OBEDIENCE for "TOGETHERNESS"

Year after year, 4 out of 5 winners of Canada's Major Dog Shows are raised on KEN·L FOODS because—ounce for ounce—they provide

TWICE
THE ENERGY POWER OF LEAN BEEFSTEAK!

Yes, Ken·L research concentrates twice the calories—or energy power—of the choicest lean beefsteak into every package of Ken·L Kibble and Ken·L Meal. In addition, Ken·L's balanced formula of vitamins and minerals helps create the glossy coat, the bounding health, the superb spirits which mark the true champion. They're economical foods, too. Because they do so much more, you need smaller quantities. But you do need some. Arrange it with your Ken·L representative soon, or write:

DOGS IN CANADA

JANUARY 66. VOL. 56, NO. 4 APEX PUBLISHERS AND PUBLICITY LIMITED

cover story

THIS family portrait, showing complete ease during the usually finicky process of photography, was made at the summer home of Mrs. James Pugh, at Severn Bridge, Ont. where her 70-acre farm offers plenty of space for the dogs to enjoy outdoor living. Mrs. Pugh's city address for her Display Kennels, Reg'd. is 135 Macpherson Ave., Toronto 5. Pictured with her are four generations of home breeding. Sitting immediately to Mrs. Pugh's right is the Weimaraner puppy, Fisher's St. Louis Blues, who has points toward her championship. The other three Weimaraners in the group are all champions. The engaging puppy on her lap is three months old. Both Poodles have their Obedience degrees: one is also an American CD and the other a Canadian CDX.

For the third consecutive year Mrs. Pugh has taken the January cover of Dogs in Canada to help focus more attention on Obedience, with particular emphasis on the mutual pleasure of well-trained dogs in the home.

This capable devotee, who expends hours with pupils well beyond the agreed-upon time, would be pleased to hear from readers who have a problem in Obedience, whether the difficulty is in the handler, the dog or both, and offers to do anything she can to help.

Although Mrs. Pugh has had purebred dogs for 30 years, she has bred and shown Ymars for eight, and has made five bench champions in addition to the obedience degrees.

In the six years in which she has been interested in Obedience she has taken between 15 and 20 dogs to their CD degrees. More than 70 dogs, some of them considered virtually "impossible" by their owners, have been trained by her since she began her Display Obedience Training Class in 1965. Six have gained their CD's. This year the class is proceeding into Open work with the dogs which qualified for their CD's entering into this advanced work. The fact that she is a nurse may account for the participation of former patients and several doctors with whom she has worked.

Mrs. Pugh's particular love is training children from the age of five and up, to work with their dogs. Her patience is boundless and her sense of humor precludes the sting of correction. One 11-year-old girl in her class trained a six-year-old Ymar, weighing two pounds more than its young owner, to its CD.

TO THE EDITOR

If you have any suggestions, any comments or constructive criticism to make concerning articles in this magazine, or with regard to shows, your opinion of what is happening to various breeds with regard to size, color, coat, etc., write a brief letter to the Editor. We must reserve the right, however, to edit same. Opinions expressed in this department do not necessarily reflect those of the publishers.

THE LARGER CHIHUAHUA

. . . Re the article in this month's (December) Dogs by Dr. Frank Manolson advocating the larger Chihuahua. The point is well taken re the Caesarian section, there happens to be a standard. Is the breeder to forget standards and breed to larger types? Is this good breeding to coarsen it? Through mis-interpretation of standard, the head of the Chihuahua has been coarsened. Surely, Caesarian section is not necessarily due to smallness, but possible malformation of pelvic area, not enough study done re the male and female. Do not humans have Caesarians.

Now, we are told "get with it, get big". Are we to breed a mongralization of Chihuahua? The point about the patella — surely can be improved, as it has been proven. We go along with him re elimination. We have seen dogs of this type go on into the Group! A conscientious breeder tries to improve, then prove it by going in with their own dog . . .

"If two dogs are equally good in type the more diminutive is preferred". How often has it happened that the smaller, merely because of one feature, has gone over the sounder . . .

. . . Granting the point of the Dr. re females and smallness, one tends to find comparatively few female Champions who either have whelped prior to being shown or are shown, make their Championship and return to the ring and their offsprings, mainly female, make their Championship and go on doing so . . . The types he is talking about are the one-day wonders who do nothing for their respective breed. I wonder how many breeders would take kindly to the suggestion that they go to some breed within their breed in order to make it larger than it is.

In closing, might I suggest a trip to the Tombs in Mexico — there you will see the Chihuahua pretty much as it is today, so this smallness has hardly been achieved by implication, in just six or so decades.

OPEN LETTER TO JUDGES

. . . Being a novice in this wonderful hobby of showing dogs, I know there is much to learn. My learning started re ring procedure months ago by working with a puppy when she wasn't much more than a baby. We worked hard together and by the time of our first shows were doing quite nicely. My girl gaited well, knew enough to turn when I switched her lead from one hand to the other, stood quietly for examination with no fear of a stranger looking her over.

So what happens in the show ring? She gaited like an old trouper but before I could take off her lead and place her properly the judge was trying to examine her. The same thing happens when in for Best Puppy.

Ladies and gentlemen, I know you have a judging schedule to maintain and that you won't always recognize a novice handler but surely you recognize a junior puppy. Most of us work hard to bring a trained puppy into the ring so please give us a chance to show our worth, be it good or indifferent. Remember, a junior puppy is just that, so please don't rush us.

1966 KENNEL DIRECTORY

. . . I would like to comment very favorably on the 1966 Kennel Directory. As a member of the above club (Burlington Kennel & Obedience Club), I have my telephone number given out constantly by local veterinarians, pet stores and the local animal shelter, to people wishing to purchase dogs. I have always used the Kennel Directory as a guide and find the present one much easier to refer to since it is stapled and the print is excellent.

Normally, people wishing to purchase purebred dogs have no way of knowing who to contact and the majority are very grateful for the information given, mostly from the Directory. Quite often it has been possible to persuade someone who just wished to purchase "a dog" to look for a purebred one instead.

CHOW CHOW POINT RATING

. . . I recently noticed an insert in the center section of Dogs stating the Chow Chow point rating is to be changed to two dogs one point. I looked through recent show catalogues — there was often only one dog and bitch entered. After finding this, I checked with some Chow owners I know to discover the new point rating can possibly "kill" Chow showing on the West Coast. Is it the object of the CKC to stop or promote the showing of dogs?

I write this letter not only with concern for the Chow Chow breeders and owners on the Coast, but also on behalf of owners of breeds which are not as plentiful on the Coast as in the East. If possible I would like to hear from other readers of Dogs in Canada to have their opinions on the subject.

A "MUST" FOR BASSET OWNERS

. . . All Basset owners who are interested in the history, development and care of the breed will be interested in the "Complete Basset Hound" which may be obtained from Dogs in Canada.

The author, Mercedes Braun, is a handler, exhibitor and breeder of Bassets and a great worker in the Basset Hound Club of America. She knows Bassets.

The book is most absorbing reading, well illustrated and a great reference book which will answer almost any question relating to Bassets. No Basset breeder should be without it for it gives details of all the leading Bassets and their breeders.

BREEDERS HELP BOOST CIRCULATION

. . . Enclosed is a cheque and order form for one year's subscription to be sent to one of my puppies' owners. What a good idea for a Christmas gift! I hope to order many more such subscriptions in the future.

KAREN SMITH (MRS.)
Bokai Kennels Reg'd., North Vancouver, B.C.

. . . These two "new owners" of Miniature Long-Haired Dachshunds would like to receive subscriptions to Dogs in Canada. I certainly look forward to my copy every month and I'm sure they will also. I enclose my personal cheque for $6.00 for two subscriptions.

MRS. DAVID G. PENGELLY

(May we suggest other breeders follow these examples and not only give a new puppy owner a year's good advice through Dogs in Canada but help spread a greater recognition of the purebred dog hobby. Breeders are invited to write for details about the special "new owner" gift rate. — Ed.)

OBEDIENCE TRAINED DOGS

. . . As a trainer I would like to express my opinion of Obedience-trained dogs.

I often hear people say "if he can't make the point show, you can always put him through obedience."

It is not easy to take a dog through to an obedience degree. It takes a lot of time, patience and companionship to accomplish a UD degree.

I wish the breeders would open their eyes to the value of obedience. After all, the OB people go to the breeder to buy their dog. They do not buy the $300 dog. They buy from the pet stock. But, because the dog has a weak backskull doesn't mean that there isn't a brain behind it.

One and a half years ago I picked out of a graduation class five dogs, three Shepherds, one Weimaraner and a Collie who was permanently blind. None of these would make it to a point show, but they made CD in three trials without any disqualifications. Four are now part way through CDX and one is training for UD. The owners of these dogs have put in a lot of time and effort to accomplish this.

memo
FROM THE EDITOR

EVERY week brings letters and telephone calls to this office concerning matters which come under the jurisdiction of The Canadian Kennel Club, and which do not fall within the responsibilities of your publishers. These are problems concerning, for example, delays in receiving registration papers from Ottawa, transfer records and other papers dealing with the buying and selling of dogs.

Although experienced breeders are fully cognizant of the requirements, so many novice breeders are now in the picture that your editor, as a special service, interviewed the Executive Manager of The Canadian Kennel Club to help clear up some misconceptions.

Buyers are often led to believe, according to letters received by the CKC, that "anywhere from four to six months" can elapse before the registration papers are received. Such a statement is not only unfair to the Livestock Records Office but so often boomerangs when the buyer ultimately learns that it does not take that long to obtain a certificate when the breeder promptly files with the Records Office a properly completed application with the required fees.

It can be readily understood why a breeder might like to hold off sending the forms to the Office immediately when he might have a litter of puppies, say five, which he might expect to sell within the next six or eight weeks, or he might have several litters in the same circumstances. Or he might wish to send the application to register along with the application to transfer at one time. It's a matter of good public relations with a buyer to get the certificate to him as quickly as possible, bearing in mind the time it normally takes to process applications in Ottawa, even if they are absolutely correct.

"What," we asked are some of the most common causes of all these irritations and delays we keep hearing about?" The Manager numerated some of the most flagrant ones:

1. Any part of the application form not completed, or showing inaccurate information.

2. Failure to remit the required fees, especially in the case of the transfer fee where the dog is to be registered and transferred simultaneously.

We have been working these dogs into a little show group using the different obedience exercises in different variations. We are often asked to perform for different clubs such as the Kinsmen Club, the Prince Edward Agricultural Society and the Home and School Association.

There is one other thing that I would like to point out. The OB trained dog never gives the veterinarian any trouble, neither does he get killed on the road.

As a kennel owner I am proud of showing people my obedience-trained dogs.

I wish to express my thanks to trainer Mark McDermott, owner of Elmack Kennels in Kingston, who is the greatest teacher I have ever had in obedience training.

MRS. CARON SORENSON

Picton, Ont.

3. Lack of the required signature or an unacceptable signature, i.e. where a partnership is filing an application it must be signed by the authorized representative of the partnership (if the partnership is a CKC member). If not, the signature of all partners is r e q u i r e d. The word "authorized representative" does not simply mean any person appointed by the individual whose signature is required. An agent, for example, cannot sign for that client unless a power of attorney form has been completed and filed with the Livestock Records office.

4. Unsatisfactory noseprints. Two clear noseprints are required if this form of identification is used. These should clearly show the islands and channels of the dog's nose. Only one noseprint may be shown on each form, and only the CKC noseprint form is acceptable.

5. Illegible writing or printing.

Your accuracy facilitates the work of the Records Office staff. Where an application has had to be returned for some kind of correction and mailed back to Ottawa one cannot expect special attention on the second time around. It takes its place with other newly arrived documents.

A breeder's best friend is a satisfied customer, we agreed. Purchasers pleased with their dog and the relationship with the kennel owner have been known to buy several dogs from the same kennel and steer friends to the same address.

One of the most outstanding ways of never seeing a customer again is to try any hanky-panky with prices. And there are some breeders (who fortunately rarely remain in business for any length of time) who will state a price for the dog and coyly point out to the purchaser "it will cost extra for the papers". This leaves a lasting bad taste. Under the Livestock Pedigree Act, and this applies whether the seller is a CKC member or not, he must, when selling a dog as purebred, contract to and later supply to the customer a certificate of registration showing that the transfer of ownership has been recorded. "The certificate is part and parcel of the dog," emphasizes the Secretary. "There is nothing wrong with the breeder bearing in mind the cost of obtaining the certificate when he sets the price to the

the old timer

"I wonder why more judges don't put them up?" the Old Timer asked.

My cue was obvious so I picked it up.

"Put what up?" I asked.

"Puppies. I've been watching the shows pretty closely. I've seen a lot of topflight youngsters — particularly those picked as Best Canadian Bred Puppies in Group and Show — but my recollection is that very few of them took the Winners' ribbon."

"But surely," I said "the puppy classes are primarily to give the puppy show ring experience. Then a lot of them are immature and finally, doesn't an owner admit when he puts his youngster in the puppy class that in his own opinion it's not ready to go to the top."

The Old Timer snorted. He'd been filling and lighting his pipe while we gossiped and he now had it drawing to his satisfaction. That meant he was ready to talk.

"Fiddlesticks," he said. "Certainly there's a belief among owners that if they are out for points it's almost obligatory that they enter their dog in the Open class. And statistics show that the vast majority of Winners come from the Open class. The owners, I think, are responsible for that because usually they won't put their good homebreds in Bred by Exhibitor or Canadian Bred but I think puppies are different."

"In what way," I asked. "Shouldn't puppies win on their merits? Are you suggesting that the judge say 'what a cute little puppy. I'll give it the points because it's so cute?' "

There was a trace of irritation in the Old Timer's voice.

"Certainly they should win on their merits," he said. "But I'm convinced that good puppies are deprived of points they should take simply because they are puppies.

"Let's take a look at Poodles for instance . . . a good puppy. True, some owners take a good youngster and put it into show clip and enter it in the Open class. But usually these puppies in show coat are not in full bloom. They find it hard to equal the elegance of a mature Poodle in full coat. So they suffer. The others, in puppy clip, advertise they are puppies. So the good ones in puppy clip too often don't get the consideration they deserve."

"Are you suggesting that the judge should make allowances for the puppy — should say to himself 'This is a promising youngster — I think next year he'll beat the Open dog, so I'll put him up today?' "

Again there was that trace of irritation.

"Of course I'm not," he said. "But I am suggesting that the puppy should be judged as is any other dog in the show, on exactly what he has to offer on the day of that particular show. The judge has no right, in my opinion, to judge on the future. The puppy is there today. The judge is there today. He should judge strictly on the basis of what is in front of him the day of the show.

"We all know, for instance, that there are breeds that mature early. At eight or nine months old they are ready to meet the mature dogs. But if they are entered in the Puppy class their chance of winning drops. But if the owner puts them in the Open they can and do go on to take the breed."

"Okay, what do you suggest?"

The Old Timer leaned back. He found his pipe had gone out so he lighted it again carefully. He shoved the old fedora on the back of his head.

"Mind you," he said "I can't see into a judge's mind. But if I could read his mind I think in many cases I'd get a message something like this. 'Gad, that's a promising puppy. Typey as they make them. And look at him move. Look at the reach with the forelegs and the way he's driving behind. And those firm hocks, good feet and pasterns and that lovely layback of shoulder. That's the one I'd take home — much better quality than that Open class winner. Think I'll shake 'em and put the puppy up. But maybe I'd better hedge a bit. The owner told me he isn't quite nine months old. A lot can happen to him in the next four or five months. He could fall apart, or with that maturity today he could go oversize or coarsen up and I might look like an idiot six or seven month from now. He's got lots of time. If nothing happens to him he'll get his points. Guess I'd better play it safe and give it to the Open dog. I'll give the puppy reserve. That way everybody will be happy.' "

"You think that happens?" I asked.

"I told you I wasn't a mind reader," the Old Timer said. "But it would be my guess that it happens just like that in a lot of cases. If it does it shouldn't. The judge, as you said, is there to judge the dogs on the day, not to look into the future. If the puppy has the quality on the day it should go up. Bear in mind the owner of the puppy has paid exactly the same entry fee as the owner of the older dog. In my opinion he's entitled to exactly the same consideration. I'm not sure he always gets it." □

Show Topics

At one of the shows in the Maritimes, Kerry Blue Terrier breeder Elisabeth Golby tells Dogs in Canada, the Kerry Blues were sitting on their benches with their keen terrier eyes watching the world go by, their bewhiskered faces impish and alert. A slightly inebriated gentleman made his way along the aisle, halted in front of the benched Kerries, swayed unsteadily before the benching and after taking a long, penetrating look at the dogs, exclaimed, "Holy mackerel, the Fathers of Confederation!"

It was after the Ottawa Kennel Club's November dog shows and Judge Kenneth Given of Syracuse was reminiscing about criticisms of exhibitors. As he recalls it the highlight of his career came at a cocktail party following a specialty show in the United States. During the party he was approached by one exhibitor, a woman, who let him know in no uncertain terms what she thought about his decisions in regard to her dogs.

"Lady," he told her, "if you were a man I'd chew your head off."

"And if you did," she answered, "you'd have more brains in your belly than you have in your head."

Mr. Givens, a man with a quick and ready wit, admits he hasn't yet thought of an appropriate reply to that one.

The Limestone City Obedience Club, Kingston, Ont., held its first graduation of the Beginners and Novice Classes November 23. Mrs. Grace Edwards of Toronto passed the majority of competing dogs. Much credit is due to Mrs. A. Hogeveen and Mrs. H. Hansen, the competent club trainers. The new classes begin early this month. Within a very short time the club membership has grown to 67.

The United Kennel Club sanction match held November 28 in Montreal attracted 171 dogs. In the Any Variety Puppy Class, David Thompson's German Shepherd, Normin Haus Airwin, captured top place in an entry of 60 youngsters. Mrs. Percy Adams' Skye Terrier, Roylaine's Talisman of Jordan, took BIS. BCBP in the regular classes was Vera Hampton's Afghan, Zarada's Salar Khurram. The German Shepherd competition drew 35 entries. The large terrier group drew 11 different breeds.

Four of the nine dogs entered in the Richmond Dog Training Club of Richmond, B.C. passed their tracking test (subject to CKC confirmation) and received their TD chamois and ribbons. The licensed tracking test was held at the end of last summer's tracking classes under President William Strutinski. RCMP Cpl. Ian Hall judged the competitors. Serving as apprentice judges were Mr. Strutinski and Lawrence Woch of Winnipeg. Cpl. Hall gave a demonstration and pointers on training and handling a tracking dog.

More than 42 retrievers will participate in the eight indoor retriever trials in the main arena of the Coliseum, Toronto, from March 11 to 19, states H. V. P. (Bumpy) Lewis, chairman of the dog show committee of the Canadian National Sportsmen's Show. An outdoor setting will again be simulated with trees, leaves, ponds and fences. Labradors and Goldens will again be plucking ducks from the water every afternoon during the eight days of the show from 4 to 6 p.m.

The winning dog each day goes into the ring before a capacity crowd (6,000) to give a brief demonstration of retrieving ability. Winners of the daily competitions meet on the final Saturday of the show to compete for the coveted Gold Whistle. Plans call for five or six dogs to compete each day in the elimination trials leading to the championship event. This is an

BY JAKE GIACOMELLI

How do you feel about the proposed Obedience regulations changes that have been appearing in Dogs in Canada lately?

As the proposed changes outlined in Dogs may soon become part of our regulations for Obedience Standards, a discussion of these rules would seem appropriate at this time.

I would like to make one point very clear. The ensuing comments are personal and do not necessarily represent the views of any other group or person.

The comments are based purely on how they strike me as an exhibitor; as a Judge who may be called upon to apply them in Canadian Trials in the future; as a Judge who has been using them in the United States for the past year.

Now!! Let's try some of these on for size!!

NO. 1 - (FROM OCTOBER, 1965 ISSUE, DOGS IN CANADA).
"The leash in the Novice Classes shall be about six feet long. Dogs shall not be picked up or carried in any Obedience ring."

Both of these changes seem quite sensible. I have often wondered when an exhibitor appeared at the end of a fairly short lead in the "Stand for Examination exercise, was it from naivity, or perhaps fear that his dog might break when the Judge examined it.

Picking up or carrying a dog inside an Obedience ring should be entirely unnecessary. Although I must confess I am aware of the apprehension that would cause the owner of a tiny Toy breed to carry his dog once he or she stepped out of the ring into a crowded exhibitors' area.

NO. 2:
In Chapter II, Section 3, in the third paragraph of our Obedience Regulations add the words "fouling the ring" after unjustified barking.

It is high time this change went into our rules — a dog doesn't look very obedient when he commits this social error. I can still hear that exhibitor's pleas — "I ran my dog around for about ten minutes, took him to every tree and bush I could find — not a drop! But as soon as I step into a ring — wow! Look out! Clean up boy!!!

NO. 3 - STAND FOR EXAMINATION
"The method by which the dog is made to stand or pose is optional with the handler who may take any reasonable time in posing the dog before deciding to give the command and/or signal to Stay. The leash shall be held clear of the floor when the handler is in position."

I am glad this has been clarified for the exhibitor — this should be of great help to him. It has been getting to the point in obedience circles that how the dog is stood was almost taking preference over the reason for the exercise in the first place, which is that the dog is "to stand in position before and during examination and to show no shyness nor resentment."

Remember now! Don't make too big a production of preparing your dog or the Judge might hit you with what he would consider an unreasonable time in posing your dog.

NO. 4 - RECALL
"Upon order or signal from the Judge, "Call your dog" the handler calls or signals the dog, which in the Novice Class must come straight in at a smart pace and sit immediately in front of the handler, and close enough so that the handler could readily touch it without moving his feet or having to stretch forward."

This clarifies as to how close "immediately in front" should be in our present regulations and therefore eliminates any doubt as to how the perfect performance should be done.

NO. 5 - RETRIEVE ON FLAT
"The dog shall sit straight immediately in front of its handler and close enough so that the handler can readily take the dumbell without moving his feet or having to stretch forward. The dumbell must be approved by the Judge. It may be painted or varnished but shall have no decorations or attachments. The size of the dumbell shall be proportionate to the size of the dog. The Judge shall require the dumbell to be thrown again before the dog is sent if, in his opinion, it is thrown too short a distance, or too far to one side, or against the ringside."

Here again is more clarification — this addition or change leaves no doubt as to how close the ideal retrieve should be. Although a personal opinion I am sure that "close enough so that the handler can readily take the dumbell without moving his feet or having to stretch forward" does not mean a dumbell retrieved to the point where the dog has it jammed into his owner's midriff or the front of his legs.

DR. JIM CORBIN MANAGER DOG RESEARCH

FAT IN THE DOG'S DIET

Some dog handlers grooming dogs for shows will add mutton tallow to the ration. This produces a hard firm "flesh" condition as contrasted to a soft flabby condition in dogs fed high levels of cod liver oil or corn oil. Others may add extra fat to the ration of growing pups in an attempt to produce more rapid growth. Sled dog drivers in the Far North, hauling and hunting for weeks at a time away from home, use high fat diets for their dogs since these supply concentrated energy and take up less valuable space on the sled. Fat is used to produce smooth glistening haircoats in dogs and as a carrier for vitamins in rations.

With so many varied uses for fat, it is easy to see that excess fats are frequently added to the dog's diet by well-meaning dog owners. All of us have the mental image that chunky, fat, sleek, fast-growing pups are the most desirable. When extra fats are added to the commercial ration by dog owners to increase growth rate, the pups sometimes become fatter and fail to grow normally. Supplemental fats in these instances supply the caloric needs of the pups before the other nutrient requirements have been met. Since dogs usually eat to satisfy their caloric requirements, it is easy to understand why they quit eating while still needing protein, vitamins and minerals.

Highly unsaturated fats, such as cod liver oil, corn oil, wheat germ oil, soybean oil and linseed oil, tend to become rancid easily. In the process of becoming rancid, they destroy the vitamins A, D and E in the ration. The well-meaning dog owner feeding these unsaturated fats may be producing a vitamin deficiency by the destruction of vitamin E in the body. The fats used in the manufacture of commercial rations are protected against rapid oxidation by the addition of retardants called antioxidants. The fats you use in the kitchen are stabilized with the same kind of materials that help prevent or retard the development of rancidity.

Good commercial rations like Dog Chow and Dog Meal contain all of the high quality fats needed by normal dogs for good skin condition, normal hair coat, growth, reproduction, and maintenance. Sometimes extra fat may be added without harming the dog if small quantities of fresh, good quality fats are used.

Fats contain more than twice as much energy as either carbohydrate or protein. An excess of any of these nutrients over the dog's requirement is stored in the body as fat. Older dogs and those receiving too little exercise sometimes tend to overeat and the excess energy is deposited as fat.

Your dog, receiving commercial dog foods, consumes a well-balanced diet with carefully selected levels of proteins, vitamins, minerals, carbohydrates and fats. Few people receive diets as well balanced as those fed to the dogs receiving prepared dog foods.

Most handlers should welcome "If, in the Judge's opinion, the dumbell is thrown too far to one side or against the ringside" he shall require it to be thrown over again before the dog is sent.

How many times have we seen dogs go around the Jump because the throw was too wide, or refuse to pick up the dumbell or even miss seeing it because it was flat against ringside.

Watch this one! "The dumbell must be approved by the Judge." So, when you come in the ring with a dumbell proportionate to the size of your dog I wouldn't come in with a featherlight dumbell — the Judge could want it proportionate in weight as well.

The American amendment to this rule (after so much controversy over the dumbell being made of one solid piece of the heavy hardwoods and splitting along the grain after it was thrown) reads as follows:

"A dumbell made of one piece of wood, or of two or three pieces of wood, is acceptable, provided it is made entirely of one of the heavy hardwoods and provided the wood is solid and has not been hollowed out."

"Whew! That's enough for the Retrieve!!

NO. 6 - SEEK BACK

Wherever the word "article" appears in this exercise it means "a plain glove", subject, of course, that it still must "not be conspicuous, nor white in color and must be approved by the Judge".

I rather like this one — the ominous thuds of articles being surreptitiously dropped may soon be a thing of the past.

NO. 7 - WORK SHEETS

"Judges may use separate score sheets for their own purposes, but shall not give out such sheets or any other written scores, nor permit anyone else to distribute score sheets or cards prepared by the Judge. Carbon copies of the sheets in the official Judge's Book shall be made available through the Superintendent or Show or Trial Secretary for examination by owners and handlers immediately after the prizes have been awarded in each Class."

I'm afraid this proposed change makes me a little sad. I fully realize the necessity of this rule going in across the border, due to the tremendous number of Trials they have, compared to us — you can just imagine the amount of correspondence that must have passed between exhibitor and AKC due many times, perhaps, to just minor errors in the compution of the work sheet by a Judge. However, I did not think that here in Canada this stage had arrived as yet. It is unfortunate that this piece of Canadiana in our Obedience Trials, so greatly treasured by our Canadian and American exhibitors, will soon be a thing of the past.

How does the song go? Que sera, sera!

NO. 8 - ANNOUNCEMENT OF SCORES

This proposed change replaces our Section 9 in Chapter III of the Regulations & Standards for Obedience Trials.

"The Judge shall not disclose any score or partial score to contestants or spectators until he has completed the judging of the entire Class or, in case of a split Class, until he has completed the judging of his division, nor shall he permit anyone else to do so. After all the scores for the Class are recorded the Judge shall call for all available dogs that have won prizes or qualifying scores to be brought into the ring. Before awarding the prizes, the Judge shall inform the spectators as to the maximum number of points for a perfect score, and shall then announce the score of each prize winner, and announce to the handler the score of each dog that has won a qualifying score."

No comment — it's self-explanatory.

NO. 9 - EXPLANATION AND ERRORS

"The Judge is not required to explain his scoring, and should not enter into any discussion with any contestant who appears to be dissatisfied. Any interested person who thinks that there may have been any arithmetical error or an error in identifying a dog may report the facts to one of the stewards or to the Superintendent or Show or Trial Secretary so that the matter may be checked."

Here again is a beneficial change, designed to eliminate the time-consuming things that tend to drag our Obedience Trials on interminably.

As long as the exhibitor has someone he can bring his "beef" to, the above rule should present no obstacle.

NO. 10:

To our present Section 12, Chapter III, the following paragraph has been added:

"A qualifying score must never be awarded to a dog whose performance has not met the minimum requirements, nor to a dog that shows fear or resentment, or that relieves itself at any time in an indoor ring, or that stops to relieve itself while performing any exercise indoors or outdoors, nor to a dog whose handler disciplines or abuses it in the ring."

Although I'm only speaking for myself, I'm fairly certain that every red-blooded obedience enthusiast will go along with the above addition.

NO. 11 - RING & EQUIPMENT

A new Section 14, to be added to Chapter III, and the remaining sections to be renumbered appropriately.

"The Superintendent and the officials of the Club holding the Obedience Trial are responsible for providing rings and equipment which meet the requirements of these regulations. However, the Judge also must check the ring and equipment provided for his use, and must report to The Canadian Kennel Club after the Trial any deficiencies that are not promptly corrected at his request."

This addition is just a further guarantee that the exhibitor will be working under proper ring conditions.

NO. 12 - SIT AND DOWN

In Chapter III, Section 18, amend the fourth sentence to read as follows:

"A dog which fails to remain in the sitting or down position, whichever is required by that particular exercise, for at least three quarters of the specified time in the Novice Classes, or until the handler has returned to the heel position in the Open Classes, and a dog that barks or whines, must receive less than 50% of the available points."

The addition here, you will note, is that a "dog that barks or whines" will now definitely not receive a qualifying score.

Personally I like this change, as I've heard some awful moans in the ring, with the handler standing less than 30 feet away from the dog. In fact, some dogs howled and barked so loudly that other dogs on either side of them broke — apparently to get away from the ear-splitting noise.

This penalty of less than 50%, I believe, applies to a more or less continuous barking and/or whining. I don't think the intent here is to fail a dog for a single bark or whine. A penalty, yes, but not a failure.

This discussion will be continued in next month's column. □

Anyone for Dog-Sitting?

In Great Britain the National Canine Defence has embarked on a new drive — trying to gather dog-sitters. When asked why dogs have to be sat with a spokesman replied: "Dogs get lonesome just like human beings. When owners are away they often want to be let out and let back in." The league hopes to see suitable dog sitters in every city in the country.

Lamb Chops and Kim Make Unusual Team

Under the affectionate guidance of little Kathline Dexter of Tupperville, N.S., her pet sheep Lamb Chops and German Shepherd, Kim, team up to haul a cartful of vegetables or wood. Lamb Chops is willing, but not quite as adept as the amiable canine half of the team — who hopes he won't be mistaken for a "sheepdog."

NATIONAL CHAMPION OF 1965
An eight year old black Labrador male, that has chalked up a remarkable number of points and earned Field Trial Championships on both sides of the border, has now added to his laurels by winning the National for the second time. We salute Nat'l. Ch. '63 and '65 Tar Baby's Little Sweet Stuff, and owner-handler Kenneth L. Carpenter of White Rock, B.C.

USA NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP
The winner, a black Labrador male, was F.T. Ch. Marten's Little Smokey, handled by "Cotton" Pershall and owned by John M. Olin.

OUTSTANDING CAREER
Mr. Rudy R. Deering's great Labrador, F.T. Ch. and USA F. and A.F.T. Ch. Captain of Lomac, qualified for the 1965 USA Open National Championship. Among his placings for the year were Firsts in both the Open and Amateur at the Puget Sound Retriever Club's August trial and First in the Open and Third in the Amateur at the North West Retriever Club's September trial. He was one of the four finalists in our Canadian National.

QUALIFIED FOR 1965 USA AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP
Apparently the only Canadian-owned dog to compete was Gerald D'Aoust's F.T. Ch. Du Cap's Black Beauty. Two dogs that qualified but were not entered were James M. Thomson's Ch. and F.T. Ch. and USA A.F.T. Ch. Stormy of Spirit Lake Gal and Charles Bjork's fine Labrador, F.T. Ch. Carnmony Billy Jo.

YELLOW LABRADOR F.T. CH. EARNS CHAMPIONSHIP
Mrs. Kay Robinson of Thornhill owns and handles what now is probably the only yellow Labrador in North America to have both titles. He is six year old Ch. and F.T. Ch. Don Head Barley Sugar.

JUNIOR CELEBRITIES
A litter whelped in December of 1963 and bearing the kennel prefix Mi-Cris of breeder Robert Pope of London, Ont. drew considerable admiration for their sparkling performances in Junior Stakes during the past season. They are out of Twink of Belle Isle by F.T. Ch. Highlander's Bojangles. At the end of October Mi-Cris of Hayden, a female, stood in second place with 54 points in the USA competition for top Derby dog of the year.

PRAIRIE DUCK POPULATION
More than half of North America's ducks are reared in Canada's three Prairie provinces. A survey last spring showed that breeding stock, and especially the mallard population, had decreased following recent drought years and overkills.

UNE MESURE DE CONSERVATION EFFICACE
Plusieurs authorités compétantes estiment que, pour chaque canard trouvé dans une gibecière, il y en a au moins un autre de blessé qui s'est échappé (et qui mourra plus tard) ou de tué et de perdu pour être tombé dans un endroit inaccessible au chasseur.

Une large proportion de ces canards pourrait être sauvée. Ayez votre bien entraînée chien rapporteur quand vous irez chasser. L'utilisation de chiens rapporteurs dans la chasse au gibier à plumes est une mesure de conservation tellement vitale que nous devons espérer que cet usage devienne un jour obligatoire.

(From a Montreal Gun Club bulletin. Editor M. Clement Seguin gives commands to his chien rapporteur, a black Labrador named Bar C's Black Lady, in French. Next time we hope to have these for you).

MORE ABOUT DYSPLASIA, FROM FIELD TRIAL NEWS
This is a report from Sweden on the inheritance of hip dysplasia in 64 litters of German Shepherds which totalled 405 dogs. Most of these were whelped in 1956 to 1961; 23 litters (150 pups) were from the Swedish Army Dog Training Center and the others from private kennels.

Radiographic examinations were performed on as many of these offspring as possible, actually on 319

Each winter in Canada, millions of fur-bearing animals will die slow agonizing deaths in leg-hold traps, unless we do something about it.

People like you and me cause this suffering because we forget what happens between the time the trap is sprung and the time (perhaps many days later) when the skin is collected to make the coat we wear with pride.

Our Association is promoting, by every means possible, the use of humane instant-killing traps.

HUMANELY SPEAKING

BY TOM HUGHES

"A TALE OF A DOG"

I want to tell you the tale of a dog. An ordinary, nice, lovable dog. Just an ordinary guy. Let's call him Joe. Honest Joe. He never bit anyone or even growled at anyone for that matter. He began his life in the normal way. He was born of a very ordinary bitch who gave him everything she had and a lot more. She cared for him and for all the litter with equal affection until nature asserted itself and she rejected her puppies.

One day Joe found himself picked up by a different and strange human hand. He wasn't to know it but the hand belonged to a "man". Knowing only kindness and love in his very short few weeks of life Joe did the only thing that comes naturally, he licked the man's hand. The man lifted Joe close to his face and, once again, Joe played it safe and went into his licking routine. Mark you it tasted a bit 'off' but then he had nothing to lose and everything to gain. And Joe gained indeed. He gained a new master. That day he was taken from his safe secure box that had been his only world and placed in a large smelly frightening "thing". The "thing" moved in a very alarming fashion and seemed to be moving although Joe couldn't see any legs. All he knew was that the "thing" rumbled and vibrated. Joe could see the Man sitting near him holding a round wheel and playing with pedals with his feet. Every now and then the Man would say strange words in a harsh voice and Joe was afraid. He didn't know that things were called "cars". He only knew his stomach was feeling very funny. Joe was very, very sick.

Evetually the car arrived and Joe was taken into a new strange home. He was given a nice new clean kennel in the basement. And he had lots of new playmates. They seemed a lot like "Man" but much smaller. They were little "Man". And they laughed a lot and sometimes cried. But mostly they played with Joe and Joe loved every minute of it. He got lots of funny food and sometimes he was sick. Sometimes he just couldn't help making a mistake. And then everyone was very funny. They shouted at him and chased him and tried to rub his nose on the wet concrete. It seemed like a strange sort of a game but it was all good fun. The only trouble was that everytime Joe made a mistake he was finally caught and after the nose rubbing routine was over he was thrown out through the back door of the house. And Joe was very frightened — at first. He would sit and cry and whimper to be allowed in again. Generally one of the little "people" would let him in almost immediately but if the "Man" was around he was left out for what seemed like hours.

Gradually Joe became used to being thrown out and even made a mistake intentionally just to get out. But he hated that nose rubbing bit so, instead, he began to cry just inside the door. And sure enough whenever he did that someone would rush to the door to let him out. This was wonderful. Soon Joe began to prefer to be outside in the new and exciting world than indoors in the basement.

And the outside world was very strange and very exciting. Most exciting of all were the other dogs that Joe met. Especially a very handsome and rather rakish looking Beagle that only lived round the corner. Although Joe somehow sensed that he shouldn't do it he began to chum around with the Beagle. Of course Joe know the Beagle was much older than he was but he was about the same size and he was very friendly.

One day Joe was "thrown out" just when the little people were going somewhere. Joe didn't know where. But Beagle seemed to know and so Joe thought he might as well follow him. He figured he would get into trouble but what the heck. You only live once and this was pretty exciting.

The little people met other little people and other dogs. They all seemed to know where they were going. Oh boy, what a life. This was better than having your nose rubbed on the smelly old concrete. Everyone laughed a lot and all the dogs were getting very excited and barking and jumping up. Joe knew that he got slapped everytime he jumped up at people at home but somehow no one seemed to care today. So he barked, jumped and ran with the rest. Finally they all arrived at a very large house and the children met other children. Joe noticed that one little girl was carrying a brown paper bag. It smelled delicious. And the little girl kept waving it around just in front of Joe's nose. Suddenly Joe grabbed the bag and ran just far enough away from the little girl that she couldn't catch him. After all who knew if this wouldn't lead to some strange routine. Maybe they would rub his nose in the bag. And why not? It not only smelled nice it tasted nice.

And so Joe crawled under some bushes on the side of the play ground and began to eat the contents of the bag. He didn't notice a large "Man" coming towards him until the "Man" was very close. He was a strange "Man" but he had a very nice comforting smell. He smelled more like Joe than a "Man". Maybe he was a "dog-man"?? And when the 'dog-man' spoke to Joe and held out his hand Joe simply couldn't resist going towards him. And what else to do but lick the dog-man's hand. It had always paid off before. But this time Joe's luck ran out. The nice smelly hand suddenly grabbed Joe by the scruff of the neck and swung him off the ground. Before he knew what was happening Joe found a thin rope round his neck. And before he could do anything Joe was in the back of one of those "things' called cars again. Only this time there was no nice leather seat: just a dark, cold, box affair that smelled of nothing but other dogs and yet not quite like most dogs. Rather like the smell of the dog that Joe had found one day off the side of the road. A dog that was very cold and didn't move — ever. And Joe was very afraid. He cried; he whined; he made mistakes all over the place, he was even sick. But nothing happened except that a very large dog tried to bite him.

Joe finally curled up in a corner of the box and hoped for the best. Surely someone would find him. He began to shiver although he wasn't that cold. Somehow he just couldn't stop. The car began to move. Every now and then the door opened and Joe could see light. Everytime the door opened another dog was thrown in. Joe wouldn't have minded very much if he had been thrown out but he wondered why dogs had to be thrown 'in'. Soon there wasn't much room for more dogs. And the smell was awful. Even for a dog.

But everything comes to an end sooner or later and finally Joe and all the other dogs in the back of the car were taken out and thrown into a sort of 'yard'! At least it was very like the back yard at Joe's home. It had wire fencing all round it and there were old boxes and the ground smelled of lots of other dogs. This must be the "dog's home" that Joe had often heard his own "Man" say he would send him to if he didn't stop making mistakes. Well, so far it wasn't too bad. But he could do with a drink. After all he had run a long way. Joe checked the entire "yard". No water. Finally Joe tried licking the ground that seemed damp. But all he got was a mouthful of mud.

by ALEX STRATICHUK

The 1965 National Stake, hosted by the Algoma Retriever Association, was run off October 1, 2, 3 at Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. The winner was 1963 Canadian N.C. FTC - AFTC - CFC - Tar Baby's Little Sweet Stuff, BLM - 4/20/57, owned and handled by K. L. Carpenter of White Rock, B.C. The winner ran against 30 other very good competitors. With his win, he became the second two-time winner of the Canadian National Stake, matching the record of 1959-62 Canadian NC FTC Rhett of Coldwater (2nd).

Of 34 entered, 31 started the three day trial run, in what could at best be described as miserable weather. With temperatures hovering near freezing, rain, sleet, occasional snow and winds that gusted to 58 mph., the trial proved to be a most trying experience for handlers, dogs and spectators.

In spite of the weather, the three judges, Mr. Richard Lee of Burnaby, B.C., Mr. L. Hough of Saskatoon, Sask., and Mr. G. V. Joyce of Scarborough, Ont., were able to plan 10 tests that most certainly allowed the winner to show that he deserved the title of 1965 Canadian National Champion.

Of particular satisfaction to the Field Trial Committee, as well as others, was the fact that the win came at what could be called a truly "national" trial.

As at every trial, National or other, success is achieved only if the mechanics and other arrangements are good. The Committee was fortunate in having an abundance of experienced help for throwing, gunning, traffic control, bird and equipment management, and marshalling. The job of chief marshal was taken on at the last moment by Mr. Warren Bailey who substituted for Mr. George Pryor, who was suddenly taken ill.

OBEDIENCE ROUNDUP

Here's the story on this fast-growing sport from coast to coast — the rare game in which neither extreme youth nor age is a deterrent.

BURLINGTON KENNEL & OBEDIENCE CLUB

THE club is endeavoring to interest children — the obedience people of the future — in obedience training. We have children ranging from seven to 14 years with breeds from Toy Manchesters to Bulldogs doing very well.

We are particularly pleased with a seven year old lad who trained his Samoyed. The parents approached us, after being turned down by other clubs, as they were anxious to have him mingle with people. He had a speech problem which caused him to be shy and retiring. Although he was only seven we accepted him and at the end of ten weeks he was chatting with all the Trainers. You see they had a common interest, "Dogs & Obedience." He is nine now. His parents tell us this was the start of overcoming his shyness. He is now active in school activities and Cubs.

We find with children — they listen — they work — they seldom miss classes — they ask intelligent questions — AND THEY ALWAYS TURN UP FOR GRADUATION.

— Miss Miriam M. Stacey

COASTAL CANINE ACADEMY

If every dog that works to perfection in his backyard gained degrees at trials, there would be more Obedience Champions than Show Champions, and that would be hard to beat.

I get so tired of people wondering why their dogs won't work at Trials or demonstrations. There is one answer, the owners will not take their dogs out into the world to go through their paces. It takes nerve and time.

We have a perfect example in our club. Mrs. Luke's dogs work beautifully. People say sheer magic. It isn't. It is sheer hard work. Everyday the dogs get a work out — maybe only five minutes — at a shopping centre, parking lot, a friend's house or inside a strange hall. The dogs have learned that anywhere, anytime is obedience time. You can't distract those dogs, they are immune to noise.

As a side affect of Mrs. Luke's working her dogs in public people learn about obedience, come to class and pass on the good word.

Now, from the owner's side it takes nerve to set up little portable jumps and start working your dog in a shopping mall. I know, I have done it, and felt a nut! But wait awhile, you find a group of interested people watching you, not laughing or making wisecracks. Now it is up to you to create a good impression of dog obedience. Do all the things you have read in good obedience books. Praise your dog, use very little arm movement in leash corrections. Except for commands, keep up a happy chatter to your dog, have his tail wagging, head up and work fast — more praise. Then even if the little old lady (who was founder member of the local S.P.C.A.) turns up, she will approve of you and obedience.

If you use harsh methods, spike collars, etc at home, don't try the above. Your dog, who never lies, will let you down by crawling in to you and only give a nervous tail wag in answer to your stream of happy talk.

So to all of you who have nothing to hide in your methods of training, get out and about, train your dog, advertise obedience to the new owners and pass at the next trial.

— Mrs. Ann Whitton

FUNDY DOG TRAINING CLUB

Greetings from the Fundy Dog Training Club of Saint John, N.B. Our club was formed in January 1963 and although we do not meet regularly our training classes are quite active. These classes are under the direction of our President, Mrs. Ruth Tyner, who has excellent cooperation from the club members, especially Mrs. Ralph McKinney, who took over one whole class when the need arose.

Five dogs trained under Mrs. Tyner have obtained their CD and several others have at least one leg. Our outstanding dog, Teirick's Kim owned by Dr. Mitchell Levine, obtained her CD in three straight trials and is well on her way for her American and Canadian CDX.

Our first trial was held in August 1965 at the Atlantic National Exhibition, in conjunction with the N.B. Kennel Club Shows. Our judge, Mr. Edward O'Brien.

Our officers are: President, Mrs. Tyner; Vice-President, Dr. Levine; Secretary, Miss Marjorie Macintyre; Treasurer, Mrs. Ralph McKinney.

GERMAN SHEPHERD DOG CLUB OF CANADA

In 1965, the birth of the Toronto Obedience Branch of the German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada heralded a new era in training and promotion of the German Shepherd dog. While conducting training classes throughout the year the branch also held two obedience trials, a tracking test as well as starting the first working demonstration of its kind in Canada.

With 13 dogs and handlers comprising the team, they put on demonstrations before audiences ranging from the dog crowd at the Sportsmen's Show, through a community centre before children on the streets of east Toronto, to old folks homes in Shelbourne and Toronto as well as before crowds numbering over a thousand in a shopping plaza. The original concept of the demonstration was taken from the Royal Tattoo in England, where the accent was on the service dog being a working shepherd specializing in feats of agility, balance and courageous devotion to duty.

The demonstration commenced with a drill team performing a routine encompassing all phases of novice work and went on to display individual specialty acts that showed a little girl and her dog performing CDX, while other dogs performed jumping exercises with flaming hoops and extensive ladder work. The difficulty of the ladder work was amplified by the dog carrying a raw egg during her act. They further showed many parlor tricks by a bitch who also displayed her proficiency in utility exercises, followed by another shepherd that performed tunnel work. The prowess of the shepherd at jumping was further enhanced by a male shepherd who successfully scrambled over an eight foot high wall to go on to leap a 20 foot broad jump.

The final two acts were as different as night and day as they have made the shepherd world famous as a working dog for both guard work and leading the blind. First, a dog protected an article on command from three men going on to protect his master who came under attack by a hidden assailant. The controlability of the dog in this type of work was proven by the dog coming off his attack on a single command. He then displayed his friendliness to members of the audience with gusto and a wag of the tail. The next dog out was a leader dog, who proceeded to lead her blind master around obstacles set up in the ring.

From these demonstrations in 1965 will come bigger and better demonstrations in 1966, from which the branch hopes will come a better image of the shepherd in the public's eye. We have seen trained dogs in working demonstrations before that have come from many countries to perform on movies and television, but it is good to know that we have a working demonstration every bit as good right here in Toronto.

HUB CITY KENNEL AND OBEDIENCE CLUB

This club has been active all through the year, with the exception of the three summer months.

We find it rather difficult and unrewarding to hold training classes during June, July and August since regular attendance of the trainees is essential and vacations etc. make this impossible.

However, we have completed three 11-week classes in Novice work and are starting a new class early in January.

In spite of this very few of our dogs enter the trials, which is discouraging to our trainers. There would seem to be several reasons for this condition. Some, of course, are unable to compete, as we accept any dog for obedience training whether eligible for Trials or not, but mostly it seems that the owners are not interested in degrees, ribbons or awards but are satisfied to have a well trained and manageable animal, which, of course, is actually the prime purpose of obedience training.

I was wondering, however, if other clubs are having this experience and if so what steps they take to overcome it. We, as a "show-giving" club are naturally anxious to get dogs into the trials but cannot force the issue.

LABRADORS AND OBEDIENCE

During the past few years I have been working dogs — Labradors — in both Obedience and Field Trials. I have seen an increasing number of instances at obedience trials where as soon as a supposedly well-trained dog has finished his exercises in the ring, his handler puts him on leash and leads him away. If this dog, which is trying for his CDX or UD title, can work off lead in the ring, he should be sufficiently reliable to go out of the ring, heeling free.

Dogs, which work like robots in the ring, are not necessarily obedience trained to do anything other than the prescribed exercises in exact order in the ring. The dog which is the only one in a home with loving owners may be spoiled, but the chances are that if his owners have taken him to a basic obedience course he will be more responsive and better trained than a litter mate who is one of several dogs at a kennel, and who is only worked on the same exercises day after day until a degree of perfection is obtained. A house pet will have an automatic response to obedience commands if his owners are strict with him in and around the home.

One of the better known and well respected obedience judges here in southern Ontario has often said that he hates to see an unhappy dog doing a perfect job in the ring. At a recent trial he had the pleasure of giving a perfect score to a young Labrador, and when he presented the trophy and the ribbon said, "I often complain about judges giving out too many perfect scores but this one was truly earned." This perfect score was in the Utility class and was won by a dog who is not yet two years old. He has been trained and handled to his obedience titles by his owner, a novice handler. I know from personal association with this particular dog that his work is carried far beyond the ring. He belongs to a family that lives in the heart of Toronto and, although he is their pride and joy, is well behaved and obedient at all times.

When puppies leave us here at Wimberway to go to their new homes, their owners usually keep in touch with us and we urge them to take their pups to regular obedience classes and, if possible, to continue their work in licensed trials.

Two interesting points were mentioned recently by the owners of one of our dogs, who had been through an obedience course, and these were 1) that the obedience instructor insisted that whoever started training the dog must continue the course, and, 2) that there may be no substitution of handlers.

I know a young couple in the States who jointly trained a Papillon; one put him through to his UD title in Canada and the other to his UD title in the States. In both countries, his scores were in the 190's.

Realizing that a pet should obey all members of the family equally well, I feel, with all deference to the obedience instructors and despite any confusion that it may temporarily create for the class instructor, that any member of a dog's family should be able to take over at any time, particularly in the event of absence due to out-of-town business trips or illness on the part of the "official" trainer. This would enable the dog to keep working on his exercises and would avoid his missing any classes in the course which might otherwise be totally lost and never recovered.

To obtain the end product of good obedience training and a return of obedience trialing for pleasure, not for trophy-hounding or frantic collecting of scores, let the trainers seriously consider what they are trying to achieve, then let them set about bringing their plans to fruition. Let the upcoming novice trainer-handler be given every encouragement and, where necessary, praise or assistance. Let us see obedience-trial-winning dogs who are absolutely obedient and completely reliable, not only at the trials but also in the home and on the street, where training really counts.

MOUNTAIN CITY OBEDIENCE CLUB

The club, (Montreal, Que.) will hold three licensed Obedience Trials the weekend of May 28, 29, 1966 on the beautiful campus grounds of MacDonald College, Ste-Anne-de-Bellevue, with all the usual facilities. This is an ideal location for an outdoor trial with no interference from traffic, or other diversions and offers plenty of space for parking, picnics, exercise area etc., and the three trials offer an added advantage to obtain a degree in the one weekend. It is hoped that old friends and new will attend.

NORTH YORK OBEDIENCE CLUB

The club has succeeded in hitting the spotlight for effort and accomplishment with a lot of fun and good fellowship in 1965, which will probably interest all other friendly clubs who have put on well managed shows for us to compete in.

During 1965, the club put on three

Matinee shows, one a combined effort with The All Terrier Club of Canada All-Breed Sanction Show, our annual June Official Kennel Club Trial — all well attended and many legs on degrees received by Canadians and Americans. In 1966 we hope to make our June Trial a combined Indoor and Outdoor Trial.

Val Linkvist's German Shepherd obtained his UD in three straight shows, another UD reached by Leoni Sparkes and we hope they try for Dog of Year Trophy for five shows in one year donated by Ontario Obedience Association.

Outstanding accomplishments in 1965 by other members of North York Obedience Assoc. at CKC Trials who received degrees are summarized as follows: 6 CD degrees (4 of them in 3 straight shows), 4 CDX, 2 UD.

Many other members have received one and two legs on CD and CDX and UD.

Our club also provided 13 of our dogs for a movie film called "The Trial" — a courtroom drama of all dogs and one cat with no human voice, sound effects and acting by dogs. Human captions were shot on as dogs "spoke". The film was produced by Dr. Chas. Phillips and entered the famous "photographic Society of America Contest". The judges were most impressed with what our dogs could do with obedience training and may show the film on the Continent as a short 20 min. film. Dr. Phillips put the film on for our club and we were very proud of our movie star dogs!

We also donated money for the Retarded Children's Home in 1965.

OBEDIENCE IN MANITOBA

Not too many years ago, before Obedience came of age here in Manitoba, if you had an obedience trained dog, this fact was carefully hidden from the breed judge when showing a dog. Fortunately, this unhealthy attitude has disappeared. 1963 marked a milestone in this respect when at one combined show and trial, the BIS won a qualifying score in obedience, and the Highest Scoring Dog in Trial placed 3rd in Group. Both these dogs were locally owned and trained.

In 1965 there were seven Obedience Trials held, and one (our first) tracking test, and while these events attracted many out-of-province people, Manitoba provided a good number of the entries.

Three clubs in Winnipeg conduct Obedience classes, which by the way are always full; one All-Breed club, one Obedience Club, and one Specialty, and the best thing that has happened to the dog game in the past 25 years is the cooperation that exists between these clubs.

Entertainment has been provided on several occasions during the past year for Senior Citizen's Groups and for Handicapped and Retarded children, with displays of both unusual breeds and Obedience work, simply one more way in which Breed and Obedience happily combine.

Before we dislocate our arm by patting ourselves on the back however, we should note that all activity is centered in Winnipeg. The next logical step is to spread more widely throughout the province. Just so long as we continue to look outward, progress must continue.

THE OBEDIENCE ASSOCIATION (ONTARIO)

A group of doggy folks met at 23 Maynard Street, Toronto, on July 12, 1953, for the purpose of ironing out many problems in Obedience Trials. It was resolved to form an Association of obedience-minded people in Ontario to approve and train judges and ring stewards, assist show-giving clubs with information, trophies, etc. and to see that rules and regulations at Obedience Trials are carried out properly.

It was suggested we seek to have a representative on the CKC Board. An Association was formed and called The Obedience Association (Ont.) A Constitution was drawn up and the meetings were held in the homes. The first regular meeting took place on September 15, 1953 at Cooksville; 11 members were present.

In 1954 a school of apprentice judges was held every two weeks. The penalty guide was compiled in 1954. On June 5, 1954 a Trial was held at Kohler Youth Centre. On September 13, 1954 the Steward Guide was submitted and approved. On March 9, 1954 a judge's examining committee, in accordance with the new regulations on Obedience Judges, was appointed.

In 1957 a second Trial was held and different clubs joined the association as member clubs. In April, 1964 we had 21 member-clubs and 30 individual members. Nearly all of these clubs were active in one way or another.

The first convention was held in Burlington in 1960. Since then we have held a convention and fun frolic every year at Ancaster. The purpose of the convention and fun frolic is to get people from all over Ontario together to create good fellowship among the member clubs. We had a splendid attendance at all of these conventions and everyone said they had a good time.

In the last five years we have accomplished many things. We have supplied ring stewards, graduation judges, trainers for new clubs just starting up, helped with elections, sent guest speakers and showed films on Obedience to many clubs. We have sent pamphlets out to the clubs, consisting of suggestions for Obedience committees, hand books for Trial Secretaries, for Trial Chairmen, Steward guides and Penalty guides.

In 1965 the Association, in an effort to encourage the continued participation of Utility Dogs in Ontario Trials, offered a trophy for Utility Dog achieving the highest combined score in five trials under five different Judges.

I hope the member clubs, after reading this article, will realize that the Obedience Association (Ont.) is a wonderful organization and much credit goes out to those first few members who started it back in 1953. Their faith in Obedience and their hard work has made Obedience what it is today. And we as members must continue on with this work and we will endeavour to improve obedience. With the cooperation of the member clubs and with your support this could become the greatest organization in the history of Obedience.

Our motto — unity is strength.

— Louise Diamond

PETERBOROUGH AND DISTRICT OBEDIENCE CLUB

P.A.D.O.C. have found out that the biggest percentage of people do not start Obedience training to gain titles, but for the sole purpose of having better-behaved dogs.

We have found that by starting our classes with a demonstration of all phases of Obedience work and a talk from the trainer on the proper equipment, what is to be expected from both handler and dog, stressing here the importance of patience and good sportsmanship, and that the hand must be used only for feeding, petting and grooming (these things she insists upon) it eliminates questions and explanations during work periods and these same people are now thinking of ring work, which we encourage. We have hunters with their hunting dogs, they claim it makes better hunting dogs, show folks who claim it has steadied their dogs, helping them gain their title.

Fascinating it must be; we have handlers that drive 30-60, and two that drive 100 miles for 30 minutes' work every Monday night, winter and summer. Two P.A.D.O.C. members hold UD titles for Dachshunds. We believe these were the second and third to hold such.

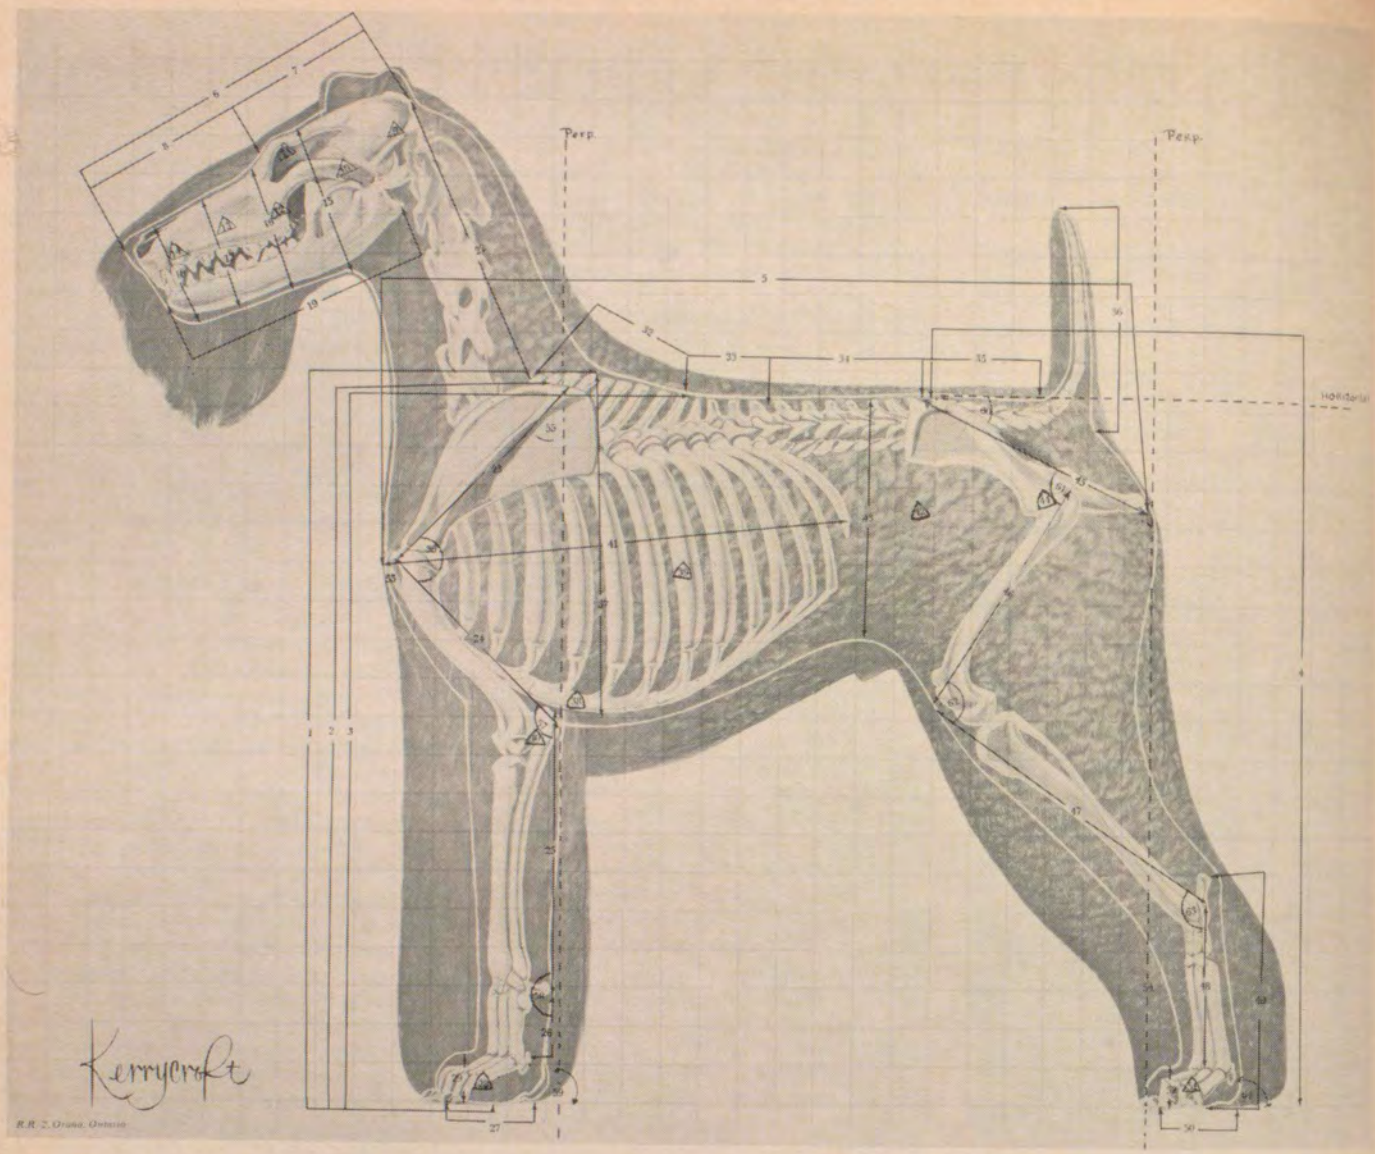

The members of the P.A.D.O.C. hope that Obedience work will always maintain its present high standards and good sportsmanship.

RIVER VALLEY OBEDIENCE CLUB

At our November meeting it was decided to offer a trophy in memory of Robert Little, who was a great inspiration to all of us and is greatly missed by all obedience-minded people in our area.

Congratulations were extended to Mac Bongard and his Chesapeake, Sunpoke Rastus, who was the highest scoring New Brunswick dog in all trials held here this year. Mickey Joe, a tiny Chihuahua, and Mrs. John Freed, his owner, made a wonderful showing on their first try at obedience, being the highest scoring dog in Novice A at three trials. Another of

MEASURING

PART TWO:

Second in a series by Mrs. Dennis Gardiner on "Common Deviations which Arise When Appraising Dogs for R.O.C.". This article on "measuring" is reprinted from the remarkable book "Record of Canine Characteristics" produced by Mrs. Gardiner.

MEASURING IS NOT THE END ALL OR BE ALL — BUT IT IS A BEGINNING!

1. It is an orderly approach to learning.
2. It is a means of learning how to identify those aspects of a dog which contribute to the whole animal.
3. It is a means of teaching you to know the placement, the feel and the relationship of each component part of the skeletal structure in conjunction with a good basic functional anatomy book.
4. It is a means of training your eye to react automatically and visualize 6 inches as 6 inches, 45 degrees as 45 degrees, etc., with a reasonable degree of accuracy. An approach, which in the final analysis will enable you to pick the same dogs as "the fellow with the eye". However, you will have the "why" as well as the "eye"!
5. It is a means of keeping records for the present and future use of breeders, geneticists, scientists, etc.

Always bearing in mind you are measuring a living creature and complete accuracy is not possible, therefore we all must use a uniform method of procedure.

TOOLS

GONIOMETER is used in measuring the angles. It is a circle marked off with 360 degrees with one stationary arm and one which is moveable, it may be obtained at any surgical supply house. If the Goniometer is unavailable you can make up a similar instrument by using a protractor from any geometry set, attaching a stationary arm and a moveable arm.

CALIPERS are used for measuring lengths, widths and depths. The caliper is a graduated rod or rule with one fixed and one sliding jaw. This is a do-it-yourself project. The large wooden one, marked off in inches, may be any desired length. The smaller one is a 12" T square, available at any hardware store, on which a 4" by ¾" stationary arm has been welded.

PROCEDURE

1. Have your grooming stand steady and level and use your grooming arm to control the dog.
2. We have given you the measurements of a 19 inch Kerry as a guide — these measurements do represent our interpretation of the ideal (they may not be perfect), but they will give you a basis for comparison.

3. The numbers between the arrows denote the lengths and depths and are taken from the side view of the dog.
4. The numbers in the triangles denote that you measure the widths at these points.
5. The numbers in the semi circles denote the angles.
6. The results of your measuring may be kept on the R.O.C. forms, available from Kerrycroft, or you can make up your own forms for kennel use.
7. In conclusion, do not attempt to measure the whole dog the first time, experiment and constantly compare your figures with those given, a leeway of 5 to 10 degrees at the angles is plausible; and your measurements of the bone, etc., will be approximately in ratio to the height of your dog at the withers. It will definitely take perseverance before you become adept at measuring, but with practice you should be able to measure a dog in about a half hour.

1-SIZE

1 HEIGHT — tip of withers (19") 3rd thoracic vertebra
2 HEIGHT — tip of shoulder (18¾")
3 HEIGHT — base of withers (18¼") 9th thoracic vertebra
4 HEIGHT — tip of pelvis (18½") this is also about the 7th lumbar vertebra
5a LENGTH TOPLINE (13¼") from the base of neck to the base of the tail
5 LENGTH OVERALL (20½" taken from whichever is forward, the tip of the sternum or the shoulder joint to lower tip of pelvis (pinbone) — 5 & 5a you compress and take the shortest measurement, for uniformity.
WEIGHT

5-HEAD

6 LENGTH OVERALL — (8¾") from back of occiput to tip of the nose
7 LENGTH OF SKULL — (4¼") from back of occiput to indentation of the skull in upper inner corner of the eye.
9 WIDTH SKULL — at ears (4⅛") across the skull at the foremost part of the opening in the skull for the ears
10 WIDTH SKULL — at cheeks (4") across the widest portion of the cheekbones
11 WIDTH SKULL — at eyes (3½") across the skull just above the eyes
15 DEPTH SKULL — (4") at the deepest portion
8 LENGTH MUZZLE — (4½") from the indentation in the upper inner corner of the eye to the tip of the nose
19 LENGTH JAW — lower (6½") from behind the lower jaw to the front of the teeth
12 WIDTH MUZZLE — at molars (3⅛") just below the eyes across the molars
16 DEPTH MUZZLE — at molars (3⅛")
13 WIDTH MUZZLE — midway (2¾")
17 DEPTH MUZZLE — midway (2¾")
14 WIDTH MUZZLE — at canines (2⅜")
18 DEPTH MUZZLE — at canines (2⅜")
20 LENGTH EAR (3⅝") measure from where the cartilage at the top front of the ear joins the skull to the tip
21 WIDTH EAR (2") measure the widest portion of the cartilage

6-NECK

22 NECK (9") pull head down and forward to extreme length for uniform results.

7-FOREQUARTERS

53 STERNUM (¾" ahead of shoulder joint) this is a means of checking the placement of the forequarter assembly on the rib cage, and recording whether the sternum is ahead, level or behind the shoulder joints
30 HEIGHT ELBOW TO GROUND (10¼") these measurements designate as to whether the dog is or is not upstanding, etc.
31 HEIGHT ELBOW TO WITHERS (8¾")
40 WIDTH ACROSS ELBOWS (6½") taken from the front across the elbows (In measuring the various bone lengths of fore and hind quarters bend the joints at both ends of the bone as nearly right angles as possible and measure overall.)
23 LENGTH OF SHOULDER (6½") Scapula, from tip of shoulder over bent shoulder joint 24 LENGTH OF UPPER ARM (6½") Humerus, over bent shoulder and elbow joints
25 LENGTH OF LOWER ARM (7½") Radius & Ulna over bent joints
26 LENGTH PASTERN (1⅞") Carpal & Metacarpal bones, over bent joints
27 LENGTH PAW (2¼")
28 WIDTH PAW (2")
29 DEPTH PAW (1⅜")

8-BODY

(A) TOPLINE & TAIL spinal column
(32 to 35 compress and take the shortest measurement, for uniformity.)
32 LENGTH WITHERS (4") First 9 thoracic vertebrae
33 LENGTH BACK (2¼") last 4 thoracic vertebrae
34 LENGTH LOIN (4") 7 lumbar vertebrae
35 LENGTH CROUP (3") measured from last lumbar vertebrae to base of tail
36 LENGTH TAIL (6")
(B) CHEST
37 DEPTH CHEST (9") from tip of withers to base of sternum
38 WIDTH CHEST behind the elbows (5½") these two measurements are taken from above with the caliper arms down sides of chest
39 WIDTH CHEST spring of ribs (6½")
41 LENGTH CHEST (12¼") from tip of sternum to behind last rib
(C) ABDOMEN
42a LENGTH FLANK (2½") from last rib to hip bone
42 WIDTH ABDOMEN (5")
43 DEPTH ABDOMEN (6")

9-HINDQUARTERS

44 WIDTH REAR (7") place calipers over dog from rear over hip joints.
45 LENGTH HIP BONE (6½") Ilium, Ischium, and Pubes
46 LENGTH UPPER THIGH (6½") Femur, from hip joint over bent stifle
47 LOWER THIGH (8¾") Fibula & Tibia, from bent stifle joint over hock joint 48 LENGTH HOCK (4") Tarsals & Metatarsals
49 LENGTH HOCK (6") from tip of hock to ground
50 LENGTH PAW (2½")
51 WIDTH PAW (2")
52 DEPTH PAW (1⅜")

ANGLES

The center of the goniometer is placed on the center of the angle to be taken, one arm is placed along one side of the angle, and the other arm along the other side, and a reading is taken.
55 SHOULDER TO PERPENDICULAR (45°) Scapula to perpendicular
56 SHOULDER TO UPPER ARM (90°) shoulder joint
57 UPPER ARM TO LOWER ARM (135°) elbow joint
58 LOWER ARM TO PASTERN (175° - 180°) pastern joint 59 PASTERN TO PAW (85° - 90°) pastern to ground when measuring 60 SLOPE OF HIP BONE (30°) to the horizontal 60a SLOPE OF CROUP (15°) to the horizontal
61 HIP TO UPPER THIGH (90°) hip joint
62 UPPER THIGH TO LOWER THIGH (90°) stifle joint
63 LOWER THIGH TO HOCK (125°) hock joint
64 HOCK TO PAW (90°) hock to ground for measuring STRIDE — Put non irritating coloring on paws — one color front another on the rear, or different color each paw — run over cement — or on long strips of paper — measure from center of right from track to right front track, etc. □

by STANLEY DANGERFIELD

I'm Only trying to help!

(Upgrade the worst to the standard of the best — not the other way)

IN the thirties most tourists who spent a day in Bombay returned home to write a book about India.

I could be similarly accused of writing about the dogs of Canada after judging at a single show. Except, that is, for one thing. I did not write about the dogs in Canada. I wrote about the dogs I saw in Canada.

One sentence I wrote has been singled out by critics. It reads:- "In the two days I saw more bad dogs than I have ever seen at a show before".

It might be as well to mention at this point that the next sentence was, "I also, and I must emphasize this, saw some startlingly good ones".

I further opined that it was far too easy to make up Champions in Canada with, "The sad truth is that any dog, and I do not even mean any reasonable dog, can become a champion, and most of them do. In hosts of breeds there is only one dog and one bitch on parade. Mere attendance earns them one point and when they have ten of these points which they can pick up in as many weeks owing to the abundance of shows, up goes the magic title."

Why write like this about the dogs of a country which has been very hospitable? The answer is because it's the truth as I see it. And the truth as I see it is what my paper pays me to write. It is what any paper pays any journalist to write.

Let me explain that this was not an isolated or deliberately sensational article. For years past I have written a weekly column in the British paper Our Dogs. It deals with shows, show dogs and show goers. Although outspoken it is not malicious. It praises far more often than it blames. When criticism is earned however, and I am thinking of British shows now, I don't shirk the issue.

Being fortunate, I travel the world judging dog shows. What I see is reported as faithfully as possible in the following week's issue.

Apart from keeping the wolf from my door this serves the useful purpose of keeping British dog breeders in the picture. From reports sent home this year alone they know the standards which are set in a dozen different countries in the world from Brazil to Singapore. Even from one the other side of the 'Iron Curtain'.

When I see systems and dogs abroad which are better than those at home, I write about them. This rarely receives one hundred per cent approval because not every breeder or show executive here wants to be shaken out of complacency. Not every Poodle breeder here, for example, was overjoyed when I wrote that I had seen in Canada not one but four Standard Poodles which could beat our best. But I saw it as the truth so I wrote it.

The starting point has to be a comparison with what the British showgoer knows. Some shows therefore are mentioned as being below our standards. Others as brighter, slicker and more glamorous. Some are bigger (?); some smaller. Some breeds are better abroad. Some are worse. The reader knows about Britain and I use what he knows as a yardstick for comparison.

Consequently when I write about the title of Champion in Canada I have to tell him that by our standards, it is ludicrously easy to acquire.

In Britain it is extremely hard. There are only 24 championship shows a year plus some 2,000 odd other shows at which there are no challenge certificates (points if you will) available.

The smallest of these 24 championship shows has over 3,000 dogs. The largest exceeds 8,000. A popular breed like Miniature Poodles mustered 301 animals at Cruft's last year. To win a Challenge Certificate (three gives him the title) a dog had to beat all the other 150 of its sex, including the 10 champions that were present. We do not make competition easier by subtracting these top dogs and putting them in a 'Specials' class.

Thus, at about half of the 24 championship shows, no new dog even puts one foot on the ladder to the title because the 'points' are taken by existing champions. Some brilliant animals get one or even two of the C.C.'s and strive in vain for a couple of years chasing the elusive third. The overwhelming majority never get within sniffing distance even of the first!

Many experienced breeders try half their lives to make a champion up. Try with perhaps a kennel of 40 or 50 dogs. I can think of one kennel here whose prefix is a worldwide household word which has yet to make its first British Champion. Another name, equally famous, succeeded last year in making a Champion for the first time. Twenty-nine years showing and breeding on a very large scale had preceded this achievement.

In contrast we have the Canadian scene in which I saw, for example, two Griffons which were (and I know the owner agrees with me) simply dreadful. Both were champions. Neither in my opinion should ever have even been taken to a dog show.

Their history was intriguing. They had been to 10 shows and logged one point at each. During these 10 shows one had, almost inevitably, beaten the other and the other in turn beaten the one. They had fulfilled the requirements. I need hardly add that they had never even met, far less beaten, another Griffon.

Is a title like this worthwhile? Is it to be respected? The question hardly needs answering.

Could this not conceivably happen in England? The answer, 'No'. Because breeds here in which entries are numerically low do not have challenge certificates available to win. C.C.'s are not automatically given to every one of the breeds at all of the 24 shows. Some — Newfoundlands for example — only had C.C.'s at four shows last year. Twenty-four dogs of this breed went to Cruft's because it was one of the four C.C. shows. It is almost certain that no Newfoundland succeeded in gaining the title of champion in 1964. You have my assurance that a handful of the 40 or so regulars going the rounds are very good dogs indeed.

Now for a few criticisms of my writing which not only could be, but have been, made.

First, that 'points' are not automatic and it is up to the judge to grant or withhold 'winners' placings. I agree, but ask how often they are withheld in practice? I certainly withheld a few in Vancouver and this not because I am mean-minded but because I feel a show which invites me and pays a 13,000 mile air fare is entitled to my honest opinion. If they had merely wanted a prize distribution they could have asked "Miss Vancouver" to do the job and saved a lot of money.

One of the dogs I withheld points from was, in my opinion, not even a typical pet and this in a breed I know well. It had however, so I was informed, already won seven points. This persuades me that withholding is not a much practiced art. Moreover, the owner promptly wrote a protest to The Canadian Kennel Club which further convinces me that it is unusual. It hardly needs to be said that the CKC gave me full, generous and unqualified support.

Next, a suggestion that if winning the title were made more difficult, it would discourage so many that entries would fall away alarmingly. This may or may not be true. Frankly, I doubt it. Human beings are remarkable animals. They respond to challenges. Difficulties more often inspire than depress. Some human beings even climb Everest. Having seen the remarkable achievements of your virile and progressive country I do not accept that Canadians are so lily livered that difficulties daunt them.

Finally a printed suggestion that the show which I judged was untypical in that there were over 600 dogs present. It went on, and I quote: "Perhaps the next show Mr. Dangerfield judges in Western Canada will have a more normal entry by some 250 dogs less. In other words more quality and less quantity".

This is a valid point. If to get such a big entry there had to be included a host of pet dogs then clearly, being pet dogs, they would look like pet dogs. But you can't blame me for observing it!

Where does all this get us? Frankly, nowhere. If enough show goers want reforms introduced to make the title of champion harder to achieve, doubtless they will be introduced. If they do not, they won't. You who pay the piper also call the tune and it's none of my business what air is played.

Even so, I'll make a bet. It is that at some time in the not too distant future you will want these reforms. And you will get them.

I certainly hope so. You have some brilliant breeders and some brilliant dogs. Being an idealist I want you to upgrade the worst to the standard of the best not the other way about.

From all of which you will see that although outspoken I don't mean to be destructive. Oddly enough, I'm only trying to help! □

STANDARDS QUIZZ

Standards Quizz No. 2. This quiz, as for all others in the series, is intended to stir your interest in the subject of breed standards. It is not complete. It does contain phrases used in the standard to describe the parts of the dog or characteristics of the breed. The object is to match the first set of numbers (which relate to various parts of the dog) with the second set of numbers (which describe that part of the dog). For example: 2 - 4 Temperament - even with alert good sense. Scoring: 25-28 correct - you could be judging. 21-24 correct - you should start thinking about judging. 17-20 correct - good if you are in another breed. Less than 17 - you must be in another breed. Answers on page 77.

Golden Retriever Temperament

Temperament means "emotional mood. Natural disposition. Physical, moral, and mental constitution peculiar to individuals".

The natural disposition of the Golden Retriever is top-heavy with the following inherited qualities. Friendliness and an eagerness to please, affection and craving affection, kindliness and gentleness. It is also affected to a lesser degree by a sense of caution, lack of or mild aggression, not overly bold and medium courage.

Though some of these characteristics can be affected either way by training and environment, and in some instances overcome, it must be remembered they are dominant traits in the Golden Retriever breed.

Where we get into trouble is when we create an overbalance and breed into a strain that is over-timid, is more afraid than friendly or is more mistrustful than willing to please. We are in very deep trouble when we mate two such animals with undesirable temperamental qualities and create a top heavy situation with undesirable qualities that are harmful to the Golden Retriever breed.

Labrador Retriever Notes

The sale of dual Ch. Happy Playboy, 2½-year-old, to the United States marks another top field dog leaving this country. This outstanding black male, owned by Mrs. Gladys Gillespie of Ninette, Man. and handled in field trials by her husband Scotty, has been sold to Mrs. Grace Lambert, Harrowby Kennels, in New Jersey. This Labrador fancier owns other noted dogs including FT Ch. Duxbak Scooter, Nethercroft Nemo of Nascopie and the top winning show Labrador of all time, Ch. (Can. Am. & Eng.) Sam of Blaircourt.

A remarkable recovery has been made by Willowmount Jumping Jupiter, black male owned by Kay Robinson, Thornhill, Ont. Hit by a car, he was at first thought to be dead but fortunately survived the injuries. Not so lucky was Wimberway's Adventuress, seven-month-old puppy owned by the Bob Lunge family, Toronto, who broke her lead and was killed by the wheels of a fast moving car. Venture died at the veterinarian's.

American Cocker Specialty

Fifty-eight Cockers were entered in the breed classes of the Washington State Cocker Club Specialty November 20, Mrs. Elsie Murray of Vancouver, B.C. noted. She was especially delighted to see 18 puppies in the Puppy Sweepstake. Ch. (Can. & Am.) Flo-Bobs Born-A-Star, outstanding winner in Canadian and American West coast competition, took the breed. Owners are Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bailey of Portland, Ore.

Brittany Show Champion Earns Field Trial Title

Ch. Kipewa's Breton Belle, Brittany Spaniel bitch, has been awarded the 1965 Members Trophy of the Brittany Club of Upper New York for "the Brittany the judges would most like to take home." Owned, trained and handled by W. A. McLure (Kipewa Kennels) Manotick, Ont., this outstanding Brittany completed her Canadian FT title by winning the Open Shooting Dog stake at the October 16 and 17 trial of the Ottawa Valley Gun Dog Club. Kip has 23 Canadian and U.S. field trial placements and has placed in the Sporting Group in conformation shows. She was the winner of the 1964 Dual Dog award at the Hudson Valley Brittany Club Fall Field Trial. Kip is the dam of two show champions, Ch. Kipewa's Sundance and Ch. Kipewa's Paradise Rex and one FT winner, Kipewa's Salut.

Imports Springer Spaniel

Miss B. A. Bilodeau of Rowenmor Kennels, Haney, B.C., has imported a male tri-color English Springer Spaniel puppy, Woodcock of Shipden, from Mrs. Muirhead, Shipden Kennels, Norwich, Norfolk, England. The puppy was sired by Quare Times of Shipden ex Swirlingmist of Shipden.

Canada's 74-year-old Huntress Stars at American Trials

"I've never seen anything like it. I've been in the game for 30 years but this is something entirely new." The speaker was Hartwell F. Moore, Huntington, N.Y., one of the judges at the National Amateur championship stake of the English Springer Spaniel Field Trial Association held late November. He was referring to Mrs. H. S. Routley of Peterborough, one of Canada's most famous "dog women". "She is 74 years old and she is doing very well in the trials. She has just come back from a moose-hunting expedition in the Canadian wilderness." Mrs. Routley, handling her outstanding homebred, FT Ch. Trent Valley Better Bee, was among the lucky 13 contenders after two days hard going at the Indiantown Gap Military Reservation.

Among those still running at the time of this report was the 1963 National Amateur FT Ch. Pam's Aphrodite of Camden, owned and handled by George Webster of Delaware, Ont.

Vizsla Event Held in Alberta

The Vizsla Club of Canada national field trial was held this year in the Calgary, Alta. area and not in Winnipeg, as stated in the November, 1965 issue, page 73, points out Elizabeth Anne Anderson, Field Trial Secretary for the club.

or 79%. The radiographs were taken according to a standard method and were sent to the Veterinary College in Stockholm for interpretation.

The findings in the 319 that had radiographic examinations are summarized in the table below:

Thus, the frequency of defects among the offspring decreased from 80% when both parents were defective, to 58% when one was normal and the other defective, to 30% when both were normal, to 24% when both were normal and one also had normal parents and finally to 0% when both parents and all four grandparents were normal. Unfortunately, there were only 17 pups in this last category ($N_1 \times N_1$) but the results indicate that it might be possible to eradicate hip dysplasia by mating only normal dogs in a number of successive generations.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. All Retrievers, before being bred, should be x-rayed and determined to be free of dysplasia.
2. X-rays should be made according to a standard technique approved by the Ontario Veterinary College.
3. Evaluation of the x-rays should be made by one central universally acceptable authority, which would issue a written report to the owner and provide a certificate of soundness for those dogs cleared.

(There is of course no reason why any veterinarian may not make x-rays and give his professional opinion but a demand is increasingly being voiced for a universally recognized authority to issue certificates of soundness that will be acceptable across the country or internationally).

The most logical, universally respected center in Canada for evaluating x-rays is the Ontario Veterinary College at Guelph. It is willing and has the personnel and equipment and organization to do this work; it has been designated as advisor and consultant on hip dysplasia by The Canadian Kennel Club; and it has on its staff two internationally recognized authorities in this field, Veterinarian Radiologists Dr. A. J. Cawley and Dr. R. S. Downey.

4. Retrievers should be clearly and correctly tattooed for positive identification and throughout the process of x-raying, or when necessary of mailing x-rays to Guelph, identification of the right dog with its own x-rays should be carefully safeguarded.
5. It would be of tremendous assistance to breeders and prospective owners if O.V.C. would compile and make available a list of dogs in each breed, using the full registered name and tattoo letters, of all Retrievers for which it issues certificates stating that they do not show radiographic evidence of hip dysplasia.

Designating a central agency that is recognized by all would make such a comprehensive list possible.

WINTER CARE

Sturdy stainless steel bowls will withstand the expansion of freezing water quite well. Frozen drinking water should be replaced regularly.

A Retriever can live outdoors comfortably in very cold weather if it has a dry draught-proof box raised a few inches off the ground and provided with a thick bed of clean straw. A burlap bag used as a curtain over the opening in extreme weather retains more heat in the kennel while still allowing man's best friend to keep an eye on things. Dogs put outdoors should always have access to shelter. Old dogs with arthritis may do much better in the house with the family during winter months. □

SUMMARY OF THE FOUR FINALISTS IN TENTH SERIES

#1 - FTC-AFTC-CFTC-Captain of Lomac
was out of the area slightly on #2 bird in the fourth series. Had to handle on marked #2 in the seventh and tenth series. His blinds were neat.

#21 - 1963 Can. NC.-AFC-FC-Tar Baby's Little Sweet Stuff
Had to handle on one marked bird only: #2 in the eighth series. His blinds were very good, lining the long ones in the fourth, eighth, and tenth series.

#24 - Ch. & FTC- Amer. AFTC-Stormy of Spirit Lake Gal
Ran into a W.R. on the blind in the third series. His initial line out to the blind in the fourth could have been better: a few C.R. didn't help either on this particular blind. Had to handle on both marked birds in the eighth series. Extra whistles on the blind in the ninth didn't help much.

#32 - FTC. Coleraine's Thunder Rock
Handled on #2 mark in the eighth series. His blinds were good. A bit more showmanship could have made the difference.

FIRST SERIES
Weather: Blowing mist and rain with wind gusts to 40 mph. Temp. 34°. 31 dogs started. #1 started at 8.15 a.m. Fri. Series: Land — triple mark. Cover: Medium grass cover. Dogs ran from top of a mound about 3' high with a roll down to main field level. #2 gunner and thrower stood protected by a tree. #1 T & G stood out in open and #3 T & G were on line about 15' from the dog. #2 gun fired two shots. Dogs #2, 7, 9, 13, 20, 21, 23, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 33 and 34 had no difficulty. The other dogs encountered some trouble mainly on #2 bird. The road seemed to divert them off their mark. All starters called back for next series.

SECOND SERIES
Weather: Series started in same conditions as first. As series progressed rain stopped and wind decreased slightly. 31 dogs started. #5 started test at 10.45 a.m. Fri. Series: Land — single mark and double blind. Cover: area adjacent to first series with a few more ground bushes and small trees as cover. Dogs were required to pick up the mark: then blind #1 followed by blind #2. A gunner sat as diversion at the bush on blind #1 (no shot). Some dogs got into difficulty on the mark and had to be handled. Others found the point of the mound on blind 2 as a temptation and as a result were lost from sight as soon as they cut to their right. #9 to 18 lined the long blind. #21 and 22 lined the short blind. 4 dogs were dropped after this series was completed — #11, 12, 27, 29.

THIRD SERIES
Weather: continued cold and overcast. The wind increased as the series continued. The last few dogs had to contend with the sun breaking through. As the sun came out the temp. started decreasing to its morning level. 27 dogs started — #10 started at 2.00 p.m. Fri. Series: Water — double mark and blind. (2 shots on #1 duck). Cover: In between the dog and water med. grass. Both near side and far side banks had tree and shrub cover on the blind. #1 bird was hidden by tree cover from the dog. A stump, twigs, sunken logs and misc. underwater cover made a swim to the blind somewhat difficult. #1 gun fired twice. Dogs #5, 7, 9, 13, 14, 18, 22, 23, 26 had a good series. Dog #30 did exceptionally well. #1 bird presented a little trouble to some dogs. Dog #20 was picked up on the blind and seven others were dropped — #3, 10, 16, 19, 25, 28, 31, after the series finished.

FOURTH SERIES

Weather: The test started in a wind of approx. 18 mph and temp. of 38°. The temp. increased to about 55° by the end of the test. The wind had remained constant but had started gusting to 25-30 mph. Sunny, clear skies. 19 dogs started — #18 started at 8.10 a.m. Sat. Series: Land — double mark diversion and blind. After pheasants #1 and #2 (marks) were picked up and as the dog was coming in #3 pheasant was thrown as the diversion. The dog had to pick up the blind before #3. After the blind was picked up the handler moved to take delivery of the bird. The dog then had to pick up #3 bird. Dogs #2, 8, 9, 18, 21, 22, 32 and 33 had a good series. #21 lined the blind directly while #2 dog also picked up the blind in a nice manner. After the series was completed 5 dogs were dropped: #7, 13, 26, 30, 34.

FIFTH SERIES

Weather. The sun continued to shine. As the test progressed scattered cloud was evident. The wind continued at a steady 18 mph and the temp. increased to 68°. Gusts were becoming stronger as the wind changed direction: and had increased to 35 mph. 14 dogs started: #24 started at 11.30 a.m. Sat. Series: Cold water blind in a natural beaver pond. The blind was planted at the edge of a beaver house behind a fallen tree log. Natural pond obstacles such as tree roots, stumps, earth mounds, snags and beaver houses provided very good diversions and made swimming very difficult. The cover right at entry proved to be a big attraction

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

A regular meeting of the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club was held on Friday, November 12th. There follows a summary of business transacted at the meeting.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

APEX PUBLISHERS AND PUBLICITY LTD.

Article XII, Section 2 of the Club's By-laws provides that no person, partnership or company shall be eligible for, or continue to enjoy membership if indebted to the Club or to the publishers of the official magazine for advertising or other services for a longer period than three months after the account is due unless satisfactory arrangements have been made for the payment of same. The Secretary reported on a number of members to whom letters had been addressed on the instruction of the Board with regard to their overdue accounts with the publishers of "Dogs in Canada".

The Secretary was instructed to advise each such member that if his or her overdue account with "Dogs in Canada" is not paid in full by December 31, 1965, membership will automatically be terminated in accordance with the By-laws of the Club.

INVESTMENTS

The Secretary reported that on the instruction of the Investments Committee there had been purchased on September 20th, $15,000 Government of Canada 5% bonds, due October 1, 1973, at a cost of $14,831.25 plus accrued interest amounting to $367.81.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Board considered the recommendations of the Club's auditors with regard to a revised format for the Club's annual financial statements, the revised format to provide for the inclusion in the Balance Sheet of the figures for the previous fiscal year in order that members may readily make a comparison between figures for the current year and the year preceding. The Board authorized the auditors to adopt the suggested draft of the Club's financial statements.

The Board directed that the Secretary ask the auditors to include in their report a statement to the effect that the bank balances and bonds had been verified.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - FIRST NINE MONTHS OF 1965

The Board received the financial statements, as prepared by the Secretary-Treasurer, for the first nine months of 1965, a copy of which had been previously forwarded to members of the Board along with comparative figures for the same period in the preceding year.

These financial statements were published on page 47 of the December issue of "Dogs in Canada".

INTERNATIONAL MATTERS

THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB

The Secretary read letters received by the President from Mr. Alfred Dick, Executive Vice President of The American Kennel Club, reporting the initial steps being taken by The American Kennel Club in order that, in due course, it may reach decisions on the requests of the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club with regard to the eligibility of Canadian show judges to officiate at A. K. C. shows, and with regard to the inclusion of Canadian titles on A. K. C. certificates of registration and in catalogues for shows and trials held under A. K. C. rules.

REGISTRATION, STUD BOOKS AND RELATED MATTERS

KENNEL NAMES

The Board received and approved the recommendations of the Kennel Names Committee, as set out in its reports to the Board dated September 29th, October 21st, and November 11th.

REGISTRATION COMMITTEE

The Board received the report of the Registration Committee and noted that the Committee had:

(1) authorized the registration of the following Cavalier King Charles Spaniels, registered with the Cavalier King Charles Spaniel Club, U. S. A., and owned by Miss Elizabeth L. Spalding: PARGETER TAMBURLAINE OF KILSPINDIE, KILSPINDIE FANFARE, KILSPINDIE SHOT SILK, KILSPINDIE PEASEBLOSSOM, PARGETER TESSA OF KILSPINDIE; (RC-293)

(2) declined to authorize the registration of three Cavalier King Charles Spaniels owned by Mrs. L. T. Burden, Long Island, N. Y. until it is clear that Mrs. Burden intends to exhibit these dogs at one or more Canadian championship shows; (RC-293)

(3) authorized the registration of the Miniature Schnauzer KADI imported from Belgium by Mr. Y. Grandjean, Chomedey, Que.; (RC-324)

(4) authorized the amending of the litter registration certificate (#1272-64) of the litter of Shetland Sheepdogs whelped by QUARRYBRAE'S LITTLE CANDY TUFT (442134) to show that the litter consisted of three males and two females; (RC-335)

(5) authorized the registration of a male dog out of litter #1272-64 and the recording of transfer of ownership to the name of Mr. William Caulfield, Toronto, Ont.; date of transfer, October 2, 1963; (RC-335)

(6) agreed that it could not authorize the issuance of a certificate of registration for the Shetland Sheepdog purchased by Richard Munn, Stoney Creek, Ont. from Mr. Arnold Smyth, in view of insufficient information which would enable the Committee to authorize registration; (RC-335)

(7) authorized the issuance of a duplicate certificate of registration for the Beagle BLUE STREAK'S MISTY MAID (504361) and the recording of transfer of this dog to the name of Robert R. Petrie, New Waterford, N. S.; date of transfer, January 6, 1965; (RC-348)

(8) authorized the registration of the Brittany Spaniel SUZAN DE FLAMBEAU'S out of litter #4428-65, and the recording of transfer of ownership of this dog to the name of Donald M. Prout, Bowmanville, Ont.; date of transfer, September 5, 1965; (RC-369)

(9) declined to authorize the registration of a dog imported from the United States and the recording of subsequent changes of ownership until the dog had been identified by the importer and the importer had applied for registration: (RC-374)

(10) authorized the registration of a litter of German Shepherd Dogs whelped January 1, 1965, the property of Mr. & Mrs. Jerry Klvac, Victoria, B. C., the litter being by VON DER OSTERBURGS HERR TYRAS (503452) ex TYLAH'S MARGO OF ECHOBANK (546696); (RC-377)

(11) authorized the registration of a male dog out of litter of German Shepherd Dogs by VON DER OSTERBURGS HERR TYRAS (503452) ex TYLAH'S MARGO OF ECHOBANK (546696), whelped the property of Mr. & Mrs. Jerry Klvac on January 1, 1965, with transfer of said dog to the name of Mr. & Mrs. Alfred Best, Chemainus, B. C.; date of transfer, February 26, 1965; (RC-377)

(12) authorized the registration of the Puli UDVARHELYI CUCU imported from Hungary by Mrs. Oszkar Meles, Toronto, Ont.; (RC-381)

(13) ruled that a litter of Pembroke Welsh Corgis whelped in the United States by a Canadian-owned female registered with the C. K. C. is not registerable as a litter with the C. K. C. (RC-383)

(14) authorized the Live Stock Records office to change to LOVEY BEAU OF THE LUMBS the name of the dog registered as LUMB'S BEAU OF PINE COVE (637124) in view of the first owner's written permission to make such change, and without reference to the wishes of the second owner; (RC-385)

(15) authorized the Live Stock Records office to advise Mr. K. L. Morgan that before there can be recorded his transfer of this dog to William S. Dobbs, the Beagle registered as REGENCY'S TRINKET (635777), Mr. Morgan must obtain a written agreement with Mr. Dobbs that the dog will not be used for breeding purposes, the dog having been originally sold to Mr. Morgan on that condition; (RC-386)

(16) authorized the registration of a litter of Samoyeds whelped on November 4, 1963 the property of Mrs. Donna Lalone, Smithville, Ont.; the litter being by SHEP'S VALLEY NOMAD OF ZISKA (398557) out of NORD'S ARCTIC LADY (501735);
authorized the recording of transfer of ownership of the Samoyed NORD'S ARCTIC LADY (501735) from the name of Mrs. Donna Lalone to the name of Mrs. Mary E. Gerow, Hamilton, Ont.; date of transfer, March 1, 1964; authorized the registration of the Samoyed SNOWLAND'S NIKKI OF NOMAD, whelped November 4, 1964, the property of Mrs. Donna Lalone, Smithville, Ont. (deceased), and the recording of transfer of ownership to the name of Mrs. John Green, Hamilton, Ont.; date of transfer, December 28, 1963; (RC-362)

(17) authorized the registration of the Labrador Retriever PINELEIGH GOLDEN HANS registered with the Barbados Kennel Club, imported to Canada by Allan Taylor, Montreal, Que.; (RC-367)

(18) authorized the registration of the Poodle BARF-KUH, imported from Ireland by Ronald Thomson, St. Jacques le Mineur, P. Q. and the recording of transfer of ownership of this dog to Ovid Avarmaa, Outremont, P. Q.; date of sale, March 21, 1962; (RC-368)

(19) for lack of proper identification declined to authorize the issuance of a duplicate certificate for a Boxer which had changed ownership; (RC-370)

(20) authorized the registration of the Pointer ALFA VOM KOHLMOOR, imported from Germany by Eberhard Felsmann, Chomedey, P. Q.; (RC-380)

(21) authorized, under the provisions of Article XXVIII, Section 1 (4) of the Club's By-laws, the following Lhasa Apsos whelped the property of Mr. & Mrs. James Roberts, Abbotsford, B. C. on July 26, 1965; sire: BRACKENBURY KANDRON (KC-40292/61); dam: KALULA OF ABBOTSFORD (466896): TILICHO OF ABBOTSFORD (F), MACHA OF ABBOTSFORD (F), OYA OF ABBOTSFORD (M); (RC-384)

(22) authorized the registration of the Dachshunds (Standard Smooth): STRICKER'S SANDY and STRICKER'S CINDY, out of litter #1347-65, whelped the property of Ronald Lyman, New Hamburg, Ont., and the recording of transfer of ownership of these dogs to the name of Alvin Stricker, Kitchener, Ont.; date of transfer, January 15, 1965; (RC-387)

(23) authorized the issuance of a duplicate certificate of registration for the German Shepherd Dog EDLYN'S HELEN HIGHWATER (377815) and the recording of transfer of ownership to the name of Harry B. Johnson, Truro, N. S.; date of sale, February 25, 1965; (RC-389)

(24) authorized the registration of a litter of Dachshunds whelped the property of Mr. & Mrs. W. C. Barnes, Sarnia, Ont. on January 4, 1965, the litter consisting of one Standard Smooth male, one Long-haired Standard, and two Standard Smooth females; sire: CARLBETH'S DORFJUNKER (570142) (Standard Smooth); dam: CARLBETH'S BRINHULDA (510718) (Standard Smooth); (RC-392)

(25) authorized the registration of the Scottish Terrier BALRENE JEAN whelped November 28, 1962, out of litter #9966-62, the property of Miss Irene Ball (deceased); and the recording of transfer of ownership of this dog to Sam Stewart, Toronto, Ont.; date of sale, January 25, 1963. (RC-393)

Acting on a recommendation of the Registration Committee, the Board cancelled the registration of a litter whelped in Alaska, the property of a resident of Canada, on the grounds that the litter having been born in the United States, it should be registered with The American Kennel Club rather than with The Canadian Kennel Club.

Acting on the recommendations of the Registration Committee, the Board ordered cancelled the registration of two litters (and the registration of any dogs in said litters which may have been registered individually). The Registration Committee's recommendations to the Board with regard to these litters were based on inspection reports which satisfied the Committee that the litters did not consist of pure-bred dogs.

The Board sustained the recommendation of the Registration Committee that no change be made in an earlier decision of the Board to reject the application for registration of a dog born in France, registered with the Japan Kennel Club.

Acting on a recommendation of the Registration Committee, the Board ordered cancelled the registration of a litter, the recommendation of the Committee having followed inquiries by the Committee which satisfied it that the person signing as owner of the sire of litter at time of mating was not, in fact, the person who owned the dog at time of mating.

The Secretary reported on the recognition of the Silky Toy Terrier, he having received not less than seven applications for individual registration of specimens of this breed, such recognition having been authorized by the Board at its meeting in June, at which time the Board decided that the breed would be recognized when the standing requirements for recognition of a new breed had been complied with.

The standard for this breed, as recognized by The Canadian Kennel Club, appears elsewhere in this issue.

BREED NAMES

The Board's attention was drawn to the fact that while the Dog Show Rules correctly show the breed under the name Staffordshire Bull Terrier (as it also appears in the Stud Book issued by The Kennel Club, England), the breed is listed in our By-laws as Staffordshire Bullterrier.

The Secretary was instructed to make an appropriate correction when the By-laws are next reprinted.

The Board noted that, although Siberian Huskies are listed in the Club's By-laws and Dog Show Rules, each certificate of registration issued by the Club for a specimen of this breed gives the breed name as a Siberian Huskie.

The Board directed that, for the purposes of the records, an individual specimen of this breed would be identified as a Siberian Husky.

COMPLAINTS, CHARGES AND PROTESTS

POLICIES

The Secretary was instructed to advise each club holding a show or trial under the Club's rules that it has the right to refuse entries, pending satisfactory settlement, in any case where an owner or handler has tendered an N. S. F. cheque in payment of entry fees.

SPECIFIC CASES

The Secretary was instructed to consult the Club's solicitor and later all members of the Board, with regard to the report of an Advisory Committee which the Board had appointed to investigate and report on a number of alleged irregularities with regard to registration of a number of dogs by a member of the Club.

INTERNAL AND ADMINISTRATION

REPORT OF MANAGEMENT CONSULTANTS

Miss Elizabeth Dunn and Miss Kaye Peer of Apex Publishers and Publicity Ltd., publishers of "Dogs in Canada", met with the Board to discuss statements with regard to "Dogs in Canada" appearing in the synopsis prepared by the Management Consultants, as published in the October issue of "Dogs in Canada".

At the conclusion of the discussion the Board directed that this subject be placed on the agenda of the coming annual meeting of the Board.

The Secretary placed before the Board a report received on November 11th from Warnock Hersey Management Consultants with regard to the publication of "Dogs in Canada". He also placed before the Board a number of invoices setting forth charges assessed by Warnock Hersey Management Consultants for its survey with regard to "Dogs in Canada", the provision of extra copies of its original report to the Board, and for the preparation of the synopsis published in the October issue of the magazine.

All these items were ordered referred to the meeting of the Board to be held on December 10th.

BOARD MEETINGS

The Board decided that its next regular meeting would be held on December 10th.

THE BERMUDA KENNEL CLUB

The Secretary reported that he had made arrangements to proceed to Bermuda on November 25th for discussions with the Bermuda Kennel Club and inquired whether the Board had any specific instructions as to the scope and details of such discussions.

It was agreed that the Secretary should feel free to discuss freely all matters of mutual interest to the two Clubs on the understanding that he is not empowered to make any commitments on behalf of The Canadian Kennel Club but is to submit a report to the next annual meeting of the Board.

APPOINTMENTS FOR 1965

On the recommendation of Mr. Duff, Director for Nova Scotia and Newfoundland, the Board appointed Mr. Fraser MacLean as the Nova Scotia and Newfoundland Field Trial Representative for Retrievers for the balance of the term ending March 31, 1966.

SPECIAL REFERENDUM BALLOT - 1965

By resolution, the Board rescinded motion #329-65 reading:

"THAT, the Secretary include the following proposed amendment in the special referendum ballot authorized by resolution #277-65:

'IT IS PROPOSED THAT:

Article X, Section 5, be amended by deleting the words: "The Chairman of any meeting of the Board shall not vote except in the case of a tie in which case the Chairman shall have the casting vote."

and substitute the following:

"The Chairman of any meeting of the Board shall have the right to vote on any motion presented at any meeting of the Board and in the event of a tie vote on a motion said motion shall be deemed to have lost for want of a majority. This shall also apply to the voting on any amendments to a motion'."

The Board instructed the Secretary as to the procedure to be followed in the event that the foregoing proposed amendment receives a majority of affirmative votes in the referendum ballot soon to be mailed to voting members of the Club.

The Board's attention was drawn to the fact that, while Article XII permits of the immediate opening of election ballots following the close of balloting, Article XXXVIII provides that envelopes containing referendum ballots will be opened the day following the close of balloting. As in many cases an envelope returned to the Election Commission will include both the referendum ballot and election ballot, the Secretary was instructed to advise the Election Commission to defer opening any returned envelopes until the day following the close of balloting.

REPRESENTATIVES TO OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

The Secretary reported that he had been provided by the Canadian National Exhibition with a copy of their revised Constitution and By-laws, which now provide that The Canadian Kennel Club is entitled to name one representative annually to the C. N. E. rather than two, as has been the case for some years.

MEMBERSHIP MATTERS

APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

The Board confirmed the approval given to applications for membership reported, by mail, to all members of the Board on five lists of applicants for membership.

The Board reported the rejection of an application for membership of one person who admitted to having an unregisterable dog which she proposed to continue using for breeding purposes.

DOG SHOWS

DATES

The Board declined to permit the newly formed Canadian Scottish Terrier Club to hold a specialty championship show in conjunction with another club's specialty show until the Scottish Terrier Club has held a sanction show.

The Secretary was instructed to place on the agenda of the annual meeting of the Board, the question of whether, as a matter of policy, a specialty club will be permitted to hold a specialty championship show in conjunction with an all-breed championship show or another specialty championship show.

The Secretary was instructed to seek additional information from the Barrie Kennel Club with regard to its applications to hold three consecutive championship shows on August 5th, 6th and 7th, 1967.

After reviewing the list of dates already granted or reserved on a priority basis for championship shows in Ontario and Quebec in the months of May and June 1966, the Board instructed the Secretary to inform the German Shepherd Dog Club of Montreal that there are no dates available in May or June 1966.

OBEDIENCE TRIALS

REPORT OF CHAIRMAN OF OBEDIENCE COUNCIL

The Board confirmed the finding of the Obedience Council in connection with an applicant seeking to establish eligibility to judge the Novice Classes, it being the view of the Council that the applicant had insufficient experience with obedience to justify permitting him to take written and oral examinations.

DATES

The Board approved the applications of the Bytown Dog Obedience Club to hold three trials within the two-day period of April 2nd and 3rd, 1966.

In considering the applications of the Hamilton Obedience Club to hold three licensed obedience trials within the two-day period April 15th and 16th, 1966, the Board instructed the Secretary to communicate with the Hamilton Obedience Club and inquire whether it would be willing to abandon its two trials scheduled for June of 1966 in the event that the Board is prepared to approve its applications to hold three trials in October of 1966.

APPLICATIONS FOR REGISTRATION OF KENNEL NAMES

The following applications for registration of kennel names have been received by The Canadian Kennel Club. Any objections must set forth details of the objection and must be received by the Secretary, 1173 Bay Street, Toronto 5, Ontario on or before January 31, 1966.

NOTICE

SUBJECT: PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO CHAPTER 9 OF THE FIELD TRIAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

Notice is hereby given that at its annual meeting commencing on February 23rd, the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club will consider the following proposed amendment to Chapter 9 of the Field Trial Rules and Regulations. Chapter 9 deals specifically with licensed field trials for the Pointing Breeds.

IT IS PROPOSED THAT:

Chapter 9 of the Field Trial Rules and Regulations be amended by the addition of a new Section reading as follows:

SECTION 14. A judge's decision shall be final in all cases affecting the merits of the dogs. Full discretionary power is given to the judge to withhold championship points. Where a judge considers that the work of the dogs does not merit the awarding of championship points, the ribbons for such placings must also be withheld. Such action to be recorded in the judge's book.

All persons and clubs interested in this proposed amendment are invited to submit their comments for the consideration of the Board of Directors and the Field Trial Council for Pointing Breeds. All such comments must be in writing and be submitted so as to be received by the Secretary, The Canadian Kennel Club, 1173 Bay Street, Toronto 5, Ontario, before February 1, 1966. Please refer to file 13 FT 27.

NOTICE

THE SILKY TOY TERRIER

By virtue of the authority provided under Section 2 of Article XXVI of the By-laws of The Canadian Kennel Club the Board has ordered that the Silky Toy Terrier (known in the United States as the Silky Terrier and in Australia as the Australian Silky Terrier) be added to the list of breeds recognized by The Canadian Kennel Club. For purposes of shows held under the Club's rules this breed will be listed in Group 5 (Toys).

The standard of this breed, as recognized by The Canadian Kennel Club, is as follows:

The Silky Toy Terrier is a lightly built, moderately low-set, toy dog of pronounced terrier character and spirited action.

HEAD -- The head is strong, wedge-shaped, and moderately long. The skull is a trifle longer than the muzzle, in proportion about three-fifths for the skull, two-fifths for the muzzle.

SKULL -- Flat, and not too wide between the ears.

STOP -- Shallow.

EARS -- Small, v-shaped and pricked. They are set high and carried erect without any tendency to flare obliquely off the skull.

EYES -- Small, dark in colour, and piercingly keen in expression. Light eyes are a fault.

TEETH -- Strong and well aligned. Scissors bite. A bite markedly undershot or overshot is a serious fault.

NOSE -- The nose is black.

NECK AND SHOULDERS -- The neck fits gracefully into sloping shoulders. It is medium long, fine and to some degree crested along its top line.

BODY -- Low-set, about one fifth longer than the dog's height at the withers. A too short body is a fault. The back line is straight, with a just perceptible rounding over the loins. Brisket medium wide, and deep enough to extend down to the elbows.

TAIL -- The tail is set high and carried erect or semi-erect but not over gay. It is docked and well coated but devoid of plume.

FOREQUARTERS -- Well laid back shoulders, together with good angulation at the upper arm, set the forelegs nicely under the body. Forelegs are strong, straight and rather fine boned.

HINDQUARTERS -- Thighs well muscled and strong, but not so developed as to appear heavy. Legs moderately angulated at stifles and hocks, with the hocks low and equidistant from the hock joints to the ground.

FEET -- Small, cat-like, round, compact. Pads are thick and springy while the nails are strong and dark coloured. White or flesh coloured nails are a fault. The feet point straight ahead, with no turning in or out. Dewclaws, if any, are removed.

COAT -- Flat, in texture fine, glossy, silky; on matured specimens the desired length of coat from behind the ears to the set on of the tail is from five to six inches. On the top of the head the hair is so profuse as to form a topknot, but long hair on face and ears is objectionable. Legs from knee and hock joints to feet should be free from long hair. The hair is parted on the head and down over the back to the root of the tail.

COLOUR -- Blue and tan. The blue may be silver blue, pigeon blue or slate blue, the tan deep and rich. The blue extends from the base of the skull to the tip of the tail, down the forelegs to the pasterns, and down the thighs to the hocks. On the tail the blue should be very dark. Tan appears on muzzle and cheeks, around the base of the ears, below the pasterns and hocks, and around the vent. There is a tan spot over each eye. The topknot should be silver or fawn.

TEMPERAMENT -- The keenly alert air of the terrier is characteristic, with shyness or excessive nervousness to be faulted. The manner is quick, friendly, responsive.

MOVEMENT -- Should be free, light footed, lively, and straightforward. Hindquarters should have strong propelling power. Toeing in or out is to be faulted.

SIZE -- Weight ranges from eight to ten pounds. Shoulder height from nine to ten inches. Pronounced diminutiveness (such as a height of less than eight inches) is not desired; it accentuates the quality of toyishness as opposed to the breed's definite terrier character.

NOTICE

A limited supply of Vol. 68 of the C.K.C. Litter Record & Stud Book for 1964 is now available at the office of The Canadian Kennel Club. The price is $1.00 to a member of the Club. Orders with covering payment should be addressed to the Secretary, The Canadian Kennel Club, 1173 Bay Street, Toronto 5, Ontario.

NOTICE

It has been noted that when entering dogs at shows or trials held under the Club's rules many owners fail to show the name of the agent or handler on the entry form even though, at the time of entry, the owner has already engaged a handler or agent to handle the dog at the show or trial.

Where an agent or handler has been engaged it is of considerable help to the trial or show secretary, the stewards and others responsible for the smooth running of the show or trial to have information about the name of the agent or handler if the dog is not to be handled at the show or trial by its owner.

By an order of the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club this notice is published in "Dogs in Canada" drawing attention to the necessity of the name of the agent or handler being set forth on an entry form if the dog is to be handled at a show or trial by an agent or handler.

to some dogs. Dogs #1, 8, 21, 24, 32 had a helpful test. Dog #23 was picked up and #18 and 22 were dropped at the conclusion of the test.

SIXTH SERIES
Weather: Same as fifth series. 11 dogs started: #2 started at 2.30 p.m. Sat. Series: Water triple. Handler fired his own gun on #3 duck. Test included an honor on the right side of working dog. The series was run in the same area as the fifth test. Surprisingly some dogs had difficulty on #2 duck: particularly those who did not make a water entry but ran the shore instead. Dogs #1, 14, 21, 24, and 32 had a neat series. #17 was picked up on #2 duck. All the rest of the starters were carried into the final day.

SEVENTH SERIES
Weather: Extreme constant wind at 25 mph with mist and light rain. Sky completely overcast. Wind began to gust to official 58 mph. Temperature at beginning 27°. 10 dogs started: #14 started at 8.15 a.m. Sun. Cover: Medium to light grass. Some bracken and mustard plant. Series: Land — triple mark and honor. #1 and #2 gunners fired two shots. #3 one shot. Honor dog stayed on line until second bird picked up. After each dog completed the whole line advanced 10 paces. #1 and #2 pheasants proved to be a bit difficult to some dogs. Majority of them were in between the fall and gun on both birds. #1, 8, 9 and 14 required handling on one mark each. Three dogs were dropped after this test was completed: #5, 8, 33.

EIGHTH SERIES
Weather: Same as series 7. Traces of snow replaced rain. Temp. remained at about 30-32°. 7 dogs started: #1 started at 11.00 a.m. Sun. Series: Land: double mark and blind. #1 gun fired one shot. #2 gun fired 2 shots. After #2 pheasant was down a diversion shot was fired to the right of the dog. All dogs encountered some difficulty: 4 dogs had to be handled on either #1 or #2 pheasant. The others had some difficulty on the blind with the exception of #21 and #24 who lined the blind. After the series was completed two dogs were dropped: #9 and 14.

NINTH SERIES
Weather: Generally same as for eighth series. The snow had stopped and the high wind gusts had dropped to approx. 30 mph. Temp. 39°. 5 dogs started: #32 started at 1.15 p.m. Sun. Series: Water — double mark and blind. After #1 duck was down both T & G retired to island. Water between island and the blind varied from swimming to wading depth. Water bottom was gravel and sand. All dogs required handling on the blind. In addition #2 dog had to be handled on #1 bird and was dropped at the end of this series.

TENTH SERIES
Weather: Same as for series nine. Temp. dropped to 35°. Sky overcast. Wind had dropped to 18-20 mph. 4 dogs started: #24 started at 3.10 p.m. Sun. Series: (Run in same water as third test). Water double and channel blind. One shot on #1 duck — 2 shots on #2. Marks to be picked up first. Cover: Same as third series. Good swimming to #2 mark only. Left hand shore temptation because of cover. Of the four dogs that started, only #21 completed without a whistle on either the marks or the blind when he lined. #24 winded the blind after having picked up #1 and on his way to #2 duck he had to be picked up. #1 had to be handled to mark #2 and required 4 whistles to the blind. #32 did well on the marks and needed but 2 whistles to the blind. □

Afghan Exhibitors Reminded of Responsibility

"Canadian exhibitors have a . . . responsibility," states the club bulletin, Afghan Actions. "Entries are often small and therefore the dogs entered must be good representatives of the breed. Spectators may have never seen an Afghan before. Make sure they get to know our breed at its best. For instance, recently at a benched show only one Afghan was entered. A nice female who, however, had had her coat clipped and therefore was not at her best. As the only one of the breed she carried quite a responsibility. Think of the many, many people who saw her and decided that that is what an Afghan looks like!

"This is bad for all owners as well as breeders. Your potential customers can be anywhere. Make sure they only see our dogs in top shape and condition. Don't get so "point hungry" that you show and enter your dogs when they should be at home out of the public eye. In Canada you never know when you are going to be the sole entry!"

Grooming Tip: When bathing your Afghan place cotton in his ears. This will keep out water and also will deaden the sound of the dryer. Don't forget to remove cotton when finished!

Crippled but Brainy Beagle Helps End Search for Master

More than 100 men had prowled for two days through the heavy brush seeking the missing man, but it was his crippled 14-year-old Beagle who fought through the Haliburton, Ont. bush to lead the seekers to the body of his master, 73-year-old Curtis Ventress. Beside the body was the imprint of the hound's body where it had apparently remained beside the trapper until he died.

Beagle Round-up

Despite a damp and chilly Fall, beaglers enjoyed excellent hunting throughout September, October and November in reforestation areas 60-odd miles north of Toronto.

One breeder, whose dogs are primarily show dogs, ran seven or eight of his show champions consistently for ten or 12 weeks, with rabbits in abundance giving the dogs a thorough work-out. Only two mishaps marred the season. Luckily even those had happy endings. One of his top female champions, trailing a "loner" across several concessions, failed to return by the time the party had to leave for home (in a blinding blizzard). Leaving a coat, some food and water for her overnight, the owners returned the next morning to find she had come back to the owner's coat, and was by this time happily ensconced in the car of a fellow beagler who was hunting in the area. other occasion, their top male sho champion was late coming back fro a hunt. Long after dark, he showe up with his face full of porcupin quills. The vinegar-and-oil treatmen recommended by Dogs in Canada in previous issue was used immediately he was also later helped by a veteri arian and is now back in top shap

The enjoyment these people ge from weekend Fun Runs with thei dogs exemplifies the appeal of th Beagle. Few dogs have matched th merry little hound in popularity ove the past century and it is easily ex plained. He's a wonderful hunting pa if you're on your own in the woods or, if you're a competitive sport, yo might consider joining a field tri club, and perhaps training him fo championship trials. The suburbanit and city-dweller alike both marv at his adjustment to house pet an city dog (provided you keep him o busy streets away from traffic). Y the same household pet will slash int brier, through swamp and bush wit single-minded purpose for eight hou at a stretch, coursing a rabbit.

President Johnson has done muc to keep the Beagle in the public new He had one Beagle several years ag called LBJ, or Little Beagle Johnso When Little Beagle Johnson was gon the President acquired two mo Beagles, Him and Her. Sadly, litt Her died a year ago from eating pebble on the White House lawn. Hi is still a favored member of the fami and always on hand to greet th President on his return to the Whi House.

With all this publicity, one wou think the breed secure, but there a clouds on the horizon. The serio breeders constantly worry about th future of the breed, and wheth there are enough dedicated breede in Canada and the U.S.A., who real care about the quality of the do they are breeding. They wonder, wh they see hound classes in dog sho in both countries, showing few Beagle entries all the time. The are few good Beagles in Canada t day. When these are gone, they wo der where the breeding stock is come from, unless a dedicated, aml tious breeding program is followe Intelligent breeders are searching far away as California to find go examples of the breed and good bloo lines, but American standards appe to be quite different to Canadian sta dards, judging from photographs se here, and dogs seen at Chicago la Spring. And so the search goes on.

Every conscientious breeder shou be thinking of ten years from no and working with other breeders f the good of the breed. Too often, many dog clubs, there is too much ta of favoritism when one breeder's do consistently win, because he is pr ducing quality; the competing me bers seem far less concerned when indifferent American dog wins, th when one of their own members' do takes top honors. Petty jealousi refusals to recommend other kennels even when they don't have puppies to sell themselves — all of these take a toll of the enthusiasm, compatibility and interests-in-common that should be dedicated to a breed club.

In a book entitled "The Beagle in America and England", by H. W. Prentice, written in 1919 and long out of print, but reprinted in 1955 in an abridged edition by A. D. Holcombe, the author's dedication reads: "This work is respectfully dedicated to those beaglers of today upon whose shoulders weighs heavily the obligation of carrying forward into future generations the task of breeding even better and finer Beagles than were available for them to work with in their time. Today the Beagle at last towers above all other breeds in popularity. If it is to continue so, it will fall to today's breeders to uphold the fine traditions that preceded them by sincerely trying to develop, to the best of their ability and without considering personal gain, the finest hounds of overall quality it is within their power to breed."

— M. Slaney

Rain and Scent

Rather than dissipating scent, rain freshens it, writes Mrs. Charles Rowland of DeKalb Junction, N.Y. "Where trails left by a lost person are approximately the same age and the Bloodhounds are baffled, this is the place to turn them loose (if they are well trained to command) and listen to them bay when they cross the scents. The air might carry the scent or a decomposing scent on the breeze and

Norwegian Elkhound — "Dog of the Vikings"

Every time someone leans over our fence and asks "What kind of dogs are those?" I realize what little progress we have made in introducing in this country one of the oldest breeds on earth and the most versatile hunting dog known to man.

The Norwegian Elkhound, "The Dog of the Vikings", dates back to about 5000 B.C. and has been used all those years as the working companion of the hunter, fisherman, and farmer of Norway. Still running true to his original form, there is no evidence or reason to suspect he was ever cross bred to introduce any traits he didn't already have.

On the farm he is an ideal working dog and can learn to do his job well. In the bush he is a tireless hunter and puts his mind to nothing but what he has set out to do. In the home he is the loving playmate of the children and guardian of his property. He is so versatile.

When my wife and I bought our first Elkhound and decided to become breeders, our intention was to hunt with this breed and introduce him as a hunting dog to others who like to take advantage of the hunting opportunities in this country just as we do. It hasn't quite worked out this way. Most of the puppies we sell are wanted as show dogs and pets, for even there they excel. But, the owner of an Elkhound who hasn't hunted with his dog is missing out on some thrilling experiences and the best his dog has to offer.

Although used mostly in Norway for hunting elk and bear, we have found this breed capable of hunting whatever is on the agenda.

A deer hunter at heart, I decided to try our first Elkhound, Greta, on this, my favourite sport. Greta was just 15 months old when I took her out for the first time. When I announced to my hunting companions that I intended to include an Elkhound in our quota of dogs, eyebrows were raised and shoulders shrugged but they condescended to humor me. So, with two mongrel hound deer dogs, Greta joined the party.

Any experienced hunter knows that a good deer dog gives tongue the minute he is on the scent. This gives the hunter plenty of time to be in position and ready with his gun. The instinct of an Elkhound is to lead you to the quarry rather than drive it to you, so for this reason he is silent until he is in position to hold that quarry until you can get in for the kill. The first few days of Greta's first trip to the deer camp had me a little uneasy as she went out and worked without a sound. I began to feel that maybe this breed couldn't hunt anything but bear and moose after all, and things I had read about them hunting bobcats, coon, and other game were figments of the writer's imagination. But toward the end of the hunt, Greta got the message from the other hounds and we were treated to a very feminine high-pitched yip. Greta was on the trail of a deer.

From then on Greta was one of the best deer dogs any hunter could hope to have. Starting with her, I learned that Elkhounds are not distance runners. They won't stay on the trail of a deer until they have run miles out of the territory being hunted. Many hounds are left in the bush for this reason but chances of losing an Elkhound this way are slight.

Greta's second year on deer will always be the most memorable year I ever hope to have, as she did something I never expected of a hunting dog. I was sitting at the edge of a small clearing on the deer run assigned to me, waiting for one of the doggers to put a dog through to me, not knowing which dog would be sent my way. Soon I heard Greta's piercing yip and I knew by the sound that she had a hot trail and was headed my way. I was ready when a buck came crashing through with Greta only a few yards behind. I could only get in one shot when both dashed past me and on into the bush. Disappointed, I sat down to wait for Greta to come back to me.

In a few minutes she came back but she refused to follow me back to the dogger. Instead, she whined and cried and danced around me, trying to head me in the direction from which she had just come. This was unusual for her to put on such a show so I gave in and followed her. There, about a hundred yards up the trail, lay my buck. My shot hadn't missed. Without a dog of Greta's intelligence we would have lost that buck and that much of nature's bounty would have gone to waste.

We have hunted with many of our dogs and have had some wonderful experiences but, even though she is gone now, Greta will always occupy an extra special place in our hearts. Besides being a great hunter, she was the brood bitch that started our kennels and we will always be grateful to her for this.

As tracking dogs there is no doubt in our minds that Elkhounds have what it takes to lead in this field. With nose both to the ground and to the wind, if the scent is there at all, they will pick it up. If there is no scent they will seek by sound.

In the fall, when the hunting season opens in northern Ontario, we take the first opportunity to go up to the Elk Lake area where we have the use of a friend's cottage on the Montreal River. We had an eight-month-old male, Ivar, who had grown clumsy and fat from too much loving care and too little exercise. Although he was too young to hunt, we decided to turn him loose. The first thing we do when we reach our destination is let the dogs go for a run while we unload the station wagon and get settled. Secure in the knowledge that a youngster will follow the example set by an older and experienced dog, we had no qualms about turning Ivar loose with Greta. Without waiting to see what Greta was going to do, Ivar bounded off into the bush, elated and excited with such freedom. For an hour or so he crashed and smashed through the underbrush, crisscrossing his trail over and over.

We hoped he would find his way back but we knew he would have trouble backtracking such a puzzle of a trail he had laid. We didn't doubt for a minute that we would find him but it didn't occur to us that we would get him back the way we did. When darkness settled in, we sat down on the bank of the river to enjoy the peace and quiet and to talk over our plans for the next day. Greta stretched out beside us. Soon, from miles away, through the stillness, came a faint plaintive howl. Ivar was crying about his plight. Greta raised her head as if making note of the direction of Ivar's cry, then without a word from us, she got up and trotted off into the bush. When the howling stopped we knew Ivar was found so we waited to see what would happen next. After awhile Greta ambled out of the bush and trailing behind her was a dejected Ivar with ears laid back and tail drooping. He was thoroughly ashamed of himself.

The next day we noticed that Ivar had changed from a foolish puppy to a sensible dog for he proceeded to hunt in true Elkhound fashion, ranging out in semi circles, a little further each time, but always returning to let us know he was working with us.

In writing this I have barely touched on the episodes experienced in our association with our Elkhounds. Others who own these dogs have their own tales to tell too. Listening to an Elkhounder tell of an event in which his dog showed an amazing ability to think out the situation, anyone would understand why we declare: "Once an Elkhounder — always an Elkhounder".

Of Ridges and Ridgebacks*

The Rhodesian Ridgeback enjoys the unique position of being the only ridged dog to have claimed formal recognition by kennel clubs throughout the world. The ridge factor, a genetic recessive, most probably comes from the Hottentot Dog, a jackal-like animal domesticated by native Africans, and first described by Europeans in 1505. The Hottentot Dog, interbred with various breeds of European descent over the centuries, produced the early "Ridgebacks" or "Lion Dogs".

The first Rhodesian Ridgeback breed club was formed in Bulawayo, Rhodesia in 1922. Shortly afterwards a Standard was adopted. This Standard, with minor alterations, is used today in Rhodesia, South Africa, Great Britain, the United States and Canada. In allowing 20 points for the ridge, the Standard states "The peculiarity of the breed is the RIDGE on the back, which is formed by the hair growing in the opposite direction to the rest of the coat. The ridge must be regarded as the escutcheon of the breed. The ridge should be clearly defined, tapering and symmetrical. It should start immediately behind the shoulders and continue up to a point between the prominence of the hips (haunch bones) and should contain two identical crowns opposite each other. The lower edges of the crown should not extend further down the ridge than one-third of the ridge".

The definition of the ridge can first be seen immediately after birth, while the coat is still moist, Unfortunately, because the breed is new, and the ridge factor is recessive, ridgeless puppies, multi-crown and single crown puppies occur in most litters, as do puppies with two "off" crowns and puppies with short ridges. The ridge remains in the same proportion to the body as the animal grows. Ridgeless puppies do not sprout a ridge as the dog matures and crowns do not move in relation to each other as time goes by.

Ridges, as outlined in The Standard. Left Ch. (Can. & Am.) Trefonen Marallal (Imp.); right, Ch (Can. & Am.) Kraal's Rocco.

What of the ridgeless puppy, the puppy with an extra crown on an otherwise perfect ridge, and the puppy with a single crown? It has been argued that the animal is first and foremost a dog, and thereafter a Ridgeback; that the ridge is only a fad which has nothing to do with the quality of the dog, and therefore is of little importance. This cannot be accepted. It is the belief of the writer and most Rhodesian Ridgeback breeders that all ridgeless puppies and all puppies with other than two crowns, must be culled. Certainly, should such a dog be shown, Winners points should be withheld.

What of the Ridgeback with a ridge of good length, but in which the two crowns are not identical? Used intelligently for breeding, such dogs make a contribution to the breed. It seems reasonable, therefore, to withhold five or more points (of the 20 for "Ridge" allowed in the Standard) and, with this penalty, judge the dog accordingly. Probably, in the face of this penalty, such a dog would be eliminated for consideration in Group or Best in Show judging.

Nature has found it possible to give us a breed with a moderate percentage of clear, beautiful, symmetrical ridges. Such ridges must be maintained, otherwise the breed becomes meaningless. The Standard is clear. It is the duty and obligation of breeders, owners, handlers and judges to do everything within their power to preserve such ridges, the escutcheon of the Rhodesian Ridgeback.

The Racing Whippet

A Whippet, properly trained and conditioned for racing, can attain a speed of 40 m.p.h.

Racing provides an individual Whippet owner with a unique way of having pleasure and fun with his hound. The race Whippets are pet-companions, not just "racing machines". Many are bench champions and several have obedience degrees. Many times the majority of the top six Whippets at a race meet are conformation champions.

The Whippet likes to run and when racing is doing what comes natural for him. For the Whippet, running is as natural as it is for a hunting dog to hunt or a working breed to work. The best race Whippets are those that really want to be the first dog in a race and this competitive spirit in the individual Whippet is an important factor.

The Whippet is one of the hound breeds known as "sight hounds". They depend on their keen eyesight, rather than their sense of smell, to follow fast running game or the racing lure. The Whippet is often called the sprinter of the running breeds, as he is the fastest runner over a short distance.

B.C. Working Dog Competition

The Working Dog Association of B.C held its Futurity with the all-breed show mid-November with Mrs. Hilda Balshaw judging both division. Several promising youngsters were out for their first experience in the show ring. Corgana Octilion, a female Welsh Corgi bred and owned by Mr. and Mrs. A. Huggins of Vancouver, captured the Futurity. Shannon, Octilion's mother, owned by the Huggins, won the Futurity last year. BOS was Cathy's Lynden B, owned by Mrs. William Fraser. Breeders and owners won welcome sums of money.

Division II, for member with other than Working breeds, was won by Hi-Hope's Beau, Miniature Poodle bred and owned by E. H. and Frances Clark.

Winning Canadian Malamutes

When Mrs. Minnie Graham, North Vancouver Alaskan Malamute breeder, attended a show in Pasadena, Calif., she had the pleasure of watching Bearpaw Elk, a male she had sold, take RW. Sixty-four Malamutes were competing. Her female, Bearpaw Geena, made two major wins late in 1965 at Wenatchee, Wash. and Olympia, Wash.

Western Canada Boxer Club

This active club not only fosters its own breed but has held successful obedience and handling classes which culminated in a fun night in which more than 100 members, pupils and guests participated. Classes resume this month. The club's first Futurity was held in December.

How I Choose a Boxer Stud Dog

(The following is excerpted from an article by Mike Jellicoe which appeared in the October 22, 1965 issue of Our Dogs).

. . . I think there would be general agreement that dog breeding is a communal art carried out by individuals —whilst individual thought and decision lie behind each mating, results of that mating (the whelps) become the breeding material of other breeders. Each individual breeder's breeding activities are conditioned and influenced by those of his fellow breeders. It is this concerted effort which constitutes a breed and such animal communities seem to follow the natural laws governing collective groups. There appear to be a few outstanding specimens — the heirarchal leaders and fashion setters, and then a stratum of above-average individuals — the equivalent of the chieftains, and then the great bulk of run-of-the-mill rank and file. If this rough balance is disturbed greatly then it seems that special care must be taken by breeders in that breed. If, for example, there appears to be a preponderance of superlative animals, it would suggest that either the Standard is too low, so that the above average dogs are being mistaken for the truly great sires and dams and that breed will steadily decline, or that such a degree of perfection has been achieved that little further progress by selection can be made.

In Boxers at the present time I think most informed observers would agree that far from having a surfeit of superlative specimens we have too few. There are plenty of above-average Boxers, but the natural balance necessary between these and the dogs with outstanding virtues and of outstanding breeding dominance is lacking. This is a situation, too, which presents breeders with difficulties, but at the same time I feel it makes the selection of a stud considerably less complex, because the immediate objective is clearly defined — as a breed we must produce several superlative dogs, and that means building on a sure foundation step by step, and not hoping for the haphazard "flyer." In fact, of course, haphazard top-notchers are rarely haphazard at all. They may be produced by a haphazard set of circumstances, but a close study of the pedigree usually shows that the mating had everything to recommend it. Such a mating was the one that produced the immortal Boxer, Int. Ch. Lustig v. Dom, and when repeated his equally famous full brother, Int. Ch. Utz v. Dom. The "planned" mating could not be carried out because it was not possible to get the bitch to the selected sire, and as a very second second-best a dog nearer to hand and one which had been discarded in the planning stage, was used.

Assuming that the bitch is worth breeding from, a dog should be selected which is correct for her major failing and which does not himself fail severely elsewhere. Should the dog's quality prevail in one of the female progeny, then that bitch should go to a sire who is correct for her particular weakness, and so on for several generations. Given good fortune as to survival of the best pups and selection of the right ones by the breeder, in four or five generations a pedigree can be built up which is strong for hereditary virtues and weak for hereditary faults, and it is from these pedigrees that superb dogs spring.

I always look for a dog which has the air and appearance of being a sire. To the newcomer this may sound merely a statement of the obvious — that the dog must be healthy and fertile — but experienced breeders will understand exactly what is meant. The ability to transmit quality is not so much a question of masculinity or even of slight exaggeration of a factor. It is usually an indefinable quality which rings bells with the experienced breeder. In Boxers the dog that always personifies this something was the great American stud force, Ch. Mahderf's El Chico. One had only to look at that dog to know he would stamp his qualities on his progeny. Whenever possible, too, I like to see a wide selection of a dog's offspring, because it is the ability to produce excellent puppies that counts. In other words, a dog's genotype (his hereditable qualities) is of more importance than his phenotype (his outward, visible qualities).

Another thing I like to know is whether the prospective stud came from a litter of even quality or whether he was the only outstanding animal in a bunch of also-rans. In the latter event he may well be only a 'sport' — and these tend to be indifferent sires (and dams, too). It is my experience, though, that the higher the average quality of a litter the greater the chance of breeding excellent stock from the dogs and bitches comprising that litter. One such litter comes readily to mind, the litter whelped by Ozark Jerris of Blossomlea which Miss Jean Grant (of Blossomlea, Richmond Hill, Ont.,) imported in whelp in the 40's. The males in that litter were Ch. Krinson Angus, Ch. Cuckmere Andrew, Andrew of Bramblings and Aleck of Blossomlea. If Andrew of Bramblings had not had the misfortune to break a leg he would without doubt have made his title, too; but the main point is that there are Boxers in the ring today, some 20 years after that importation, which trace directly back to these four dogs and whose influence is still discernable. Frequently, too, I think a mating to a dog should be suitable, but the results are disappointing. I would try a litter brother, even if the latter had not distinguished himself so much in the show ring as the original choice.

Finally I would like to return to the matter of correctness, because it cannot be emphasised too strongly, particularly in an intricate breed such as Boxers, that the way to eradicate a fault is to mate the animal possessing that fault to one which is correct for the factor. If a bitch is overlong in back it is useless to take her to a dog that is over-short in the hope that the puppies will be about right; they won't be. The way to eradicate either an over-long or over-short back (both are faulty) is to take the animal to one that is correct and this applies to length of muzzle, size and texture of ears, colour of eyes, cow hocks, feet—in fact the lot.

STANDARDS QUIZZ

Standards Quizz No. 1. This quiz, as for all others in the series, is intended to stir your interest in the subject of breed standards. It is not complete. It does contain phrases used in the standard to describe the parts of the dog or characteristics of the breed. The object is to match the first set of numbers (which relate to various parts of the dog) with the second set of numbers (which describe that part of the dog). For example: 30 - 7 Gait - outreaching, elastic, smooth and effortless. Scoring: 27-30 correct - you could be judging. 23-26 correct - you should start thinking about judging. 19-22 correct - good if you are in another breed. Less than 19 - you must be in another breed. Answers on page 80.

The Frightening Odyssey of Azor the Shepherd

Azor, a German Shepherd dog who, in sheer desperation chewed his way out of a crate when the trans-Atlantic jet in which he was a passenger touched down at Montreal's Dorval Airport early in November, is happily home in Toronto. When owner Emile Salomon and his family boarded an Air Canada Jet for Montreal following a visit to Europe, Azor, admittedly "a spoiled dog", was placed in an airline crate and loaded into the jet's luggage area. Just before take-off his master was informed that the dog had gone a bit berserk and on inspection he found the dog bleeding slightly from the mouth. As the plane was about to take off, there was little that could be done. No tranquilizer was available. On landing the dog escaped. After searching thoroughly, the airline officials gave up. Their offer to purchase a new German Shepherd pup was declined with thanks.

About a month later an airline staff member telephoned with the good news that a dog very much like Azor had been seen near the Dorval airport. Mr. and Mrs. William Marsh, who lived near the airport, had been feeding a frightened Shepherd. Air Canada officials flew Mr. Salomon to Montreal immediately, and through a long, cold and rainy night he searched. At 6.30 in the morning he sighted a form that looked like Azor down at the end of a street. He ran, but the dog ran too. Then he used a special whistle. This Azor recognized and dashed toward him, then stopped ten feet away. Still frightened and skeptical, the dog sniffed a few times then, at last assured, leaped joyfully all over his master. Examined by a veterinarian, he was pronounced thin but healthy, thanks to the efforts of the Marshes.

Need Warm Mittens? Comb the Samoyeds

When Mr. and Mrs. Carman Brown require wool at their home near Aylmer, Ont., they simply comb the coats of their Samoyeds. Mrs. Brown, according to the Ontario Hydro Hydroscope, washes and cards the wool then spins it on the ancient spinning wheel she acquired from an antique shop in Newcastle. The wool, she maintains, is ideal for knitting sweaters, mittens and stoles. Although their first Samoyed, Duke, is now 11 years old, the Browns began using the wool just two years ago.

We have been very fortunate in obtaining one of America's top Shelties:

AM. CH. KING HECTOR O'PAGES HILL

This fellow is a dark sable and white, under 16". Producing some real quality pups. He won the Futurity stakes and went Best of Winners at the A.S.S.A. Specialty, completing his Championship in an entry of 146 Shelties.
He is a very sound-moving animal with natural tipped ears. We feel sure he will help the Shelties in Canada. He is at stud to approved females. Fee $50.00 until Canadian title obtained.

Samoyed Association Draw

In their first fund-raising effort the Samoyed Association of Canada held a raffle for a Polaroid camera at the home of Glokon Kennels in Kingston, Ont. A relaxed Samoyed watched the draw by Alderman Kenneth Mathews (pictured right) of Kingston, Ont. Proud winner was Mrs. Vogan of Brewers Mills, Ont.

Breeding for Beauty and Working Ability

I am a new breeder of Shelties, and as we are on a farm, I am interested in developing their natural herding instinct as well as conformation and type.

One linebred female from our first breeding at seven months could drive a herd of 23 cattle, one at a time, through a three-foot wide gate and put them in a specified place.

Our hopes now are centered on Rustwood Golden Pride. Lady, at seven months, is showing plenty of promise as a show dog and also has a great deal of herding and guarding ability.

We intend to breed carefully to develop this intelligence and hope to come out with a line of working Shelties who can also stand and be counted as show ring champions.

I do believe that reputable Sheltie breeders have done a wonderful job on these little dogs and that almost any Sheltie, if taken at an early age, can, with minimum training, do farm work as well as their sturdy, courageous forebears.

invitational meet, which means that only the top retrievers have an opportunity to compete.

The five international conformation shows and obedience trials take place March 12, 16, 17, 18 and 19. Show superintendent Hudson Kalloch anticipates a large entry of top Canadian and American dogs. Apart from competition, Mr. Kalloch assures Dogs in Canada that one of the main attractions in the 1965 shows will again be operating: the Stoodleigh snack bar, with hot and cold snacks available from early morning to late evening.

Among other attractions of this show is the cleanliness and warmth, and the location of the show on the main floor of the easterly section of the Coliseum.

A record number of Booster shows are slated, 23 to date. For these shows and the list of conformation and obedience judges, see the advertisement in this issue. Closing date for entries is February 21.

James A. Farrel, Jr., Darien, Conn., has been named to judge Best in Show at the 90th consecutive annual dog show of the Westminster KC, to be held in Madison Square Garden, N.Y., February 14 and 15. Selected from the 35 experts who will officiate from Canada, England and the United States are the following Group judges; Maurice L. Baker, Minneapolis, Minn., (Sporting); Kenneth W. Given, Syracuse, N.Y. (Hound); Major B. Godsol, Dixon, Calif. (Working); John T. Marvin, Xenia, Ohio (Terrier); Mrs. Edith Nash Hellerman, Severn, Md. (Toy) and Charles F. Hamilton, Omaha, Neb., (Non-Sporting).

The entry is again limited to about 2,500 dogs, and is restricted to dogs over one year of age which have won a blue ribbon or higher award at a point show held under rules of the American Kennel Club.

customer. But if he sells the dog as purebred and then demands payment for the certificate the seller is leaving himself open to prosecution under the Livestock Pedigree Act and possibly disciplinary measures. The price at which a dog is sold and the use for which it was sold has no bearing on the vendor's obligation under law to supply a CKC certificate of registration for a dog sold as purebred.

Sometimes a really desperate letter is received in which the writer states it seems virtually impossible to obtain the papers from the seller. There is recourse for the purchaser in cases like this, stated the Manager. "He should see a Justice of the Peace or a magistrate and lay a charge under the Livestock Pedigree Act for failure to deliver a certificate of registration for a dog sold as a purebred. When any person, CKC member or not, is convicted of a charge under the Act as it concerns a dog, he can be summarily suspended or expelled if a member of the CKC or deprived of all the privileges of the club if not a member, without the necessity of the CKC giving that person an opportunity to be heard."

There is the occasional breeder, he added who appears to be under the delusion that, having sold a dog as purebred, all he has to do is to hand the buyer an application form and leave it to him to register the dog and that having done so this will eliminate his obligation under the Act. A breeder who does this is no less subject to prosecution under the Act or disciplinary proceedings by the CKC. The same applies if he sells a purebred and fails to properly identify the dog by tattoo markings or noseprints and instead leaves it to the buyer to do so.

Here is a different situation and one in which the breeder is covered. Supposing he finds himself in a position where he must sell a dog at a price lower than he values the animal as a breeding animal. "Then he should avail himself of the agreement forms provided by the CKC at no charge to CKC members. This may be used when a dog is sold on the understanding that it will not be used for breeding purposes."

A breeder using a stud dog owned by another person in Canada would be well advised, when contracting for the use of the dog, to insist on seeing the CKC certificate of registration for the dog, or a photo copy. He should make very sure that (1) the stud dog is CKC registered and (2) that it is recorded in the CKC records as being the person claiming to own it. A common occurence is where a person signs an application as owner of a stud dog but is not recorded with the CKC as such. The same precaution should be taken when using an American-owned dog, i.e. that it is American Kennel Club registered and recorded with the AKC as the property of the person claiming to be its owner.

Another important item: when registering a litter, breeders should make sure that the gestation period is accurately shown. If the breeder keeps accurate private breeding records, as he is required to do, information should be checked against these figures prior to sending the application on to the Livestock Records office.

And still another minute, but nevertheless important item: when showing a date on a form, spell out the date, as January 12, 1966, for example, rather than 12/1/66, or the American usage, which would be 1/12/66. The writer recently queried a birthdate in a show catalogue which indicated the puppy mentioned would have been considerably older.

We do hope these points will be

Young Americans Attend Western Sanction Show

When the B.C. All Terrier Club held its annual Sanction Show and Mock Obedience Trial in Vancouver last Fall, a representation of members of the 4H Club, Bellingham, Wash. participated in the Junior Handling and Obedience competition. The Vancouver Juniors will return this visit by attending the 4H Club show in May, writes B.C. correspondent Elsie Murray, who adds the hope that one day the Canadian 4H organization will include Junior Kennel Clubs. "This is badly needed. If the United States can, why can't we?"

Terrier News

The frisky Wire Fox has had a record year in sales during 1965.

I cannot say that for their appearance at the shows in the East and West. It's not like the good old days, as Mr. George Davies will confirm, when you used to see 15 or 20 Wires. The late Mr. Jack Waggitt, Col. Larchman, Frank Small, Ted Ward and others used to always have a good entry. It's the display of these dogs at the shows that creates sales, not just one or two Wires at a show. Let's keep the public interested, as our interest means gains for the breeders. Maybe the lack of Wires at the shows is because of the class of judging we have had this year. At a recent show a breeder of Wires was told that his two-year-old-dog was finished as far as shows go and this was a good Wire. We showed a Wire at 12½ years old and took the breed. Surely a good Wire at two years old is not ready to retire. To all Terrier breeders: make 1966 a real year, and let's hope the judges will keep in mind the Standard of this breed, as poor judging makes poor entries and lost sales.

Imports Winning Lakeland

Poodle devotee Valerie Reid, Sunlock Poodles, Dorval, P.Q., has just imported the young winning Lakeland Terrier, Hensington Gay Boy, from the Hensington Kennels of Stanley Thorne of Oxford, Eng. This youngster went BIS, all breeds, at his very first show last Spring, writes his proud new owner and in his second appearance, at the National Terrier Championship, took the Reserve ticket from the Puppy Class under Breeder-Judge Mrs. Mary Morris who said of him "really lovely puppy, I completely fell for." He is by Eng. Ch. Hensington Blackdale Tangle ex the litter sister of Eng. Ch. Hensington Carefree, winner of 11 CC's including Cruft's 1964 and 1965 and 3rd top winning dog of all breeds in England in 1964.

Mr. Thorne reported that Hensington Blackdale Majestic, sire of Miss Reid's Can. Ch. Hensington Springtime, has qualified for his English title by winning his third CC at Birmingham, November 12.

"With four Lakelands having gained their Canadian championships this year it is pleasing to note such a renewal of interest in these charming little terriers," observes Miss Reid.

Young Lhasa Imports Winners

Two imported Lhasa Apsos owned by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Webbing las Spring from the Licos Kennels, Lo Angeles, Calif., have finished to thei championships, reports Mrs. Gertrud M. McKenzie, Locust Hill, Ont. Th male, Licos Gunga La of Stolzenfel earned his title at 10½ months an the female, Licos Meida La of Stolzer fels, at 8½ months. Mr. and Mr Webbing are members of the Ontari County KC. The latter is the troph secretary.

Mrs. Adams writes that during 196 she has sent 30 puppies to new homes the majority to the United States (four to Toronto alone).

Offspring of Famous Pekes, Young Import Continues Wins

Peter of Mingulay was imported fron England in June, 1965 by Mrs. Susan Hearne, Su Lan Sung Kennels, Stitts ville, Ont. Now 15 months of age, thi male Pekingese made his North Amer ican debut a success. On November 13 at the Mohawk Valley K.C. (N.Y. show, under Haskell Schuffman, Pete went BW. The following day at th Onondaga K.C. (N.Y.) show under Judge John Cuneo, he again went BW On November 20, Sussex Hills K.C (N.J.) show, under Maurice L. Bake he went BB over an entry which gav him a major. He is a handsome grand son of the celebrated Ch. Ku Jin o Caversham and is a great grandson of the world famous Ch. Caversham Ku-Ku of Yam. He is also a grea grandson of both the fabulous sir Int. Ch. Calartha Mandarin of Jeho and Ch. Goofus le Grisbie.

Calgary Peke Breeders Great Importers, Too

Calgary appears to be a focal poin for Pekingese imports, with the larg est number of English imports having arrived in 1965, writes R. E. Abrey 9832 Fairmount Drive, Calgary, Alta

Mr. and Mrs. Kerton, who arrive from Ireland two years ago an brought their Pekes with them, have imported a good fawn male, Copel stone Pu Pucka from Mrs. Bentnick of Copelstone and Ramona of Wongville from the well-known Wongville Kennels. Both are winning well.

Mrs. Abrey, after losing her two studs, White Mite of Wangli, Imp. and Trinket of Wayanza at the age of 12 and 13 years, has imported two males from Alderbourne's fine selection: Wee Puffball of Alderbourne, who bred his first female the day he arrived in Canada has sired four litters since then. The outstanding mahogany red son of Goofus le Grisbie, Ch. Goofus Red Dragon of Alderbourne, soon won his Canadian title.

Last November Mrs. Abrey imported two females from Mrs. Myrlees of Beaupress to add to her line of brood bitches: Beaupres Eyrewood Maria, a daughter of the great Sunshen Yen Chu and Beaupres Chu Olivia, a very promising female puppy.

TEACHING OBEDIENCE IN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA

Obedience training is an exceedingly rewarding hobby, both for the instructor and for the student. For several years I have taught "Obedience" in Sarnia, Ontario and in Port Huron, Mich. I'm certain I'm a very fortunate individual to have had the opportunity of working with such wonderful groups of "doggie" people. I started with one class on Sunday afternoon. This grew to two classes and then four classes. By this time Port Huron residents decided I should teach an obedience class there. Again, this one class grew to two and then four classes. I was slowly losing my equanimity teaching eight classes a week, four nights a week. Rain, snow, ice or fog, we always had class.

I particularly get a kick out of our little four-footed friends charging into the classroom dragging a human being behind and then at the close of the period, walking out like perfect little ladies and gentlemen. Between the charging in and walking out there has been a great deal of work, patience, and love on the part of all three — instructor, handler and dog. Having taught human beings for about 18 years, I find the four-footed friends most receptive and indeed eager workers.

SAINT JOHN OBEDIENCE CLUB

A few people met in 1957 to form an obedience club, a constitution was drawn up and sent to The Canadian Kennel Club and accepted. Mr. Gerald McCarthy became our first President and so, the Saint John Obedience Club.

We had setbacks in getting places to train but in 1958, with the assistance of the late Robert Little and his helpers, we started training one night a week. In 1959 we had our first trial and it was judged by Mrs. Alex Casgrain of Montreal. Since then we have held many and have had both American and Canadian Judges. Mrs. Mary Southcott, Mr. Gerald McNally, Mrs. Peter Hamilton, Mrs. Ernest Smith and Mrs. Erma Morrison (both from New Brunswick) have judged for us. Mrs.

Deer Park Road, Rt. 6, Box 190aaa, Westminster, Md. - (301 - 848-1306)

Edith Munneke and Mr. Albert Munneke from Ohio, came to us to judge and held an Obedience Clinic for us the day after the trials. We found it both interesting and helpful.

This year we again have had three trials, with Mr. Ed O'Brien and Mrs. Mary Southcott for two trials and the third day Mrs. Ruth Tyner and Mrs. Ernest Smith.

I may say we have trained in some strange places, a recreation ground, a school play-ground, armories amongst trucks, outside a shopping plaza, small halls we could barely get around and presently we are using the basement of a church which is heated and lighted and suits us perfectly. We have all our own equipment and the necessary things for trials and our trainer Wayne Ewart has CD and CDX and is going further. Ranger, his German Shepherd, demonstrates for the class.

We also have a social club. We meet once a month and this is held after our Obedience Club meeting. At Christmas we have a party, sometimes held at the house of the President. A full Christmas dinner, films of previous gatherings, skits and music are enjoyed.

The New Brunswick Kennel Club has sponsored us for trials and the Ladies' Kennel Club of New Brunswick. We hold various activities to make sure we can always meet our commitments such as rummage sales, suppers, bring and buys, etc. The Saint John Obedience Club is here to stay and I feel sure it was something that was needed.

WESTERN DOG TRAINING ACADEMY

The 17 active members of the Academy (Burnaby, B.C.) have had an eventful year. Four sessions of 10 weeks each filled the year with obedience dog training classes under our very capable trainer Bob Watkins and his assistant trainer George Parlee.

On March 4 the club had a distinguished visitor attend the classes — Mr. George Mehlenbacher, Canadian Obedience Director. He commented on the excellence of our hall and high quality of our training.

March 22 trainer Bob Watkins judged a graduation in West Vancouver.

Highlight of our year was the registered Obedience Trial held in conjunction with the Terrier Club in Vancouver, July 3. The Vancouver Police Force Dog and Dogmaster Display, under the direction of Constables Ron Kearney and George Cheroff, was an interesting part of the program. Also, a drill team of 12 Western Dog Training Academy ladies and their dog executed a show of precision marching. From Seattle, Mrs. Torgenso with Pierre the performing Poodle; brace and team competition. Judge were Fredric March of Seattle an Bill Strutinski of Vancouver.

The members of this club are no only active in training Obedienc classes but have done exceedingly wel with their own dogs.

Ten-months old Dalmatian Proves a Heroine

But for the barking of Cindy, ten months-old Dalmatian pictured here 75-year-old J. Ray Chappel of Swanton, Vt. might not be alive today. Las May, while cutting his grass th mower tilted, and when he apparentl tried to steady it with his foot, wa nearly fatally injured. He called fo help but his voice was unheard. Cind barked frantically until help arrived The popular businessman survived with his leg amputated six inche above the knee. Had it not been fo Cindy's action, loss of blood woul surely have meant his death.

The Chappels purchased Cindy from Dalmatian breeder Leona Warburton Island Brook, Que. last July. She is a great grandaughter of her Ch Flashdale's Fashion and grandaughter of Ch. Flamboyant Rascal of Flashdale.

Predominently Poodles

It was interesting to note that at one of the 1965 Bermuda KC obedience trials all the competitors in one class were Poodles with the exception of one lone Schnauzer.

Noted for Obedience Triumphs, Standard Poodle Dies

Mandy, first Standard Poodle on record as having earned both a Canadian and American UDT title, died at the age of 15 years. Owned by Olive and Rowley Tyner, Senneville, Que., Amanda of Merrychance was one of the early members of the Montreal Dog Obedience Training Club.

We have recently acquired the Best in Show winning Miniature Poodle . . .

AM. & CAN. CH. PLAZA TORO SNOW FANTASY

(Sire of 9 Champions and 6 more on the go)

American Champion in 5 straight shows at 16 months of age — 3 majors and a Group 1st from the classes. Shown as a Special 12 times — 1 Best in Show (Poodle Specialty), 9 Group 1sts and 2 Group 3rds. Canadian Champion in 3 straight shows. A sound Poodle to this day, Fantasy is not only a well balanced Miniature with a short, well-developed body and a gorgeous bend of stifle but carries the thickest white coat that we have ever seen on a white. He captivates all by his charm and true Poodle temperament.

"Tassy" is at stud to approved bitches.

A litter sired by "Tassy" out of Plaza-Toro Kiss-Me-Quick (also recently purchased by us) is expected. Reservations will be accepted now.

CH. MAR-MA-MORS REMBRANDT

black miniature son of Am. Ch. Cappoquin Bon Fiston.

Rembrandt's sons, daughters, granddaughters are being shown in the United States and are pointed. One daughter, CH. JAYMINS CHARBONITA, was ably handled to her Championship by Mrs. Grace Edwards (first two shows, 9 points at 13 months). Charbonita's litter sister, JAYMINS PENCHANT, easily gained her CD with outstanding scores at 14 months.

After awhile Joe realized how very hungry he was. But there was no food. Not even an old bone or a shoe he could chew on. Nothing. And there was an awful smell — even for a dog's home. Soon it became dark. And then light. And then dark. Joe began to feel very funny in his stomach. And he was very thirsty. The next night it rained. So Joe drank from the ground. It wasn't bad and in fact Joe thought it was the nicest water he had ever drunk. But then he had never gone without water before for so long. But still no food.

And then a Man came into the yard and began throwing dogs into the back of the truck again. And as usual Joe licked the hand of the man, licked the hand that never fed him. And he was thrown into the truck. And the truck moved again, for quite awhile.

The truck stopped and Joe wa dragged from the back of the bo By this time he had learned not lick the Man's hand quite so readil And this time Joe found himself a small steel box with bars in fro and only just enough room to tu around. It was so small that he cou hardly make a mistake. And he fe really sick this time. In fact he fe really ill. The cold floor of the ca was cool to his stomach. Joe felt ver very hot. The room was very hot. H was by himself in the steel cage b there were lots of other dogs other cages in the room. They we all barking. This time he was giv some water. Unfortunately he ups the dish and the water all ran awa He got some food but it was so litt that it didn't even help Joe to fe any less hungry.

Finally a hand was thrust into h cage and Joe cowered in the bac He didn't lick the hand. He eve tried a feeble growl. If he had fe better he might have tried a litt bite. But it was no use. A rope wa thrown round his neck and he wa dragged out — once again. This tim he was pulled by the rope to anothe truck and once again thrown into sort of wire cage. But it was a "ca again. And again he felt it movin for what seemed a long time.

Once again Joe was taken fro the truck and carried into anothe building — into another room. Th time Joe sensed a great differenc The room didn't smell. The "Me all had white coats on. He was give food and water. A Man put a funn thing under his tail. Joe sat down an the Man stroked his head and the looked at the thing he had take from under his tail. Joe was le alone for a long time. He thought his own "Man"; of his own litt people and the Beagle. He cried an whined. Nothing happened — no on came.

And one morning a Man in a whit coat came to Joe's cage. He pushed sort of needle into Joe's leg. It didn really hurt. And soon Joe found h was getting very sleepy. And so Jo lay down and went to sleep.

Joe didn't wake up again, ever.

In case any one thinks that th little story is a "fairy story" let m assure you that it is, in fact, a tru story. It happens ten thousand time a year in Ontario alone.

stopped a green unpainted truck on Highway 401 near Kitchener one day in December. Inside were 18 dogs. They had been bought by the driver from a number of different dog dealers' yards in South Western Ontario. The driver worked for a wholesale dog dealer who supplies laboratories in and around Toronto. So who said that the tale of the little dog called Joe was a fairy story. □

How to Kill Your Club in 13 Easy Steps

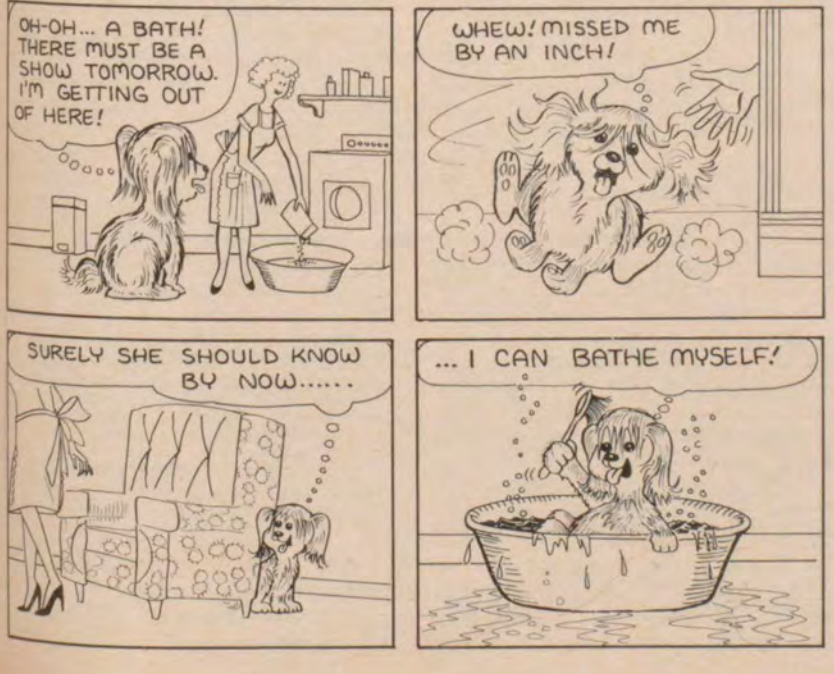

1. Stay away from meetings.
2. If you do come, find fault.
3. Decline office or appointment to a committee.
4. Get sore if you aren't nominated or appointed.
5. After you are named, don't attend board or committee meetings.
6. If you get to one, despite your better judgment, clam up until it's over. Then sound off on how things really should be done.
7. Do no work if you can help it. When the Old Reliables pitch in, accuse them of being a clique.
8. Oppose all banquets, parties and shindigs as being a waste of the members' money.
9. If everything is strictly business, complain that the meetings are dull and the officers a bunch of old sticks.
10. Never accept a place at the head table.
11. If you aren't asked to sit there, threaten to resign because you aren't appreciated.
12. Don't rush to pay your dues. Let the directors sweat; after all, they wrote the budget.
13. Read mail from headquarters only now and then; don't reply if you can help it.

DOGS & PEOPLE

It's a well-known fact that dog is man's best friend. But in this near-tragedy, man proved a dog's real friend. It happened on the way back to Toronto from the Ottawa KC show the weekend of November 14. Three couples, Great Dane breeders, in their separate station wagons, formed a caravan for the return trip. The arrangement was that if a car had trouble, the driver was to blink his lights, informing the others that he was turning off the highway. Bill and Helen Simpson, a young couple whose kennels are at 3 Conlins Rd., Highland Creek, Ont., flicked their turn indicator but did not signal that they were in difficulty. John and Helen Watling (Dane-Acre) Thornhill, Ont., and John and Lois York, (Yorgard), Brooklin, Ont., therefore travelled on. John and Helen stopped for gas and were beginning to wonder why the Simpsons were not catching up, when a car drove up, the driver established their identity and informed them that their friends' car was on fire. The Watlings raced back to find the car ablaze. The Simpsons had jumped safely out of the car, expecting their female Brindle, Zsa Zsa, to leap out. But as so often happens with animals panicked by flame, she refused to budge. Now a Dane, in the best of circumstances, is not easy to move if she has a mind to stay put. But a big Dane in extreme panic is virtually immovable. With the flames rapidly spreading from the front of the car to the vicinity of the gasoline tank which might have exploded any second, Mr. and Mrs. Simpson climbed back in the car where one pushed and the other pulled their Dane to safety.

By this time the car was a blazing inferno. Suffering from shock, although otherwise unharmed, the Simpsons were driven home by The Watlings.

Mr. J. G. Wharry, President of the Quaker Oats Co. of Canada Ltd., announces the appointment of Dr. George C. Fisher as Assistant Project Director, Agricultural Pavilion, EXPO '67. Dr. Fisher will be on a leave of absence from Ken-L-Products for a year or more. Since Dr. Fisher's appointment as Quaker's Manager of Veterinary Services five years ago he has become widely known in dog circles throughout Canada. Following graduation from the Ontario Veterinary College Dr. Fisher served in the Canadian Navy and worked with UNRA chiefly in Eastern Europe. He conducted a general practice at Ormstown, Que. and for ten years headed the Veterinary Service for Prince Edward Island.

In addition to his business activities, Dr. Fisher is a Past President of the Canadian Veterinary Medical Association, Vice-President of the Ontario Veterinary College Alumni Association, Director of the University of Guelph Alumni, President of the Saluki Club of Canada, President of the Canadian Club of Peterborough, Chairman of an industry committee on Pet Food Standards.

In the news: Did you see the double page four-color spread on evening coats, chokers, terry-cloth dressing gowns in the December 4 issue of Weekend Magazine? Nice publicity for the Dog Studio, Montreal, and proprietors R. William Taylor and Nigel Aubrey-Jones . . . And in The Canadian issue of the same date Mother Cecilia Mary and the six Sisters of the Love of Jesus and their animal haven outside of Victoria, B.C. with its 120 dogs, 50 cats and Twinkles, the dancing goat received 11 columns of further publicity . . . And Enid Osborne well-known Vancouver Poodle breeder, wife of yachtsman Bob Osborne, pictured in the first issue of the handsome new magazine Vancouver Life aboard the 78-foot yacht, Marborene with Mr. and Mrs. John Bell and Mrs. Herbert Fletcher and Poodles . . . In a later issue of The Canadian, Dr. Tom DeGeer, outstanding Toronto veterinary-surgeon, gives excellent advice to the general public on the "why" of purebreds for Christmas giving.

Honored: Frank H. Kortright, president of the Canadian National Sportsmen's Show. This country's first research station for the study of eastern North American waterfowl has been opened in his name on the banks of the Eramos River near Gue'ph, Ont. This grand sportsman is a longtime member of the Ontario Conservation Council and author of a book on North American waterfowl in use as a text in universities across this continent.

More acclaim: The Vancouver Humane Society honored The Reverend Mother Cecilia Mary of Victoria, B.C. at a tea at which the new pickup wagon was dedicated. (See previous mention on this page). So moving was Mother Cecilia's prayer for all animals many in the audience had difficulty holding back tears. Dogs' Western correspondent Elsie Murray passes on to readers the great little lady's appreciation to all "doggy folk" who have been helpful to her crusade.

During the recent Teachers' Convention in Montreal an entire classroom was allotted to The Canadian SPCA. Teachers who visited the display left with ample literature on animal welfare to use in their own classrooms. Bridget, a Cocker Spaniel, looks over some of the posters in this illustration.

Travellers: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Driver, (Manville Kennels) Collins Bay, Ont. leave for the Barbados this month and continue to Bermuda for a week to compete in the annual bridge tournament . . . Mrs. P. A. Margeson, Kentville, N.S., who last March judged the Pekingese Club of America Specialty, New York, recently flew to Seattle, Wash. to officiate at the Whidby Island KC show where she judged Toys and the Toy Group, Standard and Miniature Poodles, American Cockers, miscellaneous Breeds and Best in Show. A great many Vancouver "doggy folk" attended, either as exhibitors or spectators. Among British Columbian wins: Ch. KC show the following day were Mrs. Elisabeth Golby, Willowdale, Ont., whose Kerry Blue entry did some nice winning, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Ellis of Streetsville, Ont., Mrs. Betty Hyslop, Brockville, Ont., and Mr. A. M. W. Samuels of Toronto. The latter's Chihuahua, Ch. Pocohontas, made a two-point win in defeating four females, going BW over two males and BV over two American champions under Judge Haskell Schuffman. She made another two-point win, going to BW on November 14 under Judge Dolores Wood. Among the judges were Dr. Wilfrid Shute of Toronto and Mr. Ted Gundersen of Ottawa.

Guest speaker: William (Bill) Veeck,, the "incorrigible maverick" of baseball, and former owner of three major league teams, will be the featured speaker at the 11th annual Ken-L Ration show dog awards dinner to be held at Delmonico's Hotel, New York City, February 12. This famed promoter makes frequent appearances on the ABC television network show, Wide World of Sports, writes a syndicated column for newspapers and articles for major American magazines.

For members of the Ottawa Kennel Club one of the highlights of their November shows was the presentation of the Best in Show trophy to Mrs. J. H. Goss whose Bulldog took the top award. The trophy was both donated and presented by Mrs. Fanny McLaughlin of Ottawa.

Mrs. McLaughlin, a long-time breeder of good Boston Terriers, is 91 years of age. She is still an active member of the Ottawa KC and despite her years she still attends a large percentage of the club meetings, quietly, out of her long experience with dogs and dog shows, making suggestions that have considerable merit. No longer breeding dogs actively she is however very much interested in the development of a young West Highland recently purchased by a member of the family. Equally young, both mentall and physically, Dogs in Canada woul estimate that few who saw her i the ring making the presentatio would guess her age within 20 year

She did have one problem. Th photographer thought the pictur might be more effective if she knel alongside the dog while making th presentation. She confessed thi might be difficult — the result, nc of age but of a recently broken hi — from which, incidentally she ha made an excellent recovery.

Sympathy to: Mr. and Mrs. R. W Lawson (Koweeka Kennels), Mon Road Station, Ont. in the loss of Mrs Lawson's stepfather. The latter suffer ed a heart attack . . . And to Mrs Smart of Victoria, B.C., in the loss o her husband, Major A. E. Smart, Pre sident of the Victoria City KC . . . T Mr. Lloyd Hyman and daughters following the death of Mrs. Betty Hyman, Sheltie breeder, after a long illness. Mrs. Hyman was one of th original members of the Dominion Collie and Shetland Sheepdog Asso ciation, Montreal branch . . . th family of Mrs. Jan Clifton of Wash ington, D.C. who, with her husband Bob was known to Quebec and Ontario Obedience exhibitors. They competed with their Poodles at many Canadian trials.

Dogs has learned that Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Ferguson, Toronto, plan to retire from the world of dogs The Fergusons have had singular success with their Donicroft Kennels of which their white Miniature Poodles, Ch. (Can. & Am.) Plaza-Toro White Spice and Ch. (Can. & Am.) Plaza-Toro Snow Fantasy are two of the stars (see cover, Dogs in Canada, November, 1965 issue).

Mrs. M. Todd of Haney, B.C. writes that relatives in Scotland, breeders and exhibitors of Cairn Terriers, have a Cairn 18 years old, "as spry as ever, with only a few teeth missing". When Mrs. Todd visited Scotland a few years ago she brought a Cairn back with her.

Electroencephalography For Dogs

Dogs, like humans, have nervous disorders affecting the brain; however, since dogs are unable to communicate their feelings to veterinarians, ways are needed to diagnose, prognoze and treat brain disorders.

One method under study is electroencephalography, a method which records electric brain impulses and converts them onto graph paper for observation.

A study in this method is underway at the School of Veterinary Medicine, Ohio State University. Dr. R. W. Redding, professor of veterinary physiology and pharmacology, is in charge of the study with Joseph L. Wagner, a veterinary student assisting.

The study is supported by Morris Animal Foundation.

A spritely white Pekingese, provoking the interest of a group of black and white cows, thus providing an interesting study in contrasts, is the subject of a photo which won the top prize of $500. in the Gaines Dog Research Center's 1965 dog photo contest. James A. McGill of Valparaiso, Ind. was the winner. Subject of the second prize photo was a Schnauzer standing on the edge of a swimming pool indulging in water play with his owner. An Australian Terrier puppy seated in a large flower pot was the subject of the third prize photo.
