Kennel Tests Prove New Burgerbits gives dogs the taste they really like...the solid nutrition they need.

The Great New Taste* of Burgerbits

now in "flavour-kernel" form

Here's the dog food that kennel tests proved superior to all others in palatability and nutrition.

Dogs tested preferred new Burgerbits . . . thrived on new Burgerbits.

Here's why:

Increased Fat Content, with an improved fat-protein ratio, gives unsurpassed palatability, maintains glossy coats and healthy skin, helps prevent shedding.

New Flavour-Kernels. Smooth preformed kernels of uniform size and shape eliminate jagged, uneven particles and dust of ordinary dog foods. Spray coating of natural meat fats locks in flavour, protects nutrients.

Aids Digestion. New Burgerbits is expanded to gelatinize starches for easier digestion.

Less Porous. Crunchier consistency helps keep teeth, gums and jaw healthy . . . absorbs liquids without getting mushy . . . feeding pans clean easily without scraping or scouring.

Exceeds NRC Requirements for daily nutritional intake, providing a complete and balanced diet.

Feed Dry or Wet. Kennel tests prove that many dogs prefer Burgerbits dry. Fed wet, Burgerbits retains the crunchy texture and meaty aroma dogs really enjoy.

Special Professional Discounts. As with all of Dr. Ballard's Dog Foods, new Burgerbits carries a special Kennel Discount. Your local representative will be pleased to provide you with details.

The beautiful portrait appearing on this month's cover is of Ch. Summit's Gold Dust, CD, the Sheltie that, according to his owner-handler Mrs. Ruth Lane of Summit Kennels, Centerville, Mass., has done more for her in Shelties than any other dog she has owned or bred. Her first homebred Champion, in April of 1958, he was sired by Ch. (Can. Am.) Nashcrest Golden Note ex Ch. Cinderella Gypsy of Ronas Hill U.D.T. He has two Group 1st and numerous Group placings to his credit, and even at nine years of age, with his beautiful dark mahogany sable coat, this grand fellow manages to steal the limelight. He is the proud sire of:

Ch. (Can. Am.) Rosslynn's Dainty's Dividend (Specialty Show Winner)
Ch. Rosslynn's Ban-Joe of Summit (Group Winner)
Ch. Summit's Fiesta C.D.
Ch. Summit's Forever Amber
Ch. Meridian's Gypsy Serenade
Ch. Meridian's Gypsy Baron (Specialty Show Winner)
Ch. Braedean's Fancy That

Altogether an illustrious record for an outstanding dog.

help wanted to form club

A group of ... people are about to form a dog club here in Creston and we are looking for helpful advice from any similar small club, in particular those from small agricultural communities with problems similar to those I feel sure we're about to meet.

What rules do you suggest, do you have regular health checks on the dogs attending? What about the small boy with a much-loved but impossible for him to handle dog — usually of large, indeterminate breed?

We're rank amateurs with a desire to see an improved "dog-citizen" relationship in our town so will be mainly concerned with simple obedience training and not able to be too fussy about pedigree at first.

So please, let us hear from you if you have any suggestions to offer. . . . Love your magazine — it's the best ever we think.

canadians are nice

I received a very pleasant letter from Miss Dorothy F. O'Donnell, who entered her dog in the Obedience Trials in the Maritime Circuit, excerpts from which should be of interest to all who have ever considered attending these shows: "Thank you so kindly for the nice letter you sent to inform me of my Sheltie's spoon awards won on the New Brunswick Circuit. This was my first experience with Canadian shows and I must say that the courtesy and friendliness shown by everyone involved with the shows has made me determined to show again in Canada as often as possible . . . But now that we know how nice Canadian shows are, both Niki and I are glad of a good excuse to return next summer . . . We met several people from your Montreal club at the N.B. shows, including Mrs. Stephens, and particularly Mrs. Smith, to whom I must send the pictures I took of her Dusty. By the way, the first two spoons arrived quite safely in the mail, and they are lovely."

I subscribe to your excellent magazine and hasten to advise you how my education was extended at P.N.E., Vancouver. I was walking my Miniature Pinscher and two ladies passed. One asked her friend what breed of dog I had and I was astounded to hear that I was walking a French Poodle in the new clip!

the beginner and obedience

. . . I read with interest Bay Meyers' excellent article on Obedience classes . . . To avoid possible misunderstanding or disappointment on the part of future pupils: an experienced handler and trainer like Miss Meyers taking a dog through a ten week course and getting 190 in a trial the same day as graduation is one matter; a beginner handling his or her first dog in a class is quite another.

Miss Meyers says "immediately after ten weeks in class, a dog can be a well mannered citizen and can get its CD without difficulty". I agree, but my 16 years of experience as an instructor have shown that this applies only if the dog has a capable handler. Most people need as much training as their dogs, often far more; and a very small percentage of beginners can grasp both the fundamentals of Obedience and the intricacies of Trial handling in only ten short weeks.

It has been my observation that too many beginners are taught straight from the Rule Book (Obedience Trials). This type of training shows up in many of the trials I have judged. Instead, is it not better to forget Trial rules until the dog and owner learn together, with all the extra commands and signals needed, with lots of praise while the dog is learning, not just after the exercise is completed? I am a great believer in thorough groundwork — adding the "frosting" later: after the dog has learned the work thoroughly and happily, and the owner has learned leashwork and timing, then the trial routine can be introduced without loss of gaiety and precision. Beginner handlers have enough to do trying to learn just how to control the dogs, and how to transmit their new knowledge to their undisciplined pets, with-

memo
FROM THE EDITOR

YOUR EDITORS ARE disappointed in not being able to make a greater presentation of Collies and Shetland Sheepdogs as was scheduled for this issue. Breeders across Canada were notified in good time that the October issue would feature their breeds. They were also advised that the amount of space to be devoted to them would, in all fairness, be predicated on the amount of advertising on these breeds. As may be seen in this issue, the amount of interest shown by the breeders did not warrant the space they might have had on their behalf.

DO YOU BELIEVE a clique dominates your club? Do you feel "out of it?" One dictionary explanation of the word clique is "a small and exclusive group of persons." Another description gives it a snobbish connotation which has no place in a club.

In an organization devoted to a common cause, you will find a certain percentage of workers, a number of semi-interested people and a third group of couldn't-care-less members. When a task must be done you'll find a handful of willing, capable workers. In the second group are others who will work under persuasion. You will have noted that every time a club project is launched the same people volunteer. (Ask any club who has a benching problem). They will plan and work together and see the project through. And whether you've ever considered it in this light, this is exactly how many so-called cliques come into being.

In order to make a well-rounded club work smoothly and progressively, common courtesy and respect for one another's ideas, abilities and efforts is essential. Members should be invited to put forth their ideas for discussion. Perhaps they won't work. Big companies have regular "brainstorming" sessions. They may throw out 100 ideas to get three workable ones. Meantime one idea springboards another. And no contributor's feelings are hurt if his ideas are tossed out.

A good president makes it clear that as well as ideas, volunteer workers are wanted. Members at one club meeting this summer voted enthusiastically for a picnic. The president asked for volunteers for the picnic committee. No hand was raised. The idea was dropped and members felt let down. After the meeting several people told the president they would gladly have helped, but were afraid to take on the responsibility alone. They were assured they would not have been alone, but would certainly have had assistance. (more on page 76)

out trying in the first ten weeks to cope with ring procedure as well. Besides, I have found that 95% of all dog owners who bring their dogs to class are interested only in a well-behaved pet, not in competition. This must surely apply also to classes everywhere. So why burden them with a lot of rules they will never use? Those who do show interest in trials can be taught special handling later. Personally I do not believe that involving beginners in Obedience Trial ring work influences them one way or the other. They're either interested or they're not, in competitions for degrees. If not, it doesn't matter if the dog gets a command and signal to Down, body signals on the Come, or a bit of encouraging praise while he's working. The important thing for a dog in class, as Miss Meyers says, is to learn to obey the owner, and this he will do better with all the extra help he can get.

Some trainers put their pupils through a second ten weeks of more advanced training before touching the trial work; and one result is dogs and handlers in Novice A who are a credit to Obedience.

May I add also to Miss Meyers' wise evaluations of trainers who try this method and that — yes, they must understand the method but also apply it correctly. I have known successful methods to have been misapplied, and then the method blamed for failure!

What about a new club starting up in a new area where there are no experienced trainers: is it better to stumble along in order to get Obedience started, and probably do it badly at first; or not to do it at all until the club can afford a professional, possibly many years later? It would be interesting to hear what other people think of this thorny question.

hats off to k-w show

Just returned from a most lovely show in Kitchener-Waterloo. This club is to be congratulated on such a smooth-running and well organized show. It would appear that this club had the convenience of its exhibitors in mind every step of the way. The benching was very convenient and we could groom by our benches with ample room for spectators as well. Aside from that most of the benches were provided with a litter bag. I have not experienced this before — what a nice idea.

the old timer

"I don't know why it doesn't draw more entries."

The Old Timer had been leafing through a number of 1964 show catalogues when I came into the kennel office. He'd grunted an acknowledgement of my arrival, gone on with his examination of the catalogues and finally, when he laid down the last of them he opened up with his comment.

Obviously it was my cue so I picked it up.

"Why what doesn't draw more entries?" I asked "the Queen's Plate, the Mayoralty Campaign or the short course for dew worm pickers?"

"Still got that great sense of humour eh?" he asked. "You and Ed Sullivan should get together. You'd be a great team of comedians—could put on a really big shew."

"Okay," I said. "I was clowning. But just what do you think should draw more entries."

"The Bred-By-Exhibitor Class," he said. "It never struck me before but going through those catalogues I've been struck by the small number of dogs entered in the class. You take a show of 300 or more dogs and not more than a dozen or so are entered as bred-by-exhibitor. Wonder why?"

"Surely it's obvious," I suggested. "Isn't it the fault of the judges? How many judges do you find picking their winners from anything but the Open Class. Oh I agree, you occasionally find a judge who carries a dog through from Canadian Bred Puppy or Bred-By-Exhibitor through to the points, but I'll guarantee if you analyze show results you'll find that 90% of the winners come from the Open Class."

"True," said the Old Timer "but couldn't that be just the result of a vicious circle?"

"Vicious circle?" I asked "just what do you mean?"

The Old Timer reached for his pipe—the first time since I'd arrived. He packed it carefully. Got it drawing smoothly and then leaned back.

"Vicious circle is exactly what I mean," he said. "I remember when I first started showing dogs getting a talk on ring tactics by a man very wise in the way of dog shows.

" 'If you're after the points' he said "enter the dog in the Open Class. To enter it in any other is an admission to the judge that in your own opinion the dog isn't ready to beat the best. Those other classes are to give the dog experience and ring manners while it's maturing. Of course they're useful too if you've got an inferior dog and like to collect ribbons".

"Pretty good advice," I said "and still true today."

"I've got to agree with you," said the Old Timer "but actually I hate to do it because I think the Bred-By-Exhibitor Class could be a very valuable one to the breeders and exhibitors. Now let's take it for granted that there are mighty few breeder-exhibitors who don't think they breed good dogs. Get a bunch of them together and they'll brag about the good ones they've bred. But they don't take advantage of the one opportunity they're given to brag in public."

"In public?" I asked.

"Sure, the Bred-By-Exhibitor Class. When they take a dog into that class they are saying publicly — 'See—this is the kind I breed. This is the kind I've got for sale. This is the result of my carefully planned breeding program.'

"But the funny part of it is they don't take their best ones in there. They'll take in a young dog—one that shows promise mind you—but often it will be immature or lacking in ring experience. Their good ones they save for the Open Class."

"But now aren't we right back where we started?" I asked. "The good ones are in the Open and the judges naturally look for the point winners to come from that class.

"And usually they should," the Old Timer agreed. "But if the breeders started to do their bragging in public—if they started entering their top ones in Bred-By-Exhibitor where they'd be billed as homebreds, wouldn't the judges start looking to the Bred-By-Exhibitor Class as carefully as they now look at the Open? And wouldn't a greater proportion of the point winners and champions come up from the Bred-By-Exhibitor Class?"

"Might be," I agreed "Why don't you start a crusade."

The Old Timer looked thoughful.

"You know," he said "I might just do that. As you know, every year I get stuck for a dozen or more trophies. Usually I leave it to the clubs where to put them. But I might just start the ball rolling in a small way by stipulating that in future the trophies I give shall go to the winner of a Bred-By-Exhibitor Class. That could be an idea. I'll think about it over the winter." ■

Speaking of having tough luck in the shows this season — don't!

OBEDIENCE

Ed. O'Brien, Canfield, Ont., is well-known as Canada's leading professional trainer of dogs in Obedience work. He is a licensed Judge, one of Canada's first. He began his career in the West, training dogs for herding and other farm work. Since moving to Ontario he has specialized in training dogs for police and guard work and for disabled people. Mr. O'Brien also breeds German Shepherds and Dobermans.

In a recent issue of Dogs in Canada, a letter appeared which was critical of objections made by some obedience competitors regarding the size of the ring in which some trials have been held. The writer takes the stand that dogs should work well under all conditions and in this particular case no restrictions should be placed that would force this particular club to hold their trials in rings of regulation size. While we can feel sympathy for a club which finds it difficult to provide a large enough area in which to hold its trial, I am sure we also realize the danger of breaking the rules which we already have governing Obedience Trials. Surely, in any good-sized city it should be possible to find a building with enough room to hold an Obedience Trial according to the regulations? Without knowing all the circumstances, one wonders why, if room for an inside trial is scarce, the trial could not be held outside?

Our rules definitely state that, for an inside trial, the ring should be at least 30′ wide and 50′ long, and shall under no circumstances be less than 30′ wide and 40′ long. Whether the dogs are "capable of working in less than ideal conditions" or not, is not the point. The trials are held under regulations and standards set by The Canadian Kennel Club and either we should abide by these rules or else throw the book away and each club set its own regulations.

The Canadian Kennel Club has been very lenient with new clubs holding their first trials and so far as Ontario itself is concerned every assistance and advice is available if the club asks for it. Where infractions of rules have taken place, they have consistently been brought to the attention of the club and in most cases the infraction does not occur again. We do, however, have the odd club which, in spite of the fact that year after year the same infractions occur, and are always brought to its attention, continues to do nothing to rectify them. The result is that eventually the club has to be debarred from holding a trial. I am told that one trial was held in a ring only 17′ wide: this would mean that if there had been a Utility Class, the jumps, at the most, could have been only 7′ apart, yet the rule book clearly states that they must be from 20′ to 30′ apart. The danger, as I see it, is that if we are going to overlook anything as glaring as the above, how are we to check on less serious infractions? If the dogs are to do the exercises as laid down in the regulations, then surely the owners and clubs should also abide by the rules.

Because of another recent case of a judge opening the dogs' mouths in the group examination, would it not be advisable for the clubs to remind American judges that this is against Canadian rules? Every precaution must be taken to prevent the spread of disease. A beautiful female Shepherd, owned by Edlyn, almost died from distemper contracted at an Obedience Trial, in spite of having had all her shots. Since we have a rule forbidding a judge to open a dog's mouth, let's abide by it, thus eliminating one possible source of infection.

Something new for most of the obedience folk was done by a judge at an Ontario trial, which pointed up how mechanical our dogs can become in their work. All of the articles used for scent discrimination were in the shape of small dumbells and the judge stood several of them on their ends instead of laying them flat as is usually done: the handler's own article, in most cases, was one of those stood up on end. The dogs appeared to be puzzled and almost afraid of the standing articles, though the majority eventually toppled them over and then brought them in to their handlers. Where a dog was already disqualified, this judge made it even harder for him by standing one of the articles on end and then standing the handler's article on top of it. The judge explained that as the dog was already disqualified, he did this to help in the dog's training. While this may help build up the dog's confidence, preventing the exercise from being too mechanical, it ought not to have been allowed as the rule calls for articles to be placed about six inches apart.

Rules! Rules! Yet without them we can have no organization and in a

SPANIELS

IN THE FIELD

George Tabner, regular editor of this department which appears in the February, June and October issues, has a guest editor this month — Leslie Bunker. Mr. Bunker is well known to all Spaniel enthusiasts as the Spaniel Field Trial Representative for Ontario. Mr. Tabner would appreciate receiving your opinions and suggestions. Direct correspondence to him at R. R. 4, Komoka, Ont.

The spaniel field trial season is drawing to a close, with the National date set for Saturday and Sunday, October 10 and 11 at Oakville, Ont. This year the spaniel trials took a step in the wrong direction, with the Western Ontario Spaniel Club not holding its two spring trials and the Niagara Springer Spaniel Club cancelling their two fall trials. This is most unfortunate for people who truly enjoy running spaniels. The only trials held this year were on May 30 and 31 at Oakville, by the Central Ontario Spaniel Club and the Sudbury and District trials held August 22 and 23 at Azilda, Ont.

I think exhibitors will agree that the calibre of the dogs today are on the climb. We have Canadian-owned dogs winning our trials that are winning over big entries in the United States. With breeding stock like this, plus the well-bred dogs being imported there is no reason why the spaniel enthusiasts can't have a real future.

If you would like an enjoyable weekend, try to attend the National Spaniel Championship trial October 10 and 11. The location is on the 8th Line of Oakville, north of Hwy. No. 5 (Dundas).

ITEMS OF INTEREST

The newly formed Ontario Springer Spaniel Club is holding a booster show on Sunday, October 25, 1964 in conjunction with the Forest City Kennel Club show held at the beautiful "Treasure Island" in London, Ont. The judge will be Mr. Chris Teeter. If there is a Springer puppy in your future make plans to attend this show.

In talking to people from Ottawa who attended the Sudbury field trials I found that there is quite an interest in Springers in the Ottawa area and they are aiming at holding field trials in the near future.

The Central Ontario Spaniel Club and Field Trial clubs throughout Ontario are sorry to be losing one of their strongest supporters, in the person of Dr. C. W. A. Coop of Brampton, Ont. Dr. Coop has decided to go back to school for four years and specialize. Although it was quite a decision to make, I am sure there will be one or two patients who will think it is a good idea. We wish him the best and hope he comes back and settles with us again.

Although things were a little gloomy pertaining to spaniel trials in Ontario this year, they do have a bright side. The Nova Scotia Field Trial Association held a trial on May 2 and have one planned for September 19. So, it might not be too long before our Spaniel National will be moving from coast to coast.

Spaniel people throughout the country will be sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Andrew Dunn of "Dunoon Kennels", Port Credit, Ont. on July 14. ■

HUMANELY "SPEAKING"

BY TOM HUGHES

All animals are entitled to professional care.

"VETCARE"

Medicare is rapidly becoming a household word. To the majority of people the word means a scheme, arrangement or system, under which everyone, irrespective of their financial position, is guaranteed the benefit of competent professional advice and treatment by medical doctors utilizing the services of fully equipped hospitals, staffed by competent nurses and technicians.

In Britain and other European countries this has been achieved by the still controversial "National Health Scheme."

In parts of Canada a form of medicare has been attained by a variety of Governmental or voluntary schemes. Eventually, I hope, all Canadians will be protected against the corroding fear of sickness, disease or ill health and the financial disaster sickness can cause.

But if we humans are entitled to such protection, what of the animals we use so ruthlessly for our own ends? Farm animals are often deprived of adequate exercise during their short life or abused and neglected on their last journey from the farm to the slaughter house, but at least these animals have a commercial value. In the majority of cases they will be given the benefit of modern veterinary knowledge and skill, or the blessing of a merciful death.

But what of the millions of small animals and birds that we insist must share our lives as "pets". These animals are more abused, neglected and exploited than all the farm animals put together. They have no commercial value, apart from a few, very few, which have acquired a false value to a very limited section of the public. Their "value" is purely sentimental. To many people the sentimental value of his pet is more than money can buy. But to many, their pet is not highly valued. When the animal becomes sick, or when protective veterinary care is needed the owner simply refuses to entail the expense of the services of a veterinarian.

For a variety of very good reasons the veterinary doctor has to charge a scale of fees for his services. His expensive lengthy training, his undoubted right to enjoy professional status in the community and the high investment necessary to build an animal hospital or clinic, all these combine to justify his fees.

Unfortunately for the pet animal all these factors also combine to guarantee that many of them will suffer distress, even extreme pain, without the help and relief which a veterinarian could give them.

Quite recently an Inspector of the Ontario Humane Society investigated a complaint that a dog was suffering from neglect. The Inspector investigated the report and found a 13 year old dog suffering, in fact, from a variety of clinical conditions. To begin with the dog had severe exzema; 80% of the body was covered with red, weeping sores and the animal had lost all its coat in this area. Secondly the dog had a huge growth or tumour protruding from the stomach and thirdly the dog was undergoing a very obvious change of sex.

Quite obviously the dog had been suffering from these conditions to some degree or other for a considerable period of time, possibly years. The owner of the dog had never obtained any veterinary help for his animal for the simple reason that he was completely unable to afford the cost. The owner's financial position was such that he had been a recipient of welfare payments for a number of years. It is true that if he had gone to anyone of a number of small animal veterinarians in his locality they would have treated the animal without charge. The point is that he didn't know this and as a result failed to obtain any help for his animal.

This is only one of many hundreds of similar cases that come to the attention of the Humane Societies every year throughout Canada. Working on the principle that only '30% of the iceburg shows above the surface' there must be many thousands of cases that do not come to our attention.

One of the contributing factors to the increasingly large number of animals that are turned into Humane Societies each year in Canada for destruction as unwanted is the cost of veterinary treatment or preventive medicine for the animal. Too many people will obtain a dog as a pet and when the dog develops the first sign of sickness immediately surrender the animal for destruction. I assure you that this is not an exaggeration. Many of the reasons given for having a pet destroyed would be enough to make the average dog lover's blood boil. "It wet the carpet", "it barked in the night", "it chewed up my shoe", "I don't like its eyes". These are just a few of the countless reasons that I have personally heard given by an adult human being as a reason for having his dog destroyed. However, a much more common reason is that the dog is sick and that the owner can't afford veterinary attention.

It is such an easy solution to take it to a Humane Society and have it destroyed.

Where the owner can afford it, it is his moral and legal duty to obtain veterinary care. However, in many instances the pet owner genuinely can't afford the expense of veterinary treatment for his or her pet.

The solution can only be in some form of scheme which would permit these people to obtain expert diagnosis of the pet's condition and some measure of treatment, either free or at a very reduced cost.

Such a scheme would be difficult to administer on a large scale. I see no reason why well organized communities could not successfully introduce a localized scheme. The Vancouver Branch of the B.C. S.P.C.A., in collaboration with the Vancouver Academy of Veterinary Medicine, has operated what they call the "Veterinary Assistance Fund" for nearly 20 years. Other cities could well follow the example.

All animals, whether domestic or pet, whether owned by King or commoner, are entitled to professional care and attention when sick or injured.

"VETCARE" is just as essential in a civilized country as Medicare! ■

In The Advancement Of Science

Patrolman John Mobley, to whom crimes of violence in central Detroit are a common occurrence, was appalled by what he found in Wayne University Medical School when summoned there on a complaint.

Patrolman John Mobley with his wife and sons, holding "Lady", the pet he got in order "to give a good home to at least one dog".

Following a call from the head nurse at Memorial Hospital, Patrolman Mobley investigated the complaint that a dog in the Wayne University Laboratory was moaning and crying for three hours and was disturbing the patients at the hospital. The nightwatchman escorted him to steel cribs in the basement where one dog looked dead and the other was crying, with blood and matter pouring from the mouth. The nightwatchman stated that no one was delegated to watch the dogs and that the doctors were only interested in the time it took them to die. Accompanying Patrolman Bloomfield was made ill at the sight.

Said Patrolman Mobley: If this is called for in the advancement of science, then God help us all." He called the Anti-Cruelty Association whose investigation brought out conflicting reports from medical school personnel. The case went up for investigation by the Health Commissioner of the State of Michigan.

In the meantime, several brighter aspects have resulted. Patrolman Mobley was awarded the 1964 Schweitzer Medal. And the Mobley family adopted a dog "in order to give a good home to at least one dog."

It Couldn't Happen Here

Imagine, if you can, the attitude of The Canadian Kennel Club or the American Kennel Club to the situation so mildly described by the English Kennel Gazette, official publication of the English Kennel Club: "In every ring at a Championship Show there is a table provided for the Judge and his ring Stewards and a chair for each but on several instances recently, judges have been seen to sit at the ring-side with spectators and would appear to be discussing the dogs in the ring with them. Whatever may be the reason for a Judge doing this, his action is bound to cause adverse comments and letters to the Kennel Club complaining that he was seeking the advice of those with whom he was sitting. The Committee has asked that we should publish this note and to impress upon judges the trouble which a thoughtless action on their part can create."

Canine Earthquake Casualties

Help was rushed to Anchorage, Alaska earlier this year to aid families who lost their homes and possessions during the Alaskan earthquake. But what about the house pets, dogs of both pedigreed and doubtful origin, and those used by the Eskimos in the winter? Hundreds of dogs, reports the Humane Society of Anchorage, are running wild and starving. The Society places food on the beaches for the dogs, capturing many by means of tranquillizer darts and returning them, wherever possible, to their owners.

Recognizing the plight, the Oakville and District Kennel Club has authorized a donation of $50 to help the Society in the rehabilitation of the dogs. If other clubs are pondering the placement of extra funds, this is a worthy cause.

TRADE INQUIRIES SOLICITED

SHELTIES IN AMERICA

BY CATHERINE C. MOORE

Mrs. Moore is the celebrated author of "The Complete Shetland Sheepdog" and is a well-known judge of Shelties. Her Sheltieland Kennels are located at Williamsburg, Mass.

WITH the ever increasing registration of Shetland Sheepdogs, many factors come to mind, among them the breeding problems that have always beset sincere breeders. There are still so many types of Shelties seen and produced, even by the best-intentioned breeders, that it is still impossible to predict the type to be obtained from any given mating.

Lately I have seen or heard about several litters, all very well bred and all more or less related, in which the pups did not resemble their better parent. One case is my own, in which the babies got their mother's faults rather than their father's virtues. The two were related through two famous Champions and had all Champion grandparents yet they did not look like the sire or the common ancestors.

Another litter by the same sire from a sweet little golden sable bitch, also golden sable with a white blaze, produced seven very dark sable puppies with broad white blazes although the sire had almost none. In the third case the dam had the white markings in her face and the sire none in his face but they produced four puppies all with big white blazes, very much alike with small ears but not a bit like their plain-faced parent. It looked as though the dams dominated in color and markings in all three litters yet there is no scientific evidence for this to happen. It only shows how far we are from standardizing what we want.

In future matings of any of these broad blazed Shelties are we going to find them to continue to be dominant or will the more refined sires come through. We seem to have lost the blend that used to appear from a cross of a broad blaze with a plain face, wherein the puppies had some white but seldom as much as the wide-marked parent. This may also mean that the wide blazed parent was pure for that particular factor, that all its factors or genes had been bred out except the ones for broad blazes and that that condition did dominate over a plain or narrow blaze-faced mate.

With the sheer increase in numbers and demand for breeding stock I am afraid many Shelties will be used for breeding that should not be; dogs that may deteriorate what has been built up so painstakingly through the years. We have far too few well built Shelties as it is. I refer to body build and soundness of legs and action. We still have many, minus sufficient substance or bone, that may look fleet and agile but could not stand the endurance of a working dog's day.

If multiplying Shelties is only going to spread these faults further throughout the breed it is time to take stock of our breeding stock. The truly outstanding dogs are few and far between, those good enough to win Working Groups or place in them or win Best in Show over other breeds. We need more of them in that class and of that calibre.

On the other hand, Shelties are still holding their own as pets, which is as it should be. The other night a neighbor's Sheltie was hit by a car crossing the road though he was not chasing the car at all. His little mistress was so heartbroken, her father immediately bought her another puppy (Sheltie of course) to take his place. He was as unlike the first one as possible in color and markings and maybe size, but she loved him at once and he reciprocated though he had never known a child before.

This is all to the good for the breed if we are getting them sensible enough to make friends immediately, and if people who have had one feel the necessity of replacing it with another. We must never lose this charm the breed has for those who truly love them. This dog's sister interested several more people to want to own her puppies seeing how smart and good she was with the family she belonged to.

We must never underestimate their ability to learn so many things so quickly and easily. It is our pet population that determines how many Shelties a breeder can produce in the course of trying to breed and perfect the ideal Sheltie because it is impossible to breed Champions in every litter.

So many sincere breeders are now studying all the literature in every way to produce good Shelties by collecting all information possible on the background of their breeding stock and trying to find the magic formula for creating what they want that we should be able to raise the average of our pets at the same time as we improve our show stock, the parents of future generations. But what to do about the off-type oversize specimens that are being bred to turn out bad pets is a problem that every breed which faces popularity runs into sooner or later. The temptation to turn puppies into money is too much for some people and the damage done by such tactics is out of all proportion to the monetary value. It happens to any breed that puts quantity above quality or to any breeder that thinks any dog is good enough to sire puppies that will sell or that any female is sufficient to turn them out like factory products.

Shelties cannot be reproduced on a production line. There must be much thought and planning put into any given mating if the pups are to be an improvement on their forbears. They are not always that even then, but at least they are not going backwards. Years ago I spent a lot of time planning a mating to bring in a lot of the best early dogs of the breed. That dog had it in him to sire something and to this day every Sheltie I like has him one or more times in its pedigree so that it does pay off in producing better Shelties to be sure of bringing in the best, then close-breeding it to preserve it. ■

HANDLER – JUDGES

BY SEYMOUR N. WEISS

Since a professional handler is continually asked to estimate the quality of clients' dogs, who could be better qualified to judge, the author asks.

A COMMON topic of discussion at many dog shows and other gatherings of fanciers is the competence of judges. There are many instances that give rise to heated controversy concerning a judge's decisions and the reasons for them.

Needless to say, a judge cannot keep dogs of all the breeds the American Kennel Club licenses him to judge, and it follows that his greatest amount of actual contact with them will be in the show ring. Judges are not a super race of human beings and they do, at times, make errors in their placements. Most of these are honest mistakes, but this will still not prevent the losers from letting all who will listen know that the judge is a thief, a liar, and public enemies numbers one through ten inclusive.

Much has been written about this, and because of it, the dark hours that await American dog shows. The perennial prophets of gloom and doom always fail to make mention of one happy trend — the trend of professional handlers becoming professional judges.

It is the opinion of this writer that no better source could possibly lend itself to replenishing the ranks of canine arbiters. Handlers have probably had more experience with more different breeds than anyone else in dogs, and their ability to pick the best specimen often determines the amount of success or failure they encounter in their livelihood.

Professional handlers are called upon to judge dogs constantly. Let me cite some examples. When a client presents a handler with a new dog, the handler must ascertain whether or not the particular animal is worthy of his efforts; in other words, can this one win? Similarly, when a person wishes to buy a dog for showing, a handler is often called upon to render an opinion of the dog's quality. As to the conditioning of exhibits, who would be more qualified to rule on this important phase of showing than a man who has been doing this all of his life and deriving a living from it.

The American Kennel Club permits handlers to judge independent specialty shows, and it is here that they have most effectively demonstrated their ability.

THE ART OF JUDGING

BY S. H. RASTALL

S. H. Rastall, editor of the "New Zealand Dog Annual", has completed 30 years of judging in New Zealand and Australia.

A judge is a critic, highly skilled in whatever field he is asked to give an opinion upon. Criticism is inherent in most of us. Almost every day we are criticising something or someone, giving an opinion upon this or that subject.

WHO, then, should assume the responsibilities of judging? Who has the right to say that one dog is better than another one according to standards of excellence? Who has the right to say that the coloring and shading in one picture is better than that of another; that a piece of furniture of an early period is superior to that of a later period; that this Cocker Spaniel is better than 20 other Cocker Spaniels?

One can only think it is because inherent in most of us is the judging instinct, not always highly developed, perhaps in several directions, but nevertheless developed sufficiently in some particular way which gives us the necessary confidence to state authoritatively when called upon to give an opinion in a judicial capacity.

It is interesting to reflect as to how we arrive at such standards, and more particularly so where dogs are concerned. The opinion of the man who has had but one or two dogs, we consider, is of little account where it is necessary to form a judgment on a particular breed or several breeds. We are well aware that he has not the requisite qualifications and experience to form a considered opinion of the characteristics pertaining to any breed of dog.

As to who is best fitted to assume the responsibilities of judging, I think it will be agreed that it is the man or woman with experience behind them in breeding and exhibiting that should be the major asset, and who delves deeply into learning all that is possible about dogs from books, including their anatomical structure, with the added ability of being able to interpret the Standards, sum-up and make decisions fairly quickly and fearlessly, and possessing the necessary temperament of being able to judge before the public without any feeling of nervousness.

I have known a few men who were experienced breeders and ex-

What implications does this trend carry for the future of the dog game? As I have already said, a handler usually has broad personal experience with a wide assortment of dog breeds. When he looks at a dog and its potential, from the point of view of whether or not it will be worth taking him into his string, he must put himself in the judge's position so that he can arrive at a true appraisal of the animal's merits.

In the show ring, a handler-judge can usually determine a dog's true physical condition with no difficulty. He can properly evaluate structure, something that has been often lacking for a long time in the long-coated breeds, where judges have been so impressed with coat and condition that they failed to take notice of the dog underneath. This would not happen so often with a handler-judge.

Since handlers are usually keen to spot a good dog, it is very likely their decisions will have a strong influence in improving the quality of the dogs being shown. This follows naturally, since a handler will not be fooled by clever camouflage and will put up a sound steady dog which has quality instead of pure flashiness. This dog will be in greater demand as a stud by reason of his record in the show ring. If such a specimen can produce "after his own kind", more dogs will be seen at shows with true breed quality.

The consensus among fanciers seems to indicate that this is a welcome trend.

Mr. James Christ, a well-known exhibitor of Kerry Blues and a delegate to the American Kennel Club, said he felt that professional handlers were indeed well-qualified judges, and that they are an excellent source of new judging talent. In his opinion, they are men and women of high ethical character and would bring to the judging profession the same degree of conscientious effort they gave to handling.

Mr. H. William Weiss (no relation to the writer), a breeder and importer of Wire Fox Terriers, stated that the handler's intimate knowledge of dogs and the understanding of the factors that go into the exhibiting of them would benefit amateur and professional alike.

Mr. Erwin Hutzmann, a popular figure in sporting dog circles and a breeder and exhibitor of Irish Water Spaniels, voiced the opinion that this trend might act as a double-edged sword. While he acknowledged the competence of the handler-judge, he also said that friendships with other handlers might color an occasional decision. He concluded, however, by agreeing that the professional handler turned professional judge should benefit the dog game as a whole, and he hoped that this would happen.

I also heard from Miss Madalyn Gutman, a Kerry Blue breeder and exhibitor, that she had an opportunity to watch Miss Anne Hone Rogers, the famous all-breed handler, judge Miniature Poodles at the Poodle Club of America specialty. Miss Gutman said that it was a distinct pleasure to observe the thoroughness given to the judging assignment and the consideration Miss Rogers gave to all exhibitors.

This is perhaps the best argument for the handler-judge. The hibitors of many years' standing and expert in the interpretation of the Standards they bred to, but could only enter a ring as exhibitors — they had not the right temperament to give their opinion in public, yet privately their opinion was much sought after and of value.

The all-breeds judge commences his career almost in all cases, like the writer, as a one-breed exhibitor and breeder over several years with experience in breeding and in establishing a good kennel, taking a keen interest in other breeds, studying the Breed Standards, working on committees, and so acquiring the requisite knowledge, is asked by a specialist club to officiate at one of their fixtures and, step by step, with more experience and more intensive study, is asked to judge a group, then graduate to other groups and finally one becomes an all-rounder.

Just as anyone appearing before the public, in some way or another, is liable to be criticised so, too, is the judge at a dog show. Fair criticism cannot be denied. There are times, however, when criticism comes from those who have but a scant knowledge of one breed, and other times from the mudslinger who has never been of a good enough type to be asked to judge at any fixture.

The beginner-judge must show no signs of nervousness, which may result in errors, such as reversals. Adopt a method of technique of your own; develop one by watching the manner used by well-known all-rounders.

The best advice to the beginner is to take no notice whatsoever of those handling the dogs; just keep your eyes on the dogs all the time until you have made your final decision. It's your decision the club has asked you to give, and so long as it is an honest one that is all they have asked you to do.

There are no fixed rules laid down as to how a person may judge dogs. It is just up to each individual would-be judge to develop his own particular method. That is, as I have already pointed out, by thoroughly mastering the Breed Standards of the breeds one is asked to judge, and form a mental picture of what standard of excellence it is necessary to look for in these breeds.

Balanced judging is what should be aimed at. The beginner—not the experienced all-rounder—is liable to pick out a fault, possibly a minor one, in a really good dog and give it no further consideration. As an example, a beginner may be keen about a dog possessing an exceptionally good front, put it top of the class regardless of its quality elsewhere.

To have proper balanced judging the whole of the dog must be judged. It should not be judged on fault only, nor only on some good points; this is unbalanced judging. There are faults like bad-fitting jaws, badly cow hocked, etc., that cannot, of course, be balanced with good points.

Anatomical structural faults in movement is an important part of the judge's task. Various breeds vary in action, e.g., the German Shepherd, smooth and lithsome; the rolling action of the Pekingese; the creeping action of the Pointer and Setter; the proud and elegant movement of the Poodle, and so on.

C.N.E. SHOWS 1964

A West Highland White Terrier, above, fast becoming a collector of BIS rosettes and a Golden Retriever winning his first were two of the top dogs. A St. Bernard of whom a photograph was not available, was the third victor.

A SPORTING DOG, a working dog and a terrier captured BIS at this year's Canadian National Exhibition shows. Unfortunately an official photographer was not on hand to record these awards. In the first two-day show, September 2 and 3, Judge Alva Rosenberg chose for his BIS the Golden Retriever, Ch. Mel-Bach's Golden Boy, owned by Mr. and Mrs. D. Ledgerwood of Cooksville, Ont. Breeder George Mehlenbacher of Fisherville, Ont., who handled him, was equally proud. It was his first BIS. Golden Boy was also BCB in Show. Best Canadian-Bred Puppy in Show was Piperglen's Duley, female Collie owned by Mr. and Mrs. J. Hargrave of Uxbridge, Ont. and bred by Lottie Johnston.

Judge Reg. P. Sparkes named the St. Bernard, Black's Brandy, as BIS the second show. Owners Douglas and Karen Black of Janesville, Wis., told Dogs in Canada that this is their first BIS and the first BB for Brandy. Fairly new in St. Bernards, they have a long-range program laid out, and under expert guidance plan to develop a sizeable kennel of Saints. The Samoyed, Ch. Samingo's Crystal, owned by Mr. R. J. Hensley of Scarborough and bred by Ian C. Miller was BCB. Keeping the honors in the Working Group, the Boxer female, Gaymitz Dash O'Flame, owned and bred by Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Northover of Stouffville, Ont. went BCBP in Show.

Judge Tom Joel named the West Highland White Terrier, Can. Eng. Ch. Stoneygap Sugar Candy of Maharaf, BIS in the third show. Owned and handled by Fred Fraser of Ottawa, Candy has been winning top honors regularly since her arrival from England. BCB in Show was another BIS winner, Ch. Acacia's Mar-Ma-Duke, debonair Pug owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Loftus of Ottawa and shown by Mrs. Loftus. BCB Puppy in Show was the Keeshond, Znukki V Myia, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Leo McDonald, Cedar Valley, Ont.

The number of dogs entered was an increase over last year's entry. The first show drew 333 dogs, the second 335 and the final day 386 actual dogs, spread over 60 different breeds.

An innovation this year was a full day, September 5, devoted to Obedience. This was the result of crowded space and confusion last year and requests for better space. Although nearly 90 dogs were originally slated for the Trial, only 38 competed, which was a pity, because the space was ample and the room quiet. Three outstanding American Obedience judges were on deck: Carl De Sine, Raymond H. Peat and Edgar W. Averill, one of America's top judges and one of the few authorized to judge Obedience, Field Trial and Bench Shows. Competitors were eligible for two sets of points. A lack of publicity can be blamed in part for the small gate, another sad aspect, because this was an opportunity to show at least a portion of the multitudes thronging the Exhibition the pleasure and values of Obedience training.

Highest Scoring Dog attained 198½ points. Marjorie Parkinson is the owner of Ch. Charm's Fair Lady, Miniature Poodle.

In a change of pace, Obedience handlers and their dogs watched other dogs in action. George Scott of Montreal brought his "riot dogs", German Shepherds trained to handle unruly crowds, in a demonstration of dog controlling man. Boys entered the ring with sticks, simulating a riot. The Shepherds had them out of the ring and subdued in seconds. High point of the demonstration was the friendly, docile attitude of the dogs immediately their leashes were removed.

A salute to Judge Alva Rosenberg who judged with his fractured

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The semi-annual meeting of the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club was held at the Club's offices, Toronto, commencing on July 13th, with all members of the Board present. The meeting adjourned on July 22nd. There follows a summary of the business transacted at that meeting.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

APEX PUBLISHERS AND PUBLICITY LTD.

The Board considered a submission received from Apex Publishers and Publicity Ltd., publishers of "Dogs in Canada" regarding an increase in the price per copy paid by the Club for magazines mailed to members of the Club.

After a thorough discussion of the financial arrangements between the Club and the publishers, and other aspects of the publication of "Dogs in Canada", the Secretary was instructed to provide the Club's representatives (Mr. Peter Wright, Q. C., the Club's solicitor, and Mr. George Mehlenbacher) on the Board of Directors of Apex, with a summary of the Board's discussion, and the representatives were authorized to discuss the problem with the other three Directors of Apex.

CANADIAN NATIONAL LIVE STOCK RECORDS

The Board considered the presentation of Mr. Walter Brown who stated that charges assessed by the Records Office against the Club for the processing of memberships and transfers of ownership were above actual cost, and agreed that the Club's representatives on the Live Stock Records Board would constitute a committee with a view to negotiating a different agreement with the Canadian National Live Stock Records.

REGISTRATION, STUD BOOKS AND RELATED MATTERS

BREED STANDARDS

The Board approved a new standard for the Bullmastiff and directed that it be published in "Dogs in Canada", the new standard to become effective on January 1, 1965.

The Board approved, effective immediately, a correction in the standard of the Vizsla by changing the required colour of toe nails from "slate grey" to "brown".

The Secretary reported that he had been asked to clarify (as to area covered) the words "high white stockings" which appear under the heading of "Disqualifications" in the standard of the Great Dane.

It was agreed that until the standard is clarified the meaning of the words in question must be left to the discretion of officiating judges.

Mrs. Anderson reported that when writing about the proposed standard for the Bullmastiff Mr. Robert Phillips, Toronto, had submitted proposals regarding a "breed liaison council", and his proposals were receiving the consideration of the Breed Standards Committee. The Secretary was instructed to advise Mr. Phillips to that effect.

Mrs. Sheila Anderson, Chairman of the Breed Standards Committee, submitted the following report (dated May 27th) of the Committee:

"It has become apparent to this committee, the Breed Standards Committee, that there is merit in the adoption, by The Canadian Kennel Club, of a definite policy concerning Breed Standards.

There are two main reasons why the Breed Standards Committee holds this opinion. If such a policy is adopted it will mean:

(1) All standards will be processed, before approved by The Canadian Kennel Club in a uniform manner.
(2) When breed standards are revised they will follow a uniform, and orderly format.

Concerning (1) (processing of standards) this Committee is of the opinion that it would be to the advantage of the CKC, and of breeders, if information regarding the mechanics of revising a standard were available. The Committee feels that there are, at the moment, certain safeguards in practise by the CKC regarding the approval, by CKC, for revised standards. These safeguards should be made an official policy. These safeguards refer, in the main, to the practise the CKC has of publishing the proposed standard in Dogs in Canada so that those interested may read it and send in comments to the CKC.

Concerning (2) (uniform format of standards). The Breed Standards Committee feels that the advantages of such a policy would be tremendous. At the moment there is nothing uniform at all in the way standards are laid out. Some standards start out with a reference to the Head (see Kerry Blue Terrier), some start with Colour (see Lakeland Terrier), the Pekingese standard starts with Expression, but the Pug starts with Symmetry; many breeds start off with the phrase General Appearance, however the Shetland Sheepdog starts with Preamble, the Collie, General Character, the Eskimo, General Impression. The Breed Standards Committee feels it would benefit judges and breeders alike to have some uniformity here.

Terminology in the standards follows no pattern either. In a report to the Annual Meeting the Breed Standards Committee drew the Board's attention to some examples. They pointed out that the Miniature Schnauzer standard refers to "action"; the Collie to "gait"; the Skye Terrier to "movement"; and some standards like the Norwegian Elkhound ignore the way the breed moves entirely. Some standards refer to a "tail", and some to a "stern".

Here again the Breed Standards Committee feels that judges and breeders will both benefit with a policy of using the same terminology in all standards.

To accomplish the two recommendations (1 and 2) listed above we respectfully submit the following suggestions for the consideration of the Board.

Implementation of Proposal (1).
The revision of Breed Standards.

(a) The revision of a breed standard must be undertaken by the breed's clubs. (It is necessary to have a group of people doing the work of revision. These revisions take months, even years, most of the work must be undertaken by those vitally concerned with the breed).
(b) It must be passed by at least a two-thirds majority of the breed's clubs' members. (It is necessary that the CKC has some proof that it is the wish of the majority concerned with the breed that a revision is wanted. Anything based on whim, or self-interest of a minority cannot be condoned).
(c) It must be edited by the Breed Standards Committee. (But there must be a minimum of interference by the CKC regarding the intent of the standard. The CKC should not allow the alteration of standards so that height and/or weight become a subject for disqualification. Any system of a standard of points and their value should be discouraged. Some breeds, like the German Shepherd, have dropped this sytem. Lists of faults should be held to a minimum. Standards should be so clearly worded that it is obvious what are faults. There should be no breakdown as to major or minor faults. An effort should be made by the Breed Standards Committee to discourage alteration

NOTICE

In the summary, commencing on this page, of matters dealt with by the Board at its semi-annual meeting, there is included a report (dated May 27th) of the Breed Standards Committee. Any person or club interested in breed standards in general and any sections of the Committee's report and recommendations in particular, is invited to submit their views and suggestions for the consideration of the Board of Directors.

All such letters (to be identified under file 7 R 10) should reach the Secretary of The Canadian Kennel Club, 1173 Bay Street, Toronto, not later than December 15, 1964.

In the accompanying summary of matters which were dealt with by the Board at its semi-annual meeting there is included a set of proposed regulations on the registration of Dachshunds. These regulations will again be considered by the Board of Directors at its next annual meeting, along with any comments and suggestions which may be received from interested persons and clubs.

Any persons or clubs having any interest in these proposed regulations are invited to submit their comments and suggestions for the consideration of the Board of Directors.

All such letters (identified under file 7 R 27) should be submitted so as to be received by the Secretary of The Canadian Kennel Club, 1173 Bay Street, Toronto, Ont. not later than December 15, 1964.

In the accompanying summary of matters dealt with by the Board at its semi-annual meeting there is a report of the action taken by the Board in rescinding a previous decision to require a minimum of two dogs for one point in all breeds. After reaching this decision the Board decided that before it gives any further consideration to a revision of the present schedule of championship point ratings, or considers any proposed amendments to the Dog Show Rules relating to requirements for a championship, the views of interested persons and clubs would be sought.

All persons and clubs wishing to submit any comment or suggestions on these subjects are invited to do so, and all letters (identified under file 11 D 34) should be addressed to the Secretary of The Canadian Kennel Club, 1173 Bay Street, Toronto, Ont., so as to be received not later than December 15, 1964.

In the accompanying summary of matters which the Board of Directors dealt with at its semi-annual meeting there will be found the minutes of a meeting of the Field Trial Council for Beagles held at Toronto on June 28th. Any persons or clubs having any interest in the matters dealt with by the Council at that meeting are invited to submit their comments and suggestions for consideration of the Board of Directors.

All such letters (identified under file 13FT 29) should be submitted so as to be received by the Secretary of The Canadian Kennel Club, 1173 Bay Street, Toronto, Ont. not later than December 15, 1964.

In a previous issued of "Dogs in Canada" an announcement was made to the effect that a member of The Canadian Kennel Club, upon applying to the Secretary, would be provided with a FREE private breeding record book. Any C. K. C. member who has not as yet asked for and received such a book is invited to address a request to the Secretary of the C. K. C. and the book will be promptly mailed.

Please do not ask for more than one free book. Additional private breeding record books may be purchased at 50¢ per book.

to standards so that they differ materially from those in use in the USA and/or Great Britain. All reference to cryptorchidism and monorchidism be deleted from the standards of individual breeds, but the paragraph from the Dog Show Rules concerning disqualifications be printed in the CKC Book of Breed Standards. This would affect such standards as German Shepherd Dogs, Golden Retrievers, Collies, Shetland Sheepdogs, etc.)

(d) Any changes the Breed Standards Committee request must be referred to the breed's clubs for acceptance.

(e) Before the adoption by the Board of Directors of a revised standard, it must be published in Dogs in Canada so that comments may be received.

(f) If said comments result in the Breed Standards Committee making a change in the revised standard, it must again be published in Dogs in Canada.

Addendum to (a): The CKC should not encourage the revision of breed standards. The initiative should come from those interested in the breed. Many breed standards have been in existence for many years without alteration, so although it might be nice to get uniformity quickly, the Breed Standards Committee is opposed to alteration without good reason.

Implementation of Proposal (2).
Uniformity of Breed Standards the Committee feels will be accomplished by the adoption of the following three points:

(a) Uniformity of paragraph, and sub-paragraph headings.
(b) Uniformity of terminology.
(c) Length (approx.) of standard.

Concerning (a), the Breed Standards Committee respectfully submit the following for the consideration of the Board of Directors:

Origin and Purpose
General Appearance
Temperament
Size
Coat and Colour
Head:
- a. skull
- b. muzzle
- c. nose
- d. mouth
- e. eyes
- f. ears

Neck
Body:
- a. * forequarters (chest, shoulder, upper & lower arm, pasterns)
- b. back
- c. loin
- d. * hindquarters (croup, hips, upper & lower thigh, hocks, stifle bend)
- e. tail
- f. feet

Gait
Faults
Disqualifications

*It is felt that it is not necessary for all the points listed under forequarters and hindquarters to be referred to in a standard, but the sub-headings are there if needed.

Regarding (b), Uniformity of terminology, a glossary of the more common canine terms could be compiled. Some effort should be made to have a standard that is easily understood. As an example of the difficulties a judge or breeder can encounter, the Breed Standards Committee would draw the Board's attention to the Old English Sheepdog standard which says: "Teeth: Strong and large, evenly placed and level in opposition." The St. Bernard standard says: "The bite must be strong and, in proportion to the conformation of the head, is only moderately developed." The Basenji standard refers to "rounded cushions" in relation to the muzzle. The Breed Standards Committee feels that none of these three examples are helpful to judges or breeders.

Regarding (c), The length of the standards. This could only be an approximate guide. Standards vary very much in length; the Affenpinscher and Cavalier King Charles Spaniel take up less than a page in the CKC book of standards, but the Great Dane takes six pages, the Boxer four, and Alaskan Malamute three. Two pages should be sufficient as a maximum length." (Report ends here)

After discussion the Board, by resolution, decided that it would not reach decisions on the Committee's recommendations until the report is published in "Dogs in Canada" along with an invitation to those interested to submit their comments and suggestions for the Board's consideration.

ARTIFICIAL INSEMINATION

On the recommendation of the Committee composed of Mr. Tom Wells and the Secretary, the Secretary was instructed to request the approval of the Chief Registration Officer of the Department of Agriculture to a revision of Section 1 of the regulations on artificial insemination it having been proposed that Section 1 be revised to read as follows:

"When a breeder on his own premises conducts or supervises the drawing of semen from his own stud dog and the insemination of his own female or when the artificial insemination is carried out in the presence of both the owner of the male and the owner of the female, no special forms or permission are required for the registration of the resulting litter; regular application blanks should be used and the owners sign in the usual way. (Note: Where a litter results from artificial insemination the owner of the dam at the time of insemination shall so state on the application for registration of litter form, or on the application for transfer of ownership of the artificially inseminated female.)"

KENNEL NAMES

The Board approved a recommendation of the Kennel Names Committee that in the course of processing applications for registration of kennel names the Club would automatically reject any application for registration of a name which is identical to any name registered with The Kennel Club, England, and where a name is phonetically identical to an English registered kennel name the application would be referred to the Committee for consideration; where there is merely a similarity, the name applied for would be published.

The Secretary reported that notice had been published in "Dogs in Canada" regarding the availability of applications for permanent registration of kennel names pursuant to the provisions of the regulations approved by the Board at its annual meeting, and applications had been received and were being checked.

It was agreed that:

(1) each application would be checked by the Secretary and where found to be in order, approval would be given the application;

(2) in the list of kennel names published in the Club's stud book an indication would be given with regard to those kennel names for which permanent registration had been granted.

The Board approved a number of recommendations submitted by the Committee with regard to applications which it had received, and confirmed the Committee's earlier rejections of an application for a kennel name registered with The Kennel Club (England).

REGISTRATION COMMITTEE

The Board received a report on 19 files on which the Registration Committee had made decisions and directed that the Committee's decisions be incorporated in the minutes, as required by Article XIII, Section 1 (c) of the By-laws.

CAVALIER KING CHARLES SPANIELS

The Board considered letters received from the Cavalier King Charles Spaniel Club of America, and others, regarding the entry at Canadian shows of American-owned Cavalier King Charles Spaniels, and the registration in the Club's records of litters sired by American-owned stud dogs.

As the breed is not one which has yet been recognized by The American Kennel Club, the Secretary was instructed to seek an understanding with The American Kennel Club on these questions.

POINTERS REGISTERED IN FIELD DOG STUD BOOK

The Board considered the application for registration of a Pointer whose sire had been registered in the Field Dog Stud Book (Chicago) on the basis of an "owner's affidavit", and instructed the Secretary as to the information it desired before deciding whether any change would be made in the previously approved regulations on the registration in the Club's records of Pointers and English Setters registered in the Field Dog Stud Book.

REGISTRATION OF DACHSHUNDS

At the July 18th session of this meeting the Secretary reported that, pursuant to an instruction given at the May meeting of the Board, he had prepared and provided each member of the Board with a copy of the following summary of the responses to a memorandum which the Registration Committee had distributed on November 14, 1963 to over 250 Dachshund breeders:

At the meeting of the Board of Directors held on May 8th Mr. Monaghan pointed out that in 1963 the Registration Committee conducted a survey in connection with the reaction of Dachshund breeders to certain proposals, and he asked that the results of the survey be prepared and reported to the Board and included in the minutes of the meeting. It was agreed that I would supply this information for the semi-annual meeting of the Board.

In a memorandum (dated November 14, 1963) addressed to over 250 breeders of Dachshunds, the following suggested plan for registration of Dachshunds was outlined:

(1) All Dachshund litters will be simply registered as Dachshunds but on the litter certificate and in the Stud Book the sire and dam will be indicated as to coat by the addition of a letter in brackets immediately following the name of the dog - S for Smooth, L for Long, W for Wire. The applicant for registration of a Dachshund will indicate the Dachshund's coat on the application for registration form.

(2) When a Dachshund born in Canada is registered individually, its coat will be shown in connection with the breed name and the coat designation of both sire and dam (and their sires and dams) will be shown immediately following their names on the individual certificate of registration.

(3) An imported dog will be registered according to its actual coat but the applicant for registration will be required to show the designation of the coat for both sire and dam (and their sires and dams if authoritative information is available) in order that this information may be included on the certificate and in the Stud Book.

(4) For registration purposes there will be no designation of Miniature or Standard.

I have analyzed the replies received, and in the following statistics have attempted to show the reaction of those who responded to the Committee's memorandum:

Suggested Plan	In Favour	Opposed
Part 1.	8	20
Part 2.	23	4
Part 3.	22	5
Part 4.	5	21

With regard to Dachshunds at shows, the Committee sought the reaction of Dachshund fanciers to the following questions:

(1) Is the 9 lb. maximum for Miniatures satisfactory? Do you have an alternate suggestion?

(2) Do you consider that Miniature Dachshunds should compete with Standard Dachshunds in their respective coat divisions in the classes and for the higher awards in each breed? (Three breeds rather than the six as at present).

With regard to the first question, 21 gave an affirmative reply, 3 a negative reply.

With regard to the second question, 2 gave an affirmative reply, 25 a negative reply.

Included in all of the foregoing statistics are the reactions of 13 different persons whose replies were in the form of form letters, apparently prepared and distributed for signature and mailing by those in sympathy with the views expressed in that letter. These form letters indicated the following reactions:

(a) "No", "Yes", "Yes", "No", respectively, to each of the four parts of the suggested plan for the registration of Dachshunds;

(b) "Yes, and "No, respectively to each of the two questions regarding Dachshunds at shows.

An analysis of the replies indicated that most who responded gave a simple "Yes" or "No" to each of the proposals or questions. Some wrote letters, an analysis of which makes it difficult to interpret their letters in such a way that their reaction could be included in the foregoing statistics. I believe that the following represents a fair appraisal of their views:

In favour of interbreeding coats and sizes	1
In favour of interbreeding sizes	2
In favour of interbreeding coats	1
Against interbreeding coats and sizes	1
Against interbreeding sizes	2
Against interbreeding coats	2

(Summary ends here)

The Secretary reported that since the annual meeting of the Board the approval of the Minister of Agriculture for Canada had been granted to amendment #10 in the 1963 referendum ballot, the amendment providing the Board with the power to prescribe, subject to the approval of the Chief Registration Officer, regulations regarding the registration of Dachshunds in the Club's records, and referred to the resolution, adopted at the annual meeting of the Board, authorizing a special committee to prepare and submit to the Chief Registration Officer, special regulations referred to in the recently-approved amendment to the By-laws.

The Secretary pointed out that, in accordance with an instruction given by the Board at its meeting on May 8th, all members of the Board had been provided with a copy of the following proposed special regulations:

SPECIAL REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE REGISTRATION OF DACHSHUNDS

1. GENERAL
   (1) These special regulations, having been approved by the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club and the Chief Registration Officer of the federal Department of Agriculture, are effective as of (insert date).
   (2) There is no prohibition on the interbreeding of Dachshunds by coat and/or size.
   (3) In these special regulations unless the context otherwise requires,
      (a) "person" includes a partnership or company;
      (b) "applicant" means the person responsible for the registration in the Club's records of a litter or an individual dog;
      (c) Article XXXVII (Interpretations) of the Club's By-laws shall apply.

2. LITTER REGISTRATION
   (1) APPLICATION FOR LITTER REGISTRATION
      (a) The provisions of Article XXIX of the By-laws of the Club shall apply to the application for registration of a litter of Dachshunds.
      (b) If the sire of the litter is owned by a resident of any country other than Canada then there must be attached to the application for registration of litter the signed statement of the owner of the dam setting forth the coat and size classification of the sire. In lieu of his own personal statement, the applicant may, if he prefers, attach the signed statement of the owner of the sire.
      If the sire is designated as being a Miniature Dachshund, the applicant must include in such statement a certification that the sire does not exceed nine pounds in weight. In lieu of his own personal statement as to the weight of the sire, the applicant may include the signed statement of the owner of the sire.
   (2) REGISTRATION OF LITTER
      (a) If sire and dam of the litter are both of the same coat and size classification, the litter will be registered as "Dachshunds".
      (b) If sire and dam of the litter are not of the same coat and size classification, the litter will be registered as "Dachshunds (Interbred)". In such case the small letter 'x' will be added (as a suffix) to the litter registration number. Whenever a C. K. C. litter registration number includes this designation of interbreeding, it is an offence for any person to fail to include such letter when quoting the litter registration number.
      (c) The appropriate designation indicating coat and size of both sire and dam will be included in their respective registration numbers on the litter certificate (see section 3 (1) of these special regulations).

3. INDIVIDUAL REGISTRATION
   (1) VARIETIES
   For the purposes of individual registration there shall be six different varieties, as follows:
      (a) Dachshund (Standard Wire-haired) -- for which the abbreviated designation (included as a suffix in the registration number) shall be SW.
      (b) Dachshund (Standard Smooth) -- for which the abbreviated designation (included as a suffix in the registration number) shall be SS.
      (c) Dachshund (Standard Long-haired) -- for which the abbreviated designation (included as a suffix in the registration number) shall be SL.
      (d) Dachshund (Miniature Wire-haired) -- for which the abbreviated designation (included as a suffix in the registration number) shall be MW.
      (e) Dachshund (Miniature Smooth) -- for which the abbreviated designation (included as a suffix in the registration number) shall be MS.
      (f) Dachshund (Miniature Long-haired) -- for which the abbreviated designation (included as a suffix in the registration number) shall be ML.
   (2) APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION
      (a) The application for individual registration of a Dachshund must meet the requirements of Article XXX of the Club's By-laws.
      (b) On the application for individual registration the applicant will state the coat and size classification of the Dachshund for which he is applying for registration.
      (c) The applicant may only apply for the registration of a Dachshund as a MINIATURE if at the time of application for registration the dog has not reached nine pounds in weight and the applicant is reasonably satisfied that after one year of age the dog will not exceed nine pounds in weight.
      (NOTE: The Board of Directors will consider disciplinary action against any person who persistently registers Dachshunds as MINIATURE when such dogs, after reaching one year of age, are found to exceed nine pounds).
   (3) CERTIFICATE OF REGISTRATION
   On the certificate of registration there shall be shown the following information:
      (i) the individual registration number will include, as a suffix, the abbreviated designation of the coat and size classification for the dog being registered;
      (ii) the abbreviated designation of the coat and size classification of the sire as part of his registration number;
      (iii) the abbreviated designation of the coat and size classification of the dam as part of her registration number.
   (4) (a) When, after a Dachshund has reached six months of age, it is found to have a coat different than that shown on its certificate of registration, cancellation of the original certicate of registration and the issuance of a new certificate is permissible provided the applicant files an amended application for registration with the Canadian National Live Stock Records, at the same time returns the original certificate of registration to that office, and includes the fee for a new certificate ($1.00 to a member of the C. K. C.; $2.00 to a non-member). The original certificate will be cancelled and the new certificate will be issued under the same registration number.
      (b) When, after a Dachshund has reached eighteen months of age, it is found to have matured into a size classification different than that shown on its certificate of registration, cancellation of the original certificate of registration and the issuance of a new certificate is permissible provided the applicant files an amended application for registration with the Canadian National Live Stock Records, at the same time returns the original certificate of registration to that office, and includes the fee for a new certificate ($1.00 to a member of the C.K.C.; $2.00 to a non-member). The original certificate will be cancelled and the new certificate will be issued under the same registration number.
      (c) The owner of a dog used for breeding purposes is expected to arrange for re-classification of his dog, according to (a) and/or (b) of this subsection, when it is clear to him that re-classification is indicated.
      (d) The re-classification of a Dachshund according to (a) and/or (b) of this subsection in no way affects the prior registration of the progeny of a Dachshund which has been re-classified.
   (5) Disciplinary action under Article XV of the Club's By-laws may be taken against any person who represents a Dachshund as being of a coat and/or size classification other than that shown on its certificate of registration as issued by the Club.
   (6) The letters included in an individual registration number to show coat and size classification form part of the individual registration number and must never be deleted when quoting the individual registration number.

4. C. K. C. LITTER RECORD AND STUD BOOK
   (1) In the litter record section of the C. K. C. Litter Record and Stud Book the following divisions will be reported:
      (a) Dachshunds (Standard Wire-haired) -- under which there shall be listed each litter of which both sire and dam are Dachshunds (Standard Wire-haired).
      (b) Dachshunds (Standard Smooth) -- under which there shall be listed each litter of which both sire and dam are Dachshunds (Standard Smooth).
      (c) Dachshunds (Standard Long-haired) -- under which there shall be listed each litter of which both sire and dam are Dachshunds (Standard Long-haired).
      (d) Dachshunds (Miniature Wire-haired) -- under which there shall be listed each litter of which both sire and dam are Dachshunds (Miniature Wire-haired).
      (e) Dachshunds (Miniature Smooth) -- under which there shall be listed each litter of which both sire and dam are Dachshunds (Miniature Smooth).
      (f) Dachshunds (Miniature Long-haired) -- under which there shall be listed each litter of which both sire and dam are Dachshunds (Miniature Long-haired).
      (g) Dachshunds (Interbred) -- under which there shall be listed each litter whose sire and dam are not of the same coat and size classification.
   When recording a litter in any section the abbreviated designation for coat and size will be shown for both sire and dam.
   (2) Under the "Index of Dogs Registered in 19--" section, each Dachshund will be listed under its respective coat and size classification.
   (3) In the section providing information about each dog registered individually the following shall be included:
      (a) the coat and size classification as included in the registration number;
      (b) the coat and size abbreviation for sire and dam in the case of a dog born in Canada;
      (c) in the case of a Dachshund not born in Canada, the abbreviated designation for coat and size will be shown for all dogs in the imported dog's pedigree when such information is available from the certified pedigree (or certificate of registration) provided by the importer when registering the dog in the Club's records.
   (4) A special section in the Kennel Record and Stud Book will be provided in which shall be reported all reclassifications effected as provided in 3 (4).

5. AMENDMENTS
   These special regulations are subject to such amendments as may be approved, from time to time, by the Board of Directors and the Chief Registration Officer.

(Proposed regulations end here)

During a discussion which followed, two main points were considered at considerable length:
(1) whether the Board should proceed at once to approve special regulations subject to the approval of the Chief Registration Officer;
(2) whether, before reaching any decision, the proposed special regulations should be published in the official magazine, comments and suggestions invited, and the entire question be considered by the Board at its next annual meeting.

Those in favour of immediate approval of special regulations advanced the following arguments:

(1) many Dachshund breeders are dissatisfied with present policies and requirements for the registration of Dachshunds;
(2) the proposed regulations will eliminate many of the problems now encountered by breeders, particularly those importing stock from other countries whose registration policies are in line with the proposed regulations;
(3) the members, by their approval of proposed amendment #10 on the last referendum ballot, placed in the hands of the Board the responsibility of framing new regulations for the registration of Dachshunds, and it is the Board's responsibility to give leadership by making decisions, particularly when it is clear that Dachshund breeders are by no means unanimous with regard to their wishes;
(4) to delay a decision would only engender bitterness and discontent.

Those in favour of first publishing the proposed special regulations, seeking comments and recommendations, and then making a decision at the next annual meeting of the Board advanced the following arguments:

(1) the response to the proposals advanced to Dachshund breeders last November by the Registration Committee indicated that the great majority who responded did not wish any change in the "status quo", and in its report (read at the Annual General Meeting) the Registration Committee recommended there be no change in the present registration requirements and procedures for Dachshunds;
(2) the approval given proposed amendment #10 on the last referendum ballot did not mean that Dachshund breeders generally wished to give the Board the responsibility of deciding on regulations applicable to the registration of Dachshunds;
(3) Dachshund breeders generally are entitled to an opportunity of studying the proposed special regulations and of submitting their comments for the Board's consideration before the Board reaches a decision;
(4) to seek the reaction of Dachshund breeders may eliminate the necessity of the Board reviewing the special regulations soon after their enactment;
(5) the several Dachshund breeders invited to meet with the special committee appointed at its annual meeting did not necessarily represent national thinking on these regulations;
(6) if, as stated, some Dachshund fanciers were not in favour of the existing requirements and procedures, they had the right to submit proposed amendments to the Club's By-laws.

The President read a letter (dated June 15th) which the President of The Dachshund Club of Canada had addressed to Mrs. Edna Joel.

In the course of a discussion of the special regulations:

(1) the President proposed that the words "If, at the time of service," be added at the commencement of parts (a), (b) and (c) of Section 2 (2);
(2) Mrs. Mack suggested that the reclassification of a Dachshund, as provided in Section 3 (3) should require that such reclassification be reported in the Club's official magazine.

MOTION #336-64
Moved by Mr. Anderson, seconded by Mr. Dawson:
"THAT, the recommendations as laid down and amended by the President's proposal re Section 2 (2) (a) and (b) on pages 102 to 105 inclusive be approved and be effective immediately on the approval of the Chief Registration Officer."

AMENDMENT TO MOTION #336-64
Moved by Mr. Mehlenbacher, seconded by Mrs. Mack:
"THAT, the proposed regulations regarding registration of Dachshunds be published in the official magazine, and comments received and be referred to the annual meeting of the Board."

The Chairman ruled the amendment out of order.
Mr. Monaghan appealed the ruling of the Chairman.
The right of the President to preside while the meeting decided on the appeal of his ruling was questioned. The President read (page 98) from MacGill's "How to Conduct Public Meetings in Canada" and retained the Chair and put the question "Shall the decision of the Chair stand?", with the following result:
IN FAVOUR: Mr. Anderson, Mr. Wells, Mrs. Anderson, Mr. Ashcroft, Mr. Dawson, Mr. Frost, Mr. McDerment. (7)
AGAINST: Mr. Brown, Mr. Duff, Mr. Little, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Mehlenbacher, Mr. Monaghan. (6)
ABSENT: Mrs. Joel. (1)

Mr. Mehlenbacher gave notice of his intention to initiate legal proceedings with a view to establishing that the amendment to motion #336-64 was in order.

Further discussion followed, after which the Chairman put the motion to a vote, with the following result:
FOR THE MOTION: Mr. Anderson, Mr. Wells, Mrs. Anderson, Mr. Dawson, Mr. Frost. (5)
AGAINST THE MOTION: Mr. Ashcroft, Mr. Brown, Mr. Duff, Mr. Little, Mrs. Mack, Mr. McDerment, Mr. Mehlenbacher, Mr. Monaghan. (8)
ABSENT: Mrs. Joel. (1)
Motion lost.

A discussion followed during which many of the points raised in the earlier discussion were reviewed.

MOTION #337-64
Moved by Mr. Brown, seconded by Mrs. Mack:
"THAT, the proposed regulations regarding registration of Dachshunds be published in the official magazine and any comments received be referred to the annual meeting of the Board."
FOR THE MOTION: Mr. Ashcroft, Mr. Brown, Mr. Duff, Mr. Little, Mrs. Mack, Mr. McDerment, Mr. Mehlenbacher, Mr. Monaghan. (8)
AGAINST THE MOTION: Mr. Anderson, Mr. Wells, Mrs. Anderson, Mr. Dawson. (4)
ABSTAINED: Mr. Frost. (1)
ABSENT: Mrs. Joel. (1)
Motion carried.

At the commencement of the July 20th session of this meeting, the Secretary suggested that the Board, subject to the approval of the Chief Registration Officer, issue an appropriate instruction to the Canadian National Live Stock Records regarding the registration of Dachshunds pending the ultimate approval by the Board and Chief Registration Officer of special regulations in compliance with the amendment to the By-laws which received Ministerial approval on May 25th.

MOTION #338-64
Moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Duff:
"THAT, pending the approval by the Board of Directors and Chief Registration Officer, of special regulations regarding the registration of Dachshunds, the Canadian National Live Stock Records be instructed that it is to process applications for registration of Dachshund litters and individual Dachshunds in accordance with procedures and requirements in effect immediately prior to Ministerial approval of amendment #10."
FOR THE MOTION: Mr. Anderson, Mr. Ashcroft, Mr. Brown, Mr. Dawson, Mr. Duff, Mr. Little, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Mehlenbacher, Mr. Monaghan. (9)
AGAINST THE MOTION: Mr. Wells, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Joel, Mr. McDerment. (4)
ABSENT: Mr. Frost. (1)
Motion carried.

Mr. Monaghan asked that when the proposed regulations regarding the registration of Dachshunds are published in "Dogs in Canada" there be included a summary of the pros and cons brought out during the discussions of this question at this meeting, and it was agreed that the Secretary would do so.

Following the luncheon recess at the July 20th session, the President stated that a number of messages had been received which he felt he should bring immediately to the attention of the Board, and read telegrams dated July 20th received from Mr. John France, Mrs. Helen Sinclair, Mr. John H. Jansen, and Mr. Stuart Roberts, and a letter dated July 19th received from Mr. E. R. Dixon, all of whom asked that the Board reconsider its decision reached earlier in the meeting regarding the proposed regulations for the registration of Dachshunds and proceed to reach a decision at this meeting.
A discussion followed as to whether the Board could proceed, at this meeting, to rescind the resolutions adopted earlier in the meeting with regard to the registration of Dachshunds, and proceed to make other decisions.

MOTION #358-64
Moved by Mr. Dawson, seconded by Mrs. Mack:
"THAT, Mr. Wright, the Club's solicitor, be contacted for his opinion on the subject of rescinding during this meeting of the Board."
FOR THE MOTION: Mr. Anderson, Mr. Wells, Mrs. Anderson, Mr. Ashcroft, Mr. Dawson, Mrs. Joel, Mrs. Mack, Mr. McDerment. (8)
AGAINST THE MOTION: Mr. Brown, Mr. Little, Mr. Monaghan. (3)
ABSTAINED: Mr. Duff, Mr. Mehlenbacher. (2)
ABSENT: Mr. Frost. (1)
Motion carried.

At the July 21st session of this meeting, the Secretary read a letter (dated July 21st) received from the Club's solicitor in reply to the letter which the Secretary had addressed to the Club's solicitor pursuant to Motion #358-64.

Mr. Monaghan suggested that the matter be held over for consideration after the luncheon recess in order that members of the Board could study the opinion received from the Club's solicitor. Other members of the Board pointed out that their reservations for returning home were such as to necessitate their leaving the meeting during, or at the close of this session, and urged immediate consideration.

MOTION #374-64
Moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Little:
"THAT, this item be referred and set down immediately after lunch today."
FOR THE MOTION: Mr. Little, Mr. Monaghan. (2)
AGAINST THE MOTION: Mr. Anderson, Mr. Wells, Mrs. Anderson, Mr. Ashcroft, Mr. Brown, Mr. Dawson, Mr. Duff, Mrs. Joel, Mrs. Mack, Mr. McDerment, Mr. Mehlenbacher. (11)
ABSENT: Mr. Frost. (1)
Motion lost.

Mr. Anderson gave notice of his intention to move a motion calling for the rescission of motion #337-64 and for the immediate implementation of the special regulations regarding the registration of Dachshunds submitted to the Board at this meeting, such regulations to be submitted to the Chief Registration Officer for his approval.

MOTION #375-64
Moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Brown:
"THAT, since there is clear indication that this is going to be a controversial matter of discussion, the discussion be recorded on tape and each member of the Board be provided with a transcript."
FOR THE MOTION: Mr. Wells, Mr. Ashcroft, Mr. Brown, Mr. Dawson, Mr. Duff, Mrs. Joel, Mr. Little, Mrs. Mack, Mr. McDerment, Mr. Mehlenbacher, Mr. Monaghan. (11)
AGAINST THE MOTION: Mr. Anderson, Mrs. Anderson. (2)
ABSENT: Mr. Frost. (1)
Motion carried.

MOTION #376-64
Moved by Mr. Anderson, seconded by Mr. Dawson:
"THAT, we rescind the resolution reading as follows:
'THAT, the proposed regulations regarding registration of Dachshunds be published in the official magazine and any comments received be referred to the annual meeting of the Board.'"
FOR THE MOTION: Mr. Anderson, Mr. Wells, Mrs. Anderson, Mr. Dawson, Mrs. Joel, Mr. McDerment. (6)
AGAINST THE MOTION: Mr. Ashcroft, Mr. Brown, Mr. Duff, Mr. Little, Mrs. Mack, Mr. Mehlenbacher, Mr. Monaghan. (7)
ABSENT: Mr. Frost. (1)
Motion lost.

PRIVATE BREEDING RECORD BOOKS

A letter from the Chief Registration Officer of the Department of Agriculture was read commending the Board on its decision to arrange for the free distribution of a private breeding record book to each member of the Club asking for a copy. It was agreed that when seeking orders for Volume #67 of the Club's stud books, the Secretary would remind the members of the offer of a free private breeding record book to each member requesting a copy.

AGREEMENT FORMS

The Minister of Agriculture has granted approval to an amendment (approved by majority vote on the 1963 referendum ballot) to the Club's By-laws providing for the recording, in the Club's records and on certificates of registration, of an agreement where a dog has been sold on the understanding that it would not be used for breeding purposes.

In view of this approval the Board proceeded to consider the text of a suggested form of agreement between the buyer and seller and after approving the text, authorized the Secretary to proceed with an initial order of 30,000 such agreement forms, these to be made available at no charge to breeders and others selling pure-bred dogs. When these agreement forms become available an announcement will be made in "Dogs in Canada".

The Board approved the text of the following statement to be printed, in red ink, on the back of a certificate of registration issued for a dog sold under such an agreement:

"According to an agreement filed with The Canadian Kennel Club the dog covered by this certificate must not be used for breeding purposes. If, in violation of such agreement, this dog is used for breeding purposes, its progeny is not eligible for registration in the records of The Canadian Kennel Club nor may such progeny be represented as pure-bred."

COMPLAINTS, CHARGES & PROTESTS

POLICIES

At its annual meeting in February the Board of Directors had appointed Mr. Gordon Ashcroft as Chairman of a committee to consider and report to this meeting of the Board regarding the advisability of advertising in the pet and live stock columns of newspapers and other periodicals, drawing attention to sections of the Live Stock Pedigree Act.

Mr. Ashcroft submitted the following report:

It is quite evident that a prodigious amount of time is taken by the various committees, the Board as a whole, and the Directors in their respective zones, in resolving complaints dealing with non-issuance of certificates of registration and the resultant complications. To account the actual cost to the Club, would be a lengthy and expensive affair but it is apparent that some measures should be taken to counteract the ever-growing problem.

The effort and cost in resolving these cases does little to further pure-bred dogs and the time and expense consumed could be put to much better use.

Paid advertising in the classified columns of newspapers on a nation-wide scale would serve two most useful purposes. It would forewarn prospective buyers as to what they are entitled and therefore would promote the sale of dogs by those that are selling registered stock.

A secondary result is that the members of the Club will recognize the advertising program as a concrete example of the Club's officers endeavoring to assist them and thus improve the rather poor "image" of the officers, that is held by far too many.

I have enquired of newspapers across Canada as to the costs of two advertisements in particular:

(a) "It is unlawful to sell as pure-bred a dog that is not registered or eligible for registration."

(b) "The buyer of a pure-bred dog is entitled to the certificate of registration as an integral part of the transaction."

Members of the Board will recognize (a) as one that could lead to an increase in sales by members of the C. K. C. and (b) as one that could lead to a diminishing number of complaints.

The cost of printing one of these insertions, once a month, across Canada is $50.00. The actual cost per newspaper varies between $1.50 and $4.50 but averages $2.50 per insertion. It is suggested that the advertisements be alternated on a month-about basis.

The costs of such advertising per member is thirteen cents (13¢) per year.

In contrast to the hiring of a public relations firm a few years ago, this type of advertising is aimed at a captive audience (i.e. those that are potential buyers look to the classified advertisers) and a much greater impact would be felt. In addition it also fulfills the public relations aspect in that the authority for the advertisement would be The Canadian Kennel Club, and the name would appear with it.

The mechanics of the program would be quite simple. A mimeographed letter containing the advertisement would be sent to each newspaper once a month, with the date it is to be inserted. The actual cost to each newspaper is to be determined exactly beforehand and a cheque to cover is sent with the insertion. Almost all newspapers contacted insisted on pre-payment because the enquiry was from out of town.

When enquiring of rates etc. no reference was made to The Canadian Kennel Club and all correspondence contained no letterhead.

I have had the assistance of Mrs. Marion King and Mr. J. H. C. Wilson in gathering information for this report.

Mrs. King is a C. K. C. member, breeder and exhibitor of German Shepherd Dogs. Mr. Wilson is not a member, but an executive with a great deal of experience in newspaper advertising.

(Report ends here)

During a discussion of the committee's report:

(1) Mr. Ashcroft stated that the plan would be to alternate the two advertisements, running one or the other every month in the major newspapers across the country, and he estimated that the total cost per year would be about $1,500;

(2) it was suggested that the coverage be extended to include periodicals such as "The Family Herald";

(3) it was pointed out that the results of the program would be intangible and it would be difficult to establish the benefits that would be derived from its implementation;

(4) it was suggested that periodically the advertisements define the meaning of "pure-bred" as set out in the Live Stock Pedigree Act and the Club's By-laws;

(5) it was suggested that the second of the two proposed advertisements be amended by the addition of the words "at no extra cost";

(6) it was suggested that the proposed advertisements be referred to the Club's solicitor for any advisable revision to be consistent with the Live Stock Pedigree Act and the Club's By-laws.

The discussion concluded with the adoption of the committee's report and authorization of the committee to proceed with implementation of its recommendations, the expenses incurred for the time being not to exceed $1,500.

The Board, by resolution, decided that in all complaints regarding the alleged failure of sellers of pure-bred dogs to supply certificates of registration, the Secretary would inform the vendor of his liability under the Live Stock Pedigree Act and also point out to the buyer that he may obtain redress through the courts by laying charges under the Act.

The Board proceeded to consider and issue appropriate instructions with regard to 15 complaint files, some of which it had previously considered, others having been referred to the Board by the Complaints Committee. In some cases the Board ordered complaints referred to Advisory Committees for investigation and report. In two cases the Board rejected appeals for reinstatement, the persons concerned having been previously expelled or denied the privileges of the Club on the grounds of their failure to provide a certificate of registration for a dog sold as pure-bred.

INTERNAL AND ADMINISTRATION

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE MANAGER

On the recommendation of the Executive Manager the Board authorized the rental for a period of one year, of a Xerox copying machine.

A committee composed of Messrs. Jack C. Anderson, Walter Brown and George Mehlenbacher (with the President ex-officio) was authorized to prepare the terms of reference and engage a business management team to conduct a management survey.

STANDING RESOLUTIONS

After considering the report and recommendations of Mr. Wells, Chairman of the Standing Resolutions Committee, and recommendations submitted by the Secretary, the Board authorized a number of changes in and additions to the Book of Standing Resolutions.

Mr. Wells reported that the Committee is continuing its consideration of proposals submitted by Mr. Monaghan with regard to a 'Policy Book'.

BOARD MEETINGS

It was decided that unless the President finds it necessary to call an earlier regular meeting of the Board, the next regular meeting would be held on Friday, October 9th.

REFERENDUM BALLOTS

The Secretary reported that with the exception of proposed amendment #9 all proposed amendments to the Club's By-laws approved by majority affirmative vote on the 1963 referendum ballot had been granted Ministerial approval on May 25, 1964, and notice to that effect had been published in the July (1964) issue of the official magazine.

ONTARIO SALES TAX

Mr. Mehlenbacher and Mr. McDerment reported that they had had a number of meetings, including a meeting on July 8th with the Provincial Treasurer, during which they made representations seeking abolition of the sales tax so far as it applies to dogs. They reported that during their last meeting with the Provincial Treasurer it was understood that he would address a letter to Mr. Mehlenbacher for presentation at this meeting; however, the letter had not been received.

APPOINTMENTS FOR 1964

Mr. McDerment, Chairman of the Dog Show Council, recommended the appointment of the following as members of the Dog Show Council: Mr. John McNicol, Mr. A. H. Lake, Mr. Thomas Joel, and Mr. Phil Jacobi. By resolution the Board authorized Mr. McDerment to appoint the Council.

On the recommendation of Mr. Frost the Board appointed Mr. Len McMillan, Calgary, as the Alberta Field Trial Representative for pointing breeds.

To facilitate the holding of meetings of the Registration Committee, the Kennel Names Committee, and the Complaints Committee, Mr. Walter Brown was added as a member to each of these committees.

In view of the recently approved amendment (regarding the appointment of the Obedience Council and Obedience Representatives) to the Club's By-laws, it was decided that the Board would not seek the recommendations of clubs holding obedience trials with regard to the appointment of Obedience Representatives.

The Board considered the recently approved amendment to the Club's By-laws providing for the appointment of a Dog Show Council and Dog Show Representatives. It was agreed that Dog Show Representatives would be appointed at the next annual meeting of the Board.

In order that there would be no period during which the Club would be without the services of the Obedience Representatives, Field Trial Representatives, and Dog Show Representatives (when appointed), the term of office of each Representative would be April 1st (after appointment at the annual meeting of the Board) to March 31st of the following year, the term of office of the present Representatives to be extended to March 31st, 1965.

Mr. Monaghan referred to developments at the annual meeting of the Board regarding appointments for Ontario, and suggested that the national Board should give some guidance as to the manner in which the Ontario Directors will submit their recommendations to the national Board.

Mrs. Joel inquired whether a minority of the Ontario members of the Board could place a recommendation before the national Board when appointments are considered. The Chairman stated that a minority report could be submitted.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Brown, and carried, "THAT, the recommendations for the appointment of Obedience Representatives for Ontario be a majority recommendation of the Directors for Ontario."

ANNUAL MEETINGS - 1965

To avoid confliction with the Seattle Kennel Club show, a show attended by many British Columbia fanciers, the date of the Club's next annual general meeting, to be held at Vancouver, was changed from February 27th to March 6th, 1965. The annual meeting of the Board will commence on March 1st.

MEMBERSHIP MATTERS

APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

The Board approved applications for membership reported on lists #17 to #23 (these being lists mailed to the Board periodically on the understanding that if any member of the Board has reason to question any application he will so advise the Secretary and the application would then be held in abeyance pending consideration at the next meeting of the Board).

An application for ordinary membership was rejected; the Board reaffirmed its earlier rejection of two applications for associate membership; and two applications were ordered held in abeyance for further consideration.

MISCELLANEOUS MEMBERSHIP MATTERS

On report that Mr. Edward Cargill, Richmond, B. C., for many years a member of the Club, had passed away on April 25th, the Board authorized a change of membership to the name of Mrs. Freda Rose Cargill, and transfer to her name on the Club's records of the kennel name MATLOCK and four dogs standing in the name of Mr. Cargill.

DOG SHOWS

JUDGES

As requested by the Board and in concert with the Board's review of the Dog Show Rules in their entirety, Mr. Dawson, Chairman of the committee responsible for the processing of applications of those seeking to establish eligibility to judge one or more breeds, recommended that the Board take steps to arrange for Section 2 of Chapter 7 (Eligibility for Approval to Judge) of the Dog Show Rules be amended to read as follows:

Any person desirous of establishing eligibility for approval to judge breeds for which eligibility has not already been established must:

(a) file an application on a form which has been approved by the Board of Directors;
(b) pass a written examination based on the Dog Show Rules and obtain a score of not less than 75%;
(c) write a short description (not less than 50 words and not more than 100 words approximately) of the ideal dog in one of the key breeds being applied for;
(d) judge at three sanction shows the breeds being applied for, and at each of these shows an Observing Committee of not less than three, appointed by the C. K. C. provincial Directors outside of Ontario, will observe and assess the applicant's ability to judge, and at the completion of each show a few questions will be asked of the applicant regarding the reasons for the placings, the object of these questions being to verify whether there is any doubt regarding the applicant's ability to judge particular breeds.

If, after satisfactorily meeting the foregoing requirements the applicant is recommended by the Observing Committee, the applicant will be approved to judge the breeds for which application has been submitted at a show held under the Dog Show Rules. When such approval has been given, the following further procedure will apply:

The applicant will be recommended for approval as a judge of the breeds for which he has applied after the Observing Committee has observed his work as judge of a show and the applicant has submitted to the C. K. C. (within 48 hours after the show at which he officiated as judge) a written critique on the dogs to which he awarded Winners, Best of Breed, and Best of Opposite Sex, and a report from the Observing Committee has been received and considered. A final decision on the application will be given only after the report of the Observing Committee has been considered.

Only one group at a time, with a maximum of two groups may be applied for in any one calendar year.

During a discussion of the second paragraph of the report it was suggested that:

(1) in some provinces there are few (if any) sanction shows and this would make it difficult for applicants to meet the requirements of Section (d);
(2) considerable time may elapse before an applicant would receive invitations to judge at three sanction shows;
(3) rather than require experience at sanction shows, an examining committee arrange for a number of dogs to be assembled and judged by the applicant in the presence of the examining committee;
(4) an applicant be required to apprentice at three championship shows;
(5) show-giving clubs be encouraged to stage sanction shows at which only would-be judges would be invited to officiate as judges;
(6) if an applicant is required to officiate at sanction shows this would necessitate complete records regarding judges of sanction shows;
(7) an applicant must be a member of The Canadian Kennel Club.

The following changes were made in the suggested text of a reword-

(1) delete (d) and substitute the following: "demonstrate his ability to judge the key breeds, the local Director to appoint three observers who will report on such demonstration";
(2) amend the second paragraph to read as follows:
"If, after satisfactorily meeting the foregoing requirements the applicant is recommended by the Observing Committee, the applicant will be eligible for approval to judge the breeds for which application has been submitted at one show held under the Dog Show Rules. When such approval has been given, the following procedure will apply:";
(3) the first three words in the third paragraph be amended to read: "The applicant may".

Mr. Dawson's suggested revision of Section 2 of Article 7, with the changes approved by the Board, was ordered referred to the Dog Show Council "for tidying up" preparatory to getting it in the referendum ballot.

The Board confirmed the present practice of permitting an applicant seeking to establish eligibility to judge several breeds but who fails to obtain a passing mark (75%) on the entire written examination to proceed with the oral examination on those breeds where he successfully passed the written examination.

STANDARD PREMIUM LIST

The Secretary was instructed to provide each show-giving club with a sample of a standard premium list to assist clubs in the preparation of premium lists.

DATES

The applications (received June 11th) of the Lethbridge & District Kennel Club for permission to hold championship shows on October 10th and 11th were ordered approved.

The applications of the Canadian National Sportsmen's Shows to hold a championship show on the Saturday (March 13th, 1965) preceding its customary show dates was ordered approved.

The Board considered the applications received from the Toronto Branch of the Dominion Collie and Shetland Sheepdog Association to hold a specialty championship show for all breeds in Group #3 on February 13th, 1965, and an application to hold a specialty championship show for Collies and Shetland Sheepdogs on February 14th, 1965.

In view of a previous decision of the Board that it would not grant a specialty club permission to hold two types of championship shows, the application to hold the specialty show for Collies and Shetland Sheepdogs was ordered approved, having regard for the provisions of Chapter 2, Section 3, of the Dog Show Rules.

CHAMPIONS AND CHAMPIONSHIP POINT RATINGS

The Secretary read letters received from persons, clubs, and "the Watchdogs", almost all of which expressed dissatisfaction with the action taken by the Board at its annual meeting when it altered the ratings to require two dogs for one point in all breeds.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Mehlenbacher: (Motion #270-64)
"THAT, motion #184-64 reading as follows:
'THAT, the schedule of points for all breeds in all zones be changed to require a minimum of two dogs for one point, effective for shows held on and after July 1, 1964.'
be rescinded, retroactive to July 1, 1964."

On the grounds that motion #184-64 had been partially implemented to the extent of an appropriate notice in "Dogs in Canada" and the publication of the revised schedule of ratings in a number of premium lists for shows to be held after July 1, 1964, Mr. Wells questioned the right of the Board to rescind motion #184-64. The chairman ruled the motion to be in order.

Mr. McDerment, Chairman of a special committee appointed by the Board to review the Dog Show Rules, pointed out that in a memorandum which the committee had addressed to the President on May 20th, it had submitted the following recommendations:

(1) revert to the original point rating;
(2) earn at least ten championship points under at least three different judges;
(3) dog to be registered with The Canadian Kennel Club;
(4) dog must obtain two "Major Wins" under two different judges. (For the purpose of this requirement a "Major Win" to consist of two or more points earned at a single championship show or a group placement when not less than five dogs compete in the group at a championship show.)

The Secretary reported that he had interpreted resolution #228-64 to mean that he would prepare an up-to-date revision of the schedule of point ratings in Chapter 21 of the Dog Show Rules and pointed out that accordingly, he had prepared and forwarded to each member of the Board a revised schedule of point ratings based on dogs in competition at championship shows held during the years 1961-62-63.

During a discussion which followed the following points were raised:

(1) many exhibitors are anxious that the Board take steps to ensure that the title of "Champion" would be held in higher esteem than at present;
(2) the number of entries at the first few shows held since July 1st did not bear out the predicted ill effects of the new schedule;
(3) the action taken by the Board in February, while well intended, was not the best means of increasing the value and prestige of the title of "Champion";
(4) that no system of point ratings will have any greater value than the quality of judging which determines the dogs to which championship points will be credited;
(5) officiating judges can elevate the value of the title of "Champion" by withholding Winners from dogs which are not of sufficient quality to be worthy of the title of "Champion";
(6) the number of dogs entered within a breed at a show does not alter the quality of the dogs awarded Winners;
(7) the effects of the increase of the ratings from one dog, one point, to two dogs, one point, is not uniformly felt throughout the country and the breeds with fewer entries which will be most affected by that change of rating;

(8) a suggestion that the Dog Show Rules retain the one dog, one point rating, but that the rules be amended to provide that if a dog wins three groups it will be accorded the title of "Senior Champion" and if it wins three Best in Show awards it will be accorded the title of "Grand Champion";

(9) dog shows are the show window of the dog game and every effort should be made to encourage the exhibition of all recognized breeds of pure-bred dogs;

(10) a system requiring two or more "Major Wins" will not resolve the problem in that this will only increase the difficulty of specimens in the rarer breeds attaining championship status;

(11) in any sport the quality of the work of the arbiters, referees or umpires tends to place the sport on a high plane or otherwise, and every effort should be made to establish a "minimum standard" of quality in judging with a view to overcoming evident inconsistencies in judging at shows.

Motion #270-64 was put to a vote with the following result:
FOR THE MOTION: Mr. Williams, Mr. Ashcroft, Mr. Brown, Mr. Dawson, Mr. Duff, Mr. Little, Mrs. Mack, Mr. McDerment, Mr. Mehlenbacher, Mr. Monaghan. (10)
AGAINST THE MOTION: Mr. Wells, Mrs. Anderson, Mr. Frost, Mrs. Joel. (4)
Motion carried.

It was suggested that for the information of all interested persons and clubs the record of voting on resolution #270-64 be included in the report of this meeting to be published in the official magazine.

It was regularly moved by Mr. Brown, seconded by Mrs. Joel, and unanimously carried, "THAT, the record of the vote (names for and against) on rescinding motion #184-64 be published."

The Secretary was instructed to immediately notify all show-giving clubs in Canada of our decision on this point rating.

During a discussion later in the meeting it was agreed that before the Board gives further consideration to this question, the views of interested persons and clubs would be sought and notice to that effect would be published in "Dogs in Canada". (See NOTICE elsewhere in this issue).

JUNIOR KENNEL CLUBS AND JUNIOR SHOWMANSHIP COMPETITIONS

Mr. Wells, Chairman of a special committee appointed by the Board, submitted the following report (dated July 3rd) for the Board's consideration:

"As authorized by Motion #173-64 a Committee, consisting of Mrs. Elsie Murray, Miss M. Tkachuk and Miss S. Campbell, with myself as Chairman met and discussed proposed rules for the formation of Junior Kennel Clubs across Canada.

Although the response from Kennel Clubs across Canada was not gratifying, to say the least, the Committee felt that they had sufficient data on which to submit the following rules and recommendations to the Board for their approval.

RULES FOR THE FORMATION OF JUNIOR KENNEL CLUBS

(1) A Junior Kennel Club shall be sponsored by an All Breed Club.

(2) Membership in a Club shall be confined to Boys and Girls under the age of 20 years. However no member over the age of of 16 shall be permitted to take part in any competitive event held under Junior Kennel Club Rules.

(3) Each Junior Kennel Club shall elect its own officers annually; namely President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer.

(4) Junior Kennel Club activities shall be divided into two divisions, i.e. Conformation and Obedience. Members being permitted to take up either one or both of the divisions each year.

(5) Once each year both practical and written examinations shall be held.

(6) Only pure-bred dogs shall be permitted in competitions held under Junior Kennel Club Rules.

It was felt by the Committee that for the time being the necessary rules should be kept to a minimum to encourage as many Clubs as possible to sponsor this line of activity so that in the not too distant future it may become affiliated with 4H activities; unfortunately according to the information that the committee has, this is not contemplated by the Department of Agriculture at present.

The following recommendations are made to the Board:

(1) A badge similar to the one issued to the Obedience Representatives, but with "Junior Kennel Club" embroidered on it be supplied to all Clubs sponsoring a Junior Kennel Club, also two small circular badges, one bearing the letter "C" and another with the letter "O" be made available to be awarded to any member of a Junior Kennel Club who successfully passes the required examinations after one year of training.

(2) As soon as the number of Junior Kennel Clubs, established in the various Zones, warrant it, inter-zone competition be arranged with a view to sending a Canadian Junior Handler to compete at one of the International Competitions.

(3) A trophy be supplied to be awarded to the member of the Junior Kennel Club scoring the highest marks in the annual examination in each Zone. (Only one such trophy to be awarded to any one member).

(4) All Junior Kennel Clubs to be supplied with copies of all rules pertaining to the operation of The Canadian Kennel Club, a copy of the "Breeders Record", a sample Judging Book, a Book of Standards and a copy of the printed directive outlining procedure of setting up a show and information regarding the duties of the show superintendent and ring stewards." (Report ends here)

Mr. Wells stated that:

(1) the committee had kept the rules for junior kennel clubs to six basic rules, believing that the operation of junior kennel clubs should otherwise be left to the sponsoring clubs;

(2) as there had been very little response on the part of clubs across the country to the committee's request for suggestions on this subject, the committee had not availed itself of the funds which the Board, by motion #174-64, had made available to it.

The Board approved the rules recommended by the committee and

CLOSING DATE OF ENTRIES

While Section 6 of Chapter 15 of the Dog Show Rules requires that "Every premium list shall specify the date on which the entries for a show shall close" some clubs continue accepting entries after their published closing date.

During a discussion which followed it was agreed that:

(1) a show-giving club is free to set its closing date on the ten-day minimum;

(2) it would be helpful to show-giving clubs (particularly their show secretaries) which must, for any reason, close their entries more than ten days before its show, if every show-giving club was required to close entries on its published closing date.

It was agreed that when, in future, a premium list is approved the show-giving club would be notified that it must not accept entries if received after the closing date stated in the premium list of its show.

MISCELLANEOUS CLASS

Mrs. Anderson, Chairman of the Breed Standards Committee, submitted the following recommendations with regard to the suggested Miscellaneous Class:

(1) The Miscellaneous Class shall be for the following breeds:
  (a) any breed recognized by The American Kennel Club where such breed has not yet been officially recognized by the C. K. C., and the breed standard approved by The American Kennel Club will be accepted;
  (b) any breed recognized by The Kennel Club (England) where such breed has not been recognized by the C. K. C., and the standard recognized by The Kennel Club shall be accepted;
  (c) any breed for which The American Kennel Club permits entry in its Miscellaneous Class where said breed has not yet been recognized by the C. K. C., the description approved by The American Kennel Club to be accepted;
  (d) any other breed which the Board may authorize to be added to the list of breeds eligible for entry in the Miscellaneous Class, and the Board shall specify the breed standard or description to be accepted.

(2) The Miscellaneous Class may be offered at the discretion and option of a show-giving club.

(3) No points will be awarded in this Class. There will be no competition above breed level.

(4) Ribbons will be of a colour different to those in use for official awards.

(5) Each breed will be judged individually.

(6) Sexes may be combined at the discretion of the show-giving club if the number of entries is fewer than four.

(7) A copy of the descriptions will be sent to the judge assigned to judge this Class at a show, by the C. K. C. All-breed judges should be given a copy of all the descriptions.

(8) It is preferable that all-breed judges be assigned to this Class, but anyone who can judge any breed at championship level may be assigned to judge it.

Mrs. Anderson also pointed out that in order to provide authorization for the Miscellaneous Class at championship shows, it would be necessary to arrange for a number of proposed amendments to the Dog Show Rules, and submitted the following recommendations:

(1) A new subsection be added to Section 4 of Chapter 4 to read as follows:
  (h) Miscellaneous Class. This class shall be open to such breeds of dogs as may be designated, from time to time, by the Board. The class may be judged either on a divided by sex or combined sex basis. There will be no further competition for dogs entered in this class.

(2) The first sentence of Section 1 of Chapter 16 be altered to read as follows:
  Every dog entered in Championship or Specialty Championship shows held under these rules, except only those breeds designated by the Board as being eligible to compete in the Miscellaneous Class, must be registered or eligible for registration in the Stud Book of The Canadian Kennel Club.

(3) Add a new subsection to Section 2 of Chapter 16 to read as follows:
  (c) That it is to be one of the breeds designated by the Board as being eligible to compete in the Miscellaneous Class.

(4) Alter the third paragraph of Section 2 Chapter 16 to read as follows:
  Except in the case of dogs entered in the Miscellaneous Class The Canadian Kennel Club shall have the right, at any time, to require the owner of a "listed" dog to submit proof of the dog's eligibility for registration in the Club's Stud Book. Ribbons awarded to the Miscellaneous Class shall be for First, Second, Third, and Fourth, and shall be coloured rose, brown, light green, and grey, in that order.

The report of the committee was adopted and the Secretary was instructed to include the foregoing proposed changes in the Dog Show Rules with those other changes in the Dog Show Rules endorsed by the Board during its review of changes recommended by the special committee (see next subject).

REVIEW OF THE DOG SHOW RULES

Mr. McDerment, Chairman of a special committee appointed by the Board to review the Dog Show Rules and suggest desirable amendments for the Board's consideration, reported that a copy of the committee's report (dated May 29th) had been forwarded to all members of the Board on June 4th along with a copy of the Dog Show Rules with indications thereon of changes recommended by the committee.

Mr. McDerment pointed out that in its report to the Board dated May 29th the committee had submitted the following recommendations:

(1) that proposed amendment #28, which was submitted to the members on the last referendum ballot, be again included in the next referendum ballot;

(2) that the Dog Show Rules should be more strictly enforced;

(3) that some form of control for professional handlers should be instituted.

The Board reached a decision on each change proposed by the committee in its report, and also considered and reached decisions on chan-

During a discussion of the provisions of Section 6 of Chapter 2 it was agreed that the Secretary would prepare and distribute a directive setting forth the duties of the show superintendents and ring stewards.

SHOW SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT FORM

During a discussion of the section of the Dog Show Rules applicable to show officials, the Secretary was instructed to prepare, for distribution to show superintendents, a report form, the form to provide specifically for the show superintendent to report on any infractions of the Dog Show Rules.

IMPLEMENTATION OF CERTAIN DOG SHOW RULES

The Secretary was instructed to address a memorandum to all show-giving clubs drawing their attention to the following sections of the Dog Show Rules, and advise that the Board will take appropriate action against any club failing to comply with these rules: Chapter 16, Section 3; Chapter 16, Section 16; Chapter 19, Section 8.

OBEDIENCE TRIALS

REPORT OF CHAIRMAN OF COUNCIL

Mr. Mehlenbacher, Chairman of the Obedience Council, submitted the following report (dated July 13th):

"Having regard for amendment #6 on the 1963 referendum ballot, which was approved by a majority affirmative vote but did not obtain Ministerial approval until some time in June, 1964, my recommendation, which was approved by the Board (motion #187-64) regarding additional representatives, could not be carried out to any advantage because of the late date of approval. Here, in Ontario, the Obedience Representative or his appointed deputy, has attended every trial and reported to me. In the other provinces I have had wonderful co-operation from all the Obedience Representatives across Canada. I have, by authority of the Board, appointed my Obedience Council, comprising the following persons: Miss Bay Meyers, Mrs. Phyllis Smith, Mr. Louis Parent, and Mr. Ed O'Brien, along with a secretary to record the minutes of all meetings.

All matters pertaining to Obedience rules, regulations, etc. will first be directed to the Obedience Representatives for their views, then presented to the Obedience Council, above-named, before any recommendations are proposed to the Board.

The American Kennel Club has adopted its proposed new rules and regulations for obedience trials. A copy of these rules and regulations will be forwarded to each Obedience Representative across Canada, also to the Council for their comments, with a view to proposing the adoption of same to the Board of Directors.

I am including with this report a copy of a letter from The American Kennel Club to all Obedience Judges under their jurisdiction, and I am asking the Board to approve of a similar letter to be mailed to all Canadian judges as a directive, and a copy to be sent to any resident of the United States who is approved to judge in Canada.

This year, in Ontario, the overall picture on the scoring of dogs in a trial has improved considerably, but we still have a few judges who think that, in order to be popular and obtain judging assignments, they must score every dog in the 190s. This practice must be discouraged in order to maintain a high standard in Obedience.

I have a number of recommendations to make to the Board, but until further discussion by the Council, these will be held in abeyance, to be presented at a later date.

I would like to thank the Directors and all Obedience Representatives, trial-holding clubs and exhibitors for the co-operation and courtesies extended to me since the annual meeting in February."

(Report ends here)

The report was adopted and ordered implemented.

LISTED DOGS

The Chairman of the Obedience Council pointed out that under the present Obedience Trial Regulations it is possible (although contrary to the Obedience Regulations) for a dog, ineligible for registration in the Club's records, to be entered indefinitely as a listed dog and continue to compete in the Novice Class although it may have earned three qualifying scores in the Novice Class.

By resolution, unanimously carried, the Board decided that the owner of a listed dog which has obtained three qualifying scores in the Novice Class be informed of the requirements in order to be confirmed as a C. D. dog, and also that the dog may not continue to compete at licensed obedience trials under the Club's rules until the dog is registered individually in the Club's records, or its owner has provided evidence satisfactory to the Canadian Kennel Club that it is eligible for registration in the Club's records.

STATIONERY AND POSTAGE

The Board directed the Secretary to supply Field Trial Representatives, Dog Show Representatives (to be appointed at the next annual meeting of the Board), and Obedience Representatives with stationery and postage.

PRIORITY RIGHTS ON TRIAL DATES

In line with priority arrangements on dates for championship shows and field trials, the Board decided that a club or association desirous of obtaining priority rights to any given date or dates on which to hold a licensed obedience trial may apply to the Board of Directors, and if such application is approved shall pay a non-refundable fee of $10.00. A club or association granted priority rights to any given date or dates must in order to retain that priority, apply for permission to hold a licensed obedience trial on that date or dates not less than six months before such date or dates, and in the event such application does not reach the Secretary of The Canadian Kennel Club before the six months period referred to, such priority rights shall be deemed to be voided and the date or dates

It was agreed that an obedience club would be granted priority rights on only one date in each year (or on consecutive dates for two trials).

Clarification having been requested as to ribbons and rosettes which may be offered at licensed obedience trials, the Board noted that the Obedience Regulations provide only for the awarding of a blue qualifying ribbon to a dog earning a qualifying score. It agreed that a trial-giving club may award a green ribbon or rosette with a special prize, but there must not be any ribbon or rosettes which bear any indication of ranking as between competing dogs.

PACIFIC NATIONAL EXHIBITION TRIALS

The Board reviewed the Secretary's correspondence with the Pacific National Exhibition regarding the size of judging rings provided for its obedience trials, considered the oral presentation of Mr. Wm. H. Pym earlier in the meeting, decided that because of extenuating circumstances the Exhibition should be permitted to hold trials, for at least a limited time, until it is able to provide a new show building, and directed the Secretary to grant dates to the Exhibition in 1965.

TRACKING TESTS

In his report (dated July 16th) Mr. Frost, Chairman of the Tracking Test Council:

(1) pointed out that until Ministerial approval was granted on May 25th to the amendment to the Club's By-laws regarding the formation of a Tracking Test Council, little could be done;

(2) reported that he had asked the following to serve as members of the Council: Mrs. D. B. Hudson, Victoria, B.C., Mr. Warren Parkinson, Toronto, Ont., Mr. F. Mingie, Town of Mount Royal, Que., and a fourth member would be added;

(3) stated that he assumed that all judges previously approved to judge tracking are automatically approved to judge under the new rules, and a copy of the new rules would be forwarded to each such judge;

(4) reported that there are numerous applications for approval to judge pending, and these will be forwarded to the appropriate Council member for action.

Mr. Frost's report was adopted, and it was agreed that:

(1) Obedience Representatives and the Obedience Council are no longer concerned with tracking tests;

(2) it would be left to the Chairman of the Council to determine the form and layout of the required judge's book for T. D. X. tests.

FIELD TRIALS

ELIGIBILITY FOR REGISTRATION OF DOGS ENTERED IN FIELD TRIAL

The Board considered a letter from a field trial club about checking on the eligibility for registration in the Club's records of any competing dog.

During a discussion of this question:

(1) It was suggested that clubs holding field trials might be asked to include in their premium lists a statement to the effect that if any competing exhibitor has reason to doubt the eligibility for registration in the Club's records of any competing dog, he should communicate with the C. K. C. Secretary.

(2) Reference was made to the present policy of The American Kennel Club requiring that every dog entered in a licensed field trial held under their rules must be registered in their records.

This subject was ordered referred to the various Field Trial Councils for consideration and report to the Board.

THE SPANIEL "NATIONAL"

The request of the Central Ontario Spaniel Club for permission to stage the 1964 National Championship Stake for Spaniels was referred to the Chairman of the Field Trial Council for Spaniels for decision.

FIELD TRIALS FOR FOXHOUNDS

A set of proposed new running rules for Foxhound field trials, as prepared and submitted by the All-Canadian Foxhunters' Association, was ordered referred to the Field Trial Council for Foxhounds for consideration and report to the Board.

FIELD TRIALS FOR RETRIEVERS

Mr. Williams, Chairman of the Field Trial Council for Retrievers, reported that all clubs holding licensed field trials for Retrievers and over 300 judges of Retriever trials had been consulted with regard to the proposed layout of an unofficial judge's book for use by officiating judges in the field, and reported that while some changes had been suggested the general response was in favour of the layout as proposed.

It was agreed that the use of these unofficial judges books would be optional with judges, that the books should be made available at cost, and the same would apply to the two types of unofficial judges books suggested for use in the field at pack and brace field trials for Beagles.

On the grounds that the application had been received within three months of the dates of the proposed trial, the Board confirmed the rejection of the application of the Niagara Peninsula Retriever Training Club for permission to hold a licensed trial on September 19th-20th.

THE RETRIEVER "NATIONAL"

The Secretary reported that the views of the National Retriever Club of Canada on an inquiry received from the Algoma Retriever Club regarding the prior use of the grounds on which the Retriever "National" is to be run had been sought, and read a letter from the National Retriever Club reporting that its Directors were of the opinion that the Field Trial Rules, more specifically Section 5 of Chapter 10 "adequately cover the situation and that there would be no need to issue a special prohibition of the use of the grounds in advance of the National". In view of this reply the Board took no action.

FIELD TRIALS FOR BEAGLES

Board had been provided with a copy of the following minutes of a meeting of the Field Trial Council for Beagles held at Toronto on June 28th.

A meeting of the Field Trial Council for Beagles was held at the offices of The Canadian Kennel Club, Toronto, on Sunday, June 28, 1964, with the following present: Mrs. Edna Joel (Chairman), Mr. Okill Stuart, Mr. Ray Yearwood, Mr. Hardie Brown, Mr. Robert Youngman, and Mr. Ab Ford.

Mr. Stuart presented a report on Mr. Gerald Guay, St. Janvier, P.Q. and Mr. Jacques Choquette, Iberville, P.Q. It was agreed that each of these applicants would now proceed to take a written examination on judging of pack trials, Mr. Stuart to make arrangements for the examinations to be written, the examination papers to be submitted to the Chairman of the Council.

Mr. Yearwood presented a report on Mr. Roy D. MacLean, Cobourg, Ont. and Mr. Carl N. Ault, Cornwall, Ont. It was agreed that each of these applicants would now proceed to take a written examination on judging of pack trials, Mr. Yearwood to make arrangements for the examinations to be written, the examination papers to be submitted to the Chairman of the Council.

Mr. Brown presented the written examination taken by Mr. Douglas Dakin, St. Catharines, Ont. who is seeking to establish eligibility to judge brace trials. It was agreed that the examination paper would be referred to the Chairman of the Council who would make arrangements for the paper to be assessed and a final decision reached on Mr. Dakin's application.

The Secretary presented the applications of Mr. H.G.W. Froats, Long Sault, Ont. and Mr. Murray J. Farrell, Port Hope, Ont., each of whom had applied for approval to judge pack trials. It was agreed that each of these applicants would continue their apprenticing, the Field Trial Representative to present a report when apprenticing has been completed.

Mr. Youngman pointed out that the Field Trial Rule regulating the frequency of judging engagements at trials in Ontario had been repealed and sought clarification of the procedure now being followed by the C.K.C. in dealing with applications for approval of selected judges.

After discussion it was agreed that:

(1) when, in the course of processing the application of a Beagle club for approval of its selected judges, the C.K.C. notes that the club has selected a judge who has already been approved to judge another trial or trials considered close as to date and location, it will draw this to the attention of the trial-giving club and give it the opportunity of making another selection;
(2) if however, the trial-giving club does not wish to make another selection, its application will be processed in the regular way.

The Chairman pointed out that:

(1) the Council had been asked to recommend to the Board an interpretation of Rule #8 in Chapter 13;
(2) at a meeting of the Ontario Zone Committee (Beagles - pack) held on June 21st, the Committee had considered a recommendation put before the Committee by the Ottawa Valley Beagle Club.

After discussion it was unanimously agreed that the Chairman would recommend to the Board at its semi-annual meeting next month that the Board initiate steps so that the Board, at its annual meeting in 1965, may reach a final decision on the following proposed amendment to the Beagle Field Trial Rules and Regulations:

IT IS PROPOSED THAT:

Chapter 13 of the Field Trial Rules and Regulations be amended by the deletion of Rule #8 in its entirety, and the following be substituted therefor:

RULE 8. SECTION 1. Should the pack split, hounds going away on different hares, the Judges shall order the Marshals to order and assist the handlers to get their hounds into the largest running pack, or to pick up all hounds and get a new start on fresh game. If too many splits occur in one locality, all hounds shall be ordered up and moved to a different location for a new start.

SECTION 2. After a class has been ordered up, all handlers shall have thirty minutes in which to group their hounds. All hounds in the handlers' possession after this thirty minutes may then be cast. Handlers of missing hounds shall then be allowed thirty minutes after fresh game has been started to get their hounds back into the pack. This thirty minutes does not apply to a hound that quits the pack while running and goes out to its owner or handler.

The Chairman:

(1) pointed out that the Ottawa Valley Beagle Club had placed before the Ontario Zone Committee (Beagles - pack) at its meeting on June 21st a recommendation that the INSTRUCTIONS TO JUDGES section in Chapter 13 of the Field Trial Rules and Regulations be amended by the addition of the following:

"Before each class the judges shall agree upon a uniform point system of scoring the hounds and at the completion of the class they shall make the score available to the handlers."

(2) reported that the Zone Committee was unanimous in its support of this proposal.

It was unanimously agreed that the Chairman of the Council would recommend to the Board at its semi-annual meeting next month that the Board initiate steps so that the Board, at its annual meeting in 1965, may reach a final decision on this proposed amendment to Chapter 13 of the Field Trial Rules and Regulations.

The Chairman:

(1) pointed out that the Ottawa Valley Beagle Club had placed before the Ontario Zone Committee (Beagles - pack) at its meeting on June 21st a recommendation that a uniform entry blank be used by those entering Beagles at field trials;
(2) reported that the Zone Committee was unanimously in favour of this proposal provided the C.K.C. would take care of this item in its entirety.

After discussion:

(1) approval was given a suggested standard entry form (C.K.C. official entry form for shows with suitable alterations for Beagle field trials);
(2) the Chairman of the Council undertook to see whether a dog food company would make these entry forms available to Beagle field trial clubs;
(3) a sample of the standard entry form would be forwarded to each Beagle club on the understanding that Beagle clubs were free to provide these in any form provided the layout and text is followed as shown in the sample to be provided.

The Chairman:

(1) pointed out that the Ottawa Valley Beagle Club had placed before the Ontario Zone Committee (Beagles - pack) a recommendation that the C.K.C. supply each Field Trial Secretary each year, the kit to contain up-to-date instructions and material pertaining to the holding of a field trial;
(2) the Zone Committee had not endorsed the recommendation.

There being some doubt as to what the proposed "kit" would include, it was agreed that the Chairman would seek information from the Ottawa Valley Beagle Club

The Chairman:

(1) pointed out that the Zone Committee had considered a statement of the Ottawa Valley Beagle Club regarding return of entry forms forwarded to the C.K.C. following its trials;
(2) read the report of the one Committee which felt that "if a club so wished, there was no reason why they could not obtain a carbon copy for themselves, when entries are being prepared by the trial-giving club".

The Secretary stated that the C.K.C. will return entry forms to a club wishing same as long as it is understood that the trial-giving club will retain the entry forms for not less than one year and the entry forms will again be made available to the C.K.C. if required for any reason during that period.

The Chairman pointed out that the Board had referred to each Field Trial Council for consideration a proposed amendment to Article XIII of the Club's By-laws, each member of the Council having been provided with a copy of the proposed amendment.

After discussion it was unanimously agreed that:

(1) the Council was not prepared to approve the proposed amendment as submitted to it;
(2) each member of the Council would consider the matter, and it would be discussed at the next meeting of the Council.

The Chairman pointed out that Mr. Hardie Brown had obtained a quotation on the printing of unofficial judges' books for use in the field, the price being substantially below that obtained locally.

Mr. Brown stated that he had asked the printer to submit a quotation to the C.K.C. and agreed to obtain a written quotation and submit it to the Secretary in order that steps could be taken to have these books printed and made available.

The Chairman pointed out that at its previous meeting the Council had commenced a review of the list of Beagle field trial judges, and suggested that the Council complete its review at this meeting.

The Secretary:

(1) stated that to date there had not been set up an official list of approved Beagle field trial judges, although addition to such a "list" had been made during recent years;
(2) suggested that the preparation of an official list of approved judges would be helpful as this information could then be distributed as authoritative information to Beagle clubs and would enable the staff to determine those selected to judge who could be approved immediately and those who would have to establish eligibility according to the apprenticing and examination procedures now in effect;
(3) stated that if there are to be any deletions from the "list" which had been prepared, such deletions should only be considered official if approved by the Board.

During a discussion which followed it was agreed that:

(1) there should be established an official list of approved Beagle field trial judges, the list to indicate the division (pack and/or brace) each person listed is eligible to judge;
(2) the list should not include any person who has not been approved to judge a licensed Beagle field trial held under C.K.C. rules since January 1, 1960;
(3) The Secretary would seek information from The American Kennel Club regarding the present status, as Beagle field trial judges, of those residents of the United States approved to judge a C.K.C. trial held since January 1, 1960;
(4) the Chairman of the Council would then place a report before the semi-annual meeting of the Board.

The Council proceeded to consider a letter, dated January 15, 1964, from The Ottawa Valley Beagle Club (copy of which had been sent to each member of the Council), which had been referred to the Council by the Board.

In connection with their query regarding the official measurement of the Beagle SAD EYED SALLY it was agreed that inasmuch as the original measurement was not completely in accord with the regulations then in effect, the dog would have to be officially measured in accordance with the regulations now in effect, and a letter to that effect would be written the owner of the dog.

With regard to the Ottawa Valley Beagle Club's request that an official measurer be appointed in their immediate area, it was agreed that the Council would uphold Mr. Yearwood's selection of Mr. Durham, who is an active member of the Ottawa Valley Beagle Club according to their letter.

With regard to the Ottawa Valley Beagle Club's query regarding the Zone Committee it was agreed that the Ottawa Valley Beagle Club would be informed that:

(1) the Ontario Field Trial Representative for Beagles (Pack) had, in 1963, asked each Beagle club in his zone whether it had any business it wished to bring before the Zone Committee, and there being no response, a meeting of the Committee had not been held in 1963;
(2) should any club in the zone have any proposals to put before the Zone Committee, arrangements would be made for the Committee to sit and consider such proposals as it had on June 21st.

The Council considered a memo from the C.K.C. Office Manager seeking a ruling on whether approval should be given the application of the United Counties Beagle Club to hold a pack trial at Baltimore, Ont., on April 24th-25th, 1965, as those dates had been granted as priority dates to the Richelieu Beagle Club.

It was agreed that it would be inadvisable to grant simultaneous dates to clubs holding pack trials in Ontario and Quebec, and it was agreed that the C.K.C. would ask the United Counties Beagle Club to select other dates which would not conflict with dates already approved on a priority basis.

The Chairman reported that the Secretary had obtained from The American Kennel Club information regarding arrangements made in the United States for the holding of judges' schools for Beagle field trial judges.

Mr. Brown stated that if the C. K. C. would arrange for one or more such schools for field trial judges for Beagle trials, two different club houses would be available at no cost to the Club or the participants. A review of probable costs suggested that the cost to hold each such school (one two-day session each) would not exceed $100.00.

It was agreed that the Chairman would place a report before the Board at its semi-annual meeting and seek their co-operation in making funds available for this worthwhile activity.

The Council considered steps to be taken to arrange for the submission of measuring standards to the C. K. C. for approval by the Council, and the means by which each standard approved by the Council would be identified.

It was agreed that the Secretary would make enquiries regarding the availability of decals which could be used to identify standards which receive the Council's approval.

It was agreed that in the meantime official measurers would continue to use such standards as are available and acceptable to them.

The Chairman reported that the Secretary had arranged for the printing in French of the field trial rules for pack trials.

A supply was delivered to Mr. Stuart for appropriate distribution in Quebec.

Mr. Stuart sought a ruling of the Council which would, or would not, allow the Venise Beagle Club Inc. to hold trials under the Club's rules (should such a request be made) on the grounds of their proximity (about five miles) to the Frontier Beagle Club.

The Council declined to give such a ruling for, at the moment, the C. K. C. had not laid down any restrictions on the number of clubs in any area. It was suggested that Mr. Stuart meet this new club to see if it would be possible to find headquarters and running grounds at a greater distance from the Frontier Beagle Club.

The Council agreed on a number of changes in the present form used by Field Trial Representatives when reporting on licensed trials held under C. K. C. rules.

This meeting, which commenced at 10:00 a. m., adjourned at 6:25 p. m.

(Council meeting minutes end here)

The Board by resolution adopted the report, directed that it be published en toto in "Dogs in Canada" and the necessary preparations be made for the Board to implement it in due course. It was agreed that when publishing the report the Secretary would include a notice soliciting the views of interested clubs and persons.

The Board allotted a maximum of $200.00 to meet the costs of staging two seminars for judges of Beagle field trials.

The Secretary was instructed to prepare and distribute a list of approved judges for Beagle field trials, the list to indicate the type (pack and/or brace) of trial for which each person listed is approved to judge.

GOOD AND WELFARE

LICENSING OF DOGS AND KENNELS

Mr. Anderson, Chairman of a special committee appointed by the Board, reported that while he had received a number of very helpful letters, he was experiencing difficulty in obtaining replies to the letters which he had written seeking information which would be helpful to the committee in formulating a report and recommendations for the Board's consideration.

LIST OF MEMBERS

NOTICE

It has been the custom for many years to include in the October issue of "Dogs in Canada" a list of the names and addresses of those members of The Canadian Kennel Club entitled to participate in a forthcoming election of officers and directors. Because the current Board has been elected for a two-year term, there will be no election this year; however, the Board has directed that the customary list be published.

It should be noted that the list of C.K.C. members which follows comprises only a list of ordinary members of the Club in good standing as of June 30, 1964. Such would have been the list of those entitled to participate had there been an election this year.

The list does not include those admitted to ordinary membership after June 30th or those who renewed their ordinary membership after June 30th; nor does it include those who are associate members or non-resident members of the Club.

NOTICE

SUBJECTS:
(1) New standard for the Bullmastiff.
(2) Change in standard of the Vizsla.

At its semi-annual meeting in July the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club approved a new standard for the Bullmastiff. The new standard, effective January 1st, 1965, is published on this page.

At the same meeting the Board approved a change in the standard for the Vizsla by deleting the words "the nails should be slate grey" to "the nails should be brown". The change is effective immediately.

NEW STANDARD FOR THE BULLMASTIFF

(Note: Faults are classified as SERIOUS or MINOR, indicated as (S) and (M) respectively. Note that MINOR faults are either points which would not of themselves contribute to unsoundness in the dog, or are the result of poor conditioning, which might be controlled, and are not likely to be hereditary.)

ORIGIN & PURPOSE. The Bullmastiff was developed in England by gamekeepers for protection against poachers. The foundation breeding of the modern pure-bred was 60% Mastiff and 40% Bulldog. It is a guard and companion dog, and should be loyal, obedient and thus suitable for training.

GENERAL APPEARANCE. The Bullmastiff is a powerfully built, symmetrical dog, showing great strength and activity, but not cumbersome; upstanding and compact in appearance, with breadth and depth of skull and body, the latter set on strong, sturdy, well boned legs. The height measured vertically from the ground to the highest point of the withers, should nearly equal the length measured horizontally from the forechest to the rear part of the upper thigh, and should slightly exceed the height at the hips. Bitches are feminine in appearance, of somewhat lighter bone structure than the male, but should still convey strength.

Faults: (S) Lack of balance. Poor or light bone structure.
(M) Lack of muscular development. Ranginess.

TEMPERAMENT. The Bullmastiff should be bold, fearless and courageous, a dependable guard dog; alert and intelligent.

Faults: (S) Viciousness. Shyness. (Such dogs should not be used for breeding).
(M) Apathy and sluggishness.

SIZE: Height at the highest point of the withers - dogs, 25 to 27 in.; bitches, 24 to 26 in.

Weight - dogs, 110-130 lbs.; bitches, 100-120 lbs. It is important that weight be in proportion to height and bone structure, to ensure balance.

Faults: (S) Over maximum height. Under minimum height.
(M) Over maximum weight. Under minimum weight.

COAT & COLOUR.

(a) Coat: short and dense, giving good weather protection.
Faults: (S) Long, soft coat.
(M) "Staring" coat, which means poor condition.

(b) Colour: Any shade or red, fawn or brindle, but the colour to be pure and clear. A small white marking on chest permissible but not desirable.
Faults: (S) White markings other than on chest.
(M) Black shading on body, legs or tail (of reds or fawns).

HEAD.

(a) Skull: The skull should be large, equal in breadth, length and depth, with a fair amount of wrinkle when the dog is interested; well developed cheeks. The skull in circumference may measure the height of the dog. Forehead flat, with furrow between the eyes. Stop definite.
Faults: (S) Narrow skull. Shallow skull.
(M) Domed forehead. Insufficient stop.

(b) Muzzle: The muzzle should be short, broad and deep, in the same proportion as the skull. The distance from the tip of the nose to the stop should not exceed one-third of the length from the tip of the nose to the centre of the occiput. Broad under the eyes and nearly parallel in width to the end of the nose; blunt and cut off square, appearing in profile in a plane parallel to the line of the skull. A black mask is essential. The nose should be black; flat; broad with widely spreading nostrils when viewed from the front. Flews not too pendulous. The lower jaw broad.
Faults: (S) Muzzle too long, too narrow, pointed or lacking in depth. Muzzle too short; nostrils set on top; nose pointed, upturned or laid back; lower jaw narrow.
(M) Lack of wrinkle; flews too pendulous.
Disqualification: Liver mask. No mask.

(c) Teeth: Preferably level bite or slightly undershot. Canine teeth large and set wide apart; other teeth strong, even and well-placed.
Faults: (S) Teeth overshot. Teeth more than 1/4" undershot. Wry mouth.
(M) Irregular or poorly placed teeth. Small teeth.

(d) Eyes: Dark or hazel, and of medium size; set apart the width of the muzzle.
Faults: (M) Light eyes. Eyes too close together, too large, too small.
Disqualifications: Yellow eyes.

(e) Ears: V-shaped and carried close to the cheeks; set on wide and high, level with the occiput, giving a square appearance to the skull which is most important. They should be darker in colour than the body, and the point of the ear, when alert, should be level with the eye.
Faults: (S) Rose ears.
(M) Ears too long or too short. Lack of darker colour.

NECK. Well arched, of moderate length, very muscular, and almost equal in circumference to the skull.
Faults: (S) Neck too short; too long. Neck weak and scrawny.

FOREQUARTERS. Proper angulation and proportionate bone lengths of the forequarters are very important. The shoulder bone should slope forward and downward from the withers at an angle of 45° from the vertical. The humerus (upper arm) should form a right angle with the shoulder bone, 45° from the vertical. The shoulder bone and humerus should be approximately equal in length. The length of the foreleg from the ground to the elbow should be a little more than half the distance from the ground to the withers, approximately 52%. The shoulders and upper arms should be muscular and powerful, but not overloaded. Forelegs powerful, with round heavy bone, vertical and parallel to each other, set well apart; elbows set close to the body. Pasterns straight and strong. Feet of medium size, not turning in or out, with round toes, well arched. Pads thick and tough. Nails black.
Faults: (S) Lack of proportion in bone. Shoulders too steep. Shoulders overloaded. Elbows turned in or out. Lack of bone in forelegs. Forelegs bowed. Weak pasterns. Splay feet.
(M) Feet turned in or out. White nails.

BODY & TAIL.

(a) Body: Compact. Chest wide and deep, with ribs well sprung and well set down between the forelegs. Back short and level. Loins wide, muscular; croup slightly arched, with fair depth of flank.
Faults: (S) Body too long. Shallow chest. Narrow chest. Lack of rib-spring. Sway back. Roach back. Tip of hip bone higher than withers.
(M) Too much tuck-up.

(b) Tail: Set on high, strong at the root and tapering to the hocks. It may be carried straight or curved.
Faults: (S) Screw tail. Crank tail. Tail set too low.
(M) Tail carried hound fashion. Too long. Too short. Too heavily coated.

HINDQUARTERS. It is important that structure, angulation and proportionate bone lengths of the hindquarters be in balance with the forequarters. The pelvis (hip-bone) should slope backward and downward from the spine at an angle of 30°. The femur (upper thigh bone) should form a right angle with the pelvis. The lower thigh bone (stifle) should set at an angle of 45° to the vertical. The pelvis and femur should be approximately equal in length. The ratio of the lengths of the femur, to the tibia-fibula, to the hock should be approximately as 4:5:3. The length of the lower leg, from the ground to the hock joint, should be a little less than 30% of the distance from the ground to the top of the hip-bones. The lower leg should be vertical to the ground. The hips should be broad, in balance with shoulders and ribcage. Hind legs strong and muscular, with well developed second thighs, denoting power and activity, but not cumbersome, set parallel to each other and well apart, in balance with forelegs and body. Feet as in forequarters.
Faults: (S) Lack of proportion in bone. Poor angulation at hip-bone. Narrow hip structure. Stifle too straight or over-angulated. Cowhocks. Bowed hindlegs. Splay feet.
(M) Feet turned in or out. White nails.

GAIT. The gait should be free, balanced and vigorous. When viewed from the side the dog should have good reach in the forequarters and good driving power in the hindquarters. The back should be level and firm, indicating good transmission from rear to front. When viewed from the front (coming toward) or from the rear (going away), at a moderate pace, the dog shall track in two parallel lines, neither too close together nor too far apart, so placed as to give a strong well-balanced movement. The toes (fore and hind) should point straight ahead.

Direction to exhibitors and judges: The dog should be moved in the ring at a sufficient speed to show fluidity of movement, and not at a slow walk.

Faults: (S) Rolling, paddling, or weaving when gaited. Any crossing movement, either front or rear. Stilted and restricted movement.
(Dogs with structural weakness as evidenced by poor movement should not be used for breeding).
Disqualifications: Liver mask. No mask. Yellow eyes.

BREED NOTES

The Gait Of Goldens

The Golden Retriever is a favorite in the show ring, in field trials and in the obedience ring. Regardless of the type of competition, one of the factors which help determine his outcome in the event will be his gait. There are various gaits which the Golden possesses but I will discuss here only the gait which we see in the conformation ring, the "trot."

In the show ring the dog is judged on perfection. The dog is fitted to a pattern which has four legs as a part of it. Those four legs must harmonize with each other and the body to which they are attached in a manner as close to perfection as possible. Requirements for our breed indicate he is shown when trotting. The trot is a two-time gait and the simplest of all. Its sequence is just one diagonal after the other, the left front and right rear legs moving in unison with each other as do the right front and left rear. The body always has support when trotting. To insure this perpetual support, the front foot moves slightly in advance of its coordinating back foot which gets it clear of the approaching back lateral. The more distinct this characteristic is, up to a certain point, the smoother will be the gait. If the body of the dog is too short, the stride too long, or the timing not just right, the dog will have to sidestep and run like a crab. Therefore one of the first places lack of harmony will show up is in the gait, causing the dog to paddle, pound, crab or show short-stilted action to avoid interference between the front and back legs.

The Golden Retriever Club of America standard for the Golden Retriever states: "When trotting, gait is free, smooth, powerful, and well coordinated. Viewed from front or rear, legs turn neither in nor out, nor do feet cross or interfere with each other. Increased speed causes tendency of feet to converge towards the line of gravity."

This gait should be our Golden Goal. —R. E. Beckwith

A Good Labrador Head

The skull of a Labrador should be wide, allowing brain room; there should be a slight stop. The brow should be slightly pronounced so that the skull is not in a straight line with the nose. The head should be clean cut. The cheeks should not be fleshy. The jaws should be long and powerful and not snipey. The nose should be wide with well developed nostrils. The teeth should be strong and regular with a level mouth. The ears should hang close to the head, be quite low and far back. They should not be long, large or heavy. The eyes should be medium in size, expressing intelligence and good temper. The eyes can be brown, black or yellow. Brown and black eyes are preferred. The neck should be of medium length, very powerful and definitely not throaty. The head and neck should be carried slightly above a straight line with the back.

—J. L. Ripley

Can Labs Be Dual Purpose Dogs?

A Show and Field Trial Champion is a rare creature and I think will remain so. I believe the reason for this is that the speed and fire asked for in the trial work today is not often found in the sturdier bench-type dog. This quality is found more often in strictly field-trial breeding — in dogs higher in leg, whippity in body and often with long, stringy or curled tails. Trial breeders pay little attention to the conformation of a Labrador when breeding — the working ability means everything to them. This type of dog often produces a higher percentage of top-working offspring.

There are a good number of type Labs in the trials today and many of them fall just short of being an actual contender for the bench title. Many judges will overlook a dog offering a great deal to the breed because it has one or two faults that stand out — putting up a dog that is otherwise inferior in many ways. I believe this has caused a great many field trialers to hold their dogs out of shows after a try or two.

Many times I am approached at a trial and asked if I will look over a certain dog and advise them if it should be shown. Never have I seen a trialer with a good-looking dog that will refuse to show it. This does not hold true of the bench breeders. They seem to hold trials as a great deal of nonsense and can't understand why such importance is put on a Field Championship.

After being a number of years first with show dogs and then finally turning to field trials I can understand the views of both. Could more show judges see trials run and more fully understand the demands made on a trial Lab, I think we would be closer to dual-purpose dogs. — Kay Robinson year. He chalked up a BIS, two Group 1sts and 15 Varieties from March to mid-August.

Many exhibitors and judges are confused by the two half-brothers, Ch. Kobbytown's Shades of Parade and Ch. Kobbytown's Cinnabar. Both boys are Black and Tan from the same dam, both great showmen and both are BIS and Group winners. Shady to date has a BIS, five Group 1sts, many placings, BB's and five points toward his American title. Rusty, shown but three times in Specials, has a BIS and three Group 1sts.

Mr. and Mrs. Donderwitz of Massena, N.Y., are tireless travellers. Between March and mid-August they attended 26 shows in Canada and the United States, travelling by trailer. The entire kennel goes along, from babies of five weeks to Ch. Kobbytown's Commando, going on 15 years.

Gertrude Drew Is Honored

Members of the Provincial Irish Setter Club and Dog World recently voted unanimously for the presentation of the Dog World Award to Mrs. Gertrude Drew of Toronto.

The award was granted:

(a) For being the founder of the only two Irish Setter Clubs in Canada.

(b) For extensively writing items on the breed for national dog magazines out of knowledge gained from years of study and gathering invaluable information to pass on.

(c) For being a very high-rated judge of Group 1 and 2 breeds.

(d) For contributing to a vast improvement in the breed by importing top quality dogs.

(e) For her help to the entire dog fancy by assisting show-giving clubs.

(f) For being a top breeder and exhibitor for over 35 years and through her knowledge assisting novice breeders and exhibitors and giving inestimable hours of her time in this field.

Should A Beagle Qualify In The Field Before Being Awarded A Championship?

Your invitation to write an article on the above is a loaded one and akin to being handed a grenade with the pin already pulled. The ammendment to the question should be "and a field trial dog with Best of Breed in a bench show."

I love the little hounds and since I hunt my show dogs and show my hunting dogs, I deplore the thinking of some of the fancy who would have the public believe there are two species of the same breed. There definitely is no such division — a Beagle is a Beagle. It is only in the manner we beaglers derive our enjoyment of very short time, no trials. Training clubs discuss a number of different things at their meetings: it would be interesting to know how many have ever held a special meeting to discuss the regulations and standards for Obedience Trials. The lack of knowledge of the average competitor in regard to the rule book is truly amazing. So, again may I suggest that every training club have on hand a copy of the regulations and standards for each of its members who intends to enter the obedience trials. Then study and discuss them at your meetings.

Where you feel changes should be made, take the matter up with your board of directors of the CKC or write your Obedience Chairman. Meanwhile, since the rules do exist, let us abide by them, clubs, judges and competitors alike. ■ the breed, that we differ. Each faction has so much to offer the other and to those who are constantly working to heal the breach between field trial beaglers and show beaglers, my heartfelt thanks. More and more these days one sees show champions being run in field trials. If a person went to a field trial he could marvel at the quality of the conformation of the dogs being run, proof positive that there has been some blending of the two trains of thought. The Central Ontario Beagle Club has made good progress in this direction.

Beagling is a grand sport and one we all enjoy so let us not add bitter gall to the enjoyment of it by making fixed conditions in the quest for the nebulous glory of the title Champion.

Dachsie All Age Fun Match

The "best entry ever" was recorded by the Dachshund Club of Canada at the All Age Fun Match. Entries ranged from Toronto, Sarnia, Windsor and points between for the match held on the lovely property of Frank Anderson, London, Ont. Judge was Alex (Sandy) Caldwell of Glasgow, Scotland, prominent in canine affairs in his homeland and in Canada on an extended visit.

With her first Dachshund handling effort, Anne Austin of the noted Poodanne Poodles of St. Clair Shores, Mich., ably guided Canidae's Yaaanne (Standard Smooth female owned by Joyce and Stu Roberts of Maidstone, Ont.) to Best of Breed and Best in Match.

Import Is Son Of Noted Winners

A new resident at the Canidae Kennels of Stu and Joyce Roberts of Maidstone, Ont. is Jestana of Kegg, a five-month-old Black and Tan smooth male Dachshund, brought back from their judging-holiday trip to California this summer. Jesse is a son of the well-known winner, Ch. Lucane's Lantana, and a grandson of the even more noted Ch. Hainhaim's Lance.

The Boxer In Saskatchewan

As a comparative newcomer in the Boxer breeder category — approximately eight years since owning my first Boxer — I do wonder why there are not more fanciers of this very fine dog. As far as I personally know there are only four breeders in Saskatchewan.

Distances are so great out West that it is almost impossible to form a "functional Boxer club", though I think one would be helpful.

As a fancier who sincerely wants to see the improvement of the breed showing up better in each litter, I'm beginning to wonder, what are we aiming for. The showing Standard seems to be ignored in favor of a pretty dog that dances into the ring. Where has the sturdy, cobby strength and nobility gone, the look of power and stamina that the Working Dog should have? Are we to end up with an ornamental companion? Or should we still strive for a strong, dependable watch dog with the very "look" and size of a guardian.

The show quality and competition of the Boxer is keener in Saskatchewan than it was a few years back. Breeders are gradually seeing the necessity of getting good basic line bred stock as producers. The general public have to be educated to the fact that a Boxer puppy is not cheap. Raising a pup to three months, then having ears to crop, permanent shots and proper feeding does keep the price up above the cost of most pups. But, with the growing need for a dependable-natured watch dog, I really feel the Boxer fills the bill.

The Eyes Of The Collie

Much has been written in the last two years on the Collie's eyes, most of which has pertained to the breed's retinal defects, an unseen factor that cannot be judged in the ring. But the shape, size and color can be adjudicated in the ring, and a good deal of our all-round judges, particularly in Canada, are either ignoring or are ignorant of the Standard's requirement and heavy penalty for eyes that are not almond-shaped, medium-sized, set obliquely in the skull and possessing dark haws.

Everyone presumably knows what an "almond" looks like, so it should not be necessary to draw pictures. Nevertheless, the quest for a smaller eye has resulted in a good deal of today's Collies winding up with either triangular shaped eyes or little tiny peep holes the size of a shirt button. Such eyes nearly always are set parallel to the ground or floor, rarely can they set obliquely, except for the odd triangular one which can achieve this position which most dictionaries define as "having a direction neither perpendicular nor parallel to some line or surface which is made the standard of reference; neither horizontal nor vertical; not level; slanting; aslant; not direct or straightforward".

As for the undesirable light haw, it is tolerated only to the extent that it does not harm the Collie's expression. At times there are sables who can get away with this defect, as well as blue merles, but few are the tris who can be as fortunate.

If our Collies therefore are to have the visible eye qualities as prescribed by the Standard, then it is the responsibility of the breeder in his breeding program, and that of the judge in the ring, to ensure that the shape, size and color of the Collie's eyes are as they should be, and if they are not, then they are to be penalized as the Standard states, "HEAVILY".

A wise president will not try to do everything himself. Some executives display a great talent for getting things done but cannot delegate responsibility. A smart prexy will have plenty of committees, of which he is automatically a member. This is proper procedure. His job will be to see that the delegations are carried out, reminding, nudging here and there as necessary.

A good member will offer to help a the need arises, but should know hi previous commitments and just ho much time and effort he is prepare to spend. It's all too easy to mak promises, only to realize at a crucia time they cannot be carried out. Mar busy people will not head committees, knowing that the time they can spare is limited, but do offer to help when and as much as they can.

The selection of judges for a coming show or trial is frequently the subject of time-stealing discussion and the breeder of much ill feeling. Why not give a carefully chosen committee the responsibility of making the selection of a few names? After proper study they would present the names for final voting. Does this sound like railroading? It needn't, because club members could be given the opportunity of making suggestions to the committee. And if they have nothing to suggest, let them hold their peace at the final decision.

Some successful clubs provide an honorarium to the secretary and treasurer who must spend many hours on club affairs.

Club meetings can be a pleasure or a great big time-wasting bore. A program committee with both imagination and energy is essential. So is a president who can control the amount of time spent on any one topic. The man (in this case a lady) in the chair of one of Canada's fastest growing clubs tells Dogs how they handle a heavy agenda within the time prescribed. Prior to each meeting an agenda is mailed to club members. They are asked to give thought to the upcoming business and to come prepared. Each member is given so many minutes on the topic and that is it. Tap goes the gavel.

Next speaker please. ■

Australian Great Dane Breeder Visits Canada

In order to accept judging assignments covering a great portion of the world on a two-year jaunt, All Breed Judge W. G. Spilstead had to relinquish his kennels at his home in Australia, he told Dogs in Canada in a recent interview.

A leading exhibitor and breeder of Great Danes since 1939, Mr. Spiltead's entries have won top honors in tremendous shows. Best Female in Show, all Breeds at the Sydney Royal Show, 1950, fell to one of his Danes in an entry of 3,000. The judge was the well-known Percy Roberts. In 1952 at the Melbourne Royal Show the honor was repeated under the late Hilderbrand Wilson of England. The repeat win, Mr. Spilstead tells Dogs, is a first and only in Australia.

Breeding Shepherds In The Maritimes

Probably the greatest compliment to come my way was once when someone referred to me as an "expert" on German Shepherds.

It was also most embarassing. Unlike some who have proven their ability to evaluate, mine is simply "one man's opinion" and we are all entitled to this.

After going through the "routine" with a special girl, my stock was still low and I wanted to make a big impression. So in 1935 I presented her with a German Shepherd pup. This puppy did a remarkable job of cementing friendship and we were married in 1939.

Since that year I have tried to do something for the breed that had done so much for me.

Dedicated breeders of German Shepherds are forever trying to reach the same level of honesty and devotion as the dogs with which they associate. While some of us do not quite make it, trying brings daily rewards.

Here and now, in 1964, owners and breeders throughout the Maritimes have members of this great breed that closely carry the genes of some of the most outstanding dogs in the world.

As always, the real challenge is to pair these dogs, so that succeeding generations will be as good, or a little better than the previous ones.

During discussions and from observation, I firmly believe Maritime breeders are putting first things first, which of course is sound temperament.

Having "fixed" this first and foremost feature, we are now all trying to produce that most elusive specimen, a "world beater", a world champion in every sense of the word, and we are sure we can do it.

Looking at a litter today — one looked awfully good to me!

Is A Sheltie A Miniature Collie?

Several breeders who have both Collies and Shelties display signs on their kennels "Collies and Toy Collies". When asked why, they explain that the pet purchaser knows what a Collie is but frequently does not know what a Shetland Sheepdog is. When exhibiting Shelties in French Canada this conversation is repeated perhaps 20 times during the show.

"Quelle race?"

"Shetland Sheepdog — un petit berger des Isles du Nord."

"Quoi?"

"Un petit Collie en miniature — une petite Lassie."

"Oh oui, oui, merci bien."

All this indicates that the less doggy public thinks of the Sheltie as a miniature Collie. The first breed club was formed in 1908 under the name Shetland Collie Club. This name was given up for Shetland Sheepdog in 1914 as part of a compromise to overcome the opposition of the Collie breeders to recognition of the breed by The Kennel Club.

The Sheltie as a breed appears to have been a rather vague little dog of several types until Teena, small Collie, was bred, first to Wallace, a Sheltie, and then to a son of Wallace,

Rip of Mountfort. All the books on the breed fail to date either of these matings but 1909 seems to be very close. From this point type becomes more uniform and the modern Sheltie emerges.

This Collie cross predates the probable Borzoi cross in the Collie.

What then are the differences, other than size, between the Collie and the Sheltie? From the Pomeranian, the Sheltie sometimes has a rounded skull. This is bad. From the Yaki come the smutty muzzles in some strains of sable. This is neither good nor bad. From the Cavalier King Charles Spaniel comes the wavy coat in all colors and the soft coat which frequently appears in tricolors. This is bad. On the other hand the Sheltie is not plagued with slab sides and Roman noses which trace to Borzoi blood introduced into the Collie in the search for extreme heads. This is good. The Sheltie lacks the "Look of Eagles" which a good Collie should have. This was lost in the process of miniaturization using the Pomeranian, the Cavalier and the Yaki. The Pom probably is responsible for the sparkle in the Sheltie temperament which makes it so suitable for obedience training. This is good.

To answer the original question, The Sheltie is a Collie in miniature but with several real and important differences.

First K-W Club U.D. Winner Dies

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Simpson of Kitchener, Ont., who for many years bred Shelties under the Beechcroft name, were recently saddened by the loss of their Marnoch's Sovereign Midnite. Bonnie, as she was known to her many friends, passed away in her sleep August 29. She was a lovely little tri-color who earned her UD degree in 1963 and was the first dog in the K-W Kennel Club to hold this title.

The sympathy of all the members is extended to the Simpsons.

Airedales And Westminster

Cyrus K. Rickel of Fort Worth, Texas, will judge the Airedales at the 1965 Westminster Show. He is an accredited judge of all Terriers and Group, as well as Bloodhounds, Coonhounds, Dachshunds and Salukis. The Airedales make a fair showing at Westminster, as witness 23 entries in February, 1964. The registration has made some growth in 1964 over the previous year: May, 1964 recorded 259 in contrast with 193 in May, 1963.

Roundabout Recognition For The Little "Aussie"

The Australian Terrier gained official recognition in Canada before the American Kennel Club gave its blessing to this perky, sturdy little Terrier. It is, in fact, the latest Terrier to be given AKC sanction. Originating in the 1880's from several of the smaller Terrier breeds, it was originally fashionable in Australia, New Zealand and Tasmania.

The Countess of Stradbroke, whose Henham Kennels of Australian Terriers became famous, was responsible for a great deal of the early work on behalf of the breed in Great Britain. It was given official recognition by the English Kennel Club in 1933.

Tribute To The Earliest Cairn Breeders

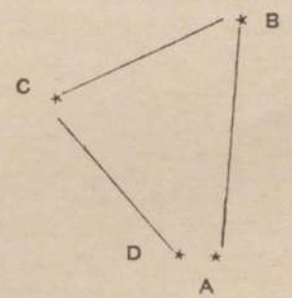

To the late Capt. MacLeod of Drynoch, Isle of Skye, goes the credit of authoritative writers for producing the oldest known strain of the Cairn Terrier, ranging back well over a century and a half. They pay tribute as well to John MacDonald, gamekeeper to the MacLeod of MacLeod, Denvegan Castle, who kept the strain alive for more than 70 years. From this strain and the old Waternish Cairn Terriers of the MacDonalds and Nicholson, it is averred, have descended

Several methods are used by judges when asking an exhibitor to move the dog for action. Some use the triangle method which is one I consider the best and which I adopted several years ago:

Denotes dog.*
Each dog moves from A to B, B to C, then C to D.

A to B—Going away from the judge displays cow hocks and other bad quarterings.

B to C — Moving across shows whether or not the movement is a true action with near foreleg and off hindleg moving together and vice-versa.

C to D — Coming back to judge displays weaving; or out at elbows, the shoulders falling below the spinal column.

As the experienced judge watches the dogs come into the ring, quite frequently a first glance suggests to him the outstanding dog of the class. As often as not this first impression is quite sound. The judge, of course that you can rely upon, is always open-minded, because when he comes puppy did a remarkable job of cementing friendship and we were married in 1939.

Since that year I have tried to do something for the breed that had done so much for me.

Dedicated breeders of German Shepherds are forever trying to reach the same level of honesty and devotion as the dogs with which they associate. While some of us do not quite make it, trying brings daily rewards.

Here and now, in 1964, owners and breeders throughout the Maritimes have members of this great breed that closely carry the genes of some of the most outstanding dogs in the world.

As always, the real challenge is to pair these dogs, so that succeeding generations will be as good, or a little better than the previous ones.

During discussions and from observation, I firmly believe Maritime breeders are putting first things first, which of course is sound temperament.

Having "fixed" this first and foremost feature, we are now all trying to produce that most elusive specimen, a "world beater", a world champion in every sense of the word, and we are sure we can do it.

Looking at a litter today — one looked awfully good to me!

Is A Sheltie A Miniature Collie?

Several breeders who have both Collies and Shelties display signs on their kennels "Collies and Toy Collies". When asked why, they explain that the pet purchaser knows what a Collie is but frequently does not know what a Shetland Sheepdog is. When exhibiting Shelties in French Canada this conversation is repeated perhaps 20 times during the show.

"Quelle race?"

"Shetland Sheepdog — un petit berger des Isles du Nord."

"Quoi?"

"Un petit Collie en miniature — une petite Lassie."

"Oh oui, oui, merci bien."

All this indicates that the less doggy public thinks of the Sheltie as a miniature Collie. The first breed club was formed in 1908 under the name Shetland Collie Club. This name was given up for Shetland Sheepdog in 1914 as part of a compromise to overcome the opposition of the Collie breeders to recognition of the breed by The Kennel Club.

The Sheltie as a breed appears to have been a rather vague little dog of several types until Teena, small Collie, was bred, first to Wallace, a Sheltie, and then to a son of Wallace,

Rip of Mountfort. All the books on the breed fail to date either of these matings but 1909 seems to be very close. From this point type becomes more uniform and the modern Sheltie emerges.

This Collie cross predates the probable Borzoi cross in the Collie.

What then are the differences, other than size, between the Collie and the Sheltie? From the Pomeranian, the Sheltie sometimes has a rounded skull. This is bad. From the Yaki come the smutty muzzles in some strains of sable. This is neither good nor bad. From the Cavalier King Charles Spaniel comes the wavy coat in all colors and the soft coat which frequently appears in tricolors. This is bad. On the other hand the Sheltie is not plagued with slab sides and Roman noses which trace to Borzoi blood introduced into the Collie in the search for extreme heads. This is good. The Sheltie lacks the "Look of Eagles" which a good Collie should have. This was lost in the process of miniaturization using the Pomeranian, the Cavalier and the Yaki. The Pom probably is responsible for the sparkle in the Sheltie temperament which makes it so suitable for obedience training. This is good.

To answer the original question, The Sheltie is a Collie in miniature but with several real and important differences.

to a closer and more detailed examination he will remember that this is the good specimen he saw entering the ring, and it is quite on the cards that he may conclude that this dog does not improve with closer examination, because he notes that the head is too short, not sufficient length of neck, or the dog may have a faulty mouth. And so in further summing-up another dog is moved up to the head of the class.

The most important essential in judging is to make sure that dogs which are unsound do not receive major awards, because incalculable harm may be done by breeders lacking in experience using such a dog that may have been awarded a Challenge award, thinking it must be good, but later finding that the resultant stock have inherited the faults of unsoundness the sire possesses. ■

Evolution Of The Fox Terrier Twins

Apart from the difference in coat which sets out the Wire from the Smooth Fox Terrier, the two types are similar in every way. Even the points required by the Standard are identical.

Terriers and the United Kingdom have been as synonymous as bread and butter for centuries, but the first concerted effort to distinguish the Fox Terrier as a separate breed began around 1860, with the Smooth Terrier singled out for attention.

The Industrial Revolution, whose effects are still felt on this continent, also resulted indirectly in the evolution of the Fox Terrier from the hunting fields to the homes of England. A small dog with plenty of fire, he was a welcome contrast from the huge hounds and the Toys.

The latest issue of this small, valuable book has just been released by the United States Kerry Blue Terrier Club, Inc. It is on the "most-wanted" list for Kerry breeders, and includes topics such as the Origin of the Kerry Blue Terrier, The Kerry Blue as a Pet, How to Condition and Trim the Kerry for Show Competition, Hints to the Novice Breeder of Kerry Blue Terriers and many other timely subjects.

The contributors rank among the top names in Kerry breeding and showing in North America. The Chapter on Basic Functional Anatomy of the Kerry Blue Terrier is written by Mrs. Dennis (Casey) Gardiner of Kerrycroft Kennels, Orono, Ont.

Chihuahuas Saw Life In Distant Palaces

While dogs are not allowed in the Palace of Westminster, a tiny Chihuahua managed to break the rule. It happened some time ago when at a dinner affair held by the British Mexican Society; the guest of honor was His Excellency the Mexican Ambassador. The Ambassador wore a coat with a fluffy fox fur collar, in which nestled his diminutive friend. Once safely in the dining room, he sat on the palm of his master's hand and later enjoyed a tour of the house. The event made large headlines, as did Miguel's "diamond" collar.

Other Chihuahuas to live in royal palaces belonged to Empress Carlotta, the Belgian Princess who married the Austrian Archduke, Emperor Maximilian. He was offered the crown of Mexico in 1864. Eventually he was murdered. And his Empress, who had earlier fled to Europe in a last attempt to garner some succor for her husband, went out of her mind. In the midst of a series of tragedies, the unhappy couple found pleasure and comfort in their large collection of Chihuahuas, which were permitted to run throughout the Palace.

Queen's Patrician Duchess, nine month old Miniature Pinscher female was awarded BB and BCBP in Group by Judge Mrs. Yan Paul at the Kitchener-Waterloo K.C. show August 15. Sire, Mel-Kef's Black Challenge ex Ch. (Can. Bda.) Hillrise Black Velvet Queen. Owner-handler, James F. Procter, Harlow Kennels Reg'd., R.R. 1, Milliken, Ont.

Maltese Coiffure Italiano

Talk about hair fashions in human life! The Maltese of Italy might well start a trend here, as has the coiffure of the little Yorkie. The handsome annual dog magazine Rassegna Cinofila portrays a number of Maltese Terriers who appear to be very similar in structure to those shown in North America. Except for their hair, which is so long and luxuriant one wonders how the dog could possibly walk. In addition they wear long braided strands on either side, reaching to the mid-chest. They sport a top-knot as well.

The Minpin Is A Terrier

Although a member of the Toy Group, the Miniature Pinscher is a Terrier and must behave like one. He is not a "baby-doll". The word Pinscher is the German word for Terrier, and the characteristics are found in this game little dog — a devil-may-care desire for action, an "I dare you" glint in the eye, a jaunty chip-on-the-shoulder attitude which says, "shall we fight or just romp?" He is alert as a trigger, ultra keen, but withal, good natured.

A tiny dog, too diminutive to hunt anything larger than mice, he has a remarkably large heart and a vast breathing mechanism. His jaws are amazingly strong, enabling him to grapple and hold anything he sets his teeth on.

How The Papillon Derived Its Name

Marie Antoinette, so the story goes, was extremely fond of her frisky little dwarf spaniel, a type very much in style with royalty of the day. One day she noticed that the ears of one of her favorites stood out like a butterfly.

"Ah, mon petit papillon," she exclaimed excitedly. "Oh, my little butterfly!"

She was so fond of her little butterfly dog that she carried him with her to the guillotine. In the last moments, witnesses noted, his little widespread ears were seen protruding from the folds of her skirt.

Boston Fancier Dies

The Boston Terrier fancy and countless other exhibitors will regret to learn of the death of Mr. John H. Parker at the age of 85. Veteran exhibitors will recall him as a devoted breeder and exhibitor of Bostons two or three decades ago. The strain of Parker's Dusty Boots and Parker's Dusty Lace and others did much toward maintaining the high quality of the breed in those days.

Mr. Parker was a driver of both horses and motor vans for the T. Eaton Company, Toronto, from 1906 to 1946. From 1950 to 1962 he was employed as a Commissionaire with the Canadian Corps of Commissionaires. He was a veteran of World War I.

foot in a walking cast, without his cane, which he sorely needed. Canadian dog show rules forbid a judge to use a cane in the ring, as it could unwittingly frighten competitors.

Handler Winnie L. Heckmann of Baltimore, Md. was showing Rombus Astronaut of Lenster, Bull Terrier she purchased this summer in England. In this, its first Canadian show, it won the Terrier Group in the first two shows and placed second in the third. Mrs. Heckmann and a group of Dachshund specialists well-known to Canadian exhibitors were judges at the huge English Dachshund Specialty Show held at the Alexandra Palace, London, England July 15. Nearly 1,000 dogs were entered at this specialty. Dot Hardy judged Miniature Smooths, Frank Hardy, Long-haired Standards, Nancy Onthank judged Smooth Standards, Phil Murphy of Miami Miniature Long Hairs and Dr. Lyman Fisher of Ithaca, N.Y. Wires and Micellaneous Standards. Mrs. Heckmann selected Best in Show. This show was staged by the Long-Haired Dachshund Club of England and included all types of Dachshunds. Frank bought a Basenji which remains in England until shown at Crufts next year. He also bought a female Miniature Wire-Haired Dachshund.

Booths at the CNE shows included Ken-L-Ration, who fed the Show, Dr. Ballard's, Romar, House of Pets and Dogs in Canada.

Observed by dog show devotees was the great percentage of new faces at this show. The number of newer people in the dog game is encouraging, but where are the former regular exhibitors?

In an interview with CNE Dog Show Superintendent Glen Stephens Dogs learned that passes extended to CNE Dog Show exhibitors were worth over $20; car passes were valued at $15. and the green passes were worth a minimum of $5.50.

DOGS & PEOPLE

Ted Curl, Toronto freelance commercial announcer who has a lavishly-furnished home at Whitby, has had a $450 castle built for Arnold, his 140-pound St. Bernard puppy. Why so luxurious? If his wife relegates him to the "doghouse" he wants him to be comfortable. Another unusual section of the house is his recreation room. Furnished as a dungeon, it has ancient armchairs that move of their own volition, a suit of armour that is mobile and talks, and a hollow voice that comes out of somewhere and explains the collection of authentic early swords, shields and armour.

Note to students who yearn to become veterinarians: The University of Saskatchewan now has a faculty of veterinary medicine. Next year sees the opening of the first-year course. However students wishing to enroll this year may take a pre-veterinary course and will be able to carry some credits.

Miss C. E. Collette, noted English judge and Chow Chow specialist, is a visitor with Mrs. M. J. Nattrass, West Hill, Ont. Author of The Chow Chow, Miss Collette has spent the past few years in Maryland. She is awaiting the green light for U.K. quarantine arrangements for the 12 Chows she has with her.

Visitors to Dogs in Canada recently were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Spilstead of Sydney, Australia. They are at present guests of Mr. Reg. P. Sparkes, Thornhill, Ont., following judging assignments in the United States and the Canadian West Coast. The circuit of judging will keep them away from home two full years. Mr. Spilstead, a breeder of Great Danes, is an all-round judge. In private life he is chairman of the board of directors of a sporting goods and office furniture company. Present plans include England and Europe following the Westminster Show in New York in February, where he will assess six breeds.

Under debate in the House of Lords in England is the new vogue for barkless dogs. The extraction of the canine vocal chords has been condemned as a piece of cruelty that ought to be outlawed. Declared Laborite Lord Willis: "I believe it is time to stop the practice. We have tailless dogs, sexless dogs, coatless dogs, dogs who have all their teeth removed — all in the interests of social convenience." Lord Derwent, minister of state to the Home Office, stated he understood such surgery caused no undue suffering to the animal and that it was surely preferable from a dog's point of view to being sentenced to death by courts as a disturber of the peace.

Visiting Dogs' office, Judge George Kynoch of Vancouver remarked that this is the first year in 53 years he has missed attending the Lakehead shows. In 1961 he was recipient of a presentation marking his 50th consecutive year of attendance, and received a handsome plaque from the City of Fort William. Mr. Kynoch took his first carload of dogs to the Lakehead Shows in 1910.

Died: suddenly, of a stroke, Henry Christensen (Craigmiller Kennels) Richmond, B.C. Mr. Christensen, over the past four decades, bred many outstanding Dachshunds. He was considered a great dog trainer, particularly of Labrador Retrievers and other hunting dogs. Latterly he specialized in training German Shepherds.

Mrs. Mercedes Gibson, well-known breeder of Newfoundlands at Cowichan Station, B.C., has just returned from six weeks in England and Scotland where she attended a Shetland Sheep Dog Specialty of 60 entries and an outdoor show of 700 dogs. Her visits to kennels included the noted Gissing Kennels. "It was a sight to see 60 Maltese happily running around on the immense lawns—40 females on one and 20 males on the other." Mrs. Gibson brought back two females with her and had an orange sable female Shetland Sheepdog shipped ahead.

Mr. and Mrs. Firby, Bernandale Kennels, Pickering, Ont., two of the newer Cocker Spaniel breeders, have just completed their attractive ultra-modern kennels at Pickering, Ont.

"Skylarkin'" in Bermuda means having fun. In addition to the attractive shows and Obedience trials the first week in November, Canadian and American visitors will be treated to a real Bermuda Guy Fawkes' celebration at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hadley, high above the Hamilton Harbor — with a display of traditional colorful fireworks. Come U.S.A. election night, visitors are invited to gather to hear the bulletins direct from America. Some lucky visitor will win a free, round-trip air ticket from New York to Bermuda at the raffle to be held at the shows.

The Bermuda KC has lost two of its very loyal and hard-working members. Capt. and Mrs. Eugene Pi (June and Gene) have been assign to the Air Force Base in Colora Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Flieg (Carol) visited several major d shows in the States this past summ as well as horse shows in the Philad phia area while visiting in Vall Forge.

"Please, Mister, can I bail out that shaggy dog?"

After the club meeting one new me ber was heard to talk lengthily the merits of certain types of bre ing.

"He must be thoroughly experie ed," observed a newcomer.

"Oh, no," replied a longtimer. " just babbles in genetics."
