Featured on this month's cover are the Pembroke Welsh Corgis of Macksons Kennels Reg'd., 6450 Cote de Liesse Rd., Dorval, Que. Their owner-breeder, Mrs. Pamela B. Mack, is proud of the fact they represent four generations of titled homebreds. They are typical examples of the efforts of this kennel to breed on the true type Corgis with the temperaments and characteristics desirable in this sturdy little working dog to make them the ideal specimen in the show ring and beloved companions.

Featured in the four generation study are Can. & Am. Ch. Macksons Coronet, the great Grand dam. Coronet herself was a top show winner and is the only Canadian Corgi to win Best of Breed at Pembroke Welsh Corgi Club of America annual Specialty Show. She is also the dam of several International and Canadian champions and is still today, at nine years of age, an active, beautiful Corgi.

Her son, Can. & Am. Ch. Macksons The Best Man is well known in the show rings of Canada and the U.S.A., finishing his Canadian and American titles at 12 months of age unbeaten in the classes in either country. In Specials he has won many groups and several Best Canadian Bred in Show awards. His outstanding temperament and personality have been passed on to his children and he is the sire of several Champions both in Canada and the U.S.A. and more puppies of his will be shown in the future.

Can. Ch. Macksons Tri-Umph a Best Man son finished last year and was twice Best Canadian Bred Puppy in Group. He has also distinguished himself as a sire.

His son, Ch. Macksons Tri-Bute (subject C.K.C. confirmation), is pictured as the fourth generation of our family portrait. Finishing at Ottawa in August as did his kennelmate, Ch. Macksons Tri-Lite a beautiful tricolour daughter of Best Man to be bred this Fall. more on page 86

applauds inspection idea

. . . The kennel inspection as outlined by Tom Hughes in the Humane Society article is an excellent proposal.

So often advertisements in daily newspapers refer to "registered kennels". The unsuspecting buyer of a pup or owner of a dog for boarding does not realize the "registered" applies to kennel name only and not to kennel conditions.

Mr. Hughes' proposal is a step in the right direction.

associated but not connected

. . . The North York Obedience Club wishes it to be known that it is in no way, whatsoever, connected with the German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada, as so recently rumored, or any other club.

But we are proud to be an associated member of the Obedience Association (Ontario).

We would also like to announce that the NYOC has been most fortunate in being granted permission to use the Niagara St. School basement for winter training quarters commencing October 3 and each successive Wednesday thereafter.

I wish to thank you sincerely for the article featuring the NYOC in the March issue.

another sweetheart son

. . . Re recent letter of Mrs. Hilda Driver (August, 1962) . . . I purchased from Miss Jane Lane one Standard Poodle puppy, white, known as Nunsoe's Yorkshire White Rose, who flew over by jet plane to Malton July 24. He is now 3½ months old. Sire: Glydale the Brigadoon of Gaystream; dam, Nunsoe's Somebody's Sweetheart. This is by the Nunsoe method. I truly can say he is greatly admired and loved by all. I hope to prove him at the Sportsmen's Show, 1963.

the tax question

. . . The Old Timer made his point very well re the impost now being levied on breeders of purebred animals. Is a dog not livestock? If not, then why is it so registered? Why, if sold as a show prospect to a farmer is no tax levied? Is this not rather unfair on the other portions of the community? Or if purchased from a person who runs a farm in conjunction with his hobby, then the tax would appear not to apply to him.

I would say that not only should the CKC and Livestock Records approach the Government on this tax, but so should Dogs add its voice too. Show people right at the moment pay the various fees for their hobby; they also support the clubs which hold dog shows by making entries at their shows. They are also requested to donate prizes for this and that group or particular breed and/or Obedience. Their travel to and from shows together with incidentals add up to quite a staggering amount, not only do they pay tax on foodstuffs for their hobby, but now they must turn around and pay a further tax. None of these costs are in any way covered by their possible sales. Veterinarian fees and advertising have to be paid for also. This tax may make many hobbyists pause for further thought, then throw up the whole thing and give up altogether. Unemployment is getting worse. This tax may cause a drop in food production for the hobbyists and this in turn will mean food processors will have to cut their staffs. Is this what the Government has in mind?

. . . Three cheers for the Three Rivers dog show, its directors, superintendent and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rohrback and the judges, Mr. and Mrs. Don Fitzgerald.

I have been attending dog shows as an exhibitor for only five months and everyone advised me not to go to this show. I went and I don't regret it. Granted, my wins made the trip worthwhile, but more important was the treatment we received, both outside the ring and in.

Mr. and Mrs. Rohrback worked very hard to make this show a success and I feel that they are to be congratulated. The judges were fair all the way. You felt that, whether you walked out of the ring victorious or otherwise, your dog had an equal chance when entered and was fairly judged. This is not always the case.

I move that more people get out and support this show next year and make it even more of a credit to the Canadian Circuit.

FROM THE EDITOR

Some owners of excellent specimens refuse to let their dogs go on a circuit with a handler, regardless of a promising show career. There are many fine handlers who give their charges every possible care and affection. There are others who may do a good job in the ring, but sending a dog with them is a risk.

The morning after the last day of the CNE the writer had to return to the dog show area to pick up some material. The ring and bench area were empty save for a handsome Newfoundland standing solitary beside his bench. After a perfunctory greeting the writer went on with her work, but from time to time received urgent messages to come back and chat some more. We shook hands several times, and pondered the situation. He had water, a big pail of it. But the paper on his bench was mussy and attracted flies which constantly settled on his face. A change of paper helped that situation. By this time the Newfoundland would have cheerfully gone off with his newfound friend. There was nothing to prevent a dog napping. The cleanup men had not yet arrived and there was no one on guard. The only attendant was on the main floor at the entrance. Had he asked any questions, exhibitor identification would have settled them.

In the meantime a few yips from the other side of the wall led to more dogs left overnight in crates, all small breeds, evidently in charge of a handler. These, too, could have been easily carried off with an assistant.

Which poses the question. If the dogs could not have been kept in a hotel or motel room, would they not have been safer in a station wagon (used by most handlers) on a comfortable night? Cold weather, of course, would preclude this.

Dogs in Canada queried CNE dog show management as to regulations about leaving dogs benched or crated overnight. The show stations guards overnight during the show but after the final show, the responsibility is entirely with the handlers. Dogs has also learned with pleasure that most top handlers give first care and attention to their charges. Their own comfort and amusement come much later.

THIS IS the first time a comprehensive gallery of judges has been presented by Dogs in Canada. It serves not only as an aid in the selection of judges for future shows, but will make you acquainted with some mighty nice folks. If you like the idea of this presentation, be sure to write and tell us. ■

"We've got the start of the same idea," said the Old Timer, "but in Bermuda they've extended it. Any dog placing in the group is entitled to the highest number of points of any breed placing below it. To me it makes sense."

"Let's take an example. For instance a friend of mine has an Australian Terrier. Now there's a breed that is hard to do much top winning with. To begin with it's a rare breed, with the result that too many judges have not had much experience with it. It isn't a breed with too much eye appeal — and judges, being human, are going to be influenced by eye appeal. While the breed is a great little worker it doesn't normally show with the same fire as some of the other terriers — by that I mean it doesn't go around the ring looking for trouble. It minds its own business and goes about its job confidently and competently."

"So?" I interjected.

"So," said the Old Timer "that little dog has been shown eight times. It's placed in the group on five of those occasions — which to me means it's a remarkable Australian. But it still has only eight points. But representatives of other, more popular terrier breeds, that have never placed in the group — that this little Australian has beaten on five occasions already have their championships. To me that doesn't make sense."

"You're getting no argument from me," I said. "It doesn't make sense."

OBEDIENCE

Ed. O'Brien is well-known as Canada's leading professional trainer of dogs in Obedience work. He is a licensed judge, one of Canada's first. He began his career in the West, training dogs for herding and other farm work. Since moving to Ontario he has specialized in training dogs for police and guard work and for disabled people. Mr. O'Brien also breeds German Shepherds and Dobermans.

REGULATIONS

The Canadian Kennel Club publication, "Regulations and Standards for Obedience Trials," has long been the subject of careful study by your columnist and has caused him some concern. Anyone who has helped to draft a constitution knows how difficult and tricky the job can be. Some points are inevitably left out and the wording is too often ambiguous. Our obedience regulations are no exception, for in spite of several revisions, one only has to note the variations in scoring used by the trial judges to realize that their interpretations of the rules differ considerably.

Some responsibility for this must rest with the revisory committees. Little has been done to clarify the controversial points or to make a definite ruling in places where it is badly needed. The injunction re putting a dog down by force is an example, for the individual judge is free to deduct marks according to his own definition of "force". Why should a dog, in the Open Class, be disqualified for a minor infraction, yet still be allowed to qualify when refusing to lie down on command? Such questions as this confuse the judges and make for lack of uniformity in judging.

For at least a year, we must work with the regulations as they are now, so, in order to help the judges to do a really good job under the existing rules, I would like to suggest that a conference of Obedience Trial judges be held, possibly under C.K.C. auspices, at which the regulations can be discussed and decisions reached on the proper interpretation of those points on which a difference of opinion undoubtedly exists. A conference of this kind could then make recommendations which would be of help to the committee appointed to revise the next edition of the "Regulations and Standards".

As well as the interpretation of the actual wording of the rules, the judges should also decide the exact number of points to be deducted for each infraction of the rules by dog or handler. At the present time there is too great a spread between the points deducted by the different judges for the same mistakes. A dog could thus fail under one judge for certain errors for which another judge would not disqualify him. If the judges could decide in conference on the exact number of points to be deducted for crooked sits, walking recalls, lagging etc., and make the decisions known as soon as possible to the Trial representatives, the latter would then be in a better position to report on the judging.

Some of the points which, in the view of this writer, are definitely mistakes, have been allowed to slip by for so long that now the handlers would be astounded if they were to lose marks for them. The Utility Class possibly has more of these than the other two Classes. For example, a large percentage of the dogs entered in this Class appear to have forgotten how to heel properly, yet often we find the judges making no reduction of points for poor heeling. Again, signals are defined in the Regulations as the use of "hand and arm only", yet we continually see the whole arm and body used, particularly in "directed jumping" and in "signal exercise." In the former there occurs one of the most frequently ignored regulations. The rule states that the dog must go 20 feet past the jump before being ordered to sit, and even then he should still be moving away from the handler when he hears the order. Instead of this, a number of dogs, when they are barely past the jump, cut off to the side and turn around, whereupon the handler will order his dog to sit. This is directly contrary to the regulation, yet qualifying scores are often given for this kind of performance so long as the dog comes back over the right jump. I submit that this is not good enough for the top class in obedience work.

The Trial judges could, and should, do more about encouraging the handlers to study the "Regulations and Standards". At a recent Trial I asked 12 handlers if they had read the book of rules. Not only had nobody read it, but eight of them did not even know that such a book was available to them.

In conclusion, I would like to make one plea, and it is this: we have a good sport, so let us play as good sports should. Read the rules of the game and apply them. Obedience is becoming a leading avocation in Canada. A record number of trials and trainees has been chalked up during the present year. To make your dog a genuine member of the family and enjoy to the full the companionship between dog and owner, join an Obedience training class in your community. ■

24. THE TRUTH ABOUT DOGS. One of America's best known dog experts (Leon F. Whitney) lets go, answers many questions, and tells just what he thinks. Some breeds are fine and some are in terrible shape; some are coming up and some are going down. What causes it all? Heredity? Environment and Training? The present standards of the Kennel Clubs? YOU?? $4.00

25. SILVER STREAM, by A. P. Herbert, a delightful story in a petite size about Hare and Hound for young and old. An excellent gift or prize for the young fry that the oldsters will read first. $2.49

SPANIELS

IN THE FIELD

George Tabner, a well-known breeder and exhibitor of Springer Spaniels in both show and trial, is a firm believer that show Springers must also be able to give good account of themselves in the field. He is President of the English Springer Spaniel Club of Canada and sparked the establishment of Ontario's only Spaniel Specialty Show for all Spaniels.

This column is the beginning of a regular new feature of Dogs in Canada. News of Spaniel Field Trials and other Field activities will appear quarterly in October, February and June. The other field breeds of dogs will be written about by others for the remaining months.

To keep this column interesting to Spaniel Field enthusiasts across Canada, and we hope, other countries, will require help in the form of contributions of interest from you all. The editors of Dogs in Canada have asked that we attempt to include items from all areas. This may present a problem since Spaniel Field Trials in Canada are now held only in Ontario. However, I do know there are persons in other areas with Spaniels who work them regularly. If they too will contribute, we can all have our say. Please send all correspondence to George E. Tabner, R.R. 4, Komoka, Ont.

For those not now active in a Spaniel Field Trial Club here are listed the Clubs and Secretaries of each:

The English Springer Spaniel Club of Canada:
Mrs. L. Lymburner, 650 Elm St. West, Pt. Colbourne, Ont.

The Niagara Springer Spaniel Club Inc.:
Mr. C. Reid, R.R. 3, St. Catharines, Ont.

The Central Ontario Spaniel Club:
Mr. L. R. Bunker, First Line West, R.R. 6, Brampton, Ont.

The Sudbury & District Kennel Club:
Mr. Wm. Watt, 388 Marttila Dr., Sudbury, Ont.

The Western Ontario Spaniel Club:
Mr. George E. Tabner, R.R. 4, Komoka, Ont.

Each of these clubs usually run one or two trials a year. Dates are listed in the "Coming Events" section of Dogs in Canada.

The above clubs, represented by two delegates each, make up the Spaniel Field Trial Association (of Ontario). This Association holds the National Championship Spaniel Stakes yearly. Among other purposes of the Association is the aiding of persons interested in Spaniel field work in the formation of new clubs, standardization of trials and mutual cooperation. Possibly, through the column, we can stir up interest and promote new clubs to hold trials in other areas.

Those of you who have not attended a Spaniel Field Trial should, if possible, take in one soon. There is nothing like the excitement of the dogs making game. The performance of the top dogs, in response to commands or signals, always amazes those previously unaware of the control required. The Open All Age Stakes are usually run on pheasants to simulate as closely as possible field conditions. Birds are planted ahead of the dogs. Each dog is marked on its manner of questing, control, steadiness and retrieving. Several series are required, with spectators following close behind the dogs, handlers, judges and gunners. They can see closely all dogs working, and learn first hand many of the fine points of Spaniel work.

This year the National Championship Stakes will be held at Streetsville, Ont., October 27 and 28. For any information please contact Mr. Wm. Watt, National Secretary. His address is above. At this, the best dogs, those who have placed at trials in 1961 or 1962 only, will be running. The judges are Mrs. Evelyn Monte of New York, a very well known Spaniel judge, handler and writer, and Mr. Stanley Welsh, of St. Catharines.

I recently had the pleasure of judging at the E.S.S.C. of Michigan annual Water Trial. Those of us who have complained at the severity of Water Trials in some Canadian trials lately, should take note of proceedings across the border. These are the tests as regularly conducted.

PUPPY — Single retrieve of a bird with a thirty yard swim (actually it was nearer 50 yards). Dogs steady, sent on command, after the gun is fired and the bird thrown from a boat, all retrieved (even one five months of age) to hand from shore of lake.

NOVICE — Double retrieves, 40 yards — with similar procedure. Dogs brought in one bird, hupped and given the line to second.

OPEN — 1st Series — Double retrieve, through dummies of 50 yards (my guess 70 yards). One bird in front of boat and one to rear, dogs sent from shore.

2nd — Double retrieves from and returned to a row boat with handler, through dummies. Distance of swim 50 yards each. One 10 year old dog got tangled with dummy anchors and ended

THE HUMANE SOCIETY

BY TOM HUGHES

Fifth in a series by the General Manager of the Ontario Humane, in which the writer strikes against irresponsible breeding.

Last month I referred to the fact that approximately 200,000 dogs are killed each year in Canada because they are either aged, diseased, injured or unwanted. I said that this shocking figure should be proof, if proof was needed, that some authority working in conjunction with the Humane Movement and The Canadian Kennel Club should find a means of reducing this number by reducing surplus breeding dogs, the cause of the problem in the first place.

I received a number of letters from breeders, all of whom were shocked by the size of the problem. Most people are well aware that a large number of dogs have to be killed, but few people are aware of the real number of dogs actually involved. Certainly 200,000 is a fantastic figure, but it is a conservative figure and not a wild guess which I have used to shock people. It is a figure I can support with factual evidence. As a matter of fact, I believe this figure may be too conservative and I would not be surprised if the animals killed in say, Vancouver, Edmonton, Winnipeg, Calgary, Toronto, Montreal and Quebec City do not collectively exceed this figure, by themselves.

Since we know the problem, what is the answer? I suppose we all feel that surplus breeding is a bad thing and should be discouraged so that eventually the number of animals bred each year will become progressively fewer, until that desirable situation is reached in which fewer people will possess dogs. Desirably too the vast majority of these will be purebred. They will be owned by humane and kind people who will never permit their animals to be killed except where it was completely unavoidable.

I feel sure that most thinking people will agree that such a situation is nothing more or less than a pipe dream! I am afraid that people are people and that nothing the Humane Movement can do will ever alter the way in which animals are kept as domestic creatures. Certainly the Humane Movement can and does do a great deal to try to influence the way in which domestic animals are kept and if you compare kennels of today and those of say 50 years ago it will be obvious that there has been some success, although the credit cannot all be claimed by the Humane Movement.

If you consider that 50 or 60 years ago the small animal hospital was almost unknown and that the average veterinarian spent the greater part of his time dealing with large animals and if you compare this to the present-day situation where small animal practice is one of the most important sections of veterinary medicine, then I think you will agree that the overall status of the domestic animal has been greatly improved.

There are still areas in which improvements can be made. One of these lies in the discouragement of some of these "fly-by-night" operators who are breeding and selling cross-bred and sometimes purebred but unregistered animals. There are not so many of these as there used to be, but there are still far too many for my liking! Whenever I see advertisements offering for sale every breed of dog there is for comparatively small sums of money, I immediately suspect the worst. I am very rarely disappointed.

Only a few days ago it was necessary for an Inspector of this Society to seize a dog from the Express Company at Niagara Falls. Investigation led us back to a kennel in Ontario and revealed that the person concerned, altho' advertising extensively, had, in fact, no dogs at all on the premises! The advertisement was nothing more than a gimmick or "come-on." Unsuspecting members of the general public by answering his advertisement, are encouraging this operation in which the man, on receipt of the order, 'shops' around the countryside to pick up any animal which answered the description of the animal in the advertisement.

Another example is a case in which an Inspector driving along a country road, saw a sign "Puppies for Sale". On checking the premises he found a typical "back yard breeder" with a large number of dogs on his premises, many of which were in advanced stages of disease. All were living under conditions of extreme neglect. The Inspector seized 13 of the worst animals, 11 of which were subsequently destroyed by the veterinarian. The operator of the premises was prosecuted and found "guilty" of neglect and cruelty.

These are just two examples of dozens of similar cases that Inspectors of this Society investigate in Ontario alone. All can be duplicated in other provinces of Canada.

Eventually legislation will have to be found which will prevent these establishments from springing up rather than allow them to operate to a point where deterioration and neglect occur, before S.P.C.A. Inspectors step in.

Prevention is always better than cure and this is a good example of where it would be highly desirable.

Dog fanciers can assist this Society by letting us know where these operators are.

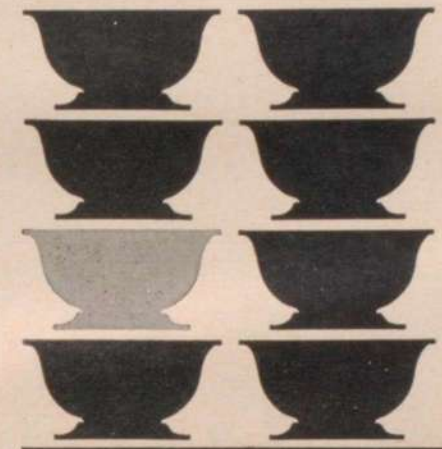

With the limited number of Inspectors, all of whom are trying desperately to meet the demands being made on them arising out of all sorts of animal neglect cases, it is a physical impossibility for them to go looking for these operators. If we receive factual information from a person who knows dogs and knows what he is talking about, it enables our Inspectors to visit these premises on a much more efficient basis.

The Humane Movement is doing what it can to discourage breeding of animals in these circumstances and this is an opportunity for dog fanciers to assist the Society. There will always be a demand for cross bred dogs. If sub standard, back yard breeders can be put out of business, then the only source of supply of these animals will eventually be Shelters operated by the Humane Societies or S.P.C.A.'s. These Societies, by following certain policies and principles, can meet legitimate demands without subjecting the animals to neglect and cruelty as a part of that supply. They can do this because they are all non profit organizations, and the welfare of the animal is placed before financial consideration.

This is another good reason why experienced and responsible dog fanciers should participate in the affairs of the Society by serving as Directors.

Until legislation is achieved this is the only way I can see to reduce the fantastic amount of animals that have to be killed.

The Humane Societies are doing all they can under the circumstances, and they welcome the help and support of the readers of Dogs in Canada. ■

EDNA JOEL, whose extensive judging has taken her many thousands of miles in a year, talks of judging in general and specifically from the standpoint of a woman.

In agreeing to write this article it gave me the excuse to take time out to ponder on what a wonderful hobby this dog game is and realize how I have enjoyed the many years spent in it.

Only when taking time to reflect does one remember the many people who helped to instil the knowledge gained over the years; the individual characters, each with his own peculiarities, but all tops in the field of dogs. Alas, many of them are with us no more, but have left their mark by the contributions made. I doubt if we will see many of their calibre again.

Being one of the lucky ones, I can claim the honour of being a protege of one who was considered the greatest of them all — that much-beloved "Grand Old Man" of the Fancy, the late Jimmy Garrow. Jimmy's memory of dogs was encyclopoedic, his gift for instilling knowledge unsurpassed.

One of my most treasured possessions is the cameo brooch he gave me after I had completed my first judging assignment. Honour indeed, especially from a man who praised rarely, but could hand out quite a "drubbing" if you goofed. A wonderful teacher; lessons from Jimmy were never forgotten.

Hundreds of today's experts, both in judging and breeding livestock, have him to thank for setting their steps in the right direction.

If I reminisce, it is because it's good to remember . . . . the joys and frustrations, the hopes and at times, despair, the determination to lick each problem as it arose.

Think back! Remember all the firsts . . . . the first dog you trimmed for a show; the first litter you bred; the first time in the ring (when the dog wanted to go everyway except the one you wanted, needing more hands to cope with the problems that suddenly faced you); the first award won; the first points toward the title of Champion; the first time you judged (which gave you the pleasure of going over really top quality dogs) — all steps along the way to gathering more knowledge and experience. There is no easy way, to my mind, of learning the many facets of the game. It must come from trial and error, learning and practical experience.

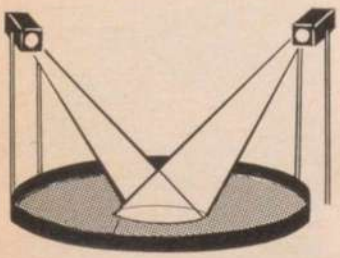

Should you wish to become a judge, only experience and knowledge can stand the test in the long run. Ignorance and inability fool no one.

A good judge must have:

(a) an eye for an animal;
(b) sound knowledge of the peculiarities of the breed, and know the reason why they are desirable;
(c) ability to make decisions, and know why the decision was reached;
(d) ability for complete mental concentration, so that no outside distractions can interfere with the job at hand;
(e) a methodical method of judging, so that people can understand what you are doing.

You must also have a sense of humour, courtesy and integrity, and, needless to say, be completely fit.

in our opinion

E. B. (TIM) REID, a former city editor now holding a responsible position in Ottawa, is well equipped to discuss judging assignments, and puts a finger on just what is exepcted of both judge and exhibitor.

Let me make it clear that in this article I'm speaking only for Tim Reid. But I think I'm a fairly average sort of person and that the opinions I express will be fairly representative of those of most judges.

Perhaps my approach to a judging assignment would be of interest — and again I think I speak for most judges when I say that I approach any assignment with a deep sense of responsibility. We all realize that a large number of exhibitors have paid a large number of dollars for our opinion and that we have a responsibility to give the most honest, most competent opinion of which we are capable. We realize that at the end of the day there are going to be exhibitors who are unhappy with our opinions and certainly I am aware that at each ringside there are people watching me judge who are expert in the breed I am judging. You can bet I am going to do my best to avoid the possibility of these experts second guessing me.

What do judges look for first of all in judging dogs? Discussing this with other judges I've found that we're all pretty well agreed that the corner-stone for placing in the ring must be type. In that one word I would include conformity to the standard, balance and overall appearance. In other words, a dog that is not typey is not likely to win under the majority of judges.

Soundness, of course, is an essential but I would place it second to type. In other words I have two dogs in front of me. One is sound, but he's big — he's coarse, he lacks balance. The other is typey — but he may spring a little at the hock, or paddle a little coming to you, or perhaps be a little straight in shoulder or stifle. Under me the typey but somewhat less sound dog will win. I think most judges would go along with that.

How well do judges know the standard? I think most judges know most standards quite well — but I think it's impossible for a judge to know every standard equally well. So — and I make no bones about this — when I take on a judging assignment I make it a point to take with me a copy of the Dog Encyclopaedia which I leave in the secretary's office where I can have access to it in case I encounter unusual breeds. I've found this pays off.

For instance I remember the first time I judged a Hungarian Vizla. I had seen the dog out of the corner of my eye and he looked to be a beautifully balanced, free-moving animal. But one thing I didn't like. He appeared short in skull, long in muzzle and the muzzle looked snipey. He was alone in his breed so there was no problem there but before he came in for the group I made it a point to take a look at the standard. The head was exactly what the standard called for, with the result that I placed the dog well up in the group. Without access to the standard I might well have faulted this unfamiliar breed for having a quality that the standard called for.

I've had similar experiences with other breeds such as the Drever, the French Bulldog and the Great Pyrenees breeds that we rarely see in Canada.

What influence has the handler on the average judge? I would be wrong if I were to say the judge is not aware of a handler. He is. But it doesn't always work to the handler's

NIGEL-AUBREY JONES, WHO WITH HIS PARTNER HAS CHALKED UP STAGGERING WINS WITH THEIR PEKINGESE IS WELL QUALIFIED TO SPEAK ON THIS ALL-IMPORTANT SUBJECT.

WHAT IS A GOOD STUD DOG

Is it (1) a dog that can quickly perform the physical requirements of a stud dog?

(2) a dog that produces a number of mediocre champions that never win more than their titles and contribute nothing towards the betterment of the breed themselves?

(3) A. a dog that produces a few very good successful winning show dogs that can win top awards in groups and Best in Shows and also figure in pedigrees as studs of importance themselves? B. or a dog that produces bitches that can churn out champion and top dog after top dog?

Class 2 is the dog that gets the biggest publicity boost and is the dog that can soon have his reputation enhanced as a producer very easily by the owners of big kennels who can quickly pilot youngsters through to their titles.

Class 3 is the most important stud dog and the one that makes the biggest and most important impression on the breed.

Stud dogs on their own are as useless as summers without sunshine. They have to depend on the bloodlines of the bitches they are bred to in order to create records and have any impact on the breed. There are also stud dogs that seem to have the uncanny knack of being able to produce good dogs regardless of what bloodlines they are used with. A short study of pedigrees will soon verify these facts.

Since the commencement of breeding purebred dogs it has always appeared from the records that breeders (i.e. a title that can be claimed by anyone who has bred a litter of purebred puppies) have always been reluctant to take full advantage of the studs that have been available to them. This can be attributed to many feelings which we shall not delve into in this article.

Consider the cost of either breeding or importing a top stud dog, his handling to successful wins, his advertising etc. and the figure can soon run into thousands of dollars. Yet this caliber dog with a great reputation as a stud is often available to breeders at a figure as low as a $50 stud fee. Even to a layman not interested in the breeding of purebred dogs this would seem obvious that the best studs are within the reach of every breeder. This laxity on the part of breeders not to take full advantage of these dogs at their disposal might easily be the saving grace of the fancy or we would have a much higher standard of dogs to compete with in the rings today in many breeds! To prove the disinterest of breeders we can cite a dog that we owned and was placed at stud at a very nominal fee in Canada and was also available to United States breeders. This dog was the world's greatest winning show dog, Int. Ch. Chik T'Sun of Caversham, the winner of over 120 Best in Show wins who was at stud in Canada for a period of one and a half years and during this time received two outside bitches for breeding. This is a fantastic revelation. To those who wish to think that this was sometime ago we must note that there have been other dogs that have established themselves not only as show dogs but fabulous studs. Take the case of Int. Ch. Calartha Mandarin of Jehol. This dog received no outside stud work yet is one of the leading sires in the breed. His son, Int. Ch. Rikki of Calartha, received one outside bitch in Canada and from this one litter produced four champions, two group winners, all four of which were group placers and one Best in Show winner. Rikki and Mandarin both sired an English champion. Rikki also two Best in Show winners in Int. Ch. Mario and Int. Ch. Seminole. Chik T'Sun, Mandarin and Rikki can claim to be and are still the top three stud dogs in their breed in the United States today. Between them they are responsible for influencing the breed more than any three other dogs in the last decade. It seems a tragedy that they did not have the same influence on the breed in Canada as they have done in the U.S.

The term stud dog is perhaps one of the most abused expressions in the fancy. So often does the small breeder, with one or two bitches, purchase just a dog to produce puppies regardless of his breeding and is given the title of stud dog. Often times this type of dog costs more than the price of two or three stud services to the best dogs in the country. Regardless of what a dog is bred from or what he can produce he is called a stud dog. Checking on the records, and they are available as far back as the middle eighteen hundreds, almost without exception, the small successful breeder has always used the best stud dogs the breed has available at the time. These people have realized that good breeding just does not happen. It takes years to establish the consistent benefits and it has been proved a million times that planned breeding can produce top dogs.

A top winning show dog is not necessarily a successful stud dog. Rushing to breed ad lib to the top winning dog in the breed is not necessarily breeding to the most successful stud dog. In many cases the sire of the top winning dog is often established as the top sire in the breed. When you consider the number of bitches that are in favour of the top winners and consider the results of the breedings as against a dog that receives but a few bitches and produces winner after winner and you have a very different picture. A dog that sires three Best in Show winners out of 100 bitches is not as potent a sire as a dog that sires six Best in Show winners out of 20 bitches.

Line breeding has always played a very important part in the success of a top stud dog and seems to have rewarded breeders most in the past. Present day records indicate that this is still true. This is an important study with breeders who have looked into strains and how they have been formed. Unfortunately, strains in breeds are very hard to come by today. The studying of pedigrees is a must with the serious breeder. It is a fallacy to use any dog just to prove a bitch. This haphazard attitude is not the true basic foundation to successful breeding even though the odd exception can be cited as being in its favour. The interest of the genuine breeder does not end with the result of just the one litter from one breeding. The effect of one breeding can go on for generations and it is easy to see that one breeding has altered the whole pattern of a breed in the past. It is for this reason that the choice of stud is a very serious matter and one that every breeder should give a great deal of thought.

The editor asked for an article on the care that should be given to the choice of a stud dog. To delve into this matter deeply would fill many issues of this magazine. The value of

ANNUAL STUD GALLERY

Twenty-five different breeds are represented in this year's Gallery of valuable studs. While the female contributes 50% of the genes, it is essential to find the best possible mate to donate the other all-important 50%. It is noteworthy that most of these outstanding dogs have not only done major winning, but are string winning get.

If your breed is among those shown here, be sure to keep this issue as a reference for future matings. Remember when selecting a stud: be sure to study the female's background qualities as well as those of the potential mate for the type of offspring you desire.

If your own stud dog is not among those pictured here, be sure to reserve a section in the Annual Stud Gallery next year. This Gallery will appear in the August, 1963 issue.

Subject to errors and omissions, the list of eligible members appearing elsewhere in this issue of DOGS IN CANADA comprises the members eligible to participate in the election.

Any member noting an error or omission in the list is asked to communicate promptly with the Secretary.

(b) "Electoral Zone", as used hereunder, means any of the following geographical areas: (1) the Province of British Columbia; (2) the Province of Alberta; (3) the Province of Saskatchewan; (4) the Province of Manitoba; (5) the Province of Ontario; (6) the Province of Quebec; (7) the Provinces of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island; (8) the Provinces of Newfoundland and Nova Scotia.

NOTE: Article VI, Section 5 of the By-laws reads in part as follow: "Any partnership or company that is a member of the Club may exercise any of the foregoing privileges to which it is entitled only through its authorized representative named in such partnership's or company's application or through his successor duly appointed by such partnership or company, written notification of which appointment has been delivered to the Secretary."

OCTOBER FUNNIES

A Dallas, Texas postman complaining to the police, was careful to explain that it wasn't a dog, but a little boy, "about four years old", who had bitten him.

In Redondo, Calif., a dog catcher complained that an unknown boy had bitten his finger and run off before he could give chase.

A librarian was non-plussed recently when a little boy asked for a book for his dog. Impatiently he walked up to the section and picked out the volume "So You're Going to have a Puppy."

Probably the thing most wrong about the younger generation in this dog game is that so many of us no longer belong to it.

Schopenhauer, the German philospher once said, "The main reason we take so much pleasure at animals is that we like to see our own nature in such a simplified form." Apparently he meant what he said, for he rarely ventured forth without his three black Poodles.

They still talk about the day Big Red, Irish Setter of Chicago's Engine Company 66, was left at the station because of an ear infection. "Too bad Red's missed this fire", shouted the firemen in answer to a call just at dinnertime. But they needn't have worried. Red greeted them with impish delight. He'd just demolished 11 of 12 chops on the dinner table.

When Duke, a dog with unusual "horse sense" was accidentally locked up in a grocery store, he knew exactly what to do. He jumped up and down until he knocked the phone off the hook, then barked until the operator sent a rescuer.

INTRODUCTION TO A SERIES by WILFRID SHUTE, B., M.D.

ANATOMY OF THE DOG

Today more and more people are breeding and selling purebred dogs. The vast majority of these puppies are destined to be pets and housedogs, a few will be used purely for hunting and still fewer will be either sold to exhibitors or shown by their breeders. Yet these purebred dogs, whatever their destination, would be worth no more than the mongrel if it were not for the Kennel Club, the official registration body and their various activities. Fortunately or unfortunately it is difficult to breed a good dog of any specific breed. Nature tends to produce puppies more nearly the original basic type of dog. Yet each breed was developed in a very specific area of a specific country for a very specific purpose. Seldom were the original dogs cherished for their beauty, invariably they were valued for their usefulness.

The various breeds can be generally classified, on the basis of utility, into specific groups. Thus we have Group 1, Sporting Dogs — dogs developed specifically for hunting or shooting — Pointers, Setters, Cockers etc. Group 2 dogs comprise those developed specifically for hunting also, but with the added characteristic of the possession of unusually well developed scenting powers — Bloodhounds, Bassets, Beagles, Dachshunds etc. Group 3 consists of dogs used by farmers, herders etc. for their ability to perform a specific function, herding cattle or sheep, drawing carts, protecting breweries or estates, rescuing travellers lost in snow storms or overboard from fishing vessels, travelling in the frozen north etc. Sagacity is the most prized characteristics of the dogs in this Group.

Group 4 comprises the Terriers, dogs that go to earth after vermin, Otter, fox, groundhog, badger. Here gameness is a prized characteristic, while size and weather resistant coats are also important.

Only in the two smallest groups, group 5 and 6, are the practical working characteristics not of the utmost importance. Yet here, too, some breeds are developed for purely utilitarian pursuits. The Poodle was originally a retriever, but his super intelligent brain, his sense of humour and his favorability led to his chance adoption by the circus and so he ends up as a Non-Sporting dog in Group 6. Similarly the Bulldog was specifically for the sport of bull-baiting. In this case this is no longer considered a sport and so the present day Bulldog ends up in that miscellaneous catch-all group, the Non-sporting.

Group 5, Toy dogs, contains dogs characterized by small size only. Yet their intelligence and their basic structure and temperaments so often belie the appellation Toys. The Miniature Pinscher in his own estimation is as brave and useful a guard dog as his larger, look alike cousin the Doberman Pinscher. The Chihuahua still remembers that he used to hunt in packs and the Yorkshire Terrier would rather be a Terrier in fact as well as in name.

Look to the bone and muscle for the real dog, maintains Dr. Shute, a medical man of international repute and particularly known for his studies and accomplishment in the treatment of heart disease. In dogdom he is best known as a judge and breeder of Doberman Pinschers.

It is time that these fanciers whose interest lies in the conformation dog show and obedience ring realize that their very existence depends upon preservation of those specific characteristics of each breed which led to their development originally. He must separate himself from the breeder and fancier of pet dogs whose only interest lies in prettiness — not join him.

The original fanciers drew up standards which describe the ideal dog all from the point of view of function and utility and these must still be our guiding posts. Any cross bred or mongrel otherwise can fill the bill as well as the purebred.

That we are in imminent danger of frittering away our heritage in purebred dogs is all too obvious. My first interest in dogs was due to a chance visit to a dog show at which I was fascinated by the beauty of the Wire-haired Fox Terrier. There was a large entry of beautiful dogs and "Perky" was the mascot of the Gutta Percha Co., displayed in all their ads. Unfortunately the professional handlers who became expert in "putting down" this breed, to all practical purposes have destroyed the brain. Entries have diminished almost to the vanishing point. All the older fanciers of the Poodle, those who were breeding and exhibiting when the breed had not become popular, decry the present emphasis on coat length and style of trimming which hides every bit of structure except the foreface and feet.

However, it is not only in such breeds as the Cocker Spaniel, with his ridiculous overabundance of coat and feathering fostered by the breed fanciers, the Fox Terrier and the Poodle that this tendency has developed. A recent experience of the writer, which jolted me at the time, has bothered me ever since.

At a forum on dog judging, a well known and popular all rounder for whom I have both liking and respect stated in discussing a certain dog of the Working Group that he was not in show condition and faulted him accordingly. When it was pointed out that the dog had been worked hard and was in excellent health and bloom of coat with the hard firm musculature of the trained athlete, without an ounce of excess fat, this judge said "I couldn't care less" and he was not in show condition because the dog show is a "beauty contest". Horrors! In other words a well-rounded body, rounded with a deep layer of fat over moderately poorly developed muscles is to be desired over the condition which makes a working dog able to work.

This point of view is not new. Glenn Staines, responsible with F. F. H. Fleitman for introducing the Doberman Pinscher to America and keeping him to the 16th most popular dog in America, once discussed this point at length. He said that the Doberman Pinscher was originally shown in hard, firm muscular condition, but that now such a dog would be considered "out of condition". This breed was developed specifically to guard breweries in Germany and gained popularity only because he was physically quick and super-intelligent, tough and extremely trainable. Now the Doberman is supposed to have the gentleness of the Cocker Spaniel and must be shown in a condition that is very difficult to obtain in a highly active animal. A well known professional handler in the States told me that one can only get a Doberman in show shape by cutting his exercise down to the minimum necessary for cleanliness and "crating" him the rest of the time for weeks or months before the show.

If it is accepted that the important words in the purebred dog are FUNCTION and UTILITY then the dog show begins to serve its proper function. It brings together people with a common interest, whose purpose is to compare the product of their breeding programs, to establish the correct type, correct soundness and movement, to determine which bloodlines, which sires, which matrons are producing individuals that most closely approach the ideal dog of his particular breed. Finally he wants to obtain the opinion of an acknowledged expert in his breed, as to the value of his dog in comparison with other members of his breed. It is a more pleasant experience if the result is a win for his dog with points toward a Championship title; trophies and money prizes are nice too. But the win merely acknowledges his success as a breeder or exhibitor and the real prize is the establishment of a value to his dog, far above the price of pet stock, the opportunity for stud fees, if a male for the hope of more on p. 85

Show Talk

For the first time in quite a number of years Dogs in Canada had a representative at the shows in the New Brunswick circuit. All of these had hard working Show Committees who are to be congratulated. They stage good shows, under great difficulties, poor buildings, inexperienced personnel and small entries are only a few. It is regrettable that other centres do not have buildings that compare with Fredericton, whose Lord Beaverbrook Arena is a beautiful, clean building which lends itself perfectly to a dog show.

The 'good sportsmanship of the Maritime exhibitors was obvious. None complained of the lateness of the hour for the Groups and BIS judging even though the Groups did not start until 7.30 and sometimes 8 o'clock, when the breed judging finished around 4.30-5.00. Good work and best of luck to you all for 1963. We hope to be back.

The Central Canada Exhibition held their annual show and again threw it open to the public free of charge. Crowds constantly streamed in and out. It is too bad that arrangements cannot be made to hold the dog show on the Saturday previous or at least ahead of the other livestock shows. One would find a much cleaner area with fewer horse and cattle flies that bother the dogs a great deal and the exhibitors more. This is an excellent show for breeders to display their dogs and collect future sales for it is crowded at all times with would-be purchasers.

At Hull the following day the Ottawa K.C. held their fall unbenched show in a very clean, airy armouries. Spectators were fewer but the entry was about the same. As usual the Show Committee of this club had everything running smoothly.

The CNE came next and five days of hot weather. Once again a good spot for prospective buyers, if one remained at their bench to interview people as they asked countless questions. The entry (down a little from last year) was handled very capably by Glen Stephens in his first year as Show Superintendent. Bright, clean new benching was a big improvement.

kerry clinic

The second Kerry Clinic was held July 15 at the home of Dennis and Catherine Gardiner. It was a beautiful day, and between 50 and 60 people attended, although not as many as expected after the publicity it had been given in July issue of Dogs in Canada.

Bill Monaghan was again the able Chairman of the discussion session and slow motion film that was held. Mac MacCallum, the CKC President, was here and encouraged us greatly with his comments.

Also among those present were Mrs. Roy from Vancouver with her two homebred Kel-Tara puppies; Tom Fidge from Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Morrison from Montreal; Ruth Robinson, Billiblu Kennels; Betty Golby, Florian Kennels; Ursula Floeter and Marylin Mill, Stotzenfel Kennels; and several others with just one dog. In all, most of the Canadian kennels were represented, giving a fairly broad picture of the Canadian Kerry.

The panelists were Susie Mae and Mary Jane Weir, Dorothea Daniell-Jenkins, Mari Thomas, and Peter Smith. Dr. Shute, who has been helping all winter, was on holidays. This meant the breeders had the benefit of the opinions of the various Group judges, and an all-rounder. The panelists were aided by Ross and Barb. Pirrie, Isobel Henderson, Joan Morden and Betty McHugh, all breeders.

It was generally acknowledged that this Clinic was a vast improvement over last year's, but there are many more wrinkles to be ironed out.

The most outstanding point to come out of this experiment was that breeders should never blame the judges for poor judging. They alone are to blame. They give the judge a word picture and from this he must use his imagination and build up his own picture in his mind. No two minds work alike and until the breeders give them a little more concrete picture, there will be diversified judging, and analysis. ■

And then there was the judge who sent a chorus girl a diamond wristwatch with the inscription: "Best in Show".

First puppy: "I'm a boy."
Second puppy: "How can you tell?"
First: "I saw the entry form for the Puppy Match."

CLUB ROUNDUP

british columbia

JOAN RAILTON, c/o Sir Charles Tupper Secondary School, 419 East 24th St., Vancouver, B.C. Popular teacher, judge and Bulldog specialist.

The summer doldrums are now past and recently there has been great activity in the dog world in B.C. No fewer than seven conformation shows, five Obedience Trials and two Field Trials have been held in the ten-day period from August 31 to September 9. These were sponsored by the Pacific National Exhibition, the Working Dog Association of B.C., The Vancouver Island Dog Fanciers Association and the B.C. Gun Dog Club.

This year exhibitors at the P.N.E. were invited to meet with Mr. Mort Ferguson, Chairman of the Exhibition Dog Shows and discuss the shows. Those who attended the meeting seemed very pleased to have had the opportunity to express their ideas.

Once again it was a great pleasure to meet one of B.C.'s oldest dog breeders at the P.N.E. Mrs. Cowan, now in her eighties and a breeder of Danes for well over half a century, was, as usual, very successful with the three dogs she brought to the show. She and the Great Danes drove from her home in Kaslo to Vancouver, a distance of 500 miles, in a day.

Among activities that are now getting underway for the winter season are the classes of the Coastal Canine Academy. Anyone interested in obedience training can contact Mrs. Whitton, the Secretary, for further information.

The Juniors from the Vernon and District Kennel Club were very successful at the Championship dog shows held this summer in their area. In Kelowna, 13 year old Cathy Barber won the trophy for best Junior Handler with her female Scottish Terrier, Apfels Black Jill. In Vernon, 12 year old Patsy Zavoglia won the trophy for best Junior Handler with her female Beagle puppy Jacobs Jack in the Box. Both girls showed their dogs successfully in the conformation classes. Other Vernon girls handling dogs in these shows were Gail Farnsworth and Linda Durant.

Please club secretaries and individual members — send me your news. So many items of general interest will be occurring this winter but without your cooperation B.C. will not be well represented. Deadline for copy to me is the 5th of the month so pick up your pencils and write now.

MARY D. HART, Box 416, Brandon, Man. Well-known German Shepherd Specialist and Working Dog Judge.

News is still very scarce from the Prairie Provinces so I appreciate the regular report from the ever faithful Gateway City Obedience Training Club of Winnipeg. Mrs. Grace Anne Penno reports for that Club that activities for a brand new season begin with their Annual General Meeting and election of officers on September 12. This is always attended by those who really have Gateway's interests at heart. New members and old who have enjoyed trials, classes and other Club activities are urged to help others enjoy them by volunteering their services now as there is a job for everyone.

Marion King has been asked to report club activities to the new Canadian All Pets magazine. Marion has joined the whelping box brigade again with five new pups — Shepherds, of course.

Coronation Shows in June were well supported by Gateway members. Last of all, Mrs. Penno reports that she soon hopes to have 15 acres of land — the start of a dream — and hopes to get some good big runs on those 15 acres — after they get the poison ivy out!

The German Shepherd Dog Club of Alberta: Mr. E. A. Moore reports for the Club that they have just passed an eventful summer which has been both extremely gratifying and sorrowfully disappointing. It was gratifying in the knowledge that they have gained through their second Specialty Show, in July, knowledge and a deeper and fuller understanding of the German Shepherd Dog through the detailed judging and evaluation placed on each entry by "the Lady of the German Shepherd Fancy in Canada — Mary Southcott". Her judging was orderly and precise, giving each dog detailed consideration without that excessive fondling and gaiting of the dogs that creates doubt in the minds of the judge, the handler and spectators alike. It was a pleasure to show under her, a thrill to be placed, and for those who couldn't make the top, a pleasure to experience and participate in competition under a judge whose manner and action surged with confidence.

They hope to have Mary Southcott back in Calgary judging another German Shepherd Dog Specialty with a large entry that will do justice to her judging ability and her basic knowledge of the breed. They hope at that time to be better organized so that they may gain more as a club and as exhibitors from her fund of knowledge and her experience with the German Shepherd Dog.

The disappointing factor about the Specialty was the small entry with an accompanying financial problem which didn't promote the most gleeful enthusiasm of club members that the judging and the effort as a whole would justify. Just as the executive were counting their losses, debating their errors and questioning the high motive of their venture through the gloom of financial embarrassment, who should drop from the clouds unannounced but Horace Tesch, the genial and dynamic President of the German Shepherd Dog Club of Manitoba. Horace's glowing reports of membership numbers, membership cooperation and activities gave them new hope, a clearer perspective for club unity and a further spark of enthusiasm to carry on toward the final goal of a united front to promote German Shepherd Dogs across Canada. They hope to hear more in the future from Horace and the German Shepherd Dog Club of Manitoba. (I will hope to hear from Horace and the G.S.D.C. of Manitoba in the very near future too! It is through greater cooperation between the various branches of a breed club that we can finally achieve that fuller understanding and furtherance of that breed. In the Prairies, where distances between clubs and their activities are so great, we are in greater need of a sharing of knowledge and unity between clubs. — Editor.)

A feature of the premiere of the movie "Big Red" in Winnipeg was the appearance on four Winnipeg television programs of the Irish Setter, Ch. Red Ace of Ardee III, bred and owned by Harry Dean of Saskatoon. Mr. Dean and his dog went to Winnipeg in July to participate in the premiere celebrations at the invitation of the Walt Disney Corporation. They appeared on the television programs with Emile Genest, trainer of Big Red. Mr. Dean, an internationally known breeder of Irish Setters, is a member of the Saskatchewan Field Trials Association and a life member of the Irish Setter Club of Canada. His dogs compete regularly at the Hub City Kennel Club championship shows. This spring Mr. Dean imported from Ireland an international field trial winner, Flyaway Bee of Ardee, who has scored in trials in Italy, England, Scotland and Ireland.

VINA JONES, R.R. #2, Minesing, Ont., Labrador breeder and exhibitor, valuable contributor to dog club, humane, first aid, other club work.

August was vacation time for the Barrie Kennel Club. The only activity was the family picnic which took the form of a barbecue.

A most valued club member, Mr. Harry Morren, passed away August 19 after a three month illness. Harry was their last charter member and a member of the "25-year club" with the C.K.C. Harry was chairman of the trophy committee for the Barrie dog show for many years and was keenly interested and active in the conservation club and the S.P.C.A.

The Poodle Advancement Association held a puppy match on June 24 with an entry of 83 Poodles, judged by Mrs. Frances Angela of the Torchlight Kennels. The match was held in the Exhibition Grounds, Toronto. Best of Variety went to Mrs. Bud Flanagan's Poodle and Best Toy Variety was earned by a bitch shown by Bobbie Ellis. Best Standard was a lovely black bitch owned and shown by Miss Ann Simmons. The committee offers special thanks to Mrs. Grace Edwards, Susan Radley and Mrs. D. T. Weir, who worked so hard to make this such a success and to all who donated trophies.

The July meeting of the Oakville and District Kennel Club was President's night and Mr. Ernie McGowan gave a talk on the background and standard of the Irish Setter. Modelling for her owner was Ch. Golfview Scarlet Great. A quiz was held with three groups competing. Plans for two one-day shows are nearing completion. The Specialty show for all Collies and Shetland Sheepdogs will be judged following the breed judging. An added attraction for spectators and exhibitors will be an Obedience demonstration by Mr. and Mrs. G. Charters from Brantford, assisted by four other handlers with their German Shepherds.

The Upper Canada Kennel Club reports their annual members' match, held in July, was a great success. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas O'Neill took on the judging responsibilities. Groups I, II, III and V were represented. Jeanne and Dick White's Labrador "Rex" placed 1st in Group 1. Their Black and Tan Coonhound "Elly" took Group 2. Jack and Doreen Northover's Boxer "Pete" placed 1st in Group 3 and went on to earn Best in Match and Best Canadian Bred. The Whites took Group 5 with their Long-Haired Chihuahua "Tansy". The Best Canadian Bred Puppy was a Labrador owned by Boris and Sue Janda.

An excellent performance turned in by Russel Walker earned him first place in the Junior Handling class. There was strong competition in the Field Trial and the winner was "Angie", bred, owned and handled by Ivy McLaughlin. A novelty event was won by Phyllis Harris. Winners of the raffle have already been notified.

This correspondent also reports that Dick White has been appointed head of the North York Humane Society, ably assisted by his wife Jeanne who is on a 24-hour call doing a great percentage of the Society's office work on a voluntary basis. Following the business session of the August meeting a "brain trust" anwered members' questions concerning breeding, showing and training dogs. Several quizzes for the members were arranged by Jeanne and Dick White.

The Bulldog Club of Central Canada reports that at the last monthly meeting the membership agreed that any future judge of the Specialty show must either have judged a Bulldog Specialty or have been a Bulldog breeder. The various reports on the 1961 Specialty showed quite satisfactory results.

The annual Puppy Match this year had a class for adult dogs and it is regretted that the members did not take full advantage of this class. Mrs. Cora Smith judged the match. The best Puppy was Mrs. Thora Ince's Little Mowglie and BOS went to Little Darlin' also a puppy of Mrs. Ince's and handled by Robert McCutcheon. Best Junior puppy was Mrs. Panther's Kamel Top Knot and best adult was Mr. Kingston's Bringstye Gypsy. The club thanks Mr. and Mrs. Goss for the loan of their grounds and their hospitality.

The Sarnia Kennel Club reports a very successful annual show. The annual election of officers resulted in almost a complete change of executive. The annual picnic in July was the best held by the club and a month later a fun match was held under the direction of Bill Dawkins and Kay Barnes and was judged by Mr. Kennedy of Oakville. Tony Mondaux judged Obedience. Seventy-five dogs competed with Best in Show going to an American Cocker owned by Mrs. Blackmore of Petrolia, Ont. Best Puppy went to a Standard Smooth Dachshund from the Carlbeth Kennels of Sarnia. Obedience classes were held all summer at Ed Coles' and many members have won both conformation titles as well as Obedience degrees this year.

The Irish Setter Club of Canada reports the summer months have been quiet with many members still on vacation. Two dogs, well known to the club members, have passed away — Can. and Am. Ch. Red Barn Red Stardust, owned by Mrs. D. Dafoe, and Mr. and Mrs. K. Honsberger's Ch. Toni of Kenten. Anyone wishing to make reservations for the Thanksgiving Weekend, October 5 to October 8 at Tynoka Lodge, should do so right away. Contact Mrs. R. Allen, 327 Wilson St., Ancaster, Ont.

The All Terrier Club held no summer meetings. The Education Committee held an informal gathering at the Stewarts' to study the Airedale Terrier. Judges were Mrs. D. T. Weir and Mrs. Dorothea Daniell-Jenkins. This meeting was a great success. They had visitors from Galt, Barrie and Oakville.

During the summer period Mr. and Mrs. Devlin visited in California, Mrs. Weir in Calgary and Mr. Treleaven travelled to the Maritimes and returned with a Best in Show trophy. Terriers were not too well represented at the Exhibition shows — a total of 78 dogs in the three shows. During the second show, Mrs. Thelma Adams suffered an attack of appendicitis and was rushed to the hospital for an emergency operation. Another member, Merv Tate, is recuperating after some time in the hospital. It is hoped they will both be out and around soon.

The North York Obedience Club held a matinee match at the summer home of Hilda and Jim Pugh with an entry of 23 dogs. Mr. Bob Tait acted as judge. Winners were: Novice A, Mrs. Freeman's Standard Poodle — 187 points and Mrs. Hilda Pugh's Weimaraner with 186 points. Novice B, Mrs. Clive Brown's Welsh Corgi — 193 points; Miss Sandra Bargent's German Shepherd — 190 points; Mrs. Grace Edwards' Miniature Poodle — 186 points. Open B Class, Mrs. Frank McPherson's Springer Spaniel — 191 points. The results of the Oshawa Obedience Trial will appear elsewhere in the magazine under the regular show results. The second Training Class will complete its basic training and will graduate in October. Classes will continue throughout the winter on Wednesday evenings in downtown Toronto. For information contact Mrs. Grace Probert, 249 Finch Ave., Willowdale.

The German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada reports all eyes and efforts are geared towards their big Specialty Show which will have been held by the time you read this. Mr. Warren Parkinson is in charge of the breed survey which will follow the Specialty Show. The breed survey is doing a big part in the promotion of analyzing of stud dogs and brood bitches in order to be of assistance to breeders in selecting stud dogs and breeding stock. The show gives breeders in this area, and elsewhere, a big opportunity to see and analyze for themselves the stud dogs — both American and German breed.

Although the house was said to be haunted, the new tenant knew no fear as she strode in with her Great Dane.

"Just think, Apollo," she mused aloud. "It's claimed the ghosts who inhabit this house appear with a change in the moon and snatch away any four-legged creature. . . Apollo! Apollo! Where are you?" • • •

The Mountain City Obedience Club has held outdoor training all summer on McGill Campus, and is proud to report that two new members were tops in their classes at a recent Mock Trial. First in Novice "A" was Mr. David Leyland with his Weimaraner, Storm, and Mr. E. H. Jeeves and his Chesapeake Bay Retriever led the Beginners Novice Class.

The Executive for 1962-63 is as follows: President, Mr. Jack McBride; Vice-President, Mr. Paul Bergevin; Secretary, Mrs. Madeleine Paquette; Treasurer, Mr. B. Faber.

The 200 Club recently held a very successful Mock Trial at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Tyner in Senneville, giving dogs and their owners a chance to prepare for the busy Fall season ahead. Out of some 18 entries highest score in Trial was shared by Mrs. Tyner's Standard Poodle, Judy, and Mr. Vaillancourt's Doberman Pinscher, Minnie.

Earlier the same week a drill team of eight members and their dogs gave a demonstration of obedience to the patients at Ste. Anne's Military Hospital.

TROIS RIVIERES REGIONAL FAIR DOG SHOW

With the new floor, a complete paint job, adequate rings and good stewarding, the Three Rivers Show is fast becoming one of the nicest exhibitor shows in the Province. The "Doggy Cocktail" (which to a great many folks means a hearty snack before starting the long journey home), has always been a most pleasant get-to-gether atfer the show, and this year was no exception.

It is always gratifying to see so many of the old established kennels represented, such as Acadia Lodge, Cranmore, Glanrobin, Kaukauna, Spruce, and many, many others. The largest entry was in German Shepherds, from which came the Best in Show dog. Judges Faye and Don Fitzgerald were their usual relaxed and smiling selves, in spite of having just completed Maritime Circuit and the long and arduous drive to reach the show.

Around The Show: Mac Stephens and Hazel Slaughter beaming as they came out of the Sheltie ring — Pat Detmold's group of English Setters making as pretty a picture as the ones Pat paints — Mrs. Bert Collins, so well after a long siege of illness, watching keenly from ringside as Bert, their daughter, Pat, and granddaughter, Norma competed for top honors in Scotties — So many exhibitors either changing their long-time favourites for new, or adding another breed to their kennels, such as Edith Henderson, her Pomeranian sitting amidst her Miniature Poodles; the Eleys with a Bulldog in addition to the Boxers they've had for a while; Charlie Baker switching from Cockers to Labs; Pam Mack, of Corgi fame, in the ring with her Saluki pup and mentioning she had recently purchased another one in New York; The Reids Italian Greyhounds a sharp contrast to the Miniature Schnauzers; and the Lacroix' Miniature Pinschers joining their Shelties and Samoyeds.

All in all, a good show, with a special mention going to that hard working couple, Fred Rohrbach. and his charming wife.

SOMETHING TO BRAG ABOUT

Glanrobin's Maid of the Mist, 15" Beagle owned by Fred and Jo Grant, picked up five points at the Baystate Beagle Specialty, Berkley, Mass., her first American show.

Joan Lagimodiere happy about her recent Best Canadian Bred in Show win with Standard Smooth Dachshund, Lomisis Righteous, and advising she has added a new black and tan stud dog to her kennels, Banner of the Walls.

In obedience, Helen McGill's Collie, Invardine's Pal 2nd continues to add to his remarkable record, with Highest score in Trial at Amsterdam, N.Y. and a tie for Highest score in Trial at Schenectady, to complete his American C.D.

The young Pekingese, St. Aubrey Marquis of Elsdon, whose first show was at Three Rivers, went on to Great Barrington and Newtown, Mass., to go Best of Winners both days for two majors. His owners, Bill Taylor and Nigel Aubrey-Jones report that at those two shows Winners Bitch, Reserve Winners Bitch, Winners Dog, Best of Winners, Best of Breed and Best Opp. Sex were won by their entries.

Mrs. Adams' Skye Terrier, Talisker's Fairy Wonder, making his American debut with new handler Bill Trainor, placed first in a very strong group at Great Barrington, Mass.

POT POURRI

Laura McNally is keeping very busy in Schipperke affairs, being, among other things, A.K.C. Gazette columnist for this year, Canadian reporter for the U.S. Schipperke Bulletin, and editor of the Trans-Canada Schipperke Topics.

Mr. Albert Lapointe and Mrs. J. M. Hudon of Quebec City, breeders of some fine Pekingese, have recently imported a very nice Pomeranian from the Hadleigh Kennels in England.

Recent visitors from California were Frank Sabella, top handler this year in the U.S., and Mrs. Vera Crofton, who took back several Pekingese from the kennels of Nigel Aubrey-Jones and Bill Taylor.

Dolly Varden's Spotty (Susie), a parti-coloured American Cocker owned by Miss Kay Harrison, is thought to be one of the oldest dogs in Canada still active in Obedience. Now 14½, she was the first Canadian bred American Cocker to obtain a Canadian U.D.T., has passed four consecutive tracking tests, and two years ago won the M.D.O.T.C. Racine Trophy for highest scoring dog in the Club. Active in Trials until last year, she is still being entered in club competitions and Kay hopes to compete for a long time to come.

E. C. ST. JOHN GREENE, Borden Place, Canning, N.S. Numerous breeds. RCN service, former attaché to Finland and Sweden.

September shows started with Halifax Kennel Club's 28th, all-breed show in the Forum on September 1 with Edwin Pickhardt of Conn. sorting out the conformation classes and Miss Lois Burpee of Moncton the obedience. Mr. Pickhardt, who is a Collie breeder, selected for Best in Show honours the 13-15" Beagle Can. and Am. Ch. Hound Hollow's Happy Wanderer, bred and owned by John LeMoine of Amherst.

It has been a long time since exhibitors have received cash awards for wins made by entries, but the Halifax club presented Best of Breed winners with $5.00 if there were ten or more entries in the breed or $3.00 for breeds with six to nine entries. Among the 165 dogs entered were some which came from such faraway places as Quebec, Ontario and Maryland, U.S.A.

It is to be regretted that more Collies and Shetland Sheepdogs were not entered under Edwin Pickhardt, who has been a Collie fancier since high school days and whose Champion Sterling Starmist has become one of the pillars of the breed.

While on the subject of Shetland Sheepdogs, the following culled from the A.K. Gazette is passed along: "Anybody having ear problems at teething time? Have recently seen a little plastic gadget, developed by Larry Ackley, 4832 Frieda Dr., Los Angeles 65, which can be purchased for 35c. This is taped to a puppy's ear with the Johnson tape which has holes in it, so the ear can be greased, and though Mr. Ackley makes no claims that it will cure a truly pricked ear, he has found it to be quite effective on young puppy's".

Among other canine matter gleaned during your correspondent's reading the following from the columns of the English weekly The Field is of interest. Lady Kitty Ritson writes from Cape Province regarding dog's ability to smell death. "Some years ago I was training at one of the German schools for police-dog training. One morning the instructor of our particular squad kept one of the young policemen back to show him something he wanted him to do with his bitch. The rest of us went to the kennels, which faced the other way and were some distance from where we worked. We were busy feeding our respective dogs when they all threw up their heads and howled in an extraordinary way. It must have lasted about a minute, and I have never heard the same noise before or since. The instructor told us later that he trains stars

Remember Skipper, the valiant terrier who appeared in the old Our Gang comedy series? Remember Buck, the St. Bernard who starred in Call of the Wild? These and countless other canine stars were trained by John Darch of Agincourt.

In his 27 years as an animal trainer he has schooled four-legged actors, bodyguards, circus performers and track stars.

Latest achievement is soon to be seen in the full-length, color musical film, Ten Girls Ago. For this film, made near Toronto, he trained seven dogs whose co-stars are Bert Lahr, Buster Keaton, Eddie Foy Jr. and starlet Jennifer Billingsley. (Dogs, September, 1962).

Lahr's constant companion in the movie is a young Basset Hound named Pokey, owned by Miss Joan Rusznyak of Toronto. Darch had but two months to train this eager young Basset basic Obedience and his role as buddy of the "has been" vaudeville actor whose ambition is to overthrow television and get his also-ran buddies back in business. Chief training aid was a weiner. Every morning Mr. Lahr's shoes were carefully rubbed with a weiner. Pokey followed those shoes like a shadow. And every evening after work the eight-month-old actor was given the weiner. No other person was permitted to hand the frankfurter to him, and in no time at all Mr. Lahr was his hero.

Mr. Darch is well-known as a trainer in both Canada and the United States, and for many years was professor for RKO Studios animal actors in California. At one time he was on tour with a horse act, but a steeplechase accident put an end to the act — and the horse.

For a time he was in racetrack news when he raced 22 Greyhounds on American tracks.

Skipper is probably his most memorable student. "He'd sit up on his hind legs, balancing a match box on his nose while holding a cigaret in his mouth. When I stepped back 15 feet away and took my whip, I'd make two fine cuts in the cigaret. On the last cut Skip would drop the butt, catch the match box in his mouth and do a back flip with a half twist. He was a terrific performer and a great clown."

This modern white building is home to waifs and strays in Bermuda. Spacious and airy, it overlooks a lush valley of tall trees, and flowering shrubs. It is the result of a drive sparked by a group of aggressive members of the Bermuda SPCA who were determined to make life more than bearable for the poor lost ones.

Plans for the Fall series of International Championship Shows and Obedience Trials (four shows and four trials with a break to allow for sightseeing) are already well on their way, with the Show Committee Entertainment Chairman hard at work planning tours, trips and cocktail parties for visitors and members.

Breed judges will be William McDerment and Stan Whitmore from Canada with Derek Raynes and J. W. Trullinger from the United States. Mr. and Mrs. Milo Pearsall of Holbrook, N.Y. and Mrs. Adrian Lightbourne of Bermuda will judge the trials. The club has also planned a Sanction Match for September 16 to give the "young blood" some experience before the big shows.

Marion Chasty's Miniature Poodle, English Bred Kingarth Karonesta (Bda. C.D.) made her American CD last month.

Among the new arrivals: The Rans Bullmastiff, English bred Bullstaff Juliette, had a lovely litter of eight puppies. Sire: Can., Am. and Bda. Ch. Ritter's Beau, owned by the Mongs of Hartsdale, N.Y. Beau (Dogs, August, 1962), has been named "Dog of the Year" by the Bullmastiff Breeders Society of America. The Misses Saville and North's two American Cocker litters have arrived (dam, Qualine Mavis Barleycorn, sire, Settles Snow Fella, and dam, Woodlane Second Glance, sire Ch. Woodhouse Old Hickory respectively. The Alec Fosters' Normandee's Nimblefoot of Paget, Golden Retriever bred by BKC President Mrs. Norman Bach, had ten puppies (nine males) by Lorelei's Flambeau of Paget. Angelina Mocklow's Canadian bred Black Labrador Retriever, Middleton Princess, had seven lovely puppies. Sire, English bred Foxhanger Minstrel, owned by Mrs. Ambrose Gosling. Mrs. Jerome Levine's Chihuahus, both imported from England, have a family of five. Vivian Faries' Pekingese Sun Beau of Dah-Lyn, sired a litter by Wee Ming, owned by an American family in Bermuda. Both Pekes are American bred.

Harriet Dias, Carol Barnes and Annette Frith are off again to take their dogs on another overseas circuit, this time to the States. ■

by MARGARET NESS

Over 100 years ago a little Skye Terrier, called Bobby, followed his master's coffin to Greyfriars Churchyard in Edinburgh, Scotland, and became a legend. For 14 years Bobby remained near the grave. Once he was even arrested as a vagrant. The magistrate made him a charge on the city for his food. Finally, old and ill, he was taken to Edinburgh Castle where he jumped over the wall in a fatal attempt to escape. He did return to the grave, died there and was buried nearby.

A book was written about the dog and called Greyfriars' Bobby. It entranced children. Tourists always visited the grave. A drinking fountain with a statue of Bobby was erected in the street outside the graveyard, with the inscription: "a tribute to the affectionate fidelity of Greyfriars Bobby. In 1858 this faithful dog followed the remains of his master to Greyfriars churchyard and lingered near the spot until his death in 1872."

Since World War II, the story has been bypassed for newer, favorite animals, although never quite forgotten. Not as many people visited Bobby's grave. But this last year, Walt Disney has produced the story of Bobby and reawakened interest in the little dog. When I visited the graveyard, two American women were there. They had seen the movie and just had to pay their respects to Bobby. ■

FACTS and FANCIES

Q. When dogs vomit, some dog owners add salt and indicate that this helps stop the vomiting. Is this logical?

A. Vomiting in dogs can be caused by many factors including insufficient chlorine in their bodies. If common salt (sodium chloride) is added in very small quantities, the dogs can replenish their chlorine supply and usually the vomiting will stop. Frequent vomiting, excess urination, or too frequent bathing of dogs tends to deplete their salt reserve and can have a detrimental effect on dogs.

Some veterinarians recommend the addition of 10 drops of concentrated hydrochloric acid to a quart of dog's drinking water each day. The concentrated hydrochloric acid can be dangerous to the dog owner unless handled carefully and the dog's water container must be glass or pottery. If the dog's water container is galvanized, then excess zinc may be absorbed by the "acid" water and cause a zinc toxicity.

Vomiting can also be caused by irritation of the digestive tract, sore teeth, or by some heart problems.

One teaspoonful of salt for a 30 pound dog and proportionally more or less for other size dogs supplies ample chlorine. The salt can be added in the water or on the food.

Q. Why do some dogs tend to eat their own droppings? Is this vice due to parasitism, dietary deficiency, or something else?

A. Coprophagy, a term applied to the consumption of feces, can be produced by too close confinement, disease which has caused the pancreas to degenerate, and by boredom. It has generally been found that providing more exercise for the dog, allowing the dog more room, and letting the dog see what goes on will normally help stop this vice. Sometimes dog owners will use kerosene in a squirt-type oil can and squirt the droppings soon after they are produced. This will help repel the dogs. The oral administration of glutamic acid in capsules has been successful in some cases since it apparently makes the droppings relatively unpalatable.

Sometimes the addition of a teaspoonful of salt to the ration of a 30 pound dog each day will help prevent coprophagy. Others have found that one tablespoonful of steamed bone meal or dicalcium phosphate added to the dog's diet each day will help prevent this vice. None of these solutions seem to work for all dogs. It is recommended that dogs that are chronic offenders be checked by the veterinarian for parasites and atrophy of the pancreas since coprophagy is a characteristic of the atrophied pancreas. ■

DOGS & PEOPLE

Travellers: Mrs. Helen Roy, (Kel-Tara Kennels), accompanied by her two children and two Kerries, enjoyed an 8,000-mile motor trip from Vancouver to Montreal this summer. These Kerry Blue Terrier fanciers met other Kerry enthusiasts and attended the Kerry Blue Clinic at Orono, Ont.

Ill: Mrs. Marion Maher, Hornell, N.Y., who with her husband, Fran, is well-known to many Canadian readers through the Southern Tier Kennel Club show and their Shelties.

Died: Mr. William Marriott of Hespeler, Ont., grand old man of Canadian dog showdom. He was a familiar sight with his Can. Am. Ch. Jonaire Pocono Gladiator, top winning Miniature Schnauzer. Sympathy to his daughter, Mrs. Hugh Simpson and family.

Mrs. Pearl Currie, Barrie, Ont., writes that her female Chow Chow, Currie's Tanya of Marhal, CD, obtained her second "leg" toward her U.S. Obedience CD title at the Tonawanda Valley KC show held at Batavia, N.Y., June 16, with a score of 195½, placing fourth highest scoring dog in an entry of 19 in Novice "A". Tanya's kennel mate, Ghat's Guy of Marhal, obtained his third "leg" at the Oshawa Obedience Association trial held September 2 with a score of 194, highest score in an entry of ten in Novice "A", finishing his Canadian CD. At this trial Mrs. Currie was awarded a handsome trophy for being the Highest Scoring Lady Handler at the trial. She gives credit to the expert training received at the North York Obedience Club training classes.

All the above were either sired by a homebred dog or out of a homebred bitch.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

The Livestock Pedigree Act, 1949, states; 'Not withstanding anything in the by-laws of an association incorporated under this or any other act, no person shall be deprived of the right to register or transfer purebred live-stock unless he has violated or is reasonably suspected by an association to have violated

(a) a by-law of an association relating to elegibility for registration, establishment of production credentials or payment of fees,
(b) Section 16 or 17 of the act, or
(c) any provision of the Animal Contagious Diseases Act or the regulations thereunder relating to the identification, marking or testing of animals.

By-laws of the Canadian Kennel Club in Chapter 7, sec. 2 outlines who shall not be eligible to enjoy membership in The Canadian Kennel Club which reads — No person, partnership or company shall be eligible for or continue to enjoy membership who:

(b) is engaged in the breeding, buying or selling of dogs which are not purebred; or
(c) is indebted to the club or the publishers of the official organ for advertising or other services for a longer period than three months after the account is due unless satisfactory arrangements have been made for the payment of same.

Chapter 16, sec. 16 of the Dog Show Rules states: The show-giving club shall, IMMEDIATELY upon receipt of entries, notify by mail the person making the entry that the entries have been received. The notifications shall also state whether or not the entries have been accepted, or in case of non-acceptance the fee will be returned with reason for non-acceptance. The notification shall contain the judging program indicating approximate time that the breeds will be judged.

•

Chapter 4 sec. 4 subsec(g) in explaining the entry for Exhibition Only reads in part . . . the same particulars must be given as if entered in one of the regular classes and if not registered in The Canadian Kennel Club Stud Book, a listing fee of 25c must be paid . . . Chapter 16 sec. 2 reads in part . . . the entry of a 'listed' dog at a show held under these rules (sanction show excluded) must be accompanied by a listing fee of $1.00 . . .

Section 11 of Chapter 3 of the Regulations and Standards for Obedience Trials states: No judge shall require any dog or handler to do anything, NOR PENALIZE a dog or handler for failing to do anything, which is not required by these Regulations and Standards . . . In Section 6 of Chapter 2 it gives the requirements for the Stand For Examination . . . the handler will stand OR POSE his dog . . .

No place in the Regulations and Standards does it state at what speed a handler must walk. It does say at a brisk pace, but this could mean quite different things to different people. A brisk pace for one might be very slow for another. The dog is not penalized for slowness in working as long as it is continuously working and not lagging in any way.

In Chapter 1, Section 7, Subsection 5 of the Obedience Regulations and Section 2 of Chapter 16 of the Dog Show Rules both outline the dogs that may be listed as 'listed' dogs. In both cases it states in part . . . that the litter of which it is part or the whole has been registered in accordance . . . the second section deals ONLY with dogs not born in Canada. Therefore a dog which has a parent that is not registered COULD NOT be entered as a 'listed' dog at any show or trial.

Irish Water Spaniels are run with Retrievers in Field Trials NOT with Spaniels. Brittany Spaniels are run with Pointers and Setters NOT with Spaniels.

The color of ribbons given for Field Trials for class or stake placings correspond to those given at dog shows: First, blue; second, red; third, yellow; fourth, white; special prize, green.

There is NO list of approved judges for Field Trials, such as there is for Obedience or Conformation Judges.

The approval for Judges at a Field Trial need be in to The Canadian Kennel Club two months prior to the Trial date. For Obedience one month and for Show four months.

The entry form for a Field Trial must include the name of the handler if the dog is not to be handled by the owner or one of his immediate family. (Section 1, Chapter 7.).

Chapter 14 under the heading of Veterinarians states that 'Every dog must be examined by the veterinarian before it is admitted to and benched at a show . . .

At the present time there are no printed rules for conducting a Sanction Show except those appearing on page 1 of the Dog Show Rules. ■

Stateside NEWS

Many American Show Superintendents send Dogs in Canada premium lists for the shows they conduct 'south of the border'. Interested Canadian exhibitors may have any perintinent facts on these shows upon request.

Exhibitors from Canada will be travelling, in large numbers, across the border to the Progressive Kennel Club All-breed show to be held in Detroit on the Canadian Thanksgiving Day weekend.

Poodles led all breeds in show competition during 1961 with 17,303, a gain of 9% over 1960. German Shepherds come second (16,670), an increase of 7%. When one considers that the figure for Poodles include the three varieties (Toy, Miniature and Standard) it speaks well for the Shepherds and the next few breeds. Dachshunds, 12,388 (2% increase); American Cockers, 11,943 (5% loss); Boxers, 10,398, (1% drop). Siberian Huskies showed the highest increase, 45% to 51st place with 1,021. One surprising feature noticed in these statistics is that although German Shepherds made one of the top placings in entries they tied for 14th spot in the number of Champions made in the year. Poodles again led in this department with 284 followed by American Cockers, 221; Dachshunds, 200; Chihuahuas 114; Beagles 106; Miniature Schnauzers 94; Pomeranians 89; Doberman Pinschers 84; Fox Terriers 81; Boxers 76; Boston Terriers 76; Shetland Sheepdogs and German Shepherds each with 74.

Out of the 16,147 entries in the Novice Obedience Classes (an increase of 1.9%) 3,021 took CD Degrees. This dropped considerably in Open competition with 729 degrees in 11,242 entries (decrease of 0.07%) Tracking dropped 25.9% to 131 entries but 33 TD degrees were awarded.

In Field Trial Competition Beagles had 54,778 starters in 397 trials. 288 dogs received the title F.T.Ch. Pointing breeds with 11,950 starters in 195 trials had 60 degrees awarded. Retrievers, 11,130 starters in 115 trials, had 45 degrees. Spaniels, in 34 trials, had 1,778 starters and only 13 F.T.Ch's. Canadians take note! Bassets had 11 trials, 771 starters and 12 F.T.Ch's. Dachshunds held only one trial with 26 starters and one F.T.Ch.

Produces both brindles and fawns — no whites. Thor has an excellent head — perfect bite — deep chest and good front — good topline — excellent rear end and moves like a working dog should. He produces pups in his own likeness — all this and good temperament too. Available now — a plain fawn female by Thor out of my English-sired bitch. Would make good brood bitch for any kennel.

producing worthwhile pups if a female and correctly mated.

Now it becomes obvious why breeder, exhibitor and judge must have a very specific standard of excellence for each breed — the description in detail of the perfect specimen. The standard must describe in detail the structure of each part, its relationship to every other part and the final proof of correct structure, perfection of gait.

To understand any good standard, one must then know the basic anatomy. He must know the characteristics of soundness. He must know the characteristics of correct gait and how to recognize them.

It is the purpose of this series of articles to describe basic anatomy and later basic sound gait. ■

In the lower picture are featured some of our "Fall Crop" of Corgi puppies. They are by Can. Am. Ch. Macksons Golden Sceptre Can. and Am. C.D. out of Ch. Macksons Cordon Rouge and Ch. Macksons Climax. Some of these puppies will be retained for future show and breeding stock and several are booked to go to breeders to enhance their kennels.

As well as our ever-popular American Cocker Spaniels, we have added this year, to the kennel, two young Saluki bitches and hope, with their excellent bloodlines, to make this rare old breed better known in this area.

To Joan Layton, again our grateful thanks for her fine portraiture of our dogs and her patience and imagination in presenting them in such appealing poses to acquaint the general public with the endearing qualities of the Pembroke Welsh Corgi. ■ services for "all breeds"

. . . Having been a director of our local Humane Society for over 25 years, I am always delighted when interest in animal welfare is activated. The Editor's column in the April issue was of particular interest to me, as a few years ago my husband and I attended several services held for animals in church. The Cathedral Church of the Good Shepherd in London held an Animal Service on the first Sunday in every month. Following the service a "tea-party" was held in the basement of the church. At one time the animals included a burro, goat, lamb, dogs, cats, ducks, hampsters and rabbits. Appropriate food for "all breeds" was provided. Children who had no live pets were encouraged to bring a beloved animal toy for the service. At the conclusion every animal was individually blessed, all behaving with utmost dignity.

system, majors would be a practical impossibility. Therefore, the only practical way I can see to make majors possible for these unusual breeds is to give them the highest number of points of any breed below them in the group. I think it would be practical. I think it would be equitable. And anything that is practical, equitable and would result in our champions being regarded a little more highly — I am for." ■

Realize that popularity can't be won by judging.

You must not be swayed by information given without request. All negative virtues, except blindness, are required in fact.

You must pay as much attention in going over the obviously poor specimen as you do in going over an equally obviously good one. All exhibitors pay the same fee for your opinion and are entitled to the same consideration.

When performing the duties of judge, stand in the centre of the ring and send the dogs around two or three times, so you can gain a general impression.

Along with each dog as judged, should be a mental picture of the desired ideal. There is only one yardstick you can use and that is comparison to the breed standard and being able to interpret it. This is where knowledge is required, and without which you are lost.

Perhaps now is the time to reply to some questions generally.

One of the things a woman most appreciates when travelling away from home to judge, is that accommodation and restaurant facilities be good. Being practical, there are some places where a man would not feel out of place but where a woman would be most uncomfortable. Hence these two essentials. I would like to add that, in all the travelling I have done, arrangements made by the clubs in this respect have been excellent.

Another thought appreciated is previous receipt of a premium list and advice on the best method of travel. It is a little disconcerting to say the least, to arrive at your destination, not knowing where the show at which you are to judge is being held, the starting time, etc.

Once in the ring, a woman becomes the judge, and therefore should not expect special consideration. Most certainly, a woman can judge equally as well as a man, because it boils down to the fact that sex is immaterial, provided you have the know-how. Ability comes by constant usage of experience gained.

During my years of judging there has always been, and still is, a keen delight in seeing a top-quality specimen come into the ring, the joy in going over its anatomy, knowing this is a "real un".

Two dogs that come to mind swiftly, shown in recent years and which, to my knowledge, are not being shown at the present time, carry the very essence of the breed standard – Ch. Talisker Fairy Wonder, one of the most beautiful Skye Terriers it was my privilege to judge, and Ch. Poodhall Gus, who, it cannot be denied, is one of the "greats" in the Poodle world.

In conclusion, may I give a word of caution to breeders – don't lose sight of the overall picture of the dog. Don't breed for one particular feature and lose the rest. It's so easy to lose the essentials and oh, so very hard to breed them back. ■ advantage. Let me illustrate. At a show recently I was complimenting a very widely known and very successful breeder and exhibitor on his Best in Show win.

"He's a beautiful dog," I said. "But it doesn't hurt him that you are on the other end of the lead."

The owner bridled.

"Certainly," he said "my reputation insures that my dogs will get consideration, for the judges know I don't bring bums into the ring. But have you ever noticed the form of consideration. The judges are on them almost before I have them set up. They go over them far more thoroughly than any other dog in the ring. They make me move the dog and then they make me move him again. You've done it. What's the answer?"

I had judged this man's dogs and I did have the answer in his particular case. I was fairly sure he would not bring a bad one into a show and fairly sure I was going to have to give his dog serious consideration. But I was also sure I was not going to put up an inferior specimen merely because he had brought it into the ring. So I had given it a very, very thorough going-over to make sure it would be fully deserving of any award I might give.

So, being well known and successful in the game can be a handicap as well as a help. more overleaf

What has the exhibitor the right to expect from the judge? First of all he has paid a certain number of dollars for the judge's opinion of his dog. He has the right therefore to expect that before a judge accepts an assignment to judge his breed that the judge has a good working knowledge of what makes a good specimen of that breed. He has the right to expect that his dog will be fully examined and its merits and faults honestly appraised. He has a right to expect that the dog will be honestly placed according to this appraisal. And he has the right to courteous consideration while he is in the ring.

And what has the judge the right to expect from an exhibitor? First I'd suggest that courtesy is a two way street and included in the courtesies from exhibitor to judge would be promptness in getting the dog into the ring and evidence that the dog has been schooled in at least the rudiments of show ring procedure.

In this article I've tried to touch on highlights, as I see them. Gilbert and Sullivan wrote "A Policeman's Lot is not a Happy One." The same may well be said of a dog show judge. When we're right, there'll be many who will think we are wrong — including our fellow judges who tomorrow will put down the dog we put up today. But judging dogs is not an exact science. It can't be done with a slide rule. A judge's personal preference for things such as movement, style, head, body and things such as that will always enter into his decision. And as long as this personal preference is based on things canine and not human I have no objection to a judge saying tomorrow that I was wrong today.

I too have been beaten with what I considered the better dog. I too have said "Well next week it will be a good judge."

It's these honest differences of opinion among judges I think that insures the continuity of the dog game. The casualty rate among exhibitors would be more than the game could stand if every judge placed them the same way and if the results were a foregone conclusion the day that the entries closed.

So there is a difference in placings. As far as I am concerned my reaction is the same as that of the Frenchman who had only one comment when the difference between male and female was being discussed.

I echo that comment.

"Vive la difference."

It keeps both the human race and our Dog Show Rules. ■

THE BEST OF VARIETY

It's a dog's life

I have a female Dachshund of which I think a great deal. I took her out in the country in my car one day, and on the way home stopped to read directions on a sign. The dog jumped out of the car unnoticed. To my surprise, when I arrived home, there was no dog in the back seat. Anxiously I drove back 30 miles, and there she was — sitting at the side of the road, patiently awaiting me. We were both very pleased to see each other.

Mrs. Maggie Hammond, Brandon, Man.

Exhibitor: Doctor, you've got to help me. I can't even remember important show dates anymore.
Psychiatrist: How long has this been going on?
Exhibitor: How long has what been going on?

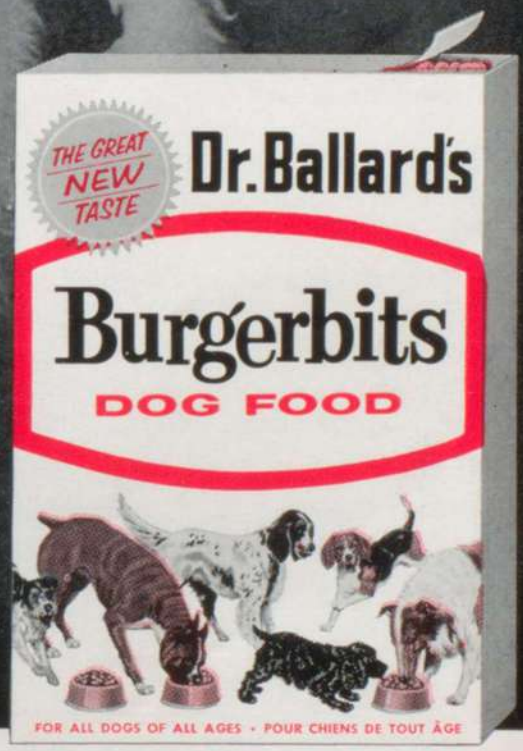

"Lady," said the little boy. "If you give us a quarter my brother will imitate a dog."
"What will he do? Bark?"
"No, lady, not a cheap imitation like that. He'll chase a cat for you."

The expectant mother decided to break the news to her little girl. "Darling," she started, "would you like a little sister or a little brother?"
"Well, if it wouldn't put you out of shape too much, mummy," she replied, "I'd rather have a Poodle." ■

Kennel Tests Prove New Burgerbits gives dogs the taste they really like...the solid nutrition they need.

The Great New Taste* of Burgerbits

now in "flavour-kernel" form

Here's the dog food that kennel tests proved superior to all others in palatability and nutrition.

Dogs tested preferred new Burgerbits . . . thrived on new Burgerbits.

Here's why:

Increased Fat Content, with an improved fat-protein ratio, gives unsurpassed palatability, maintains glossy coats and healthy skin, helps prevent shedding.

New Flavour-Kernels. Smooth preformed kernels of uniform size and shape eliminate jagged, uneven particles and dust of ordinary dog foods. Spray coating of natural meat fats locks in flavour, protects nutrients.

Aids Digestion. New Burgerbits is expanded to gelatinize starches for easier digestion.

Less Porous. Crunchier consistency helps keep teeth, gums and jaw healthy . . . absorbs liquids without getting mushy . . . feeding pans clean easily without scraping or scouring.

Exceeds NRC Requirements for daily nutritional intake, providing a complete and balanced diet.

Feed Dry or Wet. Kennel tests prove that many dogs prefer Burgerbits dry. Fed wet, Burgerbits retains the crunchy texture and meaty aroma dogs really enjoy.

Special Professional Discounts. As with all of Dr. Ballard's Dog Foods, new Burgerbits carries a special Kennel Discount. Your local representative will be pleased to provide you with details.
