NON-PARASITIC SKIN CONDITIONS IN DOGS

In the summer, dogs are most apt to fall prey to external parasites. Unfortunately, summer is also the time of the year when dogs are most susceptible to non-parasitic skin conditions. If your dog shows any of the symptoms described on this page, take him to your veterinarian. Early treatment can minimize damage.

Seasonal

Shedding is a seasonal occurrence, although it may vary from dog to dog. A dog that is kept outside much of the time, most likely sheds in the spring. Other dogs may shed at the end of summer . . . and early fall. Others may shed continuously. Shedding in itself is related to temperature, humidity and light, but — at this point — little is known about their inter-relationship. Brush coats daily to prevent formation of hair mats.

Physiological

There is usually some shedding associated with pregnancy or lactation. Loss of hair during these stress periods is not considered abnormal.

Hives

One of the more acute conditions is hives. This is usually characterized by swelling of the face, the eyelids, the lips and development of red, blotchy raised areas.

The causes for hives may be many, but two frequently encountered are: constipation from eating bones, and autointoxication from the ingestion of spoiled foods. Occasionally this occurs when dogs are fed certain foods such as milk, eggs, horse meat, fish and chocolate.

Hot Spots or Moist Eczema

These are red, weepy, hairless areas which appear in a few hours. The dog licks or scratches himself, especially if he is bothered with an infected ear, a flea or some other trouble. Correction of the basic cause will give relief. If a cause cannot be established, then medication is directed along the lines of symptomatic relief. Cleansing the raw area and applying an antiseptic proves helpful. Occasionally sedatives, corticosteroids and feet bandaging to prevent self injury will correct the allergic condition.

Allergies

Chronic food allergies have been known to give the skin a dry, darkened appearance with hair loss around the muzzle and eyes.

On occasion, nutritional imbalances will result in generalized hair loss in the dog. These can be associated with excesses or deficiencies in vitamin A, rancid cod liver oil, hypervitaminosis D, riboflavin, or other vitamins.

Acanthosis Nigricans

There are also chronic disease conditions of the skin. One, for example, is acanthosis nigricans. The skin becomes black, rough and thickened, especially under the fore and hind legs, and is usually related to a pituitary abnormality. Thyroid drugs, hormone injections, and steroids have been used to correct the condition. Consult your veterinarian for further details.

Hormonal Imbalances

Chemical changes that take place in dogs' sex glands occasionally influence skin condition. Dry or brittle hair coat, hair loss over the sides of the thighs, and coats that lack luster are symptoms of a hormone imbalance. Some changes in skin condition may be accompanied by a change in the sex gland activity. Correction may be accomplished by hormone therapy or surgery.

"Collie Nose" or Chronic Solar Dermatitis

This is thought to be a congenital abnormal reaction of the skin to sunlight. It is characterized by quick onset and persists with loss of pigmentation of the nose, nostrils, eyelids, lips and ears. Symptoms include loss of pigment at the junction of the skin and nose pad, followed by serum oozing and some hemorrhage. Collies, Cocker Spaniels, Shetland Sheepdogs, Boxers, Retrievers, and Dalmatians are most susceptible.

Miscellaneous

Hair loss or reddened area on the dogs' legs, hips, or elbows, will often be attributable to the area, bed, or possibly position in which a dog sleeps. This is particularly true in kennels where the dog is constantly on wood or concrete. The problems can usually be alleviated by using bedding.

Excessive moisture, or high humidity in damp climates, may accentuate problems with external fungus or bacteria. Kennels which completely "hose-down" the runs each day and do not have satisfactory drainage may create problems.

Canadian & American Champion Gaymitz Jolly Roger, now only 2½ years old, completed his Canadian title in short order, after which he took on all comers in the United States in an effort to obtain his American title. He accomplished this in seven major shows, taking a number of Breeds and Group placings from the Classes.

He has topped many Best in Show and top-winning Boxers in the USA. In 1966 he took the Breed from the Classes at the famed Chicago International show, going on to place third in an exceptionally strong Group.

Roger was sired by the well known American Champion Salgray's Flying High. His dam is Ch. Gaymitz Dash O'Fire. Four Champions emerged from this litter, three of which also obtained their American titles — all in one year of showing. In doing so they won for their owners "Breeder of the Year in Canada 1965" and "Breeder of the Year in the USA 1966".

Ch. Gaymitz Jolly Roger was the top-winning Boxer in Canada for 1966, was second highest Working Dog and third top of All Breeds.

Roger has started 1967 off with a bang. Making his first appearance for the year at the Canadian National Sportsmen's Show, he took Best in Show at the first show, for the second time two years running. This put him in contention for the coveted award of the Centennial Gold Cup (where the Best in Show Winners for the five Sportsmen's shows competed for this top award, to be held for 100 years). Roger triumphed, thus becoming the first 'Champion of Champions'.

Owners of Jolly Roger are Jack and Doreen Northover, Gaymitz Boxer Kennels, R.R. 2, Stouffville, Ontario.

ONTARIO'S GAIN

. . . British Columbia's loss is Ontario's gain — Mrs. Marjorie Scott (nee Marge Cummings) has taken up residence in Carlisle, Ont. Marge, who breeds, raises and trains Shelties both in conformation and obedience was married in Vancouver on February 18 to Mr. Vincent T. Scott of Burlington, Ont. She is still the owner of the first Canadian Bred Sheltie to receive a Utility Title both in Canada and the U.S. Duffy, however, was left with Marge's mother as a companion to her.

Her activities and interest have encouraged her own customers and many of us with other breeds to train our dogs in obedience and go for the top degrees. Marge is a very capable judge in obedience and we are sorry that she did not write for her judge's license for obedience but being a business girl felt it was not right to be away from her own dogs on the weekends when most of the trials are held.

We are sorry to see her go but extend to her our best wishes in her married life and also to her Shelties.

APPROVING READER

. . . Our family looks forward to the magazine every month. It is very well published and contains much useful and interesting matter . . . Your information on 'The Law and the Dog Owner' is wonderful.

With reference to 'Breed Notes', and in particular page 44, you want to have readers' views on spot checks for the judges. This is a great idea. We haven't been to many shows but we have noticed many (not all) judges seemed ignorant of the Standards of northern dogs, in particular the Siberian Husky.

THANKS TO CANADIANS

. . . Through this department the writer, who has purchased Canadian dogs for export to Germany, wishes to thank Mrs. Phyllis Laventhall and other Canadian exhibitors for all the help given me at Canadian dog shows. I purchased a white Toy female from Mrs. Laventhall and she showed and handled this outstanding Toy, Ch. Ma Griffe Sandra, to her title. During this time I gained valuable experience and when I purchased the black Miniature female, Ma Griffe Lovely Lady from Mrs. Laventhall, I was able to show her in the puppy classes myself and did considerable winning at the Sportsmen's show where she went BCP in Breed on two occasions and always went 1st in her class. I plan to show both these Canadian Bred dogs in Europe and will keep in touch with Dogs in Canada on their progress and what's new in European dog shows.

WESTIE RECORD?

. . . I'm wondering if any West Highland White Terrier has produced a litter larger than eight? The mother accepted them all for feeding, making them take turns if she felt one was getting more than its share. They were all registered and shown to healthy adult dogs. I have pictures and records.

SHEPHERD PUP STOLEN IN EDMONTON

. . . Would your readers be on the lookout for this female German Shepherd puppy. She was nearly five months old, just starting to cut her canines, color a reddish tan with black shadings over saddle, tattoo right flank FED 13 x. Call name, Greta. She was stolen from her run Monday a.m. April 24, in Edmonton. A word to your veterinarian, especially in the Alberta, Manitoba area may keep him on the lookout. Please direct any information to Greta's owner, Stan Deane, 8507 — 134A Ave., Edmonton, phone 476-4693.

NORWEGIAN ELKHOUND BREEDER WISHES TO CORRESPOND WITH OTHER BREEDERS

. . . I am starting to raise Norwegian Elkhounds and would like to correspond with others who do the same. Is there a Norwegian Elkhound club anywhere in Canada? Also, I would like to know which run surface is the best for outside kennels. I have been told many conflicting stories about run surfaces and don't know which to use. Maybe other Elkhound breeders would help me?

ONTARIO HUMANE SOCIETY AWARDS

. . . As Chairman of the Awards Committee of the Ontario Humane Society, I would like you to know that three of our highest awards for bravery have been given only as the result of reading your magazine. I wonder if, in future, your Ontario readers would be good enough to recommend any acts of bravery, pertaining to or by animals, to the Awards Committee of the Ontario Humane Society, 696 Yonge St., Toronto 5, Ont.

ON GREAT DANES IN OBEDIENCE

. . . I particularly enjoyed the April (Obedience) issue of Dogs in Canada, and was especially interested in the tabulation of obedience titles by breeds.

Ever since watching a Canadian Harlequin Great Dane named Zepton work in the States several years ago, we have always been most fascinated by the performance of large dogs, and in particular Great Danes for they are so very seldom seen in the Obedience rings. From the tabulation of the degrees, it would seem that I had the pleasure of watching the only 1966 Canadian Great Dane CDX last fall during the trials of the Montreal Dog Obedience Club. The dane was a beautiful brindle bitch who moved as if she was on springs, sailing over the jumps effortlessly. She certainly impressed everyone at the ringside.

While chatting to one of the judges I learned that of the four Great Danes who earned their CD degree in 1966, one was a daughter of the Zepton we had seen a few years ago; she was a grand old lady of seven years of age when serious training was begun in January 1966, and at the Sportsmen's Show of the same year obtained four qualifying scores. That is really some going and, in our opinion, both of these dogs earn a place on any honour roll.

We understand the owners of these three danes are all members of the Canadian Great Dane Club, which, apparently, supports obedience training of danes to the hilt. It is most refreshing to hear of a breed club acknowledging the importance and value of obedience training in this massive breed. Even though entries are not high in trials, when a Dane is entered it sure is an impressive sight.

IS THERE A DISINFECTANT HARMLESS TO PLANTS?

. . . I wonder if any of your readers can help me with a particular dog problem:

In our suburban garden I made a corner by bedding natural stone slabs on sand, covering them with a thin layer of sand and trained our dog to go there to relieve herself . . . We clean out solid matter very frequently, but our problem is the odor that comes from this spot. Because of its location in the middle of plants and grass, we dare not use any of the strong disinfectants that are, I believe, used in kennel runs. Has anybody tried a product under similar conditions and found that it at least partly removes the odor while not harming plants? Any advice would be greatly appreciated.

FROM THE EDITOR

THE ANNUAL Dogs in Canada "Blue Book", featuring top point winning dogs in Canadian show competition, is presented in this issue. A record number of breeders took advertising space to portray their winners: 90 in all. Whether or not you are an owner of one of these aristocrats, the ever-increasing stature of Canadian dogs is a matter of pride for all of us.

"There's always room at the top", as the business saying has it. Meet the dogs who made it — the distinct achievement of representation in the "Blue Book". Owners have received recognition in the form of a handsome certificate (shown here), a permanent record of their victories. For some proud owners this will be a "First"

Be sure to keep the Blue Book handy when you are looking for successful lines to round out or add to your own stock.

HOW CAN a style until recently considered out-moded suddenly become au courant? The fashion world is a prime example. Many of today's latest trends were developed after a designer spent thoughtful hours in a museum. Tennis skirts? Compare them to the garb of ancient Roman soldiers!

The delightful new film, Thoroughly Modern Millie, is a prime example. The styles of the 1920's have a distinctly "here and now" look.

The same holds true in photography. Your editors picked up some 1927 ladies' magazines. The caption type had a rounded, flowing appearance. As a complete reversal, the style is returning. This month's cover of Dogs in Canada carries a completely new design — a cheerful, "friendly" style of typography.

Sorry we had to be late with this issue. We count on your understanding when you peruse the contents — additional features, statistics, illustrations — all requiring more than the present staff could encompass despite the burning of many extra hours of midnight oil.

Report to Professionals:

THE BIG FAT LIE

The first time you hear it, it seems to make sense:

Dogs love the taste of fat. And fat is essential in a dog's diet. So give them all the fat they want — the more, the better.

Don't you believe it!

The truth is that a dog needs just the right amount of fat. And the right kind.

Fat is a dog's most concentrated source of energy. It's also his source of fatty acids — essential for a glossy coat and healthy skin.

But fat contains over twice as many calories as an equal amount of protein or carbohydrate. Since a dog eats primarily to satisfy his caloric requirements, there is a danger that a high-fat diet may satisfy his requirements before he receives enough of the other vital nutrients.

The recommended minimum fat-level for dry-type dog foods is 5%. All Gaines products (Gaines Meal, Rally and Gravy Train) contain from 5 to 9% fat. This includes the fatty acids that promote a glossy coat and healthy skin.

It's easy to see why professionals insist on Gaines products. Gaines knows their business.

Professionals like yourself can also cut the cost of feeding by joining the Gaines Professional Service Plan. For complete details on the Plan, write to: Gaines Professional Service Centre, Box 4019, Terminal A, Toronto, Ontario.

TRIALS AND TRIBULATIONS

BY JAKE GIACOMELLI

Perhaps I should have written about this sooner, as the year is half gone already. However, there are plenty of Obedience Trials to go to before the year is up, so this month's article may still be timely.

Let's discuss the many errors that handlers commit while exhibiting their dogs which often cause them to lose points when being judged at Obedience Trials. I probably won't cover them all, but I'll mention the ones that I've noticed most often.

NOVICE CLASS:

Heel on Lead:

(1) Starting off with a short grip on the lead, thereby causing a tight lead within the very first few steps — (penalty for tight lead).

(2) Handlers who give the command "Fido, Heel", during which time they've already gone a full step or two in motion, causing their dog to lag immediately — (penalty for lagging).

(3) Handlers who constantly adapt their pace to the dog. This is a very common one — (penalty for adapting pace). Some exhibitors are pretty cute with this one, but if you're watching close, you can usually spot them.

(4) Handlers who, because their dogs are either slow in sitting or do not appear that they are going to sit, suddenly make a sharp left turn of the head to look at their dogs, who immediately sit when their handlers do this — (penalty for extra signal).

(5) Failure of handler to run or go slow on Judge's orders — (penalty for either infraction).

Stand for Examination:

(1) Some give extra commands and/or signals to stay before leaving their dog — (penalty for the extra, only one of each is allowed).

(2) It's surprising how many exhibitors wait for the Judge to tell them to leave their dogs in this exercise!

NOVICES, PLEASE NOTE — When the Judge gives you the command to Stand your dog, the standing and leaving your dog is all done on this one command from the Judge — he is not to give you another order to leave your dog; although quite often he has to because the exhibitor is just standing there waiting for the Judge to tell him to leave his dog — (penalty, handler error).

(3) Handlers who hold their dogs at the end of a tight lead. Leash must be loose — (penalty for tight lead).

(4) Lead touching the floor — (penalty for lead touching the floor). "The lead shall be clear of the floor when the handler is in position" for the dog to be examined.

Heel Free:

(1) Adaption of pace — (especially on figure eights).

(2) Failure to run or go slow on Judge's commands.

(3) Exaggerated body motion when commanding dog to heel, such as dipping.

(4) Sharp left movements of head to make dog sit.

Recall:

(1) Extra command and/or signal to stay before leaving dog — (penalty for extra, only one of each is allowed).

(2) Exaggerated forward and downward movement of head when calling dog — (penalty for this extra motion). You may call your dog by command OR signal, so if you command your dog to come and at the same time toss in quite a bit of body English you could even be failed for it, if exaggerated enough.

(3) Handler giving a command and signal to finish. You may give a command or signal, not both! (penalty for extra commands or signal).

(4) Handlers touching their dogs on the nose when giving signal to stay — you can be failed for this if caught!

(5) Handlers who move their hands from their sides to their front while the dog is coming in on the Recall — (penalty for extra motion to guide dog straight in).

Decide what position you're going to take before calling your dog, and then remain that way.

Sit, Stay:

(1) Touching dog on nose when giving Stay signal.

(2) Jerking dog quite forcibly by the collar before leaving — (sort of threatening "you'd better stay, or else!!"). You can be failed for disciplining or abusing your dog in the ring.

Down, Stay:

Same as Sit, Stay, plus pushing dog down. (penalty for pushing dog down). Dog may be put down by command and/or signal only.

See you same time next month! □

The All Terrier Annual Obedience Trophy

Featured in the photograph, Miss C. Schwandt of St. Catharines, Ont., the recipient of the All Terrier Obedience Trophy for the top winning Terrier C.D. in Canada for 1966. She received the trophy for her Scottish Terrier, Flight Boy 2nd, C.D., who finished his C.D. title with an average of 194.5. Presenting the trophy at the All Terrier booster show, held in conjunction with the Sportsmen's Shows, is Mr. Ross Pirrie, President of TATCOC.

This trophy is offered each year by the All Terrier Club to the top-winning Terrier C.D. in Canada and is retained by the winner.

Qualifications for the trophy are:

1. The winning dog shall be one of the recognized Terrier Breeds.

2. The winning dog shall be owned by a resident of Canada.

3. The winning dog shall have the highest average score in the three Obedience trials required to achieve the title of Companion Dog. (If the dog should be entered in a fourth trial, only the first three qualifying scores shall be considered).

4. The three qualifying scores shall be obtained in a single calendar year from January 1 to December 31.

5. The three qualifying scores shall be obtained from trials held in Canada under the jurisdiction of The Canadian Kennel Club.

6. In the event two or more dogs obtain identical average scores in three trials the trophy will then be awarded to the dog having the highest single score from among the three qualifying scores. If a tie still exists, the trophy will go to the dog having the second highest score from among the three qualifying scores.

In 1966 there were 15 C.D. awards to Terriers in Canada

Airedales	— 2
Bedlingtons	— 1
Bull Terriers	— 1
Cairns	— 2
Wire Fox Terriers	— 2
Kerry Blue Terriers	— 2

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SHOW GIVING CLUBS

A warning to clubs not to delay ordering your show ribbons: otherwise they might not arrive in time for your event — which spells disaster to a show.

Because of the unprecedented demands on manufacturers of ribbons in this Centennial year, orders are falling behind. One manufacturer admits to being six weeks behind schedule.

Do not fail to order your ribbons at the earliest possible date!

NOTICE

From time to time our attention is drawn to the practice of some breeders who, when advertising or otherwise offering dogs for sale, indicate in some way that the purchaser of a dog sold as pure-bred will be required to make a higher, or additional, payment in order to be furnished with a certificate of registration. Such persons should note that the price at which a dog is sold, or the purpose for which a dog was purchased, has no bearing whatever on the obligation of the seller to supply the purchaser with a certificate of registration issued by The Canadian Kennel Club for a dog sold as pure-bred.

The Live Stock Pedigree Act, a federal statute, requires that when a person sells a dog as pure-bred, or contracts to sell a dog as pure-bred, he must furnish, or agree to furnish, a certificate of registration, together with fully-recorded transfer of ownership to the buyer.

Article XXXI, Section 3 of the By-laws of The Canadian Kennel Club reads as follows:

"A member may be suspended or expelled, or a non-member deprived of the privileges of the Club, if it is proven to the satisfaction of the Board that when selling, or otherwise disposing of a dog for a consideration (monetary or otherwise), the person disposing of the dog has asked or required the new owner to make any form of payment specifically for the purpose of being furnished with a certificate or registration."

To avoid possible prosecution under the Live Stock Pedigree Act and/or possible disciplinary action by The Canadian Kennel Club, members and others engaged in the selling of dogs as pure-bred are cautioned to refrain from the practice of quoting two selling prices for the dogs, one "with papers", the other "without papers", or to in any other way indicate that an additional payment is required for a certificate of registration.

This notice is published by an order of the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club.

POINTING BREEDS
IN THE FIELD

Mr. Wm. McClure breeds Brittany Spaniels, is active in trial activities in Canada and the United States. He has served as President of an Ontario field trial club and is a member of the Brittany Spaniel Club of Upper New York. Correspondence should be directed to him at Box 15, Manotick, Ont.

The Spring trial season is well advanced at this writing and will be over by the time this column gets to you. There are a few results coming in with trials in Alberta, B.C., Ontario already completed.

A splendid newsletter reached my desk from the German Shorthair Pointer Club of Alberta. Therein is included the results of their Spring trial, news of club members activities in field and show and results of other trials held in Alberta. An interesting addition to the letter is an excerpt from an article appearing in the January 1966 issue of Outdoor Life, "Second Season Madness" by David Michael Duffy. This kind of communication is not only a benefit to the members, but it seems to me should receive much wider circulation in order to foster a greater degree of camaraderie among pointing dog people.

One of our internal problems is our breed, club, or association-centered attitude. If we could extend our communication beyond our own breed or club the sport would widen in interest. Necessary to such a process is the kind of letter received from Alberta. Rightfully I was checked in a recent letter to the editor of Dogs in Canada for not mentioning the correct name of a "new club developing in Quebec", "Le Club Du Chien D'Arret Continental Du Quebec". Undoubtedly there are other groups I have overlooked, interesting wins not given proper recognition or club achievements not publicized. If you can feed information to me, within the limits of this column, you can be recognized. My sources of information are Dogs in Canada, The American Field, Hunting Dog magazine and you. Some of you may recall the Canadian Sporting Dog magazine called Sporting Dogs Afield, edited by Robert Lambert and David Fletcher of Oshawa, Ont. This short-lived but excellent publication served the purpose of communication. Now it's up to you and me. The G.S.P. Club of Alberta is fulfilling their responsibility. Their puppy stake was won by a G.S.P., Moesgaard's Coco's Tamara, owned by Alex Forrest. Pine Acres Rebel owned by Ray Fields topped the Derby. Other 1st places were witheld.

LONDON CALLING

BY Stanley Dangerfield

This particular call is being made from Cleveland, Ohio, where a couple of nights ago I spoke to the members of the Western Reserve Kennel Club.

Now the only thing you can ever be certain of when you speak publicly is that no matter how many subjects you cover, none of them will be those in which your audience is most interested! Fortunately, there is a solution to this problem. It is the simple one of leaving a little time during which you answer any and every question the cash customers like to fire at you.

Here are a few of the salvoes launched at me on that occasion, together with the answers I gave.

Q. Which is the most progressive dog country in the world?

A. By 'progressive' I take the question to mean which country is at the moment making the most rapid progress as distinct from those that are and have been advanced for a long time past. In which case the answer is Sweden. In the last ten years they have made great strides. They have a good and efficient Kennel Club. Their publications are first rate. They have good dogs and they are still buying very steadily from abroad to improve their stock further. They are serious breeders and perhaps more conscious than most of the problems of hereditary abnormalities. They hold big shows, and 1,800 dogs is by no means unusual. Finally, they decline to live in a fool's paradise. At all their big shows they make a special point of inviting not less than half of the judges from countries other than their own.

Q. How do American Afghans differ from British Afghans?

A. Only in one way. The American Afghans are, in my opinion very much better!

Q. In which country is it most difficult for a dog to achieve the title of Champion.

A. Until recently the honor went to Malaya, because although they had held dog shows regularly for 30 or more years, they steadfastly refused to allow any point or challenge certificate system which counted towards the title. Thus, there were no Malaysian Champions at all. Even more unusual, Champions imported from foreign countries such as Great Britain were debarred from exhibition. Needless to say, few people went to the bother of importing! The object of these restrictions was to prevent a lot of unworthy dogs acquiring the title. In the course of time however, it was realized that they had outlived their usefulness. They were in fact working against the improvement of pure-bred dogs by removing the incentives to either breed or buy better stock. A system of qualifying for the title of Champion similar to that operating in other countries was therefore introduced. Having played some part in bringing about this reform, it was perhaps fitting that I had the pleasure of judging their first Championship show in 1965. The quality of the top dogs I encountered showed that the reform was overdue.

Q. Is Malaya now the hardest country in which to make a Champion?

A. No. Hong Kong leads in that direction now because it only has one dog show a year. Thus a dog must not only arrive at three successive annual dog shows in top condition but must also secure the nod of the judge as best of sex on each of those occasions. Strange but true, it is done fairly regularly and each year some five or six champions are made up. Even more curious however is the story of the Hong Kong Best in Show competition. When I was there in 1964 I gave the honor to a Miniature Poodle and afterwards discovered to my surprise that Mr. Grant, an Australian judge, had done exactly the same thing a year before. Immediately after the show, exactly as before, the dog had its coat cut right off to give it a year to grow a new coat for the next show. In 1965 the judge was Arthur Zane from Hawaii. You have probably guessed the end of the story and you are right. That same Poodle won Best in Show again!

Q. Why does not Britain invite more judges from abroad?

A. It is a matter of history. At the beginning, having a long background of breeding we had an abundance of good breed judges on our doorstep.

Any we brought over from less advanced countries were likely to be far less satisfactory than ones we drafted in from a couple of miles up the road. Now that is no longer true, and there are good and worthy judges in a host of other countries, but we are stuck with the economic pattern which developed in the past. British shows have always paid prize money in every class and at a big show this can amount to several thousand dollars. We could afford this because our judging slate, being local, was inexpensive. If shows now tried to change the order, that is spend their cash on importing judges instead of paying the traditional prize money, there would be a riot. Perhaps not even that. Probably there would be very few entries. I hope and believe this problem will be solved in time. But it is never easy to turn back the clock.

Q. Which show is most vivid in your memory and which show do you most look forward to judging?

A. The show I just came from and the one I am going to! □

HUMANELY SPEAKING

BY TOM HUGHES

OH CRUEL CANADA!

1867 to 1967: a century of undoubted progress. A hundred years during which Canada has grown to nationhood in a world which never questioned whether Canada is or is not a "nation" or whether "Confederation" will survive another century. Canada, a nation which enjoys a far better reputation abroad than many Canadians appear to realize and which a few appear to resent.

But there is at least one aspect of the Canadian way of life of which we cannot be proud. Of which we should all be ashamed. I refer to our treatment of animals and the apparent indifference of the public to the gross and extensive cruelty to animals which exists in every province.

"Oh, Canada, we stand on guard for thee" ! ! — but not on guard against the mistreatment and suffering of millions of animals.

Every year close to four million animals are caught in steel jawed traps in order to provide fur. Real "fun furs" except for the mink, fox, fisher and other fur bearing animals that are "fashionable". Not so "funny" for these animals. But can you imagine the public uproar that would be heard if a well-groomed, pink Poodle was caught by one leg in a steel jawed trap, staked to the ground, in the middle of any public park in any Canadian city? And just suppose that no one would help the animal but instead it was allowed to slowly chew its foot off in order to escape. There would be a riot! But when four million fur-bearing animals suffer the same fate in the unpopulated areas of Canada few people either care or appear willing to concern themselves.

Some Provinces have still not yet passed legislation requiring humane methods to be used to slaughter animals for human consumption. These animals are still being hoisted from the ground by a chain shackled on the hind leg before having their throats cut. They are fully conscious throughout this process. They die from loss of blood but only after suffering intense fear and physical pain.

Intensive hog farming calls for hogs to be tethered by collars. Many suffer gaping neck wounds. And merely in order to restrict the movement of the pig so as to increase its weight-gain in ratio to its feed intake. Or, to put it another way, in order that the Canadian housewife can buy bacon at a price which allows a profit margin to be maintained.

In British Columbia, wild and abandoned horses are still treated as "vermin" and shot on sight. Can you imagine the reaction of the residents of Vancouver if a man in a "skiddoo" chased a weary mare down Granville Street and then shot her. And suppose the mare escaped, wounded, and dragged herself around the city for weeks! But this goes on in the seclusion of the valleys and foothills of the interior of British Columbia.

And what about the poor, miserable dogs that are impounded in filthy, inadequate "dog pounds" in many of the rural areas of Canada. Or the countless number of dogs that are shot, beaten to death, axed, trapped or poisoned. Their only crime: being "at large".

Or the countless animals and birds which die every year to satisfy man's desire to kill; the basic blood lust that is in almost all men and some women. True, this is dignified by the name of "sport". But is it really "sporting" to hunt an animal with a modern rifle? It may be relatively humane but it certainly isn't "sporting"! If animals were armed with the same weapons that would be sporting! But if the odds were even I think we would see a sudden, dramatic decline in the number of hunting licenses issued each year.

And what of the large number of animals and birds that are killed each year, throughout our fair and blood-stained land, in the disguise of "conservation" or, worse, "predator control"! It apparently doesn't matter if tens of thousands of wolves and other animals die an agonizing death from strychnine poison if, by their dying, we can maintain a higher population of deer which, in turn, can then be shot and killed by hunters. Conserve now: kill later!

And certainly no civilized country would allow completely uncontrolled, unquestioned use of millions of animals for scientific research, teaching, drug production and testing.

We may be justifiably proud of the material achievements of our country. But we should be mortally ashamed, and hang our Confederate head in remorse for the way we tolerate and even condone such extensive cruelty.

From sea to sea, we are indeed cruel to those who cannot defend themselves from the blessings of a century of civilized progress. □

Centennial Puppy Match

Scarborough Kennel Club Inc. are holding a Centennial Puppy Match Sunday, July 2, on the spacious grounds of Mr. and Mrs. Don Davis, Alndon Kennels, Claremont, Ont. There will be classes for dogs up to 18 months of age. Beautiful ribbons and useful prizes will be awarded. For further information contact Show Secretary Ed. Dixon, 699-0451, or Club President Mrs. A. Farrell, 261-7406. All dogs eligible for CKC registration are invited. The club invites you to bring your picnic baskets and enjoy the afternoon.

Fine or Jail for Deliberate Dog Killer

A fine of $350 or 30 days in jail was the magistrate's decision on the admission of Michael Tomblin of Paris, Ont., that he had shot the German Shepherd owned by Samuel Wilson of Paris. Ontario Humane Society officials charged him with this wilful killing April 22.

Tomblin admitted that he and two companions enticed the dog into a car. While one held the dog, Tomblin shot the dog three times in the head with a .22-calibre magnum rifle. Following a drinking session accused could only recall shooting the dog on a dare.

Latest Edition of Gaines Kennel Roster

The revised edition of the free booklet published by Gaines Dog Research Centre of General Foods is now available. In addition to more than 120 Canadian kennels across the Dominion several hundred American kennels are listed as well.

Because dogs are not allowed into Expo, a list of approved kennels in the Montreal area has been compiled in addition to those shown in the booklet. Canadians heading for Expo or travelling to the various Centennial activities should take as much care in making reservations for their dog as they do with their own accommodation.

For your copy of "Where to Buy, Board or Train a Dog", write to the Gaines Professional Service Centre, Box 4019, Terminal "A", Toronto, Ont.

Laser-Beam Canes to Replace Seeing Eye Dogs?

Maybe, but there's no substitute for the companionship. A laser-beam cane containing three solid-state lasers, which locate what is ahead by means of narrow light beams, was demonstrated before the U.S. House Committee on Veterans Affairs. Cost would be a major factor. The experimental model cost about $4,000, but designers estimate production models would cost around $1,000.

Can Dog Scent Minerals?

The Novosti Press Agency claims that during World War II Soviet army men discovered that dogs could scent German mines buried as deep as ten feet. Sidney Katz, Toronto Daily Star columnist consulted with some geologists here on their opinion of the Russian geologists post-war experiments in the use of dogs to locate iron ore deposits. "After a course of training — method not specified — four animals showed a surprising ability to pinpoint metal deposits, Novosti claims. This work has not been confirmed elsewhere."

SPORTSMEN'S '67

These shows majored in mystery and a once-in-a-lifetime gold trophy

FOR the first time in its 20th series of annual shows a gold cup was offered at the Canadian National Sportsmen's Dog Shows. The Canada Centennial Gold Cup Award, marking Canada's 100th year, was an honor in addition to winning a coveted Best in Show award. In an unofficial class, the competition was open only to the winners of the BIS awards at these five 1967 shows. At most, there could be only five competitors, but even this small class was narrowed down.

Mrs. Betty Hyslop's internationally famed Cairn, Ch. (Can. & Am.) Cairndania McBrigand's Brigrey, won BIS in both the March 16 and 17 shows (plus Best Canadian Bred four days out of five). Also internationally famed, the black Miniature Poodle, Ch. (Can., Am. & Bda.) Tophill Orsino, took top honors March 15 and 18. *See insert below. That left a single contender, Ch. (Can. & Am.) Gaymitz Jolly Roger. And this dog was selected by Judge Peter Smith as the cream of the BIS winners. The handsome cup was awarded outright to owners John and Doreen Northover of Stouffville, Ont.

Due to the disapearance of several mailbags containing about 200 entries, the 1967 Sportsmen's Shows were not as large as early entries had indicated. Certainly the shows were the most talked about. The mystery, still unsolved, cost the show not only the depreciation in entries, but about $1400 in revenue. The financial loss, however, was minimal compared to the worry of the show officials and the disappointment of the exhibitors who had mailed their entry forms in good time.

The Working Dog entries more than doubled those of every other group throughout the five days, rising to an even 200 on Saturday, March 18, the day of specialties. Largest competition of any breed on any day of the shows was provided by Boxers, a round 30; German Shepherds, 26 and 21 Rough Collies. Samoyeds, Belgian Sheepdogs and Miniature Poodles led fairly consistently. Usually an attraction, with steadily increasing numbers, Newfoundland entries dwindled from 12 the first day to one or two. Reason for the drop could readily be traced to the big specialty in Massachusetts March 18, which accounted for 117 of the big fellows.

Two breeds often asked about but not frequently seen ran full range in size differential: Gary Wallace's Mastiff, Balleyherough's Cormac O'Conn and Mrs. Walter Kauffman's Affenpinscher, Am. Ch. Walhof's Ivy.

This year's increase in entry fees was taken in stride by some exhibitors and resented by others. The rise, points out Show Superintendent Hudson Kalloch, was the first in four or five years and was necessitated by heavy costs, particularly for help. The sweepers are probably the best paid at any show, and the show is noted for its freshness and cleanliness.

Of the throngs of spectators who watched Obedience Trials, few were aware of the excitement created when two competitors nearly reached the "possible" 200 points. Many obedience judges like to state they have never yet awarded a full 200, while some will admit to the rare occasion. Under Judge Mary Southcott, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Haydock's Miniature Poodle, Kate of Eyot CD, earned 198 points in Novice Class "B". This talented "performer" repeated the score under the equally critical eye of Mrs. Audrey Langford March 17. And on March 18, under another of North America's best known Obedience judges, Jake Giacomelli, Kate earned 196. In the first day's competion, March 11, the Labrador Retriever, Kelteak's Solomon's Quest, owned by D. H. Stephton, went one better by compiling 198.5 points.

INDOOR RETRIEVER TRIALS

Standing room only was the situation on several evenings during the 8th Annual Sportsmen's Show Indoor Retriever Trials. This was the first time the entire arena was devoted to the Trials, and the reception was tremendous. More than 40,000 spectators crowded in to watch these internationally famous trials, at least 80% of whom were experiencing for the first time the thrill of watching brainy, eager gundogs working precisely to signals. The retrievers competed in a setting simulating a countryside — with fences, streams, shrubbery and fallen leaves (gathered and stored from last Fall) creating a realistic setting.

The trials were spectacular, and under the guidance of Chairman H. V. P. Lewis and Harold Payne, Vice-Chairman, made for breath-taking competition. Forty-six outstanding retrievers from Ontario, Quebec and the United States competed, by invitation, all having placed or been awarded a Certificate of Merit at a licensed trial during 1966. The winners of each of the first seven evening trials came in for the final trial Saturday, March 18, rivals for the coveted Purina Gold Whistle offered by Ralston Purina of Canada Ltd., sponsor.

FT Ch. Irwin's Toby, owned by William Hutchinson of Burlington, Ont. winner of the Second Trial, also carried off the Gold Whistle in the Eighth Trial. First day's winner was FT Ch. & Am. Amateur FT Ch. Stormy of Spirit Lake Gal, owned by James M. Thomson, well-known Toronto sportsman. Third day's winner was Buck of Ghent, owned by Len Ikonen of Kitchener, Ont. Peter Wyck of Cooksville, Ont., with his Big Stone's Wyckof's Windy Coot, took the honors on the fourth day. Ralston Valley's Thunder, owned by Vernon Steer of London, Ont., captured the honors in the fifth trial. Sixth trial winner was Alberic of Avondale, owned by Len Tait of the Town of Mount Royal, Que. Seg-Mar Stubblewest Gold Teena, owned by Barry Taylor of Beaconsfield, Que., was the victor in the seventh event. Eight outstanding judges assessed the tense competition.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE SHOWS

Belle of the show was, as in the past many years, Mrs. Charlotte Walker, grand dame of Canadian dogdom. Cheery and witty as ever at the mature age of 98, she was particularly honored by the Exclusive International Toy Club. The club presented their senior member with a painting, by Marg Henderson, of her treasured Pomeranian.

The handlers' "happening", which has become an annual event, was even more hilarious than usual. The ending was a happy one, with the winning "dog" doing a disappearing act. Mary Lou Creamer won readily with the most unusual entry — a dog made of frankfurters. After Master Bedard of Montreal, a junior handler, named her the winner the other animate canine competitors ate the winning "dog".

An international aspect created additional interest and pleased comments. A bench was set up by a group of American competitors with the sign "Happy Centennial to our Friends". The Saluki Club won the

Attention Dog Owners and Breeders

RE: HIP DYSPLASIA

by R. J. KETCHELL, D.V.M., M.R.C.V.S.

Dr. Ketchell, a greatly respected small animal practitioner, is keenly interested in hip dysplasia. Chairman of the Committee on Radiology of The Toronto Academy of Veterinary Medicine, he has devoted a great deal of time and effort to formulating this valuable program established by the Academy.

VETERINARIANS who practice in the Metropolitan Toronto area are becoming increasingly disturbed at the defect of hip dysplasia particularly in the large and giant breeds.

In order to assist reputable breeders to combat and, if possible, eliminate the problem, the Toronto Academy of Veterinary Medicine is pleased to announce a standardized clinical and radiological examination available through any of its members. Due to the nature of the condition, only dogs and bitches that have reached the age of at least eight months will be accepted for examination and the scheme will operate as follows:

The animal owner will select a member of the Toronto Academy of Veterinary Medicine to make the examination and arrange an appointment. At the appointed time he will take the animal, together with the Pedigree Certificate, to the veterinarian of his choice. The Pedigree Certificate will be essential, in order to verify the age and to supply the other necessary identification particulars which will have to appear on the Hip Dysplasia certificate.

The examining veterinarian will place the dog or bitch under either deep sedation or complete anesthesia; and make a physical examination of the hips followed by the exposure of a minimum of two radiographs in (1) the extended ventro-dorsal femoral position and (2) the ventro-dorsal "frog" position.

Following processing of the films he will complete the accepted report form (see Appendix A) and decide whether the animal is normal or abnormal for hip dysplasia.

If, in his opinion, the animal is normal and shows no evidence of hip dysplasia, the processed films and completed report form will be forwarded to the official Academy scrutineer, Dr. A. J. Cawley, Ontario Veterinary College, University of Guelph, Guelph, Ont.

Dr. Cawley will examine the films and if he agrees that there is no evidence of hip dysplasia he will issue a certificate (in triplicate) to that effect according to the sample (Appendix B). One copy of this certificate will be retained by Dr. Cawley; the original and one copy will be returned to the examining veterinarian; the original will be issued to the registered owner of the dog or bitch and the copy will be retained with the original report form and relevant radiographs. The radiographs are the property of and must remain in the possession of the examining veterinarian until the animal is at least 10 years of age unless death supervenes.

The Toronto Academy hopes that this procedure will be generally acceptable, since it is a most sincere attempt to eliminate the inherent variables which inevitably occur in a condition subject to the opinion of an individual.

NOTE

This certificate is issued subject to the limitations of the present knowledge of hip dysplasia, and does not necessarily indicate that the animal is genetically normal.

To recapitulate, standardization will be achieved by the fact that:

1. All participating veterinarians will be critically examining the same important features by following the approved report form.
2. The recommended "normal" animals must be confirmed by one individual — namely Dr. A. J. Cawley — an independent employee of the University of Guelph — before a certificate of freedom from hip dysplasia may be issued.

The suggested fee for this procedure is $30.00 with a $5.00 discount if the animal is definitely dysplastic and confirmation by the scrutineer is not required. □

Mendel—111 Years Later

by H. MALCOLM STEPHENS

IN the spring of 1856, in a monastary garden at Brünn, Austria, there commenced an experiment, the results of which were so far ahead of the times that it was neglected for 40 years after its publication in 1866. The experimenter was a frail, academic monk — Gregor Mendel. His material was the common pea. Mendel came from a peasant family but because of early brilliance had remained in school to eventually become a priest. In spite of the inadequacies of the science offered at the various institutions which he attended, he retained his peasant's interest in growing things. Because of his keen mind he never ceased to ask, "Why?". To secure new colors of flowers in his garden, Mendel had been in the practice of hand pollinization to produce deliberate crosses. He had observed that when he crossed certain species, the same hybrid forms regularly appeared. When he crossed one hybrid with another, some very different characteristics sometimes appeared among the progeny. Self-taught in science, he asked "Why and how?". Nothing in the published literature could help. He must find his own answers.

■ In preparation for the 1856 experiment, he had selected 34 more or less distinct varieties of peas from seedsmen and grown them for two years to learn if they bred true. They did. He had his material; 46 years later scientists began to describe plants and animals which met this criterion for a single characteristic as homozygous with regard to that particular characteristic. Conversely, plants and animals which possess the possibility of not breeding true for a particular characteristic were labelled heterozygous. From his original 34, Mendel selected 22 and from these, seeds with seven sharply contrasting pairs of characteristics:

1. The form of the ripe seeds — round or wrinkled;
2. The color of the peas — yellow or intense green;
3. The color of the transparent seed cover or skin — white or greyish;
4. The form of the ripe pods — inflated or constricted between the peas;
5. The color of the unripe pods — green or yellow;
6. The position of the flowers — axial or terminal;
7. The length of stem — tall or dwarf.

■ To the dog breeder, the significance of these seven pairs of characteristics is twofold. First, each pair applies only to one very restricted characteristic of the pea plant as a whole. Second, Mendel started with stock which bred true for the characteristic under study. Similar pairs of dog characteristics might be: hair — straight or curly; undercoat — present or absent; tongue — black or red; dew claws, rear feet — present or absent. It is very difficult to select a list of seven clear cut characteristics of dogs which are either one thing or another and not complicated by numerous intermediate forms. Mendel's conclusions are nevertheless of tremendous significance to the dog breeder, if applied realistically with adequate understanding of their limitations.

Mendel crossed peas within each group so that every round pea was crossed with a plant of the wrinkled variety; every yellow pea with a green plant; and so on for each of the seven test pairs. As the various test plots ripened, Mendel observed that in each case one characteristic in each pair appeared and the other was suppressed. Round crossed with wrinkled produced nothing but round peas. Yellow crossed with intense green produced nothing but yellow peas. Transparent seed covers, inflated pods, green pods, axial blossoms and tall plants all appeared to have suppressed the opposite with which they had been crossed. It was evident that one characteristic in each pair had been entirely dominant over the other. Later the other characteristic, the one lost to sight, was labelled recessive. At the conclusion of his experiments, Mendel adopted upper case letters to designate a dominant characteristic and lower case letters for a characteristic recessive to a particular dominant characteristic. Thus, in this particular scientific shorthand A is dominant to a; B dominant to b; C to c and so on. Later, other scientists began to refer to these first generation crosses between homozygous parents as F_1 hybrids.

■ Next came the crossing of hybrid with hybrid. Thus, the round peas from Mendel's first pair of characteristics were crossed with other round peas from the same test; yellow peas with yellow peas; transparent seed covers with transparent and so on. Using the shorthand developed much later $F_1 \times F_1$. Again the summer of waiting to harvest the crop and observe the results. In each of the seven test groups, some of the plants or some of the seeds showed the characteristic of the grandparent, which had been suppressed in the F_1 hybrids, reappeared in what is now known as the F_2 generation. Careful tabulation of all his plants under test showed that there were 14,949 examples showing characteristics which had been determined as dominant in the F_1 generation and 5,010 showing characteristics which had not appeared in the F_1 generation. The dominants had appeared in a ratio of three to one.

The F_2 seeds were then crossed with like seeds to obtain the F_3 generation. This series of crosses produced the clues to explain the three to one ratio of the F_2 plants. One third of the seeds from the plants which had shown the dominant characteristics produced nothing but the dominant characteristics. The remainder produced the same three to one ratio found in the F_2 generation. All the seeds from plants, which in the F_2 generation had shown the recessive characteristics suppressed in the F_1 generation, produced nothing but the recessive characteristics. These experiments were continued through six or seven generations and nothing varied as long as the original criteria were adhered to. The behavior of the plants showing the dominant characteristics indicated that the three to one ratio was actually a 1:2:1 ratio. This is best explained by resorting to the upper and lower case letters form of shorthand.

■ Mendel wrote up his findings which were presented to a small group of scientists early in 1866. The paper was published and sent to various libraries. The paper contained three laws of inheritance:

1. All living things are a complex of a large number of inheritable units.

2. When each parent contributes the same kind of factor and the two come together in the offspring, a constant character is produced. But if one parent contributes one kind of factor, say "A", and the other, say "a", a hybrid results. When the hybrid forms reproductive cells, the two differentiating elements liberate themselves again and are thus free to form new combinations in the next union.

3. The factors are unaffected by their long association in the individual. They emerge from the union as distinct as when they entered it.

Mendel was diverted by the church into administrative affairs and published nothing more of significance. His paper lay neglected until 1900 when three different scientists, working independently of each other in three different countries and working on the same problems, came upon the paper. Each realized its significance and incorporated it in their publications with full credit.

Mendel had done his work without the knowledge of the structure of the cell, made possible, first, by the development of the compound microscope and subsequently by the electron microscope. Other scientists have made tremendous contributions to our knowledge of how characteristics are transmitted from one generation to the succeeding generations. None of this work has contradicted or necessitated any major revision of Mendel's first two laws of inheritance. The third law, in the light of present knowledge, might possibly be revised to make it a little less absolute in its statement. There remains a possibility however that further breakthroughs on this particular frontier of knowledge will confirm the law by explaining the exceptions.

■ Mendel worked with peas. We as dog breeders work with dogs. Where is the link? The structure of the cell in all forms of life is essentially the same. The similarity of behavior of the cells of reproduction for all forms of life is most pronounced. If the dog breeder never forgets that Mendel studied one characteristic at a time and formulated his laws accordingly, Mendel's laws of inheritance can be applied to dogs. The laws must be related to each characteristic of the animal independently. Certain characteristics appear to be linked but where linkage takes over and co-incidence ceases to apply is very difficult to determine. The plant breeder can raise thousands of specimens of a single cross. The dog breeder must work with an infinitely smaller sample. Furthermore, an animal is a much more complicated structure than a plant with many more observable characteristics. Keeping the three Mendel laws in mind, the dog breeder has unlimited opportunity for observation of the application of dominance or its absence. The search for the ideal specimen is a search for very minor improvements or changes from among a very small sample. The F_2 cross is necessary to determine the dominance of a given characteristic and its presence in a homozygous state in a particular individual. This takes both time and patience.

■ A great deal of work has been done by scientists on dogs in the study of inheritance. Some of this has been done with cross-breds and is largely useless to the breeder interested in pure-bred stock. Other work relates to crosses between strongly contrasted breeds but little scientific work under controlled conditions has been done and little is known of the genetics of those minor structural differences which are of such vital importance in show competition. Some intelligent work has been done on the inheritance of coat type and color. One can, for example, say that all or almost all Schipperkes are homozygous for black and Irish Water Spaniels are homozygous for both curly coat and brown color. Here we have a breed with longer recorded history than most and it is probable that all are descended from Boatswain, (born 1834 and lived for 18 years). In Shetland Sheepdogs, black and white (absence of tan) is recessive to most of the other color combinations. A few years ago I bred a black and white Sheltie sired by a blue merle out of a tricolor bitch. For the black and white to appear it must have been present on both sides of the pedigree. A diligent search took me back six generations on one side and five on the other. In each case, not to a black and white but to dogs which were known to have sired black and white. This is an example of a recessive being carried forward for many generations by individuals, heterozygous for this particular characteristic, and it ultimately appearing in one animal out of a litter of three.

The study of genetics as related to the breeding of dogs is a complicated one. Each facet is a suitable subject for an article. Perhaps we shall have time to develop some of these in the future. A clear understanding of Mendel's work and his three laws of inheritance is essential to understand the terms and the associated shorthand. □ prize for the best club display — which surprised no one. Harem costumes and other display material were sent up by the Saluki Club of California. These, together with the elegant dogs, created an Oriental oasis.

PERSONALITIES

While exhibitors to whom showing is an avocation rather than a vocation might have envied Horace Hollands, veteran pro, at one time or another, few did at this show. Horace had just lost his St. Clair, Mich. kennels prior to competing at the Sportsmen's Shows. Carol, also well known to show-goers in this area, and her father worked fast and saved all the dogs but one, and two cats. A falling, flaming beam prevented the rescue of Mike O'Brien, one of his Irish Setters famed in earlier days.

Virginia McCoy, Allegan, Mich. well-known handler and judge and Roy McGinnis had a stroke of ill-fortune at about the same time in Palm Beach when the trailer suddenly shot into flames. Some Otterhounds and Dachshunds were lost, as well as a considerable sum of travel money.

Joey Purdy was back in the ring with some of her outstanding Doberman Pinschers, both drawing admiring attention. Mrs. Purdy has been seen less in the dog show rings and more with the horse shows in recent years. Just before the show the Purdys' saddle bred "Junior" won all possible classes in the zone.

Between showing and her many service club responsibilities, Mrs. Dorothea Daniell-Jenkins was preparing to leave for Europe to judge three breeds of Schnauzers, some of the non-Sporting Group, as well as Papillons in San Remo, Monte Carlo and Mentone, France — a signal honor for a Canadian judge.

G.S.P.C. of Ontario holds first licensed Field Trial

by A. J. HOENIG

THE first licensed C.K.C. Field Trial of the German Shorthaired Pointer Club of Ontario was held on Sunday, March 19, at the Bruce Dale Game Farm, Fenwick, Ont. A total of 30 dogs were entered in four stakes. Judges for all stakes were: Mr. Maxwell D. Richtie, Kitchener, Ont., and Mr. Charles B. Possett, Niagara Falls.

Amateur Shooting Dog Stake: eight entries.

The first Brace with G.S.P. Am. F.T. Ch. Paladin of Hunters Run and G.S.P. Pia v. Tannenberg took off into the snow-covered fields at 8:00 a.m. Paladin, with a slow start, ended up in the Bird Field first with two stylish finds and one very good retrieve and made a very good show. Pia v. Tannenberg did not get her chance.

The second Brace, with G.S.P. Moesgard's Ruffy and Vizsla import Alena Somm, had a good start and both seemed to have a fair back course. Ruffy was very fast but broke after each shot as always, Alena Somm did not get her usual chance on the planted pheasants.

The third Brace, with G.S.P. Tasso v. Tannhausen and handsome Vizsla Bondi, had difficulties getting off but each of the two went on its own way after a short time. Bondi had the first find with Tasso backing stylishly. Both dogs broke after the shot.

The fourth Brace, with G.S.P. Gorky Glen v. Ammerburgh and G.W.P. Balda v. Hohen Tann, got the first bird and made a fair retrieve, but was flagging at point. Second find by Balda was a dead bird.

Winner of the Amateur Shooter Dog Stake: Am. F.T. Ch. Paladin of Hunters Run. Second, third and fourth withheld.

Following with 10 entries in the Puppy Stake, the trial went ahead and really good puppies with speed and go-power were seen. Since the back course for handlers and their dogs was partly rough, on account of deep snowdrifts and rolling terrain, everybody was pleased with the placements. First: Katey v. Iserhofer, O/H Mr. T. Eadie; Second: Sport, O/H Mr. C. Robertson; Third: Thunderbolt Dan, O/H Mr. G. Laney; Fourth: Otto v. Hohen Tann, O/H Mr. R. Reichmann.

The following Derby Stake had seven entries with only two placements. First: Moesgards Buckeye Duke, owner and handler Mr. J. Eadie of London, Ont. A very fast dog with endurance and potentials.

Second place went to Otto v. Hohen Tann, a very well-going dog with good reach and steady at point.

Third and fourth were withheld.

Open All Age: five entered. Three birds in each Brace.

The first Brace, with G.S.P. Am. F.T. Ch. Paladin of Hunters Run and Weimaraner Flying Dutchman Hofbraus, were moving with fair speed all the way but when Paladin of Hunters Run came into the Bird Field he proved again that he is truly a Field Champion. Paladin, with two finds and two retrieves, left the Flying Dutchman only backing stylish on its first point.

Second Brace, with G.S.P. Moesgards Ruffy and G.W.P. Balda v. Hohen Tann, went off good when Ruffy got a running bird on its backcourse and couldn't resist chasing and bringing back a dead bird.

The third and last Brace, with only G.S.P. Tasso v. Tannhausen, went off and Tasso went ahead with good range and speed. Entering the Bird Field, Tasso came across a running bird, went on stylish point, when the bird moved again and flushed wild. Stylish on the second find and shot over with very good retrieve ended this stake and field trial when the judges were calling time.

The winners were as follows: 1st, Am. F.T. Ch. Paladin of Hunters Run, O/H Mr. G. Laney, Snyder, N.Y.; 2nd, Tasso v. Tannhausen, O/H Mr. A. Hoenig, Hamilton, Ont.

Hot coffee, good food and other refreshments were entirely donated by the members and friends of the G.S.P.C. of Ontario and were enjoyed by all. All the people were pleased by the results and outcome of the trial.

Bird planting was done by assistant field personnel and good shooting was demonstrated by our official gunners, Mr. R. Cole, Hamilton, and Mr. K. Schwarzer, Ancaster, Ont. They did a terrific job on those strong-flying birds.

A red flag and sign at the farm gate lured many visitors to the trial grounds and cars were parked all along the road. Our thanks go to the owners of the Bruce Dale Game Farm and all the people who participated at the trial and we are very proud to say that the G.S.P.C. of Ontario had a good start in 1967.

The Booster Show, in connection with the Canadian National Sportsmen's Show, saw 19 entries, the largest ever recorded for German Shorthaired Pointers in Ontario. □

College Royal Dog Show

by ANNE McLEISH

BIS winner, Chivas Regal, pictured with (left to right) Dr. Laura Smith, last year's champion handler, Jim Ferguson, winning handler, Andy Gault, Judge.

COLLEGE Royal is the week long open house sponsored by the University of Guelph. One of the major events is the College Royal Dog Show — a handlers' contest sponsored by the students of the Ontario Veterinary College. This year's show was a tremendous success due to the wonderful cooperation we received from the "dog people" in Guelph and area. An entry of 54 dogs was received, 18 of which were entered in obedience (Novice class).

The distinguishing feature of this show is that students show dogs belonging to someone else; regular dog show exhibitors are not permitted to enter.

Every Saturday morning, from January to March, one hour practices are held. This year we were fortunate to have Mr. George Lucas, of Georgetown, to work with the Obedience dogs until his illness, when Miss Laura Treble ably took on the task. Many dogs came from the students' landlords and from the faculty members at the veterinary college, but most encouraging was the support we received from the show kennels in the area. We are truly grateful to them, not only for taking time out for our show on March 10, the night before the Sportsmen's Show, but also for finding time to come to our Saturday practices, and for giving us advice and encouragement. Those to be mentioned are Miss Treble, Tanhardt Kennels, German Shepherds; Mrs. Joanna Griggs, Sylva Sprite Schnauzers; Mrs. Grace McCartney of Mountara Kennels who lent us both Pugs and Brussels Griffons; Dr. G. King, Konigshausen Dobermans and Professor Phil Wright of Napkeltei Vizslas. There were also many private people who lent us their show dogs: Mr. and Mrs. Mark Morten — three Obedience Poodles; Mr. and Mrs. Marten Leerentveld — two Bouviers; Mrs. Spence of Aberfoyle — German Shepherds; Mrs. Mary Burgess — two Westies and Dr. B. Kingscote — a Norwegian Elkhound. We must also thank those kennels who were willing to lend us dogs but for whom we could not find student handlers.

The evening of the show arrived. The dogs were benched around the rink at the University arena. Obedience Judge was Mr. Bud Flanagan of Manderley Kennels, Brooklin, Ont. (Poodles and Westies). He gave eight of the 18 dogs qualifying scores, three of 195 or over. Top handler, with a Miniature Poodle, was Miss Judy McCaw, who will graduate as a veterinarian in May. She won a pair of Oster Clippers (donated by Central Sales of Brampton) and the dog won a Dr. Ballard's silver tray and a box of Milkbone.

Conformation Class was judged by Mr. Andy Gault of Gillie-Brae Kennels, Guelph (Labs and Springers). History was made in the distribution of entries — for the first time we had enough dogs in one breed to give them a separate class — eight German Shepherds; also for the first time we had entries in each of the six groups. Best in Show went to a first year veterinary student, Mr. Jim Ferguson of Edmonton who showed a beautifully groomed Collie belonging to a classmate.

An intermission was held during the show and several demonstrations given. The CDX class was demonstrated by Miss Judy Peters of Chrishaven Kennels, Jarvis, with a Golden Retriever; Utility was done by Mr. Mark Morten, Auromark Kennels, with a Poodle. A demonstration of the Brace class was given by Mrs. Bud Flanagan, of Manderley Kennels, with a pair of Westies. Commentaries on Obedience were given by Mrs. Ruth Hebel, the Ontario Obedience Representative to the C.K.C.

Purpose of writing this article is not to tell you what a dog show is like, as you no doubt know more about this than I do, but it is to say 'thank you' to all the wonderful people who trusted us with their champions, hopeful show prospects and pets. Their willingness to take time to come to our practices, their cheery advice to a group of novices, and their patience at our inability to handle the dogs to their best advantage endeared them to all of us. We now have joined the group who believe that "dog people" are the greatest.

And so the only dog show in Guelph has passed for this year. If it was possible to obtain 54 dogs, and an audience of almost 500 for a handlers' contest, there must be an interest in pure-bred dogs in this area. Would it not, therefore, be possible to sponsor a licensed show in this city? □

LET'S imagine that you're watching television.

It's June of 1966, at a place called Chinle in Arizona, U.S.A. The television focuses on three dogs in a wire-enclosed run. Two are Norwegian Elkhounds, Cindy, a female and the second, Oski, which is Navajo Indian, meaning "little boy". The third dog is a Collie. Oski belongs to Cleveland Miller, now the superintendent of an Indian school in Arizona. The female belongs to Miss Jean Combs who was, at one time, Mr. Miller's assistant principal.

The camera picks up loose earth entering the dog run as the result of a sewer excavation. The two Norwegian Elkhounds are digging furiously at it. They open enough room to crawl under the wire — they disappear. The Collie barks excitedly — the television screen darkens.

When the story resumes, it is November of 1966, five months later. The scene is the farmyard of Eric Smith, a farmer, who lives at Kemptville, Ont., 45 miles from Ottawa and approximately thirty-five hundred miles away from Chinle, Arizona. He is looking out the window. He sees two dogs in his farmyard, which he takes to be of the Husky variety. They are scruffy looking, thin, emaciated.

Mr. Smith is not a dog man. He does not trust strange dogs, particularly when they have a wolf-like, wild appearance, so he telephones Mrs. Joyce MacKenzie, who breeds Newfoundlands in the Kemptville area. She responds immediately — but let her take up the story.

"I drove right over to Mr. Smith's farm", she says. "By the time I got there one of the pair, a female, had disappeared. From the description, it was apparent that the female either had just had puppies or was heavy in whelp. The male was ecstatic about finding a friendly human being but he was in terrible shape. His coat was bedraggled; he was cut in several places and he was little more than skin and bones."

Mrs. MacKenzie loaded the male into her station wagon, took him back to her Kemptville Kennels and eventually telephoned Mr. Hugh Munro, a breeder of Norwegian Elkhounds in Ottawa. Mr. Munro and his wife came to Kemptville and got the dog.

They recognized that he had quality. They packed food into him and in two weeks he went up from the 34 pounds which he weighed when picked up to better than 50 pounds, the proper weight for an Elkhound.

Readers are asking: why isn't there more about their breed? What are people doing in the many breeds? We need your help! Please send in brief items pertaining to your breed, Canadian wins in the U.S.A., imports, formation of new clubs, items of interest about various breeds you may find in your reading.

GSPC Club Dinner Meeting

The atmosphere of a big happy family was enjoyed by members of the German Shorthaired Pointer Club of Ontario at the annual meeting held in Hamilton, Ont. April 8. Western and Chinese food, dancing, name crests for members all gave a party feeling to the evening. President Alex G. Hoenig of Hamilton was re-elected. Other officers elected: 1st Vice-President, Glen McQuaid, Hamilton; 2nd Vice-President, Ken Fisher, Glanworth; Secretary-Treasurer: Fred W. McKittrick, 6 Southmeadow Cr., Stoney Creek. Directors are: R. S. Reichmann, C. B. Possett, R. E. Godwin, M. Plzak. Ambitious plans are underway to improve the club and gain new members. Inquiries should be directed to the Secretary.

"Happy" Victor

Ch. Knoll Top Happy, pictured here, with three Best in Show wins to his credit, has established himself as one of the top Labrador Retrievers in Canada today. Owned by Janet and Charles Rowan of Fredericton, N.B.,

he was the top dog at the Moncton KC Inc. show held in Moncton, May 6. Happy's wins at this show included BB, 1st in Sporting Group, BCB in Show and BIS.

Here's What One Ambitious School Girl Accomplished

When teen-ager Lynda Hill showed such an interest in dogs when she went to live with her sister, Mrs. Phyllis Philip, Ro-Shan Kennels, Claremont, Ont., she was given a three-month-old Labrador Retriever to try her hand at training. Within a year the enthusiastic girl attended eight training trials and had eight placings, three 1sts, three 3rds and two CM's, frequently in strong competition.

Lynda is a member of The Labrador Owner's Club and participates in all three phases of Labrador work. She continues to train Kobi in field work, will compete soon for her Lab's CD and will also show her. In competition in the Junior Handling classes held by the Scarborough KC she made the Ontario finals. Lynda's ambitions are to train a field trial champion, be a professional handler in the show ring and in time breed her own Labs. She already has dreamed up her kennel name.

Canadian Irish Setter Double Winner in South

AKC F.T. Ch. Lady Claire of Ardee won both the Open All Age and the Open Gun Dog stake at the Pacific Field Trial, Grizzly Island, Calif. During the past two years this Irish Setter has placed in numerous stakes open to all pointing breeds, writes owner Harry Dean, Ardee Irish Setter Kennels, Saskatoon, Sask.

It's interesting to note that all the Canadian bred AKC Irish Setter Field Trial champions in the United States are from the Ardee Kennels, according to Mr. Dean.

Spirited Trials at Montebello, Que.

H. V. P. (Bumpy) Lewis, Chairman of the Canadian National Sportsmen's Dog Shows and Vice-Chairman Harold Payne judged at the Montreal Gun Dog Club licensed field trials held at Montebello, Que., May 13 and 14. Frightful weather, but two great trials, reports Mr. Lewis, with the retrievers working beautifully.

Recognize the Natural Ability of Your Breed

. . . As Mr. Moroney mentioned in the March issue of Dogs in Canada in the serious breeding of the Irish Setter, or any breed, first consideration must be given to the purpose of the breed — in this case, the Sporting Group — sound temperament and the ability to work are of prime importance. Our present show dogs are really beautiful, with lovely coats. But are we able to use them in the field? For example, the Irish Setter, with narrow head, noise-shy and soft. The field breeder has a dog with less coat, broader head . . . Our spaniels are rather heavily feathered and the muzzle is small, so they could hardly carry a sparrow, much less a woodcock. Mr. Moroney refers to our Cockers as a pretty yappy creature. And I for one will agree with him, to a point. In Canada and the United States there are plenty of good breeders, serious about the Cocker. The Standard of the Cocker calls for a happy and merry dog, and he should be anxious to please at all times . . .

I would suggest to breeders that they cull the litters before they flood the market with undesirable pets. We who do trimming and handling know this and most handlers are rather shy about training and handling this type of dog. I wish some of you serious breeders would try to take your dogs in the field and see the lovely Cocker perform according to his heritage.

Mr. Moroney suggests that the judges read the Standard and use their experience and knowledge. This would build a respect for judging and far more interest in dog shows. We all have a certain type of dog in our mind which is the ideal we strive for. Each breed has some wonderful individuals and I hope that every exhibitor can breed at least one like that. But do remember, natural ability of your breed is important. In the case of Mr. Moroney and myself we breed Sporting dogs and we should be proud of them.

I have one particularly pleasant memory of 1966. I presented my Ch. Dennyabar Candy Floss under all types of judges, specialty and all-rounder, and the nicest compliment was: "What a lovely temperament the puppy has, and how much she is enjoying herself." We all have one dog with this sort of temperament and I wish all of you will have the opportunity of handling a dog like that at least once in a show ring, then you will know what I mean.

Standards Quizz No. 31. Compiled by H. Malcolm Stephens. Object is to match the first set of numbers (which relate to various parts of the dog) with the second set of numbers (which describe that part of the dog). For example: 18-1 Elbow — well held in. Scoring: 30-32 correct — you could be judging. 27-29 correct — you should start thinking about judging. 24-26 correct — good if you are in another breed. feeling that these differences create inconsistencies and inequalities which are detrimental to the two breeds.

In Canada, in the judging of American Cockers there is only one Best of Breed; however, four Best of Varieties (one each in Blacks, ASCOBS, Parti-Colors, and Black and Tans) are judged and points for dogs and bitches are given in all four Varieties. In the judging of these Varieties, Specials compete with their own color for the Variety. In contrast, in the USA American Cockers are separated into three Varieties — Black, ASCOB, and Parti (Black and Tan is shown with the ASCOB). There is no judging for a Best of Breed and each Best of Variety is entitled to compete in the Group —

NODAKORA'S CALUSA-M (Henry)

Miniature Smooth

At Stud (Proven Sire) — Fee $75. for a limited time only.

'Henry' is the second Miniature Dachshund, import or otherwise, of any coat (preceded by our own Ch. Sirron's Mighty Fine, Miniature Longhair) to be officially weighed by order of the CKC. His official weight of 8½ pounds is on record at the CKC and Ottawa. He is a heavy set, well-boned black and tan of seven generations true Miniature breeding with an outstanding head.

In Standards (Smooth) we offer four top female puppies and two top male puppies, all cherry red out of a Ch. Crusader daughter sired by our Ch. Britto v Kirsh. These will go to show breeders only.

For those who deplore the high stationed, long-hocked Dachshunds, we offer with pride NINE Champion studs, Group winners, Best Canadian Bred in Show winners and Best in Show winners (all breed competition). They are all low stationed, short-hocked, excellently balanced studs who have sired more Champion get than any other studs in the country.

Oil heated, air conditioned kennels for visiting females.

a three-to-one advantage which many Sporting Group fanciers find somewhat unfair.

As if this were not enough, the English Cockers have another set-up. In Canada, English Cockers are divided into two colors: Solids (Blacks and Reds) and Parti-Colors (all broken colors). Judging proceeds in the two colors through to Best of Winners at which time Specials are treated as, in effect, colorless and compete with the two Best of Winners for Best of Breed. This means that only one English Cocker competes in the Group. Now what happens south of the Border? Interestingly enough — in the USA the English Cocker is Parti-Colors are combined to compete not divided in any way — Solids and for one set of points in each sex with one Best of Winners and one Best of Breed.

Inconsistent? No doubt about it. Indeed, if anyone can suggest any valid reasons for the variations I would be most interested to hear from them. From observations here on the West Coast I feel that our Canadian system, with one Best of Breed in each of the Cockers, is superior to the American as it encourages a more consistent adherence to breed type. Either American Cockers are a BREED or not. I do think that the four Varieties and four sets of points in American Cockers are a disadvantage nowadays. In many cases I have seen entries of 8-12 American Cockers result in one or two points because of a fairly even split in colors and sexes shown. If there were one or two sets of points only (say Solids and Parti-Colors) the same entry would have given a three or four point win. Ten or more years ago, there was a definite variation in quality in the Americans — the Blacks were generally superior in type, soundness and coat. This is no longer true, for there are top specimens of all colors which could effectively compete for points. What do you say American Cocker fanciers? Do you like your present system of judging in Canada or the USA? How would you like points awarded in American and English Cockers?

Canadian-Bred Afghan Finishes U.S. Title

Kophi's Mystic Maple Sugar, owned by Rick Lawrence of Buffwin's Afghans, Biloxi, Miss., recently completed her American Championship in just five weeks. Her wins included a 5-point major at Galveston, Texas, under Judge George Plummer. She finished April 16 at Lubbock, Texas under Judge T. C. Trudgian.

"Sugar" was bred by Greta and Myles Phillips, Clarkson, Ont. (Kophi Kennels Ltd.) and is a daughter of Ch. Kophi Sultana Mystique and Am. Ch. Djandji Radja of Stormhill. She is a litter sister to Ch. Kophi's Mystic Kiisha and to Kophi's Mystic Sir Arctic (7 points) who placed in the large Open Class at this year's Detroit Afghan Specialty, held in March.

Mr. Lawrence also reports that "Sugar" whelped a litter last summer, sired by Can. Ch. Buffwin's Johnny Ringo. Several progeny will be shown in the U.S. this summer.

Not Easy for a Basset But These are on the Title Trail

Centennial Year is bringing Basset Hounds into the Obedience ring, notes Pam Hunt of Ottawa, Ont. At the Bytown Obedience Trial held in Ottawa in early April, Huntswood Lucy, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Bourgeois and Huntswood Hector owned by Mr. and Mrs. Verrault, gained their CD's. Lucy made it in three straight legs (nice going for a Basset's crooked legs) and won Highest Scoring Dog in Novice over 40 dogs as well as Highest Scoring Hound. At the Lake Shore Dog Training Association Trial Lucy scored 196, probably the highest score ever obtained by a Basset in Canada.

Both dogs are training for CDX. Perhaps this year will see its first Canadian CDX Basset Hound. "Only another Basset owner has any idea how hard you both have to work," comments Pam.

Father and Son Sweep Honors at Hound Specialty Show

Ch. (Can. & Am.) The Rectory's Rebellion, two-year old Bloodhound owned by Vincent and Catherine Brey of Grand Forks, N.D., won Best in Show at the Manitoba Hound Club Specialty Show held in Winnipeg May 13. Under Judge Forest Hall of Dallas, Texas, Rebel's nine-month-old son, Rye of Dakota, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thorneycroft of Winnipeg was BIS in the Hound Club Puppy Sweepstakes under Judge Virginia McCoy of Kansas City, Mo. These shows were sponsored by the Manitoba Hound Club and held in conjunction with the Mid Canada Dog Shows. Rebel went on to win three more Group 1sts at the Mid Canada Dog Shows under Judges Maurice Baker of Minneapolis, Minn., W. H. Pym of Vancouver and T. E. Gundersen of Ottawa.

Whippet Topline

According to the Oxford Universal dictionary, the definition of the word ROACH is: "A small freshwater fish of the Carp family, common in the rivers of northern Europe. In U.S., also applied to various small fish resembling, or mistaken for, the roach." In addition, ROACH is also "An upward curve cut in the foot of a square sail" and the abbreviation of Cockroach. Webster's Collegiate Dictionary has this definition of ROACH: "A Cockroach," "A European freshwater fish of the Carp family. It is

In the official standard for Whippets, the word ROACH is not mentioned and under the definition of Back it states — "Strong and powerful, rather long with a good, natural arch over the loin creating a definite tuck-up of the underline but covering a lot of ground." In spite of these facts, too many people frequently use the word "roach" when they are referring to the Whippet back or top-line.

The Whippet Standard calls for an animal to be rather long in the back and to stand over a lot of ground and as a result, how could he be drawn-up like a wicket in the middle? The correct Whippet back should be level at the shoulders and, from the shoulders, flow to a good arch over the loin and at no time be ROACHED, HUMPED, or WHEEL-BACKED!

Occasionally, one sees a flat-backed Whippet, one with no arch over the loin. A flat back is just as wrong as the drawn-up wheel back and as a result a flat back should be equally penalized.

When evaluating a Whippet back or top-line, please refer to the Whippet Standard and remember: the ARCH is supposed to be over the loin, not in the middle of the back!

Germany Original Country

Mrs. Susan Berst of Port Arthur, Ont., points out the second sentence in the first paragraph of the article "The Doberman Standard and Its Interpretations" (Dogs in Canada, May, 1967, page 78) should read: "Through the Federation Cynologique Internationale (FCI) Brussels, Germany is recognized to be the origin country of the breed).

The Doberman Standard and Its Interpretations

NECK

The neck should correspond in proportion to the body and head. It should be of good length, dry and muscular. From the brisket and shoulders rises the guiding line, pleasing to the eye. The neck is favorably bent. Its carriage is upright and signifies a great deal of nobility. A short and thick neck is faulty. No throatiness or dewlaps should be present.

FRONT ASSEMBLY

The strong-formed front legs are standing straight and vertical to the ground when seen from all directions. In position of upper arm to the long sloping shoulder blade an approximate position of 90° is desirable. The shoulder blade lies close and firm, is well muscled and rises above the thorned parts of the vertebrae. The position and length of the shoulder blade as the position of the upper arm to the shoulder blade is necessary for the dog's gait. We wish, as is well known, a far-reaching-out gait in front. The dog can bring his front leg as far in front as the extension of the front leg over the upper arm with the ridge on the shoulder blade (scapula spine) nearly forming one line. Thus, the more sloping the shoulder blade and the more ideal the angle between upper arm and shoulder blade, the more far-reaching is the gait in front. With a steep shoulder and a large angle between upper arm and shoulder blade a dog cannot reach out far with its front leg, therefore it takes mincing steps. The elbow joint, which is formed by upper arm and lower arm, must lie close and firm. Pasterns should neither turn in nor out. Front paws are short, round and closed. They are also called cat feet. Fine bones are faulty. If the shoulder blade is short, shoulders are loose or steep, then it's a major fault; also if the elbows are turned out it's very faulty. A stance with the toes turned in or out, the latter called the "French Stand" is faulty; other faults are long paws, open or soft feet.

BODY

The back is short and firm. Withers must especially be strongly defined. Its height and length determine the course of the top line sloping down to the croup. The loin section should be well muscled. The whole back must be of appropriate width. The croup formed by the pelvis bone is rounded but not steep. In front, the slightly arched ribs reach below the elbow joint. However, the position of the upper arm and shoulder must be taken into consideration as well. The right proportion of chest-depth to the body-length must be distinctly recognizable. Measured from withers to the ground the chest-depth should be (as much as possible) not less than 50% of the full height.

In front, the chest must be especially strongly marked. We speak, therefore, of a "fore-chest". Moreover, the chest must be of appropriate width. From the back end of the breast bone to the pelvis the belly must be distinctly drawn up, so that the bottom body-line has a recognizable curve. Male's shoulder height, measured from the ground to the withers, 68 cm (27") to 70 cm (28"). Bitches from 63 cm (25") to 66 cm (26"). Maximum height for bitches is 67 cm (26½"). The bitch can be a bit longer in body than the male, as she needs room for her breasts. Faulty is a too long back, also the sway and roach back is a major fault. Other faults are too steep croup, barrel shaped ribs or flat-sided; not sufficient chest-depth, missing fore-chest; too narrow chest.

REAR ASSEMBLY

The upper thigh must be of good width and heavily muscled. It forms with the lower thigh and also with the knee-cap a strong knee joint (stifle). The angle of this joint is about 130°. The bone between hock and heel stands vertical to the ground. It forms with the lower thigh the hock joint. The hock joints have blunt (obtuse) angle, strongly developed and standing parallel to each other. The paws are, as in front, short, arched and closed. Poor angulation in rear assembly is faulty. The hocks should neither turn out (barrel-legged stand) or in (cow-hocked stand). Males must have both testicles visible.

GAIT

The gait is elastic, elegant, maneouverable, free and far reaching. The front legs swing out in front. The hind leg, well out reaching and elastic gives the necessary thrust power. The dog sets the front leg of one side and the hind leg of the other side at the same time in front. A shaky, not free or mincing-step gait is faulty. Also, pacing is a major fault.

COAT

Short-haired, hard and thick. It lies firm and smooth. Permissible color is black, dark brown or blue with rust-red, sharply defined, clean markings. The markings are on muzzle, lips, as spots on cheeks and above the eyes, on the throat, two spots on the chest, on all legs and paws on the inside of the shanks and below the tail. Faulty is long or soft, wavy hair. Too light, not sharply defined or smudged markings is a bad fault. Furthermore, white markings are very faulty; visible undercoat is also not desirable.

CHARACTER

Also, the qualities of the Doberman's character belong to a standard. Therefore, these must be examined by the breed judge in case of doubt. The Doberman is faithful, fearless, nerve strong, watchful and courageous. Based on his intelligence his natural sharpness and his excellent sense of smell he is easy to train. He shows pleasure and willingness in work and obedience as well. He is especially suitable as a house dog, seeing-eye dog, guard dog and working dog. Shy nature; nervous appearance and cowardice are major faults.

How the German Shepherd Dog Club of America National Specialty Was Run

The writer, Mrs. Mary Southcott (Cara Mia Kennels, Milton, Ont.) was elected in 1965 by the members of the club to judge the Bitch classes at the big event last Fall. Hosted by the German Shepherd Dog Club of Greater Kansas City it embraced the weekend of November 13 in three days of activities. The club members have elected this outstanding Shepherd and Obedience specialist to judge obedience at the 1967 National Specialty to be held in Memphis, Tenn. this Fall.

On Friday, November 11, the annual general meeting of the GSDC of America was held, followed by a delicious buffet supper. Saturday morning the Tracking Tests were held with an entry of nine German Shepherd Dogs. Because of the heavy entries in conformation, the AKC permitted the Specialty to eliminate the Puppy Classes. Instead there was a Puppy Sweepstake held on the Saturday, plus the Futurity Winners Sweepstakes and the Maturity Winners Sweepstakes. There were 172 entries in the Puppy Sweepstakes, and 24 entries in the Futurity and Maturity Winners Sweepstakes.

Saturday night was a gala evening, starting with a cocktail party and then a delicious dinner attended by well over 500 people. Speeches were short, and we were delightfully entertained by the best and funniest comedian I have ever heard.

Judging of the Specialty commenced on the Sunday morning at 8 o'clock in the American Royal Complex in Kansas City (similar to the building in which the Royal Winter Fair Horse Show is held in Toronto). The arena was divided into two huge rings, one for bitches and the other for dogs, and the floor was covered with green colored tanbark which gave it the appearance of grass. There were just four classes in each sex (Novice, Bred by Exhibitor, American Bred and Open) and both quantity and quality were terrific. I had an entry of 191 bitches and Mr. Goldbecker had an entry of 172 dogs. During a short luncheon break, the Veterans Class of eight entries was judged, and there was also a Passing Parade of Great Dogs presented.

Although completely unaware of it at the time, I was thrilled afterwards to find that 3rd in a wonderful American Bred Bitch Class was out of a lovely bitch of my breeding (Vodka of Cara Mia owned in the States), namely Kirs of Hearthside owned by Robert Harden of Detroit, and 3rd in a gorgeous Open Bitch Class was another fine bitch out of a bitch of my breeding also (Vida of Cara Mia), namely Vida, owned and bred by Mrs. Caren Walters of Vancouver, B.C. Another of the very few Canadian entries did well. Ch. Reinolf of Summerdale owned by Mrs. Lydia Bruce of Vancouver, B.C. was awarded Best Opposite Sex to Best Veteran. Winners Bitch was an elegant female from California, Bessie vom Pilgersberg. Winners Dog was Su-Bo's Checkers from Illinois. Best of Breed and American Grand Victor was Ch. Yoncalla's Mike from California, while Best Opposite Sex and American Grand Victrix was Ch. Hanarob's Touche from Illinois. There were 79 Specials (all American Champions) entered, and judged by Mr. Loeb.

In the obedience classes there was a total of 131 entries (all German Shepherd Dogs) judged by Dr. Karl Glaser, Mr. Ralph E. Bergstrom and Mr. Nicholas L. Kay. All inclusive, the weekend total of entries came to 785, almost unbelievable. Of course there were the usual absentees, but still a fantastic number of German Shepherds exhibited. Following the judging a late buffet dinner was held with over 300 in attendance and the old tradition was followed of filling the huge silver cups won by the Grand Victor and Grand Victrix with champagne, which were passed around the tables. Thus ended a tremendous event.

German Shepherd Saves Lives of Three Soldiers

W. G. (Greg) Stevens, Calexico Kennels, stationed at Werl Military Police Det., Werl, Germany, sends the following clipping from a German newspaper:

"A faithful German Shepherd Dog saved three American soldiers from certain death. The bitch "Vita" woke the soldiers up ten seconds before the tank exploded into the air. They were able to jump out of the hatch in time.

"Vita", the mascot of an American Tank Brigade, stationed at Friedberg, had against the orders of the Commanding Officer, been taken along on manoeuvres. Capt. Harry M. Titorenko had secretly let the dog sleep in his tank. He reports, "Suddenly I felt Vita's nose in my face. She was whining, snapping at me and would not let me hold her off. Awakened by this I suddenly noticed the smell of smoke inside the tank. A cloud of smoke was coming out of the shell compartment. As fast as lightning I woke up my two comrades and at the last minute they were able to jump out of the hatch. The dog followed with a gigantic jump. We ran for our lives. I had hardly counted to ten, when the tank blew into the air with a terrific noise. Ever since then the faithful Shepherd has been lost. It is possible that she was injured as a result of the explosion and is now hiding in the bush, because she is frightened".

The soldiers said, "Whoever brings Vita back to us will be generously rewarded. We will take up a collection and surely raise more than a thousand dollars."

Totem Import is From Famed California Drayalne Line

Newest arrival at Totem Kennels, Alberni, B.C. writes Mrs. Peg Bishop, is Caribou's Chet of Totem sired by Ch. Mushka, CDX, and a Best in Show Winner, all breed, ex Ch. Shondra of Drayalne (1964 BIS, Samoyed Specialty) whose brother, Ch. Shallon of Drayalne repeated this spectacular win in 1965. The sire of these two outstanding Samoyeds is Ch. Barcia's Shondi of Drayalne (Top Stud Specialty 1964) and their dam, Silver Dede of Snowridge was Top Brood in 1964. Chet's great grandsire is well-known in Canada and the U.S.A. He is Ch. Snowland Martingate Tax, top stud, 1954 and 1955 who has sired a number of Specialty and BIS winners.

Fantastic International Feats of Brainy Teredane Shelties

In my note on Obedience and the Sheltie (Dogs in Canada, October, 1966) I asked if anyone knew of Champion Utility Dog Shelties.

I've recently received a very nice letter from Betty Ross of Thousand Oaks, Calif., who mentions incidentally that her first Sheltie came from the Kingsvale Kennels in Hamilton, Ont. Betty and her Playmate Shelties are well-known stars of stage, circus, movies and television; less well-known is the fact that Betty also shows her dogs in regulation conformation and obedience rings. Her Ch. (Am. & Mex.) Playmates Beau of Teredane, Am. UD, Mex. PCE (the equivalent of a CDX) more than fulfills the Ch. & UD specification, and I would suspect sets some sort of record for titles held by one Sheltie. Beau is now working on his Canadian titles, having won six points and a Best Opposite in his first two shows. Betty says he will be shown this Spring in hopes of finishing and for his Canadian CD, and perhaps again this Summer for his Can. CDX and Can. UD. This would make him Ch. (Can., Am. & Mex.) Playmates Beau of Teredane, Can. & Am. UD, Mex. PCE. Can anybody top that?

Also worthy of mention is Betty's Ch. (Can., Am. & Mex.) Playmate's Honey Chile, Can. & Am. CD. Honey is presently taking "time out" for a litter, and will then start Open work, so could well eventually match Beau's string of titles.

Betty's dogs provide the examples of obedience-trained show dogs, an example the rest of us would do well to emulate. Pembroke Welsh Corgi News From the West Coast

Last fall a Pembroke Welsh Corgi Club was formed by breeders on the West Coast. As its first official function the club held a "Fun Match" in West Vancouver on April 15 when a good turnout of 55 people brought an entry of 33 Corgis for a near-record entry of the breed in Canada.

We were fortunate in having a well-known breeder and English championship show judge of Pembroke Welsh Corgis to preside in the ring. Mrs. Christopher Firbank, whose Crawleycrow prefix is famous and appears in many of our pedigrees, was on a tour of this continent, judging Pembroke Welsh Corgis on both coasts, including the Specialty in New Jersey of the Pembroke Welsh Corgi Club of America. We were most appreciative that she could include B.C. in her itinerary. Exhibitors came from Washington, Victoria, Alberni, as well as the surrounding districts of Vancouver and all seemed happy to have the opportunity of visiting with such a knowledgeable authority in our breed.

Three Puppy Classes and an Open Class in each sex were judged by Mrs. Firbank. Her Best in Match was the bitch Corgana Ovation co-owned by Mrs. Betty Jessiman and Bert Huggins. The Best Opposite Sex in the Match was Corgana Percussion, owned and ably handled by his young owner Eric White. A Specials class of six, three dogs and three bitches, was also judged so that Mrs. Firbank could see some of our older dogs. Her choice here was the bitch, Corgana Lilith. Best of Opposite Sex was Lilith's son, Ch. Corgana Oration, owned by Miss Terri Bouthillier, and litter brother of the Best in Match winner. Best Puppy in Match was Mr. R. Huish's Careth's Carmen of Cambria, BOS Puppy was Mrs. Brumpton's Frognall's Highland Laddie.

The club is now welcoming new members and it is hoped that Pembroke Welsh Corgi owners in other parts of Canada may become interested. Inquiries for membership applications should be addressed to the Secretary, Mrs. A. Huggins, "Corgana", 1305 Sinclair St., West Vancouver, B.C.

As a footnote, this turned out to be a very happy weekend for Corgis in this area. The following day at the large Junior Kennel Club Sanction Match in New Westminster Eric White piloted his Corgana Percussion to Best in Show! At the same event the Best Canadian Bred Puppy in Show went to Mrs. Brumpton's Frognall's Highland Laddie. On the same

General Appearance

The Samoyed, being essentially a working dog, should present a picture of beauty, alertness and strength, with agility, dignity and grace. As his work lies in the cold climate, his coat should be heavy and weather resistant, and of good quality rather than quantity. The male carries more of a "ruff" than the female. He should not be long in the back as a weak back would make him practically useless for his legitimate work, but at the same time a close coupled body would also place him at a great disadvantage as a draft dog. Breeders should aim for the happy medium, a body not too long but muscular, allowing liberty, with a deep chest and well sprung ribs, strong arched neck, straight front and especially strong loins. Males should be masculine in appearance and deportment without unwarranted aggressiveness; bitches feminine without weakness of structure or apparent softness of temperament. Bitches may be slightly longer in back than males. They should both give the appearance of being capable of great endurance but be free from coarseness. Because of the depth of chest required, the legs should be moderately long. A very short legged dog is to be depreciated. Hindquarters should be particularly well developed, stifles well bent and any suggestion of unsound stifles or cowhocks severely penalized. General appearance should include movement and general conformation indicating balance and good substance.

Canadian Bred Corgi Wins Breed in Calif.

Fifty-nine Corgis were entered in the Kern County K.C. show in Bakersfield, Calif. on April 2 under the well known breeder-judge Mrs. Christopher Firbank of England. Sherwyn Magic Moment came up from the classes to win BB. This young bitch was bred by Mrs. I. M. Sherwin of Victoria, B.C. and is by Ch. (Can., Eng. & Am.) Crawleycrow Pint ex Ch. (Can. & Eng.) Lees Fairygold and is owned jointly by Mrs. Gladys Bundock of California and Mrs. Sherwin.

Incredible Journey

Then Mr. and Mrs. Munro began to try to trace the owner. They wrote to Dogs in Canada, to the Norwegian Elkhound Club in the United States and to numerous breeders, both in Canada and the United States. Then, in the bulletin of the Norwegian Elkhound Association of America, they saw an advertisement trying to trace two lost Norwegian Elkhounds. They wrote to the advertiser.

While it seemed to be a thousand to one chance that this Elkhound, Oski, was one of the two which had escaped from their run thirty five hundred miles away, the owner sent Mr. Munro a description of the dogs.

An identifying mark was a scar on the neck of the male which was the result of an operation as a puppy.

"We took the dog to Dr. Jensen, an Ottawa veterinarian," Mr. Munro said, "And he clipped the neck. He discovered that there was some dark pigmentation on the neck which could have been the result of a scar so we wrote to Mr. Miller about this."

By this time, Mr. Miller was so convinced that this could be his dog, that he made a tape recording of his voice and sent it up to Ottawa. "We played the tape and there just could be no mistake." Mr. Munro said. "The dog recognized the voice of his master."

Mrs. Munro goes into a few more details. She describes the dog as looking puzzled when it heard the tape. Its tail began to wag. It literally vibrated. When the recording was finished, the dog laid down on the floor, head between its paws and whined.

On the strength of this reaction and on the basis of the blue pigmentation which the veterinarian had found, Mr. Munro wired to Mr. Miller that in his opinion, a personal visit was justified.

Soon thereafter, Miss Jean Combs, owner of the female Elkhound, arrived in Ottawa and positively identified the male. It has now been shipped back to Arizona and the reaction there confirmed it was Mr. Miller's dog. It was first taken to the veterinarian, who had always treated it, for a checkover. Recognition by the dog was instantaneous.

Then it was taken home. The tail began to wag. The dog began to quiver. It hopped out of Mr. Miller's station wagon, through the gate and into the house. It inspected every room in the house and then, with a satisfied, contented sigh, settled down in the exact corner where it had always slept in the Miller home.

For those who know the story, there are still many unanswered questions. Somewhere lies the basis for another Walt Disney "Incredible Journey" epic. There is no doubt that the two dogs, the male and female, stayed together for the thirty-five hundred miles between Arizona and Kemptville, Ont. But how did they travel those thirty-five hundred miles? Were they picked up in a State forest, which closely adjoins the Miller kennels, or were they stolen because, immediately after they escaped from the runs, the Collie set up an alarm and within half an hour, State police, Navajo Indians and dog breeders in the immediate area were on the lookout for the two dogs. Were they driven part way to Ottawa by tourists who picked them up? And did they escape from these tourists, trying to make their way home? Or did they, most incredible of all, make their own way, living off the country, all the way from Arizona to Canada's capital area?

And what has happened to the female? She has not been seen since she appeared in Eric Smith's farmyard. Did she have her litter of puppies somewhere in the woods or has she been shot in mistake for a wolf? Or is she perhaps living somewhere in the Ottawa area as a family pet or running wild with her puppies?

Oski perhaps could provide some of the answers but Oski is only a dog and Oski can't tell. □

Let's Talk About Terriers

Mail this month brought another letter from the Frames in Nova Scotia. Dear old Angus has been at it again, his latest encounter was with a 40 lb. coon. He came out victorious once more — scratch one coon from the wild life of Nova Scotia. My next letter came from Mrs. Peggy Bishop, Totem Samoyed Kennels, Alberni, B.C. Mrs. Bishop has just had a new addition to her family, a lovely little Lhasa Apso bitch, Tofinos Golden Sands. She joins their little male, Ch. Mt. Klitsa Chief of Totem partly, I feel, to convince him that he "ain't" a Sammy after all! This little guy must be quite a Lhasa — he finished his title at 11 months, and although I can't give you his show wins, I can give you an idea of what he's been doing at Sanctions. He's really racked up an impressive list of wins: three Groups 1sts, one Group 2nd, four Best Canadian-Bred Puppy in Show, two Best in Show, a real record for a rare Breed.

Mrs. Bishop asks a couple of questions that I'll have to rely on you to answer:

(1) The only drawback we've found in Lhasas is when we hike we find we have to put their coats in plastic wrappers to keep them from tangling in the bushes. Does anyone have any other solution to this problem?

(2) When the Tibetan Terrier is finally recognized in Canada will the Breed be in the Terrier Group and will the same confusion reign as already does in the U.S. with Lhasas and Shih Tzus?

All luck and many thanks to the Frames and Peggy Bishop; I surely would love to see the Lhasas and Sammys together, wouldn't you? Please keep us posted. As for Angus, we could almost have a monthly feature on his doings! I would like to add one more quote from Mrs. Bishop's letter, and this is a pat on the back to all of you: "We thoroughly enjoy the Terrier Group and the outstanding folks we have had the pleasure of meeting and their true sportsmanship"!

Now, in the Import department. We have a new Staffordshire Bull Terrier bitch in our midst. Bandit's Angelique is four months old and was imported by Mrs. Phylis Gent of Toronto from Mr. John F. Gordon of England. This little gal has two illustrious grandsires in the Staff records: Eng. Ch. El Toro and Eng. Ch. Jolihem Fine and Dandy. We'll be looking forward to her debut in the ring. I understand that her largest interests at the moment are her two playmates, a Yorkie and a Minny Poodle, both next door neighbors, and her two babies, human that is!

American show wins: the Duguids' Airedale bitch, Ch. (Can. & Am.) Navaho Warrior's Shawn took the Breed at both the Detroit and Battlecreek shows, while Casey Gardiner's

Standards Quizz No. 32. Compiled by H. Malcolm Stephens. Object is to match the first set of numbers (which relate to various parts of the dog) with the second set of numbers (which describe that part of the dog). For example: 11-1 Nose — always black. Scoring: 27-29 correct — you could be judging. 24-26 correct — you should start thinking about judging. 21-23 correct — good if you are in another breed. Kerry, Kerrycroft's Renegade Charles took Winner's Dog and Best of Winners at both these shows, Detroit being a major win. The Westie Ch. (Can. & Am.) Dreamland's Happy Mick has two more Group wins to add to his record, 2nd in the Group at both the Progressive show in Detroit and the Toledo show. He is owner-handled by Mark Alexander.

Among our Obedience winners: Becky Pennycook is again keeping the Terriers in the limelight. Her Westie, Calico Frolic, finished her CD with a Top Scoring Terrier in Trial at Ottawa and her Scottie, Calico Glenna, got her second leg in CDX with the top Scoring Terrier award at the Peterborough show. At the same show, Mrs. S. Vardy's Kerry, Kerrycroft's Lad finished his CDX title. Congratulations to both of you. How about that Queen City Centennial trophy now?

Two new trophies for you all to vie for are being offered by the All Terrier Club of Canada — the first for the Top Winning Terrier in Canada to be valued at $50.00 and to be retained if won by the same person, with not necessarily the same dog, three years in a row. The basis for determining the Top Winning Terrier would be the Phillips Point System.

The second trophy to be offered in the name of the All Terrier Club by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kaye of Dreamland Kennels for the Top Winning Terrier Puppy in Canada and the basis for determining these points would be:

1 pt. for Best Puppy in Breed
3 pts. for a Puppy winning BCBP in Group
5 pts. for a Puppy winning BCBP in Show

Said points to be cumulative, e.g. a Puppy winning BCBP in Show would earn nine points. As with the first trophy this would be retained permanently if won by the same person on three occasions. Both trophies will be offered this year, so get those Terriers out and let's see who comes out on top.

Now for a tip from the Oldtimer's corner: Have you ever tried boiled eggs to get a coat in show condition — so help me it works in a matter of weeks, why, I haven't a clue but there's something in the egg white that does the trick.

Sure, I know it's show season, and I'm just as enthused as you, but if you want to keep this column going, as a good number of letters have so kindly suggested, then I need NEWS!

Next month's subject to be Welsh Terriers in Canada: the month after: Welsh Terriers in the U.S., followed by Welsh Terriers in England, Sweden, Finland. Why we even have a club in Rhodesia. You can see the possibilities, can't you?

ers are showing — Vancouver, Ontario and the Maritimes. Since the breed was recognized by the American Kennel Club in 1959, the number of entries has been steadily climbing, to the point where an Australian Terrier Specialty will now draw over 60 entries.

Since the 1950's, when one or two Aussies would occasionally appear in the ring, the breeders have done a great deal in selective breeding to improve the temperament. While we have preserved the true terrier spirit, we have eliminated the over-aggressiveness seen in the early days. It is possible that in this process of elimination we have produced some Aussies lacking in spirit, but now that we know our bloodlines, we should be able to breed for the temperament we desire.

Our own seven years of breeding and showing, have been an up-hill struggle. However I believe that judges today, who have an Australian Terrier entry at almost every show, are taking time to study the breed Standard and familiarize themselves with such points as coat, movement, and most particularly, spirit. This has been substantiated by the fact that Show Results in Dogs in Canada show more and more Group Placings, and our Ch. Koriella's Bridgit of Grem Lyn topped the Terrier Group at the Peterborough, Ont. show, going on to Best Canadian Bred in Show.

So, Aussie breeders, take heart, keep breeding good dogs, and get them into the show ring.

I hope to continue with a series of articles, covering coat, movement and size, and any comments from breeders will be most welcome.

Are Pekes to be Toys or Whippets?

An item in Dogs in Canada, May, 1967, questions the gait and the profuse coat of the Pekingese. In order to better inform those who wish to be so, a few quotations from leading authorities will be of real interest.

In the book written by Mrs. Herminie Warner Hill who, with the late Miss de Pledge, owned the world-famous Caversham Pekingese, including the fabulous Eng. Ch. Ku-Ku of Yam as well as the great Int. Ch. Chik T'Sun of Caversham (winner of 127 Best in Shows in North America) a quotation on a lovely, easy, rolling gait:

"Even dog judges are not guiltless. My own dogs have been subject to such ridiculous demands that had they not been modified I should simply have removed the dog from the ring. A Peke has a SLOW, dignified rolling gate in front, with a quick, close scissored action behind, and remember once again he was not BUILT for speed. If Pekes are too slow for you — then go in for a Whippet."

On COAT: "To look its best a Pekingese . . . MUST be in FULL coat. Do not waste your money showing a Pekingese before his coat is FULLY grown."

From Pekingese Parade of March 1964 issue, written by R. William Taylor, partner in St. Aubrey-Elsdon, the most successful Pekingese Kennel in North America this past 15 years, a quote on COAT and SOUNDNESS:

"Who WANTS an unsound dog, but one CAN have all the essentials AND coat too." And by the same writer: "We need judges that judge the dog as a whole instead of piece by piece, judges that take the complete picture into consideration and then who is to argue that the dog with the luxurious coat does not make the better picture."

Personally, I shall continue to advocate and encourage the "cobby" type of sound movement and short back, with profuse coat, etc. It seems to me only simple common sense that we should take notice of the advice and opinion of those who have been truly successful in the breeding and showing of some of the finest Pekingese this world has ever seen.

Are Canadian Breeders This Interested?

Mrs. Cora P. Smith of Ayr, Ont. sends in a clipping from Popular Dogs 4¾" wide x 1½" deep, promoting Manchester Terriers. Illustrations show a representative Toy and Standard. Copy mentions information is available from the Secretary-Treasurer (Hon. E. Floyd Deuel) pertaining to the American Manchester Terrier Club. Breed brochure at $1 is also mentioned. This advertisement is sponsored for a year by Mrs. Laurene Wishart, Governor of District 4 (U.S.A.) and is "a public service designed to instruct the public as to the actual appearance of a purebred Manchester Terrier."

Mrs. Smith writes: "We (Hart-Cor Kennels Reg'd., Box 34, Ayr, Ont.) would be interested in doing our part for such a project. May we hear the opinions of other breeders?"

What's Wrong with the Boston Breed?

The Boston Terrier Breed, many long years ago, was number one in popularity with American dog owners. Today, the Boston is away down the ladder in popularity, as measured by registrations among pure-bred dogs. Why?

Persons who know more about this subject than the writer say the Boston breeders themselves are to blame. They took a hybrid dog which averaged around 30-32 lbs. and bred it down to toy size, or less than half of the original average weight.

Here again, we need go no further than our veterinarian to learn what the results are. As one veterinarian said recently while treating one, the "poor little Boston, with its weak stomach and lack of strength, gets upset at the slightest change in his environment, or diet. It's a shame, five dollars, please!

as a pet — one that is babied and cuddled and made into a lap dog? The average Boston of today is treated very much like a mechanical doll. Wind it up and it displays some animation. When the mechanism runs down, the doll can be tossed into the trash can. You cannot do that with a live animal unless you are completely heartless.

As the late Joe Balmer once wrote: "My suggestion is to have one weight classification. I would like to see the weight raised to 14 to 20 pounds. The advantages of such a range are obvious. Most of the good dogs are between those weights. There would eventually be more uniformity of pups. It is my hope that breeders would then pay more attention to the width of the pelvis and the desire of the bitch to labor.

By reducing whelping hazards, there would be less breeders giving up in despair, there would be more converts to the breed, more puppies would be available in competition with those of other breeds, at prices people could afford to pay. Many more people would have the companionship of the kind of dog we admire — the Boston. As it is now, breeders in many communities have stopped breeding Bostons. In one community, there were 15 to 20 breeders. When the veterinarian, who performed caesarians, moved away, the breed in that town became almost extinct. Multiply this by many areas and you have the answer to reduced registration. Who, or what, is responsible for the reduction in size of our dogs? The pillars of the breed left a rich legacy but their successors seem to lack the foresight, the intelligence and the enthusiasm to benefit from their efforts.

The wide range of weights and the exploitation of several small dogs have brought about the decline in the breed.

At the World's Fair in Chicago in 1934 there were six dogs the equal of which I have never seen since — Ch. Rockefeller Ace, Ch. Rockefeller Aviator, Earl of Rockefeller, Ch. Flash Again, Ch. Hagerty Again and the Best of Breed at the show, Ch. Grand Slam. All were 16 pounds and over. And they were beautiful specimens.

A small Boston is expensive; 90 percent of caesarians are performed on bitches under 15 pounds, misses on bitches under 15 pounds are four times as many as those over that weight. Small males have done the breed much damage. Many lovers of Bostons now realize that we cannot breed for permanency by using miniature or so-called toy specimens.

Breeds of livestock that have become great have been built on intelligence, integrity and vision. Breeders have cooperated with nature rather than antagonizing her. They have chosen males that are males in every characteristic.

Loss of breed prestige has gone hand in hand with whelping difficulties. As dogs have been bred smaller, due to an extremely wide range of weights, and to the toy craze, the caesarian has become an accepted evil. Along with this we perpetuated a bitch that made little or no effort to expel her puppies naturally. Nor have we bred for profligacy. We hear of one or two puppies, and these are not litters. Let's be realistic and face the problems confronting us. We have problems which worthy objectives and intelligent persistence will solve".

— Submitted by Mrs. Barbara McNeill reprinted from The Boston Bulletin

We acknowledge with thanks the efforts of Miss Sandra Nelles in compiling this information from the official Show and Trial Results as published by the CKC in Dogs in Canada Magazine.

A handsome certificate (see "Memo from the Editor") has been awarded by Dogs in Canada to the owner of each of these top winning dogs who earned national distinction in keen competition during 1966.

Avenger and his handler, James A. Moses, have established a record in the Canadian show ring, unequalled in the breed. Avenger has been shown and has won under all-rounders and specialists alike; from his first American major won under the renowned Shepherd authority, Earnest Loeb, to his last endeavour, at six years of age, to become the top-winning dog in Canada last year. We are indeed proud of this achievement for the breed.

We wish to thank the following judges who have awarded Avenger either Group wins or Best in Show:

#1 Otterhound in Canada and the USA

CANADIAN & AMERICAN CHAMPION SKYE TOP'S CEDRIC VIKINGSSON

Pictured taking 1st in Group at the fourth Canadian National Sportsmen's Show under Judge Thomas Quilley, handled by Parker Harris. Also 2nd in Group and two 4th in Group at 3 other C.N.S. Dog Shows attended.

Born 5 May 1961, his sire was Am. Ch. Lugina's Viking ex Delight of Adriucha. Bred by George E. McKeone.

Cedric was the second of the Skye Top Otterhounds to win Championship status in Canada. During 1966 he attended four of the Canadian National Sportsmen's Dog Shows, with wins as mentioned above. In the States he was Phillips System winner for 1962, 1963 and 1966 in his breed.

#2 Otterhound in Canada

CANADIAN CHAMPION SKYE TOP'S PENNICOACH BALLADE

Pictured taking Best of Breed under Judge John Lundberg at the Greenwood K.C. show, 1966, to finish for her Championship in Canada. Handled by Lorna Jackson.

Born 25 July 1964, her sire was Border Counties Coachman ex Penny of Adriucha. Bred by William H. & Ruth H. Lunderman.

Border Counties Coachman, owned by the Lundermans, is one of the best imports from the UK in recent years. Ballade has been shown in the States just five times and she has her two majors.

PUPPIES AND GROWN STOCK out of Ballade by Cedric are available. All have good show potential.

A litter brother of Cedric, Can. & Am. Ch. Skye Top's Digby of Iroquois, was the first Skye Top Hound to win a Canadian Championship. Handled by Lorna Jackson. He was top Otterhound in the States in 1964 and in Canada in 1965. He sired the late Hollerhound Bailiff who placed second in the Phillips System for 1966. Digby has been semi-retired on the show circuit due to a heavy schedule on the part of his owners but expects to become active later this year.

All Skye Top Otterhounds have been tested, found to have normal blood platelet function and so are free of the bleeding disease observed in some hounds of this breed.

AMERICAN CHAMPION HEMLOCK HOLLOW'S WEE EUSTACE

Whelped 5/14/62 — Sire: Am. & Eng. Ch. Mighty Fine V. Walder
Dam: Hemlock Hollow's Wee Faustina

Completed his American Championship with FOUR Majors under Judges H. Schlintz, Janette Cross, K. M. McDonald and finished under J. H. Aldrich as shown above. At Cascade Dachshund Specialty, 1963, he went Best Puppy in Show under Mrs. Garner; the following year at same show, and under Judge A. C. Spraggins, he went Best Miniature in Show; and the following year, 4/65, at the same show and under Judge Anna Gargett, he again went Best Miniature in Show. At the great Canadian North Shore K.C., Vancouver, B.C., August 1966 he continued his winning ways by going 3rd in a great group under Judge Derek Rayne.

However, "Stacey" is more than a "personality kid" and a great show dog. His real forte is as a producer of top quality Miniatures carrying his true Dachshund type, soundness and loving and audacious temperament.

AM. & CAN. CH. GOULD'S TOP FLIGHT OF VALGO

is pictured capturing a recent Group First at the San Gabriel Valley Kennel Club, under Terrier specialist, Mr. Charles Marck.

"Timmie's" story to success is quite a fascinating one; at the age of 9 months he made his ring debut at the Kennel Club of Beverly Hills, where the B.T.C.W. held its Specialty show. He emerged from the open dogs class to B.O.B. and then on to a Group Fourth in top competition. A week later he flew to Vancouver, B.C. and under the capable handling of Pat Tripp took the Canada Circuit 'by Storm'. His Canadian record stands at a BIS Sweepstakes, 4 Group Firsts, 3 Seconds, and 1 Fourth, thus making him the top terrier on that circuit. HE ALSO ATTAINED THE HONOR OF 'TOP BEDLINGTON' IN CANADA FOR '66. By the way, he was only shown at eight shows, of which he won the breed each day. Coming back home, 'TIMMIE' finished his American championship within a month, adding another Group First to his credit.

In just 4½ months of campaigning in the U.S., he gained the distinction of becoming the TOP WINNING BEDLINGTON ON THE WEST COAST AND NO. 3 IN THE NATION.

For '67, he started out the year by capturing B.O.B. over an entry of 34 at Westminster, which marked the first time in breed history that a West Coast Bedlington has ever won this honor.

"Timmie's" combined American and Canadian record stands at: a BIS Sweepstakes, 8 Group Firsts, 6 Group Seconds, 1 Group Third, 3 Group Fourths, a Specialty BIS and 27 B.O.B.

He is at stud to selectively approved bitches. Fee and pedigree upon request. At this time there are some outstanding show prospects for sale, which include puppies and grown stock.

As you read this issue, many of these "leading performers" and other new stars are well on their way to further glory in the 1967 shows.

DOGS & PEOPLE

Congratulations: to members of the Canadian dog world who recently celebrated their 60th wedding anniversaries. Mr. Walter Brown, 87 and Mrs. Brown, 85, Toronto, sailed for Canada four days after they were married in England, and settled in Toronto. The Browns bred Bulldogs for many years. Mr. Brown continues to be actively interested in Canadian Kennel Club and breed club affairs. He served the CKC for seven years as Vice-President, three years as President and an additional three as a Director. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have a married daughter. Their son was lost in World War II while on service in India. . . Mr. and Mrs. George Potts also came to Canada from England on their honeymoon and continued to live here. They are also 87 and 85, respectively, and have four daughters. They celebrated their anniversary with a month-long trip to England. For many years a breeder and importer of fine Pomeranians, Mr. Potts operated under the kennel name Wembley. By a happy coincidence, both Mr. Brown and Mr. Potts are long-time members of the Progressive Kennel Club. Mr. Potts is an Honorary Vice-President.

New address: Mrs. Meta Loveridge whose cheery voice answers calls to The Canadian Kennel Club, has moved to 60 Marmot St., Toronto 7, Ont. Her telephone number is 481-6072.

Speaker: Carl Pearce recently gave a speech on canine nutrition to members of the Barrie (Ont.) KC. and is available to speak before clubs in the Toronto area. His address is 79 Fontainbleau Dr., Willowdale, Ont.

Reunion: Tarzan, a healthy vegetarian German Shepherd, has been reunited with his owner, Sandhya Adhiya, 15, Toronto, after a nine months' separation. When the attractive young girl and her family came to Canada, the Shepherd was left with her grandmother in Bombay. Sandhya raised $125 shipping charges by baby sitting and saving the baby bonus cheques her parents turned over to her. Brother Jayraj, 19, loaned her $150 to pay for the three-month quarantine. Tarzan has been brought up a vegetarian (loves bananas) and hasn't touched meat in all his five years.

Tragic mistake: Five prize Siberian Huskies, part of an eight-dog racing team owned by Denis Smith, Val Gagne, Ont., were killed at Timagami, Ont. by a Department of Lands and Forests official. They were tied to a chain between a truck and a tree when they were shot. The Timagami office heard of a pack of wolves in the vicinity and the men were keyed up to get rid of them, stated the district forester. While the department will likely make good the loss it would seem also practical to give the trigger-happy men a thorough lesson in the difference between purebred Huskies and wolves.

Died: Canadian dogdom has lost more of its outstanding men. Dr. Charles B. Baker, Montreal, one of Canada's best known veterinarians, who headed M. C. Baker and Son, oldest veterinary practice in Canada, for 44 years. Following graduation from the Ontario Veterinary College in Guelph, Ont. in 1923, he joined his father's firm. His son, Dr. J. Malcolm Baker, is the third generation veterinarian. During World War I Dr. Charles Baker served overseas with the 27th Battery, Canadian Field Artillery and prior to World War II was an officer of the 17th Hussars.

Dog fanciers will be saddened to learn also of the death on May 10 of Philip B. Jacobi, well-known Beagle breeder, at Woodbridge, Ont. Philip's deep interest and involvement in dogs began in his boyhood, through his father's interest in dogs. He became so much an authority on the breed, he was known as "Mr. Beagle" the length and breadth of the continent. During his lifetime Phil Jacobi served for many years as Superintendent for the CNE Dog Shows and for the past two years has been The Canadian Kennel Club Representative to the Exhibition. His widow, Marjorie, has intentions at the present time of carrying on with the Beagle kennels at Woodbridge.

Ernest Driver, husband of Hilda Driver, R.R. 3, Collins Bay, Kingston, Ont., passed away May 15. Mr. Driver, textile company executive, had planned on retiring very shortly. He had been confined to hospital but had been home for about ten days. Mrs. Driver is well-known for her outstanding Manville Standard Poodles. The Drivers have one son, Blaine . . . Mrs. Barbara Pirrie, Toronto, lost her father last month. Sincere sympathy is extended to the sorrowing families.

Judging assignment: Frank Jones, Barrie, Ont., has been licensed to assess Golden Retrievers, Labrador Retrievers, Vizslas and Weimaraners in the United States. He judges these breeds at the Genesee Valley KC. show at Rochester July 16. On September 10 he has a repeat invitation to the Westchester County KC show at Purchase, N.Y., to judge the Weimaraner Specialty. Last year he assessed Golden and Labrador Retrievers at this show. Looking ahead, his calendar shows an invitation to judge at the Michigan State Golden Retriever Speciality in conjunction with the Ingham County KC show in Lansing, Mich. Mr. Jones is eligible to judge Groups I and II in Canada.
