SUMMER DOG AND KENNEL CARE

Good health, comfort through kennel maintenance, improvement

Keep runs in top shape to help prevent infestation of dogs by internal and external parasites and to control odors. Gravel and sand runs should be brought up to their original levels with fresh material. Depressions should be leveled since they serve as reservoirs for water, which in turn create odors and further the spread of disease and parasites.

Summer is the time to convert gravel or sand runs to concrete. Smooth the material at a pitch to provide good drainage and pour concrete right over it. Concrete runs should have all cracks and breaks repaired because the openings are difficult to clean and can harbor insects and rodents. All fencing should be repaired or straightened. Remember: A good run is easier to keep clean and presents a more favorable appearance to potential pup buyers or boarders.

(If you're planning to build new runs, write for helpful kennel plans and tips from Dog Research, Ralston Purina Co., Checkerboard Square, Clarkson, Ont.)

Weeds and high grass around the kennel area should be cut periodically. Weeds and high grass look unsightly and are breeding grounds for ticks, roaches, other bugs and rodents.

Droppings should be picked up and disposed of daily, especially on gravel and sand runs. Prompt droppings removal aids in the reduction of internal parasites, flies and odors. A simple way to dispose of droppings is to dig a pit and to cover the day's removal with a layer of dirt or lime.

Keep fly maggots controlled in the droppings disposal area by using Purina Malathion Spray or Cygon 2E Insecticide. Bathe dogs with Purina Dog Shampoo to remove ticks, fleas, and lice. Spray dogs with Purina Dog Spray to repel pesky flies and gnats. Spray kennel areas inaccessible to dogs with Purina Malathion or Diazinon Spray. Also use solid fly baits in areas dogs can't get to. All fly baits should be kept out of the wind and bright sun. Keep kennels clean. Pick up all trash and waste feed. (Note: Purina Health Aids are available only at Purina dealers. Similar products are satisfactory.)

To help keep dogs cool there should be adequate ventilation and insulation in their enclosed quarters . . . plenty of shade for the runs. A light colored dog house is many degrees cooler on a hot summer day than a dark one. If there is an absence of shade in the runs, cover a portion with tin, wood, burlap or canvas . . . or better yet, a plastic mesh that permits air to flow freely through it.

Our cover this year features one of our best brood bitches, her latest daughter and a stud fee puppy kept for show and breeding.

CH. SPIRIT OF THE ROUGE (Ch. (Am. & Can.) Shipmates Hannibal ex Souvenir of the Rouge, formerly owned by Mrs. R. Scales, continues to give us most satisfactory puppies. We repeated her breeding with Ch. Winde Mere Rouge Midshipman — 'Chip' — (by Hannibal out of Galatea of the Rouge) which had produced one of our 1969 cover dogs, Spichip Selectman of the Rouge, since the latter's sudden death last June from an undefined toxic poisoning, just after his spectacular puppy wins, was a serious blow to our breeding program. From this repeat breeding we have kept SHERRY SPICHIP OF THE ROUGE, representing four generations of line breeding by us based in turn on the line breeding behind our early stock. A litter brother has been placed in the U.S.A. as a show and breeding prospect also.

FEOLIN DRYAD OF THE ROUGE — 'Fay' — (Ch. Laurie's Piper of the Rouge ex Ch. Birkfell Sincerity), bred by Mrs. Patricia Steele, represents a blending through her dam of English breeding by the Birkfell and Quakertown Kennels back to Eng. Ch. Calluna the Poacher and Ch. (Eng., Am. & Can.) Cruben Dextor, the latter also being strongly behind her sire 'Piper' (Am. & Can. Ch. Shipmates Hannibal ex Annie's Memory of the Rouge), who carries a nice blending of English and North American bloodlines.

'Piper' and 'Chip' both continue in steady demand for stud service, and we have also had several promising litters by Ch. Winde Mere Gay Gordon (jointly owned with his breeder, Mrs. Keith Balsdon). Shown very seldom, 'Gordie' took BCB in Group at the Terrier Breeders Association Specialty, 2nd in Group at one of the Greenwood KC shows, BB at the first Sportsmen's Show this year, and in the U.S.A. he gained two points and BOW at Albany, N.Y., and BOW for five points (14 dogs, 20 bitches) at this year's International KC of Chicago.

Gordie's sire, Ch. (Am. & Can.) Danny Boy of the Rouge (by Hannibal out of Am. Ch. Klintilloch Moment), still owned by the Peckans, is also available at stud, and is now the father of three Canadian and one U.S.A. Champion. Ch. (Am. & Can.) Dancing Hannah of the

A MESSAGE FROM

Dear Members:

I feel that the time is long overdue for the members to be advised of some of our many problems. With regard to the use of a computer in our operation, the majority of the members have been wonderfully patient and understanding in the face of delays and disappointments, and for this, a heartfelt "thank you".

The changeover from Ottawa with its manual operation, to Toronto and the use of a computer, has been a move of great magnitude. Mistakes? Sure, lots of them. Over-optimism? Sure, lots of it. Work? Sure, tons of it! But, rest assured, everyone involved is, and will be working long hours and to the limit of their capabilities to resolve the many problems. And resolve them we will!

First of all, there was not enough study and preparation of the project before the change was made. But let us be fair; if more time had been spent on study, and more years wasted in procrastination and indecision, nothing would have been accomplished. Hind-sight is easier than foresight and it is a sad but true fact that those who attempt to effect improvements in any activity, and who do not immediately achieve the desired results, are criticized more readily than those who sit back and do nothing.

The firm engaged to handle the computerization of our operation, Grace Computer Services, is a most reputable company. They have spared no effort or expense in an endeavour to resolve the many problems encountered, to deal with the great volume of work, and to get things rolling smoothly. It is no simple task! To date, five programmers, one after the other, have attempted to master the situation and establish an efficient work program. We can now see daylight at the end of the tunnel.

We have continued to employ a part-computer and part-manual operation. It must be borne in mind that we started from scratch using clerical workers without previous experience in our type of work. Our Registration Division is trying to cope with a gigantic task. With a view to assisting Mr. Jack Cowans, our Registrar, we have, as a temporary measure, transferred Mr. Ed Holdham, Assistant Secretary, from the head office to the Registration Division.

With our Registration Division now located in Toronto and an opportunity of seeing first hand what is developing, we are utterly appalled at the extremely high percentage (about 50%) of applications received which are unprocessable, either because of incorrect information or insufficient information. This not only delays the issuance of certificates for the dogs whose applications are incorrect, it delays it for those who take care to make sure that their applications are all in order, and it adds enormously to the cost because of a double processing.

Out of sheer necessity our Registration Division has for some months been split into two geographical locations. These have now been consolidated into a single unit and are located within the Grace Computer Services building.

Unfortunately, setbacks in the registration operation have tended to obscure other pressing problems. Before the end of July, we must relocate our head office since the building in which it is now located is slated for demolition. A Property Committee is busily engaged in finding a suitable location for the head office.

One of our main problems is lack of money. Our head office is considerably understaffed, and at the present time we are not in a financial position to hire additional staff. Nothing can more graphically underline the situation than for me to point out to you that over the last 30 years our volume of business has increased seven-fold, yet our head office staff has less than quadrupled. Unless, in the near future, our income is increased substantially, I predict serious trouble in all areas of our operation.

Our financial statements for 1969 indicated that we had lost $35,000 on our operations last year. I can truthfully say that that loss would have occurred even had our registration records remained in Ottawa.

At its annual meeting at Vancouver in March, the Board decided that a special referendum ballot must again be conducted with a view to seeking approval of members on a new and more realistic scale of fees. This special ballot will be conducted in August. Here I would like to point out a few salient facts which will serve to prove the absolute necessity of your approving a new scale of fees.

The bulk of the Club's revenue is derived from five sources, namely, membership fees, litter registration fees, individual registration fees, transfer of ownership fees, and recording fees at shows and trials.

It must be obvious to everyone that the Club cannot continue to operate on a totally unrealistic scale of fees which are no longer relevant to our operating costs. Here I should point out the following:

(1) The present scale of individual registration fees has remained unchanged since 1946.

(2) The transfer of ownership fee has remained unchanged since 1953.

(3) The scale of membership fees for associate members came into effect in 1956 and has remained unchanged.

THE PRESIDENT

(4) The scale of membership fees for ordinary members has remained unchanged since 1951, and was $5.00 and $4.00 respectively for many years prior to 1951. (Last year it cost $9.36 to service each member.)

(5) The recording fee of 50c has remained unchanged since 1950.

No person maintaining a household could expect to operate that household today on a 1953 income, nor can The Canadian Kennel Club expect to continue in business if its income is based on fees which were set 17 years ago. The real miracle is that we have survived so long without increasing our fees. Make no mistake about it, survival is what is at stake! Our financial position at the present time is such that if the new scale of fees is not approved, we will cease to function as an organization. Of what value then would be purebred dogs, and of what value then would be awards and championship points earned at shows which are not recognized and recorded by a central governing body?

Until such time as we find ourselves on a firmer financial footing we will have no alternative but to institute cutbacks. Evidence of this will be in the next issue of "Dogs in Canada" when it will be noted that for show reports awards reported will be restricted to those dogs awarded Best of Breed, Best of Opposite Sex, and Winners. In connection with dogs awarded titles, we will no longer show their sires and dams. Rather than full formal minutes of Board meetings, we will be publishing a summary. We are reluctant to take this course of action, but we have no alternative, and we can only hope that it will be but temporary.

As stated before, the voting members of this Club will be given an opportunity in August to vote on the following proposed new scale of fees:

	CKC Members
Registration of Litter	$1.50
Registration of Individual Dog born in Canada	2.50
born outside of Canada	3.00
Transfer of Ownership	1.50
Registration of Lease	2.00
New certificate (original returned to Registration Division)	1.50
Duplicate registration certificate	1.50
Registration of Kennel Name (to resident of Canada)	25.00
Transfer of Kennel Name (to resident of Canada)	15.00
Registration of tattoo letters	2.00
Transfer of tattoo letters	2.00
Tabulated pedigree — three generations	5.00
Tabulated pedigree — four generations	10.00
Import certificate	2.00
Each transfer of ownership to wind up an estate or where members of an immediate family enter into partnership, or where a company changes its name, or where a partnership is dissolved and a transfer made of the partnership dogs to one or more continuing partners, provided that in no case does any financial consideration pass	1.00

(NOTE: Fees for non-members double that to members)

Membership Fees

Ordinary	$ 7.50
Associate	10.00
Non-resident	10.00

The cost to conduct a referendum ballot is in the area of $3,000. It was the feeling of the Board that this money could be better used in other ways rather than to have to consult the voting members of this Club by ballot every time a small increase is proposed to offset anticipated or actual higher operating costs.

At its annual meeting at Vancouver the Board discussed the advisability of placing before the voting members of the Club a proposed amendment to the By-laws which would empower the Board to set fees and charges and to alter fees and charges but only under certain prescribed conditions which would place limitations on what the Board could do, one of these limitations being that it would require the approval of the Minister of Agriculture for Canada. Since the annual meetings we have been in consultation with the Club solicitor regarding the text of this proposed amendment. Notice of the exact text will be given to members of the Club prior to the distribution of the referendum ballot.

Sure we have our problems, but we are confident that with your understanding, patience and support these will be resolved and our present tribulations will in time be nothing more than memories of a very trying period. Meanwhile, I can assure you that you have a hard-working Board, whose only desire is to serve you to the utmost of its ability.

Sincerely,
HILDA F. PUGH
President

WORKING COCKERS PENALIZED?

. . . My first dog show was at the Canadian National Sportsmen's Dog Shows, March 20, 1970. I read the information about it in Dogs in Canada carefully, and thought and thought. Perhaps there might be a chance that my female and two puppies would show, but it would take a lot of work. Then a letter came with information that Mr. Joe Braddon would be judging our breed at the Sportsmen's Show on the above date. Here was an "English English Cocker judge", something we had been waiting for, for a long time. I thought to myself, "Even if the dogs do not place, it would be good to see the other dogs and meet the other people who were breeding and showing Cockers." To me this was the highlight of the show.

Sixteen English Cockers were exhibited that day; three of them were mine. By far that was the largest number of any day. I had attended the dog show on March 14, so I would not be a complete ignoramous in showing. I had to work hard that week, since the puppies had never been on a leash before. By Friday, I thought they might at least walk around the ring. Unfortunately, they never had a chance. Windfall's Big Fellow was first in the ring as Junior Puppy. The judge took one look at him and turned away. The Secretary informed me that he was not true to type, too big and too long — rejected! The same happened with Windfall's Jack! When Windfall Beth's turn came for the ring, I was at the Dog Show office protesting. She did not have a chance anyway even though she was not that big. She had worked a lot in the field, and did not have a show dog's coat. But, I think she was the only English Cocker there that could get a working certificate. That was the rub!

Here was a sporting breed bred from Field Trials Champions, but unacceptable at a Sportsmen's Show . . . The show dogs and sporting dogs seem to be going in opposite directions.

If I was unhappy about the judging I was not the only one among the Cocker exhibitors. Five other English Cockers had ribbons withheld because they were also too big and too long. Two others were placed down in the judging. So by count, eight out of 16 Cockers were refused in judging; one of these a recent import from England.

Where do we go from here? I think the Standards of judging and showing should be brought up to date. With better food and health care, people are growing bigger. Is not the same thing happening to dogs? Furthermore, my dogs have had ample opportunity to run in the day time. With exercise they have bigger appetites. A bigger dog has greater stamina in the field. Any dog that can flush and retrieve 30 pheasants in a day over rough terrain is my kind of dog. What do you think?

CORRECT PLACEMENT FOR WESTMINSTER CORGI WINNER

. . . Once again your fine magazine has made the rounds in our household and as usual I end up with a well-used issue about six hours after its arrival.

The overall balance of the magazine in relation to reviews, show photos, and articles by known authors has always been a pleasure compared to pure photo magazines.

I have always admired your truth in advertising campaign as well as the Canadian method of selling dogs on a conditional contract which the American Welsh Corgi Club has become interested in and has sent out letters to other breed clubs in this regard.

It came as a surprise though to see in the Westminster article by H. Malcolm Stephens that the Doberman, Ch. Weichardt's A-Go-Go, CD, placed second in the Working Group ahead of the Bouvier.

I feel your magazine not only owes the handler Mr. Frank Sabella, but Mr. and Mrs. Derek Rayne, the owners of the fine Pembroke Welsh Corgi, Ch. Nebriowa Miss Bobbi Sox, an apology for it was their sprite Corgi that won that important Group placement.

I do not know where Mr. Stephens gets his information but as I was a spectator at that show I can say with authority that the Doberman did not place in the Group.

Though a Dobe fan, let us this time give the Corgi its due. It showed its heart out and deserved the placing it received at the Garden last February.

I have taken the liberty to forward a copy of this letter to Mr. Rayne.

REPUTABLE BREEDER?

. . . Where do we find these reputable dealers Mrs. Munro speaks of in the February issue of Dogs in Canada?

A short time ago I started to raise puppies as a hobby. I would not downgrade any breed, so with this in mind I set out to find a suitable stud dog . . . finally settling for a dog which the breeder informed me had everything I needed and more. He would make a fine addition to my kennel.

He came to me in such a deplorable condition it would be hard to explain. He was so thin we could count every bone in his body. His ears were so infested with mites that the scar tissue was a quarter of an inch thick. He shook his head continually. He has been in and out of hospital for the full year that I have had him and to date he has not bred a bitch for me.

I feel sure some experiences like this could cause an inexperienced breeder to use a cheap stud to try to recoup money wasted on what was supposed to be good stock.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, MARY M. BEECHER

. . . A little late, as you were 14 years old March 22, 1970. But with the good wins you had at the Sportsmen's Show, Sunday, March 22, I would say you had a real time of it . . . BB with Ch. Lady Beckett, Airedale Terrier; BB with Smooth Terrier and Welsh Terrier, and to top it off, Best in Junior Handlers Class — four wins in one day a record for your age!

Here's hoping you continue. You are a real girl, always the same, win or lose, and I know I have had the pleasure of being in the ring with you in 1969. You have what it takes someday for a top handler, and your terriers are always set down in the ring as they should be. Good luck.

HELPFUL TO NEW OWNERS

. . . Recently I took one of our city buses uptown. The bus driver was interested to know about the dogs (Pembroke Corgis). He thought I raised terriers. One thing led to another, and we were talking about prices, in which he brought up the old question, "you don't get papers at this price."

This is what upsets me. So many people think there are two prices when they buy registered dogs. I explained to him that no matter what he paid, he should still receive his papers for the dog "free"! I believe this is one of the main reasons why so many people put off buying or inquiring into a registered breed.

When the CKC has its by-law appear throughout papers informing the public as to the two prices (it is similar to the one which appears on page 6 in the March edition Dogs in Canada) it should be worded a bit differently so that the public understands it more clearly.

The next time I use the bus I will be giving this bus driver as much information as I have available on purchasing registered dogs. I would very much like to have copies of this by-law, which I could send or hand out to persons interested in buying pure-bred registered dogs no matter what breed they are interested in.

TRIALS AND TRIBULATIONS

BY JAKE GIACOMELLI

The first National Obedience Championship Runoff in the United States has come and gone.

This most unusual and exciting event was sponsored by Chips, the national Obedience publication in the U.S.A. First prize, incidentally, was $500.00, plus the thrill of knowing that on that given day you had beaten the top dogs of the nation.

If I recall correctly, the U.S.A. was divided into seven regions, and the top five dogs of each region whose combined Open and Utility scores were the best were the dogs eligible for this tounament.

The club which had the singular honor of hosting the first Obedience Championship tournament was "Oklahoma City, Obedience Training Club, Inc.", and host it they did! I certainly wouldn't want to be the club which has to follow in the heels of their performance.

The rings were beautifully laid out. They also had enough four-foot matting to cover the rings completely if need be. The Stewards were all top calibre material. What apprehensions I may have had were soon dispelled when I saw how positively and assuredly the Stewards moved in my ring — it's fun judging when you have competent Stewards helping you.

I shared a room with a fellow Judge, a Mr. Richard (Dick) D'Ambrisi of New Providence, N.J., who also happens to be the Secretary-Treasurer of the Association of Obedience Clubs and Judges, Inc. — that's an experience I tell you! This guy's a going concern — a barrel of laughs, but sharp as a razor — nothing misses his eagle eye! (Come to think of it, he does look a little bit like an American eagle!)

I must may I was a little unprepared for what happened to me late Friday afternoon. As a group of us were sitting around relaxing, a motel messenger knocked at the door and handed me a large brown envelope marked "Personal". When I opened the envelope a very strong perfumey smell rose out of it — so I reached in and pulled out the contents which contained another envelope and a rather worn ladies slip which simply reeked of perfume.

With trembling fingers I tore the envelope open and it said "Dear Jakie: Best Wishes and Congratulations are conveyed in this message, for now and the future, warmest felicitations — I will be wearing a bra from the same material on Friday and Saturday nite, so you will know me. (signed) Your Utility Exhibitor."

I guess the word must have gotten around that I bribe easily! To my chagrin, however, the Utility exhibitor never did reveal herself, whether it was due to the highest score in my section being only 195½ or not I'll never know! All I have are my memories and a highly scented, slightly worn slip sitting amongst my trophies — you must admit, it is a rare one! To tell you the truth I wouldn't be a bit surprised if this was a bit of D'Ambrisi's handiwork!

On the Saturday, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. I conducted a semi Clinic-Seminar to quite a large number of Obedience enthusiasts. You can well imagine how I felt inwardly, knowing all the time that the top Obedience talent in the country was assembled there!

I believe I opened the morning with "Now I know exactly how Daniel felt in the lion's den!". Fortunately everything seemed to go all right — the National Armoury, where the Clinic was conducted, was just ideal — Oh yes! I forgot to mention, the Army called an "Alert" that weekend, so the place was swarming with troops — maybe that's why the Seminar seemed to go O.K. — nobody could hear me!

Well, the moment had finally arrived — in ten minutes my host was to pick me up and transport me to the Trial grounds — when all of a sudden my heart started to pound and I broke out in perspiration — I thought "Oh, no! Don't tell me I'm going to pick now to get a heart attack or some other crazy thing." I opened the motel door and stepped into the morning freshness and in about five minutes I was all right again; except my mouth was awfully dry.

I think what happened was that the magnitude and importance of this particular Trial suddenly hit me and that soon I would be judging. It was just a plain case of the old shakes!

NOTICE

From time to time our attention is drawn to the practice of some breeders who, when advertising or otherwise offering dogs for sale, indicate in some way that the purchaser of a dog sold as pure-bred will be required to make a higher, or additional, payment in order to be furnished with a certificate of registration. Such persons should note that the price at which a dog is sold, or the purpose for which a dog was purchased, has no bearing whatever on the obligation of the seller to supply the purchaser with a certificate of registration issued by The Canadian Kennel Club for a dog sold as pure-bred.

The Live Stock Pedigree Act, a federal statute, requires that when a person sells a dog as pure-bred, or contracts to sell a dog as pure-bred, he must furnish, or agree to furnish, a certificate of registration, together with fully-recorded transfer of ownership to the buyer.

Article XXXI, Section 3 of the By-laws of The Canadian Kennel Club reads as follows:

"A member may be suspended or expelled, or a non-member deprived of the privileges of the Club, if it is proven to the satisfaction of the Board that when selling, or otherwise disposing of a dog for a consideration (monetary or otherwise), the person disposing of the dog has asked or required the new owner to make any form of payment specifically for the purpose of being furnished with a certificate or registration."

To avoid possible prosecution under the Live Stock Pedigree Act and/or possible disciplinary action by The Canadian Kennel Club, members and others engaged in the selling of dogs as pure-bred are cautioned to refrain from the practice of quoting two selling prices for the dogs, one "with papers", the other "without papers", or to in any other way indicate that an additional payment is required for a certificate of registration.

This notice is published by an order of the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club.

RETRIEVERS
IN THE FIELD

The Canadian National Sportsmen's Shows in March had the largest dog shows on record, and the six one day shows, all benched, drew good crowds even though the show had been moved to the Queen Elizabeth Building several hundred yards away from the main part of the show and the arena where the indoor field trials were held. As usual, the trials were held daily, in the evenings during the week and in the afternoons on the Sundays, with dogs coming from Ontario, Quebec and the U.S.A. to compete for the Purina Gold Whistle, symbolic of indoor Retriever Trials in Ontario. The daily winners for these trials, and the competitors in the finals on March 22 were:

Bramalea Duke, BLM, Doug Robinson, Oakville.
Glenlogie's Justine, BLF, Dick Bews, Kingston.
Rambler Rose, BLF, Dr. T. Williams, Niagara Falls.
Faro's Hi Jinks, YLM, Jack Bennett, West Hill.
Canuck Crest River Boy, BLM, P. Roper, Islington.
Nixa's Happy Phantom, BLM, Jim Troubridge, Caledonia.
Coronation Ebony Chips, BLM, Don Henshaw, Burlington.
Blyth's Buddy, BLM, Graham Scholes, Beaconsfield, P.Q.
Bonnie Brook's Tuff Half, GRM, Jane Cooey and handled by Jim Weitzel, Painesville, Ohio.

The tests for the finals started with a walk-up double with the judge signalling for the guns to be fired and birds thrown while the handlers walked their dogs at heel towards the line. Only four of the nine competitors were called back for the second test. This was a delayed triple, the third test a triple blind, and the fourth test a triple with the third bird being thrown into the path of the dog returning with the second bird. The dogs worked well and at the conclusion of the four tests it was a close decision with the first placing going to the only American dog and the only Golden finalist, Bonnie Brook's Tuff Half. Second placing went to Don Henshaw's two-year-old Coronation Ebony Chips, and third placing to Graham Scholes' Blyth's Buddy.

Indoor Retriever trials have not been limited to the Toronto area either. In Prince Albert, Sask. Pam and Robin Bonnycastle (who once lived in Sudbury and competed for several years in the trials at the Sportsmen's Shows) "sold" the idea to the Prince Albert Fish and Game Club for their annual Sportsmen's Shows on April 3 and 4. Nine of the top Open field trial dogs in Saskatchewan were invited to participate. The judges were Lou Hough of Saskatoon, a well known field trialer and professional handler and George Dressler of Torquay who is similarly well known to field trialers. The trials were held in the North Saskatchewan Regiment's armouries which were about 40 to 100 feet, therefore much smaller than the Toronto arena, but excellent habitat was provided with bull-rushes, trees, stubble, as well as two short portable fences and a small pond across one third of the area. The judges ran the trials by the C.K.C. field trial rules and set up some excellent tests. The dogs working under most unusual conditions worked extremely well and gave everyone a good demonstration of their field trial ability and training. Tests included triple marks, double land blinds, double water blinds, honoring, and an over-and-under double mark. The two trials were run with the same dogs competing each day but with different tests and the 'landscape' being changed slightly between trials. The winners on both days were presented with rosettes and were as follows:

First day — 1st: F.T. Ch. Neil's Tia Maria, BLF, Roy MacDonald, Saskatoon. 2nd: Waucanda's Saska, BLF, Dr. Bryon Crabb, Moose Jaw. 3rd: Carnmoney Beau Brummel, BLM, Don Lardner, Saskatoon.

Second day — 1st: Skye of Hawthorn Hill, Larry Cranston, Moose Jaw. 2nd: Carnmoney Beau Brummel, BLM, Don Lardner, Saskatoon. 3rd: Duckmaster Duke, Clarence Butler, Saskatoon. 4th: Waucanda's Bonneville Duff, Ron Beck, Prince Albert.

The Bohemian Breweries presented the Bohemian Challenge trophy to Carnmoney Beau Brummel for the dog with the highest total aggregate points.

Congratulations to the Bonnycastles on getting this enterprise going and on their work in getting a new Prince Albert Retriever Club off the ground. This venture is apparently underway and it is hoped that it won't be too long before they hold their first Licensed field trial.

Licensed field trials are off and away this month here in the east although several trials have already been held on the west coast. This is a good time for all handlers and judges to take a good look at the rule books and if you have a dog in training now, a thorough study of the faults listed in the rule book might help you to avoid a minor fault which could later develop

Have you heard?

by H. CABALLERO

■ A simple test has been reported by Dr. A. Kisseleff, which detects flea infestation even when live fleas cannot be found. All that is required is a very fine flea comb with about 32 teeth per inch, and an ordinary white paper card such as used for index cards. Comb the dog in areas favoured by fleas, such as around the neck, head and ears, or the back of the thighs and root of the tail. Transfer the combings to the white card which has been moistened on both sides with tap water. If flea excreta are present, they will fall through onto the moistened card. In a few minutes they will begin to dissolve and form a highly distinctive reddish-brown stain, which will streak when the card is tilted. It has been demonstrated and confirmed that flea bites can initiate and perpetuate acute and frequently chronic dermatitis in hypersensitive dogs. A single flea bite can cause severe irritation and scratching, and the simple test described can aid in diagnosis. • • • Talking of fleas, a study was made by R. M. Kibble in Australia on the effectiveness of dichlorvos impregnated flea collars in controlling fleas on dogs. A trial was conducted with 24 dogs kennelled under controlled conditions. The results indicated that for the first nine week period the dogs wearing the collar had less than 5% of the fleas counted on the untreated control dogs. After 13 weeks, the treated dogs had less than 15% of the fleas counted on the controls. When the collars were removed a significant increase of fleas occurred in the treated dogs, all of which remained healthy during the trial. • • • Alarmed by reports of the dangers connected with pesticides, many dog owners may be worried about which carries the greatest peril — fleas, as external parasites and vectors of tapeworm, or side effects of the chemicals imbedded in plastic collars. In addition to the dangers of the organophosphates pointed out in the March column, cases of dermatitis have occurred in people who have bathed dogs wearing the collar, since the insecticide is soluble in water. However, used intelligently, and removed before anesthesia or bathing, the collars are highly effective for flea control, and can contribute significantly to a reduction of dermatitis and tapeworm. • • • In conclusion — the following recipe is an effective homemade foot toughener for hunting dogs if applied daily: 30cc. tincture of benzoin, 1 oz. alum, 2 oz. tannic acid, 8 oz. petroleum jelly, and 10cc balsam of Peru. □

IMPORTANT NOTICE

It has been brought to our attention on several occasions that copies of DOGS IN CANADA have not been received as early as they should have.

Despite the fact that your publishers exert every effort to print and mail the issues in good time, we have absolutely no control once they are out of our hands and in the hands of the post office, over the time of arrival.

The Exercise Pen

by DOUGLAS STEPHEN

Douglas Stephen and recently retired CKC Office Manager, Tom Adams.

■ They say that all good things come to an end and certainly Tom Adams' 12 years as C.K.C. Office Manager has been good for the dog game. We've been fortunate to have a real dog man, a dedicated and knowledgeable breeder and exhibitor, sitting in the hot seat where the rules and regulations are administered. His retirement at the end of March leaves a big gap. Nonetheless, life goes on and the new man on the firing line is yours truly, Douglas Stephen. I'm called the Manager of the Shows & Trials Division, am an ex-broadcaster and businessman, a small breeder of Chow Chows, a frequently clobbered exhibitor and a C.K.C. voting member. Are you? I mean, do you vote? Do you read the reports and try to vote on the issues, or are you one of the vast army that damns the C.K.C. and either doesn't vote at all or works on the "Throw the rascals out" principle? I hope not, for that sort of thing is just what has hurt us for so long, and is no help at all to setting things right. But, you may ask "How could I help?"

Well, first, re-read the rules, especially the section on points. You'd be amazed at how much time our pitifully small staff spend chasing up answers to silly questions. Second, Exhibitors, please give the Show Secretaries a break. Print or type your entries. It is from the entry forms that catalogues are made up and from the catalogues that the C.K.C. compiles its official results. If you started it all with an unreadable scrawl there's no way the final result is going to be right, is there? Third, the same goes for you Show Secretaries when you fill out your documents for C.K.C. approval. Some of the things we see in here look like unbreakable code. But enough lecturing from old Grumpy.

There are a few things you should know about. The most important is the system of approvals for new judges in the works. Because of this, the Board has declared a moratorium on the creation of new judges until August 1, 1970. This means that if you were thinking of a "permit system" judge for your show, forget it. That has been abandoned and the new procedures and requirements will be outlined as soon as possible. Watch this space for details and an explanation of some of the implications.

We have some other projects in mind, among them a seminar for show-giving Club officials. This will be a chance for Show Superintendents and Secretaries, Ring Stewards and Field and Obedience Trial Officials and some of the C.K.C. administrative staff to meet nose to nose. Together we should be able to streamline some of the procedures and plug a few loopholes. How does it sound? We've gotten some worthwhile support for the idea and would like comments and suggestions so that the whole thing just doesn't slide away.

I also hope you'll take a moment to send me any ideas you have which may be of use to Clubs in other regions. Let's plug Victoria experience into Halifax, and New Brunswick know-how into the planners of Ontario. We're often accused of being provincial, we doggy types, but I believe we have only lacked a way to make contact. So here's your chance, same time, same place every month.

See you then. □

Southern California Schutzhund Club

The first Schutzhund (Protection Dog) Trial in the United States with Fritz Krauss of Germany as judge will be held May 23 and 24 at Garden Grove, Calif. Mr. Krauss is a representative of Walter Koester, who is in charge of the training program of the German Shepherd Dog Club of Germany. (SV).

A dream of an official Schutzhund trial was envisioned for many years by a small group of dedicated individuals, and now through hard work and careful planning it will become a reality.

We are fortunate in that we were able to obtain such a knowledgeable person as judge for the first Schutzhund trial. The dogs which receive qualifying scores will obtain an official Schutzhund I, or Police Dog Degree. Doing Our Own Thing for the Dog Owners of Etobicoke

Over 300 dog owners in the Borough of Etobicoke have undergone obedience training, with their respective pets, since the Canine Control Division instituted its classes in the spring of Centennial year. A first for any municipality in Canada.

Of the 300 owners, 75% of the trainees are juniors from the age of seven. In the other extreme, some are receiving old age pensions. None however, show the slightest semblance of the "generation gap" syndrome when participating in this rewarding pastime.

The program is conducted by three members of the Etobicoke Canine Corps on a voluntary basis, giving up their own time to help train our canine companions.

The basic system used by the Canine Control instructors is derived from several proven methods used in Canada and the United States, rooted in the essential belief that kindness is the best teacher. Success has rewarded their efforts.

A surprising residual to the obedience education courses has been the improvement of the "Dog Catcher" image in the Borough. People are beginning to see the Canine Corps as truly friends of all animals and the 'tone' of calls to the Corps Headquarters on Bering Avenue has radically changed from strident complaints to interested inquiry — this respect is well deserved and is relative to the effort extended by the Canine Control Division. At present three 10-week classes are being held each year under the guidance and final grading of The Canadian Kennel Club.

For those interested in starting a similar program in communities, please contact the Canine Control Division of the Clerk's Department at the Borough of Etobicoke, 550 Burnhamthorpe Rd., Etobicoke, Ont., where they will be pleased to assist you.

New St. Aubrey Products

St. Aubrey Everfree, another product added to the famous line of products well-known to Dogs' readers is now available in Canada.

St. Aubrey Everfree "containing Nidanthel, the new broad spectrum anti-parasitic agent for dogs and cats", is now available from Kizelay Enterprises (Pat Fitzsimmons), Woodroffe Ave. S., Ottawa and the Dog Studio, 1470 Decarie Blvd., Montreal. Nidanthel, states the manufacturer, "if used daily, permits puppies to be born free of any infestation and kept free of worms all their lives."

Also now available is Everfree conditioner for dogs and for cats of all ages and breeds. It is termed "the solid safeguard of defensive nutritional conditioning and also aids in worm control."

Burlington Kennel & Obedience Club

I thought perhaps that clubs inviting guest speakers to their meeting might be interested in Mr. John A. Shannon of the Department of Lands & Forests.

Mr. Shannon spoke at our recent general meeting on the subject of "wolves." All our club members who were present and heard Mr. Shannon agreed that this man and his topic was one of the most interesting talks given by guest speakers. Personally, I think it was the most interesting I have ever heard. Among other things we were surprised to learn that timber wolves, contrary to what we are lead to believe, are not vicious animals but are most affectionate and playful. This was certainly borne out by the slides shown by Mr. Shannon. The coyotes, which are the wolves prevalent in this area, are the vicious animals. Mr. Shannon showed excellent slides of the work being done with wolves and told us that there had been controlled breeding between a wolf and a dog which was not too satisfactory. We were greatly interested in the fact that he showed a dog which he called a "Collab" (a cross between a Collie and a Lab), which they had put in with the wolves, and inside of a few minutes the Collab was the boss. Mr. Shannon showed his slides, spoke for an hour and a half and then conducted a question and answer period.

If any club is at a loss for an interesting speaker, do try this gentleman some time and I am sure you will be amazed at the work the Department does with wolves.

Our club at the moment is preparing for our Annual Challenge Match which we started some years ago and we are very happy to find it has grown and created interest throughout the years. The clubs challenged this year, with the exception of one, have all agreed to participate and besides ourselves we have Hamilton Kennel Club, Oakville & District K.C., Scarborough K.C., Oxford K.C., Kitchener K.C., Forest City K.C., Skyway Obedience Club and Greenwood K.C. The Skyway Obedience Club is a new one this year and we are very happy to welcome them.

SPORTSMEN'S

Canada's record-breaking shows

■ Twenty-eight thousand spectators! In fair weather and foul they flocked to the 1970 Sportsmen's Shows — March 14, 15, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22 — largest canine competition ever held in Canada. Committee members were earlier apprehensive in planning the venue. Despite the fact that the Queen Elizabeth Bldg., pride of the CNE Grounds, provided an exceptionally fine locale it stands a distance from the Coliseum, scene of the main show. Ralston Purina provided free transportation between the buildings via miniature train.

Entries were by far the heaviest ever in Canada. Obedience entries swelled to the point another judge was called in.

The Working Group alone, with an entry of 419 on the sixth day, would more than match the entire entry of many Canadian shows.

In these days of towering apartment buildings, most of which do not encourage pet life, it was exciting to see 47 Newfoundlands entered in the Newfoundland Club of Canada Booster Show. And 72 German Shepherds in the German Shepherd Dog Club Booster, 57 Great Danes in the Metropolitan Great Dane Club Booster and 25 Saints in the Booster sponsored by the St. Bernard Club of Ontario.

The Terrier Breeders' Association of Canada swelled the entry to 147 terriers in the final day. How many Bull Terriers have you seen entered in recent years? There were 14 on that day, with the three-year-old Bull Terrier Club putting on its first bench display.

The show was enhanced by displays by an unusual number of individual exhibitors and clubs. The Bull Terrier benching showed cutouts carrying the dogs' names and club "business cards".

White vinyl material bearing a white cross on a red shield made the St. Bernard Club of Ontario showing outstanding. A display of sleds, trophies and garments created of Samoyed hair proved an attraction at The Canadian Samoyed Club bench.

Silhouettes of German Shepherds made it easy to find the German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada benching. A great printed list of the Grand Victors and Grand Victrix from 1945 to 1969 was a reminder of the great dog Jola Von Liebestraum who was Grand Victrix 1946, 1947 and 1949 and Ch. Robin of Kingscroft, Grand Victor 1960 through 1962.

Sconestone Smooth Collies Reg'd. was a miniature art gallery with a painted backdrop by Mrs. Margaret Armstrong and another Scottish Shepherding scene for Merland Kennels Reg'd. Interestingly enough, Mrs. Armstrong's sister started herding her Collies on geese and from then on they were willing to herd virtually anything that moved.

The Pekingese, Kentucky Col's Hope of Mal-ka, owned by Mrs. Ralph O'Daniel of Owensboro, Ky., was the only dog to take Best in Show twice in the 1970 Sportsmen's Show, piloted to top honors in the first and fifth shows by handler Lorraine Heichel. It was a third BIS win for Mrs. Heichel in the Sportsmen's shows: the Wire-haired Dachshund she handled took top honors in the third show. Owner of Am. Ch. Westphal's Shillalah is Peggy Westphal of Bedford, N.Y. Talking to Lorraine later we learned that the Dachshund won over 27 Champions at Westminster earlier this year. The Peke has become a star in a short time. Shown only three times in Specials, he took three BIS in those shows shortly before his Toronto victories. In American shows just preceding the Sportsmen's he won over 6,000 dogs.

SIDELIGHTS

It was a pleasure to "shake hands" with one of the promoters for good causes. He is the amiable Newfoundland, Ch. Windjammers Aberdeen Andy, who has his own travel case and carries all kinds of banners saying "Welcome to the Sportsmen's Show", "Help Toronto Humane Society" and many others. He's been photographed on the ferris wheel and other rides at the CNE and in harness with his toboggan. His owner, Billy Kirkwood, Toronto, teams up with Andy in a fine hobby.

The 31 handsome Rough Collies had competition for attention in three Smooth Collies and in Gael, a bearded Collie which attracted crowds on her own. The winsome pup and others of her breed are not yet recognized by The Canadian Kennel Club, although owner Carol Gold and other devotees believe recognition is imminent. The youngster, resembling a miniature Old English Sheepdog, did a good job of publicity for the breed. Another rarity was a Smooth Brussels Griffon.

Tommy Glasford, well-known American handler, started off for these shows but instead ended up in hospital with a ruptured spleen. He was critically injured in a motor accident around Harrisburg, Pa. None of the dogs were hurt. Tommy handled an Irish Setter to BIS at Detroit shortly before his misfortune.

Youngest handler in adult competition was eight-year-old Tracy Miller of Peterborough, Ont., who took BB over three Champion Australian Terriers and was a close finish in the Terrier Group. The tiny dark-haired pixie-like girl, wearing blue slacks, white sweater and raspberry jumper had the audience desperately willing her to win while she appeared business-like and outwardly calm.

Horace Hollands, left, piloted Marge O'Connell's English Setter, Ch. (Can. & Am.) Hiddenlane's Merry Max, to BIS March 19 under Judge Virgil D. Johnson.

The March 22 show BIS fell to the West Highland White Terrier, De-Go Hubert, owned by Jane Esther Henderson of Round, S.C., under Judge Joe Braddon, left.

Noted judge, journalist, author Max Riddle tells Dogs in Canada he found the Saints shown in Canada and the States of better quality than overseas and the Great Pyrenees entered at these shows better than in the U.S.A. and England.

RETRIEVER TRIALS

The Indoor Invitation Retriever Trials once more proved one of the greatest attractions of all Toronto has to offer. The Coliseum Arena was packed for the final trial for The Purina Gold Whistle on March 22 and with the Mighty Mites, performing elephants, the daily trials were constant crowd pleasers. Forty-eight great retrievers were entered, providing laughter, tears of excitement and thrills as they competed in the natural setting of trees, fences and stream. The final winner, Bonnie Brooks Tuff & Half, male Golden Retriever owned by Mrs. James Cooney of New Woodstock, N.Y., was third in last year's finals. Jim Weitzel of Paynesville, Ohio, is the fine handler. TV celebrity Al Boliska kept the crowds informed with scene by scene explanation of what must have been a mystery to many.

OBEDIENCE TRIALS

Once again vast numbers of spectators had their first taste of the infinite joy of owners working with their dogs. Ninety dogs in Obedience competition showed a great variety of breeds in complete rapport. The North York Obedience Club members in their green and gold uniforms drew applause with their demonstration team both weekends. Participating were dogs ranging from a Dachshund to a Great Dane. A pink Poodle was one of the merriest performers. The club also had a bench display. Both the Oshawa Obedience Club members, wearing blue shirts and navy blue slacks or skirt, and the North York members held Boosters on March 30, with a total of six trials running through the week.

LITTLEST HOBO

Surest bridge in the generation gap is a performance by the Littlest Hobo and his fellow actors. Chuck Eisenmann and his brilliant canine troupe put on frequent performances daily and unfailingly drew crowds. This was another fine contribution by Ralston Purina, who also provided the PA system and announcers. If you've never seen these highly intelligent German Shepherds perform, you owe it to yourself. After numerous viewings, we're still enthralled. The dogs act on commands given in various sentences and not just short commands. "Hobo, pick up that item you just put down. Put it in the waste basket." If the dog makes a mistake it is immediately corrected. "London, would you kindly discern the object that tells the day of the week instead of that which tells the time." Chuck had put a watch beside the calendar. London moved the bracelet so he he could pick it up easily. "London, suppose I ask you to put that (cup) into the lower drawer of the cabinet." The dog did. "London, would you go and get that which has a buckle and bring it to me." He walked across the stage and picked up a belt. "London, could I bother you please? Take the part of a kangaroo," London jumped across the stage on his hind legs. "London, the life is out of your body." The animal did a dead dog scene.

Tax your dog's mind, implored Eisenmann. Give him things to do, things to think about. "Sometimes it takes me six years to find out why a dog does a thing. I'm still learning. The intellectual dog must be able to be spoken to at any time, under any conditions. You don't have to look at your dog, when you give a command."

But we're still stymied. How do the dogs distinguish color? "London," asked his owner, "which of these three signs (one of three Purina signs) is painted yellow?" London pointed out the correct sign. "London, go over and indicate the green, please." And he did. One thing is apparent: the command or request is always preceded by the dog's name.

Important: Start planning now for the 1971 show. It will be held during the school holidays and predictably a record crowd will attend Conformation, Obedience and Retriever Trials and events. □

B.C.'s dog breeders of the future

Mrs. Elsie Murray was recipient of a scroll made by the Seniors and presented by Janine De Best, Juniors President, pictured with Mrs. Hilda Pugh, CKC President.

Best Handler, Lorinda McArthur from the Nanaimo Junior K.C., judged by Mrs. Pugh.

Diane Anderson, highest score in Junior event, with Mr. Bill Dawson.

■ On March 8 the Junior Kennel Club of Vancouver again presented a Sanction Show for the officials of The Canadian Kennel Club who were in this city for their annual meeting.

Spring blossoms everywhere, along with busy juniors who proved they could put on an excellent show, despite the current newspaper strike. Handling their own publicity, they cut their own stencils, ran off flyers and painted their own signs, bringing out a record number of entries.

The show was opened by Canadian Kennel Club President Mrs. Hilda Pugh, and Mr. Ron Seers, British Columbia Director.

Juniors from the Victoria and Nanaimo Clubs turned out to lend their support and the Vancouver juniors plan to return this visit later. The trophy tables were most attractive and excellent refreshments, under the supervision of Mrs. Eileen Fraser, were served. Patsy Stevens helped.

The Best in Show was judged by Mrs. Edna Joel and Mr. Norman F. Brown presented the Best in Show trophy.

Four seniors of the club also acted as judges, judging one breed each, giving them an opportunity to show what had been taught.

The members of the Junior Kennel Club would like to express their thanks to all who supported and expressed confidence in them in so many ways.

The Middlesex All Breed Dog Club

The club held its first fun match April 19 at the Glendale Sports Center near London, Ont., with an entry of about 60.

I'm just a little more than pleased and proud to announce my eight month old Dalmatian bitch, Peppermill's Dutch Fudge, went Best Puppy in Show and Best in Show.

This newly formed Middlesex Club will be holding their next match in McGiven Park in London later this summer so watch for the date to be announced and support this event if at all possible.

CANINE BREED IMPROVEMENT:
selection and relationship

Part 12 — Gene frequency changes in the population

by LEE FORD, Ph.D.
Genetics Consultant Service
Rt. 1, Box 230, Butler, Ind. 46721

GENE FREQUENCY

■ Gene frequency plus gene distribution produces the mean additive genotypic value of the population. Wright, Lush and Lerner specified that the genotypic value as here designated was subject to the least squares rule. That is, the average genotypic value of the population should coincide with its average phenotypic value, and that the sums of the squares of the individual deviations of genotype and phenotype should be a minimum.

THE FORMULA

Thus we assume that the "mean additive genotypic value" can be expressed in numerical form. This is the "expected value" so-called by Fisher. The expected value is ½ the sum of the genotypes of the parents. Therefore, the variation in gene frequency acts upon the genetic variation of the population by dominance (interaction between alleles) and by epistasis (interaction between non-alleles). However, non-additive effects would give a discrepancy from offspring by different mates.

Lush states that in most systems, the additive fraction was the most important. We can use the following formula:

$$S^2_P = S^2_G + S^2_E$$
$$(A) = (B_1) + (C)$$

If the non-additive portions are important (for example if there is heterosis acting), then we can use the following formula.

$$S^2_P = S^2_{Ge} + S^2_E$$
$$(A) = (B) + (C)$$

Gene frequency changes are due to four factors, these being selection, migration, mutation, and chance. Wright[6] discussed these in great detail. From the viewpoint of applied breeding principles, selection is the most important. It is the great genetic tool used for improvement of the breed.

Migration is quite important to the breeder, especially in regard to the addition of new superior stock to his breeding program. It can add genes previously absent. It can cause a rapid change in gene frequency which can later be acted upon by selection.

Mutation, considered as point mutation, can be generally disregarded as not being an active force in most cases.

Chance fixation or genetic drift is important in smaller populations. It is ordinarily beyond the control of the breeder except for intensive selection. This is true especially in regard to low frequency alleles and extinctions. The type of mating system affects the chance. Therefore, selection can act on genetic drift in a controlled breeding program for improvement of a breed.

PHENOTYPES

Phenotypic correlations between traits are the result of a combination of genetic and environmental correlation.

Correlation between traits is very important to consider because it is important in practical breeding, and because it increases the efficiency of attaining the desired ends. Genetic correlation is of two kinds, the pleiotropic action of the gene (one gene hac more than one effect) and linkage (genes associated together on the same chromosome). We cannot distinguish between them except by repeated measurements or observations made over several generations. Therefore, their effects may be confounded. If we select for several traits there may be a negative genetic correlation which may hinder further progress.

PERMANENT CHANGES

Improvements in heredity are permanent and are passed on to the following generations. Thus a change in gene frequency in the breeding population for the better can improve the dogs from generation to generation. Likewise, a change in gene frequency for the worst, can cause trouble in the future. Environmental improvements help only the generation in which they appear, and must be repeated each generation. Thus it is important to the breeder to improve his animals as far as possible, not depending entirely on a favorable environment.

VARIATION

There is usually enough individual variation left even when part of the selected phenotype is genetically controlled. Or for that matter, when both the genotype and the environment are controlled. For we have seen how limited is our actual so-called control. The breeder must remember that all is not gain, and we may not always make great strides forward to our goal each generation, even with careful plans and great foresight. But we can continue to try. If the kennels becomes known as one of the ones with the best available breeding stock, then the monetary returns surely make the effort worth while.

ENVIRONMENT

It is most important that the dogs be raised and kept in circumstances and under environments in which their offspring are to be used. Thus we can in some way at least determine their fitness to become parents. Changes in country to city life, changes in climate and topography, all contribute to the total phenotype. Resistance to mange in the northwest, and to heat in the southwest, just a small example.

CONFUSION

The breeder must be alert to avoid confusing the effects of heredity and environment. He may cull a dog which actually has superior genes to keep one which won at a dog show. Hence our warning to you, the serious breeder: Be careful. Watch out not only for show points, but also for disposition, intelligence, general overall health, fertility, growth rate, development, hidden recessives, vigor, stamina, and so forth. Mistaking the effects of the environment for effects of the genes, especially in regards to health and fertility, is one big mistake of many an otherwise enlightened dog breeder.

CORRECTION OF ERRORS

The errors in judgment due to effects of environment and heredity, can to some extent be corrected for statistically, if the breeder knows his breed and can make allowance for what the phenotypes of the two compared would have been under similar environments. All characteristics are effected by both heredity and environment in the strictest sense of the word. The exceptions are so few they affect the end result but little.

HEREDITARY CHARACTERISTICS

Characteristics called heredity are those which most of the usual differences noted between individuals are caused by differences in genes.

NON-HEREDITARY CHARACTERISTICS

Characteristics called environmental or non-hereditary are those for which most of the differences result from differences in the environment to which the individuals were exposed. The effects of environment are not inherited except as extreme environments, for example x-ray effects, produce mutations, and these are not adaptively related to the environment which produced them.

Chicago International

by H. MALCOLM STEPHENS

■ The thirtieth annual all-breed championship dog show of the International Kennel Club of Chicago held, as usual, in the extensive facilities of the International Amphitheatre at Union Stock Yards attracted over 60,000 spectators. This taxed the capacity of the 20 foot aisles between the benching. This show is truly a showplace for one's dogs. Where else can one find so many people anxious to see pure-bred dogs in adequate surroundings? Canadian spectators were very scarce. This show usually attracts over 50 Canadian spectators without their dogs. A strike or near strike by the air controllers made air travel so uncertain that many cancelled their travel plans. I had intended to fly with my dog but found myself with the choice of a long lonely drive or to cancel. I went, but other Canadian dogs remained at home.

Only two dogs with Canadian connections reached judging at the group level. The English Foxhound, Gamecock's Denbie, bred by the Toronto and North York Hunt and now owned by Joyce Lynch Weiss of Illinois won the breed. Parker Harris handled and his Canadian wife Beverley groomed and conditioned the dog. The English bred and Canadian owned Miniature Poodle, Ch. Tranchant Annabelle, owned by Beverley O'Toole of Vancouver and handled by Frank Sabella won the breed and went second in the Utility group. Other Canadian wins stopped at the Best of Winners level. There were quite a few of these when one considers the small number of Canadian dogs present. These will be reported after comments on the group judging.

■ The first group judged on Sunday afternoon was the Sporting Group. Judge was Mrs. Connie Bosold of Milan, Ill. Her first choice was a beautifully presented English Cocker Spaniel, Ch. Dunelm Galaxie, owned by Ruth L. Cooper of Illinois and very ably handled by Richard Bauer. Second was the well known Irish Setter, Ch. Major O'Shannon, owned by Albert M. Greenfield of Pennsylvania and handled by Tom Glassford. Tom met with a very serious automobile accident on his way to the Sportsmen's Shows in Toronto last March and his appearance in the ring at Chicago was very reassuring to those of us who had heard that he was fighting for his life after the accident. Like Mark Twain, the news of his death proved to be slightly exaggerated. Third went to a very nice orange Belton English Setter, Ch. Sir Kip of Manitou. Fourth was a very large liver and white English Springer Spaniel, Ch. Chinoe's Adamant James. Other nice dogs left out of the group ribbons included the Flat Coat Retriever, the Gordon Setter and the ASCB Cocker who was a very dark chocolate in color.

■ Next to be judged was the Hound Group with Mr. A. Peter Knoop of New York as the judge. First place went to the same Norwegian Elkhound which won the Hound Group at Westminster, Ch. Vin-Melca's Vagabond, owner handled by Patricia V. Craige of California. This is a beautiful dog whose handler gets the most out of him. Second went to the Borzoi, Ch. Kall of the Wild's Zandor, owned by Yvonne M. Kall of California and handled by Evonne Chashoudian. Third was the Wirehaired Dachshund, Ch. Westphal's Shillalah, and fourth to the 15" Beagle, Ch. King's Creek Tripple Threat. Nice dogs left out of the ribbons included the 13" Beagle, the Bloodhound (beautiful rear quarters), the English Foxhound, the Greyhound and the very dainty Whippet.

■ The Toys were the next in the ring under Judge Tom Stevenson with whose placements my thoughts had little in common. The group winner was the Toy Poodle, Ch. Peeples Red Head, second was the Brussells Griffon, Ch. Gaystock de Tout Temps who was third in the group at Westminster. Fourth went to the very nice Maltese, Ch. Pendleton's Jewel who was second in the group at Westminster. Other nice dogs left out of the ribbons included the Long Coat Chihuahua, the Italian Greyhound, the Miniature Pinscher and the Yorkshire Terrier.

■ Judge William W. Brainard Jr. awarded first in the Terrier Group to the Lakeland, Ch. Special Edition, a son of Ch. Stingray of Derryabah who was Best in Show at Westminster in 1968. Second went to Walter Goodman's Ch. Glamoor Go Go Go, another excellent Skye which this owner-handler appears to be able to turn out in continuing succession. Third place fell to a nice Westie, Ch. De-Go Hubert and fourth to the Scottie, Ch. Marlorain DeLimma of Burbury. Nice dogs out of the ribbons included the Smooth Fox and the Welsh.

■ The Non-Sporting Group was dominated by a beautifully presented white Standard Poodle, Ch. Alekai Luau, owned by Ann Seranne and Barbara Wolferman of Newton, N.J., and handled by Wendell J. Sammet. This dog arrived in the ring with every hair in place and sparkling white. Second place went to the Canadian-owned Miniature Poodle, Ch. Tranchant Annabelle. Third place to the Lhasa Apso, Ch. Crest-O-Lake Pretti Plez and fourth to the Chow, Ch. Lakeview's Han-Sum, completed the awards. A very nice Keeshond was left ribbonless by Judge Percy Roberts.

■ The Working Group was judged by Alva Rosenberg who had little difficulty in finding his winner in a very sound and beautifully moving harlequin Great Dane, Ch. Maximillian v. Meistersinger. This excellent dog is owned by Dr. and Mrs. Harville of Tennessee and was handled by William Aston. Second place went to the German Shepherd, Lex von der Vallendarer Hohe, owned by Eugene Catron and Ay Borman of New York and handled by Jimmy Moses. This was one of the very few class dogs which won the breed over the specials. Third place to the Old English, Ch. Prince Andrew of Sherline and fourth to the Newfoundland, Edenglen's Randy of Newton-Ark, completed the awards. Left out was a very nice but slightly leggy Doberman who looked much younger than his four years.

■ Best in Show was judged by Mr. Harry Peters of New York. Three of the six stood out over the others. The Elkhound, the Dane and the Lakeland each could have gone to the top. My heart was probably with the Elkhound because of the wonderful gait of the dog and his owner handler. Mr. Peters found his winner in the Lakeland, Ch. Special Edition, for what, I believe, was his sixth Best in Show.

While the Canadian dogs present were not conspicuous in the group judging, several had good wins in the classes. The Brittany, Torbec Little Rover, owned and bred by Michelle McIntyre of Weston, Ont., was Best of Winners and Best Opposite Sex for a five point win. The Whippet, Carousel's Calamity Jane, owned by Joan MacKinnon and bred by Luc Boileau of Montreal, was Winners Bitch for five points. The Collie, City View Black Diamond, owned by Barry Cooke of Carlisle, Ont., was Best of Winners for several points. The Shetland Sheepdog, Hjalti Jack bred, owned and handled by myself, was Best of Winners for four points. The Westie, Windemere Gay Gordon, co-owned by Dorothea Daniell-Jenkins and her titian-haired daughter Mary Balsdon was Winners Dog for five points. The Babbidge Papillons secured both sets of points in a small entry. In spite of the small Canadian entry we came home with almost a point per dog present which is not a bad average for a show with 3,647 dogs entered.

To me Chicago is the show to attend to place one's dogs in competition on a truly continental basis. This is the show where the benching is good, the rings are large and well lighted and the aisles between the benches are 20 feet wide. The location is within good driving of a number of fine motels and the parking is ample for 6,000 cars. It proved a little too ample for me as I emerged from the show on Saturday night to find that I had forgotten where I had left my car. Forty minutes later some kind friends from Buffalo found it for me. Ample parking! □

THE COMPLETE IRISH WOLFHOUND — Third Edition — by Alma A. Starbuck. Published by Howell Book House. $9.95.

It is difficult to review a book about a breed so dear to the heart without introducing some personal remarks and feelings on the subject. When I first saw a picture of an I.W. back in my childhood, my one desire was to own one. Years went by but the hope was always there, and finally, one day, an I.W. came into our home and brought happiness for a few memorable years. Consequently this book has given me untold pleasure. So many of the related incidents and pictures bring back memories of happy times with our dear "Fella" — as big of heart as he was of body.

This is a book to please one and all. For I.W. owners and prospective owners there is a wealth of information on the origin, ancient history, and revival of the breed, which had become almost extinct in the 1800s. There are many pictures of outstanding dogs, past and present, and comments on the standard and characteristics of the breed. Also included are lists of breed wins, BIS winners, I.W.C.A. Specialty winners, and all A.K.C. Irish Wolfhound champions and obedience champions. The owner of a new pup will appreciate the chapter entitled "Just the Facts" which covers every phase of the I.W. from acquisition to maturity, stressing the importance of inoculations, feeding, exercise, etc. etc.

The second section of the book deals with the general care and training of all dogs. There are chapters on basic behavior and good manners, exhibiting of dogs, feeding, when to call the veterinarian, and a section on "instant" first aid. The chapter on breeding and whelping is most informative — even for those of us who are old hands at it. The last chapter is entitled "Care for The Old Dog". It should be required reading for all, lest we forget that as age comes, "the stairs get a little steeper, the breath shorter, the eye dimmer, and the hearing usually a little harder", and our pets require extra tender loving care.

This edition is heartily recommended just for the sheer joy of reading a well-written book in which love of the breed shines through on every page. Many anecdotes and stories are sprinkled throughout, some bringing a lump to the throat, and every so often there appears a delightful poem by a Mr. William J. Dammarell (obviously an I.W. lover and owner). These little gems, and the illustration, "The Empty Chair", alone make this a valuable addition to any dog lover's library.

THE COMPLETE GERMAN SHEPHERD DOG — by Bennett, Denlinger, Paramoure and Umlauph. Published by General Publishing — $7.50.

This book, as its name implies, comes as close to being "the complete German Shepherd Dog" as any I have come across to date. It is unique in many areas, and like a "best seller" difficult to put down until it is read from cover to cover. It has been well thought out and planned, and obviously the authors of Part 1 did much research on the breed in order to compile such a comprehensive work.

Without going into long, lengthy chapters on each subject, everything is covered adequately and intelligently, and one does not in any way become bored or lose interest by having to "wade" through immaterial data which would detract from the essentials.

The history of the breed contains a wealth of information and one can almost visualize the gradual changes in the German Shepherd Dog from a virtually nondescript animal to the beautiful, noble dog of today. The vast number of pictures are invaluable — to the "old-timer" who was breeding and showing German Shepherd Dogs in the era when many of the foundation "greats" appeared within the first two or three generations of his stock, these

AN APOLOGY

It has been suggested to us that a 'cartoon' printed in our September 1968 issue (Vol. 58 No. 12) of Dogs in Canada and which we accepted from a subscriber in the ordinary way as a paid advertisement, may have caused some to think that it conveyed an implied criticism of Mr. Horst Walt Keller of Alberta and a reflection upon the quality of the German Shepherd dogs at his Vom Lindeneck Kennels and which he has shown so successfully on different occasions.

We feel that we should assure our readers, as we do, that we had no intention of conveying such criticism or reflection and that it did not occur to us when we received the material for publication that it might, by innuendo or otherwise, contain a derogatory reference to Mr. Keller or, for that matter, to any identifiable person.

Mr. Keller's high reputation in the field and the excellent quality of his dogs are so well known that we are astonished that anybody should have made the suggestion referred to. However, if Mr. Keller has in any way been embarrassed by the cartoon in question we can only offer him our most sincere apology; and we can certainly assure our readers that there is every good reason to have the greatest confidence in him and in his fine quality German Shepherd dogs.

Countess Howe on Labrador Type

Geraldine Jenkins
Ridgegreen Kennels Reg'd.,
Gimli, Man.

Recently I read an article printed in the Midland Counties Labrador Retriever Club's Year Book 1967 (English) written by Lorna, Countess Howe. Although the article was first written in 1952, I feel it is as pertinent today as it was then and I have submitted the most appropriate parts:

Labrador Type
Preserve It Or The Breed Is Lost

"I think that there can be no breed of dog in which it is more important to adhere to true type than in the Labrador Retriever.

"Breeders should remember this and not get away from type by trying to breed a light, galloping racey dog. The Labrador was never intended for this. Too much can be sacrificed to speed.

"We do not want a dog of Greyhound type, but a dog that can stand up to hard days of work on land or in water — what one might term a heavyweight quality of hunter type.

"By heavyweight I do not mean a dog that is clumsy and cloddy — but a powerful, medium-sized dog, deep through the heart with short back, strong and powerful hind quarters with good reach of neck and clean shoulders, but not too narrow in the chest.

"The dog should have plenty of bone and stand four square on good legs and feet with good hocks. He should be a sound active and true mover.

"The head, expression, coat and tail are all most important features of the breed. The tail should be short and rounded very thick at the root. The coat should be very dense and weather resisting.

"As to the head, anyone who has seen a good Labrador head will not easily forget that kind, intelligent eye with such faithful expression. For this the dog needs a hazel-colored eye. The ears should be nicely placed and the skull wide. A wide skull does not mean a cheeky fleshy face.

"The whole bearing of a true Labrador is one of a dog of great dignity combined with a gentle sensitive nature. The Labrador is a charming companion, very docile and gentle with children and not quarrelsome with other dogs.

"He is naturally clean and is a most excellent house dog and a watchdog of great discrimination."

The article does go on about breeding in England during the war years and even earlier, as Countess Howe has been competing at trials for many years (the article states 33, but that was written in 1952).

Labradors Top Trial

Labrador Retrievers were not working in the field, but nevertheless had a field day in the recent limited trial for Novices held by the Queen City Tracking Associates. Both Highest Scoring Dogs in the "A" and "B" classes were Labradors, chalking up 196 and 194 under the handling of Mrs. Beverley Garrod of Willowdale, Ont., and Mr. Scott Powell of Claremont, Ont. Mrs. Garrod also took home Highest Scoring Dog in Trial Awards plus the Highest Scoring Labrador Trophy, donated by the Major. Mr. James Hyde along with Dr. Jekyll, another yellow Labrador, was Highest Scoring Member entered from the QCTA classes, with 193½, reports Grace E. Probert.

Winners of the Brace Competition held later in the evening were a black and yellow pair of Labradors handled by Mr. Powell with a score of 193. After the presentation of the almost extinct "Texas Longhorns" trophy, a champagne toast was led by Ed O'Brien.

Setter Sentences

Lynn Campbell
2239 - 4 Avenue N.W., Calgary, Alta.

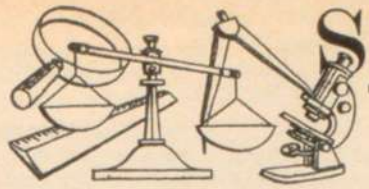
ENGLISH

The English Setter Booster I mentioned in the last column went off beautifully in spite of Joan Vance's misgivings. By eastern standards our number of entries was minute, but since we had the majority of the Laveracks from Alberta, as well as one each from Saskatchewan and British Columbia, we were all very pleased with the turnout. Another Booster was held two weeks later in Edmonton, but I didn't attend and don't have any news of it.

The English Setter population of Alberta is growing by leaps and bounds what with new litters and imports from other provinces and from the States.

Sheila Stotyn of Calgary is a newcomer to show Setters and had modest plans of obtaining just one. But in the way that Setters have, the whole thing snowballed and she managed to acquire two in as many weeks.

Another new dog came to us at Glenappin too. A sister to Sheila's Randy, Peri came from Washington but she's a great percentage of the Spruce breeding of Ontario's Joan Detmold. According to Joan, the line was first owned by Mr. Williams of Vancouver, then went to Washington and has now come back to Canada. If ever you needed proof that a dog can travel far and wide, taking your reputation with it, there it is.



STANDARDS QUIZ

Standards Quiz No. 87. Compiled by H. Malcolm Stephens. Object is to match the first set of numbers (which relate to various parts of the dog) with the second set of numbers (which describe that part of the dog). For example: 12-1 Teeth — strong. Scoring: 30-32 correct — you could be judging. 26-29 correct — you should start thinking about judging. 22-25 correct — good if you are in another breed. Less than 22 — you must be in another breed. Answers on page 33.

IRISH

Some bad news first, although it's tempered with good news too. Don Parsons, the student from Thunder Bay, Ont., who had both his Irish Setters stolen, still hasn't got them back. He writes that he is hopeful they will show up somewhere, but in the meantime he has Am. Ch. Draherin Echo's Guy to work with. Guy is owned by Sally Betts' Candia Kennels, with whom Don owned one of his lost dogs, and it says lots for Don's ability that she sent him another dog immediately.

Marie Tinlin had news of the first Sanction show held by her club in Ontario. They had a total entry of 250, with eight Irish. Marie's Multararin Marquis took the Breed, while her

continued overleaf

Meadowcroft's Wee Miss Colleen took WB and Best Canadian Puppy. Says Marie, "if you think I'm bragging, well I am." Apparently both dogs were taken to Kingston in January too, and repeated the placings, except that Missy got BCBP in Group, too.

GORDONS

The Marwin Kennel of Gale and Rae Nichols of Edmonton now boasts a Gordon Setter among their German Shepherds. A son of Int. Ch. Sporting Look and Fichtental's Black Princess, he's tentatively named Glenappin Argyll Marwin's Laird. Gale tells us he's now looking for a nice bitch puppy as they hope to raise Gordons in the future.

Had a fabulous letter from Marilyn Faulkner in Nova Scotia. In the midst of four pages of news about her Daxies and a recent Gordon litter, there was a gem of a description of how she and her son are working for an Obedience title and a Field title for their homebred Ch. Wurstchen's Brutus Ladd. Yes, Marilyn, I can see you tearing through all that dewey, soggy bush frantically brandishing a book on field training and trying to catch up to son Clifford and his enthusiastic if undisciplined hunting companion.

Cocker News

Liz Willis
Box 252, R.R. 1, Orleans, Ont.

Cocker people are once again making an appearance. The April OKC Sanction Match saw an increased number of Cockers once again. The BB went to Norma Donderwitz's black male Kobbytown's Comeback, while the ascob variety and BOS went to Dottie Willis' little silver girl Sarbonah Happy Are We; the parti variety going to Mike Pritchard's r/w boy, Nirvana Farm's Don Juan, with the b/t variety going to our Champel's One Too Many. In all there were six blacks, five buffs, three partis and three b/ts entered, a promising start to the new season. The Puppy in Breed award went to the Mountney's black male, "Rickey".

In the recent imports department, several breeders have contributed: the writer has a new silver buff puppy by Am. Ch. Kahola's Keybitzer, while Don Coy, a newcomer to the Cocker fancy, has a silver baby from Am. Ch. LaMar's London, purchased from Sarbonah Kennels and a half sister to the Willis' Sarbonah Happy Are We. Miss K. Balshaw has a new buff import purchased from the Pett Kennels and by Am. Ch. Pett's Gentleman Jim. We also hear that K. Hudson has several additions to her kennel.

From the East we hear that Hal Robinson and P. McCurdy have a new American import soon to be on the circuits. No news from the West this month at all. We do hear from several Americans that they are planning to take in the May circuit out Winnipeg way.

B.C. Cocker Spaniel News

Mrs. Barbara Garcia
Wagtime Cockers
Box 16, Pitt Meadows, B.C.

Mrs. Patricia Power of Willowbrook, Reg., Vancouver, is retiring her English import, Ch. Cochise Carioca from motherhood. This fine matron is dam of five Champions, three of which come from one litter. She is the grandmother of Ch. (Can. & Am.) Willowbrook's George Blue, owned by Mrs. P. Bennett of Vancouver.

Canadian wins across the border include that of Ranzfel Gentian Girl, owned by Miss Lyne, went WB and BOS, and her Ch. (Can. & Am.) Dunelm Blackwatch took BB at the Dog Fanciers Assoc. of Oregon, Portland, Ore., January 11. At the Seattle KC Show February 21, she finished her American title. BB was Ch. (Can. & Am.) Pagan Hill Flower Child, owned by B. McKinney, Redmond while Mrs. P. Bennett's Ch. (Can. & Am.) Willowbrook's George Blue took BOS.

Another great Sanction Match sponsored by The Vancouver Junior KC March 8 with 424 dogs entered! In the American Cocker class seven competed, with BB going to Bun-Al's Dainty Diane, an eight-month-old black bitch. "DD" went on to win the Sporting Group over a large entry. Her owners are Mr. and Mrs. A. Richardson of Haney, B.C.

The new executive for the B.C. Cocker Spaniel Club includes President, W. F. Whittall; Vice-President, Mrs. Eileen Miles; Secretary, Miss Joan Bennett and Treasurer, Mrs. Barbara Garcia.

English Cocker Spaniels

Jutta Wollweber
R.R. 2, Rockwood, Ont.

Obedience is fun for dog and handler and especially our English Cockers enjoy Obedience training as the greatest pleasure on earth — in working for and pleasing their masters. The basics for Obedience can be started casually in the course of the daily routine at a very early age.

Always call your puppy by name and tell him to "come" when giving him his food, before taking him out, etc. Also ask him to sit in front of you, before putting the bowl down, opening the door and such actions.

Even some tricks are beneficial. To "shake hands" is said to be good for shy dogs and catching a ball is exercise also for the eyesight.

Serious Obedience should not be started until after six to eight months of age and even then remember that our English Cocker is very sensitive and does not require or indeed respond to harsh corrections. If he makes mistakes it is always because he did not understand what was wanted from him. Praise is the best teacher for an English Cocker. According to my probably incomplete files, two English Cockers received their Obedience titles this year: Sue Rose's Roses Sherry Leonore and Betty White's Merrygold's Little Patch. There must be some EC's working on that elusive 3rd leg. So keep trying, Beth McKinney's Soho Speculation and Mrs. Wensel's Monaspen All-A-Star.

Canadian Springer Selected

Ch. (Can., Am. & Bda.) Oaktree's Lancashire Poacher (by Oaktree's Drunken Piper ex Salilyn's Kissin' Cousin) has been chosen by Dog World Magazine to represent the breed in the Breed Standards issue to be published in June. Owner is Anne E. Snelling, Ottawa. The issue is published every two years.

"For the past 18 years we have been showing and breeding Springers," writes Anne. "Our interest has been in the breed rather than breeding for fun and profit, keeping in mind a definite goal to produce a medium-sized sporting dog, sound in body and temperament, pleasing to the eye and owner. As everyone in the dog game knows, this 'ain't easy'. We have had some disappointments but we have more than made up for it over the years and have thoroughly enjoyed being owned by Springer Spaniels.

"We have made many friends in Canada and the United States and many people have done much to help us along the way. I would like to thank everyone, but space is limited, so I will just mention Mrs. F. H. Gasow of 'Salilyn' fame, whose advice and encouragement has been invaluable; one of dogdom's greats, her reputation as a breeder-sportsman speaks for itself. And to Horace S. Holland, professional handler, who showed 'Alfie' to his Canadian and American titles, and his daughter Carol. Last, but not least, to Mr. William J. Trainor, 'Handler of the Year' (Gaines Award) and his staff at Westford-Ho Kennels in Oxford, Mass." Bill handled 'Alfie' to his Bermuda title in three straight shows and now handles him exclusively.

HOUND GROUP

Sounding Out On Hounds

Ed. Dixon
100 Moberley Ave., Toronto 13, Ont.

It is obvious from the excellent response I have had in the realm of telephone calls and letters that this Hound column has been long overdue. It is hoped that your interest will continue and that you will send in news and of course the amount of space alloted for this column will be governed by the amount of advertising on hound breeds.

Our Hounds continue to take prominence at the early 1970 show. Two Best in Show wins out of the six Sportsmen's Shows were awarded to Hounds, one being won by Standard Wirehaired Dachshund Ch. (Can. & Am.) Westphal's Shillalah, owned by Peggy Westphal of Bedford, N.Y. and beautifully shown by Lorraine Heichel. As a breeder of Dachshunds, I would say that this dog rates as one of the best Dachshunds in the world today. What power this dog generates! The other Hound awarded top honors was a Scottish Deerhound — yes, you read me right. I believe this is the "first" for Scottish Deerhounds in Canada. Gayleward's Timber II is the name of this handsome fellow and he is owned and handled by pint-size Gayle Gerber of Clinton's Corners, N.Y., who, I am sure, is only half the weight of her dog. Gayle has been coming up to Canada for many years and, I am certain, many times was discouraged at having the only Deerhound entry. However, the quality of her breed finally paid off with top honors. This win will surely please Janet and Paul Buchanan of Elora, Ont. who are currently on a rampage to promote this breed in Canada.

AFGHAN HOUND

Congratulations to Bruce and Susan Ball of Gormley, Ont., who have recently finished their first homebred Afghan to her American championship title. Needing only one point to finish, Ch. Torrent of Rokeish went BB in an entry of 42, under Judge Gordon Parkham at Livonia, Mich. Torrent was handled by Mike Walker who seems to have the magic touch these days.

BASSET HOUND

Whoever says that a Basset Hound is the "lazy" member of our Hound family should think twice when they hear that at a recent "Walk for Millions" in Peterborough, Ch. Chantinghall Amethyst, age five, owned by Jim and Rosemary McKnight, Dunnville, Ont., walked the whole 28 miles nonstop. I never did really establish if Jim made the entire 28 miles or whether Amethyst finished on her own.

For those with Basset puppies needing practice, Rosemary will be judging the Annual Puppy Match of the Basset Club of Greater Detroit at Lake Orion, Mich., May 30. This is a whole day family affair with swimming, picnic barbeque etc. Puppies ranging from two to 12 months are invited to enter.

DACHSHUND NOTES

Congratulations to Mrs. Kieser of Heidenheim Dachshunds, Arva, Ont., for the nice wins sustained by her breeding at both the Dachshund Club of America Specialty Show and the Westminster Show. At one show WD and RW and at the other the wins were reversed. The dogs were both black and tan Standard Smooth, Heidenheim's Outward Bound and Timbar's Royale.

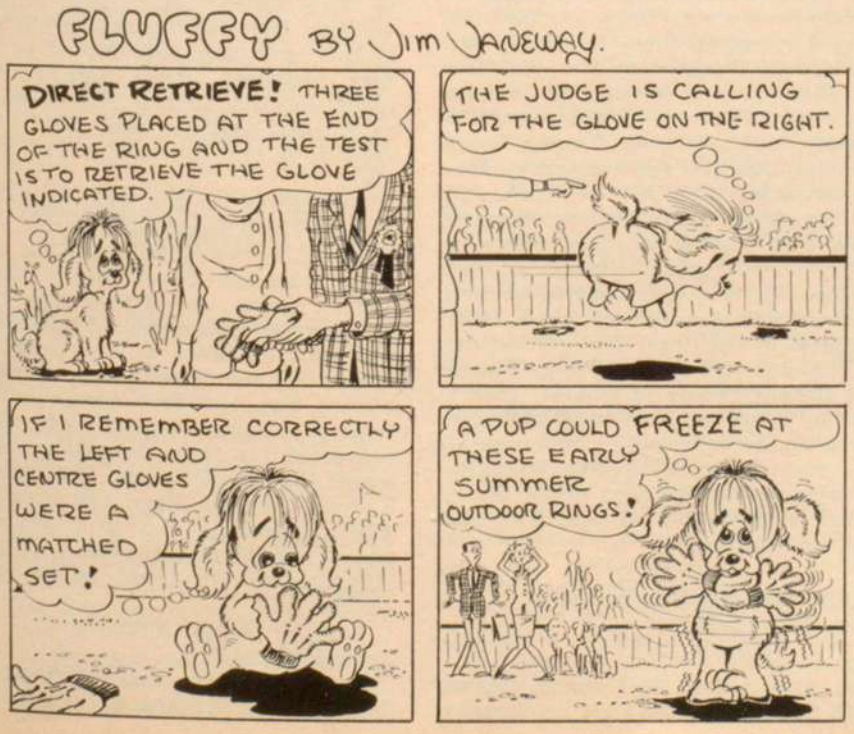
While on the subject of these two New York shows I would like to make a correction to Mr. Stephens' fine article on the Westminster affair. It was not my Miniature Wirehaired Dachshund bitch who took the points at the New York Specialty, but rather my Miniature Wire-haired Dachshund dog, Ch. Wilheen's Tagalong, I co-own with Judith Finch of Orchard Park, N.Y., who was awarded Winners Dog.

RHODESIAN RIDGEBACK

News of this breed is popping up all over the place and 1970 looks like a very interesting year show-wise with Booster Shows in Montreal and Vancouver and in Toronto and Ottawa in the Fall.

Mrs. Nona Walker of Ottawa (Geoni Kennels) has written to say because of the widely-spread membership of the Rhodesian Ridgeback Club of Canada it is almost impossible to hold meetings and so by ballot the members of this club have voted to use up existing funds for the purchase of a trophy to be called the "Kraal Trophy" in memory of the beloved late Dr. Hethrington, and would be presented each year to the top winning Rhodesian Ridgeback in the United States and presented at the annual meeting of the Rhodesian Ridgeback Club of America. However, the Rhodesian Ridgeback Club of Canada will still hold periodic Booster Shows to promote this fascinating breed.

I could go on for pages yet, but since space will not permit I will sign off for this month and hope I hear from you with interesting notes to pass on to other Hound fanciers across Canada. When news starts to run slow I have some very interesting "breed histories" to pass along to you.



WORKING GROUP

Canadian Belgian Repeats Win at American Specialty

The Belgian Sheepdog Club of America held its 1970 Specialty in conjunction with the Harrisburg KC on March 14. Judge Haskell Schuffman was presented with a record entry of 83 Groenendael, and from this entry he chose Ch. (Can. & Am.) A-Yacht's Conita as his BOS bitch. This win is a repeat of her win at the 1969 American Specialty and of her BOS win at the Belgian Sheepdog Club of Canada 1969 Specialty. Proud owners of this female are Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Stanbridge, Mi-sha-ook Kennels, Ancaster, Ont.

Also at the 1970 American Specialty, Can. Ch. Mi-sha-ook's Country Cousin, owned by Neil McPherson of Brantford, Ont., placed fourth in a very strong Open Male Class.

The American Specialty and annual meeting were marred by the sudden death of Freda Rowland of Roll in Belgian Kennels of Indiana. Freda was one of the long time devoted breeders of Belgians who was instrumental in the formation of the Belgian Sheepdog Club of America.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanbridge have a new Belgian Sheepdog import, Star de La Baraque de Planches, from the famous kennels of Mons. and Mme. Bottemanne of Escaussinnes, Belgium and is a son of Paf de la Thudinie who won Best Belgian Sheepdog (all varieties united) at the 1969 Paris show.

Mr. Stanbridge writes he was very impressed with the European Belgians he saw on his recent trip, and reports that they are a very popular breed in France. A number of future imports are being planned by Mi-sha-ook Kennels and other Canadian Belgian breeders.

Canadian Boxers Win at Alleghany Specialty

Ben de Boer
522 John St., R.R. 1, Thornhill, Ont.

On Good Friday our Ch. Scher-Khoun's Syncopation finished her American title at the Alleghany Boxer Club Specialty in Pittsburg, Pa. The Specialty show was held in the Ballroom of the Pittsburgh Hilton Hotel in conjunction with the Greater Pittsburgh Specialty Association. Several Specialty breed clubs such as the Great Dane, Doberman,

continued overleaf

Collie clubs, held their Specialty in the same place. The shows were held on the eve of the Western Penna. Kennel Assoc. all-breed show which had an entry of about 2,200 dogs.

The Boxer Specialty was judged by Mrs. Virginia Hampton, while the Puppy Sweepstakes, which preceded, was judged by Mrs. P. J. Pangano, co-owner of the well-known Boxer bitch, Ch. Arriba's Prima Donna, 1970 Westminster BIS winner.

We had entered in the sweepstakes Syncopation's son, Scher-Khoun's Meshack, who is sired by Ch. (Can. & Am.) Scher-Khoun's Shadrack, Canada's top winning Boxer for 1969. Meshack, at his first U.S. show at the age of seven and a half months, showed like a million dollars and promptly walked away with the Best Puppy Award (six to 12 months, both sexes). Mrs. Pangano was very impressed with him and predicted a great future for the youngster. He did very well in the Specialty show by winning his Junior Puppy class and then pulled the surprise of the day by being declared RW at the 4-pt. major show, defeating several excellent fully mature dogs, including the 1970 American Boxer Club Specialty BB winner.

Meshack's dam, Syncopation, fared even better by being declared W and BW for her fourth major win in the U.S.A., which finished her for her American Championship. She now joins her littermate, Ch. (Can. & Am.) Scher-Khoun's Shadrack, in becoming an international Champion. Except for one point win, Shadrack was handled by her breeder-owners, Shirley and Ben de Boer.

Other Canadian Boxer fanciers attending the Pittsburg shows were Mr. and Mrs. John Davidson with their homebreds Ch. Honeywood Bellringer and Honeywood Bittersweet, also owner-handled, showed very well by placing second in a large 12-18 months class in the sweepstakes and winning the Open Brindle Bitch class at the all-breed show.

The location of the Specialty show at the hotel was very convenient and pleasant. The clubs had arranged for several floors for the "doggy" people at convention rates. It was amazing how quiet it was during the night. The fact that the bar was several feet away from the rings certainly helped to make the show enjoyable. It gave the losers a chance to drown their sorrows and the winners a chance to celebrate. We certainly had lots of reason for the latter.

Boxer Club of Canada

John W. Davidson
R.R. 1, Alton, Ont.

On February 22 John and Audrey Davidson took their brindle bitch, Honeywood Bittersweet, to her first Sanction match, held by the Bullmastiff Fanciers of Canada. She provided Audrey with the best possible birthday present by going BIS. Bittersweet went second in Working Group the following Saturday at the Oakville & District KC Sanction show and third in Group the next day at the Dachshund Club of Canada Sanction show.

Another newcomer to Boxers is nine-year-old Lesley Carter who made her debut as a junior handler at the Sportsmen's Show. She won her class five out of six times and was Best Junior Handler in Show three out of the five shows and so qualifies for the Ontario finals in September.

Collie and Sheltie Notes

Mrs. Ariel Sleeth
R.R. 6, Kingston, Ont.

The show season, in Ontario, begins with the Sportsmen's Show in Toronto and very often it is at this "glamour" show the astute exhibitor can size up the competition for the coming year. There is usually the cream of the Canadian crop (in Ontario and Quebec) along with many worthy American Champions fresh from impressive wins in the U.S., looking for a one-stop Canadian Championship.

We were only able to attend the first weekend of the show because of three litters due the following week. The quality of the Collies being shown then was extremely high and the Canadian Collies more than held their own when confronted with American Champions in the classes and Specials class.

While all of this was going on, the Bearded Collie was making news as well, with the formation of The Bearded Collie Club of Canada. On March 15 the following officers were elected: President, Miss Carol Gold, Toronto; Vice-President, Mrs. Muriel Ratner, Montreal; Secretary, Mrs. Barbara Blake, R.R. 1, Waterdown, Ont.; Treasurer, Mrs. Alice Clark, Don Mills, Ont. The purpose of the club will be to protect the heritage of the Bearded Collie and to keep it as a working breed. Anyone interested in joining would be most welcome.

For the Sheltie fanciers, here is a very interesting thumbnail sketch on "Great Shelties" from the ASSA Bulletin:

Ch. Timberidge Temptation

Ch. Timberidge Temptation was born June 9, 1942, sired by Ch. Kalandar Prince o'Pages Hill out of Ch. Timberidge Temptress. Kalandar Prince was inbred on Ch. Mowgli being by him out of his daughter. Temptress was by Ch. Merrymaker of Pocono and was a double granddaughter of Ch. Peabody Pan. Temptress' pedigree shows a relationship to Mowgli's sire Ch. Wee Laird of Downfield through his daughter and through the fact that Pan's grandfather was a full brother to Wee Laird. Ch. Prince George o'Page's Hill was Temptation's litter brother and they both proved to be very prepotent. From Nate Levine comes the description of Prince George as a small dog, not over 13½" who excelled in eye, body and overall balance.

Temptation was used widely and was bred to 129 bitches that produced litters. Thirty-two of his offspring became American Champions, 13 dogs and 18 bitches; one of these also was a Canadian Champion. Temptation was Best of Breed at two National Specialties and Best Opposite Sex at a third, but apart from these specialties, was shown sparingly after he completed his title. Temptation was owned by Noralee and Timberidge Kennels, Eleanor Mann and Dorothy Allen Foster. He lived to a ripe old age of over 16 years, and had a distinct influence on the breed during his decade.

From Rutland, B.C.

Marion and Jim Kelly (Kelbonnie Collies) have imported a tri Smooth

Collie bitch, Darjoro's Onyn Oriole in whelp to Jancada Song Spinner. The Kellys had previously imported a male. Both are sired by top winning American Smooth for 1969, Ch. Black Hawk of Kasan.

From Thunder Bay, Ont.

Mrs. Dorothy Lappalainen (Cin-Jock Kennels) has had to part with her beloved Collies, to prepare for hospitalization and surgery. Her blue champion will return to Thunder Bay when this ordeal is over to help Dorothy along the road to recovery.

From St. Lazare de Vaudreuil, Que.

On "Cloud Nine" is Dorothy Gray after her terrific win at the Detroit Show. Ch. Brandwyne Cloud Nine won Winners Dog and now has nine points toward his American Championship.

The Doberman at the Sportsmen's Show

Pat Blenkey
58 Hatton Dr., Ancaster, Ont.

With the first show of the season now firmly under our belts, and the entry for the six days averaging out at 18 per show, this looks like a promising year for representation of our breed. Let's hope so anyway!

While many people (myself included) object to the long benching hours at the Sportsmen's Show, this is really a "shop window" for all breeds, but more particularly it gives us the opportunity to help stamp out that "untouchable" category in which the Doberman has been placed for so long. We are fortunate in having a number of enthusiastic Dobophiles who take the trouble to talk to the public, answering questions and even allowing their dogs to be handled. All this helps a great deal in educating the public and showing them the true Doberman character.

Most people were very pleased with the facilities in the Queen Elizabeth Bldg. Certainly the high ceilings combined with the natural light, gave it a feeling of spaciousness. The building was also much cleaner than the old quarters in the Coliseum. The only complaint I did hear was with regard to the size of our ring for the sixth show. This was so small that it was impossible for the judge to adequately assess movement. However, all in all, our congratulations should go to the Committee of the Sportsmen's on such a well run show.

The Metropolitan Great Dane Club

Helen Watling, Secretary
R.R. 2, Stouffville, Ont.

Another Sportsmen's Show has passed, perhaps with the largest entry ever. Certainly it was the most successful for the Metropolitan Great Dane Club.

The entries in Great Danes has climbed steadily since inception of this club from 12 to a total of 57 this year, making this the largest Great Dane entry in Canada in some 20 years.

Last year our club enjoyed a total entry of 48 Danes; in October of the same year our sister club pulled an entry of 48 Danes. These figures are encouraging to those of us who have long supported and upheld the entries of Great Danes down through the years. It is our sincere wish to see an even larger entry at the fall show held by our sister club.

Our entry was helped by several entries from our sister club and by our fellow breeders from the U.S. We thank each of these kind people for their support and fervently hope others will follow their example in the years to come.

This year was something of a record for puppies, as the BD and BOB bitch came up from the puppy classes to capture the points, over some mighty nice competition. Both winners were American bred and owned. The BOB puppy gave her owner a double thrill as it was not only a very nice win her first time out, but she was bred by her owner out of her very first litter.

Congratulations to these very nice people; "may you go on to win many more times". With the exception of and thunderous applause testified to the attitude of the other Dane owners one or two exhibitors the happy faces regarding this win.

All in all, the Booster was a great success and the overall sportsmanship displayed by the exhibitors was a contributing factor, so on this happy note we look forward to our summer "fun" match and invite one and all to participate. More on this later.

Don't forget the October Specialty held by our sister club. Get out and work your Danes and let's all get behind this effort to once again present our breed to the public in the highest possible numbers and best possible condition.

Great Dane Club of Canada

Sheilah Fletch, DVM
Oakville, Ont.

It has been a fair while since I've had time to report due to business commitments. Summarizing the club's activities in the past four or five months: In October we held a most successful Specialty at Greenwood with a record entry of Danes in Canada. Great credit goes to our Show Chairman, Mrs. Vera Campbell of Countydane Kennels.

In November we held our annual elections. President is Doug Cowie; Vice-President, Chuck Diamond; Treasurer, Mrs. Campbell; Secretary, Mrs. Eli Diamond. Board of Directors: Past President William Jeynes, Joe Lacey, Ian Stewart, Art McKeown. Show Chairman, Sheilah Fletch; Show Secretary, Mrs. Jill Flavell; Trophy Chairman, Mrs. Joan Lacey.

The annual Christmas party was a great success and despite the illness of several members the turnout was good and again much of the credit goes to Mrs. Campbell.

The club now has a lovely gold and blue pin, available to members only.

Preparations have now begun for the 1970 Specialty Show to be held on the Saturday of the Greenwood Show. For information readers may write Show Secretary Mrs. J. Flavell, R.R. 1, Arriss, Ont.

Newfoundland Notes

Beth Sellars
410 Keewatin Ave., Toronto 12, Ont.

The number of show-worthy Newfoundland dogs is constantly on the increase. Proof positive is this year's Newfoundland Club of Canada Booster, held at the Sportsmen's Show; 48 magnificent Newfs lapped up the attention bestowed upon them by countless admirers.

Owners compared notes and chatted together at the Hospitality Corner which was considered a great success in reviving exhausted showgoers. Exhibitors came from as far as Truro, N.S.

Success, however, didn't stop with the conformation ring. Some owners are getting in there and showing what the great lumbering Newf is capable of in the Obedience ring. Shipways Avalon Holly took top honors with a score of 194.6. Dona E. Carr of Michigan, we applaud you for a tremendous dog, and all the fun and work you must have with her. Other Newf participants were: L'Anse Amour's Geric, owned by Ron Pemberton; Shipway's Amarantha owned by Elizabeth Gabhart; Flower's Charlotte owned by Arthur Gabhart; Kimtale's Sir Basil owned by Donald Moore; and Schooner's Lady Margaret owned by Earle Cox. Congratulations to all!

A Tribute to Ch. Snowland Ziska's Buck

Lorna Jackson

The King is dead!
Long live the King
But who with great renown
Can now step up
And rightfully wear
The acclaimed monarch's crown?
Noble was he
Of elegance born
So gentle, proud and free.
His easy grace,
Majestic form,
A wonderous sight to see.
His gleaming coat
Celestial white
With smile we knew so well.
His loving eyes,
Mischievous bright,
Dancing with plain hell!
He lived as he died
In dignity
Loved, cherished and admired,
He just slipped away in the twilight;
He was old and very tired.
The King is dead!
Long live the King!
His image will remain
And in the great celestial space,
Long May His Highness Reign!
— His friend, his admirer, his handler.

Pembroke Welsh Corgi Association (Canada)

Gwen Locke
340 Metcalfe Ave., Montreal 215, Que.

J. E. J. Parkinson of England has accepted an invitation to judge the third annual Specialty of the Pembroke Welsh Corgi Association, scheduled for August 1970. The announcement was made at the February general meeting of the PWCA held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Huggins in West Vancouver, B.C. It was also annuonced that Tim Timmins will be Show Chairman of the Specialty.

New members, elected unanimously by the Association, are: Mrs. Noel Haas, Victoria, B.C.; Mrs. Evelyn Jones Powell, Edmonton, Alta.; and Mrs. Michael Power, Winnipeg. Additional applications are being circulated to the full membership before acceptance.

Lt. Col. Lowell R. Jameson has accepted Honorary Membership in the Association.

Sheilah Roberts was asked to arrange a Corgi Gymnkhana on Vancouver Island at some date during the summer.

In a discussion initiated by President Margaret Antenbring, it was decided to add the word (Canada) in brackets following the official designation "Pembroke Welsh Corgi Association" in order that the nature and locale of the organization may be more readily identified outside the country. Ballots were mailed to members to vote on this proposal.

TERRIER GROUP

Let's Talk About Terriers

Barbara G. Pirrie
58 Wolfrey Ave., Toronto 6, Ont.

Spring has sprung, the grass has riz and "ain't" it wonderful! They should abolish winters.

On to the news and first to Cairns. Betty Hyslop has done it again — at the Cairn Specialty in Chicago she took BB with her Ch. Cairndania's Brigrey's Berry Red over an entry of 129 and at the International she took BOS.

The McFarlanes also came back with some very, very nice news. At the Specialty, with 112 puppies competing, their Badenoch's Fersil's Coleen was 2nd in the six-nine months Stud Dog Stakes; third in the six-nine months Brood Bitch Stakes and Best Bitch Puppy in the six-nine months category. At the International show this little bitch was again second in the six to 12 months old class.

Still on Cairns and a note from Margaret McClory, Cairngorlynn Reg'd. They have just purchased a lovely little bitch from Mrs. Hilda Barton of Calgary — unfortunately Marg omitted her name, but it sounds as if she's one to watch for. At the St. Catharines Match she took Best in Match, while at the Hamilton Match she took the Group. All good luck Margaret, maybe this is the one for BIS!

I've just heard more good news from Chicago — Casey Gardiner's young bitch, Kerrycroft's Renegade Kathleen, took RWB. If I remember correctly from the Sportsmen's Show, this bitch is barely out of the puppy class.

On now to two amusing Schnauzer tales. One from Joan Morden about a little guy she sold to a minister here in Toronto some time ago, who now literally has the run of the church. His name — Tannenbaum's Fast Company! This is one tale I just have to follow up on one of these days! It reminds me of the time we sold a Welshman to a Mormon bishop in Salt Lake City. As you may or may not know, all our dogs are registered in liquor names. In this case they requested that we call the dog Strictly Seven-Up. cont'd. on page 32

STANDARDS QUIZ

Standards Quiz No. 88. Compiled by H. Malcolm Stephens. Object is to match the first set of numbers (which relate to various parts of the dog) with the second set of numbers (which describe that part of the dog). For example: 12-1 Bite — scissors. Scoring: 29-31 correct — you could be judging. 26-28 correct — you should start thinking about judging. 22-25 correct — good if you are in another breed. Less than 22 — you must be in another breed. Answers on page 19.

HEIDENHEIM

DACHSHUNDS & TOY POODLES

DACHSHUNDS

We thought we had retired in 1962, but our dogs decided otherwise! From our winners of the early 60's, CH. (CAN. & AM.) CALYPSO and CH. ZACHARY OF GERA, CH's HEIDENHEIM'S MELITA, PRELUDE and TEMPTATION (twice Best Puppy in Show), only CH. HEIDENHEIM'S BLACK FALCON (Top winning Dachshund in 1961) and CH. HEIDENHEIM'S ADAGIO (BEST IN SHOW Dachshund Specialty 1961) are still with us. But their descendants still show their quality:

We are very proud of:

HEIDENHEIM'S OUTWARD BOUND (Owner, Mrs. Janet Koltun of Columbia, S.C.) who with many wins behind him as a puppy and at the age of 13 months was WINNERS DOG at the All Breed show at Westminster this year. His Sire: CH. HEIDENHEIM'S BLACK FALCON, his Dam: CH. TIMBAR'S LOVERS LANE.

TIMBAR'S ROYALE (Owner Mrs. Jane Thomas of Columbia, S.C.) now a Champion (subject to A.K.C. confirmation), grandson of HEIDENHEIM'S MAESTRO. Royale was Best of Winners at the Dachshund Specialty at Westminster.

We are delighted with three beautiful additions to our Dachshunds and sincerely thank Mrs. Janet Koltun of TIMBAR KENNELS for parting with such outstanding dogs raised with such care and also for showing Marjoram so expertly for us.

AM. CH. TIMBAR'S MARJORAM Sire: AM. CH. DUNKELDORF FALCON'S FAVORITE (top producing sire of 1967 and 1968 in U.S.A.) Dam: TIMBAR'S MAJOR BARBARA (top producing female in 1967 in U.S.A.) Margie proved her quality in the States many times going over Specials from the classes.

CAN. CH. TIMBAR'S LOVER'S LANE Sire: AM. CH. DUNKELDORF'S JAGERLUST, Dam: AM. CH. TIMBAR'S GLORY TRAIN. Lover finished in her first four shows in Canada.

TIMBAR'S SAGE Sire: AM. CH. DUNKELDORF FALCON'S FAVORITE, Dam: TIMBAR'S MAJOR BARBARA. Sage has produced some outstanding show puppies in the States and now he has his first litters in Canada.

We offer FALCON (to approved females only) and SAGE at stud. Falcon is Black & Tan, Sage is Red. Pedigrees sent on request.

We are also offering for sale, preferably to show homes

1) One black and tan Male and Female from AM. CH. TIMBAR'S MARJORAM by AM. CH. TIMBAR'S ROYALE.
2) One black and tan Male from HEIDENHEIM'S MADRIGAL (daughter of CH. ADAGIO — B.I.S. Dachs. Specialty 1961) and TIMBAR'S SAGE.
3) HEIDENHEIM'S NOCTURNE, black and tan son of HEIDENHEIM'S MAESTRO and HEIDENHEIM'S HELGA (daughter of CH. (CAN. & AM.) CALYPSO OF GERA, ready to show this season.

TOY POODLES

We are indeed indebted to Mr. & Mrs. Walter and Elinore Wastell of Victoria, B.C., who have given us a wonderful start with a charming little family of truly beautiful quality Toy Poodles.

SILVER SLIPPERS OF SASSAFRAS — 9 inches, Sire: SILVER SWAN OF SASSAFRAS, granddaughter of CH. SILVER SPARKLE OF SASSAFRAS. "Jinks" is personality plus with a strong coat and beautiful head.

JETSET'S LITTLE REBEL her son and whose sire is AM. CH. SILVER SPARKLE OF SASSAFRAS. This is an outstanding silver, 9 inches, short backed with a beautiful head, who will start his show career this season.

LAURA'S SANDY LADY Sire: AM. CH. LAURA'S MR. SAN D MAN, Dam: LAURA'S SILVER QUEEN. Sandy is 8 inches, adorable and a real quality silver beige.

"Skip" (LITTLE REBEL) and "Sandy" have their first family, a silver boy and a silver-beige girl, who truly reflect the great breeding behind them. We hope they will start showing before the end of the year.

This is a new venture for us and we lean heavily on Mrs. Wastell for guidance and help which she most generously gives. We would like to thank both of them for their kindness and for so graciously giving us the benefit of their vast knowledge and experience.

Now for my other Schnauzer tale from Becky Hawley of Winnipeg. This story deals with a seven-month-old puppy owned by Mr. and Mrs. Peter McArthur, Rosehill Typesetter, better known as "Inky". One day last week Mrs. McArthur, along with her children, went out leaving the puppy alone in the house. When she arrived home several hours later she found the bedside telephone dangling beside the bed and concluded that one of her children must have taken it off the hook before they all went out. She replaced it in its cradle and shortly afterwards a neighbor rang them saying, "You know, the strangest thing happened. I phoned earlier, the phone rang three or four times and then was lifted off the hook. I heard a little disturbance and then Woof, Woof. I guess Inky just wanted to let everyone know that things were fine." Now I tell you, that's some answering service!

Next to a card from the Barlows, sent from Graz, Austria, telling of Robbie of Balmoral's latest awards, not all of which I quite understand, to be honest. Robbie, by the way, for those who haven't been following his career in Europe, is a Scottie. At the Graz show he took the Gold Ribbon: International Champion and CACIB — BB and BW; the Silver Ribbon: CAC der OHU (Austrian National Champion); the Green and White Ribbon with Medallion for Best of Graz and a 'Vorzuglich' or 'Excellent' rating. As you can imagine the Barlows were more than a little pleased. Mind you, I'll be just as pleased when they decide to return to Canada. Some of those European titles are murder!

Back to Chicago again and a lovely win for Can. Ch. Windemere Gay Gordon, co-owned by Dorothea Daniell-Jenkins and her daughter, Mary Balsdon. He took BW for a 5-pt. major and let me tell you these aren't easy to come by in any breed and especially tough in Westies. Congratulations to both Dorothea and Mary!

BIS at Chicago went to the Lakeland, Ch. Special Edition; Second in Group, the Skye, Ch. Glamoor Go Go Go; Third in Group, the Westie, Ch. De Go Hubert; Fourth in Group, the Scottie, Ch. Marloraine De Limma of Barbury.

Now I'm in a real spot. I'm so used to not getting news from the Norwich people that when I do, I forget about it. Please forgive me, Mrs. Carter. I should be shot, it's such a delightful letter. "You don't often hear from the Norwich Department, but a little news is better than none." (to that I say Amen). "As you may know the Best Terrier at Cruft's was a Norwich, but his kennel name to date has still remained a mystery to me, but perhaps your grapevine is better than mine!" (I'm afraid it isn't Mrs. Carter, but if anyone else has heard, do let us in on it.) "Our two females took a trip to Connecticut, hoping for a female puppy, but no luck. One begins to believe that it's easier to buy a good one than breed one. However our 'Mrs. Tandy' was very cooperative and helped mother two little Chihuahuas whose mother died after a Caesarian section. Ironically, even they were boys, but both are doing nicely." Just hang on Evelyn, I'm sure from what I've seen of your dogs that that "perfect" little bitch puppy is going to come along one of these days. To continue with your letter, commenting on the Norwich Newsletter (English that is). "The announcer on the loudspeaker at the Birmingham Show asked for all the Braces to come to the main ring. At ringside a woman was overheard to comment, "But I always thought that was what men used to keep up their trousers."

I had great fun going through the 1937 CKC Stud Book — thanks to my dear George McGinnes who seems to have the market cornered in rare dog books. This certainly gives you an idea of the trend that Terriers have taken up until the latest edition I have of the Stud Book, which is the 1965 edition. Airedales have not changed a great deal, much as you hear constantly that they were terribly popular when I was a "child", but we never see them anymore. In '37 there were 164 registered, in '65 there were 184 registered. That kind of gets rid of a myth right here and now. But how many times when I'm walking the Welsh do I have people rush up to me and say, "Oh, isn't that a lovely Airedale puppy, you just don't see them anymore." Bedlingtons had one lone registration in 1937, in '65 they had 18. Black and Tan Terriers? — 13 (what do you suppose happened to them?). Bull Terriers showed a slight decrease, 38 in '37, 29 in '65. Cairns have almost doubled — 135 in '37 to 278 in '65. By the way, Cairndania was going strong in those days as well! Dandies have also doubled their registration. Fox Terriers, I take it, were all lumped together in those days — in 1937 there were approximately 925, in '65 approximately 730. This is a good spot to mention that all these figures are approximate. Irish Terriers have also seen a big change — in '37 they registered 150, while in '65 there were only 50 Irish registered. Kerries have gone vice-versa — 40 in '37, 110 in '65. And to switch back once again Lakelands have gone down from 13 to five. Scotties have had about the largest decline, 880 registered in '37 — 410 in '65, although the Sealies have suffered just about as much: 112 in '37 — 30 in '65. Skyes have reversed the pendulum once again — with one registration in '37 to 40 in '65 and I'm awfully pleased to say that this applies to Welsh as well, with four registered in '37 and 56 in '65. Westies have just shot up in the past few years with 53 in '37 and 325 in '65. Speaking of shooting up, one breed that I missed entirely in the '37 edition because there was only one registration has now built up to 300. This is the Miniature Schnauzer. That must have been one terribly determined breeder! Sorry that my facts aren't more up to date, but it was still fun comparing.

* A nicely marked tri-colour brood bitch, lovely overall appearance, sound, natural ears, carries a heavy shiny coat. This is a very special bitch for the serious breeder. Whelped in June 1965, she is a granddau. and great granddau. of Storm Cloud. She is the dam of two champions and others with points. Should be a tremendous start for the serious beginner.

What do you suppose changes the public's mind from year to year as to the desirability of certain breeds?

Seeing as this seems to be a month for Doggie Tales, could I tell you one of mine? This happened last fall when Ross and I were invited to a friend's country home. The home in question also happens to be the happy abode of one of our puppies. The invitation also included our little girl, Sandy and a couple of Welshmen for a good country outing. So off we set with Sandy, a four-month-old puppy, Judy, and "Doc" — Ch. Wil-Wag's Cinzano, who was entered the following weekend at the Welsh Specialty in Montgomery. After a lovely afternoon of "Dog Talk" we all decided to set off on a hike to see the farm. Now, let me backtrack just a moment and say that these friends have about 25 acres which they lease out to a local resident to graze his beef cattle on — some 25 or 30 of them. Well, we set off with the three Welsh, all off lead. All of a sudden Doccie and Susie (the resident dog) disappeared. At this stage of the game Sandy, Ross and I, our host and Judy (the puppy) were half way up a very large hill when we heard a rather strange thundering sound. Would you believe it, from nowhere around this blasted hill came the whole herd of cattle at a full gallop heading straight for us, with the two Welsh in hot pursuit. At this point the situation got really ludicrous with dialogue straight out of a Grade B movie when Ross shouted, "The Cattle Are Coming, Grab Sandy and the Puppy and HEAD FOR THE TREES." So help me, if it hadn't been so serious I'm sure I would have broken up on the spot. As it was, Ross grabbed Sandy, I grabbed the puppy and with our most clearly agitated host we all headed for the trees. As the cattle went by full blast, Susie had the sense to come back when she was called, but not good old Doc — he'd never had so much fun in his life. When we finally caught up with him he had deposited all the cattle in a swamp and so help me he was the dirtiest, the most exhausted and the happiest little dog I've ever run in to.

How those dogs got the cattle going I have no idea. There was absolutely no barking. Except for the speed they had them travelling both were doing a marvellous job of herding. Just thank heavens that they weren't dairy cattle or there would have been a few milk shakes around that evening.

TOY GROUP

Cavalier King Charles Spaniel

Mrs. Poppy P. Steel
5140 Hurontario St.,
R.R. 6, Brampton, Ont.

I have been asked what is the correct weight for the Cavalier. For the benefit of those who are owning and showing, I think the breed Standard must seem quite confusing.

The American Standard states ten-18 lbs., the new English Standard 12-18 lbs. A cup is given for the adult Cavalier of 15 lbs. at the club matches.

It can be very frustrating showing a dog at ten or 12 lbs. Perhaps the dog is two years old, showing against a dog of 18-24 lbs., of which there are many, the larger looking flashy and quite often take the winning ribbon. It mustn't be forgotten that this is a toy breed and the large, coarse dog, however distinguished he may look, should be discouraged by the judges. Breeders have been known to keep all sizes and show the size they think the judge will like on the dog. This is hardly standardizing the breed.

Again it is asked, what is the correct head? The nose length is the main confusing point, which can make a head look quite different.

The Standard states at least 1½" shallow stop. Often one will find a dog with nose 1½" has a deeper stop than one with a two-inch nose which is also the nose likely to have the perfect mouth.

From my own experience and those of other breeders, a Cavalier has fairly heavy bone and even a fairly small dog can weigh 15 lbs. Cavaliers, therefore, must not look like a Welsh Springer Spaniel. A puppy around eight-12 months weighing roughly 13-15 lbs., will most likely be the correct size at maturity; one weighing 18 lbs. at the same age, looking quite mature, will often end up by being the coarse, oversized adult.

Pom Import

Mrs. J. Charlesworth
Linden House, 2530 Cousineau Rd.,
R.R. 1, Windsor, Ont.

"Daturrah" has spread its wings and imported a tiny Pomeranian. Yes, she flew into Windsor Airport, a four-lb. orange sable female of 100% pure "Preservenes" of England breeding.

Perhaps you will know from your records that in the 1890's Mrs. Morton started the strain, followed by her daughter, Mrs. Gilbert, who established and registered the world-famous Preservenes kennel in the 1920's and now Mrs. Shrewsbury (daughter third generation) owns the kennel. My final choice news is that the Pom is imported in whelp to a top-winning BOB and BIS British Pom.

Pug Imports

Breeders and exhibitors of Pugs for 11 years, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Cross have added "Timmy" and "Twiggy", two jet black Pugs to their Anna-Vale Kennels, Middleton, N.S. The pair were selected and shipped by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green, England, owners of Harloo Kennels. The Greens have bred and exhibited Pugs for 35 years and both are judges licensed in the Kennel Club of England. The Anna-Vale prefix can be found in kennels from coast to coast. Timmy's full name is Kayemoh Fijian Boy and Twiggy is Harloo's Black Queen.

Chow Chow Fanciers of Canada

Joey Nattrass
60 Beechgrove Dr., West Hill, Ont.

News from U.S.A. is that Mr. and Mrs. Ellwanger, N.Y. have imported a black English male. We look forward to seeing the Ellwangers and their new addition at Canadian shows this year.

Barbara Stephen (Wu Fu Chows) recently returned from Iran, was interviewed on the Betty Kennedy Show (CFRB Toronto). Nice to have you back, Barbara. Incidentally, Barbara is Associate Curator of the Far Eastern Department of the Royal Ontario Museum.

We hear rumors that on the continent colors in our breed will not be allowed to interbreed and will have separate CC's in each color at shows. Further information will be given when more accurate reports are received. Some points to ponder on this subject; would this lead to cheap champions in divided colors? What would happen to pigmentation in fawns and creams if it were only permissible to be mated to their own color? How would we on the North American continent be affected with imports if such a ruling became effective? Don't panic — these are merely points to ponder.

March 28 saw the Chow Chow Fanciers of Canada celebrate their Tenth Annual Awards Presentation.

A gala evening from arriving until departure at 4 Neville Park Blvd., Toronto. The club is greatly indebted to Joan and Herb Williams for once again opening their home to us — a perfect setting for awards night. Another club member who worked hard not only that evening but many days before was Helen Ascroft who organized the buffet dinner. What a meal! Helen — you and the ladies of the club deserve a hearty vote of thanks. The traditional awards cake this year came complete with a Chow — in icing, not live. The magnificent array of trophies beautifully displayed on cloth of gold and blue by Herb dominated the room. A real breath of spring was brought to a wintry Toronto evening by a floral bouquet in the club colors sent with good wishes by the Days of Vancouver, B.C. Your flowers gave the trophy table that final touch of elegance, Betty and Reg, many thanks. To Madge Wiesman also of B.C., we owe thanks for the cake. It is most gratifying and appreciated to see our Western members participating in club affairs. Through the generosity of a florist friend of Fred Peddie's each lady was presented with a corsage in club colors. Name tags depicting a Chow head made it easy for the 62 guests to become acquainted. Bill Ascroft had the master hand behind this contribution to the evening. As everyone knows, this is the Chinese Lunar Year of The Dog. This theme was interwoven into the evening by making it the "Year of the Chow" with enlarged photographs of the Chow head used on the stamp issued by Hong Kong. We are indeed most grateful to Herb for this stroke of genius. Everyone worked hard to make the Tenth Annual Awards night the most successful and spectacular in the history of the club.

With the aid of Tom Adams, Stan Whitmore, Mrs. Edna Joel, Ed Dixon, Mrs. D. Daniell-Jenkins and Tom Joel the following awards were made: Top Winning Chow to Ch. Mi-Pao's Oetara; Sire and Dam Awards went to Oetara's sire and dam, Ch. Chang-Shi Hong Kwong and I'Ming van de Tonglereep respectively. Breeder of the Year, the breeder of the winning Chow, P. Odenkirchen. Puppy of the Year to Ch. Foo H'Sing's Mister Lin-Wu. Winning Bitch was a tie for the first time in the history of the Awards between Empress Ai Chu Chi, and Ch. Van Rhoeden's Kan-Dy. The President's Trophy was awarded for 1969 to Ch. Minhow Miss Sadie Wu for her outstanding contribution to the breed. Wherever "Chow Haven" may be we all hope, "Gem", you heard the standing ovation with which this announcement was greeted. A truly great tribute to a great Chow.

Rouge (Danny Boy's daughter out of Am. & Can. Ch. Forest Glen Hannipeg), featured on our 1969 cover, followed the example of her parents, both of whom were Group winners from the Classes, by winning the Group at the United KC show in Montreal, then retired to raise her third litter and last fall completed both titles with points to spare.

During the summer Ch. Genhoo Brilliance of the Rouge and her grand-dam Ch. Wigtown Nightingale (by Hannibal out of Am. Ch. Wigtown Careless) both completed their titles in short order, with points to spare, 'Gale' also taking a Group placing at London, Ont., while Ch. Jinty of the Rouge (Macmor's McDougal ex Ch. Vigil of the Rouge), finished her title, handled by our kennel manager Sandy Briggs, and is now nursing a large and very promising litter sired by our grand old Ch. (Am. & Can.) Shipmates Hannibal. We announced his retirement last year but (happily) later changed our minds! We plan to keep at least one puppy from the litter, since it is fifth-generation Rouge-bred over a period of 18 years. Ch. (Am. & Can.) Vancot's Rouge Remembrance (Am. & Can. Ch. Rannoch-Dune Down Beat ex Am. Ch. Natalie of the Rouge) complemented her 1969 BOS win at the WHWTCA Specialty by also taking BOS at the Canadian WHWTC Specialty. She will be bred again this summer.

Rouge-breds owned by other people have also done well. The Libermans' Ch. Macdan Emblem of the Rouge (a Danny Boy son out of Ch. Mac-a-Dac Rouge Remembrance) and his son Ch. Dancer's Eminence of the Rouge (out of Am. & Can. Ch. Dancing Hannah of the Rouge), owned by the Lorne Gignacs, both completed their titles, the latter handled throughout by 12-year old Laurie Gignac, and his wins included twice BCB Puppy in Group and RW on a 4-point bench (14 dogs) at Montgomery County in the U.S.A. The Gignac's Mandan Denisette of the Rouge (a Danny Boy daughter out of Wigtown Mandy) took BCB Puppy in Group at the second Sportsmen's Show this year, while Mrs. Sherman's Gales Robin of the Rouge (Wigtown Robin ex Ch. Wigtown Nightingale) was BCB Puppy in Show at the first and second CNE Shows in 1969, and BCB Puppy in Breed at the CWHWTC Specialty.

The Shewans' Gem's Happyhart of the Rouge (Am. Ch. Wigtown Happy Morgan ex Ch. Gemhoo Brilliance of the Rouge) took BCB Puppy in Group at two Maritime shows and gained nine points towards her title. Mrs. Cook's Ch. Hoosier Lass of the Rouge (by Hannibal out of Am. & Can. Ch. Cooper's Annie Laurie) again won a Group at St. John's, Nfld., while her 6-year-old Ch. Joshua of the Rouge (Am. Ch. Rachelwood Rivet ex Ch. Vigil of the Rouge) won the Group twice and placed BCB in Show three times. Dr. Forbes' Spidem Sandman of the Rouge C.D. (Ch. Shipmates Demosthenes ex Ch. Spirit of the Rouge) completed his Obedience title and is now working on his CDX.

We continue to breed for quality and temperament. Our puppy room is in the house, and all adult dogs take turns living in the house, so they can truly be companions as well as taking their part in our show and breeding program.

The kennels are situated on Hwy. 2, one mile east of the Sheppard Ave. Cloverleaf (Interchanges 62 and 63 of Hwy. 401), and 17 miles east of downtown Toronto. Visitors are welcome. Tel.: 416 - 282-7934. (Cover photo by Bob Dorsey).

a Trial never bothers me; because I enjoy judging very much — but this one was a little different. It was a real thrill seeing the performances of the top dogs who had made the tournament — they were really extra special!

The winner was Marjorie A. Robinson of N. Quincy, Mass., with her top working Miniature Poodle, White Crest Diamond Buff, U.D., who compiled a combined Utility and Open Score of 396½ out of a possible 400.

Incidentally, my room partner had a sign tacked outside of our door with the letters C.L.J.A. written on it, which I eventually found out meant "Clean Living Judges Association"! Try as I may, after that perfumed slip episode there was no way I was able to squeeze an application from him to permit me to join this most exclusive Association. □ into something more serious and become a disqualification, blowing your entry fee on the first test.

The subject of hip dysplasia has been kicked around and around by both field trialers and by breeders and it seems inevitable that there will be disagreements on whether or not to campaign a dysplastic dog in field trials if he shows promise. Both the Niagara Peninsula Retriever Training Club and the Labrador Owners Clubs have had educational meetings at which Dr. Downey of the Ontario Veterinary College has been the guest speaker talking about hip displasia. Dr. Downey talks with a great deal of knowledge and interest having worked in the U.S.A. with both seeing eye dogs and retrievers in which the hip dysplasia problem has been studied. If more clubs would invite knowledgeable speakers, the hereditary problems would become better known and perhaps drastically reduced. □

photos will have tremendous meaning; and to the comparative newcomer the information regarding the influence these dogs have had on the improvement of the breed should be of intense interest.

The explanation of German titles and terms is highly informative as so often they appear on a pedigree and few have any idea of their meaning. I particularly liked Chapter 7 (Blueprint of the German Shepherd Dog) which fully explained the Standard in terms which a novice can understand and the "old-timer" will appreciate.

Possibly the section on gait might have been more detailed, since this is of such extreme importance in the German Shepherd Dog, and a fuller explanation for the reasons behind faulty gait would have been most revealing. Part II (Training, Care, Feeding, Breeding, Medical) gave much useful information, but I did feel that it could have been more up to date in keeping with Part I. However, the things with which I was not in accord personally were few, and this edition of The Complete German Shepherd Dog is much superior to any former edition.

This book should be a "must" and would be an asset in the library of any fancier of the breed.

DOGS & PEOPLE

■ Dogs in the news: Specially trained avalanche dogs are in demand as perhaps never before in the unusual number of death-dealing avalanches in the European Alps in recent months.

Doyle Klyn of Weekend Magazine reports a Vancouver couple were astounded to see their dog seated majestically on the back seat of a taxi. The cab driver had slightly nicked the dog and drove it to the address shown on his collar. "But now," state the owners, "We're trying to cope with his delusions of grandeur and with the way he tries to follow every taxi."

Sark, most remarkable realm in the world and its equally remarkable 86-year-old absolute monarch are once more in the news. The ruler of the Channel isle has changed the 272-year-old tradition by which Sark's 500 residents may keep male dogs only. But Sark's 73 male dogs are not yelping in anticipation. Dame Sybyl Hathaway states only spayed bitches will be admitted.

Pups for a bug: a Toronto paper recently ran a classified advertisement in which "Poodles, 2 pure white toy breeding, no relation, female 2 years old, male 7 months old, will sell or trade for A 1 Volkswagen".

When a young lad was struck by a car in Mexico City he lay on the road for 45 minutes because his faithful German Shepherd would not let anyone near him. The dog tugged at his young master's sleeve to try to arouse him from unconsciousness. He snarled at Red Cross ambulance workers as they gently tried to place the boy, whose both legs were fractured, onto a stretcher. Finally a worker got a rope around the dog's neck to control him.

Slow burn is what we have over the recent report that 12 of 86 Beagles trained to smoke developed lung cancer. If humans persist in heavy smoking despite cancer warnings they do so at their own informed risk. When dogs are forced to smoke through incisions in their throats to the point of producing malignant tumors it becomes a despicable form of torture.

When an American couple visiting Toronto during their honeymoon discovered their Siberian Husky missing, they called the Humane Society but had to return to Massachusetts dogless and heartbroken. The man came back a week later promising himself to remain until Timko was found. He discovered that the Etobicoke pound had picked up the dog and sold him, but could not ascertain the new owners. And here's where the Telegram's "Action Line" played a remarkable role. Two weeks before the distraught owner called the department, reports Frank Drea, they had been invited to meet the new acquisition of some friends — a Siberian Husky they had bought from the pound and named Rupnoff. When the owner contacted Action Line, the columnist in turn called the Ontario Humane who then called the pound owners with the request that they reveal the name of the new owners because of the unusual circumstances. They did and the light dawned on Mr. Drea. Rupnoff was Timko! The Husky and family have been reunited.

The Canadian movie Flick, which recently played in Toronto, developed some new actors. The Miniature Schnauzer owned by Cathy, daughter of Dr. Norman Frames, Toronto and the cat were groomed and handled in their roles by animal trainer John Darch, Toronto.

New author: A tremendously interesting and valuable book "Vitamin E for Ailing and Healthy Hearts" by Dr. Wilfrid E. Schute, Port Credit, Ont., and Harald J. Taub has just been released. The first printing of 10,000 immediately sold out and the second of 15,000 is selling rapidly at the price of $7.75. Distributed by G. R. Welch Co. Ltd., Toronto. Dr. Shute is best known to Dogs readers as an internationally known judge and breeder of Doberman Pinschers under the prefix Mannerheim. A sports devotee, he is the husband of one swimming champion and father of another.

Miracle: a strange story has come to hand by way of Sheltie breeder Fran Maher of Hornell, N.Y., who knows the man involved. E. M. Schmitt, an engineer with the Erie-Lackawanna Railroad, was sure a dog had been killed when his train ran over it near the Village of Hinsdale. When he returned the next day the dog's body was still lying on the tracks. Unable to stop then, he returned in his own car the next morning to remove the little body and bury it. To his amazement the dog had not moved but was still alive, having probably been lying there for more than 22 hours. He further calculated that at least 25 trains had passed over it. He carefully picked up the black female Toy Poodle in a cardboard box and searched for the owner. He learned that the pet had been missing for a month and that a reward had been posted by the owners, Studley Pet Farm. It had wandered away while on loan to a woman. Engineer Schmitt took the dog to a hospital, sometime later receiving a letter from the owners to the effect that the dog was fine, and offering a puppy from her litter.

Time Magazine reports that a court ruling new permits a New York woman tenant to keep a watchdog in her apartment in violation of her lease because of "the present circumstances of rampant crime."

Honored: Animal artist Patricia Detmold, in an excellent picture story in the March, 1970 issue of Popular Dogs.

Another "Action Line" rescue: A Brampton, Ont., family took in a hungry black and tan dog, bearing six Etobicoke tags dating 1963 to 1968 which didn't belong to him but obviously to the owner's other dogs. The dog wound up in the Chinguacousy Twp. pound after neighbors called the dogcatcher in their absence. According to the April 2 report the dog remained in "death row" while no one claimed him and the family fought desperately to save him. Action Line went into action and again got the necessary name through Tom Hughes. The story is that Carl Deutsch, a superintendent of Etobicoke's parks and recreation department, had bought the tag for his Labrador in 1968. The stray dog turned up at the Deutsch home last November during a storm. He was taken in, named Hobo and got along well with the Lab until a whiff of Spring enticed him to the Chinguacousy area. Mr. Deutsch had put Plika's old tags on Hobo until he could get a 1970 license. Now Hobo is alive and well and living at home.

In Memoriam

Marjorie Goulding Grahame, highly regarded as a breeder of Poodles for 25 years, passed away in late March in the Milton, Ont., District Hospital. She was a dedicated breeder under the prefix Barlanark, near Burlington, Ont. We remember her as a quiet woman with a sparkling sense of humor, which showed in some of the unique names her Poodles bore.

MAKE HIM THE SOFTEST TOUCH IN TOWN

WITH BORDEN mirra-coat

Borden Mirra-Coat will help make your dog the softest touch in town, because it contains those essential nutrients your dog needs for healthy, pliable skin and a soft coat. In fact, it works so well it may make the coats of wire-haired breeds too soft and silky.

Mirra-Coat is a carefully prepared blend of vitamins, polyunsaturated fatty acids, plus other nutrients essential to good coat condition. Sprinkled over the daily ration, Mirra-Coat will even help stimulate the regrowth of hair over thin or bare spots. As an added benefit, Mirra-Coat has a high palatability to make even finicky eaters enjoy mealtime!
