SETTERS

Jean Campbell — As a breeder and exhibitor who often crabs dog shows sometimes without foundation (of course!) about the quality of judging seen at some of our shows, I was delighted to hear of a questionnaire taken recently by the Irish Setter Club of Canada.

Apparently several members of the club were very dissatisfied with the judging at one of our dog shows — so dissatisfied, in fact, that after some discussion a letter was drafted and sent on behalf of the club to the show's executive body stating the ESCC would no longer support Boosters at these shows until reassured that the judging would be "fair and impartial".

Three cheers, loud and long, for the ESCC. To find a breed club willing to back up its members opinions with such authority is rare. To find a club with such a small membership as theirs must be almost unique.

Still in English news, Sheila and Stoyn of Calgary's Arunimels spent part of July in the United States. The main purpose of the trip was to attend the specialty in Tulsa, Oklahoma, but the trips to visit several kennels, by Sheila: "Tolsee 67 English Setters in one show was simply marvellous. There were lots of dogs and Best of Breed class was several of the top Setters of North America. Everyone was so friendly and made us feel so welcome."

The kennel visits were most profitable to Sandi Stoyns came home with a new addition to their kennel in the shape of Jacard Hill Demosthenes, a son of Ch. Brigand Jet of Jacard Hill ex Ch. Jacard Hill Christmas Angel. An added fillip to the trip was the arrival, less than a week after their return, of Arundel's first litter — seven pups and all accounted for before birth.

Moving on to Gordons and the annual listings of the top winning dogs. Canadian Gordonites were jubilant to see that Grianan Morag McTay took second place.

Morag, a home-bred from the Ontario kennel of Marg Bocking, has done more than her share of publicizing the breed this past year, travelling the western provinces as well as her home ground. A beautiful sound bitch she attracts attention everywhere she goes. Keep it up, Morag, and take first place for 1971.

A big welcome to the clan is in order for young Greg Suddards of Saskatoon, Marjorie Shannon of Nova Scotia, Rod Bandeen of Calgary and Colleen Putnam of Ontario. All these youngsters have recently acquired pups and all intend to show. Judging by the enthusiasm shown, we older breeders had better watch out for the competition!

A good part of our summer here at Glenappin was spent on the British Columbia show circuit, with its attendant work, fun, showers and new friends. Competition from the United States was plentiful and it was grand to see Albertans Shirley Shires and Charley Francis out there handling their own home-bred dogs. No shame, mind you, to either imports or professional handlers; but there's something in the way of an extra thrill to winning with your own dogs and doing it yourself.

At seven months of age Mrs. Harry Reno's Abbi's Steponad-ream took Best of Winners at the Ann Arbour K.C. show as well as Best of Variety. Two weeks later, at Munro K.C. it took BW for two points. Mrs. Reno's Abbi's kennels, of Port Huron, Mich., are well known in Canada as she is a frequent exhibitor at Canadian shows.

WEIMARANERS

Mrs. Helen Crowe — A meeting of the executive was held August 6 at the home of the President, Jim Chittenden, to discuss the Constitution and to finalize a name for the Weimaraner club. The name decided upon was The Weimaraner Association of Canada. To date we have 40 members.

A picnic was held at Mountsberg Dam in Campbellville, Ont., in June with 35 members and 15 Weimaraners present. The accompanying photo was taken at our successful event.

We would like to congratulate the Kirbys on their recent Barrie win, also to the Haymans of Richmond Hill and the Jourdeuils of Rigaud, Que., for their additions.

A sad event for me was the death in July of my ten year old CD Can. & Am. Pepee of Port Credit, one of the few American and Canadian champion Weimaraners in Canada. In 1964 he placed first in the top dog awards in his breed and he had a second place in 1965.

AFGHANS

Carol Braue — The first of its kind in Canada, the Afghan Hound Club of Canada's "pub match" was a tremendous success. It was held June 6 in conjunction with the Dachshund Breeders and Exhibitors of Ontario and the Basset Club of Canada, challenging all breeds of these associations. There were no age restrictions, but champions of any country were excluded. Held outdoors on a sunny Sunday at the lovely pine-treed Telharesha Afghan Kennels in Ballantrae, just north of Toronto, the match drew a total entry of 71 (one all the way from New York City), 40 Afghans, 25 Dachshunds and six Bassets.

Dogs and bitches were divided and judged separately. All entries in each sex, regardless of age or breed, were chosen at random by number and placed in classes of three or four for judging, i.e. a class might contain a three-month-old Standard Smooth Dachshund, a two-year-old Afghan, a nine-month-old Afghan and a four-year-old Basset.

There were ten dog classes and nine bitch classes. As with any regular dog show, it was the usual process of elimination and by rights the best dog should emerge the winner. Winners of each class received a first place ribbon, the losers 2nd, 3rd and 4th place ribbons plus a beer to cry in. This was one show where it almost paid to lose! The winners were all required to compete again against each other for Winners and RW. The winners received a glass beer mug and respective ribbons, the losers a beer. Finally WD competed against WB to be awarded Best in Match, a beautiful rosette and engraved pewter glass-bottomed beer mug and BOS, a rosette and glass beer mug.

Grand winners were two Dachshunds, Howard Atlee's eight-month-old Miniature Smooth Dachshund male, Penthouse Demonstration, Best in Match, and Carol and Uffe Braae's ten-month-old Standard Smooth Dachshund bitch, Sandwood Adora, BOS. Reserve winners went to Afghans. RW dog was Ed and Judy Neaves' 2½-year-old black and tan Sheikaree of Sudan, RWB Carrol Penn's year-old red Karabon's Kandahar Tarbu.

Judge was Mrs. Helen Lang-

ford, long-time noted Dachshund breeder and hound judge, had to admit that the real star of the show was not the Afghan or the Dachshunds but rather a little novel newcomer to the hound breed and latest addition to her Lenair Kennels — a red tan and black medium smooth Dachshund bitch named Kurtwurst Hildegaard recently imported from Denmark and presented to her at the show. The little stuffed Dachshund was two females each time it was visible by way of zipper as shown in photograph.

The Basset Club of Canada challenged participants to a match to a rematch next year.

John Charlesworth: A little secret is out. The Afghan Anadel whelped a litter of seven puppies which three are silver-blue Dominoes. Dominoes are rarity to begin with, coming three in a litter is a chance in a million. Dominoes have a widow's peak on their heads, while most Afghans have a black mask. This is only the second time that silver-blues have been born in Canada. Kalahari, from last year's litter was the first.

Our 14th male silver-blue Domino from the first breeding last year, won 2nd place in Puppy Bred by Exhibitor male class at the Chicago International Afghan Hound Specialty show.

BB at the American Rhodesian Ridgeback show of the Walsh KC, Walkenhorst, N.Y. July 11 for Am. Ch. Branshai's Jamba, his age 14 months, owned by John and Patricia E. O'Day, Deputy Dr. F. George Walker. Other Entry of Ridgebacks was 21 BD for four points was Can. Ch. Geoni's Jet owned by D. Shuster, MD, and handled by Bertha M. Formey. The show was supported by the Rhodesian Ridgeback Club of the United States and was judged by Mrs. Walter M. Lehmann. Stuart Flashman was sired by Ch. Can. Am. Geoni's Gymba, owned by Walter M. Christopher. "Gymba" is son of Ch. Can. & Am. Tredinnen Maralla and "Jet" is inbred son-grandson of "Kari". She is a three-time BIS and top-winning Rhodesian Ridgeback in the history of the breed in Canada, writes Mrs. Walker. "Age eight, Maria remains the constant companion of George and guardian of Mrs. Walker."

BEARDED COLLIES

Barbara Blake: The Bearded Collie Club of Canada held its annual meeting with a cookout picnic at the home of the secretary on June 27.

Officers elected include: President, Miss Carol Gold; Vice President, Mrs. [illegible]; Treasurer, Mrs. Alice [illegible]; Secretary, Mrs. Barbara Blake, R.R. 1, Waterdown, Ont.

The club expresses its thanks to Mrs. Marie Ratner past vice president, for her help the past year. Due to personal reasons Marie was unable to take office.

BOUVIER DES FLANDRES

Zanke Z. Cosner: This month — an excellent newsletter for the North American Bouvier des Flandres Working Dog Association and news of forthcoming match. The June fun match was outlanded has been postponed to fall. It will be held at Pinery Park near Windsor and will include conformation showing, obedience and tracking demonstrations.

Canadian and American Champion Handsworth Majestic Jet.

go Winners Bitch (BW) and Winners Dog at the Paul Revere Miniature Schnauzer Specialty (July 3/71) to complete the requirements for their American championships.

Sire: Am. Ch. Blythewood His Majesty

Dam: Can. & Am. Ch. Jasper's I'm A Sweetheart

CHAMPION HANDSWORTH TOPSY LEE

Lee's show career started at the age of six months and six days when Judge John Deslinglicked her as the Best Canadian-Bred in the Terrier Group at Halifax and Judge James Whitely named her Best Canadian-Bred in Show over several Best in Show Dogs. She completed her Canadian championship with three-point wins at Cars under Breeder-Judge Mrs. Joan Morden.

Under the expert conditioning and handling of Mrs. Joan Huber, Lee had five-point wins on the Florida Circuit, going WB, BW and BOS at the Florida West Coast Miniature Schnauzer Specialty. Dan Kiedrowski, Editor of Schnauzer Shorts, described her as "the most consistent bitch Winners on the Florida Circuit. This girl has purposely fought out the toughest competition in the United States, being shown almost exclusively in point shows in Florida, California and on the East Coast. She was not always Winner Bitch, but she was the one out of the ribbons. She completed her championship at the Paul Revere MS Specialty and carried right on to a Best in Show Special.

In nine shows as Special, Lee has seven BOS and two BOS Winners on one Sunday at Fort—"Vulcan" the special bitches to watch for her new coat on the Eastern and Western circuits.

CHAMPION HANDSWORTH MAJESTIC JET

Jet started and finished his show career in Canada with three-point wins on five days with accompanying group placements. He then went to the Southern United States on the same coast and took all five-point wins from the puppy class at Baton Rouge under Judge Henry Stoecker, going WD and BW, being beaten out for the Breed by his father, Ch. Blythewood His Majesty. Jet was then conditioned and groomed for the American Miniature Schnauzer Club Western Specialty at Palisades Park, California where he took five-point wins under Judge Albin Torkildson on June 25. Back to the East coast on July 3, he was WD at the Paul Revere MS Specialty under Judge Mrs. James Edward Clark.

This outstanding male with superb head and neck is truly poetry in motion. Jet is already stud with puppies on their way, and will be available to selected bitches at his home in Beaconsfield, Quebec. Very early we were impressed with the outstanding quality of the top American Miniature Schnauzers of which Blythewood Kennels has the cream. Our stud, Can. Am. Ch. Blythewood Blue Max, has been a consistent winner and has contributed his share of champion offspring in both Canada and United States.

Now with the services of Ch. Handsworth Majestic Jet, Canadians will have the finest Miniature Schnauzer bloodlines available in their own country.

bred by Joan Valentini, Mississauga, Ont.

When Abednego finished, this meant that the threesome of Shadrack, Meshack and Abednego now all are American champions. When we selected the name of Shadrack, it was our plan to name two of his sons Meshack and Abednego, but only if they were worthy of it, and we are pleased that it has turned out that way. Both are outstanding sires in themselves. Recently a pup sired by Abednego, Vel-Kel's Bee-Joe, after some notable wins appeared on the front page of a national U.S. Boxer magazine.

Shadrack who has been retired from regular competition at 1971 Canadian shows, continues to do his share of winning on the U.S. show circuit by going BB at the Detroit, Kalamazoo and Pittsburgh all-breed shows. In addition, he has won four more specialty shows in 1971, making a lifetime total of nine U.S. specialty shows. The four in 1971 were at Indianapolis (entry 90), Cleveland (entry 85), Rochester (64) and Buffalo (60). Shadrack and his son Jered have won ten shows between them this year.

At the Cleveland show, two other bitches sired by Shadrack did very well; i.e. Haviland's Dark Tempest, bred by the Whitmores, went BW for a 4-pt major, while another bitch, Joculu's Cameo, went RW. Two weeks later, Dark Tempest repeated her major win at Rochester and is now close to her American title, which would be the sixth champion sired by Shadrack. One more to follow would qualify Shadrack for the A.B.C. Stud Dog of Merit award. Considering that there are only some 60 Boxers in North American history who have won this award, one can appreciate the honor Shadrack would be the sixth generation in a row to qualify for the award, with the previous five generations being Fashion Hint, Fashion Plate, Battle Chief, Barrage and Bangaway.

Shadrack's Rochester show win meant he had retired single-handedly the Koerner Ford trophy, which must be won three times by the same owner. Shadrack won three times consecutively. The following day he took the Buffalo specialty for the third time in three years.

It is no wonder that our American friends are shaking their heads by all these wins by Canadian-bred Boxers. I am glad to report that we are always well received and treated and the congratulations are sincere. The question we are most often asked is "What's wrong with the American Boxer?" We usually prefer to answer that by explaining "What's right about the Canadian Boxer". This is another story in itself, and I hope to attempt to explain this in some future issue of this magazine.

COLLIES/SHELTIES

Ariel Sleath, well-known breeder, judge, horsewoman and farm owner reports on the cross-country activities of these breeds. Send your news items to her direct: Sovereign Kennels, R.R. 6, Kingston, Ont.

When it comes to selecting a stud dog, never take the easy way out. Never, never compromise. I know of breeders who have travelled many miles in the worst possible conditions at the most inconvenient time to get their bitch to the stud they have chosen to be the most suitable.

Can you imagine spending Christmas Day driving hundreds of miles through a blinding blizzard to breed your bitch to the stud of your choice? I know of one such breeder. She has the beautiful Sheltie puppies that is the product of her breeding.

The majority of us have a stud at hand, and many times this is indeed a good choice. But most kennels have the ability to choose their bitches to be compatible with their stud in type and bloodlines.

Eventually though, most are faced with the responsibility of selecting a stud for a maiden bitch. Perhaps an otherwise needed on more strength in a particular area is the begin search.

Wanting to guard the gene already set should be a prime concern. Remember last time we discussed how one mating can almost wipe out a breeding for future unless it is a pure mating. So concentrate on the new gene dient you wish to add to strengthen what you have without losing too much of the good you have gained.

I am not going to go into the merits or disadvantages of line breeding, inbreeding or outcrossing at this time. However, in your search for strength in particular area look for the best first. True bloodlines are getting more difficult to find but they are available. So settle on a bloodline or family that holds the most concentration of positive genes for your problem. Next comes selection of the individual you feel may be capable of doing the job. It is quite possible there will be many to choose from this "family" in different areas of the country.

Lots of mail this month and all appreciated. Many just notes of support for this and others to discuss further previous columns.

From London, Ont. Mrs. Phyllis Egerton (Clapcott Kennels) writes of her interest in the improvement of Sheltie quality in the past. It is pleasing that she has been breeding for noticeable improvement in coat texture, in head planes, ear and tail placement. She sends thanks to the breeder friends who sent congratulations on Ch. Trevlo Glengowan's third top Sheltie win.

From Buckhorn, Ont. Mrs. Audrey Judge is back in the doggy game and is busy training and showing a couple of Collies on the fall shows.

From Corunna, Ont. Mrs. Alice Fagley (Amlee Collies) writes of news about their Collies. They have just moved to Castleton and are pleased with the reception they have had from the Canadian fanciers. They brought five dogs with them, and I am sure their experience as Mrs. Fagley previously had a kennel of Shelties in the United States.

From Komoka, Ont. Mrs. Alexander Proudfoot writes a lengthy letter concerning about the quality found in the Collies being bred today in Canada. She is also very concerned with holding the line whenever these faults appear in the ring.

From Sherwood, P.E.I. Jane Farmer (Jarbel Kennels) writes of some of the tribulations of being a breeder. Working on a farm, raising a young family and showing Shelties tends to keep one very busy. Interesting and very

MISS CAREA McCORMACK

Carla is 13. A long time ago, when she was nine, she won out in her persistent request for a dog. Her mother had supported her desire, but her father reiterated that "the city was no place for a dog". Besides, her mother worked, and with Carla and her brothers at school, "who would have time to properly care for a dog!" However, while the family was on a fishing holiday they were shown an article about Rottweilers and Carla almost held her breath until the day came when the family drove down to Olympia, Wash. to have a look at the dog that is now Drauf vom Molzberg CD.

Carla and Drauf became fast friends. Being a big dog, obedience training was automatically almost, so Carla and her Dad enrolled with Drauf in night school classes. These were so successful that Carla took junior handling classes as well and has never lost interest. Her father built a high fence around their big yard, her mother quit work and Carla persuaded them to buy another Rottweiler — this one to produce Carla's long-cherished dream, a litter. She worked hard and learned a great deal. She was always at her father's elbow, helping prepare the puppies' meals, adding the prescribed vitamins, tabulating the puppies' weights at regular intervals, clipping their nails, training them and, best of all, playing with the new pups when they were big enough for a little rough-housing.

She is an avid reader and dog

'CHOW POWER' theme used at awards party

A four-hour garden party at the home of Bill and Helen Ascroft, Mississauga, Ont., marked the 11th annual presentation of the Chow Chow Fanciers of Canada, July 18.

About 60 people attended the colorful affair. Guest George Deegan of Middlesex, England, was the recipient of the first LDT award for "Long Distance Traveller". Blue and gold scarves were given as mementos to lady judges and ties to male judges.

Awards included Top Dog and Top Canadian-owned dog. Ai Wong Chee, owned by Reg. Day of Lazo, B.C. The sire of Wong, Wong's dam and breeder all took awards. Top Winning Bitch, Lin's Queen Bee of Marbot hails from Nova Scotia, while Mi Tu's Tien How Top Puppy award is an Ontario dog which uniquely spread the big wins geographically.

Last year marked the largest Chow specialty to date—140 entries. Major wins by Chows embraced 69 Group placements, including 18 Firsts, two Best in Show, four Best Canadian Bred in Show, a Best Puppy in Show and four best Brace in Group. 15

Awards were also made to individuals and organizations who have helped promote the breed and assisted the club as an opportunity of saying "thank you". Among recipients of the Chow Power awards was Dogs in Canada. Judge Yan Paul was made 16 1970 president of the "Chow Power Team".

The accompanying photographs are the result of an unusual method of recording a club activity—they are "stills" made from a color filming of the ceremony by Dick Nattrass and produced by Herb Williams and Fred Reddie. 17

BACK TALK

"The breed continues to improve," says noted German Shepherd Dog enthusiast H.J. "Harry" Watson

It was exactly the right kind of a day to interview the man who for over 40 years has been devoted to the breed "with the look of eagles". The sun shone and cloud banks chased each other across a very blue sky. Nestled at the foot of the Niagara Escarpment overlooking lush orchard country, we found Adanac Kennels, Beamsville, Ont. the home of H.J. (Harry) Watson's famed German Shepherd Dogs.

Two beautiful Shepherds were enjoying the out-of-doors. Watchful but quiet they noted our arrival. My host and a German-bred Shepherd, who enjoys house privileges, welcomed me. The dog, which was purchased in Germany at the age of two, answers to German commands. In the manner of friendly dogs everywhere, he quickly assumed the role of chief greeter. "Platz!" ordered Mr. Watson, (platz is the German command for "lie down"). My new friend "platzed" but his tail thumped a steady welcome throughout our visit.

Harry Watson's career in dogs dates back to 1928 when he first registered his kennel in the U.S. He has shown extensively in both the U.S. and Canada since then and has enjoyed outstanding success as breeder, exhibitor, handler and judge. Nowadays he limits his breeding activity to one or two litters of German Shepherds a year and handling duties have been delegated to son Brian. Judging assignments keep him busy. Mr. Watson is licensed to judge Groups 1, 2 and 3 in Canada and he is a popular and sought-after judge of German Shepherd specialities in the U.S.

As an exhibitor his dogs continue to make their presence felt in the ring. The current show star, Lux Vom Bultenweg, a two-year old German import, has been undefeated in the breed this year and already has two BIS wins to his credit.

Over the years Mr. Watson has been associated with a variety of breeds but his first love is Shepherds. Although the popularity of the breed has had its ups and downs, Mr. Watson's affection for it holds constant. He believes that today, at their all-time registration high, the breed is better than ever and will continue to improve.

Much of the credit for this improvement is due to Mr. Watson himself. He has made a total of 25 trips to Germany searching for that elusive perfect specimen. He told me that he is now awaiting the arrival of three young dogs purchased during his most recent visit to that country. One, a 14-month male, placed second to the "youth sieger" (an unofficial but commonly-used title) in a class of 119 at the 1971 Sieger Show. This show is the national specialty for German Shepherd Dogs. It is held once a year and is the only show at which the titles "Sieger" (victor) and "Siegerin" (victress) are awarded. Perhaps this new dog will be the greatest yet for Mr. Watson. He would like to think so although selecting a top one as a puppy, he thinks, is pretty "chancey". He does not think a Shepherd reaches its potential until it is two and a half years old. Then, if it is a good sound dog, it may be campaigned until it is six or seven years of age.

His educated guesses have paid off well in the past. The greatest dog he has owned, says Mr. Watson, was a German import, Canadian Grand Victor Ero V.D. Auwallenburg who completed his Canadian title in just four days. Sire of more than 30 champions, the great influence of this dog is evidenced by the pedigrees of many of today's top winners. A son of Ero, Can. & Am. Ch. Rocket of Cara Mia, Mr. Watson considers the best Canadian-bred German Shepherd he has known.

Another reason for the general improvement throughout the breed could be a grading system which operated in the U.S. for a number of years. Mr. Watson was a member of the grading committee which functioned on a national basis. Under the scheme, owners of stud dogs could apply to have their dogs assessed by the regional grader. Assessment covered size, conformation, color, temperament, movement and dominant characteristics as well as recommendations for their application in particular breeding situations. A compilation of all the assessments were published in book form. This served as a valuable text to help breeders make a correct stud selection. Unfortunately the project had to be abandoned because costs and maintenance threatened to get out of control.

Comparing shows of today with those of earlier times, Mr. Watson sees little difference between them. He describes dog shows as "sporting events" and thinks that the name of the game is winning and this is the way most exhibitors regard it. He says that he would rather win than lose, as who wouldn't? The walls of the recreation room in the Watson home are lined with cabinets filled with handsome trophies, many of which belong to the days when the trays and rose bowls awarded for major wins were hand-crafted in sterling silver!

One important return to the past he would like to see would be the re-organization of The Canadian Professional Handlers Association. He served as Secretary-Treasurer of the original organization and recalls that it had a very impressive roster of members. He thinks that far too many unqualified persons are calling themselves "handlers" and charging money for their work.

He does not think that there are too many shows being held in Canada nowadays. He would like to see more shows held particularly during the winter months. And more benched to unbenched shows. He provided the working dog classes are large enough for spirited gaiting and the footing is good. Mr. Watson believes that shows where an admission is charged, the public is entitled to see dogs on display. Too often, he says, local people visit a benched show only to see the breeds in which they are most interested have been judged and left the area. In warm weather he prefers the outdoor show. He thinks the clause concerning water in case of inclement weather should be eliminated from the Dog Show Regulations. The benefit, he says, would be twofold. Dogs might be shown to the best advantage on natural footing and the show-giving club would have more freedom in ring selection if they had more areas available for that purpose. Covered show areas cost a great deal of money. Mr. Watson says he would rather see a top-notch judge in the ring in the rain than under a second-rate judge in a dry arena.

He thinks that the benched/judged regulation is one of the best rulings that the CKC has ever made but thinks it does not go far enough. In other words he would like to see it patterned exactly on the American Kennel Club rule. It is not a question of honesty, he says, the reasons for this rule is one of influence. Sometimes that perhaps a judge might not even be aware of. Another area where he thinks influence is brought to bear on a judge is the commotion created by the exhibitors occasionally when a favored dog is being gaited. He would like to see a ruling forbidding applause and so forth after the judge has rendered a decision.

Mr. Watson also thinks that there should be some system whereby judges would be examined periodically on a practical basis. He would pattern

Books

ALL ABOUT DOGS—by Lawson—$2.50

Graphically there is at least one full color drawing on each page, illustrating the breeds in the normal categories. The book begins with the earliest known dogs and their human friends, then discusses each breed in a manner to afford a perspective of any breed without being technical.

Toys are portrayed out of alphabetical order as an example the Pekingese is the "Sleeve" variety. We take exception to the Chihuahua material. There is the usual reference that they did not come from or were not bred in Mexico. Where are the facts? There is indisputable proof in the Smithsonian Institute. One merely has to travel to Mexico to find innumerable proofs in artifacts, in tomb wall paintings, skeletons etc. They are also associated with the Aztecs, Incas and Toltecs.

I suspect that other breeders might take exception to some data given on their chosen breeds. This book, however, fills a gap—that of a book of general interest for people who could be interested in dogs.

In the final pages, "Your Dog" is expressed in general terms and gives excellent information for young parents or new pet owners.

This book is 80 pages of interest, with good indexing of illustrations at the end and is written in a very easy style with love and obvious understanding of man's best friend.

Purina dog whelping calendar

Bitch bred on date indicated by big figure will be due to whelp on dates shown in black immediately below. Name of bitch may be written in numerals for convenience. Expected breeding date is based on the 63-day gestation period. Allow 5 days variation either way.

The Sad Little Dog

A little dog waits hopefully
Along with many more
Watching for his master
From the bars cemented floor.
"Perhaps he'll be coming now"
Says he "I've been here
so very long"
But his little tail drags
and his ears stay down.
Each person has proved
him wrong.
With his sad brown eyes
He lies at the gate
So lonely and forlorn.
Little Dog faithful
So staunch and true
With a heart that is Broken and torn.
"I know he'd be here
If he possibly could
He loves his little dog so.
Perhaps he can't find me.
He'll try awful hard
But how will he know where I go?"
"Time's running out"
I heard the man say
"tomorrow he goes for research!"
"Please let my master
End me to-day
I know how hard he will search."
"I hear a familiar voice" says he
"It's master he's come at last.
Boy is he mad
it's taken so long
And he thought the deadline
was past
The little dog goes joyfully
Home where he belongs
But the other sad dogs
Are left behind
To cry their heartsick songs.

Under Age Driver

In Ottawa, Muk-wah, 11-month old puppy whose ancestry combines Poodle and terrier, climbed into the Charles Farley family van, pawed the ignition key into action, started the engine and rolled the car 20 feet along the driveway into the garage according to a CP report. The garage door was closed when the pup started his brief journey. When he finished it was open — in several places.

Useless Exercise

Austin O'Malley, American miscellaneous writer who was also an occulist, (1882-1932) wrote that "revenge is often like biting a dog because the dog bit you!"

Troubles are like puppies — they thrive on plenty of attention. kp

Art Critic

Little girl with mother at the first art showing. "Mummy what's that funny picture?" "That's supposed to be a boy with his dog, dear." "All right mummy but why isn't it?"

Josh Billings (1818-1885) American humorist whose real name was Henry Wheeler Shaw commented on just about everything. He observed that "The man who gets bit twice by the same dog is better adapted for that kind of business than any other."

The 'Twain' Shall Never Meet

Mark Twain, beloved humorist, observed that "If you pick up a starving dog and make him prosperous, he will not bite you. That is the difference between a dog and a man."

...but George Bernard Shaw observed slyly that "Ladies and gentlemen are permitted to have heads in the kennel but not in kitchen."

What goes in like a lion and out like a lamb? Someone who's expected to win and didn't. — kp

Tired housewife cleaning dog fancier's silver trophies: "Why can't you be like other exhibitors and not win so much?

Air Conditioning: Overheated competitors can chill the barman on the hottest day. — kp

Dogmatism is puppyism come to its full growth, wrote Jerrold Douglas, English humorist, editor and playwright who lived 1803-1857.

Please Care

The cold winds blew
On the busy street -
The scurry of cars,
The rushing of feet.
The rain came down
In a torrent blast;
A little form crouched
A forgotten outcast.
No one stopped to Speak to her there
The her shivering form
In the night's glistening glare.
No one stopped
To lend her a hand.
The little lost dog
Near the newspaper stand.
Come and get little dog, pay
Cold and limp
In the light of day.
God had taken her
Home to Him
Where she'd never again
Be just a man's whim.
If someone who cared
Had happened along
We'd never have witnessed
This terrible wrong!

BARK-A-WORD

Jo Ouellet

HOW TO DO IT. The trick is to find the hidden word. To do so you'll have to first locate all the listed words. You'll find these words in the grill spelled out horizontally, vertically or diagonally either forwards or backwards. Once located, you encircle each letter of the word. Any letter might be also involved in another word going in another direction. Just encircle each one. When you've located all the listed words in the grill you'll be left with the given number of letters as indicated for the solution. This will be your BARK-A-WORD.

Answer to last month's quiz — SCRAPBOOK

"The Bill"

I hope you'll be watching
Your dog these days
Much closer than ever before.
The Government passed
"The Bill"
Which opens up the door
For all our dogs
(Both young and old)
To be picked up at any time
Now it's up to you!
I'd hate to see all little pet
Who's known love all his life
End up a research number
On a research surgeon's knife.
You'll have to double efforts
To guard your pets these days -
Dog nappers will be all around
Its a dirty game, that pays.
There is no real protection
If your animal is loose
And Beware of lurking strangers
They'll try just anyruse.
Please keep your pet protected:
When you see one you think is lost
Remember S.A.D. can help you
And does - at any cost.

much on the lines of the system used to re-test Cattle Graders. That is, a number of judges would be required to grade a number of dogs of the same breed and provide written critiques on their placings. The results of all the placings would than be compared and those whose judgements were out of line would be subject to further investigation and possible forfeiture of judging privileges if the evidence warranted it. Mr. Watson points out that in Germany every dog in a class is placed. That is, in a class of 100 dogs, each animal is evaluated and the judge gives a continuing commentary on his ratings and his reasons for his placement of every dog from number one through to number 100.

He also favors the German system of having a Shepherd's teeth counted and examined before it enters the show ring. And he would like to see a revision in our Canadian standard for German Shepherds which would classify missing teeth faults more precisely. His suggestion is that one missing tooth would constitute a fault, two missing teeth a serious fault and more than two missing teeth would be a disqualification.

Comparing show dogs of a few years ago with those in the ring today, Mr. Watson sees a great improvement in the style of dogs being shown. Today's dogs, he says, are heavier in bone, have greater depth of chest and more substance generally, a trend he favors. He says that when he is judging if there is a choice between a good large dog and an equally good small one, he will put up the larger specimen. He also notes a great improvement in toplines. A strong back he considers to be of prime importance in a working breed.

Naturally, we touched on the question of hip dysplasia. Mr. Watson thinks this condition is on the decrease in German Shepherds at least, because of the good work being done by serious breeders. He believes that it has always existed in dogs as in other species, but that we have just recently come to recognize it as an inherited problem. He foresees a rapid decline of HD in Shepherds because breeders are conscientiously working to eliminate it from the breed.

In fact, Mr. Watson's entire attitude is one of great optimism. He gives one the impression that although past successes were gratifying, he has no wish to dwell on them. He cannot recall the precise number of Best In Show wins his dogs have earned but estimates that out of every six times a dog of his has won its group it has gone on to Best in Show. One gets the feeling that Harry Watson is very much a dog man of the present working to improve this one-in-six average. His latest acquisition may be just the dog to do it.

Profile

books began to pile on her nightside table, beginning with "The Complete Dog Book" which she has read from cover to cover. She learned about, and loves, all breeds but, of course, saving her special love for Rottweilers. She learned about grooming, handling and training. She has obedience trained Drauf, Babette, Catha, Arzolly and Anejoh, and is now working with her Dad on their CDX and Utility.

Carla's love of all animals has never diminished in spite of the continuous need for care and the attention required for the family's biggest interest — their Rottweilers. The dogs spend much of their time on B.C.'s sandy shores because, among their many other talents, Rottweilers are excellent water dogs and love to play at the beach. Carla and her Rottweilers inevitably find a lame and stranded bird, usually a duck, and bring it home for warmth and comfort until Dad comes to drive them to a sanctuary or a vet.

The veterinarian's office fascinated Carla right from the start and there never was a trip made to see Dr Dodds without Carla along. As a result, she now works there every Saturday from 8:30 in the morning until 6, without pay, so that she can be sure that it is a vet that she wants to become. After many months her interest is still keen and her ambition right now is to chalk up enough hours at the veterinary hospital so that she can attend at an operation.

At school her projects are generally about dogs but she tries to give equal time to other animals as well.

With her sweet personality and lively interest she is a good girl campaign on why every family should have at least one dog.

Joint control of dogs sought in Halton Township

GEORGETOWN, Ont — A report in the Toronto Daily Star states that Esquesing Township wishes Georgetown and Acton councils to combine their endeavors in the control of the increasing number of dogs in north Halton — quantities of both pets and wild dogs are giving concern. Esquesing has no dog patrol. Georgetown and Acton have shared the services of a dog-catcher now about to retire. The former municipality is considering its own dog pound. An offer from the Ontario Humane Society to carry out dog control at a cost of $1 per capita (about $9,000 annually) has been turned down by Esquesing.

Canine Consultants present Fall courses at Hamilton colleges

Canine Consultants will be presenting their course, "Purebred dogs as a hobby or profession", at Fanshawe College, London, Ont. and Mohawk College in Hamilton commencing at the beginning of October. All those interested should contact the extension course departments at the colleges.

Problem

for a normal dog who does not wish to eat, only tends to lessen his appetite rather than stimulate it.

The best answer to keeping your dog happy and in top condition is a common sense feeding program remembering that a dog is a creature of habit and enjoys his meals best when fed a constant balanced diet at a set time each day.

A dog or a kennel of dogs that are eager eaters are a real pleasure to feed. A dog or kennel of dogs who constantly refuse to clean up their meals quickly create great irritation, generally making both the owner and dog very unhappy. — Reprinted from International Siberian Husky News
