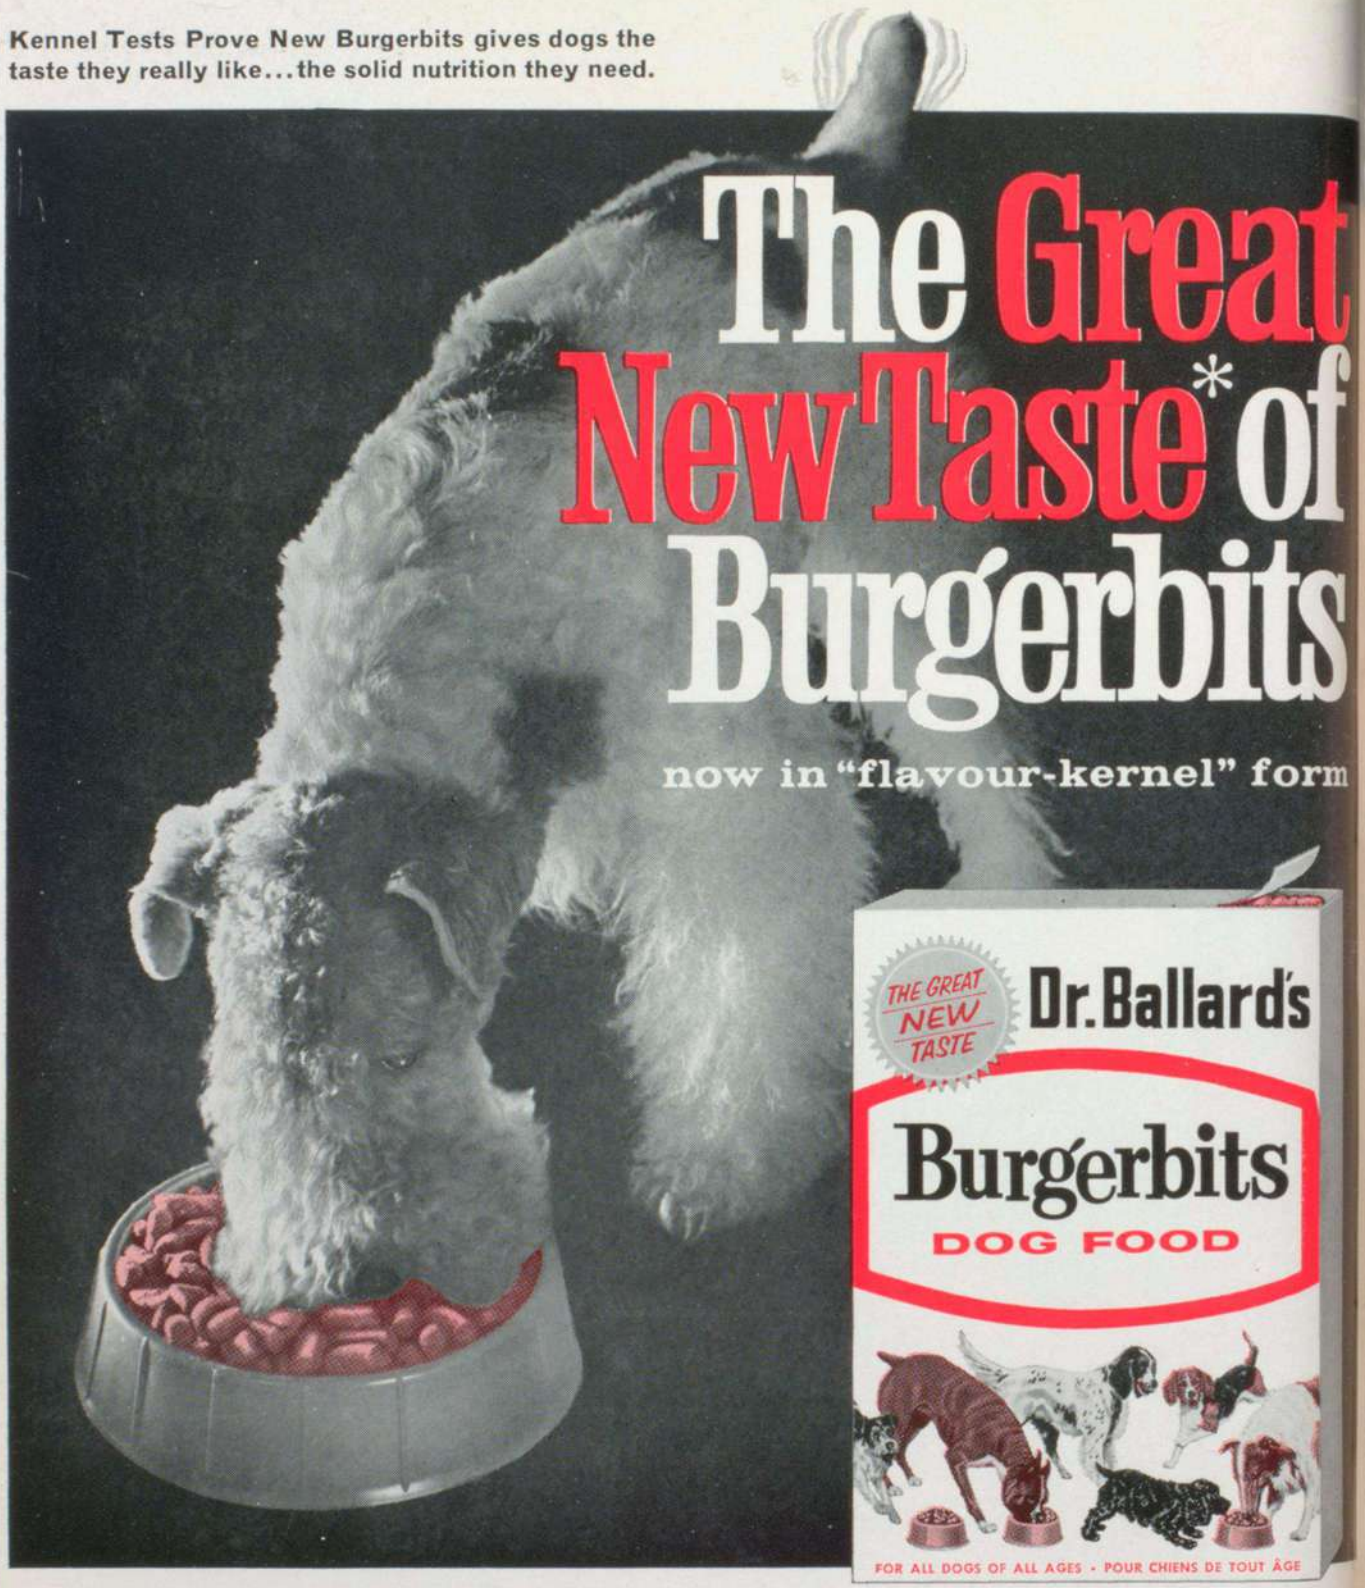
Kennel Tests Prove New Burgerbits gives dogs the taste they really like...the solid nutrition they need.



Here's the dog food that kennel tests proved superior to all others in palatability and nutrition.
Dogs tested preferred new Burgerbits . . . thrived on new Burgerbits.
Here's why:

Increased Fat Content, with an improved fat-protein ratio, gives unsurpassed palatability, maintains glossy coats and healthy skin, helps prevent shedding.

New Flavour-Kernels. Smooth preformed kernels of uniform size and shape eliminate jagged, uneven particles and dust of ordinary dog foods. Spray coating of natural meat fats locks in flavour, protects nutrients.

Aids Digestion. New Burgerbits is expanded to gelatinize starches for easier digestion.

Less Porous. Crunchier consistency helps keep teeth, gums and jaw healthy . . . absorbs liquids without getting mushy . . . feeding pans clean easily without scraping or scouring.

Exceeds NRC Requirements for daily nutritional intake, providing a complete and balanced diet.

Feed Dry or Wet. Kennel tests prove that many dogs prefer Burgerbits dry. Fed wet, Burgerbits retains the crunchy texture and meaty aroma dogs really enjoy.

Special Professional Discounts. As with all of Dr. Ballard's Dog Foods, new Burgerbits carries a special Kennel Discount. Your local representative will be pleased to provide you with details.

Our cover dog this year is our latest import, "Ja-Mar's Avenger of Arbor". "Rebel" is indeed a proud and noble animal with a faultless temperament and sweeping side gait. In fact, he mirrors his famous sire, Can. Grand Victor, American and Canadian Ch. Harry Von Donaukai, in almost every way.

This three-year-old has a top record in the show ring. He was Winners Dog at the Topline show under Earnest Loeb for four points and then under Dr. O. E. Wilson he took Best of Winners for three points from the American Bred Class. He again topped the large American Bred class at the German Shepherd Dog Club of America Specialty under Gustave Schindler in 1962 and then took his third major under specialist Manuel Lombardo late in 1962. "Reb" has always been considered and placed with the best competition in almost every area of the U.S.A. and he will be campaigned by F. A. "Chum" Porter for the remaining three points to complete his American Championship. We invite you to visit our new boy at any time, as we feel that he is one of the top dogs in Canada at this time. He is at stud until finished for $75.00. Also at stud: Donami's Commander Etzel $50.00 (Wendy-Harry son) and Von Nassau's Marcus (A Frack son) $50.00.

Our Canadian and American Ch. Sussex-Leigh's Wendy of Donami Can. and Am. C. D. has seven uniform black and tan puppies in her litter by Harry V. Donaukai. This will produce some outstanding show prospects and we have three females for sale.

We are indeed proud of the show records of our young Wendy offspring. Donami's Destiny, our Ulk Wikingerblut daughter, took home the "blues" at her American ring debut at seven months of age in top competition. Two Wendy grandchildren swept the German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada Annual Puppy Match of 43 entries under Mr. Donald Ames this spring. "Jet", owned by Joe Cordona, took a three point win the following weekend at the Buffalo Specialty under Irvin Apelbaum and not to be outdone, his wee sister "Cindy" gaited to a three point win under Mrs. Edna Joel here in Canada.

. . . Would like to voice my experience in buying purebred Boxers and see if anyone can come up with an answer as to how you can purchase a purebred Boxer, paid for in full or deposit made, and secure registration of dog in your name in reasonable length of time after purchase. I have secured two Boxers from two different highly recommended kennels both on the east and west coasts. These Boxers were sold to me as high show prospects.

After paying in full for the dogs, I had to take legal action to get my papers. Likewise the kennel owners I dealt with are very angry with me and have severed relations indefinitely. I feel I do not deserve such treatment and would like others' opinions.

feels complaints justified

. . . Re your Memo from the Editor, June, 1963. You seem to have a series of complaints, . . . and of course the blame belongs on the "poor sports" who have only paid their entry fees and have been cheated by a judge, who is obligated to a big breeder, or a director who breeds, or a CKC representative who breeds or perhaps another judge who breeds show dogs.

What you don't admit, or understand, is that the people are showing their displeasure at the unfairness and crookedness displayed at these dog shows. It is bad enough to be cheated, but when one pays to be cheated, that rankles. There are a few people left who are true sportsmen.

What is so appalling to me is the attitude of the CKC members of our local kennel clubs . . .

A short time ago a new ruling came into effect barring show secretaries, ring stewards and other officials from showing dogs in their home shows. This is "pouring water on smoke and not putting the fire out". If the judges are straightforward this ruling is unnecessary, but it seemed necessary to the CKC to pass it. Why?

How does one "better the breed by promoting poor dogs to champions?" . . . Also I would like to see all judges barred from exhibiting dogs.

If you think these expressions of opinion unfair and without fact, I suggest readers study the official records . . .

One thing I know — people won't be leaving early, they'll be staying away.

on training, cruelty, humanity

. . . As the owner of a beloved Shepherd, I was happy to read the March story by Mrs. Natalie Maydanski, chosen as Canada's Champion Breeder and in the April issue, the fine article by Mary Southcott, followed by the tribute to Ch. Rocket of Cara Mia.

May I comment on the opinions expressed by Mr. Harry Dean on harsh versus kind training methods? Most of us remember that the chief proponent of kindness methods is the grandaddy of them all, Lee Duncan, of "Rin-Tin-Tin" fame. Mr. Dean would have it that the personification of harshness methods is Bill Koehler, who among other things has handled all the dogs in Walt Disney's recent movies.

It is true that Mr. Koehler's new book will probably upset a lot of wishy-washy Canadian and American "dog lovers", who are either incapable of or unwilling to train their dogs and in fact believe that any attempt whatsoever to interfere with a dog's natural proclivities constitutes "Cruelty"! Your readers should know, however, that it opens with an affidavit as to his qualifications which include the winning of three Humane Achievement Awards for dogs in motion pictures and the training of over 11,500 dogs. His belief is that it is far more cruel to confuse and ruin a dog by ignorant and ineffectual methods, than to do the job in an intelligent way and have as a result a well behaved and responsive, happy dog.

A superficial examination of his book may prove misleading, but the harsh methods are reserved for incorrigible and delinquent dogs, who because of the

FROM THE EDITOR

"TRADE in your old dog for a new pup". So invites an advertisement in a recent newspaper.

What an enterprising idea! What new evidence of heartlessness. The kennels offering this latest form of trade-in could well trade in any claim to humanity, any right to respect. It is asking for a short stay in business, which is the only bright prospect of such an offer.

Just what becomes of the traded-in dog? Is it given away to face who knows what kind of treatment? Is it sold for a few dollars? Is it put to sleep? The advertisement gives no hint.

So much for the despicable idea. What kind of person would be susceptible to such a suggestion? Certainly almost any one of us has wondered at times what to do with an aging dog—for its own sake as well as the owner's. And particularly if its declining years have brought incurable ill health. Who hasn't seen an adorable pup – but declined from buying it because he or she already had a dog, and lack of space precluded an addition or lack of time has prevented the purchase.

Haven't you looked at the older dog with affection and gratefulness for its years of loyal companionship? How could anyone actually consider turning in a member of the family as if it were an inanimate thing like a fur coat or a car, coldly calculating depreciation or trade-in value?

And would the new pup fare any better? Care and attention in sickness and in health would be most unlikely. In his later years his chance of any return of loyalty would be minimal. The children in the family would grow up thinking the natural thing to do is get rid of a dog the minute he becomes a care or even uninteresting.

The kennel (or business) might claim to be doing a dog owner a favor by taking over the older dog and having him painlessly put to sleep by a veterinarian, where the owner could not bear to do so himself. This is highly unlikely.

The mechanics of this offer are not unlawful, according to a Canadian Kennel Club official.

Technically, agrees Ontario Humane General Manager Tom Hughes, it is not illegal. But, "It's a moral disgrace . . . a ghoulish thought."

If Dogs' readers, who surely will agree, learn of any such operation in their own community, it is hoped they will do everything within their own power and with the assistance of their clubs to stamp out such an operation.

stupidity of their owners are due to be destroyed or are causing serious trouble. Even Blanche Saunders advocates suitable punishment when necessary! If we cannot all be like Lee Duncan, we can at least make the attempt to train our dogs humanely and the Koehler system is going to be responsible for a lot of thoughtful owners and obedient animals.

Several months have gone by since Mr. Tom Hughes of the Ontario Humane Society dropped his bombshell in your pages that legalized murder of an unprecedented number of unwanted dogs was taking place annually in "Humane" centers across Canada. What, if anything, has been done? Has the dog world got together as he suggested to begin to improve the whole situation? No, Mr. Tony Cushing, your suggestion of overpenalizing dog owners financially is not the answer, but forcing them to complete a dog handling course at an approved school before gaining their licence might be! Let us strike deeper! There are many breeders, I am sure, who are happily engaged in mismating unsuitable though pedigreed animals, secure in the knowledge that for a small fee The Canadian Kennel Club will register the offspring sight unseen and then they will be sold to an ignorant and unqualified public to start the whole vicious circle over again!

I would like to close with a true story. A man of my acquaintance purchased a purebred Shepherd puppy from a legitimate kennel and was promised the papers as soon as they were to hand from Ottawa. Several months later, after the intercession of the President of the German Shepherd Club of Canada, and investigation by The Kennel Club and the threat of legal action he got his papers and is now the proud owner of a fully registered and completely unshowable long-haired shepherd. The so-called breeder had, in his wisdom, managed to come up with the wrong mating! Fortunately this man loves his dog and is keeping it, but someone else might have let it go or had it destroyed, which second course the breeder should have taken in the first place.

We badly need more breeders of the calibre of Mrs. Maydanski and Mary Southcott throughout the entire dog "fancy" and we need a new degree of cooperation from all of us who profess to love dogs if the present unhappy mess is ever to be improved.

. . . Lately I have been enquiring as to whether or not there is such a breed as a Toy White Eskimo Dog. I have seen one specimen of the breed, but I was not sure if this was the breed name. This dog was full grown, and was about the size of a Pomeranian, or a bit smaller. I would like to acquire a book on the breed. Could your readers write and tell me where I could locate someone who breeds these dogs? I hope the results from my letter are good.

the old timer

The Old Timer was just back from a cross-Canada motor trip and he was looking tanned and fit when I found him in the kennels working on one of his dogs.

"Anything interesting happen?" I asked when he sat down after putting the dog out into the run.

"Nothing much – but it seems to me that too many people are being too busy killing the goose that lays the golden egg," he answered.

"Geese? Golden eggs?" I queried. "I thought you wanted to talk dogs."

The Old Timer gave my comment the silence it deserved. He reached for his pipe – started to fill it – and then laid it down again.

"When I spoke of the goose and the golden egg I was speaking allegorically," he said "and if you don't know what an allegory is, then I suggest you consult your Oxford dictionary."

"All right," I answered "I'm chastened. Now what's the allegory."

The Old Timer reached for his pipe again. This time he finished filling it, reached for a match and when he had the pipe burning smoothly and drawing easily he unburdened himself.

"This trip," he said "has taken me right out to the Pacific Coast. I've been in a number of kennels. I've attended several dog shows. And I haven't liked everything I've seen."

I waited, for the Old Timer was pulling at the lobe of his right ear. He had tilted his chair back. Those were old signs that he was getting his thoughts in order and would carry on when he was ready.

"Now don't get me wrong," he said. "I met some fine, fine dog people. I saw dogs that would be a credit to any breed. And I saw some dogs, being shown by new owners in the show ring, that should have been home carrying a label 'for pet purposes only'."

"Is that unusual?" I asked. "Don't you get a proportion of bad dogs at any show? Don't a lot of novice owners enter in the belief that their pet is a perfect example of the breed, and isn't getting knocked down in the ring a part of the educational process that makes the novice an experienced dog man?"

The Old Timer shoved his fedora onto the back of his head. He relighted his pipe and thought for a moment.

"That's quite true," he said "but there was one significant thing about these pet specimens. I made it a point to look them up in the show catalogue and to talk to some of the owners. Not all the bad ones were locally bred. Indeed a high percentage of them had been bred by well known breeders whose stock, shown under their own names, is winning in good company here in Ontario.

"As I say I talked to the purchasers. In many many cases they had bought their dogs as potential show specimens and they had paid good show and breeding stock prices for them. All I can say is they didn't get too much for their money."

"But why blame the breeder? I asked. "You know and I know that a puppy can look like a world beater at three, four or five months and then be nothing at all when it matures. It can happen when there is all the good faith in the world."

"Of course it can," the Old Timer agreed. "But what I saw happened too often to be only a case of a promising puppy that matured badly. 'Mind you, I'm not using names – but certainly I got the impression that some of our top breeders are taking advantage of these inquiries from comparatively remote markets to get rid of some of their pet quality stock at show quality price."

"So that's the reason back of the reference to killing the goose that lays the golden egg?" I asked.

"Exactly that," he said. "Those people are not stupid. I met some of the most knowledgeable dog men I've ever met on this trip. And they are coming to the conclusion that too many of their novices are being sold a pup by some of the old established breeders. Indeed, I had several of them tell me that, unless they have personal knowledge of the integrity of a breeder, they are advising novices not to do any buying by mail from kennels here in the east."

"All right," I said "what is the answer?"

"One word gives it and that word is 'honesty.' And the quality of honesty is particularly essential when all the dealings are by mail and the customer has no opportunity of seeing his purchase until it arrives at the destination. When the purchaser is interested in buying a show specimen, let him be sold a show specimen. If the seller hasn't got a dog of show quality let him say so and recommend another kennel. Anything else is completely short-sighted, for a breeder can lose a dozen possible sales as a result of sending out just one bad specimen. And looking at it the other way, he can make a dozen by sending out one that winds up a Best in Show. He may lose a little on the swing, but he'll gain it on the merry-go-round, for nothing does more for a breeder than to have a dog carrying his kennel name prove a consistent winner under somebody else's ownership. The breeders of some of the dogs I saw should think of this for just a little while.

OBEDIENCE

Ed. O'Brien, Canfield, Ont., is well-known as Canada's leading professional trainer of dogs in Obedience work. He is a licensed Judge, one of Canada's first. He began his career in the West, training dogs for herding and other farm work. Since moving to Ontario he has specialized in training dogs for police and guard work and for disabled people. Mr. O'Brien also breeds German Shepherds and Dobermans.

Lately I've been wondering how much the personality of the owner affects the dog? Some people feel that the dog takes on the personality of the owner, that the pleasant, easy-going owner can always boast of a dog who is a friendly tail-wagger, while the vicious dog is actually a reflection of his owner's violent or hostile nature. But, in a good many cases, this is simply not true, in fact the opposite so often is the case that we wonder how dog and owner ever got together in the first place.

This has been brought to our attention recently at Edlyn through a dog we have with us for training. When he came to the kennels, this dog was possibly the most vicious dog we have ever been asked to train. And that is saying a good deal. In contrast to the dog, the owners are quiet, gentle people and yet the dog has attacked every stranger who came near him and has even bitten his owners more than once. Perhaps they are too gentle for anything but the most placid, easy-going dog for the one they now own should have been handled with great firmness from his puppyhood, and one wonders if they would have been able to do this, even had they recognized the need.

This is perhaps an exceptional case, in which the puppy's faults (at least partly inherited) were allowed to develop, instead of being checked at their first appearance. It is so much easier to head the dog in the right direction in puppyhood than to change his behavior pattern later, when he is an adult.

So many people seem to choose dogs totally unsuited to them. Large dogs are kept by folk who have restricted quarters: one man who boarded his dog with us every summer owned a large Dane, though he lived in a downtown apartment. Others will own dogs whose natures make it necessary for them to be able to get out and run each day if they are to retain a proper mental balance, yet the only exercise some of these dogs get is to be walked on a leash and possibly taken to a training class once a week. Thus, new owners should be careful in choosing their dogs. Most people need help in this and The Canadian Kennel Club could be of great service. We realize that, as well as definite breed characteristics, each dog, like each human being, has his own individual makeup, and some traits can be seen even in very young puppies.

Once the puppy is bought, a study must be made of his personality and when training commences it must be adapted to the temperament or nature of the dog. Nearly all dogs can be trained to be generally obedient, but we must bear in mind that on a percentage basis there are no more superior dogs than superior humans. Most dogs, like most humans, are pretty well run of the mill so do not become impatient with your dog if he cannot equal Rin Tin Tin and the other dog greats! Some of the owners did not look too good in school either, when compared with those brilliant classmates!

If we want an outstanding job done, even in Obedience Trial work, then we must take our time in selecting our dog. This naturally applies even more so when we move into the more advanced and serious lines of specialized work, such as hunting, herding, police and guard work. So, whether we are training Rover or Fido to be a reasonably well-behaved companion, or a champion in some particular field, we must adapt our manner of training to the individual dog. In Obedience, so much of the initial work is of a negative nature. "Don't do this, don't do that", that the dog has to be handled carefully or he becomes discouraged. This is the reason I am opposed to serious Obedience training for puppies.

Once training in Obedience does start, the nature of the dog soon becomes apparent. The bold, happy dog is a pleasure to handle. In the less courageous, we must take pains to build up his confidence. Most dogs are anxious to please, but too often the handler lacks the ability to show the dog what he wants him to do. Do not blame your dog for after all, he is only an animal. He cannot speak for himself and from his viewpoint, he is doing the right thing.

Over-petting is not good in a training program: by this, I mean petting and fondling the dog for no special reason other than to show your own affection. On the other hand, when the dog has accomplished the thing you have been trying to teach him, unlimited praise, both by patting and voice, should be given. The dog looks for praise, so do not let him down but be sure that he earns it. Outside of dogs that have been spoiled by poor management, practically all dogs can be disciplined by voice alone in their training. Words as words mean little to the dog but sounds, and particularly tone of voice, are important. You have to exaggerate to get your point over to the dog so the poorest attempt to do some new exercise calls for almost a celebration. Failing to do properly the thing he does know is most shameful and your tone should leave him in no doubt of this. •

special rates for bermuda

Good news for those whose budgets have prevented them from taking in the internationally famous Bermuda shows!

Three of the major hotels located in the Parish of Paget and near the exotic Botanical Gardens where the shows are held, are offering special group rates: Inverurie Hotel, Elbow Beach Surf Club and Harmony Hall.

Special plane rates are also available to groups of 25 or more. Any member of any dog club in Canada is eligible, and need not be attached to a group specifically leaving Toronto International Airport (Malton). For example, it can be arranged for them to join a group of American exhibitors leaving from Idlewild Airport, New York, Sunday morning, October 27 and benefit by the lower rates from New York. Regular return air fare from Toronto to Bermuda is $151.40 (Canadian currency) per person jet economy. Once you reach New York, the fare is but $84.00 (American currency).

The special hotel rates include seven nights, eight days at these famous hotels, breakfast and dinner, excellent rooms, tips and transportation to and from the airport in Bermuda.

Leaving from Toronto the airfreight rate for dogs is 30c per pound, including crate; leaving from New York the cost drops to 20c per pound.

Permit forms: The Bermuda Government has issued new regulations pertaining to the importation of animals, which require that a permit from the Bermuda Department of Agriculture accompany the animal. This, however, applies to anyone who sells a dog to a Bermudian. It does not affect exhibitors bringing dogs to the Island to compete in dog shows or trials. Only in the case of a dog remaining in Bermuda is a permit necessary. Forms are available through Dogs in Canada office. Premium lists and hotel rates are also available at this office. Note the dates: October 29, 30, 31 and November 2. Entries close October 8.

As one of the most active and accomplished men in Western Canada dogdom, both in field and conformation, he is well qualified for the position of editor of Pointer and Setter activities.

Many interesting letters have been received relative to my last article in Dogs in Canada, under the heading "The Change in Training Methods". Leighton Murray of North Island, New Zealand included a resume of shooting conditions down under. In New Zealand the month of May is equivalent to our glorious October. The daily bag limits in New Zealand are more generous than ours. Ducks 15, Pheasants three, Quail eight, Black Swan eight, Deer, wild pigs, hare and rabbits may be shot at any time in unlimited quantities. In bird hunting shot guns are restricted to two shots. This, perhaps, accounts for some gun manufacturers reducing their automatics from three to two shells.

The well known field trialer of German Short Hair Pointer fame, Brigadier Bennett, now our Military Attache in Washington, comments most favorably on the new training methods and informs me he has enjoyed excellent results from the new ideas. He states one of his young dogs trained by the modern system is unquestionably the most biddable and enthusiastic he has owned and at nine months she is outperforming his old veterans in the bird field.

Many good bird dogs are soon forgotten but the truly great ones are long remembered. The English Pointer of distinction in America today is Ch. & F.T. Ch. Glenn's Paladin Hayride, CD., owned, trained and handled by Miss T. Ruthe Lowe, Alberta's F.T. representative. Known as Pal by his admirers, he is the only triple titled English Pointer in Canada, possibly in America as we can locate no record of any other English Pointer with the same versatile honors. No bird dog reaches eminence without the help of an enthusiastic and appreciative owner. Pal has the good fortune to belong to Ruthe Lowe, the girl who will drive 500 miles to attend a Retriever field trial in Saskatoon and then drive all night another 500 miles to be on time for a bird dog field trial in Alberta the following morning. We need more of your kind in the bird dog world Ruthe and may you enjoy long and continued success.

FIELD TRIALS IN NEW BRUNSWICK AND PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

H. O. Whitman informs me the Atlantic provinces had a very successful two day birddog field trial on May 11 and 12. One of the highlights of the trial was the puppy stake winner Patsy, handled by Charlie Wade's granddaughter Shirley Wade. Patsy had been obedience trained and no one had told Shirley that an obedience trained dog was not a good field trial prospect. So Shirley entered Patsy in the puppy stake and thrilled the judges and the gallery by Patsy getting out and finding birds in a manner to make any nimrod's heart beat faster. Patsy was steady to wing and shot, a quality seldom seen in a puppy stake.

The puppy stake judges: Major Gordon Donaldson, Camp Gagetown and Charles Bennett, Fredericton. 2nd place went to the Weimaraner Bernard of Saxe, owned and handled by C. L. A. Clarke, Sydney, N.S.; 3rd, Little Joe, English Setter owned and handled by Bill Kinghorn, Saint John, N.B.; 4th, Pegs Lucky Strike, owned and handled by Cecil McManus, Moncton, N.B.

Derby stake 10 entries. Judges Harold Hatfield, Woodstock, N.B. and Basil Hawkins of Nashwaskis, N.B. 1st, Bruno Teutoberger, a G. S. H. Pointer owned by C. W. Bennett, Fredericton, N.B. Bruno is a two year old who has won his F.T. championship in three trials and indicates exceptional merit. He is a fast going dog, under perfect control at all times with beautiful manners in the bird field and steady to wing and shot. Second place went to Bernard of Saxe, Weimaraner. This dog placed second in both the puppy and derby stakes and shows promise for the open all age stakes in the future. Patsy, the puppy stake winner, won third place. Fourth went to the G. S. H. Pointer owned and handled by Major Gordon Donaldson, Camp Gagetown, N.B.

HUMANELY "SPEAKING"

The General Manager of the Ontario Humane discusses tattooing of dogs.

by tom hughes

When a dog is tattooed it has a better chance of surviving its natural life span than any other animal. Of all the dogs that are brought to the average Animal Shelter or Pound less than one in a thousand are tattooed. The dogs that are tattooed are invariably returned to their owners.

This proves that owners of registered dogs are responsible citizens who take good care that their dogs do not run at large or, for any other reason, end up in a Pound. Incidentally, this is a good reason why a purebred dog breeder should only pay the minimum kennel fee of $10. as set by the law. Any attempt to alter the kennel fee structure could well be objected to on the grounds that purebred dogs don't cause the trouble.

It's logical to argue then that every dog should be tattooed for this reason. Since it is impossible to require crossbred dogs to be registered, and so tattooed, it follows that everyone who is concerned with the present day dog Pound situation should logically be in favour of discouraging, by any means, the practice of indiscriminate breeding of mongrels. Sure, I know how very attractive a mongrel can be, but this makes the task of destroying them by the thousand all the more distasteful and downright heartbreaking. I've had the grim responsibility for years of having to walk daily through a kennel of up to 100 dogs and decide which had to be killed that day. Can you imgaine how you would feel if you had to meet such a responsibility? Don't forget, I had no choice in the matter. Animals were coming in in such numbers that it was unavoidable. I would like to see some of the people who oppose dog control because they "love animals" face up to such a demand.

For this reason I'm prepared to support any measure that will reduce the number of dogs that have to be killed. If one way is to put a stop to the breeding of mongrels, then I'm all for it.

Another very good reason why all dogs should be tattooed is to enable ownership to be proved without argument. With unmarked dogs, it's quite common for two or even three different families to lay claim to the same dog in an animal shelter. In fact I remember one particular case in which three families proved that they had actually possessed the dog at different times. On each occasion the dog had simply wandered off and had been "found" and "adopted" by a new family. How on earth can you solve such a triangle without upsetting at least two of the claimants. If the dog had been tattooed it would have been very simple.

However, it's not always easy even with purebred dogs. Consider the case of Silvan's Bold Boy, a registered Rough Collie. He was born on April 24, 1962 and sold by the breeder on July 4, 1962 to Mr. Lawrence Bean of Scarborough, Ont. The dog was not tattooed but was, instead, noseprinted. The prints were filed in the normal way. The dog was approximately three months old when the noseprints were taken. I have examined the print attached to the pedigree and also those deposited at Ottawa. They are normal although I have seen better.

In February this year, Bold Boy was missed by his owner, who operates a service station. Checks with the local pound didn't help. A few days later Mr. Bean claims he saw his dog in the

WILFRID E. SHUTE, B.A., M.D., WELL KNOWN BREEDER, DISCUSSES THE SECRET OF BREEDING SUCCESS

HOW TO CHOOSE A STUD DOG

I hope that everyone who reads this will already have read Bobbie Ellis' article in a previous issue stressing the importance of good temperament and intelligence in those Poodles which are to be used in breeding. The same thoughts have been well expressed in Ed. O'Brien's obedience column in the June, 1963 issue of Dogs in Canada. I heartily recommend both to your serious consideration.

The secret of breeding success is simply to breed a really good female, the product of close line-breeding, whose sire was a proven producer, to a line-bred stud dog of the same family who has proven in several litters that his get are above the average in quality, with some really great ones among them. This is a simple and effective method and the one used by all the great breeders of the past, in cattle, horses, sheep, swine and dogs. Great care must be taken not to breed two together with the same obvious fault, of course.

It is, therefore, obvious that you have already selected the family of the prospective sire when you chose the female, since you tilt the scale in your favour when sire and dam belong to the same family. The odds are always weighted heavily against the breeder, since Nature is always pulling against him toward the mean common average. By line or family breeding one reduces the possible combination of genes passed on to their puppies and when the majority of these are desirable the puppies should resemble the family type with the chance that one or more might be an improvement over either or both parents. This is why sire and dam must both be of the best possible quality from the best possible family.

One gets out of a breeding, only what sire and dam put into the puppies and this is determined by the specific genotype of both parents. Phenotype is the term applied to the physical characteristics of a dog – the visual appearance of the whole and its component parts. Genotype however, is the term applied to the hidden characteristics inherited by the animal from all his forebears – his genetic equipment. Often phenotype and Genotype are quite different and this is why a beautiful animal may never produce a puppy half as beautiful as he is himself and also why an average dog, as far as appearance goes, may produce puppies better than himself and quite different in many ways, structurally. It is because the genotype is what determines the sire's ability, and because he inherits this from all his forebears, that the general excellence of the family is so important.

There is but one way to determine the genotype of a dog (or female) and this is to test mate him. Breeding a dog to an equally good very closely related female will reveal his powers to pass on characteristics good and bad. If one can find a sire who passes on mainly the good characteristics of his family or himself, does not pass on any or many of his less desirable physical traits and occasionally produces an excellent puppy, then one has uncovered a top sire.

The same process of Test Mating must be used to uncover the genotype of the female. There is no other way to determine what she will produce. We must know the genotype of both parents in order to be able to predict even fairly closely what their puppies will be like. Even then, there are so many genes to match up with each other, some dominant, some recessive, that no two puppies will be exactly alike, nor will any two puppies produce alike in their turn.

The matter of choosing a sire becomes more complicated when one examines a given dog's production record. Some dogs seem to produce better females than dogs and vice versa. Some males seem to contribute nothing of themselves but the sperm and all the puppies resemble the dam's family only. Finally, some sires stamp their own physical type on a large share of their progeny, because, as stated above, the majority of their genes are pure and dominant for the most desirable traits.

When such a dominant sire appears in a breed, he will usually improve the breed immeasurably and a large share of succeeding generations will be his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. He will produce good puppies from good and fair females, even occasionally from poor ones.

Many such sires are known to the old timers in each breed and to the "pedigree hounds." In Wire-Haired Fox Terriers, Talavera Simon and Gallant Fox were so dominant in desirable genes that virtually every show dog today is a descendant of either or both. Similarly in Doberman Pinschers, all the good modern show dogs are descended from Sieger Lux v. Blankenburg, his half-brother Troll v. Blankenburg or their close relative Helios v. Siegestor.

Such dominant sires are almost invariably line-bred, ie.–very closely bred with very little outside blood. As a corollary, only the best of their progeny have produced well. However, even the best carry some undersirable genes and the Wire-Haired Fox Terrier has been cursed with the squirrel tail of Gallant Fox, almost the only bad physical characteristic he and his get passed on to their progeny.

The intelligent breeder endeavours to learn all he can about the prospective sire – not only what he produces but the physical and family characteristics of the females who were mated to him; also what his family – his sire and dam produced. This takes time, research and careful study. As one highly successful breeder said recently, she often sits up far into the night, studying pedigrees and production records of different available sires, planning a single future mating. A very prominant canine organization recently spent several thousand dollars to have a professional poll-taking firm ascertain the average length of time a dog fancier remained in the game. It turned out to be THREE YEARS. Apparently, there aren't many who are interested enough to take the time to intelligently plan the matings of their dogs and since, as stated above, nature is always trying to pull the breed downwards toward its original cruder form, their efforts have left them so discouraged they leave the dog game to try something else. Fortunately, a few always become so interested that they are willing to stay with it until they become master breeders. Go to many dog shows over the years, and you will see many of the same faces at every show and their dogs will still be winning.

In every breed there comes a time when there just aren't any dominant sires. All that can be done during such periods is to maintain as many good average dogs as possible. Such a period has been the case for the last few years in my chosen breed, and the owners of good females, good producing females, are at a total loss at the moment, not knowing what sire to breed to. Inevitably, a dominant sire will appear, of the proper bloodlines, since history invariably repeats itself.

Maybe I am not being very helpful. I feel that many breeders do not have any idea, really, of what they are trying to produce. Attending dog shows may only further confuse them. When a dog goes through to Best of Breed and on to Best in Show one day and places third two days later in its breed to a dog of very different type, who then goes on to win the group, his confusion may be compounded. There is an answer, and time will come to the aid of the sincere breeder. There is a yard stick – the Breed Standard. Recently, as guest speaker at a Specialty club, I asked all those who had read the Standard of their breed within the past six months to put up their hands. Not a single hand went up. How in the name of Heaven can one criticize judges or breed intelligently if one doesn't know what he is trying to breed? If the Standard says the ideal dog should be square that is what you want. If it says the relation of height to length should be 8½ to 10 – that is what you want. And the closer your dogs come to the Standard, the more often they will win.

So choosing a stud boils down to a

ANNUAL STUD GALLERY

Twenty-three different breeds are represented in this year's Gallery of valuable studs. While the female contributes 50% of the genes, it is essential to find the best possible mate to donate the other all-important 50%. It is noteworthy that most of these outstanding dogs have not only done major winning, but are siring winning get.

If your breed is among those shown here, be sure to keep this issue as a reference for future matings. Remember when selecting a stud: be sure to study the female's background qualities as well as those of the potential mate for the type of offspring you desire.

If your own stud dog is not among those pictured here, be sure to reserve a section in the Annual Stud Gallery next year. This Gallery will appear in the August, 1964, issue.

british columbia

JOAN RAILTON, c/o Sir Charles Tupper Secondary School, 419 East 24th St., Vancouver, B.C. Popular teacher, judge and Bulldog specialist.

Mrs. Irene Canning, Secretary of the B.C. Gun Dog Club, reports that the regular meeting of the club was held June 15 at Wm. Sinser's Realty, Burnaby, B.C. Three trials were held in June, one in July. Two Sanction Retriever Trials are scheduled for August 3, 4 and 25 by the B.C. Amateur Field Trial Club and the B.C. All Breed Sanction Club respectively. Three Licensed Retriever Trials are to be held – August 10, 11; 17 and 18; and 31 and September 1.

Congratulations are in order for Tar Baby's Little Sweet Stuff who has completed his Canadian F.T. Ch. and to Jimmie Allan who won the young handler's ribbon in a field of 12 with Black Banker's Jet.

The Fraser Valley K.C., which had hoped for a Sanction Show date in August, has had to postpone the show. Watch for further news from this club.

Mrs. Margot A. Harrison, Secretary of the Association of Island Obedience Clubs, reports a very successful luncheon was held on June 22 at the Occidental Hotel in Nanaimo. This was the first such gathering of the Association and was well supported. Thirty members, representing seven clubs belonging to the Association, were present. An interesting talk was given by the B.C. Director, Mrs. Sheila Anderson, who spoke on some aspects of the work of the CKC and also on the adaptability of dogs. A question period followed, during which Mrs. Anderson was able to enlighten members on several matters. Members feel indebted to Mrs. Anderson for helping to make this gathering such a success.

Mrs. Hudson, Secretary of the Greater Victoria Dog Obedience Training Club, reports on a well attended June trial, held under CKC rules. The friendly atmosphere, both during the trials and at the luncheon for the judges, enhanced the pleasure of all competitors. Another first was chalked up by this club when Mrs. Elizabeth Burchett passed her third leg in Utility with her Smooth Dachshund, Ch. Starshine v.d. Daniels. He is believed to be the first Dachshund in Canada to become a Utility Dog.

Once again the tracking dogs of the Island are proving their worth. Last month Rebel made headlines when he located a little girl who had wandered away and became lost. This month a Labrador, Ch. Mossbanks Merry Majorette, demonstrated that tracking is a useful thing to teach a dog. Someone lost their car keys outside a dog show and Rette, owned by Mrs. Mary Bates, came to the rescue. She quartered the ground as ordered and although it had been well walked on by both humans and dogs came up with the keys in her mouth. One never knows when tracking may come in handy. The training teaches a dog to follow the smell it is told to follow (pleasant or unpleasant), and not the smell it wants to follow.

The Vancouver Island Tracking Club holds a tracking meet once a month where members are instructed in all stages of the work. Tracks of all sorts are laid down ahead of time. The "payoff", as illustrated by Rebel and Rette, can be very rewarding.

MARY D. HART, 23 Balsam Cres., Brandon, Man. Well-known German Shepherd Specialist and Working Dog Judge.

Dog activities, other than Field Trials, seem to be at a low ebb for the summer months. The only news to report this month are the results of the Junior Showmanship competition, judged by Natalie Maydanski, at the Edmonton Kennel Club shows in May, contributed by Marg Jacob. Ricky Kenny, of Calgary, won the 6-9 year class, Gale Kenny, of Calgary, won the 9-12 year class, and F. Belyea Jr. won the 12-16 year class.

Speaking of Field Trials, I attended my first trial in June, held by the Brandon Gun Dog Club. I will admit that one of the reasons for attending was to see my old friend Mark Seguin of Stratford who was one of the judges, but I soon became fascinated with the proceedings. I particularly admired the feeling of good sportsmanship, a factor often lacking at conformation shows lately. Not once did I hear any exhibitor run down the work of another exhibitor's dog. If the hospitality prevalent at this trial is an example of what may be expected, I for one will be among those present when the National Retriever Trials are held at Brandon in 1964.

Since there is so little news this month, I would like to mention a few items which have come to my attention at the Spring Shows. Many new show-giving clubs have been formed in the West. Because of this, many members have undertaken show committee jobs completely new to them, and other novices have been given key positions on committees, necessitated by recent dog show rules. While there are usually many willing helping hands, many secretaries have said to me, "If only I had a guide to follow, I feel that I could do a much better job". This statement, I feel, is the key to the whole situation. Two years ago, The Canadian Kennel Club began work on a guide for Show Secretaries, but it is not yet in print. I feel that this guide is very much needed, particularly in the Prairies, where distances between clubs – and help – is greater; so that Show Secretaries and committees may plan their work more efficiently down to the last detail. Methods would then be more uniform, premium lists and catalogues more uniform, ring stewarding would be more consistent and accurate. These are just a few of the items that would be affected. In general, shows would be better because officials would know what is expected of them.

There is much room for improvement in ring stewarding at some of the shows. (I say "some" shows, because from personal experience, no judge could want a better ring steward than Eric McDonald of Edmonton.) This very important job is not always the "cinch" that many seem to consider it. Many stewards, for example, (as well as some judges) simply do not understand which dogs are eligible to compete for Best Canadian Bred, particularly in the Group judging. I wish too that anyone undertaking the job of ring steward or show announcer would learn the correct pronunciation of such breed names as Weimaraner (not Wee Mariner, please!), Dachshund, Schipperke, Papillon, Samoyed, etc. Perhaps Dogs in Canada will oblige with an article on pronunciation before the next show season.

I have witnessed as well considerable lack of knowledge or disregard of

DOGS & PEOPLE

When Art and Mae Dory of Edmonton, Alta. lost their dog three years ago, they were inconsolable. Their veterinarian told them he had another one for them. Art looked at the doleful face and said, "No." Mae fell for him. Eventually they adopted him. Someone suggested the sad little sack ought to be shown, and he was. Rosendale's Sir Galahad (Buddy) this year has been named top Basset Hound in Canada. Tom Quilley, well-known judge and handler, has been his mentor. Buddy's parents are well known. Sire, the famous Rustabout, top Basset Hound in North America. He is a half-brother to Cleo of TV's People's Choice fame. The Dorys have become enamoured of Bassets and are now breeders.

For as long as anyone can remember, Dalmatians have been mascots to fire brigades. Recently the fire department at Lantzville (near Nanaimo, B.C.) held a "Sparky" contest promoting fire prevention at home. Winners were presented to Negewinkel's Arrow of Odin, "Sparky", owned by Peg Bishop, and received Sparky badges. Drivers were startled to see a big red fire truck roaring down the highway with a Dalmatian wearing his bright red Chief's helmet atop the cab, as lights flashed, sirens screamed and children shrieked with delight. Sparky, who originally was discovered in the backyard of the Roman Catholic Rectory, created attention the same week by taking BB and placing 4th in Group two days at the Nanaimo show under Judges George Kynock and Vic Williams.

A show put on by Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Garnsey of Mattydale, N.Y. and their Newfoundlands is creating a great deal of attention in the States and is available in Canada. This year's show is formed around the "History of the Newfoundland Dog by Cart." Acts include a young girl dressed as an Indian leading a Newf who is hauling an Indian travous covered with furs, showing the first beast of burden in North America; a cart loaded with fish net and simulated fish; a milk cart bearing six milk cans and a seven-year-old milk maid; another cart bearing a mail bag and lifesavers (there are countless stories of Newfs' heroism in mail delivery and sea rescues) and lastly a covered wagon with a painting of a Newf's head on either side. Address of the Garnseys: 213 Northwood Drive, Mattydale 11, N.Y.

Wins in the States: Pearl Currie, (Kerree's Kennels, Reg'd.) Barrie, Ont. writes that her Chow Chow, Currie's Tanya of Marhol, CD, finished her American CD title at the Kennel Club of Buffalo Inc. show July 7, with a qualifying score of 193½. Mrs. Currie believes that Tanya is the only Chow female to have obtained both her Can. and Am. CD title. . . The Detroit KC recently aggregated 1,350 entries including that of Thelma Adams, Unionville, Ont., who brought husband Tom along to handle the Westie, Roseneath Gallant Knight for three points with Winners and BW. Thelma took BB with her Ch. Roseneath White Crusader under Judge J. J. Duncan. Cairns were judged by Mr. Alva Rosenberg, who placed Kay and Jim McFarlane's Badenoch Maori Winners and BOS while Badenoch Lachie Mac was RW male and Badenoch Grayling was RW female.

Dachshund breeder Stuart Roberts (Canidae), Maidstone, Ont., judged his first assignment in Dachshunds at the Macombe County KC Show at Utica, N.Y. July 7. This was a point show with 26 Dachshunds entered. Mr. Roberts, who now has his American license to judge Dachshunds judges this club's Group 2 at the Sanction Match the 25th of this month.

Regarding vivisection Mark Twain said: "The pain which it inflicts upon unconsenting animals is the basis of my enmity towards it, and it is to me sufficient justification of the enmity without looking further. I have tried to understand why it should be considered a kind of credit and a handsome thing to belong to a human race that has vivisectors in it".

dog show rules. Many seem to take the attitude "I have never seen it done, so what the heck!". These rules, while some may seem unfair, are there for the protection of the show-giving club, the judge, the exhibitors and the dogs, and it would be well if all show-giving clubs would supply all member exhibitors with a copy of the latest rules. I know that some clubs have done so and others plan to do so for future shows. Believe it or not, it's almost time to plan for the 1964 shows.

I would like to say a very special hello and a wish for a full recovery to Anne Gerigs of the German Shepherd Dog Breeders Association Inc., (Toronto and district). Anne has been in hospital in Oshawa and has undergone many operations since her car accident during the Christmas holidays. Get well soon, Anne! The Shepherd fancy needs your youth and enthusiasm.

ALL TERRIER CLUB OF CANADA

The June meeting drew a very small attendance, but sufficient to clear away a number of business items. It was decided that, in view of the limited attendance and in fairness to the membership, a special meeting would be called in the month to lay the groundwork for the 1964 Specialty Show. At this subsequent meeting Mr. James McFarlane was appointed Show Chairman and Mrs. Kay McFarlane, Show Secretary. It was also the opinion of the club that they hold a Terrier Puppy Match again this year, on August 24 at 1 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Devlin, 384 Centre St., Thornhill, Ont. In the event of inclement weather on the Saturday, the match will be held the following day, at the same time. The club has secured the services of Mrs. Hilde Watson-MacInnes to judge this match. A championship judge for many years in England (having judged such shows as L.K.A., Welks and Crufts) she has recently taken up residence in Guelph, Ont. and will return to England in February, 1964 to judge again at Crufts. As this match is just the weekend before the Exhibition shows it will be an ideal opportunity to get those puppies out and see what they can do and will also provide a "fun" afternoon. The match will be open to all Terrier puppies up to the age of 12 months. Hot dogs and hamburgers will be available as well as other re-

BARRIE KENNEL CLUB

Members enjoyed a very interesting June meeting when a nearly full attendance heard the guest speaker, Mr. Tom Hughes of the Ontario Humane Society. Mr. Hughes described the functioning of the Society and methods used and needed to accomplish its work. He also explained the amendments to the criminal code that have been presented to the Minister of Justice. The July meeting was the annual business meeting. The following officers were elected for the coming term: President, Mr. Frank E. Jones; Vice-President, Mr. Blake Lamont; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Rosalie Harvie; Treasurer, Mr. Paul Robins; Show Secretary, Mrs. Vina Jones. The club voted to donate a percentage of each year's profits to a local charitable organization of the club's choice. This time a ballot vote favored the Barrie branch of the OSPCA and a cheque for $50. will be given. August is picnic month with the club, so it will be back in circulation in September.

BURLINGTON AND DISTRICT K.C.

Several things of interest have been happening in the club's area of late. With a very successful Obedience Trial in June all active committees are combining their efforts to make the All-Breed Show in September a bang-up show. At the June trial, Mr. and Mrs. Watson, of Williamston, N.Y., won three beautiful trophies with their Miniature Poodle. Of the total 123 entries, including unofficial classes, and the 50% or more dogs that qualified, none were Burlington club. Mrs. Jessie Carr's Chimore pleased than two members of the huahua, Little Rebel Jr., won the Memorial Challenge trophy awarded to a dog trained in Burlington Obedience classes. Mrs. Edna Joel, CKC director, made the presentation. With school out, the Junior group of the club conducted a delightful all-pets show June 28. This event got the usual spectator interest and the much appreciated cooperation of several local groups, including the Junior Burlington Boys and Girls Band. Many members have been successful at recent shows, with wins too numerous to mention, but show-giving clubs can look for the familiar faces at their ringside throughout the season. Mr. Jim Taylor is acting as Show Secretary for the club's show to be held September 28. Two proud parents bragged at recent shows about their new wee ones — Jacqueline Tough and David Kerr.

Members and friends are pleased to see Ed Sipes busy and well once again.

Golfview Scarlet Crest CD; BOS went to Red Saint of Shanandoah, owned by the Kennedys of Hamilton; 1st in Obedience was earned by Londonderry Belle II, CD, owned by the Allens of Ancaster. October 20 has been set for a fall Field Trial and the club hopes to surpass last year's record entry of 26.

MINIATURE SCHNAUZER CLUB OF CANADA

Eleven faithful regular members turned out for the June meeting, held at the Carlton Club, Toronto. Some very interesting items were discussed for the agenda of future meetings. Discussions, pro and con, on the Miniature clubs here and overseas rounded out a very pleasant meeting, topped by delicious refreshments following the meeting. Absentees were missed and the club reminds its members the next meeting will be held in September and urges everyone to go out and hear the plans that are in store for future meetings.

OAKVILLE AND DISTRICT KC

Members held their annual club match June 18 on the spacious lawn of Avalon, residence of charter member Mrs. Marie Hamilton, in Oakville, Ont. The grass-covered ring, surrounded by approximately 75 club members and guests seated in gaily colored lawn chairs and with a background of flower beds, flowering shrubs and trees all brilliantly lighted for the occasion, was an ideal setting for an outdoor summer evening' entertainment. The weatherman gave full cooperation. The match was open to all dogs over three months (champions excepted) owned by members of the club and handled by members of the club or a member of their immediate family. Club President, Ernie McGowan, opened the show and welcomed all with special reference to representatives from the Oakville and District Rod and Gun Club and to their guest judge. As in the past, the identity of the guest judge remained a mystery and was known only as "The Hon. Mrs. Bully-Mastiff from the Red Doghouse". However, she turned out to be the well known Mrs. J. H. Daniell-Jenkins of Rouge Hill, Ont. She performed her task with efficiency and despatch, judging the merits of the 31 dogs before her to the complete satisfaction of all. Some 15 various breeds were represented. Group winners were: Sporting—Mrs. Ethel McGowan's English Springer. Hound—Mr. Grad Dewar's Standard Dachshund. Working—Mrs. R. Wise's Shetland Sheepdog. Terrier—Mr. Chas. Gallowa's Airedale Terrier. Non-Sporting—Mr. and Mrs. John Young's Miniature Poodle. From the Group winners, Mr. Gallowa's Airedale Terrier, Kinloch Gallant, was chosen Best in Match and winner of the McEachren memorial trophy which they will hold for the year. A new challenge trophy for BP in Match was donated to the club by Lt. Col. M. Drury and named the Avalon Trophy in recognition of the many years that the annual match has been held at Avalon. It was presented in the ring by Mrs. Hamilton to the winner, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Carter's Basset puppy, eight months old Westacres Little Nell. A special prize, awarded for miscellaneous pets, was won by "Stinky the Skunk", exhibited by Broeders' Dutch Bakery. Refreshments were served following the match and another successful and enjoyable meeting will be recorded in the minutes of the club.

OSHAWA OBEDIENCE ASSOCIATION

is holding its annual Fall Trial on September 1 at Lakeview Park in Oshawa under the very capable judging of Mr. Jake Giacomelli. Closing date for advanced entries will be midnight August 26. Post entries will be accepted up to 11 a.m. on September 1. Judging will commence at noon and refreshments will be available. All trophies will be awarded at the completion of each class but special trophies will not be awarded until the Trial is completed.

PETERBOROUGH AND DISTRICT OBEDIENCE CLUB held its annual election of officers on June 15, when all officers holding positions were returned for another year. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Richard Whalen and was followed by a chicken dinner and party. Twenty-five dogs competed for diplomas, trophies and ribbons at the graduation exercises held June 17 at Ashburnham Hall. Miss Patricia Dobie of Kingston did the marking for the club. Ray Scott, with Dachshund Katrina, retained the Sealright Trophy with a score of 197½. A coincidence worth mentioning is that Ray had a tie score with his daughter, Bette Rae Gill, and her little Dachshund Bismark who is a son of Katrina. The club wishes to thank Miss Dobie and to wish everyone a happy, healthy summer. The club is now recessed for the summer.

PROGRESSIVE KENNEL CLUB

Members can be justly pleased with the results of the All Breed show held in the Don Mills Arena on June 1. Both entries and profits were up over last year, a matter of congratulations to both the hard-working Show Secretary and her helpers. Mrs. Martha Stevens was able to present, in person, the Martha and Clarence Stevens trophy to the BIS dog, Fingard's Haupt of Harmony Hill, handled by Dr. W. E. Shute. It was nice to see the past-President and Show Secretary around the ringside again. The June meeting was chiefly devoted to selecting judges to contact in connection with the 1964 show, also the holding of Sanction Shows during the winter months. A lively discussion took place regarding a communication received from the CKC regarding pro-

Members also made a very good showing at other U.S. trials. At Boonville, N.Y., Peter Kleindienst's F.C. Windy Hill Buby was 1st in the 15" dogs, and at Sandy Creek, N.Y. 1st in the 13" dogs was New Parrot Sad Sam, owned by Jake Devito and Paul Akin, with Earl Cunningham's Janie winning the little female class over 29 entries.

DOMINION COLLIE AND SHETLAND SHEEPDOG ASS'N (Montreal Branch)
Glowing reports have come in describing the Club Match held at Marg and Dave Waldron's in Lennoxville. Perfect weather, water galore, shade for all, an entry of over 40 dogs, and Kay Anderson's competent judging all combined to make it an outing long remembered by the over 75 members present. BB and Best in Match was the Reid's Collie, Jimar's Scot Robin, Best Collie Pup going to the Bourbonnais' Kara. Hazel Slaughter's Gypsy Rose of Ronas Hill topped the Sheltie entry, while best Puppy in Match went to the Sheltie, Soleste Sun Dancer, owned by Gill Shields. In the class for Any Other Breed owned by a member, top dog was Cookie Dubney's Golden Retriever, Brookbend Shane, CD. The large entry in Children's Handling necessitated running it in two sections, speaking well for the coming generation. In the 10 year and under, Judge Jack Jardine picked Shiela McGown, handling Glendor Evening Star, and in the over 10 year, first went to Alexis Hyman, handling Meridian's Scotch and Soda.

Now all members are eagerly awaiting the Club Match in September at the Stephens' home in St. Andrews East. English breeder and judge, Miss

THE TROIS-RIVIERES DOG TRAINING GRADUATION

Fred Rohrback continues to stir up interest in obedience around the St. Maurice Valley, his second graduation showing a tremendous up-surge both in quality and quantity. Starting last year with a very small group, this year's class (the only one, I believe, conducted in French) more than doubled the previous one, having about 20 beginners, many of them youngsters, and three advanced pupils. Top dog in Beginners was the white Standard Poodle, Kenny, owned by Mrs. Leblanc, with runners-up Mrs. Stevenson's Miniature Smooth Dachsie, Snorky, Mr. Gagnon's Boxer, Zipper, and a fast-stepping Pom, Boo-Pee. The Advanced class was led by Mrs. McDunnough's black Standard Poodle, Persi, with second place going to Mrs. Chevrette's grey Miniature Poodle, Truc.

THE MONTREAL DOG OBEDIENCE TRAINING CLUB, INC.

Oh, "those lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer" with club members deep in plans for the coming Fall trials. Great interest is being shown in the three simultaneous trials on the Saturday, with some of the more conservative wondering just how much of a strain it will put on them and their dogs. Remember, it's just a matter of approximately ten minutes per trial or half an hour out of an eight hour day, with the rest of the time to relax and enjoy oneself! The seven judges (The Marshes, Thralls, Sam Gardner, Jud Streicher, and Walter Weinacker) are eager to return to the crisp Canadian climate, and with seven rings, 18 trained stewards, and a prayer for fine skies, this First in obedience circles should prove both challenging and entertaining.

SOMETHING TO BRAG ABOUT

A BIS is not won every day — and not too often by an exhibitor from this Province. Last month two Quebec dogs accomplished this feat. Congratulations to Ch. Hi Lo Superman, an eight year old Beagle belonging to Fred and Jo Grant, and to Valerie Reid's Old English Sheepdog, Ch. Fezziwig Mighty Manfred.

The Grants also cleaned up recently at the Southern Maine Beagle Specialty Show in Hollis, Me., going WB for a major in the 13" class with Glanrobin's Little Rahwedia, and in the 15" females Glanrobin's Maid of the Mist was WB, BOW, BOS of Variety and BOS in Show — this from the classes over Chs. — picking up a second major. Tom Foy (yes, he's that big man you see around our shows) went BIS with his Ch. High Spirit Jay.

up beside him, a voice said "hop in" and there was a friend he hadn't seen in years — also heading for the show. There, Mac was joined by the Reids of Ottawa, watched the 69 Shelties, whom he found very uniform this year, and saw Bill Taylor do his usual excellent job of judging the very large entry of 211 Pekes.

Sarah and Irving Diamond continue in their endeavours to breed the "wee ones", having recently acquired from the U.S. Miniature W.H. Dachshunds Val Jean's Mr. Wee Wire, a Black and Tan, and Copelands Miss Val Jean, a red, both 6 lbs.

Joan Lagimodiere (Dachsies) off to visit the Collings who were so active in Whippets here a while ago, and who are now living in Newington, N.H., after a short stay in England.

Delicious Rum, hot weather, and a strange breed of dog are some of Barry Storey's impressions of her trip to the Barbados. She saw a Schipperke go BIS at the annual event, met Mrs. Olga Ramsey, President of the SPCA (whose imported Poodle is "daddy of them all" on the island) and was particularly interested in an unusual cross-breed prevalent around the country-side. A small tawny-coloured dog with ears and face like a German Shepherd and body of a Greyhound, this species was plentiful and seemed to breed true to type.

Mrs. Tuyl, long-time Collie breeder, under the St. Andrews prefix, regretfully announces her decision to retire from active breeding and boarding to enable her to take things easier from now on.

Recent visitors around Montreal include Jack Critchley, that Y-mar whizz from Windsor, here on business; Archie Warnock, down for the German Shepherd Specialty Shows; and Mrs. Pat Curties, visiting Pam Mack on her way back to England, after judging assignments in the USA. While here Mrs. Curties bought a Beagle, Ch. Glanrobin Buckaroo, from the kennels of Fred and Jo Grant.

Pam Mack's new English import, "Kitch", a dark red Corgi with white chest and feet, disappeared on the way home from the Ottawa Save the Children Show. He was lost around the Beaconsfield section of the Island and although some searchers have caught glimpses of him in the wooded area of that district, he is a shy and frightened dog, and all efforts to coax him from his hiding place have been unsuccessful. Pam hopes that by the time this is in print the live version of "Little Dog Lost" will have had the same happy ending as the movie.

Mr. and Mrs. Groulx, of Three Rivers, have recently purchased another Doberman and hope soon to join the many keen and conscientious breeders in this Province.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Kenneth and Buff Foucar (Past Treasurer of LKC) who lost their 20 year old daughter, Suzanne, following a traffic accident.

NOVA SCOTIA

N.S. Field Trial Association. Field Trials for Upland dogs. Stakes, Derby September 22, Shooting Dog September 21, Shooting Dog September 22. Spaniels. English Springer. Stakes, Open All-age September 21. Eaton's Pheasant Preserve, Port Williams, N.S. Trials Secretary, W. K. Chinn, Waverly, Halifax County, N.S. To be run on liberated pheasants. A large entry is expected and a dinner for participants and their wives will be held Saturday evening.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

Abegweit Kennel Club has been formed in Charlottetown with the following on the executive: President, Warren Hood; Vice-President, Mrs. Viola Gamble; Secretary, Mrs. Alice Bissett; Treasurer, Murdo Brown. Three directors are to be nominated to bring the executive to seven in number. It is also proposed to form a Beagle Club.

TRAGEDY

Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Moase, who arrived in Canning about a year ago and bringing their young Dalmatian to Evangeline K.C. Sanction show last autumn, became interested in the dog show game and entered their dog in the club's recent championship shows where it was expected that he would have made entries in Group six look to their laurels; but exactly one week before the date of the first show Duke of Barrington was struck by a truck and killed instantly outside the parsonage.

Evangeline Kennel Club's eleventh and twelfth championship shows were held June 28 and 29 in the Arena at Berwick with John Lundberg and John Paton officiating and with Ralph Wright, Digby, being initiated into the trials of ring stewardship.

The Berwick Arena must be one of the best locales for this purpose, as there is ample space for two large rings if needed, entrance from Main street for pedestrians, large parking area alongside for cars, including a separate area for trailers, plus a heavily chain-link enclosed ball park.

Obedience trained Golden Retrievers, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Alex Wilson, Paradise, and German Shepherd owned by Murray Lutz, Dartmouth, gave a demonstration on each day as well as field trial training on Saturday by Alex Wilson's Retrievers. ● garden of a house not far from his own residence. The dog went wild at the sight of Mr. Bean. Mr. Bean naturally asked the occupier of the premises for the dog. The man refused. He said he had bought the dog from a local man and produced a receipt.

Enquiries by the Inspector of the Ontario Humane produced no information that helps to clear up the case. The man who sold the dog simply stated that he had had the dog for some time. A new noseprint was taken. The two prints were compared. For purposes of indentification they are completely useless. And so that is how it rests. Mr. Bean has lost his dog. He claims that Bold Boy is in a garden a few doors away. But he can't get him back. What would you do under similar circumstances?

If Bold Boy had been tattooed the problem wouldn't exist. Since noseprints are useless for indentification purposes if the original print is taken when the dog is not fully grown, I can only come to the conclusion that all dogs without exception should be tattooed and that nose printing should be discontinued. ● relatively simple formula. Choose a female of the best quality available, with no serious faults and breed her to the best dog available of a closely related strain, a dog who has proven that he is a producer of the occasional top dog, but also the producer of pups of a good general average quality. Obviously, you will pick the sire of dogs you admire, rather than his son. Obviously, he will be four or five years old or even more since he will have taken at least until then to prove his ability. There will be lots of other "breeders" who have done the essential spade work for you.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

To choose the dog to be awarded Best Canadian Bred in a Group, Chapter 4, Section 3P is most specific . . . If Best in Group is a Canadian Bred dog, then it shall automatically be Best Canadian Bred . . . if not then the Canadian Bred dog placed highest in the Group shall remain in the ring and dogs declared Best Canadian Bred in the breeds placed higher in the Group than the Canadian Bred shall be brought into the ring. For example: The placing in the Group has been—first, Doberman; second, Boxer; third, Samoyed; fourth, Shepherd. If the Boxer is Canadian Bred then the only dog to enter the ring would be the Canadian Bred Doberman. If there is no CB Doberman, the Boxer would receive the award automatically. If the Samoyed is CB but the Doberman and Boxer are not, then the CB of those two breeds would come in to compete with the Samoyed.

Chapter 7 Section 4B states — A judge's name may be removed from the approved list — for placing an award upon any dog when the Dog Show Rules or standard for the breed call for said dog to be disqualified.

The awarding of a first in any class shall not obligate the judge to award Winners or other higher awards if he feels that such an award should be withheld — Chapter 9, Section 2.

Chapter 9, Section 14 Dog Show Rules — It shall be considered a serious offence for a judge to travel to a show (or trial) in the company of an exhibitor, handler or dog participating in that show, or to share accommodation with such persons. Such an offence, if proven, shall subject the judge to one year's automatic suspension from the privileges of the club.

Where an entry is not printed in the catalogue, the show-giving club shall provide proof that said entry was taken before the closing date.

Any dog entered and received at an obedience trial must compete in all exercises of all classes in which it is entered, unless expelled by the judge or excused by the Veterinarian. Section 7, Subsection 15 of Chapter 1. Obedience Regulations and Standards.

Unless otherwise stated in the Premium List, prizes shall be awarded on the basis of total final scores without regard to more than 50% of available points required for a qualified score in each exercise. Chapter 1, Section 11, Subsection 3.

In the heeling exercises after the Judge has given the order "Forward" the handler may attract his dog's attention by saying his name and will give the command to Heel — it is permissible after each halt before moving again for the handler to give the command or signal to Heel. Chapter 2, Section 5.

In describing the jumps for an obedience trial Section 13, 14 and 18 of Chapter 2 states: The side posts of the "High Jump" shall be four feet high and the jump shall be five feet wide and shall be so constructed as to provide adjustment for each two inches from 8″ to 36″. It is suggested that the jump have a bottom board 6″ wide including the space from the bottom of the board to the ground, together with one other 6″ board, one 2″ board, one 4″ board and three 8″ boards. The jump shall be painted a flat white. The width in inches shall be painted in each side of each board in black 2″ figures, the figure on the bottom board representing the distance from the ground to the top of the board. The Broad Jump shall consist of four separate hurdles, built to telescope for convenience, the largest measuring about 5′ wide and 7″ high at the highest point and painted a flat white. The Bar Jump shall consist of a bar between 2″ and 2½″ in diameter, painted black and white in alternate sections of about 3″ each. The bar shall be supported by two 4′ upright posts at least 5′ apart. The bar shall be adjustable for each 2″ of height from 8″ to 36″ and shall be so constructed that the bar can be knocked off without disturbing the uprights.

Although cryptorchidism and monorchidism are not listed as disqualifications in many breed standards, they are nevertheless so as stated in Chapter 17, Section I . . . a male dog which does not have two normal testicles normally located in the scrotom, shall be ineligible to compete at any show.

Judges must be provided with water, towels and disinfectants in the rings. ●

The annual award of $1,000, given by The Quaker Oats Company, for the most heroic dog, will be made (from the 70 finalists) on August 21. Second, third, fourth and fifth place winners will be enriched by $500, $250, $150 and $100 respectively. Each will also receive either a silver medal or gold plaque, depending on where they finish. The winner will be given a gold-plated collar and lead and a custom-made dog blanket. Runners-up will receive silver-plated collars and leads, etc. Although it is difficult to believe, records would seem to indicate that the female is more heroic than the male. This award has been given for the past nine years and "the weaker sex" has been the winner on five occasions.

It is interesting to note that the change in the conditions of entering the Westminster Show in 1964 reads — have won a blue ribbon or higher award at a point show held under American Kennel Club rules. Mr. Francis F. H. Fleitman, Switzerland will make the choice for BIS and of the 45 judges announced, none are from Canada.

Canadian Corgi owners scored great success at the Golden Gate Pembroke Welsh Corgi Fanciers fourth annual specialty held at Carmel, Calif. Judge Miss Curties, of England, honored Canada by giving BB to Welcanis Adulation, bred by Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Wilkins, Winnipeg, and owned by Mr. and Mrs. A. Huggins, West Vancouver. Mr. Huggins handled. The BOS dog was also a credit to Canada as it was sired by Ch. (Eng. Can. Am.) Crawleycrow Pint, also owned by Mr. and Mrs. Huggins. These outstanding wins are not new to Canadian exhibitors in this breed for they have marched off with WB at the last three specialties and WD and RW female last year at this same specialty. The latter two dogs were also sired by Crawleycrow Pint:
