Sled dog races are feature at the Arctic Winter Games

by H. M. STEPHENS

Whitehorse, Yukon Territory is a little off the beaten track for dog news. Last summer it was the site of their first conformation dog show. At the Arctic Winter Games held there March 6-10 it was the site of a three mile sprint for sled dogs with six teams of five or six dogs entered. As usual in dog races the number of dogs in the team is left to the choice of the driver. Every dog which starts must finish either pulling the sleigh or on it.

This race featured the "Bed Roll" start. This was new to me and had nothing to do with activities described so well by Ernest Hemingway in his novel about the Spanish Civil War, For Whom the Bell Tolls. The driver and his passenger lie on the ice in their bed rolls at the start line with the dogs staked out. On the gun, driver and passenger spring out, roll their beds, hitch the team and drive off with the passenger riding.

A quick start depends on the manageability of the dogs and teamwork between driver and passenger. Arctic sled dogs are notorious for their willingness to fight. A short race like this calls for well-trained dogs. Each pair appeared to have their own system. One passenger did nothing but hold the lead dog at the end of the pull rope while the driver hitched the remaining dogs. Another concentrated on rolling the beds and loading them while the driver hitched the dogs.

The six-dog team and the ultimate winner was owned and driven by Paul Sheridan of Whitehorse. Paul was running with two lead dogs. This is unusual but his young lead dog Jock, a Siberian Husky, had refused to leave the starting gate in a race two weeks previous. This time Jock was hitched alongside Nooke, a Siberian-Labrador cross who rather resembled a Newfoundland-Chow cross in head, posture and coat. Nooke was an old hand at races and the combination worked well

Dogs In Canada

THIS MONTH'S COVER STORY PROMOTING THE VALUE OF AN OBEDIENCE TRAINED DOG IS SPONSORED BY:

A trained dog makes a good citizen

Anyone who has met Mrs. Hilda Pugh, President of The Canadian Kennel Club, is aware of her devotion to dogs and her conviction that an obedience-trained dog makes a good citizen. As evidence of her sincerity, this is the ninth consecutive year she has sponsored a Dogs in Canada cover featuring obedience.

Mrs. Pugh believes that no matter how beautiful a dog, it is not a pleasure to live with if it is untrained, an opinion neighbors of such dogs would heartily endorse.

Her Display Kennels at 135 Macpherson Ave., Toronto (telephone 922-8893) are renowned for successful training classes as well as champion Weimaraners (18), two champion Scottish Terriers and one champion Chihuahua Display's Sweet Eloise, who is now ready to embark on her obedience career. Weighing in at 1¼ pounds, Eloise has joyously demonstrated her obedience knowledge on Ottawa television not once but three times.

Irresponsible owners, who must bear the blame for their dogs' poor behavior and nuisance value in their communities, are the real culprits, Mrs. Pugh believes, and are responsible for the increasing public resentment towards dogs. She feels this can eventually hurt breeders of pure-

St. Catharines club comes up with a winner

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont.—The surprise hit of the dog show season in this part of Canada was the new locale of the St. Catharines and District Kennel and Obedience Club shows on April 15 and 16. This club has tried various locations for their championship shows and the results have not always been satisfactory. So for their 1972 effort they gambled on a superior setting and took their shows to the fabulous Skylon Tower which is one of the major tourist attractions in Niagara Falls, Ont.

Conditions for the exhibitor could not have been better. There were acres of parking, an easy-to-reach air-conditioned building with lots of grooming and show area plus arcades of interesting shops and displays to visit when there was time to kill between showing stints.

Public interest in the shows was almost overwhelming. On Sunday gate receipts were close

Put on your favorite dog ...a sick idea

Van der Sandt de Villiers Smit, a 28-year-old South African businessman, recently announced his intention of breeding pure-bred dogs, slaughtering them and fashioning their pelts into coats for women. As restrictions are being imposed on killing wild animals for their furs he reasoned he could probably sell a coat made of Cocker Spaniel or Dalmatian for as much as $2,600. One Bull Terrier fancier in Durban offered a reward of $40,000. for de Villiers Smit's skin. Under pressure, the South African Government reversed its original stance and announced it would introduce legislation prohibiting the killing of dogs for financial gain.

For the sixth year we present, for obedience enthusiasts across Canada, a comprehensive analysis of obedience activities. We are grateful to Mrs. Betty McHugh for again compiling these valuable statistics.

by BETTY McHUGH

Obedience has changed a great deal since I exhibited my first two Samoyeds in 1953. I am speaking of my own area which is Southern Ontario, but I imagine that the same observations would apply across the country.

Entries in 1953 were running generally between 20 to 40 dogs depending on the location. The atmosphere was more friendly and relaxed, except of course when it was your turn in the ring. The exhibitors had a genuine interest in each other and their problems. Advice was given freely, and sometimes heeded, from the professional level down. Trials were like family reunions, a meeting of old friends, and a welcoming of new comers to the fold. This attitude may have been due to the small entry, fewer trials, different outlook on life, and of course memories do improve with the passing of time.

I had shown sparingly since 1953 until the last few years. During 1971 I exhibited three Samoyeds and finished two CDs and one Utility. I always enjoy the trials but cannot help but notice the change on the obedience scene from years ago. The atmosphere is more tense, the wins more important, the losses less gracious and the crowds more cliquey. I suppose this had to happen with the fantastic increase in participation in obedience trials. However, it makes me feel a little sad to see this attitude creeping into my favorite sport. Some of the clubs make a special effort to welcome exhibitors and their members circulate during the trial creating a friendlier atmosphere. I think we all make a special effort to return to these trials next year.

I would like to appeal to clubs to not offer money prizes or a trophy table that is so spectacular that we draw the wrong element. Trophies that one is proud to take home are nice, particularly for the amateur, but when competition is only for prizes and not, to quote the Yellow Book, "to demonstrate the usefulness of the pure-bred dog as the companion and guardian of man", then it is that companion and guardian that is the one to suffer.

Entries in obedience trials and tracking increased by 339 in 1971 over the 1970 figure, only one third of the increase between the 1969 and 1970 figure. The total entry for 1971 was 7,943, for the five regular classes and tracking, compared to 7,604 in 1970. A total of 7,810 dogs were exhibited in 1971, an increase of 335 over the 1970 figure of 7,475.

Although the entries showed only a slight increase comparatively, the number of trials held in 1971 increased by seven, from 178 in 1970 to 185 in 1971. The number of dogs to qualify in 1971 was 4,681, an increase of 385 over the 1970 figure of 4,296. Tracking was down one entry in 1971 although there were six trials compared to five in 1970. The number to qualify increased to 31 in 1971 compared to 21 in 1970.

Entries made a gain of 474 in the Novice classes, seven in the Utility, but dropped 141 in the Open classes.

The Montreal Dog Training Club again drew the largest entry to compete in a single trial with a total of 138 dogs, down 20 from their 1970 figure of 158. A total of 397 dogs competed in their Triple Trial compared to 435 dogs in 1970. This club also had the largest entry in the Novice B class with 56, the Open B class with 3[illegible] and the Utility class with 18. The Burlington Kennel and Obedience Club had the most entered in the Open A class with 16 and the Novice A class with 52.

There is quite a change in the trials held in conjunction with the kennel club section. The only club common on both lists for 1970 and 1971 is the Essex County Kennel Club. Top in this section this year is the Calgary Kennel and Obedience Club, with an entry of 93 dogs.

We realize that the figures presented under Obedience Titles by Breeds, are not complete due to the fact that dogs must be registered individually before being granted their titles officially. We have presented titles awarded from results published between June 1971 to April 1972.

The Working Group was again out in front with total number of titles confirmed in 1971 with 918 compared to 542 in 1970. Second was again the Sporting Group with 172, compared to 208 in 1970 and third was the Non-Sporting Group with 137 compared to 2[illegible] in 1970. In fourth place again was the Terrier Group with 53, followed by the Hounds with 44 and the Toys with 43. The only increase in titles confirmed was made by the Hounds with one more than last year. The number of different breeds involved increased to 80 in 1971 compared to 77 in 1970.

The German Shepherd Dogs replaced the Poodles for top place in titles confirmed, with a total of 174 compared to 132 for Poodles. The Shetland Sheepdog is third again with 103, the Labrador Retriever fourth with 45 and the Golden Retriever fifth with 43 titles awarded.

There were seven 200 scores given in 1971, four in Ontario, one in British Columbia, one in Alberta, and one in the Maritimes.

bred dogs who should encourage obedience training whenever possible. The June issue of Chatelaine magazine has scheduled an article by Ann Middleton on Mrs. Pugh's training procedures.

Confidence in oneself communicates itself to the dog, this expert maintains, and consequently obedience training is a two-way street. Because the dog is essentially a pack animal it requires a strong 'leader' in the figure of its owner. If this relationship is established it provides a solid basis on which to embark on training.

As President of The Canadian Kennel Club, Mrs. Pugh promotes ownership of pure-bred dogs but her love and compassion extend to all animals. "We lose sight of the fact a dog is a living creature," she stated. "I am convinced that if someone truly loves a pure-bred dog, it follows they love and have concern for mixed breeds as well and should involve themselves in the humane treatment of animals by supporting their local humane societies. After all, we should keep in mind that a great many of our pure-bred dogs end up there. Not only the mixed breeds." She believes in obedience training for all dogs, not merely for pure-breds.

Since Mrs. Pugh took over the office of President of the CKC she has made it a point to travel across Canada to gain first-hand knowledge of the problems and opinions of members from every zone. The three zones she has yet to visit are on her busy schedule for 1972. As Chairman of the Obedience Council she is keenly interested in spectating at as many trials as she can attend.

"Once a year," Mrs. Pugh said, "we should forget about the biggest, bestest and the most and have a good laugh. Life should be fun and a sense of humor is a valuable asset in life which includes the dog fancy." For nine years she has given Dogs readers a chuckle with her front cover obedience cartoons.

Signing the first insurance policy issued by the Purebred Animal Protection Association is Richard Gilmore, president of the insurance group underwriting the organization's new pure-bred dog protection plan. Looking on are Bob Nutbeem, president of the non-profit PAPA organization and Mrs. Gilmore—and of course the Gilmores' Collies Shane (left) and Rip.

Insurance is going to the dogs – at reasonable rates

Until the formation of the Purebred Animal Protection Association (PAPA), a non-profit organization in Harbour Grace, Nfld., pure-bred dog owners across Canada had little chance of insuring the life of their dogs at a cost they could afford.

Using mass merchandising to lower costs, PAPA recently reached an agreement with the Continental Casualty Company, a member of the CNA Insurance Group of Companies, to provide members of the association with inexpensive dog insurance against death from any cause.

"The new insurance," commented PAPA president Bob Nutbeem, "applies to registered pure-bred dogs aged six months to six years. To make a claim, the owner simply obtains his veterinarian's certificate and identification with the cause and time of death on a form which accompanies every policy. He then mails the form to the Association for prompt payment. The only claim subject to prior approval from the company is that of euthanasia in the case of severe illness.

"The coverage," he explained "is designed to allow owners to replace their pet with a dog of the same breed with like quality and temperament. Policies range from $100 to $300, in fifty dollar increments, at an annual premium of $10. minimum to $37. maximum. Additionally, there is a ten per cent discount for coverage on five or more dogs under one owner or breeder.

"Special coverage for puppies is also available to breeders. It provides protection for 30 days from the date of sale and covers the puppy against death from natural causes and common carrier loss. The puppy is covered for insured value up to a maximum of $100. with a cost to the breeder of only $2.50 per puppy", continued Mr. Nutbeem.

This financial protection plan is available to lifetime members of the Association. Membership has been set at a one-time fee of $5.00. Aside from financial protection PAPA is currently investigating preferential discounts on foods, supplies and various other services. Additionally the Association will assist its members in their efforts to lower licence fees and advise their local municipalities on dog control laws. The Association itself has already worked with provincial and municipal authorities in these areas with effective results.

DETERMINED: In order for Miss Agness Hammond to reach Vancouver to attend the Evergreen dogs shows and Miniature Dachshund Club of Canada specialty, held March 11 and 12, she left her Ghost River Ranch home in Cochrane, Alta., in an International Harvester station wagon in which Mary Simpson was driving her, together with four dogs, to the airport. A quarter of a mile away from home they bogged down in the snow; then transferred the dogs and crates onto a toboggan and walked a couple of miles where they were met by a friend who transported them in a Terra-Jet mobile that has the reputation of being able to cope with any amount of snow. This too, however, bogged down so they again transferred to a toboggan, with dogs, and with more walking for another mile they were this time met by another friend with station wagon, finally managing to reach the airport, and on to Vancouver.

MARRIED: At a small ceremony in the Chapel of St. James' Cathedral, Toronto, April 8, with Rev. J. F. O'Neil officiating, Susan King Gagnon, of Toronto, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward King of Lady Cove, Nfld., was married to Lt. Col. Morris H. A. Drury, O.B.E., C.D., of Oakville, son of the late Major and Mrs. E. Hazen Drury of Sherbrooke, Que. They will reside in Oakville, Ont.

BIRTHDAY: Miss Jean Grant celebrated her 82nd birthday in April with a party of her personal friends from the Richvale and Richmond Hill, Ont., areas. It was a triple celebration for Jean: exactly 30 years previously she had purchased her first Boxer and one year since the birth of her "Jolly Rodger" house pet who received a cable from his sire wishing him happy hours and a gentle heart.

DEATH: Gwen Thomas, who successfully managed Hal-Hope Kennels (Scotties), London, Ont., for 15 years. She purchased her first Scottish Terrier from Mrs. Lucille Harris in 1965. A member of the Scottish Terrier Club of Canada and the London Canine Association, she had been ill for some time and passed away on February 4. Sympathy to her husband Harold who is endeavouring to carry on her breeding program. . . . Mr. C. Murray Keilty, father of Mrs. Marian Wait, CKC New Brunswick Director. Mrs. Wait is grateful for the many cards of sympathy received from fellow dog fanciers across Canada.

Time to order 'Touring with Towser'

Planning to take the family pet on a vacation trip this summer? If so, now's the time to order the favorite book of traveling dog owners, "Touring With Towser."

The 56-page book, published by the Gaines Dog Research Center, lists thousands of hotels and motels in the United States and Canada that accept guests with pets. Also included are helpful hints to make traveling more enjoyable for the family and the pet.

A copy of "Touring With Towser" can be obtained by sending 50 cents in coin or cheque to Gaines Dog Food Division, 2200 Yonge St., Toronto, Ont.

1972 is a very good year!

Still in the "land of the living"

Mr. Sparkes exhibits on only rare occasions on account of his heavy judging schedule. He has been judging All Breeds since May 1922.

To date this year we at Kamel Kennels have sold some of the finest young stock we have ever bred. We are particularly pleased that Kamel representatives have gone to outstanding Bulldog Kennels in all parts of Canada and the U.S.A., keeping up the high standards we have always worked to maintain by importing the Best "Stud" Bloodlines available.

Our Judging activities have been reactivated this year and we have further engagements booked ahead both here in Canada and the U.S.A.

Our two latest imports have also arrived this year – Fred Emery of Wyngrove and Thatchway Inquisitor – and have proven themselves as sires of the first order.

Sire: Ch. Valwra Red Ensign ex Thatchway Elite.

Our other three imports – as below – are still young dogs who have proved over and over again their prepotent qualities.

Obedience is ripe for new challenge

Guest Editorial
by AUDREY LAMBERT

We have made great progress since the day that the German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada introduced us to obedience trials. Shepherds dominated the scene. An entry in Utility was a big deal. A score of 190 or over was a real triumph; a cup and saucer for a trophy. Now we have training classes that process 200 students of an evening. Renowned professionals offer a wide variety of training methods. Perfect and near perfect scores are relatively common. From the tiniest toy to the largest working breed, all six groups are well represented. Triple trials with huge entries; dogs with degrees in three and four countries. We have made great progress.

Let's take a second look. Exhibitors attentively watched each other perform and speculated as to the score attained. They hotly argued training methods, lingering long after the last ribbon was presented. Today, all too frequently, the magnificent trophy for highest score of the day is presented amidst the litter left by hundreds of people to a scattering of applause that echoes in an empty building. All challenges have been met. The perfect score. The first in your breed. Record entries. Young and vigorous dogs with UDs. What now?

Detroit and Windsor got together and held the first 'World Series Dog Obedience Tournament.' My heartiest applause! Finally something more, a competitive sporting event. One step in the right direction.

Mrs. Winnifred G. Strickland has earned attention as a trainer, judge and author. Her Shepherds hold breed, obedience and tracking titles. She has conceived and tested five exercises for a Working Dog Degree that I think warrant consideration.

The Control Exercise—the dog must go out 60', sit on command, come half way back, down, crawl 10', stand stay, come and finish.

Vocabulary Exercise—a leather glove, a dumbbell, a folded leash and a basket are placed in a square by the judge who then designates which of the four articles is to be retrieved. The dog must retrieve the correct article on command, i.e. 'Glove, get the Glove.'

Search Exercise — while heeling, the handler drops a 2" by 3" brown leather key case, then proceeds on and halts facing away from the key case. The judge places an identical key case two feet from the original one, continues as in scent discrimination.

Agility Exercise — on one command the dog takes four different hurdles placed 18' apart. A high jump, a bar jump, a window jump and a barrier. The window height is the same as the first two jumps, with a 20" square window through which the dog must jump. The barrier is twice the height of the others with a maximum of five feet, and has a platform on the back. The dog climbs rather than jumps the barrier.

Long Jump — a series of jumps all the same height must be cleared in one jump. The largest dogs clearing jumps two feet high and spaced over a distance of eight feet.

Mrs. Strickland states 'These exercises are only for the most intelligent and agile dogs, but to those who meet the mental and physical requirements here [illegible] new challenge.' I believe [illegible] obedience is ripe for a new [illegible] lenge. Is this it? What do [illegible] think?

Selfishness spoils it again

Once again a handful of selfish dog people have spoiled things for everyone. At a recent show exhibitors were delighted to find a huge, free parking area reserved for them adjacent to the show building and just a step from the unloading ramp. Things were really looking up—or so they thought.

But, inevitably, the next morning things had changed. When they drove in expecting to park in the same area, the lot attendants asked: "Are you with the dog show?"—and they made it sound so second-rate. When the answer was in the affirmative their answer was: "Sorry, but you can't park here today. You have to use the other lot"—and they indicated an area a good two city blocks away.

The answer to this change was simple. Not being satisfied with a good, close parking spot, some exhibitors left their cars all along the "No Parking" zones neatly blocking off the building entrances. And although requests to move their vehicles were announced over the P.A. system throughout the day-long show nobody paid a bit of attention to them. So the management [illegible] only thing it could and still [illegible] ply with the police and fire [illegible] partment regulations. [illegible] placed that parking area "[illegible] bounds" for all those who [illegible] exhibiting dogs.

One day it would serve the [illegible] fish ones right if those inv[illegible] tow trucks that the announ[illegible] are always referring to did [illegible] terialize and drag off the par[illegible] offenders' cars. If the exhib[illegible] are as smart as the dogs [illegible] show, one lesson like this [illegible] to be enough.

Canadian handlers

Further to your March issue "in praise of Canadian handlers." I read with considerable interest of the pleasant experiences which this well known breeder/judge has had with certain Canadian professional handlers—and humbly take this opportunity to applaud a very sincere lady for bringing these points to the attention of readers.

Although regrettable, it sometimes happens in a true profession that there are those few who do not, nor will not maintain standards which meet with the approval of the majority—and this in any country!

The Canadian Professional Dog Handlers Association has letters patent dated 6 April 1972, from the Minister, Consumer and Corporate Affairs. Its application and By-Laws were submitted through the office of the Associations's solicitor.

The C.P.D.H.A. was formed as the result of numerous conversations across Canada with longtime successful breeders and exhibitors, judges, executive members of show-giving clubs—not in a hurry, but over a period of some 14 months, and the overall conclusion: "it's needed, and it's overdue"!

Our founder members have many objectives in mind, and here are a few: to co-operate with the CKC, clubs, breeders, etc. in all areas of mutual interest and benefit—to make simple the recognition and the separate functions of the professional handler, and that of the agent—to place the handling of dogs for reward on a truly professional basis—to establish and insist adherence to a code of ethics for and by its members.

To become a member, the applicant will be required to meet standards of experience with dogs and dog shows, have adequate kennel facilities (or the use of same), and as said before be prepared to abide by the code of ethics. A member will be required to apply annually for renewal of membership.

Those who become members will benefit in many ways, since one object of the Association is "service" in the broadest meaning of that word, to its members and by its members to each other.

Most have said "it's long overdue."—Alan Hearne, Association President, Stittsville, Ont.

Correction re situation In Hawaii

Nice of you to use the article from my friend Mrs. Fisher regarding my Hawaiian safari but a correction, please. Rabies is nonexistent in all of Hawaii (eight islands). Heartworm is prevalent in most islands except the big island called Hawaii. Honolulu, for instance, is on the island of Oahu. Our plantation overlooking Kealekekua Bay is on the Kona coast of the big island of Hawaii. This island has no night-flying mosquitoes hence no heartworm.—Maria Hazeldine-Hall, Toronto

Advantages of the older dog

Having received my April issue and read with interest your article on canine pensioners, I would like to tell you of my experience with and appreciation of a breeder of my favorite breed, the Pembroke Welsh Corgi.

Several years ago I purchased my first Corgi from Mrs. Pamela Mack, Dorval, Que., and started her in obedience training, which was interrupted by a trip to England for a year. Of course, we took our Corgi with us. She spent six months in quarantine with no ill effects and when we returned to Canada we continued with her training.

Three years later we bought a male puppy from Mrs. Mack. Last July our beloved bitch died at 13 years. Our grief seemed inconsolable. When I told Mrs. Mack about Penny, she kindly offered me one of her older bitches for whom she wanted a good home. Six years old, the same age as our male, we accepted her right away. She has been with us for six months and is a constant joy. Our male thinks she's marvellous too. She has now started in obedience training and is doing as well as the younger dogs. We're grateful to Pamela Mack for letting us have such a strong, healthy and youthful dog and hope that other breeders will try to find homes for their older dogs when their usefulness as producers of puppies is over. And we hope prospective owners will not reject an older dog as they have many years of love and pleasure and companionship to give.—Mrs. H. Fogg, Two Mountains, Que.

Pen pal wanted

I have received a letter from a Corgi breeder in Australia who is interested in writing to a Canadian breeder. As I have ceased breeding, perhaps someone else is interested. If so, I would be happy to forward the letter, photos of Corgis and pamphlet of her kennel breeding to anyone sincerely interested in writing to her.—Welshire Reg'd., 268 Indian Creek Rd. W., Chatham, Ont.

Akita owners sought

We would like to contact Akita owners in Canada with the intention of forming an organization to promote the Akita. Of primary importance here is to set up a body to register Akitas in Canada as well as work towards recognition by the CKC. This is very important because of the elimination of the miscellaneous class, leaving us unable to show our dogs. All correspondence should be addressed to Miss Sonia Sitz, 1807—12 Ave. S., Lethbridge, Alta.—Joy Kennedy

A real dog lover

The article on pensioners is terrific! Here, we are considered a bit eccentric because our earlier "deadwood" receives the same care the top dog for the kennel gets—with nearly 50 Smooths we do have a rather large geriatric group. It requires much time, special diets, pills for kidneys, hearts, etc. and patient care for some elders going deaf with age and losing vision too. It also requires lots of extra "TLC" as the oldersters' feelings are easily hurt. They put us where we are—not it's our turn to repay them. It's as simple as that. Your cartoonist Nat is priceless! They cheer us all up—always. —Jane Kuska, Crag Crest Kennels, Colfax, Calif.

For cropping ears

Breeds that look better with cropped ears need cropped ears. Any of my dogs that are cropped don't suffer. We have some of the best vets in the country in New Brunswick and if that isn't enough we live right on the border of the States and the[re] there are very good at cropp[ing]

No cross-breds in obedience

There have been three letters in Dogs in Canada asking if cross-bred dogs can compete in obedience trials at dog shows held under CKC dog show rules and regulations.

During the 11 years I was a Director of the CKC I was a member of two partial and one full revision of the Constitution or Bylaws, also all dog show rules and regulations to clarify our position. The Charter that was granted to the CKC was brought out and the members of the board were able to read it for their guidance in making certain revisions and I can remember the first words to this effect and I quote: "This Charter is granted to The Canadian Kennel Club to encourage the breeding and exhibiting of pure-bred dogs." I would advise all members to read the subjects on the reverse side of their CKC membership cards. I fully agree cross-bred dogs are as intelligent as pure-bred dogs and are just as loving as pure-breds. But rules are rules and must be lived up to.–Ellen Brown, Wallaceburg, Ont.

RCMP needs to change policy

I am writing about an article in our local paper which should be of interest to all dog owners. According to this item a German Shepherd Dog, Rocky, is facing the death penalty at the early age of nine years after nearly lifelong service to his country. It also stated that it is the usual policy of the R.C.M.P. to destroy all police dogs after they have outlived their usefulness.

If this is true it is surely the blackest mark on the record of our famous Mounties. It makes sickening reading.

In contrast to this, I relate another article from the United States. A German Shepherd, Major Von Luckner, was honored on his 18th birthday by the U.S. Marine Corp. for his service in the Korean War. He was badly wounded, twice, and when he was near death an army surgeon performed an operation which required a metal plate in his head which he still wore on the 18th birthday.

It may be too late to save Rocky but it should make people think and wonder about this country of ours where life is so cheap and property so valuable and capital punishment abolished for the human animals. I would hope for a better death for our noble police dogs.–Frances Gibbons, Strathroy, Ont.

Breeders have a responsibility

It is well understood that the radio is a fine medium of communication, however, I have found it to be a most upsetting one in the past few weeks. We have, as I'm sure every city does, many open line shows here in Vancouver and it is almost impossible not to switch one on at some time or other during the day.

While driving home two weeks ago I was shocked and somewhat dismayed to hear one commentator, in a discussion re the S.P.C.A., say that it was rumored that in the near future it would likely become mandatory that the S.P.C.A. turn unclaimed animals (after a certain fixed number of hours or days) to research committees for experimental uses.

As if this was not enough to dismay me, today one commentator entertained a Mr. Ray Hull who has written a book "Man's Best Fiend" (I think was the title), soon to appear on bookstands. In this book he gives recipes for the cooking of various breeds of dogs and suggests that in the future dogs will be bred for man's consumption. Not only that but suggested to one woman that had a stray dog killing her chickens to put out poison bait to kill the animal, and suggested to another woman terrified of a dog in her neighborhood that she shoot the animal. You would not believe the number of callers who had something or other to complain about re the nature of the dogs in their area, although there were some of us who managed to get the point across that we thought he was sick.

In any case, I suggested to him and for the protection of our animals, and I suggest to all breeders in Canada, that rather than have these people complaining about the overpopulation of dogs and the overpopulation of wild dogs and whatever sick solutions evolve from these complaints that we as breeders take it upon ourselves to protect our fancy by having something in the way of a law passed that makes it mandatory for all breeders offering animals for sale to be licensed and subject to a fine if they are not licensed. This would certainly cut down on the population of dogs, as would breeders taking it upon themselves to spay and/or neuter all animals to be sold as pets. Then chance meetings of pets on the street and subsequent unplanned breedings would not happen. This would also cut down the population.

I, personally, can't bear the thought of people entertaining the ideas put forth on these radio programs and would hope that we, as dog lovers, can find a common way to combat them.–Mrs. R. Carmen, North Vancouver, B.C.

Correction, please

Something new with Northern Interior

Besides the annual cash prizes offered along with trophies and ribbons, the Northern Interior Kennel Club, Prince George, B.C., is trying something new this year. Instead of rubber matting the dogs will parade on rubber backed indoor-outdoor carpeting, a first in western Canada. Our May 28 sanction match will give this new idea a trial run. Another feature this year is the addition of three licensed obedience trials. –Mrs. N. Lopaschuk, Prince George

More obedience, please

Just received the May issue. As always, enjoyed your excellent articles. However, I did not see any mention of the obedience trials held in conjunction with the Sportsmen's dog shows. I know all concerned worked really hard to make the trials a success. How about giving the obedience people the recognition they so richly deserve. –Albert Ullmann, Toronto

And so they are—in this issue featuring the subject.

Obedience

Send correspondence direct to Jake Giacomelli, 51 Wardrope St. S., Stoney Creek, Ont.

The Choke Chain and Off Lead award should go to the Peterborough Obedience Club for their amply matted rings in their recent trials. Some of the matting appeared quite new, so it is obvious that an effort is being made to present the best ring conditions for their exhibitors. Also, their out of sight exits were ideally located and the trophy table, as usual, was excellent.

At the recent trials I have attended I've observed a recurrence that has happened too often to be coincidental. I've noticed in the Directional Jumping exercise that whatever jump the judge orders the handler to send his dog over for the first jump (whether it be the high or the bar jump) the judge will continue sending all the dogs in his Utility class in the same sequence that the first dog was given.

The only reason I can think of for this is because the obedience regulations state that "standardized judging is of paramount importance" and as a result of the wording quite a few of the judges I have seen must apply it to the Directional Jumping exercise as well.

Perhaps for the benefit of these judges and the exhibitors who show under them this point should be brought out and discussed.

In Chapter II of the regulations under this exercise it tells both the judge and the handler how the exercise should be done. The handler, after he has sent his dog out, will usually (after the dog has gone back far enough) give the command "Fido, sit" — whereupon the dog usually stops, turns around and sits. Then it goes on to say that "he need not sit squarely". Now comes the important part that I am sure is being disregarded by some — the regulations now read as follows:

"The Judge will then designate which jump is to be taken first by the dog." To me, and I'm sure to many other judges, this means you decide after the dog has stopped which jump the dog takes first and this selection could alternate with each dog, or you might give the bar jump first to three dogs in a row and then switch over to the high for the first jump. It all depends on your own personal reasoning as to why each dog gets a certain jump first.

What I'm getting at is that just because the first dog is given the bar or high for his first jump you do not have to give the rest of the dogs in Utility the same sequence. In fact, in all probability you should not, because all dogs do not go out to the same spot.

I would say the flexibility of this part of the exercise may be partly to test the dog's obedience, and partly to give the judge the opportunity to avoid sending the dog over a jump that could cause the dog an injury if he were sent to a certain jump from the place the dog has stopped after doing a poor "go".

What I am referring to here is the type of ring where a wall forms one side of the ring. Now, if your dog on his "go out" ends up about five feet beyond the line of the jumps but directly behind the jump furthest away from the wall — you can imagine what could happen if from this point the judge decides to order the handler to send his dog to the jump closest to the wall — the dog could, if jumping (especially if he's a fast, big boy) the high jump, very easily hit the wall and hurt himself. If it were the bar jump he'll probably refuse, because he'd be looking beyond the bar and straight into the wall.

Have you often wondered why larger dogs have refused to take the bar jump that is only 2½ feet from a wall? On a 30-foot wide ring, with two five-foot wide jumps set up, and a minimum of 15 feet between the jumps, it only leaves you 2½ feet from the ring sides, which is very little left for the big boys.

Perhaps the distance between the jumps on our indoor rings should be reduced to a straight 11 feet. This would give a slightly safer margin of three feet between the outer edge of the jump and the ringside.

I'm sure it must be obvious to all of you who read this that the judge can work in your dog's favor on the first jump only. After that, if your dog does a lousy go he'll have to take the wall jump to qualify, regardless where he ends up on his go out.

I guess that's about it for this month; except might add it's sure nice to be able to exhibit a few times just before the judging season gets into full swing again. Try it, you'll like it!

Hamilton Obedience Club is active and well run

by H. M. STEPHENS

Years of watching and occasional active involvement have led me to the conclusion that the Hamilton Dog Obedience Club consistently turns out more well trained dogs than any other training club in Canada. A few weeks back I had the opportunity to attend one of their training classes and observe how they do things.

The club trains in Ancaster, a suburb of Hamilton, in a hall 128' by 56' completely free of pillars and other obstructions. This permits four rings to operate at once and these are needed. The time table on the night I attended gives a good idea of the amount of activity.

Basic Novice	6.45
Open Refresher	6.45
Puppy Class	6.45
Utility Refresher	6.45
Basic Novice	8.00
Basic Open	8.00
Novice Refresher	9.00
Basic Utility	9.00

This elaborate scheduling is necessary to handle the 175 dogs which were attending the winter training classes. The previous fall there were over 200 dogs attending. This number pushed the capacity of the hall to the limit.

Each of these classes had its own trainer and for the larger classes assistants were on hand to help. The club has 18 trainers, all of whom have taken at least one dog through the degree for which they are training and have also taken a class for trainers run by the club from time to time whenever enough members wish one. The club has had no professional trainers since 1958 and the trainers receive no fees for conducting classes.

The club has four licensed obedience judges and several others nearly ready to apply for their license. The four are, Jake Giacomelli, Freida Walls, John Blenkey and Howard Ward, all of whom are in considerable demand.

In addition to the training classes the club runs classes on rules and regulations. These are held on a night separate from the training classes and are for would-be judges, trainers and those members about to take a dog through to its degree.

The club was founded in December, 1952 and has grown from strength to strength. The founding members were Mallin Wilkins, Dorothy Petch, Phyllis Smith, George and Annie Lawless. Originally, the Saunders method of training was used but several years ago they switched to the Koehler method. The change was made by several members attending a conversion course conducted by Dick Koehler, the son of Bill Koehler who developed the method.

In 1965 the club ran its first three-trial weekend in October and have continued with these ever since. The idea was picked up from the Montreal Dog Obedience Training Club who have held these for many years. In addition, a single trial is held in May as well as a correction match open to all and a memorial trophy match which is restricted to members. At this trial the Dorothy Petch Memorial Trophy is up for competition.

The whole impression I gained was of a happy, hard-working group of members lead by a strong executive. These are Ralph Latta, President; Bill Shields, Vice-President; Jake Giacomelli, Past President; Donna Walters, Secretary and Gwen Smith, Treasurer, plus three directors.

This was the first club to run puppy classes in Canada for pups starting at eight weeks. The graduates of the early puppy classes are now well on their way to their CDX and UD degrees. Everyone involved is most enthusiastic about this early start and they are now a feature of the training program.

Each week the members of the basic classes receive printed homework for the next week's class. These are continually revised by a committee which meets regularly for this purpose. Any serious obedience training club would be well advised to compare their own activities with the Hamilton operation.

to 3,000 paid admissions. Line-ups waiting to get in to see the dog show were four abreast at one point during the afternoon and the crowd so dense at the entrance to the dog show that the escalator servicing the lower floor was stopped temporarily while visitors were admitted into the show and the area cleared sufficiently to receive more.

Such an unprecedented response delighted everybody—building management, club committee and exhibitors. Many hailed the St. Catharines show as "the Cobo Hall of Canada" which, for those who may not be familiar with it, is Detroit's great exhibition hall across the river from Windsor, Ont., the scene of many great dog shows where the gate regularly tops 8,000.

The Niagara Falls Board of Tourism, sensing a tourist attraction, extended every courtesy to the club and provided free motel accommodation for visiting judges. The Refrectory, a nearby restaurant operated under The Niagara Parks Board, was engaged for an after-show buffet on Saturday.

If news of the shows gets around and if the St. Catharines club is lucky enough to come up with the same accommodation next year, the best advice would be to get your entries, and your dinner reservations, in early.

In the Field

RETRIEVERS

Address correspondence on Retrievers in the field to Miss Sandy Briggs, R.R. 1, Markham, Ont.

The 1972 Indoor Invitational field trials at the Canadian National Sportsmen's Show were well attended both by well known dogs and handlers and by record-breaking crowds of spectators.

For nine consecutive nights, dogs ran a complicated series of tests which tried the marking ability and handling ability of every dog entered. Triples, blinds, bulldogs, and a real hunting test where the dogs were left on a platform and the handler stood about 30 feet away from the dog in a "blind" while the triple mark was thrown, were all run each night so that every dog had a chance to compete in the same tests.

The winner from each night advanced to the finals which were judged by Billy Wunderlich on March 26. Nine finalists were: F.T. Ch. Bigstone Scout, handled by Jim Weitzel; F.T. Ch. Glen Logie's Beau Marque, Lou Carroll; F.T. Ch. Buck of Ghent, Len Ikonen; F.T. Ch. Toni's Jerry, Bud Robbins; Dual Ch. Forget-me-not's Judd, Pete Pokulok; F.T. Ch. and Nat. Ch. '68 and '70 Mi Cris Drambuie, Barry Clute; Rambler Rose, Dr. Turney Williams; Nascopie Samara, Neil Dyson handled by Jim Thomson; and F.T. Ch. Bonnie Brooks Tuff and Half, C. Cooney, handled by Jim Weitzel. The last dog was the '70 and '71 winner of the Purina Gold Whistle at these indoor trials and was also the only Golden Retriever to advance to the finals. All other finalists were black Labradors.

Billy Wunderlich had a different set of tests to those run during the week, and after the last test the three winners were announced, and first place and the Purina Gold Whistle for 1972 going to Dual Ch. Forget-me-not's Judd, owned and handled by Pete Pokulok of Toronto. In second spot was F.T. Ch. Glen Logie's Beau Marque, owned and handled by Lou Carroll of Toronto. Third placing went to F.T. Ch. Bigstone Scout, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fajen and handled by Jim Weitzel of Painesville, Ohio.

Commentators of the field trials were Ted Curl and the late Al Boliska, and they explained the tests, the various handling signals and whistles to the crowds that filled the seats and stood all around the wall of the arena floor. The ringside spectators took great delight in talking to the dogs and taking their pictures as they quested for the birds — which were difficult enough for the dogs to find among the flame-proofed leaves and trees in the arena. Adding to the difficulty of scenting were the myriad of smells of popcorn, pizza, hamburgers etc. from the stands outside the arena, and the fresh scent of the Wrestling Tigers which were loose in the arena immediately prior to the trials each day. (The tigers were allowed to wrestle with three "volunteers" and the finale had a tiger turned almost loose (on a 50' rope) chasing one "volunteer" around the arena and into the water!)

On April 23 the Ontario Retriever Field Trial Association and the Labrador Owners Club sponsored a Judges Workshop-in-the-field. In spite of pouring rain mixed with snow and strong winds, a hardy 50 people turned up to watch and learn about handling and marking a Junior dog, including owner-handlers from as far as Kitchener, Burlington and Sudbury.

Len Ikonen of Kitchener, Gord Tuck of Toronto and Bob Campbell of Stouffville started the workshop with a discussion on what they looked for in judging and answered questions from the floor. Then, out into the rain and wind, and a long single was set up which all three judges explained was a difficult Junior single. Eight dogs ran the test and completed it in eight different ways. After each dog had run, the judges discussed the performance and marking of the dog with the gallery and then everyone rushed back to the lodge of the Cold Creek Conservation Area for coffee and lunch.

After lunch a double was set up and six dogs ran this test. Again, each performance was analyzed after the dog had completed the test. Line manners, style, bird handling and so forth were all discussed and then everyone went into the lodge for a further question and answer period. The day went extremely well and all those present learned something about working and judging a Junior dog and interpreting the rules.

This workshop was originally discussed at the September meeting of the Ontario Retriever Field Trial Association. Orest Andrews from the Sudbury club had mentioned that a session like this had been organized previously and had been highly successful and could be of greater benefit than a lecture or talk followed by a question and answer period. The Labrador Owners Club representative then offered to host the first workshop and made available the club's winter training trial grounds at Cold Creek Conservation Area.

The dogs that were run were all between the ages of 14 and 26 months (the latter, overage for a Junior dog). When a handler made a handling error it was commented on at once. For example — handler lining the dog for the gunners before the test; poor line manners etc. Handlers were thus able to improve their techniques and learn how their dogs could improve their marks. Although everyone got wet and cold and the weather made it a really difficult task for both the gunners and throwers and the judges, it was agreed that everyone had enjoyed the day and had found it most informative. It is hoped that other member clubs of the O.R.F.T.A. will take turns in hosting further workshops in the future, so that eventually a series of workshops will be held right across Ontario, making it possible for all interested field triallers to get to at least one such event.

Informative new book on anatomy is now available

About a year ago Quartilles International published a series of transparent illustrations in color, with a commentary and full index by Dr. R. N. Smith, of Bristol University, called "An Anatomy of the Horse." This splendid production has been followed by another, no less remarkable, called "An Anatomy of the Dog," by the same author.

The technical methods of production need not concern us here: the point is that the result is a series of fascinating and easily understood color plates, demonstrating the way in which the body of the dog is put together, and how (and why) it works.

There is a "family tree" to illustrate the relationships between wild species and the domestic animal, and a brief section on biological facts; both are instructive, but the truly extraordinary quality of the publication, as with "the horse," resides in eight color plates, plus the cleverly contrived index.

It is difficult to imagine that anyone who is professionally concerned with the dog (to say nothing of thousands more or less amateurishly interested, in whatever breed) will not consider this publication a downright bargain for the outlay of $2.95—the same as the cost of "the horse." Both may be ordered from Dogs in Canada, 2323 Yonge St., Toronto 12, Ont. Add 35¢ for handling and mailing.

this day. Paul and his team came home well in advance of their rivals to win the lion's share of the $500 prize money put up by Gaines who sponsored the race.

Paul is very much involved with dogs. He operates Klondyke Kennels in Whitehorse where he is breeding sled dogs and running a boarding kennel. He usually has about 60 of his own dogs in the kennel. As our picture illustrates, each dog is chained to a wire which runs between two trees and each has his own dog house. Feed-time means a long walk to get the food out to every dog.

Another driver of interest was Stephen Frost of Old Crow, Y. T. Stephen is probably better known for his two daughters who provide Canada's first real hope for medals in international cross country ski racing. The discipline of his team was outstanding. He brought them up to the start line with no fuss or bother, deliberately driving them in and out between the other teams to bring them up to the starting area allotted to them prior to staking them out in readiness for the start. The other teams were hitched tandem, two, two and then the lead dog or dogs. Stephen had his team hitched tandem but with the dogs alternating along the pull rope. This meant a slightly longer pull rope but the dogs ran very close to the center line. Stephen explained that in the bush around Old Crow, he had to keep his dogs close to avoid the dogs choosing to pass on opposite sides of the same tree. No driver was using the fan hitch which is popular with the Eskimos when travelling on ice.

The race was run on the Yukon River on a nice calm day with the temperature a steady 35° below. The race was held on Thursday, March 9, after having been postponed from Monday when the strong winds produced a wind chill factor of 81 below. The course was two legs of 1½ miles out and back. The day was clear and spectators on the river banks could see all the action from start to finish.

The Arctic Winter Games included a full range of activities, ski races (cross country and downhill), figure skating, basketball, table tennis. His Excellency the Governor General and Mrs. Michener were very active throughout the week. Petra Burka, the beautiful figure skater was charming all she met, including the sled dogs. It is intended that these shall be a biennial event with the 1974 games scheduled for an Alaska site. Anyone wanting a winter trip that is different should keep these in mind. Get your team ready and practice that bed roll start.

Most have said "it's long overdue"!!!

THE CANADIAN PROFESSIONAL DOG HANDLERS ASSOCIATION

L'ASSOCIATION PROFESSIONELLE CANADIENNE DES DREUSSEURS DE CHIENS

formed under letters patent, 6 April 1972, issued by the Minister, Consumer and Corporate Affairs, Ottawa.

Founder Members:

Luc Boileau, P.Q.
Susann Hearne, Ont.
Alan Hearne, Ont.
Elaine Mitchell, Sask.
Patricia Tripp, B.C.
Mark Webster, B.C.

The professional handling of dogs is an honourable occupation if those engaged in it are honourable men and women, with the essential of personal integrity.
One object is "service" in the broadest meaning of that word, to its members and by its members to each other. There are many other objects of mutual interest, for those who love dogs.

An Association is only as good as its members — full and part-time handlers (and assistant handlers) are invited to enquire of details and membership.

Secretary C.P.D.H.A.,

Study is under way on milk tetany problem

The owner of a female dog with a new litter of puppies may face a perplexing situation. The bitch may suddenly become nervous, start to pant and whimper, lose muscular coordination and become stiff. She may go into convulsions and run a high fever. She will be unable to nurse her pups.

The animal is a victim of milk tetany, or puerperal tetany as it is called by veterinarians. This metabolic disease is characterized by a low level of calcium in the blood stream which occurs when the dog's internal calcium regulating mechanism fails to compensate for periods of peak calcium drain while the pups are nursing.

Unfortunately, veterinarians are less able to prevent this condition than they would like to be because little is known about its predisposing causes.

A. Robert Twardock, D.V.M., Ph.D., a scientist at the University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine, hopes to change that. He is conducting a study with a grant from the Seeing Eye, Inc., Morristown, N.J., given through the Morris Animal Foundation, Denver, which sponsors research into the diseases and health problems of the companion animals.

Dr. Twardock and his colleagues are investigating the relationship between inadequate amounts of calcium and phosphorous in the diet and the incidence of the disease.

At present the best thing the owner can do if his dog gets puerperal (relating to the period following birth) tetany is take the animal to a veterinarian immediately.

Veterinarians report that the disease is more common in the smaller breeds of dogs, which are more excitable.

Luxury training hotel for Caracas canines

CARACAS, Venezuela—When well-travelled judge William Dawson of Langley, B.C., judged in Caracas in February he was invited to visit a remarkable boarding and training school at Los Teques about 20 miles from the city. The establishment is built into the mountain side and is beautifully landscaped with palms and flowering shrubs. The runs are large and airy mountain breezes are invigorating. German Shepherds and Doberman Pinschers are the breeds most frequently in residence. Each dog has its own smartly styled dog house and spacious run. Twenty employees are on staff.

This is Mr. Dawson's third judging assignment here. While in Trinidad he judged the largest entry ever in Port of Spain. The dogs are mainly imported from Germany and the British Isles. No Canadian or American dogs were entered.

The German Shepherds, Boxers, Basset Hounds and Yorkshire Terriers were especially good, he noted.

RANDOM THOUGHTS

Anyone interested in submitting random thoughts for this column should submit them directly to Mr. James G. Reynolds, Box 3138, R.R. 3, Ottawa, Ont.

New York has its Dog Fanciers Association. England has its Dog Centre. Is it not time that Canadian dogdom developed a central organization which would aid in organizing trips, seminars, etc.? Thus far this has been left, for the most part, to breed clubs. Unfortunately, many breed clubs are too small for this but a central organization could pool these smaller efforts for the benefit of all.

Why are so many clubs so little interested in their exhibitors that they fail to make certain that soap and tissue are available all day in washrooms?

As our shows become larger and larger it becomes more difficult to find suitable sites for them. Many of the most desirable buildings are not available because of past bad experiences that property owners have had with dog people. It would behoove us all to remember this and be more careful in our treatment of the buildings and grounds which host us.

Haymarket Faultless scores after judges deadlocked

by ROBERT W. COLE

The suspense rose and the tension increased in New York Madison Square Gardens as two judges debated which of the two dogs remaining in the show ring would be crowned the 1918 "Champion of Champions". The final choice lay between the sensational oriental winner Ch. Phantom of Ashcroft, and Ch. Haymarket Faultless the fantastic white gladiator. Phantom had been imported from the famous Ashcroft Pekingese Kennels and his purchase price was reportedly $6,000.00. An impressive sum for those days and an amount to be reckoned with even today. The heavily coated, aristocratic descendant of the royal dogs of Imperial China entered the ring to face the strong, muscled, proud, pit fighter whose lineage traced back to the war dogs of old Britain.

Through the process of joint collaboration and elimination two of America's greatest all-rounders, Charles G. Hopton and Vinton P. Breese, had narrowed the field down to these two final contenders. The field for judging Best in Show had been huge because the system of Group judging as we know it today had not yet come into vogue and each breed had been represented by one finalist. Without the Best in Groups the emphasis was on the breed classes which were well attended and had large entries. Enno Meyer, also an all-rounder, had judged the 39 Bull Terrier entries. He was chairman of the committee that drew up the revised Standard and was as knowledgable concerning the breed as was the previously mentioned BIS judge Charles G. Hopton.

Mr. Hopton knew his Bull Terriers and had been importing good stock as far back as 1902. He had recognized Ch. Haymarket Faultless' worth early in the day and had continued to put him up to this final stage. Fanciers of the breed were confident of what his final choice would be for they had never seen a better balanced representative in America. Mr. Hopton continued to examine the Peke, but it was Mr. Breese who commanded the attention of B.T. fanciers. Would he decide in favor of Haymarket Faultless? One could see he admired this "White Cavalier" who stood frozen as if carved in marble. He walked over to him again and examined the strong coffin shaped head that was then preferred in America and the tiny, slanted eye placement, stepping back to evaluate expression. Combined with the correctly cropped ears of the period, the powerful under jaw, width of head and inscrutable look the dog represented all that was Bull Terrier. Running his fingers unnecessarily back along the muscular sloping shoulder to the withers, pausing on the level back then tracing the arch over the loin to come to rest on the powerful second thigh seemed to the audience a desire to communicate justification for bringing the dog up this far. But was he fully satisfied? Faultless never moved a muscle and seemed if anything to expand, filling his already tight skin like a very tight white leather glove. Nowhere was there any exaggeration of any one part, all parts fitting together in a beautiful, harmonious whole.

Ch. (Can. & Am.) Haymarket Faultless, 1918 BIS, Westminster

Determination written on his face, Mr. Breese had made his decision and turning to his fellow judge said, "I favor the Bull Terrier"!

It now remained for Mr. Hopton to concur. But this was not to happen. He knew his Bull Terriers but he had been an all-rounder for many years and never had he had the pleasure of examining such an excellent Pekingese, and answered, "I believe the Peke to be the better dog". Even those at ringside who might not have had a full appreciation of this eastern breed began to sense that the quality of this beautiful tiny creature was a real threat.

The tension could be felt by all, neither judge would budge. For one seemingly long moment they looked steadily at one another, then without another word they both turned to the arbiter, that great personality George S. Thomas and invited him to enter and break the deadlock. For Mr. Thomas a better stage could not have been set. This was the type of dramatic moment that he enjoyed and the audience was on tip toe.

There was a hush as the two judges moved to the side of the large ring leaving the two dogs to await the final decision. Wrongly accused of lack of fire the Bull Terrier had been called a "wooden dog" when actually he was a natural poser. In contrast to the Peke his short, pure white coat gleamed, the strong hard muscles standing out in bold relief, a matchless combination of type and balance, nowhere was he extreme or overproportioned.

DEADLOCK BROKEN

It was easy to see Mr. Thomas had made his decision before entering the ring, for without hesitation, knowing full well the impact his verdict would have regardless which dog he chose, he took half a dozen resolute strides in the direction of the Bull Terrier, came to a halt and with ring presence equal to the occasion, nodded at Faultless. . . . For the first time in the history of Westminster a Canadian bred and owned dog had emerged victorious, and for the first time in the breed a Bull Terrier had gone Best in Show at the Gardens.

Seemingly quaint today, it is worth repeating an eye-witness account by an excited reporter at this Westminster show. He emotionally described the victory scene in these words. . . .

"Old men acted like schoolboys, young men cheered like the original Indians, society women clapped their gloved hands in an expression of approval". The whole effect in the reporter's opinion created an emotional scene never before experienced in the history of dogdom.

Eng. Ch. Abraxas Audacity, 1972 BIS, Crufts

Faultless was a type that was far more terrier than bull, being leggier and having depth of chest rather than breadth, possessing the North American preference for the longer, brick-shaped head and cropped ear. In England, a broader, lower dog was favored with a head that was egg shaped and wider of skull. This was at a time when Britain was still striving to perfect a natural prick ear after the anti-cropping ban of 1895. Reports at the time indicate a belief in Canada that since the new drop ear was not receiving favor in Britain and as cropping would continue to be permitted on this side of the ocean, survival of the breed rested in the hands of Canadian and American breeders.

Time proved the prophets wrong. . . . A natural prick ear was finally achieved in Britain as well as a superior type. Faultless was used at stud but this new type which had greater esthetic appeal gradually replaced those virtues he had to offer. The indisputable fact is that Faultless was an outstanding representative for his time and the heights he reached have yet to be scaled again. Perhaps when another comes upon the scene with his showmanship, eye-catching movement and all-round excellence the headlines will again read "CANADIAN BULL TERRIER BEST IN SHOW AT WESTMINSTER."

BARK-TRAINING COLLAR

Barking is good and absolutely necessary. But excessive barking is simply a nuisance. Neighbor relations can be strained to the breaking point resulting in legal action or possible harm to the barking dog.

Tri-Tronics Inc., manufacturers of Electronic Animal-Training Products, recognized this problem and set out to solve it in a way that was both effective and humane. The result is the Bark-Training-Collar.

It works automatically by picking up the vibrations from the sound of the bark and at that very instant creates a startling sensation. The dog learns by association. He will curb his excessive barking habit immediately. The collar may remain on the dog as long as necessary. Occasional training periods may be desirable from time to time to reinforce the learning process. Completely safe — yet the most effective bark-training aid ever developed.

The tiny Bark-Training unit is about the size of a half-dollar coin and weighs four ounces. Model BTS (small size) adjusts 8" to 12". Model BTL (large size) adjusts 12" to 18". For extra-large sizes, a Collar Extender may be purchased for $3.00 which adds up to 12" to collar length.

The Bark-Training Collar carries a 90 day warranty against defects in materials, workmanship and long-life energy cell.

Price $42.95 . . . For normal delivery, add $1.50 for handling and postage.

Books

HUNTING WITH: SIGHT HOUNDS: SCENT HOUNDS: POINTING DOGS: FLUSHING DOGS: RETRIEVERS — by Joe Stetson. $1.19 each.

Owners of sporting dogs, particularly new owners, will value the particular book in the above "Sportsman's Library of Gun Dogs" series on their dog's function. Mr. Stetson has digested much information on the functional aspects of all the sporting breeds. The author brings to bear on each book his own personal experience as an owner, judge and gun dog editor of Field & Stream magazine.

Chapters on What the Dog Does, Common Terms Used in Training, Preliminary Training Common Faults, Signals, Transporting Your Dog and Field Rules give a concise, authoritative picture of the field world of your hound, spaniel, retriever or pointer.

I learned something reading each one of these small books. The photos are excellent and there are lots of them. I wish the author had included in his bibliography in the Pointing Dog, Flushing Dog and Scent Hound books further reading in each area of hunting and training. I wish the other books in the series had a bibliography.

I am not sure readers of these kind of brief, introductory books should be referring to "Dollars to Dogs" by Dr. Whitney as a reference but instead might better be directed to "American Beagling" by G. G. Black or "How to Train Your Retriever" by W. F. Brown.

The author takes the reader on a step by step excursion into selecting the best breed for you and training the puppy for the field. These compact volumes lack padding so the prospective reader should not be dismayed by their apparent brevity. The author does not discuss any material not related to his title. Hunting With Sight Hounds, for example, has a chapter "The Dog and the Car". The chapter describes the safest and best way to convey your hound to the hunting grounds. Similarily the Flushing Dog volume looks at "Obtaining the Dog" and the goal of securing a sensible, competent field dog predominates in this chapter.

These books are highly recommended to new owners of sporting dogs. — W. A. McClure

ANNUAL MEETING of THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

FEBRUARY 23-29, 1972

TRACKING TESTS

REPORT OF TRACKING TEST COUNCIL

The Board received and considered the report of the Tracking Test Council (Gordon M. Ashcroft, Chairman).

The Board concurred with the Council's recommendation that the "Procedure", make it mandatory that an applicant judge attend the track-laying as an observer.

APPRECIATION

Before this meeting of the Board adjourned the Board recorded its appreciation of all the arrangements which Mr. Ashcroft had made in connection with the annual meetings at Winnipeg, and instructed the Secretary to convey to those members of the previous Board not on the current Board the Board's appreciation for the services they rendered the Club as members of the Board.

FIELD TRIALS

FIELD TRIALS FOR POINTING BREEDS

The Board referred to the Field Trial Council for Pointing Breeds, for final decision, a letter from the Wainwright Field Trial Association seeking permission to term one of the stakes in its September trial "The Alberta Sharp Tailed Grouse Championship".

The Board also referred to the Council the request of the same Association for an interpretation of Section 1, Chapter 9, of the Field Trial Rules for Pointing Breeds as to whether "the obligatory three points in an 'unrestricted senior open stake', can be obtained in an Amateur Gun Dog Stake or an Amateur All Age Stake".

FIELD TRIALS FOR RETRIEVERS

The Board considered a letter from the Golden Retriever Club of Canada (British Columbia Chapter) seeking approval of proposed regulations on Working Tests for Retrievers and Irish Water Spaniels,

The Board directed that these proposed regulations be published in "Dogs in Canada" and comments be solicited for consideration at a later meeting.

The Board referred to the Field Trial Council for Retrievers the question of policies applicable to the payment of service charges and listing fees on dogs, entered in a licensed field trial, which had been "scratched".

FIELD TRIALS FOR SPANIELS

The Board referred to the Field Trial Council for Spaniels for study and report, a letter from the Central Field Trial Association with regard to proposed new arrangements regarding field trial champions in sporting breeds.

FIELD TRIALS FOR BEAGLES

A proposed amendment (regarding appointment of official measurers in Nova Scotia) to the Field Trial Rules and Regulations was referred to the semi-annual meeting.

The Board referred to the Field Trial Council for Beagles for study and report a proposal received from the Ontario Association of Beagle Clubs on the subject of "Standard Procedures for Beagle Field Trial Run in Small Pack on Rabbits".

GOOD AND WELFARE

RECOGNITION OF CLUBS

The Board received and considered the report of a special Committee (Mrs. Marian Wait, Chairman) which it had appointed to study and report on the question of the relationship of the C.K.C. to clubs (all-breed and specialty) in Canada, particularly those wishing to hold shows and/or trials under C.K.C. rules.

The Board directed that notice of policies proposed by the special committee be published in "Dogs in Canada" and comments be solicited.

The Board referred to the Dog Show Council for study and report a number of observations which the Committee had included in its report.

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN C.K.C. AND CLUBS

The Board considered a "Notice of Motion," (accompanied by a letter from Mrs. Jean Marsh) to be presented at the 1972 annual meeting, the Notice having been submitted by five members in Nova Scotia with regard to "A model for constitutional change affecting relations between The Canadian Kennel Club and local kennel, specialty and obedience clubs".

In the course of discussing the Notice the Board:

(1) Noted that the submission evidently contemplated important changes in the By-laws of The Canadian Kennel Club;

(2) Noted that the submission did not follow the amending procedure set forth in Article XXXVIII (Amendments) of the C.K.C. By-laws;

(3) Agreed that the presentation of the material to the Annual General Meeting would serve no useful purpose for the sponsors would still be required to submit their proposals in the manner provided in Article XXXVIII of the By-laws.

The Secretary was instructed to inform the sponsors of the Notice of the procedure that must be followed if there are to be any changes in the present By-laws.

COURSES AT COLLEGES

The Board referred to the Education Committee (Dr. R. D. Crawford, Chairman) for study and report, letters from the Fanshaw College (London, Ont.), the Humber College of Applied Arts and Technology, (Rexdale, Ont.) and the Mohawk College of Applied Arts and Technology with regard to courses these colleges are offering on the subject of pure-bred dogs.

CHARTER FLIGHTS TO DOG EVENTS

The Board considered a letter from a member suggesting that the C.K.C. give consideration to organizing a charter flight to the 1973 Cruft's show at London, England.

The Secretary was instructed to consult the Club's solicitor as to its responsibility should it sponsor a trip of this nature by air or any other mode of transportation.

NOTICE

SUBJECT: Amendments to C.K.C. By-laws.

A special referendum ballot was conducted concurrent with the election of C.K.C. Officers and Directors for the years 1972-73. The ballot included fifteen proposed amendments to the Club's By-laws. All fifteen received majority affirmative vote from those voting members who returned referendum ballots. All fifteen amendments were then submitted to the Minister of Agriculture for Canada for Ministerial approval as required by the Live Stock Pedigree Act and the Club's By-laws. Ministerial approval was granted on March 23rd, 1972, and the amendments therefore became effective on that date.

For the information of all concerned the fifteen amendments are as follows:

AMENDMENT No. 1

Article XXX, REGISTRATION OF INDIVIDUAL DOGS, has been amended by the deletion of Section 2 (2) reading as follows:

(2) A person resident in Canada may make application for registration of a dog registered in an American stud book or record recognized by the Club provided the certificate of registration, issued by said recognized American stud book or record, shows the ownership of the person applying for registration and provided said certificate accompanies the application for registration.

AMENDMENT No. 2

Article XXX, REGISTRATION OF INDIVIDUAL DOGS, Section 2 (3) reading as follows:

(3) A person resident in the United States may make application for registration of a dog registered in an American stud book or record recognized by this Club provided the certificate of registration issued by said recognized American stud book or record shows the ownership of the person applying for registration and provided said certificate accompanies the application for registration.

has been amended by adding the words "together with a three generation pedigree issued by the appropriate American stud book or record."

AMENDMENT No. 3

Article XXX, REGISTRATION OF INDIVIDUAL DOGS, Section 2 (4) reading as follows:

(4) A person resident in Canada may make application for registration of a dog imported to Canada from a country other than the United States, providing the application for registration is accompanied by an export certificate (or official certificate of registration with satisfactory evidence that the dog has been imported to Canada) issued by the Secretary of a recognized Stud Book or foreign record specifying the breeder, colour and markings, date of birth, intermediate owners (if any), Canadian importer with date of purchase and the known pedigree of the dog to the minimum of three generations;

has been amended by deleting the words "from a country other than the United States,"

AMENDMENT No. 4

Article XXX, REGISTRATION OF INDIVIDUAL DOGS, Section 3 (1) reading as follows:

3. SIGNATURES. (1) If born in Canada the signature in ink of the owner at the time of birth must appear on the application for registration form in the space provided for that purpose.

has been amended by deleting the words "the signature in ink of the owner" and substituting therefor the words "the signature(s) in ink of all owners".

AMENDMENT No. 5

Article XXX, REGISTRATION OF INDIVIDUAL DOGS, Section 3 (2) reading as follows:

(2) If imported to Canada, the signature in ink of the importer must appear on the application for registration form in the space provided for that purpose.

has been amended by deleting the words "the signature(s) in ink of all importers".

AMENDMENT No. 6

Article XXX, REGISTRATION OF INDIVIDUAL DOGS, Section 3 (3) reading as follows:

(3) If owned by a resident of the United States the signature in ink of the owner as recorded in an American stud book or record recognized by this Club must appear on the application for registration form in the space provided for that purpose.

has been amended by deleting the words "the signature in ink of the owner as recorded" and by substituting therefor "the signature(s) in ink of all owners as currently recorded".

AMENDMENT NO 7

Article XXXI, REGISTRATION OF TRANSFERS OF OWNERS, Section 2, second paragraph, reading as follows:

An agreement of this nature may be cancelled by mutual consent of the parties to it; however, all parties to the agreement must notify the recording office of the Club in writing, on forms provided by the Club, that the agreement has been cancelled. Where such cancellation occurs a fee of $10.00 must accompany the application for cancellation. A new certificate will then be issued, the replaced one becoming the permanent property of the Club. Cancellation of such an agreement with regard to a particular dog does not prohibit the subsequent recording of another such agreement with regard to the same dog. The effective date of cancellation of agreement shall be the date on which the properly completed application for cancellation of agreement and cancellation fee reached the recording office of the Club.

has been amended by deleting the last sentence in this paragraph.

AMENDMENT No. 8

Article XXXI, REGISTRATION OF TRANSFERS OF OWNERSHIP, Section 5, reading as follows:

5. An application for registration of change of ownership must be made in ink or typewritten on a form supplied by the Club for that purpose. The certificate may be returned by the recording office to either the applicant or the new owner.

has been amended by deleting the second sentence in its entirety and by substituting therefore the following:

"The certificate will be returned by the Recording Office to the applicant. However, if the certificate is then returned to the Recording Office by the Post Office for any reason whatsoever, the certificate will then be forwarded to the new owner."

AMENDMENT No. 9

Article XXXI, REGISTRATION OF TRANSFERS OF OWNERSHIP, Section 6, reading as follows:

6. If a resident of Canada should purchase a dog exported to the United States, the dog must be registered in an American stud book or record recognized by this Club in the name of the new Canadian owner. The Canadian Kennel Club certificate of registration together with the certificate of registration issued by said recognized American stud book or record must be forwarded to the recording office. No signed application for transfer is required although required transfer fees must be paid.

has been amended to read as follows:

"6. If a resident of Canada should purchase a dog exported from Canada to another country, the dog must be registered in a stud book or record in that country recognized by this Club in the name of the new Canadian owner. The Canadian Kennel Club certificate of registration together with the certificate of registration issued by said recognized stud book or record must be forwarded to the recording office. A properly completed application for transfer, together with the transfer fee is required. If the person exporting the dog to Canada is not the person to whom the dog was exported from Canada, an official statement of the full chain of ownership must be obtained from said recognized stud book or record and must accompany the application for transfer of ownership."

AMENDMENT No. 10

Article XXXIII, DUPLICATE CERTIFICATES, has been amended by deleting Section 1, reading as follows, in its entirety:

"1. A duplicate certificate may be issued if the registered owner or his authorized agent files a statutory declaration on a form supplied by the Club for the purpose of showing in a satisfactory manner that the original is lost, destroyed or unobtainable."

and by substituting therefor the following:

"1. A duplicate certificate may be issued if a statutory declaration, on a form supplied by the Club for the purpose, is filed by the person who was last in possession of the original certificate, showing in a satisfactory manner that the original is lost, destroyed or unobtainable."

AMENDMENT No. 11

Article XXXIV, REGISTRATION OF LEASES, reading as follows:

In case a male or female is leased or loaned for any purpose the form of lease supplied by the Club for that purpose must be filled in, signed by the lessee and lessor and forwarded with the certificate of registration and the required fees to the recording office so that the lease may be recorded. The lease of a dog shall not be recorded on the certificate of registration. The terms, conditions or arrangements agreed on by the lessee and lessor shall be fully disclosed on the application for registration of lease or a copy of the agreement signed by the lessee and lessor shall be attached to the application for registration of the lease.

has been amended by deleting the words "the certificate of registration and", and by deleting the second sentence in the Article.

AMENDMENT No. 12

Article XXXV, FEES, Section 1, reading as follows:

1. All fees for transactions requiring the services of the recording office shall be made payable to The Canadian Kennel Club and should be sent direct to the recording office. They may be in the form of a postal note, post office money order, express money order, bank money order or certified bank cheque payable at par at the office of the records.

has been amended by deleting the words "certified bank".

AMENDMENT No. 13

Article XIII, COMMITTEES, REPRESENTATIVES AND APPOINTMENTS, has been amended by deleting Section 5, reading as follows, in its entirety:

"5. REGISTRAR. The recording office shall assign to the Club a person to act as Registrar. The duties of the Registrar shall be those assigned to him by the Director of the recording office."

and by substituting therefor the following:

"REGISTRAR. The Board will appoint a Registrar, and his duties will be those assigned to him by the Board."

AMENDMENT No. 14

Article XIII (COMMITTEES, REPRESENTATIVES AND APPOINTMENTS) has been amended by the addition of a new Section reading as follows:

15. The Board shall appoint a Finance Committee consisting of three persons (none of whom may be members of the Board) who are reasonably qualified in the principles of accountancy and the operation of budgets. The duties of the Committee shall be as follows:

(a) To review budgets prepared by division heads and to submit recommendations to the Board.
(b) To review the portfolio of the Club's investments and to submit recommendations to the Board.
(c) To review the Club's income and expenditures and to submit recommendations to the Board.

AMENDMENT No. 15

Section 4 of Article XXXV (FEES) has been amended by the deletion of the following:

4. The Board shall have no power to alter the above schedule of fees in any manner whatsoever, nor to institute additional fees, directly or indirectly, for any purpose whatsoever, expect as provided for under Article XXXVIII, AMENDMENTS, of these By-laws, in which case five members of the Board, including the President and two Vice-Presidents, shall comply with Section 2 thereof.

and by the substitution therefor of the following:

4. The Board is empowered to alter, vary, or change fees, including membership fees, institute new fees or discontinue existing fees, subject to the following conditions:

(a) The Finance Committee (appointed as provided in Article XIII of these By-laws) shall have recommended to the Board the proposed changes;
(b) All members of the Club shall be informed of all proposed changes in fees at least three months prior to the application to the Minister of Agriculture for Canada for approval of any change in fees;
(c) The Minister's approval shall be obtained;
(d) The effective date of any change of fees approved by the Minister shall be not less than 30 days after the members of the Club have been advised of any change in fees approved by the Minister pursuant to this Section.

NOTICE

SUBJECT: Proposed amendment to the Obedience Trial Regulations and Standards.

The Board of Directors has considered a proposal of the Obedience Council that the Obedience Trial Regulations and Standards be amended to provide that a specialty club holding a specialty show may be permitted to hold a specialty licensed obedience trial for the breed or breeds for which it is conducting a specialty show. At the present time the Regulations do not permit of a licensed obedience trial for anything less than all breeds recognized by the C.K.C.

The Board has directed that notice of this proposal be published in "Dogs in Canada" and comments be solicited from interested persons and clubs. All such comments should be addressed to the Executive Manager of The Canadian Kennel Club, 111 Eglinton Ave. East, Toronto, Ont. so as to be received not later than August 31st, 1972. When writing please refer to file 12 OB 8.

NOTICE

SUBJECT: Requirements For A Degree In The Maritime Provinces

The Obedience Council and Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club have considered a proposal that steps be taken to amend the Obedience Trial Regulations and Standards so that, in order to earn a degree (C.D., C.D.X., U.D.) in the Maritime Provinces, a dog must earn three qualifying scores under three different judges.

This question will again be considered by the Obedience Council and the Board of Directors and this notice is published in order that all those clubs and persons having an interest in the matter may submit their comments, direct to the Executive Manager of The Canadian Kennel Club, 111 Eglinton Ave. E., Toronto 12, Ontario. All letters of comment should be submitted so as to be received not later than June 30, 1972.

NOTICE

SUBJECT Cosmetic Dog Surgery

At the recent annual meeting of the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club the Board considered letters received from The Canadian Federation of Humane Societies, the Canadian Veterinary Medical Association, and the Ontario Veterinary Association, all of which indicated a feeling that The Canadian Kennel Club should take steps to halt the practice of ear cropping and tail docking.

The Board considered the subject to be one of such importance that the views of all interested clubs and persons should be sought. This then, is an invitation to all interested persons and clubs to submit their comments and suggestions on this subject, direct to, The Executive Manager, The Canadian Kennel Club, 111 Eglinton Ave. E., Toronto 12, Ontario, all such letters to be submitted so as to be received not later than July 31, 1972. When writing, please refer to file No. 11 D 91.

NOTICE

SUBJECT: Judges for licensed obedience trials held under C.K.C. rules.

At its recent annual meeting the Board of Directors considered the report and recommendations of the Obedience Council. In its report the Council had recommended to the Board that the present policies applicable to the selection and approval of a resident of the United States to judge at a licensed obedience trial held under C.K.C. rules be changed to read as follows:

1. A club scheduled to hold a licensed obedience trial under C.K.C. rules and wishing to engage a resident of the United States as judge of one or more classes at its trial must submit, by letter, that person's name to the C.K.C. not less than nine months in advance of its trial.
2. A resident of the United States will be required to complete an application form in a form to be provided by the Council.
3. The Secretary will obtain information from the A. K. C. as to that person's engagements held in the previous two years.
4. The application, and the reply received from the A. K. C. will then be referred to the Obedience Council which will then decide for what Classes, if any, the person will be approved to judge at one trial in Canada.
5. Observers will be appointed to observe and report on that person's judging of that one trial, and the reports of the observers will be referred to the Council.
6. The club engaging that person will be asked to state whether or not they would be prepared to engage that person again to judge at their trials, and their statement will be referred to the Council.
7. The Council will then decide whether or not that person will again be considered to judge at a trial in Canada, it being understood that each subsequent engagement will be on a one-time basis, and at any point of time the person may be informed that no further approval will be granted. Any complaint with regard to that judge will be reported to the Council and kept in that person's file so that if any subsequent engagements are sought the Council will then make a decision.
8. In no case will a resident of the United States be approved to judge any Classes beyond those for which he has been approved by the A. K. C.

The Board decided that before reaching a final decision on the Council's recommendations, that the foregoing would be published and comments be solicited from all interested persons and clubs. All such comments should be submitted to the Executive Manager, The Canadian Kennel Club, 111 Eglinton Ave. East, Toronto 12, Ont., so as to be received not later than July 31st, 1972. When writing please refer to file 12 OB 8.

NOTICE

SUBJECT: At its recent annual meeting the Board of Directors considered the report and recommendations of a special Committee which the Board had appointed to study and report on the question of a type of recognition which the C.K.C. could extend to clubs in Canada formed for the promotion of one or more breeds of pure-bred dogs.

In its report the Committee recommended that the Board give consideration to a system by which clubs in Canada may apply to the C.K.C. for "registration of title" (i.e. registration of the name of the club or association). The Committee submitted its proposals on such a system. The Board directed that such proposals be published, and the comments of all interested persons and clubs be solicited. All such comments are to be submitted to the Executive Manager of The Canadian Kennel Club, 111 Eglinton Ave. East, Toronto, Ont. so as to be received not later than August 31st, 1972. When writing please refer to file G 4.

The following are the details of the proposals submitted by the Committee:

1. APPLICATION

An application to register the title of a club (all-breed or specialty) must be made in accordance with the following procedure:

(a) Application must first be made in the form of a letter giving the proposed title (with at least two alternatives submitted by a 'newly-formed' club), the objects of the club, and any other relevant information.

(NOTE: The words 'newly-formed' club means a club or association which has not held, since January 1, 1967, championship show (all-breed or specialty), or a licensed obedience trial, or a licensed tracking test, or a licensed field trial, under C.K.C. rules.)

(b) A fee of $25.00 is to be remitted to the C.K.C. with the letter of application. The fee will be refunded if the application for registration of title is not approved. If the Board approves the letter of application, then notice of the application will be reported in the Club's official organ and the application will again be considered by the Board along with any objections to the application.

(c) Registration of title automatically expires if a club fails to observe any of these Regulations or whose maintenance of title fee has not been paid to the C.K.C. by March 25th of any year. Such a club shall not be eligible to hold shows or trials, (championship, licensed, or sanction) under C.K.C. rules.

(d) If the Board decided that the application may proceed a form of application will be sent to the applicant club. When completed the application form must be sent to the Executive Manager of the C.K.C. together with a copy (by name of, if published Rules of Order) of the Rules and Order of the club, a copy of its Constitution and By-laws. It must also be accompanied by a list of officers and members of committees together with their addresses.

(e) If the application is submitted by a 'newly-formed' club, then the application must be signed by the Founder Members (in the case of an all-breed club or association located or based in Ontario or British Columbia the number of Founder Members must not be less than 40 in number; elsewhere 25 Founder Members; and in the case of an Obedience or Field Trial Club, 15 Founder Members). These Founder Members shall have donated not less than $5.00 each to a fund for the establishment of the club. The President, Secretary and Treasurer must be included in the Founder Members.

(f) A 'newly-formed' club must not make arrangements to hold shows, field trials, obedience trials, and/or tracking tests until a final decision has been reached by the C.K.C. on the application.

(g) Upon approval of the application the club is then in a position to apply to the C.K.C. to hold two (or more) SANCTION MATCHES under C.K.C. rules. These matches must be operated by the club's Dog Show Committee, or its Obedience Committee, or its Field Trial Committee, as the case may be. A club may not hold more than one sanction match within the period of one year following approval of its application for registration of title.

2. Rules

A guide to the formation of Rules

(a) a rule stating the procedure for the election of (1) Executive officers, (2) Committees (3) members

(b) a rule stating the annual membership fee and the conditions of payment.

(c) a rule stating that a bank account shall be opened in the name of the club into which all revenue of the club shall be paid and from which withdrawals shall only be made on the signatures of two or more officers.

(d) a rule defining the financial year of the club and provision for holding the Annual General Meeting. This rule must also include provision for calling Special Meetings (such as not less than fourteen days notice shall be given in writing to the members of a Special Meeting) No business other than that named in the notice shall be brought before a Special Meeting.

(e) a rule providing for the disposal of any assets of the club should it for any reason cease to exist.

3. Maintenance of Title

(a) After initial registration the club shall apply to the C.K.C. during the month of January in each year for the renewal of the maintenance of title. With this application a remittance of $5.00, the Maintenance of Title Fee, a list of its officers and their addresses. This must be submitted before March 25th., of each year.

(b) All clubs must undertake to keep a minute book, which must contain a full record of all business transacted at general and special meetings, and maintain a system of accounts showing a complete record of the income and expenditure of the club. Such documents belonging to the club, to be produced to the C.K.C. when and if required.

(c) A club failing to observe any of these regulations or whose Maintenance of Title Fee has not been paid by March 25th., in any year, will cease to be recognized by the C.K.C. and will forfeit all claims to its registered title.Such a club shall not be eligible to hold shows, or trials (licensed or sanction).

4. General

(a) the titles International, Dominion, of Canada, of (a Province), of (a County), Canadian, CANNOT be used as suffixes or prefixes unless the club is the PARENT CLUB and prepared to conduct their operation in the following manner:—

The PARENT CLUB must provide information pertinent to that breed(s) (and/or group(s) when necessity arises. It must make available:

1. A breeders list
2. Copies of Standards
3. Reports of shows and matches
4. A Newsletter (at least quarterly)
5. In the case of specific Province or area at least three Directors shall be named. On a National basis a workable division would be (one Maritime, one Quebec, two Ontario, one B.C., one Western Canada). Thus giving six Directors across Canada. These Directors shall be in a position to indicate a further branch of the Parent Club should interest necessitate branches.
6. Voting will be done by ballot to all members.
7. If a club is a parent club on a National basis its Specialty Show(s) shall be rotated to the various Divisions PROVIDING these Divisions have demonstrated their ability and interest to hold a National Specialty; having had successful booster shows.

NOTICE

SUBJECT: British and foreign stud books recognized by The Canadian Kennel Club.

In Article XXVIII of the By-laws of The Canadian Kennel Club there is included a list of British and foreign stud books recognized by the C.K.C. The same Article provides that subject to the approval of the Chief Registration Officer of the Canada Department of Agriculture, the Board of Directors may, from time to time, add to or remove from the list other British or foreign stud books or records.

With the approval of the Chief Registration Officer the Board has prescribed a list of British and foreign stud books recognized by the C.K.C., and that list is published hereunder.

A resident of Canada wishing to obtain C.K.C. registration of a dog imported to Canada should note that foreign documentation accompanying the application for registration must include the following information: breed, name of dog, registration number, sex, color or colours, date of birth, name of breeder, a certified three generation pedigree (14 immediate ancestors of the same breed, with a registration number for each and every dog in the three generation certified pedigree), and record of transfer to the Canadian importer. The documentation must have been issued by a recognized stud book according to the list published hereunder.

If an imported dog was part of a single shipment to Canada which included two or more dogs of the same breed and sex, then the dogs included in the shipment are not eligible for registration with the C.K.C. unless:

(i) before each dog was exported to Canada it was tattoo marked in accordance with the provisions of Article XXVII of the C.K.C. By-laws;

(ii) the record of such tattoo markings appear on the certificate of registration (or export certificate) issued by the recognized stud book or record of the country from which the dogs were exported to Canada;

(iii) each dog in the shipment was accompanied by its certificate of registration or export certificate.

Application for C.K.C. registration of a dog imported to Canada after July 1, 1972, must be accompanied by documentation issued by a British or foreign stud book listed hereunder, otherwise registration will not be accorded the dog.

Registration of dogs in C.K.C. records is confined to specimens of those breeds recognized by the Canadian Kennel Club.

BREEDNOTES

Please send in brief items pertaining to your breed: Canadian dogs in American competition, imports, formation of new clubs, items of interest about various breeds you may find in your reading, results of Sanction and Puppy Matches which are not reported in the CKC section. NOT ACCEPTABLE: material that appears in the CKC "buff colored" section — results of Championship and Specialty Shows and trials, new champions, obedience titles. Mention of new litters, studs, etc. belongs in the advertising columns.

LABRADOR RETRIEVERS

Sandy Briggs—The recently formed Manitoba Labrador Retriever Club held their first specialty show early in May. This is the second Labrador Club in Canada to specify in its Constitution that all members' dogs must be x-rayed and certified clear of hip dysplasia before they are used for breeding. This is a question that more and more purchasers of pups are now asking.

At a recent seminar at the Ontario Veterinary College in Guelph, Dr. Bardens from Illinois was invited to discuss and demonstrate his technique in palpating puppies. About 50 veterinarians from across Ontario attended. There are now several vets in the greater Toronto area who are practising this, but breeders must remember that the actual palpating is an art, not a science. While 20 people might know how to do the palpation, perhaps only a few of them will be able to interpret correctly what they feel and see, and until dogs which have been palpated as young puppies are x-rayed as adults, and the breeders begin to see the average of the accuracy of the palpator, they will just have to trust the veterinary palpator of their choice. With a good palpator, breeders may now be able to retain sound-hipped stock of good type and quality, rather than keeping pups which appear to be good but which subsequently are not going to x-ray clear, after having been housed, trained and shown for a year or more.

The Labrador Owners Club recently held an educational meeting with Dr. W. Allan Ripley, who used to own and operate the Ripley Animal Hospital in Richmond Hill. Dr. Ripley talked with members about intestinal parasites in dogs, their identification, their effects and treatment for them, and answered many questions. He offered to talk to the club again and it is hoped he will be able to come in the Fall to discuss the general care and health of the pet dog today.

WEIMARANERS

Victor Nunn—The April meeting of the Weimaraner Association of Canada attracted 29 members at the home of Bob and Sandy Oakley in King City, and a number of decisions and plans were finalized. Competition to find a suitable club crest was won by J. Wiederhold, Schomberg, who happily claimed his 50 lb. bag of dog food. A total of 16 different designs were submitted, many of a very high standard. The finished product of jacket and crest will be available for purchase sometime this summer. A poll conducted by mail to find out the memberships' attitude toward the blue Weimaraner resulted in a 77% vote in favor of disqualifying the blue from show competition. A decision was made to hold a fun match and picnic at the home of club member Randy May in Stouffville. A tentative date has been set in June and anyone interested in spending a day showing and talking Weimaraners should give Mrs. Lorraine Nunn a call at 278-6529. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carter, who were once prominent Wy breeders under the prefix Ghost Inn, have kindly consented to act as judges.

Dolores and Don Gastmeier wanted just a family pet, but Inga of Castlemore has proved to be no ordinary pet. Her latest achievement was accomplished at the Bytown Obedience Trials in Ottawa, where she earned her CDX degree in three straight trials. Trainer Don has his sights set on UD, TD and Field training. It is not true that Inga has been taught to change the new Gastmeier Baby—not yet!

BEARDED COLLIES

Carol Gold—Another nice turnout of Beardies at the Canadian Collie & Shetland Sheepdog Association Specialty at Montreal! It's good to see the size of entries increasing.

There are a lot of youngsters just entering the ring and the future will be exciting with dogs of this calibre around. For instance, at the Montreal show, the BOS dog, Happy Hooligan of Bengay, was only seven months old! And another baby, seven month-old Raggmopp Bellarmine, took his CD, to the delight of his owner-handler Ron Rose, becoming only the second Beardie to do so! Muriel Ratner, the well-known Sheltie fancier in Montreal who imported the first Beardie that we know of into Canada (Bracky of Bothkennar, in 1963), stood by the ring, saying "I never thought I'd see the day when Beardies—and so many of them—would be shown."

Notes: Television has discovered Beardies! Breckdale Merry Maid of Willowmead made her TV debut in April with her owner, Mrs. Audrey Benbow, on a Montreal talk show. The week before, in Quebec City, Raggmopp Blue Monday, owned by Mrs. Jo Ouellet, appeared on an interview program. Neither "Merry" nor "Tracey" has changed a bit now that they're stars.

Up from the States and keenly watching the Beardies at Montreal was Dr. Tom Davies from the Bearded Collie Club of America. At dinner after the show he sat with the executive of the BCCC and discussed mutual and different problems involved with getting a breed established.

BOXERS

Mrs. E. A. Williams—The Western Canada Boxer Club held its annual banquet on February 19. The following awards were presented: Conformation Dog of the Year, Ch. Wilwyn Madam Sam-I-Am; owner, Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Williams; breeders, Mr. and Mrs. D. Pearman. Conformation Puppy of the Year, Ch. Wilwyn Madam Sam-I-Am. Best Opposite, Ch. (Can. & Am.) Rodonna's El Segundo; breeders, owners, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cole; Breeder of the Year, Mr. and Mrs. D. Pearman. Obedience Dog of the Year, Ch. (Can. & Am.) Brittannian Hari's Last Star; owners, Dr. and Mrs. W. Oldham; breeder, Mr. D. Lindsay-Hawkins.

The club has also embarked on an educational program, including obedience, handling and ring stewarding. At the monthly meeting the club also holds lectures on the breed among other subjects.

Canadian Boxer wins U.S. title—Once again Canadian Boxers continue to win and represent their breed in the United States. Ch. Millan's Queen of Fashion was shown at the prestige show in New York, the ABC National Specialty, in competition with 111 bitches and went RW and from there picked up steam and gained her American title in four shows: Heart of America Specialty, Mid-West Specialty and Chicago International. She was sired by Int. Ch. Millan's Fashion Hint. Breeder, owner is Michael Millan of Thornhill, Ont.

BULLMASTIFFS

Dorothea Daniell-Jenkins—The 1972 Almanac of The American Bullmastiff provides a wide variety of informed articles on Bullmastiffs and Bullmastiff history and over 30 pages of paid advertising, all showing the extent to which this breed has developed and stabilized.

Besides a well illustrated article on the Kerns' Bullmastiffs in Montreal, subjects range from veteran English authority Eric Makins' "Definition of a Good Mouth" to Gene Edwards' "For the Fun of It"—a good section on Canine Hip Dysplasia and list of Bullmastiffs OFA certified free of H.D.; Obedience; novice exhibitors' problems; nutrition; breed news from India and South Africa; fascinating past history; and several pages devoted to illustrations of the Bullmastiff's dual capacity as guard and loved family pet.

1972 Almanac, $3.00 per copy; published by The American Bullmastiff (The Greeleys), Box 330, Syracuse, N.Y. 13201, $5.00 for four quarterly editions.

COLLIES/SHELTIES

Ariel Sleeth, well-known breeder, judge, horsewoman and farm owner reports on the cross-country activities of these breeds. Send your news items to her direct: Sovereign Kennels, R.R. 6, Kingston, Ont. While in Columbus, Ohio (judging 80 Shelties) I met Bob Sterns, a German Shepherd breeder, who read a Dogs in Canada Collie-Sheltie column.

A special treat is forthcoming for Sheltie fanciers. With the kind permission of the author, Jean D. Simmonds, R.D. 2, Oneonta, N.Y., we are going to use some of the illustrations from her very worthwhile book, The Illustrated Shetland Sheepdog Standard.

The following is a study in the body and general appearance of the Sheltie. Using the pictures to illustrate the standard makes for a better understanding of the written word. I think we just lost a reader—a German Shepherd fancier.

The following is being reprinted, in part, through the courtesy of Bright Eyes and Bushy Tales, bulletin for the Canadian Collie and Shetland Sheepdog Ass. Inc.

The Collie Eye Anomaly—Keith C. Barnett M.A. Ph.D., B.Sc. M.R. C.V.S. Department of Veterinary Clinical Studies, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of Cambridge.

Introduction: The Collie eye anomaly is a congenital and hereditary condition causing blindness in the Collie breeds. The defect is widespread in the United States of America, has been recorded in Canada and although it is apparently little known in Great Britain, sufficient cases Poor body: High in rear due to insufficient angulation of hindquarters. Legs too long.

Poor: Back (spine length) too long.

Poor: Too short. Sloping topline due to straight shoulder.

Poor: Bad topline due to weak spine. Lack of depth and substance. Chest too shallow.

Position 2

The correct trot: Side view. Feet are lifted just enough to clear ground. Free flowing movement with no apparent effort.

Poor: Straight stifle causes stiff movement. Prevents full free swing of hind legs.

Poor: Hackney-like action, or "dancing gait," due to insufficient layback of shoulder blade.

are now occurring to warrant its recognition. This report reviews the literature relating to this subject and records the condition in the Collie breeds in this country.

Nomenclature: Some confusion has arisen regarding the Collie eye anomaly due to the multiplicity of terms used by different authors to name and describe it. This point has already been made (Vainisi, 1965) nevertheless it is considered important to list the terminology.

Congenital anomaly of the optic disc (Magrane, 1953)
Congenital posterior ectasia of the sclera (Roberts, 1953)
Collie ectasia syndrome (Roberts, Dellaporta & Winter, 1966)
Ocular fundus anomaly (Donovan & Wyman, 1965)
Chorioretinal dysplasia, juxtapapillary staphyloma and retinal detachment(Donovan, 1965)
Coloboma of the optic disc
Excavated optic disc

Incidence: The Collie eye anomaly was first reported by Magrane (1953) in six Collies as an apparently hereditary condition, three of the dogs coming from the same strain. Roberts (1960) described a congenital ocular defect in Rough Collies and estimated that 25 percent were affected in four prominent bloodlines in the U.S.A. The examination of over 300 Collies in 1960 revealed that 30 percent of all purebred Collie stock might be affected (Roberts & Dellaporta, 1965). However, E. F. Donovan and Wyman (1965) recorded an incidence with 79.9 percent with some degree of abnormality of the ocular fundus in 572 Collies examined in many areas of the United States and including many major bloodlines. The number of dogs with clinical evidence of reduced vision, however, was relatively small.

The Collie eye anomaly has been described by many authors in both Rough and Smooth coated varieties of the Collie in the U.S. The defect has been seen there in Shelties (Donovan, 1965) but to a much lesser extent. There is no doubt that this condition also occurs in Great Britain in the Collie and in the Shetland Sheepdog. It is interesting that, in Great Britain, as many cases have been in the Sheltie as in the Rough and Smooth Collie.

This defect is bilateral but not necessarily symmetrical. The two eyes may show different signs of the syndrome or differing degrees of the same sign. (continued next month)

From Montreal, Quebec

Canadian Collie and Shetland Sheepdog Ass. Inc. sends news of their second eye clinic scheduled for May or June. Those in Montreal-Ottawa area watch for announcement.

GERMAN SHEPHERD DOGS

John Fabian—Our specialty show is still priority for us and we look forward to another successful day for all exhibitors at Burlington, June 25. Although most are preoccupied with show plans, this does not mean that is all that is happening within the club. A program is being planned which should be of interest to all dog breeders, but particularly of German Shepherds. Watch Dogs for additional publicity and detail on this program.

GREAT PYRENEES

Diana Addie—Eventually all Great Pyrenees owners become accustomed to the man in the street calling our dogs Giant Poodles, Alpine Dogs, a mix between a St. Bernard and "something else", a Husky, a Samoyed and even white Newfoundlands. We usually grip our teeth, smile and explain the difference, because we know better than to bop them one in the eye! What really bothers me is the way the name "Great Pyrenees" is wrongly spelled by people in the dog game.

Recently I received my exhibitor's ticket for an up-coming show and there in black and white where the breed is printed I saw to my horror that my dog was not entered, but a fish (also misspelt). Sure I've seen our breed name written as "Pyrennes" or "Pyranees" but at least they resembled the proper name . . . but what about "Great Pyranha"? We, in Canada, are lucky enough to have only two words for our breed name compared with the French name "Le Grand Chien de Montagne des Pyrenees" so come on, show secretaries, do me a favor and spell it properly.

The Great Pyrenees Club of Canada has now been established for about a year and three Boosters last year set us off to a good start. This year a Booster was held at the Sportsmen's and I saw some pretty nice Pyrs in the ring. On behalf of those of us from the Eastern Division who were lucky enough to be there I would like to thank the mother club for their reception and especially for putting up the pretty bunting which set off our white dogs so beautifully. Why don't we start thinking about a specialty now?

OLD ENGLISH SHEEPDOGS

Margaret Ruppelt—I wonder how many of you have been as shocked and horrified as I was at the recent percentages of hip dysplasia in our breed; 91% of x-rayed OES are dysplastic—and think of the number of dogs around that have not been x-rayed. Apparently it is thought that of the certified clear dogs, another 30%, if x-rayed again today, would come up dysplastic. Our breed has the second highest percentage of dysplastic dogs, second only to the St. Bernard with 97%. I have spoken to several vets on this subject, one of whom told me that he honestly feels that if breeders don't get together now and find the normal dog, our breed will be shot in a few more years. It could well mean that the stud dog you are breeding to right now and which was x-rayed a couple of years ago is dysplastic. This would, of course, be no reflection on the owner of that stud dog because he or she simply would not know—unless the dog were x-rayed and palpated again now.

I am trying to obtain some material for publication from the recent OVA seminar on hip dysplasia and palpation. The Old English Sheepdog Owners' Club is also looking into the possibilities of getting a speaker on the subject and holding a discussion group, which would be open to all breeds.

There is only one thing left to say. If we love our breed, as I'm sure we all do, we have to make a big and possibly painful effort now to get on top of this and ensure that we are ing normal dogs.

letter, but have forgotten her name. As she's a Newfoundlander she has no problem with news from there, but she was hoping to be put in touch with the Maritime Airedalers through this column—you can see, I'm really helping her out—with friends like me, you don't need enemies. To add insult to injury she has three new English imports and I can't remember their names. Please forgive me 'Miss Newfoundland'. Would you mind terribly writing once again?

A note from Jean Cornforth, Tayann Reg'd., Brockville, Ont., tells of some great winning her seven-month-old Wire-Fox bitch, Tayann Teresa has done. At the Belleville match she was BB, 1st in Group, BIM and Best Puppy in Match. At the Chatequay, Que., match she was BB, 2nd in Group and BP in Match. At Hochelaga she was Best of Any Variety Puppy, BB and 1st in Group and at the United Kennel Club match she was BB, 2nd in Group and 1st in 6-9 months Any Variety Puppy.

We have new Kerry enthusiasts in our midst—Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Carleton, Westmount, Que.

Some pleasing news for Casey Gardiner. At the Livonia, Mich., show her Ch. Kerrycroft's Peregrin took WD, BB and 4th in Group, while her Ch. Kerrycroft's Renegade Kathleen took WB.

Casey goes on to say, "At Chicago International both board members and breeders were very upset about the size of Kerries. The general concensus was that the judges are at fault for putting large dogs up. There was a lot of talk about making a size disqualification in our breed—I disagree—the Standard is sufficiently explicit as it stands now—18-19½" for a dog and 17½-19" for a bitch. Only where the comparative superiority of a specimen outside of the ranges noted clearly justifies it should greater latitude be taken. In no case should it extend to a dog over 20" or under 17½ or to a bitch over 19½" or under 17. The breeder, of course, has a responsibility as to what they take to a show but the onus is on the judge as to what they put up—if the larger ones win, there's an awful temptation to follow in their footsteps."

Casey, I couldn't agree more. Judges have an enormous influence on breeding and it's not always with an eye on the Standard. This happened in Welsh some years ago—when only Wire-Fox Welsh went up (I sometimes think that judges want the whole Terrier group to resemble the Wire). I can well remember a judge saying that mine was a very nice Welsh, but he was the 'old fashioned' type. My reply was, 'I hadn't noticed that the Standard had changed'. Luckily, in the case of the Welsh, there were some very dedicated breeders who rose 'en masse' and said 'NO' in a very loud voice and we've now returned to the 'old fashioned' type!

If a few more judges examined their conscience along with the Book of Standards and thought of the consequences of the awards they were handing out, we might all rest a little easier.

On now to one of our not too often heard from breeds—the Norwich Terrier and a note from Dr. Elizabeth Mahaffy, Norwisia Reg'd', High River, Alta., telling us of her three-months-old male pup Norwisia Peter Pan taking 3rd in Group in a recent match. She enclosed a photo of Peter and he's a little doll. Dr. Mahaffy also laments the lack of news on her breed. I know there aren't too many of you around, but how about it you Norwichers, we'd all love to hear from you!

Next to Scotties and some sad news from Barbara Dominski—"Ch. (Can., Am. & Eng.) Bardene Bingo is dead. I'm sure the owners of Carnation Farms, Joe and Georgie Connelly, couldn't be more distressed as Bingo was 'quite' a Scottie—BIS at Westminster, among many, many other great wins" . . . "Following up on that little bitch Eliza Doolittle, Am. CDX, TD, her son, Canterbury Tails Hannibal, is now Am. CDX, TD. Who says that stubborn little old Scottie 'ain't' got no brains."

Barb goes on to quote an interesting observation from a rare book 'The Scottish Terrier' by C. J. Davies (London, 1906). "The Scottish Terrier preserved the Ursine rather than the Lupine peculiarities of their ancestors, i.e.: Bear-like rather than Wolf-Like". Apparently through this book there are a number of facts to back this up. As Barb says, "I always thought I had a pack of little bears running around."

Executive of the Canadian West Highland White Terrier Club is: President, Mrs. J. H. Daniell-Jenkins; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. A. A. Kaye; 2nd Vice-President, Mr. Joseph Liberman; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. Lorne Gignac.

Still on Westies and again some sad news from Mrs. Sally Hudson, Sallydean's Reg'd., Richmond, B.C. (where she has recently moved to from Vancouver). Unfortunately, shortly after her move she lost her Westie, Ch. (Can. & Am.) Whitebriar Journeyman, at the age of 12½. Journeyman made his first Group 1st at the age of 8½ months and had numerous BIS after that. In the U.S. he had an enviable record—shown 25 times, bringing home 26 BB ribbons. Mrs. Hudson sums him up beautifully—'No water too cold, No earth too deep.'

Mrs. Hudson also comments on the hard working B.C. All Terrier Club of which she's president. Their last two meetings they first discussed the Bull Terrier and the handling of one, the second was devoted to hand stripping an Airedale—the next one they plan to discuss the Scottie and again a demonstration of hand stripping. Along with this they are madly working on their specialty show in June, where John Marvin will do the honors. At their latest Sanction show a Dandie Dinmont owned by Lorna Rindal took the Terrier Group.

Don't forget to get that letter or phone call off to Irma Wheeler or Mrs. Elma Lewis-Watts re the 'Magic Bus' to Montgomery County. They're having a lot of inquiries and although I hate to think of it—October isn't that far away!

Have you seen any of the info on the Owner Handler Association of America? Quite interesting. "Chapters may be formed by any group of not less than 15 members in good standing within a territory requested and approved by the Board of Governors". For further information contact Mr. W. Winfield Smith, President, 20 Peabody, Cold Spg Hbr., N.Y. 11724.

Seeing as you all seem to have such sweet little dogs that don't ever do anything dreadful (haven't had any doggy tales for months) I shall tell you about my little darlings. One evening last week Ross went to bed early and left me with the six puppies and five adults and here's my diary:

Friday Evening, April 21/72: Have just brought the little 'angels' up—within minutes 'Peanuts' has wet in every conceivable place; King Farouk just drank a half a bottle of wine, is now swinging on the drapes; they are all now destroying everything in sight, including me; two got sick of trying to kill one another and are now hanging on Bam-Bam's whiskers and furnishings; their pen is a disaster area, but I'm afraid to leave them alone in the living room or it will be even worse; someone's gotten bored pulling Bam's whiskers out—now he's working on his back coat—got sick of that now, eating Time magazine, lost interest in that, now he's standing on Bam's back trying to rip up a chair; I now just walked through a 'big job' in my bare feet; after that charming experience I finally got up the courage to go clean up the disaster area; newest Time magazine really suffered during that, T.C. nearly choked to death on it; they're all now concentrating on Eaton's catalogue. Have had them up since 9—it's now 11:45, they're still going strong. I'm exhausted!

California, here I come—what condition Bam-Bam and I will be in by the time we arrive only heaven knows!

Flash: I found my letter from Mrs. Margueritte Aldrich, Assisi Reg'd, The Pine Line, P.O. Box

' Reflection" with his sound outgoing temperament and equally sound quality from the end of his nose to the tip of his tail, makes a hypnotic picture that cannot be overlooked by the Judges, and his show record proves it! He is the product of a seven-year, well-studied breeding program which we put into effect in 1970 upon the purchase of AM/CAN. CH. GRAY DAWN REVEILLE OF SEA ISLE from the well known Sea Isle Kennels. We are now going onward and upward with our breeding program with not only "Reveille" but his outstanding son, "Reflection". toys

SILKY TOY TERRIERS

Kay Magnussen—Silky Terriers, like most breeds, take proper disciplining at an early age in order to form good habits and to discourage bad ones. A vicious dog usually is a direct result of poor puppy training.

Most biting dogs are simply spoiled dogs who begin by growling and when they got away with that they tried snapping, which in turn led to biting. A puppy must never growl or bite and should learn to tolerate the rough handling of small children, though of course we would hope you will inform children of the proper way of handling animals. Once a dog has learned that he can bite a human being, he can no longer be trusted as he will bite again and again.

A breeder should teach his puppies to accept handling and this conditioning should be continued by the new owner. Otherwise the pup will think of himself as a "pack leader" and develop a strong, uncontrollable mind which may cause him to bite in order to protect his favorite chair, toy, food or what have you. A puppy should associate even a choice bone with the fact that he must part with it if you so desire. Remove toys from his mouth frequently so he will learn. You may sometime save his life if he allows you to take away something harmful. Take away his dish while he is eating. If he doesn't growl, replace it with a rewarding praise. If he growls and snaps, look at him, shake him by the scruff of the neck and verbally give a loud "SHAME"! If you never let your dog get away with bad behavior he will be a source of pride for the family and a socially acceptable member of society.

This article has taken excerpts from Purina Dog Care Handbook and Eleanor Price's column "All About Pets" as well as various general knowledge.

CHOW CHOWS

F. P. A. Odenkirchen—Ch. (Can. & Am.) Mi-Pao's Timang, better known to his friends as "The Jack", started the year without a title in either the U.S. or Canada, but his short introduction to the showring last fall had already the earmarks of things to come, as he won BW at the Canadian specialty and came twice from the classes to defeat Canada's top winning Chow for 1971.

Entered in Battle Creek and Detroit on March 11 and 12 under judges Jean Lepley and Winnifred Heckman he picked up two majors with BW on both occasions.

By winning six BB at the Canadian National Sportsmen's show he acquired the last point to complete his Canadian title. Although the latter shows seem to become increasingly tough for the Canadian amateur to crack, he was nevertheless honored with two seconds, one third and two BCB in groups by judges Raymond H. Beale, James F. H. Taylor and Anthony Stamm.

The ultimate test came at specialty shows held in California on April 28, 29 and 30. Here "The Jack" was entered as an Open Dog under renowned American and English Chow specialists against some of the best Chows in America and Canada.

Judge Gladyce L. Kloeber, who judged the Chow Fancier's Association of Southern California Specialty Show, has owned and bred Chows since 1937. She attracted an entry of 26 dogs, 20 bitches, 19 specials and one brood bitch. By going BOW "The Jack" completed his American title and Mrs. Kloeber wavered a long time before awarding Ch. Starcrest Mr. Christopher with BIS. BOS went to Ch. Starcrest Black Sapphire, a daughter of Mr. Christopher and both owned by Joel and June Marston. Both are descendants of Canadian Mi-Pao stock.

On this occasion one of America's top professional handlers, Frank Sabella, who handled one of the specials at all three shows, enquired if "The Jack" could be bought by him, a compliment indeed.

Although finished for his American title the quality of judges and entry proved too much of a lure to pull "The Jack" for the next show.

The Golden State Chow Chow Club specialty attracted of 23 dogs, 20 bitches an cials, in addition to 19 unofficial classes. Judge event were Joan and E ton, owners of the fam lish U'Kwong Kennels, I years in the breed they almost 200 challenge ce with 25 champions, five have won at least a doze Shows at all breed chan shows.

BACK TALK

"Obedience trainers should be licensed," says noted judge and training expert Mrs. Mary Southcott of Cara Mia fame.

It was one of those soft, early May days when I drove to Cara Mia Kennels to visit with Mary Southcott and, as I rounded the turn into the driveway, I couldn't help but think that, in addition to having an eye for superior dog flesh, a great many dog people also show considerable expertise when it comes to finding scenic property on which to locate.

Cara Mia is both close and remote. It is a quick five minutes from the Macdonald-Cartier Freeway but, tucked away on a quiet sideroad, this 79 acres of rolling, wooded farmland seems miles from anywhere.

A winding drive and tidy lawns separate the house from the kennel which is flanked on both sides by generous runs. When I arrived these held their full complement of German Shepherds and bouncy Cairns, 15 altogether, seven Shepherds and eight Cairns. Cara Mia produces an average of three litters of each breed per year and Mary says hers is strictly a hobby operation. She considers it a good year when she manages to break even.

Over the years the Southcotts have owned a variety of breeds but Mary's first and most enduring love is the German Shepherd Dog. Her first puppy was bought shortly after she was married but the little fellow became a distemper victim when he was six months old. He was replaced by a second Shepherd puppy and the same sad story was repeated. Heartbroken, by this time, Mary vowed to disinfect the entire premises and wait a full year before getting another dog. But, as so often happens, fate took a hand. A friend who was a Shepherd breeder asked Mary if she would care for a bitch of his that was in whelp. For her trouble Mary was to receive half the litter.

The Southcotts thought that, under the circumstances, such an undertaking would be far too risky. But the breeder said that he was in a very tight spot and was willing to risk it if the Southcotts would. And so it was that Ch. Susan of Dervoek came to them, bore her litter and didn't lose a pup. Mary kept two of the puppies, "Cara" and "Mia", who became her foundation bitches and kennel namesakes. "Cara Mia", which loosely translated means "my love", was registered and one lady became irretrievably hooked in the dog game.

A few years later a Cairn bitch was purchased from Mrs. Betty Hyslop, Cairndania Reg'd., Brockville, Ont., and these two breeds, Shepherds and Cairns, have been the continuing joy of Cara Mia.

Since she first began breeding, Mary has concentrated on producing quality dogs of good temperament and trainability which have fared equally well in conformation and obedience. She has bred some remarkably good ones and is particularly noted for her Shepherds. Among them her Ch. Dusk of Cara Mia was the Canadian Grand Victrix in 1954 and Ch. (Can. & Am.) Rocket of Cara Mia was the top winning Shepherd and top dog in the Working Group in 1962.

Show wins are fine but Mary is equally proud of some of her dogs' unplanned victories. Three that were sold as pets have been credited with saving lives. One kept a raging bull at bay while his owner found the means to bring the bull under control. Another saved his owner from certain drowning. While a third stayed with a toddler who was lost in a northern bush. This pair, dog and baby, were found at the edge of a deep lake. The dog had made a game of grabbing the little girl by the hem of her skirt and pulling her back from the water whenever she got too close.

Mary recalls dozens of interesting dog yarns. There was the over-achieving matron who, when she had no pups of her own to look after, gave a new foal a daily bathing. The herding-happy Shepherd who spent all his daylight hours taking care of a pair of ewes and once brought them into the living-room. Bedlam ensued. But, to my mind, the most amazing story of all concerned, not a Shepherd but a Cara Mia Cairn.

Three winters ago, on a bitterly cold day shortly before Christmas, one of Mary's Cairn bitches was a week over her whelping date. Both Mary and her veterinarian had examined the bitch and had concluded that the bitch had no puppies to whelp. So, on this day, while the bitch was outdoors exercising, Mary dismantled the whelping room then carried the Cairn into the house. No sooner had the bitch reached the kitchen than she gave birth to a puppy. Mary attended to her and then the frightening thought occurred: "Is this her first or is there another puppy outside?" Quickly Mary hurried to the run and there on the ice, apparently frozen stiff, lay another pup. Dismissing the idea that things were hopeless, Mary ran back to the house carrying the rigid puppy. On went the heat lamp, massage and mouth-to-mouth resuccitation was begun. After half an hour the puppy kicked one leg, another half hour and another leg kicked. In three hours all four legs were kicking and Cara Mia's Christmas Miracle was contentedly nursing on its mother.

Such a strong interest in and love of dogs led Mary naturally into training and later judging. She is licensed to judge obedience in both the U.S. and Canada and the breed in Shepherds in both countries. She is one of the most popular judges both sides of the border and has often been dubbed the "League of Nations" judge because her assignments have taken her from Hawaii to Puerto Rico and most points in between. She is the only Canadian ever to have been elected to judge at the German Shepherd Dog Club of America national specialty and this honor has been hers not once but seven times! This year, contrary to her practice of refusing to judge breed close to home, she will share judging honors with Mr. Harry Watson at The German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada specialty on the occasion of its 50th anniversary.

In Mary's opinion all aspects in her areas of the dog fancy are on the upswing. The quality of Shepherds she believes, is constantly improving. More breed champions are being seen in the obedience ring, the presentation of obedience dogs is vastly improved and new training techniques are more effective. Although she does not always approve of harsh methods, she admits that they do work and that sometimes they are necessary.

She deplores the many self-styled trainers that have cropped up in obedience circles and hopes that the day will come when all trainers must be licensed before they are permitted to conduct classes. She thinks that the very minimum requirement for a trainer should be that he has taken at least one dog through to its title in the class he purports to teach.

She would also like to see a practical working class developed, a step beyond the utility classes. This, she suggests, might be patterned after the Field Trial Tests for German Shepherd Dogs, formerly approved by CKC

Mrs. A. F. Whittaker under judge Derek G. Rayne.

It was a very busy weekend with shows, meetings, cocktail parties, visiting with friends and the presentation of the judge's trophy, an engraved U'Kwong Spanish silver goblet with special rosette from the Northern Counties Chow Chow Club of England, during the parent club banquet.

It left me somewhat exhausted and a bit dazed but above all proud that a Canadian Chow, at all times owner-breeder handled, gained top honors and recognition both nationally as well as internationally.

All three shows held in Disneyland excelled in organization, splendor, hospitality and an exceedingly friendly atmosphere.

DALMATIANS

N. Donni—Now that the Dalmatian is gaining in popularity the Dalmatian Club of Canada is deeply concerned about their future. In order to try and preserve a high standard, it is proposed to ask the CKC to change the point rating to two dogs—one point.

As this may take some months before it is even considered and may not become a fact this year, the Dalmatian Club of Canada would urge all judges to withhold the Winners ribbon if they feel the animal does not merit the title champion—in particular when there is only one entry.

The cooperation of all Group 6 judges is earnestly requested in the interests of the future of the breed.

SHIH TZUS

H. M. Stephens—At a recent show a couple, with the man over 40 and the woman just under, approached me, ostensibly to look at my Sheltie which was on the grooming table.

"How many Shelties do you have?"

"There are 11 at home at the moment."

"Oh, you have puppies."

"No, they are all adults."

"You breed Shelties?"

"Yes, for the past 15 years."

"How much can you get for puppies?"

"$100 for pets and $250 for show stock."

"Do you find that they are good whelpers?"

"Yes usually. I had some bad luck once."

"We have Shelties, Irish Terriers and Poodles and lose more puppies from the Sheltie bitches than the others."

"How many puppies do you have at home at the moment?"

"28. We must go now we want to look for some Shih Tzu."

Here is a typical conversation with a couple of puppy farmers. Their only interest was how many puppies and how much each will bring. Already in three breeds they were looking for another. Their interest was not in the breed but because they thought there was a demand for the pups.

Those of you who have Shih Tzu should be on the alert for this couple. Those of you in other breeds should always be alert for would be puppy farmers. Nothing will run a breed down faster than overpopularity which attracts the puppy farmers who will breed their bitches every season and sell inadequately raised puppies at prices which you cannot meet without losing a lot more money than you are already losing.

and the forerunner of today's obedience exercises.

Mary believes that most errors made in the performance of obedience exercises are handler, not dog, errors and she has a word of advice for trainees. She thinks that dogs should be trained to perform obedience exercises on a variety of footings. Often, she says, an indoor-trained dog becomes quite confused when expected to work on grass or pavement and the reverse is also true.

On the future and well-being of her favorite breed, Mary is proud that the members of the Shepherd fancy have brought the problem of hip dysplasia into the open and are working so diligently towards its elimination. But she regrets that, because of all the publicity, the disability has become so strongly identified with Shepherds. They are far from being the breed with the highest incidence, she points out. And, as a veterinarian once told her: "As far as we know, the only mammal which does not suffer from h.d. is the whale and it is not likely we'll be getting many of them to x-ray." Mary is hopeful that palpation, the new diagnostic tool, will help in early detection of the disability and is pleased that Canada now has some veterinarians trained in the technique.

Like all true dog lovers, Mary does not believe in putting down animals simply because their usefulness is past. Two of her bitches are 11 years old and in glowing good health. Among other livestock at Cara Mia she has a 26-year-old mare and its 15-year-old daughter. Even a dead tree, hollowed and riddled with nest holes, has been left standing because it is the summer home of a pair of pileated woodpeckers.

As I took my leave a grey and white cat shot from a corner of the house into a secret cubbyhole under the garage. "What we don't need around here cat", said Mary, "bu thing is wild and frig its back has been injur going to have kittens." courage it, Mary gath handful of Sea Nips an placed them close to cubbyhole.

New cat care handbook offered by Purina

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—The Purina Cat Care Center has announced that its new "Handbook of Cat Care, 1972" is available to all cat-owners.

The attractively bound, 50-page handbook is designed to provide the cat-owner with all the pertinent information he will need to make his pet's life a happy and complete one. The publication answers many of the most frequently asked questions on cat care.

To receive a copy of the new handbook, send requests including name, address and zipcode to: Purina, Checkerboard Square, Clarkson, Ont. Purina is asking for 25¢ to cover postage and handling.

your dog's Health

The following is the third of a series which will discuss problems which are of interest to dog owners and breeders. We solicit your questions and suggestions for items to be discussed. Please address all correspondence to;
The Toronto Academy of Veterinary Medicine, 255 Yorkland Blvd., Willowdale, Ont.

Since the spring weather will soon be here it seems appropriate to discuss our old friend the flea.

Fleas are blood sucking parasites that feed sporadically on mammals and birds. They are small, brown, have no wings and have laterally compressed bodies. They have six powerful legs which enable them to transfer from host to host.

The most important thing to remember about the flea and his life cycle is that he spends most of his time off of the dog or other host.

The female lays from three to 18 eggs at one time, usually in the cracks of buildings or on damp ground. Eggs laid on an animal soon fall off. With frequent blood meals the female flea may lay 700 eggs over her one year life span. Adults separated from the host can live only one month or so. A larger number of eggs are laid in temperatures of 65-80 degrees and when the humidity is high.

After two to 12 days the eggs hatch into larva.They feed on debris and grow and go through moults over a period of nine to 200 days. The last stage pupates for seven days to one year and eventually the adult flee breaks out of the cocoon.

You will notice the great variation in time for each stage described above. In fact, it can take only three weeks for the cycle to be completed under optimum conditions (ie. high temperature and high humidity) or as long as two years under adverse conditions.

Fleas are not particularly host specific. When hungry, they will feed on anything available, including people. They cause severe skin irritation because of their frequent bites. Flea saliva is highly antigenic in some individuals and produces a flea allergy dermatitis as well.

It is apparent from the life cycle described above that bathing the dog once in a "flea shampoo" will do little to solve a flea problem. The premises where the pupa, larva, eggs or some adults congregate should receive the major effort. The area where the dog or cat sleeps should be given special treatment. Because some stages of the life cycle persist for months, treatments must be residual in effect or be repeated periodically.

Start with a thorough vacuuming and cleaning, paying particular attention to cracks and crevices. This can be followed with lindane (½%) or chlordane (2%) as a spray or lindane (1%) as a dusting powder. In severe infestations a professional exterminator may be needed.

Elimination from the animal hosts should coincide with the treatment of the premises. The dog is usually bathed first in KFL, Selenium or Thionium with lindane to remove the fleas as well as their dirt. Chlordane (.5%) and malathion (.25%) spray or powder are used every four days on the animal for at least one month. The premises should be cleaned every two weeks. Flea collars containing Dichlorovinyl dimethyl phosphate may be used if the animal is not sensitive to the collar and develops a contact dermatitis from it.

SCRAPBOOK

When a man wants to murder a tiger he calls it sport; when the tiger wants to murder him he calls it ferocity.

GEORGE BERNARD SHAW

A EULOGY FOR DUKE

When villagers were deep asleep
  In blackest early morn
A fiendish thief crept slowly near
  His deadly gun well-worn.

Alert to strange and stealthy sounds
  Duke gave a warning growl
Then hot lead seered his loyal heart
  Dimmed eyes with bloody cowl.

As life-blood quickly ebbed away
  He tried in vain to fight
No thief could touch his master's things
  No stranger had that right.

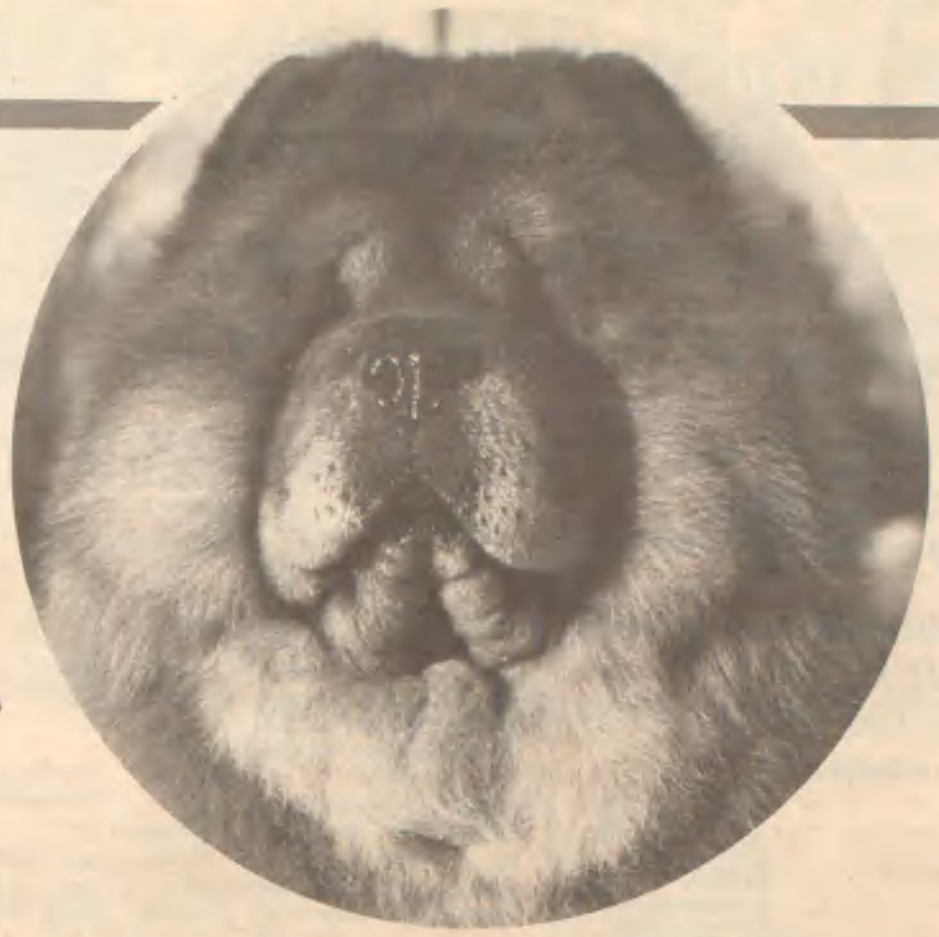

Who knows what memories filled Duke's mind
  Clouded with pain and fears
From puppyhood to early death
  A life span of three years.

Three years of selfless loyalty
  He gave so joyously
Most aptly named this Royal Duke
  Forever mourned is he.

—M. J. R. Smith

Duke, a three-year-old German Shepherd, was shot to death when someone broke into two Okanagan Falls service stations recently. Another dog was seriously wounded

BARK-A-WORD

Jo Ouellet

HOW TO DO IT The trick is to find the hidden word. To do so you'll have to first locate all the listed words. You'll find these words in the grill spelled out horizontally, vertically, or diagonally either forwards or backwards. Once located, you encircle each letter of the word in the grill then cross it off the list. Don't blot out any letter because it might be also involved in another word going in another direction. Just encircle each one. When you've located all the listed words in the grill you'll be left with the given number of letters as indicated for the solution. This will be your BARK-A-WORD.

Answer appears next month

Answer to last month: LITTERMATE

Johnny's mother couldn't bring herself to tell her son that his beloved pet, a dog named Paddy, had been run over. When he came home from school he immediately asked: "Where's Paddy?".

The mother hesitated, then said, "Paddy has been killed by a car".

"Oh," said the boy, and went whistling out of the house. The mother was stunned but finally decided it was all for the best.

Later, when he came home for dinner, his first question was: "Where's Paddy?".

"Johnny", his mother said tenderly, "I told you that Paddy had been killed by a car."

The little boy burst into tears. His mother said: "When I told you earlier, it didn't seem to bother you."

"No," cried the boy. "I thought you said Daddy."

"Love is" - a foster mother called Amy

German Long-haired Pointer adopts two orphaned fox cubs

MILTON, Ont.—The Halton Region Conservation Authority's Mountsberg Game Farm receives many calls to pick up wild animals which are in distress. None was more fortuitous than the call that came concerning a litter of six orphaned fox cubs whose mother had been shot and killed by a hunter. The cubs were rescued from their den deep in the ground and brought to the game farm where Martin Wernaart is employed. Mr. Wernaart owns a five year old German Long-haired Pointer bitch (one of the four only of this breed registered in Canada) Amalia Van De Sonse Berben, "Amy", who had whelped a single dead puppy the day before.

Amy was distracted searching for her pup. The fox cubs, whose age was estimated at three weeks, were hungry and in need of a mother. So Mr. Wernaart took a male and a female cub home to see what would happen. It was love at first sight, as the pictures clearly show.

Mrs. Wernaart says the cubs are very easy to live with. About six weeks old now, they are cute as buttons and almost weaned. Whenever they escape their nest, Amy picks them up gently by the scruff of the neck and returns them to the "dog room". During the day they sleep most of the time but when Mr. Wernaart returns from work each evening they wake up boisterous and ready to play. Then they are allowed into the house for a romp. They manage to get into more mischief than do puppies the same age, said Mrs. Wernaart. They jump up on chairs and scoot under furniture to chase about with a variety of toys belonging to the Wernaarts' 17 month-old son Andrew. The cub wears a tiny collar with a bell so that the Wernaarts can locate them at bedtime. The cubs were lead-trained and both have well when they are taken outdoors on walks. This was in preparation for their appearance on a float that the Conservation Authority entered in a parade in Kitchener-Waterloo on May 2

The little foxes were taken to a local veterinarian to have their scent glands removed as well as their first rabies innoculation. Later they will go to their permanent home at the Mountsberg game farm where, it is hoped, they will be able to run free as friendly foxes to delight the thousands of children who visit the sanctuary each season.

THE DAY THEY ARRIVED

Tiny fox cubs nurse hungrily on a mother who needed them as much as they needed her.

Are we ostriches or dog breeders?

by MARGARET HARTFORD

Ever heard the expression "bury your head in the sand"? This is what most breeders are doing, in spite of the conclusive proof offered by Dr. J. Bardens in his excellent seminar of March 24 at Ontario Place, Toronto, that hip dysplasia, the bug-bear of almost all breeders, can be eradicated. As he indicated, we are, most of us, in for the shock of our lives when we have our breeding stock x-rayed by the fulcrum method. Stop to think of it! Some of the giant breeds are almost 100% dysplastic; 87% of my breed, Labradors, walking (or limping) around are dysplastic. I don't want to see my breed become saturated with this condition and there is still time to do something about it. Some of us have already culled our breeding stock, keeping only the clear specimens. We are well on the way to recuperation.

Most of us do not make our livings from the sale of pups but rather from boarding, clipping and training etc. If you do breed dogs at all, you have no excuse not to clear your stock of dysplastic specimens and start again. Only those breeders worth their salt will persevere in the face of such adversity.

With the fulcrum x-ray, you can determine the condition of your breeding dogs. Should you be fortunate enough to own a clear animal, you have a good basis for a new beginning. Palpation, as indicated in the January 1972 issue of Dogs, can help us in the early detection of HD in our litters. Ask, and accept no quarter in this department. Keep only your clear pups. Do not try to hide behind the excuse that you don't want to anaesthetize your young pups. Of 7,000 dogs researched, only one was lost to anaesthetic. Naturally, pups should be in top condition when presented to your vet, not wormy or undernourished. The odds are exceptional that nothing will come of it. Check with your vet to learn if he has any opinions on a worming program to follow prior to palpation.

I realize that some breeders, with many years experience under their belts, have tried in the past to wipe out this serious problem. Dr. Bardens has explained, for just such people, why their efforts so often resulted in failure. Our conventional x-ray is about 50% accurate in comparison with the fulcrum method. I do not presume to criticize the previous method. This has been the only diagnostic method available and has helped immeasurably in controlling HD. Now better methods are available; fulcrum x-ray and palpation, and both these tools are better used in the breeding of sound dogs. It is hoped that Guelph will accept only fulcrum x-rays in the near future.

Dr. Bardens presented his findings, based on 12 years' research, at a seminar in Guelph very shortly after we were privileged to have his information at Ontario Place. Close to 100 vets were in attendance to learn his new techniques of palpation and fulcrum x-ray. Do not think for one minute that you're going to get away with selling the public cripples. Between these vets and the conscientious breeders, the public is going to be very much aware of the hitherto hidden subject of H.D. Those of us who are doing something about it are going to try our very best to inform the public of this situation by word of

Rastus, Lucy, apparent heirs, says the judge

SEATTLE, Wash.—A couple of cats named Rastus and Lucy have received a court order guaranteeing that they can live out their days in luxury in the house of their late master Charles V. Anderson, who died in 1970 at the age of 83. He willed that his $37,500.00 home be maintained as a residence for his two pets, sharing it with a paid, full-time housekeeper. His wishes were not appreciated by his son and two stepdaughters who attempted to have the court dissolve the trust document. Judge Henry said: "Who am I to substitute my judgment for the judgment of this old man who seemed to have more affection for the cats than for his own children?"

Cocker Poodle who?

BIRMINGHAM, Eng.—Official "demotion" of the American Cocker Spaniel from gundog to lapdog has created an angry response among dog lovers in England. Order came from the Kennel Club who decreed that commencing next year the Cocker should be placed in the same Utility class as Poodles.

The rabid skunk- an increasing threat to public health

The April issue of The Journal of the American Veterinary Medical Association reports on the seriousness of the rabies problem in skunks. Because of the threat to public health several states have placed restrictions on owning skunks as pets. And while the incidence of rabies in dogs has shown a steady decrease from 1950 to 1970 the cases of rabid skunks reported have increased from 580 to 1,235 during that period. The Journal warns that because skunks are nocturnal, sighting a skunk abroad during daylight hours is reasonable grounds to suspect the animal of being infected with the disease.

mouth and the dissemination of literature at as many sources as possible. The public is going to demand dysplasia-free dogs, even as pets. The first question will be "Is this litter palpated?" A pup palpated clear at eight weeks stands an 85% chance of being clear at one year. These pups and clear breeding stock are going to be worth their weight in gold to anyone trying to clear his stock.

Do some soul-searching. Are you in this for the love of dogs or money? Those who decide the dollar is all-important will, I think, find an overload of pups on their door-steps in a few years' time. Ask yourself these questions: Do I care about my breed? Am I not morally obliged to provide sound dogs for the public? Should not sound dogs be the only specimens representing the breed in the ring and as champions?

Certainly, it may mean a severe loss. But if you can persuade another breeder to take the step with you, you can work together to clear your stock. Four generations of breeding clear dogs will produce almost 100% freedom from dysplasia.

Get out the January 1972 issue of Dogs. Read, absorb and apply the information in this excellent article. Find yourselves a vet trained in the art of palpation and fulcrum x-ray, and get started. Don't be an ostrich any longer. The problem is here. We're talking about it and doing something about it. Don't be left by the wayside in ignorance—do something about it.
