallum, Mr. Williams, Mr. Anderson, Mr. Blyth, Mr. Gratton, Mrs. Gove, Mr. Irving, Mr. Dawson, Mr. Little, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. McDerment, Mrs. Southcott.

Mrs. Dery stated that she had refrained from voting on the question on the grounds that she had no knowledge of the circumstances which had led to the Board's adoption of resolution #538-58.

Mr. Monaghan stated that having regard for the vote of the national Board no good purpose would be served by now moving the motion of which he had given notice.

The President stated that the foregoing matter had developed when, at his order, the Secretary had asked Mr. Monaghan to nominate an Examining Committee in connection with an application received from Mr. E. B. Reid, and that if Mr. Monaghan was not prepared to nominate such a committee he would proceed to do so.

Mr. Monaghan stated that the number of persons in the Ottawa area whom he considered suitable to sit on such a committee is limited, but he would endeavour to assemble a competent committee and submit the panel to the President at an early date.

The Secretary reported that when writing the members of the Board on the foregoing question, the President had sought clarification of the power of the Chairman of the Committee appointed to process applications and in response the following views had been expressed:
(1) Mr. Gratton was of the opinion that the Secretary should automatically approve an examining committee nominated by a Director;
(2) Mr. Williams felt that all Ontario examining committees came under the President's chairmanship, and the President had authority to delegate his duties;
(3) Mr. Anderson felt that resolution #145-60 is not clear as to whether an examining committee nominated by a Director is to be approved by the Secretary, or the President, or Mr. McDerment;
(4) Mr. Irving felt that the President's interpretation (as set forth in his letter to the Board) is correct, and had also expressed the opinion that written examinations should be on procedure, and the oral examination on breed standards;
(5) Mr. McDerment and Mrs. Southcott had agreed with the President's interpretation;
(6) Mr. Blyth felt that the President had every right to approve or disapprove any suggested examining committee.

After discussion it was agreed that it was the intention of the Board, at its annual meeting, that the approval of a proposed examining committee nominated by a Director rested with the President.

11 D 25. SHOW DATES

Mr. MacKendrick reported that he had been asked to obtain the Board's ruling on what constituted a "specialty show".

Following discussion it was agreed that this question had been covered adequately by resolution #157-60 adopted by the Board at its annual meeting in February.

The Office Manager sought the Board's ruling on whether it considered the application of the German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada to hold a tracking test near Toronto on October 2nd as conflicting with a championship show and licensed obedience trial to be held by the Wallaceburg Kennel Club on October 1st.

The Board ruled that these events did not conflict.

The Office Manager sought the Board's ruling on whether it considered the application of the Montreal Dog Obedience Training Club to hold three licensed obedience trials on October 1st and 2nd as conflicting with championship show and licensed obedience trial to be held by the Wallaceburg Kennel Club on October 1st.

It was agreed that the Wallaceburg Kennel Club would be asked whether they consider these to be conflicting events, the Office Manager to be governed by the reply received.

11 D 50. NON-PAYMENT OF ENTRY FEES

The Secretary read two letters from a certain kennel club respecting the failure of participants to pay for entering their dogs in an Obedience Trial or Show. The Board recommended appropriate action.

11 D 58. ADVANCE PUBLICITY RE DOGS

The Secretary read a letter from the Calgary Kennel & Obedience Club enquiring as to any ruling "with regard to publicity of dogs that are entered in All Breed Championship Shows, stating a time limit prior to shows that these dogs can be publicized".

The Secretary was instructed to inform the Club that there is no ruling on this question.

OBEDIENCE TRIALS

12 OB 17. DATES FOR OBEDIENCE TRIALS

The Office Manager reported that the German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada had enquired whether permission could be obtained to run a specialty obedience trial for German Shepherd Dogs in conjunction with their specialty show to be held in September.

It was agreed that because of the provisions of Chapter 1, Section 1, Subsection 3 of the Obedience Trial Regulations, such permission could not be given.

12 OB 8. REPORT OF CHAIRMAN OF OBEDIENCE COUNCIL

The Secretary read the following report (dated April 7th) from the Chairman of the Obedience Council:

"The Chairman of the Obedience Council called a meeting of the Chairmen's Standing Committee on Wednesday evening, April 6, 1960. Present were: Mrs. Mary E. Southcott, Chairman; Mr. Peter Kirk; Mrs. Marguerite Charters; Mrs. Audrey Langford (Obedience Representative for Ontario); Mrs. Phyllis Smith; Mr. Jake Giacomelli. Several items of business were discussed and the following recommendations made:

Complaint of Mrs. Pamela Reid (re Richmond Dog Training Club Obedience Trial held on March 6, 1960 at Steveston, B. C.) Although there was nothing in the letter received from the Obedience Representative (B. C. Mainland), Mr. R. Rankine, to indicate the conclusion reached by the Obedience Committee of the Richmond Dog Training Club at the meeting held on March 16, 1960 to consider the protest filed by Mrs. Pamela Reid, the Standing Committee recommends that the complaint not be upheld. It would like to point out (a) the reason for the ruling made by the C. K. C. re the interpretation of the Long Down Exercises in August, 1958 was because of its ambiguous nature and the fact that judges were differing in their interpretation of the rule. At that time this ruling simply made it mandatory that a penalty be given for any dog being touched or forced down. When the ruling was withdrawn in February, 1959, the situation remained as it was prior to August, 1958, and left it up to the judges to interpret the rule as they saw fit; (b) a judge's decision is final and cannot be changed; (c) there are numerous rules in the Regulations and Standards for Obedience Trials which judge Mr. Ben Taylor might well have taken into consideration when he penalized the dog in question 3 points because the handler touched it to put it down in the exercise. Two books of Regulations and Standards for Obedience Trials are attached which have some of these rules underlined in red. It is suggested that the Richmond Dog Training Club be sent one of these booklets when the Complaints Committee have dealt with the matter and write to the Club. It is also suggested that the Club be advised to forward their suggestion with regard to Proposed Amendment #14 to the Amendments Committee on Obedience.

The applications of both Mrs. Joan Wiik and Mr. Wm. Dawson were carefully considered. With regard to Mrs. Joan Wiik, the Standing Committee was of the opinion that although the examination given to her was extremely inadequate, it has no alternative under the circumstances but to recommend that Mrs. Wiik be approved to apprentice for both the Open and Utility Obedience Classes. With regard to Mr. William Dawson, the Standing Committee feels that the marks given by the examining committee were much too lenient, and recommends that the examination paper be returned to the examining committee with the full and correct answers to the questions for re-assessing.

The reports of the four Obedience Trials held at the Sportsmen's Shows on March 16, 17, 18 and 19, 1960, were submitted by the Obedience Representative and a letter is being sent to the Obedience Trial Chairman of that Club pointing out violations made at the Trials and offering suggestions to improve conditions at future Obedience Trials.

The Standing Committee recommends that in future all examination papers be sealed in an envelope provided for this purpose, immediately following the written examination, and sent back to the office of the Canadian Kennel Club for marking by the Standing Committee. This method would be much fairer to all applicants taking the examination. The Standing Committee further recommends that as soon as the four separate examination papers are compiled (as approved by the Board at its Annual Meeting in February, 1960) that no change be made in the questions or procedure without very good reason, and then only upon consideration and approval by the Board. In this way there would be consistency and continuity in the examinations.

With regard to the four separate examinations: The Chairman of the Obedience Council reports that progress is being made, and although it involves a great deal of time to compile lengthy lists of questions and answers for each examination, she hopes to complete the task within the next week or two."

With regard to Mrs. Reid's protest the Secretary read a report received from Mr. Robert Rankine, Obedience Representative for British Columbia (Mainland) on March 28th, and a further letter (dated April 3rd) from Mr. Rankine in which he reported that the Obedience Committee of the Richmond Dog Training Club "felt that Mrs. Reid's protest should certainly be considered by the Kennel Club", and "that until the Long Down ruling has been officially changed the exhibitors should not be penalized for touching their dogs in this exercise."

It was agreed that Mrs. Reid's letter of March 9th to the Richmond Dog Training Club could not be considered a protest within the meaning of Chapter 1, Section 16 of the Obedience Trial Regulations for it is not "a protest against a dog, its owner or handler".

It was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Blyth:

(#219-60) "THAT, the recommendation of the Chairman's Standing Committee be adopted."
FOR THE MOTION: Mr. MacCallum, Mr. Blyth, Mrs. Dery, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. McDerment, Mr. Monaghan, Mrs. Southcott.
Motion carried.

It was then regularly moved by Mrs. Southcott, seconded by Mr. McDerment:

(#220-60) "THAT, the cheque be returned to Mrs. Reid on the grounds that it is not a protest within the meaning of the Obedience Trial Regulations, but a complaint against the judge."
FOR THE MOTION: Mr. MacCallum, Mr. Blyth, Mrs. Dery, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. McDerment, Mr. Monaghan, Mrs. Southcott.
Motion carried.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Blyth, seconded by Mr. MacKendrick:

(#221-60) "THAT, the recommendations of the Chairman's Standing Committee with regard to the applications of Mrs. Joan Wiik and Mr. Wm. Dawson be approved."
FOR THE MOTION: Mr. MacCallum, Mr. Blyth, Mrs. Dery, Mr. MacKendrick, Mr. McDerment, Mr. Monaghan.
ABSTAINED: Mrs. Southcott.
Motion carried.

The Secretary read the following report (dated March 28th) received from the Chairman of the Obedience Council:

"Following my appointment as Chairman of the Obedience Council at the Annual Board Meeting on February 12, 1960, I selected as my Standing Committee the following persons: Mrs. Phyllis Smith, Mr. Peter Kirk, Mrs. Marguerite Charter, Mr. Jake Giacomelli and Mrs. Audrey Langford. I feel that this is a strong committee, since all are very conversant with obedience matters and capable of tackling problems with intelligence and without bias. To date there has been no special meeting of this committee, since the amount of work and the nature of same has not warranted it. However, I can foresee plenty of work ahead which will have to be handled by the Chairman's Standing Committee, and of course any business which affects obedience on a national scale will be sent to the entire Council for study.

My report on matters which have been referred to the Chairman of the Obedience Council as of the end of March is as follows:

The Board having concurred with the recommendation that the written examination taken by Mr. A. W. Preddy be returned to the Examining Committee with a list of the correct answers to the questions for re-assessment of their markings, the Chairman undertook to furnish the complete list of correct answers.

At the request of Mr. Tom Adams, the Chairman reviewed the file of Mr. Dennis Litchfield, since a request had been sent to the office of the C. K. C. asking for approval to have Mr. Litchfield judge the Novice and Open Obedience Classes at a Trial in the near future. Mr. Litchfield had previously been given approval to judge the Novice Classes only, and upon studying the apprentice books and the reports from the officiating judges under whom he had apprenticed for the Open Obedience Classes, the Chairman recommended that he be approved to also judge the Open Obedience Classes. However, it was noted that Mr. Litchfield had never submitted an application to judge the Utility Class and the Chairman was definitely of the opinion that before approval be given for Mr. Litchfield to apprentice for the Utility that he be required to submit the proper application and take the written and oral examination for this class. The Standing Committee concurred with this opinion at an informal meeting on March 27th. Both the Obedience Representative for Alberta, Mr. Geo. Frost, and the Director, Mr. J. C. Anderson were sent a copy of the recommendation.

ROUNDWORMS DANGER TO HUMANS

by JOE STETSON

dog editor "Field and Stream", well known judge and speaker

Contrary to many opinions, there are few diseases common to man and dogs. Even hepatitis and encephalitis have no serious connection as they appear in animal and man. The statement was made by Joe Stetson, noted writer, lecturer, and judge, who was guest speaker at the banquet following the Burlington, Ontario, KC recent sanction show.

His next statement, however, was startling. The roundworm of the dog and cat, which complete their cycles in their natural hosts, become dangerous when ingested by man. Instead of the larvae passing through the walls of the intestines when they hatch, travelling in the bloodstream to the lungs, then through the lungs, from which they are coughed up and swallowed, to become adult worms in the intestines, they become aberrant or wandering in the bloodstream and invade various types of tissue. They have been found in muscle tissue, the liver, the central nervous system, and even the eyes. Of 46 eyes microsected by Helenor Campbell Wilder, after removal for suspected retinoblastoma (cancer of the eye), 24 were found to contain larvae of the roundworm of the dog or cat and not cancer.

As might be expected, the greatest incidence of roundworm larvae in human tissue is found in children between the ages of three and thirteen, since young children play in sand and dirt where they can come in contact with fecal matter, are less discriminating in their contacts with dogs and cats, and are generally less hygienic in their habits.

The presence of worms can be readily diagnosed in dogs since eggs are being continuously produced and passed by the adult worms in the intestines. In humans, where the larvae rarely mature and eggs are therefore not produced for evidence, diagnosis is more difficult. (The human roundworm completes its cycle in the human and can be diagnosed and treated accordingly.) Now that the medical profession is becoming aware of the possibility of infestation by canine and feline roundworm larvae, they are suspected in cases of enlarged liver, pains in muscles and joints, certain nervous behaviour, enlargement of the liver and as differential diagnosis to trichinosis and retinoblastoma.

Puppies are usually wormed when roundworms are suspected and dogs generally become tolerant of all but the heaviest infestations, but what of children? For their protection it becomes essential that we keep their environment completely roundworm free 365 days a year. Properly disinfecting kennels and runs becomes necessary. (I have found that flame throwers of the brush burning variety available to the public are effective.)

Fortunately we have a happier prospect than periodic worming. Its development started when need was found for combating the microfilariae causing elephantiasis to which our armed forces were subjected in the Pacific areas. Dithycarbamazine was found to be successful in ridding the human system of these microfilariae. It became known commercially as Hetrazan in human medicine.

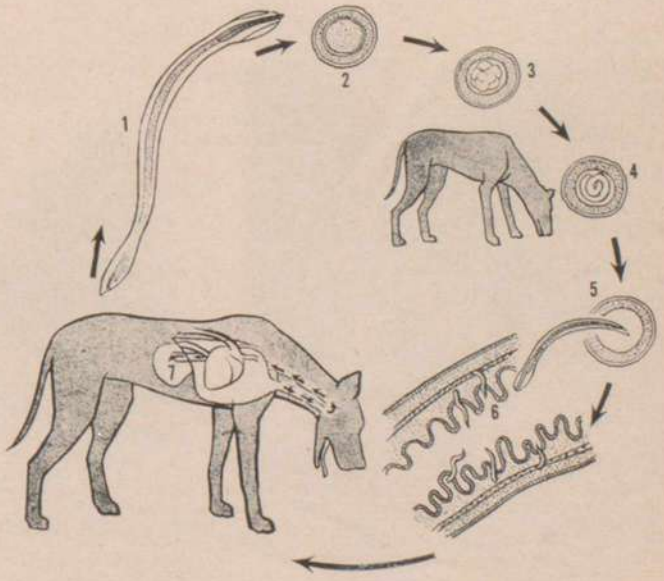

Following the war, dogs with heartworm were treated with diethylcarbamazine in the hope that it would rid them of the microfilariae which mature as pencil-size adult worms in the chambers of the heart and larger blood vessels causing debility in proportion to their displacement. It proved deadly to the microfilariae. For canine use it is commercially called Caricide. It is dangerous to individuals with heavy infestations, since a blood level sufficient to kill one microfilaria would kill them all, and a protein allegry caused by the presence of so many dead organisms at once may sometimes result. The simultaneous use of antihistamine is therefore indicated, but the thought, "why not a prophylaxis? Why let the microfilariae ever mature to multiply", followed.

A few years back, in the living room of Postmaster John Dunbar, our host at the National Bird Dog Championship at Grand Junction, Tennessee, discussing the problem with Dr. Bill Garnier, owner of the Bastrop Clinic in Bastrop, Louisiana, and his brother Wade of Amite, Louisiana, both ardent pointer men, they agreed to set up a prophylaxis experiment. Using 51 pointers – 47 were given doses of Caricide every six months and the remaining 4 were left untreated as controls. Periodic blood tests of the treated dogs proved negative and the four control dogs all acquired heartworm —two died. The experiment was so successful that a second year's experimentation was subsidized in association with the Louisiana State Veterinary School. Since, a third and still more exacting series is in progress in America and a fourth in Japan.

Now, Diethycarbamazine is to play another role in waging war against canine parasites. It has been stabilized in an additive for dog foods with a thirty-three-times safety factor which, if fed daily or alternate weeks or on any reasonable schedule, will enable dog owners to keep their dogs completely roundworm free. Roundworms can be eliminated from our environment and as a hazard to our children. The additive, known as Cypip, is being made available to all dog food manufacturers and should be on the market in a food before too many months.

This may be the forerunner of other additives which may make it possible to rid our dogs of other parasites. It is conceivable that an additive may be developed which will inhibit fleas, lice, and Reinfection cycle: 1. Mature worm lays eggs in intestines. 2. Undeveloped egg is passed by dog in feces. 3. It develops in soil and may be inngested by dogs or humans. 4. The ingested egg now contains an embryo worm. 5. It hatches in small intestine. 6. Now in its larvae stage, the worm migrates through liver, heart and lungs. 7. Coughed up, it is swallowed, reinfecting the dog. When it reaches the intestines it starts laying eggs, thus starting another cycle.

BOXER CLUB OF CANADA SPECIALTY SHOW

The Canadian National Sportsmen's Show was the scene of the 13th annual Boxer Club of Canada Specialty Show was the scene of the 13th anthe noted Boxer authority from Chagrin Falls, Ohio, judged the show and chose for Best of Breed honors, from the large entry, Ch. Markmor's Friar Tuck. Friar is a handsome brindle son of Ch. Hot Spell of Blossomlea. He was handled to the big win by his breeder-owner, John Marks. BOS to Friar Tuck was Ch. Haviland's Gai Robin, a stylish Bangaway daughter owned and bred by Mr. and Mrs. Stan Whitmore. WD and BOW was Char-de-Pado's Fandanga, a young Ch. Yermo Red son owned by Mrs. D. Clapp and bred by Mr. D. Squires. WB was Mrs. C. Huber's Hubertus Temptress whom she bred herself. Reserve dog was Ch. Gai Robin's son, Haviland's Gai Time and Reserve bitch, who came from the puppy classes, was Verwood's Tobiano, the Ch. Rondean's Atomic Alarmist bred by Mr. and Mrs. Vern Jeffries. Tobiano was also BPIS.

Mr. Oberly was exceptionally thorough in his examination of the dogs and it was plain to see that he gave very serious thought to his placings.

At the conclusion of the judging, the Club presented the annual awards for 1959. These awards are creating a great deal of interest and who wouldn't want to win one — they are beautiful. Yearly awards are offered for top Best of Breed Boxer, top sire, top producing bitch, top puppy, top breeder and to the overall top winning Boxer on an average basis. No one looked happier than Eve Whitmore receiving the top BOB award for her pride and joy, Ch. Gai Robin.

Best of winners at the Boxer Club of Canada Specialty Show, 1960 was Char-de-Pado's Fandango. Owner Mrs. Doris Clapp, Eberts P.O., Ont.

At the banquet following the show, Mr. Oberly kindly consented to give a short talk on Boxers in general and his opinion of the dogs he had seen that day. He felt that the overall quality had definitely improved since he last judged Boxers in Ontario two years ago. He was asked for his opinion of the way our Boxers moved and to this he answered that he did not see a good mover in the show but this did not surprise him as he feels that a truly good moving Boxer is indeed a rarity.

Mr. Oberly also cautioned us to be careful of the mouths on our Boxers. He is very particular that a Boxer have a perfectly symmetrical bite with the proper amount of undershotedness and out soiling them. Large absorbent bath towels and electrical dryers are, of course, part of the equipment of every duck hunter worthy of the name.

The Poodle may at one time have been a splendid hunting dog. He would have had to be to fit into the aboriginal concept of a dog's place in society; but, except for certain wayward individuals who still retain an atavistic yearning for the chase, the Poodle today is not distinguished as a canine nimrod. Ferocity has been largely bred out of the Poodle. He is an amiable fellow, loving all and sundry—after he has been properly introduced. A conceited dandy and sometimes an arrant snob, he has a great depth of compassion for weaker dogs and an almost human distaste for unpleasantness of any kind.

The great of the world have always loved the Poodle. Famous artists have immortalized him. His virtues have been extolled by poets and writers from Chaucer to Eugene Field. He has ever been a favorite among all classes of society in the diverse world of Europe. Being a European dog, he had been practically unknown in North America until the soldiers of two world wars became acquainted with and enamored of the gay and charming breed. The rise in American acceptance of the Poodle in recent years has been phenomenal. Formerly considered effette and sissified by the 100% American male, he has broken down the barriers of prejudice to such an extent that he now threatens to replace the perky and self sufficient little Beagle as the nation's most popular dog.

In the past, when the popularity of any particular breed attained the proportions of a craze, the downfall of that breed inevitably followed. There is always a maggoty fringe of opportunists looking for an easy way to make a fast buck and who start breeding like crazy to take advantage of the public's fickle caprice. The result is that the market is soon flooded with the inferior products of quantitative breeding and the qualities that made the breed popular rapidly die out. Eventually another dog captures the public fancy, to ride high for a moment in popular favor and then, when the 'back yard' breeders have done their worst, to return from the obscurity from whence he emerged.

Sit on a park bench in New York, Toronto or Chicago and watch the parade go by. It is enough to break the conscientious breeder's heart to see, among the occasional specimens of Poodle perfection, the raggedy-taggedy majority of cow-hocked, flat-footed, mismarked, undershot products of the 'doggie in the window' pet shop. To you, who are considering the adoption of a purebred puppy of any type, acquaint yourself if possible with the breeder, or someone who knows the breeder of the dog you wish to own. If he has the respect of his friends and competitors, if he is known to be a man more interested in producing good dogs than an impressive bank roll, if he is a member in good standing of either the American or Canadian Kennel Clubs, buy without fear.

The empty heart need be desolate no longer when a dog, any dog, becomes a part of one's life. This eager companion of our joys and sorrows never changes, never forgets. He may be a canine aristocrat, or a waif whose pleading puppy eyes once embraced your heart. If he is your dog he is truly the best dog in the world, and you are his god. For the years he is with you and, alas, they go so quickly!, you and he have fulfilled the destiny that the Almighty set for both of you in the dark of a distant cave. When his short life is ended and his tail wags no more the home, bereft of its joyous occupant, is empty indeed.

The poignant sorrow will pass. The hungry yearning to hear once more the loving bark that is stilled, will be eased when again you give your heart to a newcomer. You will never forget the pal who is gone, not so long as you draw breath, and be assured that if there is a heaven, there is waiting for you, just inside the gate, the faithful little servitor who lived out his life with you, but never his love. If you have lately lost a beloved pet you may be comforted just a little, as I have been comforted, by the tribute so touchingly expressed by the late Wilfred E. Funk:—

"Father, in Thy starry tent
I kneel, a humble suppliant.
A dog has died today on earth.
Of little worth but very dear.
Hold him in Thine arms
If only for a while.
I fear he will be lonely—
Shield him with Thy smile."

The All Terrier Club of Canada

by Eileen M. Stewart
Aurora, Ont.

Our April meeting was mainly devoted to mulling over our All Terrier Booster Show so that any difficulties encountered can be avoided in the future and constructive suggestions could be incorporated in forthcoming shows. At our May meeting we were pleased to introduce six of our new members, Mr. and Mrs. Webster and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Elms, all owners of Cairn Terriers and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Horn, breeders of Staffordshire Bull Terriers. As Staffordshire Bull Terriers are not a too familiar breed to many of us, Mrs. Horn has promised to give us a thorough briefing on these terriers at a meeting in the very near future.

Miss Dorothy Johnson, whose interest is in Miniature Schnauzers, has also joined our membership.

We are now looking forward to our third Annual All Terrier Specialty Show on May 22 and a happy get-together afterwards at the home of our president, Mr. Chas. MacFarlane.

Associated All Hungarian Breed Club

by Mr. Jack Anderson
1316 Centre St. N., Calgary, Alta.

Our enthusiastic and hard worked secretary, Mrs. McLellan, is fully occupied at the moment preparing the material for "Shaggy" News so you will just have to bear with my ramblings and brief notes for this report.

It was good to hear from Mr. Rudi de Wardener of North Stonington, Conn. again, to know that he is still a most enthusiastic Pulik breeder and that their dogs are doing so well. Was also pleased to hear that Mr. Bill Snyder has returned to New York after a trip to Europe and wish him welcome home.

We are happy to report that through the efforts of our club there are four Komondorok being imported from Hungary to this continent for stock improvement and breeding purposes. They are being shipped from Budapest in mid-May via K.L.M. Airlines; a male to Mr. George Foster and a female to Mrs. Rae Lange, both of New Jersey. A male and a female are also coming to Canada to your correspondent. It is interesting to note that our club is truly "International" and that through contacts with all the important breed clubs in Europe we can assure breeders and new fanciers of obtaining excellent specimens and breeding stock at regular prices.

For information of prospective fanciers the important points to insist upon in our three key breeds are briefly — Komondor, pure white coat, heavy bone structure, height of adults about 30 inches, black nose and flews, dark brown eyes, tail set on as continuation of rump reaching to the hocks and curving slightly upwards at tip. Faults — high set small ears, short smooth hair on head and legs, highly curled tail. Flesh-coloured nose and blue eyes are a disqualification. Kuvasz, pure white coat with heavy fine undercoat, black nose and flews, medium size V-shaped ears set high and hanging pendant. Eyes dark brown and black eyelids. Tail set low and carried hanging down with tip slightly raised. Puli, a compact small dog, adults about 17 inches high. Generally born black changing to reddish or greyish black, all shades of grey and occasionally white. Black nose and flews. V-shaped medium sized ears, set fairly high and hanging pendant but not hound-like. A distintive double coat the dense un-elastic hair forming in natural strands or cords in fully developed dogs. Medium long tail carried gay over back but not ring or sickle. The gait must be gay and bouncy showing great speed and stamina. Disqualifications — flesh-coloured nose or flews, wall eyes, any coat colour than those mentioned.

The Barrie Kennel Club

by Miss Amy Lea
40 Worsley St., Barrie, Ont.

The club held its monthly meeting on March 9 with 17 members present. President Ken Johnston presided. Reports were heard from all committees. Judges for both 1960 and 1961 shows have been approved.

The social committee held a raffle and winners were Mrs. M. Childs and Mr. Morris. Some of your readers will be pleased to hear that at a recent Obedience Trial in Oshawa Mrs. Black's Welsh Terrier passed with 193½. Quite a few of our members were successful with their dogs at the Canadian National Sportsmen's Shows in Toronto.

Largest Entry in Match by one Exhibitor won by Mrs. Orca Brown's litter.

Judge for our Match was the well known Mrs. Ethel Gottschalk of Cosburn Kennels, Toronto, who did a mighty fine job. We were pleased with the large entry and huge turnout of spectators at our Christmas All Age Specialty Match and this Match. Our trophy table was a sight to behold with many gold and silver trophies for all top winners.

Our special thanks go to Mrs. James Crosgrove and Miss Beverly Duckett for all their assistance in preparing for our match and our thanks to all who supported it with their cash donations.

Boxer Club of Canada

by Joan Jeffries

#7 Hwy., Woodbridge, Ont.

The April meeting of the club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nowack. It was voted to have Mr. Richard Hollinger of Detroit, Mich. as the judge at the annual Puppy Match on June 26. Mr. Hollinger is a highly respected Boxer breeder and is well known in connection with Ch. Hollee's Top Preview, one of the top winning Boxers in America. Let's all get out to the Puppy Match with our young stock, two right up to 18 months, and make the event a great success.

Brantford Obedience Club

by E. S. Gardner

72 Hillier Cresc., Brantford, Ont.

We did it! Our first Trial was a tremendous success.

An unprecedented number of entries, 61 in all, attended the show and that is gratifying after everyone's efforts and hard work in planning this event.

Mr. Jake Giacomelli did a wonderful job of judging in the ring and as we had a record number of entries Mr. Walter Konradt assisted in judging Novice "A" class in the second ring.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to Jean and Jake for their efforts in making this trial a success.

We are proud of the way our club has progressed in the ten months since its inception. We have had two successful graduations, the latter being judged by Mrs. Audrey Langford whom we wish to thank for a job well done. In both, a high percentage of qualifying dogs — a tribute to the trainer. Now to look back and see some of these graduates with three successful Trials behind them, with leading scores and several trophies to their credit. CDX the next step for these members is a big one, we wish them luck.

A bouquet to the Property Equipment committee for the outstanding appearance of the ring equipment.

We received many comments on our trophies, which were generously donated by Brantford business people and in future Trials we hope to have equally attractive rewards which will personalize B.O.C. Trials.

After the Trial a party was held at the home of Walter and Martha Konradt. A great party to round out an exceptional day.

We believe in working our dogs and trying to further the ideals of Obedience Training — correct handling and good showmanship,

The Bulldog Club of Central Canada

by Gertrude M. McKenzie
Locust Hill, Ont.

At our April meeting the members had the pleasure of viewing a film taken at the Nugget Kennels, also a Ceasarian operation performed upon one of the bulldogs there by Dr. Fred Clements, which proved highly interesting and instructive. The members' thanks to Albert Farrell for lending the film.

Four new members were welcomed into the membership and we are all happy to see that the new recruits are showing their dog at some of the shows.

All members wish Mrs. E. Farrell a speedy recovery from the operation she recently underwent and hope to see her up and about again soon.

All those who contributed to the prize list for our Specialty and Booster shows are most warmly thanked. Any help on the day will be most appreciated; all that remains is the hope that we are blessed with good weather and good entries.

Burlington & District Kennel Club

by Roy L. Dafoe
3047 Woodland Park Dr., Burlington, Ont.

Members were very sorry to hear, at the May meeting, that Mrs. Jessie Carr is still confined to hospital, and at the same time learned that Mr. Norm Smith, husband of our President, is very ill in hospital. We hope, by the time of the next column, that they will be both fully recovered.

Mrs. Pendlebury has generously consented to look after the Junior Council. The new club library will be open to members at the next meeting.

Our Secretary reported the purchase of new duplicating equipment for the club and also advised we now have an Assistant Secretary in the person of Miss Steacy.

Mr. Fred Lowe reported there will be a graduation of the Obedience Class June 5, this class consisting of an entry of 57 dogs. Mr. Lowe also reported on a very attractive trophy list for the forthcoming trials.

Mrs. Smith brought forward some new ideas on club trophies bearing the club crest. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Nantais, Trophy Convenor, have spent considerable time on this aspect of the show in September. We will again have a Champion Parade at the show in September.

At the close of the meeting, Mr. Burr of the Hamilton Obedience Club showed his very excellent film on obedience training your dog.

owners, whether they are members of our club or not, to join with us at our forthcoming Booster Show to be held in conjunction with the Ontario County Kennel Club, at the Whitby Arena, Whitby, Ont. July 2.

And we can now advise that the second point Specialty will again be held at Burlington September 24. Final details as to judges etc. are not yet available, but these will appear in the club bulletin as soon as they are received from our Show Committee.

The continued and ever increasing number of applications for membership in our club is a sure sign of a healthy operation, and we welcome these new members most warmly. It is our sincere belief that every Sammy owner, whether a novice or with many years experience can be a source of information and assistance to every other member, and since the basic principles upon which this club is founded are those which will give all our members all the assistance and information that is possible, we feel as always that the greater our membership becomes, the greater does our potential become. Race, colour or creed play no part in the qualification for membership, which is based wholly on our wish to have as many members as we can, provided they are truly interested in the promotion of the best interests of the breed, and these same best interests can only be obtained by the sincere and wholehearted cooperation of the greatest number of Samoyed enthusiasts.

As always the invitation to anyone interested in our breed to apply for membership in the club, regardless of where they may reside, is made. The forms can be obtained from any member, or by writing directly to the Club Secretary; Mrs. Edith Freeman, Oro Station, Ont.

The Canadian West Highland White Terrier Club

by Catherine McGill

51 Riverhead Dr., Rexdale, Ont.

Our club's regular monthly meeting was held on Monday evening, April 18 at the home of Mrs. Navin, Gormley, Ont.

This meeting was presided over by our President, Mrs. T. S. Adams, and more plans were discussed for our forthcoming Specialty Show.

It was suggested that the club hold a picnic this coming summer, or such other event as may be decided, and this will be further discussed at our next meeting, which will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. McGill, Rexdale, Ont., on Monday evening, May 16, at 8.30 p.m.

The Dachshund Club of Canada

by Ernie Lindsay

Willow Cove (Sub. P.O.), Burlington, Ont.

Our regular monthly meeting was held at the Lindsays on May 8 with our President, Dr. Fred Bridgman, presiding. A good number of enthusiastic members were in attendance, in spite of rain and fog the entire day.

After some lengthy discussions it was unanimously decided that we devote a goodly portion of our future meetings to various types of educational programs for the benefit of novice breeders and fanciers, and hoping to have a very reputable speaker on the early history of the Dachshund breed at our next meeting on June 5th followed by a Fun Puppy Match at our July 3 meeting, to be held on the large shady lawn of the Lindsays, Burlington, with everyone bringing their picnic basket for this occasion. Classes will be for puppies from two months to 12 months in all six varieties, and Mrs. Pat Fisher doing the judging. Mrs. Fisher will give us a talk on comparison of type after the placements have been made which should prove beneficial to all exhibitors and novice breeders and will be good training for those little puppies.

We also decided to sponsor another Futurity Match in 1961, which will be held along with our 6th Annual Specialty Show, and the Burlington & District All Breed Show, in Burlington on September 23, 1961. All on same day and place. This means that all females (all six varieties) being mated after this coming July 23 are elegible for nomination in Futurity, as puppies must not be over 12 months of age come September 23, 1961. Now is the time to start planning, and nominate your brood females before mating.

Please contact our Futurity Chairman, Mrs. N. T. Smith, 267 Pine Cove Road, Burlington, Ont. for information and forms.

Everyone is knuckling down now preparing for our oncoming Specialty and Futurity, on September 24, 1960 with Mr. Ed Drumm, Michigan, U.S.A., long time breeder of Dachshunds, engaged to do the judging of both Specialty and Futurity, and also as guest speaker at our dinner. We will be most grateful to all those who may feel willing to contribute to our usual outstanding trophy list. Please send all donations to Trophy Convenor, Mrs. Barbara Moss, 117 Hostein Dr., Ancaster, Ont.

We all feel so very sorry for The Keiser Family (Heidenheim Kennels) Arva, Ont. after receiving the shocking news of their top-notch female, Heidenheim's Temptation, being stolen after her big win at Chicago International Show, (right off the bench). Temptation had finished her Canadian Championship in record fashion, and on her way to great wins. But just what can anyone do in locating her? This is indeed a great tragedy, and we all feel so sorry Margaret.

Also received the sudden and shocking news of Mr. Norm Smith being struck down with quite a severe stroke, during the first week in May. At time of writing Phyllis informs me there is at least a slight improvement in Norm's condition. We all hope Norm will continue to improve; so sorry Phyllis.

Mrs. Wm. Katzenmier, one of our very active members who has been confined to hospital for quite a lengthy spell, has recovered sufficiently to return home, and we hope the nice warm sunny weather will do a great deal to complete recovery. Let us hope to see you out at our next meeting Mrs. Katzenmier.

We invite all Dachshund fanciers, members and non-members to attend our educational meetings being held at the Lindsays the first Sunday afternoon of each month; and bring along those puppies on July 3, don't forget your picnic basket.

Forest City Kennel Club

by Rita M. Smith

44 Flanders Row, London, Ont.

The club held its monthly meeting in the Club Rooms, The Eastern Star Temple, April 20. A goodly number of members turned out, which was heartening to see.

Our President, Mr. Ted Smith was able to obtain a film on Dog Training in the RAF which was most enjoyable and one which bore out the fact that a bad dog can be trained if properly handled.

Everything is underway and settled for our all breed show on May 14. As our show will have been held by the time this goes to press, I would like at this time to thank our Judges, Show Secretary, Superintendent and all those who gave a helping hand — Thank you. And also I hope the exhibitors and spectators enjoyed it thoroughly.

The club welcomed in four new members, Mr. and Mrs. Allaster, Mrs. E. Price and Mrs. E. Tremble. We hope your stay will be a happy one.

The meeting was adjourned and a most enjoyable lunch was served by our social convener, Mrs. A. Atkinson.

By the time this column is published our big specialty show will be over. But, at the moment we are all working to make this a "really big show". It is so easy, after a show has been a success, to thank all who have pitched in to help the various committees. However, I would like to say thanks for a job well done now to those committees under the leadership of Herb and Mac and all those who assisted them.

Although I did not attend the specialty show held by the German Sheperd Dog Club of Greater Ottawa my mother and father did. From all reports I believe this club is to be congratulated for their wonderful effort. A well known judge, a large entry and a lovely day were just a few of the ingredients that went into making their first show so enjoyable.

On behalf of the members I would like to say "welcome back" to Jean and Ken Bowan. An extended visit to England interrupted their membership in our club. It is nice to have you back with us and lots of luck with your new puppy.

The club is pleased to announce that we have started a handling class for German Shepherds. These classes will be held every Tuesday night except the first Tuesday in the month, this being the night we hold our club meeting. They are being held at the home of Pat and Bob Savink. For directions on how to get there please call Bob at Whitehall 2-3517.

The purpose of these classes is to (1) through your cooperation to maintain a sportsmanlike attitude in showing of your German Shepherds; (2) to give anyone interested by methods of demonstration or discussion every assistance in the handling of your individual dog in the show ring.

Should you feel that you have a problem pertaining to yourself or your dog and you wish to bring it to our attention be assured that our best foot will go forward to assist you in overcoming it.

Thought for the month:
When the one Great Scorer comes,
To write against your name,
He writes not whether you won or lost,
But how you played the game.

This united organization of 140 enthusiastic breed supporters is engaged in the following worthwhile events: May 15 — our 8th Annual Obedience Trial, with two top judges, plus the finest trophies; May 29 — Obedience Classes Graduation, 60 dogs entered; June 12 — our popular Puppy Specialty Show, with Dr. Jeff Snavely our honoured judge. These events are designed by exhibitors for exhibitors. Our goal is to give the best for the least, to set an example of quality and thrift. Excellent judges, the best judging conditions, careful planning, beautiful trophies, but low entry fees. These events are worthwhile because they set tangible goals and clearly evaluate efforts to improve our great breed.

The first summer matinee show, tentatively set for June 5, will pilot a new system of preparing more specialty judges. Show Chairman Gordon Garrett has acquired club approval of a rather unique set up, in which Mary Southcott, Toni Kleinjohann and Harry Watson, sitting as a panel, will more or less judge the aspiring judge. This will require a great deal of patience and tact, but if successful would be very useful.

Breed Improvement Committee plans include a fall show in which the dogs must first compete in obedience and then conformation. The principle of this type of show would be to emphasize the importance of obedience and conformation integrated.

Plans for some form of advanced tracking test, to be held in the fall, are progressing. We have the rules (the German FH tracking) and a few eager trainers with T.D. dogs, ready and willing to train. This would be just a supplement to our fourth Annual C.K.C. Tracking Test, to be held October 2.

Here and there: We hope these fine Spring days will find Ed and Edna Summerfield fully

The German Shepherd Dog Club of Manitoba

by Noreen Wach

The German Shepherd Dog Club of Manitoba was recently formed. The following officers were appointed: President, Mr. Lawrence Wach; 1st Vice President, Mr. Dave Garry; 2nd Vice President, Mr. Doug. Lawrence; Treasurer, Mrs. Joan Lawrence; Secretary, Miss Joyce Medinski; Training Chairman, Mrs. Marion King.

The club held a very successful Specialty Sanction Show on April 2 with an entry of 25 dogs. Mr. Bill Nixon judged, Mrs. Irene Gove presented the trophies. Best of Breed was Moon Valley's Tamylin, owned and bred by Mrs. Geo. Brown. BOS was Berwyck's Shane, owned and bred by Mrs. Al. King. Best Puppy in Show, Arris of Thorhidge, owned by Miss Turner.

We are presently recruiting members for our club. 1960 represents a challenge to us in the field of new activities and better understanding of our German Shepherd dogs in Manitoba.

At the April meeting of the club guest speaker was Dr. B. Sorrell, recently arrived from Guelph.

Speaking on the "Care and Problems of the Aging Dog", Dr. Sorrell divided his talk into eight divisions comprising the eight main systems of the body, and gave a very full account of the disorders affecting them.

Amongst points of interest Dr. Sorrell stressed that nearly all old dogs get nephritis in some form, and while there is no cure, condition may be maintained by replacing fluids lost, use of special diets now being produced commercially, antibiotics when called for, but above all, vaccination against distemper, hepatitis and leptospitosis giving not only protection against these diseases but minimizing after effects in later life.

Tumours, benign to malignant, said Dr. Sorrell, can be found everywhere. Cause, treatment will differ, from surgical removal to prescriptions of female hormone, with veterinary knowledge increasing all the time.

Broad principles to follow in care of not so young dogs are:

No drastic changes in habits.
Exercise in moderation.
Nutrition — Suitable diet — reduction of weight where necessary. Free access to water, and supplementary calcium where necessary.
Surgery — As diagnosed.

Mrs. R. E. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dafoe for the effort they put forth in the publishing of the Spring edition of "Paw Prints". The members considered it to be one of the best editions yet, providing much information for the Irish Setter fanciers.

Some tentative plans were laid for the club's Specialty Show in September at Burlington, Ont. in conjunction with the Burlington and District Kennel Club. Since this Specialty Show provides an exhibitor with the opportunity of gaining two sets of points in one day, we are looking forward to welcoming many of our neighbours across the border once again and renewing old friendships.

We were pleased to find that two of our club members gained honours at the Chicago Show in April. Killane Gayla of Ellair (Bitch) owned by Miss Anne Erkfitz and bred by Mr. John F. Royston of Kellane Kennels in Meadowvale won the futurity stakes. Wunfields Kennel's Donna Kim Liz (Bitch), bred by Mr. W. Ionson, won in the Novice Class. Congratulations were extended to both these members with best wishes for their future success.

The meeting was followed by a most interesting talk by Dr. Taylor of Connaught Laboratories. Slides were shown by Dr. Taylor of the many buildings of the Laboratories, giving the members some idea of the progress Connaught has made since the First World War when it successfully endeavoured to prepare an effective anti-tetanus vaccine. It was interesting to note that the Connaught Laboratories are closely connected with the University of Toronto, and in the matter of vaccine production, it is entirely self-supporting, receiving government grants only when undertaking certain specific research programs. Dr. Taylor explained to the members in detail, the development and production of protective and therapeutic vaccines and serums. It was also reassuring to see, in the slides shown, the excellent condition in which their animals, used for experimentation, were kept. Dr. Taylor was thanked by Mr. R. E. Allen and all members, I am sure, felt much gratitude towards this great concern, for the protection of our society and our animals that these highly skilled men are constantly endeavouring to perfect.

At our last meeting, in our club rooms on May 3, we had a very informal meeting as our President, Tom Armitage, is in Europe. We had little business to discuss with reports from Mari Thomas, Show Secretary and Helen McDougall, regarding Obedience and Joyce Brown on trophies, etc.

We were very happy to have Dorothy Johnson of Toronto and her beautiful Schnauzers on our TV show, all doing an excellent job. To top it off the lovely and talented girls of Dogs in Canada (come now, Helen) Kaye Peer and Elizabeth Dunn, were interviewed by Marie Callaghan as part of our Kennel Korner program. Kaye doing an excellent resume on dogs and their magazine. The girls came to our meeting in the evening and Kaye talked to the members and then Elizabeth Dunn answered questions. I think they enjoyed their day in Peterborough (we did) and I know we were most appreciative of their taking time to come to us after their arduous trip to Montreal.

We are closing the season off with a barbecue and swimming etc. at your writer's home in June . . . . should be fun.

Election of officers for 1960 took place with the following being elected: President, Mr. Roy H. Colwell; Honorary President, Mrs. Margeson; Secretary, Mrs. Roy Colwell; Treasurer, Miss Althea Fraser. Mr. Harold Fraser was appointed chairman of the Show Committee, Ken Albright will be Show Superintendent. This Toy Dog Specialty Show will be held in Saint John August 15 in conjunction with the All Breed Show of the New Brunswick Kennel Club.

A report on a rummage sale held by the club in November showed it to be a financial success.

Following the business session refreshments were served and a little time for friendly chit chat. Refreshments featured a birthday cake for Mr. Robert Laskey who is out of hospital following a heart attack. His friends are delighted to see him around again and planning a busy summer in the various dog clubs in which he is interested.

The March meeting was held at the home of Miss Althea Fraser. A report from the Trophy Committee showed they were right on the job in lining up trophies for August 15.

Miss Florence Greene was guest speaker on the subject of Kindness Clubs in New Brunswick and the spread of these clubs throughout Canada and even enquiries from the United States on how to get organized. The plans and ambitions of these young members are amazing and we all feel that only good can come of such clubs. Our club donated $10.00 to be used in prizes to winners of an essay on Animal Care open to members of Kindness Clubs in the Fredericton area.

Plans were made to hold another rummage sale in the early spring and a food sale to be held around Easter. Again refreshments were enjoyed and that visiting period that we all feel is so important to the friendliness of our small club.

Mountain City Obedience Club

by Mrs. Blanche Walton
7750 Ave. Du Mail, Ville D'Anjou, Que.

Looks like spring is really here, as all members are working at a great pace to prepare for the Ottawa trial on May 7 and our own Sanction Match on May 14. We are hoping for a good turnout at the Armories for the Sanction Match as this is very good training for our own trials at Senneville, which will soon be upon us.

Should be a great show at Senneville this year as entries are rolling in at a steady pace according to the latest word from our trial Secretary, Mrs. Ward. We hope to see lots of new faces along with the "regulars" who have helped make our trials such a success in the past. In our next issue we hope to be able to report a good number of new "legs" being sported around the club, along with some more completed degrees.

A demonstration of Obedience Training was given by members of the Montreal Dog Obedience Club and the Mountain City Obedience Club at the close of judging in the Town of Mount Royal Arena on Saturday April 30, and by members of the 200 Club on Sunday May 1. A large group of interested spectators were on hand.

The special CDX Class is progressing most favourably under Mrs. Casgrain's guidance, ably assisted by Mrs. Kay Hawkins, and all dogs are showing improvement.

The new slate of officers for the coming year has been drawn up, and we are looking forward to much activity.

The Association has just finished an Obedience class with 22 dogs under the training of Mr. Thomas Spicer. Aubrey Harrold's 18 month old German Shepherd Rover placed first. This was a really fine win, as Rover was so shy he was pulled into the building the first time he atended class, being brought into the city from a rural home for the first time.

Second was D. Hill's Standard Poodle who tried hard to win right to the end. Mrs. Lillian Latta's West Highland White Terrier was third and Mrs. G. W. Campbell's Chesapeake Bay Retriever was fourth.

Our tenth anniversary was celebrated on the 19th at the April monthly meeting. Mr. George Staples, the oldest member, shared the honour of cutting the cake with Col. Drury who has worked hard and long for the club. Our meetings are well attended and guests and prospective members are always welcome.

Mr. Frank Jones of Minesing gave a short but interesting and informal talk on the judging of dogs. Then the film of the 1960 Westminster Dog Show at Madison Square Gardens was thoroughly enjoyed. This is highly recommended to all.

Mr. Art Surette is doing wonders with the Obedience Class held each Wednesday at Steinberg's parking lot on Kerr St. There are about 15 dogs of all shapes, sizes, and breeds.

The wheels are still grinding in preparation for our Tenth Annual Dog Show and Obedience Trial, Saturday September 10.

The Ontario County Kennel Club

by Gertrude M. McKenzie
Locust Hill, Ont.

At our April meeting there was a good attendance of members. All were sorry to hear of the serious illness of the wife of our President, Mrs. Whiteside and wish her speedy and complete recovery.

Preparations proceed for our point show in July at which there will be Junior Showmanship Competition classes as well as the usual handling classes for children. Mr. Roy Dewsbury has consented to judge the latter. It was also agreed to have a Sanction Show early in the Fall and to make the necessary arrangements for same.

Members have done well with their dogs at recent Sanction Shows. Mrs. Grosart's Elkhound went 2nd in the Group, Mrs. Roy Dewsbury's puppy Borzoi gained a 2nd Group and a 1st Group, Mrs. Boorman's Poodle puppy Corkey won his class twice, Mrs. L. Patons Maltese was BOB and Mrs. Dewsbury's Bulldog bitch gained BOB while Roy Dewsbury's puppy bitch Bulldog also gained a BOB.

It is very gratifying to know that members, by supporting these shows, meet competition and gain valuable experience for their future showing and by their respective wins have proved that it has been well worth the trouble, time and training.

We welcome one new member, the owner of a Schipperke, I am sorry that I do not know the name.

Afterwards Mrs. Paton gave a talk on Maltese and Percy her puppy posed and illustrated the various points in the talk which proved very interesting to all.

Oshawa Obedience Association

by Peggy Boorman
22 Frank St., Oshawa, Ont.

Our Association held its regular Meeting on May 2, followed by "Open House". Many members and friends had an enjoyable evening.

Adult Training Classes are now in their fifth week with 33 dogs working hard toward their graduation in June.

The Association recently donated the necessary funds to the Retarded Children's Association of Oshawa to purchase some tables for the newly opened school.

Plans are shaping up for the Fall Obedience Trials but as yet we are waiting for permission on a date. Watch for our advertisement soon.

Following the business meeting, Mr. Toni Kleinjohann showed two very interesting films, the first being on Field Training featuring a number of hunting breeds, and the second film was in German showing The Training of German Shepherds. Both films were very informative and enjoyable.

Refreshments provided by the ladies were heartily enjoyed after the meeting.

The Pekin Palace Dog Club of Canada

by Mrs. Vera Pasek
Bridgeview Survey P.O., Ont.

Our April meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sheahan. Plans were discussed for several Booster Shows to be held in the near future and we hope all our friends and associates will watch for our handbills and give us their support.

There seems to be some misunderstanding with regards to a recent circular letter mailed from our club to all show giving clubs. Our intention was not to have two separate sets of points; under 8 lbs., and 8 lbs. and over. What we were requesting was entries in Open Classes only be divided. The winners of each to compete with winners of other classes for the Best of Winners with the one set of points as always.

Since our Puppy Match held last year was such a success, another will be held this June. We hope to see a large number of entries from all breeds. Watch for further information regarding this Match. Several of our members have reported new litters and will have them ready for this show.

The standard for Pekingese was discussed with numerous questions from our newer breeders and of course some from breeders of years experience. Mrs. Yan Paul and Mr. MacCallum handled the discussion and made clear certain points regarding showmanship etc. We are always finding new points of interest with regards to our breed and would certainly welcome any pointers or items of interest about Pekes.

Once again please watch for our Booster Shows and Puppy Match.

Congratulations to another club member, Leo has one dog finished already this year, he is off with flying colours and we are all looking for some repeat performances.

Our program for the evening was most enjoyable. It took the form of a round table discussion with each member being alloted five minutes to talk about his breed, the reason he chose it, the standard, the show procedure, and the disqualifications. Leo Bodemer, Dachshunds; Don Adams, Boxers; Mark Sequin, Golden Retrievers; Al Symonds, Springers; Mrs. Lowe, Chihuahuas; Dr. Brightwell, Schnauzers; C. C. Burton, German Shepherds. Two of our members are off this week-end so we will be watching for the show results.

The Progressive Kennel Club Inc.

by Gertrude W. Drew

There was quite a good crowd out to the May meeting. The agenda consisted of official reports, small business and last minute details pertaining to our point show in June.

According to reports everything is up to date and we are looking forward to another good show. There is some painting of equipment to be done and this was volunteered by Mr. Roy Dewsbury and Mr. Al Lake who promised to have it all ready for the show. There will be the same well stocked lunch counter with lots of hot coffee and ice cold pop.

One thing that will please the exhibitors is that the Club has decided to let all exhibitors go home at four o'clock unless they have to stay for further judging. If the weather is propitious several of the breeds will be judged outside on the green.

There is considerable interest being evinced in our two day fall show. Many people think this is a wonderful idea. The judging will end with the best of breeds thus eliminating the long drawn out process of doing groups and best in show and other specials. Some people have remarked that this is perhaps a trial show and if it proves successful it no doubt will be an inspiration to other clubs to have similar shows. However, the reason for the two day show is on account of the size of the building. It is not sufficiently large to accommodate a full six group show and if we were to have group and general specials we would naturally have to have certain dogs back for the second day. This we thought would work a hardship on those exhibitors.

I have just been informed by Mrs. Daniel-Jenkins that Miss Bay Meyers has been in a serious car accident and is in Scarboro Hospital. Several stitches were required to close wounds on her head, her left arm is broken and other lesser injuries. Our club feels very sorry for Miss Meyers and we all hope for a complete recovery. Mrs. Jenkins tells me her dogs are being well looked after. It would be a nice gesture for dog people to send her a card since she will be used up for many weeks.

Hope to see you all at our June show, until then, au revoir.

Mr. Al Lake gave a very interesting reading on feeding. What foods contain what and in what proportions. It is most helpful in preparing a balanced diet when one knows the exact ingredients to combine for the best results.

Dr. H. J. Carr, Carrville Kennels, Palatine, Ill., who has been most interested in our club and who has given us many helpful hints on dogs, dog clubs et al., and who also provides us with the latest in show news has been made an honorary member of the Provincial. Incidentally the winners at the big international show are as follows: Best of Breed, Red Cloud owned by Jack Spear of Tyronne Farm Kennels; Best Opposite Sex, End O'Maine Lady Amherst, who was also winners female; Winners dog, Kinvarra Malone. The BB dog and BOS are litter brother and sister. Dr. Carr relates that there are now seven champions in the litter that produced the two top winners and there will be eight. The dog and bitch that produced this record litter are Ch. Carrvale Terry Terhune and Ch. End O'Maine Claret.

The new standard or proposed standard has certainly been controversial in its introduction to the fancy. It leaves room for a variety of interpretations the ambiguity of which would cause much confusion in judging. It is just possible that the A.K.C. will not approve it at this time.

We are sorry to report the death of one of our first members, Mrs. Laurie Banks. She was young and enthusiastic and her passing has saddened the members of this club who knew her as a great worker and a wonderful friend. Our sympathy is extended to her husband, Cliff, and to her parents and brothers and sisters.

The presentation of a handsome cheque was made to Al and Mary Lake as a token of our appreciation for all the wonderful things they have done for our club and especially for the use of Tara Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Lake both spoke and thanked the club for their thoughtfulness. Mr. Lake said it was a pleasure to work with the members of the club and they were only too glad to do what they could.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Sid Rivett who have a new baby girl.

The meeting concluded with a delightful lunch served by our hostess, Mrs. Lake and her assistants. During lunch an open discussion took place on the new proposed standard.

For membership and information on club activities please write Mrs. Mary Lake, 200 Maple Leaf Dr., Toronto 15, Ont. Ch. 1-3709.

The St. Catharines & District Kennel & Obedience Club

by Don Foster

131 Bunting Rd., St. Catharines, Ont.

Our meeting got underway with the reports of our various committees and the reading of letters from neighbouring clubs. We would like to congratulate the Hamilton Obedience Club for their new monthly bulletin. This is a great step forward in associating the public with club gatherings and Trials.

A training film was shown courtesy of Purina after which refreshments were served.

Our club was extended an invitation from the Welland Rotary Club to do a series of Obedience demonstrations at the annual Welland Sportsman Show in aid of the Crippled Children Fund and may I add that the demonstration was very successful. A number of pictures were in the local paper and Mr. Vern Jeffries' Boxer "Fella" with a striking head study on the front page. The climax for the week's show was a parade of dogs and a short commentary on the different breeds. All participants had a lot of fun and experience and we hope we left some impression on the spectators as to what a little

Shearwater Kennel Club

by Valerie H. McMillin

Woodlawn, N.S.

Club President Andrew McMillin took the meeting on April 29. New members Mr. and Mrs. W. Lavis were welcomed. There was a minimum of business to discuss. Show chairman Charles Winship reported that some further trophies would be welcomed by the committee, otherwise things were well under control to date.

We were fortunate in obtaining the services of RCMP Constable Canam, who showed the members a film made in Ottawa entitled "Dogs go to School". The Constable was asked several pertinent questions regards training and handling of dogs used for guard and tracking work. Our thanks and appreciation for the time given us were tendered by the President. The meeting adjourned to refreshments.

Skyway Obedience Club

by H. Wilkinson

143 Fairfield Ave. N., Hamilton, Ont.

The first meeting was arranged at the home of George and Ethel Cook, Prospect St., Burlington on March 27, with 20 members present, all greatly enthused with organizing our new club, business, drawing up by-laws with the election of officers as follows: President, Don Peall; Vice-President, Bud Mendham; Secretary, Barbara Cook; Treasurer, Ken Gowan; Directors, Jack Walker, Wayne Dean and Dorothy Peall; Training Chairman, Geo. Cook; Membership Chairman, Albert Briffett; Publicity, Dorothy Peall; Trial Chairman, Peter Kirk.

Under the capable hands of Geo. Cook training classes were started on April 10 at the Burlington Beach Fireman's Assoc. Clubhouse, 316 Beach Blvd. Training classes are proceeding well with both indoor and outdoor training facilities.

The second meeting was held at the home of Dorothy Peall to complete the by-laws of the club. Our members had a long and busy day at the Brantford trials on April 30 with wonderful success.

Thunder Bay Dog Training Club

by J. W. Haggerty

R.R. 2, Port Arthur, Ont.

April meeting at the "Haggerty's" featured a talk on the anatomy of the dog by biologist Doug Lindsay of the Lakehead College. May meeting held at the "Pupeza's" concerned with organization for our coming trials and Sanction Match. The ladies added a sizeable sum to the treasury with a successful Easter tea and Bake Sale. Mrs. R. Koski, the convenor of the tea, was commended by the members for her efforts in the venture. Doggy and animal films completed the formal part of the evening and a lunch served by Mrs. Pupeza highlighted a social hour of chatter. Training classes have been well attended and we hope to have a much larger entry in our June trials than was mustered last year.

Truro Kennel Club

by Phyllis A. Gratton

P.O. Box 186, Truro, N.S.

The club met on April 6 at the Civic Building in Truro, President E. R. Pace presided.

The main topic was the forthcoming show on June 11. We are most fortunate in procuring the judging services of Mr. Samuel Back, Toronto. His selection as our judge has been met with great enthusiasm.

A cash donation for the show from Mr. J. D. Whiteley was received with thanks.

The membership has increased tremendously and all who attended the meeting were out for making this show the best ever.

Two dog films were enjoyed and two more ordered for next meeting on April 27.

Three large projects for the Fall season were discussed, plans for which will be announced later.

Officers for 1960 are as follows: President, Eldon R. Pace; Vice-President, Harold Durling; Secretary, Mrs. Grace Rae, 130 Victoria St., Truro; Treasurer, Mrs. D. Armstrong.

The "200" Club

by Laura McNally

62 - 4th Ave. S., Roxboro, P.Q.

Canadian canine ambassadors scored again at a U.S. trial. At the popular Cranston, Rhode Island trial in April two entries from The 200 Club — Montreal Lakeshore — qualified in the Novice B division.

Cairn terrier, Watmar Misty Morn Can. CDX scored 198 to take first place blue ribbon in competition with some of America's top dogs and handlers. This completes Am. CD for Misty, capably handled as usual by owner Marge Hamilton of Pointe Claire, P.Q.

German Shepherd, Princess Traciena with owner Jean Osborne, also of Pte. Claire, scored 188 in the very first trial for both dog and handler.

As both these gals have contracted a bad case of the trial-bug we wish them more luck at their future shows.

On the social side, the "200" held its first sherry party, mid-April, at the lakeside home of Professor and Mrs. Donald Mordell in Beaconsfield, P.Q. Regardless of the absence of our canine companions — save the host's two — the talk was 90% dogs. All our thanks to the Mordells for their charming hospitality.

At the Sunday breed show of the L.K.C. in Montreal, we provided an hour-long display of trial routines. With Gerry McNally at the mike, included were Standard Poodle Cobber and Mrs. R. H. Bryson of Westmount, Standard Poodle Judy and Mrs. Olive Tyner of Senneville, Labrador Ming and Mrs. Marge Willis of Pierrefonds, Miniature Poodle Mocha and Bob Williams of Pte. Claire, German Shepherd Tracy and Mrs. Jean Osborne, and Wire-haired Dachsie Tagalong and Mrs. W. Ward of Baie d'Urfe.

On the previous day, three other club dogs, Collie Pal and Mrs. Helen McGill of Pointe Claire, Miniature Poodle Pepi and Mrs. Marie Mordell of Beaconsfield, and Miniature Schnauzer Buttons with Miss Madeleine Amos, also of Beaconsfield, held a group of Boy Scout Patrol Leaders spell-bound at another demonstration of Obedience at the Beaurepaire rally.

At the first annual general meeting of the club on May 5 the following Executive Council was elected for the coming year: President, Phil Willis; Vice-President, Olive Tyner; Secretary, Vic Madge; Treasurer, Wallace Ward; Councillors, Marge Willis and Bob Williams.

We wish them strength and success in all their endeavours and assure them of our whole-hearted support.

Weimaraner Club of Canada, W.C.A.

by Helen Schulze, Governor

518 - 538 Ellis St., Niagara Falls, Ont.

As your Governor, I would like to bring you up on the latest developments of our club.

Last fall, as your President, I spent eight days as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Kullmer, the President of the Weimaraner Club of Germany. I timed my stay so I could attend the two major field trials in that country, the Futurity Puppy Stakes and the All Age Dog Stake. The Futurity Puppy Stakes was a delightful affair and it was a joy to watch the puppies work. It was also a great compliment to some of the handlers in the way they directed the young dogs to go through the tests. At both trials, I was honoured to assist the judge in his task and I learned a lot of things during the two trials.

I also attended their general meeting and I found a great love of the owners for their gray dogs. They are proud of them and they take the challenge given to them to preserve this dog as it was handed to them, and as it is now still in spite of the fact that 200 years have passed since the dog was originated.

In March I flew to Hollywood, Calif. to represent you, as your Governor, at the meeting of the Weimaraner Club of America and I was elected to the Executive Board, being the only woman in the last ten years having been called on to fill a position.

A lot of work was done during the Hollywood meeting and I must say all of this should bring our dog out; and a lot of confusion was cleared up. In our next magazine, you will find all that was done, and I think that you will agree with me that it is to the advantage of the dogs. We had four days of very hard work and it was not always easy to have everyone agree on the issue.

On April 24 our own Weimaraner Club of Canada had their meeting, Executive and Membership, and our Secretary, Jay Whalen, will report more about them, as you know she is really the hub in our organization. Unfortunately, she herself was ill and had a lot of illness in her family so she could not do what she wanted to do. Bill Bell, the President, is working very hard with the newly formed All Purpose Dog Club, and I think the results will show this summer. The Vice-President and Treasurer of the American club promised me that any help we ask from them will be given to us during 1960, and I hope to have some of their top dogs up in Canada when we hold our first all pointing breed field trial show under the Canadian Kennel Club rules in the fall. You will hear more in the next issue of Dogs In Canada.

ticks from using our dogs as hosts. Cattle can now be kept free from cattle grubs by a substance taken orally. The likelihood of this seems more obvious when we think of how some individuals are much more prone to have fleas or lice than others, though living in the same environment. A means will probably be developed to make all dogs more obnoxious to fellow travelers.

Meanwhile, we have the responsibility of safeguarding humans from the menace of canine roundworm larvae by making use of the means we already have at our disposal.

CLIPPING THE POODLE

away ears by clipping an "arm hole" for them to set down in. The tuft under the mouth can best be done by stretching the mouth back with your thumb. The line of demarcation at the top should be neither over nor under-done. It should come to a point about midway up the stop. The side line should be from corner of ear to corner of eye, sloping as necessary.

"Whip Stick", which is solidified beeswax, will coat the hair above the eyes to keep them up with the top knot when the dog is ready to enter the ring.

To roll the ear feathers in paper, first comb out thoroughly. Take the feather in one hand, checking with finger where end of feather is, so as not to catch the leather in the rubber band. Now roll the feather in paper, rolling along the length of the hair, not towards the ear; double up the paper roll and catch with a rubber band. Test with comb to make sure the leather is free. Coat a bit of cotton with "capsecum", which is liquid red pepper and procurable at any drugstore, and tuck it under the elastic to discourage chewing.

he expressed disappointment that he saw several rye mouths at the show.

However, Mr. Oberly felt that all-in-all the quality was quite good and complimented us on the good sportsmanship shown by the exhibitors.

Mr. R. Brockington, the Boxer Club president, thanked Mr. Oberly for his instructive speech and expressed the hope that he would come back in the not too distant future.

It's a Dog's Life

My niece decided to move from her apartment in Bowmanville to a house. The next day she put her baby out in the carriage on the front veranda to sleep. In about an hour's time the baby started to cry, so she went to the window. To her surprise, she saw a Cocker Spaniel purposefully crossing the road. Frances watched the spaniel as it came up on her veranda, put its two front feet on the carriage, then walking on its hind legs back and forth, it rocked the baby back to sleep.

That evening the spaniel's mistress called and informed Frances that when her babies were small she had taught Cindy to rock them to sleep.

Cindy was so pleased that her new neighbor had a baby for her to take care of. She came every day after that and rocked little Darlene to sleep.

A Florida dog was so smart his owner decided to send him to college. When he came home on vacation a reporter interviewed this unusual student. How did he like college life? How was he doing?

"I'm doing quite well," replied the dog. "I'm not so good at algebra and political science, but I am good at languages. After just three months I can speak a foreign language."

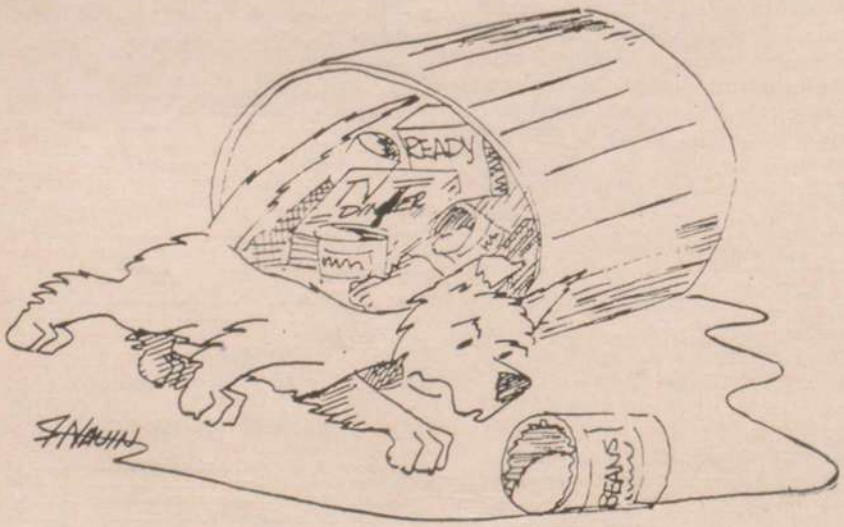

"That's great," said the reporter. "Say something in that language."

The dog sat back, cleared his throat and said, "Miouw."

Customer: But won't this Poodle's beautiful coat be ruined in the rain?

Breeder: Certainly not. Did you ever see a Poodle carrying an umbrella?

TRIBUTE TO BOATSWAIN

Near this spot are deposited the remains of one who possessed beauty without vanity, strength without insolence, courage without ferocity, and all the virtues of man, without his vices. This praise which would be unmeaning flattery if inscribed over human ashes, is but a just tribute to Boatswain — a dog.

THINGS WE NEVER KNEW

Rover, a Cocker Spaniel owned by Wesley Hill, Niagara Falls, Ont., has been trained to retrieve ducks that have gone over the Falls. He has saved the lives of more than 2,000 injured ducks.

Charles Darwin, the scientist famed for his theories of evolution, included many dogs in his studies at his estate, Down House, Kent, England.

Monarch-minded Ethopians once had a custom whereby they elected a dog "king" and paid him great homage.

Rulers of the home-on-wheels of Aennchen and Tony Antonelli are 13 Maltese Terriers, who share life in a 27-foot house trailer in Momachie, N.J.

Dogs on Duty

Although not actually hired for the job, Chota Peg, a Cocker Spaniel, has covered 2,000,000 nautical miles, back and forth across the Atlantic Ocean. He trots beside his master, Commander John W. Anderson, master of the liner, the United States.

Unusual Legislature

Many of the strangest laws pertain to dogs. An old Pennsylvania statute which prevented aliens from owning dogs, has finally been repealed. In New York State a law exists that a blind pedestrian and his Seeing Eye dog be given right of way, regardless of red light signals.

Dogs in Wildwood, N.J. need their own timepieces. It's against regulations for them to bark between 10 p.m. and 6 a.m. On the other hand, there is a park in Frankfurt, Germany, where only visitors accompanied by dogs are permitted. In France the tax law forms demand a ratepayer show the number of dogs he owns.

Under a charter of King Charles II, Spaniels are allowed in all courts and must not be turned away from any royal palace in England. Dachshunds get the same royal treatment in Gergweis, Germany, where a sign reads "Welcome to Dachshund Village" and the Dachshund population equals that of people.

These unique notes came our way via Gaines Dog Research Centre, New York. If there are any unusual items about dogs in your neighbourhood, won't you write and share them?

Art Allen piloted this mighty team of Huskies owned by Roy Gaddis, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, to the 1959 World Sled Dog Championship.

NATOMAH KENNELS

feeds PURINA to its Huskies

Keyed for keen competition, Art Allen poised tensely behind his powerful Huskies on the starting line of the International Dog Sled Derby of Quebec. Three days later they glided across the finish line to win the 1959 World Champion Sled Dog Trophy. Their racing time for the combined three laps of 100 miles totaled only eight hours, four minutes and twenty-five seconds.

"Believe me," said Art, who has won many other top races in both the United States and Canada, "those dogs burned up a world of energy, and they had to be in top condition to win. That's why we chose to feed Purina Kibbled Meal."

Today Art Allen and his wife, Judy, have established their own Natomah Kennels in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, to breed and train Siberian Huskies for sale. Translated from Indian, Natomah means "spirit of the wind," a name most descriptive of the burning competitive spirit of both the dogs and their owners.

Feed Purina to your dogs, too. It's extremely palatable and power packed to build true body condition in all dogs . . . breeders, show dogs, work or play dogs.

"This is Hawk," said Art, "one of the fastest-developing lead dogs I've ever seen." Judy and Kurt, their youngster, look on.

COVER STORY

I have been asked by Mrs. Mosher to write this story about Donna, and nothing could give me more pleasure, but as I talk about her most of the time, her story may not be news to many people in the Poodle world.

To most of us in the dog business the honor of breeding a great dog or bitch does not come often, and the pleasure of seeing them develop and grow into what we had hoped they might seems to wipe out all the heartbreak and disappointment that make up a large part of this business.

Ch. Donna of Westford-Ho, like a lot of top dogs, was offered for sale as a seven month old puppy, and I was told she would never be more than a pet by many of our top Poodle people — most satisfying to me today! Purchased by Pixdown Kennels of Wilton, Conn., she was shown through her championship in beautiful coat and condition and presented at her best at all times. In July of 1959 she was purchased from Pixdown Kennels by Mrs. Anna H. Mosher, owner of Harmo Kennels, Amherst, N.H. Mrs. Mosher had bred a half brother of Donna's, Ch. Harmo Jaunty, and also has a large kennel of miniatures and toys. Her latest toy champion was Ch. Harmo Divot who finished his title at 13 months of age.

Donna's show record reads very much like that of her illustrious sire, Ch. Prankster Darius. Both finished their championships at an early age, and were campaigned continuously without thought of judges, shows, etc. Both won and both lost, but were always making friends along the way. To date Donna's record stands at 66 Best of Varieties, 30 Group firsts, and seven Bests in Show including two Specialty wins. Her trips to both Bermuda and Canada were enjoyed very much by her handler as well as herself, and my only comment on the folks we met both places is that everyone was wonderful and we can't wait to get back.

Even though Donna is just over four years old she will have to take time out from showing before too long to do the real job a bitch is built for. She has proved herself in the show ring, and she is now thinking about proving herself in the whelping room. Who will she be bred to?? I have been asked that question a hundred times, and I just say we will have to wait and see. This is one breeding that we shall consider most carefully.

Already rated among the "Top Ten Non-sporting dogs in the U.S.", I believe she will be named Top Winning Standard Poodle for the year, there again following in the footsteps of her sire who also received this honor during his career.

William J. Trainor.

"You say Mrs. Hanson's Irish Setter had ten puppies and a week later she had nine? Impossible!"

"Not at all. One of the puppies died."
