VOL. 3 KERRYCROFT STORY —
AM. & CAN. CH. KERRYCROFT'S BOLD BRIGAND R.O.C. #6
Owners, Dennis and Catherine Gardiner,
Kerrycroft Kennels, R.R. #2,
Orono, Ont. — Phone Orono 260

Brigand was born March 1, 1961. His sire, Ch. Finian of Elm Acres, is also the sire of 14 Canadian and seven American Champions (for further information on Fin, consult Volume 1, "Dogs", September, 1962 issue). Brigand's dam, Ch. Kerrycroft's Serenade (dam of three Canadian and two American Champions) was also sired by Finian, himself a product of a brother and sister breeding.

This is the first step in our carefully planned inbreeding program in an attempt to attain prepotency in excellent temperament, primarily, but always striving to combine this with a physical standard of perfection. From the following records of achievement it would appear that we are on the right track!

Brigand's show career started five months ago and he has already chalked up 19 BB, 18 Group Placements (four firsts, eight seconds, four thirds, two fourths) and 10 Best Canadian Bred in Group. He was second in Group and Best Canadian Bred in Show at both the All Terrier Show and the Terrier Breeder's Association Show Specialties under judges Anthony Stamm and Bobby Grant, respectively. Prior to going to press, his latest Canadian achievement was a Best in Show at Windsor under Dr. Wilfrid Shute.

While "Briggy's" success in Canada has been spectacular, his American show career was even more so, here he finished his title in two weekends with four majors!

We could go on and on about Brig . . . his beautiful slate blue color, his fabulous temperament, his gait, etc., etc., but his show record to date speaks for itself. To sum him up, a short quote from the famous Irish Kerry Blue judge, Bobby Grant should suffice . . . "This dog can compete favorably anywhere in the world"!

"Briggy's" brother "Benny" (Ch. (Can. Am.) Kerrycroft's Benedict) also finished his American title in four shows going from the classes at the Chicago Kerry Specialty to BOS over nine Specials. He then went on to top this by going BOS at the USKBTC Specialty at Chagrin Valley with a record entry of 66 (21 Specials). "Benny" is owned

TO THE EDITOR

If you have any suggestions, any comments or constructive criticism to make concerning articles in this magazine, or with regard to shows, your opinion of what is happening to various breeds with regard to size, color, coat, etc., write a brief letter to the Editor. We must reserve the right, however, to edit same. Opinions expressed in this department do not necessarily reflect those of the publishers.

advertising pays

. . . I am this month getting letters as a result of the April advertisement and the July and February ones have been referred to as well. So far this year I've had nothing to sell, but we do know for certain that even one inch . . . will bring in the inquiries. Most gratifying.

tribute to show secretaries

. . . I would like to heartily congratulate the show secretaries for such shows as Ontario County, Windsor, Stratford, the C.N.E., the Sportsmen's Show and a few others for their great help to exhibitors in sending out judging schedules with the entry cards. The schedule is required by the CKC show rules (. . . "notification shall contain the judging programme indicating the approximate time that the breeds will be judged.") but many shows give only the order of Group judging and say that such and such Groups will start at the beginning. There are also shows that give only the Group order and no more . . . how many rings will there be? Will all six groups start at once? The novice exhibitor has no way of knowing and I am sure there are more than a few people, who, when starting out on showing, missed their judging because their group was listed as one of the last ones to be done . . . and ended up starting the first.

The few show secretaries that do take the trouble to keep track of the entries in each breed with a running tally and then make up a complete judging schedule, complete with the breakdown by sexes and specials, are a boon to the busy breeder-exhibitors and those who travel great distances to get to, and, therefore, support the shows. If a breed is scheduled for noon . . . fine . . . no rush to get there at 9.30. Veterinary inspection compels the exhibitor to get there by noon . . . or one at the latest . . . but knowing you're not judged till late in the day saves a rush job on the kennels and dogs left behind. Please don't think I'm knocking the poor rushed show secretaries who don't get them out . . . but the ones who do sure deserve plenty of praise.

Another point than often crops up . . . where are the copies of the judge's books? They are supposed to be posted on a board or wall where handlers and exhibitors can get to them and be able to mark their catalogues, and check for errors before the books go to the CKC and before the judges have left the show. Many shows do post their judging sheets in a handy spot near the show secretary's table or room . . . but others hide them away in out-of-the-way spots in their desks and it takes numerous requests to get to see them! An error spotted quickly can often be remedied right on the spot by talking to the judge . . . this saves letters to the CKC, the judge, then the reprinting in Dogs. If an obvious error is made (i.e. . . . Winners is the Puppy class winner, and Reserve is 2nd in Open) the judge is more than willing to change the sheet before the CKC writes and asks for a correction and explanation!

reading material excellent

. . . I would like to commend the magazine for the excellent reading material more recently appearing between covers. More particularly the timely articles on obedience covered in Mr. Ed O'Brien's monthly comments and Miss Meyers' tremendous tacit observations in the August issue.

Mr. O'Brien's closing remark in July issue . . . "Finally, if anyone feels he can do a better job in Obedience in any capacity, just line up on the left. No one is holding you back!" made me especially enjoy seeing a newly-organized club with a handful of members who did line up on the left so successfully conduct their first licensed Obedience Trial at Hagersville. Congratulations to all true obedience enthusiasts and to those who make it possible!

August issue MEMO-FROM-THE-EDITOR should have been printed in upper case methinks. How many have voiced the same sentiments and how many have actually done anything about it!

Shall look forward with increased interest to future articles on all dog news and will welcome the "Old-Timer" informative feature.

FROM THE EDITOR

"I've never yet sold a puppy at an unbenched show," a well-known breeder tells Dogs in Canada. "Or had a request for a stud service. . . Shows used to be a happy time, not necessarily a social event, but breeders exchanged ideas and worked out breeding programs together. And after the show folks got together for a late supper and you went home tired but with the feeling that, win or lose, it was a good day."

Says another experienced show-goer, "You can talk to fellow breeders at bench shows and learn."

To bench or not to bench continues to be a conundrum for show-giving clubs. Last year the only shows benched in Ontario were the Sportsmen's Shows, the CNE and the Oshawa show. For a time in the States unbenched shows were the trend. Clubs are now reconsidering, in many states, and benching is steadily re-appearing.

Why? One important reason is that breeders are discovering they have lost their show window. Lose your identity with the public and you'll have half-grown puppies on your hands, or you'll be selling them at a loss.

Unbenched shows not only cheat the public but definitely decrease your sales. Unbenched shows in the States are required to have a sign stating that the show is not benched, and it must appear where the tickets are sold. Spectators may endure one unbenched show but you'll have a time getting them to another.

What kind of impression does an unbenched show give to the public? We all must acknowledge that dog folk are not held in as high a regard as they deserve, nor is the dog game. It should be a prestige hobby. But what can a spectator think, when he sees dogs and owners grouped around like a gypsy encampment, surrounded with bags, lunches, grooming equipment, thermos bottles and nowhere to put anything. And how can an exhibitor look and feel anything but mussy after a few hours! The spectator sees a few dogs in the ring at a time, he can't locate the breed he's interested in and he goes home with his money in his pocket and no dog.

Most exhibitors appear anxious to get on the road immediately their dog is judged. One show superintendent tells Dogs that recently the first words of an exhibitor to him, the minute he had been vetted, were: "What time can I get out of here?"

Other exhibitors state that in Ontario, at least, there are far too many shows. Exhibitors, it would seem, can't afford either the time or the money for so many. And unfortunately the majority don't appear to enjoy them that much.

It takes more understanding

Whether it's a routine checkup, immunization shot or preparation for surgery, the veterinarian must have a lot of patience and understanding to win the confidence of his canine patients. By questioning you he learns about any changes in your dog's behaviour pattern. By examining your dog, he can detect symptoms of disease and can then take remedial action. When you have a particular problem with your dog and you want professional advice, see your veterinarian.

the old timer

After an absence of many months, we join our readers in welcoming the Old Timer and his wit and wisdom back to his observation post.

"In my opinion they're the backbone of the dog game — and they get too little recognition."

The Old Timer and I had been sitting outside in the sun, watching half a dozen puppies in the puppy run and trying to make up our minds as to which were really show prospects. We'd settled that — to the Old Timer's satisfaction at least — and the Old Timer had devoted the intervening time to getting his pipe drawing the way he wanted it to.

"I agree," I said. "Introduce them to me, whoever they are and I'll recognize them — and if that backbone needs chiropractic treatment I'll start a fund."

I got the look the Old Timer reserved for smart Alecks.

"Too bad you weren't brought up — instead of being allowed to grow up," he said "but for your information I was talking about dog club show secretaries — in my opinion the hardest workers in the dog game and the ones with the biggest problems. How they do the job so efficiently is more than I'll ever understand."

"Talking from experience?" I asked.

"Mine was a long way back," he said "but during the last couple of weeks I've been giving a hand to our own secretary and I've begun to understand just the job she's been doing.

"Now, as you know our entries this year have been up about 50 per cent. Give that hard working secretary the credit. She figured that an up-to-date mailing list was the foundation for the success of every dog show and when she first took over she threw away the club's old mailing list and started out new. She got every catalogue from 1963 shows that she could get her hands on. She checked, she double checked. She made up a list that included every person who had exhibited a dog in our show area in 1963. But she didn't stop there. When the 1964 show season started she collected 1964 catalogues and added the names of those who exhibited for the first time in 1964. Today, as a result of her work we've got a live mailing list of more than 1,700 names.

"But surely that's the secretary's job," I suggested.

"Of course," said the Old Timer "but I'm telling you about this just to indicate the hours and hours of work a show secretary goes through before the premium list is even mailed. And the deadlines that have to be met, the liaison with other club officers, the listing of the prizes, getting the approval of the CKC for the premium list — I'll tell you a good show secretary is a pearl without price.

"But that's still a part of the job — it's routine," I interjected.

"True, but it's laborious routine. However that wasn't the point I was trying to make. What I was thinking about in particular was the unnecessary work that exhibitors cause the secretary. As I said I've been giving our secretary a hand and what I've seen has opened my eyes.

"For instance?" I asked.

"Well, for instance, the entry form says please print or typewrite certain details. Perhaps ten per cent do. And you should see the handwriting, or what passes for handwriting, on some of those other 90 per cent. The secretary almost has to read hieroglyphics to decipher them—and particularly when it's a dog where names are reminiscent of German, Dutch, Chinese or some other origin.

"And the details that are left out. Commonest of course is to overlook stating whether the dog was born in Canada or elsewhere. But can you imagine an owner sending in an entry form and failing even to state what breed his dog is? That happened in three of the entries I saw. And American Cockers, Collies, Beagles, with no indication as to variety or size. We even had entry forms on which the owner had failed to give his home address."

"But why should the show secretary worry?" I asked. "Doesn't the entry form make the exhibitor responsible for any errors of omission or commission?"

The Old Timer chuckled.

"It does," he said "but just imagine what would happen if the show secretary took that literally. Imagine the confusion trying to sort out the judge's book on the day of the show. Imagine the ill-will for the club if an exhibitor was debarred by his own omission from competing, let's say, for the Best Canadian-Bred Puppy award. I think our secretary is typical. She realizes her attitude can make or break the club's reputation. So she writes those necessary letters — she makes those numerous phone calls and the result is that on the day of the show she has things all present and correct."

"And how would you cure it?" I asked.

The Old Timer chuckled again.

"You know the old story," he said. "The one that says if the husband had to have the second child there probably would never be a third. Well, if every exhibitor had to take one round of being show secretary — believe me things would forever after be easier for those people I still say are the backbone of the game." ■

OBEDIENCE

Ed. O'Brien, Canfield, Ont., is well-known as Canada's leading professional trainer of dogs in Obedience work. He is a licensed Judge, one of Canada's first. He began his career in the West, training dogs for herding and other farm work. Since moving to Ontario he has specialized in training dogs for police and guard work and for disabled people. Mr. O'Brien also breeds German Shepherds and Dobermans.

A few weeks ago it was my pleasure to judge a challenge match in obedience, the competitors being the Brantford Kennel Club and the St. Catharines Kennel and Training Club. Each club entered a team of six dogs: one for Utility, two doing the Open and three in the Novice. The total number of points awarded was to decide the winner, regardless of whether a dog failed in one exercise or received less than a qualifying score. The teams were composed of German Shepherds, Belgian Sheepdogs, Poodles, a Cocker and a Sheltie.

All these dogs were a credit to their owners and the clubs they represented, for though there was the odd slip, no handler had cause to be ashamed of his dog. As some of my readers know, I have felt that for the last couple of years the scores awarded in Obedience Trials have been far too high: a trend was started and I am afraid that all judges, myself included, followed along to some extent. I felt that this challenge match gave me a wonderful opportunity to judge obedience as it should be judged, definitely matching one dog's work against that of another. The handlers of each team had a wonderful time kidding the members of the opposing team as they brought their dogs into the ring, but it was all in good fun and I was so glad to see such a feeling of friendliness and good sportsmanship which, as we all know, has been sadly lacking in the Ontario Obedience Trials for some time past. The dogs seemed to sense their handlers' lightheartedness and worked quite happily.

Twelve hundred points per team would have been, of course, the highest possible score. So, since I gave only the points each dog really earned, it was a pleasant surprise to find how close each team came to the maximum. The St. Catharines team had a total of 1145 points. Brantford battled hard to keep the provincial trophy for their club but could only come up with 1140 points so their captain, reluctantly but gracefully, handed the trophy to the captain of the St. Catharines team. I have a feeling, however, that Brantford does not intend to let that trophy gather very much dust in St. Catharines if they can prevent it.

I felt it was indeed an honour to judge this match and I would like to compliment both teams on their work and especially on their sportsmanship: win, lose or draw, they were good-tempered and happy to be in the game. These challenge matches afford an opportunity to see the really top dogs compete against each other. I'm wondering if it would be possible to have something of this nature on a national scale? How about a match in which each province would enter a team?

Now, getting around once again to rules and regulations, evidently there are different opinions on how a dog should be scored who does not come in close to his handler in the Recall. Some handlers feel that the judges are not consistent about this. A dog, they say, may sit a few feet back from the handler after being recalled and if he does a good finish, he will be given a high score by one judge, while another will fail the dog for sitting too far back. Again, another handler feels that one judge was too lenient with big dogs in this respect, while requiring that small dogs should come in closer in order to qualify. I feel there is no cut and dried answer to this question: it seems to be one of those things where a judge must make his own decision, trying to be fair to big and little dogs alike. Just what distance is too far back? One foot? Six feet? To be given a perfect score in the Recall exercise, I have always felt that the dog should not only come in at a smart trot but should sit close in front of his handler so that, were he retrieving, the handler could take the dumbell without having to reach out for it and then the dog, of course, must make a good finish.

Our own Regulations and Standards says the dog must "Sit immediately in front of his handler" but fails to advise what deductions must be made if the dog is not sitting in as close as he should be. The new American rules have covered this point considerably better, leaving no doubt in the minds of both handlers and judges as to how the dog should be scored. We should, I believe, incorporate it, or something like it, in our own rules. This is the part referred to: "A dog that does not come close enough so that the handler could easily touch it without moving his feet or having to stretch forward, must receive less than 50% of the points." May I suggest that all judges should use the above rule as in my opinion it leaves little room for improvement.

Still with the Recall exercise in mind, I would like to see in the new revision of our own rules a small change which has been needed for some time, though the point remains unchanged in the new American rules. I refer to the part which says, "the dog that moves from the place where he was left must receive less than 50% of the points." Should not this be made to read position instead of place? All judges, apparently, make a cut if the dog lies down or stands up before he is called, though I doubt if it is strictly according to the rules.

Comments on this and other matters pertaining to Obedience are, as usual, invited by your columnist, particularly from qualified judges. It is impossible for me to reply personally to all the letters I receive, but I do appreciate them and the continued interest shown in our column. ■

HUMANELY "SPEAKING"

BY TOM HUGHES

Live duck "loophole" concerns the Manager of the Ontario Humane

In 1962 an official of the North Bay Retriever Club was charged with, and convicted of, cruelty to birds, under the Criminal Code. The charge was based on the use of live shackled ducks during the course of a retriever trial. The conviction was appealed and that appeal has still not been heard. I understand that the Supreme Court will hear argument on certain legal aspects of the appeal at the end of September. I cannot, therefore, comment on the trial or any aspect of it.

In 1963, representatives of all the Retriever clubs in Ontario met in Toronto and, together with representatives of the Ontario Humane Society, formulated rules for the care and handling of live ducks, which, if followed carefully and completely by the officials of the clubs, would eliminate the cause of injury to ducks during a trial. The rules were designed to prevent a bird from being used repeatedly during the trial; to ensure that the bird would only be shackled or tied in such a way that the fastenings themselves would not bruise or otherwise injure the bird; only live healthy ducks would be used; holding pens would be created in which the birds could be released after use; and finally the bird would only be thrown into clear water free from snags or other impediments that could cause injury to the bird on landing. No live birds would be thrown on land.

In 1963 these ground rules were followed voluntarily by the clubs although there is no doubt they were influenced by the recent conviction, which was still fresh in their minds.

During the last two years the Ontario Humane Society has tried to persuade The Canadian Kennel Club to interest itself in this problem. The CKC licenses retriever trials. No licensed trial can be held unless the Club holding the trial complies in every respect with the CKC rules and requirements. These cover such things as the date of the trial; the venue of the trial; the judges; the prizes; the ribbons etc. The rules also stipulate the various classification of tests and lay down the age of the dog which can compete in any given test or stake. In other words, the CKC already controls almost every important detail and aspect of the conduct of field trials in Canada.

It would, therefore, be very easy for the CKC to extend its rules and regulations to cover the way live birds should, or should NOT be used in trials. As the licensing authority the CKC has the authority to make its rules stick. The rules would apply equally to all Retriever clubs throughout Canada.

I met with the Field Trial Council of the CKC early in 1964. I discussed with the Council the need for the CKC to accept the responsibility and introduce the rules recommended above. The present situation is exactly the same as it was in 1962. With one major difference. The effect of the conviction in North Bay is beginning to dissipate, this is only human nature. During 1964 Inspectors of the Ontario Humane Society have attended all trials held in Ontario. In the majority of the trials the "unofficial rules" have been followed both in the letter and in the spirit with good results. However, it is obvious from the reports that another "loophole" has to be attended to if live birds are to continue to be used in trials in Ontario. I refer to the undoubted fact that the only remaining cause of injury to a bird is the dog itself. If healthy birds, properly shackled, are thrown once into clear water it is simply impossible for them to be hurt in any way. Except by the dog!

The whole purpose of using live birds in a trial is to prove that the dog will retrieve a crippled bird. The shackled duck is, or should be, as close a simulation as possible of a cripple. But the dog must retrieve the bird without damaging it in any way.

A dog which cannot retrieve a bird without damaging it is, in fact, "hard-mouthed". There is a lot of misunderstanding of the term and probably no one actually has exactly the same idea of what is "hard-mouth". In the literature of the last century there is no factual, specific definition of the term given.

It's curious to note that the problem of "hard-mouth" is a comparatively modern one. Early books by noted authors and experts fail to mention the fault, except in a very cursory way. The reason, I think, is simple. Early breeders had no need to accept any serious fault in a dog. If the dog was not sound in every basic way it was simply put down. There was not a big demand for puppies and certainly there was no market for them, at least not a profitable one. Most breeders were in the game to breed the best dog they could, often at considerable expense to themselves. "Hard-mouth" was, and still is, the most serious fault in a retriever and was ruthlessly stamped out. It is only in the last 25 years that the fault has crept into retriever breeds to any extent. The Chesapeake Bay Retriever is a good example. It is quite unfair to condemn the whole breed as "hard-mouthed" but the average person believes that as a breed the "Chessy" is very likely to be "hard-mouthed". Give a dog a bad name!

The only attempt to define "hard-mouth" is simply the old rule of thumb which says that if the bird is retrieved "fit for the table" then the dog is not "hard-mouthed". It always was a pathetic definition and it still is. Exactly what does "fit for the table" mean? No two people are necessarily going to have the same standard of "fitness". Certainly I wouldn't eat a bird that had been mauled by a dog. Moreover I wouldn't want a dog to retrieve a "bad" bird.

So the definition doesn't really help.

Another attempt to define "hard-mouth" is the theory that a "hard-mouthed" dog will "always" crush the bird. It doesn't matter if the dog killed the bird, or injured it or chewed its head off, according to this theory, but it mustn't "crush" it. Not very helpful is it?

The fact remains that the only way a bird can be hurt in a field trial is by the dog. Providing of course that the "rules" are followed conscientiously.

It follows therefore, that any dog that does hurt a bird should not be allowed to compete in trials. The first time it happens it can be described as an "accident". But the next time it shows, in my opinion, reckless indifference on the part of the dog owner, for the bird.

For this reason, Inspectors of the Ontario Humane Society have been instructed to warn all competitiors in field trials whose dogs injure more than one bird, that they should withdraw their dogs from the competition and if they should disregard the warning that they may be charged with cruelty.

There is only a handful of dogs in Ontario that are likely to injure a bird. It seems wrong that all field trials should be condemned for the faults of these few dogs. The answer is for the owners of these dogs to recognize the fault and do something about it. Certainly they should not compete in trials until the dog is completely clear of the fault.

It is no use the owners of these dogs arguing that their dog will bring back the bird "fit to eat". Even if that classic phrase had the slightest meaning, which it doesn't—except to individual stomachs—it still would not be a justifiable excuse—in law—for injuring the bird. Because it is unnecessary.

The majority of dogs can, and do, retrieve birds for long distances over difficult ground without even marking the skin. And they do this hundreds of times every year of their working life. In other words the mouth of the normal dog is anything but "hard". It is tender.

Perhaps then the proper definition of "hard-mouth" should be "a dog who consistently damages or injures birds."

Unfortunately the only authority that could help to clear up the confusion and misunderstanding is the CKC. In Ontario anyway, the Ontario Humane Society is attempting to give a clear lead to all field trial contestants by warning "off" the owners of problem dogs. This course of action is hardly likely to make the Society very popular. But then the Society is not trying to win a popularity contest. We are doing our job in a reasonable, responsible way, without fear or favour.

The rest is up to the field trial clubs, the club officials, the competitors—and The Canadian Kennel Club. ■

"TWO BEST SELLERS"

ANNOUNCING THE DOGS IN CANADA

ANNUAL KENNEL DIRECTORY

AND THE BRAND NEW

GUIDE TO KENNELS

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN CANADA: YOU CAN REACH THE HUGE PET MARKET YOU CAN REACH THE BREEDERS AT THE SAME TIME — AT ONE LOW COST

GUIDE TO KENNELS: Here is a selling medium breeders have long wanted — one you, too, need and can afford! Imagine your kennel name in 75,000 brochures — costing you a tiny fraction of a cent each!

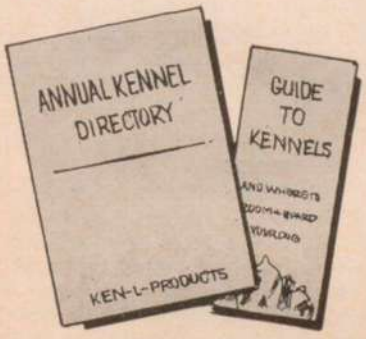

What will it look like? The GUIDE is an attractive, prestige folder (handy size 3¼" wide x 9" deep) printed on top-grade stock in two colors. Your listing, including your name, kennel name, address and telephone number will appear in alphabetical order, by breed.

Where will it go? To 75,000 members of the general dog-loving public and their friends and neighbors through hundreds of the best and busiest pet shops and small-animal clinics across Canada. It will be used by Humane Societies (who are besieged with requests for names of good kennels) . . . Ken-L-Products' active representatives . . . and by "Dogs in Canada" office.

How many copies will be printed? 75,000.

What is the cost? See PLAN A below.

ANNUAL KENNEL DIRECTORY—The most SUCCESSFUL AND INEXPENSIVE advertising medium for breeders ever produced. 11,000 copies are printed. How are the Directories used? They appear in the November, 1964 issue of "Dogs in Canada". They are also in daily use by The Canadian Kennel Club and "Dogs in Canada" offices in replying to requests for names of reliable kennels. Plus distribution at shows. Breeders keep this valuable Directory beside their telephone. It's been proven year after year that breeders whose names are listed in the Annual Kennel Directory get the business!

PLAN "A"

Your kennel is listed in BOTH the GUIDE TO KENNELS and the ANNUAL KENNEL DIRECTORY for one low price. Cost: $20.00

For every additional listing of your other breeds, add $15.00. The following may also be listed: grooming, training, boarding, handling etc. Add $15.00 for each extra listing.

PLAN "B"

Your kennel is listed in the ANNUAL KENNEL DIRECTORY and not in the Guide to Kennels. Cost: $4.00 per listing.

In addition to your breeds, individual listings are acceptable for: grooming, training, boarding, handling, etc. Add $4.00 for each extra listing.

Important: Please send cheque or money order with your order form. Listings not accompanied by remittance cannot be included.

Do it Now! Mail this order form with your remittance, to DOGS IN CANADA, 1173 Bay St., Toronto 5, Ont.

Deadline for both Plan A and Plan B is OCTOBER 1st. This is the FINAL Deadline.

RETRIEVERS
IN THE FIELD

Ruth Copeland is well qualified to comment on Retriever field activity in Canada. Her column appears regularly in the January, May and September issues. Address all correspondence relating to this department directly to her at 159 Main St. West, Grimsby, Ont. Your views and opinions will be welcomed by her.

SALUTE TO A LADY

Bess (pictured here) died in May, 1964 a month before reaching 13. She had made 50 CKC Open All-Age points and 12 CMs, which appears to be a record for a Canadian Retriever female, but is not important. No attempt was made to amass points with her. Her owner-trainer, Bill Copeland, was often away, or judged or took her hunting when she might have competed in trials; until the end of her career she sometimes eliminated herself by breaking; and during her prime years she raised five litters of puppies. At the age of eight and a half, at the close of 1959, she was prematurely retired because of the progressive breakdown of an injury received two years earlier when tendons were torn from a kneecap. We believe that the name of Ch. and FTCh. Blyth's Queen of Spades belongs in the archives of Canadian Retriever Trials because she was a great Labrador.

Although very feminine and not very large, Bess's spirit and enthusiasm were so enormous that her virtues and characteristics seemed larger than life. When she had pups she was a fiercely dedicated mother and when not bred she had painful grieving fantasies. She was invariably sweet tempered with other dogs and friendly and well disposed to all humans and especially gentle and loving with small children, but she worshipped her two owners with such single-hearted intensity that she would not tolerate separation and pined until she became ill if ever both tried to leave her at once. Until physically impaired she could swim and run like a rocket and could easily achieve such athletic feats as escaping over a seven foot fence. She was trained all her life on live pigeons, pheasants and ducks, never once killing or injuring a bird. She had a superb nose, and her marking ability was so brilliant that it had a quality of magic about it; she could consistently pinpoint three to five falls and was run without lining on marked birds. She was a strikingly stylish and bold natural water dog, and always demonstrated in tough hunting conditions her willingness to go with zest repeatedly through sleet and high waves, or even in weather so cold that ice formed on her thick coat each time she came out of the water. There was never an occasion when Bess was bored with retrieving or had "had enough". She shared with other outstanding Retrievers what is probably the most valuable and indispensible quality of all — boundless, crazy keen, unquestionable joy in the work she was bred to do. She was trained with affection and consideration and was never exposed to abuse or harsh punishment and she worked her heart out because she loved her trainer and wanted to please. As Mr. James Lamb Free so well expressed it because "she would rather retrieve than go to heaven".

A trial dog's public performance is a matter of record but only the owner, who hunts with his Retriever and has watched its performance in hundreds of training sessions, can understand how very good and how towering above average is the heart and performance of an exceptionally gifted Retriever. Gallant little Bess was a giant; all her life she thrilled and astonished us with her virtuosity. It was a joy and a privilege to train and work with her — and to have her as a friend. We had marvellous times together and met dozens of charming people through Bess; we tried very humbly, as well as mere humans are able, to return the love and loyalty of a great lady, who happened to be a Labrador Retriever. Remembering Bess will warm our hearts when we are old.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP STAKE 1964

Will take place at Brandon, Man. on October 2, 3, and 4. This is the heart of Canada's pot hole duck hunting country, the season will just have opened and the duckological forecast for southern Manitoba is the best for several years; so you can combine a memorable hunting trip with seeing the top Retrievers in Canada at work. Any place in CKC licensed Open Stake qualifies a dog for entry. We understand that arrangements will be made for hunting licenses for the competitors and hospitality, for which prairie people are famous, awaits all visitors.

Judges will be Messrs. Clifford Hunt, Ont., Gordon Lindemere, B.C., and Lyman Turner, Alta. All have trained Field Trial Champions and are thoroughly experienced judges. President of the National Retriever Club of Canada is Mr. Glen P. Sutherland. Information about transportation, hunting regulations or motels may be obtained from Mr. A. F. Robins, 130 Park St., Brandon, Man. Host Club is the Brandon Retriever Club.

QUALIFY FOR THE 1965 NATIONAL THIS OCTOBER AT NIAGARA

For many years the Niagara Retriever Training Club has held a fall trial on the third weekend in September and maintains a CKC priority date. We understand that priority dates should be confirmed four months in advance of the trial. We also wish to draw the attention of all clubs to page two, chapter two, section one of the Field Trial Rules which includes this statement: "The application to hold a licensed Field Trial must be on the forms made available by the CKC, must be accompanied by a date fee of $10.00, and must reach the CKC at least three months prior to the date of the proposed trial." The Niagara club ordered birds and spent about $200.00 on ribbons and engraved trophies before noticing that somehow they had overlooked sending in their application. They were around two weeks late and the CKC Board turned down the application.

The bright side is that with the backing of all their past presidents they rallied round and decided to hold a trial after the National, on October 17 and 18. Dogs that place in the Open Stake will qualify for the 1965 Championship which will be held next fall at Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

SENIOR CITIZEN

It is nice to see a sound old Retriever competing (and in Pitch's case still occasionally breaking) . Natl. Ch. '60 Smudge's Pitch will be ten next birthday, but placed first at the Montreal Gun Dog Club's Spring Trial. Throughout his career he has been handled and trained by his owner Cliff Hunt, but this time Corinne Hunt ran him.

FIELD TRIAL CHAMPIONSHIP FOR "TOBY"

Congratulations to Mrs. Kay Robinson, who all on her own has trained and handled her five year old yellow Labrador, Don Head Barley Sugar, to a FTCh. "Toby" won two first places this spring.

USA NATIONAL AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP STAKE

Held on Long Island in June with 51 starters and won by a four year old black Labrador male, FTCh. Dutchmoor's Black Mood (Du. Ch. Calypso Clipper ex Jet's Tammy). Owner-handler was Mr. A. Nelson Sills, Milford, Del.

Apparently the only Canadian dog entered was from Vancouver, Mr. Rudy H. Deering's Labrador FTCh. Captain of Lomac. He did good work and was one of 17 dogs remaining to enter the eighth series. Handler was Mr. Paul A.

Ouimet, Montreal (a still unconverted Golden owner!) who also ran Captain in eastern Canadian trials during the spring and among other placings won two firsts with him.

GUIDE DOGS FOR THE BLIND

(from an article by Dermot Cuddy, Public Relations Officer of the Association) In existence in England for over 30 years, the Association has produced more than 2,500 guide dogs. There are now 780 active owners and about 150 dogs are being trained each year.

Eighty-five percent of the dogs used are Labrador Retrievers as they have been found to respond most quickly to training and to show a greater concentration during work. All Guide Dogs must be free of vice and nervousness. They must have high intelligence and possess initiative and power of concentration as well as being physically suited for this kind of work. Females are preferred to males.

It costs approximately $900.00 to produce a Guide Dog and train a blind person. The training course lasts about four months. Address of headquarters: 83 Uxbridge Rd., Ealing W.5, England.

WANTED — LABRADOR BROOD FEMALES

Contact Mr. and Mrs. Emory M. Ford, 2 Woodland Place, Grosse Pointe 30, Mich. Purpose is to raise puppies suitable as guide dogs for the blind. They must be registered, X-rayed for dysplasia, have good conformity and have excellent temperament.

DUCKS UNLIMITED

Since its establishment in Canada in 1938, a year later than the USA parent body, Ducks Unlimited has spent some $9,000,000.00 on more than 700 waterfowl conservation projects across the Canadian Prairies, where over 65% of the continent's migratory wildfowl breed.

It is supported by Candian Sportsmen interested in waterfowl conservation, but the major portion of its operating expenses is realized by contributions from sportsmen in the USA. In April, at the 27th annual meeting of D.U., a grant of $600,000.00 was made for "duck factories" on the Canadian breeding grounds.

QUOTING PRESIDENT LYNDON B. JOHNSON

"We must constantly be vigilant and alert to keep our air clean, our water pure, our forests green, our bird life plentiful and our wild life abundant, or we will lose the vital essence of what we love to call America. If we are to do today what tomorrow requires, we must proceed at once on a sound national program to set aside the parks and seashores, the wild life refuges, and waterfowl wetlands which our future generations will need." And what is true for the USA is equally true for Canada.

DEADLINE FOR NEWS OR VIEWS

If this column is to continue it will appear next January. News, including club bulletins from the various Retriever zones of Canada, would be much appreciated. These should reach the writer not later than during November. ■

A LITTLE BIT OF DYSPLASIA

By BRIAN SORRELL, D.V.M.

The CKC has a motto, which embellishes its meter-stamped envelopes. This has to mean something to you, the dog breeder. On the problem of hip dysplasia you must ask yourselves the question: Do I wish to breed dogs for prestige? For profit? Or for pleasure?

If only the latter is the case, then by all means breed dysplastic dogs. These will give pleasure as puppies, and your reputation won't be ruined until they grow up and develop arthritic spurs on their acetabula and suffer the pain and discomfort that goes with the condition. Prior to this the owner should have a great deal of pleasure from them.

Is this what we or you want? No, I don't think so.

Because it is only fair to assume that breeders are not interested in spreading the blight of hip dysplasia, I feel that certain facts should be reiterated and set down in black and white. Individuals might not agree with the facts but unhappily they exist.

A favorite phrase of mine is that 'dysplasia is dysplasia is dysplasia'. This is true. A little bit of dysplasia is still dysplasia. No matter how you slice it, the lad or lass who has this condition is a menace to his or her progeny.

A slight degree of dysplasia cannot be classified as a calcium deficiency or a disuse atrophy. Once this disease shows up it is there. Once it is there it can be passed on. It might be interesting academically to classify the condition by numbers, but such a classification is no excuse for breeding dysplastic animals whatever the number or degree they bear.

Treatment? Yes, in humans they treat similar conditions. For humans they have to. Because of this our whole population is on the road to becoming diabetic, and this is only one example. And if a treatment did succeed, what have you got? A dysplasia carrier!

In my own mind, treatments and advocated treatments for hip dysplasia carry the taint of quackery if they have a cure in mind. Regardless of the ingenuity of the methods proposed from time to time they don't work. The sequalae of later life still occur, and to a pet it isn't worth it. To a show dog it isn't worth it. And to you it isn't worth it.

Last but not least, don't fight a diagnosis of hip dysplasia. With good x-rays the diagnosis is obvious. Panels of veterinarians will not help unless a doubt exists. Appeal to the Almighty will not help either. Once you have it it is yours Cull your stock and get rid of it! ■

HOLIDAY MASS MURDER

In one day — July 4, 1964 — it is estimated that 1,400,000 animals and birds were slaughtered on American highways. The shocking figure was tabulated by the Humane Society of the United States. Twice as many birds as animals were killed, a fact partially attributed to speed on the thruways. This survey, made for the third sucessive year, is part of a planned five-year series, with which the HSUS hopes to persuade highway engineers to consider animal and bird deaths in planning new roads and selecting roadside plantings.

"MOUTH-TO-MOUTH" SAVES POODLE

The mouth-to-mouth respiration training she had received in her junior high school first aid class paid off when Kathy LaValle, 13-year-old Minneapolis girl, saved the life of a two-month old Poodle. The puppy had been electrocuted when playing with a plastic plug on an extension cord. Kathy happened to come into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lingren at the time. Although the puppy appeared dead, she persisted with the mouth-to-mouth respiration for 25 minutes. When a veterinarian arrived he stated that her action was the only thing that had saved the Poodle's life.

Photographs Wanted

The Gaines Dog Research Center, New York, is seeking the help of dog folk in Canada and USA, to improve their collection of dog photos. Any type of photograph which pictures a dog or dogs in unusual or human interest situations are particularly desired.

Glossy prints 8" x 10" are preferred and a self-addressed envelope must be included if the picture is to be returned. Photographs which meet the Center's needs and standards will be purchased at agreed upon prices.

Prints should be mailed to: Gaines Dog Research Center, 250 Park Ave., New York, N.Y. 10017.

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

Circumstances forced Mrs. Samuel Ginsberg to board her dog Scarlet for six months. When she went to pick her up the attendant kindly told her not to be too disappointed if Scarlet didn't make a fuss over her, as she had become very attached to him. However, Scarlet went into a paroxysm of joy. The attendant watched the performance, and then said, with a sigh, "Oh well, I guess blood is thicker than water." Courtesy Reader's Digest

THE CANADIAN INFLUENCE

Terrier development owes much to Canadians, avers John T. Marvin, noted judge and author.

Canadian breeders and exhibitors have always exerted a strong effect upon the fortunes of purebred Terriers in the United States. The history of this activity, with specific reference to some of the people and their dogs, presents an interesting narrative that will be offered here.

Organized dog activities in both Canada and the United States began concurrently with the founding of the American Kennel Club in Philadelphia on September 17, 1884. To be sure many bench type events had been held before this date but in most instances these were loosely controlled by basic field trial organizations whose main interests were elsewhere. An exception was the limited activity of the National American Kennel Club which published the stud record that later became the first four volumes of the American Kennel Club stud book. In any event, the organization of the AKC gave purebred dogs and bench shows their first real impetus in both the United States and Canada since the founders and early members of the club included a number of Canadians.

The AKC continued to guide the destinies of Canadian dogs and dog shows until September 27, 1888 when The Canadian Kennel Club was founded. At this time a number of Canadian members of the AKC dropped out to support their national group and within a few years all Canadian members had sought sanctuary with the ruling body in their own country. All of this happened during the period that Canadian breeders and exhibitors were assuming very important positions in the birth of the Terrier group in the New World. At least three Terrier breeds got their start in Canadian kennels and all of these were first recorded in the American Kennel Club stud records. For example, the first Irish Terrier ever registered in North America was a bitch named Aileen. She was registered in 1885 and received the early AKC number of 3289. Aileen was owned by Dr. J. S. Niven of London, Ont., a widely known dog man who later became the fifth president of The Canadian Kennel Club. Ananias, AKC 4475 was the first Bedlington Terrier to enter the rolls in 1886 and he was owned by W. S. Jackson of Toronto, another widely recognized breeder. The following year, 1887, R. W. Dean of Oakville, Ontario brought over the first Wire Haired Fox Terrier by the name of Broxton Virago, AKC 5479. From this rundown it will be seen that Canada was responsible for several important Terrier breeds in this hemisphere.

All of these early fanciers and many more were found frequently at shows below the border and proved to be strong competition. It might be interesting to enumerate some others who, over the years, have made Canadian Terriers known in the U.S. In the late 1800's and early 1900's G. H. Gooderman of Toronto owned and operated one of the strongest kennels of Fox Terriers in North America. He dominated the American Fox Terrier Club's competitions during this period and bred many top Smooth coated dogs such as Ch. Norfolk Handicraft and later the great Ch. Norfolk True Blue, considered by many as the greatest dog of the breed up to that time. He even had the temerity to send some of his Fox Terriers to England where, to the embarassment of the English, they did very well and did much to establish respect for the breeding efforts of the "New World".

A few years later in 1918 a Bull Terrier, Ch. Haymarket Faultless, cleaned the boards at the great Westminster show for his owner, R. Humphrey Elliott of Ottawa. Faultless was said to be one of the very best of the breed for all time and after going Best in Show the bidding for this great dog was strong and, according to articles of the day, Elliott was offered $5,000.00 for him but refused the bid because he liked the dog and wanted to keep him in his kennels.

During the same general period two great Terrier experts came into view on the Canadian scene, Walter Reeves and Alf LePine. Reeves, long known as an all-around judge, is the dean of today's arbiters, a title he well deserves by virtue of age and experience which extends more than 60 years. He has judged all over the world and was once called upon to evaluate the excellent kennels of the Czar of Russia, a real honor and a rare opportunity. Reeves was a Terrier man from the start and had a great deal to do with the success of many Terrier kennels in this hemisphere.

The late Alf LePine was also a basic Terrier man having owned the large and active Malden Kennels of Wire Fox Terriers. Many do not know that this kennel got its start before World War I in Montreal and that LePine was one of the early members and an officer of the Montreal Kennel Club.

After the war, in which he attained the rank of Colonel and received many decorations, he moved his kennels to Ohio where he resided until his death in 1963. LePine, like Reeves, was always in great demand as a judge of all breeds and was particularly well liked in Terriers.

At this point it would be remiss not to mention Ted Ward, a Canadian handler who had been a frequent visitor to U.S. shows for more than 40 years to my short memory. Ward's dogs, Terriers of many breeds, have always been expertly shown and impeccably presented—attributes he taught well to his son George who is now located in Michigan and who ranks as one of the top Terrier men of the country. It is interesting to note that George Ward exhibited at Westminster as early as 1928 when he had a Wire bitch named Albany Matchless. He surely must have been a youngster then—that was 36 years ago AND Ted was his agent then.

Passing over the years, two Canadian exhibitors on the distaff side have made competition in their respective breeds difficult for all competitors both in Canada and the United States. Mrs. Betty Hyslop, whose Cairns have long been feared in the ring, commenced operations at Brockville, Ontario about 1929 and dogs from this strong establishment have been seen at U.S. shows ever since. Many fine Cairns have been bred and imported by her and Ch. Kilmet of Cairndania, a son of her imported Ch. Chunk of Crockshed, was one of the best. At one time Mrs. Hyslop's dogs were shown by another great Canadian dog man, Alf Loveridge, who will be remembered by all. Mrs. Hyslop has, at times, virtually dominated the breed on both sides of the border with such Cairns as the aforementioned Kilmet, Chs. Kindon Saucy Sue, Redletter McRuffie and Redletter Miss Splinters among others.

The second lady mentioned was the late Eileen McEachren whose Tailteann Kennels of Tormorden near Toronto were known far and near. Prior to 1952 her kennels were located in Caulfield, B.C. and the move east was a major operation involving a large scale air lift. Mrs. McEachren suffered many losses in the early days of her competition in the States but her persistence and sound breeding policies paid off as the Tailteann dogs became among the most feared in the breed. Two great stud dogs, Ch. Kenmare Masterpiece and Ch. Michael of Somerset, Jr. did a great deal for her kennel while Ch. Miss Showoff of Cognewaugh and Ch. Tailteann's Marcie's Son made tremendous records for her in the ring with the aforementioned George Ward on the ends of their leads. Mrs. McEachren's death was most unfortunate and deprived the dog world of a good breeder, a strong competitor and an excellent dog woman.

I remember Miss Showoff well for I placed her Best of Breed in the specialty classes at the 1953 Canadian National Sportsman's Show. I thought she looked her best at this show and I had many chances to view her. I also remember another Canadian bred Kerry that did extremely well above and below the border. I placed him Best in Show at the first All-Terrier Club of Canada's show in 1958 and also gave him some breeds at U.S. shows. This one, Ch. Tregoad's Vicky's Cappy, was bred by Mr. and Mrs. H. Betts and won well in all competition.

Two other ladies come to mind because of their wide acceptance as Terrier experts in the United States. The late Mrs. Kenneth Marlatt was one who judged at Westminster several times as well as at other large U.S. fixtures. She bred Airedales among others and was well liked for her placements. The other was Miss Lena Shortt. She, with her father, bred many good Wires but I remember her best as a judge respected by all. I showed one of our first Wires under her at Gull Lake, Mich. in 1935.

Many other Canadians, with less extensive but none-the-less sound breeding kennels, have done well in the States. Harry Walley, 18th President of CKC, was well known in Scottish Terriers and was a frequent visitor to State-side shows with his Scottish Terriers while John Treleaven with Lakelands, Cairns and Scottish Terriers will always be remembered for his pleasant personality and for many wins including two big ones in New York. His good Wheaten Scottie, Yankee Pride Blushing Squaw, took winners at the 1962 winter Specialty of the Scottish Terrier Club of America and went on to finish handily. I believe I gave her the final points at Cleveland. In 1963 his Cairn bitch, Rideaucliff's Lady Jula, took the points at the Specialty and again I gave her the winners points at the following show, Westminister. Mrs. R. P. Adams, of St. Agathe Des Monts, P.Q. has had Skye Terriers for more than 60 years and is certainly the dean of all Canadian Terrier breeders. Her Skyes have held their own against all competition in the U.S. and today her Ch. Talisker's Fairy Wonder and Ch. Talisker's Fairy Heir are doing very well in groups and best in show in the U.S.

Canadians have always been strong in my breed, West Highland White Terriers. Miss Billette of B.C. bred the great Ch. Highland Ursa Major who won so spectacularly during the late 40's at U.S. shows and she also bred, with Miss Humby, Ch. Highland Arctutus who was a group winner in the U.S. and who was once owned by the late George Hartman. More recently, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Adams captured the national specialty show in New York with their homebred, Ch. Roseneath White Knight, in both 1957 and 1959 while Albert Kaye duplicated the feat in 1961 with his Dina Ken's Little Pip who was also a big winner in Canada.

Of course, nearly all exhibitors in the U.S. know Dorothea Daniell-Jenkins as a steady exhibitor of the Highlander and as a judge of the breed. She officiated at this year's national specialty event in New York and polled a record entry. Many will also recognize the name Malcolm. Neill Malcolm of Ottawa, a direct descendant of Col. E. D. Malcolm of Poltalloch and the founder of the Westie breed, was president of the West Highland White Terrier Club of America from 1954 through 1955. Mrs. H. C. LeFroy and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Blochin are others in this grand breed that have done much through the years to make it what it is today. I believe that Victor Blochin was one of the first Canadians to exhibit Westies at Westminster and his fine dog, Rowemore Ardifuir, created quite a sensation in the late thirties.

It may sound like heresy to Terrier people but I cannot forget another Canadian dog that made history who was not a Terrier. Being a dog man first, I appreciate quality in any

YOUR FIRST SHOW

Perhaps your initiation to exhibiting dogs was many years ago, or you may have just had your first experience. Either way, you'll chuckle and maybe wince at Juliette Chessor's vivid delineation.

What is more touching then watching a new exhibitor at his first dog show? He is so full of pride of owning just about the best dog in the show. And here he is to prove it to everyone. It matters not that he may be the ONLY entry or there might be one other of his breed shown. He sits proudly on his undecorated bench, with his arms around his dog, saying "hello" to everyone that passes by . . . smiling broadly with the pure pleasure of being at his first dog show.

He watches others cleaning and brushing their dogs . . . and wonders a little why they do so. In reading over the catalogue one finds that this person has entered his dog in every entry or class. His number is called: Senior Puppy, Novice Class, Open class, and he wins his FIRST three Blue Ribbons, and even a Best Canadian Bred Puppy! Then he goes on to win Winners, Best of Winners and Best of Breed, with Best Canadian Bred in Breed! The joy of winning all these ribbons and a trophy at that is beyond the understanding of an old Pro. (who has forgotten HIS first show). He looks aghast at this individual, bubbling over with pride, 'way past cloud 9. Never again will this exhibitor experience that glorious feeling of owning the finest dog in the whole wide world!

It takes weeks to lose that glowing emotion. Not until the next dog show!

Again he enters his dog, but this time there are at least six to ten others of his breed to be shown. All the breeders are close together. They smile condescendingly at his boasting of all his dog's wins at his first show. They LOOK at his dog as if it needed pity. One or two will mention: "His coat is rather poor" or "the set OF HIS EARS is not just right". Another will say "He is rather short legged", or "I'm sure he is far above the Standard" (which the exhibitor has never even heard of). When they have deflated him enough they will say "oh, guess he has a chance." They will walk away in groups . . . talking . . . ignoring you . . . your dog . . . friendly in a cold, destructive way . . . and you KNOW you're not one of them. You're puzzled, you're wondering what is the matter. You see exhibitors brushing, combing their dogs for hours . . . even some wash their dog's feet! Some hide themselves behind their bench doing something, which they don't want you to see, to their dog. Their benches are all nicely decorated . . . having kennel names, and everyone talks to them . . . while you sit and wonder where you could get a brush . . . as all you have is a comb . . . not even a cloth for your bench. You found some newspapers on the bench when you came in this morning so you just left them on. You're starting to panic . . . people run up and down the aisle talking about something like "gaiting" . . . and you wonder if your dog gates???? So you frantically start to comb your dog . . . and of course you're combing him the wrong way! You try so hard to do what others are doing, but you haven't any of their equipment . . . that they all seem to carry in bags or small valises. Then all of a sudden your breed is called and your number is called . . . you tremble and are so nervous, you can hardly hold the leash in your hand. Thank goodness your dog obeys you without any trouble, not like some of those people who are fighting to hold their dogs to one spot. Some dog comes too close to you, and yours growls . . . so the owner of the other dog gives you a dirty look and says "The judge will disqualify a vicious dog" . . . you're so stunned, you hardly know what hit you. Your dog isn't vicious . . . he was just guarding you! You go through your paces, and lo and behold YOU WIN WINNERS . . . and Best of Winners! You're so happy that you can't see the looks being thrown at you. Then you win Best of Breed over Champions in what is called Specials! You're so amazed and drunk with pleasure as you work your way through the crowd with your handful of ribbons, and trophies. Your eyes are brimming over with tears as you stumble back to your bench. (No one of course men-

Irish Judge Comments on Terriers

Here's how the Terrier entries stacked up in the refreshing viewpoint of Judge R. Grant, United Kingdom specialist.

On receiving the invitation to judge most of the Terriers at the Terrier Breeders Association of Canada Show, held June 13, I was very pleased to accept.

I arrived at the International Airport, Toronto, accompanied by my daughter, where we were met by my good friend Mr. Sandy Palmer together with Mr. N. Brown, Secretary CKC and Mr. W. Brown, Director of the CKC, who welcomed us to Canada. We appreciated this gesture.

The show was held in the beautiful grounds of Ballycliff, overlooking Lake Ontario, kindly granted by Mr. S. Palmer who left no stone unturned for the benefit of exhibitors and visitors.

The rings were spacious on well cut grass and overhead were flying the Union Jack and the Red Ensign as an emblem of Unity. Before I commenced to judge I was introduced to my co-judges — Miss Lena Shortt, a well known authority on Terriers in USA and Canada, also Mr. Jack Fuller the well known Wire Terrier breeder. I was informed the entry was a record one for Terriers. The gate too was very good. I understand that part of the proceeds are being allocated to St. George's Anglican Church, of Pickering for renovations — a very worthy cause. I noticed the Rev. Dr. Sheppard and his lady helpers doing a good job with the catering, and I trust their efforts were crowned with success. I started off to judge in brilliant sunshine, my Steward being Mrs. Farrell, and later on Mr. Geo. Lawless whose valuable assistance I shall never forget, as some of your customs and formalities differ from ours in England and Ireland, but these I soon overcame. One thing I enjoyed was that, with the exception of one exhibitor, all dogs and exhibitors were complete strangers to me. I would like to thank all the exhibitors for their record entry, also the way in which they accepted my decisions, both winners and losers alike.

AIREDALES

A good entry. The dogs were put down very fit, and the winners were well up to Ch. show standard.

AUSTRALIAN TERRIERS

Fair, but lacked a little in substance, and require more character. I hope my remarks on these points may help these exhibitors in the near future.

BULL TERRIERS

Few in numbers but outstanding in quality.

CAIRN TERRIERS

Very good indeed. Class and quality stamped all over them, and equal to some of the best in our country.

SCOTTISH TERRIERS
Just about fair with the exception of the winners.

SEALYHAM TERRIERS
Some very nice specimens, and very well put down and shown.

IRISH TERRIERS
Only three entries, but "Alas" all absent. My own love. What a pity! Surely this grand terrier can be revived in Canada. At home in Ireland it is once again coming to the fore.

KERRY BLUE TERRIERS
I can truthfully say this was the best class of Terriers I have ever had the pleasure and privilege to judge in my 40 years' judging experience: class and quality stamped all over them, and put down in beautiful condition. Perhaps some of the dogs were a little overdone. Good trimming is essential, but too many frills (which are unnatural) spoil the picture. This breed has made great progress during the past 30 years, as my good friend the late Mr. Terry Donaghy of Ballymena made Ch. Dan O'Dorney one of the first champions of the breed. In those early days exhibitors were allowed only to tidy the coat. Very little divided some of the dogs for winners, but movement was the deciding factor, as we must have soundness in action.

LAKELAND TERRIERS
Just one entry. What a pity! For this beautiful breed surely you Canadian fanciers must get a move on here.

FOX TERRIER (WIRE)
A fair entry, but what was lost in quantity was made up for in quality, beautifully put down and shown. The winners could easily hold their own at any of our Champion shows.

WEST HIGHLAND WHITE TERRIERS
Another good entry, and apparently our Canadian cousins have nothing to learn in the art of trimming which was not overdone, as it spoils this rugged little Terrier. Here again I was delighted to handle such beautiful specimens which could go to the top in any country.

In conclusion I would like to express my sincere thanks to one and all who made my visit so interesting and pleasant. Perhaps in the near future I may again have the privilege of judging your dogs and meeting your charming people. ■

Bermuda Bound

For the first time since the Bermuda K.C. International shows began, Canadian exhibitors are able to take advantage of the airline excursion fares. The 12th annual international championship shows take place November 3, 4, 5 and 7.

Four one-day shows and Obedience are another big attraction, giving ample opportunity to collect points toward a Bermuda title.

The shows are unbenched – in this instance a real delight for dogs and owners – and are held in the beautiful Botanical Gardens.

As always, the famous Bermuda hospitality welcomes Canadians and Americans to an exciting round of tours and parties.

Shown taking BOS under Judge Bob Waters at the Kelowna show is O'Shoorn's 'tienne Si-coquin, black Miniature Poodle stud owned by Mrs. C. Haslam, 4302 St. Georges, North Vancouver, B.C. Bred by Mrs. A. L. Minet, Tienne is handled by Ford Flechar, Wesbrook Kennels, 1006 No. 5 Rd., Richmond, B.C.

NEW RESEARCH CENTER

An Animal Research Center has been established by E. R. Squibb & Sons, Division of Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation. The Research Farm will be located in Upper Freehold Township, N.J., where the 302-acre area will be used for the development and testing of new products for all types of animals.

REMOTE CANINE CONTROL

When Earl Ellington of Sherman, Texas, returned from work every evening, he found his television set turned on. Investigation showed the TV fan was Buck, his dog. When Buck stood in front of the remote-control set and shook his head, his vaccination tags jangled together and triggered the on-off switch.

CHESAPEAKE HAS GREAT ENDURANCE

The Chesapeake Bay Retriever has long been noted for its great endurance. It has been known for them to swim a mile or more to retrieve a single duck and to make as many as 200 retrieves in a single day under punishing weather conditions. Their memory is another of their outstanding characteristics, for they have been known to mark six or more ducks at a time and never forget the location of one.

GOLDEN COLOR IN GOLDENS

Many good dogs have been penalized because of color. The standard states "Lustrous golden of various shades." Yet what is "lustrous"? Some dogs have been put down because the are "too light", others because they are "too dark". It must be admitted that most Golden breeders frown on the light, almost blonde, type yet is not this considered golden? The dark, rich rust could almost be considered a "setter red". This is just one small example of how the standard can be interpreted by different judges. Who is to say which is right and which is wrong?

EIGHT GOLDEN RETRIEVERS AT CRUFTS

There were eight Golden Retrievers entered at Cruft's in 1908, the first year that the breed was represented. This was increased to ten the following year and has been increasing each year. Two brothers are in the background of most English Champions. Born in 1912, Noranby Campfire and Noranby Balfour can be found in the pedigrees of most, if not all, champions made since 1916. The former dog was the first Golden to receive a Championship in England.

FIRST AMERICAN CHAMPION WAS CANADIAN DOG

Ch. Speedwell Pluto, owned by Colonel Magoffin, became the first American Champion in 1932 after he had received his Canadian Championship.

LAB'S OTTER TAIL

Perhaps many breeders, exhibitors and judges should review the standard for the proper tail of a Labrador. It states

THE BORZOI

New booklet on this aristocratic breed compiled by the Borzoi Club of America. Order from Dr. Jacques Asselin, 352 Eugene St., Fabreville, P.Q. $1.75 each, including postage.

"The tail is a distinctive feature of the breed; it should be very thick towards the base, gradually tapering toward the tip, of medium length, should be free from any feathering, and should be clothed thickly all round with the Labrador's short, thick, dense coat, thus giving that peculiar "rounded" appearance which has been described as the "otter" tail. The tail may be carried gaily but should not curl over the back."

CHOCOLATE OR LIVER LABS

Recently a poll was taken in England among Labrador breeders on whether they preferred the color to be known as chocolate or liver. The majority favoured "liver".

HOW DOES YOURS COMPARE?

One common criticism so often heard around the show ring when Irish Setters are being shown is that "he is too small, or she is too large". Some heights and weights of famous dogs of the past could well belie some of these remarks. From a table of weights and heights for 42 dogs, the average height was 27" and the average weight 70 lbs. The smallest of these was Tyrone Farm Patricia O'Day, who was a mere 24" tall and weighed a scant 55 lbs. The largest were Flanagan of Hollywood Hills and Hedgewood Plainsman, who each measured 28½" tall and the former weighed a good 78 lbs while the latter tipped the scales at 72 lbs.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO THE AMERICAN COCKER SPANIEL?

The foregoing question was prompted by the continued poor representation of American Cocker Spaniels at the Westminster Dog Shows for quite some years. The stock answer to the poor entry is the fact that The American Spaniel Club has its annual specialty show slightly more than a month earlier on the first weekend in the new year combined with its annual meeting which makes it a must for dedicated breeders of Cocker Spaniels.

Another good question is "why show dogs?" The rather obvious answer is "to win." While dog showing is an incentive to better breeding it is also an expensive proposition, whether you handle your own dogs or hire a professional handler to do it for you. If one is going to show dogs with any degree of success an animal must be acquired, either through breeding or purchase, that conforms closely to the breed standard. Then one must proceed to school it in ring manners. This is best started at an early age and one can only hope that the chosen puppy retains its early promise. The friendliness, alert gay movement and willingness to work of a typey Cocker Spaniel in the show ring never fails to attract the attention of onlookers.

It is worthwhile to note that in the statistics of dog shows compiled by Mr. McDerment for the year 1963 and reported in Dogs in Canada, March, 1964 American Cocker Spaniels were second in the number of entries. Purebred Dogs, the AKC magazine, reports similar results in the United States. There the Cocker Spaniel was third in the number of entries at dog shows in 1963. All Canadian breeders and exhibitors are adjacent to quality American spaniel breeding and we in Ontario are taking advantage of it. Most of the members of the Cocker Spaniel Club of Central Ontario own champions of record with the CKC as evidence of their desire to breed better Cockers.

—Paul Davey

FIRST SPRINGER IN CANADA

The first Springer shown in Canada was at the Victoria Exposition, when "Jack" was entered with no pedigree or age being given. The owner was listed as M. Coleman and although he met no competition he was awarded a second prize.

B.C. HOME OF FIRST CANADIAN SPRINGER BREEDER

In 1914, Longbranch Teal was registered with the CKC, owner was C. E. Thomas, Victoria, B.C. and the breeder was Captain Brush, Kelowna, B.C. His dam was a Clumber Spaniel. G. T. Wolfe, Toronto, Ont. imported Beechgrove Bounce and Beechgrove Fly, both liver and white dogs, that when bred, produced a black, liver and white dog. All were registered in 1915. Two other Toronto men imported dogs from the same kennel about the same time. Beechgrove Nutty and Beechgrove Florette, both liver and white, were imported by Hoyes Lloyd, and Beechgrove Roddy came to the home of E. J. Marsh.

VIZSLA POPULARITY GROWS

Perhaps in some breeds the registration of 59 dogs in one month would not be world shattering, but with Viszlas the increase in May, 1964 in the USA from 33 (May, 1963) to 59 is most encouraging to the breeders of this Hungarian dog. In Canada, the entry at the shows seems to be increasing recently. For at many of the Ontario shows there have been entries of five or six dogs, giving a two point win to both sexes. Of the 11 litters registered in 1962, six came from four breeders in B.C., three from two breeders in Alberta, one litter from both Ontario and Quebec.

THREE TIMES WM AT USA SHOWS

Ch. Pepee of Port Credit, a Weimaraner owned by W. J. Crowe, Port Credit, Ont. has taken WM ribbons and points under Judge Dr. R. Rutherford at Buffalo, Mr. Louis Hall at Leominster, Mass. and W. H. Pym, at Burlington, Vt. Pepee is being handled by Durwood VanZandt during his USA campaign.

WY/MAR WAYS ON WAY

The newsletter published by the Canadian Weimaraner Club has been mailed to Weimaraner owners and exhibitors. The editor, Mr. R. Panney, 195 Lambton Ave., Toronto 9, Ont. is anxious to receive news of interest to the breed for future editions. The club has a workable training program for those interested in field training and conducts classes for those that follow obedience.

AFGHAN HOUND

The Afghan Hound is one of the oldest breeds in the world. It is believed to have originated in the small peninsula of Sinai, which lies between the Gulf of Suez and the Gulf of Akaba. This peninsula was part of ancient Egypt in 3,000 to 4,000 B.C. A papyrus of that area and time mentions the dog many times as the Cynocephalus, freely translated meaning "monkey-faced hound".

BASENJI WINS ENGLISH CHAMPIONSHIP

A son of the imported Eng. Ch. Eros Major of Basenlake, owned by Joyce and Stu Roberts, Maidstone, Ont., has just completed his English title. As there were only four dogs of this breed to win the title in England during 1963, this is quite an accomplishment. On the same weekend that the English son completed his title, his sire made his first USA win by going BW at the Macomb County Show under Judge James Trullinger.

BASSET OWNERS ATTEND MEETING

Eighty-five of the 400 members of the Basset Hound Club (England) attended its annual meeting. Talks were given on "The Abnormalities of the Basset Hound" and "Hunting Etiquette" by authorities on the subjects.

CANADIAN ESTABLISHES BLUE CAP STRAIN

One of the earliest importers of English Beagles into America was Hiram Card of Elora, Ont. who imported breeding stock in the 1880's. By careful breeding to shorten the height from the 15" to 17", which was common in early English dogs, he established the well known line which was known as the Blue Cap line and which is found in many of the pedigrees of today's Beagles.

USA JUNE REGISTRATIONS UP

During the month of June there were 100 more Beagles registered in 1964 than in the same month in 1963—3,852, taking it into third place behind the Poodles and German Shepherds, closely followed by Dachshunds with 3,760.

AKC PROPOSES NEW FIELD TRIAL RULES

Several proposed amendments have been published by the AKC for Beagle Field Trials. Canadians contemplating running Beagles in fall trials in the USA would be wise to obtain a copy of any new rules or changes.

A FIRST FOR DACHSHUND JUDGES

At the recent Specialty show of the Long-Haired Dachshund Club (England) all classes in the six breeds of Dachshunds were judged by Americans. This is the first time that an all American slate has been scheduled to do an entire show in the United Kingdom. The well known handler, Winifred L. Heckman, passed on BIS, Mrs. Nancy Onthank judged the Standard Smooths. Dorothy Hardy the Miniature Smooths. Standard Long Hairs were judged by Frank Hardy with the Minature Longs coming under the hands of Phillip F. Murphy IIIrd. Both the Standard and Miniature Wire Hairs were judged by Dr. Lyman R. Fisher.

FIRST ENGLISH CHAMPION DIES

Ch. Jane of Sillwood, first Miniature Wire-haired Dachshund to be awarded an English Championship, died at the age of seven years. She was owned by Mrs. R. Wakefield.

FOUR SALUKI LITTERS IN 1962

Only four litters of Salukis (19 dogs) were registered in the CKC stud book during 1962. The drop from 12 registrations in May, 1963 in the USA to three in the same month for 1964 would indicate that entries at shows in the coming few years will also take a slight decline in both countries.

WHIPPETS MOVE FROM B.C. TO MANITOBA

When Mrs. P. Arthur (Rockabye Whippets) formerly of Aldergrove, B.C. first moved to western Canada, she took with her four Whippets from England. At that time none of the breed were being bred or shown. By promoting the breed wherever possible Mrs. Arthur was pleased to see 129 Whippets shown in B.C. during 1963 while 60 - 70 dogs were registered from that area. Now that her kennel has been moved to Manitoba, Mrs. Arthur hopes to see an increase in the breed in that province during the next few years.

Strathrobin Collies, Toronto, Ont. have recently imported a two year old, sable and white male Collie, Honeybrook King's Ransom. Mr. W. R. VanDyck, Berlin, N.J. was the breeder.

HATS OFF TO BUDDY

A rousing welcome for America's Dog Hero of 1964, Buddy, and his owners, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew S. Crinkley, Jr., of Budd Lake, N.J. was staged recently at O'Hare International Airport, Chicago.

Buddy was in Chicago to claim the coveted Ken-L Ration gold medal, emblematic of his title, at a banquet in his honor. He will also be given a $1,000.00 bond, custom-made blanket, gold plaque, gold-plated leash and collar and a year's supply of dog food. The 20-month-old Collie leaped into national prominence last January when, despite severe burns on his feet and nasal damage, he saved 70 expectant mother goats in a fire that destroyed much of his master's goat dairy farm.

OUTSTANDING DOBERMAN

A Doberman Pinscher, seen on numerous occasions in eastern Canada, is believed to be the only one of its breed to hold a Championship in four different countries. Ch. (Can. Am. Bda. Mex.) Elfred's Spark Plug has now completed his Mexican Championship to gain this honor. "Sparkie" has been handled throughout his active campaign by Mrs. Ellen Hoffman, who is also the owner.

GERMAN TERMINOLOGY AS APPLIED TO SHEPHERDS

Many new Shepherd owners and exhibitors often wonder just what the terminology, used in the pedigrees of imported dogs, means. The following explanations may be of assistance: von or vom, mean the same "of" and should always be spelled with a small v; der, which usually follows the vom, means "the" and again should be a small d; when the two are abbreviated v d there should be no period appear such as v.d. nor should they be capitalized. Sch.H. is a degree a dog gets when he is classed as a "protection" dog and when figures, such as 1, 11, 111, appear after the degree it is first degree, second degree or third degree. Like our CDX a dog must have the 1 before he would get the 11 or 111. S.G., which often appears after the degree, is a sign that the dog is classed as "very good". V.—"excellent". F.H.—"tracking dog". V.A.—"excellent select", thus a dog with F.H.V.A. is a tracking dog excellent select. D.P.H. signifies that the dog is an active police dog. Sieger means exactly the same as our Canadian Grand Victor.

CORRECTION

It was incorrectly reported in "Dogs and People", August issue, where the three German Shepherds brought home from England by Miss Anne Gerigs were going. The correct homes are: one puppy and one adult went to Mr. and Mrs. T. Monk, Blaisienberg, Reg'd., and one puppy to White Hart Kennels, Pickering, Ont.

Tam-O-Shanter, is the product of excellent, thoughtful breeding practice. It combines the choice bloodlines of both England and Canada with the great knowledge and experience of Canada's oldest Sheltie breeder, Mr. Wm. Henderson, Toronto.

Tammy was sired by what might be considered the record-winning Sheltie of modern times, Ch. Willow Acres Golden Rocket. "Rock's" reputation speaks for itself — now at eight years old he lacks one American point to complete his Ch. (Can. Am.), has sired 10 champions and has had 45 BB and 17 Group placings. Linebred, he is a double grandson of the great Ch. (Can. Am.) Nashcrest Golden Note who, upon retirement, had amassed 102 BB.

Tammy's dam, Helensdale Lady Luck, a Scottish import, carries the prefix of one of the oldest and most famous kennels in the world. The Saunders brothers operated two of the most notable kennels which were the foundation of the breed. Farburn, operated by William, and Helensdale by James, laid the solid groundwork from which the breed has progressed.

It is said that Ch. Helensdale Ace was the greatest Sheltie of all times. He held the record for the most CCs, with eleven, and was the first dog to capture a BIS in England. He took this award at the first show at which there was an award for the "best over all breeds". Both his son, Ch. Hallinwood Robin Hood, and a grandson, Marista of Knockmaher, were imported into the USA and probably appear in the background of many winning Shelties today.

GET TOGETHER FOR CORGI ENTHUSIASTS

Alcona Park, Willowdale, Ont. will be the meeting place of all Welsh Corgi enthusiasts on October 18. It is suggested that all those interested in this breed meet for open discussion at 12.00 noon. Mrs. Grace Probert, 249 Finch Ave. W., Willowdale, Ont. (BA 5-6989) will welcome any letters or calls for information. It is hoped that as a result of this meeting the breed may be brought to the fore in Canada.

CANADIAN AIREDALE TAKES BREED

It has been reported in one of the English publications that Mme. Sulser, judge of the show at Deauville, France, chose as her best female and BB Airedale, Deanridge Rambling Rose. Hank Bennink, Oakville, is the breeder and the owner is M. Hernalsteens, Belgium.

AUSTRALIAN TERRIERS IN NORTH AMERICA

In the last four years Australian Terriers have made quiet but steady progress. From widely scattered parts of the U.S.A. and Canada news comes of show successes gained by owner-handlers, and it is interesting to note how many Aussies have reached Championship status in this fashion.

and those seen at All-Breed shows have shown a marked improvement in uniformity of type and quality. This has been true of all colors.

With rare exceptions, first and second generation homebreds have accounted for the Terrier Group placements which are now becoming more frequent in all areas. Very wisely, the owners of the "greats" from "Down Under" continue to exhibit these fine specimens, without which there would no "pattern" to follow — and surpass. This last feat was accomplished at the 1964 Westminster Kennel Club Show, when a young American-bred female met . . . and conquered . . . her "aunt" who is herself a fine winning import. So, let us express appreciation of the fine foundation stock upon which the future of the breed depends and set a high goal of achievement for the homebreds, who will carry on . . . and surpass . . . the fine record handed down to them.—Mrs. Charles Deer.

FOX TERRIER (WIRE HAIR)

The "Rough-Haired Terrier" was identified with Fox Hound packs as far back as 1611. The early dogs of the breed were black with tanned legs and muzzles and a tan spot over each eye. The white made its appearance in about 1858 and gained popularity very rapidly. The English Standard was drawn up in 1876 and accepted by the AKC in 1885.

AKC REGISTRATIONS

During June, 1964 there were 48 Fox Terriers registered as compared with 34 for the same month a year ago. Fox Terriers (Wire) were more popular for they had 815 registrations in the same period in 1964 and 645 in 1963.

breed and this one certainly made an impression on me. I will never forget Reggie Sparkes' Bulldog bitch, Clarinda, when she captured best dog in show at Cleveland in 1935 from the classes and over 1,000 dogs. She was a grand and glamorous animal as she rolled down the big ring. In fact she brought down the house for everyone appreciates a great performance by a great dog. But getting back to the subject of Terriers, add to the foregoing listing Mr. and Mrs. James McFarlane (Cairns). Mr. and Mrs. Sid Berryman, now in the U.S. and late of the Tailteann Kennels, George Davies a grand person and very knowledgable (Cairns, Kerries), Mrs. W. Gottschalk (Miniature Schnauzers), Fred Fraser (Scottish Terriers and Westies) and Robert Sharp (Scottish Terriers) and you have a few of the many Canadians that are known through their activities in the U.S.

This article is short of necessity and does not give deserved credit to many who should be recognized. However, it does offer a perspective of Canadian Terrier activities in the United States and tells briefly why U.S. dog fanciers retioned that you should arrange to have your dog's photo taken if you won the breed). Strangers all congratulate you, other breeders come around and are pleased to see a "new breeder-to-be" on the scene . . . everyone seems happy for you . . . except . . . NO ONE FROM YOUR BREED has come up to say how wonderful it was that you won. How odd? What is wrong? What did you do?

Finally you decide you had better take your dog out for his much needed walk. Passing by your fellow breeders, who all seem to be arguing in whispers . . . no one seems to see YOU and your dog. You're still in a daze, but slowly a hollow feeling of hurt and disappointment creeps into your heart . . . not knowing or understanding WHY the friends of your breed haven't given one word of praise. Finally, one of two or more will slowly venture up to your bench and without any ardor of emotion will grudgingly "congratulate" your dog's wins, and pass the scathing remark, "The Judge SURE WASN'T ANY GOOD!" "Amen." ■

MIN. SCHNAUZER SPECIALTY TO HAVE CANADIAN JUDGE

The Miniature Schnauzer Club of New York has announced that Mrs. Ethel Gottschalk, Toronto, will judge it Specialty on September 27 at Westbury, L.I. Mrs. Gottschalk with her husband, has bred and exhibited Miniature Schnauzers for many years and one of their dogs, Ch. Cosburn Esquire, has been a top winning dog in the USA for the past few years.

ONLY ONE BLACK CHAMPION

Ch. Hupp v Schonhardt of Crystal is the only known black male Miniature Schnauzer to hold the title of Champion in the USA. Several others have points and should finish shortly. The Blackboard, official bulletin of the Black Miniature Schnauzer Fanciers' Association, announces a number of litters and partial litters that show promise and great things are expected of these in the near future.

CANADIAN WEST HIGHLAND WHITE TERRIER CLUB

The Westie picture for 1963-64 appears to be a healthy one, Although, following Ch. Elfinbrook Simon's BIS at Westminster in 1962 breeders received the inevitable spate of enquiries for bred bitches, and there has lately been some talk of litters available in pet shops, the general genuine demand for the breed steadily exceeds the supply in spite of an increase in registrations from year to year.

A West Coast correspondent notes an extraordinarily high mortality rate in newly born puppies, even among experienced breeders, which has occurred to some extent in Ontario and Quebec too; in the latter areas there have also been a number of cases of bred females apparently reabsorbing the litter halfway through pregnancy. It would be interesting to know whether other breeds have had similar experiences.

Westies continue to appear in the Obedience ring — the CWHWT Club's trophy offered for the highest scoring Westie each year has never yet been unclaimed — and in conformation shows the record is creditable. Five Championships have been completed in B.C. already this year, and across the Continent Westies have been maintaining a telling record with Group wins and placings and several BIS wins. Top terrier of the 1963 Canadian shows, and third highest top dog all-breeds, was a Westie. Of the 454 Westies entered in the '63 shows, about 50% were in Ontario shows, over 25% in B.C., and 25% divided between the other provinces, all of them being represented. In the past year at least four Westies have been sent to Newfoundland, and litters are to be bred from these.

TERRIER BREEDERS' ASSOCIATION OF CANADA

Our club was established in 1963 to promote the breeds in Group IV. Membership is restricted to breeders who have bred Terriers in Canada.

The first Championship Show, held at Pickering June 13, produced a record entry of 118 Terriers. Mr. Bobby Grant, Ballymena, Ireland and Miss Lena Shortt, London, Ont. were the judges.

The following were the leading entries: Kerries (21), Airedales (14), Cairns (14), Westies (14), and Fox Terrier (Wire) 11.

Best in Group went to Ted Ward's Wire Ch. (Can. Am.) Cairngorm Rambler, 2nd and Best Canadian Bred to Casey Gardiner's Kerry Ch. Kerrycroft's Bold Brigand, 3rd to Thelma Adams Westie Ch. (Can. Am.) White Crusader and 4th to Hank Bennink's Airedale Ch. Deanridge Rascal — while BCBP went to Joan Morden's Schnauzer (Miniature) Tannenbaums' Diamond Lil. Australians produced an entry of seven and Mrs. A. Lowe found her Junior Puppy Koriella's Boccacio go to BB — congratulations.

Cairns BW, BB went to Uniquecottage Goldspur with WF and BOS to Badenoch Attham's Sally, both owned by Kay and Jim McFarlane. Schnauzers BB to Mrs. Hugh J. Kennedy's Ch. Rosehill Von Ierna. Scottish to our good friend John Treleaven's Ch. Treleaven's Top Brass. It was wonderful to have John with us.

The setting for the show was ideal and to Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Palmer we say a sincere thank you. Also to our exhibitors and spectators we thank them for their support in our first venture.

Don't miss our Puppy Match on Saturday, September 19 to be held at John Treleaven's, Todmorden, Ont. and our all breed Sanction Show at York Farmer's Market on Sunday, November 15

"ISLAND" TERRIERS

By looking at a map of Vancouver Island one can see that the most populated area extends from Victoria in the south to Campbell River in the north. If one was looking for a Terrier breeder or fancier all one would have to do is visit practically any area between those two points. The reason for this is due in no small part to the activities of the V.I. Terrier Club.

More gratifying than the number of Terriers on the Island is the quality of the dogs. It is generally agreed that they are improving from year to year.

By consulting any of the local show catalogues it can be seen that West Highland White Terriers are the most popular breed of Terrier on the Island. Since the beginning of the year five Westies have become champions. A lot of credit for this must go to Miss Edith Humby and Mrs. Margaret Freemantle. Not only do they put a lot of time and effort into their own breeding activities, but they encourage and help the less experienced breeders.

Following closely behind the Westies come the Cairn Terriers. Mrs. Melita Woods, the leading Cairn breeder on the Island with 30 years experience, owns Woody Woodpecker, the top Cairn in Canada in 1963.

Some of the lesser known breeds are coming to the fore on the Island. At the Terrier Club Specialty Show in Nanaimo the BIS was a Lhasa Apso. Miss Rosemary Osselton's Dandy Dinmont, Topnotch Alice Blue Gown, has recently become a Canadian Champion.

Another breed that has recently been introduced to the Island, and is finding its fanciers, is the Australian Terrier. There are three breeders on the Island.

In this article it is impossible to mention all breeds but it should be understood that all the breeders and fanciers are very enthusiastic and support all the local shows. —Margaret E. Freemantle

WESTIES GO NORTH

Mrs. Nona Navin, a well known breeder of West Highland White Terriers, early this year took the long drive to her new home at Pickle Crow Gold Mines at Pickle Crow, Ont. Along with her went her Westies and news has now come in that all are doing well. Dr. Navin is the resident doctor for the mine which is about 300 miles north of Port Arthur. Mrs. Navin reports that the dogs have taken to the move and as the country seems to be similar to their native land have progressed very well. Coats seem to have gained their original whiteness and with the lavish use of talcum powder the dogs have been kept free of insect bites. She feels that this is ideal country for Westies and hopes to raise several litters in the near future.

BB AND THREE POINTS FOR CANADIAN DOG

Miss Rockette of Son-Ki, a short haired Chihuahua owned by Miss Sandra Nelles, Unionville, Ont. was awarded Winners and BB over 15 Chihuahuas by Edith Nash Hellerman at Spartonburg, S.C. recently. Barbara Humphries handled.

MORE WINS FOR CANADIAN CHIHUAHUAS

At Michigan City, Ind. Judge Joseph Faigel awarded BB to Ch.(Can.Am.) Luces Dona Daisy, a long coat Chihuahua owned by Judy Finch, Unionville, Ont. Other wins attained by her kennel were RWM, at the first show, of Rockys Ita Dondi of Son-Ki, WM went to Scaeffer's Gheronimo and WF and BW was won by Miss Rockette of Son-Ki, who went on to take BOS over Specials. The latter three dogs are all short coats and are owned by Sandra Nelles.

TOP USA CHIHUAHUA COMES TO CANADA

Miss Sandra Nelles, Unionville, Ont. has recently imported Ch. Gene's Carla, a short coat Chihuahua who ranked as the top short coat in the USA for 1963. Her BIS under Robt. Waters and two Group firsts put this mighty mite at the top of the list.

ANCIENT ROYAL BREED

The Italian Greyhound appears to be of very ancient origin. Although it is not known just when it was developed in its present diminutive size, it has been reported that traces of the breed were found in one of the tombs of the Pharaohs of Egypt. The Piccoli Levrieri Italiani, as it is known in its country of origin, Italy, has been the darling of royalty, including Anne of Denmark, Consort of James I; Mary Beatrice D'Este, consort of James II; Queen Victoria; Mary Queen of Scots; Frederick the Great of Prussia; Lord Lytton; Sir Percy Shelley, son of the poet, and many others.

IS IT THE SAME DOG?

Does the description of "Ye Ancient Dogge of Malta", which is given as a swift footed faithful guardian of man, fit the Maltese as we know it today? Although the name has appeared in many ways dating back to before the time of Christ, it is most doubtful that the appearance of the dog could possibly be the same. No matter what the origin was the delightful Maltese of today has a sure place in the hearts of many. Although very popular some years ago the breed died out somewhat in England after the first World War. Yet it was established in Canada well before then. Perhaps the best known kennel in the world at that time was one owned by Mrs. H. E. Short, London, Ont. The first Canadian Champion was Highbury Snowball, who achieved this honor in 1915 when seven years old. Snow Ball was imported to Canada from England by Raymond W. Gard, Toronto.

MOST FAMOUS MIN PIN

Perhaps the most famous Minature Pinscher of all time is Ch. Patzie v Mill-Mass. With 25 BIS, 100 Group firsts and 140 BB, in four and a half years of showing, this record will be difficult to better by any dog of the breed today. Patzie was awarded the Ken-L Award for the Southeast Division of the USA with 21 Group firsts. She was runner up the following year for the Western Division with the same number. The next year she was again runner up with 24 Group firsts and in 1953 she tied with the winner with 19. There were three puppies in her first litter and two of the three became Champions of record.

POMS AND OBEDIENCE

Many Pomeranians have attained the top obedience title of UDT but perhaps the first one was a petite Starlight's Betty Lue, who finished her title after she had raised a litter of puppies. The one best known for obedience is Buttons Rubel UD, a six pound Pom who finished her title in 1954 with a very high average score. She was always in the high 190's and had attained many perfect scores. Buttons participated in the Humane Society's program by showing the children in 33 public schools in the Springfield area how dogs can be trained.

PUGS HAD CROPPED EARS

Early in the nineteenth century the ears of the Pug were not only cropped, as is the practice with many breeds today, but were completely cut out. It was the theory that by this operation the Pug's expression would be improved and the facial wrinkle deepened. Many breeders today are thankful that the breeders in the latter part of the century became more humane and ceased this barbaric practice.

EARLY BEGINNING FOR THE TOY MANCHESTER

Although the breed only became known as the Toy Manchester in 1938, when the AKC accepted it into its registry, the breed was previously known for many hundreds of years, but by various other names. The Black and Tan Terrier was mentioned in many books during the 1800's and the description given of these dogs could well be the standard recognized today. "Billy" was a star of his day (early 1800's) by making a record of killing 100 rats in a 12 minute period.

WESTMINSTER BB KILLED

Am.Ch. B-B Kim of Fellow, a Boston Terrier that had won BB for three successive years, was hit and killed by a car during May. This five year old dog,

THREE GENERATIONS — THREE CHAMPIONS — TWO COUNTRIES

Dalmatians from the Colonsay Kennels, England, have brought honor to their breeders. Colonsay Red Handed Simon received his Championship in England in June, Colonsay April Jest, his son, received his third CC and English Championship in July and his grandson, Colonsay Jester's Bell, was awarded his Canadian degree in May. Thus in three months three generations of Dalmatians from this kennel received Championship status in two different countries.

FIRST BULLDOG OF NOTE

Ch. King Dick, a 48 lb. red Bulldog, was perhaps the first dog to win a title at the KC shows in England. He won this in 1865 at the Birmingham show. One year later he died but left his mark on the Bulldogs of today through a descendant, Ch. Crib. This 64 lb. brindle and white dog, whelped in 1871, appears in the background of many of today's top dogs. At the shows held at the Royal Aquarium during 1892 and 1893 every dog competing had Ch. Crib in his pedigree.

CANADIAN TOY POODLE TAKES AMERICAN POINTS

Judge Theodore Wurmser gave WM and two points to the silver Toy Poodle, Antoine's Ma Oublib, owned by Miss Sandra Nelles, Unionville, Ont. Barbara Humphries handled the dog at the Greenville, S.C. show.

USE OF POODLES IN OLDEN DAYS

Acclaimed as an excellent Retriever in years gone by, the Poodle still possesses many of these qualities. Recognized by most as a very intelligent dog it is nevertheless difficult to accept many of the claims made by the early breeders. One of these is the story told of Domini who, it is said, could tell time by the clock and also played a good game of dominoes. One prowess they did possess, which cannot be denied, is in hunting truffles. It appears that Poodles were used to locate the edible fungus and the Dachshund, used in company with the Poodle, dug them up. At one time this was a popular industry in rural parts of England and these two breeds were used extensively.

to handle the dogs by a specialist in police dog work. After a month's training three of his dogs remained at the "pen" and are still working there. The same man was brought to Kingston where he gave 50 guards similar training, and left four of his dogs.

The canine guards are never in contact with the inmates. They remain in their own quarters until evening, when the inmates are in their cells. The night duties include use of the dog's keen sense of smell to discover contraband brews, knives and other weapons.

The Britsh Columbia trainer receives about $1,500 apiece for the dogs per year, on a rental basis. He makes periodic inspections and gives further training if necessary, or replaced if necessary.

WHAT A STEW TO BE IN!

Three hundred canine boarders living at The Quaker Oats Company's pet nutrition center have become professional food tasters. Their "work" is to taste the new Ken-L-Ration Stew, containing sliced carrots, peas, potatoes and lean meat. The dogs have had a paw in every phase of the stew's development. The search for a new food was prompted by a survey showing that housewives consider the dog an almost-human member of the family, and that they like to shop for his food accordingly.

"ALLY CAT"

(ENGLISH LINE BRED BLACK)

Can. & Am. Ch. ALLEGIANCE OF CLARADAR (AKC title awaiting confirmation), is shown here winning the Non-Sporting Group at the Kiwanis Show, Vancouver, B.C. April 18, 1964, her first time out as a Special, under the noted Canadian all-rounder, Mr. George Kynoch.

"Ally Cat" completed her Canadian title at the tender age of 10 months, at the Nanaimo show May, 1963, by winning the Group under Mr. Vic Williams and winning her 10 points with 4 straight Winners Ribbons and 3 B.C.B.P. in Show.

Since her first time out as a Specials in April, "Ally Cat" has been shown 17 times and her Canadian record stands at 5 Bests in Show, 14 Group 1st, 3 Group 2nds and 17 BB.

"Ally's" American title was completed in 6 shows, two 5pt. wins, one 2 pt. win and one 3 pt. win. At the Portland, Ore. Specialty Show, under Mr. Ed Pickhardt, Ally went from the classes to Best of Breed.

Bred by Dr. W. G. Ballard, by Ch. Chanticourt Mario (English import) out of Ch. Montravia Fan Dancer (English import).

Let's consider the situation. In the case of benching, some exhibitors and club officers claim that there are not enough spectators at shows, other than major ones, to pay for the extra work involved. The crux of the matter, then, is not whether exhibitors do or do not prefer benched shows. It boils down to the fact that club members who are willing to do the hard physical work in preparing for a show are few and far between. A piece of rope and a couple of rings do not constitute a show, emphasizes another show official, and wishing a show were kept clean and tidy does not make it so. Expenses and work are part of a proper show.

"You have to pay storage and insurance costs for benching," the official pointed out, "and today $150 does not cover the costs. You still have to pay clean-up men." He, however, also states that he never sold a puppy at an unbenched show. "A potential customer should be able to see a good variety of the breed he is interested in and, in order to properly make up his mind, be able to talk to a number of breeders in a row. He should have a true picture of the breed."

"I'll wager that in ten years there won't be half the shows there are now," said another seasoned exhibitor. "Why? People just can't afford to go to so many. And when they do, they take one dog instead of several which they ought to, to make a proper showing."

What is the solution? Should clubs join forces and have fewer but better shows, better competition, shared costs and shared efforts? How about the time element? Organization is the answer. Proper planning of time and rigid adherence to the schedule. How can a huge show of 1300 or more dogs start at 9.30 a.m. and finish at 9.30 p.m.? How does Crufts, largest show in the world, finish up virtually on the minute? If a judge is taking an inordinate amount of time the proper authority should politely but firmly call his attention to the fact. If a handler has too many dogs to make the rings on time, limitations should be realized and fewer dogs taken on or assistants employed.

Why do other sports get a good gate? Because someone has worked on the physical end and committees with some imagination have made it all so attractive that attending the event is "the thing to do." By the time you are reading these thoughts clubs will be forming their 1964-65 show committees. It would be to everyone's advantage to give real consideration to putting the "show" back in dog shows. ■

DOGS & PEOPLE

Will Anne Hone Rogers retire as one of the world's leading handlers following her marriage? News is that she will. This will be a disappointment to the hundreds of clients whose dogs she has handled to sensational victories, and it will also terminate the bid Anne was making to top Percy Robert's record of BIS wins at Westminster. On the bright side is the fact that one of the most knowledgable people in dogdom will be available for judging. As a leading handler her previous judging assignments have had to be confined to specialty shows.

Bulldog specialist Reg. P. Sparkes (Kamel Kennels) Toronto, has been invited to judge at the Incorporated KC championship show in England next March. Writes Judge Joanna M. Mitchell in the English Dog World: "Those who have never seen Mr. Sparkes judge have a treat in store. Watching him, one feels that he not only knows a Bulldog but knows what he likes and knows how to put it over."

The kindly lady's guardians want to put her 40 or more retrievers, German Shepherds, Bloodhounds, Beagles and a Poodle on cheaper dog food, but she insists on ordering prime rib cuts. Last year her canine grocery bill ran to $50,000. She is Mrs. Geraldine Rockefeller Dodge, now 83, and best known as the grand hostess who for many years turned over her 500-acre estate for the famous Morris and Essex show (in 1939 it was the largest one-day show in the world, attracting 4,456 entries). Ruled the judge: let them eat steak.

Ch. Hickory Smoke's Wild N'Wully, a Canadian Gordon Setter owned by a Canadian nurse, Mrs. Allen Ruess, who lives in Conshohocken, Pa., adores competition in every field. In addition to going BW at Westminster in 1962, and competing in field trials, he has earned his CD title in obedience. His mother was Windy Hill's Zoe, owned by Mr. and Mrs. John D. Poisker, of the Lansdale area. For eight years Mrs. Ruess raised Gordon Setters at her Hickory Smoke Kennels near Toronto. In 1960 she became a nurse at the Bryn Mawr Hospital, but now works with a veterinarian preferring to spend more time with husband and dogs.

Club Six has just been formed in Toronto "for the betterment of the breeds in Group VI and the sponsoring of good sportsmanship among dog breeders." Membership in the club is by invitation only. The newly elected officers are: President, Mrs. C. Nattrass; Vice-President, Mr. A. J. Langham; Secretary, Mrs. Thora Britten; Treasurer, Mrs. E. Holdham.

Mrs. Phyllis Smith, widely known throughout Canadian dogdom, embarks this month on a new career. She, with Mrs. Fred Lowe of Burlington, Ont., are partners in The Pet House, located on Queen St. South, Kitchener, Ont. A former breeder and exhibitor of English Springer Spaniels, she is now the owner of a female Borzoi, Karasnye Tamara of Malora. Burlington continues to be her home address.

The words "official" and "licensed" will no longer be awesome to new members of The Queen City Training and Tracking Associations. The club, located in the Toronto area has a program of Obedience matinee workouts where novices may try out their dogs under trial conditions. Next events are scheduled for Sunday, September 27 and October 25. Anyone wishing judging experience is invited to contact Mrs. Grace E. Probert, 249 Finch Ave. West, Willowdale, Ont. on these dates.

On her trip to the East Coast, Kerry Blue Terrier breeder Elisabeth Golby, Willowdale, Ont., successfully showed two pups, appeared with them on television and was interviewed for story and picture in a local Maritime paper.

William Brown, noted dog photographer, plans to retire. Canadians from coast to coast have had winners photographed by him at shows. A stickler for expression, he will always be remembered as squatting in the ring, growling, barking, tossing objects to bring out animation in the dog. "Brownie" turned his hobby of photography into a business when his construction business folded in 1929. He was 74 in June, although the years are not at all evident.

"TOURING WITH TOWSER"

A thoroughly revised edition of the booklet "Touring With Towser" has just been published. Nearly 7,000 hotels and motels throughout the United States that accept guests with pets are listed in the publication brought out by the Gaines Dog Research Center as a service to dog folk. In addition to the listings, the 48-page directory offers handy tips on what to take along for Towser, notes the requirements for entering Canada, and a variety of other useful information. A copy of "Touring With Towser" can be had by sending 25 cents in coin or stamps (to cover first-class postage and handling) to the Gaines Dog Research Center, 250 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017.

TWO NEW GAINES FILMS

A comprehensive motion picture of Chicago's 1964 International Kennel Club dog show has been produced under the direction of the Gaines Dog Research Center, which is now making the film available for showings at meetings of dog clubs and related groups. Entitled "International Dog Show — 1964", it runs about 45 minutes.

Also being distributed exclusively through the Center is Blanche Saunders' new film on novice obedience training. This one, in color and running about 30 minutes in length, replaces the earlier "Training You to Train Your Dog" (Basic) motion picture.

Both films are the work of J. Kilburn King, and are available in 16 mm. and sound. Club secretaries or program chairmen desiring to schedule either film at one of their club meetings should communicate with the Gaines Dog Research Center, 250 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017, giving alternate dates, at least one month in advance, on which they would like to have the picture shown to their group.

CORRECTIONS

Under the breed notes for St. Bernards in the August Dogs in Canada it was erroneously stated that the new dog acquired by Mr. and Mrs. Seaman, Markham, was Ch. El Don's Missy Moe v Mighty Moe when in reality it should have been her half brother, Senator von Fritz v Mighty Moe. Missy Moe is still at her home with Donald T. Swinarski, Chicago, Ill.

In the July issue the Chihuahua, Ch. Margo's El Dorado Shillmaine, was noted to have been bred by Mrs. Maureen Samuels. The breeder was Margaret Kraus.

On her visit West this summer Mrs. Meta Loveridge of Toronto met with friends, many of whom are well-known in Canadian dogdom. Shown at the Kelowna, B.C. Kennel Club third annual show are, left to right, bottom row, Mr. Bailey of Portland, Ore., Mrs. Elsie Murray of Vancouver, B.C., Mrs. Loveridge and Miss Karen Knight of Langley, B.C. Standing: Mr. George Kynoch of Vancouver, Mrs. W. L. Clementi of Milk River, Alta., Mrs. Bailey, Mr. Fred McInnis of Vancouver and Mrs. Don Berlant of Portland.

Dogs need help to balance their rations.
Many dog owners believe that a dog will balance his own diet if he's given the chance. These people usually offer their dogs a variety of foods, mostly table scraps, and think the dog will eat those things his body needs. It isn't so. At the Purina Dog Care Centre we tested free-choice feeding to see if dogs would look after their own nutritional requirements. At 6 weeks of age a litter of 8 beagle pups was evenly divided. Average weight was 4.2 lbs. For the next 4 weeks half the pups were fed free-choice on a variety of ingredients — vitamins, protein, soy and corn oil, minerals, carbohydrate and salt. At 10 weeks this group averaged 3.6 lbs., a loss of over half a pound in 4 weeks.
Litter mates fed on a complete ration containing the same ingredients, but formulated to the dogs' exact requirements averaged 8.7 lbs. at 10 weeks, a gain of 4.3 lbs. in the same period.
The results of this test show that dogs cannot balance their own diets. That's why a complete, well-balanced ration like New Purina Dog Meal is vital to your dog's health.
It's high in calorie power!
It's high in protein!
It's high in palatability!
It's new Purina Dog Meal!
