Weight change patterns

A means of predicting puppy survival

The current concept of favorable weight change pattern in newborn puppies holds that any weight loss is abnormal. However, a study conducted by researchers on 80 newborn pointer puppies which was reported in the October 15, 1973 issue of the Journal of the American Veterinary Medical Association, indicates that slight weight loss within the first 24 hours after birth may be considered a normal weight change pattern just as it is in the newborn human.

The study was conducted to determine if weight change patterns might be useful in early recognition of the failing pup and also as a means of predicting the survival of newborn pups.

The 80 pups were weighed at birth, at 12 and 24 hours after birth and daily thereafter until a satisfactory weight gain pattern had been established. The scale used for the weighing was a platform dietetic scale chosen because of its availability to most breeders. A satisfactory weight gain pattern estimated, in grams, at one to one and a quarter times the adult weight in pounds was used throughout the study.

One half the number (40) pups showed a steady gain in weight from birth onward. All survived and developed into normal, healthy adult dogs. Of the remaining half, 28 pups lost less than ten percent of their birth weight during the first 12 hours after birth and thereafter began to gain steadily. All but one grew to normal, healthy adulthood.

The remaining 12 pups lost more than ten percent of their birth weight within the first 12 hours after birth. But when this weight loss was first detected most of the pups seemed clinically normal.

At this time six of the "ten percent plus" group were given supplementary feedings and left with their dam. All responded well. Weight loss ceased and, except for one, none developed clinical signs of debilitation. However, the report failed to mention how these pups matured.

The remaining six pups were left with their dams but no supplementary feeding was given. All Best wishes for 1974 to everyone from the proud owner of a "Grand Old Man"—Canadian and American Champion Karas Bucaneer of Ma Griffe Can. & Am. UD. "Buck" will be 14 years old by the time this is published and is still winning top awards in the obedience ring. He has won over 20 Highest Score in Trial during his obedience career and is also a winner of several Best in Shows in conformation. In 1973, at 13 years of age, he was shown four times and won his class each time. Miss Marjorie Parkinson, his handler and with whom he lives, hopes he will continue to enjoy his work and competing in 1974. Buck just loves working for Marjorie.

Bucaneer's son and his grandson are to be congratulated on winning their CD titles in 1973. Ch. Seminoes Marquis of Ma Griffe CD is a "chip off the old block", and is still a novice at obedience but shows great promise. "Buck's" grandson, Can. & Am. Ch. Ma Griffe V.I.P. CD, also a BIS winning dog, won several Bests of Breed and group placings in 1973, ending the year at Brantford with two more BB. His sister, Ma Griffe Very Fancy, finished her Canadian championship last year and hopes to enjoy the obedience ring after a sojourn in maternity. Also to be mentioned is a great grandson of Bucaneer, Ch. Roselle's Star Shine of Ma Griffe, a beautiful brown youngster who

Police dog shines on first case

NORTH BAY, Ont.—Associates of Cloud II, a German Shepherd stationed with provincial police here, are on Cloud 9 with pride. Constable Ray Carson, Cloud's handler, and others were not aware two escaped juvenile offenders hiding in an ice-fishing hut were armed. Imagine their surprise as Cloud emerged with a rifle. He also forced one of the youths to give up a knife. A third was tracked down and disarmed of a large club by the police.

Although Cloud has had special training on disarming people, this was the first time he had been put to the test. Usually the approach of the Shepherd was sufficient to persuade suspects to drop their weapons.

Alberta club elects executive

The Northern Alberta Canine Association held its annual awards night and Christmas party at the Capri Motor Hotel in December, with over 100 present. Bob Blaschuk, 1973 president, was presented with a pen and pencil set and his wife Betty with a Christmas plant.

Executive for 1974 is: president, Art Tunstall (his fourth time round); secretary, Benti Scarnati; treasurer, Millie Tunstall; vice-president, Harold Baker; show secretary, Mrs. Vaughn Black. Others on the executive are Trevor Paul, Trudy Hunt, Rachel Spurr, Gail MacDonell, John and Wendy McClean.

. GIFT OF LIFE: The Canadian /eimaraner Club, based in the oronto area, has come up with a emarkably valuable "first". The lub held a blood bank clinic regis- y at the sanction match Decem- er 16 designated for Chow breed- r Dick Nattrass who underwent pen heart surgery in December. ufficient blood was donated not nly for the requirements of Dick at for two other patients in his oom. Energetic Bob-John Ellieff anned the booth the entire day. en Clark gave reports on the pro- ess every 30 minutes. An over- ze reproduction of a thermome- r visually recorded the success.

RAVELLERS: "Marvellous me," reports Mrs. Flora Hewitt, ild Rock Kennels, Komoka, nt., of her visit in Vancouver ith Mr. and Mrs. Alan Birchard. ie latter was formerly Mrs. Bev acDonald, Tattletale Kennels.

ON-TRAVELLERS: A number Canadians who were all set to tend Crufts this month are un- erstandably not travelling to ngland. The chilly days and chill- r nights as well as travel uncer- inty cooled their enthusiasm.

ERO: A mongrel gave up his life saving a Hull, Que., family of k by his frantic barking. The mily raced from the house in eir night clothes as flames licked toward the stairs. The dog was too badly injured to be saved.

HONORED: Mrs. D. T. (Susie Mae) Weir, Tyldesley, Willowdale, Ont. She has been elected a member of the Kennel Club (England) Ladies Branch. Her nominator was Miss Clara Bowring, co-author of The Popular Poodle. Mrs. Weir has also been assigned to judge Standard Poodles at Paington, Devonshire, England.

ONLY IN BRITAIN . . . The rescue of five French fishermen by helicopter from their wrecked vessel was surely excitement enough. But horrified English spectators noticed a little dog had been left crying on the boat. Toronto Star London staff writer reports: "Remembering Dunkirk and Agincourt, six of them as one man roped themselves together and threw themselves into the raging sea in their everyday clothes. Three times the giant waves threw them back, but one man finally made it, grabbed the dog and threw it back to the next man in the human chain . . . Only in Britain . . ."

"KILLER" GREAT WITH CHILDREN: Acute concern was expressed by Guard Dog Security Ltd., Vancouver, when "Nikki", a German Shepherd trained to kill on a certain command, went AWOL after escaping by leaping a 12-ft wall at a construction site. He was missing for several weeks. The dog was found by the SPCA enjoying a family life with Mr. and Mrs. Ozzie Ledger, their four children and neighbourhood kids—an ideal pet. The security company had advertised for news of the missing dog. States the SPCA: "The Ledgers now are first on the list when a good dog comes up for adoption."

IN MEMORIAM: It is with sadness we report the death of both Flo and Joe Sullivan of Sullivan's Kennels—dedicated breeders and exhibitors of Collies for 28 years. Flo passed away December 4 after a lengthy period of poor health and Joe followed ten days later. The latter will also be remembered for his keen interest in the formation of and later as president of the Whitchurch Township Dog Breeders Association which was organized to fight the township's proposed by-law to do away with kennel licences and require breeders to license each individual dog in their kennels. . . . Sympathy to Okill Stuart, St. Lambert, Que., in the loss of his wife Ruth. A multi-talented, open-hearted woman, she was highly regarded for her work with Girl Guide and many community services. Mrs. Stuart also shared her husband's interest in Beagles and had been a recognized authority on the breed as well. For a number of years she had been a contributing editor of Hounds and Hunting. The cover of a recent issue features two of her winning Beagles. In addition to her husband she is survived by a daughter, Heather, and son Colin.

"Top dog" records

Keeping "Top Dog" records is a big job, complicated, at times, by a number of errors in the Show Reports. And because we tabulate directly from these reports, these errors become a part of our records too.

For example, common sense might tell us that one breed winner which has been reported alternately in the 1973 Show Reports as "Winnie the Pook" and "Winnie the Pooh" is the same dog. But as long as the Show Reports list Winnie first one way and then the other, we transfer the information as published and keep two score cards. Separately, both Winnies will probably be "also-rans" but the combined total could place her among the top three of her breed.

This situation did occur last year. Not two, but four separate cards were kept on the same dog because the Show Reports spelled its name four different ways. And this little dog was denied her rightful place in our "Top Dog" issue because nobody caught the error in time.

Who would ever identify "Helga von" and "Delga-von" as the same animal?

Like confusions face us this year. Here is a sampling: Pelicana/Pelikanna; Deece Ree/Deco Ree; Candid Success/Catch U Success? If each pair identifies a single dog, which of the names is the right one?

More than typographical errors can occur. Last year there were instances where sizeable wins were credited to the wrong dog. And a number of cases where no breed winner at all was listed.

It is easy enough for errors to creep into records. From show entry to published report is a long and complicated route. It does point up the importance of accurate information, legibly written on the original entry form. Our job is to make sure that this information is still accurate when it goes into our records. That is why we need your help.

"WILL YOU SEE IF YOU CAN GET HIM TO SWALLOW A PILL?"

Please check the Show Reports carefully. If you find any errors or omissions concerning your dog's wins, get an official correction while there is still time to revise our "Top Dog" records.

Do not report errors directly to Dogs in Canada. The proper procedure is to notify the Shows and Trials Division, The Canadian Kennel Club, 111 Eglinton Ave. East, Toronto, Ont. After the division has verified the correction, you will receive official notice. Then forward the corrected information to Dogs in Canada, 56 The Esplanade East, Toronto, Ont. M5E 1N4.

What gas pains?

Maybe those Canadian exhibitors who make a fetish of criticizing Canadian dog shows will be singing a different tune this year. Because it looks as though Canada, right now, is one of the world's fa countries. And this applies to dog shows too.

Look around you at a Sunday sanction mat to estimate the amount of gasoline it took to several hundred exhibitors together in a show Later, when you are driving home, turn on the for a bit of insight into what a gas-less S means. And interpret that in terms of your do by. It's bound to make you "think Canadian feel a little smug that for the time being, at Canadian exhibitors are able to enjoy the shows to the limit.

Even now, word is in that some shows are cancelled in the United States because of th shortage. It is difficult to predict just what this will have on Canadian show entries. promises to be an interesting season, does th coming 1974.

Inside this issue

Last month our editorial page carried comm the Proposed Amendments to the Dog Show For reasons that the committee and your edi to understand, response to these proposed a ments has been very light in contrast to a s situation of a few years ago when over 400 let objection were received.

Perhaps, as the committee thinks, no respo a sign of approval. For the reasons behind s these proposed changes, our Back Talk colum month features an interview with the Chair the Shows and Trials Committee, Ontario di Mr. Ed Dixon. See page 21 of this issue.

And for breeders, especially those who ha ters on the way, there is an interesting repor study of "Weight Change Patterns" in newbor pies that focuses attention on the importance tine weighing procedures as part of the p raising program. See page 1.

A novice exhibitor

Why do we go to dog shows? This is a question often heard and I am sure that each and every one of us has either made this remark or has had it made to us.

I am sure that most of us who show and exhibit dogs are well versed in the rules governing us. We all know of the respect and dignity that a judge is entitled to from exhibitors. I believe that it does not go far enough as a judge should be compelled under CKC rules to show the same respect and dignity towards the exhibitor and all show dogs regardless of whether they place first or last. To elaborate on this point, I would like to relate my experience under an internationally well known judge in what I would like to believe a major Canadian dog show. Being in the ring with a group of professional handlers and amateurs like myself I was showing my dog to the best of my ability and as I had been taught to show. After placings had been made, the judge had a few words for each of us. The remark to me (and heard by the others in the ring plus the spectators looking on, among them a prominent judge) was as follows. "You have a beautiful dog and I was going to place him first, unfortunately it was poor showmanship on your part so therefore I put your dog down." The next time into the ring I showed the dog on a very tight lead so that its feet were just touching the floor and in no way could the judge get a fair look at this dog. However, in a booming voice he announced to the whole arena that now I was showing right and gave me first place.

I have watched people showing dogs in the ring where the judge has come down the line examining each dog as he came to it and then bypass one exhibitor and go on to the next without even putting his hand on the dog, consequently this exhibitor has never shown another dog nor will they. I, like many more, feel that there is no reason for this. Not all judges are like this but a few are and it is instances like the above that can only lead to a number of supporters leaving the game altogether.

I believe that before judging starts and after all exhibitors are in the ring, the judge should announce just how he would like the dogs shown. That is, on a tight lead at a fast pace or any number of other combinations that he may want to see. In this way, every one in the ring would have an equal chance to show the judge his or her dog on an equal footing. Also, an exhibitor who pays an entry fee should be entitled to just as much consideration from the judge—whether he is showing a poor specimen of his breed or a Best in Show.

In closing, I would like to state that in no way am I trying to run down judging in general. In most instances judges are kind and courteous to exhibitors. If something is not done to bring dignity and respect back into dog shows then we are going to lose a number of novice exhibitors. This will leave the dog shows to the professionals and without the backbone of the novice, what will happen to our shows?—A novice exhibitor

Pat on the back

In the past there have been many complaints regarding how slow registration papers have been coming "through". I think it's time "our girls" had a "pat on the back". In the past year I had two sets of registrations on my Shelties returned in 27 days and 29 days, from the time I mailed in my completed litter kit.—C. E. "Ed" Farndale, Mapleknoll Kennels, Waterville, Kings Co., N.S.

From Florida

1973 has been a good, prosperous season for many of the doggy people and ended with a sad note for many others.

We sincerely hope that 1974 will start off by remembering those who are no longer with us and all the effort they have put in to make the past—so many of our judges—friends who helped to make the shows enjoyable as they are today; and our many thanks to Miss E. M. Dunn and Kaye Peer and the dedicated staff they have at Dogs in Canada. We doggy folks should be more than proud of Dogs in Canada and all the news we get to read from it.—A. J. Saunders, Bradenton, Fla.

Junior Showmen

I read your very interesting article on junior showmen Bev and Katie Rodley in the December issue and was surprised to see that according to the Rodley girls, "Canadian juniors may not compete in the USA". I have checked on this with several people who are actively involved in junior showmanship competition here, and as far as anyone I have spoken with knows, there are no rules prohibiting the entry of youngsters from Canada or any other country (in fact juniors from Bermuda have in the past qualified for the finals at Westminster).

Junior showmanship in this country does require pre-entry of the junior, and the rules state that "Each dog handled in this class must be owned or co-owned by the Junior Handler or by the Junior Handler's father, mother, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, grandfather, or grandmother, including the corresponding step and half relations, and must be eligible to compete in AKC dog shows or obedience trials."

Junior showmanship here used to run as it presently does in Canada, with entry made at the time the classes were called and juniors allowed to borrow dogs for the event. Now a specific judging time and ring are listed in the program. Judges are listed in the premium list and may be e censed breed judges or li handlers; however because dler may not handle any d show at which he (she) is j the classes are usually judg breed judge.

If the Rodley girls are s vinced that there is some (to us) rule barring them f tering junior showmansh country perhaps they migh to the AKC for clarificati the great and growing int dogs on the part of juniors countries it would be nice the facts straight and the c tion open!—Linda C. Wellesley Hills, Ma.

at 8 p.m. She wasn't on that plane, and much time and many phone calls to Chicago, Rhinelander (Wisc.), and Milwaukee told us that she would be on the 11 p.m. flight from Chicago because the Milwaukee airport had closed for the night and instead of 1) shipping her on the correct connecting flight from Milwaukee, or 2) shipping her the next day, the airlines sent her to Chicago. Anxious is a mild word to describe our feelings when we were told by Chicago officials they had no record of receiving her. Later, when they found her and told us she'd arrive at 11, we were a little relieved. However, she wasn't on the 11 o'clock flight, and more phone calls, more traipsing around from motel coffee shop to motel night club while we tried to keep out of the bitter cold. The midnight flight landed a little late and it took a long time to unload onto the truck. At 1 a.m. the truck finally pulled into the air freight building and we found our bitch in a semi-collapsed crate (very sturdy one purchased from another airline) wedged behind the other freight. By the time we got home to Toledo, it was 3 a.m. The bitch had spent nearly 12 hours in her crate since leaving for the Rhinelander airport and we had spent almost ten hours travelling and waiting.

Here are some suggestions to would-be dog shippers:

1. Use a sturdy, draft-free yet ventilated crate of the right size, with bedding if the dog is not an outdoor breed. Our German Shepherds have no complaints about sleeping all night out in their doghouses even at 20° below zero, so high altitude cold doesn't worry me.

2. Do everything you can to avoid notoriously bad airports such as O'Hare in Chicago, especially in the summer when your dog can cook and/or suffocate while the plane waits on the runway for one or two hours in long, slow lines waiting for take off. I drive 1½ hours one way to Detroit to avoid shipping from Toledo if the local air service has to stop in Chicago.

3. Try to get a non-stop flight for lowest air time. Failing that, second choice is a direct flight (which means no switching planes, but one or more stops en route). Keep pressing airline people for information. It was only after our Joplin, Mo., puppy buyers had waited through a couple of arrivals at the Tulsa, Okla., airport that we found out from one air freight official that the pup would have been there earlier if we had shipped her to Dallas and doubled back to Tulsa. Instead, we were originally told that the only way to Tulsa was via a stop in Chicago.

4. If you have a choice, pick an airline that meets the above, plus has a good reputation. For example the attitude at one airline in Detroit seems to be "dead or alive, today or tomorrow, so what?". Yet the American Airlines freight office there goes out of its way to give dogs special attention. Many puppies are brought inside the office where they won't get too lonely or frightened while waiting to be loaded. Dallas has a reputation of being all dog lovers, regardless of airline, and United probably has the lowest percentage of complaints I know of in Toledo and many other cities.

5. Get detailed advice from the experienced, as you would in any other matter.—Fred Lanting, Toledo, Ohio.

Horrid experience

Glad to see you've printed an article in your December issue regarding dog travel. I've just recently moved from Montreal to Kamloops, B.C., and had to have my Schnauzers brought in by air. I had the most horrible time at Kamloops Airport. My dogs were due in at 8 p.m. The flight arrived, there were no dogs. I asked the Pacific Western agent why they were not on board. He said there were no dogs on his list and went on with his work. I asked him if he would try and trace them. He said he would check with Vancouver. After half an hour he informed me that the dogs were not in Vancouver. I placed a call to Montreal and was told that the dogs had left Montreal at 10 a.m. I approached him once more asking him to contact Calgary and Toronto to try and locate them. Reluctantly, he did so and after two hours he returned saying they were not there either. Frantically and very upset I asked him to check Vancouver again, they had to be somewhere. He was quite annoyed at me and said they were only dogs, at which time I came very close to violence. When he saw how upset I was he tried Vancouver again and finally located them there. There were no more flights in that evening so I was told they would be in next morning. I asked him if he could arrange for them to have water and he said that it was not their policy. The dogs arrived relatively safe and well, but were very tired and dehydrated. What can a dog owner do about this? It's outrageous. Dogs are living things and should be treated accordingly. Thank you for placing this article about dog travel, maybe it will do some good.—Constance Thomas, B.C.

Misplaced puppy

I will relate a nerve wracking episode which occurred summer '72 regarding an eight-week-old puppy travelling from Vancouver to London, Ont.

Upon enquiry I was told the best plan would be for the pup to leave Vancouver on a flight scheduled for 10.45 p.m. Friday; he would then arrive in London before noon, Ontario time, on Saturday. He must be at the airport 2½ hours before scheduled take-off time.

The pup left his home here at 7.15 p.m. Friday evening. His fare was paid in full. We left our phone number to call if for some reason the flight was cancelled. We would return to the airport and bring him home, returning him for a later flight.

Saturday morning I phoned and was assured he had left and would soon be arriving at his destination.

Saturday evening when I had received NO phone call from the new owners I became concerned and phoned the new owners, only to learn the pup had not arrived.

Another phone call to the Vancouver office with the same assurances.

Sunday I again phoned London, no pup . . . another call to the Vancouver office, still the same comforting (?) information. Another call to London later on Sunday, the worried people here had phoned Add supplements* to Purina Dog Chow?

You can. But you don't have to.

We find that adding warm water brings out our famous Dog Chow flavor. But everything else is right in the bag. All 43 nutrients any dog needs—vitamin A to zinc oxide. So add supplements? Sure. But isn't it nice to know you don't have to?

*Purina Research Farm Fact: Eight of our brood bitches have whelped over 100 puppies each—on a diet of Purina and water only. With the exact, no-supplement program we recommend on our package, 92.8% of the 668 puppies whelped alive at our Farm last year were weaned—against a national average of around 60%.

obedience

Send correspondence direct to Jake Giacomelli, 51 Wardrope St. S., Stoney Creek, Ont. Opinions expressed are the writer's and not necessarily those of the publishers or The Canadian Kennel Club

February is such a cold month I think it's a good time to talk about obedience on a semi-tropical paradise. Although I've judged there twice before, this is the first time I've written about it to you.

This is referring specifically to the five-day shows and obedience trials held on the beautiful island of Bermuda. The obedience trials were held in the second week of November at the same time the conformation shows were being held. There were trials on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. On Friday there was no trial, you had the day off to do what you liked or join the suggested form of entertainment, one of which is a lovely boat cruise of the island beauty spots, including dinner on board and rum swizzles to just make your day that much more enjoyable and lighthearted.

Saturday, the trials start again. The first four trials are advance entries only and for those whose dogs are well trained enough or are fortunate enough to qualify for three legs and thereby earn their particular obedience title, there is a post-entry on the Sunday, permitting you to earn a leg towards an additional Bermudian obedience title, such as CDX or Utility, if you've just earned your CD or CDX, that is.

Personally, I think the post-entry on the last day is a great promotional idea. Can you imagine earning one CDX or Utility leg on the last trial on the Sunday and then not coming back the following year or as soon as possible to pick up the rest of your legs for that particular degree!

VARIATIONS

Bermudian obedience regulations and the individual class exercises are very similar to our present Canadian ones, with some slight variations. Their Sit and Down in the Novice class is similar to the American regulations. Your dog must remain in the sitting or down position, depending on the particular exercise, until the handler has returned to the heel position—if he doesn't he will receive a non-qualifying score. Also, the have more breeds jumping once the height of the withers instead o once and a half. I believe the list is identical to the list approved by th American Kennel Club.

The trials usually start around 9 a.m. and end in the early after noon, leaving you much time each day to shop or go on one of the man tours available to the tourist.

There are many absolutely delightful shops you can browse in c make some lovely purchases from.

Members of the obedience club itself do their level best to make th exhibitor feel welcome—they arrange for many after trial get-togethe where exhibitors can exchange pleasantries and/or the day's obedienc disasters over cocktails.

On Saturday evening they held a fantastic farewell dinner an dance at the Bermuda Southampton Princess—Wow! what a finale to show and obedience trial! You have to see it to believe the gorgeou setting of the beautiful hotel. It is almost hard to relate this wonderf setting with obedience trials—yet it's all here, just yours for the takir —or entering I should say.

YOU'LL LIKE IT!

As a rule, with their premium lists there is material or a brochure sug gesting the good places to stay that will allow you to take your dogs.

Incidentally, the meals at any of the hotels they suggest are just fabulous—you're going to return home heavier that's for sure!

If you think you might like to try the Bermuda circuit, would recommend you send a money order for $1.25, payable in Bermuda, for your copy of "The Bermuda Kennel Club Obedience Trial and Tracking Regulations" and mail it to: The Bermuda Kennel Club, P.O. Box 1455, Hamilton, Bermuda.

Just to ensure you have a better knowledge of what changes exist in the class you wish to enter.

You will find the obedience stewards in Bermuda a delightful group of people, doing their utmost to do their judges' biddings and also doing everything possible to make the exhibitors feel welcome.

Watch Dogs in Canada for the Bermuda Spring or Fall show dates in '74 and then make plans to go—you owe yourself a truly lovely doggy holiday!

A kindness that kills

By PETER LAZURE

"To kill with kindness" is an adage that has been left the property of some sweet old lady who wanted nothing but strong, vigorous begonias and geraniums but nevertheless overwatered and fertilized them to the point of death.

Sometimes such an insidious killer comes in many guises and we, as dog fanciers and breeders, are no less susceptible than that would-be aspirant to your local horticulture society.

Various over-the-counter and do-it-yourself insecticides and de-worming medicines and what have you, so easily purchased by even a simple minded three-year-old, are actually a kindness that kills. To be sure, in today's high degree of technology and the advanced and confusing state of semantics used in courts, in advertising and on fly-leaves and folders, to prove such a statement would be the work of a lifetime and virtually impossible.

Impossible, not improbable for in the case of medical science's attempts at major organ transplants it is not the donor's organ which kills but the patient's inability to fight off additional disease. Pneumonia, not heart transplant, kills and in the same manner some insecticides do not kill higher animals but leave them in such a weakened physical condition that something simple kills. A rattlesnake bite will not kill a vigorous, healthy human being but the manner and conditions whereby the bite is contracted may bring death through exposure or pneumonia.

Even the rattlesnake would be acquitted in today's courts, being represented by even a semi-competent barrister.

Death of your dog, whether it be a purebred Ch. CD, CDX or just plain mutt is painful but it must be doubly so when you begin to realize or suspect that your Florence Nightingale attitude may have precipitated that death.

Insecticides, whatever its chemical name be it Organo Phosphate, Benzine Hexacholoride, Chlorine, Chlordane, DDT or what have you, kill by attacking the nervous system through ingestion or inhalation. Some of the newer, more sophisticated poisons, such as 1080, need not be introduced to the bloodstream but merely touched. Some are stored in body fats such as Chlordane and only kill when the victim begins to use stored fats. But by whatever means, be it an inorganic, organic, nonvolatile or nonalkaloidal, they all kill. Some do the job well, others too well.

Unfortunately, in the canine, death by insectide poisoning is never swift or merciful. It is a lingering, insidious, cancerous thing that sometimes defies early diagnosis.

One of the first symptoms would be malfunction of the liver, for any poison or food which the dog eats must pass from the stomach into the liver before entering the bloodstream. All of the liver's blood however, passes directly to the heart by way of the hepatic veins. The liver carries out many functions essential to life, some of them well defined, others only guesses at this time. Bile is manufactured, sugars stored in the form of glycogen, urea is separated from protein digestion and certain tissue poisons eliminated.

Consider an animal, your dog for instance, whose bloodstream is in contact with Organo Phosphate (found as the active ingredient of Vapona No-Pest Strip) or Phenol (the active ingredient of Lysol). Its liver cannot destroy those poisons along with others it comes into contact with naturally. What, then, stops the toxin from re-entering the bloodstream time and time again and attacking the nervous system? What of addition-developed signs of debilitation—crying, loss of vitality, weak nursing, excessive crying and decreased body temperature. Only one of this group survived.

Conclusions of value to the breeder, as indicated by this study are:

1. Weighing of newborn pups should commence at birth and be repeated at 12 and 24 hours after birth and continue daily thereafter. To delay weighing until the third or fourth day after birth is of questionable value in predicting survival.

2. Weight loss of less than ten percent of birth weight within the first 12 hours is not necessarily abnormal.

3. Weight loss of more than ten percent of birth weight within the first 12 hours is abnormal and precedes other signs of sickness in the pup. It also indicates the need to commence supplementary feeding and continue it until weight loss stops.

5. Understanding weight patterns gives the breeder/owner an accurate means of communication with his veterinarian.

6. Weighing of newborn pups should be continued daily until a satisfactory weight gain pattern has been established.

The study recommended that weighings should be arranged to coincide with exercising the dam so as to disturb the dam-pup relationship as little as possible.

al contacts, ingestions or inhalations? Phosphates and corrosives such as Phenol are not cumulative in nature but the damage inflicted is, if the dosage is repeated day after day. Fortunately, the liver can repair itself quite quickly but perhaps in this case not quickly enough.

Consider also the fact that most animals keep their feet diligently clean. Remember too that some insecticides are sold in a resin impregnated wick form or an aerosol can which is timed for regular dispersion of insecticide. The wick form tends to sag and drip in hot weather or when placed near a hot air register and any dog stepping into the sometimes minute puddles will naturally clean its feet and thereby receive a dose of poison. Add this to toxins already inhaled and it totals a fairly substantial dosage day after day.

Why is it that some of these poisons are banned in hospitals, old peoples' homes, barns where livestock is kept, restaurants and others? Think about it.

Before buying an insecticide talk to a licensed, reputable exterminator, your veterinarian or the Guelph Veterinary College. Choose an insecticide that does the job simply. It may even take a little more work but will be completely safe. For instance, Quatra Ammonia can be used in water to replace a Phenol based product. It is used in meat houses and as a mouthwash and will eliminate odour-causing bacteria. It's even cheaper.

Look into purchasing the black-light type of fly and insect killer. It doesn't use an insectide or aromatic but does the job well, even if less efficiently at times. If it is sprayed with an after-shave lotion or a perfume before it is turned on it sometimes works even better.

Examine, don't exhume, and above all don't leave your pet's fate to a person with something to sell without having taken a long cold look at all the facts. This article has not been written to convince you that poisons are toxic—they are. Find out about them.

oronto airport (they were pre-ared to motor to Toronto to pick m up) but were told no pup had rrived from Vancouver on any ecent flight. Another call was ade with slightly varied assur-nces that "he must be held up in oronto". I knew this supposition be incorrect.

The pup arrived in London Mon-ay morning, rather gaunt. For-nately, he was a strong, well ourished little guy and suffered lasting effects.

At last assured of the pup's fety I decided to have it out with e airline. I had learned from an-her source there had been NO ncelled flights, so I was not out to buy this excuse. I made a st call. Discarding politeness, I as prepared to present myself rsonally and to remain in their esence until I had some sensible planation. After some apparent ibbling about who would speak me, someone began a long flow-y story which can be told in a w short words "the pup had sim-y been forgotten" . . . at the Van-uver airport. They had not an-cipated such tenacity from the mans on behalf of the pup, e.g. rect calls to the Toronto Air-rt, trying in vain to shift the ame, only when cornered finally lmitting the actual facts. I still n't know when he left Vancou-r.

s an Air Canada employee and so a dog lover I feel compelled voice my opinion regarding the ticle on Transportation of Ani-als by Air.

This article, although interest-g, was not totally factual and veral statements made by Dr. efferman were simply not true. r example on the subject of suf-cation, all animals, and I refer ecifically to dogs, are definitely t handled as "just ordinary car-or baggage". From the time e dog is accepted by the airline requires and receives special ndling, during boarding proce-res the dog is the last item load-on the flight, and subsequently e first off. They are loaded in ecific compartments reserved r live cargo, the air in these mpartments is constantly circu-ting and they are completely essurized as is the passenger ea of the aircraft. The tempera-re in these designated compart-nts, varies of course, with each e of aircraft, but is not ex-me as stated in the article. The temperature range is from 50° to 75°F.

On the subject of starvation and thirst, it was stated that this generally occurs during adverse weather conditions and during strikes. In actual fact when flights are grounded due to weather the animals are placed in veterinary hospitals or registered kennels and if either of these are unavailable the animals are cared for by airline personnel, whom I might add are not required to do this, but do so out of concern for the animal's well being. Please do not neglect the fact that airline people like dogs too!

In the case of a strike, an immediate embargo is placed on all live and perishable cargo, therefore the fact that an animal may be "dumped in a holding warehouse" is extremely remote.

To conclude, I feel that considering Dr. Hefferman's credentials, she is grossly uninformed and her comments could only apply to air cargo as it was 15 to 20 years ago. In almost seven years in dealing with air cargo I have yet to encounter a fatality involving a dog or cat and to read such unfounded statements on this subject strikes me as being totally unfair, and illustrates the fact that Dr. Hefferman has a flair for dramatics.—K. M. Gregoire, Cargo Agent, Air Canada, Winnipeg.

All the care in the world

It takes more than a pat on the head and gentle words of affection to keep your dog in perfect running order! You need all the care in the world–Bob Martin care. To the British, Bob Martin is a household name. And now it is fast becoming just as well known in Canada and many other countries where dog owners really care about their pets.
Here are some of the Bob Martin products available in Canada:

Condition Tablets—the famous vitamin rich tablets to supplement your dog's daily diet.

Tapeworm Tablets—rids tapeworm infestation in dogs and puppies over six months old.

THE CANADIAN CANIS CLUB
. . . is a Dog Obedience Club for mixed breeds and cross-bred dogs - (Canis Dogs), who are the Ordinary Members. The Associates - are the Unrecognizeables, i.e. Border Collies etc. and the purebreds who are ineligible for any registration in Canada.
The Canadian Canis School No.1 at Richvale - has Obedience Training Classes for you! April in Spring, September in Fall and January in Winter - 12 week Courses in all.
We have an Educational Program as well as a Program of Fun Events for you!
You may earn the same degrees of recognition with the Canadian Canis Club as the purebred registered dogs do in Canada, i.e.
The 1st Obedience Title for Registered Dogs is C.D. meaning Companion Dog. The C.C.C. titled degree is called S.C.D. meaning - "Sirius" Companion Dog! (Dog Star).
So, why not join us and "Train with Love" - the "Probert way" - at the Richvale CCS No.1.
Sincerely Yours in Obedience for All.

NOSTALGIA

by LORNA JACKSON

Time does change things but in our dog game do you really think it's for the betterment of the breeds? Do people today go by the written standard? Do they remember the great breeders and the great dogs? Are the dogs today as good as they were yesterday (20 or 30 years ago)? Are new standards made for the improvement of a breed or because new breeders haven't the knowledge or desire to keep the characteristics of their breed? Are people forgetting the purpose for which their breeds were originally bred? Do they just want a beautiful, elegant showing tool, forgetting type, soundness, brains and purpose? Do you think the problems are the same today as they were yesterday? Do exhibitors have fun at shows; is it still a sport? Do they learn as much and are they as involved? How many people today can "put down" their respective breeds to perfection, an art in itself which you have to learn from the "masters"? I feel that the more you know, the more you know you don't know.

This series of pictures and articles should be interesting to us all. There will be some pictures we may not be able to identify but hope some of you will be able to recognize and will send the information in to us. I hope you enjoy "Those Were The Days" and if you have any old photographs, news items or articles clear enough to reprint, would you lend them to us and help make this column interesting to everyone? Where possible please identify as much as you can.

1 This outstanding G Dane bitch is Am. Rhonda of Lyn-Dee, by the Carl Jernigan Toronto and owned Ray Forbes, Jamest N.Y. Her sister, Am. Glad of Lyn-Dee, wa equal quality. Both ished their champions before they were months-old. Sire was great Czardas (abou years ago) ex Int. Rhona of Kittyglade.

One of the top winning American Chows competing at the Canadian National Exhibition, 1935, was Ch. Chic-A-Go, owned by Bill Morrison of Chicago. Notice the gorgeous head, size, feet and compact body.

3 A general view of the Peel County Kennel Club show final judging at Col. D. H. Bull's estate, Brampton, Ont. Judge was George Kynock. From L to R: George Ward, Alf Loveridge with Int. Ch. Rolau Royalty, English Pointer; Miss Helen Cluff, Walter Brown, Mary Matchett, George Potts.

Ch. Sweet Sentiment of Wildair with Group 1 trophy at Saint John, N.B., Sep ber 12, 1944. Owned and bred by the cious Irish Setter lady Mrs. Gertrude D Wildair Kennels, Toronto.

5 One of the famous Fairbank Poms, Ch. Fairbank Superb by Mrs. M. McConaghy, 1943. Sound and typey.

6 Two powerful, sound Saints. Their only identification is as McMillan Dogs", Toronto, about 1940.

NOTICE

Subject: FINNISH SPITZ

By order of the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club, the FINNISH SPITZ has now been placed on the list of breeds recognized by the Club. For Dog Show purposes, the breed will be listed in Group No. 2. Specimens of this breed registered with The Canadian Kennel Club or eligible for registration with The Canadian Kennel Club are now eligible for entry in Shows, Obedience Trials and Tracking Tests held under Canadian Kennel Club rules.

The Standard for the breed is recognized by The Canadian Kennel Club is set forth hereunder.

STANDARD: FINNISH SPITZ (LOULOU FINNOIS)

General appearance—Body is almost square. Height at shoulder and length of body are: males 44-50 cms and bitches 39-45 cms. Carriage brisk. The dogs whole being shows liveliness especially the eyes, ears and tail. The special characteristics of the breed are that it likes hunting, is courageous and faithful. The breed is utilized for bird hunting.
Head.—Medium sized and clean. Skull a little domed with a good clear stop. Foreface narrow and clean cut, tapering evenly from above and side. Nose coal black. Lips tight and thin. Ears pricked and pointed, with fine hair, very mobile. Eyes medium sized, lively and preferably dark.
Neck.—Springy throat. In males it looks rather short, due to the thick coat. Medium length in bitches.
Back.—Short, straight and strong.
Ribs.—Deep. Belly line slightly drawn up.
Shoulders.—Shoulders fairly straight.
Legs.—Forearms strong and straight. Hindquarters strong, hocks of medium size. Feet preferably round.
Tail.—The tail curls from the base in a bow over the back and lies flat against the thigh. The tail must lie tight and finish in the middle of the thigh. When straightened the tail vertebrae usually reach down to the hocks.
Coat.—The coat on the head and legs is short and close, but longer on the back of the legs. On the body longish, half erect or erect. Stiffer on the neck and back. The stiff hair on the shoulders, especially in males, is noticeably longer and coarser. Hair on the back of the legs is long and thick, also in the tail. Undercoat is short, soft, dense and lighter coloured.
Colour.—Colour on back is brownish red or yellowish brown, preferably clear. Lighter shade inside of ears, on cheeks, under chin, brisket, stomach, inside of legs, long hair on the back of legs and tail under-hair. White is permissible on feet and chest score. Black is permissible a little on lips, and sparse black pointed stiff hairs on the back.
Faults.—Muscular head. Coarse foreface. Ears carried with a forward, backward, outward or inward inclination; tips drooping and long inner hair. Eyes yellow or watery. Inward turned elbows and too weak pasterns. Tail slackly carried or with too much curl. Coat long, soft, too short, wavey, curly or close coated. Dirty colour. Multi-coloured clear borders. Spurs are bad looking.

By order of the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club the Lhasa Apso has been transferred from Group No. 4 to Group No. 6. The effective date of this transfer is January 1, 1974.

REPORT ON RESULTS OF SPECIAL REFERENDUM BALLOT

On Page No. 36 of the official C.K.C. section of the October (1973) issue of "Dogs in Canada", notice was given of two proposed amendments to the By-Laws of The Canadian Kennel Club. These proposed amendments appeared in a special referendum ballot conducted concurrently with the election of C.K.C. Officers and Directors for 1974-75. A tabulation of the votes cast indicates the following results:

By-Law Amendment

No. 1

Yes	1,306

No. 2

Yes	1,213
No	470

Application will be made to the Minister of Agriculture for Canada for approval of these proposed amendments. No amendment is effective until approval by the Minister. An announcement will be published when the Minister's decision has been received.

NOTICE

Subject: American Kennel Club policy with regard to the selection and approval of residents of Canada to judge at shows and obedience trials held under A.K.C. rules.

For the information of residents of Canada who may have reason to be interested, we publish below current American Kennel Club policy with respect to Canadian judges.

On and after January 1, 1969, a resident of Canada will be considered for approval to judge at shows and obedience trials held under AKC rules only on the following basis:

When an AKC show-giving or obedience trial club submits, as its proposed judge, the name of a Canadian resident not on the AKC's present list, the matter will be presented to the American Kennel Club's Board of Directors following the submission of certain data outlined below:

1. The AKC will ascertain from the Canadian Kennel Club the breed(s) or obedience class(es) which that person is currently eligible to be approved to judge under Canadian Kennel Club rules, and the number of assignments that person has completed at Canadian Kennel Club shows or obedience trials in the preceding twenty-four month period.
2. The AKC will send the person whose name has been submitted an application form for completion. A separate application will be required for each assignment at shows or obedience trials held under AKC rules. It is to be understood that an approval for an engagement is for a particular show or obedience trial only and that the same procedure will be followed each time a Canadian resident's name is proposed.

This policy, however, does not apply to those residents of Canada, who, prior to January 1, 1969, are the AKC's list of approvable judges. The judging status of such persons remains unchanged. They may continue to be approved to judge those breeds or obedience classes for which they then hold AKC approval and may request approval for additional breeds or an additional obedience class by the filing of an application for the Board's consideration in the same manner as judges who are residents of the United States.

Residents of Canada on the AKC's eligible list of judges may, by letters addressed to the Secretary of the American Kennel Club, request that their names be removed from the list of judges; in which case, approval for future judging engagements in the United States will be subject to the provisions of this policy.

SETTERS (ENGLISH)

Lynn Campbell, Strathmore, Alta.—To help equalize the influx of American stock to Canada, we at Glenappin are pleased to announce the export of another English Setter puppy.

In August of this year we sent young Glenappin Hickory Cream to the well-known Hickory Smoke Kennels in Pennsylvania. Owner Joyce Ruess is Canadian, and when she wanted to add English to her famous Gordon Setters, she looked to the north as well as to the U.S. We are delighted that she "bought Canadian" and we wish her luck with the daughter of Ch. Leightons Captain Arnee and our own Fichtentals Cori of Glenappin.

SETTERS (GORDON)

Lynn Campbell, Strathmore, Alta.—Two more Canadian-bred, Canadian champion Gordons have also completed their American championships.

While owner Margaret Bocking of Ontario was in hospital undergoing surgery, Grianan Victoria Balfour and Kilmuree's Seonaid of Grianan were making their mark in New York state under the capable guidance of Sangerfield Kennels.

Victoria finished with one BB and four BOS, then went on to take another BOS on one of her trips as a special dog, while Seanaid completed her title with five BOS and was never less than Reserve Bitch.

To the best of our knowledge, these are the first Canadian-bred bitches to attain both titles and we salute them.

SETTERS (IRISH)

R. E. Allen, 5342 Mericourt Rd., Burlington, Ont.—The Irish Setter Club of Canada Fall field fun match was held last November 19 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, with both Irish and English Setters.

The following were the winners: Puppy—1st, Inishfoil's Aileen of Aroon; 2nd, Inishfoil's Fern of Kilfenora; 3rd, Laska—(English Setter). Derby—1st, Copperock Sean O'Day; 2nd, Adee's Shadow of Danny; 3rd, Skibberean's Kailla. Open—1st, Colleen Gwim of Fairbairn; 2nd, Ch. Fairbairns Eilish of Inishfoil; 3rd, Callahan Carrie. All Setter—1st, Camanjay's Ambra of Maidstone (English); 2nd, Randy (English).

The club held its elections at the November meeting and the following are the 1974 officers: president, Mr. Roy Gill; past-president, Mrs. L. Cole; 1st vice-president—Mrs. J. Tucker; 2nd vice-president—Mrs. W. Shields; secretary, Mrs. J. Burton; treasurer, Mrs. D. Hamilton.

SPANIELS (ENGLISH COCKER)

Lynn Campbell, Strathmore, Alta.—The somewhat sparse population of English Cockers in Alberta was greatly augmented this Fall by the arrival of the imported Loch Adair Silver Smoke. Owned by ten-year-old Lee Campbell, "Chasey" is a blue roan daughter of Am. Ch. Ancram Simon.

WHIPPETS

Mrs. Pat Miller, R. R. 5, Mermaid, P.E.I.—The Whippet Club of Eastern Canada is in the process of being reorganized but we have a full schedule planned for this year. There are a number of racing meets planned for the Maritime provinces and hopefully a number of booster shows and maybe a specialty. Racing is gaining in popularity and people and dogs alike are enjoying it immensely. The meets and fun races are held in various localities throughout the Maritime provinces and usually a picnic or barbeque follows. Mrs. Christine Cormany, of Strathoak fame, claims that our Whippets are much tougher than the racing dogs of California. She was very enthusiastic about the progress both the members and dogs had made with so little professional instruction. The accompanying photograph taken at our booster is quite unique.

A big vote of thanks goes to our most faithful member and organizer Al Magnusson and his lovely wife Dora.

Anybody interested in this most interesting facet of dogdom may contact the writer.

CH. SOV. RING OF FIRE - 15½" mahogany sable (tri fact.)
Ch. Katie-J's the Gay Prince sire - Katie-J's Royal Sovereign
Rorrelore Perdita
Ch. Sov. Fire Chief
dam - Ch. Sov. Bonfire
Ch. Sov. Victorious
"Ring" is siring quality with substance, soundness and intelligence. This dog, who finished his championship in first three shows each time defeating specials, and with a group placement, is siring his desirable qualities for us.

CH.SOV. PUMPKIN OF ASTOLAT 15½" red mahogany (pure for sable) Fair Play of Sea Isle
sire - Ch. Halstor's Peter Pumpkin
Ch. Sea Isle Rhapsody
Int. Ch. Astolat Gold Award C.D. dam - Ch. Astolat Stardust
Ch. Piper's Pride of Astolat
"Peter" is a rich vibrant red in colour and can be depended on for smooth, full muzzle, correctly placed stop and natural ears. He is a great size corrector and although small, has good bone and masculinity.

KISMET'S BORN A SOVEREIGN -14½" tri male of great elegance
Ch. Banchory High Born
sire - Ch. Kismet's Centurion (BIS winner)
Ch. Kismet's Coquette
Ch. Banchory High Born
dam - Ch. Kismet's Slightly Scarlet
Ch. BeeJay's Lady Starlight
A lovely double grandson of the great High Born with the head planes and neck that are his heritage. Lovely eye and natural ears placed high on the head, together with a show off disposition, make "Tex" hard to refuse. Shown only twice as a Jr. Puppy, he won winners and reserve.

SOVEREIGN SPARKS FLYING - 14¼" dark sable (tri fact.)
Sovereign Flame Red
sire - Kamargo Golden Blaze
Kamargo Little Pixie
Ch. Sov. Fire Chief
dam - Ch. Sov. Bonfire
Ch. Sov. Victorious
"Sparky" is another good son of the great Ch. Bonfire. He was shown very little and after winning a few reserves, was retired as he disliked dog shows so much. Lovely dark, correctly shaped eyes, flat skull and natural ears and an excellent moving dog.

"SHELDON" TAKES A LOOK AT 1973

CH (AM/CAN) REVEILLE'S
REFLECTION OF SHELDON

CAN. CH. SHELDON
THIS IS THE GENERAL

CH. REFLECTION, CANADA'S NO. 1 shown only 3 times in the U.S. in 1973 as a Special, each time won B.B. over Specials and never failed to place in the Group. On this side of the Border he, to date, has 19 B.B.'s, two Grp. 1, two Grp. 2, three Grp. 3 and two Grp. 4, five Best Can. Bred in Grp., and a BEST IN SHOW! The Spring Booster and the Spring Specialty of the D.C. & S.S.A. found him in the Breed spot on both occasions. This was all with very limited showing! Now he is making his mark as a Sire!

*CH. THE GENERAL in whirlwind fashion completed his Can. CH. at 9 months of age., and after coating up and maturing he came out to live up to his reputation set as a puppy flyer! At each of his 7 Fall shows he was never defeated in Breed. He was B.B. at the Fall D.C.&S.S.A. Booster and then went on to Group 3 and Best Can. Bred in Group. At the close of the year in Canada, he again won a Grp. 3 and across the Border in Detroit at the Specialty he won his second Sweepstakes and on to the 4 pt. major res. His puppies are outstanding and living up to their expectations. More about them later!

CH. SHARMDALE MAGNOLIA OF SHELDON (L. Hennigar) was another spectacular puppy flyer! At only 7 months of age she delighted all by taking 2 B.B. over Specials (10 pts.), B.W. (3 pts.) and W.F. (2 pts.) making her a CH. undefeated in only 4 ring appearances!! She is now in whelp to the "General."

CH. SHELDON BALLERINA, owned by Y. & B. Sims, danced her way to her title in 5 short weeks with 3 times B.W. and one W.F. She will be bred to CH. Reveille of Sea Isle, after a few ring appearances in 1974!

CH. REVEILLE'S REBECCA OF SHELDON, sired by our own Ch. Reveille, proudly stood alongside her litter brother and accepted the B.O.S. ribbon as well as the W.F. & B.W., to complete her CH. She is also in whelp to the "General."

POINTED WINNERS SIRED BY CH. REFLECTION
HIGH STYLE OF SHELDON, 7 pts, owned by M. & T. Paul, Edmonton, Alberta. QUERIDO OF SCOTTSVALE, 5 pts, owned by K. Graham, Scottsvale Kennels, Ontario. SHARMDALE SOVEREIGN SIR, 2 pts, owned by A. Sleeth, Sovereign Kennels, Ontario. ENELRAM CASEY, 5 pts. owned by M. Pinnell, Enelram Kennels, Ontario. SHELDON PIPSY TIFFANY, owned here at Sheldon, 3 pts.

CH. SHELDON FIRST DREAM, C.D.X., joined the high ranking BEST IN SHOW winners in 1973 and retired from the show ring in September with a tremendous winning record. He is owned and was exhibited by Joy and Ivan Moore, and resides with them at their new Bydand Kennels. Good luck with your new venture in 1974!

SHELLEY OF SHELDON is the Obedience Star! At only 18 months of age so far she has completed her C.D. with such high scores that she qualified for the Dog World Series and then within weeks had her C.D.X. title and now is ready for her U.D. "Shelley" is the mascot of the Guardian Angels Demonstration Team and is proudly owned and trained by Chuck Smith.

BRED, OWNED OR SIRED BY SHELDON STUDS, SHELTIES IN BREED COMPETITION WON A TOTAL OF 76 CHAMPIONSHIP POINTS FOR THEIR OWNERS AND FOR US IN 1973!!! SHELDON IS NOW A LINE THAN CAN BE FOUND IN MANY OF TODAY'S LEADING KENNELS.

AND NOW TO 1974!!!

Growing up and preparing to make the scene our hopes are with new stars at: Badgerton, Ohio; Rorralore, Mass.; Barwood, Illinois; Powers, Long Island; Glenmoor, Mich.; Edlen, Ohio; Bodlyn, Nebraska; Shel-T-Rie, Mich.; Markris, Ohio; Jo-Ro, Alberta; Charleen Acres, Toronto; Sunnycrest, Petersburg; and Sanderry, Bramalea only to name a few. We also have a new star sparkling called "STEVEN". He is a beautiful rich gold, heavily coated and of medium build. Exquisite eye and expression, natural small ears with tight placement and topped off with the same outgoing personality and showmanship as his sire, Canada's No. 1, Ch. Reflection. Watch for "Steven" at the Spring Shows!

SHELDON SABLE STUDS, bred to produce are:
CAN. CH. SHELDON THIS IS THE GENERAL. His puppies will be making the scene in 1974! AM/CAN. CH. G. D. REVEILLE OF SEA ISLE. Sire of 2 Champions and other pointed winners, and AM/CAN. CH. REVEILLE'S REFLECTION OF SHELDON, not yet 3 years old and already the sire of 3 Champions and 4 pointed winners! Due to the wide use of "Reflection", both across Canada and the U.S., he has been x-rayed clear at Guelph and eyes certified normal.

COLLIES/SHELTIES

Ariel Sleeth, well-known breeder, judge, horsewoman and farm owner reports on the cross-country activities of these breeds. Send your news items to her direct. Sovereign Kennels, R.R. 6, Kingston, Ont. How often have you sold a dog of great potential, only to have it never reach that potential or to overcome the liability of an owner not sufficiently dedicated to learn and to work? Breed—is only one portion of the whole; raising, training, conditioning and knowledge all play an important part in the making of a show dog.

This month the kindergarten graduates will begin grade school. In the socialization department, walks on busy streets where he is approached by strangers who walk on by merely sharing the sidewalk with our "winner". This accustoms him to a variety of people, noises, scents and he is not threatened by them. At this time you may also expect and enforce better leash manners but remember still to praise and talk to him.

This is also the time to teach "winner" to gait freely and gracefully on leash and to stand STAY while you feed him tidbits. The emphasis is on stay—do not expect or ask him to show or to stand correctly at this time. The lesson is only stand, stay dependably so that you may feed him from a distance or walk around him without his moving a foot.

Not many of you reading this column would remember Ch. (Can. & Am.) Sovereign Dougie's Choice. This was a show dog supreme; I will be mentioning him from time to time regarding show training as he was the ultimate in the finished product and he gave us every problem imaginable in his show career. He loved the shows and was completely tuned in to your wishes inside that ring. He was whelped in 1948—my first litter to raise and I had had no show experience whatsoever. I mention this because often first dogs are the better trained. We seem to have more enthusiasm or perhaps time but success is difficult to attain, no matter how good the product, if it is not properly presented.

"Dougie's Choice" was first shown at a specialty with an entry of 89 when he was just six months old. He overcame a shy and nervous handler, a chain leash, to win RW. His (and my) second show was Madison Square Garden, back in the days when it really was a show, the greatest prestige show. A first ribbon qualified you. Entries were always well over 100. This young pup took a third place in a puppy class with over 20 entries. We learned about showmanship together and he was the master of showing. His stay lesson was so well learned that when he was standing exactly as you wanted him, not a word was necessary, I could drop the leash and he would not move a foot. I could show him from some distance without blocking the view. It was possible for the judge to come between us to see expression and to examine him. This was the showmanship this young dog took back to the Garden two years later.

We had not showed in the U.S. since his puppy appearance. We were truly still novices although "Dougie's Choice" had finished his Canadian championship. On his second appearance at the Garden he won the heart of all the ringside; remember, we were strangers to these American exhibitors. With his super showmanship he sailed through to BW with the approval of the ringside and fellow exhibitors. When the specials filed into the ring it became a battle between the great Mike Kennedy and his Belhaven dog and the novice from Canada. The air was charged with excitement as the judge went again and again to examine these two dogs. Each time the judge approached "Dougie's Choice" or merely glanced in his direction, the applause was tremendous from the ringside. He did not win the breed that day but he left an indelible impression on all the American exhibitors and breeders that day. This is what it is all about. Win or lose, your dog is selling you and what you are producing. Even without the ribbon you can be a winner if you have the quality and the presentation.

Do not get the impression that dogs are being judged on showmanship alone. A poor dog with super showmanship merely raises his lot some but never to the degree that he is in the winner's circle. A great dog with no showmanship may be overlooked because he does not show the judge what he has. You cannot judge ear placement and carriage that you have not seen. You cannot judge expression and elegance in a dog who is sulking or frightened. Work with your entry for winning presentation. Spend a great deal of time on the stand stay—no crowding or attention to anything or anyone but you. You must have this control of your dog to have a super showman.

This period of training should be done using a show lead and "winner" should be acquainted with gaiting on all sorts of surfaces—concrete, grass, rubber matting and shiny linoleum. Remember, each step must be learned to perfection before going on to the next step.

Grooming at this time should swing into high speed. It should not be merely cosmetic but of a type to induce maximum growth and health of the coat. The best ingredient I know of for growth is water. Remember those great English coats that never attained the same condition when the dogs were imported. The moist, damp English climate was the missing ingredient.

Try to groom daily, brush through and spray with water, work the dampness in with your hands until it is distributed throughout and the coat feels evenly damp not wet. Then brush, brush, brush, all toward the head, until the coat is dry. Follow with a light spray of oil or lanolin and brush it in. This constitutes a good growing treatment. The oils like differ for the colour of dog are working with. We prefer Aubrey's Coatasheen for the coats and Mr. Groom for the ers. The utensils are import For brushing through we prefe pin brush, such as is used for dles. Both St. Aubrey and Hi put out a good one. For brus the coat dry and stimulating skin, the Mason Pearson brus great. Not too easy to come these are English brushes worth the trouble it may be to one. Until you have located you may use a nylon hair brush.

Keep the ears and trimmed but not overtrimm After each trimming, apply tle glycerine and rub it in This will compensate in weigh the hair removed and keep the soft and tipped. Also this cons care and trimming will pre the pre-show trimming that s ten sends the ears flying. Ho ten have you heard an exhib complain that his dog's ears never weighted and were per until the day of the show. happens too often. The comb tion of extra excitement, ear cles used to capacity and the ening of the ear by removal of cess hair, can be just enough make the difference betw pricked and tulip ears on the of the show.

Next month we will go into grooming for the show, enter your puppy and the day of show.

CH. SCHAUFFELEIN'S VINTAGE YEAR, after a most successful season, finished up with some sensational wins under renowned American and Canadian judges.

 In his last 6 shows (some of the biggest of the year) he won:
5 GROUP FIRSTS and 3 BESTS IN SHOW.

Back to back Best in Shows at the exciting "Hundefest", sponsored by the Kitchener-Waterloo K.C.
- Saturday under Hayden Martin, after winning the Breed and Group under Kurt Mueller.
- Sunday, under Harold Hardin, after the Breed under Glen Stephens and the Group under Mr. Hardin.

At Montreal, he won a large "quality" group under Mrs. Eve Whitmore, while his daughter, Schauffelein's Vintage Wine, was Best of Winners (a repeat of Kitchener) to finish.

Brantford (the last show of the season), with a great entry of 900 dogs saw "Goober" win the Breed and Group 1st under Stan Whitmore. His exciting son, Royolyns Magnum, was Best of Winners for 5 points and Best Puppy in Show.

The final thrilling day, he again was 1st in the Group under Mr. Nutbeem after winning the Breed under Mrs. Megan Nutbeem, then on to another great Best in Show, this time under Stan Whitmore, while his son, "Magnum" was Best Puppy in Show under Mr. Nutbeem. A truly remarkable accomplishment for Father and Son – a great finale, truly – a "Vintage Year"!

As this coincided with our findings after two years of having all puppies and grown stock eye checked at Cornell University, I found it most interesting.

"Pedigree depth studies are essential in determining which dogs may be genetic carriers of inherited defects. Such studies must include ancestors and siblings, says a newsletter from the Orthopedic Foundation for Animals. It points out that, for example, an afflicted dog, if the only one in its litter, might be a much better bet for breeding than the only cleared dog in a litter generously afflicted with the inherited problem. Decisions of this sort are difficult to make without pedigree analysis. The OFA newsletter advises breeders to start working back as best they can to find information on ancestors that might or might not have the defect in question. Then, breeders should set up programs whereby puppy buyers will be informed of the problem, the need for study, and encouraged to follow through by reporting their puppy's development.

We found that one of our stud dogs who was clear of retinal detachment and optic nerve coloboma but had "plus" for choroidal hypoplasia, sired many more normal eyes than another of our stud dogs who was clear or normal in all respects. The latter stud was in outcross from a normal eyed sovereign bitch bred to an American champion of unknown "pedigree rating". The stud with the "plus" rating was from two normal eyed parents. It does indeed seem that there is more to it than being affected or not affected. There may also be a question of how strongly affected genetically.

Some very sad news has come this month. Irene Leduc, stalwart member of the Canadian Collie and Shetland Sheepdog Club in Montreal, died of a blood clot after gall bladder surgery. She truly enhanced the reputation for hospitality that club is noted for. She will be sadly missed by her husband and many, many friends.

GERMAN SHEPHERDS

Anne Auclair, Box 17, R.R. 2, Wallenstein, Ont.—The G.S.D.C. of Canada's annual general meeting, held December 30, was exceptionally well attended, perhaps because the results of our election of officers for the next two years were announced. The immense interest in this election was clearly seen in the number of ballots returned. Our new executive is as follows: president, Mr. Allen Wilsen; vice-president, Mr. Gordon Garrett; treasurer, Mrs. Mary Stewart; secretary, Mrs. Anne Auclair; directors, Messrs. Len Stewart and Dick Vergolist.

This was Gordon Garrett's last meeting in the chair and I think he deserves a gold plated gavel for his last term in office alone. Seems that someone is always speaking out of turn and I guess I'll have to admit to being one of the worst offenders. Keeping order presents no easy challenge, never mind all the other tasks that fall in the lap of the president.

Mrs. Joan McCrory, who has been our secretary for some years, must have the "fastest pen in the West" to keep up with all the motions and amendments etc. In fact, a lot of "Shepherdists" give of their time and energy to make this club something to be proud of.

It is almost Spring, isn't it? Where do our thoughts turn this time of year? Are we browsing through seed catalogues? No, we're too busy browsing through the Sportsmen's Show premium list! This year The Central Ontario G.S.D.C. (Branch of the G.S.D.C. of Canada) will hold our booster on the first Sunday and I have the enjoyable task of judging the Shepherds.

Our puppy match this year will be a futurity show. To be eligible, your puppy's litter must have been nominated and must have been born before December 16, 1973. Any and all litter nominations will be accepted until March 1. In other words, any litter under 18 months the day of the show may be nominated before March 1 as the usual 90 day period has been waived for this first futurity. Remember, you as an individual puppy owner may nominate his litter providing you have the breeder's signature on the form. There will be the normal 6-9, 9-12 and 12-18 month classes plus the Maturity and Stud Dog and Brood Bitch classes. Ed Callesen is show chairman and his number is 293-3562.

NEWFOUNDLANDS

Miss Nancy Tarzwell, R.R. 2, Georgetown, Ont.—The Newfoundland Club of Canada recently held a booster show, with Robert Nutbeem as the judge, in conjunction with the Brantford show. I would like to thank the Browns of Carlisle for hosting the get-together after the Saturday show.

Club dues should be sent to Dave Morton, 34 Mohegan Cres., London, Ont. In order to vote in the coming elections in March you must be a paid member of the club. If you would like to hold a position in the club, send your nomination to the election committee or to the president, Arne Berg, R. R. 1, Arva, Ont.

In case you haven't noticed yet, the Newfs are getting more popular in magazines. The first one I noticed was in the popular magazine "Playgirl". The Newf was pictured with a model under the heading of Saggitarius and both seemed quite content with their job. The second was in a commercial in a weekend magazine. Both dogs photographed nicely. You could distinguish the features of the dog and if you have ever tried to get good photographs of a Newf, then you know that it is not an easy job.

PULIK

Mrs. Barbara Dominski, 253 Beech Ave., Toronto, Ont. M4E 3J1.—I wonder if the weight of the coat was taken into account when the Puli and Komondor standards were written. Recently a six-year-old was sheared for the first time in her life, only then because the burrs became impossible to disentangle. Those gorgeous cords weighed in at 5-lbs. The Puli, Bodri of Glentadbar, owned by Paul Szasz, celebrated her new found self by heading for the barn and netting herself three woodchucks in quick order—something she must have learned from her early life with the Scottish Terriers she was raised with.

Mr. and Mrs. Barrie Robb, Box 1302, Olds, Alta.—We would like to inform your readers of the results of the first Alberta Pulik booster held at the Working Dog Association of Alberta show. Judge was Len Carey of southern California. Pulik lovers will be glad to hear that this booster was judged by Canadian standards—no brushed out coats. Included in the entry of ten dogs were three imported white dogs. Ch. Bundas Borzas Bago, owned by Mrs. Lousie Beerman of Calgary, won top honours going BB, BCB in Breed and placing third in group. Our Ch. Katica Bogar CD, took the honours as the best female, going BOS. BP in Breed was won by a white female, Pomacs, owned by Mrs. Rose Horvath of Edmonton. Winners Male was Tisza's Bodri, owned by Miss J. Peter of Red Deer; WF was Rose Horvath's Gypsy Princess.

As the booster this year was one of the first for our breed and because of the relatively large entry, we anticipate having another booster next Fall. Hopefully, the entry will be even larger and will include dogs from outside the province.

We are interested in forming a Pulik club to promote the "precious one". Are you?

SCHNAUZERS (STANDARD)

Mrs. Claudette Gillespie, 22 Stubbswood Sq., Agincourt, Ont.—The Standard Schnauzer Club of Canada's first gathering of 1974, in southern Ontario, marked Glynn Bright's birthday. Members of the club were keen to hear details of Ann and Glynn's trip to England where they had spent a hectic holiday attending both dog and cat shows and the Standard Schnauzer Club of Great Britain's outstanding annual party. They renewed acquaintances with their many friends and studied the Standard Schnauzer born in Great Britain, since their resignation as club officers five years ago to emigrate to Canada and settle in Oakville, Ont. The club is now establishing links with its long established sister club in Great Britain and hopes this exchange will promote visits from overseas.

Southern Ontario has been the scene of activity in sanction matches with the appearance of the greatest number of Canadian bred S. S. ever to appear in these events, focusing attention on the breed. It is hoped that the sportsmanlike spirit displayed by the owners of these promising show prospects will draw more S. S. owners to conformation shows, which in the past was the domain of the professional handler. The good fellowship of these S. S. owners is noteworthy, not only for their performance in the ring but also at the grooming tables, where all types of imported grooming aids are exchanged and in some cases where car pools are formed to reach the out-of-town matches on as few gallons of gas as possible.

Perhaps many will think that the American attendance at the Sportsmen's Show will be down. We tend to think otherwise, expecting them with their prize S. S. along with empty barrels for their return trip.

GRIFFONS (BRUSSELS)

Mrs. Flora Hewitt, Coldstream Rd., R. R. 3, Komoka, Ont. N0L 1R0.—My little male, Am. Ch. Wild Rock's Enchantment, who made his mark in Canada first by going Best Puppy in Show, has stacked up some pretty good wins in the U.S. His record is from the classes, and all his Best of Breed wins have usually been over entered specials, which makes it pretty nice. BB at Greenville, S.C., under Mrs. J. A. Clark; BB at Annapolis, Md., under Mrs. Anna Cowie; BB at Roanoke, Va., under E. W. Tipton; BB at Dayton, Ohio, under Kenneth Miller; BB at Augusta, Ga., under E. W. Tipton; BB at Talbot K.C., Easton, Md., under Joseph Faigel; BB at Annapolis, Md., under Edward Klein; BB at Chargrin Falls, Ohio, under Glenn Fancy; BB at Knoxville, Tenn., under Howard Tyler, and BB at Summit Station, Ohio under Stanley Hanson. He has more stacked up since then. The bitch that I sent down later, Ch. Wild Rock's Penny, is also pretty near her title and quite often has gone BOS to "Enchantment". "Enchantment" should be back in Canada next year to complete his title here. He was sent to Tennessee as a seven-month-old puppy. I feel the above is a pretty nice compliment to Canadian dogs and Griffons in particular.

MALTESE

Mrs. S. J. Aune, 23 Upper Trafalgar Pl., Montreal, Que. H3H 1T2.
That such a tiny breed can be so perplexing in its care, to the newcomer, is to understate the problem. The Maltese is one of the most difficult breeds to keep in all its long-coated white glory for any great length of time.

Long cold winters, prolonged periods of rain, dry summer spells, all these have their affect on the Maltese coat.

Over the months, I hope to share with you some of the things that are done to combat these problems.

But first things first.

There are many clubs, which as well as offering their membership, also offer a valuable monthly publication. The Canadian Maltese Association—Publication, For The Love of Maltese, Secretary, Mrs. Marilyn Brown, 5136 Fairmont St., Vancouver, B.C.

The American Maltese Association—Publication, The Maltese RX, Secretary, Mrs. Eloise B. Craig, Box 69, Normal, Ill., 61761.

The California Maltese Club—Publication, The Reporter. Secretary, Mrs. Grace Ray Hendrickson, 8603 Appian Way, Los Angeles, Calif., 90046.

When writing these secretaries, do request some back issues. They are usually available for a small sum.

Any of the following books will be a wonderful addition to your library.

I Love Maltese, by Marge Stuber, $4.60, payable to her; 769½ W. Wayne St., Lima, Ohio 45801.

The Modern Maltese, by Patricia Howell; Pollyanna Press, 1212 Bellows, West St. Paul, Minn., 55118. $3.75.

The Handbook on Maltese Care, $1.00 members, $1.25 non-members, payable to the American Maltese Association. Available from Mrs. Craig (address above) who has many other publications of interest.

The Maltese Dog, by Virginia Leitch and Dennis Carno; International Institute of Veterinary Science, Dept. DW-9, P.O. Box 422, Bronxville, N.Y., 10708. $14.95. 512 pages of the history of the breed, hundreds of pictures and a world-wide survey of the breed and the breeders. The breed "Bible".

The Canadian Kennel Club Book of Breed Standards and Visualizations of the Standards published by the American Kennel Club, would be worthwhile investments. The standard of the Maltese in Canada differs from the American standard.

CHOWS

Mrs. Kathleen M. Bryant, Fredonia, N.Y.—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Odenkirchen welcomed a number of the Ontario/Quebec Buffalo area Chowists to an organizational meeting for a new Chow Chow club on December 8, 1973, in Burlington, Ont. Those present elected to call the new club "The Maple Leaf Chow Chow Club."

It is hoped that the club will offer an alternative forum to all chowists, breeder, exhibitor and pet owner alike. Officers elected were: Paul Odenkirchen, president; Alex Hersics, vice-president; Mrs. Mary Thompson, secretary-treasurer, 4 Donalda Pl., Bramalea, Ont. L6T 2S4. Directors are: Messrs. Wolfgang Besser, Gregory Brennan and Quentin Finch. Editor of the Newsletter will be Mrs. Hanna Kuester, with assistant-editor

Mrs. Jean Bullevante; keeper of the breed register Mrs. Rosemarie Finch.

Each member will be acting as "liaison" to other Chowists in their particular city, with the designated Area Representatives: Mrs. Rosemarie Finch for Ontario, Donald Drennan for New York, Mrs. Betty Russell for Quebec, Mrs. Monique Bres for the Maritimes, Larry Kereluke for Manitoba and Mrs. Carol McCormack for B.C.

With the minimum of club rules, members hope to foster a cooperative learning atmosphere for all our Chowists. Our Newsletter will keep us all in contact, offering helpful articles, important reprints, stories, show reports, as well as puppy announcements and stud dog availability with evaluations of strengths and flaws. To encourage the development of an 'eye' for quality, planned breeding programs and pedigree breeding stock evaluations, the club plans to offer topical seminars, as well as on feeding, kennel management, etc.

Our "Chow Day '74", tentatively scheduled May 12, will be a gala continuation of our learning experience for novice and breeder alike. The highlight of the occasion will be the non-championship show, all types and qualities competing, none excluded, as for example spayed females. An expert breeder-judge will offer a critique with evaluation of type, keeping alert to spot the "Test P... registrar's FORUM

M. G. KIRKPATRICK

The year 1973 was a busy year for your Registration Division. The final tally for all transactions completed in 1973 reflects a substantial increase over the previous year.

The two major functions, individual and litter registrations, accounted for the greatest portion of those increased transactions. The individual registrations totalled 70,660 for 1973 as compared with 57,300 for 1972. This represents an increase of approximately 23%. Litter registrations finished at 21,192 for last year as opposed to 12,083 for the previous year. The litter registration increase is an astounding 75%!

A similar increase was noted in the number of other transactions carried out.

ANOTHER STATISTIC

In 1973, the Registration Division processed 35,000 rejects. That is one reject for every two individual dogs registered. The appalling thing about this fact is that it costs you money. Almost without exception these rejects involve omissions. How much more could your Registration Division have done if it had not had to deal with that many rejects?

NEW MEMBERSHIP CARDS

Very shortly you will be receiving your 1974 membership cards (if you have not received them already). The new cards are approximately 3½ x 8" with a perforation up the middle and across the top. It is anticipated that you would tear off and discard the inch deep perforation across the top and fold the card in half at the vertical perforation. Your card would then, when folded in half, fit nicely into a wallet picture window. At renewal time next year all you would need to do is tear off the renewal notice side and forward it with the appropriate fees to the Registration Division. The change of address notice may be completed and forwarded to the Division in the event that you move and a new, two part card would be forwarded showing your current address. If you are an "associate member", your third "associate membership card" will be marked to indicate when you become an ordinary member and the amount of renewal due.

KENNEL NAME PREFIXES

While I hate to beat a dead horse, there still remains some confusion about three name choices on individual applications. A registered kennel name prefix does not negate your responsibility to supply three name choices. Even with a registered kennel name prefix, a dog name may not be acceptable for any number of reasons. To prevent having your applications returned, please supply us with three name choices on each and every individual application submitted.

Please direct your questions and/or comments of a general nature to:

The Pharaoh Hound

Ancient dog regarded as a god

BY MRS DEXTER BATES LINN

s a breed that can be traced back o ancient Egypt, the Pharaoh found is the newest and yet the ldest of the known domesticated ogs. His predecessor was the og-like animal called the Canis amiliaris Leineri. The many tatues, carved reliefs and drawngs that have been found in Egypt some dating back to 3,000 B.C.) estify to the antiquity of these ounds.

A circular disc which is thought be part of a game, dated around 000 B.C., shows two of these ounds hunting gazelle. From the omb of Antefa II (around 2,300 .C.), comes a beautiful model of e Pharaoh Hound and it shows ow little, if any, change in the apearance of these dogs has ocurred through the centuries. The ounds are also mentioned in the fe story of King Tutankhamen.

That the dog played an intimate art in the lives of the Egyptians evidenced by the embalmed reains which have been discovered sometimes in the tombs of their asters and quite often in graves f their own. The early people of e Nile Valley regarded the dog s a god and mourned its death.

It is thought that the Phoenians took these hounds with them hen they settled on the islands of alta and Gozo, in the Mediterrean, and that the preservation of ese dogs can be credited to Malta where they are known to have existed, purebred, for over 2,000 years. In Malta, they are bred for rabbit hunting and are known by the Maltese as "Kelb-tal-Fenek", (rabbit dog). The dogs are highly prized by the Maltese, very carefully bred, and the litters are severely culled. Only one or two of a litter will usually be raised.

The general appearance of the Pharaoh Hound gives a striking impression of elegance, power and speed. It is a medium sized hound with large pricked ears, a long, lean head with very little stop, a long neck and a graceful, well balanced body. Its tail is fine and whip-like, curving over the back and waving when alert or moving, and falling gently to the hocks and curving slightly outward in repose. The only colour ranges from tan to the deeper shades of red tan with white allowed only on chest, toes and a snip on the forehead. A white tip to the tail is greatly desired. Eyes are amber in colour, oval in shape, and the nose and lips flesh-coloured. The body is more solid than that of a Greyhound, with less tuckup and a flat topline. Movement is strong and level with good rear drive and excellent reach. These dogs are swift and agile with a keeness for hunting and, unlike other sighthounds, they hunt by scent as well.

Pharaoh Hounds are intelligent, affectionate and full of fun. They are particularly fond of children and even as adults never outgrow their joy of playing. Excellent as house companions, their alertness and love of hunting and coursing make them an ideal "man's dog" as well.

"Birling Zahara"

In the early thirties, the breed was imported into England but disappeared from there until 1963 when a pair was imported by Mrs. Adam Block and Mrs. Liddle-Granger. Until 1968, only eight more had been imported from Malta and Gozo but there are now over 100 Pharaoh Hounds registered with the Kennel Club. In 1972 Cruft's had an entry of 14 hounds who had qualified for this "Show of Shows". (This is a surprisingly large number of entries for such a rare breed.) The Pharaoh Hound Club of England continues to grow with the increasing interest in this wonderful breed.

The breed is gaining a foothold in America where it was completely unknown a few short years ago. In 1967, the first pair was imported from England by Mrs. Ruth Hobbs and she announced the arrival of the first American litter in 1970. It was early in 1970 that my husband and I imported the second pair in North America. We have since imported the very lovely "Eaglespur-Tal-Comino", one of England's top winners and two of her handsome young sons. As of this writing, there are over 70 Pharaoh Hounds registered with the Pharaoh Hound Club of America.

In 1971, Mrs. Mary Hudson, 4515 W. 16th, Vancouver 8, B.C., imported the first Pharaoh Hound into Canada from England, followed in early 1972 by a lovely little bitch.

In late 1972, Mrs. Anne Dearing, 88 East 22nd Ave., Vancouver 10, B.C., arrived from England with the very beautiful "Kilcroney Divels Mija", who shortly thereafter increased the Pharaoh Hounds in Canada by seven.

There are now 11 Pharaoh Hounds in Canada, one recently having arrived in Calgary. Mrs. Hudson and Mrs. Dearing would be happy to receive inquiries from persons interested in this delightful new breed. Brochures and breed standards are also available from Linnoaks Kennels, Rt. 1 Box 524, Winlock, Wa. 98596, USA.

Hopefully, we will be able to preserve the 5,000 years of purebreeding which is the heritage of the Pharaoh Hound and keep this beautiful dog in his ancient form.

(As the Pharaoh Hound is not presently recognized by the CKC it should be pointed out to any prospective purchaser that they are not eligible for registration in Canada.)

By JOAN MORDEN

"I feel very strongly about breeding to upgrade stock, says Director Ed Dixon of Vondixoner Dachshund fame; nobody should breed simply to produce for the pet market."

The results of the 1973 election were not known when I arranged to interview Ed Dixon for this month's Back Talk, but he agreed that his chances of re-election seemed satisfactory. They were a good deal better than that! For the second time, in a rousing vote of confidence from the membership, he topped the Ontario polls. Ed says he was flattered by the response but he will miss working with such faithfuls as Lorna Jackson, Marion Wait, George Kennedy and Mel McArthur.

Ed's victory was well earned. During his first term as director he worked to maintain rapport between the Board and CKC members. He headed the Show and Trials Committee, the special committee which investigated cosmetic surgery and the committee to set up a pension plan for staff employees. In addition, he has been constantly on the go helping local clubs whenever he is needed and fulfilling judging assignments across Canada and in the U.S. By his own estimate, 90 percent of his free time is given over to his dog interests. In fact, if you want a word with Mr. Dixon, the one place you can be sure of finding him is at a dog show.

WON TICKETS TO SHOW

He has been fascinated by the sport since the day he attended his first dog show. Although he does not recall the exact circumstances, he does remember that when he was in public school he won a pair of tickets to a Ladies Kennel Club show in Montreal. Then and there he decided that this was the hobby for him.

It was a while before he could indulge it. But when he moved to Toronto in 1949 he met the Farrells of Nugget Bulldogs and Mr. Frank Lawrence who bred Spruce Valley Beagles. It was they who persuaded Ed to join the Scarborough K.C., a club to which Ed says he owes a great deal for the help and encouragement given him during his early years in dogs. At that time he was interested chiefly in Old English Sheepdogs and English Cockers, a far cry from the Dachshunds with which his name was to become synonymous. In fact, he says, he really didn't care for the Dachshund breeds at all. But a dog-sitting stint he did as a favour for a sick friend changed all that. After looking after his friend's dachsies for six weeks, Ed, who "never knew a breed he didn't like", was completely captivated and bought a Standard Smooth. This was followed in short order by a Miniature Wire-haired. Today he owns all six breeds. Some live with him while others are placed in good homes elsewhere. His stars are Chs. Vondixoner Stardachs Jacob and Johann who are Canada's all-time top winning Standard Smooths with a total of eight Best in Show wins to their credit.

UP THROUGH THE RANKS

After joining the Scarborough club, Ed served his time as ring steward, show secretary, breeder, handler and judge. The show experience he gained plus an innate ability to organize, made him a natural to head up the Shows and

SCRAPBOOK

The dog that hated jackboots

by EVA BREWSTER

People react to maladjusted children with compassion, as a rule, and help with psychiatric counselling, special schooling or more suitable homes wherever possible. However, if you happen to have a delinquent animal, there is usually only one kind of advice—"Have it destroyed." Because I have raised enough problem animals to realize none was born criminal, I was always determined to see them live. If it is often found with human misfits that those responsible for them need counselling or their environment is to blame, it is perhaps not surprising that the same applies to other species. Take Heidi's case. She was the first dog that taught me what man can do to an animal's spirit.

Heidi hated jackboots and when she made a vociferous dash at such boots from under the dark safety of my office desk, she did not, unfortunately, realize she was attacking my boss. Unharmed, but naturally upset, he gave me due notice. "You either quit your job and I'll press charges for assault or you have that vicious dog destroyed." Badly though I needed my job, loyalty to a creature more helpless than I made me face the first choice. In court I defended my pet.

The day I saw her for the first time, cowering at her master's heels, flinching at his aimlessly swinging riding crop, there developed an immediate affinity between us. One of a litter of hunting dogs, a Springer Spaniel, the puppy was relatively pampered by her master in wartime Germany. Yet, watching her owner train German Shepherds for their role in concentration camps, hearing the blood-curdling screams that were supposed to encourage these dogs to tear apart—limb from limb—moving dummies at first and later, live victims, must have done something to the little animal. She developed the life-saving instincts of a Saint Bernard and a compassion for every suffering creature that I have seldom seen in humans and never again in an animal.

The war finally over, her master shed his S.S. uniform, denying fiercely that he had ever been involved in training killer dogs for any reason other than his "love for animals". He now turned his attention to his young spaniels to teach them the art of hunting and retrieving. His methods changed only slightly from those used previously on the shepherd dogs. Instead of human prisoners, he now employed live tethered ducks, hares and deer. Heidi was the only one of her litter that proved untrainable. While she did learn to detect tracks and follow a trail, having spotted the game all the whipping and kicks she received (her master told me) could not persuade her to retrieve it. Instead, she would bite through rope or trap to release the tethered animal, yapping triumphantly when it flew off or vanished into bush and forest. Her owner let me witness her activities to justify what he was going to do and for the last time, kicked her viciously with the spur of his boots. "Get my gun," he shouted to his wife, "a bullet is wasted on her but that is all she is fit for."

I bought Heidi's life for two cans of meat and 200 Canadian cigarettes. That was the beginning of a mutual friendship beyond any value in material terms. That dog had not a mean bone in her body but for a long time to come she remained my timid shadow. She only displayed courage at the sight of jackboots, yet could not differentiate between those of friend or foe. Many a pair of shiny officers' boots had surreptitiously changed owners in the black markets of hungry post-war Germany. Therefore, when she now attacked such boots, the men wearing them were likely to be Allied personnel. How do you teach such sudden changes to a dog?

Since her sympathy was, and always would be, with the "underdog", she was as likely to lick the feet of barefooted Germans as those of their ex-prisoners. The night a burglar climbed into my ground-floor bedroom window, Heidi simply rolled over, whimpering softly. I knew her well enough by then to understand she was not afraid of the burglar suffered the deepest sympathy his stockinged feet. Had he boots, it would have been a different matter.

The magistrate granted reprieve and awarded Heidi my custody. She lived with 14 more years in this cou where nobody wore jackboots never attacked anybody again was she ever frightened of thing from then on. She had pies and with them, raised a phaned baby of other spec even a rabbit that happened in need of a mother. When she too old to have young of her but still produced milk, after ing her last litter, she adopted nursed the kittens of a rare cat who had abandoned them guarded our first baby and numerable sick animals of kind that my husband br home from his veterinary gery.

The Things People Do (In Private, That Is) For Their Pets

Psychiatrist:
We had to have a kitten destroyed after an accident. I was amazed at the effect it had on me. It happened the day I was supposed to address an important medical convention. They were all sitting there waiting for me to be witty and entertaining. And all I could think about was that kitten. I was off my stride for weeks.

Horsebreeder's Wife:
When my husband's favorite stallion got the heaves (a kind of equine asthma) my husband suddenly developed terrible breathing problems too. Neither the veterinarian nor the doctor could figure out what was wrong with either one of them.

We finally destroyed the horse. And my husband's breathing cleared up.

How To Cook A Husband

Some women keep them in a stew by irritating ways and words.
Others roast them.
Some keep them in a pickle all their lives.
It cannot be supposed that any husband will be tender and good managed this way, but they are really delicious when properly treated.
Make a clear, steady fire of love, neatness, and cheerfulness.
Set him as near this as seems to agree with him.
If he sputters and fizzes, do not be anxious: some husbands do this until quite done.
Add a little sugar in the form of what the confectioners call kisses, but no vinegar or pepper on any account.
A little spice improves them, but it must be used with judgement.—From the Golden Retriever Club of Canada newsletter. Submitted by Lillian Lowe.

When you must housebreak a kennel reared dog, tie him at night to a very short (1½-2 ft.) tether. Use a normal leather collar, and not a choke collar. He'll "hold it" until morning rather than soil his sleeping quarters. Most dogs become housebroken in about a week.—From the Golden Retriever Club of Canada newsletter. Submitted by Lillian Lowe.

CAPTAIN MAX von STEPHANITZ

"Father of the German Shepherd Dog"

At the end of the last century
Von Stephanitz' crusade began
To breed the finest working dog
Ever seen by man

He chose a dog he renamed Horand
As the breed's foundation stone
Horand sired a great many dogs
And the breed became well known

Von Stephanitz formed a society
Which is known as the SV
It became his lifelong work
And the largest breed club to be

Although at first ridiculed
Von Stephanitz did not cease
And persuaded the authorities
To employ canine police

In its services to mankind
The German Shepherd was supreme
This was the fulfillment of
The captain's fondest dream

In nineteen-thirty-six
Von Stephanitz passed away
He had made the German Shepherd
A breed that's here to stay!

—Gerry Bourguignon

February

The February born will find
Sincerity and peace of m Freedom from passion and care,
If they the Pearl will wear.

If February give much snow
A fine Summer it doth foresh
Cheer up, the worst is yet to co

Trials Committee. Of the new schedule of point ratings this committee recently adopted, Ed says it is a good start. He would like to see a further tightening and hopes that the schedule will be reviewed yearly.

He also detailed some of the thinking behind the recently published amendments to the Dog Show Rules. When these proposals were drafted the committee worked closely with Mr. Norman Brown, Manager of CKC's Shows and Trials Division, drawing on Mr. Brown's 40 years' experience with the club. Each change is designed to overcome problems that have been experienced in the past. After the closing date for comment from the membership, January 31, the amendments will be reviewed and a final draft presented to the Board for approval at the Annual General Meeting.

The Canadian-bred awards revision is proposed, Ed says, because so many exhibitors have complained that Canadian-bred implies inferiority. Personally, he is in favour of leaving this award to the option of the show giving club. But he does think that the revision to replace Canadian-bred puppy with breed, group and show puppy awards is desirable because these wins would then have more significance.

The amendment concerning judges travelling to a show with an exhibitor he thinks is long overdue. He says the present rule suggests that judges can be influenced. And he sees no justification for such an implication. Ed believes that Canadian exhibitors are honourable, and he speaks from experience. And he also thinks that it is time we stopped selling our Canadian judges short.

REVISIONS

The most talked-about revisions concern the proposed procedure for weighing and measuring of dogs in competition. This came about, Ed says, to put an end to the ridiculous demands for wholesale weighing and measuring that frequently occurs at shows. The committee also thinks that judges should assume more responsibility in determining whether or not a dog comes within stated limits of its breed. And witholding titles until a dog reaches 12 months of age has been proposed because too many puppies in breeds with height or weight limits are rushed to their championships but mature oversize. These, the committee believes, are not worthy breed champions.

The proposal to return entries once a judge reaches the 175 dog limit was incorporated because of the problems that overflow entries create. But Ed thinks there could be a better way to handle this. He suggests that clubs should have enough judges engaged to provide alternates in case of over-limit entries and that the names of the alternates should be published in the premium list.

Aside from the revisions, Ed holds some very strong views on dog affairs generally. He believes that judges should be obliged to retire when they become physically incapable of doing a competent job of judging. And he thinks that our present system of accrediting judges is too slow. That it is holding back some very capable young people.

Of handlers, he says that it is their responsibility to accept only quality dogs, present them expertly and, win or lose, behave politely towards the judges. He has little patience with those who use the championship dog show as a training area. Bringing an untrained, shy dog into a show ring can actually do harm to a breed, Ed thinks.

MORE JUNIOR ACTIVITIES

He also thinks that more activities should be planned for juniors by local clubs. He was very impressed by the work being done on the west coast and hopes that the rest of Canada will follow the example. Juniors become the breeders and exhibitors of the future, he points out, and should be encouraged.

He believes, too, that conditions governing membership in CKC are not strict enough. Too many members join simply to be able to register stock at bargain prices. For this reason, he hopes that the double fee schedule will, in time, be replaced by a single schedule. And he has harsh words to say about mass importers of dogs for sale as well as CKC members that he classifies as mass breeders. In his opinion, nobody should breed simply to have purebred pets for sale. Nor should they breed pets for others to sell and he is against the referral system of selling. He says that if a breeder cannot market his own pet stock, he simply should not breed. We are headed for overpopulation of pet dogs and the only answer to this one is spaying, claims Ed.

These are the messages Ed brings to local clubs on his visits. Trips that are taking him further and further afield as he helps young clubs in remote parts of the province organize for their future dog activities. And when he is asked, as he frequently is, if he doesn't think there are too many dog shows being held in Ontario already? His answer is a [illegible] smile. One gets the impression that it will be a long time before we will catch dog show devotee Ed Dingwall answering "yes" to that one.

AUTRE STATISTIQUE

En 1973, la Division des Enregistrements a émis 35,000 (trente-cinq mille) rejets. C'est-à-dire qu'il y a eu un rejet sur tous les deux chiens enregistrés. La chose épouvantable à ce sujet est que c'est vous qui déboursez. Presque sans exception, ces rejets comportent des omissions. Votre Division des Enregistrements aurait pu émettre combien d'autres certificats d'enregistrement si elle n'avait eu à s'occuper de tant de rejets?

NOUVELLES CARTES DE MEMBRE

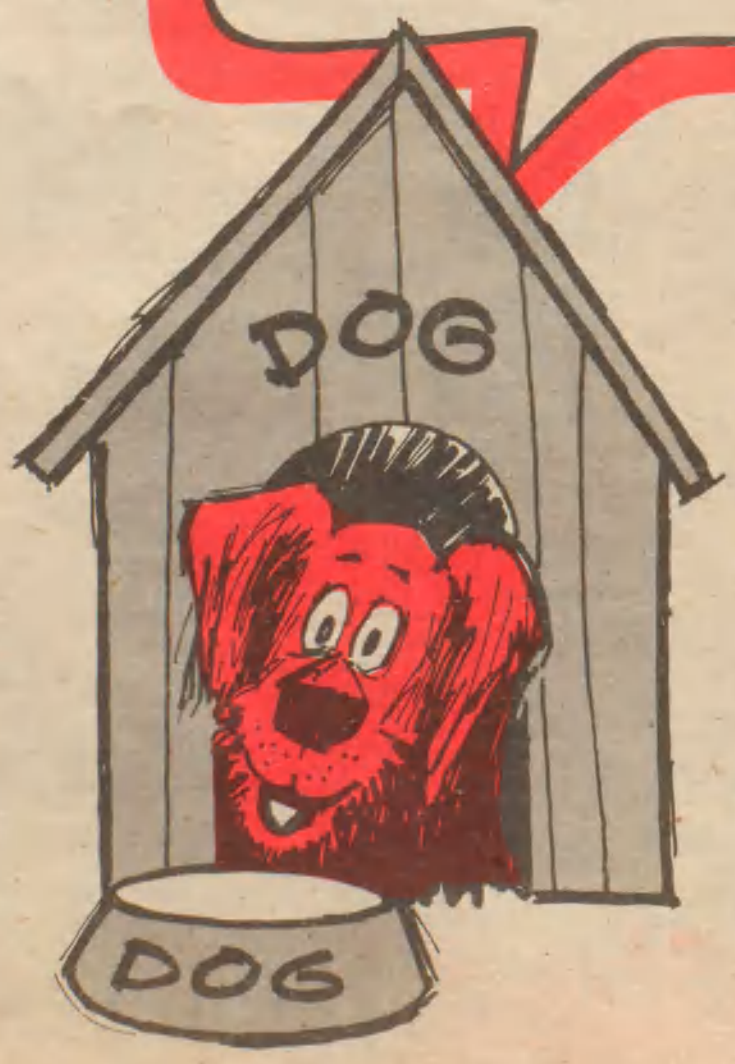

Vous recevrez très prochainement vos cartes de membre pour 1974 (si vous ne les avez déjà reçues). Les nouvelles cartes sont approximativement de 3½" x 8" avec des perforations verticales au centre et horizontales à un pouce du haut. Nous vous suggérons de détacher la partie perforée d'un pouce du haut et de plier la carte en deux aux perforations verticales. Votre carte pourrait alors, une fois pliée en deux, être placée dans un portefeuille avec partition pour photos. Au renouvellement de l'an prochain, vous devrez tout simplement détacher la partie de l'avis de renouvellement et la faire parvenir avec les frais appropriés à la Division des Enregistrements. Un avis de changement d'adresse peut être complété et posté à la Division des Enregistrements pour que l'on puisse faire suivre une nouvelle carte à deux parties démontrant votre nouvelle adresse. Si vous êtes un "membre associé", votre troisième "carte de membre associé" sera marquée afin d'indiquer que vous deviendrez un membre ordinaire et le montant dû pour ce renouvellement.

PREFIXES D'UN NOM DE CHENIL

Même après avoir couvert ce sujet deux fois déjà, il reste encore quelques confusions à propos des trois choix de noms pour les demandes d'enregistrement d'un chien particulier. Le nom d'un chenil employé comme préfixe ne nullifie pas votre responsabilité à soumettre trois choix de noms. Même avec un nom de chenil comme préfixe, un nom de chien peut être inacceptable pour de nombreuses raisons. Afin de prévenir le renvoi de vos demandes d'enregistrement, veuillez soumettre trois choix de noms sur chacune des demandes d'enregistrement soumises.
