cover story

Do conformation and obedience mix? Can a show dog be successful in obedience and the reverse? This is the subject of endless debate. Mrs. James Pugh, Display, Reg'd., 135 MacPherson Ave., Toronto, and her sister, Mrs. Lavenna Burke, Star-B Kennels, Reg'd., Markdale, Ont., co-owners of this month's cover dogs, have proven the case in the affirmative.

Pictured in the front row are Maggie Madsen du Chevalier, CD; Mr. Magoo, CDX, Am. CD and Jamesina of Display, CD. Back row: Jacqueline of Display (two points to go for her Canadian Championship) and in Obedience training; Ch. Von Weimar's Spooky Shadow, CD; Ch. Robbie's Sheba (who has just finished training classes) and Ch. Arnheims Perfection of Display, CD.

The combined kennel operation has progressed 13 months as Display and three months as Star-B, and is approved by the Ontario Humane. During 1963 the kennels tallied four CD's and one CDX plus another championship.

Both Mrs. Pugh and Mrs. Burke have a tremendous interest in the progress of purebred dogs in general and are dedicated to helping develop all-round dogs. That is, striving for conformation but extending the dog's qualities with obedience training, for peace of mind of dog and owner in family living and for its own safety.

Mrs. Pugh, a dynamic woman, is active in both bench and obedience work. She serves as an executive in the North York Obedience Club and the Barrie Huronia Obedience Club.

When a puppy is purchased from Display it leaves with the advantage of simple obedience training plus a training collar and lead courtesy the kennel. The new owners are invited to keep in contact and to feel free to ask advice on any training or health problems which might arise.

Special training in obedience is offered at Star-B Kennels, where the dogs are boarded during the schooling. Arrangements may be made by writing either kennel or telephoning Mrs. Pugh at WA 2-8893, Toronto or Mrs. Burke at Markdale 354-W-3.

"dogs" for christmas

. . . I am enclosing $1.50 to cover the cost of three issues to be sent to the three lucky . . . . lucky people who purchased their Christmas puppies from me. I hope others who sold puppies for Christmas will follow suit and send along a copy of December Dogs to their customers. Your "Observations on Animal Behaviour" by Dr. A. C. Secord has a wealth of information.

Here is food for thought re these pet agents and pet shops. There is only one way to stop these people from lowering the standards and qualities of our breeds and flooding the market with nondescript animals. Each and every breeder flatly to refuse to sell to these people. It is up to the breeder to stop this before it snowballs into a really serious problem. Another way is to be careful where one sells a female.

MRS. JACK BIRD

. . . Someone seems to have made off with my July, 1963 Standards Issue. I don't blame them, but since I treasured it myself I would hope that you might be able to provide me a replacement. I am enclosing 50c in the fond hope that somewhere you might have one left.

sell through "dogs"

. . . I find in selling puppies if I use the pictures in "Recent Winners" or the Stud Gallery to show my clients it clinches the sale . . . It is really surprising, even when clients are buying "pet only" they want one from a winner and what better way have we of showing off our winners but in the official publication . . . Thanks again for helping me sell my first litter of nine Weimaraners plus a litter of Miniature Poodles in record time. I am more than repaid for any money I paid out last summer.

judging good in canada

. . . Dogs in Canada rates tops with us, and we read it from cover to cover. From time to time we have showed dogs in the Maritime Provinces . .. This past season we showed our Labrador at Saint John and Fredericton, N.B. Everyone was absolutely wonderful to us and we saw some real good sportsmanship.

In the United States I can think of no breed so misjudged as the Labrador. It was a real pleasure to show a dog knowing that your dog would be judged honestly and the standards adhered to.

One of our real pleasures was meeting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rowan and seeing their beautiful kennel of Labradors.

We plan to show again next Aug and are looking forward to meeting m of our new made friends.

Please find enclosed our cheque to co our renewal of your magazine.

praise for penbaro

. . . I recently visited the home of a co paratively new kennel owner . . . with th intention of buying a pup. Her facilitie although limited, were a credit to he labors. There are 19 dogs, 14 of which ar young puppies . . . housed in spotless pen with a raised platform for sleeping an ample playing space. Fourteen happ heathy, frolicking puppies and above a clean . . . She takes care to screen he prospective buyers. . . . She is indeed credit to the dog world.

My hat is off and my heart is warm i the remembrance of Mrs. Bedard, and ma I add a rousing hurrah for Penbaro Dalmatians.

FROM THE EDITOR

FOR the first time in the 75-year history of The Canadian Kennel Club a Board of Directors has been elected to serve a two-year term. This long-debated step is hailed as a progressive one. In the past, directors have been able to implement certain actions, often just prior to the end of their term and have not been in a position to see the project through.

Under the two-year term new members of the Board receive a good grounding. This places them in a better position to make sound suggestions or to debate more knowledgeably. Few members realize the size or scope of The Canadian Kennel Club nor the heavy administrative responsibilities. Under the two-year term members have a much better opportunity to judge the worth of a director.

Your cooperation and support of the new Board cannot be urged too strongly. It is so much easier to tear down than to build. This is the Board you, by your vote (or negligence to vote) placed at the helm. You might, or might not, like the decisions and transactions made during the next 24 months. If you don't, use your vote to help make desired changes at the end of two years.

In the meantime, your understanding of the functions of the Board will make it easier to comprehend actions and what at times may appear to be lack of activity. No Board can work miracles. Important programs are often slow to mature. Consider that the Board functions very much as does the board of directors of a business. It would be utterly impracticable to consult shareholders on every point, nor would the shareholders wish it. The directors (and the by-laws) are for the protection of the interests of the organization and its members.

It is not expected that all directors will agree on every point. But when a decision has been reached by the majority by the democratic process, i.e. a majority vote, then all should abide by the vote and do their part in supporting the decision.

Have confidence in your Board and judge it by its record on the whole – not by a single action or two with which you might not agree.

Your Board consists of busy people who are serving your interests without remuneration. There's no money and no glory in it for them. more on page 63

the old timer

"I wonder how they are all doing?" said the Old Timer. I'd gone over to help him noseprint some puppies and with that job done we were sitting out in his office discussing the coming show season. The Old Timer had a young dog he was particularly excited about and we'd had it out of its cage, gaiting it and getting it generally accustomed to handling by strangers. Now we had nothing to do except to talk.

"You're wondering how, who or what is doing", I asked.

"Those Christmas puppies," said the Old Timer," the ones that were bought in the first flush of enthusiasm and that have now been in their new homes long enough for the new owners to realize that they've taken on a responsibility—that a puppy in the house is not a mechanical toy—that it's something live, that requires training, food, exercise and care."

"What brings that up?" I asked.

The Old Timer leaned back in his chair. He reamed the carbon out from his pipe, cleaned the pipe carefully, then loaded it and got it drawing easily and comfortably.

"Well," he said, "you're my second caller today. Joe Blow has just left. And he's not a happy man."

"But the last time I saw Joe he was on top of the world," I said." He'd sold a complete litter of puppies as Christmas gifts."

"And now," the Old Timer said "three of the new owners are complaining. One says her puppy is dirty and can't be house-trained. Another's complaining that it's destructive, and the third says the puppy is shy—that all it does is sit and cower in a corner. So poor Joe is having his troubles."

"But surely," I said, "it's a case of caveat emptor—let the responsibility be the buyer's."

The Old Timer pulled on the lobe of his right ear. He sat quietly for a moment as he puffed at his pipe.

"Legally, yes", he said "but morally I don't think so. I think there is a great deal of responsibility on the breeder."

"In what way?" I asked. "The people wanted a pup. Joe sold them a pup. If he sold them a pup that was in good health and that was what he represented it to be, surely he has met his responsibility."

"You think so, do you?" asked the Old Timer. "Well I don't. Legally he has met his responsibility—but morally, that's a different question."

"Like what?" I prodded.

"Well, like getting the new owners conditioned to a new puppy," said the Old Timer, "and like getting the puppy conditioned to a new home."

"Just what do you mean?" I asked.

By this time the Old Timer's pipe had gone out. He relighted it carefully, making sure it was burning evenly and drawing freely.

"I know you think I'm a fanatic," he said, "but it has paid off, for in all the years I've been breeding dogs I've only had two puppies come back to me. Now, in the puppy sale season I think one of the great dangers is the impulse buyer."

"Impulse buyer?" I asked.

"Yes, the person who suddenly decides that what junior needs more than anything else is a puppy. He sees your sign on the highway and before he really knows it the decision is made. He's in a lickety spit to buy a pup."

"And wouldn't you sell him one?" I asked.

"I never have," said the Old Timer. "When these people come in off the highway and it's obvious that they're acting on impulse I send them away. Oh, I show them the puppies—but I also explain they are taking on a responsibility. Then I suggest that they go home and think it over before they make up their minds. And another thing, if a husband comes in alone I suggest he bring his wife when he comes again."

"Don't you lose sales that way?" I asked.

"Sure I've lost some," the Old Timer said. "But also I've avoided people coming back and asking me to take the puppy back because they've suddenly found they can't cope with it. But if they go away, think it over overnight and then come back, you can make up your mind that ninety-nine times out of a hundred you've sold a puppy that will stay sold and that will go into a home with serious, responsible owners."

"You suggested getting the puppy conditioned for a new home?" I reminded him.

"Yep, that's something else to think about. Once the puppy reaches an age when it should be sold it should be conditioned to the life it is going to lead. I bring mine into the house and get them started on paper training. I give them a lot of handling. I get them used to human beings. I get them at least partially lead broken. I get them used to a car."

"And . . . ." I asked.

"And, though it takes time it's worth it. They adjust to new owners and new conditions in a minimum of time. They are well on the way to being house broken. They know what the outdoors are for and they're not afraid of people. Think about it my friend. It may pay you dividends with that litter you'll be selling in the spring."

He knows what's best in Nutrition

Your veterinarian has a profound knowledge of Animal Nutrition. Years of study and practice have taught him the importance of a balanced diet. He knows which foods contain the essential nutrients your dog needs for good health. Such nutrients as Vitamin A and Vitamin E, for instance, to combat night blindness and skin disease. OBEDIENCE

Ed. O'Brien, Canfield, Ont., is well-known as Canada's leading professional trainer of dogs in Obedience work. He is a licensed Judge, one of Canada's first. He began his career in the West, training dogs for herding and other farm work. Since moving Ontario he has specialized in training dogs for police and guard work and for disabled people. Mr. O'Brien also breeds German Shepherds and Dobermans.

During the past month it has been my pleasure to watch two Obedience Trials, at each of which I saw a dog work with exceptional speed and gaiety. I didn't see all the dogs work at these Trials, so in mentioning these two I am not trying to take credit from other dogs by comparison. The first dog, a German Shepherd, working in the Burlington Trial, was entered in the Open Class and had more zip than I have seen in a Shepherd for a long time. Possibly he had more speed than he could control, for at some point in his work Judge Gerald Charters placed a very good and steadier Sheltie over him by, I believe, half a point. As the German Shepherd is our breed here at Edlyn, I was especially pleased to watch this fast, confident and happy dog work. There is nothing of the mechanical robot about him. We need more of his kind in obedience.

Some of my readers may feel that because they are working with the smaller breeds, they have a poor chance of matching this kind of work, and of course it would be foolish to expect the small dog to compete with the larger in running speed. Even though we do not have to catch a rabbit in Obedience Trials, still a large percentage of our dogs would give a more impressive performance if they moved more quickly and showed more enjoyment in their work. Can it be that in the basic training the handlers are themselves moving too slowly, not necessarily in the heeling alone but in their turning, giving of signals and even in the manner in which verbal commands are given? Certainly in Trials, the quick-moving dog always seems to be handled by a quick-moving person.

The second Trial I attended was held by the German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada, in the York Armouries, Toronto. Again, because two rings were in operation at the same time, I was not able to see all the dogs work. However, I did see most of the work done by a Dachshund in the Utility Class, handled by a young woman from, I believe, Peterborough. I have no idea of this little dog's final score, but if his overall work was as good as the parts I saw, it must have been very high indeed. The work of both handler and dog was a credit to Obedience work. The little Dachsie, in spite of its short legs, could really move and the handler certainly was not wa ing for it. This little dog was right the job and enjoying every minute of It was a pleasure to watch this good d beautifully handled, who should have ceived a plus for enjoyment of work.

And now I want to speak of a poi which has been bothering me. The D Show Rules, for Canada, definitely sta the judge must ask the handler to op the dog's mouth in conformation judgin but I find no such rule in the Obedien Regulations and Standards. Should n the rule that an Obedience judge is NO allowed to open the dog's mouth in e amining him be included in our Obed ence Regulations? If an American judg is not aware of this rule, he will, as r cently happened, innocently open th mouths of all dogs in the Utility Clas Would it not have been in order for Ring Steward, or perhaps the Trial r presentative, to have pointed out th mistake at once, to save the visitin judge from being faulted?

A question has been raised, by one o my readers, as to whether it woul be possible to have a special class i which a handler could work two dog at the same time. This would not be a official class of course but some of th Trial-giving clubs might be interested i it as a special feature. Two interested parties have braces of dogs, one blac the other white, which they would lik to work together. A case of black an white whiskey might be an appropriat trophy! At different times, we've ha teams of four dogs, each with a separat handler, compete against each other bu a pair of well-trained dogs worked by competent handler might well be greater attraction.

A few years back, we often had some special feature at a show, usually put on by the dogs entered in the Obedienc Trials. I remember that Edith Hall, wh judged a number of our Trials, some times brought along her team of four collies and gave us demonstrations o Obedience work par excellence. I used t put on shows myself, with two Germa Shepherds and our beloved Cocker Evoe, who was Canada's first Utility Dog. While I realize that our Trials ar larger now, and we are sometimes short of time, still I think it might be a good idea to liven them by including some thing a bit different from time to time. How about hearing from our readers on this point?

RETRIEVERS

IN THE FIELD

Ruth Copeland is one of the best-known participants in field work in Canada, and is perhaps best able, through her intimate knowledge of sporting dogs at work, to describe a trial from the standpoint of color, excitement and the fine points of an event. She is a real outdoor girl, a fine sport under any weather or field conditions.

ROBERT BURNS' DESCRIPTION OF 'CAESAR'

Down to the present time the Border Country has long been a home to the Labrador Retriever, and in his poem, "The Twa Dogs", Burns' description of one of the two canine philosophers was no doubt inspired by one early import from Newfoundland:

"The first I'll name, they ca'd him 'Caesar',
Was keepet for 'his Honor's' pleasure:
His hair, his size, his mouth, his lugs, (ears)
Shew'd he was nane o' Scotland's dogs:
But whalpet some place far abroad,
Whare sailors gang to fish for cod.
His lockèd, letter'd, braw brass collar
Shew'd him the gentleman an' scholar;"

Another of the bard's poems, although dedicated to the mouse whose home was turned up by his plough, might equally well apply to many a whistle-deaf Open All-Age hopeful, fallen into disgrace during a training session:

"Wee sleekit, cowrin', tim'rous beastie,
O, what a panic's in thy breastie!
Thou needna start awa' sae hasty,
Wi bickerin' 'brattle'. (hurrying dash)
I wad be laith to rin an' chase thee,
Wi murderin' pattle! (spade-or leash?)

MR. FIELD TRIAL

John Fraser, Jr., editor of the Field Trial News, died August 19, 1963 at the age of 73. "Jack", as he was affectionately known to a host of friends in the USA and Canada, will be missed as long as there are Field Trialers who knew him.

Jack was an ardent outdoorsman, with a special fondness for waterfowl. He hunted ducks in Canada for over 50 seasons. His work in Ducks Unlimited contributed appreciably to the success of that organization. He was always a keen conservationist, and among the many other programs to conserve game birds in which he actively participated or supported through the News were the Meadows Game and Conservation League, Wetlands for Wildlife, and the Society of Tympanuchus Cupido Pinnatus (Prairie Chicken).

In 1908 Jack had his first Retriever, and in 1937 he became interested in Field Trials. Twenty-seven years ago he was one of the organizers of the Wisconsin Amateur Field Trial Club. The Field Trial News, published monthly for Retriever clubs, contains reports and results of all American trials, announcement of changes in the Retriever F.T. Rules, recommendations by the Retriever Advisory Board, trial dates, and other news of interest to Retriever owners, including Canadian items when submitted.

Through the News, constant personal contact, and correspondence, John Fraser played a big part in the development of Retriever trials. He had judged over 100 trials, several in Canada. His contribution to conservation and to the Retriever sport will long be remembered with gratitude.

NATIONAL RETRIEVER CLUB OF CANADA. NATIONAL CHAMPION 1963

The generous hospitality and efficient organization of the B.C. Gun Dog Club, 1963 hosts to the Retriever Championship Stake, will be difficult to match. President Robert A. White, Marshall Ken Gibson and their committees left nothing undone to ensure the trial's success and to make it an enjoyable, memorable event for all guests and contestants.

The new National Retriever Champion of 1963 is F.T. Ch. and USA F.T. Ch. and A.F.T. Ch. Tar Baby's Little Sweet Stuff, a six-year old black male Labrador Retriever (USA F.T. Ch. and A.F.T. Ch. Tar Baby of Holly Hill ex Debbie of Holly Hill). Breeder, George A. Westerbut. Owner and handler, Mr. Kenneth L. Carpenter of White Rock, B.C. Congratulations to the new Champ and his popular owners, Toni and Ken Carpenter.

USA NATIONAL RETRIEVER CHAMPION 1963

The American National Championship Stake was held in November near Sacramento, Calif. with 57 contestants. Winner was '61 N.F.C. Del-Ton Colvin ('55 N.F.C. Cork of Oakwood Lane ex Del-Tone Bridget), black Lab. male, owned by L.J. Snoyenbos, and handled by Tony Berger. This is Tony's third National win, twice with Colvin, and in 1955 with Colvin's sire, the great Cork of Oakwood Lane.

Adversity teaches us to pray. The pity is that success too often causes us to lose the habit.

SUGGEST SPECIAL STAMP TO FINANCE WETLANDS

In the USA "Duck Stamps" cost $3.00 and are purchased by hunters at post offices to be affixed to state hunting licenses. The stamp gives the license holder the right to shoot waterfowl, revenues going into the improvement of duck habitat.

A Federal "Duck Stamp" charge on Canada's estimated 500,000 waterfowl hunters has been proposed in Ottawa by the Canadian Wildlife Federation to help finance the preservation of vital wetlands for waterfowl breeding. The Federation represents 150,000 organized sportsmen in eight provinces. President of the Canadian Wildlife Federation is Mr. T.S. Hodgkiss of Terrace Bay, Ont.

Wetlands are oases for all forms of wildlife. Find one and there will be mink and muskrats, herons and blackbirds, raccoons and deer, fish and frogs. Of primary importance in this era of disappearing waterfowl, there will be ducks!

Water tables have dropped alarmingly in many areas of Canada; streams that were once beautiful and which supported healthy fish are now frequently polluted or dry; marshes and potholes are heedlessly drained or filled without regard to wildlife; the earth is scarred with ditches, and dust devils dance where once water shimmered in the sun. It behooves sportsmen, as individuals or in groups, to support, by all means at their disposal, the conservation of forest, field and stream and the survival of Canada's wild birds and animals.

1963 HIGH POINT OPEN ALL-AGE LICENSED TRIAL SCORES

Alberta captured the two record totals for the season with two outstanding Calgary dogs:

F.T. Ch. Carnmoney Billy Jo, black Lab. male, owned and handled by Charles L. Bjork, made 38½ points. He had four first places: 33½ points were earned in Alberta, five in Saskatchewan and one-half in Manitoba.

F.T. Ch. Rockyview's Radar Duke, a Chesapeake Bay male, owned and handled by R. Davidge, was a close second with 38 points. He had six firsts and had the highest total for trials held in the province, with 37 points made in Alberta and one point in B.C.

British Columbia's top-scoring Open Retriever was also in the 1963 National Champion, Tar Baby's Little Sweet Stuff. Ontario's high point Retriever was F.T. Ch. Cedar Hill Lucky Black Banshee, black Lab. male owned by Mrs. Richard Berry and handled by her son, Bill McNaughton. Lucky made a total of 24½ points with 16½ points and three C.M.'s

HUMANELY "SPEAKING"

The General Manager of the Ontario Humane talks about the term "cruelty".

by tom hughes

WHAT IS CRUELTY TO ANIMALS — AND DOGS IN PARTICULAR?

Everyone who has any sense of moral values will, if asked, agree that cruelty to animals is wrong and that "something" should be done about it! If pressed they will always volunteer the information that they are "against" cruelty. But what do we mean by "cruelty to animals"? If we could provide a ready made answer to the question, the work of the humane movement would be much simpler and our goals easier to achieve. But of course there are as many conceptions of cruelty to animals as there are people. One man will see great cruelty in one form of activity while another can see no wrong in it. Both are perfectly moral, intelligent human beings. They possess the same senses and probably even the same sense of values. But they approach the question from a different point of view.

Generally speaking, cruelty is an act which in itself causes physical suffering to an animal. If the act is carried to an extreme, or continued indefinitely, then the animal will eventually show, by some physical symptom, the result of the cruel "act". For example, a man can kick a dog in the ribs; he can pick a dog up by the legs or ears and suspend it; he can beat it with a whip, stick or leash. These are all cruel acts but they will not necessarily show any physical result in the dog's condition unless carried to the extreme. But at the time they occur, anyone seeing the dog being illtreated in this way would very naturally want to stop the treatment. He may intercede himself. If he does he should be very careful. The dog may not recognize his good intentions and may just bite the hand that is trying to rescue him.

Much better to try to reason with the person concerned and if possible obtain the name and address of the person responsible. And then phone the nearest Humane Society. Give the facts clearly and calmly. Remember the girl on the other end is probably trying to write the information down and it's important that she gets the facts correct. Remember too that the girl probably handles dozens of similar calls every day and is quite used to the gory facts of life.

A qualified, trained, uniformed Inspector will investigate your complaint as quickly as he possibly can. However he may be many miles away and he may have other equally urgent complaints to investigate before he can respond to your call. But there is a problem in this type of incident. You have seen a cruel act, you have reported it, and the proper person investigates the report. Unfortunately it is very difficult to take any real action as a result of the call. The dog's condition very rarely substantiates the complaint. It becomes one man's word against another's. Even if more than one person witnessed the incident it would be difficult to convince a Magistrate that the beating or whatever it was actually caused physical suffering to the degree that cruelty was involved.

Even more difficult is the case where no "act" is involved. In other words where the cruelty consists of "neglect". Neglect is where a person willfully fails to provide adequate food, water, shelter and care for an animal. But what is "adequate"? Certainly what is considered to be adequate for one breed will not be adequate for another. What may well be quite sufficient shelter for one dog will be insufficient for another dog even of the same breed. And what on earth is "adequate" feed? As we all know one dog will do well on a certain amount of one type of feed whereas another dog will starve on the same diet or for that matter the same dog will do poorly on a larger amount of food of a different type. The same difficulty applies to "water". Some dogs need and will drink copious quantities of water; others will hardly touch the stuff unless very hot and thirsty. Should it be clean water in clean containers? From an esthetic point of view, yes. But we have all seen a hot dog drink the worst contaminated water without, apparently, any harmful results. And finally "care". Presumably "care" covers every other aspect of a dog's requirements that enable it to live a normal existence. But what on earth is a "normal" existence for a dog? Certainly exercise could be considered under "care". No animal can live a normal life if it is deprived of adequate exercise. But what is "adequate" exercise? Some dogs thrive on almost unlimited physical activity. Probably all dogs would be better for more exercise than they get. But we are not concerned now with "condition" but with the minimum amount of exercise a dog should have to ensure it is receiving adequate "care". This is a very different thing to the amount the same dog should ideally receive.

So you can see that it is very difficult to recognize "neglect". And yet the average Humane Society receives more complaints of this type than all others put together.

If you either see or hear of instances or conditions which would appear to amount to "neglect" by all means phone, write or call your nearest Humane Society or S.P.C.A. and give them the details, as you know them. An Inspector will investigate.

Of course the S.P.C.A. Inspector is not a paragon of all the virtues. He is not even required to be an "expert" in every and all classes of animals. Many of them are extremely knowledgeable about animals, but not all. Strange as it may seem there is a definite shortage of such all round experts and they are expensive when available. But the Inspector is trained to follow certain procedures and to apply certain tests that will provide him with certain answers and information. And the most vital test is the condition of the dog. If a dog which is alleged to have been "viciously beaten to within an inch of its life" responds to his owner's call readily and without any sign of fear it's not very much use going any further. Frequently a person will "correct" a dog and this will be construed by an observer as "cruelty". But it isn't; it's discipline, which is an entirely different thing. It's discipline which may well enable that particular dog to live a more useful life. I have seen countless thousands of dogs brought to animal shelter simply because the owner could not train the dog not to be a nuisance. They couldn't bring themselves to discipline the dog; but they could turn the dog over to a shelter as "unwanted". If I was a dog I would hate to be "loved" by such a person.

Similarly a dog which is neglected will, less readily, show that neglect by his condition. If a dog is thin there is a reason; if he is emaciated there is a reason; and so on. If the reason is not a health problem then it can only be that he has been deprived of "adequate food, water, shelter, or care" or one of those essentials. Because a dog is kennelled out of doors is not wrong in itself. Most heavy coated dogs are a great deal better off if they never are exposed to the perils of central heating. But a little Pomeranian, Manchester Terrier, Italian Greyhound, just to mention a few breeds, simply couldn't stand kennelling out of doors in the Canadian winter. But to keep a Chesapeake Bay Retriever, a Labrador, or similar breeds in 75 — to 80 degree heat is cruelty to animals. Particularly when the same dog is required to perform any useful function in the field. But these dogs are entitled to and require a good dry kennel with dry bedding and freedom from drafts, with an opportunity to retain their body heat. Anything less is cruelty.

Confusing isn't it?

In speaking to breed clubs, obedience clubs etc. I am asked very frequently why the Humane Society can't do "something" about a particular incident which a member of the club either witnessed or, much more often, heard about. I don't know the answer but I generally suggest that it may lie in the problems described above. Often the club member only heard about the alleged cruelty or neglect long after the incident actually occurred. This only adds to the difficulty of anyone taking any action at all. Human memories are very short. It is almost impossible to obtain an accurate description of the event weeks and months afterwards. So it is essential for the Humane Society to receive the information as quickly as possible.

But the next time you hear someone say that they heard about some terrible case of cruelty to an animal and "that nothing was ever done about it" remember the difficulties every Humane Society works under. Be assured we are doing our very best; we need your encouragement, understanding and support. The kicks we get plenty of; we need the occasional bouquet. Make mine roses.

TATTOO SOLVES MYSTERY

A misplaced Beagle pulled into a Lachute farm recently for refuge and sustenance. Having checked the ears for a tattoo, the proprietor called George Coombs whom he knew owned such dogs. Not being one of his kennel, George passed the information on to Okill Stuart, thinking he might recognise the OJC5R. A call to Livestock Records in Ottawa revealed that a Poodle breeder had been allotted OJC. However, the obliging employee offered to check thoroughly for a resembling allotment among the Beagle breeders. A card arrived the following day giving the names of the breeder and owner of OJC5R. A quick telephone call confirmed the supposition and re-united a happy hound and owner in Huntingdon.

Once again, one of the values of the tattoo method of identification has been proven. As owners of hunting dogs we have particular reason to be grateful for it.

Every gunning season a few Beagles are recovered which might otherwise remain unidentified. Roger Labelle, PO. 7-4253, is awaiting word from Livestock Records at the moment on the owner of CM 45. Doubtless the fine staff in the office in Ottawa will unravel this mystery as well.

From the TA-I-O Beagle Club Newsletter, Dec., 1963.

DOUBLE HANDLING

What with husbands not always able to take time off from work to show dogs, and baby sitters costing what they do, some brave young mothers are considering taking their small fry to the show while handling the family hopefuls. Here's a sample of what it could be like:

Hold my dog for a moment, will you please? I've got to get my child vetted. I mean my dog. Stand beside the nice lady, please dear. Mother will be just a minute. Of course he won't hurt Barco. Barco isn't sick. Why is he seeing a vet when he's not sick? I'll explain later. Just be good.

No, darling. You cannot climb into the crate with Barco. Well, you can't here. Just sit down nicely while Mother takes Barco to the bathroom. I mean exercise ring.

Here, eat your own biscuits. Nibbling Barco's bickies is playfun at home, but you mustn't do it here. And don't try to pull him around by the tail, either.

Yes, I know your hair needs combing. But I have to comb Barco's first. He has to be shown soon. No, it's not that he's more important. Well, try to tie your own shoe, dear, it's fun. You want what? You can't possibly. You've just been. But Mother has to take Barco into the ring now. You wait here with Mrs. Goodland. She has a pretty dog just like Barco, see?

No, you cannot go into the ring with Mother and Barco. Well, it's just never been done before. For heaven's sake, don't rub that white powder on the brown part of his coat. Now look what you've done. Hand me that towel, quickly.

Where's my arm band? Where's Mother's orange band that goes on her arm? You drew funny pictures on it? Well, where is it now? You march right over and get it back out of that trash can. Right quick.

Oh dear, that's the last call. All right, you can come over to the ringside and watch. But you must be real quiet. Don't speak to Barco when we go past, and don't even wave to him.

What are you doing? Put those scissors down this minute. Why did I ever bring you? Oh yes. As if there were any alternative. Now I must, must, must go. Whatever will I do with you? Oh, I know. See that sign over there where it says Lost Children? Well, let's play a game. You go over there and tell the man you're lost. And then as soon as Mother comes out of the ring she'll hurry over and find you. That's a promise. Okay? All right now. One, two, three. Get lost. And remember, honey, Mother really does love you.

SLED DOG FACTS

The first organized sled dog derby was held in Alaska in 1946, although there were many races held previous to this by the individual kennel owners of the area. Prize for this first organized race was $90.00 compared with the $2500 offered for 1964. The World Championship derby now carries a purse of $7,500; $1,000 is offered for the Alaskan Women's Championship. Prize money has changed greatly during the passing years but the time made has not. The record of 1:39:49 for the 25 mile course, set by Earl Norris and his team of Siberian Huskies in 1952, stood until 1962 when it was broken by George Attla. The record for the 408 mile event, made by "Iron-man" Johnson with his Siberian Husky team in 1910 of 74 hours, 34 min., 14 sec., still stands.

CORRECTION

Apologies are in order to Mr. David Fingard for a misquote of his cover story in the September, 1963 issue by Mrs. Lina Basquette (see Letters to the Editor, November, 1963 issue)—Mr. Fingard's reference to Heidere Devil D of Mary Dane was that "he is a grandson of what is purported to be the greatest winning Great Dane alive today". He did not state "the greatest winning Great Dane alive today".

THE AUSTRALIAN

by Mrs. Isobel Henderson, Peterborough, Ont., who is concentrating on the development of this breed in Canada. She is also a breeder of Bassets.

After many years of breeding, establishing type, character and conformation in Australia, this little Terrier, although until recently neglected by breeders as a potential showman, is finally being recognized and holding its own amongst the best Terriers. Small, perky and highly intelligent, new owners quickly recognize and recommend their unusual traits and personality.

For those who like a choice of color in a breed, there is the blue and tan which are the more popular with the public, or the second preference is solid color, either a clear red, or sandy.

The coat for a terrier which goes to ground must be weather resistant and act as a protection from the retaliations of its defensive quarry; for as adorable and adaptable as he is to the comforts of home life, the Australian Terrier is also an excellent game hunting dog. We find that the coats are improving.

The Standard calls for a straight front, although this does not mean that the body is perched on top of the leg like a Fox Terrier. The chest is fairly wide and the body is slung between the front legs with a distinct slight keel. The shoulders are well laid back with a lean neck slightly crested from the back of the skull to the top of the shoulder blades. Shoulders should be muscular, but not heavy or coarse. It must be remembered that this is a dog bred to go to ground and dig for game. Selective breeding, however, must be carried out to eliminate the poor fronts we have seen both in Canada and the USA.

The ears have improved generally; by Mrs. Pamela Running, Runwyre Kennels, Reg'd., Brampton, Ont., who has made a study of Wires in both England and Canada and is a respected breeder.

THE WIRE FOX

In the '30s the debonair Wire Fox Terrier was top dog both in the UK and USA. The puppy factories ruined the breed by ignoring the fact that health, brains and disposition are vital to any breed's popularity. Today we must give top priority to these qualities because our breed is coming back both as a pet and show dog.

In Ontario, at least, 1963 was a tremendous year for the wire. Demand for pet puppies was most encouraging and the breed returned to something of its former glory in the ring. Many leading vets were recommending a Wire as an ideal family dog, something they might have hesitated to do a few years back.

As a show dog, in the UK in particular, the Wire has always been supreme. They still hold the record, I believe, for Best in Show awards both at Crufts and Westminster.

They may not have set a record in '63 but they certainly made a wonderful comeback. Three Bests in Show and nine Groups won by five dogs is something of which to be proud.

Two imports, Ch. Deko Defiant and Ch. Tulsmere Tuscan, won the top award, another import Am. & Can. Ch. Cairngorm Rambler, a Group. Two Canadian bred females, Ch. Kindon Wee Rascal and Ch. Runwyre Ranee, won two of the three Groups at the C.N.E.

Most obvious improvement in our Canadian bred Wires is size, type and show presentation. The more 'professional look' of many exhibitors' dogs has resulted in our judges taking a renewed interest in the 'showy' Wire. Many of by Mrs. Elizabeth Golby, Willowdale, Ont., a dedicated breeder and promoter of the emblem dog of Ireland and a successful exhibitor.

Thirty years ago the Kerry Blue Terrier was comparatively unknown on this Continent. The true origin of this fine breed is obscure. In the misty hills of Erin the cotters, who owned a Kerry Blue, or Irish Blue, trained this versatile dog to hunt and retrieve, herd cattle and sheep, destroy rats and badgers. During this last war, the Kerry Blue proved his worth as a watch-dog, guarding prisoner of war camps and ammunition dumps.

It was not until 1922 that the Kerry was recognized by the English Kennel Club and in that year the first Kerries were exhibited at Cruft's. At that time, they were shown in the rough, and their ring manners had a great deal to be desired. Today, the Kerry Blues are among the larger entries at our shows and attract crowds to the ringside. It is quite a thrilling sight to see the beautifully trimmed Kerries with their gleaming, slate-blue coats, step proudly into the ring with arched necks and gaily wagging tails.

As a house pet, the Kerry is unsurpassed. With his non-shedding coat, his loveable and affectionate nature, he captures the hearts of all who own him.

Not only in the conformation ring is the Kerry an admirable performer but in the obedience ring as well. His keen intelligence and his enthusiasm to please his owner make him a sprightly contender. Many Kerry Blues not only have a Canadian championship title before his name, but a CD and a CDX as well. I, personally, would like to see more Kerries in Obedience, and try to encourage owners to train their dogs in that respect.

HERE IS A FRANK DISCUSSION ON SOME OF THE BETTER-KNOWN TERRIER BREEDS, WITH QUESTIONS RAISED.

THE MIN. SCHNAUZER

by Mrs. Hugh Simpson, Rosehill Kennels, Reg'd., well-known breeder of Wire-haired Fox Terriers and Miniature Schnauzers.

The next seven to ten years will be the most critical in the breed's history. In general, the breeders have done a creditable job in their efforts to produce good dogs, typical of the breed and full of quality.

However, it would be time well spent if the breeders would take a good look at their stock to ensure that their stock gives the appearance of strength and stability, so desirable in the Miniature Schnauzer.

Much of the "looks-like-a-Schnauzer" appearance can be attributed to good fore and hindquarters. While it would be quite untrue to say that poor fronts and rears are seldom seen, the fact of the matter is more dogs are being shown with these shortcomings than should be. The Schnauzers' sloping shoulders, well laid back, with a good reach when gaited are some of the distinguishing features of the breed.

The rears of some of the dogs offered in the ring today are too often weak. This has been a problem for all breeders but the showing of such dogs certainly does not enhance the breeder's reputation as a competent selector of suitable mating.

Coats and furnishings seem to have reached a fair balance and while perhaps coats are not all that might be desired, particularly as to hardness, on the other hand feathers are more profuse than maybe necessary. Speaking of profuse furnishings, these can and do often hide some of the more common faults of fronts and rears, and if this is the case judges would do well to smooth by Mrs. Barbara G. Pirrie, Wil-Wag Kennels, Reg'd., Toronto, Ont., an enthusiastic breeder and promoter of the perky Welshman.

My first attempt to write an article of this type was made in the January '62 issue of "Dogs". I'm now two years older, my experience in the "dog game" has increased tenfold, and my hopes and ambitions for the Welsh Terrier in Canada have become even more determined!

In the past two years Welsh, from Halifax to Vancouver, have made their presence felt in every endeavour in which they have been involved. A few years ago it was literally unheard of for a Welsh to place in the Group – now it's quite a commonplace event. In the Obedience field it was a rare sight indeed, up until the last couple of years, to see one of our Welshmen – now their numbers are steadily increasing and their scores are impressive for any breed, the Terrier Obedience Trophy for Canada going to a Welsh last year.

We are gaining stride, but where do we go from here? First and foremost we must get this breed before the public! Where and how do we do this? By breeding Welsh who are worthy of being shown, rather than puppies for puppies sake. The show ring is, and always will be, the showcase for any breed.

A problem ever present in Welsh is that we, the breeders, are just about as rare as our breed in Canada. Nevertheless, if we all pulled together with the same end in view, started with the best foundation bitch available, used the best studs possible, considering temperament, conformation and pedigree than accessibility, sold our "best" puppies only to by Albert Kaye, Dreamland Kennels, Reg'd., who, with Mrs. Kaye, is the proud owner of the famous Westie, Can. Am. Ch. Dina-Ken's Little Pip.

I dedicate my version of the West Highland White Terrier to the young and novice fanciers, trusting in some small degree that they might derive some benefit from the following.

During my 15 years of breeding and observations gained from books by and writers who were breeders in the past, namely:—Col. Malcolm (the breed's originator), Dr. Flaxman, Matheson, Lee and Ewing, all authorities, I feel I have gained an understanding of the breed and its history. The West Highland White Terrier Club of Scotland and also of England, joined together to form our first standard of the West Highland. The American Kennel Club agreed on this same standard until recently when they intimate they would like the size to be 11 inches.

The first rule set down by the Scottish and English Clubs was that the dog must be white as the name implies, muzzle strong, nose black and large, small dark eye, ears erect with a slight forward tilt, a good length of neck, nicely arched fitting into a well sloping and a well laid back shoulder. The legs should be straight when viewed from the front and must be parallel to one another, shoulder blades flat, clean and free from coarseness or heaviness. He should taper to wedge shape from the shoulder to the outside of his straight pasterns.

His chest should be deep with a good spring of rib in the upper half only and from there showing a flattish side. The top line must be straight on a short back with the tail well set on the end

Bermuda Shows

SMARTLY RUN SHOWS, SIGHTSEEING, INCOMPARABLE HOSPITALITY — WHAT A HOLIDAY!

How to attract more visitors "from away", how to keep up the high standards for a Bermuda championship, how to make it possible for more exhibitors to gain a title — these conundrums appeared solved in the 1963 Bermuda Kennel Club Fall Shows. Held October 29, 30, 31 and November 2 in the magnificent Botanical Gardens, the event attracted the largest number of visitors and Bermudian exhibitors to date.

The flight from Idlewild Airport boasted the largest canine passenger list in airline history, according to a Pan-American official. This year's show averaged more than 140 entries per day, with Obedience entries increased as well. With but a few years' show experience, Bermuda Kennel Club members entered dogs of the greatest variety and calibre to date, and more than held their ground against Canadian and American competitors.

The change in entries by group was remarkable. Last year's Terrier Group was small, and only a handful of breeds were in for group judging. This year Terriers (26 in all) were surpassed only by Toys. For the past few years Schnauzers were scarce. This time they topped the Terrier Group with an entry of 13.

Visitors and entries came from several thousand miles for the glamorous shows. Enid and Bob Osborne from Vancouver with their exquisitely groomed white Miniature Poodles; a Miniature Pinscher owned by Winnifred Wartnow of North Surrey, B.C., and Eunice Greer of Texas, who has some of Reg. Sparkes' Bulldog stock.

Canadian dogs represented their country well, some gaining their titles. Ch. Fireside Chat of Blossomlea, seven-year-old trouper owned by Jean Grant, of Blossomlea, Richmond Hill, Ont., went BB four days in a row, was Best Visitors Dog in the Working Group four days and took the Group twice, placing 2nd at the other show.

Betty Hyslop's Cairns were the first shown in Bermuda. Her Cairndania McRuffie's Splinter gained her championship, as did Fireside Chat; Mrs. Hugh Simpson's Miniature Schnauzer, Rosehill Poco's Impression; the Osborne's Miniature Poodle, Ch. Rothara The White Vivandier; Susan Radley Fraser's Standard Poodle, Pethmelys Tison of Bibelot, handled by Barbara Humphreys, who also handled Mr. and Mrs. W. Ionson's Papillon, Wynfield's Treasure to his title.

Obedience, under the supervision of Mrs. John (Janie) McCulloch, went smoothly. The judges, Miss Blanche Saunders, noted specialist and author, Mrs. Calvert Lightbourn of Bermuda and Mr. Jake Giacomelli of Stoney Creek, Ont., authorities on this fine art, were not only professionally constructive, they were downright fun. It fazed neither judges nor competitors when the sub-tropical sun was suddenly succeeded by darkness and the final judging was done by the light of automobiles. And the goofers class, where dogs and owners were mixed. Some dogs performed admirably, some clowned. If a dog can wear a disgusted look it was Ch. Sugarbrook Stardust, handsome Cocker Spaniel owned by Constance E. Vickerman of Philadelphia, Pa., an affable six-year-old canine perfectionist who carries Obedience titles earned in four countries: Am. Bda. CDX and Can., Mex. U.D. and now Bda. UD. Highest Combined Score in Novice Class (for all four days) was Dorothy M. Bach's Miniature Poodle, Woodland Paprika, with a score of 792 out of 800 points. Highest Combined Score in Open Class for all four days was Stardust who scored 779½ out of 800 points and also earned Highest Combined Score in Utility Class; 585 out of 800 points. Mrs. Edward Mocklow's Labrador Retriever, Ch. Middleton Princess, earned Highest Combined Score for a Bermuda-owned dog with 744 out of 800 points. Anne D. Engelhardt's Collie, Sterling Sprite, gained the Highest Combined Score Locally Owned Dog First Time Shown with 368 out of 800 points.

Mrs. Mae Wilkinson of Hamilton handled her Chihuahua, Wee Mite's Chocolate Chip 2nd, to his CD., as did another Hamiltonian, Mrs. Barbara Saunders with her Miniature Schnauzer, Wee-Mite's Mien Herr.

About Bermudians (at show-time): Canadian-born Kay Ferguson and husband Ben just returned from a trip to Japan (Kay, a former hospital dietitian, can tell you how to eat your way through the Orient and stay healthy). Ben was on the same TCA DC 8 as the majority of Canadians; Kay had stopped off to visit members of her family in Ontario. . . . Major Tony Marsh just returned from a business-pleasure trip through the Caribbean Islands. Priscilla Marsh showing a lovely female Boxer pup just arrived from Haviland Kennels, Toronto. . . . BKC President Edith Bach and husband Norman back from a trip to England and Europe as competitors in top-ranking international bridge competition. . . . Sybil Young (Miniature Poodles) and husband in England on an extended visit . . . Antoinette (Tony) Lightbourne, daughter of Adrienne and Calvert Lightbourne (Pomeranians) now the wife of Richard Butz of the U.S. Navy. . . . Sympathy to Adrienne in the loss of her mother, Mrs. L. L. P. White, who resided in the Catskills, and was known to some of the Canadian visitors. . . . Died: Swan, elderly colored gentleman who was doorman at the Inverurie Hotel for more than 52 years and who always recalled breeder-guests names.

The Whippet, Am. Bda. Ch. Whippoo's Note Well, owned by Nancy and John Openshaw, Bermuda and successfully handled in Canadian shows last summer by Helen Sinclair, Meadowvale, Ont., had also just returned to the Island.

For Mrs. James Reilly of Mount Kisco, N.Y., this was a second visit. On her first trip to the Islands, 55 years ago, she found a charming and witty dinner companion in Mr. Samuel Clements, better known as Mark Twain.

PATRICIA DETMOLD

While there has been no dearth of fine painters of horses, the number of dog portraitists is but a handful. Few artists have any concept of how a dog of any breed should appear as to conformation, action, coloring or expression. The main reason of course is that few artists really understand dogs.

An exception is Miss Patricia Detmold, successful breeder and exhibitor of English Setters, who lives at Ste. Sophie de LaCorne, Que. north of Montreal.

While Setters qualify as her most-painted subjects, partially from her love of them and because of their proximity, her work is not confined to any particular breed. Nor is it limited to portraits.

Her eye-catching bench signs are familiar to many of Dogs' readers. Among them, the figure of the "Golden" Vizla on point, commissioned by Mr. A. Gerle of Montreal; Corgi cutouts done for Mrs. Pamela Mack's Mackson's Kennels and the Cleden's kennels in the States, for the Lomisi Dachshunds, the Petitcote Standard Poodles and the Skyhaven Boxers.

Miss Detmold has also designed original kennel signs for Cairndania Kennels, Prescott, Ont., Noncyn in the States and Cranmore in Quebec. For the Canadian Council for Animal Welfare, Great Village, N.S., she executed eight original black and white designs for notepaper, depicting horses, birds, cats and dogs. She has designed letterhead illustrations, among them Willowmount Kennels, Willowdale, Ont. The Pembroke Welsh Corgi Club of America, Inc., commissioned her to design the crest and emblem, reproduced in color, of the Corgi on green background and white letters.

Although her interest in dogs began with the family English Setters in 1935,

C., by Sheppard, Cartledge, Hammond, Tossell & Co., auditors for Apex Publishers and Publicity Ltd.;

(2) read a letter from the President, dated October 28th, and the concluding two paragraphs of a further letter from the President, dated November 15th, in which the President made it clear that he considered the question of financial arrangements between the Club and Apex Publishers and Publicity Ltd. to be of such importance that it should not be dealt with at a "quorum meeting" of the Board but should be referred to the next annual meeting of the Board;

(3) read his reply (dated October 31st) to the President, and letters received from Mr. Wells, Mr. Dawson and Mr. Little.

DISCUSSION: During a discussion which followed:

(1) Mr. Brown reported that when, at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors of Apex Publishers and Publicity Ltd., the matter of possible new financial arrangements between the Club and Apex Publishers and Publicity Ltd. had been discussed, he pointed out that such an important question should only be discussed at a meeting of the national Board, but when dealt with by the national Board it could, if the Board so desired, make any new arrangements retroactive to the date of the annual meeting of the Board of Directors of Apex Publishers and Publicity Ltd.;

7 R 27. DACHSHUNDS

REPORT: The Secretary reported that the Registration Committee had addressed to many known breeders of Dachshunds a memorandum setting forth certain proposals and requesting the views of those interested in the breed on possible new arrangements with regard to the registration and exhibition of Dachshunds, and the memorandum would be forwarded to any other person or organization who, in response to the notice published in the November issue of the official magazine, asked to be placed on the mailing list of those consulted on these questions by the Committee.

The Secretary read a letter (dated November 19th) received from Mr. Stuart Roberts, Maidstone, Ont. registering "a strong protest over printed remarks of the 'Oldtimer', Mr. E.B. Reid in this same issue" (November issue of "Dogs in Canada").

The letter was ordered held over for consideration later in this meeting.

DISCUSSION: During a discussion which followed Mrs. Mack reported that she had been informed that, contrary to a section of the Committee's message referring to policies applicable to registration of Dachshunds in England, interbreeding of Dachshunds by size and/or coat was not permissible in England.

The Secretary produced information obtained from The Kennel Club (England) in November (1959) which stated that "The Kennel Club Regulations permit interbreeding between the coats, the sizes, and also between coats and sizes."

Mrs. Mack referred to statements published in the October and November (1963) issue of "The American Dachshund" magazine.

It was agreed that the Club has no jurisdiction over statements published in the magazine in question.

-----Luncheon intermission.

7 R 66. NEW BREEDS

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter from Mrs. B. Durkin, Don Mills, Ont. reporting that she had recently purchased an "American Eskimo" or "Spitz" and stating her interest in having this breed recognized by The Canadian Kennel Club.

DISCUSSION: During a discussion which followed the Secretary stated that neither The American Kennel Club nor The Canadian Kennel Club recognizes any breed under either of the two names referred to by Mrs. Durkin, although he believed the United Kennel Club (a club whose certificates of registration are not recognized by The Canadian Kennel Club) registers dogs known as "American Eskimo".

ACTION: The Secretary was instructed to inform Mrs. B. Durkin that the Board was not prepared to consider recognition of the "American Eskimo" or "Spitz".

(2) Mr. Ellis answered questions put by members of the Board;

(4) it was agreed that Mr. Mehlenbacher, Mr. McDerment, and the Secretary would co-operate with Mr. Ellis pending the placing of a report before the annual meeting of the Board in February.

MOTION #435-63

Moved by Mr. Brown, seconded by Mr. Mehlenbacher:

REPORT: The Secretary reported that:

(1) in 1959 Mr. & Mrs. Peter Chernish, Alberni, B.C. had been admitted to ordinary membership as a partnership;

(2) Mr. Chernish had been killed in an accident, and it was Mrs. Chernish's wish that the membership be altered to an individual ordinary membership in her name, and that the registered kennel name MAR-MIK, now standing in the name of the partnership, be transferred to her name;

(4) this request had been reported to the Board by a memorandum dated November 13th, and to date no member of the Board had recorded any objection to the request being carried out.

MOTION #446-63

Moved by Mrs. Joel, seconded by Mr. Blyth:

"THAT, conditional that no objection is received from any member of the Board before November 23rd, this request of change of membership be approved."

Motion carried unanimously.

SUBJECT: Mrs. Mack referred to the case dealt with by the Board earlier in this meeting under file 8 C 10, and suggested that on the notice of renewal of membership form which is customarily forwarded to every member at the end of the year reminding each member that renewal of membership is due as of January 1st, there be included a question intended to elicit information as to whether or not a member seeking to renew his membership is engaged in the breeding, or buying, or selling of dogs which are not pure-bred.

ACTION: The matter was left in the hands of the Secretary to prepare a recommendation for consideration of the Board at its next meeting.

DOG SHOWS

11 D 1. JUDGES

REPORT: The Secretary reported that:
(1) the Terrier Breeders Association of Canada had enquired whether, in the event it submitted an application, approval would be given their selection of Mr. Robert Grant, Ballymena, N. Ireland, as judge of all Terriers at their specialty show to be held on June 13, 1964;
(2) information received from the Kennel Club (England) indicated that Mr. Grant had been approved to award Challenge Certificates only to Irish Terriers and Kerry Blue Terriers at championship shows held under their Rules;
(3) information received from the Irish Kennel Club (Dublin, Ireland) indicated that Mr. Grant had judged the following breeds at championship shows held under their rules: Airedale Terriers, Australian Terriers, Bull Terriers, Cairn Terriers, Fox Terriers (Smooth), Fox Terriers (Wire), Irish Terriers, Kerry Blue Terriers, Lakeland Terriers, Scottish Terriers, Sealyham Terriers, Staffordshire Bull Terriers, and West Highland White Terriers;
(4) this question is referred to the Board in order that it may rule, having regard for the provisions of Section 4 of Chapter 9 of the Dog Show Rules, whether Mr. Grant, being a resident of Northern Ireland, is eligible to judge only those breeds for which he is approved by the Kennel Club (England) or for those breeds for which he is approved by the Irish Kennel Club.

"THAT, the Secretary be and is hereby authorized to inform the Terrier Breeders Association of Canada that we are prepared to approve Mr. R. Grant to judge, at their championship show to be held June 13, 1964, for any or all of the breeds for which he is approved by the Irish Kennel Club according to their letter dated September 30th."
Motion carried unanimously.

SUBJECT: The Secretary recommended that the title on the application form which a person completes and submits when seeking to establish eligibility to judge one or more breeds be altered from "APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL TO JUDGE" to "APPLICATION TO ESTABLISH ELIGIBILITY TO JUDGE AT CHAMPIONSHIP SHOWS HELD UNDER THE RULES OF THE CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB".

MOTION #448-63
Moved by Mrs. Joel, seconded by Mr. Blyth:
"THAT, the proposed change on the application form be approved."
Motion carried unanimously.

OBEDIENCE TRIALS

12 OB 8. REPORT OF CHAIRMAN OF OBEDIENCE COUNCIL

REPORT: The Secretary read the following report (dated November 19th) received from Mr. Mehlenbacher, Chairman of the Obedience Council:
"The Chairman's Standing Committee held a meeting on November 18, 1963 with the following present: George Mehlenbacher (Chairman), Mrs. Mary Southcott, Mr. George Taylor, Mr. Ed O'Brien, and Mrs. D. Engels.
This Committee recommends that Mr. Ben Taylor, Vancouver, B.C., be approved as a tracking test judge.
The Committee recommends that Mrs. Irene Bourassa, Cloverdale, B.C. be approved as a tracking test judge.
The Committee recommends that Cst. Ronald R. Minion, High River, Alta. be permitted to take written and oral examinations on the novice class and on tracking tests.
The Committee recommends that Mr. Donald A. Beaton, Fredericton, N.B. be permitted to take the written and oral examinations on the novice class.
The Committee noted the recommendation of the committee appointed by Mrs. Audrey Langford, Obedience Representative for Ontario, regarding the application submitted by Mr. Lawrence Roberts who wishes to establish eligibility to judge the novice and open classes. Notwithstanding the recommendation of that committee, the Chairman's Standing Committee recommends that Mr. Roberts be permitted to try written and oral examinations on the novice class.
The Committee recommends that Mrs. Patricia Ann Dobie, Kingston, Ontario, be permitted to take written and oral examinations on the novice, open and utility classes.
The Committee has noted the recommendation of the committee appointed by the Obedience Representative for Ontario in connection with the application of Mr. Norman D. Polmateer, Sydenham, Ontario, who had applied for permission to establish eligibility to judge the novice, open and utility classes. Notwithstanding the report of that committee, the Chairman's Standing Committee recommends that Mr. Polmateer be permitted to try written and oral examinations on all three obedience classes.
The Chairman's Standing Committee has reviewed the report submitted by Mrs. Audrey Langford in connection with the application of Mr. A.M.W. Samuels of Toronto, who wishes to establish eligibility to judge the novice class. Notwithstanding the recommendation submitted by the committee appointed by the Obedience Representative for Ontario, the Chairman's Standing Committee recommends that Mr. Samuels be permitted to take written and oral examinations on the novice class.
The Committee recommends that Mrs. Donald L. Plath, Seattle, Wash., be allowed to apply for permission to establish eligibility to judge tracking tests, and in the event that she submits such an application she be allowed to take written and oral examinations, on the understanding that if she should pass these examinations, she will be required to apprentice as does any applicant from Canada.
The Chairman's Standing Committee considered the complaint referred to the Chairman of the Council by the Board regarding the alleged inadequate size of judging rings provided by the Pacific National Exhibition for its obedience trials held on August 28th and 29th, 1963. It is the recommendation of the Chairman's Standing Committee that the Pacific National Exhibition be granted permission to hold licensed obedience trials only if they will guarantee, in writing, that they will provide rings as required by the Obedience Trial Regulations.

Pursuant to the Board's request I have asked the following to serve on the Special Committee with regard to the Service Dog Class: Mr. Ed O'Brien (Chairman), Mrs. Mary Southcott, Mrs. Hanna Schmocker, Mr. Walter Konradt.
As requested by the Board at its last meeting, I have appointed the following as a Special Committee to review the tracking test rules, with a view to submitting its report and recommendations for the consideration of the Board at its next annual meeting: Mr. Warren Parkinson (Chairman), Mr. Walter Konradt, Mr. David White, Mr. Gerald Charter.
The Chairman's Standing Committee, having regard for certain recommendations set out above, is concerned about that section of the present regulations dealing with the processing of applications for approval to judge obedience trials, which virtually gives the Obedience Representative, with or without the assistance of a committee, the right to rule out an application without giving the applicant at least an opportunity of trying written and oral examinations. The Committee does concede that in some instances it is clear from the application received by The Canadian Kennel Club that the applicant just does not have sufficient experience to be considered as possible judging material, but it does feel that at its next annual meeting the Board might review the section in question with a view to requiring that, where an Obedience Representative recommends that the applicant be not permitted to take written and oral examinations, the application must be referred to the Chairman's Standing Committee, along with the Obedience Representative's reasons for so recommending, the Committee to then submit its report to the Board in order that the Board may then decide whether or not the applicant may be permitted to take written and oral examinations."

MOTION #449-63
Moved by Mr. Brown, seconded by Mr. Blyth:
"THAT, we adopt the report and implement the recommendations set out in the report dated November 19, 1963, received from the Chairman of the Obedience Council."
Motion carried unanimously.

REPORT: The Secretary:
(1) reported that the application of the Bytown Dog Obedience Club for the approval of Mr. Raymond Peat, Springfield, Mass. to judge the Novice, Open and Utility Classes at their trials to be held on April 11th, 1964, had been approved following receipt of Mr. Peat's written assurance that while in Canada, he would take written and oral examinations as required by the new regulations (effective January 1, 1964) applicable to residents of the United States selected to judge at licensed obedience trials held under the Club's rules;
(2) Mr. Peat had advised that it is probable that he would be exhibiting at the Canadian National Sportsmen's trials in Toronto in March;
(3) inquired whether the Board had any objection to Mr. Peat taking the written and oral examinations if he should be in Toronto in March.
ACTION: It was agreed that Mr. Peat would be permitted to take the examinations in March if he wished to do so.

FIELD TRIALS

13 FT 12. REVISION OF CRIMINAL CODE

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter (dated October 29th) from Mr. T. I. Hughes, General Manager of the Ontario Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, in which Mr. Hughes:
(1) reported that the Society, and recently the British Columbia S.P.C.A., has concerned itself with the way in which Retriever field trials are conducted in Canada where live birds are used for various tests;
(2) reported that this question had been discussed at a number of meetings held between representatives of the Society and representatives of field trial clubs in Ontario, and as a result a large measure of agreement had been reached on certain regulations which are designed to ensure that live birds used in trials do not suffer unnecessarily;
(3) sought information in order that official discussions may be undertaken with the Club's field trial council.

MOTION #450-63
Moved by Mr. Brown, seconded by Mr. McDerment:
"THAT, this be referred to the Field Trial Council for Retrievers."
Motion carried unanimously.

GOOD AND WELFARE

14 G 15. FELLOWSHIP

REPORT: The Secretary:
(1) pointed out that at the semi-annual meeting of the Board there had been placed before the Board a preliminary report on research being conducted at the Ontario Veterinary College on the preservation of dog semen by freezing, and at that meeting it had been decided that the question of providing further funds for continuation of this research would be tabled until a further report was received, or until it was indicated that further funds would be required;
(2) reported that recently Dr. Archibald of the Ontario Veterinary College had inquired whether it was the Board's wish that the research continue, Dr. Archibald having reported that, out of funds already provided by the Club, there remained about $1,000 still available for research purposes;
(3) reported that Dr. Archibald had extended an invitation to representatives of the Club to visit the College.
DISCUSSION: During a discussion which followed:
(1) the Board noted that while $2,100 had been provided on the last occasion when the Board had set aside funds for research at the Ontario Veterinary College, in previous years the sum had been fixed at $1,500;
(2) it was agreed that it is highly desirable that research on this question continue and that the national Board would be consulted with a view to determining whether the majority of the Board favoured the addition of $500 to the unused funds in order that this research would be continued.

MOTION #451-63
Moved by Mr. Brown, seconded by Mrs. Mack:
"THAT, we recommend to the national Board that another $500.00 be added to the existing fund in order that research can continue."
Motion carried unanimously.

-----Mr. Blyth left the meeting.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

5 F 2. APEX PUBLISHERS AND PUBLICITY LTD.

During the discussion it was agreed that:

(1) publication of comments in the editorial section of the official magazine with regard to proposed amendments soon to be voted upon by voting members is highly undesirable;

(2) the matter should be taken up with the Misses Dunn and Peer of "Dogs in Canada".

MOTION #452-63

Moved by Mr. Brown, seconded by Mr. Mehlenbacher:

"THAT, the Vice President be authorized to discuss this question with the Misses Dunn and Peer."

FOR THE MOTION: Mr. Brown, Mrs. Joel, Mrs. Mack, Mr. McDerment, Mr. Mehlenbacher.

ABSENT: Mr. Blyth.

Motion carried.

13 FT 9. OFFICIAL MEASURERS FOR BEAGLE FIELD TRIALS

SUBJECT: The Secretary read a letter (dated November 18th) from Mr. Duff commenting further on the subject of official measurers and measuring standards, and dealing with sections of the Secretary's letter in reply to Mr. Duff's letter of September 17th which had been read at the previous meeting of the Board.

ACTION: It was left to the Chairman of the Field Trial Council for Beagles and the Secretary to reply to Mr. Duff's communication.

SUBJECT: In reply to a question the Secretary stated that an order had been placed for additional measuring standards.

DISCUSSION: During a discussion which followed it was agreed that Mrs. Mack and Mrs. Joel would obtain samples of other measuring standards available, and would arrange for these measuring standards to be brought to the next meeting of the Board of Directors along with information as to where such measuring standards could be purchased if the Board felt that either or both of these sample measuring standards would be satisfactory for use at championship shows and field trials held under the Club's rules.

ADJOURNMENT

british columbia

JOAN RAILTON, c/o Sir Charles Tupper Secondary School, 419 East 24th St., judge and Bulldog specialist. Vancouver, B.C. Popular teacher,

The second edition of the Nanaimo Kennel Club Newsletter holds much interesting information not only for members but also for "outside" readers. Club meetings aim to be educational as well as business-like. Thirty-two members present at the October meeting discussed Obedience Trial procedure while Sanction and Championship shows were the subject in November. An appeal to members is being made for donations of "dog books" to the Nanaimo Library. According to the librarian there is a great demand and a poor supply of those books. All donations will be stamped with the N.K.C. name and would serve not only to bring the club to the notice of new members but also to form a basic collection of very interesting material for all dog lovers.

A note of interest is that the first Golden Retrievers on the North American Continent were brought to Victoria and Vancouver by retired British Army men.

There are five obedience trophies for competition by club members. The Stan Dyde Trophy is awarded to the dog making the highest score in any club trial, in any class, in a six month period. At the moment Freckles Jamieson is leading. The Anne Hocevar Trophy is awarded for the highest score made in CDX at the end-of-course trial. This has been held for some time by Mrs. Mitchell. The Cranberry Trophy is awarded for the highest qualifying score made by a novice dog and novice handler at the end-of-course trial. The last winner of this trophy, Sammy Reilly, has since been the victim of an unfortunate road accident.

Two perpetual trophies open to all Island Clubs were up for competition at the Inter Club Trial on December 1. They are the Nanaimo Kennel Club "Heel Free" trophy awarded to the highest scoring team of three, and the Victoria D.O.T.C. Merdinion trophy awarded for the highest scoring coupled brace doing CD exercises.

Mrs. Ann Whitton reports for the Coastal Canine Academy that a very satisfactory fall course has just been completed. A record crowd attended the graduation which was judged by Dr. Ian McKay. Advance bookings are now being taken for the new course starting on January 14.

Mrs. Luke took top score with her Min Pin "Louie" at the Working Dog Association trial judged by Mr. Shortreed on November 10. (pictured below).

According to the report sent in by Donald Mann, President of the B.C. Gun Dog Club, the annual general meeting of the club was held on Thursday, December 12.

The agenda included the reports of the retiring executive and the election of officers for the coming year. As 1964 will be an important year in Field Trial work, a large attendance was hoped for.

Two months ago I commented on a Corgi owned by Mr. and Mrs. B. Taylor, having the unusual name of "Olaf". His breeder, Mr. H. J. Head of Kelowna, sends the additional information: quote — "Really his name will be 'Dogdene's Benfro Olaf Bach Un' — quite a chunk for a stubborn li'l guy! It means D. Benfro (Welsh for Pembrokshire) Olaf (last) Bach (dear) and Un (one) or, 'Dogdene's Pem Last Dear One'. He was the only one of his litter to survive." Unquote.

May I take this opportunity to extend to all good dogs and their owners my best wishes for a happy and successful New Year.

GATEWAY CITY OBEDIENCE TRAINING CLUB

Mrs. W. R. Torrance, Headingley, Man. sends in the following news: Graduation for beginners took place November 25. Dave Parliament, as gate steward, kept things moving briskly. High score for each of the five classes was: Mrs. Lois M. Armstrong with Golden Retriever, Honey; Miss Sidney King with Shetland Sheepdog, Robbie; Ron Stefansson with Ti, a Norwegian Elkhound; Mr. Corns with Scamp, a Boston Terrier; Mr. Golden with Sheba, a Samoyed.

The pre-Trial Class was held December 2. This was for all who had entered the Trials on December 7. It provides an opportunity for brushing up where needed.

Dr. Parliament is leaving to take up residence in Dauphin and will be acutely missed.

Jane Owens announces the acquisition of a new Beagle from the East, called Ch. Jacobi's Jo-Ridge, a three year old bred by Mr. and Mrs. P. Jacobi.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Gloria Pellan on the loss of her father.

THE HUB CITY KENNEL & OBEDIENCE CLUB

The club held its annual meeting early in November, winding up 1963 activities. This past year was a successful one, with Spring and Fall Shows and an Obedience program. The new slate of officers for 1964 is: President, Mr. L. R. Heimbecker; Past-President, Mr. F. Leybourne; Vice-President, Mrs. W. Hawes; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. R. Wheaton. Executive: Mr. F. Pfeiffer, Membership; Mr. H. Darlington, Meeting Entertainment; Mrs. K. Lewerenz, Social Committee; Mrs. A. Brandt, Publicity; Mrs. T. Hawes, TV Publicity; Mrs. L. Smith, Spring Show Advertising; Mr. R. Lewis, Business Manager.

The first meeting of the new club year was held December 3, with Mr. L. Heimbecker in the chair. A very nice attendance with several new members present gave the club a chance to discuss the agenda for the coming year. A concerted drive for new membership was urged by Mr. Heimbecker. The Entertainment Committee has plans for every meeting and an active Obedience program is underway. Following the business, a film was shown on "Training the Puppy", after which lunch was served.

The new kennel owner was determined to do everything scientifically. A friend sent a big box of doggie tidbits as a thoughtful Christmas gift.

"Tell me," she asked. "How did the dogs like them?"

"To tell you the truth," replied the owner, "I haven't received the lab report on them yet."

THE ALL TERRIER CLUB OF CANADA

The November meeting was a busy one for the club. Nomination night was first and foremost but as all offices were filled by acclamation this part of the meeting was unexciting. It seems strange that all year club members seem to gripe about their executive but on nomination night – where are they? Undoubtedly every club is afflicted in this way but the club hopes that in '64 all will pull together for the good of their club and the executive who are: Mr. John Devlin, President; Mr. Ross Pirrie, 1st Vice-President; Mrs. D. T. Weir, 2nd Vice-President; Miss Ruth Robinson, Treasurer; Mrs. Elsie Betts, Secretary.

In order to keep everyone informed and up to date on events, the Education Committee invited all the nominees for CKC from Ontario to be their guests for the evening and it was gratifying to have such a good acceptance of the invitation. Those in attendance were Mrs. Edna Joel, Mrs. Helen Sinclair, Mr. Walter Brown, Mr. John Devlin, Mr. Morley Fisher, Mr. George Mehlenbacher, and Dr. Wilfrid Shute. Mr. McConnell and Mr. Monaghan were unable to attend, due to distance or previous commitments. Letters containing their views were read at the meeting. Several members from other clubs were also present. Each nominee gave his or her views on the CKC, how it functions and suggested improvements. This was followed with a spirited question and answer session and it would seem that all who attended came away with a much clearer view of how the CKC operates.

BARRIE KENNEL CLUB

Like all other clubs, this club is planning a club Christmas banquet (over at time of reading) and as last year is holding its party at club members Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lamb's home in Orillia. Plans are shaping up for the club's Sanction Show in January and the Bench Show Committee have just completed the slate of judges for the 1965 All Breed Championship show. To dog fanciers everywhere, the club hopes your Christmas was a very Merry One and that 1964 will be full of good health, good luck and plenty of winning.

THE HAMILTON KENNEL CLUB

Enjoyed a pleasant social evening on November 22 when Mrs. G. Lawless opened her home to members and friends. The time was spent at games and cards with the proceeds being put aside for the Trophy Committee.

The business meeting was held in the Agricultural Hall and after observing a two minute silence in memory of the late President J. F. Kennedy, the members went over various items of business. Preparations for this year's All Breed Championship Show are well underway.

The following were elected for 1964: President, Mr. George Lawless; Vice-President, Mr. A. Diamond; Secretary, Mrs. M. Krawesky; Treasurer, Mrs. A. Langford; Directors, Mrs. B. Cole, Mrs. A. McGhee, Mrs. R. Cunningham; Auditors, Mr. Wm. Burr and Mr. J. McGhee. Mrs. McGhee will convene the social activities and Mrs. G. Lawless will take care of the sick. Publicity will be handled by R. Cunningham. Treat of the evening was a talk by Mrs. Edna Joel on Sanction Shows. Questions and answers which followed were of great benefit to all.

Club members were sorry to hear of the sickness of Mrs. T. Culp and wish her a speedy recovery. As a new year begins let us all make a resolution to join together to work for the good of the club and what it stands for – "dogs".

THE KERRY BLUE TERRIER CLUB OF CANADA

The club officially announces its rebirth and hopes that its many friends will once again gather round and help to keep the staunch Kerry Blue Terrier in the spotlight. The club started off with a bang on September 8 with a combination swim party and puppy match at the Betts' ranch and plans for bigger and better things are forecast for the near future. A meeting was held November 12 at the home of President, Clarence Wright, at which time plans for a Booster show were discussed, to be held in the Spring of 1964. A Christmas get-together was held at the Skyline Hotel on December 14.

Many educational projects have been launched and the club hopes to have trimming demonstrations, movies and helps, hints and things that will be to the advantage of all Kerry Blue dog people. The Secretary will be pleased to receive your comments and inquiries for membership. Direct them to Tony Last, 273 Jeffcoat Dr., Rexdale, Ont.

THE NEWFOUNDLAND CLUB OF CANADA

Held its November meeting in St. Mary's, Ont. on November 10 at which time many items of business were discussed. First was the Booster Show, to be held in conjunction with the Canadian National Sportsmen's Show on March 21. The possibility of the Club donating a trophy to be known as the MacPherson Memorial is to be looked into. This trophy will be for annual competition. This year the club is offering trophies for the first and second placings in all recognized classes with the exception of the Open Class which will have trophies for the first four placings. The judge is to be announced.

The constitution, as submitted by the Constitution Committee, was gone over item by item, discussed and revised where necessary and it is hoped that by the time you read this there will be a copy in the hands of all members for their comments and approval. Editor of "The Newfie News" is Mr. Don Purdy who did such an excellent job of the first edition. His address is 5 Rean Dr., Willowdale, Ont. and like all editors will be glad to receive news for this publication.

NORTH YORK OBEDIENCE CLUB

Had as guests at their November meeting Mrs. Edna Joel and Mr. Walter Brown, Past President of the CKC, who gave an interesting resume of the progress and widespread interest in Obedience since the early days. The club felt proud of the praise given by Mr. Brown to this young club on the ease with which it presents its business and problems as well as the interest, goodwill and fellowship that exists among the members.

Annual donations to the retarded children included a kiln for firing ceramics and jewellery.

Judges were chosen for the June Trial. Elmer Shepherd has taken over the Gestetner operations. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Binney and Mr. and Mrs. R. Kostyra were welcomed as new members. Special mention to Barb Pirrie's Rum 'n Coke who went RW dog and second in Open at the Welsh Terrier Specialty in Philadelphia with Whiskey Mist placing fourth in Open Female. Becky Pennycock's Seagram has also made his owners very proud.

Mrs. Grace Edwards solved the Christmas party problem by insisting that it be held at her home. By now the Archie Warnocks will be applying yet another phase of Obedience training. Congratulations and we hope the end result is as rewarding as your recent success south of the border. Our sincere thanks to non-members, Mr. and Mrs. G. Cadman, for the use of their home for the November meeting. A general feeling of goodwill and togetherness makes the outlook for the New Year very promising.

OAKVILLE AND DISTRICT KENNEL CLUB

The November meeting was held in the Oakville and District Rod and Gun Club Building. Members have been licking their wounds and pruning their fine feathers following their two successful shows held last September. As all results for the year have not yet been tabulated by The Canadian Kennel Club for shows in Canada the club does not know how it compares with other show-giving clubs on entries but feels it is safe to say that the Oakville shows were definitely successful and rank near the top in regards to number of dogs in competition. A most encouraging feature was the obvious interest shown by Oakville citizens generally as the spectator attendance this year broke all records. As 1963 draws to a close, the club may look back on a very successful year. A number of new members have joined and in addition to their championship shows, matches were held between club members to select the Best Dog and Best Puppy of the year. Interesting programs of entertainment were provided at the monthly meetings. The Obedience Training classes held last Spring at the Oakdale Mall were a decided success and will undoubtedly be repeated next year. Members won many major awards in open competition in numerous championship shows, some as

As the November meeting was nominations meeting, no special entertainment was planned. After serving for two years as President, Mr. Ernie McGowan declined nomination for a third term and Mr. George Kennedy was elected President by acclamation. Mr. McGowan agreed to stand for Vice-President and was elected by acclamation. Mrs. A. J. Horn and Mrs. Ethel McGowan were re-elected to their respective offices of Secretary and Treasurer. There were 13 nominations for eight vacancies for directors. These will be chosen by ballot and announced at the December meeting.

The annual club Christmas Party was held on December 7 at the Oakdale Restaurant in the Oak-Queen Mall.

THE OTTAWA VALLEY GUN DOG CLUB

Held a successful Fall Trial on multiple courses when nine covies of Hungarian Partridge were moved during the running under fair skies. The Open Shooting Dog Stake, 25 dogs starting, was won by Earl of Huntingdon, a Brittany Spaniel owned and handled by Robert Lambert. Second place went to Ch. Kipewa's Breton Belle, another Brittany owned and handled by W. McClure and third spot went to another Brittany, Kelly of Shadyhurst, owned and handled by J. H. Bradley. A sad note is that Kelly was killed by a car a few days later while out hunting with her owner. Kelly was a top shooting dog, having four Field Trial placings and was also near her CD. She and Kipewa were litter sisters.

Two Setters topped the field in the Open Derby Stake, J. J. Herbert's Beau's Hystyle Penny and George Boag's Beaukel. These two dogs are litter brother and sister and were bred by Mr. Boag. Beaukel has since won National Field Trial honors by winning the Grouse Futurity at Mariennville Forest in Penna. in a field of 30, all top Setters and Pointers of North America. Penny meanwhile took a significant third in the Penna Grouse Derby and both Mr. Boag and Mr. Herbert have reason to be proud of their Canadian bred Setter winners.

Top winning club-owned dog for the Fall was Ch. Kipewas Breton Belle who, in addition to her second placing at home, took a second and a third at Gouverneur, N.Y.; a third at St. Catharines and a first in the Open Shooting Dog at Oshawa.

President James O'Hara has acquired a top young All Age Pointer, sired by the great Ch. Tyson's Skyhills Flash. This will be one to watch. Jack Bradley and Bill McClure have hopes for a group of six month old Brittanies by Fld. Ch. Uno's Rex of Paradise.

Plans are going ahead for a Spring Trial to be held in May, 1964. Club thanks go to trial friends from Canada and the USA who helped make 1963 a big and memorable year in Ottawa.

THE PETERBOROUGH AND DISTRICT OBEDIENCE CLUB

September 30 marked the day of back-to-school for the club and opening night saw the usual confusion with approximately 40 dogs and handlers registered. The breeds included Toy, Standard and Miniature Poodles, Dachshunds, Samoyeds, Labrador Retrievers, Springers and Cocker Spaniels, Salukis, Great Danes, Bassets, Boston Terriers, Shelties, Dobermans and Kerry Blues. Many members gained their CD's during 1963 and are working towards their CDX. We are proud of our two new members who, after two sets of classes, have now got two legs towards their CD titles – Ann Howitt and her little Dachshund T.O. and Bette Rae Gill with Dachsie Bismark. The club wishes one and all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

THE DOMINION COLLIE & SHETLAND SHEEPDOG ASSOCIATION (Montreal Branch)

Over 50 members attended the annual meeting and dinner held recently in the Officers' Mess of the Hussars Armoury when the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Hazel Slaughter; 1st Vice-President, Leslie Rogers; 2nd Vice-President, Kay Anderson; Secretary, Cookie Dubney; Treasurer, Ziggy Muenz; Programme Director, Margaret Goodbody; Publicity, Malcolm Hirdson. After presentation of club pins to the two delighted Honorary members, Vi Dery and the writer it was announced that the first big event of the coming season would be a Sanction Show on Saturday, February 8, to be held in the Salon National de l'Agriculture, in the Show Mart Bldg. Sounds as though the year will start with a bang and great things are in store.

THE MONTREAL DOG OBEDIENCE TRAINING CLUB, Inc.

Phil Willis, Vice-President of the club, and wife, Marge, judged the basic obedience graduating classes the end of November. They chose as top dogs Mrs. Jackie Wylie's Miniature Poodle, Beau, and Arno, a Labrador Retriever owned by Mrs. Foch.

There is a possibility the club may be moving to new quarters early in the New Year where facilities for training will be much more spacious and convenient. A decision will have been reached and announcement made when the members gathered for the annual Christmas dinner December 11.

TA-I-O BEAGLE CLUB OF MONTREAL, Inc.

At a recent general meeting of the club, it was decided by a majority of members present that the annual membership fee should be raised to $5.00 for an individual, $7.00 for a family. This change must be ratified at the next annual general meeting of the club.

Last month it was mentioned that the need was great for the translation of the Beagle Field Trial rules and regulations into the French language and hope was expressed that someone would be found to undertake the task. Apologies to Yvan Turgeon who has been working long and diligently doing just this very thing. His efforts on behalf of the Beaglers will be greatly appreciated.

Battlebrook Royal Moose, a Beagle owned by Frank Hollister of Bennington, Vt., recently spent a couple of weeks A.W.O.L. Running with a pack in the Pigeon Hill area of the Eastern Townships, he outran his homing ability on "game other than announced". Several diligent searches plus intensive advertising produced rumours and shadows, but no Moose. It was a sad Frank who came up to look for him and returned empty leashed. Finally, as Beagles will, toward the end of the second week he made his way back to the point from where he had been cast. A phone call from a nearby farmer brought Frank in a hurry to pick up what he thought would be a wild, emaciated weary and travel worn hound. No such thing. His normal weight of 35 lbs. had increased to a sleek and portly 39. Where and how? Only he knows. Certainly a Beagle's instincts serve him well.

POT-POURRI

After the sudden death of Dixie Evans of Columbus, Ohio, well-known Great Dane breeder and keenly interested in the many Komondorok she had imported, Dick McLellan received a phone call asking if she could place 23 Komondor by noon of that day, otherwise they would be destroyed. Unfortunately very little time was allowed to attempt this and Dick is justifiably upset at the rapid disposal of these rare and interesting dogs, bred from a very fine strain. On a more cheerful note she reports her Pulik, Poochie, now 18, and his son, Chico, 13, are both hale and hearty and as active as ever. Many will remember Pooch in the ring when obedience was just beginning around Montreal, as Dick and her husband Doug were charter members of Montreal's first Obedience Club, the M.D.O.T.C.

Lee and Mel Fishback of Nevada City, Cal., are moving to Ste. Agathe shortly where Lee will train Mac MacDougall's Siberians and manage his tree farm. Mel, former editor of Northern Dog News, will soon be putting out her first issue of Team & Trail, a magazine mainly of interest to dog drivers. They are bringing along their own team of racers including the famous Samoyed lead dog, "Shu". They have bred many sled dogs under the Zimah prefix and have been consistently up in the top three in Western racing circuits. Welcome to the Province.

Sarah Diamond (Dachshunds) enthusiastically reports on the Ladies Kennel Ass'n Show which she attended while in England — 4743 dogs benched, of which 350 were Dachsies. Miniatures are very popular — so much so that there is little stock for export, and what is for sale is very highly priced. However she did return with one smooth miniature female from one of the top winning English kennels and we shall look forward to seeing her in the ring next year.

One of the Greats in Samoyeds is dead. Thirteen year old Ch. Igloo's Aoojo, CD, bred by Romaine Jones and owned by Lawrie Short, had a noteworthy show career, starting with BCBP in Show at eight months. He was only beaten once for Best of Breed (by his litter brother) and each time shown placed in the Group. Retiring from competition at the age of eight he finished his show career by placing 2nd in Group and BCB.

As so many accounts of lost dogs have sad endings it is a pleasure to report this one. Betty Dobell recently purchased a two year old Standard Schnauzer from Helen Boynton in Mass. She had had him just a few days when he disappeared. Ads, radio announcements and every possible means of tracing him produced no results, in spite of the fact he was wearing a Mass. license tag, and Betty had just about given up hope. Eleven days later she received a call from the Boyntons. The dog had been found near Brother Andre's Shrine, the license noted, a vet in Mass. phoned, who in turn contacted Helen, who phoned Betty, who got in touch with the lady who found the dog. He is now home again, thin but healthy, thanks to the resourcefulness of the finder and Alexander Graham Bell!

All are delighted to hear George Carpenter (Isaak Hunter of the Gazette) is so well again after a long siege in hospital. Mr. Carpenter is noted for his articles on fish and game, but has never neglected the dogs, particularly on the Field Trial side. Welcome back — we've missed your column.

Carol Clarke, now living in Salerno, Italy, back for a visit with the Goodalls in Dorval (the other half of the Til-Lykke Norwegian Elkhound kennels). On a side trip to the States she showed a dog they had sold there, Til-Lykke Frostianni, at the Elkhound Specialty, Goshen, Conn., going BOS over Champions. Old Tiki is in Italy with them. Always a picky eater here, he is thriving on a diet of spaghetti in spite of the heat and the ever-present problem of Ticks. Breeding at the kennels is in abeyance now but will be resumed some time in the future when the family return to Canada. Both the Goodalls and Clarkes have just adopted a second child, so puppies must wait.

Deepest sympathy to the family of Herve Lavoie, an early president of TA-I-O Beagle Club and later one of the founders and President of the Richelieu Beagle Club, who died suddenly only two days after attending the As-

NOVA SCOTIA

Evangeline K.C. completed its first course in basic Obedience Training November 13 with 14 of the original 19 owners attending the graduation class and 12 dogs earned sufficient marks to pass the test. Highest score of 196 was won by a German Shepherd owned by R. Burton, Waterville; second, 193, Miniature Poodle, Miss Manning, Chester; third, 191, Beagle, Mrs. Wright, Digby. Because of inability to find heated space in which to conduct classes during the winter the club is postponing resumption of classes until Spring.

"Exportation" to Winnipeg of the Smooth Fox Terrier English and Can. Ch. Brooklands Royaltan is reported by F. L. Mayne of the Westmayne Kennels of Westchester, who imported this dog in June, 1959 and which has sired some excellent stock.

The same kennels report the importation from England of a black Miniature Poodle male puppy from the Betstan Kennels of Mrs. Burningham, breeder of the current BIS winning Miniature Ch. Betstans Tarquin.

a tribute to the living

As this is the annual Terrier issue, it seemed like an ideal opportunity to present an article whose seed was sown some year and a half ago, but through pressure of many things, mostly "doggy", was never allowed time to grow enough to be presented until now. The thought behind it was that "Great Men" should not have to wait for acclamation until they have departed this earth, rather a tribute to the living seems more fitting! The man I would like to say a few words about, Jack Treleaven, is still very much with us, and although he has had many breeds throughout his lifetime I think his love and presentation of Scotties gives him prime consideration in any Terrier issue. His fine qualities have been even further demonstrated recently during his illness — now it's obvious to all where his true strength lies — in his love of life and his fighting spirit!

—Barbara Pirrie

What constitutes greatness in a breeder? Is it when he consistently produces top winning puppies? Is it when, after many years of carefully planned breeding, he has dogs in the ring that nearly always qualify for top honours at a show? Certainly these two points are very important. The man I would like to discuss has done both of these things but has reached his greatness, in my opinion, through two other qualities: his ability to win or lose with a smile and the help he has given to so many novice breeders and exhibitors, such as myself, who, without his help, kindness, gentle prodding and skill with a stripping knife, would have given up after their first show!

The man I speak of is Jack Treleaven! I doubt that there are many in Eastern Canada or the States who haven't seen this man in the ring at one time or another, I suppose that they aren't all his friends, not many of us enjoy universal popularity, but I doubt that there are many who don't respect him.

The thought for this article came about one evening after he had spent three hours sitting in our living room trying to help us choose the best puppy in a current litter of Welshmen. After he left, my husband and I thought back on the many, many times he had assisted us, starting with our first show in Montreal some years back, at which time we were total strangers. How many times have you heard Jack say, "Bring her over to the table and we'll see what we can do" — this was our formal introduction!

On the same day, at the same show, there was another "novice" with a completely untrimmed Westie benched beside us. New and all as we were at the game, we were trying to assist her in trimming, and we weren't even sure how to trim a Welsh! Along came Mr. T. with a twinkle in his eye as if to suggest "What in heaven's name are you doing to that poor dog". He removed the trimming tools from our hands, carried the little dog over to his table and proceeded to work. I had occasion to meet this gal again this year, and she's never forgotten his kindness.

As I stated earlier, there are different qualities attributed to the making of a great man. I'm sure there are many in the dog game who consider that they have reached their zenith but I wonder, if they sat down and reflected on Jack Treleaven's contribution and theirs, if they wouldn't think they had fallen short somewhere!

How many of you have held out your hand to a poor stumbling novice and tried to lead him in the right direction? You'll have to face it, you're not going to be here forever, someone has to fol-

WESTIE CLUB AWARDS

The Canadian West Highland Terrier Club takes pleasure in announcing the winners of the 1963 Annual Awards, as follows:

The Daniell-Jenkins-Jeudwine Memorial Trophy has been won for the third successive year by Ch. Dina-Ken's Little Pip, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kaye, R.R. 1, Richmond Hill, Ont. This means that the trophy now becomes the permanent property of Mr. and Mrs. Kaye, and sincere congratulations are extended to them and their magnificent dog. Under the point scoring system used to tabulate the show results, "Little Pip" finished with a grand total of 276 points. While points are awarded for Best Canadian-Bred in Breed, Group, and Show, thus giving a Canadian-bred dog an advantage over an imported dog, it is interesting to note that if "Little Pip's" Canadian-bred points were deducted from her grand total, she would still have won the trophy with a total of 168 points. Runner-up was Mr. Fred W. Fraser's Can. Am. Ch. Stoneygap Bobbin of Gillobarr, with 140 points.

The Manderley Puppy Challenge Trophy was won this year by Dreamland's Bonanza, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Harry N. Flanagan, R.R. 1, Brooklin, Ont. Bonanza (Winnie) is a daughter of Little Pip, and amassed a total of 44 points, including two awards of Best Can.-Bred Puppy in Show, and five of Best Can-Bred Puppy in Group. Runner-up was Mr. and Mrs. W. Stewart's "Whinbrae Dolphinet", with 35 points.

Most Best of Breed Awards: Ch. Dina-Ken's Little Pip — with 24.

Most Best of Opposite Sex Awards: Can. Am. Ch. Stoneygap Bobbin with 6.

Most Winners Dog Awards: Mrs. J. H. Daniell-Jenkins with 19 points.

Most Winners Bitch Awards: Mrs. J. H. Daniell-Jenkins with 12 points.

Most Puppy Dog Awards: Mrs. J. H. Daniell-Jenkins (Herald of the Rouge) with 15 points.

Most Puppy Bitch awards: Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Flanagan (Dreamland's Bonanza) with 53 points.

The C.W.H.W.T.C. Obedience Trophy was captured by Sequoia's Cindy, owned by Mrs. G. Powell, with a total (3 scores) of 573½. A very close second was Mrs. N. R. Pennycook's Roseneath Flair of Calico, with 568½ points.

There are also Regional Trophies for 1963, but these are somewhat complicated to figure out, and the results were not known at time of going to press.

SAMOYED SPECIALTY

The show was officially opened by Show Superintendent Mr. Walter Brown. Judge was Mrs. Gladys Taylor, Richmond Hill, Ont.; Ring Steward, Mrs. M. J. Nattrass, West Hill, Ont.; Veterinarian, Dr. Jan Ochalski.

Judge Mrs. Gladys Taylor chose the snowy Ch. Belshazzar 2nd, owned by Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hensley as BIS. His expression clearly says, "I did it!"

With an entry of 27 dogs competition was very keen, many of the larger kennels having an entry in this Specialty Show. There was a large turnout and among the spectators present were Mr. McDerment, Mr. and Mrs. T. Joel, the First Vice President, Mr. Gordon MacDonald, who had been ill for several months.

Once again the club, due to the generosity of many members and friends, was able to offer a fine trophy table for this show.

Memo from the Editor

Dogs in Canada extends the heartiest wishes to the Board for 1964, to Canadian Kennel Club members and to all dog lovers everywhere.

Due to lack of space, Part II of Kennel Construction (see Dogs, December, 1963) will appear in February rather than this month . . . Articles and items in this January Terrier issue deal with a number of the Terrier breeds — but not all. The selection was based on the breeds which have been consistently advertised during 1963. Is your breed not represented? Your lack of solid advertising support makes it economically impossible for us to support and promote your breed as we would like to do. ●

Lucky was the recipient of the Niagara Peninsula Retriever Training Club's $200. award given to encourage attendance at the National by the club's top dog; he also won the Whittaker Memorial Challenge Trophy and the annual Ontario Field Trial Club's Keepsake Prize for the Ontario dog with the highest total of points in Open Stakes held in the province.

Runner up was James M. Thomson's handsome, big USA import, acquired during the summer, F.T. Ch. Stormy of Spirit Lake Gal. Stormy had not previously been placed or campaigned in Open Competition and it is to Jim's credit that he has achieved tremendous accord in a short time with a powerhouse such as this Labrador. In eight starts, with three first places and a C.M., Stormy earned 15 points.

Manitoba's winner was a lady, F.T. Ch. Joker's Lady of Rockwall, Lab female owned by J. F. and A. B. Gray. Her score for the year, with two firsts and two seconds, was 16 points, which makes her the highest scoring female in Canada for 1963.

F.T. Ch. Toba Tiger of Peake, Chesapeake male owned by Cyril Hicks, made a total of 11 points with two firsts and a third.

Saskatchewan's F. T. Ch. Vern's Prize, a Lab. male owned by Vern French, made a total of 14 points with two firsts, nine points in the province and an additional five in Manitoba. Runner up was another male Lab, Glengarvin's Rookie, owned by Mrs. R. Brown; he made a total of ten points, six and a half in Saskatchewan and three and a half in Manitoba.

Quebec and New Brunswick did not place local dogs at their own club trials. Top scoring Quebec Retriever was Mrs. Pauline Ouimet's Golden Retriever male, Sunny Knoll Golden Pilot; runner up was Gerry D'Aoust's Lab male, Du Cap's Black Beauty.

The type that made the Wire top dog in the '30s, the big leggy dogs with long over-exaggerated heads, never met with their approval.

A healthy sign too, is the number of young and enthusiastic exhibitors. These newcomers are deserving of encouragement for they are the Wire fanciers of tomorrow.

Although many homebreds are better than a few years back, we must not become complacent. The general breed standard is still not high and it must be said even many of our champions should

AN OAK GABLES' ITALIAN GREYHOUND

A WORD ABOUT THE PUPPIES' DAM

The dam has never been defeated in her breed in Canada and on six occasions, on her way to her championship, she placed in fast Toy groups. Twice shown in the U.S. she took the points on both occasions.

Here's a breed that's ideally suited for apartment or city home life. It's dainty, but hardy. It's short-haired—non-shedding and has no doggy odor. It's an intelligent, easily trained dog that has been an affectionate home companion and pet since the days of ancient Rome. You'll be happy with an Italian Greyhound, and we have, at the moment, two puppies available.

not have seen a show ring!

We must watch for coarse heads with rounded instead of flat skulls; light eyes instead of dark, rather deep-set eyes with that sharp hard-bitten expression. Many tails appear to be almost 'falling off the end' due to a flat instead of a well-rounded rump that gives, as the old timers say 'plenty behind the tail'. Heavy shoulders and wide fronts are quite common, yet the hallmark of quality both in Fox Terrier and thoroughbred horse has always been the well laid-back shoulder with its long flat blade and a good forehand.

Good legs and feet are of highest importance to a Fox Terrier. Often overlooked by our judges, they can become neglected by breeders.

It is all too easy to fault our dogs and those of others. Not so easy to improve. Those of us trying to breed Wires for show cannot afford the luxury of kennel blindness. Complete honesty with ourselves in regard to our dogs is essential. Only our best females should be bred, using the best studs available, no matter who owns them if they can produce and are of the bloodlines that win. Never double up on faults we can see. There will be plenty in the puppies we could not see!

Keep the best female puppies and by upgrading these, linebreeding and careful inbreeding of their progeny a prepotent strain can be established. Nothing is gained by hit and miss methods and so much time is wasted.

Many breeders here own high class females. In Canada also are excellent studs both Canadian bred and imported. Many of England's top show dogs cross the Atlantic yearly. Thinking breeders will give these dogs careful consideration when planning their breeding programs.

Rome wasn't built in a day, but we can all resolve to improve even further our 1963 Wire Fox Terrier. ● seldom do we see the thick, tufty ear with the round point like a Corgi ear. The small, pointed, erect ear is most desirable.

In summing up, the attributes of an Aussie are exceptional hardiness, a keen sense of hearing and scent and the ability to adapt to mood or surroundings. They are fun-loving and loyal, agressive when aroused, while docile in repose. ● people who would help us achieve our aims and endeavour to bend over backward to assist them in any way to get these puppies into the ring, sold our "poorer specimens" to suitable homes where they would be a credit to their owner and breeder alike—then, and only then might our final goal come into sight. It might not be next year, or even ten years from now, but one day our Welshmen would be where they belonged, at the top! ● these furnishings down and get a true picture of what is underneath. I have seen Miniature Schnauzers shown with such furnishings that if smoothed down you could nearly put a football in between their front legs. In other words they look like a "million dollars going away, but five cents coming back" or vice versa. This applies to the American dogs as well as Canadian.

I feel we must also keep in mind, as regards to heads, that we are breeding Miniature Schnauzers not Terriers as some heads tend to be very long and narrow. The Standard reads: Heads — strong and rectangular, its width diminishing slightly from ears to eyes and again to tip of nose.

This grand little dog is also becoming more popular in the Obedience ring and during my travels in the United States and Canada I have noted a large increase in entries and they are among the top scorers.

To all breeders, may I express a fervent plea to spend some time this winter in assessing your past breeding program to ensure that your future breeding program does not perpetuate faults evidenced in your present stock. If this practise is concienciously pursued the future of the Miniature Schnauzer will never be in doubt. We breeders are in this for the improvement of the breed and sportsmanship in showing and not for the almighty dollar. ● of the spine and tilting forward a very slight degree.

It is impossible to overestimate the value of strong loins and broad hindquarters with plenty of angulation to stifle and hock and when moving he must do so freely, with plenty of drive and in viewing from behind he should travel fairly close.

There are many variations of coat shown in Westies today but the true version is a double coated, hard top coat and of course white.

These are my findings and as I see the Westie he has not changed fundamentally but the shows are different. In yesteryears he was shown more or less in the rough; today it is, to a certain degree, a beauty contest.

I would like to add that anyone giving awards in shows should try and keep to the true points of the Westie, otherwise he is doing a triple injustice; namely, he dishonours the breed, introduces a bad type and proves his own incompetence.

The popularity of the Westie has grown to great heights in the last few years, being on top more times than the average terrier, and in obedience he also holds his own.

Words fail me when I want to describe the Westie. To me he is the dog of dogs, my personal opinion being: all dogs are good; any terrier is better; a Westie is best. ● her decision to major in animal portraiture came about in 1954 when she was recuperating from multiple serious injuries inflicted by a hit-and-run driver. (In 1962 she survived her third accident in which she was thrown through the windshield, in an automobile accident while returning from the New York Westminster Show.)

Previous to the accident, which instead of terminating a promising career opened up another avenue, Pat was a commercial artist in Montreal. She continues commercial work on a free lance basis. Under this heading, she specializes in advertising layouts, label design and of specific interest to users of the products, the breed silhouettes shown on the St. Aubrey Coat preparation containers.

CANADIAN, AMERICAN, BERMUDIAN CHAMPION
ROTHARA THE WHITE VIVANDIER

"Vivandier" finished her Bermudian Championship under Judge Maxwell Riddle at the recent Fall shows. She is pictured above winning 1st in Group on October 30, 1963 under Judge Haskell Schuffman, handled by Mrs. Paula McAteer. During 1963, in 13 shows, "Vivandier" won 2 BIS awards, 11 1st in Group and 2 2nd in Group awards.

Ch. Rothara The White Dragoon is at stud. "Vivandier" and "Dragoon" are handled at Canadian Shows by Mrs. Pat Tripp.

MRS. ENID OSBORNE 3095 Pt. Grey Road, Vancouver 8, B.C. Phone RE 6-4061

Pat's earliest art classes were in the Congregation de Notre Dame Convent where the French nun instructing was an excellent artist. Three years of further study at the Canadian School of Commercial Art in Montreal preceded two jobs as a commercial artist.

Following the near-fatal accident in 1954, Pat's activities gathered momentum. Two of her outstanding dog paintings have appeared on Dogs in Canada covers. "Cheque", September, 1959 and "Taffy" Welsh Corgi, of Dalmally Kennels. Her paintings have been used on Christmas cards and calendars and are now in Mexico, England, the United States and Canada.

Miss Detmold has the rare distinction of being a member of the Society of Animal Artists, New York. Before being admitted as a member, paintings must be submitted annually over a three-year period and must pass a jury of judges, themselves top-ranking United States artists. Some of her paintings were rejected for lack of whiskers — until she explained that show dogs have them removed. Then the paintings were reinstated. Among the paintings approved were the watercolor of "Cheque", (Dogs cover-dog), a pastel of the English Cocker, Suntan, 1962, the black and white illustration of Arabian Horses, 1963; the pen and ink of Snow Owl and Rat, chosen for the 1961 cover catalogue along with 25 American artists. The jury selected her "Bird Dog" for its first animal show, which has travelled for two years across Canada on tours to art galleries and museums. The Society's Spotlight Show held in New York in 1961 carried some of her work.

In addition to small exhibits at fairs and art shows, her paintings have been displayed at the Ladies Kennel Club Show in Montreal in April, 1963, courtesy Quaker Oats Co. of Canada Ltd.

Her first "one-man" show held in Canada took place at Legault Galleries in Quebec, with the result she was invited to attend the Ottawa Winter Fair. This was her first demonstration in public, showing how the portraits are done, using live models. Petitcote Cindy Lou, a Standard Poodle owned by Mrs. Ross Smith, had her portrait completed during the Fair. Mrs. Lester Pearson paid a special visit to the booth and admired the new ceramic tiles, illustrated with all breeds in miniature oils on tinted backgrounds or on a plain white base trimmed with gold.

At the time of writing this diversified artist has been commissioned to paint a third Doberman Pinscher for Mr. and Mrs. Ken Dea of Kansas.

Pat sketches as she travels to dog shows in the States and Canada. The paintings are completed from notes and memory in her studio. In cases where the dog is no longer living, or lives a great distance away, she paints from photographs.

She shows her own Setters. Her first championship was made in 1946 and her most recent in 1963. Bird-watching, hunting and reading are among her hobbies. ●
