CODE OF ETHICS FOR JUDGES

- Judges and applicants must comply with the By-laws, rules and policies established by the Board of Directors of The Canadian Kennel Club and all rules and policies of the event(s) they judge.
- Judges and applicants must be known for their honesty, integrity, impartiality, and knowledge of the sport and of the breeds they judge or apply to judge.
- Judges are highly regarded within the fancy. When accepting assignments, whether domestic or foreign, judges act as ambassadors of The Canadian Kennel Club, its judges, and the fancy. Their comportment must reflect their respected position and their actions must be beyond reproach.
- Judges must recognize that education is an integral part of judging and must undertake a self-directed program of continued education.
- Judges must remain current of all pertinent rules, policies and standards relative to the event(s) and breeds they judge.
- Judges must impartially evaluate each dog they judge and award each animal the appropriate placing relative to the event's standard and the competition in the class, regardless of the dog's record, advertisement, friendship, or any other considerations.
- Judges must treat all exhibitors with courtesy, respect, dignity, and impartiality.
- Judges should be aware that, even when not actually engaged in judging, their comportment must reflect their position within the sport of dogs.

Mentor (Mentor: an experienced and trusted adviser)
An applicant must be mentored by a Canadian Kennel Club judge who is licensed for all breeds. The applicant's name and breeds applied for will be published for comment. Judges cannot mentor more than 2 initial applicants each calendar year.
