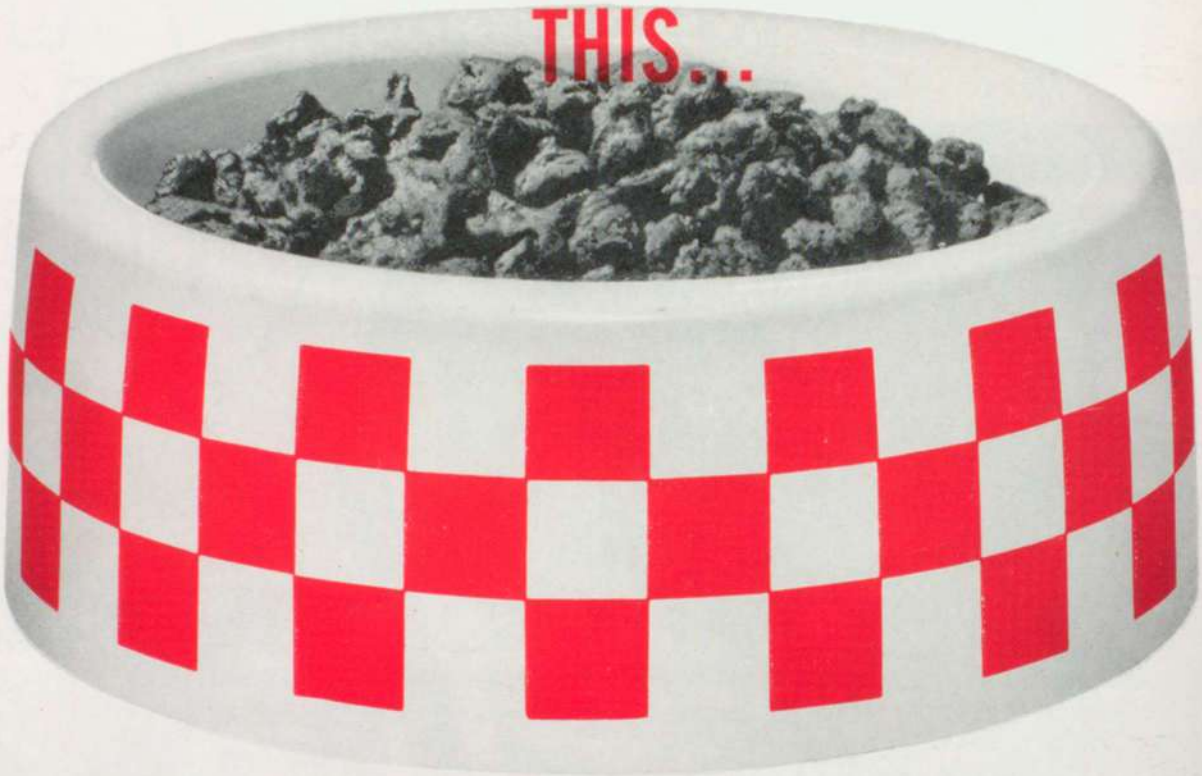
MORE AND MORE CANADIAN KENNEL OWNERS DESCRIBE THE PERFECT "EVERY-DAY" DOG FOOD LIKE THIS...



If you were asked to list the qualities of the perfect food for daily feeding, you'd certainly say that first and foremost it must contain all the nutrients dogs need in their daily diet. You might go on to say that it should be an eagerly eaten food—so that there's no time wasted in feeding. You'd add that it must mix readily with liquids so that you could use it even at weaning time. And you'd probably end by saying that it should be a light, easily digested food that dogs can be trusted to eat but not over-eat. You'd be describing Purina Dog Chow. And you'd be in complete agreement with a rapidly growing number of successful Canadian kennel owners.

Purina Dog Chow—thoroughly tested and proved at Purina's famous Dog Care Centre—is available in 50 lb., 25 lb., 10 lb. or 5 lb. bags and in 2½ lb. boxes.

FROM THE EDITOR

Small animal veterinarians and readers of Dogs in Canada have this in common—neither group would last long without the other. While to many kennel owners the veterinarian has a place equivalent to the family doctor as advisor and friend, there is still much misconception on the part of those who stand most to benefit from such a relationship.

The veterinarian's life is not an easy one. His hours are regulated by the whims and needs of his clientele. His success is based on service. His career may have had its inception in childhood — and stems from a real desire to alleviate and prevent suffering. A veterinarian's education is long and costly. The practical work is intricate and demanding and a veterinary college is no place for anyone with a queasy stomach. After years of digging deeply into his own and family finances, if not actually going into debt, he finally graduates to face the cost of starting and equipping his practice.

He is then beset by the admixture of success and disappointment, of the joys and sorrows that come of saving or losing a patient.

This July issue, marking 100 years of veterinary education in Canada, salutes the devoted men and women of this profession, with the hope that it will help bring about more understanding between the owners of dogs and other animals — and the veterinarian.

It has long been the wish of Dogs in Canada to be "on the spot" at more shows, to have the opportunity of meeting the readers and to provide a dispensary of service. Until this summer this has been a dream. Now our representative, Mrs. Phyllis Smith, well-known as a former member of the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club and one of the most knowledgeable all-round "dog people", is attending virtually every show in Ontario and shortly leaves to cover the Maritime Circuit. At the Lakehead, exhibitors from both the East and the West will be able to avail themselves of her services. Mrs. Smith is thoroughly informed regarding Dogs in Canada, shows, Obedience and Field Trials, and many other facets of the dog business. Adept cover story

Featured on this month's cover are the dogs from the Metropolitan Kennels Reg'd of Mrs. Joseph Kersch, 448 St. James St., Ville St. Pierre, Que.

Mrs. Kersch has in her kennels many noteworthy dogs of the popular and rare breeds, among them Miniature and Toy Poodles, Maltese, Yorkshire Terriers, Chihuahua, Lhasa Apsos and Shih Tzus.

The Lhasa Apsos are represented by Ch. Metropolitan Rudolphe 3rd, well-known show winner and sire of winners, and Metropolitan Elise and Metropolitan Zurik, two young hopefuls well on their way to their championships. The Lhasa Apsos are beautiful, medium-sized dogs originating in the far East, and becoming increasingly popular in the United States and Canada, where they are making their mark in the Terrier Group. With their flowing, heavy coats and sturdy bodies they are typical of the dogs of the East with a wide variety of coat colors, mostly with white markings, and the tail carried over the back.

The Shih Tzus, a rare breed introduced into the show rings of Canada by Mrs. Kersch, is rather similar to the Lhasa Apso, but shown in the Non-Sporting Group. They are rapidly gaining many admirers and with their odd charm and appealing ways are favorites wherever they are shown. Originating in Tibet and Northern China, they were the prized possessions of the Chinese and Manchurian nobility. Always kept as sacred pets in the monasteries and upper class homes, they were frequently presented as gifts as a sign of great esteem. Small and rugged with firm, well-built bodies and legs and carrying heavy coats to resist the cruelest winds of their northern homes, they come in a wide color range. They are particularly noted for the head, with the hair falling over the foreface giving the head the appearance of a chysanthemum, one of the best beloved oriental flowers. Their comical, rolling gait gives them an air of jauntiness which adds to the uniqueness of the breed.

Metropolitan Kennels has among their newer homebred Shih Tzus, Metropolitan Louise and Metropolitan Beaver who completed their championships in 1961 and the latest homebred champions, Metropolitan Steela and Metropolitan Mario.

These dogs were ably shown by Pamela Mack and Frederick Clarke, assisted in Ottawa by Mr. C. W. Sisson. More youngsters from this kennel will be shown by them at future shows.

Metropolitan Kennels have available at all times beautiful puppies and young show stock from their winners of various breeds, both for the serious breeder and the discriminating owner wishing a well-bred, happy pet to take over their hearts and home. ■

SYMPATHY WITH UNDERSTANDING

. . . Thank you for your letter of sympathy regarding the loss of my Pugs in the fire. It helps to think one has kind friends. It is morale building and helps one to go on after such a grim tragedy. I hope to make a fresh start in the near future and I wish to express my sympathy for others who have suffered the same kind of loss.

THESE ARE WORKING SAINTS

. . . We have read with considerable interest the article in the May issue of Dogs in Canada, entitled "Saints Come Marching In." We have been breeding St. Bernards on a limited program since 1948, during which time our Saints have worked continuously as soon as they were old enough, packing and pulling a toboggan in the Rocky Mountain Forest Reserve, assisting me in my work as a Forest Officer, which entails considerable travel in rough mountain country at all times and in all conditions. Some of the Ranger Stations we have been at have been completely isolated during winter months and our only means of travel was dogteam. At one location after snow came in the Fall the only mode of transportation for the first ten miles was by dogteam and sometimes as late as early May in the Spring. The result of this work is very evident in the dogs, producing very good conformation, depth of body, straight legs, heavy well-developed hindquarters and considerable stamina. We would emphasize that on the female side of our strain there have been continuously working dogs since we commenced raising the Saints. In packing with two panniers and top pack the dogs have actually carried 70 lbs. each.

Unfortunately, again owing to the nature and conditions of my employment, that is being unable to leave the Station during periods of fire seasons from April 1 to December 1 each year, we are unable to get to a great many shows, especially those at distant points, but we do manage periodically during Winter and early Spring to go to the Shows in Calgary, Edmonton and Red Deer. At the shows held in February of this year in Calgary, the judge Mr. McDerment, particularly commented to us both that he had never seen St. Bernards with such well developed hindquarters, this applying especially to our young male, Jiggs of the Hills, born March 26, 1959 and younger female, Blondie of the Hills, born August 23, 1960. Both these dogs are from the same parents, namely Countess of the Hills (Janey) bred by ourselves and Fernbank's Garo of Brockville (Mack). We purchased Mack from Mrs. Widdis. A beautiful dog, he lacks the conformation and stamina of our dogs — proven conclusively in the years we have had him, but his get out of Janey have very good conformation as mentioned above. As a matter of interest we would say that Janey's ancestors on her mother's side were both the Alpine Plateau and Eidelweiss strains, as also are those of her sire, including Ch. Gerd von der Lueg von Eidelweiss, Elmer von de Lueg and Bella von Ringgeli, all mentioned or pictured in The Complete St. Bernard by Denlinger.

Our dogs are of the rough-coated variety and we do not think there are any other breeders of this type in Alberta, although we understand there are one or two people who own and sometimes breed the smooth-coated and cross varieties in and around Edmonton.

We too, have found that it does not cost as much as is generally thought to feed these dogs as most people seeing such a large dog immediately think of the economic liability in terms of something "like a quarter of a beef per day." Even when working they do not appear to require any abnormal amount of food, except of course, the growing pup who requires more in proportion.

INTEREST GIVES INCENTIVE

. . . Kindly accept our thanks for your interest in our work by taking time in your busy round of duties to visit our workshop. We are pleased this resulted in the article in the May issue of Dogs in Canada and the picture of our boys at work.

We believe we are helping these folk to take a useful place in the community, and interested folk like you give us incentive to continue. Thank you so much for all you have done.

STILL ACTIVE AND WINNING

. . . While visiting recently with my friends of long standing, Ed and Mildred Horton of 3761 Sunset Dr., Tacoma, Wash., they showed me an advertisement they had placed in Dogs in Canada. This showed their Am. and Can. Ch. Sandamac's Mr. Sandaman, winner of the Collie Review's award for Best in the West, 1961. Mrs. Horton said they intended to mention that he is by a Canadian sire, Ch. Alandale Award, but due to an oversight it was omitted. There are now three American and five Canadian champions from the litter in which Sandaman was born, and the Hortons are fairly confident they will complete five of each from that one litter as two others are well on the way . . .

Owing to dangerous illness I was nearly compelled to give up Collies for two years, but recovery has been amazing . . . and I am still active, as may be seen from the above and other litters of unquestioned interest.

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

. . . Since Talismans Brown Promise referred to in the June cover story is the property of A. J. Duncan and J. R. Shaeffer I would like to clarify a couple of points about her size and breeding. Although she was awarded the Top Producing Toy of Canada 1961, she herself is not a Toy but a Miniature Poodle of Miniature breeding. Ch. Talismans Golden Oscar is her full litter brother, therefore this would make Oscar "Beanie's" uncle and not her grandfather as so reported. "Beanie's" grandfather on her dam's side was a dog by the name of Hyleden's Cricket that was owned until his untimely death by Mr. John Lennard, Dundas, Ont.

ABOUT TROPHIES

On behalf of the All Terrier Club, I would like to say thank you for the generous offer to our trophy fund of the four subscriptions. I reserved one for our puppy match in July.

We have been getting numerous compliments on the elegance of our trophy table, and again I personally would like to say how much the Eileen McEachern Memorial Trophy was appreciated. It was a real honor to have it there. Many people didn't know about it, and expressed their interest and were delighted to have the opportunity of seeing it.

THE OLD TIMER

The Old Timer posed a stunner: If a judge signs his certificate without withholding ribbons . . . he'll be placing very little value on integrity.

"I think," said the Old Timer, "that I'll go up into the attic and see if I can locate the trunk I brought back my college things in."

"Going to a Gay Nineties party and looking for an outfit?" I asked.

"Nope," said the Old Timer, "I want to see if I still have my old track suit and my running spikes – and besides in the "gay nineties I was little more than a gleam in my father's eye."

"Don't tell me that after all these years you're going to do something about exercising away that grapefruit you're wearing under your belt buckle," I kidded.

"Nope, and that grapefruit, as you call it, isn't fat, it's muscle," he answered. "Just figuring that track suit and the running spikes may be useful to get out of town after I judge my next dog show –that is if I'm going to continue figuring my signature is worth the paper it's written on."

I could see he wasn't kidding and that he had something serious on his mind. So I sat down prepared to listen.

"It's this new certificate in the judge's book," he said. "It's got me bothered. I don't know whether to quit judging– which as you know I'm not too interested in, in any event–or do what probably 99 per cent of judges will have to do."

"And what's that?" I asked.

"Sign the book with my tongue in cheek, with my fingers crossed and with a silent prayer that the false certificate I am about to sign shall not be held against me."

I was startled.

"Let's go back to the beginning," I suggested. "You've lost me. What's this certificate in the judge's book that you've got to sign."

The Old Timer leaned back. He lighted his pipe and got it drawing freely.

"Up until just recently," he said, "when a judge signed the judges' book he signed a statement to the effect that those dogs to which he had awarded wins were worthy specimen of their breed."

"What's wrong with that?" I asked.

"Nothing," said the Old Timer "because I don't think a blue ribbon should be given to a bad specimen simply because it happens to be the only representative of its breed. But the old wording has now been changed."

"And what is it now?" I asked.

"Now the judge certifies, over his signature, that every dog to which he has awarded winners is worthy of becoming a champion."

"And what's wrong with that," I asked. "Surely when a judge hands out a winner's ribbon he's helping the dog along to a championship because he's awarding championship points along with the ribbon."

"Fine in theory," he said, "and I'm in strong support of any practical move to increase the value of our championships. But I'm underlining the word practical.

"Now let's take a look at the average Canadian dog show. Here in Ontario you've got an average of perhaps 350 dogs a show. You may have 50 to 60 breeds. So there will probably be 75 to 100 winners' ribbons the judge is going to be handing out. In other words if he hands out a winner's ribbon to every dog he places best of its sex he's saying that one out of every four or five dogs in that show is worthy of becoming a champion. You and I know that just isn't so and if the judge is going to conscientiously follow the intent of that certification he's going to withhold at least one winner's ribbon out of five. And if he does that he's probably going to have to leave the dog show building under a protective police escort.

"Could be", I agreed.

"And he's going to have to come to the dog show complete with a crystal ball and a ouija board," the Old Timer continued.

"Crystal ball and a ouija board! What do you mean?"

"Let's say it's a small show and let's say, for instance, that among the entries is one Great Dane and he is a puppy just over six months of age. He's loose, and he's gangling as you'd expect a Great Dane puppy to be at that age. He won't be at his best for at least another 18 months.

"So the judge, not being able to see the puppy at two years of age, when in fact it's only six months old, conscientously withholds a winner's ribbon. Eighteen months later that puppy is a flier and taking Best in Shows. What does that make of the judge who withheld a winner's ribbon from the puppy? And conversely what about the puppy that matures early, gets a winner's ribbon and matures into a coarse oversize bum?"

"Now judges are human. I'm willing to bet right now that 95 per cent of those judging today will continue to hand out winner's ribbons—except to unworthy specimens of the breed. I'm willing to bet that the other five per cent will either refuse to judge on a matter of conscience or will not be asked back after the first show where they withhold the ribbons that should be withheld under this new certification.

"I agree with improving the quality of our champions. I agree that a dog should not become a champion a point at a time. But I disagree with this method. First of all it places the judge on the spot with the exhibitors. It places him on the spot with his own conscience. If he signs the certificate without withholding ribbons, he'll know very well that every dog to which he awarded a winner's ribbon was not worthy of the title champion, and he'll be placing very little value on the integrity that should be in his signature."

"Okay, what's the alternative?" I asked. "How do we make our championships more valuable?"

"Take a look at the U.S. system of major wins, or perhaps the challenge system," he said.

"But surely," I objected, "that's not practicable for Canada. You know the number of shows where there's only one representative of a rare breed show after show. How would that dog ever get a major without winning a group or how would it ever find another of its breed to challenge?"

"Modify those systems," said the Old Timer. "We're already along the way with our present system of crediting a group winner with the greatest number of points in that group and giving a show winner the greatest number of points available in the show. Similarly, Best of Winners takes the greatest number of points in the breed. A dog that gets its points one at a time can become a champion if it beats competition by placing in the group. Why not extend that? For instance a dog of a rare breed places third in the group. Behind him is a breed winner unplaced in the group, but which picked up three points in its breed. Why should a beaten dog obtain three points to its championship while a dog that beats it gets only one? Is there anything illogical about extending the system?

"Mind you, I'm not saying that is the answer. But I am concerned about rules that are not enforceable and that by their very nature are likely not to be observed. Failure to observe one rule, in my opinion, breeds loss of respect for other rules. And that, I suggest, is not good, whether the rule be one governing dog shows or governing the places and hours where we can have a hot toddy legally." ■

SELF WATERER FOR DOGS

The importance of providing fresh water for dogs cannot be overstated — yet water systems used in kennels are often inefficient and unsanitary. Acto Manufacturing Co. has come up with the solution in Lixit, the new sanitary self-waterer which is merely attached to a tap in the kennels or yard. The dog (or cat) merely licks or nudges the lever control and water flows directly into his mouth — and shuts off automatically. Lixit is scientifically tested and recommended. ■

THE HUMANE SOCIETY

BY TOM HUGHES

Second in a series by the newly apppointed General Manager of the Ontario Humane — famed as a fighter for his cause.

Although the operation of dog pounds is not one of the aims and objects of the Humane movement in Canada, nevertheless many Societies have undertaken this responsibility either because the local municipal council would not face up to the problem properly, or because the existing method of impounding dogs was substandard and in many cases inhumane, or simply because the need to control the animals humanely and yet reasonably is obviously a form of community endeavor most appropriate to a Humane Society.

Throughout Canada there are literally thousands of so called "dog pounds" in which animals are incarcerated for various periods of time, generally not less than 48 hours, before the animals are either returned to their owners or sold or killed. Many of these dog pounds are nothing but small, dark, airless dungeons. The unfortunate animal that finds its way into one of these "black holes" is lucky indeed if it ever survives the experience. Inspectors of this Society investigating these pounds have found animals without food, without water, sometimes lying in months' accummulation of excreta, and obviously suffering as a result. The filth and neglect is frequently so extreme that the chances of the animal avoiding disease as a result of being impounded are almost non-existent.

Humane Societies and the SPCA's throughout Canada are doing what they can to have such conditions abolished. Unfortunately the awareness of their responsibility to provide an impounded dog with adequate conditions varies from one municipal council to another. Frequently only one or two individual councillors will show a proper appreciation of the problem. Almost invariably Councils will attempt to find the "cheapest" solution to this problem.

Experience has shown that the only sure-fire way of insuring proper care for the impounded animals, is for the Humane Society itself to act as pound-keeper for its own particular locality. As a result nearly all the Humane Societies in Canada today act as pound authorities for one or more municipalities, cities or towns. In so doing these Societies have undoubtedly taken the most responsible praiseworthy attitude toward the problem. Unfortunately, the reaction from certain sections of animal owners has been less responsible.

It is the belief (and the belief forms the base of policy of the Humane movement) that a domestic animal in this day and age must be restrained for its own sake as well as for the well-being of the community. The animal that is allowed to run at large stands a pretty good chance of being shot, killed or injured on the highways, poisoned, stolen or lost. Surely the owner of any dog, who deliberately refuses to exercise reasonable restraint or control of his dog under these circumstances, is not a fit and proper person to have a dog in the first place.

And yet, generally, it is this irresponsible type of owner who most bitterly attacks Humane Societies for endeavoring to enforce humane and moderate dog control. Far too frequently such people begin their tirade against a Society by saying "I thought you were supposed to prevent cruelty to animals!" Generally investigation shows that these same people have only one idea of the proper way to care for a dog and that is the way which causes them the least possible inconvenience.

I remember once suggesting to a particularly shrill, irate woman, that the proper way to exercise a dog was for the owner herself to accompany the dog. The reaction was lurid and rather typical. Fortunately I had heard most of the words before and I was not too shocked.

However, the present system of controlling dogs could undoubtedly be improved. At present the irresponsible and indifferent dog owner frequently fails to claim his dog from the pound as an easy method of geting rid of the dog without any cost to himself. Frequently the so-called "dog-owner" will deliberately refuse to claim a dog because of the cost involved and yet at the same time attempt to purchase another unfortunate dog as a plaything for his children from the same pound that their former animal is still impounded in! I know of numerous instances where a person has visited a pound, recognized his own dog in the enclosure, and, after cheerfully raising its hopes almost to the point of hysteria, calmly asked the poundkeeper if he could buy another dog for a smaller sum of money. Surely this is the ultimate in the "double-cross".

Perhaps the modern way to enforce a reasonable measure of dog control is to change the by-law in such a way that the dog is not impounded at all but that the "owner" is simply fined without any option. If this could become general practice in Canada, there would be an awful lot less citizens harboring unwanted, and at best, only tolerated dogs. And the dogs that were kept would be in the possession of people who really want them and would accept the drawbacks and chores that are an inseparable part of owning a dog. ■

This club will present a trophy each year to the Terrier achieving the highest average score in the three trials required to obtain its Companion Dog Obedience title. The award will commence with the current year based on scores earned from January 1, 1962 to December 31, 1962. The three qualifying scores, therefore, must be earned within one calendar year in order to qualify for the trophy awarded for that year. In the event of two or more dogs earning identical average scores, the tie will be broken on the basis of the highest single score from among the three qualifying scores.

Only Terriers owned by residents of Canada and earning scores in trials held in Canada under the jurisdiction of the CKC will be eligible.

Glanrobin Maid of the Mist, Beagle who went Best Puppy in Show at Chatham, is owned and bred by Fred Grant of Ste. Anne de Bellevue, Que.

BURLINGTON KC SCHOLARSHIP

The Burlington and District KC has established a scholarship of $100 at the Ontario Veterinary College. The qualifying student must be a resident of the Town of Burlington, or the area served by Waterdown High School, regardless of the school which he or she attends, and who is entering the first year of the course in veterinary medicine, with preference to a candidate who intends to enter small animal practice. A high academic standing, of course, is essential. Interested students should apply to the Board of Education, Burlington, Ont.

Stateside notes

Canadian exhibitors should be aware of a number of changes in the Dog Show Rules of the American Kennel Club, some of which are listed below. Others, too numerous and lengthy to be reprinted, will be found in the new rule book of the AKC. Two such changes that could affect Canadians exhibiting Stateside are:

. . re competing in classes — Every dog entered and present at a show must compete in all competition in its breed or variety for which it is entered or becomes eligible, unless it has been excused, dismissed, disqualified or found ineligible, under the rules.

. . re Exhibition ONLY — A dog that is six months of age or over and of a breed for which a classification is offered in the premium list may be entered in a show for Exhibition Only at the regular entry fee provided the dog has been awarded first prize in one of the regular official classes at a licensed or member show held prior to the closing of entries of the show in which Exhibition only entry is made, and provided further that the premium list has not specified that entries for Exhibition Only will not be accepted. The name and date of the show at which the dog was awarded the first prize must be stated on the entry form. A dog entered for Exhibition Only shall not be shown in any class or competition at that show.

Miscellany

It is interesting to note that the registrations in Group 1 (Sporting) are exactly the same for the month of April 1961 and April 1962—4000, whereas Group 2 (Hounds) increased in 1962 from 9925 to 10,000; Group 3 (Working) 7,550 in 1961 to 7,650 in 1962; Group 5 (Toys) increased from 7,400 to 7,550. Both Group 4 (Terriers) and Group 6 (Non-Sporting) dropped; Group 4 from 2,625 to 2,300 and Group 6 from 11,600 to 9,400. The leading breed for the month was Poodles with 7,643.

The Sewickley Valley Kennel Club will hold their Sterling Show at Sewickley, Pa., September 22. ■

Is your dog bone-hungry, too?

MILK-BONE satisfies the bone hunger of your dog.

A dog needs to chew, and knows it. In the absence of a bone, even the best-trained dog will find something else to chew—often something he shouldn't. But there are few bones in today's kitchens. Many that are available are not safe or good for your dog. That's why the modern dog goes bone-hungry.

The answer is Milk-Bone—the biscuit with the real bone shape that makes wonderful chewing, without a real bone's tendency to splinter or upset the digestion. Milk-Bone gives your dog all the important nourishment found in milk, meat, bone-meal and vegetables, too. Get Milk-Bone in the size that suits the size of your dog—regular or large.

100 YEARS

OF USEFUL SERVICE

Among the features of this official organ of The Canadian Kennel Club, I'm sure many readers look forward to the comments of the Old Timer. He puts across worthwhile ideas in an interesting, though subtle, way.

Here, I want to write about a different kind of old timer. The Ontario Veterinary College, of which I have the honor to be the administrative head, is this year completing 100 years of useful service in training veterinary surgeons for Canada's needs. Indeed our graduates are represented in most parts of the world. With due modesty I am proud that we have a good reputation.

The Ontario Veterinary College was established at Toronto in 1862 and was the first of the accredited colleges now operating in North America. It is the only English-speaking institution in Canada which offers a course leading to a degree in veterinary medicine.

In 1860 the Hon. Adam Fergusson, Chairman of the Upper Canada Board of Agriculture, and Professor George Buckland of the University of Toronto became interested in the establishment of a veterinary school, as a result of the increasing population and the parallel increase in livestock. The following year Professor Buckland went to Scotland where, on the recommendation of Principal Dick of the Dick Veterinary College in Edinburgh, he invited Andrew Smith, a recent graduate, to establish a veterinary school in Canada.

In 1862 Professor Smith was granted a private charter to establish the Ontario Veterinary College in Toronto. At first, lectures were conducted in Agricultural Hall at Queen and Yonge Streets, where Woolworth's nestles in the corner of the T. Eaton Co. building. In 1870 a building was erected on Temperance Street and in 1890 a dissection laboratory was constructed on Richmond Street.

Through the efforts of Dr. J. G. Rutherford, then Veterinary Director General and Livestock Commissioner for Canada, the College was acquired by the Province of Ontario in 1908, and since that time has operated under the direction of the Ontario Minister of Agriculture.

From 1866 until 1908, when Professor Smith surrendered his charter to the government, 3,365 students were granted the diploma of Veterinary Surgeon by the College. In 1908 Dr. E. A. A. Grange was appointed principal and arranged with the University of Toronto to add an optional third year to the course. On successful completion of this additional year graduates received the degree of Bachelor of Veterinary Science from the University.

A new college building on University Avenue in Toronto was completed and occupied in 1915. Dr. Grange retired in 1918 and was succeeded by Dr. C. D. McGilvray, who initiated a period of expansion, made many improvements in the course, and arranged for the transfer of the College to the Guelph campus. The entrance requirements were raised to junior matriculation, the course was lengthened to four academic years, and beginning in 1919 all graduates received the degree of Bachelor of Veterinary Science from the University of Toronto.

Dr. McGilvray retired in 1945 and his place was taken by Dr. A. L. MacNabb, who held the post of principal until his death in 1952. In 1946 the degree given to graduates was changed to Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, and three years later the undergraduate course was extended to five years. Since its inception, 6,020 students have graduated from the Ontario Veterinary College.

The veterinary profession has been required to change with changing times. For the first 40 years of the existence of the College the horse was king and received almost all the attention. Soon the cow became of more economic importance and has replaced the horse in having primary interest for the majority of veterinarians.

Several factors have brought into prominence the place the veterinarian can play in relation to dogs and their diseases. One of these is an indirect but important factor — the increased life expectancy of man. Although dogs have always been close companions for old people, now there are so many more old people and this important role of man's best friend has been emphasized.

Another factor is the increased usefulness that comes from increased knowledge and skill. Surgical procedures and medical treatments of a high order are now in common use.

Modern research in veterinary science is expanding the field of usefulness of the veterinary profession to the point where educators now have a clear responsibility to make available courses that deal with new techniques and new knowledge.

DR. T. LLOYD JONES, Dean of the O.V.C., writes of early veterinary medicine in Canada. He holds the degrees of D.V.M., M.S.C., (Montreal) and is an Honorary Associate of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons. Prior to becoming dean in 1952, he taught in the Pathology Department. He was formerly Provincial Veterinarian for the Province of Alberta, and served during the war in a research capacity.

Case history of an o.v.c. patient

Countless animals, large and small are treated in the ultra-modern clinic.

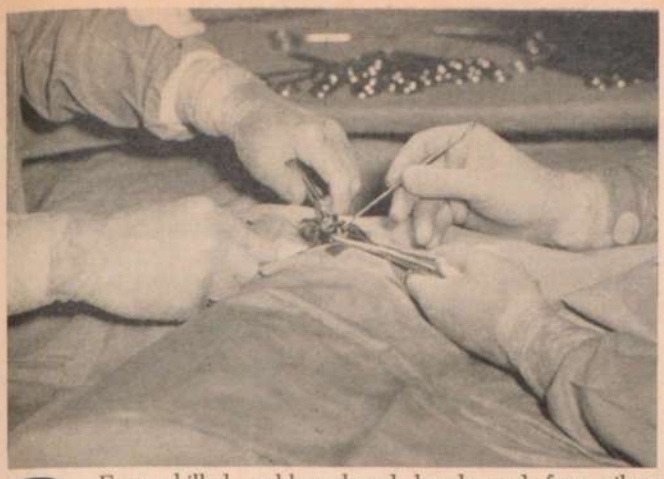
1 Skipper had an argument with the wheels of an automobile and came out second best. His owner brings him to the small animal clinic at the Ontario Veterinary College. Operated as an animal hospital, its patients come from the Guelph area, or as referred cases from veterinarians in other cities.

2 Skipper's owner soothes him as Dr. J. E. Alexander examines the suffering pet. An injury to the left hind leg is apparent. Dr. Alexander is assisted by Miss Jean Gale, a senior intern at the clinic. The working and research equipment is the envy of many a hospital for human patients.

3 Nothing is left to guesswork. X-ray specialist Alex Nelson, assisted by senior interns, Miss Lynette Keur and Miss Joan Gale, x-ray the injured leg. Protective aprons are worn over uniforms and ray-repelling mitts. A mid-shaft fracture of the femur is the diagnosis.

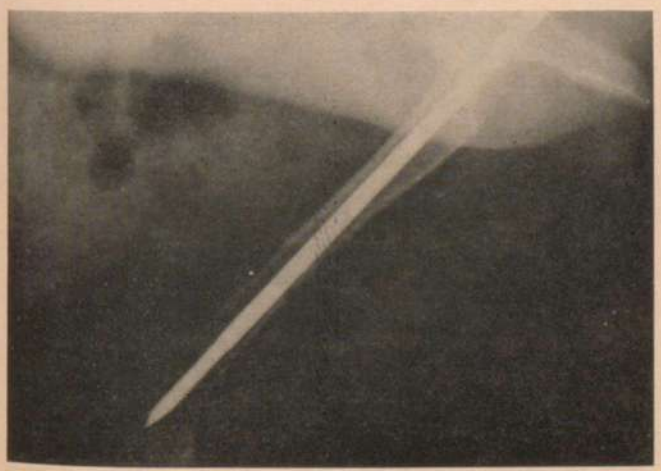
4 An intravenous anesthetic is administered to Skipper by Dr. Alexander. Next step is preparation for surgery. At one time a dog with a fractured leg would have been shot. Now latest in surgery is applied.

5 An assistant holds leg in vertical position to facilitate work. Note extreme sanitary methods—dog is covered by rubber sheeting. Another assistant stands by to hand sterilized instruments as called for. Walls, surgical gowns and tables are pale green.



6 Four skilled, rubber-gloved hands and four silver instruments work through the tiny opening to treat the damaged bone and flesh. A slim pin is being inserted through the length of the slender bone.

7 Chief step in the surgery was the insertion of a pin which would hold segments together and permit normal activity. The surgery completed, damaged tissue is bandaged and wound is closed with stitches.



8 Not satisfied with merely knowing a good job has been done, the doctors check progress. A post operative x-ray confirms that the bone is being nicely held by the intramedullary pin. Such procedures are common in veterinary surgery.

9 Next morning Skipper stands bright and ready for breakfast. He found wards spacious and service excellent.

10 Within a few days, Skipper is walking — with a slight limp — but recovery was uneventful.

11 Like most patients, Skipper is glad to leave the hospital — with a new respect for automobiles.

Veterinarian— Dog Owner Relationship

From the earliest days of settlement Canada has been recognized as an agricultural nation. However, during the past decade, despite an increase in population and agricultural production, there has been a noticeable decline in the number of farm workers. Primarily, of course, this has resulted from manual labour being displaced by mechanization in many instances.

Thus farm workers and their families have migrated to urban areas and have brought their love of animals, plants, and all living matter with them. Consequently, there has been an added demand for the care of companion animals in cities and towns. This has given rise to the setting up of elaborately equipped animal hospitals capable of handling both surgical and medical problems.

In addition to the provision of adequate equipment for proper diagnosis and treatment of animals, the pet owner can expect the veterinarian and his staff to be neat, clean, and courteous. In this regard, the American Animal Hospital Association was established in 1933. This Association was formed for the purpose of improving the professional care of companion animals. In order to be a member a hospital has to conform to certain minimum standards regarding plant, equipment, and qualifications of personnel. Following acceptance into this association, standards are maintained by annual inspection and approval. Each year the association holds an educational type of convention and each member is compelled to attend at least every third year. Most veterinarians find it necessary to do more than attend conventions to keep abreast in their field; they must read masses of professional literature every month and attend short courses as well.

When an animal is brought to the hospital for treatment, it is very necessary that an accurate diagnosis be made. The pet owner must bear in mind that the veterinarian is dealing with a subject with very limited powers of expression. About the only help that is available from the patient is the evidence

Could YOU Be a Veterinarian?

DR. H. J. NEELY, one of the executives of the Ontario Veterinary Hospital, has in addition to his regular duties, the duties of Public Relations Officer. In this capacity, he gave the utmost co-operation to "Dogs" assembling the material in this issue pertaining to the Veterinary Centennial.

In one sense the practice of veterinary medicine is a very old and established profession. As far back as 2000 B.C. there are records of animal diseases and their treament. However, in terms of history it is a relatively young profession as it was not until the middle of the seventeenth century that schools for the training of veterinarians were set up in Europe.

In 1854, the first school of veterinary medicine began in North America. In 1862, the Ontario Veterinary College, the oldest surviving institution for the training of veterinarians, was founded in Toronto where it remained until 1923 when it was transferred to its present location at Guelph. In the province of Quebec, a French-speaking school, "Ecole de Medecine Veterinaire," provides the only other veterinary education available in Canada.

There are only 2,310 veterinarians in Canada, nearly half of whom are in Ontario. The opportunities for the modern veterinarians are unlimited and there are many specialties and positions available within the sphere of practice or government service. Among the specialists are: small animal practitioners, animal pathologists, bacteriologists, virologists, parasitologists, port veterinarians, public health veterinarians, extension veterinarians, surgeons, teachers, poultry disease specialists, fur-bearing animal disease specialists, laboratory animal specialists, animal nutritionists, research veterinarians, and consultants in such areas as the feed and pharmaceutical industries.

Opportunities

Canada is very short of veterinarians and there is no apparent end to the demand for them. Agriculture is changing, farms are getting larger, livestock is becoming more valuable, and with this progress, the control of animal disease is becoming more vital. One must remember that the success of the livestock breeder depends on his ability to produce efficiently. One phase of efficient livestock production is a high degree of disease control. The veterinarian is the person best qualified to assist and advise in disease control methods.

of pain on palpation and, in many instances, this response is often masked by expressions of fear. Nevertheless, the veterinarian, by close observation, temperature readings, palpation, external examination, judicious questioning of the owner, and the use of the stethescope, is usually able to arrive at a fairly accurate diagnosis. In order to confirm this tentative diagnosis, it is sometimes necessary for the veterinarian to resort to the use of specialized equipment.

Once the diagnosis has been established, the next step is the prescribed treatment. Because dogs and cats are prone to most of the acquired and congenital abnormalities of human beings, veterinarians are able to benefit from the techniques and procedures developed by their medical colleagues. The use of oxygen, whole blood transfusions, and the most advanced techniques for bone repair are relatively common procedures in any modern veterinary hospital.

There is, however, one limiting factor — cost. When a patient is first presented, the veterinarian feels that it is his responsibility to diagnose the case accurately and to recommend the best method of treatment. If, in order to arrive at a correct diagnosis, special laboratory or radiographic tests are necessary, he then feels that it is his duty to notify the owner of the patient of the probable cost and this is frequently a cause of misunderstanding. In the case of the companion pet of an old age pensioner or of the child of a widow, the cost factor very often involves the most heart-rending part of a veterinarian's practice.

This leads to the client's responsibility to the veterinarian. Nothing is more disheartening to a veterinarian than to be presented with a valuable puppy of two to five months of age in the acute stages of distemper. Questioning elicits the information that the breeder told the owner that inoculations were useless before six months of age. The latest research indicates that 85 per cent of pups can be successfully immunized at eight weeks of age and most of the remaining 15 per cent can be covered if a second injection is given at eleven weeks of age. It is incumbent upon the dog breeder that he advises the purchaser to check with his own veterinarian concerning any aspect of the health of the animal. This is particularly important regarding immunization procedures for the various infectious diseases.

As previously mentioned, the patient is unable to answer questions. It is therefore the responsibility of the owner to provide the veterinarian with as complete a history as possible. Such a history would include observations as to appetite, activity, nature of bowel movements, possible vomiting, lameness, coughing, erratic behaviour. Because of the frequency of internal parasites, the veterinarian would appreciate a stool sample for microscopic examination. With this help, the tentative diagnosis is likely to be much more accurate and thus confirmation will involve fewer laboratory procedures and consequently less expense to the client. If an accurate consultation diagnosis cannot be given the client should then signify whether he wishes to pay for the additional procedures necessary to establish a diagnosis. This is the only way to avoid misunderstandings.

The veterinarian does not expect to be consulted every time an animal vomits or has diarrhea. However, it is very frustrating for him to be presented with an animal in a state of collapse and nearly dead and then to find out that it has been suffering for several days before professional advice was sought. This experience is not uncommon and frequently occurs after normal consultation hours. A majority of such cases end in the death of the patient with the owner and the veterinarian equally dissatisfied. An earlier consultation might have resulted in success rather than failure. The owner invariably claims that the case is an emergency and certainly this is true but it is an emergency only because of the negligence of the owner. Faithful and conscientious clients rarely have emergencies. Late night calls constitute a significant health hazard for the veterinarian and the pet owner must be prepared to pay additional fees for such exceptional emergency service.

In Canada, veterinarians are engaged in the various phases of activity as follows:

General Practice	37.9%
Small Animals	9.7%
Government of Canada	24.9%
Provincial Governments	5.6%
Municipal Governments	2.6%
Teaching	2.8%
Other	16.5%

What is General Practice?

The majority of graduates in veterinary medicine are engaged in private practice in rural or semi-rural communities as general or large animal practitioners. The private practitioner has as his primary responsibility the diagnosis and treatment of sickness in animals. This may include regular examination of the animals on a farm, testing procedures, advising owners on sanitary and husbandry methods as well as nutritional and breeding problems.

The nature of general practice varies with the agricultural pursuits of the community. Practice may be confined to small animals, large animals, or a combination of the two. There is less specialization in veterinary practice than there is in human medicine and surgery; however, a few veterinarians limit their work to the care of one class of animals, such as pets, dairy cattle, horses, swine, poultry, or ranch-raised fur-bearing animals.

What is Small Animal Practice?

The small animal veterinarian is usually located in the larger towns and cities. They work from small animal hospitals specially built for the care and treatment of small household pets. Their work is challenging and an important part of family life and the community. Because they are located in hospitals they have more complete diagnostic and surgical facilities, and as a result their work can be compared to that of the human doctor.

What is it Like to be a Veterinarian?

While the few veterinarians engaged in research or teaching do their work indoors in a laboratory, most practising veterinarians find that their work takes them outdoors a great deal. Usually the practitioner is called to visit the animals on the farm. Since the distances that the practitioner must travel from farm to farm are great, particularly in the more isolated communities, a car is a necessity. The veterinarian in research or teaching may work for a definite number of hours each day, and then is more or less free to spend the rest of his time as he chooses. The practitioner must be ready to serve his clients at any hour of the day or night but he is his own master and is free to take holidays at his discretion.

Until recently a doctor of veterinary medicine usually worked alone, except when laboratory assistance was required for a more thorough investigation than his own facilities offered. However, there is a trend toward multiple member practices and more complete diagnostic facilities. Most veterinarians in Canada are members of one of the veterinary associations that exist in each province and also of the Canadian Veterinary Medical Association. These associations bring their members into touch with one another and attempt to keep them abreast of new developments in disease control.

What are the Advantages and Disadvantages?

The general practitioner is able to lead a full and useful life. His work in association with farmers and their animals is usually very gratifying. Because of his background and scientific training the veterinarian is frequently a leader in the affairs of the community. For the person who enjoys an outdoor type of life, meeting and working with people, and rendering an important service to the community, few professions can compare with the general practice of veterinary medicine. The life and freedom which the practitioner is offered provide an unlimited amount of scope for individual initiative and skill. For the most part, the general practitioner is free of direct

Show Talk

The annual show held by the Essex County KC at Chatham was, as usual, a very pleasant event for exhibitors. The new locale was a great improvement over those of previous years. The airy, light building put everyone in the very good spirits which reigned throughout the day. It must have been a pleasure for the hardworking Secretary, Mrs. Olive Mills, to work in such an improved location.

Mrs. Yan Paul found her BIS in an American Cocker, Can. and Am. Ch. Lurola's Lolette, owned by Robert G. and Lucia Lake, handled by Walter Martin. Harry Watson chose his Best Canadian Bred in the Boxer, Ch. Haviland's Gai Robin, owned and handled by Eve Whitmore. Best Canadian Bred Puppy was a Beagle, Glanrobin Maid of the Mist, owned by Fred E. Grant and again handled by Mr. Martin.

Once more the hardworking Kawartha KC Show Committee must feel gratified. The show, always a nice one to attend, was a great success in all phases. The judges all worked like demons to get through the entry, larger than expected, though some delay occurred, due to no lack of responsibility. It is apparent to most exhibitors that a club has no way of foretelling what the entry will be.

Don Fitzgerald chose as his BIS the German Shepherd, Ch. Rocket of Cara Mia, owned and handled by Harry J. Watson. This dog was also BCB. The BCBP was the Standard Poodle, Eljamaed Cockade Noir, owned by Mrs J. B. Wilson, handled by Chuck Kiel.

The Forest City KC held their show at Lucan, Ont., for the second year. This year they reverted to an unbenched show and all proceeds were for the family of one of their old members, George Astle. The Committee must feel gratified at the result, for it appeared to be a most successful show. Mr. Walter Riome, down from the West, found his BIS winner in the Springer Spaniel, Can. and Am. Ch. Merrio's Frier Tuck, owned and handled by Mary Ellen Orr. BCB was a Standard Poodle, Can. and Am. Ch. Tamhurst Falstaff, owned and handled by Mrs. E. W. Johns. A Doberman Pinscher, Kaukauna's Jiminy Cricket, took the honors of BCBP. He is owned by Bea England and handled by Lorna Jackson. High scorer in the Obedience Trial was a Golden Retriever owned by Albert and Edith Munneke, from Hamilton, Ohio.

The Sarnia KC, held the day following the Lucan show was again a very good, clean show. Entries seemed to be up a little, possibly because of following the benefit show. Mr. Walter Reeves chose as his BIS another Springer, this time from the classes: Salilyn's Royal Showcase, owned and handled by Samuel L. Helfand. BCB was the Toy Poodle, Ch. Tizzie Wizzie of Tyldesley, owned by Mrs. L. A. Courtney, handled by Mrs. D. T. Weir. Stan Whitmore found his BCBP among the Sporting Dogs in a black American Cocker, Sunnyhill Crowning Glory, owned by F. R. Dufton and handled by Walter Martin.

The Ottawa KC Show, (65th such event held by the second oldest kennel club in Canada) drew a record of approximately 300 entries. BIS both Friday and Saturday was the Pekingese Ch. (Can. and Am.) St. Aubrey Mario of Elsdon, owned by Nigel Aubrey-Jones and R. William Taylor of Montreal, handled by the former.

The club paid tribute to some of its oldest members, with Mr. Harry Fraser being invited to present the BIS. Mr. Moise Girouard, veteran Boston Terrier breeder who recently suffered an amputation, presented the award for the Best Non-Sporting dog from his wheelchair. Mr. H. R. Gills, one of the club's oldest members and still an active worker, presented the Best Toy award.

Highlight of the affair was a full half hour of television, culminating an outstanding advance publicity effort by club members. The CBC-TV show featured 40 different breeds, through the judging of a working group and BIS, unusual breeds, grooming of dogs, and handling. Exceptional cooperation in the event was given by the Bytown Dog Obedience Training Club. "BIS" was a Wire Fox Terrier owned by the late J. W. Dockrill, who, at the time, viewed the show from his hospital bed.

The Barrie KC held their usual fine benched show and even a change in Superintendents at the last moment did not appear to interrupt the smooth running of the event. Those attending were sorry to hear of the illness of Mr. Morren and everyone missed his smiling face. Mrs. Marie Meyer picked a Rough Collie for her BIS and BCB in Show. W. Clark's Colleden's Dark Storm, handled by the owner. John Lundberg went to the Terrier Group for his BCBP in the Miniature Schnauzer, Tannenbaum's By Golly, owned and handled by Joan Morren.

The All Terrier Club of Canada held their Terrier Specialty show for the second year in the Sea Cadet Hall at Weston, Ont. The hard working Committee again must be congratulated on their show. A most beautiful and teeming trophy table indicated the extra effort put forth by this club. Gen. E. B. McKinley made a popular choice in Ch. Rossmar's Clanruf O'Cairndania, a Cairn Terrier owned and handled by Betty Hyslop, as the best Terrier, as well as the BCB Terrier. The Best Canadian Bred Terrier Puppy was the West Highland White Terrier, Heatherwilde's Joe O'Dreamland, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kaye and handled by Albert.

For the sixth year in a row the Perth County Kennel Club held an excellent show on the holiday. Although entries appeared to be down a little the smooth run show was a joy to attend. A change in the judge at the last moment may account for a few absentees, but those attending were pleased with the final nod Mr. W. D. Nixon gave to the Boxer, Ch. Bonnie Lee's Dancing Doll owned by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Whitmore with Stan handling. Another BCBP for Joan Morden, this time with the litter sister Tannenbaum's Lillibet. Judge was Stan Whitmore.

The Aurora Kennel Club again held their show in the light, airy and clean Bradford Arena. It is regrettable that spectator interest, even in a small community, is so very low. It makes one wonder if clubs might spark some interest if they had some type of attraction along with the dog show. This of course, would have to be at the sufferance of the exhibitors. But, after all, surely they want the general public to come and see their

WILFRID E. SHUTE, B., M.D., well-known judge and breeder of Doberman Pinschers, describes his method of judging by a simple chart — with amazingly accurate results.

THE handler of dogs in the ring spends many hours wondering what the judge is looking for as he examines the dogs before him in any large class. Theoretically he's comparing the whole dog and his every visible part against the Standard and against every other dog in the ring.

Under ideal conditions the judge is an expert on fundamental anatomy and movement. He knows the written Standard of the breed by heart.

Equally important to the dog show is the intelligent and knowledgeable exhibitor whose only interest is the comparison of his dog with others of the same breed. Theoretically he knows the Standard of his breed by heart and knows nearly as much about canine anatomy as the judge. He will recognize a job well done and appreciate the judge's evaluation and rating of all the dogs being shown.

Were both of these ideal conditions present at all shows there would be no need for my innovation — the use of a judging chart reproduced herein; what follows applies therefore to judging of the Doberman Pinscher.

This chart does not interfere with the usual judging procedure, nor does it prolong it. It may actually shorten the total time by enforcing an orderly routine examination of each animal. It adds several important bits of information for the delectation of the exhibitor.

Each dog is brought out for examination separately and both faults and virtues marked on the chart. Then the dog is moved and his gaiting characteristics written down. It is obvious immediately that each feature of the dog must be checked in an orderly manner and that the all over quality of the animal must be evaluated.

The chart shows that the animal must be square, as viewed from the side, with the height at the withers equalling the length from the forechest to the rear projection of upper thigh. It shows the required 45 degree angle of the shoulder blade to the horizontal and the 90 degree angle between the shoulder blade and the upper arm—which should be of equal length. It shows the front assembly, properly placed in the chest with the sternum in front of the shoulder joints. It shows the proper 30 degree angle of the pelvis on the spine, of the femur at 90 degree to the pelvic bone giving a properly turned stifle and "well let down" hock. It shows backline firmness and slope.

The front view shows proper depth and width of chest with straight legs, elbows properly placed, firm pasterns and tight feet.

Similarly there is a view of a properly sound rear. Every correct or incorrect variation can be marked on the chart.

On the back of the chart is the scale of points. I use this only to check the comparable value of virtues or faults in comparing two dogs.

Obviously only a judge with a complete and thorough knowledge of the Standard can use such a chart. Then, too, the chart goes with the ribbon to the handler in the ring who need not show it to anyone else — or he can show it to anyone he chooses, including other judges, exhibitors the owner or the CKC. It exposes bad judging, it protects honest and competent judges. It protects this latter class against the ringside expert, the malicious gossip.

It forces the judge to evaluate each animal against the written Standard as

by MRS. DENNIS GARDINER

Do you know? We hope the new Record of Conformation forms help us in our quest for knowledge at the second Kerry Clinic. It will be held at Kerrycroft, the Gardiner's farm, on Sunday July 15, starting about 10.30. If you are interested, regardless of your breed, come down for the day and bring a picnic lunch. If you have a Kerry you wish to be analysed, let us know at once so we can make arrangements to include it.

The biggest problem since the last Clinic has been to set up a form describing 'The Kerry'. This has proved impossible, due to the controversy over type.

Research is the usual answer to a problem of this type and with this in mind we tried to set up an analytical form. Please realize this form is not the ultimate, it may be too detailed, repetitious, vital detail omitted. Time will tell, slow motion film, Clinics, revised R.O.C. forms. The important factor is, we will have written data compiled to study and in years to come we may be able to answer the question "What Is The Kerry'.

We have proved, to date, with this form that with a dog standing naturally these measurements are accurate enough for comparison, and learning that the use of the anatomical names of the bone structure, as far as possible, is less confusing, and more accurate. We are encouraged by the fact that judges, knowing their anatomy, can competently analyse a dog in about 15 minutes, using this form.

CLUB NOTES

Alberta Kennel Club
by D. M. Anderson
R.R. #4, Calgary, Alta.

This club, founded in 1905, is planning its 100th consecutive all breed show, believed to be the first in Canada.

July 14 and 15 are the dates for the 99th and 100th shows, the weekend of the Calgary Stampede, acclaimed as the greatest outdoor show on earth. These shows will be held in the parkland on the banks of the Bow River which is adjacent to the renowned Calgary Zoo and Dinosaur Park.

There will also be a German Shepherd Specialty Show, an Hungarian Breed Specialty Show and two Obedience Trials.

The 1961 winners of the Junior Handling awards are Gloria Gullacher, the Thomas Memorial Trophy and Gale Kenny, the Somerville Memorial Trophy.

The club's Obedience Training School congratulates the members and their dogs for their success at the recent Obedience Trials held in Calgary.

All Terrier Club of Canada
by Barbara G. Pirrie
58 Wolfrey Ave., Toronto 6, Ont.

Our May meeting was the best attended in many a month. Three new associate members were accepted: Miss Larry Langley and Mr. Tony Last with Kerry Blues, and Mrs. Joan Coyle with Scotties.

An excellent suggestion was put forth by Mr. Ab. Kaye as to awarding a trophy for the top scoring Terrier in Novice Obedience throughout Canada. The award will be made yearly and given to the Terrier with the highest average score in the three Obedience Trials required to achieve the title of Companion Dog. The trophy is to be eligible only to dogs owned by a resident of Canada. Mr. Kaye went on to say we all like to see our Terriers well behaved in any circumstances, and that he hoped this trophy would be an incentive for more Terrier owners to Obedience-train their dogs.

This suggestion was given unanimous approval and the first award to be presented will be for dogs competing in the calendar year, January '62 throughout December '62. Unfortunately, this will eliminate a few Terriers who made their first leg in late 1961, completing their CD in 62. However, as a definite time limit had to be set, this decision has been taken.

It was also decided by the club to hold a Terrier Puppy Match and Terrier Sanction Show (champions excluded) at the home of Mr. John Treleaven, tentative date being Sunday, August 19. For further information please call Mr. J. McFarlane, AV. 5-3565. Get those puppies ready — it looks to be a real fun day for both dogs and exhibitors.

Now for our Specialty Show, held May 20. With 75 Terriers competing and General Edward B. McKinley officiating, it was quite a day for the Terrier folk! As you know, the winners of this show are to be featured on the January '63 cover of Dogs in Canada, so it was with special interest to note that 1st, 2nd, 3rd in Group and Best Puppy in Group awards went to club members. Mrs. D. T. Weir did a fine job of judging our Puppy Sweepstakes, choosing as her Best Puppy in Stakes, Treleaven's Quick Silver, a Lakeland owned by Mrs. Eileen Stewart.

The day finished up very nicely with a gala evening for members, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. McFarlane, where we not only got together with the regulars, but had an opportunity to visit with some of our out-of-town members as well. Among these, Betty Hyslop, Mary Bishop and Larry Langley.

The winners of the draw for the radios were Mrs. John Treleaven and Mr. Harry Fraser.

No club meetings are scheduled during July and August, but the Education Committee is planning an Airedale Clinic and have set a tentative date of July 29. In any event everyone will be notified well in advance of this get-together, and guests will certainly be welcomed. For further information please contact either Mrs. Weir, BA 1-3742 or myself at HO 1-9619. See you at the September meeting, same place, same time.

Congratulations to Ruth Robinson in having one of her Kerry puppies sold in the States go Best Puppy in Group at the Buffalo KC Match Show. This show had an entry of 350 dogs, believed a near record, if not record, for this type of show in the States.

Aurora and District Kennel Club, Inc.

by W. Luckins

The monthly meeting of the club was held on May 1 at the home of Mr. William Hill, Newmarket, Ont. with Mrs. L. Hamilton presiding. Twelve members were present.

The show secretary advised that all plans for the May 26 show were completed. Over 1,400 premium lists were mailed.

Benching owned by the club and held in storage will be advertised and sold if a suitable offer is received. Finalization of the sale was delegated to the Secretary, W. Luckins. The benching involved is quite bulky and would accomodate an entry of about 450.

B.C. All Terrier Club

by Mrs. J. S. Leedham

20556 Powerline Road, Maple Ridge, B.C.

At the May meeting the evening was taken up with final preparations for our Terrier Specialty, May 20. We also made plans for our annual members picnic and Puppy Match. Mr. and Mrs. L. Herwig kindly offered their acreage in Surrey for the picnic to be held Sunday, July 8.

The Specialty, our third, was a great success. There were 14 Terrier breeds represented with the Australian as a newcomer. Group placings were: First, West Highland White, second, Lhasa Apso, third, Scottie and fourth, Border. It was a welcome change to see a rare breed like the Border coming to the front and taking a place in the group.

The Westie is Mrs. S. Hudson's Ch. Whitebriar Journeyman, a consistant winner wherever he goes.

Now we have to work for our annual Sanction Show which is to be October 27 of this year.

B.C. Cocker Spaniel Club

by Mrs. Maxine C. Norris

5415 Norfolk St., Burnaby 2, B.C.

After taking care of business matters at our May meeting, discussion turned to our First Specialty Show for American and English Cockers which was held on May 20 in conjunction with the B.C. Ladies Kennel Club All-Breed Show. We have had many compliments on our show. Our judge was Mrs. Doris Flagg Glover of Salt Lake City, Utah, who did a fine job. The trophy table was most impressive with every class covered. The two Best of Breed winners received a beautiful silver tea service and the two Best Opposite trophies were lovely electric clocks mounted in walnut wood topped with a Cocker statuette. The judges' dinner after the show held at the Del-Mar, was attended by 28 people and we all had a chance to relax. Mrs. Glover said she was most impressed with the good quality of the dogs. After a good discussion on different bloodlines, it was back to the show for the judging of Groups from the All-Breed Show. The evening was topped off with cocktails at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McInnes where we all acted as judges on her litter of American Cockers. Plans are getting under way for next year's Sanction and Specialty Shows.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Miles as new members to our club.

Barrie Kennel Club

by Paul A. Robins

Ridgelea House, Oro Station, Ont.

The April meeting saw almost a 100% turnout of the membership.

And our membership continues to grow! We welcome three new kennels representing two breeds not presently represented in the club. Mrs. Parl Currie brings the interest of Chows, Mr. and Mrs. William Lamb, of Orillia, Cocker Spaniels and Mrs. and Mrs. Ron Smith, Labrador. There is very little duplication of breeds the various members are raising, which contributes to a well rounded out membership.

Although this club does not promote Obedience, many of the members are showing interest along that line. Novice classes are currently in session in town under the able instruction of Rosalie Harvie and our President, Harold Butler. It is interesting to watch the trials and tribulations of the wee beasties and particularly the anguish of the uncertain owners. More often than not poor 'Hector' makes like a propeller on the end of his leash. Well, ten weeks will tell!

Bermuda Kennel Club

by Priscilla Marsh

"Walmsley", South Shore Rd.,

Devonshire, Bermuda

The Spring Championship Show has come and gone, successfully, as the entries were higher and the quality of dogs entered very good. Among distinguished dogs and owners from overseas were Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Henderson of Peterborough, Ont. and Basset, Grem-Lyn's Aida; the Charles Wheatons of Plymouth, Mich. and Weimaraner, Am. and Can. Ch., Capt. Wheaton's Convair, CD and the English Setter, Am. Ch. Candlewood Distinction, bred, owned and handled by Jeanne A. Millett of South Easton, Mass.; the Doberman, Am. and Can. Ch. Elfred's Spark Plug, owned and handled by breeder, Mrs. Ellen Hoffman of Harriman, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Monges' (Woodsend, Hartsdale, N.Y.) Bullmastiff, Am. Ch. Ritter's Beau, handled as always by Al Smith. All of these lovely dogs won top honors and the last four named made their Bermuda Championship (subject to CKC confirmation). The R. P. Hendersons also brought down their Australian Terrier, Kanberri Waltzing Matilda. Both Henderson dogs got their three-point majors. This is the first time an Australian Terrier has been shown here. Miss Jane Esther Henderson of Sandy Ridge, coincidentally, also brought an Australian Terrier, for competition in Obedience.

While here Ritter's Beau was mated with the Ran's Bullmastiff, Juliette. We wish Alice and Bob Rans luck with what promises to be a fine litter, as Beau and Julie carry the same bloodlines. Copying the success of the Maritime Circuit, the BKC Board of Directors has applied to have an extra Show and Trial at their International Fall Series, making four Shows and four Trials in all. I will be enlarging on this subject and giving dates when confirmed.

The Bullmastiff Breeders Society of America presented a silver trophy for the Best Bullmastiff on May 17 and 19, both won by Beau. Major and Mrs. Marsh presented a "Special" for Best Bermuda Bred Boxer, won by Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Jackson's Bermudiana Judy.

The Bytown Dog Obedience Club

by Eileen F. Macdonald

R.R. 2, Stittsville, Ont.

The results of our first two Licensed Trials were most gratifying, and our heartfelt thanks go to the Ottawa Kennel Club for their generous support and encouragement. Complete team work was the order of the day for both trials, and everyone involved came through with flying colors, but most of the bouquets must go to our able Trial Chairman, A. Digby Hunt. Special thanks to our Ring Stewards, who performed their duties like professionals (many of them without any previous experience), to our Trophy Chairman Miss Figg, who worked so hard to amass the beautiful array of silver trophies, to the judges, Mr. Jake Giacomelli and Mr. A. Marsh, who through their kindness, understanding and sense of humor, made us all feel relaxed, and to all the competitors, who cooperated wholeheartedly toward the smooth running of the Trials.

Our heartiest congratulations to Howard R. Custer, Jr., of Norristown, Pa., and his Miniature Schnauzer, Hans Von Fritz, Am. CD, who earned Highest Score in Trial both days with scores of 195½ and 196½. (He also won the OKC Highest Score in Trial, thus earning the coveted top award three times in two days). A smart and happy working dog, and a very proud owner-trainer!

Several club members were successful with their dogs: Harold Menna and his German Shepherd, Danny of Schaumberg, earned his Utility degree in three trials within two days. Mrs. Anna Lacroix and her German Shepherd, Glen Lawrence Kola, who earned his CD in three trials within two days and was also top combined scoring member. Bud MacLaurin's Weimaraner, Sal's Dusty of Riemil, finished his CD; Mrs. J. Frank's Miniature Poodle, Dulcie Girl of Ashstead, finished her CD., Miss Sheila Howard's Standard Poodle, Favori Candice, finished her CD; Don Henderson's Collie, Flame 2nd, Miss Mary Hill's Cairn Terrier, Greyfriars Bobby, Mrs. Sue Hearne's Pekingese, Wu-Sung and Mrs. Robertson's Miniature Poodle, Petit Pierre all earned legs toward their CD. Eve Colta's Standard Poodle, Petitcote Mitzi, earned her second leg toward Utility.

Our worthy Secretary, Mrs. Anna-Marie Laughton, has presented her husband and two daughters with a beautiful baby boy. The Bud MacLaurins have received a lovely son. Eve Coltas has at last received the Canine Award of Distinction (she has been waiting for it over a year now), citing that her Standard Poodle, Petitcote Mitzi, CDX, has been so honored for the enviable record of earning her CD title in three straight trials with scores of 195 or over.

Cape Breton Beagle Club

by George W. Karn

43 Wiedmer Dr., Sydney, N.S.

We are the proud possessors of 650 acres of excellent grounds with enough high ground, swamp and dry territory to afford good trial conditions. Our clubhouse is 40 feet by 25 feet with a good kitchen. The grounds are only seven to eight miles from Sydney. The ladies of an Auxiliary associated with us take care of all the catering during our trials as well as an annual lobster supper.

These are the trophies competed for each Trial: Dr. Ormiston Trophy for highest rated hound in the trials. Quaade Trophy for highest rated hound owned by a member of our club. Larsen Memorial Trophy for highest rated hound owned and bred by a member of our club. These trophies were won by a 13" female. 11-month-old pup, Rebel's Whistlin Dixie, owned by Alphonse Porier of Sydney. The Oland Trophy, for highest number of points during fun trials, was won by Roddie's Rob Evil, owned by Red Currie of Sydney.

May I extend to all Beaglers a cordial invitation to be with us during any of our coming Trials.

The Chow Chow Fanciers Club of Canada

by F. P. A. Odenkirchen

R.R. 3, Woodbridge, Ont.

The monthly meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Odenkirchen.

It was decided that no Booster Shows would be held this year, rather than have the individual breeders boost the breed by a large entry at certain shows. This would probably not decrease the number of entries over the year and a more regular turnout is anticipated.

The meeting was then turned over to Mr. Albert Farrell who gave a short lecture and breeding and kennel management and then answered many questions. We were fortunate in having such a successful breeder as our "victim".

We will finish with a friendly invitation to all Chow enthusiasts to attend our meetings.

The Coastal Canine Academy

by Ann Whitton

11151 Kendale Way, North Delta, B.C.

As a club we were thrilled with the performance of our members at the two B.C. Ladies KC Trials, May 20. Mrs. Luke completed her Shepherd, "Susie's", CD. Jenny Anson completed CD with her Whippet,

"Kelly", both in three straight trials. Mr. Service and his Collie, "Prince" started on the way to CDX by gaining one leg. Mr. Holland and his Retriever, "Rusty", completed two legs, Mrs. Riel and her Sheltie completed two legs and received the trophies for highest scoring Sheltie in both trials. For Mrs. Riel and Mr. Holland it was their first time in the ring. Bill Strutinski with his UDT Collie, "Dixie" took home trophies for Highest Score in one trial, Highest Score for member of the Richmond training Club in one trial, Highest Score in Open B in both trials, Highest Score in UD in one trial and Highest Score for the Working Group in one trial.

On May 22 we held our last graduation until Fall. In the Beginners Miss Marion Powell picked Scott Hudson and his Shepherd. In the Intermediate (CD) Miss Powell gave Mr. Holland top score and Joan Williams and her Kees, "Pixie" second.

The club has had a tremendous response to its course on tracking. First meeting will be held at our house when Ben Taylor will give a talk and demonstration, after which the dogs will be measured and harnesses made for those who need them. We have been offered many tracts of land around here which will mean we can work the dogs in a different field each week.

The Cobequid Dog Obedience Training Club

by G. V. M. Mowbray, DVM

A meeting was called in Truro of all those interested in Dog Obedience. Some 19 people arrived and were shown a film on dog training and a demonstration by Dr. Alison Moubray with Paladin's Happy Ginny, CD. A club executive was set up consisting of Mr. William T. Nowlan as President, Terry L. Johnson as Vice President, Dr. G. V. M. Mowbray as Secretary and Mrs. Gloria Logan as Treasurer.

The club wishes to thank Mr. Blais Boyd for the excellent address he gave on starting an Obedience club and also Mr. Art Faulkner of Halifax for his offer to assist in training.

Training classes are slated to begin September 9, and we hope to have dogs competing for CD next year.

The Dachshund Club of Canada

by Kay Barnes

704 Copland Rd., Sarnia, Ont.

Our last meeting was held at the home of Carl and Mrs. Sharen in Sarnia. It opened on a sad note when the membership learned of Mr. Katzenmier's death and that of Mr. Ernie Lindsay who had passed away on May 25. We extend our sympathy to the family of Mr. Katzenmier and also to Mrs. Lindsay (Lena).

Our business consisted mostly of plans to support the Kitchener-Waterloo show coming up in August in the form of a Booster Show for the Dachshund Club and also further plans for our Specialty to be held in September in conjunction with the Burlington Show.

Our Trophy Convener reports she is still open for trophies for the Specialty. Her address is Mrs. J. Jones, 21 Garden Ave., Ancaster, Ont.

Our next meeting will be in July at the home of our President, Mr. Joe Chatfield, 110 Oak St., London, Ont.

I hope all the futurity entries are being kept up to date for the specialty. Mrs. Dorothy Engels, 1036 Marley Cresc., Burlington, Ont. is the chairman.

The Gateway City Obedience Training Club

by Mrs. Grace Anne Penno

1474 Alexander Ave., Winnipeg 3, Man.

Four June Trials! At the Red River Exhibition the best judges, friendliest people and the most fun. Club trainers and their dogs on a float in the Ex Parade. Special thanks to Purina for the pamphlets, "How to Enjoy an Obedience Trial". These will be available to Trial spectators along with the newly completed club history and brochure.

Lydia Wesen has a new female Boston. Glad to see Maysie Rogers back with a Miniature Poodle in show clip. Other newcomers, a Borzoi and our second Toy Poodle. Club crests will be available soon. Lee Glassco is in charge of trophies and we should see the usual fine array. Joan Lawrence is presently getting away from it all in Vancouver. A Stewards School is scheduled under her direction when she returns.

The members' library progresses steadily with current magazine copies and a few books circulating.

Monica Torrance is our hard-pressed Trial Secretary and a more efficient one would be hard to find. And she still gets Collar N' Leash out each month.

Jean McLellan, a former member and now of Niagara Falls, was a recent visitor. Her Miniature Poodle, "Magic", was Highest Score in December, 1960, with 199.

Ron Hamel, Gordon Ashcroft and Marion King have released club publicity to the Red River Ex.

The Club's offer to help the Girl Guides here has been delightedly accepted. The club secretary, through the Director of Training, will assign trainers of qualified members to act as examiners for Girl Guides working for their Friends of Animals Badges. Betty Moorehouse recently examined the first two girls and they both qualified. This is the first time in six years that the Guides here have been able to be examined for this badge.

The German Shepherd Dog Breeders Assoc. Inc.

by I. Gerigs

White Hart Kennels, Pickering, Ont.

The weather was perfect for our outdoor Shepherd show. The entry was gratifying and the trophies were beautiful. The judge was a most gracious lady, who did a very thorough job and made everyone feel as though his dog was being considered for the top placings, even though he may have placed way down the line. And the after show dinner left nothing to be desired. The committees concerned with all these activities are to be highly commended for their untiring efforts, as they were as much responsible for the success of the entire day, as was the judge. As the winners will be published in Dogs I cannot give anyone's wins, but I would like to just say that our top dog of the day was a dog bred by the owner, which is something to be very proud of. Both of the top dogs were Canadian Bred. Our judge's words regarding Canadian dogs makes us feel we can hold our own anywhere.

We are planning a Matinee show to be held on July 22. Those wishing further information should contact Anne Gerigs, Pickering, Phone Wh. 2-4953. It will be held at our home, here in Pickering.

Once again, our thanks to all who contributed to the success of our Specialty Show, and to those who didn't do so well, better luck next time. Congratulations to the winners from our entire club.

German Shepherd Dog Club of Alberta

by E. A. Moore

At our April general meeting plans were finalized for our 2nd Specialty Show to be held immediately following the Calgary Exhibition and Stampede on July 15 in conjunction with the Alberta Kennel Club's All Breed Centennial Show. The various Show Committees all gave glowing reports of activity and progress in gearing up the organization into a smooth-running, effective show club.

With Mary Southcott calling the winners we are anticipating a great day for all German Shepherd dog enthusiasts.

Mr. Ernest Corbett, a keen German Shepherd Dog enthusiast and one of our more staunch members, gave us a breakdown of the history and success of purebred livestock breeding in Canada. He emphasized the progress made by cattle breeders through importing top quality basic stock and then maintaining a rigid selection program for breeding stock with the cooperation and guidance of breed associations, and the courage and determination of the individual breeder to sacrifice immediate gains and glory for a long term program of progress in top quality animals.

He cited cases where Canadian-bred stock went back to the land of their origin and took top honors in shows.

With all due respect for the individual breeders who have sacrificed much in time and wealth for our noble breed, he said the results obtained by other branches of the livestock business would lead us to believe that we are not too well organized as a breed association, and that closer unity and cooperation between local clubs and the parent Canadian could do a lot more to perfect and promote German Shepherd dogs.

The German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada

by Mrs. Evelyn Garrett

Goodwood, Ont.

Another General Meeting was held on June 5, and it seems a shame that important promotional programming such as a National Shepherd Week, possible revision of the Standard, public demonstrations, promoting the Shepherd for Police Work, breed discussions, arrangements for a GSDC of Canada booklet of Where to Buy, How Much Should One Pay, Training, Care, of the German Shepherd cannot be consummated. We are doing a lot of work and a great many worthwhile and advantageous projects are in the future, but we must do more toward the promotion of the German Shepherd Dog.

Our club sure has "Have Legs, Will Travel" members! Warren and Marjorie Parkinson travelled to Montreal where Warren's Trudy passed her Tracking test. Toni, our President sojourned to Halifax, N.S. on June 30 to judge Shepherds; also Mitzi Frohle to Mt. Uniacke, N.S. to visit her sister; Mary Southcott goes to Calgary on July 15 to judge at the GSDC of Alberta Specialty; Marg and Fraser Anderson are away on holidays and plan to get a view of the Bay State Specialty in Boston. We wish all these friends a very safe and enjoyable time.

Another Matinee Show has gone by with great success. Congratulations to Bob Savink, our new Chairman.

Most encouraging news heard is that Hanna Schmocker and Walter Konradt are doing a big part in helping to promote Shepherds for the Hamilton Police Force. Apparently, there are openings for nine-month old male Shepherds in good mental and physical health that possibly could be donated for participation in this new venture of police work. Now is the time to get Shepherds ready for our Specialty Show at Toronto — September 15: Judge: Mr. John Seiler. See you then, if not before.

On June 10, a relatively new generation of Shepherds sought honors at our Fifth Annual Puppy Specialty Show held at Streetsville, Ont.

In some circles it seems to be quite in vogue to criticize point shows, championships, obedience training and trials. This can be quite confusing and misleading to the new member. In the category of a member who has dug right in and done a great deal for our breed in Canada, we honor Mrs. Natalie Maydanski of Thor Kennels, who in 1961 finished six Champions, four Companion Dogs and two Companion Dogs Excellent. What an achievement!

In the same regard there has been a good deal of publicity given hip dysplasia and more recently on a suitable working temperament in Shepherds. Perhaps by being overly critical ourselves, we have encouraged others to go to extremes. Without offending other breeds we should point out that the Shepherd of today is the world's most widely used working dog. The fact is that breed after breed has been replaced by the Shepherd, after careful testing. We need to promote the image of our breed in its many earned roles, as avalanche dog, American Army service dog, blind leader, companion dog, tracker, civil police dog, and top obedience dog.

The German Shepherd Dog Club of Western Ontario

by G. R. Lince

R.R. 4, Stratford, Ont.

The current class in Ring Procedure conducted by Ed Summerfield was completed May 6 and all participants agreed that it has been very helpful. At least five members entered in the Forest City Kennel Club Show.

Following the completion of the Ring Procedure Class a class in Obedience will be started at the same location (Allright Parking, Wellington Square, London) under the direction of G. R. Lince and assisted by Ed. Summerfield. All breeds will be welcome, of course.

A Directors' meeting was held April 26 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lince. One of the Directors, John Barclay, was not able to attend because he was helping to fight a bush fire near Tillsonburg at the time.

The club held a combined picnic and Matinee Show at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Burton May 27. There was a good turn-out, including some of the participants in the current Obedience Training Class. The goings-on also attracted spectators who were passing in their cars. Conformation was judged by Anne Dittrich and Obedience by Clayton Burton and Gordon Lince.

Mr. Burton took charge of the current training class at Wellington Square, London, June 3 while yours truly attended the P.A. System loaned by the GSDC of Western Ontario for the Obedience Association's Fun Frolic at Ancaster, Ont.

At the general meeting June 8, a new Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Jermey, was elected. The club wishes to extend its appreciation to Bette Burton for the fine job she has done as Secretary-Treasurer and regrets that the pressure of other duties necessitated her resignation.

The Great Dane Club of Canada

by Florence Stewart

R.R. 2, Brantford, Ont.

The club held its 56th meeting June 3 at the Hillcrest Restaurant, Hamilton.

After old and new business was completed nominations were then called for President, Secretary and Treasurer.

Mrs. Elsie Keen nominated Ian Stewart for President, who was voted in unanimously. Mrs. Dorothea Wilkinson nominated Florence Stewart for Secretary-Treasurer. Mrs. Stewart accepted office of Secretary but declined office of Treasurer. Mrs. Brand was nominated for Treasurer, and accepted office. It was then suggested Mrs. Ella Malcolm continue as 1st Vice-President and Mrs. Dorothea Wilkinson as 2nd Vice-President.

The President proposed a vote of thanks to all members attending the meeting.

The meeting was then adjourned and members and guests retired to a private dining room for a delicious turkey luncheon. It was very gratifying to have a number of the club's original chartered members and also new members attend. The club had great pleasure in welcoming Mr. Earl Hino of Buffalo, N.Y., Secretary of the Great Dane club of Western New York.

Greater Victoria Dog Obedience Training Club

by Mrs. D. B. Hudson

2615 Cranmore Rd., Victoria, B.C.

Our Centennial Obedience Trials under CKC rules were one of Victoria's main attractions this year. The attendance was better than usual.

The high standard of Obedience was commented on by Judge Frederick E. Marsh of Seattle, Wash., who was fulfilling his first assignment in Canada. Mrs. I. M. Bourassa of Cloverdale, B.C. was our other judge. She is well known here and much liked. The Island was represented by many entries and competitors from the Mainland were noticed.

Mr. K. R. B. Soles of Sidney, B.C. took the Highest Scoring Dog in Trial I with American Cocker, Quandalla's Char-Coal Sam edging out Mrs. Phillis Hoffman with her Beagle, Miss Lucy's Kym. Both dogs won 197½ marks.

Highest Score in Trial with his German Shepherd, Arrowsmith's Asta, with 195. A tie for first place in Novice "A" in Trial II resulted between Mrs. Leslie Belfit and her Corgi, Bhilwara Dal Wallah and Mr. E. S. Graham with his Labrador, Lady Matilda of Trotting Park. Both were from Victoria. Mr. Graham won.

After the Trials some of us stayed on to relax and exchange ideas and renew friendships. Mrs. Marsh had accompanied her husband and was welcomed into our midst. Mrs. Bourassa is an old friend of the club, having entered some of our past Trials with her Harlequin Great Danes. These big dogs are well known for their good working abilities and also for their ingenious clowning. They always bring the house down wherever they are shown.

Our fiscal year is nearing its end and we are looking forward to a successful summer term with some new officers among the executive. We are saying "au revoir" to Mr. George Christie, well known in Obedience circles, for his instructing and judging. After many years of work he has decided to take time off as his work is now taking him away up the Island. It is nice to be able to say that he is recovering well from the bad car accident suffered last Fall.

Halifax Kennel Club

by Mary Beth Harris

1022 Lucknow St., Halifax, N.S.

The new officers for 1962 are: President, Mr. Sylvester DeWolfe; Vice-President, Dr. Ross Ainslie; Past-President, Mr. Michael Andrews; Secretary, Mr. John Appleby and Treasurer, Mrs. Eileen Reynolds.

Once again the club has its own Bulletin. We hope this will be published monthly, giving news about members, forthcoming shows and meeting notes. A Spring Sanction Show, under the chairmanship of Mr. Sylvester DeWolfe, was held on May 5 in the Robie St. Armoury. There was a large turnout. At the April meeting, Mr. Ted Shaddock spoke on the Chesapeake Bay Retriever. Point and Specialty shows of the Halifax Kennel Club are scheduled June 30 and September 1. At the September Show Mr. Edwin Pickhardt will judge.

Our Secretary, Mr. John Appleby who had been in hospital for heart surgery in March, has returned to the Toronto General Hospital for a check-up. He expects to be home at the time of writing as the operation was very successful. Mrs. P. A. Margeson of Kentville is receiving treatment in hospital and will be absent from the shows.

A number of our members have been travelling. Mrs. S. P. Grimm and Miss Alice O'Brien went to the Westminster Show in New York. Mrs. Mary Daye stayed over in Montreal to be present at one of the dog shows sponsored by the Ladies Kennel Club. Mr. Blois Boyd attended the German Shepherd Dog Club of Ottawa Specialty Show. Lieut.-Comdr. Tommy Threlkeld went to shows in Montreal and Fredericton. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Andrews returned in April from a trip abroad for a year. They have brought back three Pekingese.

Members of the club were sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Helen Gates on June 6. Mrs. Gates had been interested in West Highland White Terriers for years and her presence at the shows and meetings will be missed.

We are also sorry to report that two of our members will be moving to other provinces. Mrs. Alice Bissett left for Charlottetown at the end of June and Mrs. Colleen Hague will be moving to British Columbia.

The Hamilton Boston Terrier Club

by Maude McGrath

195 East 24th St., Hamilton, Ont.

The May meeting was held in the Agricultural Board Room. President Moore was in the chair. Advance notices of our All-Age Match were sent out to all breeders and pet owners of Bostons in this vicinity. We welcomed Miss Susan Wilson to our club and heard of three more prospective members. The club is growing.

After the business meeting we regrouped at a local restaurant where the members were guests of the secretary.

The Hamilton Kennel Club
by Mrs. Maude Cooper
14 Proctor Blvd., Hamilton, Ont.

Our regular monthly meeting was held May 22, with our largest attendance in years! It really does add so much to the enthusiasm of a meeting, to have the room well filled! We welcomed eight new members.

Most of the evening was taken up with our coming all-breed championship show to be held June 30 at the Burlington Arena.

As this May meeting is our last until the Fall, our President, George Lawless (happily, back with us after a few weeks of indisposition) gave a talk to the members on "ring stewarding". This was well received and we felt was a great help to novice and expert. With so many new members, we are finding these talks of great interest, and plan to have further in the Fall.

The Hamilton Obedience Club
by Mrs. Thelma Scott

The newly elected officers and directors are: President, Mrs. Mary Ledingham; Immediate Past President, Mr. Jake Giacomelli; Vice-President, Mr. Ralph Latta; Secretary, Mrs. Vi McKay; Treasurer, Mrs. Ria Cunningham; Directors, Mr. Gord Gotts, Mrs. Audrey Langford, Mrs. Jean Ryder.

Recently we were host to the German Shepherd Club of Canada. The event was a challenge match for the Brantford trophy which we had previously won. We retained this trophy by 90 points. The members taking part were: Mrs. Vi McKay, Mr. Ralph Latta and Mrs. Peggy Oldland for CD, Mr. Abe Zvonkin and Mr. Bill Finn for CDX, Mr. Giacomelli for UD. Mr. Abe Zvonkin was chairman for this event.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Thelma Ward is home after spending a few days in the hospital.

On May 4 we held our regular meeting. Past President Giacomelli was presented with a lovely briefcase. Mr. Ralph Latta was entertainment chairman for our Spring dance held at Cedargrove Inn. We had a good turnout, terrific music and quite a few members got up to do the Twist. Wow! There were a few tired entries at the Brantford Trial next morning.

Mrs. Peggy Oldland took first prize in "Open B" with her Dobe, "Gina".

The Irish Setter Club of Canada
by Joan Zurbrigg

The club held its April meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. Honsberger, Streetsville, Ont. Plans were made for our next meeting which was a dinner meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. McGowan, Oakville.

Our Booster or Supported Show will be held in conjunction with the Burlington All Breed Show in September. We also held a Members Match on June 24. Two of our members and their dogs attended the All Purpose Gun Dog Field Trial in April. It was good to see the Irish Setters working in the Field.

Congratulations are extended to the Threlkelds, members of this club, upon winning the Ken-L Award for the area for 1961.

Following the business part of the meeting we held our annual Night of Fun. There was a large turnout and everyone went home with various samples of dog foods. Games and prizes were appreciated by everyone. Refreshments and box lunches followed.

Another issue of Paw Prints is being prepared for publication. If you have an article of interest, please send it to Roy Dafoe, Editor, Paw Prints, The Irish Setter Club of Canada, 3047 Woodland Park Drive, Burlington, Ont.

A smorgasbord dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. McGowan in Oakville was enjoyed by our members on May 19, as we held our annual dinner meeting. This is prepared by the men in the club. Our monthly meeting followed with much discus-

Kitchener-Waterloo Kennel Club
by W. J. Gross
Breslau, Ont.

Our April meeting was held at the Waterloo Hotel. We were pleased to have Mr. J. W. MacCallum, President of The Canadian Kennel Club, as our guest speaker. He explained the operation of the CKC and the registration of dogs. Dr. R. A. Darling, one of our local veterinarians, spoke on internal parasites.

For their unfailing assistance and valuable guidance, Mr. Jack Simpson, Mr. Arthur Meyer and Mr. and Mrs. Al Smith were voted Life Memberships in our club. We hope that they will be with us for many years to come, as they are our most valuable asset. The door prize was won by W. J. Gross.

On April 13 and 14 we held a Dog Exhibit at the Waterloo County Sportsman's Show. Twenty breeds of dogs were benched on exhibition. They were also paraded in a ring and a commentary given on each breed by Ruth Hebel. Ruth also gave the commentary on the Obedience Demonstration. Approximately 14,000 people passed through and you couldn't get near the ring as the spectators were standing about ten deep. The people showed great interest in the breeds present and said they would be sure to attend our show on August 18 to see the rest of the breeds. Our members feel that this was a very profitable advertising venture as they are still getting calls for puppies and inquiries regarding Obedience Training.

The Maritime Toy Club of Canada
by Agnes E. Misener
Dartmouth, N.S. Division

The monthly meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Cyril Taylor, Spring Garden Road, Halifax on May 8. There was a large attendance and our President, Eileen May was in the chair. Arthur Buss was Acting Secretary in the absence of Donald Duff. A drawing took place and the winning number was held by Cyril Taylor. New members are still coming in and it looks very promising for some new Toys to play with at our next show. We are all pleased to have the Andrews back with their new string of Pekingese, and by the way, Jackie Taylor has a Peke worth watching. Our show workers are just about ready now. Arthur Buss gave a talk on breeding and the fine points on Pugs. All members enjoyed this talk very much.

The next meeting took place at the Women's Council House. Host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Duff. The President, Miss Eileen May was in the chair. She brought along two Pekingese for discussion on the breed. Plans were made to hold a handling class for members at the home of Mrs. A. Buss. New members were accepted. Members who attended the Fredericton, N.B. show, did very well in group V. The Toy Class was well attended. All our members wish a speedy recovery to Russell Merrill.

Congratulations to Sandra Buss, a daughter of our Vice-President in winning the Pervinal Junior Showmanship Trophy at the Amherst All-Breed show. Ten-year-old Sandra gave a remarkable demonstration of handling a Poodle. All the news for this time.

Miniature Schnauzer Club of Canada
by M. R. Raber

A very enjoyable meeting was held at the Carlton Club on June 5.

It was decided that the next Specialty show will be held at the Sportsman's Show in 1963. It was decided to have a Debut Class (tentatively so named) where novice dogs and new owners who have never shown would compete with each other on equal terms for ribbons and trophies. In this way, they would develop an interest in further showing of their dogs.

The knowledge and versatility of the members came to the fore during and after the meeting when everything from dogs, politics, and golf were discussed. No decisive conclusions were arrived at, but fun was had by all.

Classes are held at Finchurst Plaza (Finch and Bathurst) on Wednesday nights at 7.30 p.m. The second series will start July 18 and as registration in each group is limited to ten, early application is advised.

Our May 17 meeting featured a film of our annual meeting and a most informative talk by our Honorary President, Peter Kirk. He spoke about the importance of good trainers and the necessity of their being able to combine diplomacy and psychology to develop both novice dogs and their handlers.

The club's annual donation to the North York School for Retarded Children has been sent in, earmarked this year for special books for the library.

Archie Warnock was the speaker at our June 11 meeting. Although we had all met him at dog shows. many of us did not know about his Obedience career, which included several years' service training police dogs with the RAF and the operation of his own Obedience school in Bath, England. He has also exhibited in Great Britain and his presence in Canada is a distinct addition to the dog world here.

On Sunday, June 17, the Club held its Third Matinee Show at the home of Mrs. Pearl Currie, near Barrie. It was a most successful day, giving new members especially a chance to try their wings before entering official trials.

Plans are complete for the second Mock Trial at Ancona Park, Willowdale on Sunday, July 15 at 1 p.m. The Barrie-Huronia and St. Bernard Clubs have been invited to join our members and trainees in the scheduled events. We welcome all Obedience-minded people as spectators. The park is on Endell Ave., one block north of Finch, a few blocks east of Bathurst Street.

Best wishes are extended to the five faithful members of the St. Bernard Club who are now training under Mrs. Grace Probert. Such additional commitments are encouraging evidence that Obedience is fast becoming one of the most important dog activities today.

Oakville & District Kennel Club

by Mrs. E. R. McGowan
280 Balsam Dr., Oakville, Ont.

The 11th anniversary of the club was celebrated at the Scout Hut with 32 members and guests present. Mr. G. Kennedy, in charge of the entertainment for the evening, showed the Sportsman's Show film following the business portion of the meeting. As the candles were burning brightly on the cake elaborately decorated by Mr. and Mrs. J. Broeders, "Happy Birthday" was sung and President Ernie McGowan blew out the candles, followed by our Vice President, Mrs. Ruth Hicks cutting and serving the cake amid the dog chatter.

Mr. Reg Scott, assisted by four members of the club, is kept busy each Wednesday evening at the Oak Queen Mall conducting Obedience training classes and the improvement in this wide variety of dogs is outstanding.

Following the business portion of the next regular meeting, Mrs. Mansfield, in charge of the entertainment for the evening, welcomed our guest speaker, J. Harold Reed, DVM an Associate Professor from the Ontario Veterinary College in Guelph, who gave a talk on breeding, and then held a question and answer period.

Mr. Herman Smith then took the floor along with "Sky of Skilily", Labrador Retriever, acquainting the members on the Standard and background of this breed.

Dog training classes are attracting quite a number of spectators each Wednesday evening, and following the graduation exercises there should be more well behaved dogs in the Oakville district.

The Canadian Kennel Club has approved a slight change in the judges' assignments for two one day shows to be held in September. Our show Secretary, Mr. G. Kennedy, has these events well in hand, also the Member's Match scheduled for June.

The Obedience Association (Ontario)

by Mrs. Mary Krawesky
57 Barons Ave. N., Hamilton, Ont.

The executive meeting of the Obedience Association (Ontario) was held on April 28. Present were the President, Mr. Ed O'Brien, Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Louise Diamond, Vice-President, Miss Bay Meyers, Director-at-large, Mrs. Audrey Langford, and Directors from the Hamilton Club, Simcoe Club, Skyway Club, Oshawa Club, German Shepherd Club of Western Ontario, North York Club, and Perth County Club. Also there were four individual members and guests from Oshawa, Hamilton, Toronto, North York, Dundas, Stoney Creek and Islington.

Mr. Sam Lotteridge of Stoney Creek, Ont., was accepted as an individual member. At the time this column is read our Convention and Fun Frolic will be over, so a more complete report will be forthcoming.

Directors have been asked to inquire into their club's feelings about whether or not there should be Zoning in Ontario to make it easier for the clubs to get Canadian judges. The following clubs felt that there should be zoning in Ontario; Skyway Obedience and German Shepherd Dog Club of Western Ontario. There may be others but their Directors have not expressed their views on this matter, to date.

Directors were also requested at our March 3 meeting to ask their club's views on the following: "Any judge who has judged here previously and has had no violations would be eligible to judge in Canada. All American judges taking first assignments in Canada, to be asked to write our exams at the time they come to Canada to perform their first assignment. All American judges with two violations be automatically suspended from the list."

The following clubs voted in the affirmative to the above statement:

Skyway Obedience, Tillsonburg K-9 Obedience, Hamilton Obedience, St. Catharines and District Kennel, Perth County Kennel, Oshawa Obedience and again there may be others, but their Directors have not made their views known on this subject to date.

A very interesting talk was given by Mr. Jake Giacomelli, on the Service Dog. Meeting was then adjourned, and everyone met again at a local restaurant for refreshments.

FRANK DANCE 166 Langton Street, Peterborough, Ontario

Ontario County Kennel Club
by Bert Boorman
22 Frank St., Oshawa, Ont.

Our notes for this month will be short as all of the plans for our show are completed.

The show was held at the Whitby Arena, Whitby, Ont. on Saturday, June 23.

We welcomed Mr. and Mrs. McMurdo to our club. They raise Min Pins, so we also have another breed represented.

After the business part of our meeting the regular draw was won by Roy Dewsbury and the members had a social half hour of discussion.

Oshawa Obedience Association
by G. Normoyle
310 Hillcroft St., Oshawa, Ont.

The June meeting which was held at the CRA Hall was well attended. The President, Karl Vogel was in the chair and the minutes were read by Barbara Scott. The new amendments to the bylaws were discussed and adopted. Business pertaining to the Licensed Obedience Trial to be held at Lakeview Park, Oshawa, on September 2 was discussed. Bill Scott will be Trial Chairman.

Betty McHugh reported as follows on the last training class: Beginners: Mrs. M. Danzey, Miniature Poodle, "Tony", 185 points. Novice: Peggy Boorman, Miniature Poodle, "Teena", 185 points. Advanced: Dr. Helen Bathie, Miniature Poodle, "Ask Her", 191 points. CDX: Ursula Floeter, Kerry Blue Terrier, "Maverick", 177 points.

She also reported a total of 97 dogs were trained in the classes during the year. We would like to thank Ed. O'Brien of Canfield who did a splendid job of judging at our last graduation class. Hope to see you all at our trial September 2.

The Oxford County Kennel Club
by Mrs. Belle Wallace
1030 Devonshire Ave., Woodstock, Ont.

The April meeting was held at the Moose Hall, Woodstock, with 15 members in attendance. Most of our members have been very busy this past couple of months getting things well underway for our coming show in July.

Our Dog Obedience classes started two weeks ago with an attendance of 23 dogs, which we feel is a nice size class.

Congratulations are due to some of our members who have been doing so well at the shows since the start of the year.

We are happy to have Vice-President Dick Marshall back with us again after a stay in hospital and we wish him continued good health.

Pekin Palace Dog Club of Canada
by Mrs. C. Peckhover
R.R. 3, Newmarket, Ont.

Our May meeting decided on two events we shall be putting on. First an All-Breed Puppy match at the home of our members, Mr. and Mrs. Nielsen, Ridge Road, Aurora. This is the first street north of the Rivercourt Kennels, (right on Highway 11, south of Aurora). Do bring that pup of yours out and get him started. Prizes for all classes, judging to start promptly at 12 noon. Then the meeting also decided to have a Booster Show for Pekingese in conjunction with the Kitchener-Waterloo Kennel Club.

We were glad to see Mrs. Pasek in our midst. Also Mrs. Sheahan is back on her feet again and showing one of her Pekes.

The meeting was very successful, with nearly every member out, and at the end of the meeting the 1960 film was shown of the Westminster Kennel Club show in New York.

Our June meeting was an outdoor one at the Waterfalls Playground in Georgetown, run by our members, Mr. and Mrs. Langebeck.

The Poodle Advancement Association
by Grace E. Edwards

Our monthly meeting held in May was turned into a clipping session which was well attended by both Poodles and people. Everyone joined in with brush, scissors and clippers and thoroughly enjoyed themselves as well as learning a great deal. A vote of thanks goes to Miss Susan Radley and Miss Mary Jane Weir who supervised the evening and passed on a lot of helpful tips. Our victims, (Poodles, of course) were very patient and most cooperative.

Our next undertaking was our annual Poodle Puppy Match held June 24 at Exhibition Park. Miss Frances Angela of Portland, Mich. was our judge. Puppies with all types of clips were shown.

The regular meeting, which is held the first Wednesday of every month, has been postponed till a later date. Club news therefore, will be scarce.

The point show which was held June 2 was a very nice affair. The show was the first unbenched for this club. Everything seemed very orderly and there was lots of room for dogs, crates and people. This is a most attractive place for a show. The interior with its lovely floor and good lighting makes an ideal place for the dogs to show to best advantage. There were many lovely

Provincial Irish Setter Club
by Gertrude W. Drew 120 Ranleigh Ave., Toronto, Ont.

The May meeting was an outdoor affair with training classes and barbecue. It was a very cool evening and the big log fire was most appreciated even though we were almost toasted in the billowing heat.

A stroll around the grounds of Tara Hall, whose verdant lawns and trees are now at their best, a look at the kennel yard and the dogs and one is immediately convinced that here is backyard breeding at its best. It also proclaims the index to the personalities of the meticulous Lakes who call this little paradise, home.

Tara Hall has been the meeting place of this club for the past four years, or ever since its inception. Here in the spacious "rec" room adorned with Setter pictures, models of game birds and placards of breed histories, the business and social activities of the club are carried on. The club is greatly indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Lake who make this room available without cost.

There was very little business to discuss this month and there will not be much doing until early Fall. July and August are holiday months during which meetings are suspended. A club picnic was arranged for July 8. The Clouters very kindly offered their property for the occasion.

We have completed arrangements for our specialty show to be held October 7. More details will be given at a later date.

We missed the Hodgsons at the May meeting but Betty informs me they have been very busy with local affairs. Jim is an officer of the Lions Club as well as being a town councillor and these things plus all the little town doings keep them very busy.

The George Bantons of Oak Ridges have moved to Ottawa and taken their dogs along. Mike Driver will be leaving the middle of June for the Northwest Territory where he will study the practical side of mining and geology. Ron Coltart will also be away for the summer. Both these young men are students.

A bridge and euchre has been planned for September. Mrs. Irene Proctor has offered her home for the occasion as well as graciously accepting to convene the event.

Most of our members are planning summer vacations at the Northern lakes and the writer will spend most of the summer at Belle au Clare, on Georgian Bay.

This could be a tribute to all doggy people who make dog shows possible. As I stood in the hall Saturday April 7 at the climax of our second All Breed Championship Dog Show I realized there was a much greater significance attached to the presentation of the trophy for Best in Show. Mr. Kurrash of Howe, Ind. with his four-year-old Am. Ch. Sandhill Sugar Candy a Smooth-haired Fox Terrier, may have felt a singular elation with his triumph of Best Dog in Show.

The West Highland White Terrier owned by Mrs. Thelma Adams won Best Canadian Bred with Best Canadian Bred Puppy award going to Betty A. Dickson and her Samoyed. Local dog fanciers did well in our second big show and hope to do better next year. Our many thanks to all those who made our show the success it was, for we realise it was your effort as well as ours that made this one of our finest shows.

Sunday, May 20 saw Tony Van Uden, who is one of our own club members, take highest score in our 4th Double Obedience Trial with his Belgian Sheepdog. Our Trophy Chairman set up a fine trophy table.

The Saluki Club of Canada
by Laura M. Haferkorn
2608 Chalkwell Close, Clarkson, Ont.

The May meeting was held May 3 at the beautiful country home of Mrs. D. H. Williamson, R.R. 2, Mono Road, Ont. We were pleased to welcome several new members, including three from the Montreal area. A letter from the United States informs us that there are a number of possible members south of the border. Mrs. George C. Fisher, our President, reported that the Salukis from Ontario made a successful showing at the recent Ladies Kennel Club Dog Show in Montreal. Two Regional Directors for Canada were appointed: Mrs. Williamson, who will shortly be moving to Alberta, for Western Canada and G. Frederick Clarke of Dorval, P.Q. for Eastern Canada.

Several films of the Saluki in action, both in normal and slow motion, were shown by George Tanaka. We hope to take more films in future in order to learn more about the movement of the Saluki.

Anyone interested in Salukis is invited to join our new club. For information, please contact the writer.

Scarborough Kennel Club Inc.
by Edward Onderisin
41 Denison Ave., Toronto, Ont.

The club held its last general meeting for the month of April at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Clements and club business which was our main objective for that particular evening was quickly completed after which refreshments, compliments of Thelma Blackburn, were served. In attendance was the club's solicitor, introduced to the members by Howard Hood, President.

Word reaching the writer recently was the continued fine winning by two members. Mrs. Blackburn's Bulldog Ch. Ernrob's Bella, handled by same, at the Bulldog Specialty preceding the big "International" in Chicago, took a major under Judge Lentz when she finished by conquering 23 open bitches for the points. Continuing her fine efforts next day at the "big one", she repeated by going from the Open Bitch class to Best of Winners to the Best of Breed. This was her third major in as many shows.

Mr. Bill Ford's Ch. Fordene's Dawn, a Beagle of exceptional ability as is indicated by her past record, recently completed her American championship under the able handling of Jane Kamp. She compiled three majors in eight shows, finishing at Chicago. Congratulations are extended to Bill and Thelma from the members of the SKC on their fine efforts of recent date.

The Simcoe Kennel & Obedience Club Norfolk County
by Dorothy Mehlenbacher Fisherville, Ont.

The club has been busy with show plans. Special thanks are due Mr. Bill Dowling for taking over at the last minute as advertising man and doing such a creditable job.

Mrs. Marguerite Charter was guest speaker. She explained the intricacies of Tracking with the aid of blackboard and chalk from the beginning of training through to the final ultimate thrill of passing a trial. The majority of the members have never seen a trial and therefore appreciated Marguerite's step-by-step explanation including training, actual trials and judging. A question and answer period followed and Marguerite was assured of her audience's interest by the many questions and resultant discussions. No one even missed the promised film which hadn't arrived in time. She was thanked by President Ross Sherred.

The Skyway Obedience Club
by Mrs. Mildred Emery
180 Beach Blvd., Hamilton, Ont.

Our Trial Committee, headed by Miss Mary Moyer, is holding regular meetings in anticipation of our fall trial. Owing to ill health Mrs. Mae Wilkinson, who held the office of Trophy Chairman, will be replaced by Mrs. Stella Sims. Mr. George Briffet has kindly donated 30 feet of canvas which we intend having made into banners to be displayed at the Trial.

Our new membership application forms, with our crest added, are now in use. Mr. Martin Sayer, one of our new members, has accepted the duties of Hall Chairman from Mr. Don Peall who will remain Training Chairman.

Demonstrations are proving popular. Return performances are being requested by several organizations. Our President, Mr. Jack Walker, has also been asked to make a return appearance on TV.

Congratulations are extended to our Vice-President, Bill Dean and his wife, Vi, our Secretary, on the birth of their baby son.

Mrs. Barbara Saunders and her Schnauzer, "Smokey", took a trophy for second place CDX at St. Catharines, earning his third leg. Mr. Andy Emery, with his German Shepherd. "Lady" took a trophy for third place in CDX. Mrs. Jack McGhee, with Chihuahua, "Teek", was presented with a trophy for third place in CD. Mrs. Dorothy Walker, Mrs. McDiarmid, Mr. Martin Sayers and Mr. Villiers all qualified in CD, Dorothy earning her third leg with her Poodle, "Coco". Mrs. Helen Dmytris and Chihuahua, "Chico", have completed CD.

Our last general meeting was opened by President Jack Walker welcoming two new members, Mr. and Mrs. Villiers, to the club after which we covered a lot of business in short order. Mr. Peter Kirk reported he had resumed tracking instruction.

A thank-you note was read from the George P. Allan School of Music for the demonstration and film. Mr. Ernest Lane deserves to be commended on the way he adds interest to these demonstrations with his interesting talks. One of the most pathetic, yet most appreciative audiences that our well as against the other dogs in the class and it educates him progressively from show to show.

Most of all it fulfills the requirements of the exhibitor, a thorough evaluation of the qualities of his animal. He pays for the judge's opinion and he's left in no doubt as to exactly what that is.

The use of the chart has led to many interesting occurences inside and outside the ring. At the first show at which I used this system, the only person who refused to accept the sheet was a very prominent professional handler. However the owner of the dog was at ringside and sent him back in to ask me for it. I judged the Brooklin Show one year, the Bronx Show the following year. I had several dogs at the second show entered only for the critique — on the advice of those owners who had shown the year before. The handlers and owners at this latter show decided to fool me — by exchanging dogs among themselves. Incidently that was really amusing, since, at that time, I knew but two handlers in the area and not a single dog shown under me. After the judging I was asked to come to talk to the owner of one of the dogs, the handler explaining that the woman was genuinely astonished. She had given her dog to a strange handler, had brought the chart from the previous year and couldn't wait to compare the two. She expressed amazement that the two sheets were indentical. My answer was simple — "Why be surprised, it was the same animal both times".

Two of the Specialty clubs have been agitating for years to have this sheet made compulsory for Specialty Shows — with no results I may add. The novice breeder and exhibitor is all for it — but the experienced exhibitor and especially the Specialty judges are against it. The latter two categories control the dog clubs in the U.S.A. as in Canada. It is too much to ask that other judges should learn anatomy and read breed Standards before every show they judge.

It is my personal opinion that such a chart could be produced by the parent club of each popular breed and supplied to judges if requested by either the show-giving club or the exhibitors. Moreover it is possible to produce one which would fit many breeds whose only fundamental differences are in ear or tail carriage and/or coat, by leaving off the beard, say, in the various Terriers of the general description of the Fox Terrier. Exceptions would be the low stationed terriers. After all, the basic anatomy of the Dachshund and the Doberman, the Pointer, the Setter and the Cocker Spaniel are exactly the same. The Bulldog, Pekingese and the German Shepherd are the exceptions. A judge who knows a proper Doberman should have little trouble to pick out a top Welsh Corgi, once he had read and reread the Corgi Standard to fix in his mind type and the particular characteristics of that specific breed.

I like this chart — I like judging a large class of good Dobes in an area where I know no one, no dogs and no handlers and no owners. On September 7 I will have that wonderful experience again at the Los Angeles Doberman Pinscher Club Specialty. ■

WHAT IS THE KERRY?

If you are not up to date on the whys and wherefores of this Record of Conformation project, data may be found in September and January issues of Dogs. You will note that it has no connection with the dog show, but you can rest assured that any judge that has been on an R.O.C. panel, will give you a more knowledgeable type of judging in the show ring.

At a later date we hope to have a brief summary of the Kerry on the back of the form, origin, uses, etc., pictures of bone structure desirable and undesirable. Also an explanation as to how you can arrive at the percentage of perfection of your dog; simply take the total number of desirable qualities, subtract the total number of ticks for undesirable characteristics, the result over desirable x 100 is your percentage, e.g. Des. 160—und. 80 = $\frac{80}{160}$ x 100 = 50%.

One very important factor that has been stressed on all occasions this last year is that nearly all other live stock are raised for a commodity, meat, milk, wool, hides, etc. If they do not produce this commodity, uniformally and economically, the breed begins to die out, and there is a danger of it becoming extinct.

The prime commodity of the dog is temperament, our greatest market is for pets, usually for children, a few dogs for hunting, working, showing, etc. In all these, temperament is the important factor. A near perfect specimen is useless if it is vicious, shy or stupid. The only other commodity is size and eye appeal for the new owner. If they buy a pup of any breed, it must mature to a reasonable approximation of what is expected, not too big nor too small. These are factors we must keep in mind, lest our breed becomes rare or extinct.

We can go far in stabilizing the temperament and conformation of our dogs, but only if we have records of

taken at six weeks of age

This is an opportunity to buy really well-bred and well-reared Show and Breeding stock, which can be seen with their mother before purchase, as they are only for sale because I shall be returning to England at the beginning of October and will be taking the mother and any remaining puppy back with me, which will have to be put in kennels for six months' quarantine.

Can be booked now. Price $500. each. The sire is particularly outstanding and could easily be an English Champion if shown in Britain. Many times Best in Show. "Tondy" only wants her majors to become a Champion in the States also, and I hope to finish her there as soon as her coat is back again.

COULD YOU BE A VETERINARIAN?

supervision from senior officials and responsible only to his clients and himself. The practising veterinarian who prefers indoor work may specialize in small animal practice. Because of the facilities within a small animal hospital, work is usually carried out under more ideal conditions than those which exist in general practice. Doctors of veterinary medicine who are employed by government agencies have the advantage of regular working hours, and the satisfaction of taking part in the disease prevention and eradication programs that keep the nation free from animal plagues. In addition, many veterinarians in government service have the opportunity to travel during the course of their duties.

The great disadvantage that the practising veterinarian suffers is the irregularity of his hours of work. Evening and night calls cut deeply into the normal period of rest and relaxation. Both home and social life are under constant interruptions as emergency calls are made. The profession also possesses certain physical hazards. The hours of work are long, and frequently, particularly in large animal practice, the work is quite strenuous. Physical stamina and good health are essential qualities because work is carried out at all hours and in all seasons. Infectious diseases that are contagious to man present a further hazard to the veterinarian. Holidays, sickness, or injury to the practising veterinarian will normally result in a loss of income although group insurance plans are available to protect him from this.

What are the Requirements for Admission to the Ontario Veterinary College?

The candidate must have a Grade 13 Departmental Certificate or its equivalent showing an average of 60 per cent. Girls are screened more severely than boys and only a few are accepted each year. At the present time 80 students are admitted to the Ontario Veterinary College yearly.

Tuition fees for a year are $250. and books and equipment cost approximately $150. With room and board the total cost is from $700 to $1,000. The course takes five years and the student graduates with the degree, Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, from the University of Toronto.

Young people considering a career in the medical or biological sciences should not overlook a career in veterinary medicine. The opportunities in the field, in industry, and in research are attractive and plentiful. ■ dogs. Mr. Nixon was once more the judge and this time chose the Toy Poodle Can. and Am. Ch. Loramar's I'm a Dandy, owned by Mr. A. E. Barlow and handled by Andrena Brunotte.

The gods that control the weather once more smiled on the Bulldog Club of Canada annual Specialty Show held on the spacious grounds of the home of Mr. T. Roy Dewsbury at Locust Hill, Ont. Judge Ed Williams was kept busy with an entry of 25 dogs.

As in the past three years Mr. Albert Farrell walked off with the Best of Breed award with his Ch. Nugget Skyliner (second day in a row, having taken this award at the Progessive KC Show June 2.) The award was presented by CKC President W. J. MacCallum. Mrs. A. Bonnell's Smitty's Maxwell II was Winners Dog and Mr. Farrell's Geordie's Patricia was WB. Mr. E. A. Cross' Biumwicham Lady Maralane was BCB Puppy in Show.

Approximately 100 people attended the event. Mr. Cross was presented with a silver tray by Mr. Dewsbury in memory of Mrs. Olive Dewsbury for Best Puppy in Show and Mr. Smith received a tray presented by the club, also in memory of Mrs. Dewsbury, for BOS Puppy in Show. From the appearance of both sections of the Junior Showmanship class, the club has the nucleus of some very fine handlers. A delightful tea was served on the lawn by Mrs. G. McKenzie. ■ conformation, and pedigrees for generations and generations to study. With these records we can begin to breed genetically, and call on the genetisists for help.

Bill Monaghan will again be Chairman of the discussion that is held. We will bring back several dogs and discuss with the panel as to why they marked the R.O.C. forms as they did, and show slow motion film to compare gait with the bone structure of these dogs.

This is not just for Kerry breeders. R.O.C. analysis can cover all breeds. The characteristics of your breed could readily be adapted to a form of this type. Indeed, your suggestions and criticism will be gratefully received in our quest to learn how to breed better dogs consistently. ■ with a camera, she also takes photographs at the shows (as seen elsewhere in this and previous issues) for reports and for Recent Winners, if desired. Book orders placed with her at the shows are rapidly filled. All this is an extra service of Dogs – and another way of working more closely with the growing number of Canadians devoted to raising and showing their fine canine specimens.

Another innovation – Show Talk – a new department starts with this issue – and continues through the show season. And for still another, see the announcement heading the Club Notes section – geared to bring more comprehensive news of club activities. Next month: The German Shepherd is featured. Be sure to read the story of "Big Red", a Walt Disney film based on the devotion of a boy and his Irish Setter – just released. And a report on the 1962 Spring International Bermuda Show. ■

Veterinary practitioners take advantage of this educational program. It is always a source of satisfaction to see our graduates return and refresh themselves and thereby become better equipped to meet the needs of their clients.

A glance back makes us confident that we can meet the challenge of the future. We enter our second century with enthusiasm that we can continue to fulfill our role by providing worthwhile service to the public. ■

In summary, therefore, the veterinarian will provide service in the form of diagnosis and treatment to the best of his ability and knowledge. Some procedures are necessarily expensive and limited by the cost that an individual owner is prepared to assume. It should be frankly discussed between the owner and his veterinarian before any expensive procedures are begun. Because of the tremendous amount of research currently being done on small animals and changing concepts resulting therefrom, the veterinarian should be the final authority on health problems, including nutrition. Dog owners can keep costs to a minimum by providing as complete a history as possible, cooperating with their veterinarian regarding preventive inoculations for infectious diseases, and by seeking professional assistance reasonably early in the course of any disease process. ■

It's a Dog's Life

I have trained my 11-month-old male Golden Retriever to find articles that I have dropped along the road. Recently it came in handy. I was on my way to the mail box to mail my subscription form for Dogs in Canada when I accidentally dropped it on the side of the road. I was a good three blocks away and around a corner when I realized it was gone. I set Bomber to seek it. Ten minutes later he trotted happily back to me. The envelope was almost unrecognizable as he had played tug-of-war with his friend Caesar, but the cheque was still in one piece. The money for the magazine was obtained when he won an Obedience Trial.

Little Girl: Mummy, tell me a story.

Mother: Just be patient, dear. Daddy will soon be home from the dog show and he'll tell us both a good one.

Irate wife: Don't lie to me. I have this picture taken of you at that woman's kennels — playing poker.

Husband: Well, what do you expect? I'm too old to play with the puppies.

"Rod, I'd say you have a first-class Retriever here!"
