SUMMER DOG AND KENNEL CARE

Good health, comfort through kennel maintenance, improvement

Keep runs in top shape to help prevent infestation of dogs by internal and external parasites and to control odors. Gravel and sand runs should be brought up to their original levels with fresh material. Depressions should be leveled since they serve as reservoirs for water, which in turn create odors and further the spread of disease and parasites.

Summer is the time to convert gravel or sand runs to concrete. Smooth the material at a pitch to provide good drainage and pour concrete right over it. Concrete runs should have all cracks and breaks repaired because the openings are difficult to clean and can harbor insects and rodents. All fencing should be repaired or straightened. Remember: A good run is easier to keep clean and presents a more favorable appearance to potential pup buyers or boarders.

(If you're planning to build new runs, write for helpful kennel plans and tips from Dog Research, Ralston Purina Co., Checkerboard Square, Clarkson, Ont.).

Weeds and high grass around the kennel area should be cut periodically. Weeds and high grass look unsightly and are breeding grounds for ticks, roaches, other bugs and rodents.

Droppings should be picked up and disposed of daily, especially on gravel and sand runs. Prompt droppings removal aids in the reduction of internal parasites, flies and odors. A simple way to dispose of droppings is to dig a pit and to cover the day's removal with a layer of dirt or lime.

Keep fly maggots controlled in the droppings disposal area by using Purina Malathion Spray or Cygon 2E Insecticide. Bathe dogs with Purina Dog Shampoo to remove ticks, fleas, and lice. Spray dogs with Purina Dog Spray to repel pesky flies and gnats. Spray kennel areas inaccessible to dogs with Purina Malathion or Diazinon Spray. Also use solid fly baits in areas dogs can't get to. All fly baits should be kept out of the wind and bright sun. Keep kennels clean. Pick up all trash and waste feed. (Note: Purina Health Aids are available only at Purina dealers. Similar products are satisfactory.)

To help keep dogs cool there should be adequate ventilation and insulation in their enclosed quarters . . . plenty of shade for the runs. A light colored dog house is many degrees cooler on a hot summer day than a dark one. If there is an absence of shade in the runs, cover a portion with tin, wood, burlap or canvas . . . or better yet, a plastic mesh that permits air to flow freely through it.

It is a great pleasure and honor to feature our black miniature male, Ch. Mar-A-Mors Rembrandt, on this month's cover. We felt we had to honor Remé individually in this way for the outstanding overall quality he is consistently stamping on his progeny — dense black coats, elegant heads and marvellous loving temperaments — as well as the substance that is so important.

He is a son of Ch. Cappoquin Bon Fiston, rated as one of the top black sires in Canada and the United States. On his dam's side, there is Eng. Ch. Braeval Big Shot and Eng. Ch. Montmartre Little Mo. Remé is carrying on the tradition, having sired both American and Canadian champions of note — and one of his sons, Am. Ch. Cappoquin Davey of Wilcrest, also in turn sired the famous Tulip litter, both litter sisters going BOB from the junior puppy classes. Another daughter of Remé's, a very elegant dark brown called Wilcrest Wildcat, will be campaigned this Fall in the Philadelphia area. A litter brother and sister, Crusader and Georgy Girl, as well as Jou Jou's Baby Snooks, will be shown in Canada this summer.

Our silver toy male, Ch. Atinas Little Caesar, whom we are proud to have bred ourselves, is out of the top winning Toy Poodle of 1964 and the top producing sire of 1965. "Dink" is doing himself proud this year with two silver daughters and a white daughter coming out in the ring soon. This elegant, typey 9¼" little dog has much to offer, completely Toy bred and of a lovely smoke silver color. He is short backed, with well-leathered, small, well-arched feet, and a small almond eye, with definite size-cutting abilities and a very outgoing temperament. He received his championship at 16 months of age with a Best of Breed.

Can. & Am. Ch. Plaza-Toro Snow Fantasy, the ice white Miniature Best in Show male we are proud to have in our kennel, has distinguished himself by never having been beaten for the breed any time he has been shown, and has always had group placings. He has sired nine American champions and two BIS winners, while several of his puppies are being shown internationally. One son, Atinas White Tornado, never has been defeated whenever shown in the U.S.A.

ELIMINATION OBEDIENCE MATCH — A GREAT SUCCESS

. . . I have just been to an obedience trial so well organized that it demands special tribute. The "Elimination Obedience Match" for the winner of the Centennial Dog — 67 Title for Ontario was put on by the Queen City Training and Tracking Associates. Held in the cool, comfortable, spacious North York Centennial Centre it was a real pleasure to attend. Three large rings, three judges, enough officials to give them time to do their work well AND enjoy the show. Unfortunately the entry was not large, more's the pity. All hail to those who showed — confound the politics of those who didn't.

I was saddened to see that Ontario could not produce a dog capable of keeping this trophy in Canada. They all worked well but were just not good enough to defeat the American entries in any class.

. . . Nothing could mar the smooth running of the trial. Grace Probert I salute you — you should be toasted in champagne. Poor sports can be toasted in the hereafter.

BAY MEYERS

Milliken, Ont.

. . . Calling it 'Obedience's Centennial Folly' to the reporters, I remarked:

1. Obedience had never had it so good!
2. Location — Something Obedience dreams about!
3. Set-up — Too beautiful for words!
4. Committee — Just like the Workers in a Bee-hive!
5. Judging — Beyond reproach!
6. Sportsmanship — the likes of which was never seen before!
7. Color — (a) accordionist (b) Centennial Miss — 1867 (c) 4 Chihuahuas pulling 3 covered wagons (d) Miss Go-Go — 1967.
8. Hospitality — The Centennial punch was really punchy!

Questioned as to the Match becoming an annual affair, I said I was of the opinion the Match had been a 'second to none' event. It had made history in our time. QCTA would not repeat it and I decreed the Match should become a centennary celebration. Perhaps by the time the next 100 years roll around all the personality problems in Obedience will have been erased from the Obedience ledger.

GRACE E. PROBERT

QCTA Director, Willowdale, Ont.

. . . Kudos to Grace Probert and her Queen City Tracking and Training Assoc. on their Centennial Obedience competition.

This was an Obedience Match par excellence! Never have I seen a show as well organized and executed.

For those who didn't have the opportunity to see the "top" working dogs I sympathize as this was Obedience at its finest!

WELCOME BACK, OLD TIMER!

. . . First, let me pat myself on the back for apparently being the main instigation for bringing the "Old Timer" out of retirement. He mentioned my name at least three times in his May column so he must have really thought my views required answering.

It's always nice to have him back — even if he's not right he makes interesting reading. As a matter of fact, lately I've been studying the judging in the rest of the Working Group and just might extend my "serious condemnation" as he calls it, to the all-rounders in the entire Working Group. Working Group. Ha! I think some of the all-rounders just don't recognize soundness in structure or mentality at all. He talks of balance — isn't that where the front angulation should work in harmony with the rear? Or should it just look like it should with the dog strung up on a pretty white nylon cord? Should we not get some sort of co-ordination out of these animals when we let them down off the string? How stand-offish do they have to get before they're timid? How timid before they're shy? And a bug on movement — a true bug — could he possibly forsake type and balance? As for the all-rounders being "very conscious of the need for proper angulation, firm backs, and type of croup the standard of that breed calls for" (O.T. a quote) I could quote standard after standard all calling for right angled shoulder angulation one way or the other, level toplines and croups in some cases giving the exact angle required. I could quote Standard after Standard condemning timidity and frailness. Then I look in the group of Best of Breed working dogs frequently selected — good shoulders practically non-existent, ignored and apparently unrecognized when present. Talk about balancing a glass of water on a good topline — these toplines don't need the glass, the hollow will hold the water; and how do they teach their dogs to rhumba in the rear that way? Mind you, beautiful heads, especially the Old English and Pulis, and coats practically dragging the floor!

Perhaps I'm laying it on thick, maybe they're not all so bad with the rest of the Working Group; after all most of these breeds don't have to work anymore.

Recently I judged in Old Timer country (German Shepherds) and I made them let the leads loose and I let them move. I ended up with more dogs just winning on their own merit with the handler having no affect one way or the other. I insisted on seeing the undistorted dog — funny my placings were practically reversed from the other two days, but I found three winners (BB, WD, WB) with good shoulders, good backs, good temperaments, good bodies and good type. I wonder what the other fellows found.

The other incident — I was observing the Best of Breed dogs as a basically good Shepherd judge did the Working Group. He didn't have the entry he deserved but he made the different breeds move all day, amidst complaints. Nearly all the dogs he selected were sound, balanced animals, true coming, true going, without the rhumba rear, and they seemed mentally sound too — that's what I considered a real "Working Group".

INFORMATION PLEASE!

. . . I am interested in hearing from any of your readers who own or have owned a Ch. Miniature Schnauzer, CDX or UD. This information seems to be extremely hard to obtain.

I enjoyed Mrs. Betty McHugh's article in your April issue and have already written to her. Also, the letters written on Miniature Schnauzers by Dorothy Moggach and Joan Morden. The Miniature Schnauzers are just marvelous house dogs.

SPRING IN BERMUDA

. . . I thought you might like to hear of my recent trip to Bermuda for the two spring shows, judged by Mr. Storey and Mr. Milne. The warm hospitality that one has come to expect from Bermudians was very much in evidence and I was made to feel completely at home and a very welcome guest.

Due to the weather the show had to be held indoors, but in spite of this it went off like clockwork and we really didn't have time to regret the 'garden party' like atmosphere of the outdoor (and unused) rings.

I took down with me four dogs and came back with four champions. Ch. (Am. & Can.) Poodhall Euripides (Dogs cover Maltese for November) finished the first day with a Group 2nd. Ch. Poodhall Arielle took two Group 1sts on the way to her new title and I suddenly realized that she is our fourth generation homebred champion bitch (in direct line)! I also handled the white Toy Poodle, Ch. (Am. & Can.) Reneas' Short and Square to Group 1st and a Bermudian championship. He is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Jones of New Orleans, La. The last dog I showed was the Best of Breed winner at the Gardens in 1966 — the Shetland Sheepdog, Ch. (Am. & Can.) Astolat Gold Award, owned by Mrs. Constance Hubbard of Kunkletown, Pa. and he handily took the necessary points for his third championship.

LET'S TREAT THE CHIHUAHUA LIKE THE LARGER BREEDS!

. . . One wishes that when judges are doing the 'Stand for Examination' in Novice work they would, in this particular instance, treat the Chihuahua as they do the larger breeds; that is, just walk up to them, drop their hand just in front of the muzzle and continue with the examination. In my opinion they would find the Chihuahua would not move.

This is the only exercise that judges tend to make more difficult, by trying to be kind, by often crouching down several feet before the dog and stretching out the hand. Consequently, with this enormous mass apparently creeping up on the Chihuahua, the judge tends to knock it off balance. Not knowing what to expect, the Chihuahua understandably backs off or just breaks. I am not talking from just one year of experience in this connection but over nine years. Because one has trained one's Chihuahua just as if it were a Dobe, the dog expects to be examined in the manner in which a Dobe would be examined. It is disappointing to travel over 300 miles, one way, to have this sort of thing happen, as it did to me in Montreal and as it has also happened to me in Pontiac, Mich., Schenectady, N.Y. and closer to home in Windsor, Ont., plus all points in between.

HIP DYSPLASIA

Mr. H. Malcolm Stephens,
Dogs in Canada,
200 Davenport Road,
Toronto 5, Canada.

Dear Mr. Stephens:
Your editorial on Hip Dysplasia Control in the December issue of Dogs in Canada has been called to my attention. In the United States there is such a program in existence which began operations last September. The program has the encouragement and participation of the American Kennel Club and the American Veterinary Medical Association and it took over and is patterned after the Golden Retriever Hip Dysplasia Control Program which had been in operation since 1960. The system follows closely the schemes of the British Kennel Club and the Swedish Kennel Club.

The Orthopedic Foundation for Animals has been in operation now for nine months, and the response from the various breeders and breed clubs has been most encouraging. A number of radiographs have been received from breeders in Canada. The German Shepherd Kennel Club of Canada has discussed developing a hip dysplasia control program and Dr. A. R. Cawley, from the faculty of the Ontario Veterinary College at Guelph has been cooperating with this group.

The officers of the Orthopedic Foundation for Animals would like to extend an invitation to breeders in Canada to join in this effort. The OFA is using the members of the American Board of Veterinary Radiologists to examine the pelvic radiographs and Dr. Cawley is a member of that group. With rapid mail delivery by air and no trouble sending radiographs back and forth between the two countries, it would seem that a cooperative arrangement between the two groups would be beneficial . . .

It would be a pleasure to hear from you regarding this.

Hip Dysplasia Control Registry,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Dr. Riser,
Thank you for your kind letter commenting on our December article on the Kennel Club (England) and the British Veterinary Association joint scheme on the control of hip dysplasia. First of all, this is an excellent opportunity to point out that it is the considered policy of Dogs in Canada to regularly publish any worthwhile data which may come to the attention of the editors of efforts made anywhere in the world to fight hip dysplasia and to continually remind dog breeders of this terrible scourge which threatens so many breeds of dogs. Our December issue carried the English article to which your letter refers. Our February issue carried a full length review of your recent book "Canine Hip Dysplasia and How to Control It". We would very much like to have your comments on this review. Your attention is directed to the feature article in our June issue on a scheme sponsored by the Toronto Academy of Veterinary Medicine. Our June issue also carried a list of dogs found to be free of HD under the scheme sponsored by the German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada to which your letter refers. This is a very impressive list. It is our intention that future issues will carry additional articles.

Your letter refers to the encouragement received by your foundation from the American Kennel Club and the American Veterinary Medical Association. Since the extent of this encouragement had not been brought to the attention of our Canadian readers, could you be so kind as to

Gaines
Report to Professionals:

Every dog deserves a fair shake.

Occasionally, we hear that the best diet for a healthy dog is one with little or no salt. But the truth is, common salt is an uncommonly vital nutrient—necessary in every diet.

You don't have to be a nutritional expert to know that salt makes food taste better. So salt's first function is to make a dog's ration more palatable—extremely important, since even the most nutritious ration is worthless if the dog will not eat it.

Equally important is the way salt helps deliver nutrients to the dog's body cells and helps maintain the proper balance of acid in his system.

The kidneys readily take away any salt which is not used, so it is almost impossible to give the dog too much salt. The real danger lies in giving him too little, which can cause weight loss, loss of hair and dry skin.

All Gaines products (Gaines Meal, Rally and Gravy Train) contain the recommended amount of salt — plus all the other nutrients a dog is known to need. That's why so many breeders trust the name Gaines.

Professionals like yourself can also cut the cost of feeding by joining the Gaines Professional Service Plan. Members of the Plan receive generous rebates on food purchases, plus many other benefits.

For complete details on the Plan, write to: Gaines Professional Service Centre, Box 4019, Terminal A, Toronto, Ontario.

the old timer

"All I can say," said the Old Timer, "is that if they succeed, there are going to be a lot of frustrated males."

We'd been sitting — just sitting — when the Old Timer came up with this one. It took me by surprise.

"So what's new about that?" I asked. "Haven't there been frustrated males ever since Eve got Adam kicked out of the Garden of Eden and he had to start earning his bread by the sweat of his brow? Don't males live in a continual state of frustration from the time they discover the blonde youngster who sits next to them in school has had the braces taken off her teeth and has started wearing dresses instead of jeans?"

The Old Timer lighted his pipe. He looked at me.

"I'm not talking about humans," he said. "I'm talking about dogs and what could happen if the research into storing canine semen is successful. I'm wondering too, if, in the long run, it's going to be good for the dog game".

I didn't know what he was getting at so I stalled.

"It works with cattle," I said. "Hasn't milk production for Holsteins, for instance, been increased, butter fat content improved by the choice of sires that artificial insemination makes possible? Haven't they been able to improve beef cattle, certain breeds in any event, as a result? And wouldn't a successful method of storing canine semen be a scientific step forward?"

The Old Timer pondered that one for a moment.

"True," he said, "but dogs aren't cattle. For instance, a bull calf that doesn't look as though he'll be a successful sire can always go to the packers. He's at least worth his weight on the hoof to the breeder. And just how many pure-bred bull calves eventually wind up as steaks perhaps is best illustrated by something I read recently about a Charleroi bull in the United States. This bull has 14 ribs, one more than normal. He passes that on to a good percentage of his progeny. That means one more cut of the more expensive beef. As a result, that bull, through artificial insemination, will sire 8,000 calves this year. And note this — the cost of service is only $10.00 but even at that the owner of the bull will reap a total of $80,000 in 1967 alone."

"That's a lot of money," I commented.

"A lot of money indeed," the Old Timer agreed. "And undoubtedly this sire is contributing an important characteristic to his offspring. But let's look at the other side of the picture. With this one bull siring 8,000 calves what chance is there for stud revenue for owners of other good Charleroi bulls. I'll guarantee a lot of them wind up on dinner plates. And bear in mind, this particular bull will be siring calves for some time after he's dead."

"Well the dogs won't wind up on dinner plates anyway," I said, "not unless we have a world war and meat rationing gets pretty tough."

"That's just the point," said the Old Timer, "dogs don't go to the packing house and if a male is not used at stud there's no chance of any revenue. Now, take a look at our present dog show situation. Sure, a lot of people show dogs for the fun of winning. But many breeders show their good males in the hope of stud fees. If they don't, why do they advertise them at stud and why do they spend money taking them to shows?

"Now let's take a look at what could happen if they succeed in storing canine semen. I'll go back a few years for examples. For instance, there was a great English Setter, Ch. Ludar of Blue Bar, shown by Horace Hollands. The late Eileen McEachren had her famous Kerries. The Boxer, Bangaway, was in his prime. There was Fred Jackson's famous Springer, Frejax Royal Salute, and the great Doberman Pinscher, Rancho Dobe's Storm, a Westminster BIS dog.

"These dogs were used extensively at stud, even at comparatively high stud fees. Imagine how frequently they would have sired puppies had their semen been available at a fee say of $10.00 across country at selected artificial insemination depots. Would the owners of other English Setters, of other Springers, Boxers, Kerry Blues and Dobermans have bothered showing their males? I think it's something to ponder and I think a great deal of thought would have to be given to the mechanics of the thing.

"And one further point, if a few dogs in each breed do sire ninety per cent of puppies in that breed, does it necessarily mean the breed will be improved? Those sires might not be the right ones for many bitches. Both sire and dam might carry the same faults which could be intensified."

"But it's progress," I said. "Surely you're not against progress."

"The nuclear bomb represented scientific progress," he said. "But was it a good thing? I'll let you think about that." □ elaborate on this for our benefit. We are quite certain that this will be of interest to our readers.

If you can spare the time from your very busy schedule, to take a brief look at our June article on the control scheme sponsored by the Toronto Academy, we are confident that you will observe considerable similarity to the scheme with which you are so closely associated. Your project has two very great advantages over the Toronto one in that you have nearly a year's start and you have had sufficient national support that you can look forward to submissions from coast to coast. Your early start has also been helped by inheriting the Golden Retriever Control Program which as you say has been in operation since 1960. As Canadians we are most anxious that the Toronto scheme shall in fact grow into a national scheme of real significance. Since the best dogs in both our countries move across the border with great regularity it is essential that control schemes in both countries be of equal excellence and accepted without question by breeders in both countries as both competent and impartial. It is quite probable that this will be realized if breeders in both countries are prepared to accept clearance of a dog from either. Since your foundation has had the good fortune to be launched on a national basis it is to be expected that you will achieve continent wide recognition first. Because of this quite a few Canadian breeders, being unaware of the Canadian scheme, will be sending pelvic radiographs to you in spite of the alternative available in Canada.

It is very interesting to read in your letter that you consider Dr. A. V. Cawley of the Ontario Veterinary College a member of your group. The Toronto Academy of Veterinary Medicine indicates that it is their intention to refer radiographs to the same Dr. Cawley. The German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada also appears to be relying on Dr. Cawley. One is inclined to ask, "How many hats is Dr. Cawley wearing?" Dr. Cawley's appearance in all three schemes available to Canadians raises the question as to where a breeder could turn if he wished an opinion other than Dr. Cawley's.

One point which we endeavoured to make in our December article on the British scheme emphasized the fact that the veterinary profession is held in sufficiently high regard in England that breeders there are prepared to accept opinions offered by a panel of radiologists selected by the British Veterinary Association. This raises the question as to whether the breeders on this continent are prepared to accept the opinions of the radiologists connected with the alternative schemes available in Canada and U.S.A. as being both competent and impartial. This is something which only time will tell.

H. MALCOLM STEPHENS

St. John's, Newfoundland, Holds First Show

On May 27, the first pure-bred show to be held in St. John's, Newfoundland, North America's oldest city, was staged by the Newfoundland Kennel Club at the Prince of Wales Arena with close to one hundred dogs in attendance.

Best in Show was awarded to Knaith Beatty, owned by Lady Barlow; Best Canadian Bred Puppy in Show, Westacres Athene, owned by Mrs. F. E. M. Pullen, and Best Canadian Bred in Show was Terra Nova Acampa, owned by Angus Campbell. Messrs. Robert Laskey of Saint John, N.B. and Harold Robinson of Halifax, N.S. were the two judges in attendance.

It was a most successful show and the club is making application to the C.K.C. to run a Championship Show in 1968.

This is the second club in Newfoundland, the Conception Bay Kennel Club of Harbour Grace having been in operation for some years. It is now hoped that a four-show circuit can be possible, providing to the people of Newfoundland and other visitors to the Province an opportunity to have greater success with the showing of their dogs.

TRIALS AND TRIBULATIONS

BY JAKE GIACOMELLI

I noticed that last month while discussing handler errors I missed the most common one amongst novice handlers, and that is the shuffling or stamping of the feet when coming to a halt — (penalty for the sound of shuffling or stamping of the feet which alerts the dog that his handler is coming to a halt).

Now, let's cover the Open Class errors without repeating those already covered in the Novice Class that are common to both. There are unusual errors which occasionally come up — but we'll only cover the most common ones.

OPEN CLASS

Heel off Lead:

(1) As the handlers gain in experience they become cuter and cuter — (sneakier is really the word I'm looking for). Especially when the Judge gives them the command to halt while the handler is walking at a normal pace, and the handler takes about four or five steps, gradually slowing to a halt so his dog won't sit crooked.

You may not get a penalty because your dog's Sit is straight, but if a Judge knows his business he'll certainly hit you for adaption. I don't say you should stop on a dime, but you should be able to stop within two additional steps!

(2) Lengthy pauses at left, right or about turns, allowing your dog to catch up with you — penalty for adapting pace again!

Drop on Recall:

(1) A definite downward bend of the head and/or body when giving the "Down" command — (penalty for the extra body motion). Your dog is supposed to drop on command or signal, not both!

(2) (a) The very lengthy holding of the arm for the "Drop" signal.

(b) The very lengthy holding of the arm, followed by a definite downward swing of the arm — it's like giving two signals.

Depending on the individual circumstances in each case, 2 (a) or (b) earn a penalty for holding their signal, and if severe enough can also be failed for this type of action.

Retrieve on the Flat:

(1) Touching the dog's nose when giving the dog the command and/or signal to stay before throwing the dumbell — (penalty for touching the dog's nose, — depending on the individual circumstance you can be failed for this).

(2) Bringing your hands from your sides to the front while the dog is returning with the dumbell — (penalty for making a guiding motion that would tend to guide your dog straight in to you).

After you've thrown your dumbell, keep your arms and hands still until the Judge gives you the command to "Take it".

Retrieve over High Jump:

Same as Retrieve on Flat errors.

Broad Jump:

(1) Touching dog's nose when leaving him, same as above.

(2) Making your right-face before dog is in mid-air. If you recall, the right-face is to be made while the dog is in mid air, not before or after.

UTILITY CLASS

Scent Discrimination:

(1) After giving the dog the scent, handler gives his dog a command and hand signal to get it. You're not allowed to do this! It's amazing how often this happens — it's a command or signal, not both.

(2) Scent is to be given from your hands alone — not wiping your brow or blowing breath in your palms or other subterfuges!

Seek Back:

(1) Giving the dog a hand scent before sending the dog — it's surprising how often this happens. This is O.K. in the Scent Discrimination, but it's certainly not permitted in the Seek Back exercise.

(2) Pointing to the glove instead of the direction of the trail when sending the dog out to find the glove.

Signal Exercise:

(1) Holding signals — brother ! ! ! Is this one ever abused!

Directed Jumping:

(1) Holding the directional signal.

(2) Much leaning of the body in the direction of the indicated jump.

(3) A long pause between calling the dog's name and giving the command to sit — (the dog's name may be used once, immediately before any verbal command — except when a

NOTICE

From time to time our attention is drawn to the practice of some breeders who, when advertising or otherwise offering dogs for sale, indicate in some way that the purchaser of a dog sold as pure-bred will be required to make a higher, or additional, payment in order to be furnished with a certificate of registration. Such persons should note that the price at which a dog is sold, or the purpose for which a dog was purchased, has no bearing whatever on the obligation of the seller to supply the purchaser with a certificate of registration issued by The Canadian Kennel Club for a dog sold as pure-bred.

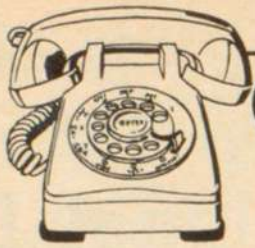

The Live Stock Pedigree Act, a federal statute, requires that when a person sells a dog as pure-bred, or contracts to sell a dog as pure-bred, he must furnish, or agree to furnish, a certificate of registration, together with fully-recorded transfer of ownership to the buyer.

Article XXXI, Section 3 of the By-laws of The Canadian Kennel Club reads as follows:

"A member may be suspended or expelled, or a non-member deprived of the privileges of the Club, if it is proven to the satisfaction of the Board that when selling, or otherwise disposing of a dog for a consideration (monetary or otherwise), the person disposing of the dog has asked or required the new owner to make any form of payment specifically for the purpose of being furnished with a certificate or registration."

To avoid possible prosecution under the Live Stock Pedigree Act and/or possible disciplinary action by The Canadian Kennel Club, members and others engaged in the selling of dogs as pure-bred are cautioned to refrain from the practice of quoting two selling prices for the dogs, one "with papers", the other "without papers", or to in any other way indicate that an additional payment is required for a certificate of registration.

This notice is published by an order of the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club.

LONDON CALLING

BY Stanley Dangerfield

On my left is the cover of the April edition of Dogs in Canada. It featured obedience training. On my right a pile of letters. They all ask for specific information. All say: "What is the address of the nearest training club to my home?"

This is sheer coincidence. When Mrs. Pugh was planning the front page, I was writing an article for a national women's magazine on training. Advising that even house pets could reach a reasonable standard. Insisting that training civilized them. Made them more agreeable members of the family circle. I finished by reminding readers that there were an abundance of training clubs in the country which would give help and advice.

The result . . . an avalanche of letters. At the last count, 386! The cascade continues. It will probably number 700 before it finishes.

These figures are not earth shaking, but they are remarkable. Seven hundred people have bothered to sit down and write as distinct from just thinking about it. For every person who wrote there were probably 10 or 20 who only meant to!

Thus, this one article stimulated the minds of some ten to twenty thousand people.

Why? The answer is easy. It is that they had in their homes a dog whose manners left something to be desired. They already had the problem. My writing merely showed a possible way of curing it.

Perhaps this story illustrates the training movement potential if the approach is right. To be more precise. Few members of the ordinary general public want dogs capable of competitive obedience. Indeed many think that this destroys initiative and creates automatons. Whether I agree or not is unimportant. That is the popular thought.

On the other hand, there is an enormous interest in elementary obedience. In teaching the simple things that make a dog fit in. The real competitive obedience enthusiasts can ignore this demand if they wish. The basic training enthusiast however, must use all of his guile to persuade the general public that their pets will benefit from a little schooling.

Since we are with obedience, let's stay there. At least long enough to support my earlier statement that ordinary people often faintly resent highly trained competition dogs.

There was a time when obedience enthusiasts in Britain would have contested this assertion. But a year or two ago they had a nasty shock!

Previously they had pointed to the large and admittedly often enthusiastic crowds round their ring and said in effect, "You see, the public only come to watch us. If it were not for obedience, dog shows would fail because they would take so little admission money".

At one particular and important show this feeling became so strong that the show committee were having to meet requests from the obedience enthusiasts which were, to put it mildly, too demanding. Slowly but surely the tail took over and began to wag the dog!

Like most minority movements, this one went too far. The show executive revolted. It cancelled the facilities previously afforded on the big show day. In its place it offered the show ground and all that went with the obedience movement the day before. They made no charge. Additionally they let the obedience folk keep all their takings at the gate!

It was the moment of truth. The main show continued to take entrance money from several thousand spectators. The obedience show took precisely 22 dollars!

Life has been much easier all round since we learned to understand each other!

Another thought on obedience. Why do so many who are enthusiastic about it belittle the dogs who do not compete? Some refer to the main section of dog shows as 'Beauty'. There is in this a strong suggestion that a good looking dog cannot be intelligent.

Some put the position even more bluntly. They refer to the show side as 'Beauty' and the obedience side as 'Brains'.

Let us admit that a show dog is not required to be intelligent. Some are; some are not. It matters little. More important (in the quest for prizes that is) is a show temperament. At this point obedience enthusiasts rub their hands and say, "See. He admits it".

HUMANELY SPEAKING

BY TOM HUGHES

I've just been on a flying visit to Britain. I attended a lot of meetings, talked a lot about animals, interviewed potential future employees of the Humane Society, arranged for some very attractive Xmas cards and tried, with some success, to get a new deal from the Norwegians for the harp seals. But I also looked at a lot of dogs. Dogs from a different angle. A civilized angle. Let's face it, the British love their dogs. Mark you, this doesn't stop quite a few of them from being pretty darned cruel to them. In fact I would hate to be loved by some Britishers; that is, if I was a dog. The daily newspapers can always be guaranteed to carry at least one story each and every day, exposing some brutal treatment of some animal or other. And the reaction from the tea and crumpet brigade can be predicted. And yet for some strange reason no one seems to be too concerned when a bunch of pretty little hares are chased and eventually torn to pieces by greyhounds. It's called coursing. And I suppose that if one has to be torn to pieces at least let it be by greyhounds. The aristocracy of dogs, you know! It's really very decent of the greyhounds to bother.

The monthly magazine published by the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, carries atrocious picture stories of British cruelty to animals and dogs in particular. But at least the British courts deal severely with the guilty ones. Sentences of heavy fines are commonplace. Under British law the courts have the power to disqualify a convicted person from owning or possessing an animal for any period up to life, if necessary. Disqualification for five and ten year periods are common.

In any British "pub" it is common to see someone standing by the bar with a drink in his hand and his dog lying quietly by his feet. And no one takes the slightest notice. Why should they? The dog is probably a great deal better behaved than his master. And he, the dog that is, can't bore you with the latest funny story or, worse still, a dramatic account of his domestic troubles. And no dog ever born is the least bit interested in cricket. It's true that on public transport animals are accepted and seen frequently. On the trains dogs have to travel in the luggage compartment. But then the British Railways has really gone to the dogs in so many ways. In fact, the average compartment is so dirty that I don't blame any well bred dog for preferring the luggage compartment. And as for the public toilets . . .

But there is something very comforting about seeing a well fed pooch being carefully led up to the top deck of a bus and actually occupying a seat.

And the British dogs. They really are different. They look different and somehow they seem to smell different. I can't swear to this but I heard a rumor that the British dogs are actually using perfume. The gay dogs. It's probably got something to do with the common market. Or, heaven forbid, it just might be the French influence. There is nothing more fetching than the sight of a long legged, lovely girl in a minimini skirt walking an equally long legged Saluki, simply stinking of cologne. The Saluki, that is. It certainly fetches them from every direction. But just in case you get the wrong impression, and it's very easy to do just that, let me assure you that every now and then you will see a typical, solid, respectable British dog that makes you realize that all is well and not to worry. And there is no dog more typical than the British Labrador. Which is a contradiction from the start. I hate to say this but I saw very few decent British Bulldogs. But the Labradors looked much smaller than the North American dog, squarer all round, if you can follow me, and very reliable. As I said, typically British.

But the "in" dog today is not even recognized by the Kennel Club (and you don't need me to tell you which club that is). You may be utterly opposed to fox hunting or not as the case may be but no one fails to recognize the status symbol, the Jack Russell terrier. They come in a variety of coats and colors and they vary somewhat in size but they are unmistakable. And they crop up in all the right places. The great conceit is that they are not registered. And the breeders refuse to change their unyielding opposition to such a course. As one man said to me, "if we did, why that would let the women in". By the look of him he could have done with being let in himself by someone, but I didn't press the point.

I rather thought that Poodles have pretty well had the course, socially speaking. Certainly I didn't notice quite as many about as I saw on previous visits. I could be quite wrong, of course, but see them I didn't. Probably all exported to the colonies. Where else?

I did achieve something for British dogs. And cats too, for that matter. For a long time the Ontario Humane Society has been concerned with the problem of people migrating to Canada who don't know what to do about their pets. We constantly get letters, pathetic letters, from someone in Ealing to the effect that they have finally decided that the plumbing won't freeze on them again, and that Canada beckons BUT what about poor old Fido? Are dogs allowed in Canada? What about quarantine? And where will I put the family cat when I arrive? All important questions to people who have many other worries on their mind when they decide to emigrate. And so the Ontario Humane Society has published a pamphlet designed to answer all these, and many more, questions. And I toured the various Canadian Government offices in London talking to the appropriate officers about the problem and arranging for these offices to distribute our pamphlet to anyone who enquired. One service described in the pamphlet is an arrangement by which the animals are met at the airport in Toronto and whisked through Customs and Health by an Inspector and then taken to a nearby, modern animal shelter where they are kept until the newcomer to Canada can make proper arrangements.

I'm all for encouraging immigration to Canada. I've got a feeling that minimini skirts will never survive the Canadian winter but we can always do with more British dogs; just so long as they don't use too much after shave lotion. □

Judges Announced for 1968 Westminster Show

Forty-five judges from 17 States and Canada will officiate at the 92nd consecutive annual dog show of the Westminster KC. The 1968 event will be held at Madison Square Garden, New York City, February 12 and 13.

Major B. Godsol of La Jolla, Calif., well-known to Canadian exhibitors, will select Best in Show. Group judges include: E. Irving Eldredge, The Plains, Va., Sporting; Hollis Wilson, Amherst, Wisc., Hound; Charles F. Hamilton, Omaha, Neb., Working; Terence P. Bresnahan, Portsmouth, R.I., Terrier; Miss Virginia Sivori, East Rockaway, N.Y., Toy; Henry H. Stoecker, Holmdel, N.J., Non-Sporting.

New Liver-Flavored Canned Dog Food

A new dog food with real liver meat is announced by J. M. Schneider Limited. The new product is an addition to the company's present line of canned Spot Dog Food. Extensive pre-introductory tests were conducted with kennels and individual dog owners. Results indicated a high acceptance of the liver product, including favorable response in many instances where previous experience with liver-flavored food was not satisfactory. The new dog food will be available through most pet-food outlets in Ontario.

Where the Exhibitor is top dog — Ottawa

Submitted by The Ottawa Kennel Club

The Spring Shows of the Ottawa Kennel Club are over! Were you there? If so, read no further! If not . . .

The Friday Night Show again was a huge success. Judging started at 5 p.m. and by 9:30 the six finalists were in the ring. In the interval, 393 dogs had been judged in eight spacious rings.

The "experiment" of last year, when the first Friday Night Show in recent history (or "ever" in Canada?) was held, obviously had the approval of the exhibitors as entries were up 87 dogs. Of major interest was the fact that Group level judging was spread out from 6:45 p.m. to 8:45 p.m., allowing exhibitors to show more than one breed at nonconflicting times, and only two Groups, IV & V, were judged at the same time.

Judge Peter Smith awarded BIS to Eng. Ch. Gosmore Gillsie Scotch Lad, owned by Fred William Fraser of Ottawa.

By 10:30 p.m., all exhibitors were "home" (or should have been!) admiring their Centennial Coin Sets (BB, Group and BIS) and their Centennial Silver Dollars (BOS) as well as many other additional trophies. Unfortunately, some were saying to their dogs "that judge doesn't know a thing about ..... but tomorrow is another day"!

Saturday morning came all too soon, especially for the hard-working O.K.C. Executive!, and at 8:30 the Puppy Sweepstakes started. There was an entry of 98. An innovation by the Ottawa Kennel Club in 1965, the Sweepstakes were changed slightly for 1967. Three judges were involved, with one judging dogs and one judging bitches. Each was allowed ample time. At 11 a.m. a third judge, Mr. S. Back, started the thankless job of judging the 16 finalists, so that the dog placing fourth in the previous class had an equal chance to place "in the money" with the dog who had placed first. Mr. Back's final choice was Ardee's Blacksmith, American Cocker owned by Ronald J. Grueza and David W. Rucinski of Buffalo, N.Y. Total prize money was $259.20, with $115.20 going to the winner.

Puppy Sweepstake entries were up only slightly from 1966. The Ottawa Kennel Club Executive feels that this may be because at previous O.K.C. shows, and elsewhere, there were "conflicts" with the All Breed Show. They feel that with the new "format" of multiple judges in the preliminary classes, and a separate "finalist" judge, entries will again surge ahead. Only time will tell.

The All Breed show started promptly at noon. New records! There was a total entry of 513 dogs, up 159 entries from one year previously. This was the first time the O.K.C. has had an entry of over 500 dogs! Booster Shows included the Afghan Club of Canada (entry 14), The Basset Club of Canada (entry 13), The Bullmastiff Fanciers of Canada (entry 11), The Dachshund Club of Canada (entry 20), The Executive International Toy Club (entry 58), The German Shepherd Dog Club of Ottawa (entry 53). The weather was beautiful, and working dogs were judged outside on grass in three rings. At 5:45 p.m. the finalists were in the ring. Judge Reg Sparkes chose as his BIS dog the Boxer, Ch. Malabar's Anthony Earp, owned by Malabar Kennels Reg., Pointe Fortune, P.Q. Again, there were Centennial Coin Sets for the winners, and yet "another day" for the others — for both, the memories of a happy, clean, efficient, smoothly-run show. Spectators? They thronged "in" and "out" to watch the judging. To add to their interest, "Group" judging was spread from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

a fabulous experience

Noted judge Mrs. Dorothea Daniell-Jenkins brings another Centennial honor to Canada. She is the first Canadian to judge at San Remo (Italy), Monte Carlo (Monaco) and Menton (France). "Dogs in Canada" is privileged to present her story on these shows. Mrs. Daniell-Jenkins was also invited to the annual general meeting of the Federation Cynologique Internationale. The only other Canadian to be so honored was the late Mrs. Eileen McEachren.

THE Riviera is still one of the world's beauty spots. Coming into Nice by air is breath-taking. After seeing the snows of Mont Blanc and the unrelieved black of the lower mountains, you come suddenly on the deep blue of the Mediterranean and the picturesque orange and red roofs which prevail all along the coast, to which, at the beginning of April, is added the blaze of flowerbeds in full bloom and flowering shrubs and trees.

This is the setting for the Semaine de la Méditerranée, an equivalent to one of our three-show circuits, the particular benefit being the opportunity of gaining Certificates towards International Championship in three countries over a period of ten days while staying in one place, since the furthest shows are only about 70 miles apart. At San Remo (Italy) the show is held in a beautiful park, with the various rings set up in some of the clear spaces, and the benching along various walks. My ring happened to be alongside a large ornamental pool with a fountain playing; and on each judge's table was set a little block carrying a tiny flag of his or her country (judges included Italian, French, German, Swedish, Brazilian, English and Canadian, and I thought our red maple leaf on its white ground looked pretty good). At Monte Carlo (Monaco) the show is set out on the wide terraces of the famous Casino, with the sea below. At Menton (France) — this show is held at Menton and Nice in alternate years, both being part of the Côte d'Azur Club — the grounds of a former private residence, now a public park, are used.

■ The shows, averaging just over 500 dogs each, are two-day affairs, starting at 1 p.m. with as much as possible of the breed judging completed the first day. This and the signing of the cards and allotment of prizes, which it is in the judge's discretion to allocate, must be completed by noon of the second day. On this afternoon special events take place such as group and BIS judging (in Italy and Monaco) or a demonstration of guard and attack work in Menton (Best in Show awards having been abolished in France), the grand finale being the assembling in the ring d'honneur of all prize winners for the presentation of all trophies, which is usually made by suitably distinguished visitors. Since everyone troops into the ring and stands around quite casually with no particular order being observed, it is amazing that no dog fights occur as the exhibitors weave their way through the crowded ring when summoned to receive their prizes.

Dog people, I believe, are the same everywhere — a cross section representative of many types of people in many walks of life. Meeting various exhibitors after the shows and talking with officials, I found quite a reflection of our own attitudes — delight at wins, especially of the coveted Certificates, anxiety of some to gain particular trophies, politicking here and there, a genuine interest in one's opinion of their dogs, and a general cheerfulness. There is sometimes a certain casualness in handling but there is also a respect for discipline and authority.

■ But two things quite different from our system most impressed me. Realizing their value in securing and maintaining high quality in the show-ring, I felt they are worth reporting. The first is the fact that every dog must be awarded a rating or qualificatif by the judge (on a card on which are filled in the dog's breed, catalog number, class, name and date of the show, and the rating awarded, duly signed by the judge). Ratings are (translated) Excellent, Very Good, Good, Sufficient, Not Sufficient, and this works to good effect in a number of ways. Since a Certificate towards Championship cannot be awarded to any dog with lower than an Excellent rating, it does not take long for a dog who does not get at least Very Good to start with and then no Excellents, to be kept out of the ring. Showing dogs of high quality is encouraged, since even if a dog does not place in the first three, four or six places, depending on the particular show's procedure, the owner knows by the Excellent card that he has a good dog and he may do better another day; and it is a means of affording recognition to good dogs. Mme. Nizet de Leemans told me of one instance when she was judging a large and magnificent entry of Whippets at the Paris Show, when in an Open Class of 20 males, with only three placements available, she could award 18 Excellents, while in the Open Bitch Class of 21 entries, she rated all 21 Excellent.

The other fact which impressed me so much was the inclusion, in the rules governing the awarding of International Championship, of limitation on age and time over which eligibility may be established. To be eligible for the C.A.C.I.B. (Certificat d'Aptitude au Championnat Internationale de Beauté) a dog's pedigree must show the registration numbers of its parents, grandparents and great-grandparents (a photocopy of the pedigree is filed with the F.C.I., which is the international dog-show governing body, of which more later), and if any of these has no number, the dog is ineligible for Championship status, nor can subsequent registration to cover the gap in retrospect be made. Then the dog must be at least 15 months old on the day he acquires his first qualifying CACIB; to achieve his title he must gain four Certificates in at least three countries under at least three different judges, and there must be a period of at least a year and a day between the date of gaining the first and fourth qualifying certificates (making him at least 27 months old) before the title can be confirmed (homologué), although he may have been shown and have acquired any number of CACIBs during the intervening months. Should a certificate be given at a show to a dog who, through lack of age or the required pedigree detail, cannot hold it, the award is cancelled by the F.C.I. and is given instead to the dog who received the Reserve CACIB at that show, provided of course that he or she also fills those requirements. Judging in Europe understand that in some of the smaller toy breeds a dog may be eligible for a CACIB at 11 or 12 months of age, and in the heavier working breeds not until 20 or even 24 months, but in all cases the same rule applies that there must be a year and a day between the first and fourth qualifying certificates.

The CACIB is awarded to the best in each sex in each breed or each variety in breed depending on the breed. Of the dogs I judged, for instance, Chow Chows had separate certificates for Blacks and for Other Colors, while Pekingese, although subdivided by both weight and color in the Classes, had only one CACIB in each sex for the breed. The FCI allots to each member country the number of shows at which the CACIB may be awarded in each year, and it is left to the Kennel Club of each of the member countries to decide which of their Shows may have this honor, only shows at which their own Championship Certificates are also awarded being considered.

■ Each country's Kennel Club also has its own rules regarding qualification for its own Championships. In France, three Certificates must be won, of which one must be obtained at the Paris Show, while Belgium and Monaco, for instance, both require only two. Regulations for showing puppies also vary. In Monaco and France I found there were regular classes in each sex for Puppies, Open, and Champions, but of course only the winners of the two latter were eligible for the CACIB. But in Italy the puppies only came in, divided by sex, after the older dogs in the breed had been judged, and one could not give a puppy a rating higher than Buono, however promising it might be. However, the San Remo Show had some interesting features in offering trophies for (1) a Special Class open to all breeds of dogs 6-10 months for toy breeds, 6-12 months for medium size breeds and 6-15 months for breeds de grand taille (note again this recognition of the slower maturing rate of the big breeds), and I was delighted to see the winner of this was a six-month black Miniature Schnauzer puppy I had judged; (2) a Veterans class for Champions and International Champions seven years and over (all breeds); and (3) much to my surprise, a child handling class, which I was, equally to my surprise, asked to judge.

■ As I mentioned earlier, there is no Best in Show award in France, and therefore no judging at Group level, but numbers of trophies are offered which may involve selection by the various judges from different breeds they have judged. Selection of Best in Show varies in other countries. To begin with, there are 11 Groups, quite differently allocated from our own. Several are devoted to various hunting breeds (Dachshunds are a group by themselves, for instance), and one type of Pointer looked just like the dogs I have seen in old tapestries and medieval hunting scenes! Some of our terrier breeds are placed in the Chiens d'Utilité group, while others join the toys, and breeds such as Bulldogs and Chows in the Chiens de Compagnie. For selecting BIS in Italy they form four main Groups — Sporting breeds, Hounds, Working dogs, and Companion dogs — and for each Group the winners of CACIB and CAC certificates in each sex in each breed all come into the ring and from them the judge selects three dogs and there are generally trophies for the first three placings; then from the 12 dogs so chosen he makes his final pick for Best in Show. In Monaco all the CACIB and CAC winners come in together, without Group division, and the judge goes round looking at each in turn and gradually dismisses the greater number, leaving himself eventually with about five dogs from which he makes his final award. Then comes judging of the Lots d'élèvage — entries of three or more of one breed owned by the same breeder or exhibitor — and it is quite a sight to see one woman leading six English Cockers or seven Pekingese, or possibly two people handling an entry of five or six Groendals (the black variety of Belgian Sheepdog). Finally, everyone and their dog comes back into the ring d'honneur for the awarding of trophies, and for all of this the crowd of spectators is enormous and enthusiastic, and quite a change from the final moments of the average North American show other than shows like Westminster and Chicago.

■ Some notes on European judging methods may be of interest. One is required to make written comments in one's judge's book on all the dogs one judges, unless faced with an enormous class and a limited time schedule, when comments on only the first few would be permissible. One may either write these oneself or dictate them to one's steward, who also fills in the necessary information on rating on the individual cards for each dog, leaving the judge only to sign them. This notation is valuable if an exhibitor comes up later to ask the judge what he thought of his dog — only brief comments are necessary but they serve to pinpoint the good and poor features. I was allowed to write my comments in English, but spoke to exhibitors in French, except for one German girl who asked me to speak English, and a couple of Italians at San Remo who spoke neither French nor English and for whom my delightful steward (who had spent a year at the University of Buffalo) translated my remarks.

■ To return to a brief explanation of the FCI — the Fédération Cynologique Internationale originated in the early '30s in an effort to obtain some uniformity and control over dog shows and dog breeding in a number of interested European countries. Held in abeyance during World War II, the first postwar meeting was held in 1946, with only some six or seven members, but by now it has 21 fully federated members (France, Belgium, Holland, Spain, Italy, Switzerland, Monaco, Austria, Norway, Sweden, Finland, Yugoslavia, Portugal, Germany, Luxembourg, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Greece, Brazil, Denmark, Hungary), and 13 Associate members (England, Argentina, Indonesia, Uruguay, Venezuela, Mexico, Colombia, Morocco, South Africa, Japan, Peru, India, Israel), the latter having no vote but taking part in all discussions and supporting FCI policy wherever possible. The annual general meeting is held each year in the country of the retiring President (the Vice-President elected in any year automatically becomes President the following year), and is arranged to coincide with a suitable dog show in that country, and if possible some of the Delegates who are licensed judges in their own country are asked to judge on this occasion. Since Her Most Serene Highness Princess Antoinette of Monaco (who is President of the Société Canine de Monte Carlo) was President of the FCI for this past year, the annual meeting was held in Monte Carlo at the time of the Semaine de la Méditerranée this year, and since I was judging there and the CKC has for some time been in correspondence with the FCI over the possibility of becoming an Associate member like England, I was invited to attend the annual general meeting as an "official observer" from Canada.

This was most interesting, with considerable discussion between the delegates over some issues. While most of the business is conducted in French, delegates may speak in English or German if they prefer to, and each seat is equipped with a set of headphones plugged into a running instant translation in each of the three languages, for those who wish to use them.

WHERE DO YOU BELONG?

by H. MALCOLM STEPHENS

The Telegram, one of Toronto's daily newspapers, has a popular column called Action Line. It "solves problems, gets answers, cuts red tape and stands up for your rights". The clipping from their column of May 18, 1967, reproduced below requires no comment. The writer has had no experience with the breeder referred to and this article is not directed at this or any particular puppy farm.

In October 1965 I bought a thoroughbred Cairn Terrier female puppy for $125 from the Puppy Ranch, R.R. No. 1, Gormley. The ranch owner promised me the pedigree would follow within three or four weeks and I received a signed statement to this effect.

I have never received the pedigree despite being promised many times that the papers would arrive shortly.

Since I bought the dog, the ranch owner has made one trip to England where the dog was born in a vain attempt to secure the pedigree. However he says the original owner of the pup is now dead and everything is tied up in the hands of the estate.

I bought a female pup because I have a male Cairn terrier and I wanted her for breeding purposes. She has had her first litter of pups but because I had no papers for the mother I couldn't very well sell them so I gave them away.

I really have been very patient with the Puppy Ranch and I would appreciate anything you can do for me. Mrs. L. H., Etobicoke.

ACTION LINE wrote to the Puppy Ranch on March 23. We had no reply. In April, our tall redheaded sleuth telephoned the ranch and received a verbal promise from the owner's wife that you could have one of three choices. Either a full refund of $125 or keep the dog and accept a $75 refund or pick out another female.

You decided to keep your dog and accept the $75 refund.

But when you went to pick up the $75 late last month the owner was only willing to return you $50 which you found unacceptable.

Our redhead headed back into the fray and now the Puppy Ranch has mailed you a cheque for $75.

Let us look at the facts as portrayed by Action Line. This is an example of someone prepared to pay a reasonable price for a pedigreed dog, with an apparent sincere interest in breeding good quality puppies. She makes no criticism of the quality of the puppy as a Cairn terrier, nor does she have any criticism of the health of the puppy. These are two exceptions to the normal situation of puppies from "puppy farms", when frequently the quality is lacking and in many cases the puppies have been reared under conditions which make it most likely that they will be unhealthy. The reference to papers not being available because the breeder, said to be in England, has died is most peculiar as the Kennel Club (England) will only issue export pedigrees prior to the export of the dog. There have been several recent examples where papers have been refused after the dogs have left the country.

Having paid $125 for a female to breed to her male, the purchaser, in this case, ultimately found herself with a female which cost her $50, plus a litter of puppies which she gave away. Presumably some of these puppies went to people who otherwise would have been prepared to buy a registered puppy. Thus, one female from a complicated background had produced several puppies which in turn have no background at all. To breeders this is the big problem stemming from "puppy farms".

Gormley is in Whitchurch Township. Several other kennels are located in the same township, all of whom operate on a reputable basis, selling healthy stock which they are prepared to guarantee. Recently the Whitchurch Township Council introduced a new by-law eliminating kennel licenses, notwithstanding the existence of an Ontario statute which provides that the maximum dog tax for a kennel shall be $10 for kennels owned by members of The Canadian Kennel Club. This has put breeders in the township to the expense of retaining a lawyer to fight their case and has caused them considerable worry. One particular breeder, who recently bought a property and was erecting kennels in anticipation of her move into Whitchurch, now finds herself with a building permit for a kennel but no kennel license. Several members of the council have expressed the opinion that this new by-law was intended only to discourage certain breeders and was not to interfere with other breeders. However, the wording of the by-law is such that the good are hurt with the bad.

It is not always possible for Dogs in Canada to comment immediately such situations develop throughout the country. We are a monthly publication and the physical problems of getting a monthly magazine to the printer and then to subscribers make it difficult to publish up-to-date news stories of this nature. The problem however is not confined to Whitchurch Township. It concerns dog breeders from coast to coast. We will endeavour to publish items on these situations as opportunity presents itself, provided they are brought to our attention with factual data stating both sides of the case.

The image of dog breeders, among the general public, leaves much to be desired. Actions of irresponsible, questionable breeders do irreparable damage to the conscientious breeder of integrity. Where do you belong in this?

KNOW YOUR CLUB

SIXTH IN A SERIES. In the articles in the "Know Your Club" series, published in recent issues of Dogs in Canada, we have dealt largely with the relations of The Canadian Kennel Club with the Canadian National Live Stock Records and the manner in which applications for registration, transfer, etc. are processed at the Records office. In the concluding article of this series we propose to deal with the question of the time required to process applications.

THE time required to process applications and issue certificates through the Live Stock Records office has been a source of concern to the Board of Directors. On the Board's instruction, the Secretary recently visited the Canadian National Live Stock Records office for the purpose of discussing with the Director of that office possible improvements with a view to earlier issuance of certificates.

The Canadian National Live Stock Records office maintains registration records for some 34 Associations and for a number of breeds for which associations have not been formed. A review of the 1966 receipts at the Live Stock Records office clearly indicates that the peak period for that office occurs in the five-month period running from December through April. This is particularly so in the case of those Associations where renewals of membership for the most part are submitted during the first quarter of the year. In checking the time required to process applications, the Secretary found that within recent weeks there has been an improvement, and the Director of Canadian National Live Stock Records anticipates that there will be a further improvement during the summer months, notwithstanding the fact that we are entering the vacation period.

The report of the C.K.C. Secretary on his discussions with the Director of Canadian National Live Stock Records will be considered by the national Board of Directors at its semi-annual meeting in September. In the meantime, we propose, in this article, to outline some steps which breeders themselves can take with a view to further decreasing the time now required to process applications at the Live Stock Records office.

A review of applications received at the Live Stock Records office indicates that many breeders allow applications to accumulate and then submit applications for registration, transfer of ownership, registration of litters, etc. simultaneously. For purposes of accounting and processing it is deemed inadvisable to segregate these different classes of applications. In other words, where a breeder submits an application for registration of a litter, an application for transfer of ownership of an already registered dog, and one or more applications for individual registration, these applications are processed collectively. Because the time required to process an application for individual registration of a dog requires more work and time than the registration of a litter or the simple transfer of an already registered dog, the latter types of applications cannot be processed as quickly as otherwise would be possible if the latter applications were submitted independently.

This leads to two suggestions. When a breeder sells an already C.K.C. registered dog, he would be well advised not to delay the submission of the application for transfer of ownership until he submits an application for registration of litter or application for individual registration. Similarly, we would suggest that a breeder wishing to register a litter does not withhold the submission of the application for registration of litter until the time arrives when he may wish to submit applications for individual registration. In the Accounting Department a degree of pre-sorting is undertaken for the purpose of expediting simple transfers of ownership of already registered dogs and the registration of litters, but this cannot be done if such applications are accompanied by applications for individual registration.

Although this noseprint is not entirely clear and distinct it is nevertheless a good noseprint and one which would be accepted.

This is an example of an excellent noseprint. Note that the islands and channels are clearly shown.

A review of applications being processed clearly indicates that a very high percentage cannot be processed at the first submission simply because the noseprints accompanying such applications are not acceptable. A scanning of many noseprints seems to indicate that many have no conception of an acceptable noseprint. To overcome this problem we are illustrating on this page samples of acceptable noseprints. It will be noted that the islands and channels appear clearly. It would also appear that some breeders are employing ink other than the carbon black type of ink made available by The Canadian Kennel Club. A liquid ink is not advised because the paper used for the noseprint form is a gummed stock; the liquid ink penetrates the paper's surface and when reaching the gummed stock on the back of the form it spreads, with the result that a blurred print is obtained.

The processing of applications and the issuance of certificates is hampered considerably by the very high percentage (about 35%) of applications which have to be returned for one reason or another, such as errors or omissions on the application, or the applications are not accompanied by sufficient fees. In the last-named category we find many applications have to be returned when the applicant, in applying for both registration and transfer of ownership, overlooks the necessity of including the transfer fee in his remittance. We cannot too strongly recommend that before mailing an application to the Live Stock Records office, a check be made, section by section, to see that all parts of the application are completed, all signatures appear, the information given coincides with the breeder's own private breeding records, and the required fees are enclosed.

There appears to be a common impression that a breeder cannot proceed with individual registration of puppies in a litter until he actually receives the litter registration certificates and litter kit. This is not the case. A breeder is free to attach to the litter application an individual application for each puppy in the litter and, if submitted in that fashion, all will be processed simultaneously. Alternatively, a breeder is free, after having submitted a litter application to the Canadian National Live Stock Records, to submit applications for individual registration of puppies in the litter, but when doing so he should attach a brief note to the effect that the litter application had already been submitted although he had not as yet received the litter certificate and kit.

A breeder having sold a dog to a purchaser in the United States and wishing immediate processing of an application for registration and transfer of the dog in question should, when mailing the application for registration and transfer to the Canadian National Live Stock Records, mark the word "EXPORT" on the face of the envelope addressed to the Live Stock Records office.

On occasion a person in Canada importing a dog from Great Britain has experienced difficulty in obtaining an Export Certificate. We strongly recommend that any person in Canada negotiating the purchase of a dog in Great Britain should, as a condition of purchase, arrange that the exporter in Great Britain will, before shipping the dog to Canada, obtain a three generation Export Certificate from The Kennel Club at London.

Persons wishing to order noseprint forms and/or noseprinting ink should address their orders, with covering payment, direct to: The Canadian Kennel Club, 1173 Bay Street, Toronto 5, Ontario. Remittances in payment of noseprinting supplies should not be addressed to the Canadian National Live Stock Records.

Another delaying factor occurs occasionally when a person will communicate with The Canadian Kennel Club and refer to earlier correspondence, when in point of fact such earlier correspondence was with the Canadian National Live Stock Records. Similarly, the Canadian National Live Stock Records receives correspondence

RECENT WINNERS

The Pembroke Welsh Corgi, Corgana Ovation, is shown going Winners Bitch at the largest Pembroke Welsh Corgi Specialty ever held on this continent on May 27, 1967 in Carmel, Calif. Record entry was drawn by famous Corgi breeder and English championship show Judge Miss P. Hewan of the Stormerbanks prefix at the 8th Annual Specialty of the Golden Gate Pembroke Welsh Corgi Fanciers. Bred and handled by Albert Huggins, Ovation is co-owned with him by Mrs. B. Jessiman of West Vancouver, B.C.

Coraland McDuff of Backmuir, West Highland White Terrier owned by Mrs. L. E. Outerbridge of Bermuda, shown completing his Canadian championship at the Ottawa K.C. shows under Judge Albert Collins. "Nipper" finished his title undefeated in the classes, taking Winners Dog in all the six shows in which he was entered, and Best of Winners in five. Handled by Mr. Bud Flanagan, Manderley Kennels Reg'd., Brooklin, Ont.

Ch. (Am. & Can.) Garden State Reno's Blaze, Irish Setter, going Best of Breed from the classes winning the Irish Setter Specialty of Toronto under Judge Henry Stoecker, handler Alan Levine. Owner, Mrs. Helen A. Olivo, 154 Calyer St., Brooklyn, N.Y., USA.

Ch. & O.T. Ch. Berst's Palos v Hoytt, Am. CDX is working on his Am. Utility title. He earned his 2nd leg in Minneapolis on May 21, 1967 by placing 2nd in a huge class of 22 with a score of 198. There were 165 dogs in trial, 39 of them Working Group dogs. Palos placed 2nd in Working Dogs and was highest scoring bench champion on record in the Trial.

Ch. (Can. & Am.) Manderley's Duke O'Distinction, white Miniature Poodle, is shown winning Group 1st at the United Kennel Club (Montreal) Show, on April 23 under Judge Glenn Stephens, one week after taking Best in Show at St. Catharines. "Duke" was bred, and is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Bud Flanagan, Manderley Kennels, Brooklin, Ont.

intended to follow earlier correspondence passing between the breeder or owner and The Canadian Kennel Club office at Toronto.

While the foregoing is primarily intended to indicate to breeders how they may assist the Canadian National Live Stock Records with a view to providing a better service, those having occasion to utilize the Club's registration facilities should not hesitate to communicate to the Secretary of the Club any suggestions as to how the service can be improved. □

English Pointer Winners

Gold Dust's Lemonade Joe, liver and white male Pointer, owned and handled by Jack Bradley, South March, Ont., topped a strong field of 17 starters to place First in the Open Puppy Stake at the Montreal Gun Dog Club trial at St. Andrews East, Que. on May 7.

On May 13 at the Ottawa Valley Gun Dog Club trial Gold Dust's Little Jill, a sister of "Joe", placed First in the Open Puppy.

Lemonade Joe made his way into the winner's circle in the Open Derby, placing Third with a nice race and a find on a pheasant.

Chesapeake Retrievers Make Excellent Guide Dogs

It is not widely known that at Guide Dogs for the Blind, San Rafael, Calif. Chesapeake Bay Retrievers are being used extensively as guide dogs.

In the Chesapeake Bay Retriever, written by Mrs. Eloise Heller, one chapter, written by W. F. Johns, Executive Director of Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., is devoted to them. It contains several pictures showing the dogs with their masters. One nice illustration shows a telephone operator with her dog by her side.

Mr. Johns says they are very suitable for the work. Their sense of responsibility and tractability is outstanding. They are quiet, affectionate and happiest when near their master and excellent house dogs as well.

Because of their double coat, which acts as insulation, they are equally at home in California or Alaska. They say they have no finer guide dogs than the Chesapeakes and that the blind are proud to own and have their assistance.

Scottish-born Labrador Starts Career Here

Sandy Briggs of Wimberway Kennels Reg'd., R.R. 1, Markham, Ont., recently imported a four-month-old yellow female Labrador puppy from the Sunnybrae Kennels in Edinburgh, Scotland. This puppy, Sunnybrae Ben Y Vrackie, is by Coultercraig's Shandy out of Sunnybrae Ardvourie. Vourie is the granddaughter of Sunnybrae Hartach Dubh who currently has one CC and two Reserve CC's and won her CC at the age of eight years. Vrackie shows great promise and has been bought for showing and breeding purposes and with a line of gamekeepers' stock behind her and dogs regularly shot over, it is hoped she will also do well in the field.

Vrackie travelled from Edinburgh to Southampton by train, then to Montreal on board the Sylvania with Sandy's Aunt, Joan Huitt, who is in Canada for a six-months visit. After ten days of travel, storms across the Atlantic and sudden high temperatures in Montreal and Toronto on her arrival, she was full of beans and showed no evidence of being tired or having endured the lengthy journey.

X-Rayed Lab List Grows

A new up-to-date list of Labrador Retrievers who have been x-rayed and shown clear of hip dysplasia is now being compiled. Anyone who has a Labrador who has been cleared is asked to contact Sandy Briggs, Wimberway Kennels Reg'd., R.R. 1, Markham, Ont.

Pelican Lake Peggy Labrador Pace Setter

Labrador Retriever people must be suspecting that Scotty Gillespie of Ninette, Man. is secretly in league with the Wizard of Oz, at least, in possession of some miraculous secret all his own. In the recent Manitoba Gun Dog Club Spring Trials his bitch, Ch. Pelican Lake Peggy, won the Open the first day and the Amateur Open the second day. A couple of weeks previous to the Manitoba Trial Peggy took the Open at Saskatoon, thus running her open stake victories to three in a row.

This is an impressive achievement by itself but it is really only the beginning. At 3½ years of age Pelican Lake Peggy has become a Dual Champion. She won her bench title at a year and a half in 1965 but Scotty did not begin her field training until she was over two and has been working with her for only 18 months. Before that Mr. Gillespie was very busy training, trialing and showing another Labrador he owned before Peggy — a dog he called Happy Playboy. After he made a Dual Champion out of Happy Playboy he sold him to Mrs. Lambert in the U.S.A. where the dog went on to make history by becoming the only Labrador ever to win the Dual title in both countries. So Scotty Gillespie is batting 1000 in one

C. K. C. ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

RESUME OF PROCEEDINGS AT THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF THE CANADIAN KENNEL CLUB HELD AT THE CHATEAU LAURIER HOTEL, OTTAWA, ONTARIO, ON SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1967.

The President, Mr. V. W. Williams, called the meeting to order, welcomed the members present, introduced the members of the Board and two Past Presidents attending (Mr. Walter Brown and Mr. J. J. Farmer), and called for one minute's silence in memory of those members who had passed away since the previous Annual General Meeting. The President also introduced Mr. F. G. Hodgkin, Director of Canadian National Live Stock Records, and Miss May McClymont, Acting Registrar for dogs.

Before calling for the minutes of the previous Annual General Meeting the President said,

"Fellow members, it gives me a great deal of pleasure to welcome you to this, the Annual General Meeting of The Canadian Kennel Club.

"When, at the annual meeting of your Board of Directors a year ago the Board considered the date and location of the 1967 Annual General Meeting, it was felt that with Canada celebrating the 100th anniversary of Confederation, our capital city would be the most fitting site at which to have this General Meeting.

"Apart from that factor, this city is important to our scheme of things, first because the officials of the Federal Department of Agriculture with whom we have occasion to deal from time to time, and under whose benevolent jurisdiction we operate, are located here. When The Canadian Kennel Club obtained incorporation under the Live Stock Pedigree Act in 1915 our registration records were transferred to the Canadian National Live Stock Records, which from the time of its inception in 1905, has been located in Ottawa.

"Another equally important factor is that Ottawa is the hub of an area which includes many constructive breeders of pure-bred dogs, and within this area there operate a number of progressive clubs which hold shows and trials under our rules.

"At this juncture I would like, on behalf of the Board of Directors, to express our deepest appreciation to the Officers and members of the Ottawa Kennel Club for their hospitality. We have heard much of the Ottawa Kennel Club, all to its credit, and having been privileged to share a social evening with you, it is very easy for we visitors to Ottawa to see why it is that the Ottawa Kennel Club enjoys such an enviable reputation. We shall all remember a most enjoyable evening.

"When the Secretary prepared the agenda of this meeting for publication in the December issue of 'Dogs in Canada' and the notice calling this meeting, there was included a provision for discussion of proposed amendments to our By-laws and various Rules. The Board anticipated that we would have published in the same issue a number of proposed amendments which we are considering placing before the voting members of this Club.

"However, it is now evident that the Committee appointed to draft the proposed amendments had been given a task which required more time than we had visualized with the result that the proposed amendments were not published. As we are not in a position to arrange for a discussion of these at this General Meeting, the Board has decided that we will not conduct a special referendum ballot this year.

"Your present Board feels that we should seek to improve our present system of show championships. Without in any way committing itself to any programme, your Board authorized the publication in the December issue of 'Dogs in Canada' of a new point rating system and comments of interested clubs and individuals were sought. We appreciate the time and effort taken by those who responded to the invitation. Your Board feels that this meeting provides an excellent opportunity for it to hear whatever suggestions and comments those present here today have to offer, and we propose that later in this meeting we have an open discussion on the question.

MINUTES OF PREVIOUS ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The minutes of the Annual General Meeting held at Toronto on February 26, 1966 were presented. On motion by Mr. Thomas Joel, seconded by Mr. Gordon McDonald, the minutes were adopted.

REPORTS

The report of Mr. Philip Jacobi, the Club's representative to the Canadian National Exhibition, on the Exhibition's 1966 shows and its plans for their 1967 shows, was read. On motion by Mr. Walter Brown, seconded by Mr. Thomas Joel, the report was adopted. Also read was a letter from Mr. J. N. Perdue, Manager of the C.N.E. Department of Agriculture, outlining the Association's plans for its 1967 dog shows.

The Club's representatives to the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair, Toronto, for the past year were Mrs. Edna Joel and Dr. Philip Wright. On behalf of the two representatives, Mrs. Joel submitted a report which concluded with the following observation: "It is our feeling that if the Ontario Department of Agriculture could be prevailed upon to put dog breeding as a legitimate live stock activity our position would be immeasurably strengthened in this area". On motion by Mrs. Joel, seconded by Mr. Jim Taylor, the report was accepted and adopted.

The report of Mr. T. E. Gundersen, the Club's representative to the Central Canada Exhibition, Ottawa, was read. In his report Mr. Gundersen pointed out that in his previous report he had stated that an expansion of the Exhibition by way of new buildings was in progress, and until "this major operation is completed nothing could be done in connection with staging an annual dog show". On motion by Mr. Thomas Joel, seconded by Mr. Gordon McDonald, the report was received.

The report of the Club's auditors, attached to the financial statements for the Club's fiscal year ending December 31, 1966, was presented. On motion by Mr. W. J. Monaghan, seconded by Mr. J. J. Farmer, the report was accepted.

During a discussion of the financial statements, Mr. Monaghan pointed out that the operational item rate at the Live Stock Records office in 1966 had reached nearly 80¢, stated that reference to the minutes of the 1953 Annual General Meeting "will show that among other recommendations made at that meeting was one that serious consideration should be given to the adoption of a financial formula whereby the Board would have the authority from time to time to adjust the registration fees on the basis of the operational item cost, stated that at that time he had suggested that the basic registration fee should be "twice the unit cost calculated to the closest quarter dollar", and recommended that the Board give serious consideration to a review of the 1953 recommendations.

A discussion followed on funds which the Club had allocated to the Ontario Veterinary College for research. It was suggested that the Board give serious consideration to recommendations on control of his displasia as set out in a report submitted to the Board in 1965 by Dr. A. J. Cawley. Questions were raised on the progress being made in the finding of means to store canine semen for which research the Club had allocated funds. Criticism was levelled at the adequacy of the funds allocated for research and the manner in which such allocations had been made. During discussion of a suggestion that the amount allocated for research be increased considerably it was suggested by Dr. Quentin Latham that "you request a submission or applications for a grant from researchers in this field, and have your committee study those approaches and see that there is no needless duplication, and then make a decision on who in your mind, based on the submissions, would be the best people to support and, then based on the nature of the work that is involved, how much money can be allocated".

The discussion on the allocation of funds for research concluded with the following resolution, moved by Mr. Gordon Luckins, seconded by Mrs. Dorothea Daniell-Jenkins: "THAT, the Board of Directors establish a committee of at least three, one of whom should be a member of the Board, to investigate the possibility of promotion of artificial insemination, and that they bring in their findings to the membership, the committee to proceed along the lines outlined by Dr. LaHam."

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The President reported that, arising out of a resolution adopted at the 1965 Annual General Meeting at Vancouver, representations had been made to The American Kennel Club regarding the recognition of Canadian show judges; that the Board had met with the Executive Vice-President of The American Kennel Club to discuss the matter; and asked the Secretary to read a recent communication from The American Kennel Club reporting that The American Kennel Club would henceforth consider for approval as judges of A.K.C. shows the name of any Canadian resident that had been submitted by a show-giving club in the United States for the breed or breeds that he or she is approved to judge at shows under C.K.C. rules upon establishment that the person selected to judge is occupationally eligible to judge under A.K.C. rules. The President further reported that as requested by the A.K.C. the Secretary would proceed to New York to complete arrangements with the A.K.C.

The President reported that in accordance with a resolution adopted at the last Annual General Meeting, the Board had considered whether steps should be taken to amend the Dog Show Rules to make it possible for a dog entered in class competition at a series of shows to be transferred from class competition to "Specials Only" if, before the series of shows had concluded, a dog had attained championship status, or, as an alternative suggestion, the dog may be benched but withheld from class competition. The Board had concluded that any change in the rules which would make it possible for a dog to be transferred from class competition to Specials Only at a show, or would make it possible for a dog to be withheld from competition when it is in the show, could lead to a number of difficulties, and therefore the Board had decided that it would not sponsor any change in the existing rule.

The President reported that in accordance with a resolution adopted at the last Annual General Meeting, the Board had considered a proposal that it initiate an amendment to the Dog Show Rules which would enable show-giving clubs to provide "in transit" areas for the convenience of an exhibitor or handler taking a number of dogs to a series of shows but where any one or more such dogs are not entered in competition in every one of the shows constituting the series or circuit of shows. The President stated that this question had been referred to the Dog Show Council and the Board had before it for study a proposed amendment drafted by the Council.

ELECTION OF REPRESENTATIVES TO OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

Mr. Philip Jacobi was elected the Club's representative to the Canadian National Exhibition Association.

Mrs. D. T. Weir and Mr. James F. H. Taylor were elected as the Club's representatives to the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair Association.

Dr. F. George Walker was elected the Club's representative to the Central Canada Exhibition Association.

APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS AND ELECTION COMMISSION

On motion by Mr. Thomas Joel, seconded by Mr. E. B. Reid, Fairley, Welsh & Co. were appointed the Club's auditors and Election Commission for 1967.

NEW BUSINESS

Mr. E. B. Reid proposed, seconded by Mrs. Edna Joel, that the Board of Directors give consideration to the placing on the next referendum ballot on the Dog Show Rules, an amendment to remove Best Canadian-bred in Breed, Best Canadian-bred in Group, and Best Canadian-bred in Show. In proposing this step Mr. Reid said: "In making this motion I feel we in Canada have now reached the stage where we are breeding dogs that we do not have to retain a consolation prize. I feel we can compete under Canadian dog show rules under Canadian judges with dogs that are bred in any country in the world."

During a discussion which followed Mrs. Phyllis Smith, Chairman of the Dog Show Council in 1966, reported that in a complete review of the Dog Show Rules the Council had proposed to the Board that provision for these awards be deleted from the Dog Show Rules, but there be an award of Best Puppy in Show open to all puppies regardless of place of birth. After further discussion Mr. Reid's motion was put to a vote and carried.

During a discussion of the foregoing question the suggestion was advanced that for the information of the membership at large the entire report of the Dog Show Council, including its proposed revision of the Dog Show Rules, be published in the official organ. It was moved by Mr. W.J. Monaghan, seconded by Mrs. Edna Joel, that the report and recommendations of the Dog Show Council be published in the July issue of "Dogs in Canada". The motion carried.

A lengthy discussion developed on a number of questions which were raised about disciplinary action taken by the Board of Directors against a number of exhibitors at dog shows for alleged violations of the Dog Show Rules.

A discussion developed on the wish of a particular specialty club to hold specialty championship shows under the Club's rules, the Board of Directors having taken the position that until an apparent internal dispute regarding the status of those claiming to be officers of the club had been resolved, permission to hold shows under the Club's rules would not be granted. The discussion concluded with the adoption of a resolution, moved by Mrs. Edna Joel, seconded by Mr. E. B. Reid "THAT, the Board see fit to set up an examining committee to consist entirely of C.K.C. Directors, and convene as quickly as possible with the two factions, together with their solicitors, and get this matter settled once and for all."

The President pointed out that at its semi-annual meeting in 1966 the Board decided on the text of a notice to be published and communicated to clubs and judges regarding the baiting of dogs in show rings. He announced that as a result of letters received with regard to the proposed notice, the Board had reconsidered the question. He read the text of a notice to be communicated to clubs and judges in place of the notice previously decided upon.

Invited by the President to address the meeting, Mr. Frank G. Hodgkin, Director of Canadian National Live Stock Records said,

"Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen, first of all I want to thank you very much for your invitation to be here at your annual meeting. I must say that you certainly do thresh the problems out! But, as several speakers have remarked, some good will come out of this, and I am sure that all rules are made, and conditions do change, and they need updating.

"I did not come here with a lot of statistics or any report. We have to do with the handling of your affairs in our office, and I was very happy to be able to explain to your Directors and show them our setup in a rather short time last evening. We, of course, feel that if it were possible to have people go through when the office is actually in operation, the picture is entirely different. However, that was not possible.

"You had reference earlier in your meeting about finances, and I see no change in what appears to be another increase in business this year. Our receipts (I am speaking now of the operation in general at our office) were up some $10,000.00 over the first month of the year. It meant handling per day - our daily intake of letters was over 700, and that is an awful lot of work to go through.

"We are having a trying time in our office and our organization in competing for help in the City of Ottawa. With the salary scale we have, we have a difficult time with business corporations and the Civil Service. However, we do hope that we can pick up our backlog in the next four or five weeks.

"We experienced, as I explained to your Board yesterday, that this is the heaviest time of the year, and it applies to practically all associations that we are working for. We have on our total membership list some 27,000 names, which covers all the breeds. The mere fact that most people are paying their membership fee at this time of the year, you can imagine the number of accounting entries and the amount of remittances, etc. that we have to handle.

"Again, I wish to thank you for the opportunity of meeting you, and I hope that the rest of your meeting will be productive, as I am sure that you have already covered a lot of ground, and, as I say, a lot of good will come out of it."

The Chairman thanked Mr. Hodgkin for his remarks and Mr. Hodgkin left the meeting.

During a discussion which followed statements were made with regard to the alleged conditions under which the staff at the Live Stock Records office work and to the possible fire hazard in respect of the employees and the records that are maintained there. The question was left in the hands of the Board for consideration.

The President pointed out that in the December issue of "Dogs in Canada" there had been published a proposed new system of championship ratings and championship requirements and at that time the views of the membership generally had been sought. He pointed out that it was the wish of the Board that members present at this meeting feel free to comment, not only on the proposed system, but to offer any other suggestions they may have with a view to improving the existing system. Mr. E. B. Reid reported that while judging in Argentina he had been informed of the system applicable there, and outlined it for the information of those present. Dr. F. G. Walker spoke on the system which had been suggested to the Board of Directors by the Ottawa Kennel Club.

Mr. W. J. Monaghan expressed the view that the recurring outbreaks of rabies deserved the serious consideration of the Board of Directors, and suggested that the Board consider implementing an arrangement whereby no imported dog would be registered in the Club's records unless a rabies vaccination certificate, issued in the country of export, accompanies the application for Canadian registration. The Chairman announced that at a session of the annual meeting of the Board immediately preceding this meeting, the Board had decided to appoint a Rabies Control Committee and it had named Mr. Monaghan as Chairman of the Committee with power to name the remaining members of the Committee. He stated that the Board anticipated that the Committee would endeavour to determine, at the federal and provincial levels, in what way the Club may participate in a program of rabies control. Mrs. Diamond stated that to the best of her knowledge, rabies vaccine is not permitted in England, and Dr. Robert Williams stated that in connection with the importation of dogs the question would have to be studied in more detail having regard for the period of immunization and the time that it takes for vaccine to work.

Mr. W. J. Monaghan exhibited models of two recognized breeds, pointed to the work of the Holstein-Friesian Association of Canada in its methods of classifying Holstein-Friesian cattle, and suggested that seminars be convened where recommendations and suggestions may be obtained in connection with a breed improvement program.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

A regular meeting of the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club was held in the Club's offices on Wednesday, May 3, 1967, with the following members of the Board present: George W. Frost (Chairman), Robert L. Blyth, Mrs. Irving Diamond, Donald H. Duff, Walter A. Jacob, Robert B. Laskey, Mrs. Pamela B. Mack, George N. Mehlenbacher, Mrs. Hilda F. Pugh, Mrs. N. T. Smith.

There follows a summary of matters of general interest dealt with at the meeting.

INTERNATIONAL MATTERS

THE AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB

The Board received the report of the Secretary, who stated that, in accordance with an instruction given by the Board at its annual meeting in February, he had visited the offices of The American Kennel Club in April with a view to completing arrangements whereby the American Kennel Club, under conditions outlined in a report considered at the annual meeting of the Board, would consider requests of clubs holding championship shows under A.K.C. rules for the approval of Canadian judges.

No action was taken pending the issuance by The American Kennel Club of a press release announcing its new policy and its effective date.

REGISTRATION, STUD BOOKS AND RELATED MATTERS

CANADIAN NATIONAL LIVE STOCK RECORDS

The Secretary was instructed to inform the Director of Canadian National Live Stock Records that the Board of Directors is concerned over the time taken to process applications, and the Secretary was further instructed to seek a meeting with the Director of Canadian National Live Stock Records for the purpose of effecting improvements as soon as possible.

KENNEL NAMES

The Board received the report of the Kennel Names Committee on a number of applications referred to the Committee for consideration.

The Board reaffirmed a policy previously approved by the Board to the effect that any name for which an application for registration as a kennel name is received, must be a single, unhyphenated word, without an apostrophe.

The Board rejected the application for a kennel name submitted by a person who had been convicted on a charge of cruelty to animals.

The Board ruled that an objection to an application for registration of kennel name cannot be entertained on the grounds of similarity if the person objecting has not registered a kennel name with the Club.

PRIVATE BREEDING RECORD BOOKS

The Board received the Secretary's report to the effect that in the reprinting of the private breeding record book, arrangements had been made for the inclusion of a French translation of headings and other material included in these books.

REGISTRATION COMMITTEE

The Board prescribed the arrangements to be made with regard to the inspection of two dogs whose owners had sought the recording of transfers to their name in the absence of the signatures of the last recorded owners.

Referred to the semi-annual meeting of the Board for consideration was the question of the possible registration in the Club's records of a dog born in France, registered with the Japan Kennel Club.

COMPLAINTS, CHARGES AND PROTESTS

SPECIFIC CASES

In dealing with a number of files on complaints, charges and protests, the Board:

(1) instructed the Secretary as to the replies to letters received in connection with the disqualification of a Poodle at one show and the acceptance of awards to the same dog at a show held one week later, the dog being the subject of protests at both shows, but in the absence of an appeal from the parties concerned, the Board had accepted the decisions of the Bench Show Committees which had dealt with the protests;

(2) instructed the Secretary to seek the views of the Club's solicitor with regard to appropriate replies to letters received in connection with the alleged conduct of a participant in field trials;

(3) gave a member of the Club fifteen days in which to submit to the Secretary an application for registration and transfer of a dog allegedly sold as pure-bred, or the applicant to submit to the Secretary within fifteen days, a registered letter electing a formal hearing of the complaint.

INTERNAL AND ADMINISTRATION

RESIGNATIONS

In view of letters received from Mr. George Mehlenbacher and Mrs. Phyllis Smith, the Board considered withdrawn, written resignations which Mr. Mehlenbacher and Mrs. Smith had handed to the Secretary immediately prior to the adjournment of the annual meeting of the Board last February.

STAFF SALARIES

The Secretary reported on a request received from members of the staff with regard to increase of salaries.

The Secretary was instructed as to the information to be conveyed to the Board for its consideration prior to the next meeting of the Board.

BOARD MEETINGS

It was decided that the next regular meeting of the Board would be held on Wednesday, June 7th.

STATISTICS

The following statistics were reported to the Board:

	1957	1966
Championship shows	98	198
Licensed Obedience Trials and Tracking Tests	61	146
Licensed Field Trials	63	112
TOTAL EVENTS	222	456
Titles Confirmed
Championship	606	1,298
Obedience	211	610
Field Trials	43	58
TOTAL TITLES	860	1,966
Dogs entered in events	22,359	44,115

APPOINTMENTS FOR 1967

The following appointments were made, subject to the acceptance in each case of the person named:

New Brunswick & Prince Edward Island

Dog Show Representative: J. G. Cavanaugh
Advisory Provincial Committee: J. G. Cavanaugh, Mrs. Marion L. Wait, Ernest C. Smith, Miss Lois E. Burpee, Mrs. Alice H. Bissett.

Nova Scotia & Newfoundland

Dog Show Representative: Michael Andrews
Field Trial Representative for Pointing Breeds: W. K. Chinn
Obedience Representative: L. K. Hill
Advisory Provincial Committee: Michael Andrews, Harvey Gratton, E. C. St. John Green, J. J. LeMoine, Mrs. Margaret Duff.

Manitoba

Field Trial Representative for Retrievers: John Sellen
Advisory Provincial Committee: Mrs. Marion King, L. A. Reece, H. Crozier, Harold Johnson, Dr. R. G. Mitchell.

Quebec

Advisory Provincial Committee: Alfred Rohrbach.

MEMBERSHIP MATTERS

APPLICATIONS

The Board confirmed the approval given on seven lists of applications reported to all members of the Board.

The Board ruled that when a member of the Club takes up residence in another country he will, while residing outside Canada, be treated as a non-resident member, but on his return to Canada, and assuming that membership has been kept continuous, the member will resume the status he enjoyed prior to his departure from Canada.

Approval was given the request of a member that, without changing membership status, the membership be enlarged to include husband and wife.

DOG SHOWS

DISQUALIFICATIONS

Approval was given the draft of a proposed letter to be addressed to the owner of a dog which is disqualified at a championship show held under the Club's rules.

SHOW PASSES

In response to an inquiry received from a show-giving club the Board ruled that the section of the Dog Show Rules dealing with the issuance of passes to exhibitors is mandatory only as to the minimum number of passes which must be issued and does not prohibit the show-giving club from issuing additional passes to exhibitors.

BRED BY EXHIBITOR CLASS

The Board ruled that a dog bred by a partnership is eligible for entry in the Bred by Exhibitor Class if the owner of the dog was one of the persons comprising the membership which bred the dog, or if the dog is the property of a partnership, one of which partners was one of the original partnership recorded as breeder of the dog.

DEMONSTRATIONS AND SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS

The Board decided that it had no objection to the Ottawa Kennel Club's proposal to conduct a show confined to Best in Show winners, this decision having been reached on the grounds that there is no provision for such a show in the Dog Show Rules of the Club and hence the show is not one which can be formally approved by the Club.

OBEDIENCE TRIALS

DATES

The Secretary was instructed as to the nature of a reply to be addressed to the Hamilton Kennel Club in reply to its inquiry seeking clarification on the number of licensed obedience trials which it and other clubs had been permitted to hold under the Club's rules.

REQUIREMENTS FOR A DEGREE

The Board ordered that, effective May 1, 1967, that section of Ontario north of 46° N. latitude would be included with those zones where three qualifying scores under two different judges are required for an obedience degree.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE FIRST QUARTER

For the information of members generally the following abstracts from the unaudited financial statements of the first quarter of 1967 (with comparative figures for the same period in 1966), as prepared by the Secretary-Treasurer for the information of the Board of Directors, are published.

	1966	1967
ASSETS
Cash on hand and in banks	$ 10,429.14	$ 5,929.47
Accounts receivable	2,449.30	508.30
Accrued interest on investments	2,062.29	2,324.79
Prepaid expenses	1,415.92	2,134.56
Investments, at cost	131,069.05	146,334.05
Fixed assets, at cost	5,108.67	7,006.34
Inventories	1,454.36	1,290.25
Totals	$153,988.73	$165,527.76
LIABILITIES
Accounts payable and accrued expenses	$ 3,421.74	$ 4,410.83
Date fees	3,300.00	3,380.00
Reserve for printing stud book	2,500.00	2,500.00
Totals	$ 9,221.74	$ 10,290.83
SURPLUS ACCOUNT at end of quarter	$144,766.99	$155,236.93
Excess of income over expenses	$ 10,564.03	$ 4,542.43
REVENUE
Registrations, membership fees, etc.	$ 65,148.60	$ 66,595.50
Recording fees	2,843.50	2,519.00
Listing fees	1,608.00	1,400.00
Interest on bonds	1,608.12	1,850.00
Other revenue	739.59	1,601.92
Totals	$ 71,947.81	$ 73,966.42
EXPENDITURES
Share of Live Stock Records expenses	$ 20,835.00	$ 21,963.00
Salaries (Toronto)	13,787.03	16,586.32

Other expenses	10,804.22	11,505.09
Totals	$ 61,383.78	$ 69,423.99

The increase in miscellaneous revenue was brought about largely by priority date fees amounting to $610.

Salary costs at Toronto are higher largely because of an addition to the staff.

Printing (Miscellaneous) costs increased by reason of the recent publication of the Field Trial Rules and Obedience Trial Regulations and Standards in up-to-date form.

The Club pays the publishers of "Dogs in Canada" for each copy of each issue ordered for distribution to members of the Club. In May of last year the allowance to the publishers for each copy was increased from 15¢ to 25¢.

NOTICE

SUBJECT: Proposed Amendments to the Field Trial Rules and Regulations for Beagles

NOTICE is hereby given that the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club, at its semi-annual meeting commencing on September 18, 1967, will consider the following proposed amendments to the Field Trial Rules and Regulations. These proposed amendments have been recommended by the Field Trial Council for Beagles. Persons and clubs having reason to be interested are invited to submit their comments and suggestions for the consideration of the Board, all such letters to be received by the Secretary of The Canadian Kennel Club, 1173 Bay Street, Toronto 5, Ontario, not later than September 11, 1967. Please refer to file #13 FT 29.

IT IS PROPOSED THAT:

Chapter 12, Rule 4, Section 1, and Chapter 13, Rule 4, Section 1, be amended by the deletion of the following:

> "When a hound is registered by The Canadian Kennel Club, The Canadian Kennel Club will upon request issue a certificate giving the dog's name and registration number with blank space provided for signatures of three different sets of measurers of two each to record his measurements. If these three committees agree on the height and the hound is at least eighteen months of age, this certificate bearing the signatures of three different sets of measurers shall constitute a permanent measurement record for any C.K.C. trial or show. Any owner or person asking the measurement of any hound shall make known to the committee at the time of his request for measurement his intention of asking said committee to sign a certificate. In case there be a disagreement among the different sets of measurers, the hound automatically becomes subject to official C.K.C. measurement."

IT IS PROPOSED THAT:

Chapter 12, Rule 4, Section 1, fifth paragraph, and Chapter 13, Rule 4, Section 1, fourth paragraph, be amended by the addition of a new zone consisting of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island.

IT IS PROPOSED THAT:

Chapter 12, Rule 3, Section 1, and Chapter 13, Rule 3, Section 1, be amended by the deletion of "Chapter 9 of Section 2" and the substitution of "Section 1 of Chapter 7".

CORRECTIONS

At the championship show held by the Canadian National Sportsmen's Dog Show on March 11th, 1967 published in the May issue of Dogs in Canada, the male Basenji was shown under the name of HANNALORE'S RED COMET. Actually the proper name of this dog should read HANNALORE'S RED RICOCHET.

At the championship show held by the Canadian National Sportsmen's Dog Show on March 11th, 1967 published in the May issue of Dogs in Canada, the following Setter (English) was omitted from the show results -

Yankee's Maid Of Stone Gables (B) T. W. Hall... 1.O-W

At the championship show held by the Northern Alberta Canine Association on April 8th, 1967 published in the June issue of Dogs in Canada, the awards for the Setters (Irish) females were published as follows:
Lady Callbash of Clubb (B) Mrs. D. Seleny... 1.SP-RW
Chanderran Kara-Lea O'Irish (B) Mr. & Mrs. C.H. Francis.. 1.O-W

Actually this should have read:
Lady Callbash of Clubb (B) Mrs. D. Seleny... 1.SP-RW-Y
Chanderran Kara-Lea O'Irish (B) Mr. & Mrs. C.H. Francis.. 1.O-W-BO

At the championship show held by the Canadian National Sportsmen's Dog Show on March 18th, 1967 published in the May issue of Dogs in Canada, the award of Best Canadian Bred in Breed in the West Highland White Terriers was omitted.

This award should have gone to WINDEMERE RAGAMUFFIN.

of the toughest leagues in sport. He has made two Dual Champions "back to back" and within the space of two years. If Gillespie is really in cahoots with the Wizard of Oz he might go after an American Dual Title for Pelican Lake Peggy and if he managed that it would probably be a record that would stand forever.

A significant contributing factor to this record-breaking achievement is the fact that the sire of both Canadian and American Dual Ch. Happy Playboy and Canadian Dual Ch. Pelican Lake Peggy is that great Irish import, Ch. (Irish, Can. & Am.) Castlemore Shamus owned by Hugh Crozier of Winnipeg. You could say that Shamus produces the raw material and Gillespie produces the finished product in a fine example of talented teamwork.

A well-deserved salute to Scottie Gillespie and his dual purpose Labradors and a wish for his continued success in a worthy cause.

Harry Dean Lauded in New Setter Book

Several pages of the recently published book The New Irish Setter by William C. Thompson, relate to Canada's Harry Dean:

"This chapter would not be complete without a word about Harry Dean (Ardee Kennels), Saskatoon, who has done so much since 1934 to support the cause of the Irish Setter in field trials. He has owned or bred more than 25 Canadian Irish Setter champions, including the five dual champions of the breed in Canada.

Ardee's Irish Ace
(D.Ch. Moanruad Ambassador — Ch. Bird Dixie of Ardee)
Elmcroft Mahogany Sue
(Ch. Sugaun of Shaunavon — Ch. Elmcroft Molly)
Glenderry's Amber Prince
(Ch. Monarch of the Vale — Ch. Ardee's Shooting Star)
Lady Amber of Ardee
(Ch. Red Echo of Ardee — Kenogami Queen of Ardee)
Moanruad Ambassador
(F.Ch. Admiral of Rye — F.Ch. New Square Red Lassie)

"Some of his other well known dogs were: Ch. Bird Dixie of Ardee, Ch. Elmcroft Red Ace, Ch. Lady Gadeland of Ardee, Ch. Red Ace of Ardee III and Ch. Red Echo of Ardee. He imported Ch. End O'Maine Billboard from the United States and F. & B. Ch. Moanruad Ambassador from Ireland. The latter, of select hunting stock with eight field trial champions in his immediate pedigree, is the prepotent sire of seven Canadian champions and several field trial winners. In the United States he is represented by F. Ch. Bird Comet of Ardee, Willowview Gamester, Lady Claire of Ardee and others.

Harry Dean, who is a field trial judge, has raised, trained and sold hundreds of Irish Setters all over the world, as far away as Turkey and Brazil. He has travelled widely to acquire good breeding stock. His objective is a moderate-sized, well balanced, dark mahogany setter with high intelligence, keen bird sense and friendly disposition."

show of the Irish Water Spaniel Club of America, held at Oceanport, N.J. We are pleased to report that our Ch. Tree Tops Meg of Trievendale, CD earned a five-point major, going WB and BW, then BB over an excellent class of five specials. WD went to Maurimike's Sean O'Tandy, owned by Frank Giunti of Colt's Neck, N.J. and BOS to Ch. Clancy of Twin Willows, owned by Mrs. Dewey Cummings of Lima, Ohio and handled by Floyd Crowe. Next day at Plainfield this fine male went BB and our Meg was WB for three points, BW and BOS again over Specials. She also qualified both days in obedience, to earn her American CD.

We were very pleased to see two of Meg's female pups at the Specialty. Both are living up to their early promises. Trieven's Irish Angel, now eight months old, earned RWF from the Puppy Class at the Specialty. Angel has four points toward her American Championship.

Hemophilia in the Vizsla

The following article by W. J. Dodds, Division of Laboratories and Research, New York State Department of Health, is reprinted by courtesy of the Vizsla News, official organ of the Vizsla Club of Canada. His comments are helpful in their application of other breeds as well.

The recent occurrence of hemophilia in the Vizsla was brought to my attention because I own two Vizslas and am seriously concerned with the welfare of this wonderful breed. I am also engaged in hemophilia research and have been for the past seven years.

Hemophilia is a rare sex-linked genetic bleeding disorder that has been recognized for many years in man and domestic animals. The most famous family with hemophilia was Queen Victoria's and for this reason the classical form of hemophilia has been termed "The Royal Disease". It is characterized by a profound hemorrhagic problem and is, therefore, often lethal. In man, new methods of treatment with plasma concentrates have been partially successful in permitting hemophiliacs to live.

The first hemophilia described in animals was in Irish Setters in 1946 at Cornell University Veterinary College. Since then, reports of hemophilia and other bleeding syndromes have involved dogs, horses, cows, swine, cats, birds and wildlife. Hemophilia in dogs has occurred in mongrels and in German Shepherds, Labradors, Cairn Terriers, Beagles, Irish Setters, Black and Tan Coonhounds, Greyhounds, Samoyeds, Poodles, Collies and Vizslas.

Several large kennels of hemophilic dogs are maintained in North America: one at the Ontario Veterinary College, Guelph, Ont., one at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill; one at the University of Oklahoma, Stillwater; and ours at the Division of Laboratories and Research of the New York State Department of Health in Albany. The purpose of these kennels is to carry out basic research in the hopes of someday discovering a treatment that will be easy to use, successful, and inexpensive. These treatments will be designed primarily for people and not for animals. The only way to successfully "treat" animals with these inherited disorders is to prevent their occurrence and if they do occur, to prevent these animals from reproducing (detection and sterilization of carrier animals).

For this reason, I felt it was important to outline briefly the method of inheritance of hemophilia.

Sex-linked inheritance means that a carrier female passes the defect on to 50% of her sons and 50% of her daughters are carriers.

Theoretical example:

A — B
normal male — carrier female

A	C	B	D
normal son	bleeder son	carrier daughter	normal daughter

F1 generation 4 possible offspring can result.

If the bleeder male pup survives to breeding age (which is unlikely), all his daughters will be carriers and all his sons will be normal.

Theoretical example:

A — D
bleeder son — normal daughter

F1 generation

A	B
normal son	carrier daughter

F2 generation 2 possible types of offspring can result.

If the bleeder male pup were mated back to his own carrier mother or to one of his carrier sisters, 50% of the offspring are affected and another 25% are carriers.

Theoretical example:

bleeder son — carrier female

F1 generation

A	C	B	E
normal son	bleeder son	carrier daughter	bleeder daughter

F2 generation 4 possible offspring can result.

Thus, affected females can exist but their occurrence is rare. The chance of a bleeder male having a carrier female for a mate is slim.

It is apparent from this outline that the carrier female animal is the most important one to detect. Analysis of the clotting factors in the blood can accurately determine which animals are carrying the defect and will pass it on to their offspring, provided that these assays are done properly. The bleeder male will probably become apparent because he will bleed all the time and may die of severe hemorrage. It is the carrier female who appears perfectly normal, that is the real "culprit" and must be detected and removed from the breeding stock if the defect is to be eliminated.

I am begging you to cooperate in an effort to recognize and eliminate these inherited defects from your kennels as soon as you suspect them. If a conscientious effort is not made in this regard, many of our dog breeds will be ruined. It is perhaps worthwhile mentioning that you are most likely to encounter genetic defects of any kind when a breed is rare and is intensely inbred, or when a particular strain of a breed is thought to be superior and is selected. Inbreeding has resulted in hemophilia in the Vizsla!

We have recently acquired Caprilu Comme Ca, a silver miniature male from Round Table, Burdeisel, Tophill and Deregris bloodlines, combining some of the best silver strains available. He sired a litter soon after his arrival in Canada, and the results will be seen in the near future — a litter brother and sister of exceptional quality from the Avrillon Kennels.

As you can see, we have acquired the finest bloodlines in the special color for which they are noted and are indebted to the breeders, who have produced these dogs, for their dedication. We have never bred for quantity, but have always striven for a quality breeding program. We feel a responsibility to the breeders behind us in our dogs' pedigrees, and to those breeders who will continue our efforts in the future.

Females sent to us by air for breeding are met personally at the airport, and are under our own supervision at all times. Puppies which are shipped out have a veterinarian's health certificate and are guaranteed to be free of sub-luxated patellas and hip dysplasia.

My husband and I have been part of a family business for 25 years and own one of the oldest established pet shops and Poodle clipping salons in Canada. The store has been in one location for over 50 years, and we are now serving great-grandchildren of some of the original customers. The store and kennels are in the midst of an exciting renovation and expansion job from stem to stern. Our kennels, clipping salon and mail order departments are being enlarged, with better facilities to display imported and domestic accessories and show grooming equipment for all breeds, plus all other needed supplies. Once again, our cover is by an outstanding young Canadian artist, Miss Anneke Preyde. We are indebted to her for faithfully capturing the true essence of our beloved Remé.

signal is employed under permissible conditions) — this does not mean with a long pause in between. If the pause is long enough it's like giving two commands to stop your dog!

There are many more minor infractions as well as unusual ones committed. I've attempted to cover only the most common ones that come to mind, you may think of others!

Before going to your next Trial, take stock of yourself, see how many of the errors listed apply to you — then do something about it, and perhaps your scores will be even higher! "Old Blue" might just come across! □

Let me go on. Competitive obedience dogs are not required either to possess or display intelligence. Some have it. Others have not. Equally it matters little either way. What stands them in good stead is a competitive obedience temperament!

To enlarge. The only way a dog can demonstrate intelligence is by using his initiative. Now manifestly, initiative is highly undesirable in obedience competitions. To win prizes you do not want a dog to use his wits. You want him to do what he is told. A very different thing.

In closing, a story of two dogs I once owned. One a Sheltie which during the course of a long television series I had developed to a fairly high degree of obedience. The other a rather cantankerous little Griffon which I believe to be the brainiest dog I ever owned.

One day I shut them both in a room with a tape recording of instruction to 'sit', 'stand', 'down' and what-have-you. I then went outside and watched them through the window. The Sheltie obeyed my mechanical instructions to the letter. The Griffon took one look at the machine and went to sleep.

Which, in your opinion, was the smart dog? □

Sunday — the final chance for points and those beautiful (and valuable) trophies. "Maybe today the judge will recognize a good .....". Rings were reduced in number (to six) and the pace was more leisurely, allowing exhibitors more time to appreciate the flag-draped surroundings. Members had acquired flags of eight of the 10 Provinces, as well as several Canadian and Centennial Flags which were used to decorate the building.

Entries (473) were "up" 90 dogs from the corresponding show in 1966, and included Booster Shows of the Basenji Club of Canada (entry 20), Club VI (entry 46), The Cocker Spaniel Club of Central Ontario, Inc. (entry 24), and The Rhodesian Ridgeback Club of the United States (entry 10).

All participating Booster clubs had been offered financial incentives, and extra trophies supplied by the O.K.C. were available for Booster club winners. The response of the participating clubs was most gratifying.

Again, numerous spectators, "separated" Group judging and, finally, BIS at 5 p.m. allowing all exhibitors to get an early start home. Judge Tom Joel gave the nod to Friday's winner, Eng. Ch. Gosmore Gillsie Scotch Lad, for BIS. A few minor problems were involved with a new show location, but these were overcome without difficulty.

How do you top a winner? The Ottawa Kennel Club hopes to do just this in their Fall Shows, November 18 and 19. The club will be "returning" to the Coliseum, and the two All Breed shows will be complemented by several club boosters and/or Specialty shows. (subj. CKC approval).

AND, something entirely new! A separate "Show of Shows", of only dogs which have won BIS in Canada in 1967. There are still many "ifs" and "maybes", but as envisioned by the Ottawa Kennel Club, the "Show" will be open only to dogs which have won an All Breed BIS in this, our Centennial year. Judging at both "Group" and "BIS" level will be conducted independently by three Judges. National television coverage is planned. Prizes and trophies? It is hoped to have at least $150.00 value available for each "Group" winner and in excess of $500.00 available for "BIS" of Best in Show dogs.

It is proposed to hold this Show after the completion of the All Breed show, and entirely separate from it. Dogs entered in the "Show of Shows" will not be required to enter the All Breed show.

IF the concept is approved, and IF the supporters come through as promised, and IF other plans materialize, all BIS winners in Canada will be notified, and Dogs in Canada will carry full details. MAYBE the winner will be YOU.

The Ottawa Kennel Club is the oldest continuous dog club in Canada, and currently has 280 active members. The executive includes: President, F. George Walker, M.D.; Immediate Past President, Mrs. E. B. Reid; First Vice-President, Dr. Q. LaHam; Second Vice-President, D. R. Hayes. Directors: A. Bruce Benson, Mrs. L. A. Courtney, Mrs. R. Durocher, Mrs. K. Hudson, Mr. K. Hyatt, Mrs. J. MacKenzie, Mr. J. Waller, Capt. C. R. Willis. Treasurer, J. W. Goodman; Secretary, Dennis Mountney.

All, members and executive alike, are well aware of their heritage and their responsibility to "The Dog Game". They are all trying to live up to their slogan, "The Ottawa Kennel Club — where the Exhibitor is Top Dog". □

In addition to attendance at the meeting, my inclusion with the delegates also meant inclusion in a number of social gatherings. Here Monaco came into its own. To the enchantment of the Riviera setting was added the graciousness of Monaco's Royal Family. Climaxing several receptions given for us by the various local dog clubs and the Mayor and the Chamber of Commerce, we attended a formal dinner for 100 given by the Monte Carlo Canine Society, a formal dinner given by the Minister of State of the Principality of Monaco, and finally a reception held by Their Most Serene Highnesses Prince Rainier and Princess Grace at the Royal Palace, at which care was taken that each of us spent some minutes in personal conversation with one or other of them. Also both Prince Rainier and Princess Grace, Princess Antoinette and various other members of the Royal Family had attended the Best in Show judging of the Monte Carlo show, afterwards presenting the various trophies. At the San Remo show the trophies had been presented by Princes Antoinette.

■ Everyone agreed that it was one of the "best ever" FCI meetings. The work of preparation, for so many parts of the whole week to function smoothly as they did, had fallen largely on Mme. Nizet de Leemans who, although she lives in Brussels, has been one of the Delegates of Monaco to the FCI since Monaco joined that body in 1946. By now well known to a number of dog people during her frequent visits to Canada and the US, I am sure her many friends will take pleasure in knowing that in recognition of the tremendously successful job she had done in helping the Société Canine de Monte Carlo to host the whole convention, Prince Rainier summoned her to the Palace the day before the final party and invested her with the Rosette of the House of Grimaldi, an honor which is hardly ever accorded to anyone who is not Monegasque born.

So my memories of the whole trip have an almost fairy-tale quality. I learned a great deal, both of dogs and people, and made some delightful new friends. For those who may be interested, I have given some comments on the dogs to the breed columns, since my space here has more than run out. □

The Story of the First Dog

(The story that follows is based on the myth of the fire dog of the Nyanga as told in the book God Had A Dog, author Maria Leach. It has been adapted for use by the Basenji Club of Canada in its promotion and familiarization of the Barkless Basenji Hound in Canada by M. E. MacDonald, with the kind permission of the publishers, Rutgers University Press, New Brunswick, N.J., and is excerpted here).

A story is told of the Nyanga, an ancient people who lived in the high lands of Africa where the River Nile begins. These were a brave and fearless people. They believed in a great high god. The name of their god was Nyamurairi . . . a lonely god, for being a god is a lonely thing.

So it was that at last Nyamurairi could no longer bear this great eternal loneliness and he caused a companion to be created. A being to whom he could talk and who would be keeper of his eternal fire. Thus the little four-footed Rukuba came to be. As Nyamurairi finished his creation he was pleased, and taking little Rukuba's tail by the tip turned it in the sign of eternity. Rukuba became the first dog, his tail curled in the circular symbol of the god that portrays the cycle of eternity. Rukuba became the god's companion and the keeper of the great eternal fire.

Friendship is akin to love. Gods must not love, nor hate, nor sorrow. Little Rukuba became lonely and, being lonely, was also mortal and knew emotion and the need of love.

One day a great hunter of the Nyanga, Nakhango, came to the foot of this mighty mountain of the high god, Nyamurairi. An urge grew within him to test his strength against this colossal high place. So Nakhango climbed. At last he reached the peak and fell exhausted upon the mountain top.

The great high god Nyamurairi was not there. Rukuba had been taught of friendliness by his master, so licking and washing at Nakhango's ears and eyes Rukuba caused him to be revived and thus did Nakhango warm himself before the eternal fire and share of the god's bounty with the little dog.

"Give me of the fire, Rukuba, and I will be your friend forever. I will care for you and your kind forever".

So Rukuba gave of the god's fire to Nakhango. When Nyamurairi returned he saw his fire had become less. He was angry, and would not listen to Rukuba. The mountain split asunder and the god, seizing up his eternal fire, vanished in a ball of light so hot the core of the mountain melted.

Rukuba was fleet of foot. He raced the molten river down the mountain side and reached the plain below. Now he was really alone. He wandered, hunting and searching for his friend Nakhango.

Many days passed. Suddenly a familiar scent was carried to him on the breeze. He caught sight of Nakhango in the far distance where the grass stretched on towards the hills. At last he burst upon the man to fall exhausted at his feet.

Nakhango picked up the little dog and easily swinging him over his head strode through the grass of the plain.

Rukuba was so skilled at hunting and keeping his friend informed that the great chief of the Nyanga came to make this talking dog the official messenger of the nation. Rukuba came to find himself with little time for friendship or even to relax before the fire he had given man.

He concluded that because he was faster footed than men and could speak he had been chosen as messenger for the nation. So he decided never to speak again except on occasion to those he loved. No longer was Rukuba useful as a messenger. The chief sent him back to Nakhango. He could hunt with his friend and lie with him before the fire when the hunt was done.

The dogs of the Nyanga do not speak to this day.

The dog of the Nyanga is known as the Basenji.

Basset Devotee Encourages Ownership of the Breed

The following letter has been received by the trophy convener of The Basset Club of Canada. He is a generous supporter of the club, although members have not met him. This note is reproduced with his permission.

". . . Thank you for your note regarding the annual show. I'm enclosing my check to help out with the trophies.

"I am not a Basset breeder, not a kennel owner — just the owner of one very special Basset Hound. "Happy Hunter" is a tri, nine years old next August 15. He is my best, most constant and faithful friend. He is also my advisor as to when exercise should be taken, although I do suspect that this may be slightly tinged by motives of self-interest! I try not to think of the day that he will no longer be with me — the years of dogdom are so short and pass so quickly.

"He is of the Le Couteulx strain, 45 pounds, active and fast moving (when he wants to be — cats, for instance). I must say I deplore the trend of some breeders to the heavy, "waddly" type, that to my mind is a far cry from what the Basset Hound as a hunting dog should be.

"If my contribution in any small way should encourage other dog lovers to share with me the joy of having a Basset Hound as a companion, I feel that I have accomplished something.

"My best wishes to the Basset Club of Canada."

F. T. A.

"P.S. I note that at the start of this letter I said I was the "owner" of a Basset. What I should have said is that I am delighted to have a Basset share with me, my house, food and friends!"

Ch. (Can. & Am.) Lyn Mar Acres Bojangles, owned by Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Henderson, Grem Lyn Kennels, Peterborough, Ont., passed away May 20 at the age of ten. Although he had not been campaigned actively due to a leg injury, he was shown to his Canadian title by Horace Hollands and placed in the Hound Group in the days when the Basset Hound was just coming to the fore in Ontario. Bojangles was the sire of Ch. (Can. & Bda.) Grem Lyn's Aida, who made her mark in the show ring, taking many Groups and a Best Canadian Bred in Show. He will be sadly missed by the Hendersons and those who knew and admired him.

New Elkhound Imports

Shonleh-Delgada Kennels in Saskatoon, Sask. have recently imported a male from England, Ravenstone Djerv of Delgada-Shonleh. He is by Eng. Ch. Ravenstone Kell, the youngest champion dog in the breed and is out of Ravenstone Maia, the daughter of the famed Eng. Ch. Ravenstone Gunnar and Eng. Ch. Ravenstone Humourist.

Mrs. Monica Torrance of Torr Kennels in Winnipeg, Man. has imported a female from the famed Riverland Kennels in Holland. She was bred by the Baroness Susan Van Boeztler. The sire is a Norwegian import into Holland. The puppy's name is Boeztque of Riverland. Both these new pups will be campaigned in the Fall.

New Elkhound Record

We didn't dream when we purchased Torr's Silver Drey of Shonleh as a six week old puppy that he would do so well in the show ring. We believe that Drey has a record for the breed for his Group win, two Best Canadian Bred puppy in show awards, three BCBP in Group, and two BCB in Group, and one Group 3rd, all from the Puppy Classes. Drey also finished his CD with a Highest score in Class under Judge Jake Giacomelli, and has nine points towards his championship.

New Female Otterhound in Canadian Kennels

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Willis, Nirvana Farm Kennels, Ottawa, write they are the 'proud parents' of Chauntress of Skye Top. Now five months old, Shawnee is the daughter of Skye Top's Cedric and the Willis's believe she is the first female Otterhound to come to Canada.

Whippet Booster Shows

The Whippet Fanciers Club (Ontario) are holding three Boosters in Ontario; Scarborough, September 10; Greenwood, October 15 and Kitchener, November 12, all on Sunday.

We are looking forward to all our members attending, with full support.

"Whippeteers" from everywhere are invited to join us. So please get your Whippets out of storage and plan to attend these worthwhile Boosters.

The club picnic and fun match is planned for July 16 at the home of our show Coordinator, Mr. T. Taft, Port Perry.

Sled Dog Racing
Conformation or Performance

This is the question that sooner or later faces all serious breeders of hunting and working dogs, from Dachshunds to German Shepherds, from Irish Setters to Siberian Huskies. Although all these breeds were developed to perform a specific function, most of the specimens seen in the show ring today no longer have to "work for a living" and indeed, many would be unable to do so efficiently because of changes that have evolved through selective breeding.

What are the qualities a driver looks for in a sled dog today? First of all, we must realize that the races have changed in the past 50 years from relatively heavy sleds and loads with small teams over long, poorly prepared trails to large teams pulling almost no load over long, well- packed trails. Thus, in today's dogs, speed and endurance under cold conditions are more important than strength and power. The modern sled dog runs with his lungs, his back and his heart. Because he is not starting heavy loads, strong hindquarters are not as important as a good front and shoulders, and a dog that is out at the shoulders will not run many long races. Sled dogs tend to be "loose" or elastic in the shoulders; this helps the joint withstand the constant pounding in a race, but is the bane of a show handler as even the best dog will often stand with his front legs askew. A longer rather than a shorter back is preferred for speed, with strong muscles and a slight roach. The rib cage should be deep and well sprung. The feet are very important and should be like a cat's paw — tight and with strong pasterns. Drivers usually avoid the long-coated dogs for two reasons: the long coats hold moisture and freeze up or ball up with the snow and the harnesses are difficult to grasp in case of a tangle. And what about heart? This is the quality that will make a dog give his best after the excitement of the first few miles is over, or when the going gets rough and the weather is 30 below, or when he is old and has been "demoted" to a slower team — and if any dog owner can develop this quality in his breeding program he will have made one of the discoveries of the century.

Types of Sled Dogs

Alaskan Malamute — a native Alaskan dog, recognized by the CKC and AKC. A strong, heavy dog capable of starting large loads. The freight dog of the north. In some areas races with loaded sleds are run; also contests for starting loads; the malamute has not the speed for the usual dog sled races.

Siberian Husky — recognized by the CKC and AKC. The "Champion" racer since 1910. In addition to the qualities mentioned above, they are easy to handle, are not aggressive with other dogs and can be brought relatively quickly to top racing condition.

Samoyed — recognized by CKC and AKC. Although originally a herder of reindeer rather than a draft dog, the "Sam" does very well in harness; however, he is too short in body and leg to give him the speed required for a class "A" team.

Alaskan Husky — not recognized by CKC and AKC. This name is used to cover any other arctic-type dog which has been developed by cross-breeding Siberian huskies with other breeds in order to find the "perfect" sled dog. The best of these are now breeding true to type; they are very much like the "racing-type" Siberian husky, but are rangier, and usually have a low earset and tailset. They are more difficult to handle than the Siberian, take longer to reach top condition, but on the other hand, most of the lead dogs of the top teams are Alaskans.

Hounds — not recognized by CKC and AKC. This term covers some good short-haired Greyhound-German Shepherd, etc. crosses that breed true to type as well as many other mixed breeds that do no credit to their driver or the sport. The best do very well in the races, but find the going tough if the weather is extremely cold.

Others — There are many other breeds used such as Irish Setters, Coonhounds, Foxhounds, Retrievers, Collies, etc. Although the driver can have a lot of fun, these breeds do not appear to have the endurance for the longer races.

Are Rarer Breeds Judged More Harshly?

The following editorial from a recent Newsletter of The Belgian Sheepdog Club of Canada presents food for thought to owners of other lesser-seen breeds as well:

"Entry fee $5.00 or $6.00 or $7.00 as the case may be. This is stated in the premium list of every dog show and applies to every dog entered regardless of breed. The common entry fee is applied because, theoretically, every dog entered, again regardless of breed, has an equal chance at the coveted award of every show — "Best In Show".

"However, in reading the show records of Canadian dog shows, there is an absence of certain breeds when it comes to the awarding of this coveted award and, indeed, to the other General Specials and Group awards. In fact, after scanning dog show records for a year, one might very well ask if each dog entered has an equal chance at these coveted prizes or if these are reserved for the representatives of certain popular breeds. Lesser known breeds seldom appear as Best In Show winners or Group placement winners.

"This is especially true in the Working Group where it is not uncommon to see 15 or more breed representatives in the ring at one time competing for four Group placements. Do such breeds as the Belgian Sheepdog, the Standard Schnauzer, the Rottweiler etc. stand an equal chance with the Collie, the German Shepherd, the Boxer, the Doberman Pinscher and others? Theoretically, of course, Standards Quizz No. 33. Edited by H. Malcolm Stephens. This quizz compiled by Reg E. Scott. Object is to match the first set of numbers (which relate to various parts of the dog) with the second set of numbers (which describe that part of the dog). For example: 11-1 Bite — scissors. Scoring: 28-30 correct — you could be judging. 25-27 correct — you should start thinking about judging. 22-24 correct — good if you are in another breed. Less than 22 — you must be in another breed. Answers on page 17.

the answer is yes. But in practicalities, one might have very serious doubts.

"In fact, it appears that representatives of the lesser-known breeds have to be outstanding specimens to even get a glance for fourth in the Group while the more popular breed representatives place or win in the Group with faults as long as they have some outstanding feature. The following story illustrates this point. A novice Belgian Sheepdog exhibitor took the opportunity to ask the Group judge why his dog did not place in the Group. The judge replied that he did not like the close action of the dog in the rear — a very good reason considering the dog in question. However, the judge had given 1st in the Group to a Collie who had a much more serious problem in the rear than did the Belgian. Obviously, the same standard of judging was not used to judge both dogs. In one case, the fault eliminated the dog from further consideration. In the other case the fault was overlooked for other outstanding qualities.

"The natural questions are why and to what extent is this situation true? Do, in fact, the lesser-known breeds deserve more recognition when it comes to handing out the Group placements and General Specials? Do judges eliminate the lesser-known breeds on the basis of a single fault while ignoring these same faults in the more popular breeds where they make their decision on type? What are your opinions on this subject? Maybe the lesser-known breed fanciers could stop hoping for the Group and General Special awards and just settle for a lower entry fee".

Belgian Sheepdog Owners Reflect on Progress

For Belgian owners, this is a year to recall the past with its successes and disappointments and work towards breeding and showing Belgians which reflect the admiration we have for this breed.

It seems such a short interval of time from when we exhibited our first Belgian (Tervuren). A first for us, and a first sight for countless others, as we were besieged with "What breed of dog is this?" How proud we were to acknowledge with "A Belgian Sheepdog of the Tervuren variety". Since that time dog fanciers in this part of Ontario have come to know more of the Belgian and its accomplishments both in conformation and obedience circles.

In Canada, where the breed encompasses all varieties, we call them Belgians. The owners seem to share equal interest whether their dogs are Groendendael, Laeken, Malinois or Tervuren. This enthusiasm I like. Our dogs are similar, structurally the same, differing only in color and coat.

To show a Belgian just for the sake of getting the breed better known or boosting an entry is not enough. The calibre and conditioning is far more important. His attributes show his breeding and the physical and mental care we have given him. We want him to "catch an eye" wherever he goes.

This type of dog will be appreciated by judges, breeders and the public. I am sure most of us have been guilty of exhibiting a dog we have felt did not do us or our breed the justice it deserves.

As a Centennial project our club is planning a Belgian Sheepdog Specialty at the Kitchener-Waterloo Kennel Club Show on November 11 and 12. Canada is your only opportunity to show all the varieties as one breed and of this I am very proud. Here is a chance for you to see and meet Belgians and their owners from all parts of North America. You can help make it a success.

Invitation to Canadian Belgian Breeders

When Bill Kennedy, President of the Belgian Sheepdog Club of Canada and Mrs. Kennedy attended the National Specialty Show of the Belgian Sheepdog Club of America (Groendendael) and the annual meeting held in Detroit, a great deal of interest was expressed in the Canadian organization. A welcome was extended to attend Canadian Booster and Specialty Shows and Canadian Belgian fanciers are invited to attend the American group's 1968 Specialty to be held at Lima, Ohio or Fort Wayne, Ind. the first weekend in May, 1968.

Uncropped Dane Ears No Hindrance in Winning

When Dane fancier Charles J. Kraus returned from England in May, 1966 he brought with him a female with uncropped ears. Observers predicted she would not go far in the ring. Shona, however, has done considerable winning, including Best in Show at a Parlor Show. Mr. Kraus plans to show one of his female puppies as well, with ears uncropped.

Another English import is joining Why-Four Kennels in Calgary, from the famous Merrowlea Kennels. "It is a fawn male and will of course have uncropped ears. The father of this male puppy is the tallest reigning Champion, I believe, in the world," writes Mr. Kraus. He stands 38½" at the shoulders.

Let's Talk About Terriers

Well, now, you have hurt my feelings! I thought you wanted to hear about Welsh Terriers throughout the world, and what do I get — news about Cairns, Kerrys, Airedales, etc., and not one word about my poor Welshmen!

Mrs. Dorothea Daniell-Jenkins, Kennels of the Rouge, has just added another American title to one of her Westies. Ch. (Can. & Am.) Cooper's Annie Laurie finished her title in grand style with three majors at three shows, one of them being WB for a five-point win at the WHWTC of Indiana Specialty with 17 bitches competing.

Casey Gardiner, Kerrycroft, had two nice wins at the Canandaigua and Batavia shows with her Can. Ch. Kerrycroft's Roustabout. Rousty was BB and 2nd in the Group at the first show, and BB over Specials at the second. Another American championship was added to the Kerrycroft prefix when the bitch, Am. Ch. Kerrycroft's Kanadian Girl, finished her title with a BB at the San Antonio show.

Also at the Batavia show was Betty Hyslop with her Cairn, Ch. (Can. & Am.) Cairndania McBrigand's Brigrey, who took the Group. This fine male also won the Cairn Terrier Club of America Specialty with 75 Cairns in competition.

Now the Airedales. Just heard that the Airedale bitch, Ch. (Can., Am. & Bda.) Navaho Warriors Shawn, owned and handled by Debbie Duguid, has been named top-winning Airedale bitch in the U.S. Debbie is quite the little handler. She has just won the Michigan State Junior handling championship for the second year in a row; added to this she has, this year, retired the Doris Courtney award for Junior Handling at the Ottawa shows — winning it three years in a row. I think we can well look for Debbie and Shawn at the top at Westminster in the not too distant future — they're quite a team!

Now for some news that's not quite so pleasant to report. The McFarlane's, Badenoch Cairns, have just lost their foundation bitch, Badenoch Foxie Sue at the grand old age of 14 years. No matter what the age, it never comes easy!

The Prawel's young Lakeland, Squire of Sherwood, recently succumbed to bites from a rabid skunk in spite of his having had his shots. Rabies season is here again. Do keep an eye out for squirrels, foxes and skunks, in fact any wild animal.

Another tragic item was the death of the Adams' Westie, Ch. Benchruchan Flame of Roseneath. "Duffy" dug out of the backyard and was killed on Highway 7 in front of their eyes. He was not quite two years of age, and already had a major in the U.S. What can I say, except that I feel dreadful about all these items and maybe give the warning, that this too could happen to you.

I had a call from a friend who had lost her Cairn. I tried to offer all suggestions that I could think of, then went away rather smugly thinking, well this could never happen to me. Within an hour I had a neighbor come across the road and inform me that all my dogs were out in the street roaring around, and it dawned on me that I had forgotten to lock the gate when I came in. In some areas this wouldn't be too much of a panic situation, but we live right square in the middle of the city, with constant heavy traffic. My heart sank right to my knees. But believe it or not, when I got out there, Charlie had led everyone back through the gate and they were all sitting waiting for me. Charles was a pretty big "cheese" for the rest of the day. From what I've heard since then they must have been out for ten to 15 minutes and just having a ball. They'd never been loose before, and I can assure you right here and now, they'll never be loose again!

Now, to a little brighter subject or at least it will be for all those who won — the Terrier Specialties.

The Red River Terrier Assoc. had an entry of 39, with Best Terrier in Show going to the Spier's Scottie, Ch. (Can. & Am.) Gladmac Ghillsie.

The All Terrier Club of Canada had an entry of 112, BIS going to Larry Langley's Kerry Ch. Rollicking Raconteur.

The West Highland White Specialty with an entry of 41 (held in conjunction with TATCOC) had as its BB the Alexander's Ch. (Can. & Am.) Dreamland's Happy Mick.

The Scottish Terrier Club of Canada (also held in conjunction with the All Terrier) had an entry of 17, with BB going to the Devlin's Ch. The Laird of Ayr.

The Terrier Breeder's Assoc. had an entry of 97, BIS going to Knute Egeberg's Kerry, Ch. (Eng., Nor. Swed. & Am.) Carholme Charles.

Certainly Terrier entries are up over last year in all these shows — we may yet, one of these days, have a Canadian Montgomery County!

Now, for some of Mrs. Daniell-Jenkins observations on judging the Terrier Specialty at Monte Carlo. You might think I'm a bit overdoing the "very goods" 'and "excellents", but these were Mrs. D-J's thoughts on the dogs. She said she had never seen such uniform high quality. I'm sure on reading her article on her complete judging assignment in Monaco, featured in another section of Dogs, you will understand the reason for this.

Airedales, two, very typey, good color and movement.

Bedlington's, eight, overall good type, well-balanced, good roach. The only fault that was noted were weak hocks in a couple of entries.

Irish, one, well boned, well balanced, good color.

Irish Blue (Kerry Blue), one, very typey, good ear set, good neck, excellent color and size. This was a German Kerry and went on to place 3rd in the Group awards.

Skyes, six, coats excellent, as were ears and eyes, well-boned, good forechests, temperament excellent.

Scotties, twelve, in the male class, every dog received an Excellent certificate — need more be said. The chief fault was with a couple of the bitches who were a little soft in coat and a little wide in ear set. They were all well put down. The top-winning male went on to receive the award for 2nd in the Group awards.

Lakelands, one, excellent, moved very well.

Welsh, two, excellent, both good color, both moved exceptionally well.

Smooth Fox Terriers, three, all very pleasing, movement good.

Westies, one, well balanced, solid little bitch.

Sealyhams, one, overall good type.

Border Terriers, one, good coat, color and movement.

Silky Terriers, two, both nice specimens, imported from California.

Wire Fox Terriers, four, excellent type. The top-winning male went on to the Best Terrier award and at the following show at San Remo he was one of the final five considered for BIS (again to follow the BIS judging, I suggest you consult Mrs. D-J's article). This young male was shown entirely on a loose lead, setting himself up at all times. He was beautifully put down, well built and an excellent mover.

Although there just wasn't space for the Winner's name from each breed I thought you Wire breeders might be interested in this chap. He's Drake Hall Excelwire Encore Roger by Excelwire Aristocrat ex Sparkle of Sengamel, whelped in 1965.

I imagine by this stage that all you Schnauzer breeders have "written me off". So sorry, but you see, they were not judged till the following day at San Remo, as they are not considered part of the Terrier Group in Europe. The three Schnauzers, Giant, Standard and Miniature are all judged together and here are Mrs. D-J's impressions of the Miniatures: They are divided by color, the blacks being somewhat smaller with a softer coat than the salt and pepper, and a slightly larger eye, otherwise simply exquisite. Her bitch winner was a 7-year-old, who she described as plain gorgeous. She went on to 2nd Best Schnauzer — All types (again you'll have to consult the article).

Salt and peppers she found heavier and larger than the blacks. Her overall impression was that they were not quite as attractive as ours, just lacking slightly in the refinement and elegance that we have in our Miniature Schnauzers. As there is somewhat of a storm raging at the moment (all since Mrs. D-J has been out of the country) I'm sure her remarks should either add a little more fuel to the fire, or serve to cool it down just a bit!

Her entries in both these shows, by the way, ranged from France, Germany, Belgium, Switzerland and Monaco and it's obvious from her observations that the rating system they use in Europe certainly serves to keep the quality of dogs being shown on a very, very high level.

She tells me as well that no dogs can be bred, with any hope of registering their puppies, without an Excellent rating from a judge! Oh, that we had such a system!

On putting papers down in the puppy pen I glanced over some of the ads in the New York Times. If you've never read this paper the hair will start to raise on the back of your neck:

"300 Pups — $9.50 and Up" (this mentions pure-breds as well as mongrels). "Free Money Back 5 Year Guarantee Sale-A-Thon". (This ad features among the many breeds, Cairns, Welsh, Westies, Wire-Hairs and Min. Schnauzers).

"Puppy Sale — 3 day Cash and Carry Sale" — (included in this were Irish, Cairns and Kerry's — all imported High Class Pups???? direct from Ireland).

Even more frightening, the other evening I saw a Welsh advertised for $25.00 in one of the Toronto daily papers. Are we going to end up in the same "disaster" area as the Americans?

Do you have a dog that scratches from May to October and even after that? Well, possibly I have something that may help you. Heard of a case the other day where the dog had scratched itself raw for two years, had been on every medicine possible, until a new Vet suggested taking it off eggs of any variety and that was the end of the seven year itch! Another case wasn't entirely cured, but the scratching was surely alleviated, again on the suggestion of a Vet to give her a daily dose of 1 tsp. chopped onion along with 1 tsp. bacon fat. Now what this does, only heaven knows, but apparently it worked for them. I surely hope it helps you out.

Now for our tip from the "Old Timer's Corner"; have you ever thought of putting a little resin on your dog's feet when showing on a slippery floor? It works wonders!

See you next month — how about you BCites, nary a word from your direction in the past couple of months!

Breeding for Champions

The art of breeding dogs requires patience, integrity and a keen eye. The stud dog is born, not made. He transmits his ancestors' traits and adds a little of his own. The selection of a good stud must be by what has gone before and what he produces.

Many breeders look at a stud and bitch, judge their good points then mate them, rather than studying the pedigrees of each. This is mating on the basis of the parents only rather than on the basis of bloodlines. The ideal is to breed two specimens that are good in themselves and have excellent related pedigrees. Look for dominant traits of the ancestors.

We often hear breeders complain that they bred two very nice looking dogs only to get very mediocre puppies. In many cases we find that the stud was used because he was close by or that he was cheap. There is no short cut to success in this business. The successful breeder determines what stud should be used by pedigree then sends the bitch to that stud regardless of distance or price. The results are far more rewarding, not only in the value of the pups, but in the show ring as well.

We must remember that one fault is not corrected by an opposite fault. A short back on a bitch bred to a dog with a long back does not mean that all the puppies will have backs of the proper length. The offspring are usually two thirds of one and one third of the other.

For the best results, selective breeding must be done by a study of pedigrees as well as a long hard look at the proposed parents. A parent does not usually transmit itself as much as the grandparents or the great grandparents. For instance, a stud may produce pups with a round head while his own is flat. He is transmitting the round head of a dominant ancestor, and this is true of all traits.

Size is another deceptive quality. Two large parents may throw small pups or a small stud may produce a very large pup. Size must be determined by the ancestors.

Success does not come overnight. It takes patience, because one breeding does not accomplish all. Selective breeding pays off in the final analysis. Not all faults can be removed in the first litter. It takes three and sometimes four generations to arrive at the top.

Line breeding has produced many fine specimens. Here, the dominant traits are set and are most likely to carry on.

It is a great pity that there are not more classes for stud and bitch and get at the shows. This could be easily done with the Specialties. For this is an excellent yard stick for the breeder and no breeder should ever pass up the opportunity to show in these classes as a guide for future breedings.

Wanted: Toy News

Sorry for the shortage of news on the fascinating Toy breeds this month. Breeders and exhibitors: if you wish to see items on your own breed, please send news items, observations, notes on imports, American wins, special things you have observed in your own experience with your breeds. Surely things must be happening in your realm every day.

Correction

The memorial space on page 88 of the June issue of Dogs in Canada headed "In Memory of Monte Verde's Can. & Am. Ch. St. Aubrey Debonaire of Elsdon" mentions this famous Peke was Top Pekingese and Third Top Toy in Canada for 1966. The line should have read "Second Top Pekingese and Third Top Toy in Canada for 1966." Our sincere apologies to owner Mrs. Vera F. Crofton of Los Angeles, Calif.

Poodles are Natural Retrievers

Pictured here is Shahabad's Sun and Glory, animated golden Standard Poodle pup, who at five months captured and brought home a pheasant almost the size of himself. Sunny and his littermates, states Mrs. Elsa Kliphuis, Shahabad Kennels, Brights Grove, Ont., started basic training at five weeks of age, his owners aided and abetted by Clarence Pfaffenberger's book, "New Knowledge of Dog Behaviour".

"Although we believe this method to be essential for every puppy and dog, most of the credit, in this case, should be given to the Poodle, who apart from being a most faithful companion and highly courageous guard, is a born retriever. Why not show our Poodles in the Sporting Class, allow them to participate in trials? This would, of course, involve more exercise and training, but also less vegetating in wrappers and oil for growing showcoats. How do other breeders feel about this?"

Standard Poodle Entry 50% Canadian Dogs

Six out of the 12 Standard Poodle entries at the Kanadsaga KC Show held June 10 at Canadaigua, N.Y. were Canadians with Susan Fraser's Ch. (Can. & Am.) Bibelots Tall Dark and Handsome taking the Breed and placing in the Group, reports Carolyn Tape of Grangemill Poodles, Bells Corners, Ont.

Canadian Dog Behind Outstanding USA Miniature Poodle

One of 12 top Miniature Poodles in the United States in 1966 was Am. Ch. Cutter's Ebony Tulip out of Ch. Cappoquin Davey of Wilcrest, who was sired by Ch. Mar-A-Mors Rembrandt, cover dog on this month's issue. "Remmy" is owned by Mrs. Anita Chapman of Toronto.

Attention Poodle Breeders

The July issue of Dogs in Canada was designated as the annual Poodle Issue. Advertising support has been practically negligible. Because of the lack of interest scheduled feature articles have been cancelled. To the few breeders who took space in the Poodle issue, our sincere appreciation and regret.

DOGS & PEOPLE

Ont. Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, Mrs. Lorna Jackson, well-known handler whose kennels were destroyed, and her assistant, Miss Marion Peltier, with Mr. Tom Hughes, head of the Ontario Humane, making the presentation of the Silver Medal for Outstanding Bravery. The event took place at the Ontario Humane Convention, Niagara Falls, Ont., April 28. Miss Peltier rushed from 50-below weather into intense heat, flame and smoke to rescue more than 30 dogs as well as several cats and a pet sheep recuperating from a fractured leg. As Miss Peltier got the struggling animals to the door neighbors took them on to safe quarters. Miss Peltier received the Bronze Medal for Outstanding Service.

Travellers: Mrs. Jean Taylor and Mrs. Lorna Hale, well-known Ontario Whippet breeders, are attending the Chicago International Show and look forward to meeting more Whippets and owners . . . Mr. and Mrs. Ron Lawrence, formerly of Toronto, now well-established residents of Culpepper, Va., were visitors to the recent Aurora, Ont. show . . . Lulu, diminutive male pet of Ethiopian Emperor Haile Selassie (recent visitor to Canada), is the darling of porters coast to coast. Regardless of where or when, Lulu believes in fast, fast relief. Every time he answered nature's call, a train porter received a $20 tip for a prompt mop-up . . . Four German Shepherds accompanied two California girls who hitchhiked 7,000 miles to Montreal. The owner of the grooming salon for whom the girls worked prior to starting the transcontinental hitch gave the girls the dogs for the journey. Their budgets were considerably strained by the food requirements of the dogs, but the major problem was the fact that dogs are not allowed on the Expo site.

Judging Assignments: A director of The Canadian Kennel Club, George Mehlenbacher of Fisherville, Ont. was one of the Obedience judges at the Bermuda KC Island shows held early last month. Mr. Mehlenbacher, pictured here, was accompanied by his wife . . . July is a momentous month for Mr. and Mrs. Tim Reid of Hazeldean, Ont. Tim retires mid-month from his work with the Immigration Appeals Board. The well-known Ottawa duo fly to South America where Tim judges in Caracas, Venezuela July 22 and 23 and in Argentina July 30. On their return they will start off on their first major trip in their new ship-shape camper, heading west and south. They expect to be back in Canada next spring and Tim will be available once more for 1968 judging assignments . . . Mrs. Mary Southcott, outstanding Obedience judge and breeder of German Shepherds and Cairn Terriers, has a number of widely spread judging assignments throughout North America. Invitations include the big Ventura KC show in Los Angeles this month, as well as New Hampshire shows; others in Vancouver and New Brunswick in August and numerous others located in various parts of the country. She also does the breed for the German Shepherd Dog Club of East Tennessee Specialty and for the Delaware Valley German Shepherd Dog Club in Philadelphia this Fall. Mary has been elected one of the Obedience judges at the huge German Shepherd Dog Club of America National Specialty in Memphis, Tenn., late October. Earlier this year she judged the breed at the German Shepherd Dog Club of Maryland Specialty held in Baltimore (172 entries).

Three Ontario judges assessed a large portion of the big Buffalo KC Sanction Show June 4: Mrs. W. Gottschalk, Cosburn Kennels, Toronto, judged all Terriers and Best Puppy in Show; Doris Wilson judged German Shepherds and Sandy Briggs, Wimberway Kennels, Markham, Ont., judged all breeds in Group I except Spaniels and Group I. Entry was over 400 dogs.

Recuperating: Samoyed breeder Murray Smith of Ottawa, from a sudden serious illness. Although his activities are curtailed, for several months, the kennels are operating as usual. Mrs. Gladys Davies (Kindon Kennels) Toronto, also hospitalized . . . . . Mrs. Percy Adams has returned to her home in Ste. Agathe des Monts, Que., following three weeks in hospital. Mrs. Adams is internationally famous for her Talisker Skye Kennels and is considered the dean of Skye breeders throughout the world. Her kennel manager, Miss Megan Reece, returns home to the British Isles due to the illness of her mother . . . Recovering from leg injuries: Mrs. Arthur Samuels (Shillmaine Kennels) Toronto, is still suffering from acute injuries to her legs as a result of an accident in her kitchen several months ago . . . William (Bill) Gottschalk, Toronto, long-time Miniature Schnauzer breeder under the prefix Cosburn, is finding recovery from a severe leg fracture tedious.

Sympathy to Kerry Blue Terrier breeder Elisabeth Golby, (Florian Kennels) Willowdale, Ont. in the loss of her father in Stellarton, N.S.

With a second appearance on the Perryscope Channel 9 color program under the belt, Mrs. Grace Probert of Willowdale, Ont. and her German Shepherd, Sheena, have been invited by host Norm Perry for a third time. Mrs. Probert is an untiring worker with the Queen City Training and Tracking Association.

New address: Sheltie enthusiast Elizabeth G. Swanson has moved from 608 Avila Ave., Winnipeg 19 to Lot 160, Viking Dr., Winnipeg 8, Man.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cain of Sarnia, Ont. on a new daughter.
